

LEAGUE ASKED FOR MEET ON DISARMAMENT

GENEVA, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The League of Nations today called upon by the Irish Free State to convene a general disarmament conference of the powers.

WHEAT STUDY WILL BE MADE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Investigation of the disparity between Canadian wheat prices and the prices of wheat in the northwestern states, together with a study of the whole subject of grain storage facilities, has been initiated by the federal farm board.

Dedication of Airport at Big Spring Opens

BIG SPRING, Texas, Sept. 11.—(AP)—With 25 planes, including 12 army ships from Kelly Field, here the Big Spring air fête opened today under auspicious conditions.

Sterling Says Race Depends on the People

MEXIA, Texas, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Whether Rose S. Sterling, chairman of the State Highway Commission would become a gubernatorial candidate depends on the enthusiasm with which his followers call on him to make the race, it appeared today.

Revised Rates on Grain Are Filed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The Missouri Pacific and Wabash railroads today filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission revised rates on grain and grain products providing for reduction of 7 cents per 100 pounds from Kansas City to gulf ports.

Spanish-American War Veterans Are Holding Sessions

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Election of officers for the ensuing year, with virtual assurance the new commander-in-chief would be Governor Fred W. Green of Michigan, was the order of business at the 31st annual convention of the United Spanish-American war veterans here today.

Two Georgians Are Electrocuted

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Homer Simpson, former Greenville, Tenn., police chief, and Malcolm Morrow, of Jacksonville, Fla., died in the electric chair at the Georgia state prison farm here today for the murder of C. A. Perry, cashier of the State Bank of Kingsland, Ga., on Feb. 23, 1928.

Prominent Jewish Philanthropist Dies

ZURICH, Switzerland, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here reported today that Louis Marshall, prominent Jewish philanthropist of New York City, died this afternoon of an affection of the pancreas.

VARE CASE IS UP IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The long standing opposition of Senator William S. Vare as Senator from Pennsylvania today shunted to one side and replaced the tariff as the official subject of Senate debate.

Anxious that consideration of the tariff bill be delayed no longer than possible, administration leaders were striving to postpone the Vare issue, brought up by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, with the introduction of a resolution barring the Philadelphia from the Senate. The measure took automatic precedence.

Brewery Heiress Is Killed by an Angered Gardner

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Barbara Diebold, 62, heiress of the Diebold brewing fortune, was shot and killed at her Euclid village home today by a gardener angered because he had been dismissed, police said.

Electrocuted for Attacking Girl

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Willis Buckner, 33, white man, was electrocuted in the State prison here today for attacking a young girl several months ago. He was pronounced dead at 10:30 o'clock.

Bridge to Be Kept Open for Fete

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The department of the interior has instructed border authorities to keep the international bridges open day and night September 14, 15 and 16 to give persons on the American side opportunity to participate in the Independence anniversary celebrations in Mexico.

Change Schedule KCKB Announced

Beginning today a change in the hours of broadcast goes into effect at station KCKB. The station will be on the air eight and one-half hours a day. This change was made after a number of complaints were made by listeners.

The management feels that this arrangement will meet with the approval of a very large per cent of its listeners and they are trying in every way to please the audience of listeners that tune in on KCKB each day.

Glad Hand Class Has Weenie Roast

The Glad Hand Bible Class of the Austin Avenue Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a weenie roast Tuesday night at Lakewood Park. Almost the entire membership of the class, under the direction of Jess McDaniel, attended.

After the assembly had finished with eating, the boys and girls sat around the camp fire and engaged in story telling and other forms of amusement.

May

A car accident happened early Wednesday morning, in which quite a number were very badly upset. Little L. B. Petty had come to May for some cotton pickers and was returning, with seven people beside himself.

Along with the nice rain this week which broke the long summer drouth, farmers are sowing grain and planting fall gardens. Cotton is opening fast, and along with the road work and work on the new church, there are no idle hands in the country.

W. T. McMurry, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McMurry, received a broken arm Sunday, while cranking a car.

School begins Monday, Sept. 30. Prof. Horace White, Russel Petty, Miss Billie Kate, Ruth, Mrs. Horace White, Mrs. Mary Michaels, Miss Aleene White and Miss Elizabeth Robertson are the teachers.

The Ladies Mission Society gave an apron party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Braunton, and have cleared thirty-two dollars. This money goes to help on the one hundred dollars the ladies pledged for the new church.

The Rebecca Lodge donated a nice box to Mrs. Jim Harris, who recently got her house burned.

Mrs. Ida Shubick and children returned to Waco Monday after a few weeks' visit with relatives here.

DR. ECKENER MEETS HIS PEERS

The world's most famous flyers—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the globe-circling Graf Zeppelin, and Colonel Charles Augustus Lindbergh, America's 'Lone Eagle,' are shown above as they met in Cleveland, Ohio, during the National Air Races when Dr. Eckener was the honor guest on the scheduled closing day.

Gene Morgan Once Had a Horse and Couldn't Get Rid of Him

Gene Morgan, manager of the Community Natural Gas Company in Brownwood, is the subject of an interesting little story appearing in the September issue of 'Blue Blaze', a Dallas publication for employees of gas companies.

Shop of Youth

Advertisement for 'Shop of Youth' featuring fur-trimmed coats. It includes a table of prices and a list of items on sale. The table shows 'Sept. Price' and 'Value' for various coats, with values ranging from $59.75 to $145.00. The text promises a 10% discount on all coats.

TEXTILE STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

MARION, N. C., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Striking union textile workers, some of whom have been unemployed for nearly two months, were free today to return to their jobs in the Marion Manufacturing company and the Clinchfield Mills, after the calling off of the strike last night by officials of the United Textile Workers of America.

French Approve the Briand Idea

RAMBOUILLET, France, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Premier Briand's idea of a 'United States of Europe' was approved by the French cabinet today at its first meeting since the Hague reparations conference began on August 3. The meeting was held under the direction of President Doumergue and M. Briand, at the president's summer chateau.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE HAS CHARGE OF KIWANIS PROGRAM TODAY'S MEET

Today's program at the regular weekly luncheon of the Brownwood Kiwanis Club at the Southern Hotel, was in charge of the Education Committee. Kiwanis L. C. McKean explained in detail the duties of all committees of the club and Dr. Homer B. Allen, lawyer with a short talk on club programs.

Advertisement for Roussel-Robertson Co. featuring men's suits and hats. The text asks 'ARE YOU DRESSED For Autumn?' and 'YOUR NEW FALL HAT'. It lists prices for two-pant suits from $19.88 to $37.50 and hats. The company name 'Roussel-Robertson Co.' is prominently displayed at the bottom.

