Muenster gathering honors Candidates Harris and Hall

Between 250 and 300 people attended a barbecue in the Muenster City Park held in honor of Bill Harris, candidate for Cooke County Judge, and Congressman Ralph Hall of Rockwall. An unusual Sunday session of Congress made it impossible for Ralph Hall to attend, but that didn't dampen the spirit of the occasion.

Marlene Hess represented Hall. Miss Hess is a Muenster native who has worked in Congressman Hall's congressional office in Washington during the past year.

Muenster Mayor Henry Weinzapfel acted as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. He explained that the event was organized for the purpose of allowing area residents to meet, talk with and ask questions of the candidates.

Weinzapfel recognized the 34 sponsors and then turned the program over to Urban Endres who introduced Bill Harris and Marlene Hess. Each in turn made a few comments and opened the floor to questions.

In his remarks, Mr. Harris pointed out that he feels one of the big issues in the county judge's race is that he lives and works around the courthouse. His opponent seems to be planning to run the judge's office from Denton. Harris recalled that his opponent mentioned a computer hookup from his Denton office to the courthouse. Harris was raised on a dairy farm in Midland.

Sponsors stated that they were very pleased with the turnout and enthusiasm of the crowd. They noted that it was by far the largest political gathering in Muenster so far for this political season.

Sponsoring the barbecue were Urban and Jane Endres, Weldon and Rose Bezner, Herbert Meurer, Sonny and Anna Mae Block, Herkey and Mil Biffle, Dr. Marvin Knight, Leo and Mary Lou Hess, Karl and Kim Klement, Butch and Eileen Fisher, John and Louise Fisher, Jimmy Jack and Mary Biffle, Dick and Kay Pagel, Jerome and Gertie Pagel, Loyd and Gwen Trubenbach, Kirk and Donna Klement, John and Agnes Meurer, Joe and Anna Mae Bezner, and Willie and Queenie Walterscheid.

Master Gardener pledges to landscape Courthouse

by Janet Felderhoff
Cooke County's historic courthouse will take on an even more appealing face next spring. Master Gardener Ben Tyler has agreed to landscape the courthouse grounds.

Mr. Tyler composed several color computer drawings of his landscaping plans. There are three phases of landscaping planned with the first one to begin this fall.

Included in the plans is a Sesquicentennial theme for the southwest corner. It will feature native Texas flowers and plants. One plan calls for replicating a well that once stood on the courthouse lawn. Junior Durham, maintenance supervisor, noted that the metal casings are still in place. Mr. Tyler found photos of the original well at the Morton Museum and will attempt to recreate it. A woodland type theme is planned for the southeast corner.

Durham asked Commissioners Court for financing for the first phase. The anticipated cost of the trees is $1,000 and the brick for some of the landscaping will be between $400 and $500. Much of the labor will be supplied by those doing community service under the supervision of the juvenile probation office.

Cooke County Auditor Gloria Parrish said that the funds were available from the Grounds and Maintenance Fund. Commissioners were unanimous in the vote approving funds for the first phase of this project.

Durham explained that when someone goes to Master Gardener school they are committed to return some of that knowledge back to the community. There will be no charge for developing the plan, overseeing the planting, and teaching about fertilizing and caring for the trees and plants. Tyler is a total organic gardener, said Durham.

County Agent Craig Rosenbaum had suggested using the services of a Master Gardener for the courthouse grounds.

Another thing proposed to improve the looks of the courthouse is to build a fence around the air conditioning unit. The unit is on the northeast corner of the courthouse and according to Judge Duncan it is currently just stuck out there.

Junior Durham displayed a diagram of the proposed fence. It will consist of framework from metal 2X2 tubing. The outside will be cedar planks and blocks to hide the metal structure and still allow good air flow.

"We've got approval from the Historical Commission to do this as long as we let it like a plain fencing, no bright colors or anything like that," remarked Durham. The eight-foot tall fence will be remain its natural color and treated with a preservative. All Commissioners approved the $1200 expenditure for the fence.

Commissioners Court approved the revised budget of the Cooke County Appraisal District (CCAD) by a vote of 5-0. CCAD Chief Appraiser Doug Smithson noted that revisions to the budget included a decrease in proposed employee salary increases from a possible four percent to a possible three percent; decreased in the money allotted to purchase a new vehicle from $24,000 to $22,000.

David Tharp, the unopposed candidate for constable of Precinct #1, asked that Commissioners consider keeping a 1991 Chevrolet with 100,000 plus miles for use by

by Elfreda Fette
Peggy Grewing

Smiles of satisfaction were sincere and much deserved, by sponsors of the Bridal Show and Home Accessories Presentation on Sunday, October 11 in the Sacred Heart Community Center Main Hall. As the show and drawing for prizes drew to a close, guests began to depart voicing their approval.

Guests had an enjoyable time, and sponsors and the Muenster Merchants Group realized the happy results of their efforts toward a first-time-ever big show, "The Wedding and Beyond."

There was a grand prize drawing for $500 and many other door prizes, and a featured "Guess the Era" Bridal Gown Show.

All proceeds benefitted the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary. Billie Fleitman was the MC for the show, the contests and the drawings.

A complete list of prizes and winners follows. In the "Guess the Era" Bridal Gown Game, Lisa Felderhoff was the winner and received a $25 gift certificate. Donors door prizes and prizes given by sign-ups at booths, and winners in order listed were: Catholic Life Insurance - Cooler, Vickie Fleitman; Lora's Flowers and Gifts - $25 Gift Certificate, Sis Felderhoff; Cakes by Betty Rose - $25 Gift Certificate, Betty Gilpin; The Scheids Decorating Service - Unity Candle, Margie Rohmer; Crafty Olde German - $20 Gift Certificate, Ryan Hennigan; Bridal Photo Album, Holli Hoedebeck; Cooke County Tuxedo-ed escorts were Darrin Hennigan, Aaron Klement, Casey Walterscheid and Bryan Miller.

Muenster businesses used this opportunity to showcase their products and services.

Guests attended from Denton, Gainesville, Bowie, Muenster, Lindsay, Valley View, Nocona and Bellevue.

The "Guess the Era" Bridal Gown Show puzzled and amused showgoers as twelve models strolled, mingled and strutted their elegance among guests. The contest was provided so everyone could guess the year each gown was originally worn. Ripples of laughter abounded as the MC told approximate prices of each gown, some only a few years old, and one more than 50 years old.

Businesses displayed their goods and wares handsomely, many offered handouts, discounts, appetizers and goodie bags to all in attendance.

Highlight of the show was the bonanza of door prizes offered in the drawings after the two-hour program. Assessing the growth in business by individual sponsors will determine if this show will be an annual event.

Opinions expressed by sponsors indicated surprise at the number in attendance, although there were numerous other events in the area simultaneously. Peggy Grewing said: "I was very pleased with the number of potential bridal customers who registered with us at this show ... And we've already had out-of-town businesses inquire

Issues addressed by four candidates

by Janet Felderhoff

Both races for Justice of the Peace affect Muenster voters this year. Precinct 18 voters have the choice of incumbent Dorothy Lewis, the Republican candidate, and Harold Chaney, Democrat. Voters from Precinct 17 will determine if John Roane, who was appointed by Commissioners Court last year to fill the unexpired term of Royce Martin, will return to office in January or if his opponent Jodie Vance will step into the position. Vance is running as the Democrat's nominee and Roane as the Republican's.

Mrs. Lewis feels that she has the attributes that Cooke County Citizens want in a Justice of the Peace. The Justice of the Peace is a vital part of the court system in Texas. "The first encounter 90 percent of the people initially have with the court system is through the Justice Court," said Lewis. "I believe the judge of that court should have the ability to apply to laws of Texas fairly while holding people accountable for their actions. In civil suits and small claims cases, a judge must have the competence to render an impartial decision based on the facts. To have good government we must have good people serving. We cannot always depend on others; we must become involved ourselves. That is the reason I am seeking the office of Justice of the Peace. I feel the reasons for seeking this office should be much more than someone just looking for a job or to fill a blank spot on a ballot."

No one specific function of the Justice Court is more important than another, says Lewis. She feels that each area of the court is vitally important to the person seeking justice from the court. It is important to the landlord seeking to evict a non paying renter, to people receiving traffic citations, to law enforcement seeking expertise in an inquest, to juveniles who come before the court, and to participants in a small claims suit. "Often someone will come into the office just needing to talk with me about a problem," revealed Judge Lewis. "Although that is not an official function of this Court, it is an important part to this community. A justice of the peace must have the ability to look at every aspect and function of the court, both separately and as a whole in light of the law and how it affects our community."

If re-elected Judge Lewis would like to do more public service in the form of information about the law being disseminated through the new media or public speaking to encourage compliance with the laws. "Sometimes a case progresses to more serious consequences because of a misunderstanding of what is required to be in compliance with the law," she noted. "For example, a citations is given for no proof of liability insurance. The person may have insurance, but not have the proof with him at the time. The case will be dismissed if proof of insurance is brought to the Court. If a person does not have the proof, the case will progress until warrants are issued." Another example Lewis gave was that there are several options available to address a speeding citation. Often it is just ignored and that results in a warrant being issued. Making this kind of information available would provide a valuable service to the public, feels Lewis.

Another goal set by Judge Lewis is to expand on juvenile programs. "Justice dispensed to a young offender can provide a lifelong lesson," she remarked. "The juvenile part of this court ranges from speeding citations, minor in possession, failure to attend school, to administering juvenile warnings. It is important that young people be educated to be responsible and accountable in obeying the laws of this state."

Asked what her qualifications were to serve as Justice of the Peace Lewis responded, "To answer this question, I asked myself what qualifications would I look for in a Justice of the Peace. Fairness, intelligence, good morals, compassion, empathy, a willingness and ability to listen to others, integrity, and community involvement are some of the requirements I feel are necessary to perform the duties as Justice of the Peace. I would want a judge who could treat me professionally and courteously regardless of my station in life. I want someone in that office who has proven management and office skills to properly maintain all required record keeping and budget administration as directed by law. I think my record, both in this community and as a current Justice of the Peace, proves I have those qualifications."

When questioned as to what ways the growing populations of Cooke County affected the JP offices here and what changes will be needed in the next few years to enable them to keep up with services, Lewis said that she doesn't feel that the growing population has affected the Justice of the Peace Courts as much as the mandates and requirements being implemented by the State. The demands on the office have grown tremendously, she said. Judge Lewis explained, "There are a larger number of Highway Patrol troopers stationed in this area which means more traffic citations being issued, the State has mandated a zero tolerance in underage drinking which means more cases being filed by the TABC, the Sheriff's Department is filing more cases and needing more warrants, more juveniles need to be given warnings, more people are being arrested and put into jail which means more

Alvin Fuhrman recognized for 50 years of service to industry

Alvin Fuhrman never anticipated what might lie ahead on that day in 1949 when he answered a request for help. Almost every telephone line in the area was on the ground from a heavy ice storm and Muenster's only telephone repairman had quit in despair. Alvin and his brother Bill took on the challenge that day of fixing the phones and Alvin has continued to meet that challenge ever since. Over the next fifty years, the telephone repairman became the president and owner of one of Muenster's largest employers, Muenster Telephone Corporation of Texas, and a leader within the rural telecommunications industry. On Sept. 10, 1998, Alvin Fuhrman was not only recognized for this accomplishment by Texas Telephone Association, but also by proclamation of the Texas State Senate.

During his 50 years of service, Alvin's leadership has built Muenster Telephone from a company of five employees to one with 45, providing telephone service to 3,200 access lines in six exchanges and three counties. Company affiliates also offer cable television in five communities, and is a partner in cellular communications serving an area across North Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Alvin, not only worked to build a good company, but also has been a key contributor in the local community. Under Alvin's leadership, Muenster Telephone established the North Texas Educational Network that provides educational instruction between four area schools and North Central Texas College. Alvin also has volunteered his time in the community as General Chairman of the Annual Muenster Germanfest. His twelve years on the founding committee have been instrumental in building Germanfest into a $1 million contributor to the local economy.

Along with his contributions to the community, Alvin has also worked to support the rural telecommunications industry. He was elected to the Board of Directors of the Texas Telephone Association (TTA) in 1972 and continues to serve today. He has also served as chairman of the TTA's Convention and Member Services Committee and served on other industry organizations such as the United States Telephone Association Small Company Committee, Texas Statewide Telephone Cooperative Legislative Committees, and as president of TTA's Pioneers Board. His efforts have also earned him the Outstanding Achievement Award by TTA in 1990.

Alvin downplays the attention and accolades by saying, "I only represent the tradition of this community." He says much of the credit goes to his wife of 45 years, Gracie and his family. As he reflects on the last fifty years, he quips, "I wonder what my next fifty will bring."

Halloween Bash features a "Class Act," '50s-'60s-'70s music and door prizes

by Janet Felderhoff

The band now booked to play at the annual Muenster Chamber of Commerce Halloween Bash on Oct. 24 comes highly recommended. Class Act from Sherman was booked after Kenny and the Kasaals had to cancel for unforeseeable reasons.

Class Act has established itself as one of the more popular bands in the North Texas area. The five-member group has appeared at many popular places including the Westin Hotel-Galleria and the Double Tree Inn. The group features renditions of classic 50's, 60's, and 70's rock-n-roll, along with several country and pop standards. Some of the recommendations for the group come from companies such as the Pillsbury Company, Tanglewood, Texas Instruments, and Johnson & Johnson.

Admission to the event is $10 per person in advance and $12 at the door. This includes door prize opportunities and snack foods. Doors open at 7 p.m. with judging of costumes beginning at that time. The dance begins at 9 p.m. Prizes will be awarded in several categories. Those are Funniest Male and Funniest Female, Most Creative, Best Couple, Best Group and Scariest. The Best Group will receive $60 in Muenster Marks. Other prizes are to be announced later. Winners will be announced around 10:30 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased at the Muenster Chamber office. To place table reservations, call Margie at (940)759-2227 or 759-4194.

Taylor Vestal for County Commissioner, Precinct 4

Hello, my name is Taylor Vestal, and I am the Republican Candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct 4.

Why do we routinely pick up the paper to find that the Commissioners' Court has funded some "study" to determine "if" some project should be undertaken and what would be its cost? It seems to me that a sufficient "study" would be to visit counties that have been faced with a similar project and learning their results. Why should we pay some firm to do that?

Our governments, from top to bottom, seem to be caught up in crisis management. Nothing gets done until the pot boils over. That's why we wind up in some funded study. So why not anticipate problems? This is called planning. Many feel that a "plan" is meaningless. Others feel that planning is mandatory to efficient government.

What do you think about planning? Should our Commissioners' Court devote some time to planning? How would you go about it?

Let me hear from you.
I want to know what you think.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
I am writing to express the pride I felt for the Hornet Band this past Friday.
If you unfortunately missed the game or the halftime show in particular I would strongly recommend you come and enjoy the events this Friday - after all it's Homecoming.
When our band took the field in their uniforms for the first time in a long time they received a standing ovation from the crowd in the stands. They looked so sharp and they sound super!
Over the past few years I have proudly watched our band grow in size as well as the level of difficulty for their music and halftime shows.

There were many positive comments that may not have made it to all the band members who were busy playing the fight song for all the touchdowns.
That is why I personally want to express my pride for our developing program in band in Muenster ISD.
Sincerely,
Stephanie Tankersley

To the Editor: For U. S. Congress, Hall, Lohmeyer race shows differences

Mr. Hall claims to be a conservative on economic and social issues, but his voting record indicates otherwise. Just last week he voted against the $480 billion 5-year tax relief plan. This Republican plan provided tax relief for farmers, married couples, the elderly who work, small business operators, people with modest saving accounts, and parents who save money for their children's private education.
He voted to reduce the cost of living increases for social security. This reduced the benefits our senior citizens receive.
Hall voted for President Bill Clinton's executive order to lift President Reagan's ban on Federal funding of health clinics, which perform abortions.
Congressman Hall supports Goals 2000, the Federal program to control our public schools by providing federal money to implement national testing, health care clinics and rainbow education. Congressman Hall also voted against giving 2000 parents a school choice program in Washington D.C. the nations worst and highest cost school system.
Finally, Congressman Hall has donated approximately $80,000 to the Democratic Party to help elect the Democrats running against Conservative Republicans.

Republican Candidate Dr. Jim Lohmeyer, an anesthesiologist, has a different approach toward government than Democrat Hall. Lohmeyer wants to get the Federal Government out of our schools, and return them back to local control. He is in favor of a parental choice program that would allow parents to use their school tax dollars for the school of their choice.

Candidate Lohmeyer says we have a moral obligation to fix the social security system before it becomes insolvent. He proposes a program that will honor all current retired and near retired participants. All Social Security money should be off limits except to pay benefits, and Social Security benefits should not be considered income for tax purposes. Workers under 50 years old should be given the option of leaving the system, and the majority of their payroll taxes be invested in self-directed retirement funds.

Lohmeyer proposes a health care system similar to the one enjoyed by Ralph Hall and the other members of Congress. An Employee Benefit Plan which has 620 private insurance carriers across the country competing for the personal business of the members. In this plan, a customer can choose the plan that best fits their family and, if it costs less than their benefit, they can keep the difference. What's good enough for our Representatives should be good enough for their constituents.

To reduce medical cost, Lohmeyer will work to end costly government mandates and work for tort reform. Tort reform is a must because liability suits force physicians to practice defensive medicine causing them to order costly, often unnecessary, tests and procedures for protection from lawsuits.

Lohmeyer is pro-life and pro-family. He works with a group called Physicians for Higher Standards. He visits schools, churches and civic groups to bring the message of abstinence to our youth. He says, "three decades of tolerance and government-sponsored contraceptive Sex Ed have helped teens embrace the wrong attitude toward sex. We bring them facts, show them medical information, teach moral principles and then challenge them to wait until they are married."

Finally, Candidate Lohmeyer, if elected, will vote to scrap the current tax code and replace it with a simpler fairer pro-growth code be it either a flat tax or consumption sales tax.

Isn't it time for a change? Consider voting for Jim Lohmeyer who has new and innovative ideas for the country's future.

Peale says Hall's no conservative

by Gary L. Droll
Pat Peale, Chairperson of the Cooke County Republican Party, has mentioned that she becomes concerned when she hears people talking about conservative Ralph Hall.
According to Pat Peale, Hall is the only conservative in comparison to other Democrats - as some of his Republican colleagues say, "He only votes with the Republican Party when it pleases him - he can not be counted on" For example: 1. He did not vote for the Republican Budget. Only two Democrats did - and Ralph Hall was not one. (The tax plan included 480 billion tax relief over five years for farmers, married couples, the elderly who work, small business operators, people with modest savings accounts and people saving for a private college education.) Sounds like Cooke County to me., 2. He did not vote for one commission to study (one more time) Social Security. He voted for Blue Dog Coalition 1997 Budget Alternative in May 1996 which was the budget to reduce cost of living increase for Social Security which would have reduced benefits to seniors by $126 billion over 6 years., 3. He was quoted on Channel 12 that he is a liberal when it comes to Education. (Voted for Goals 2000, federal control of National reading and math tests to name a few.), 4. He supports increasing Federal regulation of Health Care., 5. He voted for Bill Clinton's Executive Order to lift President Reagan's ban on federal funding of health clinics that support abortion., 6. Who did he vote for for Speaker of the House? It was not Gingrich. It was Dick Gephardt - and we all know what Gephardt is - and that is not Conservative., 7. He has given approximately $80,000 to Democrat coffers to help candidates who were running against Conservative Republican candidates.

Peale feels we need a Congressman who will work for our County and see our needs. Ask him about roads and bridges for Cooke County. We saw our tax dollars going to Tarrant County, Dallas County and Harris County - why? Because Rep. Joe Barton, Rep. Kay Granger, Rep. Pete Sessions, Rep. Sam Johnson, Muenster Volunteer Fire Department's team blasted their way into first place to win the Gainesville Fire Department's Hose-Off for the second consecutive year. Muenster Firefighters taking part were, from left, Jim Koelzer, Ben Bindel, Joe Pagel and Herbie Knabe. The 13-14 teams taking part were from Gainesville, Lindsay, Era, Valley View, Callisburg, Lake Kiowa and Muenster. The goal is to use the force of water from a fire hose to push a keg to the opposing team's end. Muenster took only 30 seconds out of a possible five minutes to win over Gainesville's Team #4. Valley View took third place.

Common sense burning urged

by Janet Felderhoff
Cooke County Commissioners Court lifted the Burn Ban for Cooke County, effective immediately, at the Oct. 12 regular meeting of the Commissioners Court. The vote was 4-1 with County Judge Russell Duncan casting the opposing vote.

In effect since July 20, the ban on outdoor burning has helped to hold down the number of fires. Even though the summer has been extremely hot and dry, the number of wildfires wasn't nearly what the county experienced during the dry spell two years ago.

Moss Lake Volunteer Fire Chief Frank Natonick spoke in favor of lifting the ban. The grass is green right now, he said. Natonick also called attention to the TNRC regulations that require notification be made to the Sheriff's Department of open burning or to a local fire marshal.

Burning should only take place from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., provided certain wind conditions aren't exceeded according to TNRC regulations, said Natonick.

Even though he was only 60/40 in favor of lifting the ban Natonick noted that many people had cleared brush during the summer and had no place to haul. These people are depending on burning to dispose of the brush piles and prevent a rodent problem.

Sheriff Mike Compton referred to the people out in the county who have been storing their trash until the time when they could burn it. "I do believe that the people are being burdened by the fact that they haven't been able to burn their trash," said the Sheriff. "Consideration should be given to the plight that these folks are starting to see. We may be starting to have a health hazard from the build up of trash."

Lake Kiowa was contacted by Judge Russell Duncan and he reported that they still had dry conditions. Duncan expressed reluctance to lift the ban if the conditions weren't right.

"If the people will use common sense when they're burning - don't burn on high, windy days and if you burn something don't go off and leave it," commented Commissioner Phil Young. Many fires are started when people go off and leave the fire burning. If people burn and don't use common sense the ban could be reinstated.

"Muenster Proud" aiming for $65,000 award organizations, bringing back important information and ideas to share with the Muenster group.

Steve Broyles, treasurer, reported that 15 businesses have joined "Muenster Proud." Beta Kappa has donated $150 and after some expenses the treasury has a balance of $643.90. He asked that a budget be planned soon. Dues set by the board are: individuals/families: $10; and businesses/organizations $25.

Two motions made by Gary Fisher and passed were to notify officials that Muenster would like to become affiliated with Keep America Beautiful and possibly be among the first fifty to apply, in which case the state will pay the fee. The other was to purchase curriculum and information books for both schools.

The main focus of the October meeting concerned the activity of the Trash and Treasure Hunt on October 17. JoAnn Pagel, education and school chairman, reported on the many happenings at Muenster ISD with enthusiastic students and faculty joining the activities. Randy Tankersley and Ted Heers are working with their teams; Hornet cheerleaders have come up with a chant to be filmed; football players are putting stickers on their truck bumpers; and teams are being formed to work Saturday.

Teams, so far, for Saturday's event, include Muenster Telephone Corp., Sacred Heart Alumni, Muenster High athletes, Boy Scouts, Cooke County Electric, Muenster High Honor Society, Kiwanis and Sacred Heart Student Council.

Trash and Treasure Hunt will cover 6 sites on Hwy. 82, four sites on Hwy. 373, with Kiwanis covering Mesquite and Ash streets. Safety vests and gallon size trash bags are being provided by Texas Department of Transportation. Look for the laminated cards among the trash which are to be redeemed, at noon, for the prizes.

Prizes for the treasure hunt are being donated by Turtle Hill Golf Course, Muenster Chamber of Commerce, FMW Insurance, Muenster State Bank, Christi's Jewelry, Brushy Mound Real Estate, Vicki's Cut-N-Up, Donna Biffle, Victorian Lace, and Klement Ford, as of this date.

A luncheon at noon will feature hot dogs furnished by Fischer's Market and While Bill Clinton threatens to bring our government to a standstill with the veto, one of his demands is a 2 billion dollar check to the United Nations.

If this money is made available to the U.N. only "General" Amman of the U.N. will control it.

As time passes and I read of the U.N.'s leaning, along with Clinton's, toward a One World Government, I am more than a bit concerned about the future of the U.S.A.

If one looks into the U.N., one can soon realize that of all its members only 3 or 4 are our friends, and some of them only part-time.

I sometimes worry if our President has the right to send our soldiers to foreign lands as peace keepers, and I have more reservations about him turning our troops over to the U.N. and under their command, and forcing them to pledge allegiance to the U.N. and wearing U.N. uniforms.

It's a fact that one soldier who, while expressing his willingness to serve the U.S.A. armed forces in whatever capacity he was so ordered while wearing a U.S. uniform and under U.S. command was court-martialed, and given a "Less than Honorable Discharge" because he refused to wear a U.N. uniform. I think this is shameful and I would like to see our troops only wearing U.S. uniforms wherever they are.

Also I have problems with foreign troops training on U.S.A. soil, without our oversight and control.

Sometimes I wonder if Bill Clinton envisions himself as a future "Supreme Honcho" of a One World Government, which only re-enforces my desire to see the U.S.A. out of the U.N., and the U.N. out of the U.S.A.

beverages by Bayer's Kolonialwaren. Don Flusche is providing a sound system at the park. Dr. Audrey Morrill will be a volunteer standby in case of emergencies.

It is very important that everything be documented - pictures, news items and private records - each individual, organizations, etc. should keep detailed accounts of anything done concerning clean-up, beautification and preservation (the three objectives of "Proud" organizations). There are many other awards in the state contest which will be published soon.

The Trash and Treasure Hunt is the first effort of "Muenster Proud" to try for the Governor's Community Achievement Award for Muenster. Many other activities will follow with the go-getting leadership of Mary Lee Alford and members of the organization. Hopefully, the interest and efforts of many will continue to make Muenster a really PROUD community.

The monthly meetings are held on the second Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Cooke County Electric facility and everyone is welcome. Contact person is Mary Lee Alford 759-2368.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE

magistrate duties to be done and it goes on and on." When Judge Lewis took office she noticed this growing trend and immediately took steps to make the office more efficient. She set out to computerize and network the various functions of the office, reorganized the filing systems, updated forms and eliminated repetitive procedures. Even with as much streamlining as possible, the work load increased to the point where choices had to be made on what could wait until later.

The Commissioner Court increased the staff for Judge Lewis from one full time and one part time employee to two full time employees. This became effective with the 1999 fiscal year. "With the added staff on board and working hard, this office will continue to meet the services necessary to meet the needs of this community," said Lewis.

In conclusion Judge Lewis commented, "I have always believed that actions and consequences go together and that everyone should be accountable for themselves and their actions. I also believe that justice should always be tempered with compassion. If you want to live in a good community, you must be willing to work to make it happen. I sought this office four years ago on that philosophy and said, if elected, this office would reflect those beliefs. It has during my present term and will continue to do so upon my re-election."

Harold Chaney

Harold Chaney resides in Gainesville and has lived in Cooke County for 36 years. He is married for almost 37 years and has two daughters and four grandchildren. He holds an Associate degree from NCTC and a Bachelors degree from the University of North Texas. He has a concern for people, he says, and will listen to what they say and will render fair judgments.

Mr. Chaney is seeking the office of Justice of the Peace because, "Cooke County is already receiving a growth expansion from the Dallas, Fort Worth area. The next few years many people, along with new industry, will affect the government of this county. I would like to be a part of that program."

The office of Justice of the Peace has many and varied duties, said Chaney. "The JP performs duties from marriage to the grave on holding inquest of a death outside of a hospital," he noted. "The JP is presiding officer of the Justice Court and the Small Claims Court. The JP also has jurisdiction over minor misdemeanor offenses (Class C) and in civil matters where the amount of controversy does not exceed $5,000. The JP issues warrants for arrest upon proper form of complaint."

Chaney feels that the most important function of the JP is Small Claims Court. "Here a judgment is rendered on minor disagreements that cannot be settled by the two parties. Another important job is to issue warrants and setting bail."

Harold Chaney remarked that he has no agenda or special goals to accomplish if elected. "I just want to be a part of a growing community," he said. "I have seen Cooke County prosper and I have seen it in deep depression. I do not like the depression part."

As his qualifications to serve as Justice of the Peace, Chaney said that he worked as an office manager for a major oil company for 15 years. After his retirement from the oil company he returned to college and majored in Journalism and minored in Political Science. Several of his courses covered the duties of a JP, he said.

According to Chaney, "As the population (of Cooke County) grows, so will disputes grow. It may be over land or property. At present the JP offices appear to be equipped to handle the traffic. However, as computer programs improve so will the need to upgrade the offices."

In conclusion Chaney stated, "I believe in cutting waste. I will operate the office within the budgeted allowance. I have a zero tolerance for guns, drugs or disruptive behavior at school. I support putting discipline back in schools by giving teachers more control of their classrooms."

including six generations of history, I will do everything within my control to make this a great place to live and raise a family," said Judge Roane.

"It has been my duty and honor to serve the people of Cooke County as Justice of the Peace, Precinct Four, since my appointment a year ago," reflected Judge Roane. "I serve with the same sense of duty that saw me through a 20 year career as an Air Force officer and pilot, two terms as a city alderman in Valley View, and a deacon in my church. I want to ensure equal justice for all people regardless where they live or who they are."

Roane doesn't feel that any duty of the office is more important than another. "Every person, young or mature, whether it is a traffic offense or another misdemeanor, a wedding or a small claims, civil or eviction suit, wants to feel that his or her time before the judge is priority," Roane remarked. "Utmost importance must be considered when determining bail during daily arraignments at the jail, signing arrest warrants and granting peace bonds or emergency restraining orders after a family violence. Family members must know their feelings are respected during the all-too-frequent inquests that I must perform. All of these duties must be performed consistently and with respect to the individual."

If re-elected Judge Roane's goal is to continue working with young people. "I remember when children were safe, youth respected adults and adults disciplined their children in this county," he said. "I had rules at home and my children had rules when growing up. Shortly after becoming the Justice of the Peace, I went to area schools and explained the laws concerning minors and alcohol and tobacco. I explained that in my position I was bound to follow the law. Most parents do not want their young people drinking. Those that approve don't want them out on the roads. I will continue to deal firmly with youth in an attempt to avoid needless tragedy. I have been consistently tough on any age when dealing with family violence, drugs or driving while intoxicated."

Mr. Roane feels that in this day and time trust in our elected officials is vital. He encourages the voters to ask those who know him and work with him how he measures up. Trust, leadership, integrity and willingness to serve are all qualities that a Justice has to possess.

"My qualifications for the job come from years of leadership as an officer, husband, father, teacher, leader in the church, and the ability to work with people," said. "I work closely with A.B.B.A., Friends of the Family and other agencies to protect the interests of the innocent and deal harshly with those who take advantage of others. As a judge I do not go out and enforce the law as we have agencies trained for that job. The judge applies the law once it comes to court and ensures fairness and justice."

John has 40 hours of Justice Training. He has on the job experience and feels that experience in the job cannot be replaced.

Jodie Vance

Jodie Vance is presently employed by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association as a brand inspector. He works the weekly livestock sales at Muenster, Gainesville and Pilot Point.

A bachelor, Jodie has a sister in Gainesville, and another sister and two brothers living in Dallas. He has been a resident of Valley View for 25 years. He is a member of St. John's Church in Valley View and a member of the Knights of Columbus in Pilot Point. Jodie also serves as a director for the Mountain Springs Water Supply Corporation and for the Cooke County Youth Fair.

Vance said he is running for Justice of the Peace because he feels that he is the most qualified for the position. "I would like to see the office run more proactive instead of reactive," he stated. "I would have an open door policy providing a service to the citizens of the county and be friendly and helpful. I would structure the office hours to meet the needs of the people."

According to Vance the Justice of the Peace has many duties such as presiding over the Small Claims court and Civil cases. The Justice also works with the school in his precinct with truancy problems, arraigns prisoners and conducts inquests on deaths requiring an inquest.

Vance feels that a Justice of the Peace's most important function varies from office to office. "I think a JP's biggest function would be to provide a service to the people in his jurisdiction," he said. "The Justice of the Peace Court was the original People's Court. It is a place where people can go and settle their affairs without having to hire an attorney. Some offices would have a large amount of traffic going through their court, while another might have a large Small Claims docket."

If elected Vance has several goals he hopes to accomplish. "First and foremost would be dealing with the youth," said Vance. "Helping the youth of our county is a big responsibility of this office. We should be looking more for prevention instead of punishment. Hitting them with big fine and court costs isn't the answer, most of the time the parents would just have to pay it. I would be in favor of a Teen Court for the youthful citizens of our county. I also think community service would do more good than monetary cost. One alternative might be cleaning the school buses on Saturdays."

Since most people have to work, Vance would study rescheduling the office hours to accommodate more people's schedules.

As his qualifications Vance stated that he has worked with the Justice courts as well as the other courts in Cooke County for more than six years. He has more than 600 hours in Civil Process and other law related courses. "I either know the law or where to look for it," commented Vance. "In arraignments, for example, I know that prisoners are protected by the law of the United States and Texas Constitutions against excessive bails and fines. You don't have to be a lawyer to be a justice of the people, but it sure helps to know what you are doing when you are adjudicating the law."

Vance noted that this county is growing by leaps and bounds, especially in the southeast part. With that growth comes growth in the courts. He feels that in the next couple of years the Justice court will require more help to handle the growing number of cases.

"I am here to serve the people of Cooke County," Vance said. "I promise to treat everyone equally and fairly. My opponent said that my law enforcement experience wouldn't help in this position. How can you dispense justice if don't even know where to find it?"

Vance pledges that any monies generated from marriage ceremonies performed during business hours will be donated to Friends of the Family.

Protecting city wells

The City of Muenster is dependent on ground water for its good quality drinking water. It decided to establish a Wellhead Protection Program for its wells in March 1997. The city is entering the final phase of establishing that program next week when a representative from the Texas Rural Water Association will spend Wednesday and Thursday, October 14-15, 1998 taking inventory of potential sources of ground water contamination around each of the city's five wells. She will be walking around the city and inventorying items within a 1/4-mile radius of each well. The purpose of the inventory is to determine what types of contamination may be entering the recharge area of the pumping well. Contaminants that reach the Wellhead Protection Area are diluted, degraded, or absorbed to some extent before reaching the area boundaries. Once identified, potential sources of contamination within the Wellhead Protection Area can be controlled. This will help maintain good quality drinking water for city residents and businesses.

Dispose of hazardous waste Oct. 17, in Sherman

by Janet Felderhoff
Are you storing hazardous waste products and don't know what to do with them? One solution is to bring it to the 1998 Household Hazardous Waste Collection Day this Saturday, Oct. 17.

This is the second year that the event is being held. There are several sponsors including Grayson County Commissioners Court, Texas Council of Governments (TCOG), the City of Sherman, Texas Instruments, Raytheon and the Texas Natural Resources Commission. More than 52,000 pounds of household hazardous waste was collected last year.

Collected waste is either recycled or disposed of in the proper manner. Items collected included 300 car batteries and more than 2,500 tires.

Cooke County Commissioners voted to give their approval and support to Cooke County's participation in the Collection Day at their Oct. 12 meeting. The Commissioners encourage all interested local citizens to participate. The Commissioners who participated in last year's event praised the efficiency of the operation.

This year's collection site is again the back parking lot of the Midway Mall in Sherman.

The hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Acceptable items include motor oil, antifreeze, batteries, brake fluid, herbicides, drain cleaners, oven cleaners, spot removers, tile cleaners, paint, paint stripper, pesticides, poisons, and other cleaners, solvents, etc. Automobile tires will be accepted, but there is a limit of 12 tires per family this time. Tires larger than those used on an automobile will not be accepted.

For more information, or to become a volunteer, call John Ockels of TCOG at (903)813-3530 or Ken Zimmerer of Texas Instruments at (903)868-5345.

Dear Friends,

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the community of Muenster for the love and concern that you have extended to us. The gifts of food, the donations to the Social Concerns Committee, the cards and the support to our family are greatly appreciated. The organizations and individuals that have helped us are too numerous to mention, and we pray daily that you will be blessed for your generosity.

Currently, Allen is undergoing radiation treatments with more chemotherapy to follow. Your prayers are being answered, "for nothing is impossible with God" (Luke 1:37). You are wonderful and we love you all.

Sincerely,

Allen, Carla, April and Mel, Amy, Jana and Clayton the Precinct #1 constable. Tharp discovered that his personal insurance would not cover him while he was using his own vehicle to do police work such as making an arrest.

Tharp said that he didn't want to wait until January and come to Commissioners asking for a vehicle since he knew that Sheriff Compton has the 1991 Chevrolet available now and it has some mileage left. "I thought it was an excellent opportunity for me to get a vehicle with out a cost to the taxpayers of the county."

It was noted that a vehicle has never been provided in the past for a constable. Tharp assured the court that he planned to make arrests on hot check warrants.

"I think we need to look into this and see if maybe this is a trend that we want to set in all of the cars we have to trade in, to pass them down to the constables," said Duncan. The decision was tabled.

Funds are now available on a matching basis from the Texas Forest Service. If landowners have a pond and would allow the county to install a dry hydrant to draw water for purposes such as fires, the grant allows that the cost to the landowner is $200 to $300 with the grant paying the $200 or $300 and the county paying the cost of installing a pipeline to the road or a road to the hydrant. There is a discount on fire insurance for residences within 700 to 1,000 feet of the hydrant.

Patti Haayen of Cooke County United Way spoke to Commissioners Court to kick off the United Way campaign for the county. Haayen remarked that since August 1 she has made presentation in most major businesses in the county. "One of the things I've learned is that if the people in charge, you all, are in favor of United Way and give to United Way and set an example, then we have a success," remarked Haayen. "If you all are negative about United Way ... then it will fail."

Haayen stated that United Way isn't made up of the people who give a $1,000, but of all of us giving what we can. "I can promise you that it is the people who make minimum wage that make United Way work," she said. "If everybody in this county that worked gave a $1 a week, we'd have three and a half million dollars."

Two different presentation times were set up so that county employees could attend and learn more about what the United Way money is used for in Cooke County.

Holidays for 1999 were set as follows: New Year's Day, Jan. 1; Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 18; Good Friday, April 2; Memorial Day, May 30; Independence Day, July 5; Labor Day, Sept. 6; Veteran's Day, Nov. 11; Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, 26; Christmas Eve, Dec. 24.

In other business Commissioner Court:

- Hired Carol Roane as the new Veteran's Service officer.
- Set Sheriff and Constable fees at the same cost as last year.
- Approved final plat for Phase 3 of the Ranch Subdivision in Precinct #2.
- Set $500 fee for digital copy of County Map.
- Approved preliminary plat of the Meadow Oaks Subdivision in Precinct #1.
- Tabled appointment of a Cooke County resident to the TAPS Board of Directors.
- Agreed to pay an additional $798.30 to the Texas Department of Transportation for Construction on Hwy. 678.
- Appointed Carmen Karston to the Cooke County Child Welfare Board to serve in Place 6.

VFW Auxiliary holds POW-MIA ceremony

Preceding the VFW Ladies Auxiliary #6205 regular meeting on Monday, Sept. 21, 1998, a POW-MIA (Prisoner of War - Missing In Action) Candlelight Service was conducted by local president Frances Bayer.

The service was held at the local post. The floor was set up with the American Flag and the Auxiliaries' Altar cloth and Bible. On the table were black lighted votive candles representing each branch of the service in which the POW-MIA had served (Army, Navy, Air Force or Marines). Each one in attendance held a lighted white votive candle which represented the POW-MIA.

The lights were dimmed and Frances Bayer then read the "Military Code of Conduct."

Article 1 - I am an American Fighting Man. I serve in the forces which guard my country and our way of life. I am prepared to give my life in their defense.

Article 2 - I will never surrender of my own free will. If in command, I will never surrender my men while they still have the means to resist.

Article 3 - If I am captured, I will continue to resist by all means available. I will make every effort to escape. I will accept neither parole nor special favors from the enemy.

Article 4 - If I become a Prisoner of War, I will keep faith with my fellow prisoners. I will give no information nor take part in any action which might be harmful to my comrades. If I am senior, I will take command. If not, I will obey the lawful orders of those appointed over me and will back them up in every way.

Article 5 - When questioned, should I become a Prisoner of War, I am bound to give only Name, Rank, Service Number, and Date of Birth. I will evade answering further questions to the utmost of my ability. I will make no oral or written statements disloyal to my country and its allies or harmful to their cause.

Article 6 - I will never forget that I am an American Fighting Man, responsible for my actions and dedicated to the principles which made my country free. I will trust in my God and in the United States of America.

Following this, a poem which was written by an unknown POW was read by President Bayer, and Linda Knabe, Auxiliary Conductress led the group in prayer.

The program ended with the group joining in song to the recorded music of Lee Greenwood's "God Bless the U.S.A."

Special guests were the District I Auxiliary President Kathy Nelson of Pottsboro and her husband Larry Nelson, District I Judge Advocate and Buddy Poppy Chairman. Madam District President Nelson after the service, joined the Ladies Auxiliary for their regular business meeting. This was her official inspection of Muenster Auxiliary #6205.

Attorney General's crime compensation makes difference

Shifting the focus from the criminals and placing it on the victims of violent crime, the Crime Victims' Compensation Fund administered by the Office of the Attorney General can provide victims and their families financial assistance for certain out of pocket expenses not paid for by insurance, workers' compensation or some other available resource.

"Homicide, sexual assault, kidnapping, aggravated robbery, arson and other violent crimes can leave a victim and their family emotionally and financially devastated," Morales said. "The Crime Victims' Compensation Fund is an important safety net for them. The Fund can help pay for doctor bills, counseling fees, funeral costs and certain other related expenses attributed to the crime."

With the belief that criminals should be held responsible for their actions, the Fund is sustained through fines paid by convicted criminals. There are no tax dollars involved in the administration of the Fund. Awards on any one claim occurring after September 1, 1997, cannot exceed $50,000. However, in the event of a catastrophic injury, an additional $50,000 is available. Claims on any one claim occurring prior to September 1, 1997, are set at $25,000 respectively.

Examples of what the Fund can help pay for are:

- medical bills associated with injuries sustained by a drunk driving collision
 - counseling costs of an abused child or a sexual assault survivor and their immediate family
 - burial and funeral expenses
 - lost wages and loss of support payments
 - costs associated with crime scene cleanup
 - travel expenses for those seeking medical treatment, counseling or to participate in the criminal justice process
- Locally, crime victims may contact Sherry Hess at Cooke County Friends of the Family at 665-2873 for assistance in applying for this benefit.

In the U.S., motor vehicles account for 60% of ozone emissions, 80% of carbon monoxide emissions and 63% of petroleum consumption. Use radial tires and maintain proper tire pressure. Radial tires increase fuel efficiency by 4%. Improperly inflated tires can reduce fuel efficiency by up to 10%.

Call 911 to report fires

Many Muenster area residents are still using the 759-2235 number to report a fire to the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department. Local Fire Chief Herbie Knabe requests that people discontinue the use of that number immediately. All emergency calls, including those to report a fire, should be made by dialing 911. Using the 911 number will expedite assistance in all areas regardless of whether the call is meant for the Muenster fire department, Muenster police department, Cooke County sheriff's department, or Cooke County EMS.

Things have changed in acne philosophy since most of us stared in the mirror with disgust on the morning before the prom. Though the myths persist that acne responds to dietary intake and is due to lack of hygiene, strong evidence exists to the contrary. As our knowledge of the condition has expanded, so has our arsenal of effective therapies. The condition affects almost everyone to some degree between the ages of 11 and 30; and, though most recover with no lasting trauma, many severe cases can endure for years to leave scarring, both physical and emotional.

Acne is a psychophysiological disorder in that its physical pathology can be exacerbated by emotional stress. Not only does stress exacerbate acne, both chronic acne and acute flare-ups tend to exacerbate stress, frustration and anxiety to create a vicious cycle. Acne victims suffer a higher incidence of low self-esteem, depression and social phobias, where severity closely parallel the severity of the patients' acne.

Acne cannot be prevented, but most cases respond well to treatment, and the condition tends to disappear after adolescence.

Autumn ends dry summer

As of Oct. 7 Janette Hess, Muenster's official moisture recorder, had already noted 1.94 inches of moisture for the month. This was much needed after an extremely hot, dry summer that yielded little moisture. Vegetation is reviving in the cooler temperatures and recent moisture. Traditionally one of the wetter months locally, September produced only a scant 1.82 inches of rain which did little to alleviate the long dry spell.

Stars shine in Tigers' district opener

The Tigers began their 1998 district competition Friday night in the Metroplex taking on a very talented American Heritage Academy team from Carrollton. After four quarters of play, Sacred Heart fell 28-7.

"We made mistakes. Penalties were a factor - they all seemed to be at key times," noted Coach Tommy Frazier on the Tigers performance. "We threw interceptions - didn't line up right - just made mistakes. We didn't get turnovers, but gave them."

Sacred Heart received the opening kick on the 16 yard line. Duncan Campbell returned it to the Tiger 40 yard line. Runs by Adam Barnhill, Matthew Nasche, and Campbell took the ball to the Star 30 yard line. An intercepted pass was returned 35 yards to the Tiger 45. Three

After the teams exchanged flags, the Tigers were sitting with a 4th and 5. A Keith Felderhoff to Jordan Kohler pass put Sacred Heart on the board. Barnhill kicked the extra point, to cut the score to 7-14 with 6:38 on the first half clock.

The Tiger defense, led by Pat Miller, Jeff Hartman, and Adam Barnhill forced the Stars to punt. From their 21 yard line, Duncan Campbell found an open field for a 62 yard run to the 17 yard line. The Tiger offense stumbled, losing 4 yards. An attempted 38 yard field goal failed and Heritage took control on the 21. A 79 yard touchdown run was called back by a holding flag. Tackles by Barnhill and Russell Fette stopped any gain as the first half ended.

Barnhill gained 4, then Campbell carried the Tigers to the 12. A quarterback sack and a flag backed the Tigers up 8 yards. The next two runs were short and the Stars took over on their 10 yard line.

After moving out to the 30, a quarterback sack by Fette assisted in forcing a punt.

From midfield, a Felderhoff to Campbell pass quickly put the Tigers on the 26, but three incomplete passes and a no gain run returned the ball to Heritage.

Working on the clock, the Stars took six plays 34 yards, but a bad snap forced a punt. The Tigers got in three unsuccessful plays, an incomplete, a 5 yard loss and an interception to end the game.

"We shouldn't have lost this one. They didn't beat us, we plays later, Heritage scored on a 4 yard run. The PAT kick gave the Stars a 7-0 lead with 6:47 remaining in the first quarter.

The Tiger offense moved the ball for several plays, then threw another interception. This one returned 35 yards for another touchdown. The kick made the score 14-0 with 3:46 on the clock.

Jordan Kohler returned the kick to the Star 47 to start the Tigers third drive in good field position. Barnhill and Campbell took the ball into the second period and to the 33 yard line before running out of downs.

It was no gain and punt for the Stars, returning the Tiger offense to midfield. Matthew Nasche took only two runs to get to the 25, where Campbell gained another 13 to the 12. Nasche moved 4 yards closer.

Heritage took the 3rd quarter kick to their 35 yard line, then took seven plays to find pay dirt. The kick failed, giving the Stars a 20-7 lead with 8:44 on the clock.

Sacred Heart gave their opponents their next score. Unable to get the needed 10 yards, a punt on 4th and 8 turned bad when the snap gave the Stars the ball on the Tiger 10 yard line. Two plays later the Stars scored again, for a 28-7 lead after the extra points.

The Tigers booted away their next possession after a holding call, then assisted the Stars with a pass interference call. On fourth down, Kenneth Grewing blocked an attempted punt and Jonathan Yosten covered on the Star 36. A pass from Felderhoff to Campbell gained 12 yards for the Tigers, then Nasche added another 5 as the final quarter began.

lost it," Coach Frazier said. "At times we played well - other times - horrible. We had a bad practice last week. You play as you practice."

Frazier noted that Duncan Campbell had a good offensive game, while Russell Fette and Jeff Hartman led the defense.

Next Action - Balch Springs

The Tigers travel to Balch Springs this Friday to tangle with the Christian Academy Crusaders.

Coach Frazier believes that the Balch Springs team should be an even match for the Tigers, noting they have a good running back, tough and fast. "If we can stop him, we'll get a victory," said the coach. "They have good size up front, big kids. They are playing with emotions - playing and winning for their sick coach." Action begins at 7:30.

Directions to the Game

Take 635 through Mesquite to Seagoville. Exit Hwy. 175. Exit left onto 175 to the prison. The ball park is just past the prison.

Muenster sinks the Pirates' ship

The Muenster Hornets handed the Pirates of Collinsville another defeat Friday night, taking a 29-13 district opener win.

"A big first win in district," said Muenster Coach Randy Tankersley. "Collinsville pulled out all the stops. Our boys played through it and won a big game."

Both teams wasted no time lighting up the score board. Collinsville took only four plays to move 73 yards. Ronnie O'Neal scored on a 32 yard run. Darren Wolf added the extra kick for a 7-0 score with 1:22 off the clock. Muenster bounced right back, when Bryan Miller broke free on a 73 yard touchdown run. A high snap on the extra point made the score 7-6 with 10:16 on the clock.

Muenster's defense let a couple of plays make gains, but a Darren Hennigan sack and a Brent Sicking interception put a halt to the drive.

The Hornets, two plays later fumbled and the Pirates took the ball on the Hornet 37. A flag gave Collinsville 10 yards, but two incomplete passes and a short run saw the Pirates go for the first on fourth and 7. A quarterback sack by Sicking gave the Hornets possession on their 29. Sicking quickly covered 40 yards, but on 4th and one, a pass fell incomplete. Collinsville took over on their 36. The next play O'Neal ran 64 yards to score. The extra point was blocked and the Pirates took a 13-6 lead late in the 1st quarter.

Craig Hartman covered an onside kick at midfield, but Muenster couldn't gain any ground and punted as the 2nd period began.

The Hornet defense kept the Pirates from gaining any ground, forcing a punt on 4th and 16. From their 38, short runs by Miller, Sicking and quarterback Casey Walterscheid, and penalties moved Muenster to the Pirate 20 yard line before the Hornets ran out of downs.

It was 3 plays and punt for the Pirates. From the Hornet 47, Casey Walterscheid went up the middle to the 22 yard line. Three plays later, a halfback pass from Bryan Miller to Darren Hennigan saw Muenster score a touchdown. A Walterscheid to Aaron Klement pass added the extra points for a 14-13 Hornet lead.

Collinsville got in a few good plays, but the drive halted when Bryan Miller picked off a pass as the first half came to an end.

The second half began with a short Collinsville kick that Nick Silmon covered on the Muenster 44. Runs by Walterscheid, Miller and Sicking moved the Hornets to the six yard line in six plays, but the drive ended scoreless when Collinsville picked off a pass on the three. Two plays later the Hornets caught Collinsville in the end zone for a safety and a 16-13 score.

Eric Fisher returned the free kick 30 yards to the Pirate 40 yard line. Sicking, Walterscheid and an Aaron Klement pass reception took the Hornets to the 27. A missed play and a penalty set Muenster back 12 yards, but the next play Miller broke for a 37 yard run. From the 12, two runs lost 2 yards. On 3rd and 12, a pass interference call in the end zone gave the Hornets a first and goal at the 3 yard line. Two Miller runs later, the Hornets scored again. After three 5 yard penalties, the extra point run failed for a 22-13 score with 3:02 remaining on the clock.

Pressure on the quarterback saw three Pirate passes fall, forcing a punt. A high three yard punt put Muenster on the 19 yard line. The next play Darren Hennigan scored with a pass completion from Walterscheid. Silmon's kick gave the Hornets a 29-13 lead with two minutes and a quarter to play.

Sacks by Craig Hartman and Aaron Klement put Collinsville into a punting situation as the final quarter began. Miller got in two good runs before the Hornets fumbled. The Pirates threatened to score, getting inside the Hornet 20, but Muenster's pass defense put an end to the attempt.

It was three runs and punt for Muenster as the Pirates regained control on their 40 yard line. Two incomplete passes and a sack by Angel Hernandez saw Collinsville get the first down in a 4th and 15 predicament.

Penalties nullified several good Pirate plays. Then a bad snap lost another 21 yards followed by a 10 yard and an 8 yard loss from sacks by Brent Sicking and Angel Hernandez. On 4th down and 49 yards for a first down, the final seconds ticking off the clock, Collinsville threw one more time, only to have Jeff Klement intercept, to end the game.

"All week they said Collinsville had an edge because they won the last two years. We had something to prove - and went out and did it," said Tankersley.

Offensive standouts were running back Bryan Miller, Casey Walterscheid at quarterback standing in for Jesse Luke who had an appendectomy on Thursday, and receiver Darren Hennigan. Defensive standouts were Hennigan, Craig Hartman, Aaron Klement, Angel Hernandez and Jeff Klement in the second half.

Collinsville Pirates rob Stingers in 20-8 loss

The young Muenster Hornets challenged the Collinsville Pirates last Thursday and were handed a 20-8 loss.

Collinsville scored on their first drive with a 56 yard run. The extra points gave an 8-0 score with 3:48 on the clock.

Nathan Sicking covered an on-side kick to start the Stingers on the 47 yard line. Two plays later, Collinsville intercepted a pass and returned it 60 yards for another score. The extra point was intercepted by Muenster for a 14-0 score.

Jared Ledbetter covered a short kick on the Muenster 40. Two plays later, Collinsville covered a fumbled ball near midfield.

Defensive plays by John Sturm, Ledbetter, Nathan Hess, Tyler Walterscheid and Ricky Endres forced a punt on 4th and 14. A high snap gave Muenster the ball on the Pirate 35 yard line.

As the second quarter began, on 4th down, a Dustin Walterscheid to Michael Endres pass took the Stingers to the 9 yard line. Cody Cory picked up two yards and a Walterscheid to Tyler Walterscheid pass put Muenster on the 2 1/2 yard line. After an incomplete pass, a fumbled snap gave the Pirates possession on the 3 yard line.

Flags and Muenster's defense forced a Pirate punt. Tyler Walterscheid returned the kick to the Collinsville 40. Unable to gain any yardage, the Stingers attempted to punt, but fumbled and Collinsville took over at midfield.

The young Pirates slowly moved down field getting inside the 10 yard line, assisted by a flag. With 25 seconds on the clock, Cody Cory, Daniel Russell and Cameron Walterscheid stopped the Pirates at the 2 yard line. The next play it was Nathan Hess and Russell for no gain on 4th down, turning the ball over to Muenster with 10 seconds on the clock until the half-time break.

Collinsville kicked short to begin the 2nd half. A Walterscheid to Walterscheid pass picked up 13 yards with a pass to Michael Endres taking the Stingers to the Pirate 37. Several unsuccessful plays ended the drive on the 29. Five plays later the Pirates scored again on a 60 yard run. The PAT failed for a 20-0 score with a minute on the 3rd quarter clock.

Muenster's next drive was shortened with an intercepted pass as the final period began. It was 3 runs and punt for the Pirates, giving the Stingers possession on their 42 yard line.

Three Cory runs took Muenster to the Pirate 42, then another Cory run to the 26 yard line. With 3:30 remaining in the game, Dustin Walterscheid scored on a 26 yard run. Walterscheid ran in the extra points for a 20-8 score.

Nathan Hess covered a fumbled ball, on the Pirates second run, on the Pirate 40. Cory picked up 5, with a Walterscheid to Walterscheid pass taking Muenster to the 12 yard line. Cory carried to the 10, but three plays later, the Pirates controlled the ball.

Tackles by Kirk Hartman, Cameron Walterscheid, Tyler Walterscheid and Kyle Endres kept the Pirates to short gains as the clock ran out.

After the game, Coach Gordon Martin told the team that they stepped it up, but still have to improve, and played hard. "We moved the ball and completed passes," said Martin. "Let's make a commitment Monday - we have to do whatever it takes to win!"

Muenster Junior Varsity quarterback Mitch Endres has plenty of time to pass behind the protection of the linemen, including Dillon Sicking (65), Chris Grewing (54), Eric Knabe (24) and Elliot Klement (72). Janie Hartman Photo

Muenster falls to Collinsville

Plagued by penalties and turnovers, the Muenster Hornet J.V. lost its first round in District competition to the Collinsville Pirates.

Mitch Endres stepped up as starting quarterback replacing Randy Grewing who was moved to varsity for the Muenster Hornets. Endres gave great effort, but Muenster's only touchdown came in the second quarter and was made by Eric Knabe, but the extra point attempt failed.

Muenster would find themselves on the Pirate 3 yard line and less, 3 times during play, but luck was not on their side this time. There was confusion with the time clock and the chain crew, only escalating problems for Muenster. The Hornets picked up numerous penalties while Collinsville received only two, both occurring with less than five minutes left in the game. Collinsville scored once in each quarter with the final score occurring with only four seconds left in the game.

Cubs handed first loss

The Sacred Heart Cubs traveled to Carrollton Friday afternoon, to be handed their first loss of the season, 16-26, from American Heritage Academy.

The team exchanged punts before the young Stars took five plays 49 yards to score. With 1:47 remaining in the first period, Heritage took a 6-0 lead.

Jack Biffle and Chris Fuhrmann made Sacred Heart's 1st first down, but then the drive stalled, punting the ball back to the Twinkles. The next play, a 72 yard touchdown run by Heritage was called back due to a holding call. Three plays later, a minute into the second quarter, Heritage scored again. The extra point run failed for a 12-0 score.

Biffle brought the Tigers to the 50 yard line with a good return. Two Clint Fuhrmann to Marty Farrell passes and a short Biffle run took the Cubs to the 37. Clint found Michael Voth open to gain another 5, then Chris carried the ball to the 25. Fuhrmann to Farrell and Fuhrmann to Biffle passes followed, but two Biffle runs later, the Cubs were two inches short and the Twinkles took the ball on the 15. Heritage moved to the Cub 45 before fumbling. Sacred Heart covered.

A pass play from Fuhrmann to Voth gained 10 yards and Biffle ran for 5 before the half-time break.

Heritage punted and Sacred Heart fumbled their first possession, then it was punt and short as the fourth quarter began. The first play of the period saw the Twinkles score on a 45 yard run. Again the run failed for a 18-0 score.

The Cubs bounced back and turned a Clint Fuhrmann to Michael Voth pass into a 65 yard touchdown. Going to the air for the extra point, Fuhrmann to Farrell made the score 18-8 with only 33 seconds off the clock.

Heritage kicked away their next possession, then the Tigers fumbled their next two attempted drives. Heritage then scored again to take a 24-8 lead with 1:06 left in the game.

The Cubs last drive was only 3 plays, but a successful 3 plays that turned into points. Clint Fuhrmann's pass to Marty Farrell gained 28 and a pass to Michael Voth earned another 20. From the 20 yard line, Fuhrmann passed to Farrell who pitched to Chris Fuhrmann who ran in the final 15 yards for the score. Another Fuhrmann pass to Farrell added 2 points for the final 26-16 score.

The Cubs next game is Friday with Balch Springs. Action begins at 5 p.m., prior to the Tiger game.

Football Contest goes on ...

Week six of the Enterprise football contest saw several upsets. All contestants picked Lewisville to win, but The Colony thought differently. Only two entries believed A&M could beat Nebraska, while everyone picked Era over Saint Jo. Only two went with Oklahoma over Texas.

Locally, eight picked Sacred Heart, while 17 went with Lindsay and Valley View, and 28 of the 30 contestants knew Muenster could win over Collinsville.

Ted Heers took the weekly winning after correctly guessing 32 games. Second place went to Charles Edwards with 31, and third place to Mark Grewing guessing 30. They can pick up their cash prizes at: 1st Brown Motor Co.; 2nd H&W Meat; and 3rd The Center.

Guessing 29 games were Randy Tankersley, LeRoy Buddy, Doug Stoffels, and John Bartush.

J & E of Whitesboro takes top honors at Jaycee Ranch Rodeo

by Janet Felderhoff
An overall time of 2:26.59 captured first place honors for the working cowboy team from J & E of Whitesboro. Their prize was belt buckles. Coming in second was Boddy Ranch from Henrietta with a time of 2:34.03. They took home a $300 cash prize. Third place honors went to the Sliding K team from Gainesville for their time of 2:57.95. Their prize was $200.

Each time a team won an event they collected a $200 cash prize. Event winners were 9 Bar from Decatur in the Double Mugging, J & E in Wild Cow Milking and Calf Branding, Boddy Ranch in Team Roping and Team Sorting.

An honorary buckle was where the rodeo was held. Assisting at the event besides Jaycees were Wayne Klement, Bill Dangelmayr, and Claude Bayer as gate help; Chad Cheaney and Corey Anderle as gate and parking; Rhonda Fangman, Kristi Hesse, Dianne Felderhoff, and Alan Rohmer as timekeepers; Charlotte Dangelmayr, bookkeeper; Dee Eberhart, secretary; Herkey Biffle, announcer; Jackie Bartush for singing; Harold and Dollie Owens and Frank Fangman were hazers; Rick Walterscheid and Tim Schneider offered the prayer; Paul Baird and Family carried the flags; James Dunham and Billy Poyner were judges; Norbert Flusche and Damie Hellman furnished panels.

Muenster Livestock Auction provided the cattle.

A drawing was held to conclude another Jaycees benefit. As a fund raiser for Allen Truabenbach the Jaycees sold raffle tickets. Winners were Matthew Flusche, $300 trade at Community Lumber; Curtis Hesse, $300 in trade at Hess Furniture; Joe Bontempo of Sherman, $200 cash from Muenster State Bank; Tim Hess and Ernest Gobert of Bokchito, Oklahoma, Men's or Ladies Fossil watches from Christi's Jewelry; Carl Bayer, 12 gauge Remington 870 from Gehrig's Hardware; Casey Walterscheid, Dinner for four at The Center; Alethea Morris, Dinner for four at Rohmer's Restaurant.

John Howard, cowboy for the Cross N Ranch team, holds the wild cow's head during the "undressing" event. His teammates have to help hold the animal and peel off a small adhesive tag, then present it to the judge for a time.

presented to Ancil Thurman of Saint Jo for all his years of dedication as a ranch rodeo participant and for his support of the Jaycees.

Co-chairmen for the rodeo were Gus Ashley and Neal Flusche.

Proceeds from this Ranch Rodeo will be used towards the building of a baseball complex in Muenster. There was an auction at the event to help raise money. Items were donated by Paul Bartush, Paul J. and Gary Hess, The Smokehouse of Lindsay, Tony's Seed & Feed, Muenster Mill, and Carl Chappel of Saint Jo. Businesses and individuals who purchased ads for the program also contributed to the proceeds being raised and Jaycee Ranch Rodeo Co-chairman Gus Ashley had special thanks to all who donated in any way to the Ranch Rodeo.

Farm Bureau supports Susan Combs

Farmers and ranchers seem to prefer one of their own when it comes to the person who sits in the Texas agriculture commissioner's office. The choice during this election is rancher and former state legislator Susan Combs.

Combs earned the endorsement of the Texas Farm Bureau Friends of Agriculture Fund (AGFUND). The political action arm of the state's largest farm organization picked Combs because of "agricultural experience, a proven track record on property rights issues and the ability to speak up for Texas agriculture."

Bob Stallman, president of the Texas Farm Bureau and AGFUND said, "Susan Combs has all the tools to be an outstanding commissioner of agriculture."

Combs still runs the Brewster County ranch established by her great grandfather. She served in the legislature and was the author of the Private property rights bill that became law in 1995. She was also an assistant district attorney in Dallas, and served as state director for U.S. Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison.

"Texas agriculture has many challenges," Stallman said. "The droughts of 1996 and 1998 have left many producers on the brink, and strong leadership is needed."

Stallman said Combs is the person to take the helm at the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"There has been so much rhetoric and little action with regard to processing agricultural products in Texas," he said. "We think Susan Combs is the person to make it happen, helping bring more jobs to the state and prosperity to Texas agriculture."

AGFUND is Texas Farm Bureau's political action fund. It is a legal entity separate from the Texas Farm Bureau

County Agent's Report

BRIAN ROHMER - FALL INTERN

Brian Rohmer, Senior Agricultural Services and Development Major, from Tarleton State University, has begun his student internship with the Cooke County Extension Service in Gainesville. He is under the supervision of Craig Rosenbaum, the local County Extension Agent-Agriculture.

Mr. Rohmer will be in the community for ten weeks for the purpose of receiving training in Agricultural Extension activities. This arrangement has been made by mutual agreement between the County Extension Service and Tarleton State University. The intern will assist with all activities concerning the local Agriculture and 4-H Programs. Upon completion of this training period, he will receive the Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Services and Development from Tarleton State University.

ARMYWORMS STILL WITH US

Outbreaks of armyworms continue over the county and producers have received some severe damage to their wheat fields and grass pastures. This week several farmers have inquired about egg masses that they have found on leaves of wheat and grass plants. These egg masses are probably those of armyworms.

Allen Knutson, Extension Entomologist, told me that they are catching so many adult moths in the pheromone traps that they have begun to weigh them instead of taking individual counts. These adults are probably local armyworm moths. Eggs from adults can hatch in three to five days and then the caterpillars will feed for approximately three weeks. Egg masses appear as "fuzzy" dirty white clusters of eggs under the leaves. For some reason, they are also attracted to plastic and eggs have been found on plastic flags.

How long will they last? It appears that they will probably be around for another two weeks. In two weeks temperatures should have cooled down to where pupa will have a hard time surviving and the small worms will also have difficulty in survival. The cold weather will make it extremely hard for an additional cycle following the one we are experiencing with a fresh hatch now.

LIVESTOCK MANAGEMENT CALENDAR

Each year the Extension Livestock Committee along with local sponsors provide a Beef Management Calendar to county producers. In this year's calendar, the committee has decided to add several pages of a Breeder Directory. Producers who have livestock, hays, custom farming, horseshoeing, hay baling, etc. can place an ad in the calendars for a $20 fee. To place your ad, contact the County Extension Office and visit with Craig Rosenbaum at 668-5412.
