Presson resigns as Chief Appraiser

by Janet Felderhoff
Cooke County Appraisal District (CCAD) Chief Appraiser Will Presson submitted his resignation at the May 28 meeting of the CCAD board of directors. It was accepted by the board with certain stipulations. He has accepted a position with Schmitz and Schmitz Properties of Gainesville.

Presson said that he hopes to be able to leave by the end of this month. He wishes to see a smooth transition so that the CCAD will continue to go forward with its appraisal.

Will Gooch, CPS representative, attended the meeting to answer board members' questions on the computer software problems being experienced by CCAD. Most of the problems were caused by changes dictated by the Texas legislature last summer. Gooch said his company has been working on getting the changes implemented to the software and most have been solved.

Presson added that there are two sides - Collection and Appraisal. When changes take place they must be made in both places because the two sides can't communicate. That is a problem that CPS is working to solve.

Board Chairman Ken Kaiser asked that there be clarification of several items in the policy manual. One thing he questioned was the policy on giving gifts to the outgoing board members. He wondered about paying for the gifts with tax payers' money.

It was stressed that the gifts given to the two outgoing members this year were bought with private funds. Arthur Felderhoff remarked that he didn't think there was a question because he believes it is against state law to use the tax payers' money in such a way. Stephen Cole added that he felt using tax money would be unethical.

Cole and Jane Carlton asked that they be given the proposed changes to the manual to review before passing or considering any changes. The board agreed to this and tabled the matter until the next meeting.

In his chief appraiser's report, Presson said that Muenster ISD and Callisburg ISD are the areas that need to be focused on for reappraisals in the near future. This is so that they will meet the state's requirements and receive full funding. In the past the CCAD's work in the areas have been inadequate in these districts, said Presson.

In other business the board:

- Agreed to put out two pieces of the CCAD's equipment for bids.
- Minutes of the April 23 meeting were reviewed and approved.
- Payment of bills was reviewed and approved.
- Financial statement was reviewed and approved.

Cooke County looks at new phone system for jail

by Janet Felderhoff
Cooke County Judge Russell Duncan opened the June 8 meeting of Commissioners Court with a moment of silence and a special prayer in memory of Paul Hesse. Hesse died June 6, 1997 while holding the office of County Judge.

The county's contract with Southwestern Bell for inmate phone system package expires in December 1998. Sheriff Compton explained, "We have two companies, so far, to express an interest in putting in the inmate phone system. What this means is they put the system back there that provides revenue into the general fund. Also along with this they provide a software and hardware package to assist the Sheriff's office in records management, jail management, and things of this nature."

The company currently providing the services has not proven to be satisfactory and Southwestern Bell no longer uses them. Compton hopes to get assistance from the County's Technology Committee in reviewing the software and hardware packages offered to make sure that the county gets the best deal available.

Sheriff Compton explained that a phone is available in each cell block. The inmates can use the phone at anytime, but it is very expensive even for a local call. The calls are made collect.

Compton feels it is a good thing because it prevents the appearance of someone being held incommunicado. The calls can be monitored or recorded if so desired by the jail staff. A recording tells the person receiving the call that it is coming from the Cooke County jail.

"The software packages that they provide can make running a jail so much easier," said the Sheriff. "It's the difference between daylight and dark. We're working under a handicap from the contract that was signed in '93 because the software company hasn't lived up to what the contractor thought they would do. The phone service is fine."

Commissioners approved the request with a vote of 5-0.

Muenster ISD School Board holds productive meeting

by Janie Hartman
The Muenster ISD Board of Directors met for their regular meeting on Thursday, June 11. All board members were present along with school personnel Steve Cooper, Gwen Trubench and James Hopper.

Business began by making small corrections to the minutes from last month's meeting and the special meetings held May 19 and May 28. Also the accounts payable for May were discussed and approved.

Cooper gave his superintendent's report, which included:

- The scoreboard and timers stand were damaged in the recent windstorm. The ruined stand also caused damage to the track. Insurance and repairs should have everything fixed soon.
- Re-roofing of the football field restroom is in progress.
- New carpet is down in the auditorium.
- Custodian Tim Bindel fell and quit last Friday. Replacement will be discussed at next meeting.
- Will have special meeting Thursday, June 18 to approve the sale of the bonds.
- Received certified tax roll from the county. Set the tax rate to preliminary number of $97,449,000.

Discussion of the removal and sale of the CAD classroom and the building of a maintenance shed and covered area for buses in this area was discussed. Rudy Koelsler wants to build this as a shop project. Cooper also noted that the Ag class extension is almost complete.

Another information item discussed was the suggestion to pay a student to help maintain computer equipment throughout the school year. This in-house employment will keep computers in better working condition and free up the teachers.

Mr. Hopper handed out class schedules for the 1998-99 school year, noting that the junior high will not use the block schedule like the high school. Hopper noted the NTEN classes are in a make or break situation. Most were scheduled during athletics, so athletics were changed to the period before lunch every other day. Classes will begin at 8:00 a.m., with middle school athletics the first period.

Burleson Singleton Architects were present at the meeting, noting that they needed the board's approval on the blueprints so they can go into the next phase of the project. Some small changes from the original plans were discussed and OK'd by the board. Some last minute ideas and questions included:

- Electrical plugs in rooms.
- The difference in space between 12 inch and 14 inch lockers.
- Each room will have AC/Heat controls.
- Location of fire doors with tornado tunnel.
- Trophy cases and location.
- Construction of the new high school is scheduled to begin on Oct. 19, 1998 with completion on July 1, 1999.
- Other action items included:
 - Approved WIN school program for school
 - Food bids for the 1998-99 school year went to U.S. Food Service, Mrs. Baird, and Oak Farms Milk.
 - Mr. Cooper requested the bids on the elementary playground equipment be tabled until the June 18 meeting. He is waiting for updated bids.
 - The board looked at, discussed and made changes on the floor plan of the new superintendent's office. The 1800 square foot building will be located at Seventh and Oak Streets. "It's a little smaller than the present office building, but the space is utilized better," noted Cooper. The board approved the redrawn plans.

• A new John Deere, 24 hp diesel tractor was approved for purchase. Bids from Lawn Land, Kubota of Denton, and Pettit-Ward in Gainesville were discussed, with Pettit-Ward awarded the bid at $12,360.

• Muenster Building Center was awarded the low bid for $1254 for a field sprinkler, including 200 feet of hose and the rain train. Cooper noted another 100 feet of hose will be needed.

• The board approved all campus/dress code updates and changes, including these prohibited fads: two-toned hair; hair cut in a strip regardless of the length of the remaining hair; shorts and skirts; camouflage or other military type gear; sagging of the pants, pants which are ripped or torn, pants which drag the floor or are excessively baggy; body piercing, other than girls' earrings; chains, regardless of how or where they are worn. "This is simply an effort to update the written policy," noted Hopper. "However, students and parents need to be aware of these updates prior to investing in school clothing."

Changes in the class schedule were also approved. Tutorial period will be before 8 a.m. Zero hour classes will include Computer Aided Drafting and Medical Terminology on NTEN. New classes have been added. Career Investigations will be an elective class offered to 8th grade students, while freshmen and sophomores will be offered Career Connections.

In executive session, the board accepted the resignation of first grade teacher Darla Lile, and hired Carol Ann Hess.

Tax rebates indicate good local economy

Checks totaling $236 million in monthly sales tax payments were sent to 1,092 Texas cities and 118 counties by the State Comptroller's office. That was a nine percent increase over the $216.5 million sent in May 1997.

"The robust growth of the Texas economy still shows no signs of slowing, with higher employment numbers going hand-in-hand with higher consumer spending," said John Sharp state comptroller. "Year-to-date, rebates to cities and counties are up 10.3 percent over last year."

May 1998 rebates for Muenster, $20,870.70, shows an increase of 58.49 percent from last May. To date Muenster's rebates total $87,973.76, an increase of 53.97 percent from May 1997.

Lindsay received $5,832.70 in rebates for May. That is 7.23 percent more than the $5,438.72 from May 1997. To date in 1998 Lindsay has received $25,100.77, 9.27 percent more than this time a year ago.

Oak Ridge saw an increase of 11.90 percent in the May rebate payment of $3,617.62.

Gainesville and Valley View both had decreases from a year in their rebate payments.

CCAD takes action to find chief appraiser applicants

by Janet Felderhoff
Members of the Cooke County Appraisal District (CCAD) met in a special session Tuesday, June 16. With the resignation of Chief Appraiser Will Presson at the May meeting, they met to discuss what action was required to hire a replacement.

After much discussion members voted unanimously to place ads on the Internet, in the Appraiser, in newspapers including the Muenster Enterprise, Gainesville Register, Dallas Morning News, Fort Worth Star Telegram, and newspapers in San Antonio and Houston. Letters will be sent to all appraisal districts with a targeted number of employees in hopes that it will be posted on their bulletin boards.

An executive session was held, but no action was taken as a result.

Scouts attend Camp Grayson

by Shirley Knabe
 During May 31 through June 6, fifteen Boy Scouts and seven adults enjoyed camping at beautiful Camp Grayson for a fun filled and exciting week of summer camp. While in camp, the boys enjoyed activities such as sailing, canoeing, scoutcrafts, water balloon volleyball, and many camp wide competitions.

Each day began with an opening flag ceremony which troop 664 did on Friday morning and the closing ceremony Friday evening for family night.

The boys earned a total of 60 merit badges and 4 new scouts completed several requirements on their trail to first class.

Highlights of the week included the prestigious Ash ceremony on Monday evening in which all first time campers at Camp Grayson receive a symbolic ash from the first campfire at Camp Grayson, during the Friday evening family night campfire Shawn Moore was recognized by Jim Russell the shooting sport director as one of the Top Guns in the Rifle Range during the week.

The closing campfire on Friday night highlighted the tap out ceremony conducted by the Order Of The Arrow. Three of Muenster's Scouts Daniel Bartush, Jack Biffle, and Michael Voth were tapped out to join the Order of the Arrow which recognizes elite campers. Several of Troop 664's older scouts have been serving as principal members of the ceremonies teams for Camp Grayson during the month driving back and forth several times. Proposed lake will feature recreation areas

by Steve Broyles
NOTE: This is the third in a series of articles on the bond election.

Last week's article discussed the benefits of building the dam now. This week's article will concentrate on the benefits of building the park and recreation area. The park and recreation area will be built at the same time as the dam since the Natural Resource Conservation Service is also funding half of the expense.

The park and recreation area will consist of a 22-acre area just north of the lake on County Road 316 (Picnic Grounds Road). The park area will have parking for 70 vehicles and 25 family picnic units, with 10 units having Bar-B-Que grills. There will also be an open play area for children. There will be restrooms and a water fountain available. It will be a park area for people to enjoy picnics and family reunions.

The recreation area will include two fishing piers, a two-lane boat ramp for small craft, and 20 auto-boat parking units. The Texas Parks and Recreation Department will stock the lake with native bass, bluegills, channel catfish, and rainbow trout. Fishermen will follow Texas rules on fishing and boating. Boating will be limited to small craft, with small motors. Actual size and horsepower has yet to be decided; however, large boats, water skiing, and ski crafts won't be allowed on the lake because of the trees, which will mostly be left in place for fishing holes.

A water wheel will be dug into the Antlers Formation to a depth around 150 feet. In addition, a 4,700 gallon Septic Tank buried by the restrooms. Sewer lines will be laid to a lagoon with 135 foot square sides and 5 feet deep.

Future recreation plans will depend on funding and grants. These may include playground equipment, a backstop, and hiking and/or biking trails.

The Natural Resource Conservation Service estimates that 11,000 people will visit the lake each year, with a maximum of 500 in one day. The sooner the dam is built, the sooner people can enjoy local fishing, boating, and picnicking at a lake.

Next week's article will review the dam and lake size and compare the lake with other lakes.

Alfred J. Hoedebeck, 78, dies in Irving

Alfred J. Hoedebeck of Irving died in Irving on Friday, June 12, 1998 at the age of 78. He was born on October 5, 1919 in Muenster, the fourteenth child of Frederick and Anna Schumacher Hoedebeck.

On December 30, 1941, he married Irene Flusche in Muenster. They became the parents of nine children. He was an active member of the St. Luke's Catholic Church. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army serving in World War II. In recent years since his retirement from the U.S. Postal Service, he worked tirelessly promoting the various programs of the Knights of Columbus, particularly Aid for the Impaired and the Deaf Foundation.

He had received numerous awards for his work, including the Ray Neuman Sr. Exemplary Charity Award and the Meritorious Service Award. He was Mayor of Irving also and received the Irving Lifetime Achievement Award for his service to the City of Irving. But the award he most valued and treasured was the Irving Knights of Columbus "Family of the Year" Award for 1984. He had been a member of the Fourth Degree Grand Knights of Columbus of Dallas for many years and a group was represented at the rosary and funeral services in his honor. He held the office of Grand Knight and also served as District Deputy.

Surviving him are sons

Alfred J. Hoedebeck

Also brothers Joseph Hoedebeck of San Diego, California, Rev. Paul Hoedebeck of Subiaco, Arkansas, and Eugene Hoedebeck of Muenster; sister, Philomena Howell of Katy, Texas; and eight grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

It was given to Alfred's brother Rev. Paul Hoedebeck. He will use it at his parish in School Creek, Arkansas.

Mass of Christian Burial was held on Monday, June 15 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Luke's Catholic Church with Rev. J. Douglas Deshotel and Fr. Paul Hoedebeck concelebrating.

Interment followed in Calvary Hill Cemetery in Dallas.

Scripture readings were given by daughter-in-law Eddie Hoedebeck and grandson Michael Morris. Offertory gifts were presented by his grandchildren.

The family has requested memorials be sent to Subiaco Academy.

The Feast of Corpus Christi, so dear to several local generations who recall religious customs of their childhood and adulthood, was celebrated by St. Peter's Parish in Lindsay on June 14. Hundreds of members of the parish joined in the procession from church to the four outdoor chapels for prayers, sacred music and Benediction. Little second graders in their First Communion garb sprinkled fresh flowers. The Blessed Sacrament was carried by pastor, Father Eugene Luke. Four Lindsay young men carried the traditional gold-embroidered canopy. Church societies carried their respective banners. Lindsay is one of the few parishes still preserving the tradition.

60th wedding anniversary celebrated by Yostens

Stan and Rosabell Yosten, natives of Muenster and long-time residents of Fort Worth, celebrated 60 years of marriage on Sunday, June 7, 1998, surrounded with love and caring by their families. The day blossomed with memories days gone by.

One special memory among any that were shared at the 60th anniversary reception, called the wedding day in 1938. Muenster had experienced an electrical storm the evening of June 5. Sacred Heart Church, and no one else had electricity on the wedding day. Wedding music that would have been played on the pipe organ came from the human power hand pump, and the sounds of Music went loud or dim, according to how fast it was pumped.

The wedding reception was held at the farm home of Rosabell's parents Theo and Rose Miller, northwest of Muenster. A tent was raised in the yard and the party commenced. Good food, good drink, good music in the German tradition went on until late night. Hogan's Combo played for the wedding dance at the old Parish Hall. The last song was "Home Sweet Home" was the custom those years. There was no honeymoon for these newlyweds, as these were depression years. But through the years, Rosabell and Stan would see much of the world, living in Muenster, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Las Vegas and England.

Now, 60 years later, the anniversary celebration was held at the Greg Yosten home at Eagle Mountain Lake, Fort Worth. It was hosted by their family Greg and Tammy Yosten, and the daughter Jenna; Teresa Yosten and her twin daughters and son-in-law Kelly Yosten and Kristy and Ron Smiley.

A large tent was erected in the back yard where good food, good drink, good laughter and much love was shared by relatives and friends. A Mexican food buffet was catered by Aurizolias of Lake Worth.

Preceding this party on Sunday, Stan and Rose were twin daughters Kristy and Kelly have a special place in Stan and Rosabell's hearts, as do Greg, Tammy and Jenna. They accepted this sorrow as they accepted other sad events: "Lord, Thy Will Be Done."

Stan Yosten was born in Muenster in 1912 to Robert and Agnes Swirczynski Yosten. Rosabell Miller was born in Muenster in 1917 to Theo and Rose Herr Miller. They attended school here and were members of Sacred Heart Church. They were married in for 33 years, retiring in 1976. They continued to make their home in Fort Worth.

Attendants at the wedding 60 years ago were Leonard (Spike) Yosten and Bernice Miller Yosten. Spike attended the celebration but Bernice was unable to attend due to illness. Her husband, Paul Yosten did attend, and also his son Joel Yosten.

The anniversary cake was displayed on a special table with floral arrangements, a gift from granddaughters Kristy and Kelly. The first piece of cake was shared by the couple to signify their pledge to take care of each other, their marriage partner for life. Another cake was baked and decorated by special friends and neighbors C.J. and Dorothy Surey.

A toast was given with these words: "God bless you very richly, on your 60th jubilee, for serving Him throughout the years, Both well and faithfully, God fill your hearts with happiness, And grant you, day by day, His continued love and guidance, As you follow in His way."

Among local relatives attending the reception were Leonard (Spike) and Frances Yosten, Buddy (Leroy) and Dorothy Mae Yosten, all of Muenster; and Stan's sister Angie (Yosten) Reiter and her daughter Gladys Gordon of Gainesville. Also Bill Miller, Herbert and Dolores Miller, Tom and Barbara Felderhoff, Ervin and Carol Henscheid, all of Muenster; Randy and Marilyn Bayer of Roanoke; and Ted and Cindy Miller of Sherman.

Stan and Rosabell's advice proclaimed to all guests and especially to all newlyweds on the longevity of marriage: "Work Hard and Keep on Dancing!"

Stan and Rosabell Yosten honored by their religious family of St. Paul the Apostle Church in River Oaks, Fort Worth on Friday evening, June 5. A reception was held in the Parish Hall. Father Tom Wigginton is their pastor.

The happiest events in their lives came when God blessed them with two wonderful sons, Jim and Greg. Jim was born on April 13, 1950 and Greg was born on August 22, 1957. The saddest event came when God called Jim home in 1990 at 39 years of age, when he succumbed to a heart attack. Jim's wife Teresa and their years after their marriage they lived in Muenster, and Stan was employed by "Shorty" Herr Motor Co. (where Klement Ford is now located). During W.W.II they lived in San Antonio for one year and both worked in a defense plant. Relative recall that they lovingly nicknamed her "Rosie, the Riveter" when that song was popular. In 1944 they moved to Fort Worth. Stan was employed by General Dynamics

Green Tips

Fact: Over its lifetime, the cost of the energy to run a refrigerator is typically three times its original cost. Tip: When purchasing a new refrigerator, consider the yellow Energy Guide label on the appliance. The more expensive, more efficient unit may actually save you money in the long run.

NCTC offering quick TASP to accommodate students

College bound students, TASP requirements have changed - are you prepared?

The Texas Legislature recently passed a law requiring students entering Texas Academic Skills Program (TASP) required programs at public colleges and universities to take the TASP test before registering for classes. TO accommodate students, North Central Texas College is offering Quick TASP.

Previously students were allowed to accumulate nine hours before they were required to take the TASP.

said Bill Caver, NCTC Director of Counseling, "what this new law means is that the nine hour grace period has been taken away."

To ensure no one falls through the cracks, Quick TASP was established. It is identical to the regular TASP; however, it allows students to by-pass the traditional sign-up procedures, saving the amount of time between registration and testing. This will allow a student who hasn't yet taken the TASP time to meet the new requirement and enroll in classes without falling behind.

Students can now register through NCTC by phone (940) 668-4216 or in person in the Counseling Center at NCTC.

"NCTC will offer as many test times as necessary to accommodate students," said Caver. "In addition, we will offer testing at the Lewisville and Denton campuses." Due to limited Test Center Seating, Caver suggests students call and schedule ahead of time.

During registration NCTC will be offering Quick TASP on a walk-in basis.

The test fee of $29 is the same for TASP and Quick TASP. When students come to take the test they need to bring a check, money order, Visa or Mastercard, Caver suggests, a prepared mind.

"I suggest students purchase a TASP study guide and review it thoroughly," said Caver. TASP study guides can be purchased at the NCTC book store for $12 and can also be found at retail book stores.

The TASP test has three sections, writing, reading, and math. "It is designed to determine if a student may need help in an academic area," said Caver, "the legislature passed this new law so students can get the skills they need sooner in order to be more successful in college."

For more information or to schedule a test time call Bill Caver at the NCTC Counseling Center at (940) 668-4375.

The story revolves around the murder of Ken Howe, a high powered big city attorney of the law firm Willie, Cheatum, and Howe. The Howes' are newcomers to small town life and Ken suffers a fatal attack of culture shock. Was Ken murdered by his disgruntled socialite wife? Maybe it was the towns gladdening mayor "Doodler" Shifley or perhaps it was the local trailer park manager Dorleen Bendover. The murder investigation is laughingly bumbled by the mentally befuddled deputy, Maynard Frisk. Is Maynard as stupid as he seems or did he play a part in the victim's demise? The audience is a part of the investigation and the fun as the suspects move about the crowd and the motives unfold.

The show is set for Saturday, July 11, at the Muenster Community Center. Show time is set for 7 p.m. with Happy Hour beginning at 6 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person and include Happy Hour, meal, and entertainment. For reservations, contact the Muenster Chamber of Commerce at (940) 759-2227.

Students presented in recital June 2

Seventeen piano students of Rosemary Dankesreiter performed in a Piano Recital on Tuesday, June 2, 1998. The recital was held in the First Baptist Church in Muenster at 7 p.m. Chris York played a recessional march as the students entered. Mrs. Dankesreiter welcomed parents, grandparents, and friends in attendance and introduced each of the 17 students and their parents and stated the number of years each student had taken lessons. Each student played two solo selections. Brady Howell and Jordan Ledbetter played three selections. The students played classical, folk, pop, traditional, and religious melodies from their repertoires learned during the year. After the performances, Mrs.

Dankesreiter complimented all students on their hard work and accomplishments. She pointed out that not only had the students been learning to play the piano, but they had also been developing skills of self-discipline, cooperation, persistence, time management, eye-hand coordination, agility, and even learning a bit of the Italian language.

They had acquired self-respect, pride in completing a goal, grace, perseverance, biographical knowledge of music composers and skills in playing various rhythms. Mrs. Dankesreiter then presented all students with certificates of merit for individual years of training. The piano stage was decorated with large fern plants on either side of the piano. The stage also held 2 large arrangements of colorful spring flowers. Atop the piano was a beautiful basket arrangement of multicolor spring flowers which had been sent to Mrs. Dankesreiter by her daughter and son-in-law John and Dana Walterscheid.

Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Bill Ledbetter gave the closing prayer after praising the talents of the students and the work accomplished by Mrs. Dankesreiter. Mrs. Dankesreiter thanked all the parents and students for their cooperation throughout the year and invited all to a reception held in the Fellowship Hall where punch and cookies were served after group pictures were taken.

IN PRAISE OF EDUCATORS Shaping the Future

This is the first in a series of interviews of high school teachers of 1998 NCTC students enrolled in English 1301, taught by Stephen Bonin. Students were given an assignment, but were permitted to choose the teachers they wished to interview.

Irene Hartman volunteers to love children

by Kim Sturm

"Educating the mind is not enough," proclaimed Irene Hartman, an English and Theater Arts teacher at Muenster High School. "Children are the future of our country, and if we don't start giving them love, their spirits will wither away along with our lives." Mrs. Hartman receives many joys out of helping young people in as many ways as she possibly can. She believes that working with the youth helps her to see the beauty of adolescence that lately has been hidden in the report we get from the media.

In the past, Irene has been a volunteer for various youth activities. She has led a weekly prayer group with her husband, taught religion classes and led Bible Studies for the Sacred Heart Church, hosted the Fellow Christian Athletes, worked three years on the library board for the Muenster Public Library, and volunteered to organize "Words of Wisdom" to her students. Irene currently keeps herself very busy by educating young minds at school, volunteering almost all of her free time into directing the Theater Arts team with their play, and raising a family. Recently she helped put on a benefit performance for ABBA, an organization that aids and counsels young, single mothers.

"Children have a greater need than ever before," stated Mrs. Hartman. Irene pushes herself to improve helping children every day. Because she is a teacher, she has the opportunity to share her principles and beliefs to others. She does not try to condemn them, but only tries to influence them to succeed. She feels that she has the opportunity to speak for all parents. Mrs. Hartman encourages responsibility, self-sufficiency, and productiveness in her students. She does not want them to grow up without the skills needed to make a good living in the very competitive world that we live in.

In church activities as well as at school, she knows that if she teaches the word of the Lord, she must also live by what she says. This helps her to walk the right path. Irene is aware that teens are watching her, and that humbles her not to set bad examples for them. She is tested constantly and this helps her grow in faith. Mrs. Hartman tries to lead a Christian life as much as possible, and admits it when she does make mistakes. She said that she knows that "teens can spot hypocrites," so she has to inspire them well. She believes that if everyone comes to know Jesus as his savior, guidelines will be provided to influence them in the correct way.

Irene knows that there is a great need for help with children. All parents need to take charge with their children. "It's payback time," exclaimed Mrs. Hartman. Current parents need to pay back the love that they got from their parents to their own children.

Several months ago, Mrs. Hartman hosted a small party for the local Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She made hamburgers, and had snack foods and drinks for the kids. This gave her great joy to see teens having fun without taking drugs, drinking alcohol, or getting into any other trouble. She loves to see kids spending time with her stable, happy family. Irene hopes that fulfills their need for love and care that they may not get at home. Mrs. Hartman wants all children to know that there is hope, they just have to find it.

Robertson receives farewells

What was expected to be a routine post-operative check-up became much more for Rebecca Robertson. Following a report of, "You're doing great!", Rebecca was the guest of honor at a dinner gathering hosted by her medical caregivers in Sherman at the Dragon Seed restaurant June 9.

Rebecca said she now has as one of her most cherished possessions a photo album in which all of the doctors, nurses, lab technicians and therapists wrote notes of encouragement, recounted special events, and expressed their love and God's continued blessings.

In a similar gathering, Sunday, June 14, the Mixed Choral Group of Sacred Heart and their spouses held a carry-in dinner for Rebecca in the Community Center.

Following the dinner the group presented Rebecca with a beautiful swag done in burgundy, pink and blue flowers and featuring a golden angel playing a harp.

Many photos, including a group photo, will fill another album for Rebecca.

An angel banner made for Rebecca by Patti Bayer at the onslaught of Rebecca's battle with cancer was signed with well wishes and prayers for continued health and happiness. Rebecca said the banner is very special to her. "It has gone to every hospital, clinic, and care facility with me since the day Patti hung it on my wall. All of my doctors and nurses in those facilities have signed it. All visitors to my home or medical facility have signed this banner and it is always on my bedroom wall where I can see it, read it, and draw strength and encouragement from it, as well as be reminded of all the loving people God has sent my way," Rebecca said.

This Friday, Rebecca will again be the guest of honor at a small gathering of friends and family at the home of Leonard and Christel Vogel in rural Muenster.

By way of a promotion and transfer, Rebecca moves back home to Missouri's Lake of the Ozarks on Saturday. "I'm proud of my company's faith and confidence in me. I'm excited to be going back home to family and old friends but a part of my heart will always be in Muenster and I will always cherish the love God gave to me here. I have some wonderful friends here, lifelong friends. I will miss not seeing them so often, and I will miss Sacred Heart Church. God and I have done an awful lot of talking here," Rebecca said.

But if everyone in Sherman, at Baylor Medical Center and in Muenster comes to vacation and visit like they say they intend to do, I'll be able to keep up on everyone," Rebecca said. "I'd like to thank everyone for their love, prayers, and support. Without you and God I certainly would not be here. Come and see me at the Lake!" Rebecca said.

MHS camp reminder!

POISON IVY
Poison ivy is really an allergic contact dermatitis caused by a substance called uroshiol, found in the sap of poison ivy, poison oak and poison sumac. You may develop a rash without ever coming into contact with poison ivy because the uroshiol is so easily spread, sticky and virtually invisible. It can be carried on the fur of animals, on garden tools, sports equipment or on any objects that have come into contact with a crushed or broken plant.

If you think you have come into contact with poison ivy, poison oak or poison sumac, follow this simple procedure:

- Wash all exposed areas with cold running water as soon as possible (i.e. shower, stream, lake, garden hose). If you can do this within five minutes, the water will neutralize or deactivate the uroshiol in the plant's sap and keep it from spreading to other parts of the body.
- Wash all clothing outside, with a garden hose, before bringing it into the house, where resin could be transferred to rugs or to furniture. Since uroshiol can remain active for months, it's important to wash all items that may also be carrying the resin (i.e. camping or sports equipment, shoes, watches).
- If you do develop a rash, avoid scratching the blisters. Although the fluid in the blisters will not spread the rash, fingernails may carry germs that could cause an infection.

Tax facts for fishermen

The Texas Comptroller's office wishes to remind fishermen in Texas that no sales taxes should be paid on fishable fishing bait - worms and minnows. No sales taxes are due on the sale of hay, corn, oats and other types of feed normally consumed by farm animals or by wildlife.

Because fish are commonly considered to be wildlife, no sales tax should be collected on perishable food either when it is attached to a hook.

The rule doesn't affect other types of fishing lures because they are non-perishable. If you purchase a motorboat or sailboat - not more than 65 feet in length - you'll pay a sales tax on the selling price. The Boat and Boat Motor Sales Tax law pertains to any aftercraft manufactured for commercial or non-commercial purposes.

The law includes federally documented boats, motorboats, skis and boats designed for outboard motor use. Exemptions to the tax are canoes, kayaks, rowboats, inflatable rafts or other watercraft designed to be propelled by a paddle, oar, or pole. Remember, these crafts, though exempt from the Tax law, continue to be taxed under the Limited Sales Tax, 6.25 percent, plus local sales tax.

Fisherman can take along a tax-free lunch, such as bread, mustard, and lunch meat sandwich. But remember the ice chest, ice to go in it, beer and most soft drinks are subject to sales tax. But a can of iced tea or pure fruit juice are tax free. It's not considered pure if it's a fruitaid or fruit flavored drink.

Last, but not least, there is absolutely no sales tax imposed on the cost of your fishing license.

Sports and Your Child

from the American Academy of Pediatrics

Should bad grades keep a child from sports?

There is no simple answer to this question. A child having trouble in the classroom still needs all the benefits of exercise, competition, and a sense of accomplishment. Sports may be the only avenue of success in a child's life, and it could be harmful to take it away.

Parents should look for other causes of poor classroom performance. Conflicts with a job or other duties might be one problem; too much TV watching might be another cause. In some cases the family and school may decide that the child is not studying enough. In this situation it is reasonable to make sports involvement dependent upon achieving better grades. Ask your child what you can do to help him or her improve at school.

Your pediatrician is the right coach to have on your team when you have concerns about your child and sports. Questions about your child's health and fitness for playing a sport can best be answered by a trained doctor who specializes in children and young people. Make sure your child gets a complete physical exam before starting a sports program. Ask your pediatrician for advice. To ensure that sports are fun for your child, keep them safe.

TPW makes few changes to dove regulations

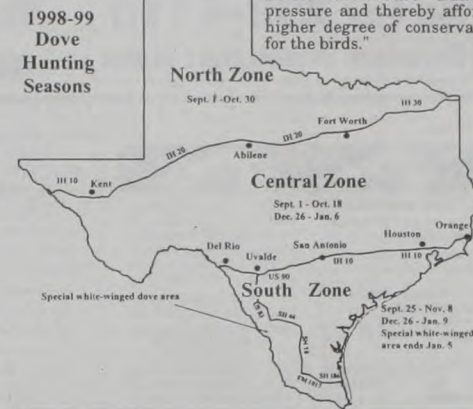

A shift to a later dove season opener in the South Zone and another push for an extended September teal season were approved here June 4 by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission as part of the 1998-99 Statewide Migratory Game Bird Proclamation.

The dates for dove seasons are Sept. 1 - Oct. 30 in the North Zone; Sept. 1 - Oct. 18, Dec. 26-Jan. 6 in the Central Zone; and Sept. 25 - Nov. 8, Dec. 26 - Jan 9 in the South Zone. They made no change in either the daily bag limit of 15, the season length of 60 days or all-day shooting hours.

The white-winged dove season is Sept. 5, 6, 12, and 13 in the Special White-winged Dove area of South Texas. Bag and possession limits are 10 white-winged, mourning and white-tipped doves in the aggregate, including no more than five mourning doves and two white-tipped doves per day. Shooting hours will be noon to sunset. The Commission also approved a change to eliminate the closed sanctuaries that have alternated from year to year within the special white-winged dove hunting area.

"We've been studying the six sanctuaries for a long time to determine how much protection they've been providing, but the food production doesn't always happen on the closed sanctuaries," explained Vernon Beville, TPW migratory game bird program director. "We think by eliminating the sanctuaries, we'll be able to better distribute hunting pressure and thereby afford a higher degree of conservation for the birds."

Seventeen (17) days after this publication, the City of Muenster, Cooke County, Texas, intends to request the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA) to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383) as amended, to be used for the following project:

FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT:
It has been determined that such a request of release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the City of Muenster has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190). The reason for such a decision not to prepare such a Statement is based upon the fact that all environmental concerns could either be minimized or mitigated.

An Environmental Review Record for the proposed project has been made by the City of Muenster which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such a Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file in the Office of the City Secretary at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The legal effect of the certification is that, upon its approval, the City of Muenster may use the Block grant funds and it will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. TDHCA will accept an objection to its approval only on one or more bases and the procedures described in 24 CFR Part 58.75. Objections are to be addressed to the Texas Department of Housing & Community Affairs, Texas Community Development Program, P.O. Box 13941, Austin, Texas 78711-3941.

Scouting for pest control treatment

To maximize the effectiveness of pest control, to serve beneficial insects, and to minimize pesticide use, plan your pest control treatment. Effective control should include a process similar to scouting in crops. By knowing what pests you have, right control method can be used.

Stable Fly:
Small - from .06 to .12 inches long.
Oblong - broad, flattened.
Yellow-brown or blue-black.
Usually clustered at base of tail, shoulders, top and back of the neck, dewlap and backline.

Eggs may be found glued to the hair shaft, close to body.
Grubs:
Adult flies resemble honeybee, but usually not seen.
Cattle stand in water to avoid egg-laying adults.
Larvae may be felt along the backline in mid-winter.
Stable Fly:
Resembles housefly.
Piercing mouthparts project from lower part of head.
Lays eggs around legs.
Cattle bunch together to avoid them.

HOW TO MONITOR Cattle Lice:
Change in animal behavior - rubbing and scratching hair on fence. Patchy hair coats.
Three to 10 lice per square inch is moderate, greater than 10 is heavy infestation.
Grubs:
Cattle running with tails in air or standing in water.
First larvae large enough by late December to be felt by rubbing.
Stable Fly:
Count flies on all four legs of about 10 animals in a group. Treat if count reaches an average of 10 flies per animal.

The USDA's 10 year projections say to look for higher prices, expanded acreage and increased export demand for corn and soybeans. The commodity projections cover 1997 through 2007.
According to USDA, corn prices should bottom out at $2.55/bu. in 1999 and then strengthen to $3.10 by 2007.
The average soybean farm price is expected to rise to $7.25/bu. by the end of the 10 year period. That's after a low of $5.65 projected for 1999-2000.
Corn acreage should reach 84.5 million by 2007, slightly higher than peak levels during the mid-1970s and early 1980s export boom. Soybean acreage should stay steady at around 70 million through 2007.

A rising foreign demand for soybeans will produce an upward trend in U.S. exports, from the current 980 million bushels to 1.1 billion by 2007-08 year.
Increasingly tight supplies and rising prices will slow the annual growth.
Soybean oil prices should stay flat for the next four years, then climb by 2007. Meal prices will push down, peaking in 1999-2000, then stay flat because of foreign competition.

Annual corn production is now a little over 9 billion bushels and should surpass 11 billion by 2005. Soybeans will increase from the current 2.7 billion bushels to just over 3 billion. Total corn demand should grow sharply - assuming the U.S. stays the major corn supplier, and China becomes a major importer.
Food, seed and industrial corn use should grow by 425 million bushels over the 10 year period.

Sanitation notes when working cattle

- Set up a clean table near the chute to lay your supplies. It should be of non-porous materials for washing.
- Power wash the chute and work area.
- If the work area is dusty, hose it down before you start.
- Don't combine two different products in the same syringe.
- Discard any dirty, bent or burred needles.
- Never go into a bottle with anything but a new needle.
- Don't return product from a syringe to a bottle.
- Don't dip needles in open containers of disinfectant. If rinsing is necessary at the chute, use a bottle of distilled water.
- Take apart, wash and disinfect non-disposable syringes when finished.

Monthly Report by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service

The June 1, Texas grapefruit production forecast is 4.8 million boxes for the 1997-98 season. All orange production estimated at 1.53 million boxes, 1.42 million boxes last year.
The 1997-98 harvest was usually complete by June 1 in Rio Grande Valley. Yields were better than earlier reported.
United States grapefruit production is forecast at 64.1 million boxes, orange production is forecast at a record 14.0 million boxes.
The 1998 winter wheat crop is forecast at 132 million bushels, 11 percent above last year and up 75 percent from 1996.
According to June 1 survey conducted by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, statewide yield is expected to average 33 bushels per acre, up 4 bushels from last year. Harvested acreage, at 4 million acres, is down 2 percent from 1997.

United States winter wheat production for 1998 is forecast at 1.74 billion bushels, down 7 percent from last year. Yield is expected to average 42.9 bushels per acre, down 2.1 bushels from a year ago.
Texas milk production totaled 527 million pounds during May, down 1 percent from last year. Revised production for April, 1998 totaled 534 million pounds.
The number of milk cows during May averaged 375 thousand head, down 13,000 head from last year. Production per cow averaged 1,405 pounds during May compared with 1,370 pounds last year.

Four steps to ensure failure on your farm

- Buy machinery to keep up with your neighbor or for tax purposes. Buying to save taxes only works if you need equipment. The government pays a maximum of 43% on a piece of equipment. The other 57% comes from savings or profits. Trade equipment when the projected repairs for the coming year, added to the decrease in value, exceeds the payment for new equipment.
 - Using your operating line of credit to buy land, equipment, stock, or buildings. All operating loans should be self-liquidating after the sale of that years crops and livestock. Finance equipment, etc., with term loans.
 - Don't make a marketing plan. Market your commodities on the advice of the "experts" rumors at the coffee shop. Market your crop more frequently and you have a good chance of hitting the top 1/3 of price received for the crop year.
 - Don't keep and use production records. They require time and money. Successful producers know where they stand technically and financially. Many associations have data forms for tracking production performances. This helps the producers track the technical and financial performance of their operation, while helping interpret the data and give advice.
- Darrell Dunteman, AAC
