VOLUME XXII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

APRIL 18, 1958

NUMBER 21

Magnolia Station Bought by Bill and Carl Walterscheid

Temporarily, yours truly has a new job. Along with Gilbert Endres he is currently representing Muenster on the jury panel of the Federal court, which is now in session at Sherman. It's a job which, according to official reports early Monday is likely to extend through all of next week.

It's also a position in which every citizen of this great country ought to feel proud and privileged to serve. So said the judge in his short talk to the jury panel when it first assembled . . . and so every thinking person will agree when he considers that trial by one's equals is civilization's highest development of human justice and is to be found only in nations which have a regard for human dignity.

As if to emphasize the sacredness of the human rights with which it deals, the court maintains an atmosphere of strictest dignity. All in all it makes the average person a little more conscious of the blessings that we Americans enjoy . . . and too often take for granted.

To Con the job is interesting also in that it provides a new experience, along with a little first hand knowledge of the procedure in a Federal court.

First of all, the judge assigned to the Eastern District of Texas serves in six cities, some of which have many more cases than the Sherman court. Actually he gets to each court about twice a year. When he arrives many cases are awaiting him. In some the defendant pleads guilty and the judge does little more than impose a sentence. Other cases, however, are subject to a regular trial and juries must be available for each.

To provide those jury members a federal marshal summons a sufficient number of citizens from the area concerned and they form the panel from which jury members are selected for each trial. The area served by the Sherman court includes Cooke, Grayson, Denton and Collin counties.

The procedure Monday was typical in the selection of jurors. Attorneys for Case A selected their 12 from the panel of about 30. Those jurors were then advised that their case was the second to be tried and all were dismissed until a specified time the next day . . . unless notified in the meantime that their reporting time had been postponed.

Next the jury for Case B was selected from remaining members of the panel and were told that their case would begin promptly. Other panel members were dismissed until they are notified to return.

That case closed Wednesday at noon after which jury members joined the six left over after Monday's selections to form the panel for the next jury. Persons selected then were notified to return Thursday and the others were told to report next Monday.

Considering that no person has to serve on two successive juries he is actually on duty about half the time . . . provided he is selected each time he appears on the panel. However, figuring the time spent at reporting and just being available, plus traveling time, it gets to be almost a full time job.

In the long run it amounts to a sizeable contribution of time to one's country and system of government. Members are compensated, of course, but the compensation is far from the equivalent of an average day's pay . . . it's only $7.00 . . . so the service constitutes a personal sacrifice for practically every juror. That situation is improved somewhat, but not quite enough, by a travel allowance of 10 cents a mile.

In the light of widely circulated recession reports it was encouraging to see an item last Sunday saying that agricultural areas are feeling much less of the recession pinch than the industrial areas.

That applies especially here in Texas where abundant moisture gives promise of a bountiful harvest. After years of drought and slump in meat prices it isn't surprising that many farmers, and the business people of their areas, look forward with confidence.

So far this year conditions are generally mighty pleasing. The past few weeks of dry weather have allowed most farmers to make up for time lost during the long wet spell. As matters stand now grain is looking fine and recently planted crops, favored by a dandy soaker, are ready to

A new business firm in town is the partnership of William and Carl Walterscheid as new owners of the Magnolia Service Station. The bought the station Monday from Otto Walterscheid who had owned and operated it since February 1947.

William Walterscheid has just returned to Muenster after spending two years in the armed services. He was a graduate of the 1954 class at Sacred Heart High and Carl was graduated in 1955.

The two brothers took over management of the station on Tuesday. Next week William will attend a special training course for filling station operators conducted by the Magnolia Company. During that time the former employer-employee relationship will be reversed as Otto assists Carl in operating the station.

Otto's plans for the future give priority to his job as partner-manager of the Relax Theatre, however he expressed a willingness to fit in other work if it does not interfere with his theatre management.

FFA Land Judging Team Is Fourth in Elm-Red Contest

Muenster Future Farmers made a good showing in the land judging contest at Gainesville and came in for fourth place honors, missing the three top spots by only a few points. Billy Otto, member of the four-man team from the MHS chapter, chalked up an individual score that placed him in third place and won him a medal in the individual competition. Glenn Hellman coached the team composed of Jimmy Sicking, Walter Fette, Gilbert Knabe and Billy Otto.

Nocona's FFA chapter stood out in front with the most points for the team and for individual scoring with Harold Reynolds as high man in the contest. The FFA team from Whitesboro came in second and the FFA team from Tioga, third.

It was the second annual district land judging contest sponsored by the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district. It was held Saturday at the pavilion in Leonard Park. Eleven FFA chapters from the district and 4-H clubs from Gainesville, Lindsay, Era and Montague county participated.

The Nocona team compiled 694 points out of a possible 720. Muenster scored 526 points. Reynolds made 220 points out of a possible 240 and Otto from MHS accounted for 202.

The three top teams receive plaques and the three high individuals receive medals.

Kin Here Notified Of Sudden Death Of Frank Phillips

Relatives here have received word of the death of Frank Phillips, 70, who passed away suddenly in Portland, Oregon, late Sunday. Death came while he was with his wife and a cousin, George Mertes, in the living room at the family home.

He was the brother-in-law of Mrs. Ben Hellman and his wife, the former Miss Nell Mertes, is a former Muenster resident.

Frank Phillips was the inventor of the original Phillips screw. He was also an oil operator and drilled several wells in the Muenster area in the early 1930's. He and his wife were regular visitors here and have a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

In addition to his wife he is survived by four sons, one daughter and several grandchildren. Other relatives include a nephew Clarence Hellman of Muenster and a niece Mrs. Irene Frost of Gainesville.

524 Persons Given Free Chest X-Rays

Five hundred and twenty-four persons received free chest X-rays here while the mobile X-R unit operated last Wednesday afternoon and all day Thursday. None of the 524 was under 20 years of age. This year's mass chest X-ray program was directed principally for older persons.

The mobile unit's visit in Muenster was arranged through courtesy of the Cooke County Medical Association and the County TB Association. The local VFW Auxiliary was the sponsoring group and Mrs. Clarence Hudspeth was general chairman. The unit operated in the show room of Endres Motor Co.

Serving as hostesses and clerks here were Mmes. Dick Trachta, L. J. Roberg, Dick Cain, John Huchton, A. T. Dickerson, I. B. Dern, Herbert Cunningham, C. J. Newman, Rudy Hellman, Tony Koessler, J. C. Trachta, Ray Evans, Hank Walterscheid, Joe Luke, Lee Toothaker, J. M. Weinzapfel and Ray Swirczynski. Fisher's Market furnished coffee and cookies for the workers.

The sponsors explained that if films are normal those who were X-rayed will not receive a report. In previous surveys everyone received a card. Only if films are abnormal will persons be notified to contact the physician they listed on the registration card.

Mrs. Hudspeth and members of the Auxiliary thank everyone who helped in any way while the mobile unit was in Muenster.

Enthusiasm Soars As Workers Prime For Parish Drive

Enthusiasm in the Sacred Heart fund raising campaign is running high this week as more than 100 future canvassers are attending special meetings to help organize the drive which is due to get under way late next week or early the following week.

Striving for a goal of more than $200,000 in cash and pledges, the latter to be met over a period of 30 months, the campaign's working crew gathered in Sacred Heart School Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights for instructions in tried and proven methods of organizing and conducting a campaign. The instructions were given by John Monk of Dallas, a specialist in organizing community fund drives. Hubert Felderhoff is serving as campaign chairman.

Next on the campaign program will be two social events at which the goal and method will be presented to the parish. Persons attending those functions will learn about the parish's obligations and the comparative ease by which it can be met if people will contribute reasonably and regularly. No solicitation will be made at either event. The purpose in each case is to present the program publicly and to follow up with strictly private and confidential appeals for funds.

The first such program, the kick-off dinner for the advance gifts division, will be held at the parish hall next Monday night. Bishop Danglmayr will attend as a special guest and principal speaker.

The next event will be held the following Thursday night. Identified as the kick-off dinner for the special gifts division, it too will feature a program inspiring enthusiasm for the drive and the over-all program of parish activity. Plans for it are not complete at this time, however Msgr. Wm. O'Brien of Dallas is expected as the speaker.

When introducing the campaign last week Father Christopher said its primary purpose is to adopt a more practical way of meeting parish debts . . . by using the modern method of installment payments and by revising individual attitudes toward church obligations. But he also had a secondary purpose in mind . . . the greater interest and enthusiasm of parish life resulting from better methods and better attitudes.

White Elephants To Raise Funds for Muenster Brochure

A white elephant sale, to be conducted Tuesday, May 6, at the Muenster Livestock Auction, is the Muenster Lions' solution, or at least a partial solution, to the problem of helping finance a community brochure. The decision was made by the Lions at their regular meeting Tuesday.

Arrangements for the affair are assigned to the club's finance committee headed by Dick Cain. Others serving with him are Jerome Pagel, Herbert Meurer, J. B. Klement and Emmet Fette.

Its purpose is to cash in by the sale of items which are no longer useful to one person but may be useful to another . . . such as good clothing that a child has outgrown, an appliance no longer in use, a toy or gadget or kitchen utensil. All the community is invited to turn in items of that nature and co-operate with the Lions in raising funds for the brochure publicizing the community.

The brochure planned will be somewhat similar to that published about three years ago by the local school district. It will emphasize Muenster's merits and possibilities with a view to enhancing the city's prestige and promoting its continued progress.

Members of the city council at a recent meeting voted to share in the cost of the brochure.

Wolf Competes at Regional Saturday

James Wolf winner of the mile run in this year's Interscholastic League district meet, is nearing the end of a rugged two weeks training session in preparation for the regional meet to be held at Denton next Saturday. He is the only member of the Muenster High track team to qualify for the regional meet and can advance to state competition by winning first or second place.

According to Coach Ansley Wolf is currently making his best time ever on the mile jaunt and has a fair chance of copying the blue ribbon.

Officers Installed At VFW Post Meet

New officers of Muenster's VFW Post were formally installed at the organization's April meeting. Pat Hennigan, a past district commander was the installing officer.

Installed to serve for the coming year were Herbie Yosten, commander; Alfons Felderhoff, senior vice commander; Ray Voth, junior vice-commander; F. A. Kathman, quartermaster; Joe Sicking, post advocate; Raymond Walterscheid, post surgeon; Francis Wiese, chaplain; Tony Yosten, Herbie Herr and Tony Koessler trustees.

Outgoing Commander Joe Sicking conducted business preceding the installation. Principal discussion consisted of completion of plans for the District I convention which Muenster will host May 17 and 18.

Featured speaker at the banquet, the main event for the men and members of the Ladies Auxiliary, will be Johnny McCelvey of Electra, past department commander.

Crowded Calendar Faces FFA Members

Glenn Hellman and his FFA chapter members have three full days of activity on next week's calendar.

Monday the group will take their project animals to Gainesville for the annual county 4-H and FFA Fat Stock show. The boys will exhibit 18 hogs, 12 fat lambs and three fat calves. Tuesday morning they'll be back in Gainesville for the judging and Tuesday night they'll go to Denton for the district banquet. Wednesday they'll see their animals sold in Fort Worth.

The district banquet will feature election of officers and selection of the district FFA sweetheart. Jolene Carlton is Muenster's entry. Billy Otto is now serving as district treasurer and Glenn Hellman is the current district adviser.

Tigers Lose 10-5 to Jesuit B; Will Play Ennis Here Sunday

By a count of 10-5 George Petrus and his Sacred Heart High Tigers went down before Jesuit B of Dallas last Friday afternoon on the Jesuit field.

Battering Len Haverkamp and Pat Hess for three tallies in each of the opening innings, the Jesuit boys had their game in the bag before Howard Mollenkopf took over and allowed only one more run.

Tiger efforts also came early in the game, especially in the top of the third when they brought in 4 setting the score then at 6-5.

The Tigers trailed on both the hitting and fielding records . . . 5 hits and 5 errors as compared with Jesuit's 9 hits and no errors.

Next action for the Tigers will be with St. John's Hi of Ennis, next Sunday at 2 p.m. on the local diamond.

MHS Junior-Senior Banquet Crowd Hears J. T. 'Tugboat' Jones

A banquet crowd of about 75 students, parents and other guests heard J. T. "Tugboat" Jones of Dallas as the principal speaker at the MHS annual Junior-Senior banquet Sunday night.

Coach Jones, who delighted his audience with an address at the school's all-awards banquet early in April, graciously consented to a repeat appearance. His talk was entitled "What Will Make Us Successful."

The speaker outlined a pattern to follow for success in life, stressing a striving for success every day, to aim for perfection in day to day tasks no matter how unimportant they seem at the time, explaining that this day to day perfection leads to the ultimate goal, the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

The rainbow theme prevailed in decorations throughout the high school dining room, in the banquet menu and place cards. The girls in their lovely formals repeated the rainbow colors.

Billy Otto was master of ceremonies, Judy Cain led the invocation and Jim Harris and his band played dinner music. Kenny Klement extended welcome and David Klement responded.

Jeannie Aytes "turned back four years" and told the class history, Dolores Reiter read the last will and testament, and Margie Flusche gazed into the

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS
Relating to the Hospital Bond Election

In order that you may be as fully informed as possible about the advantages to you and your family of having a new hospital in Cooke County, there are listed below the most important questions you want answered about the proposed:

- Q. What is provided for in the $500,000.00 County wide bond issue?
A. A new efficiently designed and fully equipped 55 to 60 bed general hospital that can be enlarged to 100 beds at a minimum of cost.
- Q. What will be the cost of the new county hospital?
A. The new county hospital will cost approximately $900,000.00 of which the Federal Government will pay 50% or $450,000.00
- Q. What will be the cost to the taxpayers of Cooke County?
A. If we issue 30 year, 3 1/2% interest bonds, the cost to each taxpayer would be approximately $0.07 1/2 per $100.00 assessed valuation per year for 30 years. For example, if a taxpayer's assessed value of his property is $3,000.00, the hospital bond issue would cost him $2.25 a year or $67.50 over the 30 year period.
- Q. Is Cooke County able to afford this hospital?
A. Yes, our assessed valuation as of December 31, 1956 was $39,466,960.00. The present county indebtedness is only $73,000.00. This together with the expected hospital bond issue of $500,000.00 will give us a total debt of $573,000.000 or 1.5%, a very conservative figure.
- Q. Will the operation of the new hospital be a financial burden on the county?
A. NO, in Texas and Oklahoma counties of our comparative population have built hospitals under this same plan and they are paying their own way. Over 124 hospitals have been built under this program in Texas and only one of them has failed.
- Q. Is there a definite need for this hospital?
A. Yes, the Texas State Department of Health Area Survey shows we need 107 hospital beds. We now have 48 beds, leaving us a shortage of 59 beds.
- Q. Who can vote in this election on Saturday, April 26?
A. All County Taxpayers who have paid their poll tax.

Magdalen Noggler And Wylie C. Lewis Say Nuptial Vows

In Sacred Heart church here Thursday afternoon, April 10, at 4 o'clock Magdalen Noggler became the bride of Wylie Corbin Lewis with Rev. Bruno Fuhrmann officiating at the nuptial high mass and double ring ceremony.

Parents of the young couple are Mrs. Susanna Noggler and the late A. J. Noggler and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lewis.

Maggie was a lovely bride in a white floor length gown of embroidered tulle over satin. The very wide graceful skirt was enhanced with a divided front at the center revealing an accordion pleated underskirt of tulle. The fitted bodice was long sleeved with points over the wrists and the high neck was finished with a Peter Pan collar. The bride's circular veil was waist length caught to a tiara of seed pearls and sequins and she carried pink roses.

Margie Flusche, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Agnes Noggler, a sister, was bridesmaid. They wore identical empire banded princess dresses of pink crystalline over taffeta with matching picture hats and carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations. Their pearl earrings and necklaces were gifts from the bride.

David Walterscheid, cousin of the bride, and Jimmy Schumacher, cousin of the groom, served as best man and groomsman, respectively.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Alvin Noggler.

Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid, vocalist, presented a pre-nuptial solo and sang again after mass when the new Mrs. Lewis placed a bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Anthony Luke, organist, played the processional and recessional and remained at the console to accompany the men's choir in singing the mass.

After the service a reception and buffet supper in the parish hall honored the newlyweds. About 250 guests were present. Genevieve Noggler, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the meal. A wedding dance in the VFW hall concluded festivities.

The church altar was adorned with carnations in pink and white and the same color scheme was used in decorating the reception hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are making their home on his father's farm south of Muenster. Both are employed in town. He works at Stockmen's Feed Store and she is employed at Hofbauer's. Both are graduates of Muenster High school.

Visitor is Honored At Family Reunion

Rev. Lawrence Schumacher of Henry, Ill., visiting with his relatives of the Temple families five days of the past week, left Friday to return home. He made the trip by plane.

While he was here a reunion honored Father Schumacher in the parish hall. More than 60 relatives from Muenster, Lindsay and Gainesville gathered for the occasion. Everyone brought covered dishes for the evening meal. Father Emil Gerlich of Gainesville was a guest and entertained with magic tricks after supper.

Eileen Endres Has Birthday Observance

Eileen Endres celebrated her twelfth birthday with four events in which her classmates and her family shared. Setting for the observance was the lovely new home of Eileen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Endres, which the family occupied about a week earlier.

After attending 10 o'clock mass Sunday, Eileen and nine girl friends began a day-long party which extended into a slumber party at night and included breakfast the next morning before the group went to school. Centerpiece for the Sunday dinner table was a birthday cake in the shape of an old fashioned girl.

Eileen's birthday was Monday and that night she was the honoree at a family dinner party for which her grandmother Mrs. A. P. Miller and her uncle and aunt, the Ralph Breedings and their son Bobby of Gainesville were present.

Classmates helping Eileen celebrate were Linda Fette, Virginia Taylor, Jeannine Hofbauer, Kathleen Knabe, Eileen Knauft, Doris Fisher, Shirley Wimmer, Patsy Zimmerer and Evelyn Fetsch. They brought a shower of birthday gifts.

Rita Hennigan Wed In Albuquerque, N.M.

Of interest here is the wedding Saturday of Rita Hennigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hennigan of Albuquerque, N.M., formerly of Muenster, to Edward Baca of Santa Fe. He is the son of Mrs. Delphine Baca and the late Ernesto Baca.

The ceremony took place in Blessed Sacrament church in Albuquerque and afterwards the bride's parents were hosts for a reception for about 200 guests.

The Bacas will live in Santa Fe where he is an administrative specialist with the New Mexico National Guard. He was graduated from St. Michael's High school in Santa Fe. Rita is a graduate of Loretto Academy in Santa Fe and had been employed by the Albuquerque Publishing Co.

Mrs. John Hartman Observes Birthday

Mrs. John Hartman's birthday Friday was the occasion of a family gathering at her home. Her daughters, daughters-in-law, her sister Mrs. Joe Walterscheid, brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hess and her nieces including Mrs. Joe Walter of Gainesville enjoyed an afternoon of visiting and refreshments including birthday cake. Those present brought a shower of gifts for Mrs. Hartman.

Only member of the family unable to attend was a daughter, Mrs. Ed Mason of Houston and she called long distance for a telephone visit with her family.

Sister and Brother Share Party Honors

Mrs. Thomas Sicking entertained with a party Sunday afternoon for her youngsters Johnny 6 and Linda 4 who have birthdays a week apart.

Twenty-eight little guests joined the Sicking's five children for the afternoon. It was Johnny and Linda's first real party and they were elated over receiving a shower of gifts.

Indoor games and refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were high spots of the afternoon. Mrs. Sicking's sisters, Mrs. Tony Hacker, Mrs. Martin Hacker and Mrs. Leo Prescher, all of Valley View, and Mrs. Joe Luttmr brought their children and helped with the games and serving. Mrs. Wilfred Sicking, another mother present, also assisted with party plans. The men accompanied their wives and enjoyed domino games with Mr. Sicking while the women and children were occupied with the party.

New Senate Bill Calls for Secret Ballot by Unions

By Maurice R. Franks
 Senator Mundt (Rep., S. Dak.) introduced Bill S-3045 in the United States Senate on March 6 that calls for a secret ballot. Senator Mundt has incorporated in that Bill, a procedure, which he flatteringly has called "The Franks Plan." This procedure is as follows:
 1) Only in the event of deadlocked negotiations and only after a full Explanatory Period of 20 days has run, will the union be at liberty to order a strike vote.

 2) In response to such an order, a three member Election Committee would then be established — a committee composed of a duly authorized representative of the union, a duly authorized representative of the employer and a duly authorized representative of the public. (The public member of this legally prescribed Election Committee could be a representative of the National Labor Relations Board, or perhaps an available citizen acceptable to both the union and management.)
 3) It would be the function of this Committee to send out blank ballots by first class mail to all workers coming under the scope of the union contract.
 4) Ballots would be returnable only to a designated post-office box, which would be accessible only to the Election Committee as a body.

 5) Accompanying each blank ballot, as mailed to the home of eligible voters, would be a simple instruction sheet outlining the mechanics of executing the ballot. Also enclosed would be two envelopes of different size and of different color.
 6) The larger envelope — in color, for example, gray — would be addressed to the designated post-office box. On the back of this envelope would be space for the voter's original signature and home address. In case of dispute over the eligibility of any voter, the signature appearing on the gray envelope could be checked by the Election Committee against the established records of the company, the union, or both.
 7) The ballot, after execution as designated by the accompanying instruction sheet, would be enclosed in the smaller of the two envelopes (white, let's say, for the sake of identification). This smaller, white envelope, providing no means whatever of identifying the voter, would then be sealed and mailed in the larger, gray envelope already addressed to the designated post-office box.
 8) The Election Committee — as a body and only as a body — would collect the mail from the designated post-office box and together, before opening any mailing envelope, would check the eligibility of each voter to cast a strike ballot. Then, one by one, as eligibility is established, the gray mailing envelopes would be opened and the smaller, white ballot envelopes — seals unbroken — would be removed and deposited in a large receptacle or ballot box. Upon completion of this total operation, the sealed ballot envelopes would be opened by the Election Committee as a body and the anonymous ballots counted.

 9) The Election Committee, after double-checking the tally, would certify the vote for or against a strike.
 This procedure would guarantee a fully secret ballot — it would also insure each worker against reprisals by either union or employer, because neither would know how he voted. Senate Bill 3045, which calls for this procedure, if enacted, I am convinced would avert a great many of the strikes that prove so costly to workers, employers and the general public.
 Further, the passage of Senate Bill 3045 would bring an end to dictatorship in the structure of organized labor — it would give the unions back to the workers, who morally and financially own them, without destroying or in any way weakening the labor movement itself.
Reaching the "Downtrodden"
 "It's becoming increasingly difficult to reach the downtrodden masses in America," a comrade wrote to his superior. "In the spring they're forever polishing their cars. In the summer they take vacations. In the fall they go to the world series and football games. And in the winter you can't get them away from their television sets. Please give me suggestions on how to let them know how oppressed they are." — Prof. Dexter Williams.

WHO WAS CHRIST?

Adapted from a recent lecture by Frank Sheed, author of THEOLOGY AND SANITY

NO ONE ever fights about Jesus Christ anymore.

Everyone seems willing to accept Him as a great religious leader and teacher, a noble figure from the past who serves as a model for us. A nice, kind and generous man, always willing to give someone a hand and to help the little fellow.

BUT DO such people really know Jesus Christ?

If they were ever to read the Gospels all the way through — and there are few people who do nowadays — they would have a shock coming to them.

Everyone knows Sheed that Jesus told us to be kind to our neighbors and do unto others as we would have them do unto us. Few people today seem to know that He also said, "Unless you believe in me, you will all perish." These are strong words. So are these, "If anyone keep my word, he will not taste death."

THE MAN who spoke this way wasn't just an ordinary religious man. He wasn't another of the great religious founders like Mohammed, Lao-Tse or Buddha. Like them, He did preach the Golden Rule. But unlike them He claimed to be something different than any man who ever lived before or would live afterwards.

About fifty years ago, people fought about these words of Jesus. They tried to say He was deluded, or that His followers thought them up to glorify Christ. But scientific research since then has shown that the records of His words go back to the early years after His death. Study of those records show that Jesus was not deluded, but perfectly sound in every way.

TODAY people don't attack Jesus' claims to uniqueness, but neither do they accept them. They just seem to ignore them. But how can they?

The man who said, "Love thy neighbor," also said, "I have come down from heaven." The man who said, "Be kind to those who persecute you," also said, "Whoever believes in me, I will raise him up on the last day."

WHEN JESUS said, "I have come down from heaven," his townspeople got mad at him. They had known Him all His life and this was hard to take. When we realize that Christ was a man who walked and talked, ate and slept, this statement is hard for us too. But we can't ignore it anymore than the Jews could. We have to realize that this person Jesus was different, that He claimed to be God, that He claimed to teach the only true way to God. Either He was right or wrong; there is no middle ground.

Who is this generous Uncle who pays all the bills?
 He's going to build new roads all over the nation. Convenient. He wants to pay for new schools, instead of letting communities continue to pay for their own. Generous. He plans on feeding and clothing and educating and protecting millions of people all over the world. Big-hearted, even though many of the people he helps seem to sneer at him for it. He's going to keep farmers prosperous by having them do less work. Unique. He keeps tens of thousands of people on his payroll that experts say he could do without. Careless. But wait a minute — who is this Uncle whose money is being spent? YOU!

Peter Prescher Has Top Producing Cows In DHIA for March

Peter Prescher's cows ran up the highest averages in both milk and butterfat production to place them in the championship spot among DHIA herds in Cooke County for March according to the summary for the month just released by technicians of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association. Figures chalked up by the Prescher herd are 48 pounds of butterfat and 1310 pounds of milk.

Second place in butterfat went to Hi-Lo Farms with a 41-pound average and second in milk production was J. L. Masten's herd with 1160 pounds. H. H. Moody's cows were third in both categories with 40 pounds of butterfat and 1130 pounds of milk. Cooke County had a March total of 107 cows producing 50 pounds of butterfat or more, the summary reported, and an average of 878 pounds of milk per cow. Butterfat production of the 682 cows in the county association averaged 34 pounds.

Included in the summary were the state DHIA totals for February, which showed that Cooke County averaged 750 pounds in milk production and ranked second only to the Wichita Valley total of 880, thereby maintaining its number-two January position.

In statewide butterfat rankings, the county slipped from a January third-place tie to a tie for fifth place in February with Parker County. The summary showed the Cooke average as 29 pounds. First place went to Wichita Valley Assn. with 33 pounds.

The Cooke County totals were well above the overall state averages of 260 pounds of milk per cow and 25 pounds of butterfat.

Twenty-five associations are in operation in Texas and 326 herds totaling 14,336 cows were tested during the month.

Lindsay News

Mrs. John Bezner and daughter Mary Louise were in Fort Worth for a weekend visit with their son and brother, Ralph Bezner and family, and all attended church services Sunday in which little Stevie Bezner received his first Communion. There were 80 children in the communion class.

Mrs. Frank Sandmann of Lindsay was a surgical patient at Gainesville Sanitarium this week.

Charles Stoffels of Lindsay was admitted to Gainesville Sanitarium Monday after suffering an eye injury. A flying nail hit him in the eye while he was carpentering in Gainesville. The extent of the injury was not immediately determined.

Christian Mothers Society Has Meet

Routine business and plans for coming events furnished a full program for the April meeting of the Christian Mothers Society of St. Peter's parish.

Mrs. Norbert Zimmerer, president, presided and appointed a sick committee. Members are Mrs. Phillip Metzler and Mrs. Henry Zimmerer for the area north of town, Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann and Mrs. Pete Block for the city, and Mrs. Bill Sandmann and Mrs. John Hess for south of Lindsay.

Father Conrad met with the group and in a short address reminded everyone to attend the district meeting of the Catholic State League which Lindsay will host Sunday.

There followed a lengthy discussion on the parish picnic, slated for June 29, feast of Sts. Peter and Paul.

After adjournment a social hour was held and Mmes. Ben Hermes, Julius Hermes and Joe and Gregory Hundt, refreshment hostesses, served ice cream, cookies and coffee to 34 members.

take off on a nice start.

Another mighty important crop, grass, is doing fine. Dairy-men and beef raisers have lush pastures besides an ample supply of last year's hay. At the same time their products are bringing handsome prices.

All in all there's good reason for a cheerful outlook in the farm areas. And it goes to show why people like us are usually more concerned about the weather than the ups and downs of industries up north and east. We don't have to worry about a recession locally as long as a fair harvest is in sight.

A recurrence of illness has sent J. A. Stapp back to bed.
