

Parish Will Host Deanery on Feast Of Christ the King

Next in seriousness to the Quemoy situation itself is the attitude expressed during the past few weeks by so many influential persons in this country. People high in government, former office holders who still have a large following, also writers and commentators who reach millions with their opinions, have been busy ever since the President's speech trying to sabotage this country's official efforts to stand fast in defense of freedom and humanity.

Horrible examples of this aid and comfort to the enemy are such people as Harry Truman, Dean Acheson, Adlai Stevenson and Eleanor Roosevelt. Each of them has spoken out in criticism of President Eisenhower's policy, trying to convince the American public that the island is only a bit of worthless real estate and should be turned over to the Chinese Reds in order to prevent a serious war.

The unfortunate fact is that these people, though presently not in a position to shape official policy, are still accepted as leaders by millions of sincere Americans. Persisting in their former folly they still maintain that communists can be appeased by concessions and that the international gangsters can be trusted to live up to an agreement.

There is only one way to analyze the thinking of these people. In their arrogant pride they still fail to see their blunders of the past. Acheson, who shaped his State Department policy and sold out Chinese Nationalists on the absurd theory that the reds were "agrarian reformers" and who, in the Korean "police action," assured the enemy that the sanctuary of his home land would be respected . . . and Truman, who made all the requested concessions at Potsdam, who fired MacArthur for trying to win the Korean war . . . and Stevenson, who has had a fresh brain washing at the Kremlin . . . and Mrs. Roosevelt, who has been chummy with the reds ever since FDR took them under his wing in 1933 . . . all continue stubbornly in their pet convictions despite the thousands of incidents which have proved them to be wrong.

So far we have reason to believe that these misguided prophets, and the many others who join in their harmful chorus, will not succeed in budging this country from its announced firm stand. Nevertheless they are doing tremendous damage. They are causing disunity, the element on which communism thrives. And they are undermining the hopes and confidence of people all over the world who see the present situation as the last stand of human freedom and dignity.

As insignificant as little Quemoy seems to some short sighted people, it has all the elements of that old saying "for loss of the nail . . . the shoe . . . the horse . . . the general . . . the battle . . . and finally the nation was lost." Loss of Quemoy could lead to the loss of Formosa, the Philippines, the entire Far East, and finally the loss of all the world to communism. Wise military men have pointed that out, but these people continue with the assumption that another concession will appease the red monster's greed.

While deploring the tragic split in public opinion we find encouragement in the increasing firmness of our country's official attitude. Such as the warning that hostile red planes are not assured of sanctuary over their own land, or that under certain conditions the Nationalist Chinese will not be prevented from attacking the mainland. People who chant the communist line over here are wailing, of course, that this brings us to the brink of war. But actually, this is our best prospect for peace. Reds are less likely to start a fight when their own country is in jeopardy.

And if they should start a war anyway, well, we can still be certain that we did not bring it on. If they choose to fight it is because they are confident of winning. They live on a philosophy of aggression and they will attack any time the odds are in their favor . . . unless, of course, they can get the same result by bluff and negotiation, as they did so often in the past.

Knowing how the communists have operated these many years, our smartest course would be to adopt their own methods of con-

Muenster's Sacred Heart parish will be the host on October 26 when Catholics from all parishes of the Sherman deanery gather for special services observing the great feast of Christ the King.

Plans for the event were initiated last Sunday in a meeting of officers of the Sherman deanery of National Council of Catholic Men at St. Mary's Church in Gainesville.

The observance will be a great public demonstration of loyalty and devotion to Christ the King. Every member of every parish of the deanery is urged to participate.

It will begin with the gathering into parish groups on the Sacred Heart football field, and a procession from there to the church. Services will consist of Solemn Benediction and a sermon.

Cooperating with the sponsoring group in bringing a large representation from each parish will be the deanery units of NCCW and the CYO. The latter organization will remain after the celebration for a social in the parish hall.

Those attending Sunday's planning meeting were Rev. Frank Morgan, Joe Walter, Richard Hobbs, Lambert Bezner and Don R. Owens of Gainesville; Rev. Christopher Paladino and Ed Endres of Muenster; Ed Schad of Lindsay and Louie Fiorelli of Denton.

Windthorst Kiddies Blast SH Cubs 8-0

Conference hopes of the Sacred Heart Cubs were rudely blasted at Windthorst last Sunday when the Future Trojans copped a well deserved 8-0 decision.

Practically all of the game was played in mid-field except during a short period in the third quarter when the host team made a nice gain on an exchange of kicks then put on the pressure for a TD. It was a steady 30 yard push to the goal.

Next on schedule for the Cubs is Mary Queen of Peace of Wichita Falls on Sunday, Oct. 12.

Game, Dinner and Dance Await Exes At Homecoming

A gala program awaits the hundreds expected here for Muenster High School's fourth annual homecoming this Saturday night.

Top features of the occasion are football — Muenster Hornets vs Era Hornets — crowning of homecoming queen during half-time activities, a meeting for ex-students and teachers, and a dinner and dance.

Identity of homecoming queen will not be revealed until the coronation ceremony takes place on the 50 yard line at half-time. She is being chosen by the exes who are indicating their choice on return ballot cards mailed out about three weeks ago. She will be one of these class favorites: Senior Pat Otto, Junior Jolene Carlton, Sophomore Tommy Sue Hamilton, Freshman Angela Dem.

Immediately after the game all the exes will be invited to the school cafeteria for dinner and a short business session. Then they'll go to the gymnasium for dancing.

Officers of the Ex-Students Association will be in charge of the queen's coronation and senior class students and their sponsors Mrs. H. H. Homsley and Glenn Hellman will take over for the dinner and dance. The dinner will be a buffet featuring roast turkey and baked ham.

During the short meeting prizes will be awarded the oldest man and woman present and to the person traveling the greatest distance to attend.

Jim Harris and his dance band will play for the dance.

Homecoming invitation is extended to everyone who has been a student or a teacher at the school or a member of the school board. Invitations were mailed to those who returned their cards last year. Those who did not receive a card have a general invitation to come anyway. Every ex-student, teacher and board member may bring one guest to the dinner and dance.

Tiger Game With Ladonia Features SH Homecoming

The Sacred Heart Tigers expect to be back in their own class Friday night when they take on the Ladonia High Rattlers in the headline event of the school's 1958 homecoming celebration.

Signs as read here now indicate that the teams should be evenly matched. Ladonia's roster shows a slight advantage in weight for the visitors but other factors leave the teams on about even terms. Having lost 6 by graduation last year, the Rattlers rate about the same as the Tigers in experience. They also seem about equal in reserve strength. Last year Ladonia won 18-6 in a game that was considerably closer than the score.

As regards the season record to date, there is no convenient basis of comparison except that both have lost to extra powerful outfits. Sacred Heart was swamped by St. Mark's, Ladonia by Roysse City.

No report has been received on the physical condition of the visiting team, but it is known that the Tigers will be hurt by last week's injury to Tim Wimmer, the team's leading scorer and ground gainer. He has a badly sprained wrist that will allow him little if any action. Cunningham is the likely replacement. Other members of the Tiger outfit are ready physically and mentally.

Marilyn Hess Will Reign as Queen at SHH Homecoming

Marilyn Hess has won the coveted and highly contested football queen's crown at Sacred Heart High and will reign as Tiger Queen over the school's annual homecoming events this Friday night.

Four contestants in the queen's race, a favorite from each of the four high school classes, worked feverishly since the first week in September to secure votes at a penny each and the quartet's efforts resulted in the most successful contest in the school's history, rolling up a grand total of 278,013 votes.

This year's winner, a junior, was out in front with a total of 134,466 votes, 28,707 over her nearest opponent, Virgilla Schilling, senior who secured 105,579 votes. Betty Ann Dangelmayr, sophomore, had 31,084 votes and Charlene Otto, freshman, had 6,704.

Homecoming festivities Friday begin with a pep rally and parade and pre-game coronation ceremonies, then the Tigers' game with Ladonia. And Sacred Heart will be straining to avenge

Tigers Crushed in 62-22 Stampede by St. Mark's of Big D

As expected, the Tigers ran into plenty of trouble when they took on the St. Mark's Lions last Friday night at Dallas, and they felt lucky to come away with three touchdowns to their credit. The final count was 62-22 favoring the hosts.

With a large squad of husky players the Lions had a long advantage in both regular and reserve strength. They went on for a touchdown almost every time they got hold of the ball also stopped the Tigers on most of their efforts.

Sacred Heart's first counter came in the second quarter, on the same maneuver that had set up the winning touchdown against Ryan a week before. It was a double pass, lateral from Bayer to Wimmer and a forward from Wimmer to Fuhrmann, who caught it in the open and went for the goal. Total distance of the play was about 40 yards. Bayer followed over for 2 more points.

The next Tiger score came in the same quarter. Following a quickie touchdown by the Lions, Sacred Heart returned a short kickoff past mid field, then set up a first down on the 35. Wimmer got loose there and reached the 5 before being halted. On the next play he broke through for the rest of the space.

The final Tiger score, in the third quarter, resulted from a sustained drive for 60 yards. Bobby Walterscheid made the last 5 and Bayer added the extra points.

Local FFA Teams Take Top Awards In Grass Judging

Grass judging teams of the Muenster FFA Chapter took the lion's share of the honors last Saturday at the annual grass judging contest sponsored by the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

The Muenster junior team was high in its division and received the first place plaque. The Muenster senior team placed second in its division and received the second place plaque. Another award received by the Muenster teams was the medal to Donny Trubenbach for third high in individual scoring.

Winners, as officially listed in the junior division of the contest were Muenster 953 points, Whitesboro with 858 and Tioga with 853. The highest possible team scoring in both the junior and senior divisions was 1356 points.

Plaque winners of the senior division were Whitewright with 1284 points, Muenster with 1247 and Tioga with 1196.

Don Trubenbach, with a score of 428 out of a possible 452, re-

Back From Alaska

Airman First Class Delbert Walterscheid, just returned from a tour of duty in Alaska, spent a three-day pass here this week with his parents, the Harold Walterscheids and family, and is back at his home base in Abilene. The flight from Anchorage, Alaska, to Dyess AFB took only 15 hours. There were 465 men on the air trip.

Stationed in Maryland

Ens. Mildred Fisher writes from Maryland now where she is with the Navy Nurse Corps after completion of training in New York City. She gave her parents, the C. A. Fishers, the following address: Ens. Mildred L. Fisher, N.C., U.S.N.R.; Nurses Quarters; National Naval Medical Center; Bethesda 14, Maryland.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Sacred Heart's assistant pastor Rev. Martin Fischer was dismissed from St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday and visited at the rectory here before going home to Scranton, Pa., for six weeks of convalescence with his family. After that, his doctor believes he will be ready to resume parish work. Father Martin's illness sent him to the Fort Worth hospital June 16 and he underwent surgery in July.

Mrs. George Koelzer has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium after five days of medical care and observation.

Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer is recovering from a severe illness resulting from food poisoning. She became violently sick Saturday night and is still a shut-in.

Mrs. Ray Swirczynski has her right arm in a cast since Saturday evening when a misstep and fall caused a fracture at the wrist.

Eight-year-old Barbara Sandmann of Lindsay has recovered from a tonsillectomy performed at Gainesville Sanitarium last Thursday. She was dismissed the following day and continued convalescence at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sandmann.

Mrs. Al Bengfort has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium following medical care to continue recovery at her home in Lindsay.

Mrs. Earl Robison has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium following minor surgery Monday to continue recovery at home.

Mrs. Susie Noggler is up and around in spite of a painful injury to her left leg. The accident happened Saturday night at her farm home when she fell during the process of putting a light bulb in the chicken house. In the fall she struck a chicken feeder and cut a deep gash in her leg. Several stitches were needed to close the wound. She received treatment at Muenster Clinic.

Battle of Hornets, Muenster and Era, Rated as Toss-up

All the elements for a classic contest will be present Saturday night when the Hornets of Muenster take on the Hornets of Era in the featured attraction of the Muenster High homecoming program.

Added to a traditional keen rivalry will be a super effort by each team to make a good start in the year's 12-B district competition as well as to break the losing streak that has haunted each team so far this season.

The record up to now is three losses and a tie for Muenster as compared with three losses for Era. However it does not provide a very dependable standard of comparison. Teams that licked Era were admittedly powerful, but probably not as stout as the Wichita Rowdies, whom Muenster held to 5 touchdowns. On the other hand Muenster made a poor showing in its other games.

Physically the local boys should be in good condition for the tussle. There were no injuries carried over from last week and the few colds which showed up early in the week should be cleared up before game time. Meanwhile Coach Boze Ansley has his fingers crossed, hoping there will be no new colds or injuries.

Hornets Deadlock With Newcastle For Scoreless Tie

The Muenster Hornets, still looking for their first win, came somewhat closer last Friday night at Newcastle but still did not make the grade. The outcome was a 0-0 tie.

If statistics could break the tie the game could be marked up as a win for Coach Ansley's charges. They were ahead 9-6 in first downs and 151-130 in total yardage.

Muenster started fine with Otto returning the kickoff 13 yards to the 42. Six more plays made two first downs but the next series failed as a bad pass from center lost both yardage and possession back to the Newcastle 43. For the rest of the period the ball changed hands twice with neither side making headway.

Opening the second quarter the Hornets made another start and again failed to keep going. From their 15 they made 2 first downs and reached the host 43 before losing possession.

Newcastle snapped back with its best offense of the night. Three first downs gained 40 but the next play lost 8 yards and Newcastle tried for a field goal.

Building And Improvement Notes

Three new homes head the community's building and improvement activity.

A three-bedroom house on the Buckner farm north of town is nearing completion. Another three-bedroom house with attached garage, for R. M. Zipper north of the public school is about half finished. Next on the list is Joe Moster's new home to be built on the corner of Third and Hickory, the site formerly occupied by the late Louie Lutkenhaus. Moster's house will have three bedrooms, attached garage, central heating and brick or stone siding.

Newly occupied is the combined agriculture and shop building at the public school. Final work on it, paint on the outside, is nearly finished. The space in the main school building formerly used by the shop is the new band room.

Other new construction is an expansion project at Community Lumber Company. A 44x41 addition will fill in between the office and a lumber shed and will be used to enlarge the present office and display room. The south wall of the office will be removed to make the single large room. Work started Monday.

Ferd Luttmier is nearing completion of a double garage and one room addition to his home. Improvements at Earle Otto's and Tony Koessler's consist of additional cabinets and other built-ins plus new interior paint.

Just started is an outside paint job on Lawrence Wimmer's house.

A new roof has just been completed at Jim Walker's home.

Big Increase Seen In Bank Business For Past Quarter

Substantial increases in both deposits and loans at Muenster State Bank were revealed this week in the regular quarterly report required of Texas banks by the state banking commission.

The report, submitted as of the close of business on September 24, shows an increase in deposits of $323,400.11 since the former report on June 23. At the same time loans, discounts and overdrafts increased $172,021.78.

A part of the increased deposits can be explained by the increased loans, some of which go into checking accounts. The balance, however, reflects a general improvement in local farm income, which in turn is explained partly by good livestock prices and partly by savings the farmers realized on their abundant feed crops. Inflation, too, is responsible for some of the increase.

Further breakdown of the figures shows another substantial increase in the bank's steadily growing savings department. The present total for that department is $711,664.48, up $47,445.57 from the figure on June 23.

The report shows present total deposits within $49,837.50 of the bank's all time high deposit on August 25. The total then was $2,434,866.57.

Era Kids Clobber Muenster Juniors

The Muenster Juniors, consisting of seventh, eighth and ninth graders, made a poor start on their 1958 football season Tuesday night. They took a 28-0 beating from the Era juniors on the Era field.

Two of the Era scores came as a result of sustained drives down the field and the other two were setups from blocked Muenster punts.

Offensively as well as defensively the Muenster boys ran a poor second. They had only two first downs to their credit for the game.

The next junior game will be played on the local field next Tuesday night.

Henry Henscheid Returns from Visit In Native Germany

Returned from a six-week visit in Germany, Henry Henscheid reports a wonderful time as guest of his two sisters, three nephews and two nieces and friends of long ago in his hometown, Neunkirchen. Also on his calendar were tours to many towns and villages in Germany and a trip to Lourdes, France. Other thrilling experiences were the plane trip to and from Germany.

The first two weeks he stayed close in the area of his birthplace and Cologne, then with his nephews who had cars toured the country. At army camps he looked for local boys, missed Harold Bindel located near Nurnburg and Virgil Henscheid in the same area but saw Billy Bierschenk of Valley View at Darmstadt.

Mr. Henscheid tells about visiting famous old churches, especially the Kolner Dom in Cologne one of the oldest and most historic almost completely restored after bombing damage during World War II. Few scars of war remain in Germany, he said. Everything has been rebuilt, is more beautiful than when he left 34 years ago to come to America. The German people, as a whole, are doing well, have jobs or work their farms and many have automobiles.

Margie Reiter and Herb Walterscheid Say Wedding Vows

In a 4 p.m. ceremony in Sacred Heart Church Saturday Margie Reiter and Herbert Walterscheid exchanged marriage vows in a double ring service. Father Christopher Paladino officiated and was also celebrant of the nuptial high mass.

Margie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert (Buddy) Reiter and Herbert is the son of Mrs. C. M. Walterscheid.

The bride entered on the arm of her father who escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a lovely gown of white Chantilly lace in a delicate rose point pattern over layers of ruffled nylon tulle over satin. The wide floor length skirt sparkled with sequins and the tapered sleeves came to points over her hands. A crown of lace and bridal jewels held her elbow length veil and she carried a white orchid atop a prayer book and rosary, gifts from the groom.

Cousins of the bride were her attendants. Marcy Klement of Fort Worth was maid of honor in coral pink and Janice Klement of Dallas was bridesmaid in blue. Their floor length dresses were identically fashioned of starched chiffon satin and nylon chiffon. They wore tiny scalloped hats of the same material with ornamental crushed velvet leaves and carried bouquets of white mums.

Bobby Dale Walterscheid was best man for his brother and Alfred Hess of Lindsay was groomsman. David Klement and Fred Hennigan Jr. ushered.

The church choir sang the mass with Anthony Luke at the organ and afterwards Mrs. Leo Lawson, sister of the groom, presented a vocal solo, "Mother at Your Feet," while the bride and groom went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine and the new Mrs. Walterscheid placed a bouquet of white mums on the altar.

Parish hall was the scene of a wedding reception and buffet for about 300 guests. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered. The cake was served by Eileen Fuhrmann and Mrs. Harold Neu. Mary Pick of Fort Worth and Mrs. Raymond Hesse were at the bride's book.

After a dance in the VFW Hall the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip not telling their destination. For traveling she wore a sapphire blue suit with black accessories and orchid corsage.

FFA Boys Win in T&O Sheep Show

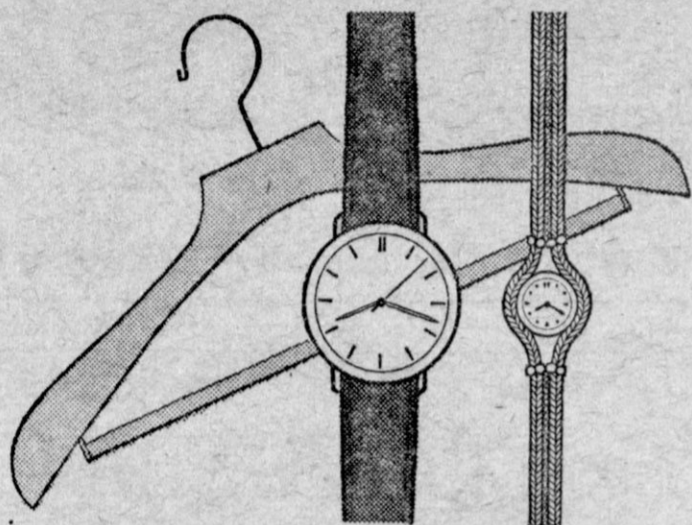

Muenster High Future Farmers showed some winning lambs at the T&O Fair in Wichita Falls last week but missed the top spots. The judges lined up 17 of the boys' entries in the finals which included the ten best entries in each division. Entries in the sheep show were strongly up this year from both sides of the river and competition was the keenest on record.

Here's how the local boys fared on their entries: in the Suffolk division Roger Fleitman's aged ram was second and other entries took fourth and fifth in the same class. His ewe lambs were fourth and seventh and his ram lamb was seventh.

Tim Fette's Suffolk ram lamb was third and his aged ram eighth. Dink Hudspeth won three times in this show, third for his ewe lamb and sixth and eighth on ram lambs.

In Southdown competition Mark Hellman's ewe lamb was fourth and his aged rams seventh and eighth. Pagel Brothers, Dickie and Johnnie, were sixth on their aged ram and sixth and seventh on the ram lambs.

TUNE OF A HICKORY STICK

By George Peck
 Readers will please pardon a bit of nostalgia. On a recent evening this columnist was one of a group gathered around a piano singing the songs of yesteryear. Our performance may not have been good but it was good and loud.

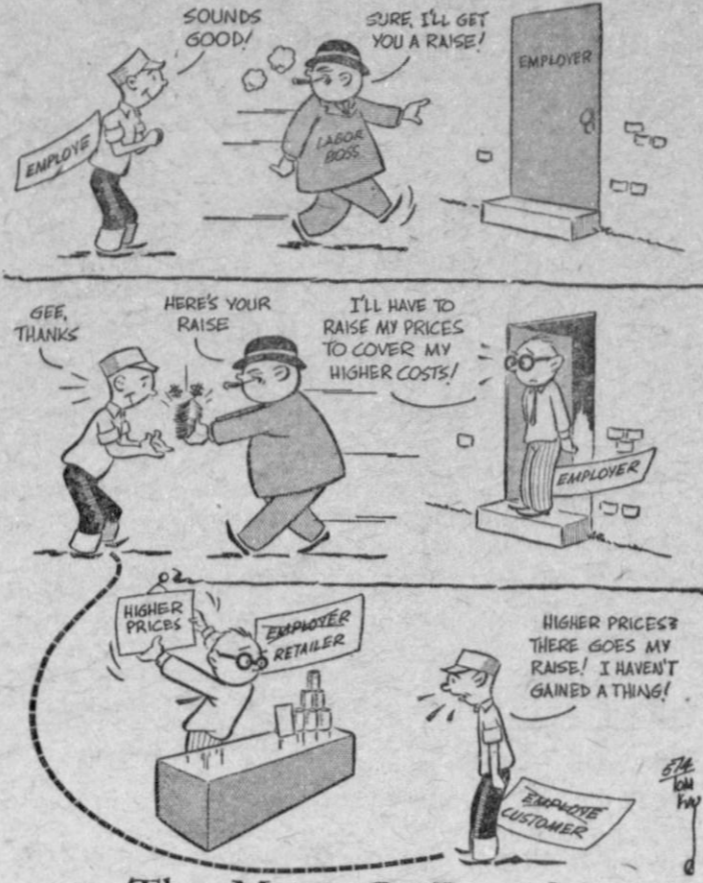

Among the old-timers which we resurrected from the past was that grand old song

"SCHOOL DAYS," written in 1906, music by Gus Edwards and words by Will D. Cobb. The latter passed on to his greater reward in 1930 while Gus Edwards departed this earth in 1945. They left behind a song that will be sung by our great-great grandchildren and their offspring.

While singing the first four lines of the chorus of this immortal song, despite the accompanying din and discords, it struck me that the late Will Cobb had incorporated in those four lines the basic elements that made our public schools of 50 years ago so vastly superior to those of today. Do you remember those four lines? They went:

"School days, school days,
 Dear old Golden Rule days.
 Readin' and 'ritin' and 'rith-
 metic
 Taught to the tune of a hickory stick."

That was written, of course, before the Progressivists took over schools, when our youngsters did so many of our American learn to read, did learn to write and did learn to add, subtract, multiply and divide — when it was considered that "to spare the rod was to spoil the child" — when a student had to earn a diploma.

In the September issue of NATION'S BUSINESS, Felix Morley tells us that for America to regain leadership we must "put disciplined competition back into schools." And that would seem to involve taking the "hickory stick" out of hiding and again putting it to work when its tonic effect is required. We are not recommending here brutality on the part of teacher to the disobedient student, but we do maintain that when all other measures fail to enforce discipline, judicious administering of the "hickory stick" should be applied. And to this beneficial procedure no one should object. On the contrary they should be grateful to the "hickory stick" and its wielder.

It is a strange paradox that our American schools are turning out students better fitted to live in a communist economy such as Russia, while the Russian schools are graduating students who are trained to live best in a "Capitalistic" society. Just in case the foregoing statement may sound a bit fantastic, let's explore it a bit.

The primary purpose of education is to prepare the student to fight the battle of life. If you agree with that statement, then you must agree that all too many of our American schools are falling down on the job. By taking competition out of the schools, by giving students equal rewards for unequal performances, the average student is not prepared to take his place in a competitive economy such as our American Free Enterprise Capitalist System. If the student is not inculcated with the profit urge at school, how can he expect to survive in a competitive society?

Just the opposite pertains in Russia. Competition in the Russian schools is keen. Poor students are even denied further schooling — only those who show real ability survive in the Russian school system. The Russian schools are carrying out the primary purpose of education — they are preparing their students to fight the battle of life. It is ironical that Russian students, steeped in competition, must go on to live in a non-competitive society such as Communism.

Someone has facetiously suggested that there should be a complete permanent exchange of all school graduates between America and the Soviet Union — in fairness to those graduates — they'd be carrying on in economies for which they were properly trained.

But to be serious. We must get competition back into our schools if America is to survive. And that doesn't involve "Federal Aid To Education." Despite all the clamor of the "Federal-Aiders," the individual states and communities are quite capable of taking care of their own school problems. They need neither help from nor meddling by the Great White Father at Washington.

With competition again in vogue in our public schools, we'll be able to sing those four chorus lines of the Cobb-Edwards "oldie," School Days, with real meaning because our youngsters will be learning to read, to write and to "figure."

"School days, school days,
 Dear old Golden Rule days.
 Readin' and 'ritin' and 'rith-
 metic
 Taught to the tune of a hickory stick."

Educate a man and you educate an individual. Educate a woman and you educate a family.

growing plants next year, mulch on the soil surface means greater amounts of water will soak into the soil for future use, less run-off water means less soil loss. And the grass cover gives protection and insulation against extreme temperature changes for the grass roots and other life in the soil.

Good cover on the land also means there is a greater hazard of grass fire . . . fire that can sweep across acre after acre destroying everything in its path and killing grass that has been years in becoming established . . . fire that destroys feed supplies, fences and the protective cover on the land.

Fire-ravaged soil is bare, exposed to all the damaging effects of nature. Sun rays bake the land killing all life that escaped the fire. Rains loosen and wash away exposed topsoil. Winter cold freezes what life remains. Man and beast derive no benefit or pleasure from burned-over land be it grass or forest. Nothing but loss results when fire gets out of control.

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District and Soil Conservation Service urge everyone to be extremely careful this fall and winter to prevent grass fires. Hunters and fishermen are especially cautioned to take extreme care with matches, cigarettes and camp fires. All motorists should use car ash trays or cans carried inside the car for cigaret stubs and matches. Persons driving on private land should keep the exhaust system of their vehicles in good repair. Many a grass fire has been started from a spark from a faulty exhaust.

No one wants to be a fire bug and lay waste acres or miles of land. Yet carelessness is the cause of most fires. Be on guard for yourself and your friends to prevent grass fires. Help protect the land and water supplies of the country.

As the light of day starts to dim, turn your car lights to better; other motorists can see you better.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Preventive Action Urged to Cut Down Nation's Fire Loss

COLLEGE STATION — Fire prevention is the best defense against fire. By not giving fire a place to start, reports the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, the nation's annual farm fire losses of about $150 million can be cut in half.

The Council points out three general safeguards against fire, which if practiced by all farm families, could cut farm fire losses in half.

First, they say, use foresight and care to avoid all needless fire hazards in building, equipping, maintaining and using farm property. Management of the farm and woodlands is included in this suggestion.

Secondly, they warn that farm families should be prepared to fight a fire as soon as it is discovered. Prior training for all members of the family in the use of safe and effective fire fighting equipment is suggested by the councilmen. Fire extinguishers should be checked regularly and kept in readiness wherever needed — in and near the home and other buildings, and on trucks and tractors.

Thirdly, they suggest organizing to provide community fire protection with trained men and equipment sufficient to put out or control large fires. Such a community effort makes for more protection of life and property and better fire prevention, they say.

Finally, the state safety group advises all farm families to do some hazard hunting in their homes and on their farms. Since approximately one-third of all farm fires start from defects in heating and cooking systems, they suggest that flues, chimneys, spark arresters and cooking equipment be checked first.

Then check inadequate, defective and misused electrical wiring systems or appliances. Give the fuel storage facilities a close check and make sure the storage area is neat and arranged for fire safety. All lightning rods should be checked to see that they are grounded and securely connected and surge arresters at electrical entrances should be checked.

Grass Judging

Received a medal for third in individual scoring. Leading him were Herbert Taylor and Thurman Pool, both of Whitewright, with 432 and 430 respectively.

Not receiving awards but listed in the top 10 individual winners were Kenny Fette, seventh with 412 points, and Jim Sicking, tenth with 407.

Procedure in the contest is to allow four members on each team to compete in the contest of individuals, them to count the three leading individual scores of each team as the team score.

In this year's contest there were eight senior teams and six junior teams making a total of 56 eligible contestants. Each individual contest consisted of identifying 45 plants, classifying them according to plant family and season of growth, and evaluating them according to grazing value.

The contest is sponsored each year by supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District to encourage interest in the grasses of this area, and through this interest to promote more knowledge of the grasses and better management with increased benefits in soil and water conservation.

Members of the Muenster senior team are Don Trubenbach, Kenny Fette, Jimmy Sicking and Roger Feitman. Members of the junior team are Billy Russell, Mark Hellman, Gary Cler and Jerry Endres. Both teams are coached by Glenn Hellman, vocational ag instructor of Muenster High.

Teams other than the three winners and their score were as follows: Senior division: Howe 1135, Gainesville 1051, Whitesboro 979, Callisburg 946, Sadler 534. Junior division: Howe 775, Gainesville 702, Sadler 501.

Hobbies Told at Lindsay Club Meet

Lindsay Hobby Club members heard interesting reports on hobbies of Judy Bezner and Dolores Voth at a recent meeting. Judy told about doll collecting and stamp collecting and how she started these hobbies. Her first dolls were gifts from people she knew who traveled in foreign countries and she ordered her first stamps from a magazine. Dolores gave a report on her hobby of embroidery and handwork and displayed some of the fancywork. Pat Hermes and Doyle Voth volunteered to tell about their hobbies at the next meeting. Patsy Hermes presided for the meeting and with Marcella Neu was elected to be in charge of the "Turtle Garden" a project of the club.

Christening of their niece Constance Lynette Bengfort brought Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Vance of Hereford to Lindsay Sunday to be godparents at the morning ceremony. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bengfort had dinner in their home for the visitors and for the baby's maternal grandparents and family, the John Herrs of Muenster who were among those at the baptism service.

TP&L Shows New Generating Plant

Dedication ceremonies and an open house for the public are being held this Thursday and Friday at Stryker Creek in East Texas for the new Stryker Creek Steam Electric Station of Texas Power & Light Company.

The generating station, TP&L's newest and largest single-unit plant, is located 32 miles northwest of Nacogdoches in Cherokee County. The station will provide more power for East Texas and the entire area served by TP&L.

Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the A&M College of Texas System, heads a list of dignitaries present at the dedication. The public gets its first view of the out-door type station Friday by guided tours through the plant.

The plant is on the shore of new Lake Stryker which was constructed by the Angelina and Nacogdoches Counties Water Control and Improvement District.

SHH Homecoming

last season's 18-6 loss to the Ladonia boys.

Finally, the homecoming dance in the parish hall where a buffet meal will be available and to which everyone is invited. The Texas Swingsters will play. In the coronation ceremony Tiger Co-Captains Charles Bayer, Herman Grewing and Pat Hess will take the leading masculine rolls by escorting royalty and presiding at the formal crowning. The three other queen contestants will share in honors of the program by being princesses in the queen's court.

Queen Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hess to whom the complexities of a queen's contest were not new. Their daughter Jo Ann ran first in 1956 when she was a sophomore.

Funds brought in by the queen's contest this year will be used for new bleachers at the football field, replacements of uniforms and award jackets for lettermen.

Irene Block Bride Of John Loerwald In Lindsay Nuptial

St. Peter's church at Lindsay was the scene of the wedding of Irene Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Block of Lindsay, and John Loerwald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Loerwald of Gainesville.

The bride's uncle Rev. Herman Laux of Clarksville, Ark., officiated at the Saturday morning service at 9 o'clock. St. Cecilia's choir sang the nuptial high mass with Mrs. William Schmitz at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The wide skirt with its alternate tiers of lace and pleated tulle swept into a chapel train of lace. A pearl tiara held her veil and she carried a white prayer book topped by an orchid.

Elfrieda Block of Lindsay and Helen Loerwald of Gainesville, sisters of the couple, attended the bride. Their dresses were ice blue bouffants of lace and tulle over taffeta. They wore heart-shaped hats of matching material and bracelet length mitts of blue lace. Their flowers were cascading bouquets of white carnations.

Brothers of the couple, Dr. Robert R. Loerwald of Denison and Eugene Block of Lindsay, were the groom's attendants. Henry Fleitman of Lindsay, cousin of the bride, and Joe Nichols Jr. of Gainesville were ushers. Michael Fuhrmann, Ewald Hoelker Jr. and Kenneth Laux were mass servers.

A five o'clock reception and buffet honored the newlyweds in the Lindsay parish hall and about 250 guests registered in the bride's book at which Patty Block and Betty Jo Loerwald presided.

Mr. and Mrs. Loerwald will be at home on a farm, route 1, Gainesville, after their wedding trip. He was graduated from Gainesville High and served in the U. S. Navy two years. She was graduated from Lindsay High and was employed in a bank in Fort Worth.

ducting this so called cold war. We could sponsor wholesale troubles in communist countries. We could support liberators like the South Koreans and the Chinese Nationalists, who are itching for a chance to clean out the red pestilence in their homelands.

Instead of appeasement and police action we should see the situation in its true light. Here is an enemy who has boasted that he is dedicated to our destruction. Common sense dictates that we should use all possible means to destroy him.

Camping and fishing at Cedar Mills, Lake Texoma, is a vacation this week and next week for Mr. and Mrs. Herb McDaniel. They took their trailer camp house with them.

Steve Koesler of Lubbock is here for a visit with his sister-in-law Mrs. Alfons Koesler and family.

Hornets Tie - - -

It failed, and the Hornets came back with a first down, then fumbled on the next series.

Starting the third quarter the Bobcats ripped off two fast first downs, including a nice 21 yard scot, and were in business on the Hornet 10. Next play gained 6 but the next was a fumble and Muenster recovered on its 5.

From there three plays made a Hornet first down but the next series ended in a kick which set the Bobcats back to their 46. Failing to gain Newcastle kicked and Muenster was back to its 16. Next two plays made 12 to the Hornet 28 and again the Hornets bogged down and kicked.

Back on their 28 the Bobcats fumbled and gave the Hornets a chance to score, but again Muenster did not have the push when it counted. The first series fell short by two yards. Four plays later Newcastle kicked again.

It was more of the same old story as Muenster started from its 40. Seven plays completed two first downs to the Bobcat 35, but the next series fell short by a single yard and the Hornets lost possession on the 26. For the rest of the game both teams had one more chance with the ball and failed.
