

HOWARD HEARD FILES SUIT FOR ALLEGED BRIBE MONEY

An echo of the bootleg raids and trials of last summer was heard in county court records Friday, when Howard Heard filed a suit against Sheriff M. H. Denman for $410 and damages, alleging that the Sheriff and his deputies obtained this sum from him by force, threats and fraud.

Howard Heard was arrested on a liquor charge in the spring, being one of many taken by Sheriff Denman and his deputies in a series of raids in this county about that time.

He was given an examining trial and the Grand Jury indicted him. When his case came to trial in the June term of District Court, with Judge E. J. Miller presiding, the jury could not reach a verdict and Heard will have to stand trial again on this charge.

About the time of this trial he was arrested again and charged with bribery. Arthur Williams stated in justice court before Judge E. T. Perkins that he was given the sum of $410 by Heard for the specific purpose of expenses for himself and his brother to get out of town and to not appear against Heard. This transaction was made, it was stated by Williams and the Sheriff at the time, with the knowledge and sanction of Sheriff Denman. They alleged that they had pursued this course after offer of the money to Williams had been made by Heard.

Judge Perkins decided that this was a case for the grand jury and Heard was released on bond to await action of that body in November. The money in question was held by the Sheriff and placed in the safe deposit vaults of one of the local banks.

Now Heard files a civil suit for the money through his attorney, Gib Callaway, claiming that it was taken from him by fraud. The case will probably come up in the October term of county court with Judge E. M. Davis presiding.

Other rooms in the same house were entered and change stolen.

One man was arrested by Motorcycle Policeman A. F. Ennis and is being held by the police for investigation.

HAT GIBSON OF COLEMAN SLAIN IN SANTA ANNA

SANTA ANNA, Oct. 3.—(Sp.)—Resisting arrest on a traffic violation in Santa Anna, "Hap" Gibson, 28, of Coleman, was shot by a night watchman about 8:15 p. m. Friday and died about an hour later in the Sealy Hospital.

Gibson, a truck driver for the Cocco Cola Company of Coleman, had parked a motorcycle in front of the Corner Drug Store on the main street of the city placing it across an entrance.

Sam Floyd, chief of police, asked him to move it, but he declined, whereupon Floyd tried to arrest him. He resisted and a scuffle ensued in which Gibson is said to have gotten possession of Floyd's gun.

At this point, E. A. Harris, night watchman for the city, appeared on the scene, and ordered Gibson to give up the gun. Gibson is said to have refused and the two officers and a crowd of spectators state that Gibson attempted to shoot Harris, who had drawn his gun.

Harris is said to have shot first, whereupon Gibson shot twice, missing his target, and Harris shot again, Gibson falling.

He was rushed to the hospital in an ambulance where it was found he had been shot in the abdomen, and there he died about an hour later.

Harris, who has been on the Santa Anna police force for about four years made bond of $3,000 for appearance at an examining trial.

Floyd, a former officer in Brownwood and Comanche, has been chief of police of Santa Anna for about a year.

COLEMAN, Oct. 2.—A Coleman county grand jury, closing a special two-day session Tuesday afternoon, non-billed E. A. Harris, night watchman of Santa Anna, who had been under $4,000 bond since last Friday night, in connection with the fatal shooting there of Hap Gibson of Coleman.

Gibson was shot during an altercation with Harris and Chief of Police Sam Floyd of Santa Anna. Gibson had an argument with Floyd over a parking violation and had taken Floyd's gun away from him. Gibson had Floyd's gun in his hand when Harris came to the assistance of the chief. Harris claimed he shot Gibson in self defense when he thought his life was in danger.

The grand jury was called back by District Judge E. J. Miller here Monday to conduct a special investigation of the case.

OIL OIL DECREASE 10,555 BBLs.

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 1.—(P)—While the prolific Oklahoma City pool dribbled almost to nothingness in the clench of a total shut-in for conservation, other state fields registered a total decrease of approximately 10,555 barrels in the estimated daily average production of light and heavy crude oil for Oklahoma during the week ended September 28, as compared to that of the week ending September 21. The Oklahoma City pool produced but 915 barrels daily, in contrast to the soaring figure of two weeks ago.

The decrease was in light oil which dropped a total of 24,814 barrels during the week. Heavy crude production came back, after a steady decline of some weeks, to add approximately 9,000 barrels daily and cut the total decrease to 16,108 barrels.

Seminole field

Seminole field in Oklahoma dropped approximately 6,000 barrels; the northern McClain field, 3,000 barrels; Kansas lost 1,000 barrels. Alternative increases and decreases in various Mid-Continent fields held the total decrease in that area to approximately 13,000 barrels.

Gulf Coast and Southwest Texas heavy oil went upward approximately 8,000 barrels. The Santa Fe Springs deep drilling area, swept downward again, a total of 17,000 barrels to form the basis for the 9,000 barrels California decrease. California heavy oil remained virtually constant.

Kansas production was 127,080 and 123,310 for the previous week.

JOINES WELL MAKING HEADS

COLEMAN, Oct. 3.—(Sp)—Interest in the oil activity in Coleman county is still centered around Joines, et al, No. 1 Stewartson, located 150 feet from the north line, and 1,150 feet east of the west line of Section 96 E. T. R. Co. survey. This well encountered the Brenecke sand at 1,456 and was drilled to 1,497 last night. Since that time it has made several flows, and has been variously estimated by operators and seers as capable of producing from 10 to 100 barrels with the 100,000 feet of gas. This well is located approximately 1,100 feet east of Taylor-Link No. 1 Stewartson which had 12 feet of Brenecke sand with a showing of oil and 3 barrels of water at a depth of 1,428 to 40. The Joines well was drilled on account of the showing Taylor-Link had. The Taylor-Link well also produced considerable gas in a deeper sand. It is reported that the Joines et al, have 2 1/2 acres in their drilling site and approximately 1,000 acres around the well, the 1,000 acre tract is owned jointly with Taylor-Link. Storage has been erected for further testing the well which will likely be done tomorrow.

Stapp and Keister got a dry hole on their No. 1 Morris. Stepp and Keister also finished a dry hole on their Moody lease west of Santa Anna.

In the shallow area Taylor-Link got about a 2 barrel showing on thier No. 2 McClure which was later plugged and abandoned.

Prospects for New Producing Area

COLEMAN, Oct. 1.—(Sp)—Joines and others No. 1 Stewartson, 9 miles south of Santa Anna has prospects at the present time of opening a new producing area in South Coleman county. This well is located on the N. E. corner of Section 96, G. L. Stewartson land encountered one million cubic feet of gas in sand at 1,497 to 59 feet, and oil at 1,459 1-2 feet.

The well has flowed several times during the last two days, and at the present time the hole has considerable cavings in it, which has prevented an accurate test. Company scouts have estimated the well from 50 to 75 barrels per day. The producing sand correlates with the Brenecke horizon, which is producing in the pool west of Santa Anna. This well is approximately 7 miles from the nearest oil production.

In the Eastland Oil Company pool 7 miles N. E. of Coleman, the White Eagle Nos. 6 and 8 Morris were drilled in Sunday. No. 6 gauged 20 barrels per hour, and No. 8 swabbed 145 barrels in the first 24 hours. The Permian Oil Company and Gibson and Johnson No. 1 Crowder, the banner well in the pool to date, gauged 1,834 barrels Monday, and has produced to date approximately 30,000 barrels of oil.

Comanche Oil Test Is Making Good Progress

COMANCHE, Texas, Sept. 28.—(Sp.)—The drilling in the Sun Oil Company well close to Comanche is going on with a vim. The well is now down some thousand five feet, and it is expected that it will go on to three thousand feet before definite results will be obtained. Samples are being taken out every ten feet and sent to the headquarters in Houston for tests. The well is on the Bryson ranch, some two miles from the town. Leasing has been going on over a large portion of the surrounding country for several weeks, and it still continues in likely looking sections. The whole community is much interested in results, and expectant as to possibilities of oil in the neighboring sections.

NINE HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICTS CREATED IN YEAR AND HALF

BY R. E. MARKS

Facilities for high school education for the thirty-five hundred rural pupils of Brown county are improving to a marked degree, especially during the past year and a half when thirty-eight common school districts in the county with the addition of three districts in other counties, combined to make nine consolidated districts for high school purposes.

These consolidations affected practically all the High School pupils outside the cities of Brownwood and Bangs, only a few schools of the fifty-five in the county now are not grouped for this purpose. Six of these nine consolidations have been effected during this calendar year.

Credit for this work has been given J. Oscar Swindle, county school superintendent, who began work in his present position at the beginning of 1926. Mr. Swindle, prior to taking over the county work, taught for three years in the Blanket school, Brown county, and before that was a teacher in the employ of the U. S. Indian Service, having charge of schools in the states of New Mexico and Washington.

His work in the three years and a half as superintendent has come to the attention of educators of the state, especially so for his series of articles on rural school consolidations which ran weekly for nearly a year in the Brownwood Bulletin. He has been mentioned by State Superintendent S. M. N. Marrs as one of the outstanding county superintendents in the state.

Roads Important

In his work Mr. Swindle has been handicapped to a large extent by the poor conditions of the roads, the county laterals being in an almost impassable state in wet weather, and there are two main highways and one minor one within the borders of Brown county.

When the question of good roads came before the people in an election in the fall of 1928, Mr. Swindle put his shoulder to the wheel and aided the men of Brownwood to put over a bond issue of over $1,650,000, largely to be matched by the state and federal governments. Now the road program in the county is in full swing and practically every school house will be either on or near an improved lateral or a hard surfaced highway.

HOOD DECLARES CHARGE AGAINST HIM TECHNICAL, IS RELEASED ON BOND

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 28.—(Sp)—E. J. Hood of Brownwood, who as "Papa" Hood gained honors as an All-Southern tackle on the football eleven at Georgia Tech, was released from the Tom Green County jail Friday afternoon on a bond of $2,000, signed by himself and his mother, Mrs. Mildred H. Hood of Brownwood, and J. W. Keith of Brownwood.

Hood, an automobile dealer of Brownwood, was arrested in that city Thursday by Tom Reed, deputy sheriff of San Angelo, on a charge of embezzlement. The complaint is signed by W. V. Smith of the Chain Investment Company, automobile finance concern of San Angelo.

Preliminary hearing is to be held before E. W. Smith, justice of the peace, next Friday afternoon.

Hood refused to make a statement Friday other than declaring that the charge is based on a technicality. Officials of the finance company, refusing to make a statement, said they would offer their side of the case at the preliminary hearing.

This year four districts combined to make the Grosvenor Consolidated District; five districts in Brown county and one in Comanche county to make the May consolidation; five districts forming the Brooksmith consolidation; three districts in Brown county and one in Comanche county to make the Blanket consolidation; five districts to form the Jones Chapel district; and on September 21, four districts combined to make the latest consolidated district at Zephyr.

Brown county is a peculiar one in shape, and there is a trip of twenty-five miles for the superintendent to make from his center at Brownwood to some of the outlying schools. The county has a taxable valuation of close to $20,000,000 and its county seat, Brownwood, is known far and wide for its excellent educational facilities.

Besides six fine warg schools, a junior and a senior high school, there are two colleges, Daniel Baker and Howard Payne.

In his work Mr. Swindle says he had excellent cooperation from the members of the county board of school trustees, of which D. W. McHan of Jones Chapel is president. Other members include: Dr. A. M. Borden of May, W. H. G. Chambers of Cross Cut, A. J. Newton of Trinity and L. A. Nunn of Brooksmith.

owners from the Lee Stewart farm to the Comanche County line; and on the following day, October 17, they will meet any of these owners in the county court room in Brownwood.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY MAYOR McDONALD

Fire prevention week, October 6 to 12 inclusive, has been proclaimed by Mayor McDonald, and all city employes and others are to make special efforts that week to clean up and eliminate all fire hazards in the city. The mayor's proclamation follows:

Proclamation

Statistics have placed the loss of life by fires in the United States last year at 10,990, while we are told that twice that number of persons were seriously burned, most of these casualties being women and children.

We learn also from carefully compiled estimates that while an appreciable decline is being shown in the fire loss record of the country, the destruction of property in 1928 was about $472,000,000.

Texas contributes a full share of these deaths and injuries along with some $20,000,000 of the wastage of property values.

A fire loss is a loss no matter how it is figured. The partial relief that insurance affords adds but another item to our tax burden, but that which fire consumes is gone forever.

A large majority of the fires that occur are preventable, because of our indifference toward them. Fire Prevention Week is set aside each year as a time for us to think and act on preventing, restricting and extinguishing fires.

Now, therefore, I, O. W. McDonald, Mayor of the city of Brownwood, do hereby proclaim the period of October 6th to 12th as Fire Prevention week in this city this year.

Let our public officers, school authorities, local organizations, and all of our people, prepare for execution during that time an educational program which shall include instruction of school children in ways and means of preventing fires, as well as a campaign against fire hazards and all conditions that may cause or promote the spread of

W. H. THOMPSON HELD UP BY 2 MEN IN PAWN SHOP SUNDAY NIGHT

A man giving his name as Floyd

Jones, brought in a pistol Saturday night and pawned it with Mr. Thompson, stating that he would probably be in late that night to get his property. He came, however, at 10:30 p. m. Sunday and avoike Mr. Thompson, whose residence is on the same lot as his store.

With him was another young man, the man who had pawned the pistol, said that he called for it late that night because he was going back to the oil fields. Mr. Thompson dressed and went out to his shop, to accommodate the men.

As soon as he had given the man his gun and some change from the transaction, the two young men pulled other guns on him and made him stand still while they loaded their pockets with pistols and cash from the shop.

Mr. Thompson recently moved his place of business from Brown street to its present location in a little building on the front of his lot on Flisk Avenue.

With the tariff bill now before the Senate, it was believed today the investigators first would consider reports of a tariff lobby.

The judiciary committee, which has charge of the investigation, probably will await its regular meeting day on Monday to organize for the probe.

to teachers for guidance. Parents and teachers are seeking mutually for instruction and parent teachers associations are formed. Through the intelligent direction of such organizations the school may arouse the home to a fuller sense of its duties toward the child's education, for often the ignorant or unthinking home is woefully lax. The physical and moral welfare of the child, through the neglect of the home, must often become of the deepest concern to the teacher. Moral development depends upon physical development. This means that the child's moral welfare must depend upon the economic conditions under which he lives, and just in proportion as we improve these conditions, just to that extent do we increase the chances of the child to become a healthy, happy moral citizen. No school has one its full duty unless it has aroused the entire community to a sense of its responsibilities and acquainted it with the real meaning of intelligent cooperation in the training of children. No parent should trust for his understanding of the rules of discipline of the school to the fragmentary and biased account of a child's interpretation. It is a fine service to the school when parents emphasize the fact that the school exists for the sake of helping the child and that the teacher is his good friend always.

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION OF MARTIAL LAW ISSUED

AUSTIN, Sept. 30.—(P)—State troops will remain in Berger and Hutchinson county until the area is purged of all lawlessness, or until they are removed by Governor Moody's successor in office, the governor declared today in announcing the proclamation was issued Saturday, effective Sunday at 3 p. m.

Peace Officers Removed

A separate proclamation issued by Governor Moody removed all county peace officers and delegated their duties to the military. Under the law the mayor and city commissioners and other county peace officers will continue to administer the fiscal affairs, their investment of authority referring only to their duties as officers charged with enforcement of the peace.

General Jacob F. Wolters of Houston, commanding the 56th cavalry accept his new assignment. Governor brigade, and Colonel O. E. Roberts of Taylor, 141st infantry, are in command of the troops under orders from Governor Moody. Assistant Attorney General Paul D. Page is the law officer.

The governor announced he had appointed Clem Calhoun, district attorney to succeed John A. Holmes, who was assassinated. Calhoun, who was ordered to Berger from his home in Abilene, resigned as prosecutor of the 104th district to Moody advised him of his appointment today.

Repeating the findings of his investigators that there "exists an organized and entrenched criminal ring in the city of Berger and county of Hutchinson," the governor declared, in giving his reasons for declaring martial law, that "there is now imminent danger of insurrection, tumult, riot, and breach of the peace, and serious danger to the inhabitants and property of citizens."

Declaring they had "demonstrated their inability and unwillingness to enforce the laws of this state and the ordinances of the city of Berger, and their unwillingness to aid or assist in the enforcement of said laws and ordinances," the governor ordered dered the removal from their offices of the mayor and city commissioners of the city of Berger: J. W. Crabtree, chief of police, and all members of the police department of the city; Mitchell, constable, and all his deputies; Walter Broomhall, justice of the peace; Joe O'Conley, sheriff of Hutchinson county, and all his deputies and the city attorney and the city judge of Berger.

In the proclamation was repeated the governor's previous declaration that "investigators sent by me to seek cause to report that a conspiracy exists between officials of Hutchinson county and law violators and that affidavits have been secured to the passing of money to peace officers for protection from the enforcement of the law."

"BERGER, Texas, Sept. 30.—(P)—Brigadier General Jacob F. Wolters, commanding a detachment of National Guard troops brought here from Fort Worth on a special train, officially declared Berger under martial law at 9 a. m. today."

"One minute after Wolters alighted from the troop train, he read the proclamation of Governor Moody which stated martial law had been declared for Berger at 3:30 p. m. Sept. 28. The General carried two proclamations from the state executive.

Governor Moody ordered all officers suspended except the mayor, the city attorney, the city commissioners and the justice of the peace, and pointed out the lawlessness that has existed in Berger.

Eighty-four soldiers of the Texas National Guard were on the train, 14 of whom were officers.

Naylor Executive Officer

The proclamation named General Wolters, executive general; Capt. John W. Naylor, executive officer; Capt. Fred W. Edmiston, adjutant; Col. Louis Davidson, Provost Marshal; Maj. Clarence E. Taylor, Assistant Provost Marshal; Maj. Harry H. Johnson, assistant to the Provost Marshal; Lieut. Taylor Nicholson, quartermaster and finance officer; and Capt. McCord McMillin, Adjutant to the Provost Marshal.

The official proclamations ordered the captains of all state ranger contingents in the Berger territory to report to the commanding officer immediately.

Orders Issued

In a general order issued by Capt. Naylor, possession, selling or exchanging of firearms and ammunition are prohibited within the affected area except by permission of the military authorities.

Another order prevents state Rangers and the district attorney from interfering with the calling of persons before the military provost court. Any person arrested for vagrancy will be turned over to the civil courts or the military provost court for trial.

Shortly after the troops took over the seat of the city government, Constable Sam Jones arrived and a pair of brass knucks was taken from him. Ranger M. B. Gault then accompanied the constable from the city hall to get his guns.

Hutchinson County Orders

STINNETT, Texas, Sept. 30.—(P)—Stinnett, county seat of Hutchinson, was officially placed under martial law at 10:05 a. m. today. Stinnett is 12 miles from Berger.

Five Rangers and Col. D. V. Sanders arrived at the town at 10:05 a. m. requested county officials to surrender their weapons. They had none on their persons and were ordered to get them and turn them over to the state and military authorities.

The Rangers accompanying Col. Sanders were Captains Tom Hickman and Frank Hamer, Sergeant C. B. Wheatley and Rangers C. O. Moore and Dott Smith.

They immediately took over the court house and the jail, which are housed under the same roof.

Mayor Glenn A. Pace of Berger, arrested yesterday by state Rangers on a charge in which it was alleged he caused a state witness in the Charles Hale murder case to leave Berger, waived preliminary hearing before County Judge H. M. Hood here today and continued at liberty under $3,000 bond.

Pace was represented by E. A. Simpson of the Amarillo law firm of Underwood, Johnson, Dealey and Simpson. Seven business men of Berger and Stinnett, including John R. Miller, first mayor of Berger after the town was incorporated in March, 1928, and Peter Berger, brother of A. C. Berger, the founder, signed the new bond.

Col. Davidson, who is from Dallas, and a corporal were the first of the military units to arrive in Stinnett. They were followed by a detachment of 10 soldiers, who carried regulation army rifles. The Corporal brought along a riot gun.

CONFESSIONS OF LAMAR ROBBERS ARE PUBLISHED

LAMAR, Colo., Oct. 1.—(P)—Because the signed confessions of all three defendants were given to the press yesterday, Judge L. W. Cunningham of Colorado Springs, attorney for George J. Abshier, Howard L. Royston and Ralph Fleagle, charged with first degree murder, robbery and kidnaping in connection with the holdup of the First National Bank of Lamar on May 21, 1928, announced today he would permit for a continuance and a change of venue, on grounds the release was prejudicial to the defendants' case.

The confessions retold plans for the robbery, the gun battle in the bank in which a Newton Parrish, president of the bank, and his son J. E. Parrish, were shot to death and their flight, in the course of which E. A. Kessinger, kidnaped teller, and Dr. W. W. Wineinger, Dighton, Kansas, physician, were slain.

Planned for Two Years

Ralph Fleagle, reputed "brains" of the gang, said the robbery had been planned for two years. Three times the robbery was frustrated because officers were near the bank.

On May 23, 1928, shortly after one o'clock the band entered the bank following the elder Parrish. Jake Fleagle, captured member of the gang, Ralph Fleagle, Royston and Abshier followed Parrish.

Ralph shouted:

"Hands up, this is a holdup."

A customer got in his way and he thrust him aside and vaulted a counter. The elder Parrish leaped the counter after Ralph and forced Royston to pursue him.

Sudden Shot Fired

Suddenly a shot was fired. "I had my back to old man Parrish, and was running after young Parrish, (J. F. Parrish, son of the bank president) when I heard the shot," Ralph said.

"Young Parrish fell, and I saw he was dead. I believe the shot that killed him was fired unintentionally by his father."

The bank president continued firing, sending a bullet into Royston's jaw, and Jake, shouted "get that old man."

The elder Parrish fell back into his office as Jake opened fire, according to Ralph, Abshier and Royston.

Jake ran forward, firing, put several bullets through the glass partition of the office and then jerked open the door to make sure he was dead.

After he was shot, Royston ordered some of the customers to remain on the floor, and then went back of the railing and filled his pillow slip with money from the cash drawer.

Ralph forced E. A. Kessinger, teller in the bank, into the vault while he scooped up cash and securities amounting to $219,000 and then forced the teller into his rear seat of the car and got behind the wheel. James forced out E. A. Lundgren, another teller, and made him lie on the floor of the car beside Kessinger. The party then fled.

But the machine was too heavily loaded. Ralph stopped and Lundgren was thrown out. Kessinger begged to be released, but Ralph refused.

The confessions recounted the flight, and refuge at Fleagle ranch where Royston fainted from the effects of his wound.

Royston recalled how he lay on a cot on the kitchen floor and watched Abshier carry bonds amounting to nearly $200,000 to the kitchen stove where they made a roaring fire.

The confessions told of taking Dr. Wineinger from his home at Dighton, Kansas, and forcing him to treat Royston's shattered face. Later Kessinger and Dr. Wineinger were put to death, and the band separated. Abshier took Royston to St. Paul for medical treatment, and the Fleagles later joined the two in St. Paul.

FOUR DEATHS RESULT FROM COAST STORM

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(P)—The North Atlantic coast was recovering today from effects of a wind and rain storm which battered it from Maine to the Delaware capes.

Three deaths in New Jersey and one in Pennsylvania were attributed to the storm.

The wind, rain and high tides combined to disrupt coastwise and harbor traffic, hamper urban transportation and damage exposed resort property.

Heavy Gale on Coast

The wind reached 56 miles an hour along the New Jersey coast where high tides and heavy seas inundated beaches, washed away a section of board walk and undermined six cottages at Point Pleasant. Damage was also caused at Barnegat City, where the sea broke through the jetties endangering the famous Barnegat lighthouse.

Vessels were held in port along the Maine coast which was pounded by heavy seas lashed into fury by an all day wind. Two schooners went aground in Boston harbor and a number of small craft were torn from their moorings. The schooners were floated at high tide.

The storm sweeping across Pennsylvania brought streams near flood stage and resulted in the death of an unidentified farm hand killed when a building in which he took refuge was blown down near Clinton, Pa.

STRIKE CLASH

LUDLOW, Mass., Oct. 3.—(P)—A clash between police and organizers of the National Textile Workers' Association, communist-organization, in which clubs were used, one man injured and five persons arrested, signaled the return to work this morning of spinners of the Ludlow Manufacturers' Associates. The agitators made strenuous efforts to dissuade operatives from entering the gates.

COTTON MILL UNDER GUARD BY SOLDIERS

MARION, N. C., Oct. 3.—(P)—Two companies of national guardsmen were on duty to keep order at the Marion Manufacturing Company's cotton mill in east Marion today as authorities proceeded with investigation of the riot at the plant gates yesterday in which three strikers were killed and a score more persons injured.

The second jury impanelled to inquire into the deaths of John Jonas, Sam Vickers and Randolph Hall, who went on strike early yesterday, and who a few hours later were shot and fatally wounded, viewed the bodies last night.

A total of 21 persons were injured in the riot, several officers being beaten with clubs.

Nat A. Townsend, executive council to Governor O. Max Gardner, who on September 11 settled a nine weeks' strike at the Marion Manufacturing Company's plant, arrived here to investigate the riot.

The union members claimed the mill management refused to take back all union workers despite an agreement to do so.

R. N. Baldwin, president of the company, said the only persons the company had not reemployed were part time workers and some 35 persons who were undesirable.

COUNCIL TAKES NO ACTION ON TRAFFIC RULES

Discussion of the one hour parking law, the proposed ordinance that would forbid left hand turns on certain downtown street intersections, and the reports of city officials for the month of September, occupied the major attention of City Council Tuesday night in regular weekly session. Mayor O. W. McDonald presided, with all members of Council present.

No action was taken on the left hand turn ordinance and despite suggestions that the one hour parking law be suspended for 60 or 90 days, no action was taken on this, it being deemed wise to let well enough alone. It was voted to replace old one hour parking signs with new ones, these to be placed on one and a half inch pipe, seven feet above the sidewalk.

To Mark Division Lines
Chief of Police G. A. Williams was authorized to purchase a marking machine for the purpose of painting division lines in center of streets leading in and out of the subways on Austin and Vine Streets, as well as for the marking of other streets in the city. This will be done as an aid to traffic.

Judge Frank Sweet was before Council last night in an effort to make some kind of agreement relative to the obtaining of sewer and water service for six lots just outside the city limits, on Avenue K and Seventh Street. Although almost an hour was devoted to a discussion of this pro and con, no action was taken, Council being of the opinion that no bargaining could be done until the property is brought within the city limits. On the other hand

Judge Sweet wanted to know what to expect from the city before bringing the property inside the city limits.

Officers Report
City Secretary Scott reported receipts for September totaling $14,726.91 and expenditures of $44,432.17. This unusually large expenditure was explained by the payment of notes and bills, some long past due, totalling almost $25,000.

City Judge James McCartney reported the disposition of cases in city court, revenues from which totalled $696.

Chief of Police Williams reported the collection of fines in September, totalling $695.57.

Rance Pettitt, fire chief, reported six fire alarms for the month. Three fires were had, the total damage by these being $7,835, with insurance of $5,435 having been paid.

HOTEL MEETING IS POSTPONED

A mass meeting scheduled for Monday for purpose of hearing a hotel proposition will be postponed until other hotel propositions before the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce have been thoroughly considered, the directors decided at their luncheon in the Southern Hotel Monday noon.

W. Murray Graham and R. Niles Graham, builders of Austin, men who have extensive ranch and oil interests in Brown county, came before the Chamber of Commerce directors with a deal asking for $100,000, six percent preferred stock to be sold in the city, they to arrange for the balance of possibly $400,000 with which to erect a ten story, 150 room modern hotel on the corner of Chandler and Brown streets.

The men said that they have secured the promise of a ten-year lease from reputable hotel operators should the hotel be built. They had with them blue prints and cuts of the proposed building which were gotten up by Gliesecke and Harris, architects of Austin and Houston.

Their offer to the directors was so near like that of others heretofore, it was said at the luncheon, that the directors said they wanted a little more time to study the matter before calling a meeting of the citizens to pass on the idea.

BOERNE, Tex., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Placing its faith in Jim Bunn's story that he killed his stepfather, Joe Graham, lawyer, in defense of the young man of murder, Graham, Bunn said from the stand, advanced upon Mrs. Graham with a butcher knife.

NO AUTO RACE HERE SUNDAY

There will be no automobile race program at Fair Park Sunday, as advertised on cards posted about town, according to Milton Burks, secretary of the Fair Association.

Mr. Burks stated that last week promoters of an auto racing program conferred with the Fair Directors as to a program to be given in Fair Park, but the proposition was delayed by the directors.

"We have made no contract for the racing program, and advertisements announcing such an event are wholly unauthorized," Mr. Burks stated this afternoon.

Works Not Knowing That a Bone in His Neck is Broken

BRENHAM, Texas, Oct. 1.—(AP)—For two months G. G. McNeese, district manager of the Southwest Bell Telephone Company, here attended the business as usual without knowing that a bone in his neck was partially fractured.

The vertebra was injured when McNeese lost his balance and fell against a chair, the back of his neck violently striking the top of the chair. His neck left stiff but did not give him much pain so he paid little attention to his injury for two months, at the end of which time an X-ray was made and the fracture discovered.

His physician said that he would be well again after wearing a brace for about two months.

INTERNATIONAL CORNISH EXHIBIT TO BE HELD HERE IN DECEMBER

An international poultry meet in Brownwood in December will probably bring hundreds of visitors from all over the continent to this city, it is stated by W. S. Jarrett, secretary of the Mid-Texas Poultry Association.

This is a meeting of breeders throughout the world who specialize in the American or dark species of Cornish chicken. It is expected there will be 400 birds of this variety in this show, many of them coming from Canada and one pen from Australia.

The show will be held in conjunction with the Mid-Texas annual show at the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall December 10 through 14. At the same time a turkey exhibit will be held, so at the same time there will be three big shows here, two local and one international.

Judge E. J. Colby from Canada, an authority on the dark Cornish breed, will be in Brownwood at that time to judge this big show.

A meeting of members of the Mid-Texas Association will be held in the county court room at 7:30 p. m. Friday to make arrangements for these three shows. Turkey breeders of this section are invited to meet with them.

FORMER RESIDENT OF BROWN COUNTY EARNS PRAISE AT LUBBOCK

The following from "The Lubbock Avalanche" concerns a woman well known in Brown county. Mrs. Fine, will be better remembered here as Miss Velezia Casey. She taught several terms in Brown county rural school.

"Lubbock county has in Mrs. C. Z. Fine, of Posey, a farm woman who loves rural life and whose name has been written frequently into the history of constructive work for the rural people during the last few years.

"Mrs. Fine has been living in Lubbock county since 1920 and during that time she has become a prominent figure in the section. As a charter member of the Farm Bureau association, she has watched the development of that organization during its history and because of her interest she was sent on an extended cooperative marketing tour of the west two years ago by Lubbock county.

Was Club President

"She was serving as president of the County Federation of Women's clubs when that organization became affiliated with the state federation and later she served as president of the home demonstration club at Posey.

"She has been vice-president of the County Federation, has represented her community at the A. and M. Short course, and is a director in the Farm Bureau.

"In addition to these things, she has taught school for five years in Posey and is now a member of the school faculty at New Hope, where she has two sons in the high school.

"My friends ask me why I don't teach in town, but I always tell them that I don't care to. I think the country is the greatest field for work and I love the rural life. I am the daughter of a farmer, the wife of a farmer and the mother of two farmers," she asserts with the voice of pride.

1,600 MEN LABOR TO PREVENT SAVANNAH RIVER LEVEE BREAK

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Sixteen hundred men labored feverishly today to prevent flood waters of the Savannah river from breaking through the 12 mile levee that protects Augusta.

Already standing at 46.6 feet, two tenths of a foot higher than last week's record level the water was expected to go to 47 feet under pressure of heavy rains in the river's upper watershed.

E. B. Emulugh, United States meteorologist at Augusta, said the floods were almost certain to break through into the city and told Mayor Bell the situation constituted the gravest crisis in Augusta's history.

R. S. Howard, United States District Engineer at Savannah, in charge of strengthening the levee here, said there was grave danger of a crack at a point opposite the business section, and that in its weakened condition, the levee probably would wash out if water entered the fissure. Mr. Howard advised residents of lowland sections to move to higher points in the city.

The officials predicted backwater alone would stand at a depth of four feet in the business section today by noon. Last week's flood set water varying in depth from six inches to two feet in the low lying streets of the city.

All power in the city was gone.

Parents Allow Him $5 a Week of His Own $65 Salary

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—James Vlastnik, 20, asks of his parents only one simple boon—that they keep their hands out of his pay envelope.

The young man has taken the matter to court, explaining he desires $5 a week, but that his parents allow him only $5 of it. The other $60, he said goes for an automobile and luxuries for their enjoyment. He complained he hadn't had a new suit in 18 months and he was obliged to go barefoot, having no funds to buy shoes.

He asks the court to compel the mater and pater to leave him his $65 alone.

Edinburgh Deputy Escapes Bullet

EDINBURGH, Texas, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Chief Deputy Sheriff A. R. Baker, brother of Sheriff A. V. Baker, whose political affiliations have been attacked several times in recent months, was alive today because a bullet, believed to have been sent by a potential assassin, struck the windshield of his motor car and not him. Deputy Baker was fired on near McAllen yesterday, the bullet splintering glass from the windshield in his face. An investigation was begun.

Building House in His Odd Hours

DENISON, Texas, Oct. 2.—(AP)—In Denison is built "the house that Jack built," but the house that L. D. Gaffey built—or is building as it will be for two years more when the lone workman plans to have completed his full-size two story business structure, with his own hands after 11 years of patient toiling at odd hours.

In 1920 Mr. Gaffey single-handedly started the task of erecting a concrete structure 50 by 120 feet, and now, after nine years of labor, expects to finish the first floor for occupancy within a few months and to fully complete the building within two years.

Working with "mental blueprints" and plans alone, Mr. Gaffey is a stone mason, cement man, carpenter, plumber, electrician and all other building craftsmen within himself. His hands are equally skilled with saw or trowel.

The undertaking of assembling materials into the two story structure alone would conquer the average man. But Mr. Gaffey has moulded with his own hands more than 3,000 cement squares used in the walls of the building.

DANCING-STAR

Appearing in the superb spectacle, "Aladdin and the Paradi of Gold," the new professional feature of the Al. G. Barnes Circus which exhibits in Brownwood, Tuesday, October 8th.

Nearly one thousand people appear in the cast, headed by the Chinese beauty, Lola Lee Chong. Dancers, singers, pianists and musicians all contribute to what is claimed by the management to be the largest spectacle ever produced under canvas. Al. G. Barnes personally directs the production at each presentation afternoon and night. The elimination of the parade with the larger circuses has added speed and punctuality to the performances as the actors are enabled to put their utmost efforts into their programs.

SAN ANGELO MAN SAYS HE WAS ALARMED OVER WIFE'S CONDITION

"My Wife Is Feeling Fine After Suffering Ten Years, and Says She Doesn't Think She Could Ever Get Along Without Orgatone Again," Says Rice.

J. J. Rice of 34 West 2nd St., San Angelo, Texas, who is warehouse clerk at Walker-Smith Wholesale Grocery Company, while talking with the Orgatone representative made the following statement regarding his wife's benefits and what she thought of Orgatone.

"When my wife began taking Orgatone," he continued, "she could hardly do her work she was in such a bad shape. She had suffered terribly with stomach trouble and indigestion for ten years, and it's alarming she was losing fast. She lost her appetite entirely and she couldn't eat anything that would agree with her. After eating, her stomach would swell and she would get sick and awful every night. She had no sleep, and at times, it was hard for her to get her breath. She was also bothered with her kidneys and had severe pains in her back and sides, and had to get up several times every night. She was badly constipated and so nervous she couldn't sleep and was so run down and weak, she didn't feel like doing anything at all. She seemed to get worse instead of better, after trying all kinds of medicine. It just looked as if she would never find the right medicine for her case. Orgatone had helped so many people here and was advertised so highly, she decided to try it. You should see her now. She looks better in every way and says she feels fine, and she thinks Orgatone is the best medicine there is.

"She has improved in every way, sleeps fine at night, and her stomach trouble and indigestion have all left her. Her nerves are much better. She doesn't have those pains in her back, for her kidneys are just about normal. She is stronger than she has been in a long time, and is relieved of her troubles in every way. She says she doesn't think she will ever quit taking Orgatone, it has done so much for her."

Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Brownwood at the Camp-Bell and Peerless Drug Stores. (Adv.)

BEAUTIFICATION OF SCHOOL GROUNDS AS EDUCATIONAL AID

Beautifulizing the grounds of the schools of the county by means of planting shade trees, is the theme of an article by J. Oscar Swindle, county school superintendent.

The article follows:

"If it is true that environment influences the mind of a child, then may we not consider our school buildings and grounds a factor in proper educational development? Who would say that a human life is not enriched by coming in contact with nature's beautiful gardens of springtime—her green fields and pastures, the wild flowers, bees and butterflies, the song birds, shady lawns and babbling brooks?"

"We all realize the sublimity of beautiful scenery, and yet, what a dull unsightly place is the average rural school. Our children go from day to day to a house with four walls built on some barren spot beside the road at the edge of some pasture or field. Or if it is in a village or town we see a stack of brick or stone in the middle of a desert place called a campus. Out in the country we call it the school ground. These are the monuments we have built to the honor of posterity, which Jefferson talked about.

"Now that a goodly number of our communities have recently erected beautiful new school houses it seems fitting that the people of these communities should make some cooperative effort to beautify the grounds. Some will say it is a fool's dream to think of such a thing. Others will say it can't be done. Many will say it is too much trouble, and if the thing is ever accomplished the burden will fall on that few who will say it is worthwhile, and who are willing to sacrifice in order that humanity may be blessed.

"True, it will take some effort without a direct financial reward. But after all, anything that improves the minds of people or raises them to higher ideals and standards of life is an economic gain to the resource and wealth of a nation. Then let us think of it in terms of joy, and influence on a child's

Texas Lumber Cut Little Above 1927

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Lumber cut in Texas during 1928 was less than one tenth of one per cent greater than in 1927 according to figures released recently by the Department of Commerce.

The Lone Star state figure for last year was 1,446,686,000 feet, board measure, as compared with 1,448,460,000 the preceding year. The increase in the number of mills, however, was greater, there being 215 last year compared with 194 in 1927.

Although Alabama led the country in 1928 with 1,502 mills, producing 1,980,632,000 feet, Washington with 433 mills produced 7,305,277,000 feet to take its place as the greatest lumber producing state in the country.

JUST ANOTHER JOB

TOLEDO—Three men tried for two days to move an 1800-pound safe in the offices of Coroner Frank G. Crett. They fumed and sweat all to no avail. The safe had to be moved, as Kretz called in his 15-year-old son, Frank, Jr. He stretched, pushed against the safe, and it moved! He yawned and walked away.

WITCH-DOCTORS UNION

KIMBERLEY, S. A.—The witch-doctors of Dingaka have unionized. The purpose of the union is to protect its members. Although the government frowns on the organization, the doctors still have considerable control over the natives. Truck Was Turned Completely Over

COMANCHE, Texas, Oct. 1.—(Sp)—Roy Harris, of Brownwood, was painfully hurt in an automobile smash up on the outskirts of Comanche, Monday morning. He is a truck driver for the Walker-Smith Wholesale Grocery Co., of Brownwood. Another car was trying to pass him on a hill, and struck the front wheels of his truck. The other car, a coupe was only slightly damaged, and the driver uninjured. The truck in which Harris was riding was completely turned over once, in the ditch, and came to rest on its wheels. The cab and

NOTED KENTUCKY TOAST LEADS TO PRETTY CIRCUS EQUINE ACT

In the days when gentlemen of Kentucky rose to give their commonwealth toast concerning "fast bourbon, the management of Al G. Barnes Circus, which exhibits at Brownwood, Tuesday, October 8th, "Some day," he told himself, "I'll have an act with more handsome horses and beautiful women in it than has ever been dreamed possible by American circus owners."

Well, the Kentucky bourbon is gone—officially—but the management has the act—one hundred pretty girls and one hundred handsome horses, dancing horses, and they present in the five rings and the hippodrome track of the Al G. Barnes ballet. All the horses really step with the music of the big show band, and the girls dismount and dance with them. It's been termed "The Act Beautiful" and it is one circus act that more than lives up to its billing.

front part of the truck was totally demolished, the driver escaping death miraculously. He had several painful cuts and bruises which were treated in Comanche. Several stitches were necessary in the right leg and arm. He will be at work again in a day or so.

REDUCED RATES ANNOUNCED BY GAS COMPANY

A new gas rate for domestic gas users in Brownwood of thirty-five cents a thousand cubic feet, has been announced as now in effect by the Community Natural Gas Company, local manager.

Under the new rate, which became effective Aug. 16, 1929, the minimum monthly bill for 3,000 cubic feet is $1.05. Ten per cent addition will be added to bills not paid within ten days of the monthly billing.

This is the second rate reduction within the last year and establishes a rate that is thirty per cent below the rate of any major gas company operating in this vicinity.

The new rate will probably come as a surprise to the gas users of Brownwood who have not been aware of the fact that they have been using 35 cent gas during the past month.

Mr. Morgan further stated that the plans are in the making to bring to Brownwood one of the foremost home economic experts of the country to demonstrate the value of modern methods in the use of natural gas.

This instructive training is a part of the activities of the Free Home Service Department, which is a part of the company's service to its customers and is for the purpose of familiarizing the housewives of Brownwood with this department of the company.

CHAIN SHOE COMPANY SOON TO OCCUPY OLD CITIZENS BANK CORNER

The old Citizens National Bank building, corner of Center Avenue and Baker, will soon have a tenant according to Joe Renfro, owner, who recently remodeled the structure making a few more modern offices on the second floor and making material changes in the appearance of the front.

The Melville Shoe Corporation of New York, a chain store organization operating between 400 and 500 stores, will occupy this store room starting October 15, Mr. Renfro said, having leased the room for a long period.

The new company in Brownwood will make all further improvements putting in their own style of front the said.

He was carried immediately to the local hospital where surgical and medical attention is being given.

MACDONALDS GOOD SAILORS

S. S. Berengaria, Oct. 2.—(P)—Prime Minister MacDonald and his daughter, Miss Isabel, en route from Great Britain for a conference with President Hoover, have proved to be good sailors.

Some members of the British suite have hardly emerged from their cabins victims of seasickness, but the premier and his daughter have not shown the faintest trace of the malady, both with their walking and Miss Isabel's dancing, being among the most active persons aboard.

Mr. MacDonald yesterday paid a brief visit to the sun deck where he played shuffleboard with Robert G. Vanstarr and W. L. Craigie of his staff.

Later Captain Sir Arthur H. Ross, was host at tea in his cabin on the bridge. Among the guests were James W. Gerard, former United States Ambassador to Germany, and Mrs. Gerard.

Just two days remain to the party aboard ship, the expectation being it will arrive in New York early Friday morning.

REAL REALISM

ACTOR: The audience laughed so heartily at one of my comedy presentations that they held their sides and when they left the theater they were bent double.

TRAGEDIAN: That's nothing. I once died so realistic on the stage that the manager engaged another actor.—Flegende Blaetter, Munich.

Old Settlers of San Saba Would Keep Treaty Rock

SAN SABA, Tex., Oct. 2.—(P)—Attempts of the San Saba Fair association to donate "Treaty Rock," one of a group of several stones left near here as a record of the peace pact between Indians and white settlers in 1850 to the University of Texas has met with opposition by the Old Settlers' association. Members of the latter organization maintain that the rock should be left undisturbed.

The University already has a similar rock in its natural resources library.

Nineteen old settlers headed by Hugh Miller, president of the group, are opposing the donation.
