

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS,

OCTOBER 5, 1956

NUMBER 46

Speaking before members of the Cooke County School Trustees Association Tuesday night Senator Ray Roberts urged support of the proposed constitutional amendment to increase retirement benefits for the teachers.

The most important merit in the proposal, according to his analysis, is that it will help to meet the distressing shortage of teachers, which is serious now and threatens to become far more serious in the next several years. As regards old teachers who are approaching the retirement age its value is negligible because they do not have enough years left to build up a substantial fund.

In plain words, people are advised to consider this problem from a purely selfish angle rather than from sentiment. As much as they wish the old faithful teachers to enjoy a few extra comforts in their declining years, they should be impressed even more by the prospect of making the teaching profession more attractive so that more and better talent will take on the job of training today's children.

As a matter of fact the proposed amendment is only a short step in the right direction. Teachers deserve better salaries to meet current needs as well as a better plan of future security. They deserve the kind of financial opportunity that is offered by industry for engineers and scientists. Above all, they deserve much more than a poorly educated laborer doing a simple routine job.

The absurdity of the teacher pay situation shows up in the case of the youngster who said he was quitting school to take a job. His teacher urged him to continue in school and prepare himself for something better in later years, but his plea fell flat as the young man said "the job I'm taking pays more than you get, and it doesn't require an education."

The critical problem illustrated by this episode can be found in thousands of communities. Teachers, who are charged with the biggest of all professional responsibilities, directing children's talents and energies into channels of useful citizenship, receive so pitifully little for their work. When we consider the compensations we can readily understand why the teacher shortage is becoming alarming.

It's high time for a general change in public attitude on this subject. Too many people still think that the state officials are goofing off money when they provide pay increases for teachers. Too many seem to consider teachers as community servants entitled to no more than a servant's wage. Besides that, too many are unconcerned about the extra hours of preparation, paper grading and extra curricular work a teacher takes on. They count the class hours and that's all.

No one who thinks over the subject can fail to understand that this part of our economy is seriously out of gear. The importance of a teacher's profession, the big investment he has in an education, the time he spends on the job and the mental strain in his work . . . every one of these factors separately should entitle him to more than average pay, and combined they should entitle him to exceptional comfort and security.

Present indications are that America will become aware of these things within the next decade. Teacher shortages are due to get more serious and we're likely soon to see schools offering big bonuses to complete their faculties.

The old law of supply and demand will eventually solve our problem but it will probably waste a lot of our children's time in the process. Necessity will force us to give teachers a more reasonable pay, and then we will gradually see more people entering the profession.

But the emergency is already here. The number of teachers is declining while the number of students is growing. Something should be done at once to put teachers in their proper economic bracket and attract more capable youngsters into the profession. A starter is that amendment to provide more security in their retirement.

Sen. Ray Roberts Heads Meeting for County Trustees

A brief review of the state's proposed constitutional amendments by Senator Ray Roberts was the headline event on the program at the quarterly meeting of the Cooke County School Trustees Association in the Muenster High auditorium Tuesday night.

Senator Roberts considered each of the amendments on which Texans will vote in November, explaining their provisions and in some cases stating whether the proposals are good or bad for the state as a whole.

He also mentioned that the amendment most badly needed in the state is not on the list. It is one which would call a session of the legislature every year instead of a mere 120 days in two years. He said senators and representatives should remain in Austin to be available when needed and also to see that appropriations are spent as the legislature intended.

Others on the program were Dr. T. S. Myrick, who presented the Muenster board's welcome; County Superintendent W. E. Chalmers who enumerated current problems needing attention, and Superintendent Homsley who presented the speaker.

At the customary fall election of officers the group recommended by the nominating committee received unanimous approval. They are Charles Newton of Valley View, president; J. G. Biffle Jr. of Myra, vice-president; Hubert Irwin of Era, secretary-treasurer; Bert Burch of Walnut Bend, reporter.

After the meeting Superintendent and Mrs. Homsley served coffee, pie and ice cream in the library.

Christmas Parade Dated December 7

Muenster's Christmas parade this year will be held on Friday, December 7. Members of the Lions Club in their meeting Tuesday picked that date as the most desirable. They will start working on the event at their next meeting, October 16.

The intention is to send invitations for participants as well as spectators to all neighboring towns and communities. A school day was favored rather than a Saturday so that all local children will be able to attend.

60 Acres Burns in Campbell's Pasture

About 60 acres of grass was lost Saturday morning in a fire on the Hill Campbell pasture about four miles east of Muenster. Originating at the highway, it is believed to have been caused by a cigarette thrown from a car.

Pumper trucks from the fire departments of both Muenster and Gainesville responded to a call for help and got the blaze under control in a short time.

September Bone Dry; Moisture for 12 Months is 11.99

The driest twelve-month period in the memory of community old timers was completed here Sunday. From October 1, 1955 until then the moisture measure on the city's official gauge adds to 11.99, almost exactly an average of one inch of rain per month.

This is about one third of the average for the previous ten years and barely over half as much as the driest of the previous ten years. In 1952 the total was 23.01. The next low was 26.10 in 1954. The wettest year was 1950 with a whopping total of 43.53. A single month of that year, August, had 10.47, almost as much as the entire twelve months just past.

Two of the past twelve months were bone dry. They were No-

Sister Carmelita had been on the teaching staff at Holy Angels Academy in Jonesboro until her transfer here.

Another change at the parochial school is its second grade teacher. Sister Rita who began the term was transferred to Little Rock and Sister Ursula who was at Little Rock is taking her place here.

Attending from here were Mrs. Richard Grewing, local president and district color bearer; Mrs. F. A. Kathman, assistant musician for the district; and Mrs. Richard Swirczynski. At the men's meeting were Herbie Herr, president of Post 6205, and F. A. Kathman, Herbert Yosten and Pat Hennigan.

MHS Team is 3rd In Elm-Red District Judging Contest

Muenster High's FFA junior grass judging team finished in third place Saturday in the annual Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district grass judging contest and received a plaque as an award. The boys ran up a score of 1,143. Whitewright was first and Tioga second in the contest. Their scores were 1,275 and 1,248.

Muenster's senior team was fifth in the competition in which Tioga's team placed first, Whitewright's second and Gainesville's third.

Glenn Hellman coached the Muenster teams. Members of the junior group are Jimmy Sickling, Donny Trubenbach, Doug Hellman and Melvin Wilde. Senior team members are Kenny Klement, Billy Otto and Roger Fleitman.

Fourteen teams were in the judging event which was sponsored jointly by the Gainesville, Denison and Sherman Chambers of Commerce, the Muenster Lions Club and the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

Extra Point Wins, New Diana Eagles Edge Tigers 19-18

By the small margin of a single point New Diana's potent and scrappy Eagles shoved Jerry Vernon's Sacred Heart Tigers out of the undefeated ranks last Friday night on the Tiger field.

The final tally was 19-18 in a fast and rugged contest that was tied three times and decided by the visitors successful attempt for a point after the final TD of the game.

Probably the outcome would have been more decisive if the Tigers had not been favored with a few lucky breaks. They recovered three Eagle fumbles and intercepted one pass. Once they trapped the kicker after a bad pass from center to set themselves up in scoring business on the 8 yard line. A single fumble was the only break that went against the Tigers.

Early minutes pointed to an easy stampee for the visitors. After returning the kickoff 12 yards to their 37 the Eagles moved 63 yards for the first TD in eight plays. Covin, who sparked the Eagle attack all night, did most of the gaining and also went over for the score.

Also powerful but less spectacular were Lancaster and Westbrook. With Covin they made up a formidable running attack. The big difference between the teams is that while Sacred Heart had Mollenkopf the Eagles had three like him.

The next touchdown was postponed until midway in the second quarter. Sacred Heart took its inspiration after recovering a fumbled kick on the Eagle 44. Mollenkopf stepped off most of the yardage in an eight-play push that ended in a jump pass to Fleitman for the last 8 yards.

Sacred Heart's next counter came a few minutes later after (Continued on Page 9)

Tigers Favored in Thursday Tilt with Gainesville B Cubs

The Tiger game is going to be different this week if spirit and determination can be figured as deciding factors. With the memory of their one point loss to New Diana still haunting them, the Sacred Heart gridders have made up their minds to switch back to the win column this week.

Their foes for the clash, which will get under way on the Tiger field at 8 o'clock Thursday night are the Gainesville B Cubs. Sacred Heart rates as at least an equal with three 10-B circuit members, which have trounced the Big G boys in previous contests this season, and is favored to come out at the long end of Thursday night's count.

Era, Saint Jo and Valley View each beat the Gainesville B by decisive scores and Callisburg lost by a one-touchdown margin.

KCs Plan 2 Events For Patron's Feast

Two events bracketing Columbus Day will mark the Muenster KC council's observance of its patron's feast.

Wednesday night, Oct. 10, the members and their ladies will have a dance in the K of C hall. The following Sunday the members and their families, and lady friends of the single members, will be guests of the council at a barbecue supper and picnic in the parish park.

Members were also urged to observe the feast in the traditional manner by receiving Communion. Because of the supper, the council will not have a communion breakfast.

Muenster, Alvord Meet in Opener of 10-B District Race

The championship of District 10-B football may be in the balance Friday night when Alvord's Bulldogs invade the local field for a tussle with Coach John Hosea's Muenster High Hornets. Both teams are rated as strong contenders for the loop trophy and the outcome can possibly stand up as the deciding factor in the conference race.

Alvord showed its strength last week in holding Coach Hood's Bridgeport Bulldogs for three quarters. The teams had a TD each until the final period when Bridgeport slipped over two fast scores. In previous games Alvord had smothered Decatur B and licked Boyd 19-6. Coach Hosea has lots of respect for the husky and hard hitting Alvord crew, but is confident that his Hornets can come through . . . "unless they make too many mistakes."

The Hornets go into the conference opener with the distinction of being the only undefeated team in the 10-B loop. Victims in their first three games were Pilot Point, Whitesboro and Windthorst.

While the Hornets and Bulldogs are fighting it out other loop teams will also be clashing in their conference openers. Valley View goes to Callisburg and Sanger goes to Era. Saint Jo has an open date.

Results in last week's games played by District 10-B teams are as follows. Alvord lost to Bridgeport 19-6; Valley View beat Gainesville B 28-0; Era beat Cedar Hill of Dallas 14-7; Saint Jo lost to Valley View (Wichita County) 48-26; Callisburg lost to Marietta 12-0; Sanger lost to Pilot Point 33-13.

J. W. Hess, who is retiring from the Board of Supervisors after thirteen years of service, was elected chairman of the convention type election and Paul Fisher was elected to serve as secretary.

After the election the group saw a short color motion picture entitled "The People Together," which explained how and why soil conservation districts are organized. J. M. Weinzapfel and Rush Freeman supervisor from zone 5, paid tribute to Mr. Hess and his record of accomplishments as a district supervisor. Mr. Hess has not missed a board meeting during his 13 years of service and he has received an award as outstanding supervisor of the state.

Tony Walterscheid has been cooperating with the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District since August 1947. At that time he worked out a coordinated soil, water and plant conservation plan on his farm with a technician of the local Soil Conservation Service. He has learned that soil and water conservation pays good dividends and is determined to save the soil so that future generations will live and prosper.

Local Banks Meet Most Credit Needs For Texas Farms

Texas farmers and ranchers met their credit needs during 1955 chiefly through loans from their local banks, according to Frank Morris Jr., President of First State Bank, Gainesville, who represents the Texas Bankers Association as Cooke County Key Banker. During the year, the state's banks provided more financial aid to farmers and stockmen than any other lending agency, he pointed out.

Using figures from the fifteenth annual farm lending survey of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Morris noted that on January 1, 1956, Texas banks had loans outstanding to farmers and ranchers totaling $288,590,000 including both production and mortgage credit. This compares with $285,374,000 held by insurance companies, second largest lender to Texas agriculture; $164,810,000 held by Federal Land Banks; $62,263,000 by Production Credit Associations; and $90,408,000 by the Farmers Home Administration.

COMPLETE FUNERAL SERVICE

Miller Funeral Home

Adam Wolf of Gainesville. Rev. Louis Deuster performed the double-ring ceremony and officiated at the wedding mass. The church choir and Anthony Luke, organist, provided the music. White gladioli, yellow mums and greenery adorned the altar and baskets of pampas plumes decorated the sanctuary space.

Mr. Hartman gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white French lace and net over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and long petal point sleeves of lace. The very bouffant carpet length skirt of accordion pleated net was topped with an overskirt of lace with scalloped edges at its divided front. Her veil of imported French illusion was finger-tip length attached to a queen's coronet of seed pearls. She carried a purple orchid surrounded by white florets on top of a bride's prayerbook, a gift from the groom. Her gold cross and chain was worn by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Bayer, on her wedding day in 1894.

Joann Wolf and Della Hartman, sisters of the couple, attended Georgia Ann as maid of honor and bridesmaid. The former wore yellow and the latter orchid. Their identical dresses of net over taffeta were designed with tight fitting waists buttoned down the front and wide skirts held out with crinolines. They wore matching head pieces and mitts and carried arm bouquets of yellow mums.

Willard Hartman, brother of the bride, was best man and Douglas Reiter of Gainesville was groomsman. Alvin Hartman and Ed Wolf, brothers of the couple, ushered.

Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Wolf, mothers of the couple, completed their costumes with red rose corsages.

After the services, a reception and dinner in the parish hall honored the newlyweds. About 200 guests attended. Theresa Mae Felderhoff and Loretta Mages presided at the guest book. A dance in the VFW Hall preceded the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf on a wedding trip.

"...just remember, I want my kitchen to be ALL-ELECTRIC!..."

Somewhere in the blueprint stage . . . this is a statement that's being made more and more often. There's wisdom behind it, too. Building a new home without an electric kitchen is somewhat like building a 1940 model automobile! So, if you're planning a new home, build it to modern standards . . . be sure your architect's specifications provide for an all-electric kitchen including the latest in electrical cooking, dishwashing and other conveniences . . . and really get your money's worth of modern living.

Reddy Kilowatt says: The heart of the home is the kitchen. Make it modern . . . insist on electric appliances . . . live better, electrically!

THE WORKER IN RUSSIA

From the time of its origin more than 100 years ago the Communist Party has called itself the workers party and has constantly claimed that its fundamental purpose was to benefit the "working class." This has been only one of the great falsehoods of Communism. Communism was conceived and nurtured by intellectuals, and since coming to power it has been operated by a dictatorship of the elite, with the workers becoming its slaves.

Socialism likewise has directed its appeal to the "working class," promising to take over and divide up all the wealth into equal shares for all citizens. But Socialism has succeeded only in distributing equal shares of poverty and slavery among the citizens entangled in its web, while its bureaucracy of intellectuals pulled the strings. History records innumerable incidents in which demagogues — always appealing to the "down trodden," the working class," and "have nots" — have gained a following, have achieved power, and then have trampled over the very people they championed so eloquently.

The Spell Continues

Human nature doesn't change. People the world over still are vulnerable to demagoguery. Most of the "free" nations of the world are today ruled by socialistic governments created by "workers parties." Not one of them has a workers living standard more than one third as high as we have in America. The more Socialism a nation has, the more restricted is the workers freedom and the deeper his poverty. With this fact in mind, the recent testimony of Nikolai Khokhlov before the House Un-American Activities Committee ought to be carefully read by every worker, every citizen, throughout the free world.

"At every step the ordinary man in the Soviet Union is treated as a slave," said Khokhlov, the former officer of the Russian secret police whom our Congressmen describe as one of the most valuable witnesses ever to testify on the Communist conspiracy. His testimony continued:

Communist Slavery

"Let me give you an example: You are a worker in a plant, you don't like your job, but you cannot quit. If you try to leave, the director — or I should say the boss assigned by the party, can always stop you — even arrest you — because you do not have the legal right to leave your job. Or, if you come 20 minutes late on your job, automatically you get 25 per cent cut in your salary for six months. This is a part of the labor discipline decree published in 1940 and still maintained in force.

"If you came 20 minutes late a second time, you should be brought to trial, carrying a penalty up to one year in jail. This usually doesn't happen because the director of the plant or factory is interested in keeping you on the job, and, therefore, he just overlooks it. But he continues to take the 25 per cent of your salary for another six months.

Permit To Travel

"I would like to stress another point . . . All citizens in the Soviet Union have to have a passport. In other words, an identification booklet, which you may need at any time. If you cross the main street anywhere not permitted by traffic law, the first thing the police will ask for is your passport. In this booklet besides your personal identifications, your civic status, relation to military service (there also must be recorded) all your movements throughout the country.

"You cannot even move from one house to another without an entry being made in the book, and you cannot stay in a town other than your own longer than 24 hours without getting your book stamped." Khokhlov went on to describe the miserable living conditions of the Russians, particularly the workers families. But Communist officialdom, he said, lived very well. "I would like to stress again," he said, "that the conflict between the Soviet people and the Soviet Government is not primarily based upon the standard of living. The conflict was and is based upon the lack of personal freedoms."

Poverty and slavery thus are the realities of the golden promise of Russia's "workers paradise."

A Henry County, Indiana, grand jury, according to a recent Associated Press Dispatch, has "morally indicted" both the violence in last fall's strike at the Perfect Circle Corporation and witnesses who would not talk about it . . .

"Explaining that it could not get enough evidence to indict anybody, the grand jury said:

"The people responsible for this (violence) we brand as cowards who have no place living in the United States. They are near relatives of Hitler's Gestapo and Russia's idea that the end justifies any means used to achieve that end.

"Serious thought should be given to changes in our laws which protect the guilty from convictions for their crimes against their friends and neighbors."

These are strong statements but I think the situation thoroughly justifies them. When a lawless band professing to be a labor union can defy the lawful authorities destroy property, terrorize a whole community, and go unpunished, something is certainly wrong somewhere. But it may not be enough to change some laws, imperative as that may be. It may also be necessary, if such situations are to be permanently corrected, to change some hearts. Where there are convictions within there is not much need for convictions from without.

What Is Government For?

By Eugene J. McCarthy, Member of Congress

IN THE pressing activities of an election year, many of us will become involved with political parties and with particular candidates for public office.

We should not, in these political activities with parties and personalities, be led to accept unsound theories concerning the origin, nature, functions, and purpose of the State.

WE MUST eschew the erroneous political and theological doctrine that the State is the result of the evil or depraved nature of man and is justified only because it protects its citizens from the results of this evil in man.

McCarthy

For beyond this negative protective function, the State has a positive function of assisting man in the pursuit of happiness in the temporal order, in attaining the common good.

THIS COMMON GOOD includes three principal categories of human good things: material goods necessary to maintain man's life and to aid his intellectual, spiritual, and moral growth; intellectual goods to free him from ignorance and false fear; and moral goods to enable him to attain self-mastery.

Although religion and morality have long been recognized as essential to a stable political order, the lines between government and religion cannot always be clearly drawn. Religion has a significant bearing and responsibility on government, and government must be concerned about the moral and spiritual life of its citizens. Yet we must be alert to the danger of the intrusion of the State into areas of culture and into areas of the social and private life of its citizens. Yet we must be alert to the danger of the intrusion of the State into areas of culture and into the areas of the social and private life of man which are beyond the authority of the State. We have learned the dangers of the absolute and totalitarian State in the Western world.

We have learned the great danger of rendering to religion the things that are Caesar's—political authority and political power; and of the danger of rendering to Caesar the things that are God's—faith, worship, and absolute obedience.

† Paulist Feature Service, Washington 17, D. C.

Home is where the average Texan spends more than two-thirds of his time, and where the average person is perhaps more careless with fire than any other place.

Men are peculiar, just as women have long suspected. For instance, a fellow who hadn't kissed his wife in five years, shot a fellow who did.

"A friend is someone who walks in when the rest of the world has walked out."

Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much; wisdom is humble that he knows no more.

Ike Better Democrat Than Adlai, Says Supporter

A bunch of us were standing around talking the other day, and the talk got around to politics like it usually does. Some of the boys said they'd voted for Ike in '52 and were going to do it again; some of them said they'd always voted the Democratic ticket straight and always expected to — you know how it goes around a little Texas town.

One fellow said something that made the rest of us stop and think. He said he was a Democrat, sure—always had been, and his father and grandfather before him. And he always felt like he had to vote for the best Democrat in the race, which he was going to do this year.

"And that means," he said, "that I'll have to cast my vote for Ike Eisenhower. He's a better Democrat, by my definition of a Democrat, than that other fellow ever will be."

And besides that, he said, Ike kept his promises to Texas and Texas ought to return the favor by keeping Ike.

You know, he might have had something there. "Gratitude" is one of the greatest words in the English language, and we all like to think of ourselves as being grateful when people do something for us. Like I heard a man say one time: "Texans are people who never forget anything that is done TO them—or FOR them." That's the way we think of ourselves, and it's about right.

This Eisenhower man pointed out that Ike promised to give the Tidlands back to Texas, and he kept that promise; he promised to do his best to close out Mr. Truman's war in Korea, and he kept that promise, and he promised to give us a government in Washington that we could be proud of, because it was clean and honest and efficient—and, in this man's opinion, he had kept that promise.

"I know you're reading and hearing a lot of stuff to the contrary," he told us, "coming from Brother Stevenson and Brother Kefauver and the rest of the politicians on the other side. That's politics for you. Everybody expects them to jump on Ike every way they can, and I guess they'll keep on doing it right up to Nov. 6. But the American people are smarter than some politicians give them credit for being, and before they vote they're going to sit down and ask themselves this question:

"Remembering 1952, when our boys were dying in Korea and the newspapers were full of talk about mink coats and Communists and corruption in Washington—now, be honest about it: If you could, would you go back to 1952 and start over with Adlai Stevenson instead of Dwight D. Eisenhower?"

This man said he wouldn't, and come to think of it, I wouldn't either. As a matter of fact, I think Ike has made us one of the best presidents we ever had. If we had to go to war, I'd certainly rather have him at the head of our government than any other living American. But even more importantly—I'm convinced he is the best man to keep up OUT of war.

That's why I still like Ike—better than ever!

Yours truly,

Tex

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hoffman of Wichita Falls were weekend visitors with his mother, Mrs. John Hoffman. They had just returned from a two-week vacation with friends in Colorado.

Jimmy Fisher and Joe Carroll McElreath of Arlington State College came home for weekend visits with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman of Fort Wayne, Ind., and his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mueller of Deerfield, Mich., arrived last Thursday for a visit with relatives of the Hartman families. They had visited the Leo Hartmans at Three Rivers and the Carl Lukes at Hereford before coming to Muenster. The Hartmans were here five years ago but it's the Muellers' first visit in Cooke county. They were among early arrivals to attend the wedding of Georgia Ann Hartman to Walter Wolf Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Shelton of Denton visited her relatives of the Wieler families here Sunday.

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Luke were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henzler of Pilot Point.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Laake of Dallas were Sunday visitors with his sister Angela Laake and niece Rosa Driever. The noon dinner observed the brother and sister's birthdays. Both have anniversaries in late September. A handsome cake baked by Mrs. Laake and gifts for the two honorees provided a festive touch to the informal affair.

Sister Theresa's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fetsch, their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weber and two children, all of Baton Rouge, La., visited her at Gainesville Sanitarium Saturday. Frank is a cousin of Paul Fetsch of Muenster and the visitors were supper guests in the Fetsch home before starting the trip back to Baton Rouge. Sister Theresa was "holding her own" and was responding to medical care following major surgery on Oct. 25. Sister Juliana, a registered nurse from St. Bernard's Hospital in Jonesboro, Ark., is nursing her.

The bake sale sponsored by the seniors of Muenster High Saturday netted $73.95 for the class treasury. Mothers of the students baked 75 loaves of bread and 22 cakes in addition to sweet rolls, doughnuts and pies for the event. Students took turns selling the baked goods at Fisher's Market, headquarters for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lueb have returned to Carlsbad, N. M., after a vacation visit with relatives here and elsewhere. They were the guests of her sisters, Mrs. Al Fleitman and Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp and their families while they were in Muenster. The Fleitmans accompanied them to Louisiana where they visited in Natchez with the Luebs' daughter, Sister Miriam Dorothy, and with their aunts, Sister Cordula and Sister Constantia. The Luebs also visited in Oklahoma with his brother Henry, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Lueb and a cousin Henry Lueb. After leaving here they stopped in Lubbock to see their daughter, Mrs. Howard Morlock and family, before going home.

Mrs. Kenneth Cottle and children left Monday to return to their home in San Antonio after a seven-week visit here with her parents, the Joe Hoenigs. They took her and the youngsters to Fort Worth Monday night to board a train for the trip. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pelzel and family of Denton joined her folks for dinner and an afternoon visit.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. (Bill) Hellman of Tulsa flew to Muenster in a private plane last Thursday landing at the farm of his parents, the Gus Hellmans. They visited there and with her parents, the J. M. Weinzapfels, and later, joined by Mrs. Weinzapfel, went to Fort Worth and Dallas by car. They saw Father Joe Weinzapfel but missed Father Thomas Weinzapfel who had left Dallas for Houston to attend a retreat. In Fort Worth they visited the Hugh Jacksons and talked by phone to Mary Weinzapfel, a student at OLV Academy. Bill and Agnes stayed here overnight, then flew back to Tulsa Friday.

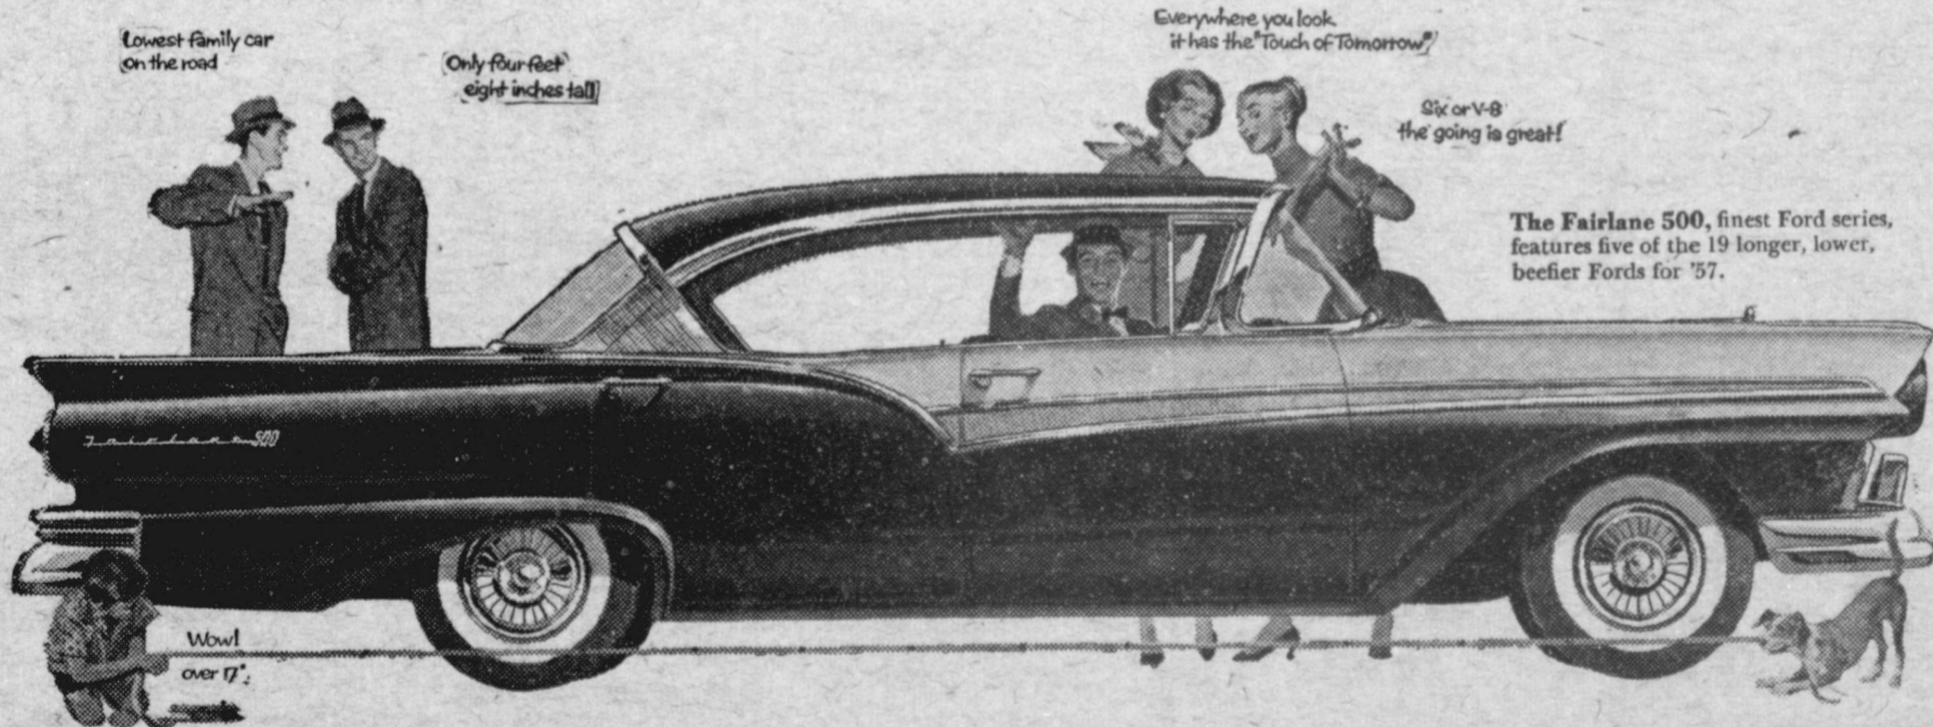

Guests of the Frank Needhams last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blanton of Kansas City, Mo. Joining them Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Adamson who were enroute back to Dallas after a trip to California. Mr. Blanton and Mrs. Adamson are brother and sister.

came the magic that made possible so wonderfully different a Ford. In the toughest on-road tests ever given to a car, this "Inner Ford" demonstrated that a '57 Ford rides you sweet and low... that it takes the bumps without a hobble, the curves without the pitch... and, that in power, it "takes nothing from nobody!" Nothing on wheels hurries, handles or holds up like a Ford!

A new kind of FORD with the mark of tomorrow

You're in for a thrill when you see this new knock-out named Ford! But save your superlatives till you drive it! That's where the fun really starts.

It's fun just knowing that others who see you wish they were you. For you're commanding the longest, lowest, heaviest, biggest car ever to sport such a low price tag. There's head room to spare for a new fall bonnet... stretch-out space for a "Daddy Longlegs."

You'll find that the tough and ready new "Inner Ford" is built to take the roughest road you'll care to travel. New outboard rear springs and ball-joint front suspension let Ford take the turns without the tilt. New swept-back control arms help take bounce out of bumps.

Best of all, Fords library-like quiet is built in. And the new "Inner Ford" is why. For never before in Ford's field has there been a body with so much extra bracing so firmly anchored to its foundation. And you can choose from three big Silver Anniversary V-8's with up to 245 horsepower. There's also a new Mileage Maker Six with 144 horsepower, the most modern Six in the industry.

You can pick your Ford tailored to your desires and your budget, too! Choose from nine Fairlane or Fairlane 500 models or from five Custom or Custom 300 models. Or take your pick from Ford's five longer, lower, new station wagons. Whichever model you select, you'll get a car that's been re-invented from the wheels up!

So there's the new kind of Ford. Big! Gracious! Spacious! A luxury car true—but one that any new-car buyer can easily afford. Come in! See what wonder-cars you can buy now at low Ford prices.

The Fairlane Fords for '57, like the Fairlane 500 models, have no equal... no counterpart, in the low-price field.

Infant Alan wore the traditional baptismal dress worn by his mother and all the children and grandchildren of the J. J. Haverkamp family. It was made by Mrs. Haverkamp.

The timid little man rose to leave. "Do you have to go home early—as usual?" exclaimed an irritated associate; "what are you—a man or a mouse?"
"A man, of course," replied the little man with dignity.
"What makes you so sure?" asked the antagonist.
"Because," explained the little man meekly, "my wife is afraid of a mouse."

holding the Eagles for three downs following the kickoff. On the punt attempt the center's pass went wild, high over the kicker's head, and the play was smeared for a 17 yard loss, back to the Diana 8. Starting from there the Tigers did the job in 3 plays, Henscheid going over for the score.

Luck was still with the Tigers after the next kickoff, but time was not. They recovered an Eagle fumble on the 20 and set up a first down on the 5 as the half ended.

After intermission the Eagles snapped back in a hurry. They held the Tigers on the first series, took a kick on their 28 and scored on the first offensive play. Left End Fowler took a long heave from Covin, slipped past a lone Tiger defender and headed for the goal. The play was good for 72 yards.

Late in the period Henscheid intercepted an Eagle pass to spark another scoring drive. Walterscheid made 4 and Mollenkopf got away on a beautiful ramble for 30 yards to the Eagle 7. Four DARI-KOOL will pay for itself in use. HERE'S HOW...

The cost of hauling milk in cans is 40 cent per 100 pounds as compared with 25 cents per 100 pounds for hauling tank milk, thus a saving of 15 cents per hundred.

Elimination of wastage of milk spilled or left in the can at the plant is 7 cents per 100 pounds.

Improved butterfat test gained by selling all the cream instead of leaving some of it sticking to the can and lid account for another 6 cents per hundred.

THIS GIVES A TOTAL SAVING OF 28 CENTS FOR EACH 100 POUNDS OF MILK HANDLED. THIS 28-CENT A HUNDRED SAVING WILL PAY FOR YOUR DARI-KOOL.

A producer with an average of 10 cans of milk (86 pounds each) a day will sell 25,800 pounds per month. At 28 cents per hundred saving, he will be ahead by $72.24 each month.

The approximate cost of a 250-gallon tank installed is $2,400 with interest of $216 for a total of $2,616. This can be divided into 36 monthly installments of $72.11 each. THUS YOUR SAVINGS MAKE YOUR PAYMENTS FOR YOU. This estimate is without down payment or trade-in, which would cut the principal and monthly payment substantially.

Lindsay News

Mrs. Adam Wolf and infant son Randy Pat have been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium and are at their home here.

Marlene Bezner and Miekay Fuhrmann, student nurses in Fort Worth, were at home for a weekend visit with family members.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bezner and son Rickey have returned to their home in New Orleans after a two-week vacation with relatives and friends. They started their trip homeward last Wednesday, going to Dallas for visits until Friday with his sisters and families, the Leo Cutais and Bob Youngs and his brothers Bob and Al Bezner. His mother Mrs. Joe Bezner went with them to Dallas visiting there until Sunday when Al Bezner brought her back to Lindsay.

Mrs. Lena Schmitt is visiting in Fort Worth with her daughter Mrs. George Rohleder.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bezner and three sons of Fort Worth visited his mother, Mrs. John Bezner, during the weekend.

Mary Margaret Hermes, student nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, weekended with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hermes.

Irene Block who attends business college in Fort Worth was the guest of her parents, the Pete Blocks, during the weekend.

Knights of Columbus members of the Lindsay-Gainesville council held their annual picnic Sunday with their families as guests. The affair began at noon with dinner. Everybody brought eats and drinks. Picnic grounds were Ed Schad's farm.

After their first tiff, young husband said sadly: "Have you forgotten that you promised to 'obey' when we were married?" "No," retorted his wife, with a gleam in her eye; "but there's time enough for that when I see some of the worldly goods with which you promised to endow me."

Saint Jo Wallops Muenster 19-13 in 10-B Junior Tussle

After winning their football game the Muenster Pee Wees went to pieces and allowed the Saint Jo Kittens to take it away from them.

The final score was 19-13 here Tuesday night as the Saint Jo kids went to the air and slipped over three fast touchdowns, the last about two minutes before the end of the game.

Muenster's first touchdown came just before the end of the first quarter on a three play advance for some 80 yards. Doug Hellman made 10 and Larry Wimmer scooted 20 to mid field then Hellman went all the way. Johnny Hosea went over for another point and the count was 7-0 at half time.

The Little Hornets seemingly salted the game away in the third quarter as Wimmer got loose on a 40 yard scoring romp.

But that's when the Kittens started playing football. A pass play made about 60 yards and a touchdown. Minutes later, as the last period opened, the visitors took a kick in midfield and scored.

With the slim margin of one extra point, Muenster was still leading until some two minutes before the end. A recovered fumble on the 20 gave the Kittens their golden opportunity and they made the most of it. On their third attempt they passed for the winning TD and the try for extra point was good.

The Muenster Juniors now have a 50-50 standing in the 10-B Junior conference... a win over Sanger and a loss to Saint Jo.

Next on their schedule are the Alvord Juniors, next Tuesday at Alvord.

Cubs Tie 6-6 With Windthorst Kids

Father Patrick Hannon's Sacred Heart Cubs at least broke out of the loss column last Sunday, but they still failed to mark up their season's first win. The final tally was 6-6 in their tussle with the Windthorst youngsters on the Trojan field.

The home town kids held the advantage through the first half of the game and ended a determined push with a touchdown near the close of the first half.

After intermission the situation was reversed. Sacred Heart

Feathers Are Good For Chicken Feed

STILLWATER—The chickens of America don't know it but a flock of them are dining on feathers.

U. S. Department of Agriculture experiments show that meal made from feathers make chickens grow faster. It's fed as 3 to 5 percent of ordinary feed grains, but considering how much chickens can eat, that still is a lot of feathers.

Big broiler states such as Arkansas and Mississippi, with upward of 40,000,000 birds a year, produce enough feathers to keep quite a flock of chickens fed. First work with feather meal began only two years ago but some 40 states now label it proper feed for chicks. It's now recognized by poultrymen as a standard feed ingredient.

was more consistent and made its score late in the third period. Paul Danglmayr went over and Theo Miller's attempt to break the tie failed by just a little. The Cubs will go to Gainesville Sunday for a game with St. Mary's. Kickoff time is 2 o'clock.
