War Chest Campaign Lagging

More Cooperation Needed Or City Will Fail To Meet Assigned Quota

In Muenster the war chest fund is failing to keep up with the pace necessary to meet the goal for the community, chairman, J. M. Weinzapfel stated Tuesday.

For the first time in the history of Muenster this community is faced with the possibility of failing to meet an assigned quota unless more enthusiasm is shown and larger amounts are contributed than those reported during the past week.

Citizens desirous of giving to this worthwhile cause need not wait to be solicited, it is pointed out. Contributions may be left at the bank.

Meanwhile all solicitors who have been appointed to either city or rural areas are urged to make their contacts promptly. If for any valid reason a solicitor is unable to take his or her assignment, such person is requested to make this fact known to the local chairman so that another collector can be appointed.

Everybody is urged to "get into high gear" so that this drive may be successfully concluded in record time.

ALL AGE CHILDREN'S GARMENTS WELCOMED IN CURRENT DRIVE

The drive for children's clothing, sponsored by the local court Catholic Daughters of America, is progressing favorably, according to members who are gratified at the response by citizens of the community.

A number of questions have been asked, the two most frequently heard being "Up to what age or size may the clothes be?" and "Where shall I leave them?"

In answer to the first, Mrs. John Mosman, who is chairman of the committee in charge, stated that children's clothes of any size from infants wear to and including the teen age group is welcomed.

As to the collection depot, it was stated that the home of Mrs. A. Walterscheid is headquarters, but other centers to leave clothes for the drive are the home of Mrs. Joe Luke, Fisher's Market and the Muenster Enterprise office.

$70,000 Worth Bonds Bought Here Tuesday

Still Need $15,000 For Local Quota

Muenster citizens went to the polls Tuesday and invested $70,000 in the purchase of victory bonds in the "Do It In A Day" campaign of the Eighth and final Bond Drive.

The total amount invested in victory securities here is $15,000 short of this community's assigned quota, but Chairman J. M. Weinzapfel is confident that the goal will be reached well in advance of the closing date for the campaign which is December 6.

That there are many persons who found it inconvenient to come to the polls on Tuesday and that they will make their investment on the next trip to town is the opinion of the chairman.

Throughout the county Bond Day was observed by the purchase of victory securities at the 24 voting precincts. The polls opened at 8 a. m. and closed at 7 p. m. At each box "election" workers volunteered their services for the day.

Tabulations on county purchases had not reached this office at the time the paper went to press. The goal for Cooke county was $850,000, and Muenster's quota $85,000.

Gala Celebration Is In Order For Thanksgiving Here

Everything is in order for a gala Thanksgiving Day celebration in Muenster, next Thursday, Nov. 29, the traditional Thanksgiving date. The parish hall will be headquarters for the affair.

Members of Saint Anne's Society, sponsors of the day's festivities assisted by members of the three other parish societies, have plans completed and details worked out.

A community dinner, featuring turkey and fresh country sausage to be served at noon, will officially open the activities for the day, but other centers to leave clothes for the drive are the home of Mrs. Joe Luke, Fisher's Market and the Muenster Enterprise office.

As to the collection depot, it was stated that the home of Mrs. A. Walterscheid is headquarters, but other centers to leave clothes for the drive are the home of Mrs. Joe Luke, Fisher's Market and the Muenster Enterprise office.

A PACKAGE WITHOUT ANY IDENTIFICATION

The Army Effects Bureau, Kansas City Quartermaster Depot, has sent a letter to the Muenster State Bank reporting the arrival there of a package of soldiers' clothing and other items from overseas. There is no name or other means of identification on the package, but found among the clothing was a Muenster State Bank check book. The depot hopes to ship the package to the next of kin and if anyone here is in need for a package, that is overdue, please get in touch with the Bank personnel.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus announce the birth of a son, Walter Joseph, their first child, at the local clinic on November 14. At the baby's baptism the same day Father John officiated, assisted by Mrs. George Lutkenhaus and Jos. Flusche, grandparents of the infant, as sponsors.

Mrs. Darrell Trotter is here for an indefinite stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fletcher. She had been with her husband on the west coast until his call for overseas duty came. A member of the Navy, Trotter will spend 2 months at Pearl Harbor and then go to Hong Kong, China, for four months. Mrs. Trotter is the former Miss Dorothy Nellie Fletcher.

The most welcome proposal to hit Muenster is many a moon is that concerning the formation of a hospital association and erection of a well equipped hospital.

Perhaps it would be more correct to say that under the present plan people could not afford to be without the services offered as so vital that practically every member will get his money's worth every year and many others will get far more than they pay for.

In the first category are treatments for minor injuries, children's diseases, minor operations, dental care and the like. In the second are operations both major and minor, confinement cases and serious illness.

As regards the advantage of having an adequate hospital in the community, it is sufficient to say that in an emergency distance can mean the difference between life and death. And there is always the matter of saving time and money. Muenster knows many a case of a family spending more than a year's hospitalization dues on driving expense alone to visit a member in a distant hospital.

Fundamentally the idea is sound and in an area with Muenster's record of cooperation it stands an excellent chance of developing into a wonderful service. The only problem is to work out the details in such a way as to assure the greatest possible benefit with the least possible abuse.

It must be remembered that human nature is inclined to demand more service from a common fund than it would pay for outright. If yearly dues included all medical and surgical care some people would come to doctors with all kinds of insignificant and imaginary ailments. If the dues included all hospital service they would often expect accommodations when they are not really sick.

Back As Civilian Joe Henry Walterscheid is back in Muenster as a civilian after spending the past 40 months with the army. He was a member of the 42nd Infantry Division Band and was in France, Germany and Austria. He returned to the states last August and had been at Fort Sam Houston since Sept. taking treatments for laryngitis from which he has fully recovered.

Completes Leave Lt. (j. g.) Gene Seale, husband of the former Miss Clara Hoenig of this city, has completed an 18-day leave which he spent with his wife and son and his parents in Dimmitt, Texas. They also visited in Dallas. Lt. Seale spent the past 10 months in the Pacific aboard the U. S. S. Shroeder. He is a doctor. He reported to San Francisco on completion of his leave and will go from there to Pearl Harbor where he will be on duty until he receives his discharge from the Navy.

Within a few more years it is likely that cooperative medicine and hospitalization will be found in practically every county of the nation. In Texas it was practically unknown five years ago and today no less than a dozen centers are in effect. A lucky break in more than one respect.

City Cleanup Nets 5 TRUCK LOADS OF TRASH SATURDAY

The city cleanup, sponsored by the sanitation committee of the Civic League and Garden Club last Saturday, was, according to committee members, a successful project.

Through courtesy of the FMA plant, a truck was provided to haul the trash. Five local youths, working during the day, made 69 stops for pickups and hauled 5 truck loads of trash to the dump grounds.

Members of the sponsor group, headed by Mrs. Frank Kaiser, chairman of the sanitation committee, this week expressed their thanks to the FMA for use of the truck, to the boys who worked so well on the job and to all citizens for their cooperation by having the junk boxed and sacked for quick pickup.

25 WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Val Dieter observed their silver wedding anniversary on Nov. 16 with a family gathering in their home.

Miss Dorothy Rose Dieter, a student at a business college in Fort Worth, came home for the occasion, and their other daughter, Miss Anna Mae Dieter, a long distance telephone operator in Fort Worth telephoned greetings since she was unable to be present for the day.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Dieter was Miss Clara Wiese. The couple were married here and have resided in Lindsay ever since.

REV. MOTHER PERPETUA HONORED ON VISIT

Rev. Mother Perpetua of Jonesboro, Ark., has returned to the motherhouse following a visit in Lindsay, Muenster and Rhineland. During her stay she was honored with a dinner at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nick Reinart, for which the following were also guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Neu, Mrs. Joe Neu, Mrs. Joe Krebs, Mrs. Alfred Morisak, Miss Susie Reinart of Gainesville, Bill, Doc and Hank Reinart. The honoree's uncle, William Schmitz was unable to be present on account of illness.

Another courtesy extended to the visitor was an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morisak, with Miss Susie Reinart assisting with hostess duties. The ladies are sisters of Rev. Mother. Refreshments and coffee were served to some 33 cousins of the honoree.

Miss Louise Otto has returned to San Antonio after being here for the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Tempel, and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Otto and other relatives.

assurance of recovering losses and it doesn't want to be hamstrung by bureaucratic ed tape.

Management however has come forward with a few suggestions. One was the offer of a 10 per cent raise for 48 hours, which would net more than the average wartime wage. Another was the request of assurance that in case of future strikes caused by the union's violation of contract agreements the union would be held liable for losses incurred. Both were steps toward conciliation and both brought only more rough talk from the unions.

Anybody knows that's no way to get along. Even school kids know that the best way to put over a deal is by being friendly. Nothing can be gained by antagonizing the other person. They also know that when one raises his offer the other usually comes down on his price and the usual result is they come to an agreement. And regardless of how the price dickering runs, each tries to keep it friendly. Both sides in this industrial fuss could profit by thinking over that a bit.

In the squabbling one pertinent fact stands out. Labor is determined not to budge from the high pay and short week. Men and sons of men who used to thrive on 48 to 60 hours of work a week now insist they can't stand it for more than 40 hours and can't possibly make ends meet for less than 50 dollars. What they need to do is learn something about the work schedule and income of salaried people or small business proprietors.

Perhaps the reason other people get along is that they have less loafing time to goof off their earnings — and don't have to pay tribute to a rough talking labor boss who decides what they can do and when.

There's one way to end this trouble for good. Management can give a nominal wage plus a periodic bonus as a share in the profits. A contract could specify a certain percentage on the investment as a reasonable profit and earnings in excess of that figure could be divided by agreed ratio between management and labor. Being mutually interested in the business both factions would be more inclined to cooperate. Furthermore, by working together both would find their efforts more pleasant and profitable.

But all that is impossible, of course, as long as they insist on talking rough and clawing at each other's throats.
