Hornets Shine in 12-6 Thriller with Wichita Rowdies

The Bowie Banner last week mentioned a tax equalizing proposal that's currently being kicked around in that city. It's to reduce ad valorem taxes and put a corresponding increase on the city's charges for water and electricity.

The idea is to transfer some of the cost of city operation to a segment of the population which is currently paying little or no tax. Specifically mentioned were the renters, who get the same benefits of police and fire protection, street, park and school maintenance, and other services, but avoid paying their part because they have no property to be assessed.

Apparently somebody overlooked the fact that the renters actually are paying indirectly. At least it is to be assumed that a landlord includes taxes along with the other factors that must be considered in deciding a reasonable charge for rent. To adopt the idea it would become necessary for all landlords to make corresponding decreases in rent. And in the end the city revenue would be about the same. You can bet that the change will not be made.

About the only thing accomplished by this proposal is proving again that the average person is very reluctant about paying taxes. All of us are inclined to think that the next fellow is getting by easy and should be required to take on some of our burden. But when we think it through we find that our system is hard to improve upon. The only real problem is applying the system in strict justice. It's hard for a board of equalization to be absolutely correct in its assessments. Taxpayers could save a lot of wear and tear on this disposition if they tried to understand that instead of assuming that the tax collector and his assistants are taking unfair advantage of them.

While on the subject of tax and government expense, here's an interesting item released by Licensed Beverage Industries. Since the repeal of prohibition 25 years ago the government has collected 46 billion dollars in liquor, wine and beer taxes... the equivalent of the entire cost of operating the federal government during the first 129 years of its existence... or of operating for just a little more than half a year at today's rate of government spending. The comparison gives us an idea of the cost of inflation along with paying for one war and preparing for another.

President Eisenhower and the steel companies are entitled to the nation's sincere gratitude for their efforts to get a non-inflationary settlement of the steel strike. If there is anything this country does not want now it is another round of increases in wages and prices.

Ever since the war the country's economy has taken a beating because of inflation. Contrary to the claims of labor bosses, workers have not gained by wage increases. After price increases their checks reached no farther than before and meanwhile their savings were shrinking in value.

Another problem that has been getting progressively worse in recent years is the loss of markets... and loss of jobs. Because of our ridiculous wage-price level America is losing business to foreign competitors. Many industries have already folded up, many others have decreased production. We have already reached the critical point in our import-export ratio. Another round of wage-price increases will be more devastating than any we have had before, and each future one will be progressively worse. We're headed for a crash if we persist in this folly.

If we face the facts squarely we have to admit that we have already gone too far. We're already losing more than the country's economy can stand. We've started slipping and our losses will get worse and worse.

There's only one solution. That's to get back into competition with the other countries. Which means that American workers will have to work for less... so that their companies will be able to sell for less.

Millions of laborers are already aware of this. Right now most of the steel workers know it and are eager to go back at their old pay. Their misfortune, however, is that they are subject to the whims of David McDonald, who lacks either the common sense or the honesty to admit what he's doing to his own membership

V'View Warriors And Era on Week's Football Calendar

Big assignments are ahead for both of Muenster's football teams this week. Friday night the Hornets journey to Valley View, Wichita County, for their annual clash with the Warriors. Next night the Tigers will go to Era to tackle one of the top contenders for this year's 37-B title.

Traditionally the Warrior game has been a close one, and it isn't expected to be any different this time. Through the years the outfits have about broken even... and now it's Muenster's turn again, after last year's 20-12 loss.

Coach Smith said he has lots of confidence in his fellows, especially after their close game with the double tough Rowdies of Wichita.

The team will be hurt by the absence of Joe Hellman, who is still out from an injury received last week, but that loss may be offset the rest of the team's determination to "take this one for Joe."

Sacred Heart, after set-backs in its first two tries will be making special efforts to get into the win column. And if their rate of progress is as good as last week they have a fair chance of doing just that. Against Marietta they looked much better than against Alvord, and his week is removing a few more rough spots. The boys are improving, Petrus says, but the problem is whether they are improved enough to handle Era.

Training At Fort Hood

Bill Terry of Gainesville who was inducted in the army recently is taking his basic training at Fort Hood and his wife, the former Gladys Wiesman, visits him weekends.

2 FFA Boys Enter Denton Sheep Show

Two Muenster FFA boys, following their recent success at the sheep show of the Cooke County Fair, will be seeking more prizes next week at the North Texas State Fair in Denton.

Doug Hellman will enter the show's Southdown division with 1 fat lamb, 2 yearling ewes and a pen of 3 yearling ewes.

Roger Fleitman will enter the Suffolk division with 3 yearlings ewes and 2 ewe lambs.

State Official Will Explain New Taxes

Business men of Muenster who wish to have more information on the state's new excise tax law are invited to attend a special meeting on that subject next Thursday afternoon, September 24, at 3 p.m. in the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce.

The organization has arranged to have Bill Schulle of the State Comptroller's office at the meeting in order to discuss the taxes and clarify problems that may be presented.

Pavement Project Nears Completion

Muenster's pavement project, under contract to H. M. Scott of Denison, is likely to be finished this week.

By Wednesday all base was shaped and packed and most of the primer coats were down awaiting application of hot asphalt and pea-gravel starting Thursday. Workers estimated that all of the new pavement will be finished this week and the re-surfacing jobs will probably be finished.

Principal jobs in the project are the six blocks of Hickory Street from the highway to the cemetery and one block on second from Hickory to Pecan. Those are the full width.

In addition there are several jobs of filling in between existing pavement and curb: a block on first between Main and Oak, a block on 6th between Main and Elm, 100 feet for Andy Monday on South Hickory and 75 feet for Ed Pels on North Pecan. Also being paved is a parking area for the Muenster Enterprise.

Resurfacing is due on one block of Second between Main and Oak and two blocks of Elm between Fourth and Sixth and also on the NTPA parking lot.

Marietta Indians Come from Behind, Nudge Tigers 12-8

The Indians of Marietta put the Indian sign on the Sacred Heart Tigers Friday night and sent them back home with the short end of a thrilling 12-8 game.

According to the statistics it might have been either team's win. They were even in fumbles and penalties and almost even in total yardage and first downs. But the Indians were more successful in grouping their good plays for the pay-off.

A minute or two after the opening kick the hosts started a nice drive that gained 47 yards and a first down on the 8 but a penalty along with the Tiger defense set the Indians back a yard on the next four plays.

On their next opportunity the Sooners did better. After blocking a kick on the Tiger 36 they turned on the steam and scored in six plays. Winblood scooted around left end for the TD.

Following that the Tigers started moving but an interception just before half time stopped them.

Again at the opening of the third period Sacred Heart moved 49 yards to the 11 and lost possession on a heartbreaking fumble.

Shortly afterward, however, they made it. From their 35 Wimmer got loose and received a perfect block from Haverkamp in his 65 yard scoring spint. Wimmer carried again for the extra

At Rosston Jack Berry has a good start on his new house, with three bedrooms, double garage, brick siding.

Three new houses are now in the hands of the painters and probably will be occupied next week. They are the homes of W. J. Miller, Tim Stormer and Bill Luttenhaus. Also being painted is Albert Herr's extensive remodeling job.

Another new building nearing completion is Andy Hofbauer's Washateria building at the east side of his store. It is due to open about October 1.

Remodeling work just getting started is Emil Rohmer's conversion of the former Al Walterscheid home into a cafe.

The Felderhoff Estate house north of town is being favored with an extensive renovating job. Leo Orrell, field inspector for NTPA, is doing lots of remodeling on his place at Forestburg, and Blake Scott, also of Forestburg, is doing major remodeling.

Leonard Owen has installed a chain link fence at his home.

Dallas Man Will Address Lions on Industrial Growth

Leon M. Huff Jr., manager of the industrial department of the Texas Bank and Trust Co. of Dallas, will be at the Muenster Lions Club meeting Thursday night to explain ways and means of stimulating the community's industrial progress, Lion President R. E. Hamric announced Tuesday.

In keeping with The Texas Bank and Trust Company's policy of assisting the development of towns in its trade area, Mr. Huff will offer Muenster the benefit of factual and technical information acquired over a long career of work in industrial promotion. He has been the industrial director of the Longview Chamber of Commerce, manager of the Industrial Planning Committee of the State of Idaho, manager of the Sherman Chamber of Commerce and assistant manager of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

Norman J. Luke, formerly of Muenster, has been promoted by United Gas Corp. in Shreveport, La., where he has been elected comptroller by the board of directors. He fills the vacancy left by the retirement of the corporation's former comptroller who served the company 31 years. Luke was his assistant the past two years.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke joined United Gas in 1957 after being associated several years with an independent auditing firm at Dallas. He received his degree in business administration from North Texas State College at Denton and is a certified public accountant.

Library Project Of Muenster CDA Showing Progress

This community's public library, project of the local court Catholic Daughters of America, continues to grow and slowly takes on the appearance desired by its sponsors. However, it is not in the business of lending books as yet.

Reporting on library progress at the court's September meeting, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, librarian, pointed out that while the project is the Catholic Daughters' it has up to now been almost a community undertaking — so many people have helped.

Donations listed included re-topping a desk by Henry Weinzapfel, the topping donated by Ervin Hamric; shelving through courtesy of Community Lumber Co., labor by Joe Galloway, bricks given by the city and washed by Martin Walterscheid, a handsome new Duay version of the Bible, a gift from Father Christopher, a metal filing box from J. M. Weinzapfel and instructions in library operation from Sister Celine. She's conducting a class for the library committee.

Mrs. Weinzapfel's committee consists of Mrs. Steve Moster, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. R. N. Fette and Judy Trubenbach. They are grateful for every donation, Mrs. Weinzapfel said as she expressed general thanks to all who have given in any way to the library.

Contributions previously acknowledged included books from the Gainesville library.

This week Mrs. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Taylor arranged the book shelves in the city hall using the boards and bricks and Wednesday night the committee was together for labeling and indexing and, when needed, repairing books.

Clear Cheek Area Will Vote on Tax For Flood Control

An election in which landowners of the Clear Creek watershed will have the opportunity to provide a tax supported fund for maintenance of their flood control projects is likely to be called in the area late in October.

According to J. M. Weinzapfel president of the Clear Creek Watershed Association, directors decided Tuesday night to have the election and will meet next Thursday to work out the necessary legal details.

Their decision followed a general meeting of about 100 Clear Creek Watershed landowners in the Ross Point community building. Also there were State Senator Floyd Bradshaw who introduced a bill which was passed by the state legislature, creating the Clear Creek Authority as a legal entity empowered to build and maintain flood control projects, and State Representative Tony Fenoglio who was instrumental in having a tax provision removed from the bill.

Defending his action at the meeting Fenoglio said he believed that such a tax should be approved by the people concerned rather than imposed by the legislature.

Directors of the watershed pointed out that the authority as now constituted does not permit any flood control projects. New regulations by the Soil Conservation Service require that maintenance must be assured before any dams are built, but it cannot be assured without first providing a source of revenue.

It was explained that the SCS policy in this regard has been changed. Elm Creek projects were approved without assurance of maintenance, but no more will be approved in the future. SCS will provide no more flood control without knowing it will be properly cared for.

The tax which Clear Creek voters will be asked to approve will be 5 cents per $100 of assessed valuations. If the average valuation on county tax rolls is $10 per acre the tax would amount to 50 cents on 100 acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Trubenbach recalled that their wedding day a half century ago was similar to Tuesday's with balmy fall weather. Her wedding outfit was all-white and is long since worn out. The actual wedding date fell on Labor Day this year and the celebration was postponed so as not to conflict with other activity in the parish that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Trubenbach are a young 71 and 70 and are still active on their farm. They "haven't thought" of retiring. He was born in Falls City, Neb., but was only eight years old when he came to Muenster with his parents and has lived here continuously since. His wife the former Lena Tempel, is a native of Seymour, Ill., and settled here with her parents 56 years ago. Since their marriage they have lived on three farms here and have been on their present place for the past 17 years.

They have five children, 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Their four sons are Alois, Martin, Tony Jr. and Joe, all of Muenster, and their daughter is Mrs. Henry Voth of Lindsay. All were present at the celebration.

At 4 o'clock the goldenweds renewed their marriage vows during a solemn anniversary mass in Sacred Heart Church. Father Christopher Paladino officiated assisted by Father John Schumacher of Toluca, Ill., and Father Lawrence Schumacher of Henry, Ill., cousins of Mrs. Trubenbach.

THE COST OF LABOR MONOPLY

I approve of labor unions. They have rendered much service. I also approve of our American privately owned industries. When the power of these industries became too great we created anti-trust laws and prevented the growth of combinations that became too powerful. In the labor field we now have some extremely powerful combinations. For instance, one man is able to speak for the labor of the entire automobile industry; one man is able to speak for the labor of the entire steel industry; one man is able to speak for the entire coal mining industry, and one man speaks for much of the transportation industry. In these four fields, in particular, wages have pushed up considerably faster than productivity and accordingly, our entire economy has been injured. It would appear that this was no small part of the cause for the 1958 recession.

Let me give a couple of illustrations. Barbed wire is an American invention and our country perhaps uses more of it than the rest of the world combined. Yet, during the past two years this nation has imported more than half of all the barbed wire that has been used. Automobiles likewise, have been chiefly an American industry and we have exported them to all nations of the world. But during the past year we imported 4 automobiles for every 1 we exported. In other words, America is now an importing nation with regard to parbed wire and automobiles and a number of other products. This helps explain why Detroit and certain other cities haven't enough jobs. We are losing our markets abroad and at home. There is a similar story, to be told about a great many other industries. For instance, the Singer sewing machine is reported to be the only sewing machine company still producing its sewing machines in America. We are pricing ourselves out of the market in these certain areas, lessening the number of American jobs, losing world markets, and injuring our total American economy. Remedial legislation offers our only hope.

Dr. Geo. Benson

The American Way

LET'S FACE IT!

Let's face it! The time has come to stop emulating the ostrich and take our heads out of the sand. We are losing our markets for American products both at home and abroad.

Take steel, our most basic product, as Exhibit A. Foreign competition against our American Steel industry — increasing since mid-1957 regardless of the rise or fall of domestic steel production — has been more intense than ever during 1959. Imports of steel mill products topped exports by more than 77 per cent the first five months of this year — to be specific — imports were 1,501,792 net tons against exports of 850,747 net tons.

This was the first such sustained reversal of the traditional trend on record.

As this is being written, the steel mills which were closed down by a strike at midnight July 14 by the leaders of the United Steelworkers of America, are still closed. Each week of the strike is costing the striking steelworkers $65 million in lost wages — costing the country 2 million net tons of steel production.

This time the union just must not be granted its demands on the steel companies. Such capitulation would increase the already alarming adverse balance of foreign trade in steel, throw many steelworkers ultimately out of jobs and contribute to further inflation with further resultant shrinkage of the purchasing power of the American dollar.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE!

A court decision in Rome, Italy, giving landowners the right to lay off farmhands at will, has brought communist-backed demonstrations, says the Associated Press.

A law passed shortly after World War II required farmers to employ a certain number of workers even when there was no work. The court has just declared this law unconstitutional, and sitdown strikes and demonstrations have been the result.

So what? We have no law requiring farmers to hire a given number of workers according to the size of their farms.

But it could happen here. There's plenty of featherbedding just across the fence line in many industries, under court-approved contracts that require the hiring of unneeded workers when labor-saving practices are adopted.

Efforts already are underway to repeal the agricultural exemption under the federal wage-hour law, thus giving government the power to fix farm wages. In some sections farm workers and some producers are being pressed into labor unions, through coercion or promises of a better economic break.

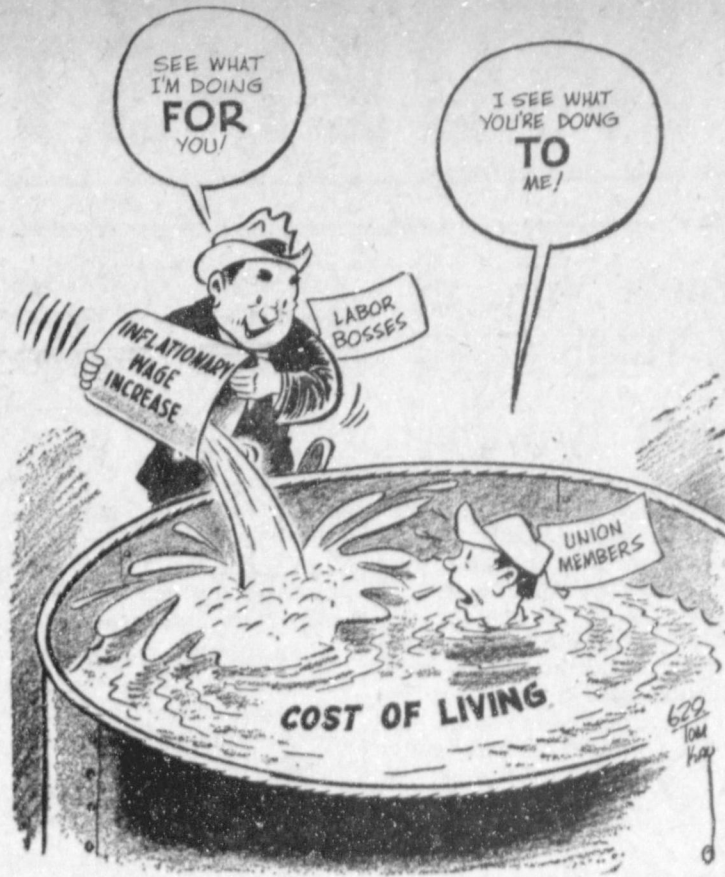

Is it not possible that these trends, carried to their logical ends, could lead to federally-protected feather-bedding down on the farm? We think the answer is obvious.

WHO'S THE VILLIAN?

It is a strange American political phenomenon that, although most of the vocal protest against more Government spending and higher taxes comes from the well-to-do, it is actually the small-and-middle-income people who pay the taxes. This is true simply because there are so many more people with low incomes.

It is a paradox that those who urge reduction of Government expenditures, which would help the tax-ridden "little fellow" are denounced as "reactionaries," while the spenders, whose policies are leading to his ruin, are embraced as his friends.

— Saturday Evening Post

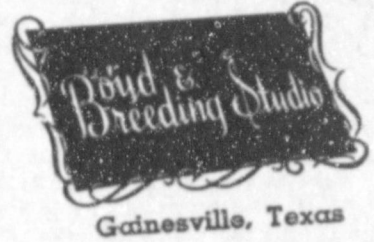

According to the Treasury Department, the Revolutionary war cost the United States $113,600,000. This amount would now run the Government about 12 hours.

Ronald Fette and California Girl Wed in San Jose

Naval Airman Ronald Fette and his bride are getting settled in their home at Agnew, California, following their marriage and honeymoon. Details of the wedding have been reported to his mother, Mrs. Kate Reynolds.

Ronnie and Ginny Wray exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony at 10:30 a.m. August 29, the pastor of the bride's home town parish, St. Patrick's Catholic Church in San Jose, officiating. Ginny's sisters served as her maid of honor and flower girl and one of the groom's buddies was best man.

The bride wore a white lace bridal gown with full bridal veil. Her parents were hosts for the wedding reception after which the newlyweds left to honeymoon at Carmel by the Sea.

They'll live at Agnew while he is based at Moffett Field, and they are planning a trip to Muenster in November when he is due a leave.

Three Sisters and Brother in Reunion

Three sisters and a brother were together here during the weekend for their first reunion in 40 years when Mrs. J. A. Sanders and Mrs. M. A. Slaughter and their husbands entertained the ladies' sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Andrews of Hobbs, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. John Miser of Tulsa, Okla., and their brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pride of Daltart.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Sanders took time off to drive to Fort Worth for the afternoon wedding and reception of their granddaughter, Glenda Gayle Parmer who became the bride of Charles R. Corry. The ceremony was in Polytechnic Methodist Church and the reception was at Western Hills Motel. The couple's honeymoon trip took them to Austin where both will attend the University of Texas.

Mother, Daughter Together After 7 Years' Separation

First meeting after seven years of separation is a happy reunion for a mother and her only daughter. The mother is Mrs. Helene Hinzmann of Germany and the daughter is Mrs. Albert Rohmer of Muenster.

Mr. and Mrs. Rohmer drove to Houston to meet her mother and brought her here Thursday. Mrs. Hinzmann spent 14 days aboard the ship from Germany to Houston. She'll make her home here with her son-in-law and daughter.

Already, after only a week, Mrs. Hinzmann loves Texas and Muenster. She speaks only German but is determined to learn English as fast as possible, though at present that seems like a big task.

She was alone in her native country since the death of her husband some time ago and her daughter and son-in-law talked her into coming here to live with them.

Mrs. Hinzmann brings with her many memories of life in Germany where she and her husband lived on a farm at Duderstadt. The land had been handed down from generation to generation through 250 years. But that came to an end during World War II. The couple and their two children were driven from their farm and became displaced persons. Their son was a war casualty. Their daughter Ursula came to America in January 1952, living with cousins, the Charles Strausses in Gainesville until her marriage. Among other cousins are Mrs. John Arendt of Lindsay, the A. E. Steinbergers of Dallas, the Otto Mundkowskis of Wichita Falls and the Johanna Jegelky family at Plainview.

Mrs. M. J. Kirk, 70, Is Birthday Honoree

A supper party and a shower of gifts on her seventieth birthday honored Mrs. M. J. Kirk of Forestburg on Sept. 11, the festivities taking place at the home of a daughter and family, the Homer Fords near Rosston.

Together to help Mrs. Kirk celebrate were her husband and their children and grandchildren from the area, the J. C. Kirks and Toni and Tracy of Muenster, the David Kirks and Becky of Forestburg, the hosts and their children Charlotte, Rita and Debra and the honoree's neighbor Mrs. Essie Agee of Forestburg for a total of 15 enjoying the evening.

Out of Town Guests With Mrs. Bergman

Things are back to normal again at the home of Mrs. William Bergman where a whole week of comings and goings went on while seven of her nine children and members of their families were in and out, and together.

Coming from the longest distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Bergman of Nicholas, Calif., who visited first at Perrin AFB with their son, Lt. John Donald Bergman and his family. Joining them here were the Joe Bermans and their son Joe Jr. and his wife and baby and Mrs. Bernard Knoff all of Kansas City, Kansas. Driving over from Ardmore one day were the Tony and Sylvester Bergmans and their families, and Mr. and Mrs. Herb McDaniel joined the party.

One day Mrs. William Bergman and the folks from California and Kansas City drove to Perrin AFB for a visit and on to Ardmore to see the Frank Bergmans who missed the family gathering, but came for a visit later when most of the relationship was together again. The visitors also dropped in to see the Joe Kathmans and the J. B. Wildes.

Only member of the family missing was Sister Mary Beatrix who is in Shawnee, Okla., and most of the visitors stopped there to see her before they returned to their homes.

The other missing daughter was Mrs. Joe Kastner of Denver, Colo.

St. Anne's Society To Sponsor Benefit Bake Sale Saturday

The parish St. Anne's Society will sponsor a bake sale Saturday with headquarters at Hartman's Shoe Store. Members plan to have baked goods available by 9 a.m.

Meanwhile officers of the organization, remind the membership that each is expected to contribute to the sale's success by providing a baked item or if that is inconvenient by giving a cash donation.

Funds are needed for retiring the debt on an air conditioning unit which was installed at the Sisters' convent, and Father Christopher has asked for new vestments to replace some badly worn ones.

Auxiliary Plans Membership Drive And Supper Party

Plans for a membership drive and a supper party for candidates and members furnished discussion at the September meeting of the Muenster VFW Auxiliary Monday night.

The group has set October 1 as the party date and October 5, the regular meeting night, as the date for the formal initiation of new members. That will be the last initiation until after the first of the year. Those who join in October are eligible to attend the Christmas party for children and the New Year's celebration and get three months of membership without extra dues.

The supper will be prepared by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and will take place in the Public School dining room.

In other business the Auxiliary carried out the three Honor Roll requirements for the month. Membership voted approval of the annual hospital pledge of fifty cents a member for the 83 members of the organization, approved payment of one month's lunch bill for one child at each of the two local schools to comply with the requirement of helping an underprivileged child, and held a school of instructions.

Christmas gifts will again be sent to local boys and girls in the service overseas and parents are urged to turn in the name and address of their sons and daughters as soon as possible so that the gifts will reach their destinations by Dec. 25.

Mrs. Frank Felderhoff accepted the telephone call list held by Mrs. Francis Wiese before she moved to Gainesville.

Mrs. Richard Swirczynski, president, conducted the business session and Agnes Noggler was refreshment hostess for the social hour.

The Bruno Fleitman family saw Sarah Ann off for Colorado Saturday. She left by train from Bowie for Denver to be a student at Loretta Heights College.

Blessed Events

Here's that boy! Eight pound four ounce Robert Joseph Hartman, a playmate for 11-month-old Monica. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman. Their son arrived at Muenster Clinic Monday, Sept. 14, at 3:02 a.m. Happy over another grandchild are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hartman. Mrs. Felderhoff and Mr. Hartman are their grandson's godparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swirczynski are parents of a daughter, weight seven pounds 11 ounces, born at Muenster Clinic Friday, Sept. 12, 2:45 p.m. They've named her Donna Sue. She has two sisters and one brother and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski. Counting another great-grandchild are the John Hartmans and John Walters.

For Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rohmer it's a third little boy, a baby brother for Stevie and Kenny. He arrived at Muenster Clinic Saturday, Sept. 12, 4:15 p.m. weighing in at nine pounds two ounces. The William Sandmanns of Lindsay and the John Rohmers are the grandparents.

4 Events Observed At Family Reunion

Four events were observed Sunday at a family reunion which was also a housewarming party.

Together for the day with dinner at noon were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kathman and their daughters and families, the W. E. Inseles of Gainesville and the Stan Wylies who have moved from Grand Prairie to Lewisville and have gotten settled in their home at 872 Harbor Drive, where the gathering took place. Four anniversaries that come this month for the family were celebrated at one time.

Mrs. Bill Kathman's birthday was on the ninth, George Wylie's was Sept. 11, he was seven years old, and Eddie Wayne Insele's birthday is on Sept. 19 when he'll be one year old. And it was Mr. and Mrs. Wylie's wedding anniversary — their eighth. Sunday was the actual date for that. There was a round of gift exchanges and decorated cakes for the birthday and anniversary honorees.

The Wylies moved to Lewisville so he is nearer his work in Dallas where he is employed by an implement company. They attend church at Grapevine and Sunday met up with former Muensterites the E. P. Buckleys and the John Hoses who live at Grapevine since they left here.

Mrs. M. H. King was in Dallas Monday for a medical checkup. Mrs. J. C. Trachta accompanied her.

Garden Club Opens New Season With Talk on Day Lilies

The new season for Muenster Civic League and Garden Club opened Monday night when the organization resumed regular meetings and highlighted the program with a guest speaker.

Mrs. Austina Roberts of Gainesville spoke on the day lily, this year's horticulture project for the club. She was introduced by Mrs. Edd McGannon, program chairman, after Mrs. L. B. Bruns, new president, opened the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Dick Cain and Mrs. Arthur Endres were co-hostesses in the Cain home with 21 members and two guests present.

In her discussion of the day lily, Mrs. Roberts emphasized that these colorful lilies grow with a minimum of care and attention. In a round table discussion she answered questions on varieties, correct planting and transplanting methods, length of the blooming season and use of day lilies in the general landscaping plans of a yard.

After her address and before the business session the hostesses served homemade ice cream, cake and coffee.

The meeting proper opened with roll call answered with the current month's do's and don'ts and committee chairmen reviewed their summer activities. Mrs. McGannon distributed the new year books.

This year an added program feature at each meeting is a flower display, one member selected each month to arrange flowers for the club to review and discuss.

Two arrangements were brought by Mrs. Steve Moser, first exhibitor, who showed one in triangular form using shades of yellow marigolds and cannas in a brass container, and another composed of zinnias in shades of red in a black ceramic container.

Mrs. Larry Yosten who came as a guest joined before the meeting ended and was welcomed as a new member. The other guest was Mrs. Clive Gobble.

For the October meeting Mrs. Arthur Felderhoff and Mrs. R. R. Endres will be co-hostesses.

Golden Wedding --

benbach, as deacon and sub-deacon. Father Martin Fischer was master of ceremonies. Attendants at the couple's wedding on Sept. 7, 1909, were her brother, the late John Tempel, and Elizabeth Markowitz who later became Mrs. John Tempel. Ill health prevented her attending the anniversary celebration and the jubilarians' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trubench Jr., served as attendants. The fifty year bride wore a navy crepe dress with navy accessories and had a corsage of yellow mums. Mrs. Trubench Jr. was in royal blue with a yellow mum corsage. The church choir and Anthony Luke, organist, furnished music for the mass and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid presented a vocal solo.

Yellow mums adorned the church altar and sanctuary space and these flowers were the complement for decorations in the parish hall where the reception and buffet dinner were held. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the banquet menu and Mrs. Nick Miller was in charge of decorations and had the dining hall resembling a flower garden. The 20 long tables were covered with white linen cloths and held floral centerpieces accenting the golden wedding theme.

The honorees' table held the three-tier decorated cake on a mirror reflector encircled with yellow pom-pom mums, fern and golden wedding bells.

In addition to guests from Cooke County relatives present included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schumacher of White Heath, Ill., Mrs. Millie Schumacher of Ivesdale, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bindel of Sabetha, Kansas.

A dance with the Texas Swingers playing concluded the day's celebration, making it similar and second only to their wedding day in 1909.

Having the mums for two of the three weeks of her vacation kept Marcy Klement from doing a lot of things she had planned while she visited her family, the Norbert Klements. Recovered, she returned to classes at St. Joseph's Nursing School this week. Her brother Wilfred and Mrs. Bernard Wolf drove her to Fort Worth Monday and Mrs. Wolf visited her daughter Ginger who is nursing at the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Klement and son Chris are here since he finished work for his masters degree at A&M College during summer school. They are dividing their time between their families, the Norbert Klements and Bernard Wolfs. And Wilfred has been to Dallas for a checkup of an old back ailment.

Tigers Lose --

points giving the Tigers an 8-6 lead just before the third period ended. About midway in the last quarter the Indians put on their second sustained drive. It was good for 62 yards in four first downs and put the hosts on the 3 with a full series to go. Only two of those plays were needed, Winblood going over from the 2 on a quarterback sneak.

With three minutes left the Tigers started moving again. Two first downs reached the Marietta 45, then an intercepted pass put a sudden stop to Sacred Heart's effort.

Holding on the next series the Tigers returned to the air as the final seconds ticked away. But another interception blasted their final hope just before the game ended.

TRUCKS THAT DO THE NEXT BEST THING TO PAVING EVERY ROAD IN AMERICA!

Imagine a truck ride so smooth and cushioned that fragile loads can travel the worst "wash-board" roads with ease. Imagine a truck ride that virtually eliminates shimmy and wheel fight, cuts side sway on curves, makes steering far steadier and easier, keeps drivers far fresher. Imagine a truck ride that permits higher safe cruising speeds, more trips per day with all kinds of cargo over every type of road surface. Imagine a ride that keeps up to 78% of all objectionable road shock and vibration from ever reaching the driver and cargo, a design that sharply reduces twisting and fatigue forces on chassis, cabs and bodies, that keeps trucks young for extra thousands of miles. / Soon you won't have to just imagine such a ride. You can try it for yourself in the trucks that do the next best thing to paving every road in America—new Chevrolet trucks for 1960. You'll see what happens when Chevy's truck engineers design a whole new line of trucks around a whole new kind of torsion-spring suspension. These trucks are new from the ride on up—with wonderfully roomier cabs, brawnier frames, style that's fresh as sixty and more! Don't decide on any new truck till you see the newest of all.

Lindsay CYC Makes Plans for Benefit

Members of the Lindsay CYC made plans for a benefit box supper but have not set a definite date. Discussion of the event furnished the principal business at their regular meeting.

Richard Haverkamp and Michael Bezner gave the spiritual and Nelda Hellinger and Linda Kuhn volunteered to give it at the next meeting. Pete Hellinger and Leroy Neu were appointed refreshment chairmen for the next meeting.

Father Alcuin led the opening and closing prayer and a social hour followed.

Classes at Lindsay Organize for Term

Students of the junior and senior classes of Lindsay school have organized for the year, elected officers, and planned activity.

Heading the group as president is Patty Schmitz. Henry Sandmann is vice president, Sue Smith is secretary, Jimmy Zimmerer is treasurer and Dolores Hess is reporter.

Members set the second Wednesday of every month as meeting time and agreed on two dollars as dues for the school term. Current activity includes cookie sales at school every two weeks.

counted for the rest of the distance.

A jump pass to Trubenbach for bonus points was good but it was nullified by an off-side penalty. The next effort failed.

The Rowdies first got into their scoring stride near the end of the first period, after making the only interception of the game. Starting then from their 44 they made the 56 yards in 8 plays. The scorer was Ingle, No. 24, who was assisted by Sims, No. 20, in dealing out most of the Hornets' trouble for the night. Both are fine runners and ball handlers, speedy, shifty and deceptive.

Next scoring for the Rowdies came in the third period completing a 75 yard steady push. Sims got loose from the 17 for the TD.

Once condition that hampered the Rowdies and helped the Hornets was the alertness of officials, who were constantly penalizing the over eager Sophomores. The total of 135 yards penalty helped the Hornets make a few of their first downs, also helped stop some of the Rowdy advances.

For the sake of all of us, we'd better hope that the steel dispute will be settled in keeping with Eisenhower's recommendation. An even better solution is to turn the inflation spiral downward by reducing wages and prices. That would be a real gain to the worker . . . by restoring some value to his savings and also allowing him to compete with foreign labor.

That's a lot more difficult, of course, than our old system of raising wages and prices. But the critical time is already here. The change has to be made. And if the country's leaders don't figure out a way to do it with order circumstances will force us to do it with chaos.
