Commissioners grant request for pagers

by Janet Felderhoff
Area volunteer firefighters will soon have much better communication within individual departments and among county departments thanks to a decision made by Cooke County Commissioners. At their regular meeting held Monday, Sept. 11, commissioners voted 4-1 to provide 105 pagers for use by volunteer firemen in the county.

Richard Brown, commissioner for Precinct 2, was the dissenting vote. He was not convinced that the system would work as expected. Also he felt that individual departments could do more sharing of pagers and thus require fewer of them.

Cost of the voice message pagers and two transmitters is about $32,000.

Jason Boone of the Valley View Volunteer Fire Department spoke on behalf of the Cooke County Fire Fighters Association. He asked that all nine volunteer fire departments in the county be granted the number of pagers requested by each. They had kept their requests to a minimum, he said.

"Out of nine departments we only have three departments where we can call one number and get those departments," Boone explained. "For the rest of the departments we have to call each fireman individually. Part of the time these firemen are not home part of the day, although some are working in the area and could respond. We believe that the pager system will help alleviate some of that."

Brown, noted that someone working in Denton or Dallas would not benefit from a pager. He suggested that a method of trading off pagers be used.

Boone countered that this had been considered but conflicting schedules would make it unfeasible for most.

"If I'm home in the evening and out watering my yard, I'm out of luck," remarked Boone. "If I'm home on the weekend and out mowing the lawn, I'm out of luck. If I'm driving into town, I'm out of luck." He added that most of us spend little time sitting at home by the phone, but that most of those hours are spent in the area.

Brown remarked that if they were talking about $10 a pager it would be one thing, but they were talking about $300. Joe Rider, fire very dedicated as far as fire and medical protection for this county so I'd like you to take that into consideration."

Tom Watson, Emergency Management Coordinator for Cooke County noted that there have been several hazard analyses done in Cooke County that affect every community in the county. "On average we have 1,031 tons of hazardous chemicals come down through Cooke County from south of Red River -- that's in a 24

"On average, we have 1,031 tons of hazardous chemicals come down through Cooke County from south of the Red River - that's in a 24-hour period. ... It's important to have good communication with the local volunteers out there so that they can warn their community."

Tom Watson, Cooke County Emergency Management Coordinator, speaking in favor of pagers for Cooke County volunteer fire fighters.

chief of the Lake Kiowa Fire Department responded, "All of the departments in the county are working as one unit now and we need to have better communications, better notification. Three hundred dollars on a pager -- you're trying to put a price on someone's life and to me you can't do that."

Troy Moon of the Valley View Fire Department brought up the fact that two or three of the departments have agreed to be on stand-by any time an EMS ambulance is out of the county. "When we're on standby we're committed to have a truck ready to roll as far as extrication equipment and that ties us down right there," said Moon. "We might be ready to go out to eat or something, but when that happens we're committed to change our way of doing things to provide a service to the County EMS. There are a lot of people out there who are hour period," Watson remarked. "We average over 300 trucks carrying anything from poison to explosives that come through here on I-35 and Hwy. 82. We have 289 miles running with pipeline and each tenth of a mile of pipeline is equal to one 18-wheeler loaded with hazardous materials. In the past we've been subjected to tornadoes and floods. In order for the fire fighters to respond, they have to be communicated with. It's important to have good communication with the local volunteers out there so that they can warn their community."

"I feel that if we've got 105 or possibly a 150 people who are willing to give their personal time for no money that they need these pagers," said Precinct 1 Commissioner Murrell Harrison.

The Cooke County Firefighters Association agreed to pay for maintenance on the pager chargers and purchase any additional pagers needed in the future.

$7,168,474.97 county budget earns stamp of approval

by Janet Felderhoff
Months of careful deliberation were concluded Monday, Sept. 11 when Cooke County Commissioners Court unanimously approved a $7,168,474.97 county budget for fiscal year 1995-96. This was a 2.11 percent increase over last year's budget of $7,020,056.50.

A total tax rate was set at .445 per $100 of property valuation was approved. This is broken down into the following categories: general fund -- $0.29 per $100 valuation; road and bridge fund -- $0.12; permanent improvement -- $0.0176; interest and sinking -- $0.0149; and lateral road fund -- $0.0025. Expenditures over the revenue will be taken from the reserve funds.

Commissioners were united in their decision to revise markings for designated parking on the west side of the courthouse. This was done at the suggestion of the Courthouse Security Committee. Its purpose is to provide safety for those county officials and employees who use them. The reserved parking slots will now be numbered.

At this time there are six dispatchers and one supervisor working for the Cooke County Sheriff's Department. Usually there is only one dispatcher working each shift. Cooke County Judge Paul Hesse said that, "911 calls and radio traffic have increased at times to a level where one dispatcher cannot handle the volume."

Sheriff Nichols attributed part of the increase in 911 calls to the numerous cellular phones being used to report drunk and reckless drivers. The increase in violence in society today was also cited.

It was decided that since the jail population is currently down and two of the jailers are qualified to dispatch, they should be used as dispatchers instead of jailers until the jail population increases. Jerry Lewis, Commissioner Precinct 3, said he felt that this would be better than laying off the employees and hiring others.

Ethel Journagan of Cooke County Child Protective Services submitted the names of two potential new members for the Cooke County Child Protective Services Board. Rosina Schmidtkofer and Kelly Harrison were both unanimously approved by Commissioners Court for the positions.

chores. Many times the project becomes a family outing.

One little boy followed his sisters around for years showing their animals. He held the water hose to water and wash animals, assisted in cleaning pens, and sometimes helped to work animals when his sisters couldn't due to illness. This little boy learned to become confident showing animals. Working with animals enabled him to gain the confidence needed to get good grades so he could do the thing he loves best - raise and show animals. Today he has received many ribbons and trophies for his efforts. This is one of many successful stories as a result of having a project.

Not only will the name change but so will the format. The animal show will continue but a project fair of 4-H and FFA projects from high school shop programs will be added for show and sale. This will allow many more youth to participate.

Youth who participate in the show learn to purchase animals, care for them, train them, show them. Then the hard part comes - sale of their project. Exhibitors must work with their animals each day while participating in church and school activities and do

Many exhibitors use their monies to go to college later in their lives. The Livestock Show thanks the United Way for their support of the youth who are our future of tomorrow.

Banking coalition hails passage of legislation allowing Texas to opt-out of interstate banking

A coalition of groups opposed to interstate bank branching hailed passage recently by the Texas Senate of legislation allowing the state to "opt-out" of the recently-enacted federal law. The vote was 30-0.

"This unanimous vote by the Senate reflects recognition of the importance of this issue to the economy of Texas," said Chris Williston, president of the Independent Bankers Association of Texas and a leading force in the "Texans for the Preservation of Hometown Banking." "All members of the coalition are grateful for this action."

The House of Representatives had earlier passed similar legislation by an unprecedented 142-0 margin.

Under provisions of the bill, out-of-state banks will continue to be subject to Texas banking laws, including requirements that they maintain local boards of directors.

While the Senate bill included an amendment providing for its sunset (or termination) in 1999, floor dialogue between the sponsor, Senator Jim Turner, (D-Crockett) and Senator Bill Radtiff (R-Mt. Pleasant) confirmed legislative intent that Texas is to remain "opted-out" of the federal system unless and until further affirmative action is taken by the Legislature to "opt in."

The coalition included such broad-based organizations as Associated Milk Producers of Texas, Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas, Texas Apartment Association, Texas Association of Builders, Texas Association of Nurserymen, Texas Cotton Ginners Association and Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

Odilia Lutkenhaus feted on 80th

A surprise birthday celebration as held on Saturday, Sept. 9 for Mrs. Odilia Frances Lutkenhaus, age 80, of Muenster. The party was given by Arthur and Rachel Hennigan of Muenster and Robert and Linda Coursey of Gainesville, daughters and sons-in-law. An early dinner was served at 3 p.m. at The Center Restaurant Muenster to 40 guests and the honoree. A floral corsage was presented to Odilia as she walked with a friend, Jane Stroud of Saint Jo, to introduce the surprise. Visiting followed the meal at the Arthur Hennigan home in Muenster. A large birthday cake, decorated with pastel flowers and "Happy Birthday, Mother" lettering, was the centerpiece on a table covered with white lace over pink. The pastel colors theme was carried throughout the table setting. A birthday banner was in view. Hostesses in the home were daughters Rachel Hennigan and Linda Coursey and granddaughter Donna Hennigan of Arlington. Donna also designed the party room decorations. Born on Sept. 9, 1915, Odilia was a daughter of Frank and Catherine Seyler, pioneer settlers of the Muenster area. On Sept. 17, 1938 Odilia married Alexander Lutkenhaus of Muenster in St. Patrick's Cathedral in Ft. Worth. The couple owned the Alex Tire Shop in Gainesville until 1950 when they bought the Bailey farm, 2 1/2 miles southeast of Saint Jo. There the family, which eventually included three children, engaged in ranching and farming. Alex Lutkenhaus was a noted area artist painting with oils, and an expert in lapidary rock work.

He was known for the elegance and beauty of some of his polished stones. Odilia encouraged him in all his talents. He died on Dec. 2, 1972. Odilia Lutkenhaus, at age 80 is still fairly active. She likes to make homemade sourdough bread; and delights in walks in the country. She is a member of Sacred Heart Church in Muenster and the Catholic Daughters of America. Special guests at the dinner and party were the honoree's children Rachel Hennigan of Muenster, Linda Coursey of Gainesville and James Lutkenhaus of Bedford and their families; and her sisters Marie Mosman of Muenster and Rachel Hope of Houston. Guests and family enjoyed reminiscing and celebrating with Odilia.

New meeting date; speaker for Chronic Illnesses Group

The Chronic Illnesses Support group has scheduled a meeting for 7 p.m. Monday, September 18, in the cardiac rehabilitation center at Gainesville Memorial Hospital. This is a new meeting date for the group, as they have moved their monthly meeting from the fourth Monday of each month to the third Monday of each month. Speaker for the session will be Danny Reeves, R.Ph., director of pharmacy services at Gainesville Memorial Hospital. Mr. Reeves will speak on "Common Drugs Used in Chronic Illnesses," and answer questions regarding various products, possible interactions and proper usage for maximum effectiveness. The Chronic Illnesses Support group is an informal support group, and is for persons diagnosed with chronic illnesses, such as any form of arthritis, systemic, neuromuscular, FMS and CFS, and other related diseases. This group is not intended to overlap or extend any other existing support group. It is intended for persons with chronic, rather than terminal, illnesses.

The purpose of the group is to share experiences, treatments, common factors, coping mechanisms and emotional resilience, fears and questions. It is hoped that being involved and helping others can help shift the focus from personal crisis. New members are always welcome. The group will now meet at 7 p.m. the third Monday of each month at Gainesville Memorial Hospital. For more information you may call Betty Long, 817-665-7872, or Bee Harris, 817-665-8855.

Fairs
The state fair of Texas in Dallas is the largest fair in the United States. Following far behind are the State Fair of Oklahoma, New Mexico State Fair and the Minnesota State Fair. The Houston Livestock Show places fifth.

From My Side of the Fence

On or about the 21st day of July, '95, we completed our 4th visit to Glacier National Park. That is, the 4th for Aileen and me. This time we were accompanied by Jim, our son, and Julie Wyatt, a granddaughter. They had never before had the pleasure of making the beautiful drive through this grandest of our National Parks. Looking about at the wild beauty of the valleys and mountains, the high cliffs, and the many small water falls cascading down the abrupt walls and then flowing erratically down the slopes to eventually find their way into the river far down in the valley below, is a wondrous sight. Many of the small streams, created by melting snow as well as glacier water from some of the 60 glaciers in the park, forms the St. Mary River that flows eastward from Logan's Pass on the Continental Divide. The St. Mary eventually reaches and joins the Mississippi. All of the streams on the western side of the Divide find their way to the North Fork of the Flathead River and on to the Pacific.

Of the more than 250 lakes in the park the most easily seen by visitors is the St. Mary, a ten mile long body of water that overflows into the St. Mary River, and Lake McDonald, the largest, at eleven miles long and an average width of one and a half miles. We entered the park at its east gate near St. Mary, Montana, and exited at West Glacier, where the west gate is located. As far as I can learn, there is only one road through Glacier, and much of it is spectacular. A stretch of it from Garden Wall to Logan's Pass, called Road to the Sun, is a narrow two-lane paved road that is an engineering marvel. It is built high up on the side of an almost perpendicular wall of rock. Some of the turns are so sharp that trailers, other than short ones, are banned. Anyone glancing over the side will surely drive extremely carefully, and maybe glance up occasionally, to ask for a safe trip. Glacier National is just one of many grand places to see and enjoy in these United States.

Baptisms

Reiter
Alexander Michael Reiter, son of Cindy Reiter, was baptized by Rev. Frowin Schoech OSB on Saturday, August 19, 1995 in Sacred Heart Church. This day was special because it was one month from his birth on July 19, 1995, at 4:10 a.m. at the Denton Regional Medical Center. Alex wore his mother's baptismal gown which was sewn by Grandma Jeanette Reiter. Alex's godparents are Uncle Steven Reiter and Aunt Leigh Ann Reiter. Others present at the blessed event were Greg Roller, Grandpa Johnny and Grandma Jeanette Reiter, Great-grandmothers Marie Reiter and Augusta Walterscheid, Great-aunt Margie Sicking, Grady and Linda Roller, Chad Roller, John Roller, and Cody Sicking. A dinner and cake were served after the ceremony.

Killian
Allie Margaret, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Killian of The Colony was baptized Sunday, Sept. 3, 1995 at 3 p.m. in Holy Cross Church. Father Jim O'Toole administered the Sacrament. Attending as Godparents were the baby's uncle and aunt, Todd Fisher and Janie Fisher. Afterwards, a reception for the honoree took place at the home of Gail and Scott Killian. A buffet and cake and punch were served. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Butch Fisher; Great-grandma Margaret Fisher; Todd Fisher; Steven Fisher; Janie Fisher; Stanley, Tonya, Kaileigh, Tyler and Mandy Hess and Allie's big brother Austin Killian. Allie Margaret is Margaret Fisher's 30th great-grandchild.

Colby Richey honored on 6th
Colby Richey, son of Todd Richey and Brenda Richey was the honoree at his sixth birthday party held at Chuck E. Cheese in Lewisville. Pizza was served, followed by an ice cream birthday cake. A large group of uncles, aunts and cousins attended, including Great-grandmother Eula Grace Cain, who promised him a belated chicken and dumpling dinner.

Attention! Horse lovers

The Emerald Riders 4-H Horse Club will hold its first meeting of this new school year at the home of Sarah Hess, 521 North Oak Street in Muenster. Please come this weekend, Saturday, September 16, 1995, at 6:00 p.m., and bring any other interested friends who want to join! This meeting is very important, because we will make our plans for the entire year. Therefore, it is so important that parents attend and help with this planning. Because our group is county-wide and involves horses, parents are, by the very nature of such a group, the key to whether we have a successful year or not. Horses are a family affair! After the meeting (with election of officers) we will enjoy a hot dog cook-out. The Hess's will provide the hot dogs and Kool-Aid, and they ask that everyone bring one thing to share (pot-luck). This could be your favorite salad or dessert or whatever! To get to Sarah's house, from Highway 82 in Muenster (also called Division Street, turn north onto Oak at the Phillips 66 gas station. Go five blocks; house is on the corner of Fifth and Oak, and is a house with white siding and a red roof. In case of rainy weather we will move the meeting and cook-out to ONE BLOCK NORTH, to the covered picnic area on the Sacred Heart Church/School grounds. If you have any questions, call Janette Hess at 817-759-4581 or Nancy Endres at 817-665-0252.

Scholarship memorializes local journalist, Betty Stephenson, through NCTC

Few local newspaper readers of the past couple of decades would fail to recognize the name of the late Betty Stephenson. A longtime reporter for the Gainesville Daily Register, as well as a freelance writer and publisher of her own magazine, she has been memorialized with a new scholarship recently awarded at North Central Texas College.

The North Central Chapter of the Texas Professional Communicators (TPC) presented its first Betty Stephenson Memorial Scholarship to Lisa Johnson, a Decatur student beginning her second year at a special education major at NCTC.

Janet McDaniel, president of the North Central Chapter of TPC (formerly Texas Press Women) represented the organization and was on hand to formally present the $500 award to Ms. Johnson.

"Betty joined our organization close to 20 years ago and remained very active up until she passed away in March of 1993," said McDaniel, a freelance writer and graphic designer. "She was not only a true professional who exemplified the highest standards of her profession but also a good friend. We miss her."

"We are therefore delighted to provide this scholarship at North Central Texas College to honor Betty's memory."

McDaniel said members had raised the money for the scholarship fund by having quilt raffles, luncheons and book sales. It was stipulated that recipients be students preparing to enter some phase of the communications field, specifically mass communications, library science or education.

Active in local civic affairs, Chamber of Commerce work and other activities, Betty Stephenson covered all kinds of news. Her special strength as a journalist, however, was demonstrated in her seemingly endless supply of human interest and feature stories. In addition to her long service as feature editor at the Gainesville Daily Register, she later served in that same position for the no longer published Cooke County Leader.

Betty also gained a legion of loyal readers through her magazine "All Around Gainesville," for which she served not only as publisher but also as editor, feature writer and ad salesperson from 1981 to 1986.

Her "partner" in that enterprise was also her partner for life - husband Louis Stephenson. He was also on hand for the scholarship presentation.

"I know Betty would be very honored and pleased by this," he said. "I'm very grateful to this organization, which was so important to her, for remembering Betty in this special way. I'm very hopeful that we can continue adding to this scholarship fund and help other deserving students in the years to come."

Texas Heritage Crafts Festival kicks off fall season

Sixth Annual Festival Begins Sept. 16

Talented artisans creating one-of-a-kind treasures will be featured during the Sixth Annual Texas Heritage Crafts Festival at Six Flags Over Texas beginning Saturday, September 16. The event continues Saturdays and Sundays only through Oct. 1.

In an atmosphere reminiscent of a small southern town, Six Flags Over Texas is transformed into a Fall wonderland with 200 craftsfolk displaying and demonstrating their wares. The event is free with park admission.

One of the largest outdoor crafts festivals, it features hand-crafted creations such as woodcarvings, ceramics, sand art, stone carvers, children's furniture, pottery, gemstone jewelry, horn art, silversmiths and much more.

Music fills the air as musicians from all over Texas play Bluegrass and traditional folk music at locations throughout the park. Guests can watch artisans craft such unique delights as willow flutes and furniture, Christmas ornaments and other holiday crafts.

The Texas Heritage Crafts Festival kicks off the park's Fall schedule of weekend-only operation. The park is open from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. on Saturdays and 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. on Sundays.

In addition to the festival events, all the park's thrilling rides, like the Texas Giant, the world's #1-rated wooden roller coaster, will be open. LaSalle's River Rapids will be the only ride not in full-time operation during the festival.

HEALTH NOTES

Preserve amputated limbs properly for reattachment
Fingers, toes and limbs amputated in an accident can be saved for possible reattachment. But they must be properly preserved.

"What you should do is wrap the limb or part in wet gauze, then put it in a tightly-sealed plastic bag and put the bag in ice," says Dr. Rod J. Rohrich, chairman of plastic surgery at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. "Like CPR, this is something everyone should learn."

Taking the right steps to preserve the part gives surgeons an extra six to eight hours to work on attachment.

"It is crucial that you treat the affected part properly immediately after an accident because every minute counts," Rohrich says. "If the part is packed directly in ice it will get frostbite, and the tissue will be killed. If the weather is really hot, decomposition begins quickly. There's nothing we can do to help reattach it if that happens."

Elementary students seek arthropods

Look out for night time arthropod collectors in Muenster Elementary! During their study of arthropods and their unique characteristics, fifth graders in Leigh Hale's and Marjorie Alsop's class made kill jars and butterfly nets to collect, identify, and display an impressive number of unusual arthropods. They learned about the traits and the anatomy of insects and vertebrates, and invertebrates, (including sponges, stinging celled animals, worms, mollusks, echinoderms, and arthropods).

Fifth graders are planning an Arthropod Extravaganza to share with the other elementary students. In addition, the fifth grade scientists are studying, caring for and making observations of the class worm farm.

It's been a Dynamite Week for Dynamite Kindergarten Students. During their study of "D", kindergarten students in Sharon Ledbetter's and Tammy Tischler's class, studied the concept of different, decorated the letter "D" with dots, learned the song "My Dog Dingo", pretended to be ducks and dogs, and delightfully downed doughnuts during their break. They concluded their study of "D" when William Vogel's parents brought baby ducks to class for a visit.

Kindergarten students in Rosemary Dankesreiter's reading readiness and phonics class enjoyed recalling details from nursery rhymes, associating visual material with nursery rhymes they learned, identifying initial "S" sound in words, and selecting pictures of objects that begin with the letter "S".

Mrs. Scott's third graders used apples to learn about probability, predictions, mass volume, weight, and evaporation this week. Mrs. Scott divided a bag of apples among five groups of students. Each group of students calibrated and recorded the mass of their group of apples, then divided their apples into three groups. Apples in Group A were left unpeeled, apples in Group B were peeled, and apples in Group C were chopped. Students in each group predicted which apples would have the most water loss. They weighed the apples daily and recorded their findings on bar graphs and line graphs. They were surprised to find that some of the chopped apples gained weight on the fifth day of their study. The mystery was solved when they noted that mold was growing on some of the chopped apples.

First grade Fishy Footprints are swimming down the hall of the elementary building. Students painted a sea scene and then used their traced footprints to make Fishy Footprints.

First grade pictographs of weather and getting to school, showed that first graders walk, ride a bus, or ride a car to school.

Second grade teachers Melinda Fuhrmann and Lisa Hettler helped their students learn to recognize repeated patterns using pattern blocks. Second graders increased their understanding of themselves by making construction paper silhouettes of themselves and writing cinquain poems about themselves.

Fourth graders in Mrs. Schneider's class enjoyed studying three versions of Sarah, Plain and Tall, the book, the play, and the movie. They are looking forward to next week's book, The Green Song, by Doris Troutman Plenn.

JOHN D. HUDSPETH

Hudspeth is TAMU grad

John David Hudspeth, son of Daniel and Paulette Hudspeth of Dallas and grandson of Clara Walterscheid of Muenster and Frances Hudspeth of Gainesville, received a degree in Civil Engineering from Texas A&M University at the close of the summer session. He is employed as an engineer at the Texas Department of Transportation.

Hornets win opener

Mistakes kept the Muenster Hornets from stinging the Nocona Indians too badly last Friday night, as seven fumbles and 19 flags frustrated both teams. "Even though the Hornets were penalized ten times and had four touchdowns called back," Coach Ted Heers commented, "the offensive line still looked sharp." The line, led by Darrell Charles and Jason Sicking, opened the way for the Hornets to gain 346 total yards.

Eric Miller led Muenster to a 26-7 season opening victory at Nocona, with 158 yards rushing in 17 carries. Helping Miller was Cody Sicking with 128 yards in 22 attempts, including two touchdowns and two runs for extra points. Other scores were a 66 yard quarterback sneak by Miller and a 29 yard Miller to Chad Roller catch.

The defensive line of Michael Boydston, Darrell Charles, Matt Chisam and Jeff Flusche held Nocona to 129 yards rushing. James Klement, John Tuggle and Jake Luke were active from their linebacker spots. The Hornets secondary of Miller, Roller, Sicking, Steven Reiter, Scott Hermes and Brian Fleitman shot down the Indians passing attack allowing only 66 yards in the air.

"Overall I'm very pleased with the game," stated coach Randy Tankersley. "The areas we need to improve in are avoiding penalties and turnovers."

Muenster took the opening kick to their 24 yard line. After two good runs by Cody Sicking, a fumbled ball gave Nocona possession at mid-field. The Indians moved the ball inside the 10 before stalling out. A 32 yard attempted field goal fell short and the Hornets regained the ball. But only for a huddle. On the first play Muenster again dropped the ball and Nocona was sitting on the 20 yard line. Six plays later the Indians were on the score board with a 7-0 lead.

The Hornets took the kick on their 34 yard line. The first play from scrimmage saw the Hornets line open a big hole for quarterback Miller, who took off on a 66 yard touchdown run. Nocona blocked the extra point attempt and the score closed to 7-6 with 2:25 remaining in the 1st quarter.

It was 3 plays and punt for Nocona as the Hornets carried the ball into the 2nd quarter. After several runs, Chad Roller was open in the end zone to connect a pass play from Miller for another 6 points. Cody Sicking ran in the 2 extra points and the Hornets took a 14-7 lead with 10:31 on the clock.

Nocona's next offensive attempt bluntly ended when James Klement covered a loose ball near mid-field.

Two holding calls slowed the Hornets next drive, ending on a 4th down. Nocona took over on their 25 yard line. A holding flag called back a 43 yard run and forced an Indian punt. It was 4th down and punt for both teams with the Hornets taking control on Nocona's 45. Runs by Miller and Sicking took the ball to the 20. Another holding call nixed a touchdown with 19 seconds on the clock. Any threat to score ended when Nocona intercepted a pass as halftime stopped the action.

Nocona's offense took the field to begin the 3rd quarter. Two plays later, Eric Miller covered the ball on the Indians 25 yard line. Five consecutive runs by Sicking took the ball to the eight yard line, where Miller carried the line to the one. On 4th and goal, Cody Sicking carried the ball in for the touchdown. The extra point kick was blocked and Muenster extended their lead to 20-7 with 6:16 on the clock.

The Indians struggled against the Hornet defense with a 23 yard pass play highlighting the drive, that ended on Muenster's 31 yard line.

Three short runs forced a Muenster punt to begin the final period. The Indians continued their air attack, but were shot down when Chad Roller picked off the ball and returned it 86 yards. The interception was good, but the run was called back, giving the Hornets possession on their own 15 yard line.

Sicking, Klement and Roller took turns running, but again holding penalties hurt the Hornets, including a 67 yard touchdown run by Miller. Muenster was forced to punt the ball away on 4th and one.

Nocona's offense once more couldn't move, punting on 4th and 17. The Hornets got in six plays, including a 14 yard Sicking run, before booting the ball back to their host. Muenster got the pigskin right back when Matt Chisam covered a loose ball on the Indians' 27 yard line. This set up Muenster's final score. Two runs by Miller put the Hornets in a 1st and goal on the one yard line. Cody Sicking carried it in from there for the score. The extra point run failed for a 26-7 score with 1:24 remaining in the game.

Nocona's passing offense couldn't move the ball as the game ended.

Tigers roar to big win

Scott Frost had a big night in Savoy last Friday as he led the Tigers to a 42-8 victory with 175 yards and four touchdowns. "Scott had a tremendous night," stated Coach John Nasche. "He looked strong and ran the ball real well."

Frost was also awarded Area Player of the Week by Brown Motor Company and KXGM Radio.

Scott Frost took the opening kick and returned the ball 87 yards for an opening touchdown. Michael Becker's extra kick cleared the uprights and the Tigers began with a 7-0 lead.

The Cardinals picked up two first downs and 26 yards in 8 plays before booting the ball away on 4th and 10.

Beginning at their 31 yard line, Frost and Joseph McCoy took the ball to the 50. The 3rd play from scrimmage saw Frost break free and once again find the end zone. Becker kicked the PAT and Sacred Heart had a 14-0 lead with 6:53 left on the clock.

Savoy took the kick to their 32 yard line, then fumbled the ball the next play. Jake McCoy covered for the Tigers. Six plays later, Sacred Heart turned the ball over on downs, but got it back on Savoy's first attempt when Brandon Bayer covered a fumble on the Cardinal 28 yard line. The next play, a loose Tiger ball was covered by Savoy, then 3 plays later, Scott Frost picked off a Cardinal pass returning the ball to the Tigers on the Savoy 32.

Frost ran for 25, then a flag moved the line back 5. From the 12, Frost circled around the left end for another touchdown. Becker added the extra point and the Tigers took a 21-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Sacred Heart began the second period with a Brandon Bayer quarterback sack, then the 2nd play, Frost covered a loose ball on the Savoy 19 yard line. Unable to get the needed yardage, the Tigers attempted a field goal, but failed. The Cardinals took over for 3 plays and punted.

From their own 42, McCoy gained 12 yards into the Card's end of the field, before Frost broke tackles on a 41 yard touchdown run that was called back on a holding call. From the 30, Joseph McCoy ran for 11 yards, with John Klement, Frost, and Matthew Fuhrmann taking the ball to the 9.

On second down, Frost circled around the left end and again found pay dirt. Becker again kicked the point after for a 28-0 Tiger lead going into the locker room at half-time.

Savoy took the 3rd quarter kick and went nowhere. The Tigers took 8 plays and 2 penalties to get to the 10 yard line where Matthew Fuhrmann's pitch to Joseph McCoy was good for another 6 points. Becker's 5th extra kick was good for a 35-0 score with 7:40 on the clock.

An interference call gave Savoy a first down, but the Tigers defense stopped the drive and took over after 6 plays.

Sacred Heart moved the ball to the 5 yard line before fumbling the ball to the Cardinals. Two plays later David Hesse recovered the ball on the 14 yard line. Lucien Gehrig picked up 4 as the final quarter began. Joel Schilling ran the ball into the end zone, but a clipping call brought the ball back to the 6 yard line. Unable to move, the Tigers tried for a field goal, but the kick went wide left.

The Cardinals took possession, but two plays later, Joseph McCoy covered a fumbled lateral and the Tigers were sitting 8 yards from paydirt. John Klement came in as quarterback and handed the ball to Schilling for another Tiger touchdown. Becker booted once more and Sacred Heart had a demanding 42-0 lead with 7 minutes remaining in the game.

The teams traded punts with Savoy finally getting on the scoreboard with 14 seconds on the clock. The extra points run was good for a final 42-8 game.

Coach Nasche noted that the Tigers offensive line allowed quarterback Matthew Fuhrmann to pass and they opened up the running game. "Anytime you control the line, you control the game," Nasche continued. "The backfield Joseph McCoy and Joel Schilling, also looked good, but we need to work on our passing game to balance our attack."

The defensive linebackers turned in "a superior performance" holding Savoy to 89 total yards. "Scott Poole and Frost did an excellent job filling in the holes. Other defensive standouts were John Klement, John Bartush, Toby Hess and Brandon Bayer.

Next Action - Henrietta

This Friday Muenster will host a tough 2A Henrietta team. "They're the best team they've had in years," commented Coach Tankersley. "They are real fast and have an outstanding quarterback and strong passing game." Tankersley said that the Hornets will try to do the same as they did against Nocona, only better, and try to cut down the penalties and mistakes.

Action begins at 7:30 p.m. at Hornet Stadium.

Hornet JV Action

The Hornet JV came out and executed extremely well on both sides of the ball taking a 20-6 victory over the Nocona Indians JV. Earlier in the week, players were moved into new positions on the defense; however, this did not hold the Hornets back as everyone stepped up and filled in with confidence. "I was extremely pleased to see our linebackers stepping up and plugging holes. We also had great play from our two techniques and safeties," praised Coach Kent Josselet. "Our improvement areas will be our tackling, especially on the sweep." Sharing the defensive spotlight were: Aaron Sicking, Jeremy Walterscheid, Bryan Hudspeth, Aaron Klement, and Cory Anderle.

According to Josselet, the Hornet's first two series on offense looked really impressive. The offensive line made up of Tony Hacker, Ryan Klement, Cory Charles, Jeremy Walterscheid, and Aaron Sicking, "did a super job of blocking all night long, especially against the size Nocona had defensively. The backs ran the ball hard and did a nice job inside the red zone." Of the offense, Coach Josselet continued, "We need to improve on protecting the ball in traffic, but our passing game has really shown a lot of promise and the kids have done a good job of catching the ball." Standing in the limelight on offense were: John Roller, Aaron Klement, Cory Anderle, and the offensive line.

The Muenster Hornet JV squad will take on the Henrietta Bearcat JV on Thursday, September 14 at Henrietta. The starting time for the game is 5:30 for junior high with the JV taking the field at 7:00. Come help cheer these boys to another victory!

Brown Motor promotes Touchdown for Literacy

With the beginning of football season, a new program is beginning in support of our area schools. Brown Motor Company will be sponsoring the Touchdowns for Literacy Program in an effort to promote excellence in the classroom, as well as on the football field.

Scott Frost from Sacred Heart in Muenster is the Friday Sept. 8 hero. Frost gained 175 yards and made four touchdowns in the Savoy game! Brown Motor Co. will award $100 to the Sacred Heart library fund in Frost's name.

Runner-up: Blake Silva, Callisburg vs. Little Elm, 204 yards, 2 touchdowns.

Each week participating area schools will submit the name of one athlete from their roster, who excelled during the previous Friday night's football game. From those names submitted, one will be selected as Brown Motor Company's Friday Night Hero. Mr. Charles Brown, CEO of Brown Motor Company, will present a check for $100 in this student's name to his high school's library fund. At the conclusion of the season, an outstanding performer will be selected from the weekly winners, and an additional check for $500 will be presented to his school's library fund. Weekly winners will be determined by the vote of an independent panel, based on performance, level of competition, and overall contribution to the game and team.

Brown Motor Company earlier sponsored the successful Driving for Education program, and hopes to continue its support of area schools with the Touchdowns for Literacy program.

Next Action - Era

Sacred Heart will host the Hornets of Era Friday night. "This is usually a hard, close fought contest against two cross county rivals," said Nasche. "It should be a game in an image of ourself because they also run the Wing-T offense."

Era also like to run a power running game to the right, but are not afraid to pass or run right. "Last year they won with special teams and our mistakes, so those two things we must control to win."

Kick off will begin at 8:00 p.m. on the Tiger Field.

Knights battle Trojans for victory

The Lindsay Knights defeated the Windthorst Trojans Friday night, in a close statistical opening battle on the Knights' field. Both teams had 14 first downs and had only one yard difference in total yards gained but the fumbles lost by Windthorst could have cost them the game.

"Windthorst has an excellent team," commented Coach Charlie Meurer. "They're physical, fast and have lots of speed. I was expecting a good hard game and that's what we got."

The game began in Lindsay's favor when Zack Bowman returned the opening kickoff 83 yards for an early touchdown. The PAT kick failed and just 15 seconds into the game the Knights had a 6-0 lead.

The Trojans worked on the clock their first drive of the night, getting in 12 plays from their 25 yard line to Lindsay's 44 before running out of downs.

Lindsay's second drive moved into Trojan territory. A 37 yard touchdown run by Jeff Hale on 4th and two was erased by a flag, putting the Knights on the 26 yard line with a 1st and ten. Quarterback Garret Hellinger gained 15 to the 10, but 3 unsuccessful plays put Lindsay in a 4th and 10 situation. A 17 yard field goal attempt failed and Windthorst carried the ball into the 2nd quarter. In nine plays the Trojans were on the Knight 16 yard line, but on 4th and 3, Greg Dulock caught the Trojan runner behind the line for a 5 yard loss.

Beginning on their 21, short runs by Hale, Hellinger, and Kenny Jones, and a 40 yard Hellinger to Shawn Hanks pass play got the Knights to the 10 yard line. Hale put the icing on the cake with a 10 yard run into the end zone for the touchdown. The extra points pass failed and the Knights had a 12-0 lead with 3:40 still on the first half clock.

Cody Wolf returned the Knights kick 40 yards to begin the Trojans' next drive. A 21 yard run by Wolf, then 3 Justin Boone runs placed Windthorst on the 5 yard line. Lynn Schneider took the ball to the one. The next play saw Boone go into the end zone. The PAT kick failed and the Trojans closed the score to 12-6 with 1:09 remaining till halftime break. The Knights played out the remaining time.

Windthorst took the opening 2nd half kick, but two plays later Hank Huchton covered a loose ball. The Knights got in one 1st down, then failed to pick up another, turning the ball back over on downs. Again the Trojans offense slowly pounded at the Knights. Two good passes counted for 57 yards and Windthorst was knocking on the Knights' door at the 7 yard line. A loose ball was covered by Garret Hellinger to stop the scoring threat and the Knights took over on their 5 yard line.

Penalties plagued Lindsay, forcing a quick kick from their end zone on 3rd and 11. From the 36, the Trojans were unable to move the ball against Lindsay's defense, led by Hanks, Hellinger and Bowman. The Knights were in good field possession on the 35. A halfback pass from Hale to Bowman gained 31 yards inside the Trojan 30 yard line. Two Windthorst penalties got the Knights to the 19 as the final quarter began.

Hale and Hellinger took turns running the ball with Hellinger taking it in the final yard. Again the PAT failed and Lindsay had an 18-6 lead with 9:44 remaining in the game.

Windthorst got in 9 plays before coming up short a yard to the 7 yard line. The Knights slowly moved out of the hole, assisted by a 31 yard run by Hale. But Lindsay was forced to punt on 4th and 12 near mid-field.

The Trojans took the punt and returned the ball to the 3 yard line, where the next play Brad Hoffman went in for the score. The PAT kick counted and with 1:18 left on the clock, Windthorst narrowed the score to 18-13.

The Trojans attempted an on-side kick, but Lindsay covered the ball and played out the clock.

"We (the Knights) played hard and aggressive," said Meurer. "I wish their execution was better, but that gives us something to work on." Lindsay remains in good physical health with only a few bumps and bruises.

Annual Football Contest

The Muenster Enterprise's annual football contest began last week with 44 entries. Of the 30 games to pick winners, Nick Walterscheid missed only four games and is the first week's winner with a 26 score.

Peachie and Neil Huchton tied for 2nd place with 24 correct picks. Peachie got 2nd with a 14 point spread on the tiebreaker, while Neil settled for 3rd place with 16 points. Also getting 24 games correct were John Bartush and Charles Edwards, but they missed the tiebreaker game.

The low score of the week was 16, with 10 contestants guessing 21 games, 8 choosing 22, and four, Tim Bindel, Mike Felderhoff, Benny Haverkamp and Paul Swirczynski each picking 23.

Eleven entries wrongly picked Nocona over Muenster, while one missed Sacred Heart, only because he forgot to mark a winner for his own team.

Thirty-six missed Collinsville's loss, with 16 picking Saint Jo to win and 12 thinking Lindsay would lose.

Everyone was given the Coppell and Mesquite Poteet game that ended in a tie and the Abilene Christian game because they did not play McNeese State as listed.

The Enterprise staff would like to apologize for the two contests being printed back to back in last week's paper. It won't happen again. We want to encourage participation in both football contests and hope more will enter this week.

Week one's winners can pick up their cash winnings at 82 Liquor, The Center Restaurant and Muenster Pharmacy.

Farm & Ranch

Farm Safety Week observed

County Judge Paul Hesse has proclaimed September 17-23, 1995, as Farm and Ranch Safety and Health Week in Cooke County at the request of Robert Klement, Cooke County Farm Bureau president. This year marks the 52nd annual observance of National Farm Safety and Health Week, co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U.S. Department of Agriculture; with the theme, "Sow the Seeds of Health... Practice Safety."

Agricultural and Nature Facts

Preserving natural resources

- Erosion from rainfall fell from 4.1 tons per acre to 3.1 tons between 1982 and 1992, while wind erosion declined from 3.3 tons to 2.5 tons.

- Contour farming — planting crops around hillsides instead of up and down — keeps soil from washing away. About 26 million acres in the United States are managed this way.

- "Precision farming" using satellite maps and computers to match seed and fertilizer applications to local soil conditions boosts crop yields and reduces waste.

- Over 2 million producers have signed up with conservation districts to apply conservation measures to their farms and ranches.

Providing for wildlife:

- Over the past 12 years American agriculture has seen a 14 percent increase in production with 8 percent fewer acres, providing more land and forests for wildlife habitat.

- Seventy-five percent of the nation's wildlife live on farms and ranches. Agricultural land serves as a natural preserve, supplying animals with abundant food and habitat.

- Each year 9 billion trees are reseeded on farmland — 3 billion are planted by tree farmers and orchardists, while the other 6 billion grow naturally.

Developing consumer products:

- In 1987, only five newspapers used soy ink — now more than 3,000 do.

- Road de-icers are being made from corn instead of salt. They reduce rust on bridges and cars, as well as lessen salt pollution of our fresh water supply.

- Plastics derived from starches are fully biodegradable and are decreasing our need for petroleum.
- Emerging agriculture crops like lesquerella, a desert shrub, can be found at today's cosmetic counter — in the form of lipstick.

- Waste animal fats are being turned into clean burning biodiesel fuel for buses and trucks.

- Low-grade wool, currently unusable, is being developed to clean up hazardous spills. Wool absorbs 10 to 30 times its weight in oil.

- A new stain remover is being developed from soybean and peanut oils to quickly erase greasy stains and then biodegrade.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

GAUCHO SEED TREATMENT LABELED FOR WHEAT

Gustafson, Inc. recently received a label for the use of Gaucho as a seed treatment for wheat. Growers buying new wheat seed can request the seed company treat their seed with Gaucho. Grower-caught seed can be treated at a commercial seed treater.

The use rate is 1 to 3 fluid ounces per 100 pounds of seed. A mid-range rate of 1.5 to 2 ounces is probably the best compromise between cost and length of pest control. While cost will likely vary, Gustafson has quoted a price of about $7.82 per 100 pounds of seed at the 1 ounce rate. Pricing on a per hundredweight basis will encourage growers to minimize costs by reducing seeding rates to optimum levels.

Tests conducted by several agents and Dr. Allen Knutson in cooperation with Dr. David Marshall have shown Gaucho applied as a seed treatment will control fall infestations of greenbugs. Yield increases have resulted when damaging infestations of greenbugs have developed in the fall.

An additional benefit is the reduction in barley yellow dwarf virus infection due to the control of greenbugs and bird cherry-oat aphids which transmit the virus. Gaucho, because it is systemic in the plant for a long period, is the only chemical means of controlling barley yellow virus.

Although we have less data on Hessian fly, Gaucho has suppressed fall infestations of this pest.

Key points include:

1. Labeled for greenbugs, other aphids, Hessian flies and wireworms. Not effective on winter grain mite (red spiders), armyworms, cutworms. Growers still need to scout their wheat fields for these and other pests.

2. Control is for early season (fall) pests.

3. Do not graze or feed livestock on treated areas for 45 days after planting.

4. Observe 12 month plant-back interval. Fields treated with Gaucho can only be replanted to crops on which Gaucho is labeled (wheat, sorghum, cotton or sugarbeets) during the 12 month period following use of Gaucho.

5. Cover or incorporate spilled treated seed to protect birds.

6. Labeled for wheat only. Label for use on barley is pending.

Ag News

- The trade with Mexico has resurrected worries over tick fever. The fever, which was eradicated in Texas in 1943, is still prevalent, and U.S. cattle producers are looking to ways to protect their cattle when exported to Mexico. Texas Agriculture Experiment Station researchers are working with Mexican and U.S. agencies to combat the tick fever, also known as babesiosis, through a vaccine to fight the disease-carrying Boophilus ticks. -TAES

Texas ranks third

Texas agricultural exports increased 20 percent in 1994 as the Lone Star State ranked third in the top ten states as top exporters of agricultural commodities, according to Robert Klement, Cooke County Farm Bureau President. "This shows how important agriculture is to the future of Texas," Klement said. "By selling agricultural products to other countries, our industry brought an additional $3 billion to the state's economy."

Klement said Texas gained export share because cotton exports more than doubled to $737 million in 1994. Livestock and meat products rose 11 percent, to $585 million.

Citing statistics printed in the March/April 1995 edition of Foreign Trade of the United States, a magazine published by the United States Department of Agriculture, the Farm Bureau president said Texas ranked first in the export value of cotton and liners, at nearly $315 million, and first in cottonseed and cottonseed products, at $40.2 million.

Klement said Texas ranked second in live animals and meat exports at $585 million, and peanut and peanut products, at $35.6 million.

Texas was third in the export value of hides and skins, at nearly $219 million, feed and fodders at $149 million, and fats, oils and greases at $75 million.

Klement said Texas was fourth in the export value of tree nuts and rice, sixth in feed grains and feed grain products, seventh in poultry, dairy products, and sunflower seed and oil, eighth in seeds, and ninth in wheat and wheat products, and fruit and fruit preparations.

California ranked first in the top ten exporters of agricultural commodities, followed by Illinois. The remaining top ten states included Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Indiana, Washington, Minnesota and Arkansas.

Of-hated mesquite trees sizzle in $20 million industry

A national love of outdoor cooking has met with a boundless supply of unwanted mesquite trees to produce a $20 million-a-year Texas industry.

Chips and chunks of mesquite and other woods such as hickory from several Texas processing companies have found a sizzling market for this commodity that often has a dubious reputation.

Grilling gurus in the early 1980s began to take note of the special flavor absorbed by foods cooked over mesquite. As a result, about 15 million pounds of mesquite smoking chips and cooking chunks - and a like amount of hickory - are burned in U.S. grills every year. A variety of brands are sold at most grocery chains across the nation.

That's good news for Texas since mesquite has no known insect or disease pest and spreads readily by seeds or sprouting from its crown. It also grows everywhere in Texas except in the piney woods. Current price is about $85.00 a cord.

Multi-use permits are being issued for feeding operations

New permits being issued by the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC) for confined animal feeding operations are among the first in the nation to combine air and water quality protection regulations into one permitting system.

The new regulations, which became effective in July, are designed to protect both air and water quality while streamlining the process that some livestock and poultry producers have to go through in order to receive the permits, said Eric Chasteen, TNRCC permit writer, at the recent Innovations and New Horizons in Livestock and Poultry Manure Management conference here.

"Our primary goals are to protect air and water quality. We also want to promote sound management," Chasteen told the group of 200 producers, researchers and industry officials gathered for the meeting.

The regulations are found in Title 30 of the Texas Administrative Code, also referred to as the Subchapter K rules. The Texas Water Code and the Texas Clean Air Act authorize the TNRCC to regulate the management of livestock and poultry waste from confined animal feeding operations (CAFO's).

Depending on the type of operation, anyone planning to construct and/or operate a confined feeding operation before this year was required to meet regulations under the Water Code and Clean Air Act, and sometimes had to apply for different permits under the two acts. Additionally, they had to apply for a U.S. Environmental Protection Agency general permit.

Whether a business qualifies as a confined animal feeding operation depends on the number of animals it contains. For example, a dairy will qualify with 250 milking cows, a beef cattle operation with 1,000 head and a swine operation with 1,500 pigs.

About 600 confined animal feeding operation water permits and 206 air permits were issued by the TNRCC under the old regulations. Annually, an average of 69 CAFO's are permitted under the water program and 49 are permitted under the air program, he said.

Applying for several permits is expensive in time and money for both the producer and the governmental agencies involved. Also, there were at times conflicting rule requirements between the air and water quality permits in Texas and the EPA permit.

The new regulations are a result of a collaborative effort between TNRCC, the CAFO industry and other cooperating agencies. However, the operation must still qualify for an EPA permit separately, Chasteen said.

To qualify, the CAFO must include in its permit application its best management practices, such as how it will process all of its waste water or how it will handle dust problems. Additionally, it must include what facilities it will build to handle such practices. Potential pollution sources, or areas of the facility that may come into direct contact with animal wastes, significant recharge zones, or any agricultural chemicals that may be used, stored, or disposed of at the facility, must be added to the application, he said.

Once all of the information is received, the applicant is asked to publish a public notice. All public comments must be made in the form of a written, sworn statement that describe in detail how the application, if approved, would affect a person, property or another legal interest.

If no comments are received from a 1 mile radius around the operation, and there are no major changes in the application, the TNRCC will issue a permit.

If the comment is found to have technical merit - or evidence that the application for authorization does not meet all technical requirements of the rules or that the applicant's past compliance history has resulted in an impact to water quality in the state -- the TNRCC will ask the applicant to do one of several things: the applicant can either withdraw his application, forward the application for a contested case hearing, file a request that the TNRCC review that comment for technical merit, or request that the TNRCC suspend processing of the application for a period of no more than 30 to allow the applicant time to provide the additional information.

1995 CORN RESULTS

1995 was a fairly good year for corn production in Cooke County. Those producers who got their crops in early were fortunate in receiving rainfall to develop a good corn crop.

In 1995 we had three variety demonstrations located from the southern part of the county between Era and Valley View to the northern part of the county in the Sivel's Bend Frog Bottom area. Locations on the Zimmerer and Selby Farms were planted in heavy clay soils. The Fuhrmann location was in a sandy loam soil type. Planting dates ranged from March 11 until March 24. All harvesting was done from August 16 through August 18.

Above average yields were noted on the Fuhrmann location due to ample rainfall. Late rainfall allowed for good yields at this particular location. With the good growth conditions, aflatoxin was minimal at this particular location.

Early rains allowed for good growth at both the Zimmerer and Selby fields. We had a very cool, wet spring which contributed somewhat to holding back early growth at these two locations. The rain seemed to play out down in the Era community and yields showed the lack of summer moisture.

Producers considering planting corn need to be aware of the possibility of aflatoxin in corn during periods of stress.

The FDA Center for Veterinary Medicine "Action" levels for aflatoxin in feed grain in interstate commerce are 20 parts per billion for dairy, immature animals, and immature poultry, 100 parts per billion for breeding cattle, breeding swine, and mature poultry, 200 parts per billion for finishing swine (100 pounds or greater), and 300 parts per billion for finishing cattle.

If you plan on planting corn, several areas to avoid are heavily wooded fence rows, heavily terraced, poorly drained fields, shallow, rocky soils, and any other condition that might cause stressful plant growth. In other words, corn needs to be planted on your better ground and hope for moisture at the right time.

Price wise, crop income on 4,000 pound milo is comparable to 65 bushel corn.

The following chart gives yields of the various varieties located at the three Cooke County demonstration plots. The parenthesis denotes the rating of that particular variety at that location. If you have questions, give me a call.

Almost 1,000 Texas college students have returned to school this fall with scholarships provided by Texas 4-H or FFA. The value of 4-H and FFA scholarships from 1991 to 1994 was $14.2 million. Most of the money was raised during livestock shows and rodeos around the state. - Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts

USDA announced it will prohibit the labeling of frozen poultry as "fresh." Poultry products never chilled below 26 degrees Fahrenheit may be labeled fresh. The National Cattlemen's Association supported the change to clarify freshness for consumers. - NCA

Some veterinarians say the little-known John's disease is coming out of the shadows. The veterinarian predicted that the disease, which causes weight loss and severe, generally deadly, scours in cattle, will probably be one of the most important diseases of cattle in the next 10 to 15 years. - Livestock Weekly
