City commits to $560,000 sewer plant renovation plan

by Dave Fette

The main item of discussion at Monday's regular City Council meeting was the municipal sewer plant. Although well constructed and maintained, Muenster's water treatment plant is essentially too small and in the recent past, has been cited for non-compliance by the Texas Natural Conservation Commission, (TNCC). Pat Dillon of Southwestern Consultants, former Muenster city administrator Dr. Steve Broyles, and Kimley-Horn engineer Jeff James came to the meeting to present a breakdown of steps to prepare the sewer plant for the future and be in compliance for state regulations.

James presented two options, the first would meet current TNCC requirements and serve a city of about 3,300 people. The second option would meet more stringent rules like those required in some cities closer to the Metroplex water sources. James said Muenster might have to treat its water like that in 20 or 30 years. Steps taken in option one to improve the quality of water discharged from the plant and accept larger volumes of sewage would work toward option two if Muenster has to upgrade further in the future.

The City has tried, in the past, to improve the sewer plant volume by repairing old underground lines to cut down on the inflow of water during heavy rain times. That has not been sufficient. Kimley-Horn engineers say the planned upgrade will allow for growth and improve water quality flowing out of the plant.

Muenster is working with Pat Dillon to secure a $250,000 Texoma Community Development Program grant to help pay for the sewer plant upgrade. This is similar to the grant obtained to help build the new water tower. Dillon felt "pretty sure" that Muenster will receive the $ quarter million by June of 2002. The city's remaining share of $310,000.00 will be paid by sales tax currently being paid and dedicated to the project.

The City Council voted to approve the plan, hired Kimley-Horn to engineer the project and directed Southwest Consultants to continue seeking the grant.

Other items of discussion and/or action included:

- Language of the tax abatement agreement with Klement Ford of Muenster was approved by a vote of 4-1. Councilman Troy Sicking objected to an item about the increase in value of real property since Klement Ford did not own the real property at their previous dealership.

- The Council approved roof repairs at the museum.
- The Council approved installation of a wastewater tank in the park, use of the ballpark for Chamber of Commerce events in September and November, park items subject to Park Board approval.

- A petition requesting opening of Second Street between Maple and Ash is being studied.

- Monthly bills totaling $52,253.02 were approved for payment.

Youth Leadership Award presented by KTB June 27

One Does Make a Difference. Youth from Muenster have made a positive difference to our environment. As a result of their cleanup and beautification endeavors, the youth have been awarded the Ruthe Jackson Youth Leadership Award from Keep Texas Beautiful. They are one of more than 40 individuals, cities, groups, local business, and corporations being recognized by Keep Texas Beautiful, Inc. (KTB) for their environmental efforts during 2000-2001.

Muenster Youth took the top state prize in the Off-Campus Youth Groups category. The award recognizes youth groups whose efforts are bringing about cleaner and more beautiful environments.

The students will be recognized along with other youth recipients on Wednesday, June 27 during KTB's Youth Celebration at the 34th Annual Keep Texas Beautiful Convention to be held in Fort Worth, June 26 through June 29.

These youth, who were nominated by MaryLee Alford of Keep Muenster Beautiful, a local affiliate of Keep Texas Beautiful, united under the theme "We are one and every one makes a difference." They come from groups including the MISD National Honor Society and Student Council, Columbian Squires, seven local Girl Scout troops, Boy Scouts, and Webelos. High School students Kacie Garcia and Mary Skinner represent the Muenster public schools, and Jackie Bartush and Dana Miller represent Sacred Heart High School on the Keep Muenster Beautiful Board of Directors. Through their leadership, approximately 300 Muenster youth participated in cleanup, beautification and/or Earth Day activities this year. These activities included a clothing drive as part of the great American Cleanup, cleaning, mowing, and raking yards for the elderly, and providing manpower and a monetary donation to the Chamber of Commerce for holiday decorations in Muenster Park, to name a few. The youth also regularly clean their school campuses and their adopted highway areas. The dedication of the youth of Muenster has made a difference in the efforts to keep Texas beautiful.

Lindsay ISD Board hears optimistic report

by Janet Felderhoff

With a new set of officers in place, Lindsay ISD's Board of Trustees opened its May 21 meeting with an invocation led by Danny Nortman, the new Board president. Other officers are David Aрендt vice-president and Bruce Bezner secretary.

Craig Hertel, UIL Academic coordinator, spoke to the Board on the 2000-2001 UIL academic participation. Notably Lindsay High School has seven first places and three second finishes at State in the past 10 years. They have captured the Regional championship for 11 consecutive years. Hertel explained UIL scholarships and how students are selected to compete.

Athletic Director Charlie Meurer updated the Board on the 2000-2001 UIL athletic year. He reported that there is a good working relationship between academics and athletics. Lindsay students have to work hard if they want to be competitive, said Coach Meurer. According to Meurer, track is consistently the most successful program. Both the boys and the girls won the District championship this year.

Superintendent Travis Winn detailed summer maintenance and cleaning plans. Winn said he is pleased with the new cleaning service. It was suggested that the Booster Club might help with the cleaning and painting of the visitors' side football bleachers.

Nortman inquired about five-year planning and a discussion ensued.

Principal Jerry Metzler reported on upcoming events and the 2001-2002 projected enrollment. He said that the Parent Teacher Club had donated

2001 Relay For Life starts Friday, June 8

The Cooke County Co-op was the scene of frantic activity Monday night at the Relay for Life Second Bank Night. People were bringing in their team rosters and picking out team T-shirts, picking out their camp sites for the relay event and turning in money collected to date. There were people taking team envelopes with rosters and money, people counting money and other people selling luminaria and raffle tickets. It was a very busy place.

The 2001 Relay for Life of Cooke County fund-raising event for the American Cancer Society is gaining momentum as the date for the relay approaches. The Relay event begins at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, June 8 at the Hornet Football Stadium in Muenster. Everyone in Cooke County is invited to attend the various activities. There will be continuous entertainment, team skits and games throughout the relay event. The survivors' opening lap is an uplifting event. This will take place at 6:00 p.m. on Friday night. County stands firm on cleaning up Elkins health hazard

by Janet Felderhoff

George Elkins' neighbors can expect some relief from what County officials have deemed a health hazard. Elkins owns about two acres along County Road 199 in Precinct #1.

Elkins was asked to attend the Commissioners Court meeting Tuesday, May 29 to explain why he hasn't obeyed the County's nuisance abatement citation to clean up the considerable clutter on his property. Elkins gave a letter of several pages to each member of the Court listing his reasons.

Commissioner Phil Young reported at the previous meeting that the rat traffic across the county road early in the morning is unbelievable.

Commissioner Bill Cox stated, "Mr. Elkins, your property is a disgrace to Cooke County the shape it's in. I drove by last week for the first time and it's a disgrace to have something like that in our County. You're not the only one around the County that has that and we're working on trying to get them all cleaned up. ... You've had months and months and months to get things cleaned up and instead you continue hauling things in."

Elkins said that a tornado on April 6, 1994 mutilated his mobile home, which is now on his property. Many of the items on his land are his personal and real property, he said. During this time he has lived with different people. He said that he has three pickup campers filled with his property, income tax records, tools, etc. He has done yard work since 1980 and has acquired mowers which he rebuilds. This is necessary to make ends meet in his business, he said. He also collects pots, pans, utensils, National Geographic, and biology textbooks.

Judge Bill Harris chided Elkins, "I've heard before and we heard it last time you attended this meeting. I understand you have all these things and these things you say you have ought to be in a proper facility if you are going to keep them and protect them and they are not. You told us six, eight months ago that you were going to build a building to put all your stuff in and you have five posts up. We can't go any farther. We have gone through the procedure to abate or do away with the nuisance that we have declared out there.

"I realize you have Constitutional rights, but everyone else does too. They're entitled to their right to be protected just like you are. You can have all the stuff you want out there if you'd just have it in a facility where the public couldn't see it. It's a mess and it's not going to get any better by you telling us what all you have or what somebody's done to you."

Judge Harris said that the County had to come up with about $25,000 to clean up the place. He warned Elkins that if he had anything he didn't want hauled off or burned he'd better put it in a facility where it can't be seen by the public. The County will put a lien on Elkins' property for the cost of the clean up.

Commissioners Phil Young and Jerry Lewis were appointed to a committee to study the communications situation in the county. They reported that they are seeking grant funds to improve communications county-wide because they are far outdated.

Meantime Young said that Woodbine Water has agreed to let the County place an antenna on their new tower east of Gainesville. "It should cover this dead zone out here where we're having first responder troubles," Young said. He plans to meet with them June 11 to work out details.

In other business conducted at the May 29 meeting of Commissioners Court the County:

- Awarded the bid on the County's Depository Contract to Guarantee National Bank.

- Approved Internet

service for the County Clerk's office. It's necessary now to draw rures.

- Accepted CR 360 in the Gatewood Hills subdivision as a county road.

- Approved Southwestern Bell Telephone's request to bury a pair of cables from the intersection of FM 678 to down the north side of CR 143.

- Approved by a vote of 4-0-1 installation of a fresh water line across CR 163. Young abstained.

- Tabled minutes of Lake Ray Roberts Planning and Zoning committee since there was no quorum.

- Appointed Jerry Lewis to another term on the board of the Texoma Council of Governments.

RELAY FOR LIFE STARTS TONIGHT!

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the editor:

One's outlook or attitude will help determine what he will accomplish.

Most people will generally agree that a positive attitude will help produce success and a negative attitude generally produce failure.

History is filled with examples of what can be accomplished when one has a positive attitude. Winston Churchill and General McArthur are two outstanding examples. On a lesser scale, you have probably seen a coach inspire his team to play beyond their own natural abilities and help them win a game or season.

A negative outlook will frequently cause failure. In recent history, I have never heard our Hospital Administrator speak positively in regard to the ongoing success of Muenster Memorial Hospital: have you? His negative thinking is spreading throughout the employees, the Board and some segments of the community. Fortunately, a majority of the voters in the district haven't bought into this negativism. By their vote for the 3 "Save our Hospital" candidates (who received 23% more votes than did the three losing candidates) the voters have indicated their desire to support the MMH. They have spoken for the ongoing success of the hospital and the ultimate benefit to the community.

Previously, several senior board members said they would support the will of the community. The will of the community has been determined. Now the Board must act. The first order of business should be to secure a new Administrator with a "can do" attitude.

As Chairman of the Concerned Citizens Committee, we are requesting that the board ask for the resignation of the Administrator and begin the process to hire a new Administrator with a positive attitude (and a degree in Hospital Administration). The Board should act immediately before further deterioration actions can occur.

Dear Mr. Editor,
Since your recorder was giving you trouble during the last Hospital Board Meeting, please let me help by filling in major points that did not get into the paper. The three new Board Members, after being sworn in, made a statement that the readers need to be made aware. Statement: Via this last election for Board Members it is now clear that a majority of The people in this district are against Dissolution of our Hospital District and formation of a single County-wide District. For the first time most of The people now understand the real financial and political factors involved in the issue and stand ready to fight to salvage our Hospital. But if the Hospital is brought to closure before enough new members are elected -- members that are willing to fight to save our Hospital -- then the people still want to keep our District independent, free of debt, and governed by our own District residents.

- 1.) The people are now saying, "What can I do to help?"
- 2.) There are key people ready to head up committees -- the "can do, will do" people of our community -- the ones who have proven they can get things done.

3.) There are many areas where good, hard working committees can accomplish near-miracles at the Hospital:

- a. Searching out the areas needing cost-cutting and improved efficiency.
- b. Studying and uncovering new money-generating services.
- c. Discovering ways to increase use of our Hospital, and improving Revenue and earnings.
- d. Initiating needed services in the District.
- e. Getting all the employees and medical staff involved in work to save our hospital - in fact, getting the entire community and district involved!

We requested that the "old six" Board members review and analyze our recommendations and then vote to work with us and allow formation of these committees, and to stop talk and plans of MERGER. MERGER talk is hurting our Hospital, our medical staff, all Hospital employees, and turning patients away from our facilities. It is paramount that two things happen: First, quit MERGER plans and talk, so that the Hospital can recover and get back to the ever-improving revenues experienced before the MERGER announcement. Second, provide the one Doctor who is crucial and key to that recovery the necessary level of operating assistance he requires in order to keep patients flowing through the Hospital!!! The three of us new members, with the help of all the people who have stepped forward to offer their help, along with the cooperation of the Board-of-Six, can save the Hospital. Without the cooperation of the Board-of-Six we probably will be without an acute-care, whole Hospital.

From My Side of the Fence
by Ed Cler

Folks, my apologies for not writing an article last week, but I found myself too busy enjoying a few days visit with our daughter Christa, and family.

Gerry Cash, her husband, was taking a week's refresher course in jet flying, after coming off a bypass operation for heart trouble.

While he took the course in Dallas, Christa and their two children, Mindy and Jeremy, spent as much time with us as they could. Gerry's mother, Loretha Cash Bringle of Garland, suffered a stroke followed by another a few days later.

Loretha is doing well, and the family has returned to their home near Atlanta, Georgia, where Gerry is the Chief Pilot of Coca Cola's corporate jet.

We surely enjoyed their visit which ended only too soon.

Time passes so quickly. The children grow up so fast. Mindy graduated from high school last year, and at 19, has already completed a year of college.

Jeremy, 14, will enter high school next term, and before we know it, he too will graduate and look toward furthering his education elsewhere.

SAVE OUR HOSPITAL DISTRICT — SAVE JOBS FOR MUENSTER
PLEASE TAKE NOTICE of recent passed legislation HB3132 in Austin. This is part of the procedure to attempt to merge our two hospital districts into one. IT IS ALARMING. All must understand it appears against our district resident interests. We were told Tax money would NOT be used to pay the hospital debt. YOU MUST SEE Section 3.17(a). "The Board of Directors SHALL annually levy a tax in an amount not to exceed the Limit approved (75 cents) by the voters for the purpose of paying: (1) the indebtedness ASSUMED or ISSUED by the district (2) the maintenance and operating expense of the district."
The above is just one of the new Legislation items that appear against Muenster Hospital District residents. Please see the entire new Legislation on the internet web site <http://www.capitol.state.tx.us/> then click HB3132. You should be alarmed. We see NO guarantee of jobs in this bill. You should question the ability of the two present hospital boards being able to legally make promises for the next board to uphold. It is plain to see that our present Hospital administration policies are driving away business and driving away our good employees, which very possibly will cause the full service to cease, but this makes all the more reason to keep our hospital district. PLEASE HELP.
YOUR SUPPORT IS VERY IMPORTANT FOR OUR MEDICAL NEEDS AND OUR ECONOMY.

AUSTIN UPDATE

TEXAS HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

RON CLARK

HOUSE DISTRICT 62

New Laws Affecting Texas Youth

More than 5,000 bills were filed this Session. Before the Session began, it was assumed by many that the issue of redistricting would dominate the Legislature and, besides a handful of high profile bills, not many new laws would be enacted this year. This has not proven true. While several of the issues that have received the most attention have made their way through the Legislature, hundreds and hundreds are in the final stages of the legislative process.

Approximately 795 bills have been passed through the House and the Senate and have been sent to the Governor for his signature (or veto). Two of the two bills affect our youth in school and at play.

House Bill 692 amends the Texas Education Code to prohibit school districts and open-enrollment charter schools from secluding students in a room or other confined areas. A number of schools in Texas use a practice referred to as "seclusion" or "time out" to isolate students with a disability who are exhibiting inappropriate behavior. The bill would require the Commissioner of Education to adopt procedures for the use of restraint and time-out for students receiving special education services.

This law forbids an employee or volunteer of a school district from confining a student in a locked box, closet or room that has less than 50 feet of space and forbidding the child to leave.

The only time locked, unattended confinement will be allowed is if a student has a dangerous weapon in his possession and is detained until the arrival of law enforcement personnel.

Senate Bill 399 makes it illegal for anyone under 18 years of age to ride in the bed of a truck or trailer. This bill amends the current law by changing the age from 12 years of age to 18 and specifies that the truck or trailer cannot be traveling at any rate of speed instead of the current law which states "speeds greater than 35 miles per hour."

The bill does allow some situations when traveling in a truck bed is permissible by minors. A person does not commit this offense if the vehicle is participating in a parade or hayride, if the vehicle is transporting farm workers from field to field on a farm-to-market road or if the vehicle is on a beach. Also if the truck is the sole automobile owned or operated in the household, the operator will also be exempt from this law.

These bills have been sent to the Governor for signature.

Silver wedding celebrated by Yorks May 22

Margie and Ed York celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 3, 2001. They were married in Sacred Heart Church on May 22, 1976, and celebrated again in Sacred Heart Church when they and their family and a number of friends attended the 10:30 a.m. Mass. A special blessing was given by Father John Ohner OSA, pastor.

Music for the Mass was provided by the Pam Fette Music Group. Lectors for the Mass were sons of the honor couple, Matthew and Christopher York. Altar servers were another son, Alex York; also a nephew Nicholas Bezner, and a family friend A.J. Fleitman.

Following Mass, a celebration banquet was served at the home of the honor couple for family and close friends and relatives. Out of town guests included Chris and Sandy Felderhoff and children Terry and Rachael of College Station; John York of Houston; Lorine York and Clay Joines of Wharton, Texas; Marjorie and Jack McClellan of San Antonio; Hsi Hou Chen and Mai Sou Chen of Plano. Guests were urged to bring stories about the honorees to the party and share them.

Since their marriage, the Yorks have lived in Houston, Lewisville, Buckhurst Hill near London, England, back to Lewisville and then transferred back to Houston. In 1992 they moved to Muenster, where Margie (Dr. York) began an eye care practice which is now known as York Eye Associates in Gainesville, Texas. Ed is a self-employed environmental consultant for the area.

In 1976, their wedding trip was a scuba diving trip to Grand Caymen in the British West Indies. In July they are planning a second honeymoon aboard a captained sailing yacht departing from Tortolla. Christine and Robert Weinzapfel and Gary and Marlene Fisher have been planning the trip with the Yorks over the past year.

During the reception and 25th anniversary celebration, reminiscing of guests frequently turned to the wedding on May 22, 1976 when the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Felderhoff and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. York, Sr. of Wharton were united in Holy Matrimony. Officiating was Fr. Stephen Eckart OSB.

In a setting of lighted candles and spring pastel gladioli, the bride was presented by her father. She wore a soft flowing bridal gown of dacron polyester organza, long sleeves and an elegant attached brush train. Her triple tiered veil was held by a Camelot cap. She carried a cascade of yellow and pink roses, white stephanotis and blue pixie carnations centered with a white orchid.

Attendants were Patsy Henry, Rosemary Felderhoff, Carolyn Joines, and Susan Felderhoff, wearing rainbow pastels of individual color and design and carrying spring bouquets.

Groom's attendants were John L. York, Jr., Chris Felderhoff, Thomas Felderhoff, and Billy Felderhoff.

The bride's parents hosted a reception, catered dinner and dance in the Sacred Heart Community Center, where reception area decorations were conversation pieces. The wedding trip took the couple to Florida and Grand Caymen Island. They returned to reside in Houston.

Muller-Herr-Stelzer reunion draws over 100

The annual Muller, Herr, Stelzer reunion traditionally held on Memorial Day weekend was moved this year to Sunday, June 3 to accommodate a number of relatives who had lake excursions planned for the holiday. They responded with a large attendance at the reunion, well over 100, that included many of the younger generation.

The cookout, preparing the barbecue meat on Saturday was taken over by nephews and friends. Usually, and for these many years, Andy Stelzer, former Muensterite and now of Post, Texas, was the top chef. However, this year Andy Stelzer was in the hospital and unable to attend the family reunion. Cards can reach him at his home, 308 Osage, Post, Texas 79356. The reunion day Sunday was a happy day, with greetings, visiting, reminiscing, enjoying an abundant variety of foods that featured brisket, pork ribs, and chicken. Traditionally, meats are provided by the Stelzer Brothers.

Held at the pavilion of Muenster Park, the swimming pool was a special attraction. Blessed with perfect weather, relatives came from California, New Mexico, the Metroplex, and many other areas of Texas.

Free concert June 8 at NCTC gym

Do you like free stuff? Well, then come to this year's Cooke County Youth Event at the NCTC gymnasium. Do you like football? Well, so does Jackie Harris; a 12 year NFL veteran and starting tight end for the Dallas Cowboys and the speaker at this year's event! Needs a little music, you say? Well, there will be not one, but two totally awesome bands. Aurora and Rhythm will be taking hold of the mic and laying it down for your enjoyment.

With a sound that is reminiscent of those dominating the modern pop scene - Britney Spears, The Backstreet Boys, Christina Aguilera, and the Latin-influenced pop of Jennifer Lopez and Ricky Martin - the music of Aurora is exactly what many teens are listening to right now. But it's the words of Aurora that will set them apart.

"We know how difficult it is to grow up in today's society and resist a lot of negative influences," says Rachel, 21. "Through our music, we want kids to understand that they can stay from some of the things their friends may be doing and still have fun. That's what the song "Different Drum" talks about."

"We have been fortunate to grow up in a Christian home," says her twin, Raquel. "Not everyone is as lucky as we were."

Rhythm is a high-energy band that incorporates pop funk with today's modern rock sound. Many have compared their music to the sound of Chicago, Seal and Dave Matthews Band mixed with the live show of DC Talk.

Rhythm has been performing across the nation since 1991 averaging over 180 shows a year. Doors have opened for the band to play both mainstream as well as Christian events. The four Scott brothers started the band as an R&B/Funk/Pop group that concentrated on the gospel market. The two Hedlund brothers joined the band in 1997 bringing with them their influence of Rock music, rounding out the band's new sound.

Rhythm is dedicated in sharing The Way, The Truth, and The Life with everyone they come across, whether it is from the stage or off the stage. This may sound religious, but his is truly the focus of the band.

There will also be performances by teen performing arts group, The Messengers. Now how can you say no to something free and so cool? And, of course, there are door prizes. So you just may walk away with a little something extra. Come out and join the party at the NCTC gym, June 8 from 6 to 10 p.m. This event was made possible by churches and businesses of Cooke County. See you there!!!!

SH 8th grade graduates

On Thursday, May 31, Sacred Heart 8th graders held graduation at 6:00 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. Father John Ohner, OSA, officiated the Mass. Ruth Felderhoff played the traditional march as the graduates entered the church; the girls carried long stemmed red roses with narrow black and silver ribbon, while the boys wore red rose boutonnieres with black and silver ribbon. The faculty and Father John followed the graduates.

The entrance song was "Called and Gifted by Our God." The First Reading from Jeremiah 29:11-14 was read by Paul Bartush, Jr. The Responsorial Psalm was "To You, O God, I Lift Up My Soul," sung by song leader Christy Hesse, and graduates Rose Bartush, Sarah Brundage, and Christine Fetsch. The Second Reading from Ephesians 4:7-14, was read by Jessica Knabe. The Gospel was taken from Matthew 7:7-14. Christine Fetsch read Prayers of the Faithful. Alex Sicking and Clayton Truebenbach presented Offertory gifts as "Seek Ye First" was sung. "We Are Many Parts" was sung at Communion. Eucharistic Ministers were Bob Bauer, Colleen Brundage, Linda Knabe, Barbara LaChance, and Carla Truebenbach. Mass servers were Zach Bartush, Stephen Davis, and Dylan Flusche.

Father John and Dr. Jack Murdock, Principal, awarded diplomas following Mass. After diplomas were given, the graduates returned to the altar for a tribute to their parents. Upon completion of the tribute, the graduates presented their parents with a pink carnation. The recessional song was "Companions of the Journey." The class exited church and formed a receiving line accepting congratulations from family, friends, and faculty. A class photo was then taken on the steps in front of the Sacred Heart Elementary building.

The graduates, their parents, faculty and Father John continued the celebration with a party in their honor at the home of Scott and Marcia Smith. A class video, by Rick Walterscheid, compiled of an assortment of childhood and candid photos was viewed. A class booklet of "Remember When," "Trends," teachers, and class autographs was given to each family as well.

The 8th grade graduates are Paul Bartush, Jr., Rose Bartush, Jacqueline Bauer, Sarah Brundage, Daniel Cochran, Casey Coker, Dillan Connell, Andy Davis, Christine Fetsch, Katie Flusche, Stephanie Henscheid, Chris Hoedebeck, Jessica Knabe, Stephen LaChance, Thomas Otto, Jon Pels, Alex Sicking, Jordan Smith, and Clayton Truebenbach. Ms. Dorothy Bengfort, Religion teacher, assisted in the liturgy planning, and Mrs. Annette Bayer was the homeroom teacher.

Sacred Heart Preschool "moves on"

The students of Sacred Heart Preschool and Kindergarten entertained their families, friends and teachers at the annual Moving ON Ceremony to mark the end of another very successful and enjoyable school year. The program took place on May 23, 2001 at 7:00 p.m. in the Community Center.

Dr. Jack B. Murdock, Principal, gave the invocation to open the program. The Preschool children processed onto the stage to "Let the Children Come to Me" played on the piano by their music teacher, Mrs. Ruth Felderhoff. The audience joined the children in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

The energetic Preschoolers delighted the large crowd with a selection of some of their favorite songs complete with hand and body motions. The songs reflected various aspects of their learning throughout the school year and included "we're So Happy You're Here," "I'm H-A-P-P-Y," "Ten Wiggle Worms," "Mortimore Mole," "Five Little Elephants," "God Bless the Moon" and "Put on Love."

Dr. Murdock presented certificates of attendance to the seven children who will be returning for another year of Preschool. They are Blake Haubold, Johanna Kasper, Zachary Lewis, Brianna Ronmer, Hayden Schilling, Isaac Walterscheid, and Elizabeth Weinzapfel. "Moving On" certificates were then presented to the following fifteen children who will be in kindergarten classes in August: Chris Bartush, Mason Binder, Cooper Eddleman, Destin Fleitman, Mikayla Fleitman, Mikenzie Fleitman, Lauren Gibbs, Brooke Henry, Morgan Hesse, Karleigh Reeves, Clint Sidwell, Eddie Sweeney, Bailey Walterscheid, Cole Walterscheid, and Alyssa White.

The Lindsay High School Student Council was designated a 2000-2001 Outstanding Student Council by the Texas Association of Student Councils. To be selected an Outstanding Council the Lindsay High School Student Council had to earn 525 points or more for activities and programs during the school year. Sacred Heart Kindergarten moves on with Mother Goose

The 2000-2001 Sacred Heart Kindergarten Class celebrated A New Century With Old Mother Goose as a part of their Moving On Ceremony on May 23 at 7:00 p.m.

The program honored the well-loved Mother Goose in this new century with a variety of songs illustrating some of the best-known nursery rhymes. The kindergarten students all dressed in costume, recited the opening number "Old Mother Goose." A smooth transition was made to "Three Little Kittens." The students sang this nursery rhyme as Samantha Cantrell, Emily Krahl, and Morgan Swank, portrayed The Three Little Kittens who had lost their mittens. The children followed this song with "Little Jack Horner" who sat in a corner, played by Isaac Barnhill and "Jack and Jill" interpreted by Isaac and Devan Henry.

As Elizabeth Turner pointed out "many nursery rhymes bring life to little field creatures." Little mice had their place in the program as well. The children sang "Three Blind Mice" in unison, followed by "Hickory Dickory Dock" in which Amber Walterscheid and Stacie Wimmer became the little mice following the tick-tock of the clock.

The program showcased famous sheep as well. "Baa Baa Black Sheep" and "Little Bo Peep's lost sheep" were interpreted with much personality by Clayton Rohmer, Andrew Flusche, and Luke Cochran. Paige Herr as Little Bo Peep awoke to find her sheep right where they should have been!

The children followed with "Mistress Mary Quite Contrary." The students sang the nursery rhyme as Mikaela Bartush, Samantha Cantrell, Devan Henry, Paige Herr, Kaitlin Hesse, Emily Krahl, Morgan Swank, Elizabeth Turner, Amber Walterscheid, and Stacie Wimmer transformed themselves into the little garden flowers and Caitlin Beavers played the role of Mistress Mary.

Following that, Devan Henry introduced a royal medley wherein Old King Cole, Michael Weinzapfel, was a charming king, and the court's fiddlers three were Caitlin Beavers, Tony Schniederjan, and Kaitlin Hesse.

All broke into song to "Fiddle De Dee," and concluded with "Sing a Song of Sixpence," where Michael Weinzapfel played the king, Mikaela Bartush was the queen in the parlor eating bread and honey, and Elizabeth Turner interpreted the Maid in the garden hanging out the clothes.

As the evening progressed, Amber Walterscheid introduced two more songs. "Frere Jacques" was sung in English, Spanish, and French by the kindergarten class. Portraying Little Boy Blue, the boy who napped instead of watching over his cows and sheep, was Tony Schniederjan. He awoke from his nap time just long enough to remind that it was almost past bedtime, and to introduce the last song "Jesus Loves Me." Luke Cochran shared the closing remarks thanking all for attending the ceremony and ending with the remark, "We are growing up and we are the future."

The program was concluded with many warm wishes, words of congratulations, photo taking, and sharing in punch and cookies.

Grasshopper season is here!

Grasshopper populations are beginning to increase with the warmer temperatures and drier air in most of Texas, said Dr. Clifford Hoelscher, entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Grasshoppers usually appear in late-April to May," Hoelscher said. "They appear in cycles and we are just in the middle of the six- to seven-year cycle of hopper infestations."

Hoelscher said the Extension service has received many telephone calls lately because of the growing numbers of grasshoppers.

"With the record-setting temperatures last year we had the highest populations of grasshoppers that I have seen in the last 30 years," Hoelscher said.

He said grasshoppers first appear in rangelands and roadsides because the overwintering eggs are not disturbed in those areas. Populations are much less in farmland and cultivated areas because the soil is disturbed.

"I think there should be less grasshoppers in 2001 because of the wet spring we had," Hoelscher said. "Some of the earlier appearing species were killed by the wet spring weather. But in April it turned off dry and we've seen a resurgence of grasshoppers since the 15th of April."

He said he has received "panic calls" from Lee, Brazos, Bell and Hamilton counties, and some areas will soon see a crisis situation.

There are more than 80 species of grasshoppers in Texas. The differential grasshoppers are the single most damaging species found in the state, Hoelscher said.

During the time before they hatch, grasshoppers are in the egg stage in the ground and overwinter in an egg pod, he said.

"Grasshoppers affect pastures and rangelands as well as grain crops such as sorghum, corn, soybeans, and cotton."

Hoelscher said the only real way to control the grasshopper population is by using insecticides. The two principle materials are Sevin, a trade name for an insecticide application, and Ultra Low Volume (ULV) Malathion. Also, Tempo's a product for homeowners with yards and ornamental plants. It contains pyrethroid which is an insecticide that controls the grasshopper population.

"There is a new Federal label for an insect growth regulator to control grasshoppers called Dimilin," Hoelscher said. "It is only labeled for rangeland and NOT labeled for improved pastures. That's very key."

He said the growth regulator is applied at a very low rate of two ounces per acre, and it can be applied by ground or machinery, or by airplane.

Even though grasshoppers are pests, they provide a good food for bird populations. So birds help get rid of them. If that doesn't work, grasshoppers make good fish bait!

The life cycle of the bigheaded grasshopper.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Moths & more moths

No doubt you have observed the very large numbers of moths around home landscapes, roadsides, and at night flying across the road. From the samples that Dr. Allen Knutson has collected, the vast majority of these moths are True Armyworms. However, there are also several species of Loopers, some Black Cutworms and a few Bollworm moths also present in these swarms. Some of the Loopers feed on weeds, while the other species can be serious pests.

The Armyworm moths emerged from the caterpillars pupated in the soil and then emerged as the adult or moths which are now flying. Normally, the eggs and larvae from these moths do not survive, probably due to higher temperatures in June. However, given the very large number of armyworm moths, and current cool temperatures, it would be wise to scout forage (hay and pastures) and field crops (sorghum and other row crops) for armyworm eggs and larvae during the next several weeks.

Grasshoppers are also back, and in many areas, in greater numbers than before. Hope that cool, wet spring weather would kill hatching nymphs has not materialized. Immature grasshoppers infesting weedy areas can be reduced by mowing those areas now to deprive grasshoppers of food and/or treating the area with an improved insecticide.

Steer validation

Steer validation for major livestock shows will be held Wednesday, June 20, 2001 from 10:00 a.m. until 12 noon at the Gainesville Livestock Market on Refinery Road. If you plan to show a steer at Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston or the State Fair, they must be validated. The tags will cost $10.00 each. This will be the only validation. Call the County Extension Office if you have questions.

In addition to steers, lambs and hogs must also be validated. This will take place later in the summer and fall. Bob Andrews serves as County Validation Chairman for hogs and Ed Perkins is the Chairman for lambs.

Weather, crops condition

North Texas has been troubled by a large number of moths that have occupied the area in recent weeks, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service reports.

Dr. Mike Merchant, Extension entomologist, said a record number of moths have been feeding on weeds and roadside bushes.

"They're a mixture of different kinds of moths collectively called noctuids," Merchant said. "They're a drab colored brown or light-colored moths, with about a one inch wingspan."

During the day, the moths are found in bushes, grass along roadsides and in fields. At night they are attracted to streetlights and car headlights.

"Most of these moths will produce caterpillars known as armyworms and cutworms," Merchant said. "Some of them might pose problems for landscapes and gardens, but most feed on weeds and other roadside plants."

Merchant warned producers and home gardeners not to panic if they noticed moths.

"You don't need to spray if you see moths," Merchant said. "Moths simply warn us that in a few weeks there might be a problem with caterpillars."

Home gardeners who notice moths in their gardens should look for caterpillar leaf feeding damage in the next three to four weeks. Infected plants can be treated with a low impact insecticide like Bacillus thuringiensis.

Crop progress

In a year when producers across the U.S. are battling everything from floods to droughts, the Agriculture Department reported that crop progress is about average for most crops.

According to the National Agricultural Statistics Service report, 95 percent of the corn crop is planted which is ahead of the four-year average of 92 percent but slightly behind last year's average of 98 percent. Soybeans planted, at 70 percent, is ahead of the four-year average of 64 percent but quite a bit behind last year's 83 percent average.

Winter wheat is reported to be 79 percent headed, compared to the four-year average of 77 percent and last year's average of 85 percent. Cotton planted, at 81 percent, is ahead of both the four-year average of 78 percent and last year's average of 79 percent. Sorghum and rice plantings are also running ahead of the four-year and last year's average.

Ag Briefs

With nitrogen fertilizer prices increased, the value of manure used as fertilizer also increased. Cattle manure is currently worth about $13.70 per ton, based on current values for nitrogen and phosphorus.

Broadcast manure on fields can lose up to 30% of its ammonium with-in four days. Manure should be removed from pens as often as possible and stored in a pile, which limits nitrogen losses.
