Parade kicks off Christmas Season

By Janet Felderhoff
"A Texas Christmas" parade entries rolled down the streets of Muenster Saturday, Nov. 30. Muenster Police Chief Bob Stovall led the way sounding his car's siren to the delight of many youngsters. Representing the Muenster Chamber of Commerce, Muenster ISD Hornet mascot Bridgett Klement and Sacred Heart High Tiger mascot Tony Koesler, carried a banner, which announced the Parade theme. Muenster VFW Post 6205 and Boy Scouts of America Troop 664 marched as color guards. There were about 35 entries in the Muenster Chamber of Commerce sponsored event.

Co-chairmen for the event were Leon Klement and Rick Walterscheid. Already they have agreed to chair the event in 2003. Klement said that they enjoyed helping put on the Parade. "Everything went well," Klement remarked. "The weather cooperated and everyone seemed to have fun. It was fun to see the kids and everyone having fun. That's what we do it for!" Walterscheid agreed, "We like doing it for the kids. It seemed to be a bit bigger this year and all seemed to enjoy it." He added that the Muenster Volunteer Firemen were a great help in getting everybody lined up and that Margie Starke and Carolyn Bayer of the Chamber were also a big help in organizing the event.

Margie Starke, Chamber of Commerce secretary, remarked, "It turned out real well. Rick and Leon did a good job of organizing it. We even had some out of town entries. We're looking forward to next year and hope to make it even bigger and better next year." The entries from out of town came from Krum, Montague County and Clay County.

After the Parade, emcee Tom Carson of KGAF Radio announced winners in the various categories. Best of Theme went to Muenster ISD Elementary students as they presented their version of "A Texas 12 Days of Christmas". Students marched as 12 football players, 11 girls a cheerin', 10 cowboys ropin', 9 girls scootin', 8 bales of hay, 7 Lone Stars twinklin', 6 flags a flying, 5 yellow roses, 4 armadillos, 3 Bluebonnets, 2 oil wells, and a mockingbird in a pecan tree.

Best Religious with Bethlehem Texas. This was a Texas Style Alamo manger scene.

Cub Scouts Pack 664 entered Have You "Herd" About Out Texas Christmas to win the Best Organization category. This float replaced reindeer with Longhorn cattle pulling a chuck wagon and trailer filled with scouting cowboys.

Best Marching Unit was awarded to the Muenster

Christmas gift beneath the tree.

Muenster Volunteer Fire Department once again snagged the Biggest Motorized Unit prize.

Winning Best All Around honors was "A Christmas Then and Now" entered by Campfire Trailblazers and Starflight. Campfire members were dressed in period costumes from the late 1800s to 2002.

Sherry Rogers, Mary Jo Graham, and Nick Rogers

Hornet Marching Band. Jerry Everett is the band director.

Muenster FFA was named Best Mounted Unit. Some of the FFA members rode horses beside an FFA trailer pulled by a John Deere tractor to symbolize the changes in agriculture from the past to the present. The entry also carried a Christmas tree decorated in national blue and corn gold with a baby calf as the Muenster Chamber of Commerce 2002 Christmas Drawing winners were drawn from entries submitted at local businesses. The person whose name was drawn had to be present to claim their prize. Mary Lou Hess won the top prize of $500 in Muenster Marks. Other winners were $250 Pam Sidwell; $100 Ramona

Parish dinner, picnic, and auction outstanding

by Elfreda Fette
"Wow! We did it!!!!" "Hallelujah!" "Wow!" Smiles hid the fatigue felt by sponsors and volunteers at the close of the Sacred Heart Parish Thanksgiving Picnic, Dinner, and Auction Sunday Nov. 24, as they became acutely aware of the outstanding and eminently successful event, resulting from weeks of planning, preparation, and cooperation.

Admittedly, it would take more than a few days to fully realize and arrive at the final results, and collect all items needed to assess the final financial high point, and justify their well-earned personal expressions reflecting "Hallelujah!" "Oh, Boy!!!" or "We Did It!!!"

Dinner crowds lined up inside the Sacred Heart Community Center, and stretched way outside, down the parking lot, taking advantage of the superb weather. Dinner chairmen, Virgilla Herr and Carrie Walterscheid reported that 1386 meals were served. They said "We started serving at 10:45 a.m., not stopping for a moment until after 2:00 p.m." The menu of roast turkey with dressing and gravy, mashed potatoes, German sausage, buttered corn, cranberries, salad, sauerkraut, hot rolls, an assortment of homemade pies, coffee, tea was "all you can eat."

The "Award of Distinction," beginning a new tradition in Sacred Heart Parish, was presented following dinner to honor the late Anthony "Tony" Luke. Later in the afternoon, and preceding the Live Auction, surprise presentations of Recognition and Gratitude were given publicly to three parishioners for outstanding service rendered. They were Dorothy Bengfort, Tom Torcellini, and the late Al Felderhoff.

The Silent Auction brought in good profit. The Live Auction was lively and always entertaining.

The Arts and Crafts Booth was a great display of the artistic talents of the four co-chairmen and the splendid cooperation and participation of uncounted ladies in the community who spent long hours and weeks beforehand creating attractive, eye-catching items suitable for sale to be used in homes of the buyers. Sponsors probably won't admit it, but it will take a long time to mend sore fingers.

Sponsors said it was heartwarming to receive countless items from students of Sacred Heart and the Religious Education classes, and the wide assortment of gift baskets they provided. The booth was directed by Aileen Knabe, Stacie Miller, Charlotte Dangelmayr, and Harriet Scoggins, and their assistants.

The Cake Walk and Bake Sale were inviting, and satisfied many a "sweet tooth," and provided many items to take home, place in the freezer, and "save for Christmas."

As the day waned, no exhilaration could better express the emotions of sponsors and workers than the words of that lovely old song "When You Come To The End Of A Perfect Day."

Picnic casts an aura of thanks

It was extremely heart warming to have so many people express their positive feedback for the tribute that was made to Tony Luke by presenting Tony's family an engraved plaque at the Thanksgiving dinner this year. The idea was presented to the picnic committee for consideration and all gave a go-ahead, let's do it. Now, we hope to make this an annual event to honor someone in our parish who has contributed their time, talent and treasure as Tony did. Doug Yosten did an outstanding presentation, without notes I may add, calling out many of the things Tony did along with family member memories.

Youth participate in area's first hunt for kids

Texas Game Warden Jim Lundberg and Larry Wassell, owner of Fish Creek Ranch, discuss the hunt Sunday morning.

By Melissa Carpenter and Dave Fette

For many youth in the area hunting is a family tradition and a way of life. But some never get the opportunity and the game wardens of Texas hope to change that.

The first deer hunt for kids in Cooke County was held Nov. 23 and 24 near Marysville. The group, made up of 20 boys and many adult sponsors and game wardens, met at the Center Restaurant parking lot Saturday morning for sign up and liability releases. Then they were off to the Fish Creek Masonic Lodge, which served as the group's base.

The purpose of a kid hunt is to give those who have never hunted before the chance to do so and learn to do it the right way.

"I'm enjoying seeing smiles on the kids' faces," game warden Butch Shoop said. "Overall, this has been a pretty successful hunt."

The kid hunt not only allows youth a first time hunt, but also helps equalize the deer population.

The young hunters and their guides were cautioned to shoot only does or inferior bucks, no young bucks or top quality bucks. Thus the balance and genetics of the herd would be improved.

The group received a safety briefing and was checked out for marksmanship and proper function of their weapons.

Landowner Larry Wassell volunteered his property, Fish Creek Ranch, and said that he looks forward to building responsible attitudes about life for the boys and giving them a start in loving and respecting the outdoors.

Area game warden Jim Lundberg organized the event and said they wanted the young hunters to enjoy

Picnic a great success

Here it is a week after the Thanksgiving Picnic and I think I have recovered. On to the rest of the holidays I guess. The Picnic was successful. We still do not have all the monies in, but it looks as if we are going to be real close to last year's total, which was around $108,000.00. I am going to guess around $105,000.00. The auction was down by a couple of thousand, but a lot of the events were up. The kids games nearly doubled their income from last year, thanks to the weather and all the volunteers who worked. I walked outside once to check on the kids area and I was amazed at all the kids playing games and riding the ride we had. We fed a little more than 1386 at the noon meal which was up from 1200 last year. We had a lot of nice things to buy or bid on. The Sweet Shoppe and Cake Walk brought in more money this year than last year even if it was in the back room. (I think people are catching on). The Auctions did a little less than last year, but not much - maybe $2000.00 less after we collect all the money. Hey, considering two of our items last year brought in $10,000.00 by themselves and the economic times, the picnic committee thinks we did great. Most of the meals were up and the progressive dinner brought $200.00 more than it did the first year we did it.

This year the big item was the outdoor nativity scene with folding stable. Stacie Miller and her brothers worked on that project and it brought $4,000.00 on the Silent Auction. Thanks go to Peggy and Wayne Grewing for purchasing it and to all of those who bid it up. The fun thing about the Auction is the fact that we never know what the hot item might be each year. It is always a scary thought wondering if there are going to be enough people to help us reach our goal. But my thoughts are just have faith, and when you do everything works out. And you know what? No matter how many bugs we have to work out in the weeks or days prior to the picnic (and believe me there are always problems) and no matter how late a few of us stay up the night before the picnic, it always seems to work out.

jumped into Normandy on D-Day; was wounded twice, earned the Purple Heart... After discharge in 1946, he returned to Muenster... worked in the oil fields, went into business with his brother Vince... later married "Sis" in 1950... In time, all his family came under the quiet influence of honor, service, generosity, church and community support... He was active in church and civil pursuits... with zeal and commitment... he was a member of the Muenster City Council, and was named 1988 Muenster Jaycees Outstanding Citizen. He was a true Patriot... was active in the political arena at all levels... Most of all Al Felderhoff loved this community and gave generously to any cause to help its development... and was fiercely defensive of 'One Nation Under God - with Liberty and Justice for All'... A man of deep faith, he loved his church, his Parish and our Community."

David Bright paid tribute to the late Al Felderhoff for his many years of service to the parish and the community. He said, in part, "I'm honored and privileged to have been asked to speak about my friend, Al Felderhoff... He was a farm boy growing up north of Muenster... entered the U.S. Army in W.W.II; became a paratrooper in the famed 101st Airborne...

Honors went to Dorothy Bengfort, Tom Torcellini, and the late Al Felderhoff.

Addressing Dorothy Bengfort, Bill Bayer said, "During your 37 years of teaching many students, they received a very good core education, and, more importantly, they learned about the Kingdom of God. At Sacred Heart School, you taught more than one generation and witnessed much change. On behalf of the Sacred Heart School Family and Sacred Heart Parish, we are truly grateful for your sincere dedication of time, talent, and treasure given faithfully and unselfishly."

Dorothy Bengfort

Honors also went to Tom Torcellini, and the Expression of Recognition and Gratitude was made by Father John Ohner, OSA, Pastor. Mrs. Sandi Torcellini accepted the award for her husband, who was in Canada that weekend. Fr. John said to Mrs. Torcellini, "We are tremendously impressed by his gift to the Sacred Heart Cemetery of 1,000 loads of soil retrieved in the construction of your lake." Explaining to the crowd gathering for the coming Auction, Father John added, "Not only did he have that great amount of soil hauled in, but had it leveled, giving an attractive, presentable appearance to area consecrated for the purpose

Many also had nice comments for remembering Dorothy Bengfort, Tom Torcellini, and Al Felderhoff for their contributions and good deeds to the parish. Bill Bayer's presentation was a tribute to Dorothy Bengfort; Father John's kind words complimented Tom Torcellini; and David Bright's delightful comments and remembrances of Al Felderhoff were sincere.

Each year the picnic committee gathers, just after the Labor Day weekend, with weekly planning meetings and continues until the festivities are finalized. Many of us have been on the committee for a number of years and are asking the younger generation to step forward and take our places with new ideas to add to the fun and games. It is very rewarding to the many individuals who contribute their time and energies toward this great fundraiser and Thanksgiving Homecoming Picnic. If it were not for the contributions from the members of the parish and others, this celebration would not be so successful.

THANK YOU

We would like to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks to all who helped make the Christmas parade in Muenster a great success.

Your community pride and holiday spirit was evident by all the hard work put into the parade entries. Thanks to the Muenster Volunteer Firemen who helped line up floats, etc. Also, thanks to those who came out with family and friends to support the effort, and to the businesses, schools, Jaycees, and Chamber of Commerce who helped to make it a great day for all.

Thanks again for making our job easier to create happy memories for our children.

MMH passes critical access surveys

By Janet Felderhoff
Members of the Muenster Memorial Board of Directors learned at the Nov. 26 meeting that the hospital had passed all of the Texas Department of Health (TDH) surveys for Critical Access designation. The last survey was the Life Safety Code done on Monday, Nov. 25. Since the Hospital had passed the Medicare Life Safety Code in 1962 when it was built, it was judged on that same criteria, according to MMH Administrator Richard Arnold.

Currently the Hospital is waiting for word from the TDH on the official date it will be designated as a Critical Access Hospital. Paperwork must be completed by the CMS and provider numbers given for Medicare, Medicaid and Blue Cross for Medicare patients. There were a few minor corrections needed as suggested by the surveyors. Arnold said that most of them had already been taken care of. The Board passed a resolution to encourage TDH to approve the CAH designation as soon as possible.

After studying premium quotation proposals from three companies for workers' compensation insurance for hospital district employees, the Board went with William Rigg Company's Texas Hospital Insurance Exchange. It is affiliated with Texas Hospital Association. The price selected was the lowest amount with a higher accident deductible. It is $79,816 a year with a $10,000 accident deductible. A payment of 19% down with nine monthly payments is required.

Arnold informed the Board of notice received that an application must be completed within 30 days in order to continue to utilize the hazardous waste incinerator. Arnold said that after reviewing the application and criteria that must be met, it was his recommendation to withdraw the application, dismantle and get rid of the current incinerator. The services of an approved hazardous waste disposal company could be retained. He said a small storage building could be purchased and installed on the site of the current incinerator to store the hazardous waste between regular pickup days. The Board approved this and it will be done as soon as possible.

Results from the Proficiency Testing Report for the MMH laboratory was given to the Board. It was prepared by lab tech Danny Lovelace. Arnold said that MMH has one of the top labs around for a hospital of its size in this part of the state. It is tested for proficiency on a regular basis by unknown samples sent in for lab results.

Steve Jones of the maintenance department submitted reports on the repair of a washer and other equipment.

Arnold said that collection efforts continue. There are plans to submit a letter to the public through the Muenster Enterprise to inform them informed on how the hospital plans to proceed with its efforts. There may be requests to help correct claim numbers or clear up other misinformation that has made filing insurance claims impossible.

After being sent back to the CCAD last month for corrections, the Board approved the corrected contract for 2003. The contract for tax assessment and collection with the Cooke County appraisal District becomes effective Jan. 1, 2003.

From My Side of the Fence by Ed Cler

Well, Thanksgiving has come and gone. November has about run its course too. Tomorrow, Dec. 1, leaves us 24 days till Christmas.

I don't know where all the food went Thursday, but we disposed of some 40 lb. of turkey and dressing along with the trimmings and desserts. Everyone seemed to enjoy eating and visiting.

Even the Cowboys added a bit of pleasure to the day, winning their game with the Redskins. Someone said the Redskins would stomp the Cowboys who have been struggling all season, but it seems that when these two teams play one another the Cowboys always seem to be "up for it."

The Cowboys, even though riddled with injuries, did a great job. The last two games the offense put some points on the board. The young quarterback is getting a bit sharper, and it shows.

Emmitt ran for 144 yards, which is a pretty good day's work for any ball carrier.

With some key players out with injuries, and their spots filled with, more or less, inexperienced players, I think they did very well, winning the game, 27 to 20.

Added to that, the Longhorns also came off with a win over Texas A&M.

I thought this game would be a cliff-hanger, but A&M had so many turnovers, it was almost unbelievable. I really felt sorry for them. They have a much better team than what we saw Thursday.

The Redskins new coach, Steve Spurrier, promised to give the Redskins owner, Dan Snyder, the game ball from his first victory over the Cowboys. Guess he'll have to wait awhile.

Al Felderhoff to be honored at WWII Airborne demonstration

On Saturday, Dec. 7 at 11 a.m., 18 paratroopers will be deployed from a World War II vintage C-47 at the old Camp Howze Airfield (Gainesville Municipal Airport) as part of a Veteran's salute sponsored by the Camp Howze Days Commemorative Committee. After the jump demonstration, special awards will be presented on behalf of two area men, Al Felderhoff and J.B. Stokes of Gainesville who served as paratroopers during WWII.

J.B. Stokes an original member of Easy Company 506th PIR 101st Airborne Division will be in attendance to observe the jump. Mr. Stokes parachuted into Normandy and Holland, survived the Bastogne encirclement in the 'Battle of the Bulge' and finished the war with the Division at Zell am Zee Austria and was featured in the recent HBO mini series 'Band of Brothers'. He returned home to Azle, Texas after the war and spent the next 55 years working for the City as a Public Works Superintendent.

Al Felderhoff of Muenster was a member of the 101st Airborne Division Paratroopers. On June 6, 1944, his unit jumped near St. Mere Eglise. Of the 130 men from his Company I who took part in that battle only 40 returned. Al himself was wounded on June 8. Felderhoff was to be honored at this time, but he died on Nov. 2. His sons will be present in his place.

"We are extremely pleased to have been invited to perform this demonstration to commemorate these veterans who represent some of the finest and bravest young men our society has yet to produce. The risks we take in this activity can hardly begin to compare with what they did. I only hope that it serves to rekindle a sense of pride and dignity in the hearts of the Gainesville area people who believe so strongly in this nation and this state" said Lt. Jack Dyer of Era, Platoon Leader and Acting Public Affairs Officer for the Team. "This being the anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor and the start of World War II makes us doubly proud to be able to be present for this salute to our veterans."

The presentation will be of scarves made from an original World War II camouflage canopy.

In addition to the airborne demonstration vintage military vehicles including several World War II jeeps, a half-track and a tank will be on display to honor the 60th anniversary of the establishment of Camp Howze. World War II reenactors wearing authentic uniforms will lend an air of nostalgia to the day's festivities, which will be highlighted by the parachute jump.

Activities are scheduled at the airport from 9:30 a.m. until 12:23 p.m. The public is welcome to tour the plane, view the authentic WWII equipment on display and talk to the members of the Airborne Demonstration Team.

Jumpers will start setting up at 9:30 a.m. There is no charge for this event. For more information, please call 668-4565, 665-2831, or 668-8900.

NCTC hosts Donor-Scholar breakfast

With approximately 180 in attendance at its annual Donor-Scholar Breakfast, North Central Texas College thanked benefactors, honored scholars and announced the creation of four new endowed scholarships Nov. 15.

Praising donor generosity, NCTC President Dr. Ronnie Glasscock pointed out that their contributions not only help deserving students pursue their dreams, but also improve the college by helping it attract outstanding students and leaders. "You're helping to enrich the learning process for our faculty and for our other students," he said.

The annual breakfast is designed to thank contributors, honor recipients and encourage personal contact among students, benefactors and NCTC faculty and staff. The NCTC Student Activity Center was filled to capacity.

Debbie Pounds, executive director of the NCTC Foundation announced the creation of four endowed scholarships since the last breakfast. An endowed scholarship uses investment earnings each year but leaves the principle untouched.

The four new endowed scholarships are:
 * The Garreth E Lewis Scholarship established by wife and children of the scholarship's namesake to honor his memory. The scholarship assists students majoring in an applied science field.

* The Earl B (Rusty) Hadlock Scholarship was established to honor Earl Hadlock by his wife, Robbie Hadlock, and his son Dr. Eddie Hadlock, NCTC vice president of instruction.

* The Gainesville Optimist Club Scholarship funded by club contributions to assist Gainesville High School graduates and Cooke County residents pursue higher education. The first scholarship award will be made in the fall of 2003.

* The Carl Zimmerer Memorial Scholarship established in memory of

Drawing set for Dec. 14 Party at KC Hall

The Knights of Columbus 4-wheeler raffle is nearing its end on Dec. 14. The Knights are to raffle the 400cc Arctic Cat 4-wheeler from Pettit Machinery of Gainesville, along with a 27 inch RCA TV and DVD player from Cooke County Appliance of Muenster and Gainesville.

There will be no more than 500 tickets sold for the raffle at $20 per ticket for the drawing. All ticket holders are welcome to the K of C Adult Christmas party on Dec. 14 at the K of C Hall. The drawing will take place around 8:00 p.m.

There are still over 100 tickets available with just over a week till the drawing. The 4-wheeler can be seen and tickets can be purchased at Fischer's Meat Market or by calling 759-4732.

The Knights express appreciation for the support of this and all of their charity work.

The children's evening with Santa will be held Sunday, Dec. 15 at 7:00 p.m. See you there!

Robert and Betty Miller of Muenster are proud to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Melissa Diane to George Christopher Scott, formerly of Bethesda, Maryland. Melissa and George are currently graduate students at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California. George is the son of Christine and Stephen White and the late George R. Scott. The Nuptial Mass will be on Dec. 21, 2002 with Father Kyle Walterscheid officiating.

Cooke County Republican Women to hold meeting Dec. 12

The Cooke County Republican Women will hold their general meeting on Thursday, Dec. 12, a week later than they usually meet. The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Monica and Jerry Hess. Following are directions to their home: from Hwy. 82 and Main Street, turn south on Hwy. 373. Go one and a half miles to a gray stone house on the right. In case of rain, it is suggested that those who can, should carpool to ease parking.

This meeting will celebrate the wonderful holiday season and will feature Mrs. Rosella Hutchison, National Federation of Republican Women chair for the Nominations, past TFRW

District Director, and founding President of Americans Abroad-Bermuda. She will be installing the new officers who are: President-elect Pat Peale; Vice-president-elect Programs Sharon McCormack; Vice-president-elect Membership Helen Loch; Vice-president-elect Fundraising Dee Dee Martin; Vice-president-elect Campaign Activities Glenda Vowell; Secretary Jo Ann Sessums; Treasurer Jeannine Faulkner; PAC Treasurer Dorthy Lewis.

For the holiday celebration, and in the spirit of things, everyone is asked to bring an hors d'oeuvre. The public is invited. RSVP to Pat Peale 940-665-7708 or Monica Hess 759-4254.

Jacob Hesse is two

Jacob Hesse celebrated his 2nd birthday with a Bob the Builder theme party. He celebrated his birthday Nov. 15. His actual birthday is Nov. 16. Jacob's parents, Mike and Kim Hesse, hosted his party in their home. A hamburger dinner, followed by a Bob the Builder birthday cake was enjoyed by all. Along with Jacob's parents, all of Jacob's grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins were present. Unable to attend, but sending Jacob birthday wishes was his Uncle Kody. Jacob celebrated his actual birthday at the Trail Dust with a few of his friends.

Miss Olivia's to host Victorian Tea Party

Most little girls at one time or another enjoy playing dress up and having a tea party. The dishes may be plastic, cracked or perhaps scarred with crayons. They may only serve cookies and water; however, they can entertain themselves for hours.

Now, you can invite your favorite little girl between the ages of six and 12, whether she is your daughter, niece, granddaughter, or a neighbor's child to a real Victorian Tea party set in a real Victorian home. On Saturday, Dec. 21 and Sunday, Dec. 22, Miss Olivia Hertel and her mother Donna Hertel, owners of Miss Olivia's Bed and Breakfast located at 319 S. Denton, will host the gala event from 3 to 5 p.m.

The event will benefit CASA of North Texas, Inc., a non-profit agency that advocates for neglected and abused children in court. CASA, has been opened in Cooke County since 1999 and has advocated for over 125 children.

The RSVP tickets are $25.00 and the girls will not only enjoy the tea party but will also get to decorate a large gingerbread house cookie to take home. Seating is limited so contact Ms. Hertel at 665-5558 to make a reservation.

Compost Computations

One-bushel basket will hold 1 1/2 feet (about 46 pounds) of compost. That's enough to cover 4 1/2 square feet of garden, 3 inches deep. One cubic yard of compost weighs about 1,000 pounds and will fill 21 and one half bushels, or cover 100 square feet to a depth of 3 inches.

Diabetes Support Group meeting set for Dec. 17

The Diabetes Support Group will meet Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 7:00 p.m. at Gainesville Memorial Hospital in the Roberts Meeting Room. "The Plate Method" will be presented by Lucy Krahl, MS, RD, LD. Come 30 minutes early if you would like to trade-in your old non-One Touch Meter for a complimentary One Touch Ultra Blood

Glucose Meter from LifeScan Sales Specialist, Marilyn Barnes. Trade-in offer good while supplies last.

Refreshments will be served and door prizes will be given. There is no admission charge.

Thank You

Our spirits have been lifted by the expressions of love and support from this community during the illness and death of our father and grandfather, Al Felderhoff. He treasured the many cards, calls, visits, flowers, and gifts of food from family, friends, and neighbors during his illness.

We are especially grateful to the staff of Muenster Memorial Hospital and to Dr. Edd Adincola for the loving care he received.

Thanks to all who participated in the rosary, wake, and funeral services, especially to Father John Ohner for the touching service, and to Ruth Felderhoff, Christie Kesse, and Diane Greving for the beautiful music at the funeral. We are grateful to those who donated, prepared, and served the delicious meal after the funeral and to the Knights of Columbus for the use of their hall. Also thanks to McCoy Funeral Home for their professional and sympathetic support.

Thanks to all who have shown their love and support through Mass offerings, memorial donations, flowers, plants, food, cards, and other acts of sympathy which will always be held dear. The many memories and words of admiration shared with us will be cherished.

Baldwin recognized for 50 years diabetes survival

Gainesville resident Claudene Baldwin was recognized at the Nov. 19 meeting of the Cooke County Diabetes Support Group for 50-plus years of living with diabetes. Mrs. Baldwin, who was diagnosed with diabetes at the age of 13, has lived with the disease for 51 years.

Gainesville Memorial Hospital staff member and support group facilitator Joan Walterscheid, RN, of Muenster, coordinated the recognition for Mrs. Baldwin.

Medals and certificates of achievement were presented by Eli Lilly and Company Pharmaceuticals and the Joslin Diabetes Center in Boston.

Mrs. Baldwin addressed the group in attendance, explaining that when she was diagnosed with diabetes, she was in a coma and almost died. "It's been kind of rough," Baldwin said, "but the Lord helped me through it all these years."

Walterscheid explained that Mrs. Baldwin has witnessed an amazing number of changes and improvements in diabetes management in the past 51 years.

"Mrs. Baldwin has lost most of her sight due to diabetes," Walterscheid said, "however, she lives independently with the help of her son, Dale." Mrs. Baldwin uses a voice-activated monitor to check her blood sugar and utilizes the hospital's Lifeline service, which provides assistance at the touch of a button in case of medical emergency.

"Try to take care of yourself," Mrs. Baldwin advised those in attendance. "It (diabetes) does a lot of damage if you don't. You can lose your limbs, your eyesight..."

The Cooke County

Diabetes Support Group provides education and support for individuals diagnosed with Type 1 and Type 2 diabetes. The group meets the third Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. at Gainesville Memorial Hospital.

The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 17 and will feature a program on "The Plate Method", as well as an opportunity for a glucose meter "swap", door prizes and special refreshments.

Call Joan Walterscheid at 759-2395 for information.

SH Machinators make history

The Sacred Heart Machinators rocketed to their best finish yet, winning the Founder's Award at the nationwide Boosting Engineering, Science, and Technology (BEST) robotics competition Saturday, Nov. 23. The Founder's Award is presented to the team for the most creative robot design with unique offensive and defensive capabilities.

The Machinators placed 12th in the Game Division, ranking in the top 3% of BEST robotics teams nationwide. More than 420 teams participate in Texas BEST each year, while only the top 60 advance to the national competition at Texas A&M University each November.

The Machinators qualified for round-robin finals against 15 opposing teams. Machinator Oliver McElroy was one of the Pacemaker's drivers during finals. "The competition was tough," remarked McElroy. "But we managed to beat 97% of participating robotics teams, so we're definitely pleased."

"The team will only become more successful with each year's participation. We learn more every year. Our success is also attributed to Darell Walterscheid for the use of his facilities and his time," said Angela Smith, sponsor.

This was the final year of BEST competition for seniors Chris Fuhrmann, Clint Fuhrmann, Patrick Knapp, Jonathan Krahl, Oliver McElroy, Joseph Skotnik, and Thomas Whitecotton. "We went out with a bang," said engineer Thomas Whitecotton. "It's the best way to go!"

The Machinators plan to pursue another winning season next year. "We've only improved over the past three years," said engineer Kevin Walterscheid. "The Founder's Award proves that as a small school, we know how to do more with less."

Sophomore Thomas Otto was the Machinators' youngest robot driver. "It was a lot of fun," said Otto. "It's a lot like a video game. As a driver, you have to know the game and the robot well enough to be able to respond to problems that arise." Otto plans to participate again next year.

The Machinators had a busy season, participating in three major events, including the World Space Congress in Houston. "This has been a great year for Sacred Heart and the Machinators," said Smith.

Muenster High School selected as Pathfinder School

According to Michael S. Kuhrt, State Coordinator of the Texas Pathfinder Collaborative (formerly the Texas Mentor School Network) Muenster High School has been selected as one of the Texas Pathfinder Schools for 2002-2003. There were 130 schools selected for an initial visit and the list of schools to be honored was narrowed to about 40 prior to the final selection. Muenster High School was recommended for this honor by Region XI Educational Service Center in Fort Worth for demonstration of upward trends in tested performance for all student populations; implementation of effective practices to raise learning expectations; and dedication to maintaining exemption rates below the state average.

The Texas Pathfinder Collaborative was established by the Commissioner of Education to identify and recognize schools with model education programs that are willing to share their expertise and effective practices with other schools. The goal of the program is to reach, inform, connect and support all educators as they work to achieve success for all students.

Muenster High School will be given an opportunity during a conference this spring to showcase the practices they implement to improve student success. They will also provide opportunities to assist other schools in developing programs to improve student success.

MHS National Honor Society to collect for social concerns

The National Honor Society from Muenster High School will be collecting for the area Social Concerns committee during the holidays. They will have a box in the High School office for donations. They will also have a box at the basketball games this weekend, and at all home games between now and Dec. 20. They are asking that everyone dig deep in their pockets this holiday season and help families that are not as fortunate as most of us. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact any NHS member of Muenster High School, or Mary Dangelmayr.

FCCLA takes educational field trip

On Nov. 15, the Muenster Chapter of FCCLA took an educational field trip. The purpose of the field trip was to educate students on career opportunities in the Family and Consumer Sciences field.

The organization took the students to the University of North Texas in Denton, where students were first taken to the Gateway Center, which is a student run restaurant. The student director gave tours to groups of 15. He explained the processes of working in a restaurant kitchen. They got to see the college students in action. The FCCLA members were then taken to Chilton Hall where the School of Merchandising and Hospitality Management is located. There, a few students from UNT gave a presentation explaining careers involving merchandising and hospitality management. Following the tours at UNT, the organization went to the Rainforest Cafe at the Grapevine Mills Mall. Seventy-five students attended the field trip. It was a great success.

The Annual Red River Shoot Out this weekend

The Annual Red River Shoot Out Basketball Tournament, co-sponsored by Sacred Heart and Muenster Public Schools, began this Thursday afternoon.

Schools involved include Muenster, Sacred Heart, Jacksboro, Paradise, Henrietta, Fort Worth Trinity Valley, Lighthouse Christian, Lindsay boys, and Muenster JV girls.

First games played Thursday at 4 p.m. were Muenster JV girls vs. Jacksboro in the Hornet gym and FW Trinity Valley vs. Henrietta in the Tiger den.

Sacred Heart girls played at 7 p.m. at Sacred Heart

Hornets lose one, win one on the court

The Muenster Hornets added marks to both the win and loss columns for the season with a victory over Forestburg and a close loss to Bellevue.

On Nov. 26, the Hornets traveled to Bellevue to compete with their six players. The score was close throughout the game with Muenster having a final lead going into the final quarter.

Russell Endres was high point maker in the contest with 19 points. Mitch Felderhoff added 8, with Tyler Walterscheid and Justin Wolf each getting 4. Josh Porter put in 3, as Cody Cory, Chisam Cain, Clint Miller and Sean Fuhrmann all contributed 2 points.

B 16 16 7 10 49

On Dec. 3, the Hornets trip to Forestburg was profitable as Muenster put over 80 points on the board to bring home an 81-48 victory. All twelve of the Muenster players contributed to the win, led by Endres and Felderhoff each getting 19. Walterscheid added 11, Wolf 8, Michael Endres 6, with Dustin Hiser, Miller, and Fuhrmann each scoring 4. Cain scored 3, with Cory, Josh Porter, and Brady Howell each getting a free throw.

against Paradise, while Muenster faced Lighthouse at 7 p.m. at Muenster. Boys action follows for both schools.

Games continue Friday in both gyms with all final games Saturday being played in the Hornet gym. Championship games begin at 5:30 p.m. for the girls, followed by boys action at 7:00 p.m.

Lindsay's Lady Knights and the Henrietta boys won last year's Shoot Out, with the Tigers of Sacred Heart and the W.F. Notre Dame girls taking 2nd, and the Tigerettes and Knights finishing in 3rd place.

Tigerettes add game to win column

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes got their 5th win of the season with an 80-33 victory over the Gainesville Lady Leopards.

"We were on fire and they were ice cold," Coach Jon

LeBrasseur commented. "This was the most impressive first half we have had in a long time. Everything we tossed up went in. It was an outstanding team effort."

Jayna Biffle had a career high scoring game with 28 points and also led the team with 10 rebounds. "Jayna was outstanding as she hit 13 of 15 shots and also had four blocks," LeBrasseur added.

Raney Bauer added 11 points, hitting three of five 3s, pulling down nine rebounds and grabbing five steals. Mary Jane Callahan put in 8 points, with Karen Gehrig, Jana Truebenbach, and Jacqueline Bauer each scoring 6. Stephanie Henscheid scored 5, Whitney Wimmer and Maggie Farrell 4 apiece, and Jennifer Hoedebeck 2.

"Our inside players were on top of their games and the guard play was as solid as it has been all season," the coach concluded.

Tigers win two

The Sacred Heart Tigers got two turkey wins over the holiday break. Victories were over Gainesville State School and Denton Liberty Christian.

Friday night, the Tigers hosted the Tornados, taking a 47-44 win. Sacred Heart took an early lead, then allowed the State School to close the gap in the second half in a close-to-the-finish contest.

Marty Farrell was the game's leading scorer, dropping in 14 points for the Tigers. Jack Biffle added 8, Jared Zimmerer 7, and 6 apiece by Clayton Truebenbach and Chris Fuhrmann. Scoring 2 points each were Clint Fuhrmann, Chris Hoedebeck, and Zach Barnhill. The Tigers shot 35% at the charity strip, while the Tornados hit 2 of 4.

SH 12 10 11 14 47
GS 8 8 12 16 44

Saturday, the Tigers took a high scoring final period to defeat Liberty 67-50. Marty Farrell had the hot hand, scoring 33 points, 20 in the first half.

The Tigers trailed by 6 after the first period of play, then closed the score to 1 point at half-time. Sacred Heart then went on to outshoot the Warriors 42-24 in the 2nd half for a big win.

Hoedebeck and Biffle each added 9 points to the Tiger win. Zimmerer put in 6, while Fuhrmann and Fuhrmann each hit 4, and Barnhill 2.

Liberty's strength came from the outside, where 10 3-pointers put 30 points on the scoreboard.

Lady Hornets grab two more wins

Muenster's Lady Hornets earned two more notches in the win column to improve their record to 9-0, with victories over Bellevue and Forestburg.

Last week Tuesday, Muenster squeezed by Bellevue in a come-from-behind 4th quarter. A slow third quarter put the Lady Hornets behind 28-33, but a 10-3 final period gave Muenster a 38-36 lead.

Brooke Endres and Lisa Felderhoff were leading scorers for Muenster with 14 and 13 points. Melinda Walterscheid added 6 and JoAnna Felderhoff 5.

M 6 16 6 10 38
B 7 13 13 3 36

On Tuesday this week, the Lady Hornets dominated the Lady 'Horns of Forestburg with a 76-15 beating.

Ten Muenster girls put points on the board as the Lady Hornets took a quick 43-3 half-time lead. Alisha Walterscheid and Robyn Hermes were high point makers with 15 and 14 points. Amanda Felderhoff added 9 points, with Endres and Tara Swirczynski each getting 8. M. Walterscheid put in 6 points. J. Felderhoff 5, Jami Gerstberger and L. Felderhoff 4 apiece, and Kami Klement 3.

Walterscheid gets first hole-in-one

Dustin Walterscheid, a Muenster High School senior, hit his first hole-in-one Sunday, Nov. 24 at Nocona Hills Golf Course. Walterscheid used a six iron from the #16 tee to achieve what hopefully will be the first of many hole-in-one shots.

The shot was witnessed by his father Kim Walterscheid, Glen Walterscheid, Bob Hermes, and Club Klement.

The 7th grade Lady Squires didn't have much of a battle Monday night, as the young Puppies had trouble finding the basket. Lauren Creed was the game's high scorer with 17 points. Chelsea Hermes added 8, Stephanie Neu 6, and 2 apiece from Hillary Hoelker, Emily Fuhrmann, and Madisen Burrows.

Lindsay 45 Slidell 15

The 8th grade girls had total control of their game with the Lady Pups. Brittany Anderle was the leading point maker with 15 points. Karissa Reiter added 7, Autumn Murrill added 6, Julie Hanson 5 and Heather Odell getting 4 points. Putting in 2 points were Amanda Hess, Kaleigh Hess, Amy Nortman, and Meredith Beizer.

Sacred Heart 18 St. Mary's 17

It was a low scoring hard fought battle Monday night, but the 7th grade Lady Cubs finished on top with a one point advantage. Samantha Wimmer was the high point maker of the contest with 12 points. Lauren Sepanski added 4, and Sunni Bayer 2.

Sacred Heart 8 St. Mary's 23

The 7th grade Cubs could only score one basket per period to fall to the Mustangs Monday. Ben Walterscheid dropped in 4 points, with Josh Yosten and Dylan Flusche each getting 2.

Sacred Heart 36 St. Mary's 42

The 8th grade Lady Cubs and the Lady Mustangs battled four quarters to tie the game 36-36. A scoreless overtime for Sacred Heart gave Saint Mary's the victory. Jessica Schilling led the Lady Cubs with 11 second half points. Kara Felderhoff added 9, Stephanie Krawietz 7, Taylor Torcollini 5, and 2 apiece from Charlotte Bartush and Karina Skotnik. Jaci Felderhoff and Megan Turbeville led Saint Mary's with 15 and 12 points.

"It's tough to play after five days off with no practice. A couple of girls played the entire game, having no breaks," noted Coach Amy Binder. "We came out and beat Collinsville in the third quarter, 8-4. Their enthusiasm and spirits were rejuvenated a bit. But again the 4th quarter, the fatigue set in." Jordan Ledbetter and Christina Eckart each scored 4 points. Cassie Hale added 3, and Meredith Hennigan 2.

The A-team Lady Stingers brought home a victory Monday night. "The girls are thriving on defense and creating many great looks on offense," noted Coach Amy Binder. "I was really impressed by the team efforts on both offense and defense. All ten of the players contributed to the win. They are very unselfish players, which will contribute to more wins in the future," the coach concluded. Allison Teafattler was the game's leading scorer with 11 points. Sandy Endres added 8, Laura Heers 6, 4 apiece from Lindsey Watson and Rebecca Grewing, Hillary Swirczynski 2 points, and Krystal Wolf 1.

themselves, but they strongly emphasized an ethical kill and safety. Each youngster was dressed in hunter orange, informed about making a clean, ethical kill, and assigned an adult guide.

Mark Fleitman had his first hunt and his first kill. I learned you have to be real quiet, be a good shot, and be very patient," he said. "I can't wait for next year."

Of the 20 boys who participated, 10 killed a deer and all were does. Lundberg said after the animals were processed, each of the 20 boys would get a portion of the venison.

Warden Butch Shoop said these hunts have been going on in various areas of Texas for years. For instance, Jacksboro has a long established program. "It seems like the whole city of Jacksboro gets involved," Shoop said. "About 3,000 young hunters have gone through that program."

The boys at Marysville were John Mosman, Levi Hermes, Jonathan Zimmerer, Jase and Jared Rauschuber, Dillon Hughes, Joey Smith, Sam Hellingier, Brock Davies, Jake Jones, Jeremy Barnes, Cletus and Abe Fuhrmann, Jeff Walterscheid, Chad and Ryan Henschel, Ty Daniel, Mark Fleitman, Conner Skinner, and Ricky Bell.

Lundberg singled out Susie McDonald for helping the event in several areas. "I really appreciate Susie and several area ranchers and land owners who generously used time and talent to help the boys learn."

A first class hunt like this would cost around $1,000 per person in other areas. However all supplies, food and lodging were donated. Game Warden Jim Lundberg would like to thank the following businesses and people for their contributions and generosity: Community Lumber, Dr. Bud Graham, Joe Wallace, Muenster State Bank, Wal-Mart, Tony's Feed & Seed, Kountry Korner, Neal Huchton with Phillips 66, Gehrig Hardware, Fisher's, H&W, Superette, Democrat Club, Tom Thumb, Scivally's, Tim Bullard of Prado, Sac-n-Sav, County Commissioner Virgil Hess, the Fish Creek Ranch for the facilities, and all those who volunteered their time.

"All of this wouldn't have happened without a willing land owner and generous merchants," Lundberg said. "We hope to make this an annual event and include more landowners next year."

has made a difference in her life. "Financially, this allowed me not to have to ask my parents for money," she said as the audience responded with a knowing laugh.

Leslie Freeman of Krum, who plans to pursue a career in the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, expressed appreciation for the Shay Ledbetter Scholarship he received and the connections he's established with NCTC faculty. He thanked Lisa Bellows, Co-Chair of the Science Department for taking a personal interest in him and helping him find work last summer with the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation and working on campus in the microbiology lab.

"I would also like to express my appreciation to the donors for their generous contributions to the NCTC Foundation Scholarship Program," said Ed Wright, Foundation President. "Your support allows many NCTC students to pursue their educational goals."

Linda Ritcherson, Treasurer of the NCTC Foundation, introduced scholarship recipients. Some of the many scholarships awarded included the following:

Kay Price of Muenster received the Norman & Evelyn Luke Scholarship, donated by the scholarship namesakes.

Recipients of the Waldine Bates Purcell Scholarship, donated by Paul Purcell, are Dean Champion of Gainesville, Russell Fleitman and Coy Kelly of Lindsay; Thomas Goin, Brittany Haverkamp and Kevin Hermes of Muenster, Amanda Judson of Newalla, Oklahoma, Holly Miller of Sanger and Michele Pearce of Valley View.

Recipient of the Henry & Mickey Spaeth Scholarship, donated by the namesakes, include Austin Krebs of Lindsay and Angela Lopez of Gainesville.

Billy Hilliard of Valley View received the Gilbert and Mary Endres Scholarship, donated by the namesakes.

Natalie Hess of Lindsay received Gainesville Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship.

Cooke County Masonic Lodges Scholarships, donated by the five Cooke County Masonic Lodges, were Lacey Cox and David Hutchison of Gainesville.

Recipients of the Muenster State Bank Scholarship are Colby Calabrese and Lacey Endres of Muenster.

Mitchell Endres of Muenster received the First National Bank of Saint Jo Scholarship.

Shanelle Spakes of Muenster received the Cooke County Arts Council Scholarship.

Farm & Ranch

2002 Thanksgiving dinner cost decrease

This Thanksgiving Americans had even more to be thankful for since the cost of the traditional holiday meal decreased from last year, according to the American Farm Bureau Federation.

In AFBF's annual informal survey of the price of basic items found on the Thanksgiving Day dinner table, the average cost of this year's feast for 10 is $34.56, a 48-cent drop from last year's survey average of $35.04. It marks only the second drop in average price since 1991.

The traditional dinner includes turkey, stuffing, cranberries, pumpkin pie and all the trimmings.

"America's farm and ranch families take great pride in providing the safest, most abundant and most affordable food supply in the world," said AFBF President Bob Stallman. "As we sit down this Thanksgiving to savor the bounty produced, it is appropriate to remember that it all starts on America's farmland. It is truly one of our greatest blessings."

The AFBF survey shopping list includes turkey, stuffing, sweet potatoes, rolls with butter, peas, cranberries, a relish tray including carrots and celery, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and beverages of coffee and milk, all in quantities sufficient to serve a family of 10.

The cost of a 16-pound turkey, at $14.84 or roughly 93 cents per pound, reflects a decrease of 2 cents per pound, or a 32-cent drop in the total average, from the 2001 average. This is the largest contributor to the overall drop in the cost of the Thanksgiving dinner.

"The drop in the price of turkey is probably due to grocery stores stocking up early on a plentiful supply of frozen turkeys," said AFBF Economist Mark Jenner. "Our volunteer shoppers are asked not to use prices that require promotional coupons or purchase deals, such as spend $50 and get a free turkey. The fact that our volunteer shoppers still find the average price of turkey below a dollar per pound is an amazing value by any standard."

According to Jenner, new data available from the Agriculture Department on last year's whole, frozen turkey indicate that two out of three turkeys were sold on a holiday special. Based on those advertised specials, USDA found that the prices paid for whole, frozen turkeys in November 2001 were half of what consumers paid for the same turkey during the other 11 months of the year. That means most consumers probably purchase a Thanksgiving turkey for considerably less than the AFBF survey's average.

"USDA data also reveals that American consumers last year bought 10 times the number of whole, frozen turkeys during November than any other month of the year," Jenner said.

A majority of other items on the AFBF survey also dropped in price. Items showing a decrease included sweet potatoes, $2.37 for three pounds; a 16-ounce package of frozen green peas, $1.29; a gallon of whole milk, $2.76; a half-pint carton of whipping cream, $1.23; a package of two nine-inch pie shells, $1.66; and a 12-ounce package of fresh cranberries, $1.68.

Items that increased in price this year were a 14-ounce package of cubed stuffing, $2.41; a 30-ounce can of pumpkin pie mix, $1.73; and a 12-ounce package of brown-and-serve rolls, $1.48. In addition, a combined group of miscellaneous items, including coffee and ingredients necessary to prepare the meal (onions, eggs, sugar, flour, evaporated milk and butter) increased to $2.57.

The price of a combined pound of celery and carrots, used for a relish tray, remained the same, 54 cents.

Although the survey reveals a decrease in price this year, Jenner said throughout the years, Americans have enjoyed very stable food costs.

"The average prices for the AFBF Thanksgiving Day dinner for the last 17 years have increased about two percent per year, which is well below annual increases in the cost of living for the same period," Jenner said. "Based on this year's average meal cost, Americans can enjoy a traditional holiday meal for just $3.50 per person. That's something worthy of thanks."

The decrease in this year's average price marks the fifth decrease since the survey's inception in 1986. Prices of past surveys include: 1986 - $28.74; 1987 - $24.51; 1988 - $26.61; 1989 - $24.70; 1990 - $28.85; 1991 - $25.95; 1992 - $26.39; 1993 - $27.49; 1994 - $28.40; 1995 - $29.64; 1996 - $31.66; 1997 - $31.75; 1998 - $33.09; 1999 - $33.83; 2000 - $32.37; 2001 - $35.04.

The AFBF annual Thanksgiving Meal Cost Survey is unscientific, but is a gauge of actual price trends across the nation. Bargain shoppers in all areas should be able to purchase individual menu items at prices comparable to the Farm Bureau survey averages. Supermarkets in some areas are increasingly offering ready-to-eat Thanksgiving meals for up to 10 people, with all the trimmings, for approximately $40.

A total of 135 volunteer shoppers from 30 states participated in this year's survey. Shoppers are asked to identify the best in-store price, excluding promotional coupons and special deals. Farm Bureau's survey menu has remained unchanged since 1986 to allow for consistent price comparisons.

Donnells honored with retirement dinner from Board of Clear Creek

J.C. and Mary Nell Donnell of Saint Jo were recently honored with a retirement dinner at Rohmer's in Muenster. The event celebrated Mr. Donnell's 47 years of service on the Clear Creek Watershed Authority Board of Directors.

Also attending were their daughter and her husband, Mary Ann and Basil Cunningham; grandsons, Terry Cunningham and Gary Cunningham; and Gary's wife, Shelly. Clear Creek Watershed Authority was authorized in 1959 by Texas Legislative Article #8280-234. Mr. Donnell's 28 years of service included the creation of the Authority.

Mr. Donnell recalled being appointed to help put the program together. He and J.M. Weinzapfel, another one of the Board's original directors, went to Dallas to meet with representatives and Soil Conservation Service personnel. At that meeting, he was told that, in order to get an Authority set up, they had to create a tax of .03 cents per $100 valuation and let it build an amount of $25,000 in the bank before they could start constructing any dams. Now the tax is down to .01181 cents per $100 valuation.

During the 47 years Mr. Donnell served on the Board, he never missed a meeting, said Al J. Testa, Board president, as he presented a certificate of appreciation to Mr. Donnell. Serving with Mr. Donnell as original directors were Mr. Weinzapfel, Muenster; Tom L. Muir, Sanger; Orin Fortenberry, Greenwood; J.W. McCall, Nocona; J.A. Stoval, Era; H.K. Armstrong, Sanger; Dr. C.H. Saunders, Denton; and H.D. Field, Saint Jo.

Current directors of the Authority are Mr. Testa, Sanger; Gail Saunders, Denton, secretary; Dale Hudspeth, Forestburg, treasurer; and members Prentice Preston, Sanger; Harroll Cain, Forestburg; Wallace English, Gainesville; and Byron Berry, Rosston. "In addition to attending meetings, J.C. has contacted landowners to donate easements, made maintenance inspections, used his diplomacy to work with disgruntled landowners, and used his business skills to make sure revenues took care of the expenditures," said Tommy Hays, Bowie, current maintenance manager and past Soil Conservation Service district conservationist.

Clear Creek Watershed Authority is located in Montague, Cooke, Denton, and Wise counties and consists of 179 square miles on 114,560 acres of drainage area. Eighty works of improvements, which include floodwater-retarding structures, grade stabilization structures, and vegetative areas, have been built and are being maintained. These works of improvement store 5,332 acre feet of water, which will eventually be sediment storage, and 51,968 acre feet of floodwater storage in case of high-intensity rains.

These works of improvement (dams) have saved local taxpayers thousands of dollars by reducing damage to crops, pastures, livestock, fences, roads, and bridges. In addition, they have provided a water supply for many years to come and many types of recreation, and they have beautified the country by covering the ugly scars of erosion with green grass and sky-blue water. This creek is now truly clear creek after most of the silt is caught by these works of improvement.

Cosponsors with Clear Creek Watershed Authority are Upper Elm—Red, Denton, and Wise Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Fort Worth Stock Show ticket office is open

The Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show ticket office opened Dec. 2. The expanded 23 day schedule introduced last year was a popular addition to the Show and the same format will follow this year with the schedule set for Jan. 11 through Feb. 2, 2003.

This year's Show has a fast-paced, exciting schedule planned with something for everyone. The oldest Stock Show in the nation will begin with the overwhelmingly popular Ranching Heritage Weekend, sponsored by Western Horseman, which includes the "Best of the West" Ranch Rodeo on Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m., followed by the well-respected Invitational Ranch Horse Show and Sale set for Sunday, Jan. 12 at 2:00 p.m. A visit to the Fort Worth Stock Show would not be complete without attending one of the 30 action-packed rodeo. The PRCA Rodeo runs Jan. 17 through Feb. 2 in the Will Rogers Coliseum. Tickets are $18 for Friday nights and all weekend performances, and $16 for Monday through Thursday nights and Monday through Friday matinees.

Stock Show visitors will enjoy viewing over 200 commercial exhibits featuring the latest in farm and ranch equipment, western wear, and many other exhibits of interest. This is all in addition to more than 20,000 head of livestock that will be on exhibit during the 23 day run of the Show.

Come be a part of the 107th edition of the Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show. For rodeo tickets call 817-877-2420 or click on www.fwssr.com.

TDA accepting nominations for Rural Heroism Award

Agriculture Commissioner Susan Combs announced recently that the Texas Department of Agriculture is now accepting nominations for TDA's 2002 Rural Heroism Award.

Candidates must have performed a heroic, lifesaving act within Texas during 2002. The heroic deed should be related to farming or ranching and occur in a rural area.

Nominations must be postmarked by Feb. 1, 2003 and mailed to Lola Lemmon, TDA Safety Coordinator, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711. For additional information on qualifications, contact Lemmon at (512) 475-1611.

Taking Credit...

The Federal Reserve released 2001 statistics on consumer credit that painfully illustrate why consumers have a difficult time saving for financial goals. Among the numbers...

- $8,000 — The average balance on a credit card
- 18.9 percent — the average credit-card interest rate
- 25 years, 7 months — the length of time it would take to pay off that $8,000, making minimum monthly payments at 18 percent
- 10 — the number of credit cards the average household has
- $65 billion — the amount of interest Americans paid out
- 10 percent — the portion of the "minimum monthly payment" that actually goes toward principal
