Council Hearing on Tax Equalization Set for August 13

Members of the Muenster City Council were in session until the wee hours Wednesday night comparing and equalizing tax assessments for the current year. This is the second time the council has taken on the job itself rather than appoint an equalization board.

Postal notices showing the adjusted assessments were filled out at the meeting. Persons receiving them are advised that the council will be in session Wednesday night, August 13, 8 p.m., to consider problems and objections.

Mayor Urban Endres said that the council is not making any general changes in assessments this year, however it is finding the usual number of reduced renditions, which usually are set back to the former figure. Notices are being sent out in all such cases.

The mayor also said that a large number of persons failed to render their property. In most of those cases the assessments are set the same as last year and owners are being notified of the amount of assessment.

Emblems for School Uniforms are Here

Parochial school uniform emblems, beanies, hats and all materials needed are waiting to be picked up at the home of Mrs. Ed McGannon.

Mrs. McGannon urges mothers to come as soon as possible and not later than Aug. 6 when the family will begin vacationing. Mrs. McGannon also requests payment by check rather than cash. It eliminates the time and trouble of writing receipts and does away with the inconvenience of making change.

Opening Postponed

The re-opening of Nick Miller's cleaning, pressing and shoe repair business in its new location, set for August 1, has been postponed about a week, it was revealed Wednesday. Some equipment failing to arrive on schedule is causing the delay.

Windthorst Hosts State Convention Of Catholic League

The 60th annual convention of the Catholic State League of Texas came to a close at Windthorst last Thursday morning, July 24, with Sacramental Benediction officiated by Father Cyril Lange. Included in the big attendance of the three-day event were 36 delegates and visitors from Muenster and 45 from Lindsay.

Delegates at the final meeting received copies of Resolutions of the Convention dealing with such topics as the Middle East crisis, Federal Aid to Education, indecent movies and literature, immodest dress, lay apostolate activity and Catholic Action. All of the resolutions had been discussed on the floor and adopted in earlier meetings.

Official attendance at the convention included 97 men, 81 women and 115 youths representing several dozen Texas parishes. Also there were Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco Abbey, celebrant of a Pontifical Mass on Wednesday, and twenty one visiting priests.

Nick Block of Lindsay was re-elected to head the organization for another year. He is also president of the men's section of the league. Serving with him as vice presidents are the heads of three other units, Henrietta Galle of San Antonio for the women's section, Bernard Ripper of Schulenburg for the youth section and Ben Schwegmann of San Antonio for the insurance branch. Other officers are Vice President Robert Wolf of Windthorst, Secretary Walter Zimmerman of San Antonio and Treasurer Mrs. Leo Stippich of New Braunfels.

The convention also named delegates to attend a national convention of the Catholic Central Union of America, with which the State League is affiliated. They are Andrew Roewe of Windthorst, Nick Block, and Mmes. Leo Stippich and Henrietta Galle. The convention will be held in Jefferson City, Mo., August 2 through 6.

Election August 23 Will Fill Vacancy On City Council

Deadline for filing candidacy has been set at Saturday, August 9. Names must be submitted before that date in order to be printed on the official ballot.

Kaderli gave up his place on the council a few weeks ago when he moved to New Mexico to work for a rural electric cooperative.

Paul is an aviation electrician's mate, second class.

She added that if Muenster friends ever take a trip that way they're welcome to stop in. Their new home has six bedrooms.

1000 Members at NTPA Meet Hear Operation Report

Milk is big business at Muenster. That fact was one of the many brought out by J. O. Woodman, general manager of the North Texas Producers Association, at the organization's annual general meeting held in Arlington last week Thursday.

In an exact and detailed report to about 1000 members, Woodman said that the extensive 37-county cooperative, including such densely populated areas as Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco, had produced a total of $19 million pounds of milk in its last fiscal year, and that 70 million pounds, just under 9 per cent of the total volume, was handled in NTPA's Muenster plant.

Other figures showed that the value of milk handled here came to almost 3 million dollars. 23 million pounds was sold through Grade A channels and brought the producers an average of about $5.50 per hundred pounds. The remaining 47 million pounds was processed as surplus and brought the producers an average of $2.13 under the Grade A price. A similar operation at the Sulphur Springs surplus plant showed a total of about 50 million pounds, with 29 million (Continued on Page 2)

Cemetery Work at Marysville Slated

Marysville residents are reminded of a cemetery working, the first cloudy, cooler day. The club ladies who sponsor the cemetery project are inviting everyone out to clean their own lots and graves of family members as soon as the heat breaks.

The club treasury has a small fund — not enough for the entire clean-up but possibly enough to add the finishing touches after the first general weeding and mowing. Rains have pushed up weeds and grass, tall, and everyone is urged to take good sharp hoes and other clean-up tools with them.

A. H. Lueb, 63, Dies At Carlsbad, N.M.

A. H. "Pete" Lueb of Carlsbad, N. M., formerly of Lindsay, died Sunday at 4:30 p.m. following three weeks of illness. He was 63.

Wednesday guests in the J. M. Weinzapfel home were Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk and daughter Camille of Dallas. Mr. Kirk is with the Texas Bank and Trust Company of Dallas. On their first visit in Muenster they enjoyed seeing the church, schools, milk plant and other places of interest in the city.

VFW and Ladies to Be in Gainesville For District Meet

Gainesville's Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary have the welcome mat out for the District I convention this weekend. All events with the exception of Sunday's breakfast will be held in the Post Home.

The program Saturday begins at 4 p.m. with registrations and ends with a dance.

Sunday, district officers will have breakfast at 9 in the Western Cafe while the ladies have a coffee at the Post Home. The banquet for both groups will begin at 12:30 and will present Department Commander Doyle Willis as guest speaker. Closed meetings will get under way at about 2 p.m.

Muenster is planning to be well represented at the convention.

Local Conventions Support Gov. Daniel

In their selection of county convention delegates as well as in their vote for governor, Muenster people came to the support of Governor Price Daniel last Saturday. Precinct conventions held at the two ballot boxes went on record as favoring the conservative element of the party and also as favoring the governor's proposal to select county delegates of the future by voting for them on the regular primary ballot rather than the present method of holding local conventions.

Delegates named as representatives of the South Muenster box at the county convention in the court house next Saturday are Paul Fisher, Ed Cler and Clem Hofbauer. Delegates for the North Muenster box are Joe Luke, Joe Horn, Earl Fisher, R. N. Fette, Paul Luke, Leo Lawson, C. F. Gobble, Leo Henschel and Weldon Holland.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Herman Stoffels who has been at VA Hospital in McKinney for two weeks of X-rays and observation was transferred to Lisbon VA Hospital at Dallas Tuesday where he is being prepared for lung surgery. He'll spend this weekend at home and return to the hospital Sunday. The operation is scheduled for Monday.

Casper Haverkamp is back in Muenster, convalescing from eye surgery at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Haverkamp. He's up and around the house now and looks forward to having company. Last week while he still needed eye treatments every day he stayed with the Joe Haverkamps at Gainesville. It's uncertain when he can return to his own home.

Wesley Lansfield Jr. is recovering rapidly from a tonsillectomy performed at Muenster Clinic Monday.

Word from Clara Seale this week reveals that her husband, Dr. Gene Seale has fully recovered from five bullet wounds received July 3 and is back at his work in his clinic at Lamesa. The family expressed thanks for prayers and greeting cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linn and M. A. Slaughter drove to Nocona Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Slaughter at Majors Clinic. They found her improving normally from major surgery and enjoying greeting cards from her Muenster friends. She said she would probably be hospitalized through this week.

Mrs. Frank Trubenbach is out and around since Wednesday, still taking it easy after a two-week illness of mumps. Just before the mumps she was stung by ten yellow jackets and this added a few days of illness to the sick spell.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herr and two daughters have returned from a week's vacation in Arkansas and Missouri where their principal diversion was fishing and they brought 35 pounds of Rainbow Trout home with them. Sight-seeing they visited the Underground Wonderland at Bentonville, Ark., the cave at Eureka Springs and other places and went canoeing on the Elk River in Missouri. Returning home they stopped in Dallas with the Eddie Jakubec family and had a fish fry in their back yard.

Muenster Voters Favor Winners in Primary Election

In all races but one Muenster people voted with the winners in last Saturday's Democratic Primary. That one exception was the contest for the party's nomination as U. S. Senator, in which Ralph Yarborough defeated Bill Blakely by a 60-40 ratio in the state wide race but fell behind here by a count of 372 to 244.

Through the rest of the ticket majorities here had the satisfaction of seeing their favorites emerge as leaders of the state and county contests, usually by percentages which were very close to those of the local election.

Local favorites winning their state races were Governor Price Daniel, Lt. Governor Ben Ramsey, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, Supreme Justice Joe Greenhill and Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn. Supreme Justice Robert Hamilton, a winner here, had a good plurality but not a majority and will be in a run-off race with Edwin Smith.

The same applies in the county races. Milton Thomason beat the incumbent, Woodrow Clegg 2623 to 2176 for district clerk. J. H. Riley was re-elected county clerk by a 2536-2224 count over his contender Kenneth Butts. And Earl Robison beat out Joe Hundt and Ray Kupper for Commissioner of Precinct 4. Their tallies were 664, 313 and 241 respectively.

State candidates who were re-elected without opposition were Attorney General Will Wilson, Supreme Court Justices Frank Culver and Ruel Walker, Judge of Criminal Appeals Kenneth Woodley, Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson, Comptroller Robert Calvert, Treasurer Jesse James, and Civil Appeals Justice Frank Massey.

Uncontested district and county winners were Congressman Frank Ikard, State Senator Ray Roberts, State Representative Tony Korioto, County Judge Shelby Fletcher, County Superintendent W. E. Chalmers, County Treasurer Ruby Davis and Democratic Chairman George West.

The total number of ballots cast in the two Muenster boxes was 632 . . . 524 in the north box and 108 in the south box.

This represents about 80 per cent of the estimated total voting strength of the area. Actual recorded strength of the boxes, as shown by poll tax receipts and exemption certificates is 511 and 134 respectively, however both boxes have a considerable number of over-age voters whose eligibility is not a matter of record.

Voting in contested races was (Continued on Page 8)

County Farm Bureau Announces Queen's Contest, Talent Find

Cooke County Farm Bureau has announced plans for its annual queen contest, and something new this year, its search for talent.

Girls interested in entering the contest to select Miss Cooke County are invited to a "gab fest" this Friday, Aug. 1, in the Farm Bureau office from 9 to 10:30 a.m. They're asked to have with them a biography and a small picture of themselves.

To be eligible contestants must be unmarried, must be a daughter or sister of a Farm Bureau member and must be at least 16 and not over 22 years of age by Sept. 1. Mrs. Paul Fisher of Muenster and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerman of Lindsay are on the queen's committee and will give further information and help to girls wishing to compete for the crown.

Finals will be held August 21 but socials and fun are being planned for contestants in between.

The "Talent Find" contest is for members 18 to 28, either sex, married or single. Those who think they might qualify are invited to contact the Farm Bureau for further information.

All day visitors Sunday in the Dick Cain home were the Frank Hogans and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hogan of Burleson, Mrs. Opal Hogan and children of Valley View, the Wayne Hogans and family of Gainesville, Mrs. Jack Hogan and children of Hardy, the W. C. Hogans and son Robert of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCollum of Denton.

Hearty congratulations are in order this week to our good neighbors on the west, the residents of Montague County. They are putting on a gigantic, coordinated program, with every major community of the county taking its turn in sponsoring events that bring fitting pomp and ceremony to the celebration of the county's centennial.

The big show got under way Sunday at Ringgold with church services in the morning, a community dinner at noon, and a special centennial program in the afternoon.

Spanish Fort stepped into the county spotlight Monday with an afternoon observance that extended into the night. It featured a kangaroo court, coronation of a queen, a parade, a free barbecue and a street dance.

On Tuesday yours truly was among the hundreds of Muenster people who mingled with the thousands of guests at Saint Jo in a party that will really give the two big towns, Bowie and Nocona, a mark to shoot at.

The program there started early with games and contests to keep visitors entertained until the solemn event of the day, the unveiling of a beautiful granite historical marker commemorating significant events in the town's early history.

Then came a colossal gesture of hospitality, a free barbecue to thousands of home folks and guests. Food was abundant and good and the service was fast. The people who took on the project of arranging and financing it deserve a capital letter listing in the community's Who's Who. Other memorable events were the centennial parade, barber-shop quartet and fiddlers contests, entertainment by Indians, and finally a street dance.

Forsburg's program on Wednesday featured a parade, a rodeo and a street dance. While joining in the county's centennial spirit the community put a damper on this event in order not to outshine its own centennial celebration a year ago. Forsburg was a community before the county was organized.

Bowie is host for another super celebration on Thursday. Main events scheduled there are a parade, a free barbecue, an old fashioned style show, a downtown jamboree with contests for pioneer attire, beards, square dancing, fiddling, pie eating and what not all presided by a native son and former governor, James Allred . . . and finally a street dance.

Friday is Nocona's day featuring beard and dress contests, a parade, a barbecue, a parade, afternoon and night rodeos, a fiddlers' contest and a street dance.

The county seat of Montague will be the scene of the last day's celebration. The big event there will be the dedication of a pioneer marker with Congressman Frank Ikard as the speaker. Also on schedule are a queen contest, a parade, a barbecue, a style show, beard and fiddling contests and gospel singing.

The final gesture will be huge bonfires Saturday night as memorials honoring pioneer Indian lookouts. Five spots have been selected for simultaneous ceremony . . . on hills near Nocona, Bowie, Saint Jo, Dye Mound and a bluff across the river in Oklahoma.

Every community of Montague County deserves lavish praise for its enthusiastic work in the big celebration. The people have been at it for months and their effort, especially the grand climax of this week, has brought their county lots of friendly gatherings and a wealth of favorable publicity.

Now that it's drawing to a close we suspect that the cherished anticipation of a few thousand men is getting rid of those awful whiskers. That incidentally is just another indication of public spirit. People had to be really sold on their centennial in order to endure that irritating brush for its sake. Otherwise there must have been some mighty efficient kangaroo courts in session.

This column also extends special congratulations to Rowland Peters and his staff of the Nocona News for their outstanding centennial edition . . . a 64 page paper in 7 sections, literally jammed full of historical data of the county along with additional history about civic, religious and educational organizations and most business firms of the city. Then, of course, there are the ads of business firms expressing their tribute to the (Continued on Page 8) handled as surplus. The surplus handled at those two plants represents the total for the entire NTPA area, hence the total operation amounts to about 743 million pounds at about 743 million pounds at grade A prices and 76 million at surplus prices for a total value of almost $43.5 million.

Another part of Woodman's report showed the trend from can to transport handling of milk. The number of bulk handling transports has increased from 55 to 70 in the past year while can handling trucks decreased from 79 to 63. Bulk transports now haul 64 per cent of the association's milk.

After the business session the members heard an address on "Dairying as a Cooperative Member" by Harold Nelson, general manager of the Texas Milk Producers Federation, a super co-op made up of several dairy co-ops in the state. Hal Wiese Honoree At Birthday Party

An 11th birthday celebration was an enjoyable event for Hal Wiese, six buddies, and Brother Thomas Moster who was a special guest.

The group gathered at the home of Hal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wiese for supper on the patio where the honor guest's father did the outdoor cooking — charcoal broiling hamburgers — and his mother served ice cream and birthday cake. After the meal the group had a theatre party.

The celebration Saturday came four days early. Hal was 11 Tuesday. Boys at the party were Danny Wilde, Donnie Rohmer, Tommy Swirczynski, Pat Hennigan Jr., Dwayne Schilling and Don Wiese.

End Lake Vacation

Harry Scoggins ended a two-week vacation Tuesday and returned to work at the NTPA milk plant. Harry, his wife Snookie and their youngsters Bobby and Vickie Lynn spent most of the time at Lake Texoma where they have a trailer house and where relatives and friends joined them for visits. In addition to the usual fishing, swimming and so forth, Harry and Snookie made a boat trip to the dam, a distance of 22 miles.

Scoggins, his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Rogers and four children of Pampa and their friends the Lester Moores and family also of Pampa, Harry's sister and husband, the V. K. Karl Klement, Four Has Birthday Party

Karl Klement celebrated his fourth birthday with an afternoon party for which his mother, Mrs. Marty Klement, was hostess Saturday. Youngsters, mostly cousins, and their mothers and several other adults were guests.

Scene of the party was the patio and back yard at the family home which was hung with streamers of fluted crepe paper in red and white — color scheme used in decorations — and which lent a carnival air to the event. The hostess and the young honoree wore mother and son outfits in red and white.

Party hats and whistles were favors, and birthday cake, ice cream and punch were refreshments. Games were played and pictures were taken. Among the shower of birthday gifts for Karl was a rat terrier puppy, from his mother and daddy.

Eleven children and ten adults were guests. Among them special guests were Karl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Klement and Mrs. Joe Haverkamp of Gainesville.

Children attending were Janell Reiter, Charles Cler, Curtis and Kim Klement, Lynn Joe Klement and Claude Klement of Muenster, Barbara Spires, Earlyne and Carla Lehnertz, and Gary and Greg Yosten of Gainesville, and their mothers Mmes. Walter, Ray and Rody Klement, Gilbert Yosten and Earl Lehnertz. Also Mrs. Ewald Berend of Gainesville and Mrs. M. H. King.

Return From Trip To St. Anne Shrine

Mrs. Al Trubenbach and daughter Judy are back at home since Saturday after a pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre in Canada and a tour of eastern states on the way back. They were gone 20 days.

They were in company of cousins, Rev. John and Rev. Lawrence Schumacher of Illinois, meeting them in Chicago for the car trip going and returning from that point.

Special ceremonies were observing the 300th anniversary of the famous shrine and thousands of pilgrims thronged the shrine area. Housing facilities were far short of accommodating the visitors and 3000 pilgrims slept in the church even before the annual novena started.

On the return Mrs. Trubenbach and Judy and their cousins toured eastern states with a four-day sight-seeing visit in New York City, and stop-overs in Portland, Maine, Paulding, Ohio, and Chicago, where they visited relatives.

Eventually... Why Not Now?

Conservatives of both parties who have long complained that they had "no place to go," may soon have a haven — if the plans of Publisher Mark P. Haines of the Sturgis (Mich.) Journal should jell.

Mr. Haines would call his party the "Constitutional Party" and it would be dedicated to political integrity, fiscal realism and the return of self-government and self respect to the states and local communities.

"What is needed in this country," says Mr. Haines, "is a means and opportunity for voters to realign themselves into two realistic groups — conservatives in one party and the so-called liberals and social planners in the other."

Editor George Zarry, of the Dowagiac (Mich.) News, in reporting on Mr. Haines' convictions and aspirations says that while the Sturgis publisher has not yet worked out the "mechanics" of his new party, he has been mulling over the problem since June. He is distressed, says Editor Zarry, at the thought of men like Georgia's Senator Russell and Virginia's Senator Byrd having to occupy the same party with "the Morges, the Neuberghers, the Mennen Williamses, the Humphreys and the Harimans." He also feels that: "Millions of northern Republicans, sickened by their betrayal at Washington, would welcome a new leadership and a new party. . . . The spenders, taxers, pro-labor groups and those who believe in a strong centralized government would make up the liberal party."

As leaders in the Constitutional Party, the Wisconsin publisher would welcome Vice President Nixon, Senators Knowland, Byrd, Lausche, Smathers and Goldwater; Illinois' Republican Governor William G. Stratton and Florida's Democratic Governor Leroy Collins.

We think Mr. Haines should include well up in this list former Governor J. Bracken Lee, of Utah, who has turned his back in disgust on the Republican party and filed as an independent candidate for the US Senate — and who has said: "There is no material difference between the Democratic and Republican parties in their fundamental beliefs. Both now stand for and support the same policy of high tax, waste and giveaway programs."

work. Do they have the right to leisure, to study, to health protection?"

Tut! Tut! Mr. Mikoyan. You are either a fakir or sublimely ignorant, in posing that question.

The fact of the matter is that an unemployed American has all those rights enumerated by Mikoyan — plus the right and obligation to seek productive work of the sort he would like to have and for which he can qualify. And further, the Soviet Deputy Premier should be informed, if he doesn't already know it, that the average American industrial worker, temporarily out of work, can buy more with his unemployment compensation benefits than the average employed Soviet worker can buy with his wages.

The Soviet Union has long bragged about its ability to provide full employment for its people while taunting America on its recurring periods of unemployment. Well, it would be a cinch for us to avert these periods of unemployment, if we abolished free enterprise and chained every worker to a state-controlled job, Soviet style. You can bet your bottom dollar, there isn't a single American worker, employed or unemployed, who would be willing to abandon his freedom, to become a serf at low wages.

THE EVIDENCE OF GOD
 A most interesting and informative book has just reached me for review: "THE EVIDENCE OF GOD in an expanding Universe." In it forty American scientists declare their affirmative views on religion — it is edited by John Clover Monsma, an ordained minister, former newspaper and magazine editor, who for the past twenty years has been broadcasting over a Chicago radio station.

On the jacket of the book the question is asked: "Is there a God for the Atomic Age?" And the jacket answers: "Here (in this book) forty reputable scientists representing all branches of the physical and biological sciences, from mathematics and astronomy to organic chemistry and nuclear physics, affirm their belief in the existence of a personal God. John Clover Monsma, a writer of wide and varied education, has long wished to combat the popular error that science undermines faith, and in arranging this symposium he has found a cogent means of doing so."

This book is the answer to materialistic Communism which denies the existence of a Supreme Being. It is a "must" for every minister, priest and rabbi, as well as for their communicants. The forty trained thinkers present concise and lucid statements of the reasons why they believe in God.

TUT! TUT! MR. MIKOYAN
 Anastas I. Mikoyan, Soviet Deputy Premier, recently in discussing democracy and freedom, sneeringly asked:

"What sort of liberties, what sort of right do the 5 million unemployed Americans now have? They have lost their right to

She is the daughter of the late Theodore and Anna Wiesman of Muenster and left from here 25 years ago to enter the convent. Participating in the ceremonies were ten sisters who have been nuns for 50 years.

The church was beautifully decorated with rose colored peonies and greenery and places for the jubilarians and their families were marked with silver and gold ribbons. In the dining room for the meal afterwards these colors again predominated.

Joining Mrs. Haverkamp, Mrs. Fleitman and the Koelzers for the visit with their sister, Sister Ann Theodore, were their four aunts, Sister Josephine, Sister Constantia, Sister Cordula and Sister Emerita, a niece, Sister Miriam Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller and their two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Streng have returned from a week's visit in Dallas with their daughter Mrs. Marie Pannell and children.

Mrs. C. B. Sears who has been through a long seige of illness and major surgery says she is regaining her strength nicely now. She had the operation in Galveston and is convalescing at the home of her son, Tom Sears, at Orange. Mrs. Sears wrote as follows:

"Please send greetings to all my friends and express my thanks for the prayers during my illness and for the cards and sweet letters. They helped me meet each new day with courage and thankfulness.

"I am improving daily and it won't be long until I will be back at the place I call home."

Stop Market Losses From Cattle Grubs

use

LIVESTOCK INSECTICIDE

A remarkably effective spray control for cattle grubs.

Kills grubs inside the cattle before they can damage meat and hide or seriously retard the animal's development.

Cattle grubs develop from the eggs of heel flies laid on the hair of the lower legs of the animal. Small larvae hatching from these eggs burrow through the skin and into the flesh of the animal, migrating through the tissue until they appear as lumps on the back. This stage is 6 to 7 months after eggs are laid. Eventually the grubs cut through the hide, drop to the ground and develop into the heel fly, which lays more eggs, thus completing the cycle.

By Co-Ral grub control some of the chemical goes through the hide, killing grubs inside the animal. Dead grubs are broken down, absorbed and disappear without leaving any trace of injury.

The best time to spray is at termination of the heel fly season, just after grubs have started their slow migration to the back. That's NOW, in July and August.

Religious Ceremony And Breakfast Mark Patron's Feast Day

Members of the Christian Mothers Society of St. Peter's Parish observed the feast day of their patron, Saint Anne, on July 26 with a religious and a social event, and a reception for 11 candidates.

Father Conrad officiated at mass for the members at 6:30 a.m. and the group received Communion in a body. After mass, the candidates participated in reception ceremonies.

The social event was a breakfast in the school cafeteria. Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Flusche, Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerer, Mrs. Matt Neu and Mrs. John Hess.

The regular monthly business session of the organization followed. Mrs. Bill Fleitman and Mrs. Henry Hess, delegates to the Catholic State League Convention in Windthorst, gave reports and Father Conrad addressed the group. He expressed his satisfaction over the large number of Lindsay residents at the convention. About 45 attended the state meeting.

product justifies the effort. When the next centennial rolls around that paper will probably be rated as the most complete historical document of the first century.

Something encouraging about last Saturday's election was the apparent set back of the liberals and radicals in Texas politics. With just a few exceptions candidates usually identified as conservatives, and backed by conservative elements of the state, were the winners. The same was true in precinct conventions. From all over the state came reports that conservatives had named the delegates to county conventions and the stage is set to get conservatives in complete control of the state's party machinery. It seems to indicate that the influence of race and labor extremists and planned economy advocates has been at least retarded, and perhaps even stopped.

The big exception in this trend, of course, was the Senator's race. Yarborough, with the blessing of DOT and other liberals, swamped the conservative favorite Blakely. But maybe other factors were at work there. Such as the custom of giving most candidates a second term and the more limited acquaintance of a man making his first race. Otherwise a lot of conservatives must have figured that Yarborough was all right with them.

Being familiar with the limitations of a weekly newspaper, this column places that edition at the top of the list of Montague County's centennial achievements. It was a tremendous job well done. NO MAN EVER HAD MORE LOYAL FRIENDS than I did during my campaign for nomination as Democratic candidate for District Clerk of Cooke County. Not only did they offer encouragement by their pledges to support me at the polls on election day but many of them made personal solicitations of their friends and acquaintances in my behalf. As a result, I came out victorious by a substantial margin at last Saturday's election

I full well realize the obligations this wonderful public support implies and when I assume the office next January, it will be with a deep sense of gratitude and a sincere determination to provide a character of service that will be pleasing to the majority of the citizenship.

I invite the goodwill of those who voted for my worthy opponent and will hold no malice against any one. My ambition is to serve all to the best of my ability — promptly, courteously, honestly.
