Kind actions earn Sicking KC Good Neighbor Award

By Janet Felderhoff

Each year, the Muenster Knights of Columbus mark Columbus Day by hosting an Award's Breakfast. The highlight of the event is revealing the recipient of their Good Neighbor Award.

On Sunday, Oct. 7, Grand Knight Adam Schniederjan made the announcement after the 8 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church. Bernice Sicking of Myra is this year's recipient. The honor is given each year to someone of another faith to encourage harmony among creeds. While making the announcement, Schniederjan noted that the award is presented to someone whose "pursuit of excellence is exemplified by his or her love of fellow men, whose generous contributions to the community are performed in a gentle, quiet manner, shunning all publicity."

Following Mass, the KCs, their families, the recipient and her family, Sacred Heart Pastor Fr. Ken Robinson, and others from the community gathered at the KC Hall for Nominations for possible appointees to the Cooke County Appraisal District Board were called for at the Monday, Oct. 8 meeting of the Cooke County Commissioners Court. Commissioner Virgil Hess nominated Bob Knauf, Commissioner Al Smith nominated Jim Myrick, and County Judge Bill Freeman nominated David Clifton. All three nominees are currently serving on the CCAD Board. Taxing entities receive votes according to their tax levy. To elect a member, 834 votes are required. The County will cast its votes later this month.

Commissioner Smith shared some tragic news from Precinct #3. "A store in Era called the Buzz caught fire and burned for seven hours and basically burned to the ground," said Smith. "It is a tragedy because we have a lot of elderly people and so on who use that as their source for breakfast and lunch. We all gather there periodically. It's (the building) been in Era for probably most of 100 years."

Commissioners approved a resolution supporting the renovation and restoration of the Cooke County Courthouse. Commissioner Hess noted it is a formality that is part of applying for another

Local KC Council receives top international award

Knights of Columbus Council 1459 of Muenster has earned the distinction of Star Council, one of the organization's top awards, for the 2006 - 07 fraternal year. The organization's headquarters, located in New Haven, Connecticut, made the announcement. The award recognizes overall excellence in the areas of membership recruitment and retention, promotion of the fraternal insurance program, and sponsorship of service-oriented activities. Retired District Deputy Boyd Burris at the Council meeting on Wednesday Oct. 3, presented this top award to Muenster KC past Grand Knight Darrell Herr and the membership.

In announcing the local winner of the Star Council Award, Carl A. Anderson, chief executive officer of the organization, said, "Please accept my sincere congratulations upon attaining this prestigious award. Your dedication to the Order is seen in the high standard of excellence you have achieved. At the same time, I encourage you to carry forward this enthusiasm to meet the challenges that will face the Knights of Columbus in the years ahead. May this award be a reminder and an inspiration to the members of your council to continue to promote the ideals of Columbianism for the good of the Church, your community, and to the Order."

"Receiving the Star Council

Award is quite an honor for us. We're extremely proud of this accomplishment," proclaimed Adam Schniederjan, head of the local Council here in Muenster.

The Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic lay organization. It provides members and their families with volunteer opportunities in service to the Church, their community, families, and young people. With more than 1.7 million members in over 13,000 councils around the world, the Knights of Columbus annually donate more than $143 million and 68 million hours of service to charitable causes. Germanfest finds new home

In an effort to accommodate growth and continuity of the Germanfest event, a committee has been formed to plan the move of the annual Germanfest from the Muenster City Park to a location of its own. A seven member board headed by Alvin Fuhrman has been meeting for many months to develop a plan under the umbrella of the Muenster Chamber of Commerce to enable Germanfest to have its own home independent of the City Park.

A 100 acre wooded parcel of land west of town bound by Highway 82 on the south and by Ash Street on the East has been identified and the owners have given the Germanfest Board an option to purchase the land. The board is in the process of coming to an agreement with the owners of the land. The Muenster Industrial Foundation and another unnamed donor have agreed to loan the funds to purchase the land. A vote was conducted earlier this year to gage the community response for the park. Chamber members voted for the Germanfest to have its own home.

The Board of Directors Alvin Fuhrman, Chas Bayer, Kirk Klement, Matt Sicking, Carolyn McPherson, Annette Walterscheid, and Kathryn Koch are completing the documentation to bring the Germanfest Park to a non-profit status.

A Denton based company is currently in the process of performing an engineering study and a site plan for the grounds, and due to the fact that some of the grounds are in a flood plane area, the company is also preparing an application to FEMA for permission to improve the flood plane area.

In an interview with Fuhrman, he said that the City Park is tied up for the weekend; parking is on Hwy. 82, Muenster streets, private parking lots, and anywhere else a person can find a spot, and much of the event is held on private property which may not always be available for Germanfest.

He went on to say that over $31,000 is spent on the rental of tents, portable restrooms, electricians, temporary fences, paging systems, seating, etc. Expansion of other Germanfest events would be possible with additional space such as the BBQ cook-off, the children's carnival, again which are held on private property, as well as the addition of new events during the Germanfest and at other times of the year.

Plans for the new Germanfest Park include the enlargement of vendor space, BBQ cook-off, and children's carnival; to provide a play area for visiting children, RV hookups, camping, and two entertainment stages.

Additional activities are planned for the park throughout the year. Also planned are concerts in the park, trade day sales, annual club meetings that need space, family reunions, etc., and they also want to ensure that the local groups that currently make most or all of their yearly income like the Jaycees, Kiwanis, Boy Scouts, school's etc. can also continue their support year after year and grow their fundraisers.

The committee will be researching grants and looking for donors in the near future. If you are interested in donating to the development of the park, please contact one of the Board members listed. Fuhrman says, "We are looking for donors who are concerned with keeping the Germanfest Park a place where their children and their children's children can come to enjoy activities for years to come."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Wow! What a day it was. Yes, we are talking about the second annual Community Wide Family Day in the Park. This occasion was even greater than the first, and far above the expectations of the Unity and Fellowship Committee of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, sponsors of the program.

To kick things off, Fr. Ken Robinson led the introduction and Rev. Gourley said the opening prayer and symbolic blessing of the food. A flood of people was ready to sample the food that everyone prepared with a variety of special offerings in a covered dish. The kids enjoyed hot dogs and the adults filled their plates with chicken, sausage, and ham, and all the bountiful food.

Ginny Schneider fried a case of fryers, The St. Anne's Society and CDA members helped serve the many delicious desserts. The KCs furnished their tables and the JCs brought in tables borrowed from the Sacred Heart Parish pavilion.

Three bounce houses were available for the kids and were patrolled by Nicole Bayer and the Sacred Heart SHY Group, and train rides were provided by Herbie Schmidtkofer.

Heart provided balloons for the kids. Fred and Elaine Koessler provided their famous and delicious kettle corn. MISD cheerleaders were there to provide snow cones, and wow what a hit they were!

Karaoke and music was a highlight for those wanting to expose their talent, led by the Phillip Flusche family. Patti Fuhrmann organized a volleyball tournament, and Tim Schneider and members of the Muenster Baptist Church were there with the game of washers. Tom Gressett drove his cart to transport people in need. A banner was hung to remind everyone that this was a Keep Muenster Beautiful litter free event!

Sincerely, Betty Flusche

breakfast and an awards ceremony.

In presenting the award to Sicking, Schniederjan told about some of the many ways that Sicking exemplifies a Good Neighbor. He remarked, "She is that person everyone wants for a neighbor. Volunteering her time has always been a way of life, even during those days when she worked helping manage the sewing factory. She has always been one to listen and try to help in the way most needed. Retirement allowed her to shift her vocation to full time in helping others, and being of service."

Schniederjan related that since the June floods, Bernice has spent many hours working with Cooke County's flood victims. He said that with her help, a disaster relief distribution center became a reality at the Outlet Mall.

Other volunteer work carried on by Sicking includes serving on the board for Cooke County Meals On Wheels where raising money to allow senior citizens to receive milk with their meals was a recent project she led. She also helps with the social outreach Tri-County Area Assistance for the Aging Effort. "She helps to organize activities for this program here in Cooke County including various dinners and holiday activities such as Thanksgiving dinner, celebrating the Fourth of July, Santa, or coloring eggs, and so on," said Schniederjan.

Bernice was involved and instrumental in helping to develop the Muenster Historical Society. This eventually led to the restoration of the home in Muenster donated by the Seyler family for use as the Muenster Museum. Bernice is a member of that organization and donates time working at the Museum and its fundraisers.

Cooking is a hobby of Bernice's. Schniederjan remarked, "By all accounts she is blessed with the talent of being a great cook. She uses her talents well by taking food to families when there is a death. You will find her cooking food for folks at the time when they are recovering from surgery or illness. Other times it may be just to cook a meal to make somebody have a brighter day."

Every Thanksgiving Bernice cooks a big turkey dinner for other people, some of whom have no family, are alone, cannot cook for themselves, or can't afford the food. Her family holds their celebration on the Sunday after Thanksgiving.

Bernice is a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. She is their treasurer and also chairs the Community Services Committee.

In Myra, Bernice serves as the secretary of the Myra Community Improvement Club, chairpersons for the Myra Community Holiday dinner, and for years has donated to and worked for the Myra Volunteer Fire Department's annual barbecue fundraiser.

The mother of nine children, grandmother of 31, and great-grandmother of 27, Bernice takes pleasure in helping any of them with anything that she can.

"We would all love to have the energy and faith that she has," Schniederjan concluded.

Oh My, Isn't she fine? Guess who is turning 89?

A&M Gleissner Hall dedication has local connections

Gleissner Hall at St. Mary's Catholic Center for students attending Texas A&M University was dedicated on Saturday, Sept. 22, honoring Monsignor John Baptist Gleissner, with local relatives attending the Dedication Ceremony.

Gleissner decided to move to the United States in 1888 to study at the seminary of Our Lady of the Angels in Niagara Falls, New York. After completing his work there, his superiors assigned him to N. A. Gallagher, Bishop of Galveston, who ordained him in his cathedral on July 10, 1889.

Gleissner was sent to St. Martinsville (now Tours) immediately after his ordination. At St. Martin's Parish he built a school, staffed by the Sisters of Divine Providence, as well as a new convent and a new church. Gallagher transferred him to Hearne in 1896, where he became pastor of St. Mary's Parish and its surrounding missions, about 15 in number.

Monsignor John Gleissner

Fr. Gleissner was sent from Hearne to St. Joseph's Parish in Bryan in 1904 to take over as pastor, a "temporary" assignment that lasted for nearly 50 years. He met students from Texas A&M University soon after his arrival and saw the need for campus support for Catholic Aggie students. He requested a place to say Mass for them on Sunday and the University offered him a classroom in the Chemistry Building. By 1926 Gleissner had so promoted his cause that the Knights of Columbus of Texas had built St. Mary's Chapel for the A&M students. He was eventually made a Dean, and, in 1931, a Monsignor.

Monsignor Gleissner was the first Catholic Chaplain for Texas A&M University and founded St. Mary's Church there. He also built St. Joseph's Church and founded St. Joseph's Hospital with the assistance of the Sisters of St. Francis. Monsignor Gleissner, a German immigrant, was born in Burgkunstadt, Bavaria in 1865 and died in Bryan, Texas in 1953.

Monsignor Gleissner was brother to Margaret Gleissner O'Connor and uncle to Muenster residents (deceased) Mary O'Connor Sicking (Mrs Will); and John O'Connor; with children Johnny, Alfred, Raymond, Emmett, Lawrence Sicking, Bernadette Mosman, and Andy O'Connor; and their families. Local Gleissner family members attending the dedication ceremony include Cliff and Cathy Sicking of Muenster, Mary Krahl Sicking of Gainesville, Ryan Sicking of Needville, Lois Sicking of Upland, California, and family friend Fr. Ramsey of Needville.

The keynote speaker at the Gleissner Hall Dedication Ceremony was noted Catholic author and theologian George Weigel. As advisor to Pope John Paul II, he authored "Witness To Hope," a biography of Pope John Paul II written with his subject's encouragement and assistance. Mr. Weigel is a Senior Fellow of the Ethics and Public Policy Center, a Roman Catholic theologian, and one of America's leading commentators on issues of religion and public life. In his Keynote Speech, Mr. Weigel spoke of the importance of youth developing a strong foundation of Catholic faith that is personal and practical with meaning for their life today for a continued strong future of the Catholic Church.

Monsignor Gleissner had a life legacy of mentoring Catholic youth. Speaking for the Gleissner family at the dedication ceremony, Lois Sicking stated, "Monsignor Gleissner served as a great role model of a life well lived in Catholic faith. He was an excellent example of servant leadership to his family and his faith community. He mentored youth to achieve their full potential and lead the best Catholic life possible. He taught us to have respect for every individual regardless of their personal circumstance. He taught us to provide opportunities to youth to fully explore their skills and personal talents. He taught us to live a life of great personal integrity, with dedication to excellence, and with hope for a better future for all by following our Catholic faith."

Current Gleissner family attending Texas A&M University are Katie Huchton, daughter of Julie and Terry Huchton of The Woodlands, and Jonathan Arendt, son of Virginia and Hank Ardent of Dallas. Recent graduates of Texas A&M include Ryan Sicking of Needville, and Cody and Brent Sicking of Saginaw.

Land adjacent to the current Gleissner Hall has been purchased for a future high-rise dorm for Catholic Aggies, for a new Gleissner Hall housing several hundred Aggie Catholic students.

Spotlight on 3 Lindsay 4-H Club Managers

Lindsay 4-H is proud to have the support and benefit of three club managers this year. Between the three of them, they have over 35 years experience participating in 4-H events, either as a 4-H member or as a volunteer.

Donna Reed and Donna Zimmerer have been club managers for the past 13 years, adding Marsha Dill on board this year.

Donna Reed is an alumni in the Lindsay 4-H Club having participated in her first State Roundup in her freshman year of high school. When her oldest daughter Randi began to participate in 4-H, Donna was lured back to it too. She continues her support as her daughter Kelli is involved with the many activities and projects that 4-H provides. Donna says, "4-H gives everyone involved an opportunity to shine." She enjoys working with the youth the very most and believes that experience through interaction is the best learning tool available.

Her favorite projects are the educational presentations which teach 4-Hers to speak in front of an audience, giving them a head start in high school and college for public speaking.

Donna wishes she could even do more and feels she could let 4-H consume every day if given the chance. There are so many opportunities; the hardest part is to choose which ones to participate in. "4-H is a part of our lives. Through the many projects, experiences, leadership roles, and community service, it teaches our youth to become responsible and productive citizens in our community," says Donna Reed when asked how she felt 4-H impacted our youth.

Donna Zimmerer is also a 13 year veteran as a 4-H Club manager/project leader. Although she did not participate in 4-H as a member she became involved when her first child wanted to participate in shooting sports when he was in the third grade. Now that her sons Jeffrey and Johnathan are out of school, she still keeps very busy during her son Benjamin's participation. She says that 4-H has provided her family with many experiences that have given them an opportunity to work and play together and created the best years of her life. Donna enjoys learning with and from the children each time she participates in a project or activity; there is always something new and interesting.

Although not a big paper-work fan, Donna does say her favorite project is the sport fishing and being there when someone hooks a big one! When asked if she felt 4-H impacted our youth Donna said, "The impact on our youth is amazing. It provides the opportunities and experiences that will teach the youth communication and leadership skills. It gives them opportunities to seek out projects that they are interested in learning about, and then as they grow they begin using those skills to teach others. Each and every 4-H project involves community service and encourages them to work toward bettering their communities. The leaders of tomorrow are the 4-Hers of today."

"4-H means Community Service, Leadership, and a great way to raise children through a well rounded environment," says Marsha Dill, rounding out Lindsay's trio of club managers. Marsha, who says she loved 4-H in high school, renewed her association with 4-H with her children's participation, and this is her first year as a club manager. Last year, Marsha started off as a project leader in Share The Fun, which is her favorite project, and led her group to win the District competition. The fact that 4-H can be a family affair is the thing she enjoys most about it and would give even more time to 4-H if she could.

Trust Fund dinner set for this Sunday

On Sunday, Oct. 14, the Sacred Heart Teachers Sustentation Fund, also known as the Sacred Heart Trust Fund, will host their Annual Dinner at the Sacred Heart Community Center. The doors will open immediately after the 10:30 Mass, and all are invited for hors d'oeuvres, a catered dinner, an annual report on the activities of the Trust Fund, and finally an entertaining, motivational presentation.

The cost of the luncheon is $25, and tickets can be purchased at the door.

The Trust Fund was started 31 years ago as a separate, tax-free charitable organization, with its sole purpose to supplement the salaries of the teachers at Sacred Heart Catholic School, and thus lighten the burden of the parents who are paying for the education of their children at Sacred Heart School.

The Trustees of the Trust Fund are Father Ken Robinson, pastor of Sacred Heart Parish; Julian Walterscheid; Chuck Bartush, Jr.; Gary Endres; and Robert Hartman.

Drew Springer, Sr. and Drew Springer, Jr. of Cox and Springer will present a commentary on the investments of the Trust Fund for the past year, along with their opinion of what to expect from investment markets for the upcoming year.

Dale Schilling, a 1980 graduate of Sacred Heart School, who is presently a teacher/coach at Sacred Heart School, and was recently honored as the TAPPS Coach of the Year, will make the final presentation. Dale will present his own "Sacred Heart Story," sharing with everyone how his journey with Sacred Heart through his school days, graduation in 1980, and his coaching/teaching at Sacred Heart now, were all benefited by his education at Sacred Heart Catholic School that the Trust Fund helped to make possible.

Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy a great meal and great fellowship.

"Would you kill your grandmother?" is October 21 topic

Father Michael Olson, Vicar General of the Catholic Diocese of Fort Worth, will present a program on "end of life" issues on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 6:30 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. According to Father Olson, he will discuss "the theological distinction between ordinary and extraordinary means and its difference from assisted suicide and euthanasia."

In addition, copies of "A Catholic Guide to End-of-Life Decisions" will be available. This guide addresses many issues including an alternative approach to a "living will." Father Olson will present a brief overview of the Church's teaching to guide us when we face the death of a family member or our own death. This is a timely topic during this "Respect Life" month of October.

The presentation is another of the "Growing In Your Faith Series" sponsored by the Spiritual Growth Committee at Sacred Heart Church. Everyone is welcome!

For more information, call Barbara Rohmer at 759-2511, Ext. 16.

All Saints Mass planned for children

The saints will be "marching" at Sacred Heart Church on Wednesday, Oct. 31 at 5 p.m. for a special celebration of the All Saints' Day Vigil Mass. Children pre-K through 6th grade are invited to come to Mass dressed as their favorite saint.

The saints are asked to gather in the west vestibule of church at 4:40. They will process in with Father Ken and sit together during Mass. All saints in costume will receive a yummy goodie bag after Mass.

The costumes can be really simple. If you've got a big t-shirt, a sash or belt, and a pair of sandals, you've got all you need to be an apostle or first century saint. An Indian costume is all you'd need to be St. Kateri Tekawitha. A pair of wings converts your child into St. Michael the Archangel or a guardian angel. Got some fun girly dresses? You could be any number of queen saints. A bathrobe and a staff makes a fine Moses outfit. Use your imagination!

If you have any questions or need help or ideas, call Jenny White at 759-2571. This is a really fun, special way to honor our brothers and sisters in Christ who have gone before us.

MISD Student Council to Celebrate Red Ribbon Week

Red Ribbon Week is a national event that focuses on decreasing the use of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs. It began in 1985, when Enrique Camarena, an officer, was killed while attempting to stop drug smuggling.

Students show their support by wearing a red bracelet all week. During the week of Oct. 22-26, Muenster Public School is participating in the following events:

- Monday - Red, White, and Blue Day - "We stand for a Drug Free Land."
- Tuesday - Bear Day (bring your teddy bear to school) - "Drugs are unBEARable."
- Wednesday - Tie Day - "Tie One on Against Drugs."
- Thursday - Sock Day - "Sock it to Drugs."
- Friday - Boot Day - "Boot it to Drugs."

On Tuesday, Oct. 23, there is a special event taking place on the Muenster Public School football field for Breast Cancer Awareness. All who want to participate in making a human Breast Cancer Ribbon, are welcome to attend. Meet at 7:30 a.m. to take a picture. Wear as much pink as you own.

Four named AP Scholars

Four students at Muenster High School earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program® (AP®) Exams.

These four students qualified for the AP Scholar Award by completing three or more AP Examinations, with grades of 3 or higher. The AP Scholars are Brad Endres, son of Jim and Shirley Endres, who is attending the University of Texas at Austin, Megan Felderhoff, daughter of David and Barbie, who is attending Texas Women's University in Denton, Micah Flusche, son of Neal and Susan Flusche, and Evan Koesler, son of Fred and Elaine Koesler. Both Micah and Evan are attending Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Students took AP Exams in May 2007 after completing challenging college-level courses at MHS. Courses and exams offered at MHS are junior level AP English Language and Composition, senior level AP English Literature and Composition, both taught by Mrs. Martha Koesler, senior level AP Calculus taught by Mrs. Danna Hess, and junior/senior level AP Biology taught by Mrs. Molly Sicking, and junior/senior level AP US History taught by Mrs. Becky Felderhoff. AP Coordinator is Mrs. Kristi Schneider.

The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on a student's performance on AP exams.

The College Board's Advanced Placement Program offers students the opportunity to take challenging college-level courses while still in high school, and to receive college credit, advanced placement, or both for successful performance on the AP Exams. About 18% of the more than 1.4 million high school students in more than 16,000 secondary schools worldwide who took AP Exams performed at a sufficiently high level to merit the recognition of AP Scholar.

S.H. Machinators ready for Mall Day

This Saturday, Oct. 13, the Sacred Heart Robotics Team will be traveling to the Midway Mall in Sherman, for Mall Day. Every year, Mall Day is held for the robotics teams in the area.

At Mall Day, every robotics team is required to turn in the Engineering Notebook, which the Machinators have been working on diligently since Day One. Each school also brings its robot to the mall to test it against the robots of other schools and to see what kind of competition it is up against. Mistakes made at Mall Day will help the Sacred Heart Robotics Team to see what aspects of the competition it needs to work on before the day of competition. This Game Day will be held on Saturday, Oct. 20, at Gunter High School.

but the drive ended when Yosten covered a loose ball on the 38. Yosten followed with a 37 yard run, but the Patriots broke their scoreless drought when an intercepted ball was returned 70 yards. The PAT pass was good for a 36-8 score with 4:15 on the clock.

With blocking from the kicking team, Spruill tiptoed down the field 82 yards for a Tiger touchdown. Hartman booted the extra point for a 43-8 Sacred Heart lead with 4 minutes still remaining on the clock.

The Tiger kick buried the Patriots on their 2 yard line. Sacred Heart added another lucky 6 points when Stephen Davis intercepted the ball and returned it 7 yards. Hartman added the extra point to wrap up the Tiger victory before the 1st half ended.

A 63 yard kick return by San Jacinto stalled as the Tiger defense led by Davis, Tyler Rohmer, John Kravietz, and Kyle Knabe allowed only a 5 yard gain. Kirk Felderhoff ran three plays before the 1st half finally ended.

A fast ticking clock and the JV Tiger defense kept the 2nd half scoreless. San Jacinto tried to mount a drive, but it ended inside the 10 when Garrett Berend intercepted a pass.

Runs by Matt Hesse and Felderhoff worked on the clock. Amarillo wasted any chance for more points when a fumbled ball was covered by Seth Turczynski. The Tigers held onto the football to run out the clock. Thankfully, the game ended.

round of grant money. It is hoped to use grant money for restoration of the Courthouse interior.

Cooke County Library Director Jennifer Johnson Spence requested approval to apply for the Lois Lenski Covey Foundation Grant. The grant is in honor of an author. She said she would use the money to replace books.

Cooke County 4-H Council officers and some members attended the meeting. A proclamation was read honoring Texas 4-H Week in Cooke County. After the meeting, the 4-H members and leaders hosted a brunch for Commissioners Court.

Judge Freeman explained that House Bill 621, which was passed during the last Legislative session, was only intended for Midland County, but passed for all Texas counties. He said that it deals with personal property in transit being tax exempt. It is anticipated that some might store property in a warehouse and claim that it is in transit to avoid paying taxes on it.

Judge Freeman explained that they can deal with the loophole by holding a hearing to exempt Cooke County from Texas HB 621. He said the Bill could have a tremendous affect on Cooke County, and he expects to see other entities in the County taking action to be exempt from the Bill also.

Commissioners voted unanimously to advertise for a public hearing concerning HB 621.

Bids for Precinct #2 surplus equipment that were opened at the Sept. 24 meeting were awarded. High bids were accepted as follows: 1981 GMC dump truck to Kupper, $1505; Ford tractor to Kupper $1100; terrain boom to Kupper $1400; homemade water tank to Kirkpatrick $96; six inch water pump to Kirkpatrick $101; Massey Ferguson 245 tractor to Kirkpatrick $3256; trailer with pickup bed and spray rig to L. Kelly $105; 2000 oil tank to Kirkpatrick $156; fuel trailer Kirkpatrick $211; 500 gallon water trailer Kirkpatrick $156; 4.5 x 16 ft. steel pipe Kirkpatrick $156; 30 pieces guardrail Kupper $225; two Diesel motors Eric Hess $109 each; two inch water pump Kirkpatrick $17.50; 95 Chevy pickup

DeYoung $475.

At the request of Commissioner Smith, all bids were rejected on miscellaneous beam and pipe. He plans to build some bridges on low water crossings and felt that he could use it for that purpose and save the expense of buying new beams and pipe for the job. It was voted to reject the bids as requested and to transfer the beams and pipe to Precinct #3 for its bridge program. Money will be transferred from Precinct #3 to Precinct #2 to cover the cost.

In other business, Commissioners Court:

- Appointed Karen Wade to Place 5 on the Cooke County Child Welfare Board.
- Approved renewal of Law Enforcement Professional Liability Insurance through Texas Association of Counties Risk Management Pool.
- Renewed maintenance contract with ESRI for the 911 addressing system software.
- Approved $500 donation from Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. to Cooke County EMS.
- Approved final plat for the re-subdivision of Lake Kiowa Lots 486-487 located at 619 Kiowa Drive East in Precinct #2. Will create one lot from two, allowing the owner to pay only dues on one property rather than two.
- Accepted donation from Jim Kitchens on behalf of Lake Point Estates in the amount of $32,000 to assist with chip and seal of Bloomfield Road located in Precinct #2.
- Approved request by the City of Callisburg, at its expense, to install a two inch sleeve to house a 3/4 inch water line by way of a road bore at 1309 CR 109.
- Approved request by Woodbine Water Supply, at its expense, to install a four inch fresh water line along the easement on CR 281, approximately 1,000 feet in length.
- Approved request by Cimmarron Gathering, LP, at its expense, to install a 12 inch steel casing for the purpose of transferring gas across CR343, approximately 1244 feet southeast of the intersection of CR 324, by use of a road bore.
- Held an executive session regarding security devices, but took no action.

Pet blessing honors St. Francis of Assisi

New products make controlling prickly pear and cholla cactus a paying venture, as long as planned for on a long-term basis, a Texas Cooperative Extension specialist said.

J.F. Cadenhead, Extension range specialist from Vernon, spoke recently with producers about the second year of cactus control on a demonstration plot of rangeland southwest of Canyon. "We sprayed this in 2005 in the fall, and we see more work from the chemical as the years go by," Cadenhead said.

The plot is an aerial test of the new Dow chemical called Surmount, which is a mixture of Tordon 22K - the standard herbicide recommended for cactus control - and a product called Vista, which was recently labeled for rangeland use, he said.

The test also looked at a variety of surfactants to see if any of them would provide equal or better effects than the standard diesel oil-in-water carrier traditionally used in cactus spraying, Cadenhead said. Surfactants are soap-like agents used with herbicide applications to assist in spreading the herbicide droplets on the target plant for better coverage, penetration, and uptake by the leaf.

Compared to the standard surfactant, a methylated seed oil with an organosilicone additive was also tested. This particular additive has 20 times the spreading power according to research, he said. The treatments included applications of four-pints per acre versus three-pint per acre rates of Surmount application with: crop oil concentrate - about eight ounces per acre; diesel-in-water emulsion - 1-5 ratio; and non-ionic surfactant - two ounces per acre.

Using the four-pint rate per acre of Surmount, the results were: - The treatment including diesel showed a 44% kill of all prickly pear. Another 50% had more than half of the plant pads dead.

- The treatment including the crop oil concentrate had a 60% kill, with another 37% showing more than half top kill.

- The treatment including the non-ionic surfactant had a 46% total kill, with an additional 39% more than half top kill.

Also included as a check was a test of the standard recommended rate of Tordon 22K at two pints per acre rate.

A final test included was a rate of three-pints-per-acre rate of Surmount with three-ounces-per-acre rate of the methylated seed oil. It showed 47% kill, with other 44% having more than half top kill.

The highest degree of root kill on prickly pear was achieved with the crop oil concentrate, rather than the standard diesel-in-water emulsion. In this study, the

FARM & RANCH Interstate meat shipping becomes political football

Whether or not state-inspected meat plants are able to ship across state lines has been a hot topic of debate recently. Provisions included in the House Farm Bill would allow state-inspected meat to be shipped to other states. Partially due to increased media scrutiny surrounding a recent ground beef recall, some Senators appear poised to strike that provision when they consider the Farm Bill.

Currently, a stand-alone bill in the Senate, the New Markets for State-Inspected Meat and Poultry Act of 2007 (S. 1150) would overturn an outdated provision which prevents interstate shipment of state-inspected meat. The measure is being championed by Senator Orrin Hatch (R-Utah).

Federal law requires USDA to inspect all meat products. In the 1960s Congress created state inspection programs that are mandated to be "at least equal to" the federal inspection program. Perishable products - including milk and other dairy items, fruit, vegetables, and fish - are freely shipped across state lines after state inspection. But standard meat products, like poultry, beef, and pork, are prohibited from interstate commerce, despite decades of meeting or surpassing the federal inspection standards. This legislation would remove that prohibition.

"State inspection programs are proven to be as thorough as federal programs, yet state-inspected meat can't be shipped even from Utah to Colorado," says Hatch. "We need to update this unnecessary, unjust ban that puts our small businesses at such a disadvantage."

NCBA policy supports the legislation as a way for state-regulated businesses to compete in interstate commerce and sees it as a great opportunity for cattle producers and small local businesses to market branded beef products. "We see this as an opportunity to foster entrepreneurship and add new competition in the processing sector," says Jay Truitt, NCBA's vice president of Government Affairs. "In addition, this would create more access for consumers to get the kinds of meat products they want."

Texas milk production shows gains last year

Milk producers in the Lone Star State are gaining ground on last year's production numbers, according to the latest numbers from the National Agricultural Statistics Service.

Texas milk production totaled 581 million pounds during August, up 4% from last year's production. July 2007 production totaled 599 million pounds. The number of milk cows during August averaged 348,000 head, up 11,000 head from last year and the same as the July 2007 number. Production per cow averaged 1,670 pounds during August, 15 pounds higher than last year.

Milk production in the 23 states participating in the monthly survey totaled 14.3 billion pounds, up 4% from production in these same states in August 2006. July revised production, at 14.5 billion pounds, was up 4% from July 2006.

Production per cow during August averaged 1,721 pounds, 45 pounds above a year ago. The average number of milk cows in the 23 states was 8.33 million head, 72,000 head more than last year and 11,000 head more than July 2007.

Sorghum set for record breaking year

Sorghum producers could see one of the highest production years ever if crop forecasts pan out across the United States.

USDA is predicting a 495 million bushel sorghum crop this year, up 78% from 2006 totals, with yields averaging 73.9 bushels per acre nationally.

Texas, the second largest sorghum producing state, expects a yield of 69 bushels per acre, up 21 bushels from last year due to more favorable growing conditions.

Texas Farm Bureau holds groundbreaking ceremony

The Texas Farm Bureau will hold a groundbreaking ceremony for construction of a new dual-purpose facility on Wednesday, Sept. 26 at its Waco headquarters.

The new Texas Farm Bureau Conference Center will ensure continuity of operations in the event of a disaster and meet some pressing needs for education space for the entire organization.

Constructed of reinforced concrete walls and stand-alone operation of power, cooling, and battery backup equipment, the facility will serve as a base in the event of a major disaster. It also will have a state-of-the-art data center and disaster recovery space.

TDA market recap

The Texas Department of Agriculture market recap for the week ending Oct. 6 shows that the average cash feeder cattle price continues to decline seasonally with added concerns about how much wheat pasture will be available for grazing this year. However, trends at local auction markets were uneven, ranging from $7 per hundredweight lower to $5 higher depending on the location and condition of cattle being offered.

Cash fed cattle prices were sharply lower as declining beef values resulted in lower packer bids.

Corn prices posted their biggest weekly decline since the end of June as harvest progressed well with good yields. Wheat prices backed off from the record highs posted a week earlier, and cash cotton prices were also lower as harvest gets underway in many areas.

As for futures markets, cattle futures declined under pressure from lower cash markets. Cotton, corn, and wheat futures prices also closed the week lower. Crop progress and condition information was not available in time for this week's recap.

Rural residents now spend 5.4% of their income on gasoline, spending an average

$2,683 on gas each year, when gas is $3 per gallon.

Capsaicin is the oil in hot peppers that causes the burn. To ease the eating pain, try buttered bread or ice cream. It takes around 20 minutes to cool the heat. A grease-cutting dish soap helps wash the oil off of hands, but if you get it in your eyes, there is no help.

EPA releases SPCC rule for farms and ranches

The EPA released recently its proposed rule on Spill Prevention, Control and Countermeasure (SPCC) for ag operations. The program regulates large fuel tanks in an effort to prevent spills on farms or ranches.

This rule applies to operations that store, transfer, use, or consume oil or oil products if the operation's above-ground capacity is greater than 1,320 gallons. If storage capacity is 10,000 gallons or more, a Facility Response Plan is required and must be certified by a Professional Engineer.

NCBA is working within an agriculture coalition which includes organizations representing farmers, ranchers, farmer cooperatives, livestock operations, and related agribusinesses to address the impacts of this rule on ag operations. Public comments on the proposal will be accepted for 60 days following publication in the Federal Register, which is expected soon.
