Free Chest X-Rays Set November 5-6 For Over-50 Group

Halloween safety tips are mighty timely this week, so it might be a good idea here to pass on a few suggestions made especially for the occasion by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association.

For prowling kiddies it's advisable to avoid dark clothing, which does not show up as well in the headlight of a car. The lighter their clothing the better. And, of course, car drivers should be especially watchful for darting kids.

At the home too, there are precautions which ought to be observed to help the small avoid accidents. First of all keep the porch light burning so they'll be less likely to fall. And make sure the yard isn't an obstacle course. Remove children's bikes, wagons, etc. Cover excavations, if any. Tie strips of white rags to temporary fencing around shrubs, or flowers. And keep the dog secured... the sight of little spooks and goblins could excite him to become troublesome, possibly injurious.

Help to keep Halloween happy. Don't let a needless accident spoil a child's fun.

Comments reaching this column since last week seem to indicate that its objections were unfounded concerning the kind of election proposed for establishing a county college district... that is, regarding the possibility of voters in the Gainesville School District using their superior voting strength to transfer a part of their present obligation to the rest of the county.

Theoretically that statement is still true. Such a possibility definitely exists. However, it has been pointed out that people in the Gainesville district face about the same considerations as those in the rest of the county, so their voting is likely to be far from solid in support of the issue.

The view derives from the well known fact that taxes are seldom reduced. Hence it is assumed that the Gainesville district will get no tax relief even though it is relieved of part of its present responsibility. With a big program already in effect and additional needs clearly in sight that system will have little incentive to make tax reductions.

If that is true it means that a college support tax would cost Gainesville people as much as others in the county. All of which puts everybody in the same category. Everybody can be assured of an additional 20 cent tax if the election carries.

That's the way it should be. In that light this column is willing to acknowledge that the method of election isn't so unfair after all. No group of taxpayers will have an advantage. All can weigh the merits of the proposal against the same tax cost.

As regards the merit of a county college, the column has no change of attitude. It still feels that the institution would bring educational opportunity to many who would otherwise be deprived and would relieve many families of a big sacrifice, also that the college would be a wonderful asset to the county. But will the average voter be willing to assume the additional tax in order to provide these benefits? That's the big question.

It was disappointing this week to learn that the Kaiser Corporation chose not to stick with other steel companies in their stand against inflationary wage increases. This could be a turning point in the big dispute leading eventually to another loop in the inflation spiral.

Nevertheless, yours truly is still optimistic enough to hope that other companies will have the good judgement to stand by their principles. After what has already been accomplished toward alerting the nation of threatening economic chaos it would be tragic to give up now.

More and more people are becoming aware of the danger, including a big percentage of the steel workers themselves. They are bitterly conscious that because of their leaders' pig headedness they have already lost far more than a raise can possibly regain for them, that any raise they receive will soon be absorbed by price raises, that any raise will further depreciate the value of their savings. Every thinking man among them knows that his so-called champion, Mr. McDonald has already caused him to lose much, and will cause him to lose much more if union demands are met. It's tragic that so many

Free chest X-rays will be available in Muenster for the 50 or over age group on the afternoon of Nov. 5 and the morning of Nov. 6. Mrs. Paul Harvey, executive secretary of the Cooke County Tuberculosis Association made that announcement here Monday afternoon when she was in the city making arrangements for the mobile X-ray unit's visit.

Unlike other years, this year's service will be for those 50 years or older only. There are several reasons for the age limitation, one being that TB is primarily a disease of adults and is more prevalent after 50.

Endres Motor Company show room will be headquarters for the X-ray machine and VFW Auxiliary members will serve as hostesses and clerks.

Hours have been set from 1 to 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, and from 8:30 to 12 noon on Friday, Nov. 6. The mobile X-ray unit will set up in Gainesville for two full days, 8:30 to 5:30, on Nov. 3 and 4.

The free chest X-ray program is sponsored by the Cooke County TB Association assisted by the Cooke County Medical Advisory Committee of the TB Board and is conducted by the Texas State Department of Health.

Every person of 50 or over who lives, works, shops or visits in Cooke County is urged to step up to a conveniently located X-ray machine and in less than three minutes have a free chest picture made.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Andy O'Connor surprised his wife and their daughter, Mrs. Andy Monday, by being ready to return to Muenster with them when they visited him at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth Wednesday. Doctors said it would be two more weeks before they could perform surgery on his broken left arm and he could get along just as well at home. Last week the arm was placed in a cast. An accident October 8 broke the arm in three places.

Mrs. Ben Haverkamp has been dismissed from M&S Hospital and is continuing recovery from major surgery at her home where she is still a bed patient. Her doctor said she'd be a shut-in for about three weeks.

Mrs. Johnny Streng has been dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium following treatment and observation but is a shut-in at her home this week. Substituting for her at Sacred Heart lunch room last week was Mrs. Joe Lehnertz while this week Mrs. John Kathman is taking her place.

Mrs. Ben Hellman is in Dallas now at a rest home. Until recently she had been visiting her children but failing health forced her to make a change. She will enjoy hearing from Muenster friends. Address for greeting cards is Wheatland Retreat Hospital, 233 W. Wheatland Road, Dallas 32, Texas.

From Fort Worth come thanks from Charlie Stelzer to all who remembered him with get-well wishes or said a prayer while he was in the hospital for surgery. Back at home now he is up and around the house since Monday.

Changes Under Way In 12-B Grid Loop

Changes are under way in the 12-B football district. Superintendent L. B. Bruns discloses that Interscholastic League headquarters of Austin proposed a split up that will leave Muenster, Saint Jo, Era, Valley View and Callisburg in the District 12 of Region 3 and transfer Sanger, Alvord and Chico to District 13 of Region 4 which also includes Anna, Frisco and Priceton.

The assignments are tentative, Bruns said, hence subject to change if the teams concerned present valid objections to the Interscholastic League. And objections can be expected from the widely scattered District 13 because of travel inconveniences.

Muenster's reply approving its assignment has already been sent in. "We're for it," Bruns said. "We like the membership of the district and the short trips."

Garden Club Will Collect Sunday for Cemetery Upkeep

Muenster's semi-annual collection for the Sacred Heart cemetery is due again. Members of the Muenster Civic League and Garden Club, sponsors of the cemetery maintenance project, will be at the doors of Sacred Heart church Sunday following the four masses to accept donations for the cause.

And it's high time for the collection, according to Mrs. Tony Gremminger, chairman of the cemetery committee. The fund is down to $31 now. The average annual cost of maintaining the cemetery is $600. That includes replacing shrubbery and grave markers as well as watering, mowing and trimming.

A special job now under way is replacing all of the old wood crosses with cement markers.

Local Teams Host Valley View, Laneri In Weekend Games

There will be lots of football in Muenster this weekend. Both teams are playing at home and both are due to have stout competition.

First on schedule is the Muenster-Valley View tussle Friday night. Though it has a 1-3 district record to date the Eagle outfit isn't a bit weak. It is fast and handy with passes, and besides has a weight advantage over the Hornets.

That last factor, however, may not make much difference. In their last two outings the lightweight Hornets have slipped past Sanger and Alvord, the two biggest teams in the loop. And the Hornets also have some running and passing talent.

Records against common foes in games so far show the Eagles as slight favorites over the Hornets. Their losses to Era and Saint Jo were smaller than Muenster's.

Just the same Coach Charles Smith is depending on his boys to take this one. They are in good shape physically and their spirit is high.

Saturday night's game shapes up as another thriller. According to George Petrus, Laneri doesn't seem as tough as in the past few years, so the odds against the Tigers will not be so strong. But the Micks still have the edge. They're bigger and have more reserves. And the record of 1 win and 4 losses to date doesn't exactly show weakness. The Micks have had strong competition.

The Tigers, in good condition and working nicely in their past two games will be putting everything into this contest. It's the big one of their season and a win would go far toward offsetting all five previous losses.

Paul Fisher Heads Cooke County FB

Paul Fisher of Muenster heads the Cooke County Farm Bureau for a new year. Members, in a countywide meeting Monday night, favored him for the presidency.

Other officers named at the session are Vincent Zimmerer of Lindsay, first vice president and Frank Neu of Valley View, second vice president. New directors are Joe Hundt and Weldon Bezner of Lindsay, Henry Yosten and Al Hess of Muenster, Tony Reiter and Tony Sicking of Gainesville, S. M. Proffer and Elmer Fox of Woodbine and J. T. Cole of Sivelles Bend.

Joe Hundt presented the nominating committee's report to the membership. Serving with him on the committee were Ben Davis and William Bezner.

In other business delegates were elected to the state convention in San Antonio November 8-11. They are L. G. Gentle, retiring president, Paul Fisher, Al Walter, George Berry and J. T. Cole. Expenses will be paid by the county organization.

Cooke County Farm Bureau membership now stands at 410, it was announced. A quota of 415 has been set but the organization hopes to bring membership to 450 this year. Last year the total was 367.

The meeting was held in the Community Center building at 8 p.m. with L. G. (Red) Gentle presiding. After adjournment, milk and coffee, sweet rolls and doughnuts were served. Helping with serving were Mmes. Paul Fisher, Gus Lutkenhaus, L. G. Gentle and Joe Krahl.

Christ-King Feast At St. Mary's Has 1500 Attendance

Fifteen hundred Catholics from the Sermon Deanery were in Gainesville Sunday afternoon taking part in the processional of Christ the King with members of St. Mary's Parish as hosts for ceremonies in connection with the annual observance of the feast.

All parishes in the deanery were represented: Muenster, Lindsay, Gainesville, Denton, Pilot Point, Valley View, Sherman and Greenville.

Marching units assembled shortly before three o'clock on the athletic field at St. Mary's School and marched to church. During the six block procession the rosary was recited.

In church there were sermon, sacramental benediction and group singing. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Zachry of Denison themed his address to the occasion, speaking on Christ's Kingship. St. Mary's choir assisted by St. Peter's choir led the congregational singing.

The Blessed Sacrament was brought to the grounds by Rev. William Lane, deanery moderator, and the Very Rev. John B. Duessman of Sherman, dean of the Sherman deanery, was celebrant. His assistants were Rev. Christopher Paladino of Muenster as deacon and Rev. Thomas Taaffe, chaplain at Madonna Hospital in Denison, as subdeacon.

The line of march included the color guards and cross bearer, parish groups from the nine towns, acolytes, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, nuns and members of the clergy.

Hustling Hornets Romp 30-14 over Brawny Bulldogs

Muenster's Hornets had to overcome a lot of tonnage Friday night, as well as a half time deficit of 14-8, in breezing past the Alvord Bulldogs 30-14.

At first the Hornets took their ponderous hosts by surprise and slipped over a TD in a hurry. Recovering Alvord's fumble on the third play in midfield they promptly ripped off two gains for 12 and Wimmer sailed through for the remaining 35. Harris followed over and the Hornets led 8-0.

Following the next kick it soon became apparent that the Bulldogs had power. Nikirk, the 220 pound fullback, and Monk, the mere 170 pound halfback, shared plunging assignments that advanced the ball six first downs for 79 yards and the first Alvord score. Nikirk made the last 3 and Monk followed over to tie the count at 8-8.

The next kickoff was low and bounced off a Hornet's knee, and Alvord recovered on Muenster's 48. The first series failed and Alvord kicked to the 8. Harris almost got away on the return and was finally hauled down after 48 yards on the Alvord 44. Then Muenster failed on its series (Continued on Page 4)

Cubs Will Play at Windthorst Sunday

Whether or not Sacred Heart's Cubs have a chance at the parochial league title depends on what happens at Windthorst Sunday. If they win they will be tied with Windthorst for the top spot. If they lose they will leave the Trojans with a perfect record and cinch for the title.

To date Sacred Heart has wins over Lindsay and AMI and a loss to Windthorst. By winning the next three it can end with a single loss.

Local Kin Attend Funeral in Arizona

Charles Tuggle, 56, a native of Myra and long time resident of this community, died suddenly of a heart attack Monday of last week at his home in Coolidge, Ariz. Funeral services were held on Wednesday.

Local kin going there for the final rites were his brother, Sam Tuggle, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Tuggle accompanied by the deceased's sister, Mrs. Bertie Fenley of Tioga. They returned late Thursday.

Mr. Tuggle left here about 14 years ago going to Tioga. Next he moved to Vernon, then to Arizona, where he lived the past seven years.

Dr. T. S. Myrick, 55, Dies Suddenly of Heart Attack

Death dealt a shocking blow to Muenster Wednesday night when it claimed Dr. Thomas S. Myrick, beloved guardian of the community's health and civic leader for more than 26 years.

He died about 10 o'clock a short time after suffering a heart attack while resting at home. His fatal illness came on him late in the afternoon while he was still on duty in his office but he did not regard it as serious. In recent months he was aware of declining health but continued with his crowded professional schedule to his last day.

Funeral services will be held in Sacred Heart Church at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon with Father Christopher Paladino conducting services and Father Martin Fischer giving the sermon. Burial will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery under direction of Nick Miller Funeral Home. Rosary service will be held in the funeral home Thursday night at 8.

Dr. Myrick was born in Austin on November 4, 1903. He was a graduate of the University of Texas and received his doctor's degree from the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston in 1932. During the same year he was married to Miss Alverene Bradshaw of Weatherford.

The young couple came to Muenster on September 2, 1933 and Doc set up his office in a room adjoining the drug store in the building which he has occupied until now. In 1936 he bought the building and converted the upper floor, formerly used for FMA offices, into a clinic.

During the more than quarter century of Doc's career in Muenster he was an energetic leader in professional and civic activity. He was a member of Cooke County Medical Association, serving one term as president, also a member of the County TB Association, serving six years as president.

Along with his long and devoted service of caring for the sick Dr. Myrick introduced a program of immunization which probably was of even greater value to the community. Since he started administering his shots, estimated as well over 10,000 in all, Muenster has had no communicable disease.

The list of babies he brought into the world numbers over 2,000 approximately the equal of this community's population.

Outside his profession he was prominent in community activity. He was a director of the bank since 1942, a member of the school board from 1953 until this year, when he resigned to serve on the school district's equalization board, also president of the Lions Club for two years. In addition he had a prominent part in most community activity and development.

Survivors are his wife; two sons, John Myrick of Houston and James Myrick, a freshman at ETSC, Commerce, two daughters, Mrs. Pat Stelzer of Commerce and Mrs. Arthur Bordeaux of Denton, and four grandchildren.

Tigers Rally for 12-6 Triumph over Gainesville Team

With a 12-6 win over Gainesville B, Sacred Heart's Tigers made another nice improvement in their season percentage last week. It was their second triumph after the long and discouraging string of five losses.

They did it the hard way, too. After trailing in both yardage and score for the first half the Tigers definitely took charge in the second and scored two well earned touchdowns.

To start, the Tigers were clicking as they held Gainesville on the third series and started goalward following a kick to their 45. Bayer's pass to Wimmer reached the 11 and three more tries set up a first down on the 1. On the next play Cunningham went over and the fumbled ball was recovered by Gainesville across the line. Officials ruled that the carrier was in the process of fumbling before he went over, and the TD did not count.

Gainesville got the ball on the 20, gained to the 27 and fumbled, giving the Tigers another opportunity. Two plays reached the 10 but the next four fouled up and Gainesville regained possession on the 9.

Four plays later Mac White got away on a beautiful 86 yard scamper to the goal, but a penalty for clipping nullified the score (Continued on Page 5)

SOME BARGAIN!

Any lingering doubt you may have that government can carry out a project as cheaply as private enterprise should vanish into thin air, when you read what follows:

An isolated Nike missile base in the Pacific Northwest needed a supply of electricity. It called for bids from a stockholder-owned company which had a substation 7 miles away and a Rural Electrification Co-operative that had one 32 miles away.

The private company advised that its state-regulated tariff for electricity would make the cost $15,858 a year. The REA co-op quoted $300 less.

But here's the rub. The co-op had to borrow $200,000 from the REA at two percent to adjust its substation and build a power line. Uncle Sam will have to borrow that $200,000 at not less than three percent. So federal taxpayers start out losing $2,000 per year in interest to save $300 on an electric bill.

And worse. The investor owned company would have paid $2,000 in income taxes and $2,800 in property taxes per year had it obtained the business. The co-op pays neither.

So the sum of $6,800 per year is lost to federal, state and local governments to save (?) $300.

WHEN A LIGHT BULB BURNED OUT

There's certainly nothing startling nowadays about the burning out of an electric light bulb. Yet a bulb that burned out 80 years ago, on October 21, 1879, signaled the dawn of a new era of civilization.

This was Thomas A. Edison's first successful bulb. For 40 hours the great inventor and his associates watched the glowing filament. Then he stepped up the voltage until the bulb completed its career in a blaze of glory.

In the span of a man's lifetime electricity has wrought changes which would have challenged the imagination of Jules Verne. In the home, on the farm, in industry, electric power performs innumerable tasks which make life fuller, easier, happier, healthier, better in every way. Today's electrical commonplaces would have been viewed as miracles less than a century ago, and we accept possibilities for the future that would have been dismissed not long ago as insane fiction.

The United States leads the world in electric production by a huge margin. The average price per residential kilowatt hour is about one-third of what it was in 1913, while the cost of living generally is nearly three times as great. Its cost runs to about one per cent of most family budgets, despite all the services it performs and the steadily increasing quantities being used. By way of comparison, last year nearly five times as much was spent for liquor and tobacco as was spent for power service.

Edison's bulb was the revolution-making achievement of a free man working in a free society. And the great industry which it made possible was and is being built by free men, working together, in a free society.

Amsterdam is a city of about 90 islands connected by some 300 bridges.

Are Men Today Less Brave?

By William E. Mayer, M.D., Director, Hawaii Mental Health Service

"THE AMERICAN soldier has weak loyalty to his family, his country, his religion, and to his fellow soldier. His concepts of right and wrong are hazy and ill-formed. He underestimates his own worth, his own strength, and his ability to survive."

This evaluation, based upon the observation of 7000 American soldiers during the Korean War, was taken from intercepted Communist documents.

OUR MEDICAL men, also, studied a thousand of these soldiers after they were released by the Communists. We found that they were a strikingly different group of men from those who fought in World War II.

American soldiers, when confined, have always had an overwhelming impulse to get away. Yet in Korea our men apparently made no organized effort to escape.

SOMETHING strange had happened to these soldiers. Contrary to popular belief, they had not been subjected to torture or drugs. But the Communists, by applying backwards a number of sound psychological principles, tried to destroy in the men certain fundamental values.

The Communists began by offering the men a deal: "Don't fight and you'll be treated well." And the majority of Americans went along. Even the practice of informing on one another spread among them. In the words of one soldier: "There were so many informers around that you just didn't know who you could trust."

FIGHTING men resist in groups. But a group depends on the mutual trust of the men in it. Since the brain-washing weapon drove a wedge between the men, they were put in a solitary-confinement cell built not of steel, but of their own psychological attitudes.

As a result, we saw a dog-eat-dog attitude of every man for himself, a period of: "You leave me alone and I'll leave you alone." Spontaneous leadership was lacking—the willingness to take the responsibility for each other's welfare. And when loyalty to your fellow soldier becomes a totally inactive thing, when we become passive witnesses to those who destroy us, then we're in very serious trouble.

ANOTHER result of the mental isolation was the spread of "give-up-itis." Despite the absence of torture or enforced work, 3000 of our soldiers died. At least half of these deaths were brought on because the men had given up. By themselves they felt helpless so they stopped resisting the enemy.

In the service it's too late to teach 18-year olds the attitudes that have to be taught primarily in the home: attitudes about loyalty, about initiative and perseverance, about having a set of principles that you're willing to defend.

OUR COUNTRY has never been better than anybody else because we had better things. We've been better because we took basic Judeo-Christian principles and ran our nation on them. Each individual must have a set of God-rooted values that he believes in and which will guide his behavior whether a policeman's standing there or not.

THE COLOR OF THE TIE

The State of Oregon has long used yellow dividing lines on its highways. The evidence indicates that most motorists feel that they provide much better visibility than white lines, particularly in bad weather, and so are an important safety factor.

But now Oregon's Highway Department announces that white lines will replace the yellow. Reason: The Federal government dictates that states must adopt white lines—or lose their share of the funds allocated to the multi-billion dollar interstate highway system.

The significance of this goes far beyond any merits and demerits of white lines-vs.-yellow-lines. The Portland Oregonian makes the big point with admirable clarity:

"When one accepts a 'gift' from Washington, one gives up the free choice that states, as well as individuals, hold dear. When Uncle Sam puts up the money for a new suit, he not only decides what kind of suit it should be but also picks the color of the tie."

This truism should surprise no one—the principle is as old as government. Centuries ago, someone remarked that "he who pays the piper calls the tune." Now a swollen central government pays more and more pipers, and calls more and more of our tunes.

Hornets Win - - -

and Alvord took over at the same spot.

From there the Bulldogs used 8 plays, including their only two completed passes of the evening, in making the 56 yards to their second TD. The pay off was an 18 yard pass from Monk to Shaw.

A good comeback by the Hornets was not good enough. Six plays moved 32 yards to the 26 as the half ended.

Another short kick opening the second half was a break for the Hornets. They covered it on their 48 and promptly started on their second score. Nine plays reached the 6, where Alvord's defense got stubborn and almost held. The Hornets needed their full series of four tries, Harris making the last half yard. A pass for extra points failed and the teams were tied at 14 each.

For the rest of the game Alvord made little progress. . . only three scattered first downs and a total yardage of 38. The real turning point came shortly after the fourth period opened when Alvord, with first down on Muenster's 15 gained only 3 in four tries. On the last play Monk left the game with an injured ankle and the team was noticeably hurt.

Harris gained 8 to the 20 and Wimmer squirmed and dodged for 40 before he was bumped out on Alvord's 40. The next series fizzled and Alvord took possession on the 32. However the Hornets got back in business three plays later as Alvord fumbled on the 37.

Then Doug Hellman found a hole in the line and tore to the 1 before being hauled down. He finished his job on the next try and Joe Hellman passed over the line to Mark Hellman for bonus points.

Holding Alvord on the next series Muenster received the kick and returned to Alvord's 47 just after the 4 minute signal. A 5 yard penalty fouled the series and the team went into kick formation on fourth down.

But Doug Hellman ran instead of kicking and gained to the 20 before being halted with unnecessary roughness, so Muenster got gratis yardage to the 10.

Three plays from there produced the final TD, Wimmer making the last 3 yards. Joe Hellman's pass to Trubenbach added 2, making the count 30-14.

and brought the ball back to the 23. From there seven plays advanced to the 1 and a pass from White to Morgan finished the job.

Next Sacred Heart lost possession on an interception, regained it the same way, then lost a fumble. However it put up a stiff defense and held Gainesville on the second series, taking over on the Tiger 20. Starting there the Tigers used seven plays in moving 56 yards to the 24 but failed in their next series just as the half ended. The last play was a pass over the line knocked down by a Gainesville player.

Starting the second half neither team made any progress until after the third kick when White got away on a 50 yard sprint to the goal. But officials said he stepped on the line at the 29. A pass there advanced to the 14 and an interception two plays later stopped the drive.

Then Sacred Heart got going for its first TD, actually gaining over 100 yards in the effort. From the 11 six plays reached the Tiger 47 and Cunningham scooted to the Gainesville 32, but a clipping penalty set the Tigers back to their 43. On the next play Wimmer went the 57 yards for the counter.

Gainesville's kick ending its second series of downs got the Tigers going on another nice drive of 66 yards before fumbling on the 20. Two plays later however Bayer intercepted and put the Tigers back in business on the 42. From there Bayer heaved a long pass. Wimmer jumped high to take it on the 10 and scored without being touched. For the remaining minute or so Sacred Heart intercepted and still held possession as time ran out.

Juniors Slip Past Valley View Kids For 30-6 Decision

Muenster's Juniors continued their winning ways at Valley View Tuesday night with an impressive 30-6 triumph over the future Eagles.

They got going in a hurry recovering Valley View's fumble on the kickoff and gaining about 15 to the 25, where Hammer broke through for a TD.

Following the next kickoff Valley View kicked to end its first series and Muenster started from its 35. Short plays gained 25 and Vogel's pass to Reiter was good for the remaining 40. Vogel's run added 2 making the half time count 14-0.

Opening the third quarter the Little Hornets made a sustained drive of 70 yards for their third score. A freak play helped them on their way. A fourth down kick bounced off a Valley View boy and into the hands of Flusche who gained enough for a first down. Other big plays were a pass from Vogel to Gobble for 25 yards and Vogel's TD from the 10. Hammer went over for bonus points.

Finally it was Valley View's turn. A 65 yard drive started with a 40 yard pass play and ended with a series of short gainers. The try for bonus points failed and Muenster led 22-6.

The Eagles came close to scoring again but lost possession by fumbling on the 15. From that point Muenster used 4 nice plays advancing to Valley View's 40 and Hammer broke through the middle on a scoring sprint. Vogel's pass to Reiter made the count 30-6.

Next on the Junior schedule is Callisburg here next Tuesday night. However Callisburg has had trouble keeping a team going and may not be here for the game.

Hunters Get Deer, Bears, Elk on Trip

Four happy hunters are back from successful trips on which they bagged their limit of wild game and brought back meat to fill home freezers.

Roughing it for a whole week in the wilds of Colorado and bagging a big bear and a heavy buck was just about the most exciting experience that Tommy Felderhoff ever had. He was joined by three men from Decatur and one from Denison.

The second day out they ran five black and brown bears deep in a canyon and kept them holed up. Then the next morning they ran in two more and each of the men got a bear. They're having the pelts made into rugs. They each got a deer too. The five camped out the entire week. The nearest town was Nucla, Colo., about 30 miles away.

Other happy hunters are Urban Endres, Vincent Felderhoff and Richard Grewing who had less rugged but none the less exciting hunting at Cimarron and Raton N. M. They got a deer each, an elk and wild turkeys. This trio made the trip with friends from Gainesville.

Business, Pleasure Combined on Trip

Back from a trip to Washington, D. C., former Muensterite Urban Flusche and his wife now of Dallas, report a most enjoyable visit which combined business with sight-seeing and visiting.

Mr. Flusche attended a three-day convention of the National Catholic Cemetery Conference in the Mayflower Hotel. He was representing Calvary Hill Cemetery of Dallas for which he is assistant executive director.

On their first trip to the Nation's Capital the Flusches spent a few days touring interesting and historic places and buildings including the White House, Smithsonian Institution, Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, Franciscan Monastery, and the magnificent new Church of the Immaculate Conception which is to be dedicated Nov. 20.

Visits with friends included stops with former Muensterites Rose Wiesman and Lt. Col. and Mrs. David Bright.

The couple flew American Airlines going and returning.

Mrs. Russell's Home Scene of Visiting

Things are settled back to normal at Mrs. J. S. Russell's home at Myra after a round of coming and going of family members while a daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Niles of Enid, Okla., were visitors. All her sisters and brothers from Muenster, Gainesville and Whitesboro came to see her.

One day the visitors were joined by Mrs. Charlie Wolf of Muenster, the Jimmie Russells of Gainesville and Mrs. J. S. Russell on a drive to Dallas where they cheered their brother and son, Ralph Russell with a visit at Lisbon VA Hospital. He is a patient there for several months.

84 Students Enroll In First Aid Class

Eighty-four students of Muenster High School are enrolled in a Red Cross first aid course to start at the school this week Friday.

Classes in the 16 hour course will be held once a week, probably in hour periods after Friday's session which will consist principally of organization and distribution of text books. During the thirty minute period this week a definite day for meeting will be decided.

Mrs. Al Schad and daughters Clarice and Margaret Mary formerly of Muenster and then living in Dallas have bought a home in Mesquite and are getting settled in the new place located at 2941 Elder Drive. The moving took place during the weekend, with the help of the Al Swirczynskis of Mesquite and Mr. and Mrs. Al Horn from here. They moved Mrs. Schad's things from Muenster and helped set up the furnishings. The Al Horns were overnight guests of the Al Swirczynskis and went to Dallas Sunday where they had dinner with her brother, Leonard Schmitz and family.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone for the prayers, cards, visits, gifts and flowers during my stay in the hospital. Thanks also to Father Lane for his hospital visits and to Marcella and Lorene. My family joins me in this expression of thanks. Mrs. P. J. Rollman

Barbecue Supper Slated for Sunday

A pit barbecue supper is being prepared for a big crowd of hungry people. It's slated for Sunday in Muenster Parish Hall and is a benefit for the freshman class of Sacred Heart High. Everyone is invited.

Preparing the savory meat is Mrs. Wesley Landsfeld's brother, Joe Liska of Ennis, whose specialty is pit barbecuing. He's helping the students put on the supper. Also on the menu are German style hot potato salad, baked beans, apple strudel and coffee.

Serving will begin at about 4 o'clock, immediately after the All Saints procession to the cemetery, and will continue as long as there are diners. Barbecue sandwiches and coffee will be sold separately and St. Joseph's Club will be operating a cold drink stand.

Bake Sale Saturday

A bake sale Saturday will make homemade lightbread, rolls and other baked goods available at two places: Hofbauer's and Fisher's. Sponsored by the senior class of Sacred Heart High the benefit event will be in progress most of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Minto and daughter of Lawton, Okla., were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Linn.

At a press luncheon in Washington, Major John Eisenhower recalled an incident during World War II when, as a second lieutenant and aide to his father, he was sent with a message to a colonel in the front line.

"My dad says to watch your right flank," the younger Eisenhower told the colonel.

"Fine," replied the puzzled officer, "and what does your mommy say?"

Early Halloween is Fun for Youngsters And Grown-ups Here

Halloween came early in Muenster this year with two events for ghosts and goblins, one Saturday and another Sunday, and leaving only the trick and treat crowd to look forward to this week Saturday. Youngsters and grown-up both shared in the pre-Halloween fun.

A costume dance sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary and Sacred Heart School's annual carnival highlighted spook activity here.

At the Auxiliary's dance Saturday night prizes for costumes went to a couple for first — a comic bride and groom — Mrs. Dan Haverkamp as the bride and Mrs. Arnie Hess as the groom. Second place winners were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haverkamp, visitors from Electra, as hill-billys and third prize went to Don Wilson.

In Sacred Heart's costume contest more than a hundred children paraded on the stage in the Parish Hall while a full house watched.

There were three groups of contestants: first and second graders and pre-school youngsters; then third, fourth and fifth graders; and finally sixth, seventh and eighth graders.

Prize winners in the first group were Tim Hennigan as a princess and looking for the world like a girl. He was selected as prettiest. Jo Ellen Trubach in black face as a colored tramp was judged tackiest.

In the next group Gloria Morrison was first in a pink fairy outfit and Mike Hennigan was most comical dressed as an old fashioned baby.

In the third group Marilyn Walterscheid as a fairy in all-white was prettiest and Nancy Haverkamp and Angeline Hess were tackiest as a hobo couple. Judges were from out of town; Mmes. Joe Bezner Jr. Henry Zimmerer and Bill Eberhart, all of Lindsay.

The contest was only one of dozens of attractions at the carnival where something was happening at every turn. A variety of games, homemade candy and cake stand, other refreshment booths and concession stands, a sale of dolls and other toys offered diversion from two o'clock in the afternoon until closing time about midnight. A dance brought added entertainment at night.

Birthday Reunion Has Three Honorees

Three members of the Fisher family shared honors at a birthday dinner and reunion at noon Sunday in the home of Joe Fisher Sr. who was one of the honorees. It was his 82nd birthday. The other honorees were his son Earl Fisher and his grandson Clyde Fisher whose birthdays were Saturday.

Everyone brought covered dishes for the meal and there were three decorated cakes. About 40 members of the family were present, all from here except S.Sgt. and Mrs. Joe Galloway and daughters who are getting settled in Wichita Falls. They bought a home there. Sgt. Galloway is stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base now.

Relatives Attend First Communion Rite in Ft. Worth

First Communion of Judy Tompkins brought a dinner party Sunday in her honor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tompkins, in Fort Worth and relatives from here attended the communion mass and family gathering.

The service took place in St. George's Church at 8 o'clock and dinner was a noon event.

Present from here were Judy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman and Della and Patsy Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman and Monica and Willard Hartman joined by Carol Kosel of Denton. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger and children Wayne, Mary and Robert of Garland.

Before returning home Willard and Carol visited the Dick Schleicher family in Fort Worth and the Alvin Hartmans drove to Dallas for a pop call with Bishop Dangelmayr.

TP&L as a company is an important, tax-paying citizen wherever it serves. More than 25 cents out of every revenue dollar received by TP&L is paid out in the form of taxes to help pay for local schools, fire and police protection, national defense, highways and government services generally.

In most of the communities the Company serves it is the largest property tax payer. Its total tax bill is larger than its total annual payroll and is larger than its total dividend payments to stockholders.

TP&L is happy to be able to support the communities it serves, and is pleased that, in spite of a rapid increase in taxes and continued rising costs of living and of doing business, its rates for electric service have been kept low. Its electric rates are lower today than they were in 1946.

Rita Walter Weds Aubrey Chapman in Gainesville Nuptial

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey I. Chapman are honeymooning in Nassau and will make their home in Dallas when they return. Mrs. Chapman was Miss Rita Walter before her marriage in St. Peter's Church at Gainesville Saturday, Oct. 24.

Parents of the bride are former Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Joe

Walter and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Chapman of Columbus, Texas. The Rev. Benjamin B. Hunt of Washington, D. C., cousin of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal taffeta re-embroidered in imported lace. It was fashioned on princess lines with the voluminous skirt sweeping into a chapel train. Her waist length veil was caught to a coronet of lace and she carried white roses centered with a white orchid atop a prayer book, a gift from the groom.

Her three attendants included her sister, Mrs. Bill Graham of Gainesville. They wore identical dresses of Hawaiian blue satin with waltz length skirts and carried colonial bouquets of American Beauty roses. Belinda Blevins of Boonville, Ark., niece of the bride, was flower girl. The groom's attendants included his brothers James O. Chapman of Waco and Walter L. Chapman of Houston.

Community Center building was scene of the wedding reception which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends including the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walter and other family members from here.

Members of the house party included Mrs. Ed Sicking and Mrs. Barry Blevins and a niece, Alice Walter.

Get Together First Time in 30 Years

When Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck's sister, Mrs. John Weber of Cincinnati, Ohio, visited here last week and together they visited their three brothers it was the first time in 30 years that the five saw each other at the same time.

Coming with Mrs. Weber were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Davis, also of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Hoedebeck joined the Ohioans and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schumacher of Gainesville on a trip to Wichita Falls to see their brother and family, the Alf Schumachers, and went from there to Sunray to visit the Clem Schumachers.

State Commission Conducts Hearing On County College

Whether or not Cooke County will have an election on the proposal to establish a county-wide junior college district depends on the decision of a special commission which conducted a public hearing in the college auditorium last Friday.

Serving on that commission were four members of the Texas Education Agency, presidents of the Paris and Corsicana junior colleges and two businessmen of Fort Worth.

Their objective was to determine whether the present college meets specifications to become a county-wide institution, to inquire into its possible growth, and to hear sentiment for and against making it a county institution.

At the present time the college is a unit of the Gainesville Independent School District. The proposal is to take it out of the district and create a special county-wide independent college district to sponsor and administer it.

Three sources of support are planned: the tuition fees and state allotments as received now, and a 20 cent county wide tax based on the county's valuations. This last source, based on valuations of about $43 million would raise about $86,000 a year.

In that connection it was explained that most of those valuations are charged to oil companies, utilities and big corporations, so the average resident's tax would be comparatively small. A member of the commission also stated that those who pay the big taxes usually are least opposed to them. Dean John Parker said that the average tax for individual property owners would come to about $1.60 a year.

Questioned as to the possible methods of organizing a college district, Commission Chairman Harvey said that law provides for either the county wide election, as proposed in this case, or separate mergers of individual school districts with the Gainesville district . . . and the latter would not be practical here.

Findings and recommendations of the commission are to be reported to the Texas Education Agency at a meeting on Nov. 2. After that Gainesville College will be notified whether the proposed election is approved.

Sunday Dated for Formal Opening of New Bohls Store

Cooke County's newest and biggest furniture store will have its formal opening Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, from 2 to 6 p.m. Bohls Furniture and Appliances, which has just occupied a big two-story new building at 1000 East California Street in Gainesville, has asked the public to come in and see its new home.

Every person attending will receive something. There will be orchids for the ladies, balloons for the kiddies and Coca Cola for everybody.

The new store has a total floor space of about 17,500 square feet, some 8,500 feet on the ground floor and 9,000 feet on the second floor, which extends out over the sidewalk below. The fronts of both floors are solid plate glass. Another distinguishing feature is a wide stairway leading to the second floor through a wide circular opening in the center. The building was constructed by the lift slab method. Roof and second floor were poured at first floor level then lifted into position, after which the walls were built.

must suffer because of the twisted thinking of a few.

As regards Kaiser executives, they still have cause to worry about their decision. If other steel companies stand pat and get a sensible settlement Kaiser, with its increased obligations, will have trouble meeting competition. That could result in fewer orders. In that case workers could be in trouble too . . . in spite of their higher pay. Fewer orders require less work. The time may come when Kaiser management and employees both discover that this stunt was not very smart.
