Senate candidates state views at forum

by Janet Felderhoff
Five of the six men vying for the District 30 state senate seat were present Thursday, Oct. 25 at the Women League of Voters forum. The election was called for Nov. 6 to fill the vacancy left by the unexpected death of Senator Tom Haywood.

Betty Buttolph, voter service chairman, recognized local officials and members of the media present, including Tom Carson of KGAF Radio. Carson was moderator for the event.

Candidates are Independent Rick Bunch, Republicans Craig Estes, Doug Jeffrey, Harry Reynolds, and Kirk Wilson, and Democrat Greg Underwood. Underwood was not at the forum. Lots were drawn to determine the order of speakers.

Harry Reynolds said he is running for the position because he likes to give service. He said he likes his city, his county, and his state and he wants to be able to contribute to the well-being of the state.

Reynolds is a U. S. Army veteran, a CPA, and a former mayor of Sherman. He cited education as one of the important issues in the campaign. "That issue is not just the public schools, it's the complete education package from the grade schools and the high schools to the colleges and universities in this District," he said. "Funding is a big issue for our schools and an important issue. Education encompasses those who home school, the freedom to home school, and the private schools being the church school and the private colleges also."

"We have a budget problem. When I began running in this race, the budget was projected something like a $3 billion deficit. Now we have a projected $5 billion deficit. The incident on Sept. 11 has put our economy in somewhat of a tailspin. In the next session we're going to be dealing with some very serious budget issues. The greatest concern to me is that we not cut education. Education is the future of our country and our state and our counties and I want to pledge that I will find a way not to hurt education in the next session."

Health care, senior issues because of the large number of senior citizens in District 30, and water issues, especially in the western end of the District.

Reynolds pointed to his experience as a CPA, a mayor, a council member and the ability to do the job based on experience were reasons he gave to vote for him.

Craig Estes of Wichita Falls has been owner-operator of Estes, Inc. for 23 years. They distribute agricultural and specialty chemicals to customers in Texas and Oklahoma. Estes remarked, "My experience running a rather large company has been quite instructive and has helped me to realize that in good times and in bad times, the bad times we've had to tighten our belt and do without a few things, and in good times we've expanded. I think that my experience as a CEO of a major company will help me down in Austin. I agree that the budget is one of the major issues that we must face. The expenditures have outweighed the income. Will we have wise budget cuts or will we have tax increases?"

Estes said he conducted polls all over the district and hasn't found anyone who favors tax increases. "We need to just say no to the state income tax and other taxes until we're totally sure that our state government is as efficient as it possibly can be," he said.

Transportation is an issue. He encourages people to vote yes on Proposition #15. Estes stated, "Our highways and infrastructure are groaning under our growth in this state and we need a long range plan and we need a strategic plan to meet those needs."

Water is of vital importance in this area, Estes said. Farmers and ranchers need it to grow their future crops and help with the food and fiber.

"We've got lots of challenges ahead of us and one can only imagine over the next 10 years what will this area look like in 10 years. We need wise planning we need to make sure that our growth is done with a long-term strategic plan," Estes noted.

Kirk Wilson of Denton is a former Denton County judge and commissioner. He was a toll way authority director and said he has worked since he was 12 years old when he began working in his family's business.

"We've seen the problems that growth brings and also the good things that growth brings," Wilson said. "I think as we see growth come more and more up I-35 we've got to make sure we're planning for the future."

"As we look at the transportation needs of this area we need people with experience that are going to advocate for our area. I-35, when you get up in the morning and try to drive to Dallas, you know that the traffic is backed up all the way from LBJ into Denton. We've got to do things to alleviate traffic. There are some things we're looking at in Denton County such as joining DART rail allowing people to get on a train and go into downtown Dallas or go to the airport."

Wilson pledged to work hard if elected. He remarked, "I think there are a lot of issues that are going to be faced in the Legislature that we've got to deal with. One of them is education. We have to make sure our kids are able to go to school and get a good foundation and then go to school here in Texas. They ought to be able to get their college degree in Texas and then get a job in Texas. That means keeping our jobs here. The employers that are in Texas need to expand their plants and their jobs here in Texas. They don't need to ship our jobs out state or out of the country." He said the District 30 senator needs to be an advocate for this area and if elected he would be that advocate.

Health care is another issue Wilson thinks will be addressed in Legislature. "You ought to be able to choose your own doctor and the doctor that you choose ought to be able to choose the health care that you're getting, not the insurance company. We need to be able to say that we are choosing our doctor, that our doctor is choosing our health care and that our doctors are getting paid by the insurance companies."

Doug Jeffrey of Vernon said he had two objectives for the evening. One was to convince people to vote for the candidate with the most experience and number was to motivate people to vote for that candidate.

"We need a strong community and for the community. See if you don't want this candidate to represent you and your family in Austin," said Jeffrey.

Jeffrey said that the issues are education, health care, unemployment and he hopes to address them knowingly with intellect, with experience.

Rick Bunch of Wichita Falls said that the difference between himself and the other candidates is that he's an Independent. "As it currently stands in the state senate, there are 15 Democrats and 15 Republicans," he explained. "The winner of this race, if it's not me, will give one Party the majority and that senator will become the junior member in that Party. He will have the lowest clout and lowest persuasion of any senator in the state of Texas. However, if I am elected I become a swing vote in the senate. Each Party will have to come to me to persuade me to shift the balance of power

Lease contract awarded to build new post office

The U.S. Postal Service awarded a lease contract to Donald Smith of Horseshoe Bay, Texas to build and lease back a new Muenster Post Office. The basic term of the lease is 20 years with two 5-year renewal options.

The new postal-owned building will have approximately 3000 square feet of floor space and will be located on nearly 65,340 square feet of land. The new facility will be on the northwest corner of the intersection of 2nd Street and Maple Street.

The building is expected to be completed in winter of 2001. It will offer additional parking, customer-convenient retail lobby, extended box section, and parcel lockers.

Water bill to be on Nov. 6 ballot

Texas can approve up to $2 billion in bonds for water projects when they vote Nov. 6 on 19 proposed amendments to the state constitution. Proposition 19 authorizes the Texas Water Development Board to issue up to $2 billion in additional general obligation bonds. Proceeds will be used to make low-interest loans to Texas communities for a variety of water supply and water quality projects. These include repairs, improvements and expansions to existing facilities, building or upgrading water or wastewater treatment facilities, or flood control protection.

TWDB officials estimate that their remaining authorization for water-related projects will be exhausted by early 2005. They say Proposition 19 will ensure that TWDB has adequate resources to meet the water and wastewater demands of the rapidly growing citizenry of Texas for at least the next decade.

one way or the other. That is extremely important and it's extremely powerful. District 30 has never had that much clout in the Senate. I think that is a good reason to put me in as an Independent."

Bunch, 48, said he has a five-year-old daughter attending a public school and so he has a locked in personal interest in education. He also has an 18 year old daughter with cerebral palsy who is cared for by her mother, his ex-wife. He said that at some point he and her mother won't be around to care for her and expressed concern for people who cannot care for themselves.

The first question put to the five candidates was, "Do you have a plan for border protection and immigration control?"

Estes - Obviously many things changed in our lives after September 11, we have been a generous nation. We have been a nation of immigrants and we've given people a fair shot at the American dream as they've come over for many years. We need to tighten our borders and make sure that immigrants who come into this country are studied to know what their motives are. ... We need to address the immigrants who come to us from Mexico. There needs to be some sort of work visa program for immigrants so we know where they are. Many times immigrants come over and are going to school or have some work program and they disappear in this country. That needs to be looked at. It's more appropriate addressed on a federal level, but from a state level I will do all that I can to make sure our homeland is safe.

Wilson - We have over a thousand miles of border and the federal government is out trying to control that border, but I don't think the federal government has been committed enough. The state of Texas and the congressmen here and the people who serve in the US Senate need to be pressuring the federal government to make sure that that border is secure. ... Right now we are dealing with a national crisis. It's a crisis of safety. It's the difference between having our homes protected and not protected. We've got to keep our border safe and secure. Commissioner Dewhurst has been appointed by the governor as the head of state homeland security efforts. I have a lot of confidence in his abilities. We need to be supportive of the things he wants to do in this state. We're going to have to make some sacrifices. ... Those things are very minor when we look at the grand scheme of things.

Jeffrey - We as Americans were attacked by people who live in our country who ate with us, who drank with us, who were educated by us, who learned to fly their airplanes by us. We cannot be like China and put a wall up. If you want to put a wall up along Mexico you'd better put one up along Canada too because where you have a leak the water's going to go out. If we try to protect us and ourselves we will never accomplish that goal and we will spend millions of dollars trying to do it. We've got to work with the governments of those countries. We've got to regulate, we've got to try to negotiate with them to make sure the people who comes across our borders are here for legitimate reasons. But not to close out our borders. Our nation became great because we took all the diverse people and put them together. I feel we have shut that down.

He said bin Laden and the Taliban woke us up, but so did Timothy McVeigh. "Anybody who wants to create terror in this country can. I would like each of us to learn to meet our neighbor to know who our neighbor is and then we will have peace at home. We won't have peace at home by putting up barriers."

Bunch - He explained that a job he had in 1984 with the Dallas Police Department required that he have some training in terrorist attacks and terrorist minds. "It was a dignitary protection school put on by the CIA and Secret Service. In 1984, one of the issues that came up from the Secret Service was

From My Side of the Fence

by Ed Cler

Years ago, when all of us were a lot younger, it was Muenster Public School's good fortune to hire a teacher/coach named Elton Toney Burger. Mr. Burger was not only a good teacher who soon gained the respect of his students, but turned out to be a topnotch basketball coach. He took a number of boys who knew nothing about basketball, but had the desire to play, and he instilled the desire to excel, and to win.

Toney was a kind man, soft spoken, but a fierce competitor, and his charges soon picked up on their coach's attitude, and they not only wanted to win, but more often than not, they did.

Mr. Burger stated that he did not know the number of games they won - that they played each one the best they knew how, and then forgot it, and began work on the next.

At any rate, he was more interested in developing fine citizens than fine athletes. He believed that competition, especially in athletics, was a great developer of character.

During his five years at MISD he coached his boys into State competition several times.

Mr. Burger then accepted a job at Austin High School, in Austin, Texas as coach and athletic director, a position he held, I believe, for 33 years. The folks at Austin High held Toney in such high esteem that they named their new athletic complex "The Toney Burger Activity Center."

One of the more humorous moments during his five years at Muenster, occurred one afternoon as the high school girls were preparing for a game. Mr. Burger was working with the boys, and the girls were trying to get his attention, calling several times, "Mr. Burger."

Now the Burger home was just off the school grounds, and Mrs. Burger was at home.

One of the girls said "Hold it, I'll get his attention!" and with that she cupped her hands over her mouth and called in a loud voice, "Elton Toney, Honey!"

Well, she got his attention, but none of the girls told who it was that called him in such a personal manner.

Underwood, Jeffrey campaign for Senate seat

Calling for a united front in the face of challenge, Greg Underwood pledged an ambitious balance of innovative ideas and conservative values while launching his candidacy in the special election race for Senate District 30.

Underwood is the only Democrat in the special Senate race. "Democracy is stronger when voters have a choice," the sixth-generation Texan said. "My candidacy gives the voters of North Texas an opportunity to choose between a handful of Republicans and a truly conservative Democrat in the special election for the Texas Senate."

"Texans have an opportunity to show Osama bin Laden how we draw strength from adversity," Underwood said. "As we send that message, I want to do my part to make sure the voices of North Texas residents are heard loud and clear."

"At the same time we must not lose sight of the challenges we face on the home front in public education, health care, water resources and our local economies. The working families of North Texas want to send healthy children to outstanding public schools in safe communities with clean and abundant water supplies, good jobs and fair wages. I will fight to make certain those opportunities are available to everyone."

An attorney and businessman with experience in the oil and manufacturing industries, Underwood, 62, is a former Bowie mayor and council member who also served as Cooke County Judge and prosecutor. After graduating with honors from the University of Texas at Austin with degrees in English and history, he earned his Doctor of Jurisprudence from the UT School of Law in 1964.

Underwood has five children and 10 grandchildren and is a member of the First United Methodist Church in Bowie. JEFFREY

Doug Jeffrey has served 24 years as City Attorney for Vernon, Chillicothe, and formerly Quanah. Doug is also Council for Vernon College, and the Wilbarger Humane Society. He runs the family farm and ranching business with his sons Doug IV and Charlie. He graduated from the University of Michigan with a degree in Electrical Engineering and then went on to Baylor Law School. After law school he served as a JAG officer for the United States Air Force at the Pentagon before moving to Vernon to practice law.

"I am running to get the vote out. If we send a Senator down to Austin with a weak vote he will not get any respect. We need a big turn out to show that we care. Look at the candidates and vote."

Doug Jeffrey feels that the three most important issues are: 1. Health Care: many received raises last year and are taking home less money because insurance rates have gone up. Doug stands for accountability at the state level. 2. Education professionals put in countless dollars of their own money to provide for our children Doug wants to put money where it belongs; and 3. Unemployment because of the September 11 disaster has caused many in the District to lose their jobs. Doug wants to create jobs for Senate District 30. ## Muslim speaks at Nov. 1 Republican Women's meeting

On Thursday, Nov. 1, at 7:00 p.m. the Cooke County Republican Women held their monthly meeting at Gainesville Chamber of Commerce, 101 Culberson Street, Gainesville. The public is invited to attend. Refreshments were served after the program.

After September 11 there has been a great deal of discussion about what happened and who was involved. It has been difficult for those who are of the Muslim faith who are Americans and who have been just as shocked. Mrs. Raufia Rahman, a member of this community, a Republican and an activist in the George Bush campaign, as a part of the Finance Committee and the Strike Force that went to Michigan to help influence the Arab-Americans to vote for George Bush, spoke on the Muslim religion and her country. After speaking, Mrs. Rahman took questions. "It gives the community the opportunity to come and again be informed," remarked Pat Peale, vice-president Cooke County Republican Women.

The meeting also included the election of officers, and the discussion of the Christmas dinner dance that will be held Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Lake Kiowa Lodge.

The Section 529 Plan is an investment vehicle for parents/grandparents who want to save for a child's college education. The new tax law enacted in June makes them completely tax-free. The accounts are similar to an IRA, with depositors choosing investments from those offered by the plan. The students will not have to pay taxes on withdrawals as long as the money is used for school expenses.

J.D. Caplinger 1919 - 2001

by Elfreda Fette

Mass of Christian Burial was held for J.D. Caplinger on Monday, Oct. 29, 2001 at 10:00 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster, officiated by Father John Ohner OSA pastor and Fr. Sebastian Beshoner OSB of St. Peter's of Lindsay, and assisted by Deacon Jerome Caplinger of Oklahoma City, son of Mr. Caplinger. Altar servers were Eric Endres, Jennifer Endres, and Stephen Zimmerman.

J.D. Caplinger

J.D. Caplinger died at age 82 at his home in Muenster on Oct. 26, 2001 at 9:40 p.m. He was born on Jan. 22, 1919 in Kingston, Texas to Sylvester and Serena Caplinger. On Nov. 11, 1948 he married Miriam Koessler in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster. He and Miriam were both employed at St. Vincent's Hospital of Sherman in the business office. They moved to Muenster in 1964, and were active members of Sacred Heart Parish. He was a U.S. Army W.W.II Veteran. After 30 years of service as a surgical tech, he retired from Muenster Memorial Hospital where he was a mainstay on the staff. He was loved and respected by the patients, endearing himself to their families; and formed lifelong friendships. A devoted husband and father, and beloved by his grandchildren, he also is remembered and respected by many hundreds of friends.

J.D. and Miriam were married almost 52 1/2 years, and had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Their lives were spent in service to their God, their family, and their fellowmen, and to each other.

Survivors are two daughters, Mary Kay Endres and husband Jack Endres of Muenster, and Diann Zimmerman and husband Gary Zimmerman of Valley View; and three sons Paul Caplinger and wife Susan of Denton, Robert Caplinger and wife Ann of Carrollton, and Jerome Caplinger and wife Cynthia of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. There are 11 grandchildren. Also one sister, Mollie Richardson of Dallas, and one brother J.W. Caplinger of Bonham.

Preceding him in death were his parents; his wife Miriam Caplinger who died on Apr. 24, 2001. Also by five sisters Ollie Thompson, Jewel Keller, Nellie Wigley, Alley Caplinger, and Mary Caplinger; and five brothers Robert, Rex, Sam, Lee, and George Caplinger.

A Rosary Service was held Sunday at 4:00 p.m. at McCoy Chapel, led by Theresa Hermes. Vigil at 7:00 p.m. at McCoy Chapel was led by Deacon Jerome Caplinger. Cyle Caplinger gave a Liturgical Reading and Diann Zimmerman delivered the Eulogy.

Participating in the special funeral liturgy for the Mass of Christian Burial were Natalie Zimmerman and Cynthia Caplinger who gave the First and Second Readings from Old and New Testament, respectively.

At Offertory, Lydia Zimmerman carried up a basket of vegetables from J.D.'s garden (one of his special hobbies); Emily Endres carried up a shadow box holding emblems, awards, and treasures from his military service and years at Muenster Memorial Hospital; David Zimmerman and Scott Endres presented Offertory gifts of bread and wine at the altar. Eucharistic Ministers were Mary Kay Endres, Cynthia Caplinger, and Diann Zimmerman.

The Eulogy was given by Mary Kay Endres: "On behalf of myself, my brothers, Paul, Bob and Jerome, my sister Diann, our spouses and our children, I would like to begin by expressing our deepest appreciation to Fr. John, our relatives, and our friends, for your many prayers, and for your constant source of support and encouragement during our parents illnesses."

"Dad was born in Kingston, Texas, on Jan. 22, 1919. He was the youngest son in a family of 13 children born to Sylvester and Serena Caplinger. Being raised during the Depression, Dad attended school for awhile in Bonham, Texas. However, much of his youth was spent working whatever jobs were available to help support his family.

"On Mar. 18, 1941, Dad was inducted into the service. He served during World War II in the Medical Corp with the 300th General Hospital. His overseas tours included North Africa and Naples, Italy. After discharge, Dad worked as an orderly at St. Vincent's Hospital in Sherman. It was there that he met his most precious treasure, Mom. They were married here at Sacred Heart Church on Nov. 11, 1948.

"In 1964, Dad and Mom moved their family of five children back to Muenster where they both began work at the brand new Muenster Memorial Hospital. Dad worked as an orderly and surgical technician until his retirement in 1993.

"Dad was a self taught musician, and throughout his life enjoyed playing music with his family and friends. Dad also enjoyed bird hunting and fishing when time and his health allowed. One job was never enough for Dad. He was always working with bird dogs or beagles, or harvesting potatoes by the acres, or shelling pecans by the pound. He enjoyed his large garden and probably supplied most of Muenster with okra each year. Dad was always quick to offer help to anyone he met. In fact, he would often say, 'If you ever need a little help, give me a call. I'm about as little help as you can get!'

"Dad lost his companion of 52 years when Mom died on Apr. 24th of this year. He has longed to be with her. Every morning since her death Dad would go to visit and pray at her grave. On Friday, Oct. 26 Dad's struggle finally ended. We know that he has been reunited with Mom and together they enjoy eternal peace with our Lord Jesus Christ."

Music Ministers were Pam and Dave Fette, Linda Flusche, and Emily Klement, with organ and guitar accompaniment. Sacred music included "Gather Us In" at the entrance; the Psalm "Shepherd Me, O God"; "Eye Has Not Seen" at Offertory; "One Bread, One Body" and "I Am The Bread Of Life" at Communion; "Song Of The Angels" at the incensing; and "Sing A New Song" for the recessional.

Burial in Sacred Heart Cemetery was directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster. Pallbearers were Cyle Caplinger, Robert Caplinger, Jr., Emmett Walterscheid, Cory Klement, Danny Walterscheid, and Chuck Koessler. Honorary pallbearers were Tom Hesse and Herman Carroll.

For those who have asked, the family has suggested memorials to Sacred Heart Trust Fund, Sacred Heart Building Fund, or Subiaco Abbey, in lieu of flowers.

Muenster Pride shown on "Make a Difference Day"

Make A Difference Day was celebrated in communities all over Texas on Oct. 27. Last Saturday over 80 citizens from the Muenster community joined the Keep Muenster Beautiful organization in cleaning up the streets and highways. Because of other activities, some groups cleaned up their Adopt-A-Highway areas before the scheduled day, and some on Monday following the cleanup. Bags of trash, 156 of them, filled with trash and other debris removed from our highways and streets. After the cleanup lunch was served by Christine Weinzapfel of RE/MAX First Realty. All registered participants were eligible for the drawing for prizes. Forty-three prizes were donated for the drawing that included Chamber Marks from the Chamber of Commerce, stereo cassette players, calculators, cameras, CD's, art prints, crystal, mini china tea set, and a variety of other items donated by Keep Muenster Beautiful. Organized cleanups, Adopt-A-Highway groups and all beautification efforts are extremely important in helping keep Muenster beautiful and contribute to the efforts of Muenster winning the Governor's Community Achievement Award and another $65,000.00 for community beautification this year. A clean and beautiful community attracts visitors who shop and eat in Muenster. This helps the local economy, local businesses and families. Thanks to all who help Keep Muenster Beautiful.

Pooh and George visit MPL

Winnie the Pooh and Curious George were the honored guest at the Bettie M. Luke Muenster Public Library on Thursday Oct. 25. Jan Nielsen, Renata Pagel, Alice Davidson, Katie Cox, Kate Sepanski, and Theresa Walterscheid took turns reading stories about Winnie and George from 4 till 6 p.m.

Approximately 175 people came by to have their photos taken with these lovable characters.

Barrett Aircraft Maintenance, Inc. donated door prizes for the event. Those gifts were won by Miranda Pagel, Adrien Rohmer, Katy Bezner, Ashton Barrett, Laurine McKaden, Eland Green, Amber Knabe, and Adam Wolf. Ginger Garven, library director of Whitesboro Public Library, provided costuming, and Diana Felderhoff assisted her.

"The event was a huge success and the library is planning other special story times in the near future, noted library manager Kay Broyles.

The library has a new volunteer, Jodie Thompson. Jodie will be available on Tuesday and Thursday mornings to help those who have little or no computer experience. She will instruct you on basic computer and basic internet skills. If these hours are inconvenient for you, call the library at 759-4291, and she might be able to schedule another time to work with you.

"The library's collection is growing. We have books, movies, music CDs, audio books, large print books, magazines, and newspapers," Broyles added. "We look forward to serving your informational, educational, and recreational needs."

Curious George and Winnie the Pooh visited the Muenster Public Library last week for a special story time.

Troop 664 gets into Philmont 2003

The scouts of Troop 664 are celebrating their recent success in getting admitted to the Philmont Scout Ranch for the summer of 2003. Troop 664 was last able to attend Philmont in 1999.

Sharon Felderhoff, scout parent, was the successful caller who nabbed a slot for Troop 664 during an intense call-in campaign held Saturday, Oct. 27. Philmont holds an annual "call-in" reservation system where troops from all over the world try for two-week slots called "treks", where up to 8 boys and 4 adults can attend.

The 127,395 acres on which Philmont is situated was donated by the owner of Phillips Petroleum, Waite Phillips. Philmont Scout Ranch is in the northern New Mexico mountains bordering the Cimarron River, with many flowing streams, 13,000 peaks, and deep wilderness areas. Philmont arranges for food drops along a typical 10 day, 76 mile backpacking trip. Throughout the trip scouts get to participate in various activities such as black powder rifle shoots, panning for gold, mine trips, rock climbing and more. Evening comedy programs are conducted by Philmont staff.

Adults and scouts

wishing to attend in 2003 must attend a meeting on Nov. 12 at the KC Hall in Muenster at 7 p.m. It is very important that adults wishing to attend Philmont provide absolute confirmation because without adult leaders boys cannot attend. Treks tentatively reserved will then have to be returned to Philmont by mid November. Adult leaders do not have to be currently active in Scouting to accompany a trek, however some training, medicals, and sign-up with the troop will be necessary in 2003. Contact Gary Fisher for more information.

Heat Saving Tip

Seal air leaks in the attic floor and add insulation. The Infiltrometer blower test often finds significant air leaks in the attic floor. Examples are open partition walls, recessed lights, and gaps around chimneys and plumbing stacks. Seal them and then add insulation up to today's code to cut heat loss through your roof.

Kendall, Miller are recognized scholars

Two May 2001 graduates of Lindsay High School have been named AP Scholars by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level AP Exams. Only about 13 percent of the more than 840,000 students in 13,680 schools who took AP Exams in May 2001 performed at a sufficiently high level to merit such recognition.

Students take AP Exams in May after completing challenging college-level courses at their high schools. The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on the number of year-long courses and exams (or their equivalent semester-long courses and exams).

One Lindsay student qualified for the AP Scholar with Honor Award by earning an average of at least 3.25 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more of these exams. This student is Michael Kendall, son of Mike and Alice Kendall.

One student qualified for the AP Scholar Award by completing three or more AP Examinations, with grades of 3 or higher. This AP Scholar is Courtney Miller, daughter of Reita Miller.

Most of the nation's colleges and universities award credit, advanced placement, or both based on successful performance on the AP Exams. More than 1,400 institutions award a full year's credit (sophomore standing) to students presenting a sufficient number of qualifying grades. There are 35 AP Exams offered in 19 subject areas, each consisting of multiple-choice and free-response (essay or problem-solving) questions except for the Studio Art exam which evaluates students' original artwork.

What's new at the SH Picnic this year!

The Nægelschlagen contest is going to be a big hit this year at the Sacred Heart Annual Thanksgiving Picnic. Rumor has it that Doyle Hess, Babe Schilling, Rich Sweeney, and Jimbo Biffle have already entered the contest. Each one seems to think that he can be the champ of this year's contest. We will have to wait and see. We hope there will be several more entering, so these guys won't have it so easy. Remember, the winner wins $250.00. The entry fee is only $25.00. You can practice that morning. For all you eager contenders, please contact Billie Fleitman at 759-4565 or Debbie Hess at 759-2890 to register.

Also, don't forget, if you are not using your turkey marks at Fischer's you can donate them to the picnic.

Hey, for all of you who hate mowing your lawn, have we got a nice mower for you! The Muenster Garden Center is donating a brand new Snapper riding lawn mower. It has 10 HP, a 30 inch cut, electric starter, and it is a rear engine rider. We have a lot of nice wooden handmade items coming in including three cedar chests, a poker table, and a rod and reel cabinet that will hold several reels. Oh yeah, a brand new rod and reel will be included with it. Look out fellow fishermen, Virgil may bid this one up. We all know how he loves to fish.

Next week we will discuss some of our parties and hunts that have been given, so until next time, keep the 18th of November open and be ready to have a good time. Items are still being accepted.

Are you prepared for a terrorist attack in your community?

The New Era Survival Research Institute has just published a new booklet, "Nuclear, Biologic & Chemical Attack - Survival Resource Guide". The booklet gives information about simple and inexpensive things that can be done to improve the chances of survival in a terrorist attack. Included in the booklet are a resource list to get additional free information, and a special section where consumers can find suppliers of specialized products and plans to protect them in the event of an attack.

"According to news magazine reports, there is evidence that terrorists may have been planning to disperse biological or chemical agents by using crop-dusting planes," said Paul Richard, a researcher at New Era Survival Research Institute. "We've published a resource guide to help consumers educate themselves about what to do in the event of a nuclear, biological or chemical attack. Many people have no idea where to buy the equipment that may be necessary for survival. There are many simple things like duct tape, masks, filters, plastic

Pirates hustle Hornets

Muenster Coach Gordon Martin knew the Hornets would face their toughest opponent this season last Friday night, but was hoping for a closer battle than the 52-14 finish.

"The boys gave a tremendous effort throughout the game, but you have to give credit to Petrolia - they have a really good football team," said Martin. "If you don't tackle well at the line of scrimmage, they'll roam free." Martin also noted that Petrolia got the big plays, not Muenster.

Petrolia took only 36 seconds to put points on the board, taking a quick 0-7 lead.

Muenster ran three plays and punted, then held the Pirates for six plays, forcing a punt. The Hornet offense again struggled, gaining only a yard, then booted a 6 yard punt to place Petrolia 30 yards from pay dirt. The Pirates got to the 18 yard line, then kicked a 32 yard field goal for a 0-10 score with 4:12 on the clock.

A flag was Muenster's longest gain their next drive with Mitch Endres running for a yard, Cody Cory 6, and Chisam Cain 2 before losing the ball on downs.

Petrolia carried the ball into the second quarter, moving from their 17 yard line to the end zone in 10 plays. The PAT was good for a 0-17 score.

The Hornets' next drive started on their 33 yard line. A run by Cory and Endres gained 12, then Endres broke free for a 37 yard run to the Pirate 20. Cory ran twice for 9, and Endres 4 yards, but a flag put the Hornets back on the 17. Three plays later an Endres to Cory pass put Muenster on the scoreboard. Cain booted the extra point for a 7-17 score with 6:39 remaining in the first half of play.

The Pirates struck back with a 55 yard touchdown run to extend their lead to 7-24.

Muenster's next drive slowly moved down field. On 4th and 1, a Pirate flag gave the Hornets a first down. Then on 3rd and 8, an Endres to Cory pass picked up 16 yards to the Pirate 40. Cory gained 2, and Endres 12 yards, then Endres was caught for a 14 yard loss. The next play, Petrolia covered a fumbled ball and three passes later, scored. With 22 seconds on the clock, the Pirates led 7-31.

Muenster came out the 3rd quarter, slowly moving the ball downfield before losing it on downs at the Pirate 25. The next play, Petrolia scored on a 75 yard run. With 7:11 on the clock, the Pirates had a 7-38 lead.

From their 21 yard line, Cory picked up 11 yards, then Muenster was dropped for a loss before Endres and Cory connected for a 25 yard gain. Endres was then dropped for a 10 yard loss. A flag backed Muenster another 5 yards. On 3rd and 25 Petrolia picked off a pass, taking over on their 30 yard line. Seven plays later, the Pirates took a 7-45 lead with 2:10 remaining in the 3rd quarter.

Four Cody Cory runs picked up 16 yards as the final period began. Endres gained 12 and Cain 15 to the Petrolia 38. Three plays later, Cain scored on a 29 yard run. Cain then kicked the extra point for a 14-45 score.

Petrolia wasted little time lighting up the scoreboard again. With 6:48 on the clock, the Pirates took a 14-52 lead.

Muenster ran six plays, ran out of downs, then allowed Petrolia to play out the remaining time.

The Hornets travel to Windthorst in a must win contest to make the playoffs. The winner of the game should advance as district runner-up.

The Trojans have lost only one game this season, 23-6 to Petrolia. "They are a team we'll match up better with," said Coach Martin. "They have big guys, but are not as fast as Petrolia."

Muenster will be entering the game with a few minor injuries which should allow all members of the team to play.

"We're preparing to go down and win a football game," the coach concluded.

Game time is 7:30 in Windthorst.

The Sacred Heart Tigers got another district win Friday night on their way to the playoffs. The Tigers defeated the Lakehill Christian Warriors 39-20.

"Lakehill was a good game for us because we were able to work on a lot of offensive schemes," commented Coach Kris Hogan. "We threw the ball real well and did a good job protecting our quarterback." Hogan noted that all of the younger team members got in the game, playing well. "I'm especially happy with that."

Lakehill took the opening kick, then moved the ball 60 yards, scoring in eight plays. The extra kick went wide for a 6-0 score with 8:34 on the clock.

An on-side kick was covered by Adam Krahl on the Tiger 40 yard line. A Paul Bartush to Michael Voth pass took the Tigers to the Warrior 37. An 8 yard run by Jon Krahl, then another 8 yards in a Bartush to Chris Fuhrmann pass was followed by an interception two yards from pay dirt.

The Tiger defense, led by Thomas Whitecotton and Jack Biffle, forced a short punt to the 29 yard line. Krahl then ran the ball in to tie the game. John Knabe's extra kick gave the Tigers a 1 point lead with 6:12 on the clock.

Again Sacred Heart held the Warriors with Biffle, Chris Hoedebeck, Andy Davis, and Whitecotton getting in on tackles. A 28 yard kick placed the Tigers on their 37 yard line. The next play, Krahl scored on a 67 yard touchdown run. Knabe added the extra point and Sacred Heart took a 14-6 lead with 3:15 still remaining in the first period.

Lakehill used up the first quarter time, then punted. The Tigers lost yards and punted back. Three plays later, Whitecotton intercepted a pass and returned it to the Lakehill 35. On 4th and 14, a Bartush to Fuhrmann pass kept the drive alive to the 18. Bartush then found Whitecotton for a 10 yard gain. On 4th and goal, Krahl scored on a 1 yard run. Knabe booted another point for a 21-6 score with 6 minutes till halftime.

Whitecotton, Biffle, and Clayton Truebenbach held the Warriors. Two plays after the punt, the Tigers fumbled. Again the Tigers forced a punt, and again they turned over the ball. Matthew Fleitman then covered a loose ball on the Lakehill 28 to set up another Tiger touchdown.

A Bartush to Voth pass and a 15 yard personal flag set the Tigers on the 8 yard line. Krahl then ran the ball in for 6 points. The PAT kick was blocked for a 27-6 score right before the break at halftime.

The 3rd quarter opened with an on-side kick, covered by Andy Davis. The Tigers got in seven plays, but three consecutive incomplete passes and a bad snap gave Lakehill possession on their 31 yard line.

The Tiger defense held the Warriors to 3 yards, punting the ball to the Tiger 43. Bartush completed passes to Clint Fuhrmann, Hoedebeck, and Fuhrmann for 7, 15, and 12 yards to the 23 yard line. A Bartush to Hoedebeck pass gained 7 more yards, then a completion to Whitecotton put Sacred Heart ahead 33-6, with 3:33 on the clock.

Lakehill's offense controlled the remaining quarter, carrying the ball to the one yard line. Biffle caught the Warriors for a 2 yard loss, then the Tigers took over on their 3 yard line. Three plays later, Sacred Heart fumbled, setting up a Warrior score. Four plays later, the scoreboard read 33-12.

From the Lakehill 45, a Bartush to Clint Fuhrmann pass was good for a Tiger touchdown. The extra point pass failed for a 39-12 score with 4:54 remaining in the game. The Warriors fought back, scoring on a 54 yard run. The extra run made the score 39-20 with 2:38 on the clock. An on-side kick was covered by Kevin Walterscheid. Mikey Bayer got in two runs with a 20 yard run by Davis ending the game.

Krahl was the Tigers' leading rusher with 127 yards in 13 carries.

The Tigers finish district competition this Friday night against Ambassadors of Christ. "Ambassadors are fast and have good skill position players, but their offensive and defensive lines are not as good as some teams in the district," Coach Hogan noted. "Their defense is fast, but they're not a real physical, aggressive team, as far as defense goes."

The Tigers plan to play various offensive schemes that they can incorporate in the playoffs.

Action begins at 7:30 in Fort Worth.

Knights fall to Fannindel 36-27

The Lindsay Knights took the long road to Ladonia last Friday to battle the Falcons of Fannindel, returning home defeated 27-36.

"We had a hard time containing their speed," noted Coach Charlie Meurer. "We lost five turnovers, one for a touchdown, and couldn't get the big plays they did."

The Knight offense was the first on the field, getting in six plays before punting. Three plays later the Falcons scored on a 48 yard run. The extra pass failed for a 0-6 score with 7:20 on the clock.

Lindsay gained only 5 yards and punted. Adam Anderle caught a Falcon in the backfield for a 22 yard loss. Two consecutive flags backed the ball to the 12 yard line. On 3rd and 36 Ryan Kasperek covered a fumbled ball on the 9 yard line. The next play, a pass from Tommy Arendt to Anderle tied the game 6-6 when the extra run failed.

Tackles by Anderle, Mitch Creed, and Chuck Hinds forced a Falcon punt. The Knights moved the ball to their host's end of the field, then fumbled as the first quarter ended.

From their 44, the Falcons took 6 plays to regain the lead, 6-14, with 9:55 on the 2nd quarter clock.

Lindsay's offense fought back with Hinds gaining 5 and Anderle 52 yards in two carries to the 10 yard line. Arendt got to the 4, then Anderle went in for 6 points. Anderle's extra run tied the game 14-14 with 7:45 remaining in the first half.

Anderle's kick put the Falcons on their 11 yard line. Tackles by Creed, Anderle, Josh Goldsmith, Kasperek, and a broken pass play by Sam Hellinger stopped Fannindel on their 47 yard line.

Tommy Arendt got a 24 yard run, and Anderle 12 to get the Knights to the 17, but a flag and incomplete passes prevented any scoring. Two plays later Hellinger intercepted a pass. Anderle got in two runs, then Fannindel picked off a pass. The next play, Trinity Otto intercepted the ball to end the first half.

Fannindel got a 61 yard return to begin the 3rd quarter, then took 5 plays to score. A pass play on the extra point gave the Falcons a 14-22 lead with 8:20 on the clock.

The Knights' first drive of the second half started on the Knight 41 yard line. Two runs by Anderle gained 37 yards with Keith Dieter adding 4 to the 19 yard line. Anderle carried the Knights to the 14, then an Arendt to Dominic Fuhrmann pass picked up another 10 yards. Anderle gained 2 yards, then another 2 for the touchdown. The extra pass failed for a 20-22 score.

Lindsay's kick landed the Falcons on their 15 yard line, moving to the 37 before an attempted punt lost 9 yards. The Knights, on the Fannindel 28 yard line gained only 5 yards giving the ball back to their host. Tackles by Anderle, Kasperek, Nathan Bruce, Matt Baugh, Goldsmith, Creed, and Otto forced a punt on 4th and 15. The next play, the Falcons intercepted a pass near midfield. Again the Knight defense held, punting to the Knight 21 yard line. Two plays later, the Falcons scored on a Lindsay fumble, taking a 20-30 lead with 6:19 remaining in the game.

Adam Anderle returned the Falcon kick 60 yards to the 25 yard line. Arendt and Anderle traded runs to the 3 yard line, where Anderle scored 6 points. Anderle's extra kick closed the score to 27-30.

Fannindel's offense wasn't finished, taking 6 plays, scoring on a 51 yard run. With 1:32 on the clock, the Falcons took a 27-36 lead.

The Knights went to the air in an attempt to score and were intercepted as time ticked off the clock.

 The Knights will host the Blue Devils of Celeste this Friday night. The Devils are undefeated this season. "Celeste is a very good football team, with some good players," Meurer said, noting tailback Rod Givens is better than Fannindel's back. Along with quarterback Brody Lipsey and receiver Kensley Evans, they are offensive threats. "We have to take care of their running game," Meurer continued. "Offensively, we can't afford to turn the ball over and can't give up the big plays." Action begins at Knight Field at 7:30.

Grewing wins contest

Week eight of the Muenster Enterprise football contest has two new winners. Carol Grewing won the $25 cash prize, correctly guessing 19 games, being the only contestant to miss the Grapevine over Brewer game. Noah Barnhill won the door prize awarded by DI One Stop.

Seven entries missed only two games - Edgar Dyer, Rebecca York, LeRoy Buddy, Mark Grewing, Dave Reiter, Barbie Barnhill, and Benny Haverkamp. Correctly guessing 17 games were Wayne Klement, Nick Stoffels, Bonnie Stoffels, Charles Edwards, Jon LeBrasseur, Deann Muller, Ted Heers, and Noah Barnhill. Four missed four games, three missed five, and the low score was 14.

Everyone correctly picked Sacred Heart, Windthorst, Valley View, Gainesville, and Saint Jo. Chico's 21-16 loss to Throckmorton was the most missed game - 19 picked Chico. Thirteen entries picked Lindsay to win, while only three went with Muenster.

Mark Grewing and Deann Muller guessed closest to the tie-breaker, each five points off the final score.

Season ratings will be printed in next week's paper, but are posted at the Enterprise office for viewing during business hours.

Poachers are drawing stiff sentences under new law

Two years ago, a state law created tougher penalties for illegal hunting, including hunting or fishing without landowner consent, hunting from a motor vehicle, and hunting at night. Prior to Sept. 1, 1999, the worst-case scenario for a poacher might involve a stiff fine and civil restitution. In addition to restitution, the new law provides for felony charges and a mandatory jail sentence. "The stiffer penalties, including potentially losing your equipment and having your license revoked, not to mention having a felony on your record, are a good deterrent," said David Sinclair, chief of wildlife enforcement with Texas Parks and Wildlife. In 1997 TPW game wardens reported 458 violations for hunting without landowner consent. Last year, only 131 cases were made.

Fire safety facts

In the event of a fire, remember that * Time is the biggest enemy and every second counts! Escape first!
 * Develop a home fire escape plan and practice it frequently.
 * In your fire escape plan, designate a meeting place outside.
 * Make sure everyone in your family knows two ways to escape from every room.
 * Practice feeling your way out with your eyes closed.
 * Never stand up in a fire, always crawl low under the smoke and try to keep your mouth covered.
 * Never return to a burning building for any reason; it may cost you your life.
 * Finally, having a working smoke detector dramatically increases your chances of surviving a fire.

Muenster JV defeats Petrolia in 14-0 battle

Last Thursday, the junior varsity Muenster Hornets traveled to Petrolia, bringing home a 14-0 victory over the Pirates.

Muenster kicked to begin action, with tackles by Ricky Endres, Justin Wolf, Karl Fisher, and Brady Howell holding Petrolia to only a 4 yard gain. After the punt, the Hornet offense took to the field. Runs by Sean Fuhrmann and Clint Miller gained 9 yards and the Hornets punted.

The Pirates got inside the Hornet 5 yard line, but a tackle by Todd Hess set them back 3 yards and pass defensive plays by Howell and Miller put the Pirates in a 4th down situation. An attempted field goal failed and Muenster took over on the 20.

Unable to gain any ground, the Hornets punted and the 2nd quarter began. A penalty and a nine yard loss by Chase Cain, Jared Ledbetter and Hess was followed by a fumbled snap, covered by Todd Hess on the Pirate 34. A Fuhrmann to Endres pass gained 18 yards with Miller getting the ball to the 10 yard line. Miller then scored, putting Muenster on the board. The extra points failed for a 6-0 score.

Tackles by Cameron Walterscheid, Wolf, Fisher, and Daniel Russell held the Pirates on 4 downs. Penalties hurt Muenster's next attempted drive, returning possession to Petrolia. A pass play, defended by Cain and Russell lost 3 yards, then Walterscheid stopped a run for no gain. A fumbled snap tackle by Endres put the Pirates back another 17 yards, punting on 4th and

30. The Hornets got in 6 plays, then Petrolia 2 before halftime.

Three Miller and a Fuhrmann run gained 24 yards in the first drive of the 2nd half, but 2 consecutive plays lost yards and the Hornets punted. The next play, Howell covered a fumble, caused by Endres, putting Muenster in good field position. A 15 yard penalty assisted in the Hornets' drive that ended on the 5 yard line.

A couple of good passes took the Pirates into Hornet territory, but the threat of a touchdown ended when Justin Wolf intercepted a pass on the 18 yard line.

The Hornets gained only a yard and punted. Defense by Howell, Cain, and Wolf gave Muenster the ball on their 48 yard line. Three runs by Miller gained 16, but a flag lost 10 and Muenster couldn't get the first down, punting. Two plays later, Cameron Walterscheid picked off a Petrolia pass, broke tackles and returned the ball 50 yards for a touchdown. Jared Ledbetter then ran in the extra points for a 14-0 score.

The Pirates ran 5 plays, with Hess and Ledbetter teaming up for a sack, and pass defense by Fuhrmann and Russell keeping them from too much of a gain. The Hornets ran four plays before time ticked off the clock.

Cubs win 26-20 over Warriors

The junior high Tigers took on the Lakehill Warriors last Friday evening squeezing out a 26-20 victory.

The Cubs scored quickly. After taking the opening kick, a Jon Ambrose to Marcos Nieto pass put Sacred Heart into Warrior territory. Aaron Krahl then scored on a 22 yard run. The extra point attempt failed for a 6-0 score, 44 seconds into the game.

Lakehill got in one good run, then a tackle by Adam Dangelmayr and a holding penalty, was followed by a fumble covered by Timmy Otto on the Lakehill 35. Krahl, behind a good block by Stephen Davis, scored on a 35 yard run. A Nolan Hartman pass to Colby Richey put the Cubs ahead 14-0.

Lakehill fought back, taking nine plays to travel 78 yards, scoring on an 11 yard run. The PAT failed for a 14-6 score with 6:13 remaining in the 2nd quarter.

An on-side kick was covered by Sacred Heart at midfield. The next play, Krahl ran 55 yards for another Sacred Heart score and a 20-6 lead with 5:45 on the clock.

Lakehill's offense again took control, moving the ball 59 yards in seven plays to close the score to 20-14. Both teams got in some plays before the halftime break.

The teams exchanged punts early in the 3rd quarter, then the Cubs fumbled the ball, setting up Lakehill's next scoring drive. From their 36 yard line, nine runs found the game tied 20-20.

The Cubs again fumbled, then several plays later Josh Yosten intercepted a pass at midfield. Krahl took the ball to the 39, then the 28 yard line, then into the end zone. With 1:37 remaining in the game, the Cubs had a 26-20 lead.

Tackles by Arlie Bayer, Ambrose and Krahl were followed by a fumbled ball that ended the game.

Era Hornets celebrate Homecoming with activities

On Thursday, a pep rally was held on the north campus with the cheerleaders arriving on the Era fire truck to "fire-up" school spirit. At Friday's pep rally the cheerleaders did a black-out rally with lots of glow in the dark lights, necklaces and clothes.

On Friday night the homecoming court consisted of seniors: Loubee Zielinski, Rebecka Stevens, Kensey Boyd, and Jenny Collier. King candidates were: Josh Aljoe, Daniel Bowles, Chancey Graves, and Carlos Rodriguez.

In pre-game activities, Boyd and Graves were named homecoming queen and king for 2001. A dance followed for junior and senior high.

On Monday, students had "Moody Monday" when they came as they were in curlers, PJs, etc. Tuesday students dressed as twins and on Wednesday they held Wacky-Tacky Wednesday. This day you saw mismatched clothes, wild make up and some unusual hair styles. (Ms. Timmons and Barb Rider outdid themselves with make-up and jewelry). Thursday, many of the teachers dug in the closet to find clothes for Tripin Thursday to dress in the 60s and 70s. Friday was Show Your Spirit Day. Several dressed as Hornets, many had on Hornet "ears" and some came dressed for homecoming. Mrs. Fanning wore all the mums and garters from home.

Era School Board hears BEST presentation

The Era School Board met Monday in the school library with Walt Stevens presiding at the October meeting. Alan Spears delivered the invocation. Other Board members present were: Frank Rust, Michael Brown, Jamie Kinderger, Kathy Metzler, and Randy Huddleston.

Estes - A state income tax is a bad idea. It's not good for Texas. ... Let's just say no to more taxes.

Wilson - An income tax is wrong for Texas. ... There's no trade off that will make it justifiable in Texas.

What is your position on providing drug vouchers to senior citizens?

Bunch - I'm in favor of them at this time. ... I'm for anything that will lower the medical costs and the pharmaceutical cost to our seniors.

Reynolds - I don't see a blanket possibility in my mind for providing drugs for everybody. I can see a needs based possibly if someone can't afford food and their pharmaceutical, then yes, I'd want to be very careful because I'm not sure that health care is the state's business other than for those who cannot obtain their drugs anywhere else.

Estes - I have not formulated my opinion on drug vouchers for seniors. I do have an opinion on the spiraling cost of all medical care. We need to look for ways to decrease that cost for everyone involved.

Wilson - I haven't seen a proposal that is workable at this point, but I would like to work towards something that would make prescription drugs available to people who need them.

Jeffrey - Vouchers to seniors in a form that does not increase paperwork, results in direct pay just like a credit card does to the person selling the drug will eliminate all that paperwork in between. I'm definitely for it. I'm not for a piece of paper.

Candidates also fielded questions forwarded by members of the audience.

The person who is elected to finish the term of Tom Hayward will serve from January 2002 until January 2003.

that we have no way of defending a hijacked plane from crashing into the White House. That was 16 years ago and it took 16 years to happen. We cannot close our borders to everybody. If the terrorists want in they're going to get in. Terrorists come from within. Terrorist is because of ignorance, stupidity and being ignored by intelligent people. We have to start learning to understand other cultures. We have to understand why these people dislike us and hate us so much. We don't understand it because we have such a great life. ... I am against closing the borders. We need to look at why people from other countries are coming here and try to help develop their countries so we can all share.

Reynolds - "I think the question was do we have a plan. No I don't. This is a federal issue and not a state issue. I think we should influence our federal officials to be more selective on who we let into our country and not let people who are enemies of this country and pledged to kill Americans. We will always have some terrorists among our own."

Certainly someone who isn't an American shouldn't be doing security at DFW Airport and shouldn't be doing security at other places where a great number of people are. I have no plan, but I have opinions on the subject.

The candidates were asked to express their opinion on the creation of a state income tax.

Jeffrey - Absolutely no way.

Bunch - I do not believe that we will see a state income tax during our lifetime. We have been conditioned against a state income tax for good reasons. I don't see a need.

Reynolds - I believe with proper budget management, and some things may have to go, and education isn't

Stingers sink Pirates

The Muenster junior high Hornets handed the Petrolia Pirates a 14-8 loss last Thursday.

The Hornets booted the opening kick to the Petrolia 38 yard line. The Pirates got in a few good runs before Muenster's pass defense, led by Jordan Walterscheid, Nathan Privett, and Derek Endres shut them down on the Muenster 21. Muenster's first offensive play was a 79 yard touchdown by Endres. The PAT failed for a 6-0 score.

Tackles by Endres, Chris Steelman, Ryan Hennigan, and Ryan Fuhrmann forced a punt. A high snap gave the Stingers possession on the Pirate 41. Short runs by Endres and Privett gained 11 yards before Muenster ran out of downs. Three plays later, Keaton Haverkamp and Michael Eckart caused a fumble, recovered by Noah Barnhill on the 38 yard line.

Again, Endres, Privett, and Zach Swirczynski pounded 2 and 3 yard gains for 11 plays, getting to the 2 yard line. On 4th and goal, Endres scored. Endres also ran in the extra point for a 14-0 Muenster lead.

Petrolia got in two good pass plays before the halftime intermission. The Stinger offense came up short their first possession of the 3rd quarter. The Pirates then took six plays to cover 40 yards and scored for a 14-8 game.

Again Muenster had difficulty in moving the ball and punted. Petrolia carried the ball into the final quarter until tackles by Greg Price, Haverkamp, Hennigan, Fuhrmann, Travis Felderhoff, and Walterscheid returned the ball to the Hornets.

Short runs by Endres and Swirczynski and a Walterscheid to Malcolm Martin pass were set back by two penalties, forcing a Muenster punt. The next play Swirczynski intercepted a Pirate pass, allowing Muenster to run out the clock for the victory.

Leading rusher for Muenster was Derek Endres, gaining 123 yards in 19 carries. Zach Swirczynski added 22 yards in 11 attempts.

Jim wins! Sacred Heart Machinators take 1st at DC BEST competition

The Sacred Heart Machinators won the first place BEST Award at the DC BEST Robotics Competition held last Saturday.

The Era Eliminators won first place in the robot division.

The DC BEST Robotics Competition (Denton County Boosting Engineering, Science and Technology) is a tournament in which school teams must design and build a robot to accomplish a certain task(s). This year's theme was "Rad to the Core" in which robots must prevent a simulated nuclear reactor meltdown. Equally important is the presentation and documentation, a written and oral report given that covers a team's robot creation process.

"We really excelled in everything," said Angie Smith, the Machinators' head coach and science teacher at Sacred Heart. The BEST Award is presented to the team that best embodies the concept of "Boosting Engineering, Science, and Technology". This concept recognizes that inclusiveness, diversity of participation, exposure to and use of the engineering process, sportsmanship, teamwork, creativity, positive attitude and enthusiasm, and school and community involvement play significant roles in a team's competitive experience and contribute to the success in the competition beyond winning a top place.

"We showed up in coat and tie, with transparencies and a full working model of Jim (our robot)," said Joseph Davis, leader of the Machinators' presentation team. "Other teams were visibly less prepared. We just made sure that we covered all our bases, and that we left an impression. I hope we can do it again."

The robots themselves competed against each other from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Schools from north Texas over proudly displayed their unique wonders of science and engineering. "Its going pretty good," said Jeff Bailey, a DC BEST referee. "We've only had some minor wiring difficulties, but that's to be expected."

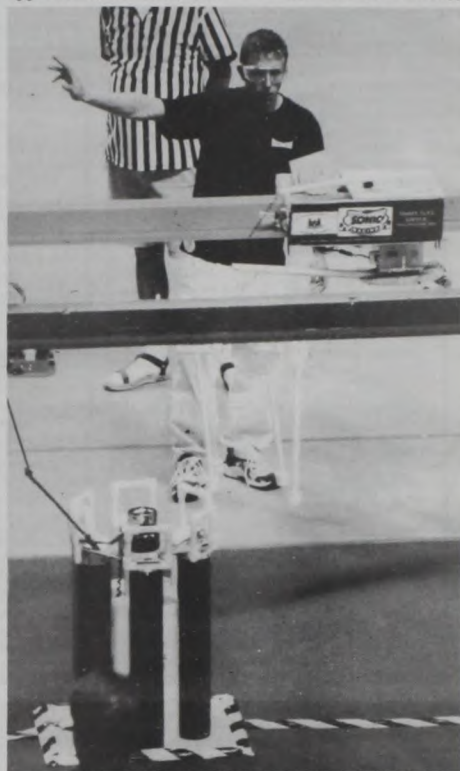

The Machinators will advance to the nationwide BEST competition in College Station. "I'm excited!" said Michael Voth, a key figure on the Machinators' engineering team. "We now have the opportunity to incorporate new concepts into Jim (our robot)."

The Machinators must also have funding to participate in the Texas BEST Robotics Competition. Their current corporate sponsors include Sister's Unique Gifts, Dan Burbine Associates, Wilson N. Jones Medical Center, Sonic, Jimmy Jack Biffle Well Drilling, Walterscheid Meat Co., and Muenster State Bank.

The Machinators will compete in the nationwide BEST Robotics Competition, held Nov. 16 - 17, at Texas A&M. Supporters are encouraged to attend wearing black and white.

Despite stricter pesticide regulations, Orthene still safe for consumer uses

Despite coming under close scrutiny as a result of stricter pesticide regulations, the widely-used house and garden insecticide, Orthene, has emerged with only minor restrictions to its current label.

After an intensive review of acephate, the active ingredient in Orthene, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency concluded that Orthene products are acceptable for continued use in agriculture and for most uses by professional applicators. However, certain indoor and outdoor uses of Orthene will be phased out under an agreement with the manufacturer. Valent Corporation, the basic manufacturer of acephate, has agreed to eliminate all professional applications inside residential buildings, including homes and apartments. In addition, some lawn uses by unlicensed consumers will be eliminated. According to a Valent spokesperson, Orthene will remain available for homeowner and professional use as a spot or mound treatment to residential turf for fire ant control. What will be withdrawn is the broadcast use on residential turf for chinch bugs, mole crickets and other pests.

Entomologists say this will not mean major changes in the way most Texans control pests.

"The most popular consumer use of Orthene in Texas is for fire ant control," said Dr. Mike Merchant of Dallas, urban entomologist for Texas Cooperative Extension. "Orthene can still be used as a dust treatment for individual fire ant mounds, and as a spray or drench treatment for a variety of insect pests on trees and shrubs."

The change in uses of Orthene follows more drastic restrictions applied last year to the two most widely-used consumer pesticides, diazinon and Dursban. Recent product use cancellations are the direct result of stricter standards imposed by the Food Quality Protection Act of 1996, which require all pesticides registered in the United States to undergo a careful review of their total human exposure.

New FQPA safety guidelines are 10 times more strict than previous regulations to account for uncertainties in calculating safe pesticide exposure levels for children, Merchant said. Consumer uses of diazinon and Dursban insecticides were largely eliminated as a result of earlier EPA reviews.

The timing of the phase-out has not yet been announced; however, according to Valent, label changes will probably be reflected on products on the shelves by the end of the year.

"People can safely use any existing supplies of Orthene or most other cancelled pesticides by following label directions," said Merchant. "Environmentally speaking, it's much better to use pesticides properly, for their intended purpose, than to throw them away and have them become toxic waste."

Preparing pastures for winter

Giving pastures a little extra attention in the fall can improve forage plant survival through winter and offer more feed for grazing in the spring.

To help get plants ready for winter:

- Stop grazing at least 30 days before the first hard freeze. Put the animals back on the pasture after the plants and ground are frozen.

- Avoid over-grazing and over-cutting. Leave at least a 4-inch stubble.

- Fertilize. Apply nitrogen right after the last grazing or cutting.

- Control weeds. This is the best time to eliminate perennial weeds because herbicides will be transported to the roots. Do this while leaves and stems are still active.

Applications due Nov. 15

Texans are reminded that applications for the 2001 Family Land Heritage Program are due Nov. 15. The Texas Department of Agriculture Family Land Heritage Program recognizes farms and ranches that have been in continuous agricultural operation by the same family for 100 years or more. Since the program started in 1974, almost 3,600 farms and ranches have been recognized.

Farms and ranches that qualify for this year will be honored during a ceremony held in Austin on Mar. 15, 2002.

Program applications are available through county judges and TDA. Applications may be obtained on TDA's website at www.agr.state.tx.us or by writing to Melissa Burns, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711; or by calling Ms. Burns at 512-463-2631.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Winter Pasture Fertilization

Ryegrass and annual small grains make up the backbone of the winter pasture program in Texas. Both tolerate a wide range of soil types and fertility, produce high quality forage and are somewhat tolerant of hard grazing. One of the keys to proper management is the rate and timing of fertilizers. Soil sampling and testing should be done first to give producers viable recommendations for that individual field.

All grasses respond to nitrogen fertilization. Dry matter yield and crude protein of ryegrass increases with increased nitrogen rate. As quality (crude protein) increases linearly with increased nitrogen rates, maximum economic yield for ryegrass and small grains occur at an N rate of 150 - 200 lbs. N/acre, when applied in three equal applications. Usually it is split in 60 lbs. N at or near planting (if sod seeded apply nitrogen after the ryegrass or small grain has at least 3 true leaves), 60 lbs. N/acre as the plant just comes out of winter (late January to mid February) and then the last application in mid March (small grains) to early April (ryegrass) as ryegrass and small grains begin the greatest forage growth. The last application may not be needed. Forage growth is often greater than forage demand in the spring, consequently, the late spring application of nitrogen may or may not be economical. It depends on the feedstuff the animals consumed in the winter (excreta contains nitrogen) and the producers ability to utilize or harvest excess forage growth (make hay or silage).

Nitrogen fertilizer is the single most expensive part of winter grazing. Including legumes in the mixture can reduce the need for nitrogen. Nitrogen fertilization also suppresses legume growth. However, annual legumes produce little grazeable forage prior to mid February. If a legume is included in the mix, the nitrogen rate should be reduced and timing changed to meet the growth pattern of the legume.

Phosphorus availability is greatly affected by soil pH. The optimum pH for ryegrass growth is 5.8 to 7.0. With pHs below 5.8 or above 7.3 phosphorus and micro-nutrients availability decreases. Again, soil micro-nutrient and phosphorus availability varies with soil type, previous management practices, etc., and soil testing is the cheapest most economical manner of determining the response to P. Generally, small grains will respond to 60 lbs. P/acre at planting. Texas Cooperative Extension agronomist, David Kee, recommends that if a producer hasn't tested, he would recommend an additional 5-10 lbs. P/acre with each 0.1 change in pH below 5.8 or below 7.3 to overcome the loss of P due to binding with aluminum (acid soil) or calcium (alkaline soils).

Phosphorus is often banded with or close to the small grain (rye, wheat or oats) seed at planting. Banding's effectiveness varies with soil temperature. The later small grains are planted, the cooler the soils and the more effective banding works. Early planted (September through October) small grains generally do not respond to banding.

Era Robotics Team wins first

Era's Eliminator robot made a trip to the University of North Texas and won first place in game competition. The Era Engineering Team, The Next Generation, competed against 27 teams from schools in the North Texas area.

Each high school team had 5 weeks to design a robot that would solve the problem in a scenario given to them. They were all given a kit with the exact same materials. The Era team had to create a robot that would move on a wooden rail, remove fuel rods from a simulated nuclear reactor and place them in containment tubes. They also had to hit an emergency cooling switch in order for any of the points to count.

The team spent two weeks on brainstorming and the design of the robot. Several returning members stated that this year's competition was a greater challenge since the robot had to run on an overhead rail instead of on the ground. During the remaining weeks, the team constructed the robot, practiced running it, attended Mall Day, and held a rumble with Bridgeport High School.

The 9 member team is Chris Farrell and Vincent Broadbent, student leaders; Andrew Ellis, Katie Coleman, Michael Stephens, Scott Schumacher, Jonathan Cannon, Danny Stevens, and Andy Wallace. The industry coach is Joe Marrs, a Peterbilt engineer from Aubrey. School coordinator is Leann Spears, robotics coach is Rudy Schumacher, with other parent volunteers being Keith Bentley, Ray Stevens, Don Wallace, and Bob Johnson.

The team competed in eight round robin matches during the day on Saturday. Throughout the competition, they remained in the top 5, qualifying them for finals. The first match of finals was driven by Andrew Ellis who gained a score of 62 to win the match. This was also the high score of the entire day's competition. The second match found Chris Farrell driving to a score of 38, which placed second in that round. In the third and final match, Scott Schumacher achieved 23 points, which gave the Era Eliminator an overall score of 123 to put them on top.

This victory now sends them on to the national competition held at Texas A&M at College Station on Nov. 16 and 17. These 9 members were a part of the total 35 member BEST team. The other members worked on several different areas that work toward the BEST competition. This competition involves

In addition to these components, the Era BEST team also created a power point presentation, buttons, t-shirts and placards, elementary involvement projects, community presentations, a special video documenting the team's progress and an amazing amount of spirit and cheering on Game Day. This year the program allowed junior high students to participate in the junior high BEST Booster Club.

The team placed 3rd in the BEST competition. The other BEST team members are Mindy Arendt, student leader, Aleisha Fortenberry, Shea Skelton, Melinda Myers, Ashley Lawler, Cristal Kirby, Melia Endres, Clint Stephens, Tera Puckett, Melissa Metzler, Brooke Endres, Brandi Barthold, Scott Johnson, Billy Kyle Johnson, Kelsie Orsburn, Katie Metzler, Margo Maldonado, Jacob Green, Holly Crenshaw, Kelly Crenshaw, Casey Brown, Abby Endres, Kelly Schumacher, Claudia Spears, Dustin Black, and Steffan Bentley.

Other parent coaches this year were: JoAnn Schumacher, Deann Black, Jerry and Mary Nan

John Maddux, left, of Klement Ford of Muenster, handed out cash awards for randomly-selected A's and B's report cards last week to area students who put a copy of their report card in the "school house" at the dealership for the first reporting period. From left front are Megan Shumaker, Hannah Weger, Steven Valliere; back, Diane Knaf and Jared Barthold. Winning, but not pictured, were Derek Felderhoff, Rane Morrison, Lacy Endres, Jodie Locke and Quincy Hough. Students get $25.00 cash for all A's or $20.00 for A's and B's. A final drawing at the end of the school year will award $500.00 savings bond, chosen from all entries. Deadline for the next reporting period is Nov. 20 at Klement Ford of Muenster. ## Morton Museum presents 5th in series

Cannon, and Debra Bentley.

A special group, called the "Dawg Squad" cheered and barked throughout the day to show their school spirit. The dynamite "dawgs" were: Alan Spears, Keith Bentley, Howard Crenshaw, Kit Mason, Jeremy Thompson, Don Wallace, and G.C. Ellis. The team looks forward to the National BEST Competition in three weeks.

The fifth program in the Morton Museum of Cooke County's Fall Series will take place at the museum in Gainesville at noon on Monday, Nov. 5.

What was life like for those women who veered away from respectable jobs and matrimony and instead entered the risqué world of saloons in the 1800s becoming hurdy-gurdy girls, saloon girls, and soiled doves? How did they live in Gainesville?

A door prize will be given away. Handouts will be provided and Donna Hertel will be providing refreshments using recipes from famous Wild Women! Seating is limited. For members of the Cooke County Heritage Society the cost to attend is $3 and for non-members the cost is $4. To reserve a seat or for more information, call the museum at 940-668-8900.
