

MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XXIII MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS APRIL 24, 1959 NUMBER 22

Commenting on the highly publicized Reuther-inspired jobless march on Washington, Editor Peters of Nocona says that a little arithmetic is in order. By his estimate the average expense of making that trip, including railroad fare, lodging and meals, can be conservatively figured at $200. And multiplying that figure by 7000, he estimates the total cost of the propaganda maneuver at $1,400,000.

Then comes the big question. Who paid the bill? Did the jobless demonstrators pay their own expenses, or did the union pay for them? Either way, this affair shapes up as a colossal waste of money that could have been put to far better use. If the marchers paid their own way they were only adding to their own financial distress. If the union footed the bill it was goofing off money that might have been used to relieve some of the unemployment distress.

Many of us would be inclined to estimate the expense of the march somewhat lower, but we still would not discount the validity of Editor Peters' reasoning. Whatever the amount, it was a tragic waste, considering what the money could have done toward meeting the needs of those 7000 jobless men.

Equally tragic is the fact that these misguided individuals, and their leaders, assume that the government is responsible for their welfare, and hence is obligated to come up with a solution that will put them all back to work. Regardless of who created the problem, government is expected to find the answer.

The more reasonable approach, it seems, is to start looking for the causes of unemployment . . . and to acknowledge that labor itself shares the guilt, probably the greater part of the guilt, with the government.

It does not take an economic genius to understand that our decline in buying power is retarding our consumption of American products, which in turn, retards production. The reason for fewer jobs is simply fewer purchases. Inflation is the cause. And the two principal causes of inflation are unjustified wage increases and deficit spending. One of those causes can be charged up to labor, the other to government.

Correcting those causes obviously requires adjustment by both labor and government. By any reasonable standard the marchers have no right to make demands on the government until they correct some of their own mistakes.

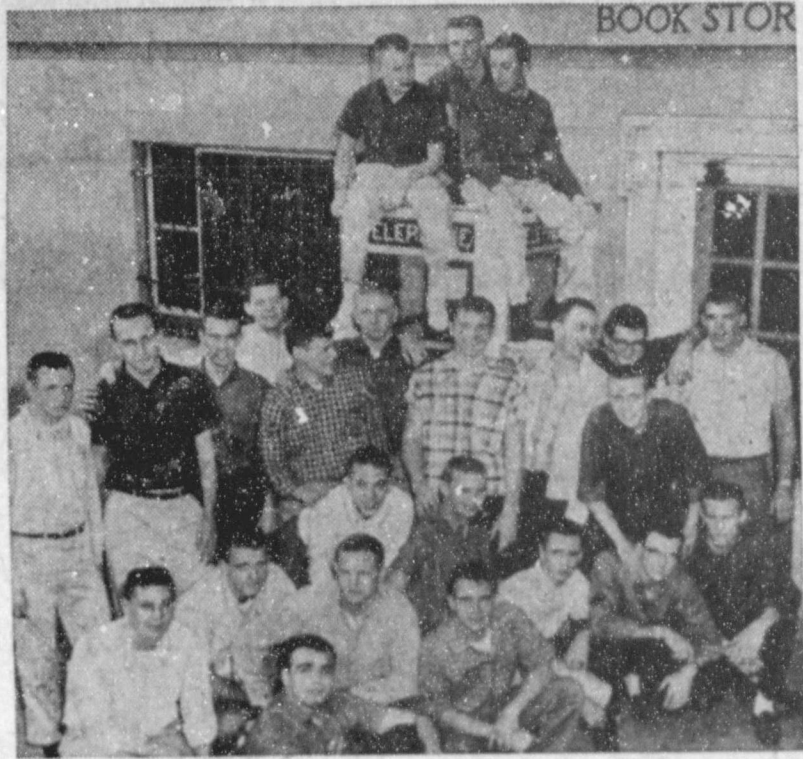

Distasteful as the remedy may be, it is within labor's power. It can work out ways to reverse the trend of the past decade, to reduce unit costs by eliminating the factors which have been pushing prices higher and higher. Restoring the value of the consumer's dollar is the only way out of the dilemma. Doing that will require the effort of labor as well as government.

As regards the government's part in overcoming the economic distress, one of the greatest handicaps on senators and representatives, we are told, is the apathy of the millions of people who want sound fiscal policies. They do not bother to write and express their opinions. The end result is that the overwhelming weight of Washington mail comes from pressure groups and individuals urging the legislators to favor grants and appropriations for their particular interests. Even people who make a habit of preaching economy find exceptions to violate their professed principle in order to urge special handouts for their own communities or pet projects.

To counteract such pressure we are constantly reminded to write and tell our elected representatives that we are opposed to this or that means of adding to the taxpayer's burden, to give them whatever backing they need to resist these attempts at raiding the treasury.

While admitting that such letters would convey some comfort and encouragement to the economy minded legislator, it's a good idea to remember a few other basic facts. First of all, the senator or representative, by the time he finishes campaigning for office, is thoroughly aware that voters are depending on him to hold down their tax burden. By their vote they express confidence in his integrity and judgment to resist pressures which would benefit the few at the expense of the taxpayers. They depend on him to represent their

N. Texas District Of Catholic League Meets Here Sunday

Delegates and visitors from Lindsay, Pilot Point and Windthorst joined Muenster residents Sunday afternoon in attending the spring meeting of the Catholic State League's northern district here in the parish hall.

In the business session, Pilot Point was tentatively announced as the host parish for the fall meeting and officers were re-elected. They are President Leonard Bengfort of Lindsay, Secretary-Treasurer Al Hess of Muenster and Rural Life Chairman Robert Wolf of Windthorst.

Principal address of the afternoon was given by Charles B. King of Wichita Falls. He spoke on world affairs, taking many of the thoughts he received from a recent address given by the Honorable Charles Malik, president of the general assembly of the United Nations whose subject concerned the need for Christians of the world to petition Almighty God for the salvation of souls and the uniting of all Christian peoples. "We must get into service organizations and make our Christian influence felt," he said. "We must be with Christ or we are against Him."

Carol Ann Hess of Muenster was the other featured speaker. She represented the Youth Section. Today's teenagers are eager to find their place in the world, both materially and spiritually, she stated. She also laid the blame for most teenage crimes on poorly supervised homes.

MHS Sends 6 Boys To Regional Track

Six boys of the Muenster High School track team will be in Denton Saturday to participate in the regional track and field meet of the Texas Interscholastic League. Five of them are second place winners in the district meet. The other, Billy Otto, was third place winner but became eligible when the district winner had to drop out because of a physical injury.

Enterers and their events as disclosed this week by Coach Boze Ansley, are as follows. Truman Wolf in 100 yard dash. James Harris in 220 yard dash. Milton Fette in half mile run. Billy Otto in shot put. Wolf, Harris, Larry Wimmer and Doug Hellman in the 440 relay.

Winners of first and second places in the regional meet will qualify to enter the state meet in Austin May 7-9.

Band Will Compete In Regional Meet

Muenster High School's 31 member band will be the smallest and the only band representing a class B school next Saturday at the annual Region 10 Interscholastic League band meet at NTSC in Denton.

According to Band Director Jim Harris the bands will be judged according to a standard of excellence, not in competition with each other, so the MHS band, even though the only one in its class, is not a cinch to win an award. It will have to earn anything it receives.

Judges will be band directors and music department heads from several universities of the Southwest and high schools of South and West Texas.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. Lee Morris, 77, who suffered a heart attack Sunday at her home north of Muenster, is a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium where she has been in an oxygen tent most of the week. At her bedside are her children, Charlie Morris of Happy and Mrs. Floyd Tucker of Hereford. Three other daughters were at her bedside during the earlier part of the week: Mrs. Paul Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hunter of Amarillo.

Baby Vickie Lynn Scoggins has the casts removed from her legs after six weeks of this corrective treatment to strengthen foot and toe ligaments. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scoggins, took her to Wichita Falls Wednesday.

Rural Mail Carrier J. W. Fletcher was making his regular rounds again Monday after a week of being off duty following minor surgery. He had a small growth removed from the side of his face near his eye, at Muenster Clinic. Frank Schilling delivered mail on route 2 for him and his son and daughter-in-law, the Jack Fletchers and Sara and Sue came over from Denton to cheer him with a visit.

For Bobby Hess there'll be no more school and no more baseball for several weeks. He's a shut-in at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hess, with a broken right leg. The fracture is just above the ankle and the leg is in a cast. Bobby, 14, had the mishap when he slid to second base during a practice ball game.

Mary Alice Dickerson has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium where she was a patient for treatment of virus flu about a week.

Becky McElreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rafe McElreath, is back at home to continue recovery from illness that confined her to a Sherman hospital for a week's treatment.

The Rev. E. J. Gerlich pastor of St. Mary's Church in Gainesville, has been undergoing a series of minor operations in St. Joseph's Hospital at Fort Worth and is remaining there for medical attention. During his absence, Father William Lane is serving St. Mary's parish as well as St. Charles' parish.

Returned from a two-week rest and feeling better for it, is Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, who was in Fort Worth with her son Ed and family. Mr. Swirczynski visited there one week and they came home together. Mrs. Swirczynski says many thanks for the shower of greeting cards and get-well prayers, that she appreciates every one. While she was in Fort Worth she also visited Mrs. Frank Seyler who is in St. Joseph's Hospital for a check-up. She sent best regards to all her friends here.

Mrs. Frank Seyler who has been in St. Joseph's Hospital for a checkup and observation expects to be back at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elwyn Hope, 4000 Medford Road, Fort Worth 3, within the next few days. She's a shut-in and cards from Muenster friends will cheer her.

Annual Meeting of Electric Co-op Set For Next Monday

Several hundred members of the Cooke County Electric Co-operative Association are expected in Muenster Monday night for the organization's annual business meeting and election of directors, plus the traditional drawing for attendance prizes.

The meeting, to be held in the public school auditorium, will be opened at 8 o'clock by Jack Crownover, president of the organization. Rev. Jerry Delleney of Saint Jo will give the invocation and Mayor Herbert Meurer will extend Muenster's welcome to the visiting members.

An added attraction for this year's meeting is an address by A. P. Edwards of Wichita Falls, a retired professor and news analyst from the faculty of Mid-western University. The subject of his talk was not announced, however Mike Sloan, co-op manager, hinted at the nature of it by identifying Edwards as a popular humorist.

This year's meeting will mark the retirement of a director who has served on the board since the co-op was organized twenty years ago. R. M. Felty of Hood asked the nominating committee not to put his name back on the ballot. Nominated to succeed him is Thomas Ben Davis, also of Hood. On the ballot for re-election are Directors Jack Crownover and T. P. Skinner of Nocona. Other directors now serving are Al Wiesman and J. A. Klement of Muenster, Joe Bengfort of Lindsay and Doye Doty of Valley View.

After the business session the co-op will conduct its customary drawing for attendance prizes. There will be about 20 electrical appliances with a total value of more than $500.

Last on the program is refreshments of coffee and cookies.

24 Local Students Will Participate in Junior Olympics

Twenty four youngsters in three age groups at the Muenster Public School are working enthusiastically this week for the district meet of the Junior Olympics to be held in Gainesville next Tuesday night. Several counties of North Texas are included in the district.

The meet, according to Coach Boze Ansley, is a starter for this year's nation wide Junior Olympics. First three winners of each event will qualify for a meet at Garland in which records will be kept and forwarded to national headquarters. Though new to this part of the state the Junior Olympics is old stuff to most athletes of South Texas.

The three age groups and the local entries in each are as follows. In the 12 and 13 year old group:

50 yard dash; Weldon Vogel, Allen Reiter, Charles Cunningham. 100 yard dash; Roy Monday, W. Vogel, Reiter, 220 Relay; Reiter, Monday, Cunningham, W. Vogel. Standing broad jump; W. Two Teams Lead in Each Division of Volley Tournament

Two teams stand out as the favorites in each division of the invitation volley ball tournament at Muenster High this week, however four teams of each division still have a chance at the trophies.

At the half mark following Tuesday night's games Sacred Heart Alumni B and Sivells Bend remained undefeated in the ladies division while Saint Jo and the Auctioneers headed the men's division.

Two teams have been eliminated by double losses in each division, leaving four teams in the one-loss classification for each division. They are VFW Auxiliary, Alumni B, Tuesday Niters and Lindsay in the ladies tournament; Muenster High, Lindsay, J & L Supply and Muenster Teachers in the men's contest.

The tournament is a double elimination affair, each team remaining in the competition until it has lost twice. In the end there will be trophies for the champ, the runner up, and third place in each division.

Finals are scheduled for Friday night, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Celebration Marks 25th Anniversary of Martin Bayers

Silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer was observed Saturday at their home with a reception and dinner attended by about 125 guests. The honor couple's seven children helped with party plans.

Sister Damien and Patsy Bayer were here from Fort Worth and Donald Bayer and his wife Della came from Crockett. Children at home are Thomas, the twins Dale and David, and William.

Louise Walterscheid and Martin Bayer were married here on April 17, 1934. Both are natives of Muenster. Their attendants at the wedding 25 years ago were her sisters Frieda and Adelaide now Mes. Herman Dangelmayr and Johnny Bayer, Harry Otto and George Bayer. They were present for the celebration.

A sumptuous banquet menu was served under a large tent, set up especially for that purpose, in the yard at the Bayer farm home. Mrs. Leo Hesse and Suzanne Hesse of Fort Worth served the handsome anniversary cake.

Afterwards the silverweds displayed anniversary gifts, followed by picture taking and music and dancing. The celebration closely resembled the couple's wedding day festivities of 25 years ago. Mrs. Bayer wore a becoming blue costume and corsage of red roses.

Among special guests were the Rev. Fathers Christopher, Martin and Bonaventure.

Marking the actual wedding date, the day before the social observance, Mr. and Mrs. Bayer and family attended an anniversary mass in Sacred Heart Church. Father Martin officiated and after the service called the silverweds to the communion railing for a special blessing.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bayer drove to Fort Worth to take Sister Damien back to OLV convent and returned Patsy Bayer and Suzanne Hesse to St. Joseph's School of Nursing. Donald and Della returned to Crockett where he is assistant county agent.

The Bayers' four boys at home help them with farm chores and in their Grade A dairy.

Ken Hoedebeck and June Reiter Marry At Nuptial Mass

St. Mary's Church at Gainesville was the scene of the afternoon wedding of June Reiter and Kenneth Hoedebeck with the Rev. William Lane officiating at the Nuptial mass and ring ceremony at 4 o'clock Saturday.

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Reiter, route 4, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck, route 1, formerly of Muenster.

For her wedding June wore a floor length white organza and lace dress with an empire bodice, round necked and short sleeved, and long lace mitts. The wide bell-shaped skirt was ornamented with lace at the center front and around the hemline of the overskirt. Her veil was elbow length and she carried a white orchid. Mr. Reiter gave his daughter in marriage.

Clarice Roberg was maid of honor wearing a blue chiffon bouffant over taffeta. Douglas Reiter, brother of the bride, was best man, and Richard Klement and Danny Hoedebeck ushered. The wedding reception was held in the Muenster Parish Hall and a buffet supper was served to some 200 guests who were registered by Frances Loerwald. A dance followed in the VFW Hall here.

The newlyweds are setting up housekeeping south of Gainesville. He is associated with his father in the dairy business.

All the Richard Schumachers' youngsters are back at home this week after having vacations with relatives while their mother nursed a badly cut hand. She sustained the injury during the storm northeast of Gainesville on March 31 when glass blown from broken windows struck her. The bandages have been removed and she can use her hand again. Last of the children to return home were Peggy who visited the Walter Haverkamps at Electra and the baby Timmy who was with the Billy Schroeders at Windthorst. The Haverkamps brought Peggy with them when they spent the weekend here and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schumacher of Gainesville drove to Windthorst Sunday to spend the day with their daughter and family and brought Timmy back with them.

Spending Sunday with the Joe Lukes and honorees at a noon dinner were Mrs. Luke's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jungman and long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Edgar, all of Munday.

JOHNNY AND ARITHMETIC

Is fourth grader Johnny learning his arithmetic better than—or even as well as—his parents did?

He should do better than his parents—there's little room for argument on that score. Arithmetic long has been the most poorly learned and least liked subject in elementary school. If you doubt this, just look at the way high school students avoid mathematics.

Now comes news of a new program that is proving that Johnny can learn arithmetic better and faster than children ever have in the past, and enjoy it in the process. The program, already in use in 1,500 schools, was devised by two college professors of mathematics and education Maurice Hartung and Henry Van Engen who believe that grade schools should emphasize basic mathematics ideas that will carry over to high school courses. Most important, the program's ultimate goal is to teach children to succeed with story type problems.

Teachers know that the biggest weakness both of children and adults is problem solving. They can "figure" very well when the are told to divide or multiply but if they must decide for themselves which process to use, they are lost.

In Chicago, recently, 54 out of 55 high school seniors were able to divide 234 by 13; but over 40 were unable to "state what percent of 60 makes 12". They didn't know they were supposed to divide 12 by 60. No one told them!

Meeting this weakness head-on, the Hartung-Van Engen program begins teaching basic mathematics to first graders. They explore the "whys" behind the rules, instead of blindly memorizing what the teacher or book says. Third graders start using equations to solve problems.

By the time these youngsters get to sixth grade, they succeed with percents, ratios, and other topics usually taught in seventh or eight grade. They understand what they're doing, are proud of their ability, and their teachers are confident they will be eager beavers for high school math.

In an age when the country needs so many scientists and engineers with good mathematical backgrounds, this is doubly important. Parents owe a vote of thanks to school educators who are using this new method in order to give our children the best possible training.

EYE OPENER

Does anyone still believe the fiction that most of the cost of government is borne by the well-to-do, and that government spending isn't of much consequence to the rest of us?

If so, something said by an official of a leading manufacturing company should be an eye-opener: "Few people realize it, but 84 per cent of all the revenue obtained by the personal income tax comes from the basic 20 per cent rate and only 16 per cent of the revenue arises from progression. If the income presently taxed in excess of 50 per cent were taxed only at that rate, the direct loss in revenue to the government would be just $734 million which is approximately one per cent of federal revenue collection."

The 46th anniversary of the federal income tax occurred last February 25—and the baby certainly has grown. At the beginning, in 1913, the rates ran from 1% to 6%, as against 20% to 91% now. And where the per capita tax averaged 82c in these long-gone days, it has risen to $397.

PENETRATING VOICE

The Soviet Union, attempting to meet improved radio transmissions by the Voice of America, has resorted to heavier jamming tactics. Despite the jamming, however, there is evidence that the Voice is managing to penetrate the Iron Curtain.

Russia's fear of the spoken word is a measure of its fear of its own people. And the Soviet leaders are finding it increasingly awkward and embarrassing to explain their efforts to prevent the Russian people from receiving undoctored news from the outside world.

The Russians, as educational opportunity spreads and as the news blackout becomes even more obvious in its purpose, can hardly be expected to remain docile and incurious. Eventually they will compel the reopening of informational channels and contacts with the rest of the world.

The dilemma the Kremlin then will face will not be simple to resolve. When political power depends upon delusion and misinformation, as the Soviet dictatorship does, it is a confession of political weakness and inherent wrongness which can not endure. — Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Straight Inflationary Program

Out of the mid-winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council has come news of organized labor's legislative intentions.

For one thing, Congress will be asked to shorten the work week to 35 hours—while pay would be the same or even more than is now received for 40 hours. For another, Congress will be asked to increase the federal minimum wage from 1 to $1.25 an hour. For still a third, Congress will be asked to extend the wage-hour law to groups of workers who have been exempt ever since the law's beginning, notably those engaged in retail trade.

Here, if there ever was one, is a straight out and out inflationary program. It is a program designed to get more pay for less work—and, most important, without relating pay to productivity. This is one of the surest known ways to force prices up.

As for the proposal to extend coverage to retailing and the other exempt service industries, this would violate a basic concept of the law. Its original sponsors—of whom President Franklin Roosevelt was one—realized, and said, that certain types of business are local in nature, and should be regulated locally if at all. Retailing is that kind of business. Every retail store, large or small, chain or independent, must compete locally and deal with wide local variances in costs, consumer preferences, labor supply, etc.

The country has been hoping that the unions would show a little more restraint in their demands. The current program certainly doesn't look as if that is happening.

Writing in The New York Times Magazine, Kingsley Davis described the increase in the earth's population as an "explosion". Sixteen years from now, it is estimated, the earth will contain a billion more people—and in 41 years nearly four billion more.

WEATHER GIVES ASSIST TO HELP MAKE PARTY SPOOKY

Weather Saturday night with thunder, lightning and rain added spooks to a ghost party which was a birthday celebration for Margaret Ann Davidson of Fort Worth. The honoree and her parents, the Raymond Davidsons, spent the weekend here.

It was Margaret Ann's first teen party and she brought five girl friends along from Fort Worth. The other guest was Glenda Kay Davidson of Muenster.

The party began at the Davidsons' Pecan Spring Ranch and featured games and story telling, the latter setting the stage for the spook atmosphere. Stories were about Marysville's early day stage coach robberies, legends of Black Hollow, and the Indian raids.

After that the party and the honoree's parents braved the elements in a truck for a motor trip to Black Hollow and a stop enroute at an old "haunted" house, vacant for many years and once the home of old Colonel Stone. Darkness and a thunder storm added mystery and before it was over the teen agers were ready to return to the ranch for a slumber party, eats and drinks.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Warmer weather and improved moisture conditions have combined to make it time to plant King Ranch Bluestem and the hybrid Bermuda grasses.

Landowners who are co-operating with the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District to protect and improve their soils are rushing to get these grasses planted. Alois Trubenbach used a district-owned cultipacker seeder to plant KR Bluestem grass on some 36 acres of former cropland on his farm south of Muenster. Grazing will not be allowed on the grass planting until the grass is well established, then the area will be included with the other pasture.

At Myra, Jake Biffle Jr. and Walter Reed used a district grass drill to plant KR on areas earmarked for pasture grasses. Jake planted 12 acres of old field to the grass on the Jake Biffle Sr.

farm and Walter planted five acres of old field area on his farm.

At Hood, Sid Felker is planting five acres of shallow field land to KR Bluestem. A portion of the area will be used as a terrace outlet area and will make terracing of a sloping field possible.

Meador Brothers of Saint Jo have planted 20 acres of cropland to King Ranch Bluestem. The area will serve as hay meadow after the grass is established. Weldor Dennis of Saint Jo has just completed planting a 25-acre bottomland field to Coastal Bermuda on his farm near Bulcher. The planting will be used as a nursery plot to grow a supply of grass roots so that old field areas on the farm can be planted to this high producing improved Bermuda grass.

Roy Kingery of Saint Jo has five acres of his Dye Mound farm planted to Midland Bermuda grass. This will be used as a nursery plot so Mr. Kingery can produce his own root supply for future planting. Midland is an improved hybrid grass developed by Oklahoma A & M College. This Bermuda grass is similar to Coastal in growth and production but is more winter hardy.

All the grass plantings are a part of each farmer's overall soil and water conservation plan and each planting of grass is to get unproductive land back into grass production or to take land that is unsuitable or unsafe for production of cultivated crops out of cultivation and into grass production so that erosion can be more easily controlled.

 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MUENSTER.

SECTION I
 That a necessity exists for the permanent improvement of those certain streets hereinafter listed, by excavating, grading and paving the same, by installation of proper drainage facilities thereon, and by the construction of curbs and gutters where adequate curbs and gutters are not now in place, and such improvements are hereby ordered, including the paving of said named street as herein designated.
 Being Hickory Street in said city of Muenster, beginning at Division Street and continuing North on said Hickory Street to Sixth Street.

SECTION II
 Said Street is to be paved with Asphalt covering on a proper sub-base in conformity with general street paving construction and types satisfactory for general use.

Street is to be paved from curb to curb, and where no curb is now in existence, such curbs and gutters to be constructed to provide the necessary drainage facilities and to provide strength to paving.

SECTION III
 Authorization is given to secure bids for the paving and the work commenced as soon as weather conditions are favorable, with further authorization and direction that a complete cost be ascertained and reported where by the City shall pay a portion thereof and the abutting property owners the other portion. Such assessments shall constitute a first prior lien upon all such properties and a personal liability of the true and real owners thereof, whether correctly named or not, and shall be payable as follows:
 When the improvements herein ordered for any street unit herein designated have been completed and accepted by the City of Muenster the amount of the assessment against each property abutting thereon and the real and true owners thereof shall be and become payable. The full amount of such assessment may be paid upon receipt of assessment notice, or it may be paid in equal installments, beginning 30 days after assessment notice is given with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum, with the option to make full payment at any time, and no installment shall be made for a longer time than thirty six months, except by special written agreement made by the City Council, upon special arrangements and term set forth by the City Council for such arrangements.

SECTION 4
 The City Council of the City of Muenster deems it advisable and hereby determines to proceed under and in the exercise of the powers, terms and provisions of Art. 1105b of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as heretofore adopted for the purpose of street improvements.

SECTION 5
 The cost of said improvement shall be paid as follows:
 The city shall pay all of the cost of underground drainage installations wherever same may be deemed necessary, the cost of grading and establishing the curb lines, the cost of curbs and/or gutters over alley intersections shall be paid by the city. The abutting property owners shall pay the cost of the curb and gutter according to the number of feet abutting their property. The City shall pay one-third of the cost of the paving and the abutting property owners shall pay one-third of such cost. All assessments shall be made against the respective abutting property owners in accordance with Article 1105b as heretofore adopted and no assessment shall be made for costs in excess of the benefits to such property owners in enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements. The amounts shall be assessed for costs in excess of a first prior lien upon all such properties and a personal liability of the true and real owners thereof, whether correctly named or not, and shall be payable as follows:

When the improvements herein ordered for any street unit herein designated have been completed and accepted by the City of Muenster the amount of the assessment against each property abutting thereon and the real and true owners thereof shall be and become payable. The full amount of such assessment may be paid upon receipt of assessment notice, or it may be paid in equal installments, beginning 30 days after assessment notice is given with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum, with the option to make full payment at any time, and no installment shall be made for a longer time than thirty six months, except by special written agreement made by the City Council, upon special arrangements and term set forth by the City Council for such arrangements.

SECTION 6
 The construction and installation of the improvements whether curb and gutter or whether paving herein ordered in each street or portion of street designated shall be separate and independent of construction and installations of such improvements in each other unit or street and distinct from assessments to be levied in every other street unit or improvement, and in making and levying assessments against property for the improvements in one unit or portion of street, shall be considered, no matter of circumstances in connection with any other unit or portion of street, and shall be considered, all as fully and to the same extent as if separate contracts were executed and separate proceedings had with reference to each such unit or portion of street.

SECTION 7
 The City Secretary is hereby directed to cause to be prepared a notice of enactment of this Ordinance and to file said notice with the County Clerk of Cooke County, Texas, among the Deed of Trust Mortgage or Lien Records of Cooke County, Texas.

SECTION 8
 The fact that streets and portions thereof to be improved as provided for are retarding the traffic conditions of the city and are in dangerous or unusable conditions and should be improved without delay creates an emergency and imperative public necessity for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety and general welfare, and therefore, the rule requiring and providing that Ordinances be read at various times or scheduled readings is hereby suspended; and this Ordinance shall be passed and take effect as an emergency measure and be in full force from and after its passage as provided by law, and it is so ordained.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IS VITAL PART OF TP&L SERVICE
 At one time the village smithy was the only industry in most towns. Today, not one, but many diversified industries solidly support the economy of your area.
 A closer look will show that, since its beginning in 1912, TP&L has endeavored to stimulate industrial development and to improve the general economy of its service area. Through the combined efforts of TP&L's Industrial Development Division and the leaders of various communities, many new industrial plants have been located in the company's service area. As an aid to attracting industrial growth and improving business climate, the company sponsors a program of Area Development Workshops and Community Development Clinics to encourage local citizens and business leaders to engage in community improvement.
 As a business-managed, taxpaying public utility (more than 25 cents out of all TP&L revenue goes for taxes), Texas Power & Light Company pledges continued support to the communities it serves... making the area attractive to new and expanding industry by providing dependable, low-cost power for today's needs and always planning for the electrical needs of tomorrow.

A German and Russian were fishing on opposite sides of the river. The German caught fish after fish while the Russians didn't even get a bite. Finally the Russian yelled across, "Why is it you catch fish and I get none?"

The German thought a minute and then replied, "I guess on your side they are afraid to open their mouths."

The town's leading citizen was finishing a speech to the local Chamber of Commerce on money and the fact that we Americans concentrate so much on acquiring it.

"Remember, gentlemen," he intoned pontifically, "it isn't money that will heal a broken heart or mend the fragments of a broken dream! Money can't bring joy to a divided home or make up for the defects of a dissipated life"

He paused solemnly for a moment, then continued. "I'm referring, of course, to Confederate money."

SPEED IS TIRE KILLER

The effect of high speed on tread wear is illustrated in this photograph of two identical passenger car tires, each of which was driven 19,200 miles concurrently over the same routes on cars of the same make by the B.F. Goodrich Tire Company test fleet.

The tire on the left went 9200 miles at 65 miles an hour, 5000 miles at 70 miles an hour, and 5000 miles at 75 miles an hour carrying a standard load.

The companion tire, also with standard load, was driven the entire 19,200 miles at 60 miles an hour and showed substantial tread and useful mileage remaining at the end of the controlled run.

life awards to students in an essay contest. Mary Catherine Walterscheid, senior at Sacred Heart High, received the top award and will represent the district at the state convention in Shiner this summer. Her award is an engraved plaque.

Presidents of the local parish societies extended welcome after Father Christopher opened the meeting with prayer. In a short talk Father Christopher urged participation of the laity in the liturgy of the Church especially in the mass, the ideal way being for all people present to sing the mass.

Among state officers were Nick Block of Lindsay, president of the league and Mrs. Ted Wolf of Windthorst, president of the Women's Section.

Entertainment was an all-girl enactment of a condensed version of several scenes from King Arthur by the eighth grade of Sacred Heart School and a song by sixth grade boys.

President Block reminded the men to work for new members and promised a good convention at Shiner. Mrs. Ted Wolf pleaded for mission goods at the convention exhibit, adding that many priests the world over are begging for help.

Arthur Endres spoke for the insurance union. He reported over $20 million insurance in force with assets close to $5 million.

A complete list of rural life winners for the district follows: Girls High School, in the order named, Mary Catherine Walterscheid, Harriet Schroeder of Windthorst, Barbara Pelzel of Pilot Point, Boys, Ray Schriber of Windthorst, Milton Krebs of Lindsay, Alvin Hacker of Muenster.
