Water Board informs council of problems

by Janie Hartman
The Muenster City Council met in regular session Monday night with all Council members, administrators, and ten citizens present. Bob Bauer and Claude Walter of the Muenster Water Board were present with an update on the Lake Project. A pre-construction conference with Beaver Construction of Bowie was held Thursday morning. "Dirt's going to fly real soon," commented Bauer. Bauer also read a statement, "for the record," on how the Water Board stands, noting through the entire process, everyone had a chance to raise and voice concerns. All areas have been approved by all government agencies, however if any concerns still exist, they should be addressed through City Hall, by e-mail, FAX, or letter. The Water Board also told the Council of recent problems with the attempt to close CR 316, with barriers knocked down and stolen and someone "reopening" the road, repairing the washout with a dozer. Walter asked if the City could police the area, and why doesn't the City annex a road to the lake site now? Discussion continued on the opening of Second Street between Maple and Ash.

Approximately 60 feet of timbers obstruct any future planning, so the Council accepted a motion to hire a dozer to clear the City right-of-way on West Second Street, east of the spillway. Mayor Henry Weinzapfel noted "If there are areas in the City that can be developed, we should try to do so." But John Pagel questioned what part of the property could be developed and what could not. Wayne Grewing noted concern of future expenses to the taxpayers, but Weinzapfel made it clear, at this point, only to clear the designated street to get a better opinion of possible development. MMH seeks staff physicians

By Janet Felderhoff
Finding new physicians to fill resigned positions and meet other needs of the community tops the list for Muenster Memorial Hospital's Board of Directors and its administrator. At the May 28 Board meeting, The resignations of MMH Family Health Clinic physician Audrey Morrill and urologist Dan McBride were read and accepted. Dr. McBride's was for April 25, but he was called in on May 15 to handle an emergency situation. His privileges were approved on that day by the medical staff due to the unusual situation. The Board was asked to and did recognize his resignation, but also approved the one-day temporary emergency privileges. Dr. Morrill's resignation is effective June 21. Her privileges are changed from active to courtesy staff on that day. She will be able to admit patients, but not on an active staff basis. "Our biggest pressure right now is we have a doctor leaving in three weeks and we need to have someone come in here or it's going to be two doctors instead of three," remarked Administrator Richard Arnold. Recruitment of physicians was addressed. Arnold said that they had a meeting with Jay Long, vice-president of C2P Group, a professional placement firm.

A $2,000 retainer is required. When a doctor is hired half of the balance or $7,500 is due and when the doctor goes to work the other $7,500 is due, making a total fee of $17,000. If they are unable to get a physician in the designated period of time or if MMH gets one before the firm and doesn't want to continue the search, then all of the money is refunded. "We looked at it as a no loser situation," he said. Arnold said that the firm was talking with three family practice doctors and he expected to see some resumes on them soon. The Board approved hiring the group to recruit for MMH. Members of the MMH Recruitment Committee met the week before the meeting with the Executive Committee of Texas Medical Center - chief operating officer, executive vice-president, and the director of physician recruitment. Arnold said that three physicians were mentioned by names who were possibly interested in coming to MMH. One, a family practice doctor already visited in Muenster and met the local staff. She was given a contract by MMH to consider. A second family practice doctor from Oklahoma is considering MMH. Also interested is a pediatrician who works two days a week and who is considering adding another two days here. "There's a couple of things that came from the Texoma group," Arnold reported. "One is that they want to work with us any way that we want them to work with us. They would work with us on an affiliation basis. They have affiliations with other small hospitals including one of them in Oklahoma that is Critical Access. They also have a Title 1A which is a hospital physician organization made up of doctors that the hospital involves in that organization. It is an organization that is allowed to hire doctors." Doctors working with the organization get benefits such as less expensive malpractice insurance, insurance for their family, 401K retirement, and someone to negotiate for them in contracts. Andrea Bauer, a 2002 graduate of Sacred Heart High School, has verbally committed to Austin College in Sherman, Texas and will play women's basketball. She has received an academic scholarship and was joined Tuesday morning by her high school coach, Jon LeBrasseur; principal, Dr. Jack Murdock; and her father, Bob Bauer, to officially mark the commitment. Offices shift within County Courthouse

By Janet Felderhoff
Tuesday, May 28 was the first time that Cooke County Commissioners Court held its bi-monthly meeting in the newly remodeled Commissioners Court room on the third floor of the courthouse. Previously meetings were held in the second floor County Courtroom. This Courtroom also serves as the Precinct #2 Justice of the Peace Courtroom currently presided over by Judge Dorothy Lewis. "There were two things at play here," remarked County Judge Bill Freeman of the changes. "The Commissioners needed a courtroom where things could be better recorded, where the public could hear better. The JP needed a courtroom that she could access basically all the time, and really the Commissioners Courtroom is in use only a couple of days a month normally. It works perfectly that we can use it a couple days a month and she can use it the rest of the time." Judge Lewis' office is now in the room adjoining the Commissioners Courtroom. It and the Commissioners Courtroom used to house the Law Library, which is being moved to County Court at Law Judge Bill Harris' office. He and his staff will oversee the Law Library. When Commissioners Court instituted the position of County Court at Law Judge, more space was needed. To remedy this situation a number of moves are planned. At the time Bill Harris became County Court at Law Judge, Bill Freeman was appointed County Judge. His position as Justice of the Peace in Precinct 2 was not filled. Instead Dorothy Lewis agreed to add his territory to hers since the workload in recent years had been lessened due to advances in technology. At the time the change was made, Judge Lewis was moved to office space occupied by Congressman

Relay For Life this weekend

By Janet Felderhoff
Cooke County's 7th annual Relay for Life (RFL) is this Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8. It is a celebration of survival for those who have been diagnosed with cancer and a time to remember those who lost their battle with the disease. Many cancer survivors have registered for the event and those who haven't are urged to do so. Registration will be held at Hornet Stadium beginning Friday at 2:00 p.m. and concluding at 5:30 p.m. All Survivors are asked to be part of photo scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Friday. Activities kick off at 6:00 p.m. with the first lap being walked by Cancer Survivors. "This is an uplifting event," remarked Shelly Trubenbach of RFL public relations. After the first lap each team is required to have a representative on the track until the closing lap at 11:00 a.m. Saturday. Everyone is invited to attend the various activities planned throughout the event. Lighting of the luminaria will take place at 10:00 p.m.

See SHIFTS, pg 2
"This is one of the more moving experiences of the Relay with the track lined with lighted luminaria given in memory of loved ones or friends who have lost their fight against cancer or to honor people who are living with cancer or who have survived," said Trubenbach. Luminaria can still be purchased at $5 each at either the Muenster Chamber of Commerce or the MMH Home Care. Relay for Life is a countywide event. Money raised through the event is donated to the American Cancer Society for educations and research. Early detection of cancer can, in many cases, result in successful treatment. Education is one of the keys to early detection. Research is developing at a rapid speed, discovering new and more effective and successful treatments for many types of cancer, said Trubenbach. Those who would like more information on the Relay for Life, would like to register as a survivor, or register as a team should contact Kim at Relay for Life headquarters 759-2271, ext. 136.

GMH breaks ground for new facility

By Dave Fette and Janet Felderhoff
"This is an exciting day for everybody in North Texas who may potentially need health care," remarked David Hutcherson, president of the Gainesville Memorial Hospital Board of Directors. "It is a day lots of us have waited for in our efforts to keep local health decisions local. This facility will increase local employment and benefit the economy through the many purchases that will be made. We will offer more health care services and are proud to build a facility you can take pride in." Hutcherson was addressing the crowd gathered on Friday, May 31 to witness the official groundbreaking ceremony for Gainesville Memorial Hospital's future new facility. GMH Administrator Andrew Anderson opened the event by welcoming guests. Rev. Hubert Wright offered the invocation. North Texas Medical Center was revealed as the name of the future facility. A contest had been initiated to get public input on potential names. A check for $300 was to be awarded to the winner. Since there were two people submitting the same name, a drawing was held at the ground breaking to determine the cash winner. The contest was limited to residents of the Gainesville Hospital District. Dr. Larry Sears introduced Beverly Fleitman and Sharon Celestine as submitting the winning name. He introduced Congressman Ralph Hall who was called on to draw the winner. Celestine was the lucky recipient. Congressman Hall spoke to the crowd, "You've been in a four years struggle to reach this day, but you're all here together now. I have to add that in this difficult time for our nation, I'm a little disappointed in some of the people in Washington who are not supporting our fine young president. "We in government need to keep in mind those who are in need of medical care and those who need help to afford medicine. "God bless this community and your efforts to build this medical center and God bless America!" Other dignitaries assisting with ground breaking were Cooke County Judge Bill Freeman, Gainesville Mayor Kenneth Kaden, and GMH Chief of Staff Doug Lewis, M.D. Actual dirt work on the site is anticipated to begin in 60 to 90 days.

- Rumber Materials, Inc. request to rezone the property to the east and south of present building from single family and local business to light industrial business.
- Muenster Auto Parts requested modification on a recent water bill totaling over $550, after a water leak on the property owner side of the meter went unnoticed. Muenster Auto's water bill is normally $23. The City approved to adjust the average sewer bill, but pay the full amount of water to reduce the bill to $371.12.
- Muenster Volunteer Fire Department may sell beer and wine at the City Park at their Aug. 10 barbecue and auction fundraiser.
- Allow $850 total per fireman to attend school at A&M July 21-26. This cost includes $350 tuition, $500 for expenses.
- Gave an interim approval of the Library's meeting room policy, until the Council can view final proposal.
- Discussion will continue on several items after more research, including:
 - Will proceed in the

- annexation on Ash Street and Picnic Ground Road and review possible annexation of Hwy 82 to lake property and sewer plant area and buffer zone.
- Will continue study on utilization of 50,000 acre-feet water storage in Lake Texoma. City Administrator Linda Webb noted that the City of Muenster used 88 million gallons of water last year (12 months).
- The City accepted a petition to curb and pave Second Street between Mesquite and Sycamore, but will attempt to get 100% property owners agreement to avoid court cost.
- Tabled a discussion on the "existing mobile home" ordinance that was amended in October 1999, to change language to possibly "grandfather" existing buildings and their location if ownership changes.
- Using the dome from the old water tower for a gazebo was turned over for consideration by the Park Board.
- Police Chief Bob Stovall reported that investigation continues on the vandalism burning of the playground

- equipment in the park. Also, the new speed limits on Hwy. 82 have slowed down traffic and there have been no traffic accidents at the "red light intersection in over two years."
- Dave Flusche and Bert Walterscheid updated the Council on the roof repair project to City Hall.
- Ms. Webb gave her City projects report which included:
 - Sewer and water repairs on Oak Street before curbing and paving.
 - Work on City Hall roof began May 31.
 - With $65,000 Governor Award "can now improve another block in each direction."
 - Water tower is down, without problems, "did a nice job." Removed brass plaque from tower to return to City.
 - Will begin enforcing "No Parking" on Mesquite Street at the new ball park.
 - Thirty-six street signs are missing or badly damaged, costing over $700 dollars to replace.
- The Council closed the meeting approving $71,809.90 in monthly bills.

The city will begin enforcing "no parking" along Mesquite Street by the Jaycees' Ball Complex. Several signs have gone down as fans continue to block traffic, causing possible accidents. Janie Hartman Photo

- Arnold expressed hopes that some of the doctors in that network with specialties might come to MMH on a part-time basis.
- Aytes stated, "The other factor is the stories that the hospital can't make it and there's no way they're going to survive, that removes all of that question because they are still part of that (Texoma) staff. If the hospital didn't make it, they still have a job and can go some place else."
- Arnold noted that MMH would have to pay the cost of the benefits as a part of the physician's contract.
- Unopposed hospital board candidates Paul Becker, Gary Links, and Danny Walterscheid were declared elected. Officers were then elected for the year. Jerry Hess was asked to continue serving as president. He was unanimously elected. It was then agreed to keep the same slate of officers by acclamation. Dan Hamric is vice-president and John Aytes continues as secretary. It was also agreed to keep committee chairs the same.
- In the financial report Arnold said that as of April 30 the consolidated (MMH and St. Richard's Villa) showed a net operating revenue of $583,000, expenses of $489,000 leaving operating revenues over expenses of $93,741.38 for operations. Year to date he said revenues over expenses of $14,641.00. Dan Hamric remarked that it was the best month in a long time. "We should note here that when we compare where we were at this time last year that's what makes this look so good after this month and after last month too," noted Aytes. "Now we're almost $15,000 to the good and last year we were, in round figures, $425,000 in the hole in operations. We're not talking about any taxes at this point. Just in operations we're $15,000 to the good here compared to $425,000 in the hole last year."
- This included a $150,000.00 payment from Medicaid, which Arnold said was best not spent until the report arrived because the hospital could end up having to return some of the money and it would be expected immediately. Arnold noted that as long as the Medicaid payment stays and they don't have to make some healthy adjustments in allowance for non-collection of accounts (bad debts. "If we're not reserving enough for bad debts, and there is a good possibility that we're not, when the auditors get through they may have to put a lot more into that section," Arnold explained.
- Discussion was held on the best ways to handle billing. Arnold shared his - ideas on setting up a system and contacting people after their insurance has paid to make payment arrangements. A number of possibilities were discussed, as well as how other hospitals handle things.

- It was noted that Saint Richard's Villa is now full with the exception of one bed. Hess shared some statistics on occupancy of other nursing homes.
- Arnold said that a survey was done on the cost per day to residents of the Villa. The cost is about 10% under what most charge. On a scale of 80 to 88, St. Richard's is at 80 and so Administrator Wes Fuson plans to ask for an increase. It will take effect on July 1.
- As suggested by the Covenant Group that came in to evaluate MMH and make recommendations for improvements, the Board, hospital staff, and invited members of the public met on May 24 and 25 with members of Covenant for a Strategic Planning Retreat. "I thought all who participated gave some good information," Arnold remarked. "We do have a good start on Strategic Planning. Our next step is to take this to department heads and then to focus groups to see if there is a consensus on this plan within the community. The main thing is to bring everybody together and see what we're going to need to do to make sure this hospital not only survives, but thrives on into the future and meets the community needs."
- Public input is needed to help with the development of the hospital's mission, vision, and values. Board

- member Danny Walterscheid said of the retreat, "I enjoyed it enough to stay the whole nine yards. It's good that the Board members go, but the people out there have got to tell us where they want this hospital to go. We can sit up here and try and do what we think is right, but that may not be what the public really wants."
- Any group in the community wishing to hear results from the Strategic Planning and Retreat and to add their opinion to the rest of the community's, can contact Mr. Arnold to set up a time when information can be presented at a meeting. He told the Board that the goal is to get the information back to them by August with a file of Strategic Planning with the objectives, the dates, etc.
- Anyone with an idea, a hope or a dream for the hospital should express it now while plans are being made.
- Arnold distributed a number of packets to the Board members including: a Trustee Guidebook; legislation and conditions for participation and what has to be done to become and stay a Critical Access Hospital; information from the Strategic Planning Retreat; and financial information.
- Muenster State Bank agreed to give the hospital a $300,000 Letter of Credit for insurance coverage. Hess said that the bank is asking 3/4 of one percent or $2,250.00 and they asked for a second lien on Saint Richard's Villa. The Board approved the Letter of Credit.

Ralph Hall's staff and Parole. The Parole Office moved to the Police Department. Hall's office was moved to one of those previously used by Judge Lewis. She and her staff moved to the space that Hall and Parole were moved from. Judge Freeman moved into the County Judge's office. This allowed for Judge Harris and his staff to move to the second floor. Also in that office area will be the bailiffs and the County Law Library. Much less space is now required for the Law Library because everything is now on CD ROM. The written library had not been updated in years and had become obsolete. Judge Harris and staff will move after some remodeling is completed.

"I think this is a real plus for Cooke County to have a Commissioners Court where everybody can hear what the Court is doing," remarked Judge Freeman. "We've got a new recording device which they approved to pay for today (May 28) that each speaker goes into a mixer and is recorded so if you ever have a question you can come back and pull that tape and you'll know exactly what was said."

The new Commissioners Courtroom is smaller than the County Courtroom.

Members of the Court are seated on a dais facing the public. There are two rows of seats to accommodate those attending and room for another row or two if needed. When a large crowd attends, the meeting will be moved to the County Courtroom to accommodate everyone. Seating for a jury during trials is provided beside the area used by the presiding judge or commissioners.

Eventually there are plans to restore the County Courtroom to its original state to bring it into compliance with the Historical Commission.

Have you cashed your tax refund check?

Muenster Memorial Hospital Administrator Richard Arnold said that there are more than a hundred uncashed checks from the recent refunds sent by the Muenster Hospital District due to a tax rollback. Arnold asks people to cash or process the checks as soon as possible.

He said many people have questions and are holding the checks for that reason. He urges those people to contact the Cooke County Tax Appraisal District with those questions. "We want people to get their money and we'd like to clear the books," he said.

Police Officers honored

The Valley View Area Chamber of Commerce honored its town's police officers on Saturday, May 15, as part of the observance of Law Enforcement Week. Police Chief, Lawana Wissan and police officer Tom Stephens were guests of honor at a luncheon held at the Valley View Restaurant at noon.

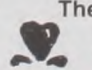

Chamber president, Denise Pearse, welcomed everyone in attendance and stated the Chamber's appreciation for the officers' dedication and hard work for the community. She also presented a picture frame with a law enforcement frame to each officer, and treasurer Stacey Schulz presented a box of goodies to them.

Several community members in addition to the Chamber members were in attendance to express their appreciation of the officers. Law Enforcement Week was May 12-18.

Shocked, amazed and "Muenster Proud!"

By MaryLee Alford

The Keep Muenster Beautiful Board of Directors and Committee Chairmen knew last May that the competition for the Governor's Community Achievement Award (GCAA) was going to be tough so we began the year with the understanding that we were going to have to work hard and do many things to win. As April came and the time neared for the completion of the GCAA application, I honestly didn't think we had done enough to win. There is no graceful way to say I was wrong so I'll just have to admit that I was. I am in a wonderful state of shock over our winning the Governor's Community Achievement Award and another $65,000 toward our beautification project to be built by the Texas Department of Transportation. While attending the Keep Texas Beautiful conventions I've read the award applications submitted over the last four years. The number of applications competing for this award have increased dramatically and what competing communities do to win the awards is so awesome that I personally believed we couldn't win without completing a major beautification project, getting all of our K-6th grade teachers trained in the Waste In Place curricula and implementing municipal recycling. These are just some of the things competing communities are doing and we certainly don't want to give up on implementing such projects in our community.

I almost didn't make the effort to complete the application. It was only when I learned that we were eligible to win the Sustained Excellence award again did I decide to complete the application. As I gathered all the photos and newspaper articles from this past year I realized that this community did much more than I remembered. There was no doubt that we could win the Sustained Excellence Award.

The application, a 6-page report of community leadership, public awareness, schools participation and education, community wide cleanups, Adopt-A-Highway groups, law enforcement and municipal operations, beautification, property improvement, recycling and solid waste management must be supported with 14 pages of supporting documents. The supporting documents include newspaper articles, brochures, flyers, proclamations from the Mayor and photos of our activities. As you can see, there is too much to do in all these categories for one person to accomplish. This is why it is necessary to have a Board and committees. Without these people goals would not be accomplished. Therefore, it is very important to give praise and thanks to those who helped Muenster win this prestigious award.

Margie Starke from the Chamber of Commerce has played a major role in our success since the inception of Keep Muenster Beautiful (KMB). Understanding the importance of public awareness she ensures KMB participates in every speech, presentation and radio opportunity. This year Stick Lamar volunteered his expertise with trees within the city to help us begin to receive a "Tree City USA" designation. He also provided free Christmas tree recycling for the community and organized the KMB tree sale fundraiser. Dr. Steve Broyles has missed only one KMB meeting since 1998 and has faithfully served as treasurer from the beginning. His loyalty has been an inspiration that has kept the organization together. Kay Broyles was in charge of the Yard of the Month and went door-to-door to local businesses expressing the need to ensure their properties were well maintained and encouraged business beautification projects. Terri Barrett rallied youth and teachers to participate in cleanups and other KMB activities. She also pays for the youth patches earned by youth who participate in various KMB activities. Daniel Bartush and Mary Jane Callahan from Sacred Heart and Ashley Hess and Ashley Klement from MISD serve on the youth Board and were liaisons between the schools and KMB to ensure youth participation, which is extremely important in winning KTB & GCAA awards. Membership dues and fundraisers have never come close to covering all the expenses of operating the KMB organization. Carl Alford ensures all expenses are covered. He paid for Keep Muenster Beautiful Park across from Sacred Heart Church and maintains the park for all in the community to enjoy. City Administrator Linda Webb sent 26 letters to property owners requiring property cleanup. Police Chief Bob Stovall attended an environmental law enforcement seminar & gained knowledge useful in enforcing litter abatement and environmental laws. Juanita Bright organized the Golden Oldies Senior Citizens who help with cleanup and beautification projects. Publicity is extremely important in winning the GCAA. The more we get, the better our score. The Muenster Enterprise publishes our articles and photos and NORTEX Communications publishes our events and Yard of the Month winners on Channel 2. The Cooke County Electric Cooperative provided free monthly meeting space. A large number of Adopt-A-Highway groups help us win the GCAA. Muenster's AAH groups include Fischer's Meat Market, Muenster ISD National Honor Society and Student Council, Boy Scout Troop 664, Friends of Freemound, Muenster Chiropractic Clinic and the Carl & MaryLee Alford Family. Christine Weinzapfel of RE/MAX Realty provides the lunches at cleanups.

We photograph all of our cleanup and beautification events. The more people we have in the photos the better our GCAA application scores. We must report the monetary value of volunteers and donations. Therefore, Muenster won the GCAA because of all those listed above, all the people who participate in cleanups, all those who donate prizes, in-kind services, equipment, those who beautify their yards and businesses and those who support Keep Muenster Beautiful in any way.

On behalf of the community of Muenster, who will benefit greatly from the beautification projects built with the $65,000.00 from 1999 and $65,000.00 from the 2002 Governor's Community Achievement Awards, thank you all for all you do to help keep Muenster beautiful.

From My Side of the Fence By Ed Cier

Prince was a big, purebred, and handsome German Shepherd, the property of R.W. "Dub" Trew, a prominent and successful local landowner and rancher. Mr. Trew acquired Prince as a pup after he bought, and moved into a nice house on a farm northeast of town. He and Mrs. Trew and a maid lived there alone, and I suppose he felt they were safer with the big dog running loose in the yard.

When I came to work for Dub, Prince sort of accepted me as someone else he had to put up with, but he kept his distance.

The Trews were semi-retired and their days of early rising had passed, so there were times when I would walk into the yard, it was only me and Prince.

He didn't know if I really belonged there, and one morning he leaped up on me with one front leg on each of my shoulders. What I remember most, and most vividly, was those four rows of white teeth in his big mouth. He made no attempt to bite me, but I had been told that if such a thing ever happened, I was to stand still until his master came out. In a few minutes Mr. Trew came out, and seeing the dog, immediately ordered him down.

After a few weeks, Prince began to go with me wherever I went afoot. I would talk to him and tried at times to scratch the back of his ear but he would move away.

There was considerable prickly pear growing in the pastures and I was soon given the job of cutting it out and piling it in small stacks to rot, in time.

I had the habit of cutting a complete plant free, and then turning it over with the hoe. There were times when one of the spiny pads would land on one of my shoes and sometimes penetrate the leather and penetrate the flesh. This was not only painful, but when the spine broke off I would have to remove my shoe and pull the spine out with a small pliers I carried for that purpose.

While I worked, Prince spent his time running about, chasing one thing or another, and when he tired, he just laid down and watched me.

One afternoon I noticed Prince carrying his left front foot and then lying down and trying to remove the problem with his teeth, but did not succeed. I tried sweet talking him to see if he would allow me to look at his foot, and after a few tries he did allow me to examine it.

Sure enough, there was a broken spine in the big pad in the middle of his paw. I wasn't too sure if I should try to pull it out, remembering those four rows of teeth. But then, what the heck - I took his paw in my left hand, got a good hold of the spine with the pliers and then held tight and gave the pliers a quick deft pull, and that quick Prince was gone, and I had the spine.

Well, it wasn't many days after that, Prince and I were enjoying each other as, I think, he and I had wanted all along.

This is a true story - oh what the heck, I didn't really believe the tale about Androcles and the Lion either.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

On June 7th and 8th a lot of good folks in Cooke County will be out in support of RELAY FOR LIFE, a noble and worthy cause. Their intentions and work are to be commended! However, the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY itself is falling short. It is withholding the truth regarding the significant link between breast cancer and induced abortions.

As early as 1957, it was found that women who had had an induced abortion, were found to have a 2-fold increased risk of breast cancer. In 1981 a notable study by MC Pike showed that young women (under the age of 32) who had experienced an abortion before their first full-term pregnancy had a 140% increased risk of breast cancer. Finally, in 1996, in what is openly regarded as the most meticulous and comprehensive research analysis ever done, Dr. Joel Brind found "that women who had an abortion before their first full-term pregnancy had a 50% increased risk of developing breast cancer whereas women who had an abortion after their first full-term pregnancy sustained a 30% increased risk."

At one time the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY acknowledged this grave concern, but later withdrew. Why?

The funds raised through the RELAY FOR LIFE are used to educate the public and support further research. If the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY is truly interested in saving lives, their silence about the abortion/breast cancer link is very disturbing. With approximately 4,000 abortions performed daily, the number of women putting themselves, unknowingly, at a greater risk for breast cancer is phenomenal.

As a pro-life Registered Nurse and breast cancer survivor myself, I feel compelled to speak out and challenge the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY to let the truth be known! Perhaps those who avidly support the RELAY FOR LIFE will join with me.

Respectfully Submitted,
Joan Fuhrmann

County bows to jail site objections

By Janet Felderhoff

After meeting in Executive Session to discuss the situation involving the proposed site of a new county jail, Commissioners voted to allow Jim Klement to withdraw his zoning request change from the City of Gainesville. Klement made this request after there was opposition to the proposed jail site by neighbors.

Members of the Commissioners Court were not sure of what they might do next about the jail situation. "It's on hold now," said Precinct #4 Commissioner Virgil Hess.

Problems still exist in some areas of the county for communication with first responders. Commissioners gave approval to grant writer Bottoms to apply for a grant for in kind services amounting to $34,838.00 to build towers in all four corners of the County.

After getting approval to at the last meeting of Commissioners Court to repair the courthouse elevator, Judge Freeman and Junior Durham, maintenance supervisor, decided to get input from architect Kamatsu to be sure that specifications of the courthouse renovation project would be met. Durham reported that the hallway buttons didn't meet ADA standards. He suggested saving down time and money by doing both projects at the same time.

The elevator is expected to be out of commission for about a week. Arrangements will be made for those having business in the courthouse, but who are unable to navigate the stairs to do so. Commissioner Virgil Hess suggested making arrangements with the courts not to try cases during that week. Durham said he'd talked with them and they agreed to limit cases that week, if notified.

The additional funds needed for the button project was approved bringing the total cost approved to $21,545.00.

Commissioners approved unanimously the funds to purchase a Peavey RQ 200 Mixer, Avlex DV-69 Mics, Mic Cable, 13 inch goosenecks, gooseneck bases, Harmon Kardon Dual Tape Deck, installation, setup and miscellaneous parts. It is for recording meetings of Commissioners Court.

Cale Trail, a student at Callisburg ISD, was recognized for winning the State 2A Championship in the High Jump. May 28 was proclaimed Cale Trail Day in Cooke County. He jumped six feet, six inches, his actual height. His coach Travis Roberson was also recognized.

In other business Commissioners Court:

- Approved resolution authorizing sale of property for back taxes as requested by Jim Roberson.

- Listened to presentation by Robert Wendel and Les Rosenbelt of Lavic Retirement Services Company on voluntary supplemental retirement program.

- Passed resolution that allows applying for a grant resulting from Senate Bill 7 passed in the last Legislature. It concerns attorneys appointed to represent indigent residents.

- Approved subdivision of Lots 128R and 129R in The Ranch subdivision at Lake Ray Roberts.

Golden wedding celebration honors Alvin and Joanie Hartman

by Elfreda Fette
 Honors were showered on Alvin and Joanie Hartman Sunday, June 2, 2002 in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. Family attendance at the 10:30 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church was followed by a 50th wedding blessing bestowed by Father John Ohner OSA, pastor. A special blessing had been given the couple by Father Kyle Walterscheid following his ordination.

Children of Alvin and Joanie Hartman are Monica and Jon LeBrasseur, Bobby and Sharlene Hartman, and Kenny and Rhonda Hartman; their grandchildren are Holly, Courtney, Nolan, Shannon, and Dainah Hartman, Kristin LeBrasseur, and Chris Pagel.

Participating in the liturgy of the Mass on Sunday with Father John were altar servers Nolan, Kenny, and Bobby Hartman. Holly Hartman gave the First and Second Readings, from the Old and New Testaments, respectively. Shannon Hartman read the Offertory petitions. Courtney Hartman and Dainah Hartman presented Offertory gifts of bread and wine at the altar. Edna Tompkins, Theresa Mae Walterscheid, Georgia Wolf, Ted Gremminger, Charles Felderhoff, and Anne Hesse were Eucharistic Ministers. Presenting sacred music were Ruth Felderhoff, organist, Christy Hesse, Kristin LeBrasseur, and Jack White, singers; and Rose Ganzon played the flute.

Following Mass, the anniversary couple and all the family presented five red roses at the Blessed Virgin's shrine and prayed together in a family circle.

A noon luncheon in Sacred Heart Community Center was served to members of the Hartman and Felderhoff families and special guests, including aunts, Louise Bayer, Agnes Klement, Romana Bayer, Betty Dangelmayr, and uncle and aunt George and Anna Bayer. Aunt Bertha Fleitman was unable to attend, but sent her greetings.

Open House was held at the Community Center from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. Guests mingled, reminisced, and enjoyed a display of Joanie's wedding dress, Alvin's wedding suit, Theresa Mae's bridesmaid dress, Joanie's infant dresses, Solemn Communion dress, and Alvin's baby outfits.

Family photos were displayed. Guests enjoyed viewing the newly completed family video. Also displayed were Alvin's many sport uniforms and jackets. He was a member of the first football team at Sacred Heart High School. Also shown were his metal cleats and jacket.

The reception area was decorated with yellow roses, ivy and candles. Lovely handmade tablecloths made by Joanie's mother, Mrs. Tony Felderhoff, which were used on her parents' 50th wedding anniversary and many occasions since, were used Sunday. Reception assistants were Joe and Shellie Hoedebeck, Brian and Dana Hess, Jim and Donna Biffle, and Fern LeBrasseur.

The white, tiered anniversary cake was decorated with fresh white roses and held the bridal couple figurine from the original wedding cake. The tiered, chocolate cake was decorated with chocolate covered strawberries. Cake servers were grandchildren of the couple, Pat Yosten, Carol Zimmerer, Jenny White, Karen McMonigle, Celia Felderhoff, Amy Swirczynski, and Jeanna Sutton.

Judy Hartman led the prayer before the meal.

Judy was also instrumental in compiling a Hartman family album with every Hartman family contributing a page for the album. Judy added her special touches to complete the album.

Alvin Hartman has been employed at the Muenster Enterprise since 1946. He was a member of the Volunteer Fire Department for 30 years, and is now retired. In service to his Church and his community he served on the Sacred Heart Cemetery Committee, The Sacred Heart School Board, the Diocesan School Board, member of Sacred Heart High School Alumni, Scoutmaster for Cub Scouts, was active in sports both as player and coach, drove a school bus for 27 years, received the Distinguished Service Award from Muenster Jaycees, and the KGAF Cooke County Basketball Classic Bill King Award. Alvin is now semi-retired and works part time at the Muenster Enterprise, and enjoys spending lots of time at the farm.

Joanie is now retired and continues to hold her "Monday Grandma Days" cherished by the grandchildren.

Conversations throughout the day turned to the original wedding day when Joan Felderhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff, and Alvin Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman were married in a Nuptial Mass on June 5, 1952 at 8:00 a.m., celebrated by the bride's uncle, Rev. Henry Felderhoff.

Because the new Sacred Heart Church was being built, the Nuptial Mass was held in the parish's temporary church, the old Parish Hall, where altars had been constructed, and pews and equipment were in use.

Pre-nuptial music and traditional marches were played by organist Anthony Luke, and he accompanied the Men's Choir in singing the Mass. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid, bride's cousin sang selected sacred solos.

The bride wore a gown of white sheer nylon over satin, designed with a closely molded, buttoned up front bodice, chantly lace yoke and small rounded collar. Long, petal point sleeves were edged in lace. Insets of lace accented the accordion pleats on the front of the full length skirt.

Her fingertip nylon net veil was attached to a Juliet cap embroidered with rhinestones and pearls and was the same one her mother wore at her wedding. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white prayerbook, a gift from the groom. She "borrowed" a sterling silver rosary from her mother who received it from the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. Joseph Dangelmayr. "Something blue" was a silk handkerchief. Her diamond-studded cross and chain was a gift from the groom.

Attendants were Theresa Mae Felderhoff, bride's sister, and Georgia Ann Hartman, groom's sister, wearing light blue organdy over taffeta, and pastel flower wreaths on blue organdy. Groom's attendants were his brother, Willard Hartman and the bride's brother Joe Felderhoff. Ushers were A.J. Felderhoff, Norbert Felderhoff, and Joe Dangelmayr. Altar servers were Charles Felderhoff, Gene Hartman, Billy Joe Dangelmayr, Randy Bayer, and Charles Herr.

Brunch followed the Mass, then an informal reception at the Felderhoff home in the afternoon, buffet supper in the parish hall, and a dance in the VFW Hall in the evening. The couple departed on a wedding trip after the dance.

Baptisms

Fisher

Nicholas Jon Fisher, one month old son of Jimmy and Laura Fisher, was baptized on Sunday, May 19, 2002 in St. Peter's Church by Father Eugene Luke OSB.

The baptismal gown was a family heirloom handed down through the Lutkenhaus family since the baptism of August J. (Gus) Lutkenhaus in 1920. Baby Nicholas Fisher is the fourth generation to wear the cotton eyelet baptismal gown, made by Mary Elizabeth Luttmere, Gus' great-grandmother. The gown has been worn by all of the Gus Lutkenhaus and Walter Lutkenhaus children at their baptisms.

Pinned to the baptismal garment was baby Nicholas' father's first Communion cross. Attached to the cross was a baby ring from Grandmother Nancy Price and Aunt Kay Lee, a pearl anklet with a Guardian Angel medal from Grandmother Kathleen Lutkenhaus. Baby Nicholas was carried to church wrapped in a white baptismal blanket from his godmother, Donna Neu. He was presented a Precious Moments Bible from his godfather, George Lutkenhaus and aunt Tricia.

Along with the parents and godparents, others attending the baptismal ceremony were great-grandparents Gus and Armella Lutkenhaus (Paul and Dorothy Fisher were unable to attend). Also present were an aunt, Tricia Lutkenhaus, an uncle, Michael Lutkenhaus, and Sheila Smith, an aunt Kay

Lee Price, Kathy Arend, and Kylee Butts.

A family lunch was served at the Jimmy and Laura Fisher home in Lindsay. A special, cross-shaped cake was made by Roger Dieter and decorated by Donna Neu for Nicholas' special day.

Stuttering: devastating for preschoolers, parents

Parents eagerly anticipate the moment when their child first begins to talk. But for some parents, it is a time of anxiety because their child struggles to get words out.

As many as twenty percent of all preschoolers nationwide have repetitions and prolongations of sounds severe enough to be of concern to their parents.

A new videotape, Stuttering and The Preschool Child: Help for Families, helps parents detect stuttering and take action toward helping their child, which is available at the Bettie M. Luke Muenster Public Library.

Produced by the nonprofit Stuttering Foundation of America, the video describes what kinds of stuttering young children may exhibit, how parents can help at home, and the role of a speech pathologist in evaluating and treating children who stutter. The Foundation provides this new videotape free of charge to all public libraries nationwide.

"Stuttering typically begins between the ages of two and five," says Barry Guitar, Ph.D., professor and chair of Communication Sciences at the University of Vermont in Burlington. "It may begin gradually or suddenly, and many of these children outgrow their disfluencies naturally. However, if a child continues to stutter for several months, or appears to be frustrated by it, parents should seek assistance."

Guitar appears in the video with four other nationally recognized experts in stuttering: Peter Ramig, Ph.D., of the University of Colorado at Boulder, Diane Hill, M.A., of Northwestern University, Patricia Zebrowski, Ph.D., of the University of Iowa, and Kristin Chmela, M.A., in private practice.

These experts address common concerns that parents have about their child, such as how to help the child at home and whether to seek the advice of a speech pathologist.

Strategies parents can use to help reduce stuttering are given throughout the tape and include reducing the number of questions they ask the child, focusing on taking turns during conversations, and making time to read or talk with the child in a relaxed manner.

Librarian Cheryl Yosten said there are several VHSs available on the topic of stuttering at Bettie M. Luke Muenster Public Library.

Why Should I Prearrange My Funeral Services?

Here's 3 Good Reasons:

Your Family

The death of a loved one is a time of grief and confusion — and certainly not the time to be making over 50 decisions concerning your funeral service.

Planning ahead means you and your family make those decisions together, calmly and sensibly, without the emotional burden.

Lower Costs

Prearranging saves you money by freezing the cost of the service at today's prices.

It also reserves your insurance and retirement funds for the living, not to meet the cost of a funeral.

When you plan ahead, you decide the cost.

Peace of Mind

You avoid needless worries, knowing that everything is taken care of, and that the service will be just as you want it.

Attract More Birds

* Maintain a fresh supply of water near your feeder. Just like humans, birds like a little something to drink with their meal. Keep in mind that the sound of water is what really attracts them, so consider adding a mister, dripper or recirculating device to your baths for the greatest success.

Sacred Heart retains TAPPS AA all-around trophy

For the 7th consecutive year, Sacred Heart School was presented the TAPPS AA All Around Trophy. The trophy is presented to the top AA school in academics, art, music, and athletics.

"I thought we lost it this year," said Coach Jon LeBrasseur. "Hallettsville had a great year and I thought the trophy would be passed on to them." The final results showed the Tigers and Tigerettes retaining the trophy by one point.

Points are awarded to each school according to how they finished in TAPPS championship events. This past year the Tigers captured the State Track title, Tiger Football advanced to the Semifinals, and the Tiger Basketball Team advanced to the Regional finals. The Tigerettes were crowned State champions in Cross-Country, Basketball, Track, and Softball. The Sacred Heart Academic Squad scored a 3rd at the State meet and the Music Squad finished in sixth.

"We are very proud to retain the All-Around Championship as it shows the hard work of the students of Sacred Heart on the field and in the classroom," said Coach LeBrasseur. Even though summer is here the students of Sacred Heart are preparing to capture their 8th consecutive All-Around title.

Sacred Heart 8th Grade graduates May 31

On Friday, May 31, Sacred Heart 8th graders held graduation at 6:00 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. Father Eugene Luke, O.S.B., officiated the Mass. Ruth Felderhoff played the traditional march as the graduates entered the church; the girls carried long stemmed lavender roses, while the boys wore lavender rose boutonnières.

The entrance song was "I am the Light of the World." The first reading from Sirach 32:18-22, was read by Diana Knabe. The Responsorial Psalm was "The Lord is My Light" and was sung by graduates Angie Cox, Jacqueline Flusche, Joelle Fuhrmann, and Sarah Whitecotton. Debra Yosten read the second reading taken from II Corinthians 5:14-18, 20. The gospel was taken from Matthew 6:25-34. Mark Gehrig and Shannon Hartman read the petitions. Jon Ambrose, Neil Bayer, Nicole Bayer, and Adam Dangelmayr presented offertory gifts as "Path of Life" was sung. "Seek Ye First" was sung at communion. Annette Bayer, Alvin Hartman, Debbie Hess, Brenda Porter, and Sally Switzer were Eucharistic Ministers. Mass servers were Jessica Bartel, Zach Bartush and Sunni Bayer. Christy Hesse was the song leader.

Father Eugene Luke and Dr. Jack Murdock, principal, awarded diplomas following Mass. After diplomas were given, the graduates returned to the altar for a tribute to their parents, a poem written by the graduates, entitled Like a Flower. Following the tribute the graduates presented their parents with a red rose. The recessional song was "Lead Us On, O Lord". The graduates exited the church and formed a line receiving congratulations from family, friends, and faculty. A class photo was taken in front of the Sacred Heart Elementary building.

The graduates, their parents, and faculty continued to celebrate with a "Hawaiian" party in their honor at the home of Bob and Yvonne Ambrose. A buffet of Hawaiian chicken, cheesy potatoes, and salads was served. A special cake inscribed with "There are 22 ways to make a difference in this world ... and ... they graduated tonight!" was the centerpiece. The graduates enjoyed volleyball, the limbo, hula-hoop contests, swimming, and a bon fire. Pausing during the party, the graduates viewed a class video, by Rick Walterscheid, comprised of photos from early childhood to present, with a variety of candid photos as well. A class booklet of "Remembers Whens", teachers, student's autographs, "Prized Possessions", class awards, and "favorite sayings" was given to each family. Videos and photos were taken throughout the evening.

French family visits MISD classroom

Jean Claude and Nicole Lioret of Othis, France, near Paris, were in Muenster visiting the James Hess family on several occasions due to the recent marriage of their daughter, Helene, to Jon Henley, son of James and Carol Ann Hess.

On Thursday, May 16, Helene and James brought Mm. and Mme. Lioret to Muenster Elementary School to visit the second grade students of Mrs. Carol Ann Hess. They brought bon bons (candy) and French coins for the students to keep as souvenirs of their meeting. Nicole spoke to each child in French, pronounced their names, talked with them about their classwork and answered their questions as Helene translated for her mother. Helene spoke also in German to the students.

The students expressed their welcome to their guests with French words they had practiced such as "bonjour" (hello), and "merci beaucoup" (thank you very much). Each student had decorated creative "Welcome to the USA" cards which boasted of lovely drawings of the American flag, Texas flag, and French flag. The students said the "Pledge to the Flag" for their guests and their finale was the singing of their newly learned French songs, "Frere Jacques" and "Allouette" to their guests.

Before the Liorets left for Paris, they sent a card of appreciation to each student in the class for the wonderful "Welcome to the USA" cards. They shared with the students that the cards would hold a special place of honor in the new home that they are building in Avignon, in the south of France. Mm. and Mme. Lioret were very much impressed with the writing, art, learning and speaking abilities of the MISD students in addition to their patriotism.

TPWD delivers first striped bass stockings since 2000

In the next few weeks, if current plans hold, about 5 million striped bass fingerlings will be stocked at 13 lakes across Texas. Also in the next few weeks, about 2.5 million hybrid striped bass will be stocked at about 30 lakes.

This marks the first striped bass stockings from a Texas hatchery in two years, after naturally occurring, toxic golden alga wiped out all the hatchery stock last year.

Golden alga killed all the striped bass and hybrid striped bass fingerlings at the Dundee Hatchery southwest of Wichita Falls last year at a time when the other state striper hatchery at Possum Kingdom was closed for renovations. Since then, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists have devised a means to control golden alga at state hatcheries, and striper production is once again humming.

Striped and hybrid striped bass are popular game fish that do best in big, open water lakes with suitable forage. Stripers and hybrid striped bass don't reproduce naturally in Texas (except for stripers in Lake Texoma), so the success of the fishery depends on stockings.

Farm & Ranch

Texas awarded $4.6 million for beef industry

The announcement that the State of Texas will receive nearly $4.6 million dollars from the United States Department of Agriculture as part of an effort to beef up state defenses against foreign animal and plant diseases is welcome news to Texas farmers and ranchers, said Donald Patman, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

"The threat of a foreign disease like foot and mouth is all too real for Texas livestock producers," Patman said. "Such a disease could devastate the industry. These funds will be used as a front-line defense against foot and mouth disease and other animal and plant diseases that could wreak havoc on Texas agriculture."

The $4.6 million allocated to Texas -- part of $43.4 million in nationwide state grants to strengthen homeland security preparedness -- was announced today in San Antonio by U.S. Congressman Henry Bonilla, chairman of the subcommittee that funds USDA, and USDA Undersecretary of Agriculture Bill Hawks.

"We applaud Congressman Bonilla's efforts in taking these actions to ensure a safe food supply for the American consumer and maintaining a strong agriculture industry," Patman said.

Hawks said $1.8 million will go to the Lone Star State for emergency preparedness; $458 million will go to animal disease surveillance; $300,000 will go for plant disease detection; and $2 million will go for rapid detection and diagnostic work.

Historically, USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has been responsible for diagnosis of foreign animal disease in this country. Currently, only one lab in New York can confirm a disease such as foot and mouth. Patman said USDA, acting in partnership with key agricultural states like Texas, would speed up response time during a foreign disease outbreak, where timely action is critical.

"Using Texas as a regional center that can diagnose a disease such as foot and mouth is just common sense," Patman said. "Through USDA's assistance, Texas can bring our diagnostic labs up to speed. Training will be conducted and equipment will be in place to keep response time to a minimum."

The funds are part of the supplemental defense appropriation bill signed by President George W. Bush earlier this year.

'Taking' of property hits setback

The property rights movement experienced a sharp setback April 23 with a U.S. Supreme Court decision in a Nevada "takings" case. The court ruled 6 to 3 that a government-imposed moratorium on property development, even one that lasts for years, does not automatically amount to a "taking" of private property for which taxpayers must compensate the landowners.

The ruling came in a case that sought millions of dollars in compensation for a prolonged restriction on development along the shores of Lake Tahoe. Writing for the court, justice John Paul Stevens said, "A rule that required compensation for every delay in the use of property would render routine government processes prohibitively expensive or encourage hasty decision making. Such an important change in the law should be the product of legislative rule making rather than adjudication."

Ranch estate planning

Estate taxes are a major problem for ranch owners--and their heirs. Dr. Wayne Hayenga, an Attorney with Texas Cooperative Extension, will hold a Ranch Estate Planning Seminar on August 4 and 5, in conjunction with the Annual Beef Cattle Short Course. The Seminar will be from 3:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on August 4, and on August 5 from 8:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. It will be held at the College Station Conference Center.

Topics covered will include the basic tools of estate planning: Wills, Living Trusts, and Powers of Attorney. But most of the time will be spent on income and estate tax saving plans for ranching families. Irrevocable trusts, generation skipping trusts, bypass trusts, property ownership, community/separate property, special use valuation for ranches, partnerships and corporations will be discussed in the context of the gift and estate tax rules.

Dr. Hayenga is an excellent communicator. He delivers a top notch educational program emphasizing key points with an entertaining style illustrating estate and income tax law provisions with practical examples that make learning a pleasure. His teaching makes full use of his broad background and practical experience as a farmer, banker, and lawyer.

Registration fee is $100.00 per person. It includes seminar materials, a light snack on Sunday and lunch on Monday, as well as refreshment breaks. For more information, call Sharon at (979) 845 2226, Fax: (979) 847-9374 or email: s-wehring@tamu.edu.
