Heavy rains erode roadways and fields in Muenster area

"Fling" encounters

of the animal kind

By Janet Felderhoff
Rains drenched northern Cooke County through the afternoon and night on Wednesday, April 29. By late afternoon, creeks were overflowing, many streets and roads covered with water were closed, and the rain continued to fall off and on through the night.

Rainfall as high as 13.5 inches was reported. Some areas in northwestern Cooke County averaged 11.5 to 12 inches of rainfall.

The rushing water pushed its way through pastures and fields taking down fences as it went. Some likened the damage to that of the flood of 1981.

In Cooke County, Precinct #4 bore the brunt of the deluge. "Every road has

A big tin horn was washed down the creek on CR 460 near Marysville. This road is not yet open. Washed out tin horns were also the cause for closing CR 411 and CR 459. Both are now open.

Klement said that all tin horns are either part to fully plugged with debris.

Precinct #4 crews worked after hours and on Saturday to make the roads as passable as possible. "I'm proud of them," praised Klement. We're working to get the roads repaired as quickly as Mother Nature will allow." He expressed appreciation for the patience shown by residents who travel the damaged roads.

Muenster fared better. Only two streets were closed due to high waters. City Administrator Stan Endres said that Sixth Street by Weinzapfel Lake was closed for two days until the Lake's overflow diminished enough to allow safe passage. Cherry Lane was barricaded for a short time due to rushing water in that area.

Endres noted that the heavy rain caused some potholes to wash out more and the culvert on Ninth Street washed out. Muenster Lake is as full as it has ever been, he observed.

Muenster Volunteer Fire Department went out on two water rescue calls. The first was a car rescue on CR 459 northeast of Saint Jo. Muenster VFD Chief Herbie Knabe said that the second call came around 6 p.m. to help three people get out of their home on CR 459. Muenster Police Officer James Elliott brought the City's boat to the scene, but it was not needed.

Another type of rescue was needed instead. One of their home of the scene, but it was not needed.

Another type of rescue was needed instead. One of the fire trucks mired down in the mud to the bumpers. It was stuck until about 10 p.m. Precinct #4 came to the rescue with a trae loader.

MMH Board honors Dr. Knight

Dr. Walter Knight attended the Muenster Memorial rial Hospital District. 2009."

Administrator Lynn Heller commented on Dr. Knight's input at meetings, "I've enjoyed the discussion and the debate. It's very healthy. A good board has got to be like that." Danny Walterscheid noted that Dr. Knight always knew the right questions to ask.

Klement told Knight that he was very impressed with the things that he's done and what he taught them.

Board Secretary John Aytes remarked, "Doc, you saw that we needed help and you came and you gave and we appreciate it."

Dr. Knight noted, "I think you all are well on your way in terms of stabilization here. That's really the thing that I saw change during the time that I was on the Board is that things stabilized and the plan is working out."

A preliminary report from the Cooke County Appraisal District indicates that an additional $188,000 in revenue might be expected from the wind turbines. According to Heller, an unknown is the decrease that may come from oil and gas.

Dr. Steve Jones has been certified by the State as an MRO and is now able to give employment physicals. A restroom will have to be redone to take urine samples in a controlled environment before he can begin offering the TxDOT physicals.

Heller reported that during an Executive Committee meeting there was discussion on the Clinic building

Muenster VFD offers public viewing of Shattered Dreams program, May 12

Muenster Volunte

Muenster Volunteer Fire Department spent a great deal of time planning and producing Shattered Dreams, a program aimed at making teens aware of the life changing consequences that drinking and driving can create. A film of the entire program has been completed and the public is invited and encouraged to view it.

On Tuesday, May 12, the video will be shown in the Sacred Heart Community Center at 8 p.m.

The video stars Shattered Dream participants including Muenster VFD, Muenster Memorial Hospital staff, Cooke County EMS, Muenster Police Dept., DPS troopers, CareFlite, Fr. Ken, McCoy Funeral Home, Jadi

Germanfest, Inc. seeks support for new permanent grounds

Germanfest, Inc.

By Janet Felderhoff and Scott Wood

The idea of creating permanent grounds for Germanfest gains traction and continues to move forward.

What's needed? - More local support in the form of donations.

At a meeting held recently to update the public on Germanfest, Inc.'s progress, Board Chairman Alvin Fuhrman noted that they could not accomplish the project without community support. "We need a show of support to continue," he remarked. "We need $113,000 for this to become a reality."

It was noted that there are potential donors who want to see local support before actually making a donation.

Fuhrman himself is not waiting for others to get on board. He has pledged to donate $1 million to build the main building on the site, if it becomes a reality.

The group has an option to purchase 92.6 acres of land from Bayer Brothers for $5,000 an acre ($463,000). The Muenster Industrial Board would purchase 20 of those acres on the west side of the proposed Germanfest Park area for $350,000. The land would be used as an Industrial Park. That leaves $113,000 as the remaining amount required to purchase the property.

The total cost of the project is estimated at $3 million, with a large portion of the total expected to come from grants. The grants cannot be applied for until Germanfest, Inc. owns the ground free and clear of any debt. In fact, the group plans for the new Germanfest home to be debt free once it is completed.

Reasons listed by Germanfest, Inc. to move the Germanfest from its present location in the Muenster Park included:
 It is outgrowing the City Park;
 Many vendors are turned down due to lack of space (35 vendors turned away this year);
 More than 30,000 visitors attend Germanfest each year and the only parking is along Hwy, 82 and on the streets of Muenster. Germanfest receives no revenue from the thousands of cars parked on the streets and in private praking lots;
 Carnival rides and Barbecue Cook-Off are held on private property with no guarantee of how long that property will be available;
 The City Park is tied up for two weeks as it is prepared for Germanfest and for clean-up afterwards. The City has gotten complaints about not being able to use the Park for that time;
 It takes $33,000 annually to prepare the Park for the Germanfest and this money is not recouped. It is for tents, temporary fencing, and labor for preparing the Park.
 Fuhrman told those present that each year more than $1 million is spent in Muenster over Germanfest weekend and this money is re-spent about seven times in the community.

Some local organizations earn their annual budgets during Germanfest. Those organizations include Muenster KCs, Sacred Heart Alumni & Supporters, Jaycees, Muenster Library, Gainesville and Muenster Kiwanis.

Funds earned based on the 2008 German-fest were listed as: City of Muenster 5% of Options are being considered to expand the space, which would include a hydrotherapy unit. Heller said that great success is being seen in some patients where hydrotherapy is available.

The Board authorized Administrator Heller to explore different financing options and to get the project to the bid stage.

After an executive session, the Board authorized Administrator Heller to negotiate the price of the land adjoining the Hospital grounds' west boundary with Juanita Bright, and authorized the Executive Committee to affirm the final price in order to expedite the finalization of the purchase.

Educators seek knowledge on harnessing the wind

Educators instructed to teach about wind energy

By Janet Felderhoff
Muenster ISD's new cafetorium buzzed with excitement Saturday, May 2 as 80 teachers from around the area gathered to learn about wind energy. They were guests of NextBra Energy Resources, the largest generator of wind and solar energy in North America.
Michael Arquin, KidWind
Project founder, and Lindsey Hunt of NextEra Energy presented the hands-on science workshop. Arquin guided the educators through the process of building miniature wind generators on small PVC turbines. They learned how blade size and pitch make a difference.
A trip to the Wolf Ridge Wind Farm located north of Muenster gave everyone an idea of how massive the wind generators are. Many commented that they were amazed at the size.
Hunt remarked, "We were able to get out there and see and experience those. They generated some really good questions. We talked about the myths that they'd heard. It is nice to be able to talk about it and to actually go out there and see and understand it."

Hunt said that what participants were learning as he spoke was blade design. "Which is very, very interesting because the GE turbines that we've got out on site are the latest model of GE. One of the things they tweaked about the turbine was the blade design. If we can get the kids thinking in that direction, it just keeps getting better."

Each was given an assortment of materials to work with and they proceeded to crimp, snip, measure, and clip until they had their wind generators ready to test. The hand-made wind generators were attached to a device that measured wind speed. A box fan provided the wind.

At the end of the session, anyone who wished could compete to see whose generator created the greatest voltage. The top five received prizes.

Spicy Tuna Roll Hand Roll Eel Roll

Eel Roll Ducumber Roll Drab Roll Salmon Roe Roll (Cavias Squid Roll

Also given to each participant was a certificate valued at $50 to be used towards the purchase of materials or books for classroom teaching on wind energy. All materials left over from the day were sent home with the teachers. Each got a box to gather supplies.

In a recent press release, NextEra gave its reasons for sponsoring the workshop.
"NextEra Energy strives to invest in the State's youth by educating its future leaders on the science and environmental benefits of wind power...recognizes the importance of securing the availability of skilled professionals by educating students and hopefully inspiring a career in green technology."

Sacred Heart Catholic School teacher Debbie Endres shared her thoughts on Saturday's program, "Teachers were enthusiastic students for a day. Sacred Heart has already decided to hold a school competition on wing design for Earth Day 2010.
This idea mushroomed from the day's activities.

"I was surprised at how little time I spend in the classroom covering such a vital topic as alternative energy sources. The workshop made me aware of my responsibility to help students understand the importance of wind as an alternate energy source."

Schools represented by teachers at the event included Muenster ISD, Sacred Heart Catholic School, Lindsay ISD, Saint Jo ISD, Oklahoma State University
in Weatherford, Oklahoma, Coppell High School, and Dallas ISD. Each will bring their hands-on education to the students in their class rooms. Perhaps the seed for an innovative design in wind energy will spring from the knowledge learned and shared from Saturday's lessons.

Members learned to strategically plan ways to become actively involved in issues facing to day's youth including decision-making, goal setting and career preparation., Three dynamic guest speakers challenged and enlightened the students with their motivational lectures. The speakers included an inspiring speaker, Patrick Grady, who is also a certified hypnotist. His abilities were demonstrated with some of the audience members that turned out to be hilariously entertaining. Faith Stringfellow, an amazing little dog born without front legs, inspired members through stories told by one of the members of the Stringfellow family. Even though Faith has this defect, she learned to stand, hop, and eventually walk on her two back legs. She has traveled to military hospitals to lift the spirits of the wounded soldiers. Keith Davis, a former college and professional football player related his personal and educational challenges. He then demonstrated some amazing strength feats to help inspire members to use their inner strength to work hard, do their best, and succeed at whatever they try to accomplish.

On Friday night after the first general session, all delegates were provided the opportunity to attend a party with live music provided by an up and coming band, City Limits.

STAR Events (Students Taking Action With Recognition) are competitive events in which some of the members competed during the state meeting. These events allowed members to show-case their life skills in different areas of competition. Those competing at State qualified in five Regional meetings held throughout the State.

Also, the new officer team for 2009-10 was elected to lead the state to greater heights.

Members competing in STAR Events from Muenster FCCLA were Shelby Holloway, Natalie Valliere, Briana Bindel, and Llogan Cheaney. Briana Bindel, and Llogan Cheaney competed as a team in the Chapter Showcase event. They presented a display board of all the chapter's activities for this year with a 12 minute oral description. Natalie Valliere and Shelby Holloway competed in the Applied Technology event. They researched and created a powerpoint to judges on a Child Development project entitled: "Learning Through Play". There were 1200 FC-CLA competitors from across the State in 20 events. The top two teams in each event advanced to National competition which will be held this July in Nashville, Ten-

Muenster Spanish III students attend TEKS inspired field trip

On April 22, the Muenster High School Spanish III students visited Miguelito's Mexican restaurant in Sanger, and practiced their Spanish while enjoying a delicious meal.

In this cultural event, the students ordered their meals, conversed with the waiting staff, and made transactions in Spanish. This was a fun and delicious opportunity for them to participate in at home communities by using their school language other than English, as per the TEKS. ¡Todo fue muy deli-cioso!

On an earlier occasion, the students enjoyed a lesson at the Dallas Museum of Art where they studied Meso-American art, later writing in Spanish about an inspiring Aztec or Mayan artifact.

UIL Regional Track Meets tentatively rescheduled

After collaborating with University of Texas officials and the 20 UIL Regional track meet hosts, the UIL has tentatively rescheduled the Regional track meets to take place after interscholastic competition resumes on May 11.

The Region IIIA Track and Field Meet, which involves qualifiers from our local District, has been rescheduled for May 15 and 16 at Palestine ISD in Palestine.

Additionally, the State for May 15 and 16 at Palestine.

Additionally, the State track meet is scheduled to be held June 5-6 at Myers Stadium at the University of Texas at Austin.

"The decision to suspend competition was not a decision we took lightly," said UIL Executive Director Dr. Charles Breithaupt. "Much effort and consideration was given to resurrect the Regional track meets and change the dates for the State meet. With the cooperation of our Regional sites and the University of Texas, we are now able to hold the Regional and State track meets as we had originally

On April 29, the UIL announced that the State track meet would be held May 14-16 and that qualifiers would come from the top four participants in each event from each region.

"At that time, we were simply trying to save the State track meet," said Breithaupt. "When our staff had the time, opportunity, and information, they were able to make this happen. We had numerous calls in support of the original decision as well as calls to return to the Regional format. We also know that additional conflicts may occur because of these changes. However, we believe this schedule represents the best opportunity for the most students."

Germanfest Fun Run finishers

Preliminary numbers show that 1,176 runners were registered to run in the 34th Annual Germanfest Fun Run, held April 26.

John D. Bartush, race co-director, noted that overall, this year's race was the largest the Muenster Knights of Columbus have had in eight years or so, and about 125 more than last year.

"There was a light rain before and during the race, however that didn't seem to dampen the runners' efforts, Bartush added, noting that Stephen Curry from Argyle won the men's 5K for the third straight year with a time of 15:41, "which could be the fastest time this decade for this course."

Also in the 5K, John Paul Hesse was the first Muenster male finisher, 25th overall with a time of 19:26. Mikenzie Fleitman ran a 21:40 to be the first Muenster female finisher coming in 85th.

In the 15K race, Johnny Green was the 11th to cross the finish line and the first Muenster male. He ran the course in 1:04:32. Almost 100 runners later, Lisa Miller, 109th overall, was the first Muenster female to finish the long race, clocking in at 1:25:11.

Muenster PIPS presents awards

Fifty-three students from Kindergarten through 6th grade took part in the inaugural year for Muenster Players in Progress (PIP). PIP is an organization that encourages students to build skills in basketball, ranging in level from basic dribbling and passing to spinning the ball and other higher-level tricks. Because of the PIP program format, all children are able to start at their own level and progress at their own pace, allowing each child to feel success with each personal accomplishment.

The Muenster PIP season began with a four hour campheld in late August, led by PIP Co-Founders David and Brenda Land. Since then, the PIPsters have been under the direction of PIP Coordinator Vicki Eldridge and Coaches Dianne Endres, Laura Pagel, Jill Reiter, Darla Styles, Diane Sicking, and April Walterscheid.

As the dismissal bell rang at Muenster ISD, many dedicated students made their way to the "old" gym to participate in weekly after school practices. The Muenster PIP group entertained fans while performing during the half-time of four local Muenster Hornet games. Part of the group also participated in the annual Muenster Christmas Parade, and at the half-time of a women's basketball game at the University of North Texas.

Along with the performances, PIP members could choose to participate in the Basic Training program in which each member strives to complete various ball handling skills in a set amount of time. Four levels of 10 different skills could be obtained, earning them a total of 40 points. Achievement bracelets were also awarded for 5, 15, and 30 points. Once a PIPster reaches 40 points, the Basic Training program is complete and they are awarded with a Basic Training shirt with their name and date of completion on it. After that, those PIPsters can work toward achieving Master Level skills.

Throughout the PIP season, All-Star groups performed together at various university and profession-

Flu fears prompt new bans

Up to 20 countries world-wide have banned imports of pork and other meat in response to an outbreak of a new flu virus, accord-ing to documents from the World Health Organization (WHO).

World Health Organization (WHO).

Although the H1N1 strain is not food-borne, fears that it may spread through animal products have prompted restrictions on live pigs, pork, cattle, poultry, livestock, feed, and animal semen from countries with reported infections, according to the list obtained by Reuters on Monday.

More than 1,000 people have been infected with the virus that is thought to spread through sneezes, coughs, and droplets like the common flu. WHO labs have confirmed 26 deaths from H1N1, all but one in Mexico, the epicenter for the outbreak.

Canadian authorities on Saturday also reported the presence of the virus in a swine herd, which was apparently infected by a farm worker who had been to Mexico. That caused the WHO to called for extra caution in handling live animals.

The WHO's pork import restriction list was compiled from official statements and media reports.

frade Organization (WTO) that they posed no sanitary risks.

The new WHO list shows the number of restrictions has risen as the virus has continued to spread.

The Canadian swine herd infection was announced just days after the WHO said it would change the virus name to "A-HINI" to clarify it was passing directly person to person instead of from a pig to a person.

Before that animal infection made headlines, the WTO and three United Nations agencies including the WHO said there was no justification for the imposition of trade restrictions on account of the HIN1 flu.

A food safety expert said that while pork meat posed no risks, extra precautions should be taken when handling live pigs to avoid spreading and catching the virus that is on the brink of causing a pandemic.

"You might have a risk with the live animals or when slaughtering it, but on the other side, as soon as you are dealing with the final product there is no big risk."

Under international trade rules, countries are allowed to stop imports of goods that are seen to pose health risks or fall short of sanitary standards.

Emergency registration of herbicide for Sandburs in pasture!!

The Texas Dept. of Agriculture has granted a Crisis Exemption for the use of Pastora herbicide from Dupont, for controlling grassbur in bermudagrass pastures and hay fields. This product is for application to small grassbur (1.5" or less), It is essential that applicators apply only according to the label and use equipment that is capable of uniform application to achieve good spray coverage. The ingredients in Pastora herbicide have been studied for years in research trials.

Indications are that it should provide excellent control of grassbur when applied to small plants, with acceptable bermudagrass tolerance.

The use of this product must be accompanied by the producer's possession of the product label and by the letter from TDA authorizing its use. Therefore, prior to finalizing decisions to use this product, it is advisable to visit with your chemical dealer to make sure that you are in compliance with regulations.

The bill to provide a more property owner friendly eminent domain process was unanimously approved by the Texas State Senate. Stunderway

To elect ACRE for a farm, producers must complete Form CCC-509 ACRE, which irrevocably elects ACRE for the farm through crop year 2012. Form CCC-509, the contract to participate in ACRE, must then be completed each year the producer intends to participate and receive benefits.

According to Fenoglio, the ACRE decision tool developed by the Agricultural and Food Policy Center (AFPC) at Texas A&M University is now available to producers online at HYPELLINK "http://www.afpc.tamu.edu/models/acre/index.php" www.afpc.tamu.edu/models/acre/index.php" www.afpc.tamu

FSA reminds producers that ACRE Program enrollment is underway

Chance Fenoglio, Executive Director of USDA's Farm Service Agency in Cooke County, reminds producers that as of April 27 enrollment in the Average Crop Revenue Election (ACRE) program is underway. ACRE is a provision of the 2008 Farm Bill.

"The Average Crop Revenue Election program is an innovative alternative to the traditional farm safety," Fenoglio said. "This new option presents an opportunity for producers to review both programs and decide which one will work best for their operation."

the 2009 crop. USDA will not accept any late-filed applications.

Producers who elect the ACRE program for a farm agree to: forgo counter-cyclical payments; accept a 20% reduction of the direct payments; and accept a 30% reduction in loan rates for all commodities produced on the farm.

Commodities eligible for ACRE payments are wheat, corn, grain sorghum, barley, oats, upland cotton, long grain rice, medium and short grain rice, peanuts, soybeans, sunflower seed, canola, flaxseed, safflower, mustard seed, rapesed, sesame seed, crambe, dry peas, lentils, small chickpeas, and large chickpeas.

The ACRE program was created in the 2008 Farm Bill to give producers an option in lieu of traditional counter-cyclical payments. Producers may elect and enroll in ACRE for the 2009 crop year even if they have already accepted advance direct payments under the Direct and Counter-cyclical Program.

To elect ACRE for a farm, producers must complete Form CCC-509 ACRE, which irrevocably elects ACRE for the farm through crop year 2012. Form CCC-509, the contract to participate in ACRE, must then be completed each year the producer intends to participate and receive benefits.

According to Fenoglio, the ACRE decision tool developed by the Agricultural and Food Policy Center (AFPC) at Texas A&M University is now available to producers online at HYPERLINK "http://www.afpc.tamu.edu/models/acre/index.php" www.afpc.tamu.edu/models/acre/index.php

"This ACRE Decision Aid will assist producers in analyzing the impact of ACRE participation on their individual operation," said Fenoglio.

What are your odds of being struck by lightning?
Although some government and meteorological sources have tried to put a statistical number to it, such as 1 in 3,000,000, it really is not that simple. Your odds of being hit by lightning vary by the activity you engage in, when you engage in that outdoor activity, and where you spend most of your time outdoors. For example, lightning strikes are greater at higher altitudes and closer to the equator.

Coordinator Ray Fletcher, Pecan Creek in Lindsay rose high enough that homes were evacuated in the flood prone area. Water did not get into any of the homes.

"Various sections of many roads to include Interstate 35 and Highway 82 were closed for periods of time," noted Fletcher. "There are still roads that aren't open yet due to either high water or damage. Precinct #4 in the northwest part of the County got hardest hit. Then probably Precinct #1 after that - the northeast of the County." Precinct #1 reported between eight and 10 inches of rain and Fletcher said the weather service radar indicated between eight and 13 or 14 inches in northwest Cooke County.

Debris left behind with the subsiding water will take some time to clean up.

A short, but more interesting consequence of flooded fields and ditches was the presence of many shorebirds not usually so readily seen in this area. There were seagulls by the hundreds, herons of various colors and sizes, and other water birds preying on the unfortunate delicacies left stranded and far from their usual home by the flooding water.
