It's Fair Time For Bailey County Rain Enhances Crop Prospect Contests Are Added

"One thing that's on everybody's mind right now are the rain, wet, and muddy conditions," said Bailey County Extension Agent Spencer Tanksley. "Basically, that weather has been good. We have had good, general rains across the country for the last two weeks in varying amounts."

The Extension agent continued, "The benefits from the rain will surely enhance crop yields, although most producers are ready for some clear, warm weather and sunny days."

"For dryland, the rainfall has sure increased crop production prospects, for both cotton and grain sorghum."

"It has caused some damage in acreage, by slowing cotton fiber production," he added, "and has caused some insect problems, especially since farmers can't get into the fields and spray. Both cotton and grain sorghum are seeing increases of infestations of head worms and boll worms. Also, rain has hurt some alfalfa hay crops, if they were cut and on the ground, and some minor disease has been noted in vegetable crops."

Farming is generally at a standstill, said the county agent, and even if the weather should clear up immediately, it would still be several days before the farmers should be able to get into their fields.

"With normal September weather," said Tanksley, "along with a normal freeze date about the third week of October, we can still realize some good crop yields. I especially think corn and grain sorghum look 'excellent' in my own opinion. At this time, I anticipate that in about two weeks, corn harvest will be in full swing, although I noticed some corn already coming in to the elevators."

Since there is less cotton this year than in years past, Tanksley says the amount of GOING IN FOR THE 'KILL'--Ritchie Tillema, No. 60 for the Muleshoe Mules, is coming in from the side to catch up with Olton Mustang Carlos Perez, No. 22, during the season opener for the Muleshoe Mules. They defeated the Mustangs in a come from behind 22-14 victory in the fourth quarter. For the first three quarters of the game, it was a defensive effort by both teams, although the Mustangs scored in the second and third quarters. All the Mule points came in the fourth quarter.

Mules Take Opener; Down Mustangs 22-14

It was a beautiful night for football, with moderate temperature, and light wind. A perfect night for opening the 1986 football season for the Muleshoe Mules, and open the season they did!

Failing to capitalize on at least three excellent scoring opportunities in the first half, the Mules saw the Olton Mustangs rack up 14 points while holding them scoreless going into the fourth quarter.

In the fourth, the Mules 'found the handle,' and came

Compulsory Attendance Is Noted

"The beginning of the school year seems to be an appropriate time to remind the public of the Compulsory School Attendance Law of Texas," said Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green. He added, "The Texas Education Code provides that every child in the state who is as much as seven years of age, and who has not completed the academic year in which his 16th birthday occurred, shall be required to attend school unless excused as provided by law. Any parent or other guardian who fails to require their child to attend school as required by law is subject to criminal charges. Each day the child remains out of school may constitute a separate offense."

"The Juvenile Code also provides that the unexcused voluntary absence of a child on ten or more days or parts of days within a six month period or three or more days or parts of days within a four-week period from school is conduct for which the Juvenile Court may assume jurisdiction over the child," he added.

Judge Green concluded, "Unexcused absences will be reported by the school officials to the juvenile authorities and investigations will be made. All parents, guardians and school age children should understand and comply with the attendance laws."

3 Lawsuits Are Moved To Lubbock

At approximately 1:45 p.m. Friday, attorneys from Lubbock representing Westworld Community Healthcare, Inc., lessors of West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe, filed orders in the District Court in Bailey County removing three lawsuits from Bailey County to federal Court in Lubbock.

The three suits involved were lawsuits filed against Westworld Community Healthcare, Inc. by Dr. Homer Allgood, Dr. Jack McCarty and Dr. Enrique Muysshondt.

Reasons for removing the lawsuits from jurisdiction in Bailey County were given in the PETITION FOR REMOVAL as follows: "...in that it is a civil action wherein the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of $10,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs, and is between citizens of different states."

As the suits were removed to the United State District Court, for the Northern District of Texas, Lubbock Division, they will now be held before Judge Halbert O. Woodward, and no part of the cases will be heard in Bailey County.

According to District Clerk Nelda Merriott, this action also cancelled the hearing scheduled in Muleshoe at 10 a.m. Monday before District Judge Jack Young. At stake was a hearing to make a temporary injunction against Westworld Community Healthcare, Inc. permanent, or until pending lawsuits were settled.

From this afternoon, all future actions concerning the doctors' lawsuits will be held in federal court in Lubbock, at dates and times to be determined at a later date.

Meals On Wheels Needs Substitute, Regular Drivers

Robin Taylor said the Meals on Wheels program is desperately in need of volunteer drivers. Needed are volunteers to pick up meals and milk at the hospital kitchen, and deliver one route one day a week.

Meals on Wheels is a volunteer organization, and needed is someone to drive a route each Monday, and also to be available as a substitute with a day's notice.

She explained that meals are picked up at 11:30 a.m. and it takes 30-45 minutes, and in no cases, more than an hour to deliver the meals and be completely through, as all of the 20 meals are delivered within the city limits.

"And, what is your reward," you ask? Your reward is the good feeling from helping assure that some older people, or disabled person receives at least one hot meal a day. The meals are delivered Monday through Friday.

"People are so happy to see you come with the meal," added Mrs. Taylor. "They act like you cooked the meal yourself."

For further information, call Robin Taylor, 272-3196 or Margie Merritt before 8:30 a.m. at 272-3894, after 9 a.m., 272-3998.

TROPHIES TO BE AWARDED--Following 'Circus on Wheels' at the Bailey County Civic Center next Saturday morning, these trophies, shown with Muleshoe Jennyslipper project chairman, Greta McCormick, will be presented six youths. The four smaller trophies will be awarded to the four different category winners and the two large trophies will be presented by the Jennyslippers to the best dressed Bike and the best costumed child.

Babies Are Too Young To Diet

In a misguided attempt to prevent obesity, heart disease, hypertension and other diet-linked conditions, some health-conscious parents are putting their children on restrictive diets.

According to Dr. Dymple Cooksey, a nutritionist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service, this practice may cause stunted growth and failure to gain weight in children under two.

Nutrition researchers have found that these parents typically substitute skim milk for whole milk, feed their toddlers lean meat and complex carbohydrates and no more than three eggs per week, while also forbidding snacks between meals.

"This type of low-fat, low-cholesterol diet can be appropriate for an adult, but will result in young children getting only 63 to 94 percent of the calories they need," she says.

It's particularly important that babies drink whole milk, says Cooksey, since the fat provides essential fatty acids and calories, in addition to the calcium, vitamin D and phosphorus found in all milk.

A parent who is concerned about a child's weight may wish to restrict ice cream and other highly sugared or high fat dairy treats as snacks, but shouldn't serve skim milk to a child under two, she adds.

Snacks are important for babies and toddlers because their stomachs are small and they may not get enough nutrients by eating only at meals, says the nutritionist.

Research studies show that nutritious snacks provide up to 20 percent of a child's food energy. They also supply much of the vitamin C-rich foods and liquids in the form of fruits, juices and drinks.

Rather than deny young children snacks, parents should make sure the snacks are nutritious, advises Cooksey. Fruits, fruit juices, fresh vegetables, pieces, cheese and crackers, egg custards are all examples of nutritious snacks.

Sugary snack foods, including soda, candy, sweetened fruit drinks, cakes, pies and sugared cereals contain many calories but very few nutrients. So parents can justifiably limit these snacks, says the nutritionist.

Miss Sudduth, Holt Repeat Vows

The sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe was the setting for the double ring ceremony uniting Joni Sudduth and Todd Holt. The Rev. Barry Bradley, pastor, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dave and Clara Sudduth of Muleshoe. Holt is the son of Ronnie and Sue Holt, also of Muleshoe.

Music selections were played by Marcella and Mia Jennings. Larry and Sharon Rice of Lubbock sang "Bridge Over Troubled Waters", "I Pledge My Love" and "There Is Love".

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown by Illisa, made of candlelight silk organza. Wilked ruffles of organza worn off the shoulder flowed to the bodice which was adorned with a hand perled butterfly.

A basque waistline lead to a full ballroom skirt that flowed around to create a cathedral train. The skirt and train featured pyramids of wilked organza ruffles and hand embroidered appliques of butterflies.

For her headpiece, the bride selected a hat with silk crown with small brim covered with lace and pearls with a pouf of veiling attached to the back of the crown.

In keeping with tradition, the bride carried a silk hankey belonging to her grandmother, Maye Dameron, as something old. Something new was her wedding gown. Something borrowed was pearls worn by her mother at her wedding and something blue was her garter.

Pattie Ruthardt of Muleshoe attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Tonda Gunstream, Stephanie Brown and Denese Allen, all of Lubbock. Angie Gowen, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Brent Holt of Lubbock served as best man. Groomsmen were Bruce Churcl, John Rafferty, of Lubbock and Mike Holt, brother of the groom, of Muleshoe. Tyson Purdy of Muleshoe served a ring bearer.

Guests were registered by Kim Cox of Muleshoe and were ushered by Carey Sudduth of Lubbock, Richard Sudduth of Dallas, brothers of the bride; Micheal Holt of Muleshoe, brother of the groom; and Allen Johnson of Lubbock.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Serving at the bride's table were Marla Sudduth of Lubbock and Michelle Sudduth of Dallas, sisters in law of the bride. Serving at the groom's table was Kelly Ausley of Austin, cousin of groom.

D'Nae Wilson and Aaron Purdy passed out rose shaped rice bags.

Members of the houseparty were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Paul Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe King and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bessire.

Garden Ceremony Unites Miss Parkman, Carter

MRS. LARRY RAY CARTER
(nee Karen Michelle Parkman)

Karen Michelle Parkman and Larry Ray Carter were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at sunset, August 23rd, in a garden ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Carter. Virgil Yochum, Church of Christ minister, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Ms. Betty Parkmen of Lovington and Freddie Parkman of Fort Worth. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Carter of Sundown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an original gown of white satin featuring a pleated cummerbund and a chapel train. The bodice overlay of imported chantilly lace was embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. It was designed with a portrait neckline and sleeves. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of flowers and pearls. The bride carried a cascade of peach and white stephanotis, gardenias, lily-of-the-valley, baby's breath, and centered with a white orchid.

For something old and blue, the bride wore the blue garter worn by the groom's mother at her wedding, something borrowed was diamond ear studs belonging to the bride's grandmother Hutton, and for good luck she wore a penny in her shoe.

The matron of honor was Prynness Fietz of Sundown, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Terri Carter of San Angelo, sister of the groom. They wore identical tea length dresses of peach satin, designed with a fitted bodice, full skirt, square neckline and ruffles covering the shoulders. They wore matching peach shoes and carried white lace streamers.

The groom wore a white tuxedo. Groomsmen were Dennis Lamb and Mike Martin, friends of the groom. They wore gray tuxedos.

Flower girl was Autumn Day, cousin of the groom, and ringbearer was Benjamin Fietz, nephew of the bride.

Ushers were Wayne Parkmen, brother of the bride, and David Fietz, brother-in-law of the bride. They were attired in gray tuxedos.

Guests were registered by Heather Hutton, cousin of the bride, as they were seated in the garden.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She presented her mother with a long-stemmed white rose.

The ceremony was performed in front of a white wrought iron arch entwined with English Ivy, flanked by wicker baskets of peach and white gladiolas and spider mums arranged with baby's breath and greenery. After the ceremony, the bride presented the groom's mother with a rose.

The reception was held on the patio. The bride's table was covered with a white, lace-edged tablecloth, centered with an antique candelabra containing peach votive candles. The cake was five-tiered, decorated with peach and white flowers, baby's breath and greenery, topped with lovebirds. Peach punch was served from a crystal bowl by Christyjo Dycuss and Val Jackson.

The groom's table was centered with a brass coffee service and a cowboy boot of the groom's painted gold, filled with flowers and finished with a butterfly on the toe. The groom's cake was a peach and white decorated zucchini cake in the shape of a Bible. Katie Montandon, cousin of the groom, and Shelly Farriss served at the groom's table.

A peacock made with fresh fruit, cheeses, and meats was placed on the third table, centered with an antique candelabra with white votive candles.

Houseparty members were Betty Kirby, Linda Abbney,

Barbara Richards, Velma Smith, Chris McCollum, Arlene Popejoy, and Carla McCollum.

After the wedding trip to Acapulco, the couple will make their home in Lubbock where the bride is employed by Republic Bank of Lubbock and the groom is a senior student at Texas Tech and is self-employed.

The bride and groom were honored with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Betty Kirby in Maple on July 27th. On July 31st they were also honored with a bridal shower in Sundown in the home of Mrs. Arlene Popejoy. A lingerie shower, honoring the bride, was held in Lubbock on August 12th in the home of Nickie Dewbre. A bridal luncheon was held in Hemphill-Wells Gold Room on August 16th hosted by Mrs. Jean Guber, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Cindy Day, cousin of the groom, a dinner honoring the couple was given on August 16th in Muleshoe hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hutton, uncle and aunt of the bride. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents on August 22nd in the back yard of their ranch home near Sundown.

"Range conditions are in as good a condition as they have been for the past five to ten years, since the middle to late 70's," added Tanksley. "Livestock is in excellent condition, although the market is slow."

Vegetables are still producing good, including honey dew melons, bell peppers, carrots, green beans, watermelons, cabbage and cantaloupe. Harvest is virtually over for potatoes, onions and sweet corn, continued the county agent.

free country. Bessire's 27 yard TD run was enhanced by Greg Young's extra point kick, and the game showed Muleshoe 22-Olton 14.

Russell Brown stopped a threatened Mustang drive on a fumble recovery with 1:26 left to play in the game.

Injuries plagued the Mustangs who saw four of their players injured during the game.

Lost to the Mustangs, and taken to West Plains Medical Center by ambulance were a player with a possible broken arm, a knee injury and another with a back injury. At the end of the game, a fourth player was lying on the sidelines with a knee injury.

First game jitters showed up, but the Mules overcame their 'jitters' to come from behind in the fourth and take their first victory for the year, following a dismal 1985 season where the Mules sustained total losses throughout the football season.

The Mules had 207 yards on the ground and 87 yards through the air while Olton showed 157 yards on the ground and 76 aerial yards.

Muleshoe had 14 first downs to 11 for Olton; Muleshoe showed nine incomplete passes to eight for Olton. The Mules had three penalties for 37 yards, while the Mustangs had nine penalties for 65 yards.

Next week, Hart will be visiting Muleshoe to take on the Mules at 8 p.m. in Benny Douglass Stadium.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I am writing with concern about our hospital. I was under the impression that the purpose of the hospital was to serve the community by taking care of its medical needs. It seems that instead of that purpose, the hospital here has put the citizen in such a position that we can simply not afford to use its facilities.

It stresses me to know that if my family has an emergency that we would not be able to use the hospital here in Muleshoe. I feel confident in the Doctors and know they are qualified, but the high rates imposed by the hospital are so outrageous that it is just not feasible for us.

I hope by writing this letter it will encourage other citizen to voice their opinions and perhaps a town meeting would help to formulate some other options that would help our hospital and doctor dilemma.

Sincerely,
Glenn Yell

Dear Sir:

We are deeply concerned about the hospital here in Muleshoe. We feel that our community must have a hospital. We do not want our qualified doctors to be forced to leave here. We use the clinic because we have confidence in the doctors. However, we feel that we couldn't afford to be hospitalized here because of the unreasonably high rates. This is why our doctors have lost so many patients.

There are many elderly people in our community that cannot go out of town for medical attention. We have children and do not want to go elsewhere for a family doctor. What about emergencies! Muleshoe would have no opportunity to grow without our doctors and a hospital. This will hurt all of the businesses.

A few years ago, the hospital had so many patients they had to put beds in the hall. If the rates were lowered, this would happen again.

Many insurance companies do not cover the services performed at this hospital. This should tell us something.

People must speak up for our doctors and hospital before it is too late. Perhaps a town meeting would be a good time for our citizens to voice their opinions.

Fuel Tax Hike Is Not Solution

A five cent increase in the state tax on motor fuels, as proposed recently by Highway Department Chairman Robert C. Lanier, concentrates the state's deficit reduction burden on a beleaguered segment of the economy and therefore is not an equitable solution, says Robert Floyd, president of the Texas Motor Transportation Association.

"In 1984, the Texas truck and bus industry stood in strong support of the increase in motor fuels taxes to 10 cents per gallon, increases in registration fees, and a one percent increase in the motor vehicle sales tax to help fund education reforms and the highway program," Floyd explains. "Another five cent increase in fuel taxes at this time would be very hard on an industry plagued by furious competition and a downturn in the economy."

Motor fuel is one of the most heavily taxed essential commodities in the nation, and since 1982, fuel taxes for Texas users have nearly doubled. In combined state and federal fuel taxes, Texas diesel fuel users pay 25 cents per gallon. In 1986 a trucking company will pay as much as $9,200 in taxes on fuel, equipment, and licensing for a typical five-axle tractor and semi-trailer.

A fuel tax hike of five cents per gallon would aggravate conditions for the motor carriers who are vital to the state economy, Floyd says. With increased overhead from skyrocketing insurance premiums and a declining volume of freight to be hauled, many trucking companies are barely surviving. Adding this additional tax burden to an industry that is reeling because of marginal profits and an unstable marketplace would undoubtedly result in more worker layoffs and increased company failures, both of which would be detrimental to the state's economy. "These are difficult times for the state of Texas," Floyd says. "Our industry's leaders are ready to work with the Legislature to solve the state's revenue problems."

"The current low price of fuel at the pumps is unlikely to last with the volatile nature of the Middle East. An increase in fuel taxes would not be a painless solution, but would have a severe impact on all motorists and on the financial stability of the Texas truck and bus industry," Floyd says.

Based in Austin, the Texas Motor Transportation Association represents the public and private sector of the truck and bus industry in Texas. The group has 750 allied and carrier members.

Out on the JOB WATCH UP FOR POWER LINES

Out on the job, power lines bring needed electricity to the site. But they can be dangerous... if you don't watch up! You need to be especially careful when you are handling re-bar, pipes, scaffolding, or tools that are long enough to contact overhead lines. Contact with power lines is also a potential danger to operators of front-end loaders, dump trucks and any other equipment of unusual height.

Keep an eye up for power lines. Watch up, for safety's sake.
