Muenster May Get Government Aid on Hospital Program

People who measure prosperity in terms of money got cheering news in the report which estimates this year's national income at 197 billion dollars. That's big money, no foolin'. And to think we used to imagine we were getting along fairly well back in 1941 with only 96 billion.

Of course it really doesn't matter that we're having as much trouble as ever . . . if not a little more . . . to make ends meet. Those lettuce leaves are getting plentiful. We gathered them in by big hands-full and we dish them out the same way for such items as we are able to buy. The only bad feature is that we're approaching the point where this lettuce piles up higher than the foods, clothing, appliances and other things we'd like to have in exchange . . . and we're about to start regretting that this is an inedible variety of lettuce.

At about this point we begin to realize that the Midas touch isn't quite as intriguing as it used to seem. Like the old boy of mythology we'd rather call off the bargain and go back to a regular diet.

However our trouble is that we don't have the simple solution that Midas had. Instead of persuading one god to turn on his hocus pocus we're confronted with the task of persuading 140 odd million people to work harder for less money. And brother, that's a big undertaking when those 140 million have been told for the past 15 years that their goal is more money for less work.

Just the same, that's what it takes. More production so there'll be enough things to go around and less money to protect the value of what money we have.

Another situation that gets rougher as we go along arises from circumstances beyond our control. We've got to divvy our supplies with people abroad to keep them from starving at the very time when failures have cut down our store of supplies. The 65 per cent corn crop is a serious matter. It's that much of a shortage in our total grain supply. It means less bread for us. It also means less feed for livestock, which means less meat, eggs and milk for us. If some people have their way it will mean a return to war-time rations and price controls.

Of course we have a better alternative, and we hope that the public at large will show the good judgment to adopt it. One phase of that is voluntary belt-tightening to make supplies reach farther. Another is a revival of home gardens to supplement the supply.

Con, for one, believes that the American people will prefer the American way of meeting this emergency. They like cooperation better than regimentation. If they're at all alert what's happening in England they can also see that cooperation is better for them.

People who wrote or wired Governor Jester some weeks ago in connection with a bill to permit wet precincts in dry counties are now receiving copies of a proclamation in which the governor explains why he vetoed. Summed up in a few words his reasons are "dry pressure and politics."

The governor states that other provisions of the bill met with his approval and he vetoed only because of the provision which allowed wet precincts in dry counties. In connection with that provision he states "I agree, with the proponents of the amendment, and it is logical, fair, and probably legal to provide for voting wet precincts in dry counties since dry precincts can be voted in wet counties."

"However it is my opinion that it is not to the present or future best interests of Texas that the extension of liquor and beer sales into a precinct of precincts of some 42 counties that are now dry be made possible. This provision has brought widespread protest from the dry counties of Texas. These protests point out that the ease of transportation in these modern days would result in wet precincts nullifying county-wide local option.

"Furthermore the hundreds of letters I have received strengthen my conviction that the veto of this bill will remove the spectre of the emotional upheaval that accompanies prohibition as an issue in our elections for public office in Texas."

In general the proclamation amounts to a wishy-washy attempt to appease the minority who had justice and right on their side. By his own words the governor substantiates a remark (Continued on page 10)

Come On, Texas!

When action aboard the Battleship Texas reached battle heat, her crew members used to shout, "Come on, Texas!" . . . which meant: "Let's get in there and fight!" After 35 years of service, through two world wars, she won't fight any more. The Navy has put her on the retired list, and unless the State of Texas takes action, she goes to the scrap heap. But she won't go to the junk pile, if thousands of Texans can help it. They are already contributing to a $225,000 goal needed to bring the old battleship to the San Jacinto Battlegrounds, below Houston.

She is seen above, steaming out to open sea, as she was in her glory as a capital ship of the U. S. fleet. To bring her home to Texas, Lloyd Gregory, chairman of the Battleship Texas Commission, urges every Texan to aid the fund-raising campaign which began September 15. All contributions are to be sent to Mr. Allan H. King, Battleship Texas Fund, First National Bank, Houston 1, Texas.

FORT WORTH SPEAKER HEARD AT MEETING OF WATERWORKS GROUP

"Industrial Uses of Water" was the subject of a talk made at the regular monthly meeting of the North Texas Waterworks and Sewer association Wednesday night, Sept. 10, at the Fair Park Community center in Gainesville. D.W. Robinson, superintendent of water for Community Public services at Fort Worth was the featured speaker.

He took the floor after a buffet supper had been served. His talk explained that quite often water for industrial uses is very different from water used for home purposes, listed eight industrial uses of water and added that there are many uses of lesser importance. He concluded by inviting questions from the 30 men present.

Attending from Muenster were Mayor J.M. Weinzapfel, City Water Superintendent Steve Mosler and Ben Seyler. The group's next meeting will be held in Bowie. It will feature the annual election of officers.

Hornets Open Season Friday Night With Panthers at Saint Jo

The Muenster Hornets will have everything to win and nothing to lose when they meet Saint Jo's Panthers Friday night at 8 o'clock on the Saint Jo field. They are definitely the under-dogs, and if pre-game dope means anything at all they haven't a ghost of a chance.

According to information reaching here the Panthers have partially the same line-up that trimmed the Hornets 13 to 0 last year. By all the rules that should mean a heavier and more experienced team. On the other hand Muenster will start without the help of six of last year's regulars and without sufficient practice time to groom the recruits for their assignment.

In spite of the odds, the Hornets are conceding nothing. Coach Frank Hennigan says the boys have a fine spirit that will go far toward offsetting their other handicaps. They have made the most out of their few days of short practice sessions.

News Of Sick And Injured

Leo Felderhoff who underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix in Gainesville Sanitarium on Sept. 7, was moved to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Felderhoff, Saturday and is recovering normally.

Paul Hacker who underwent an appendectomy at Gainesville Sanitarium on Sept. 6, was permitted to leave the hospital last Thursday and is convalescing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hacker.

Tommy Felderhoff had his tonsils removed at the local clinic Wednesday morning and is recovering rapidly at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff.

Mrs. Cecil Sims was a patient in a Gainesville hospital three days this week for treatment.

MUENSTER BALL TEAM TO MEET WINDTHORST IN THREE GAME SERIES

Muenster's baseball season isn't ended after all. At the invitation of the Windthorst team the boys will play one more three game series before folding their suits away in moth balls.

The first of the three will be played here Sunday afternoon at two o'clock and the second will be played the following Sunday at Windthorst. If a third game is needed to decide the series the teams will flip a coin to determine where.

Most Rev. Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr of Dallas came to Muenster Monday to spend a few days with members of his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kupper have bought the W.H. Endres house in the east part of the city and are at home there since moving from the Arnold Rohmer apartment.

Mrs. Ray Evans made a business trip to Denton Monday.

James H. Cooke, 87, Dies Friday Morning After Brief Illness

James H. Cooke, 87, a resident of the Muenster community for 35 years, died Friday morning Sept. 12, in the Medical Arts hospital, Dallas, following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. Saturday at the Liberty Baptist church and burial was in Fairview cemetery, Gainesville. Rev. C. M. Thomas of Gainesville officiated and arrangements were under the direction of Leazer-Keel Funeral home.

Serving as pallbearers were Lynn and Sam Cooke, Dee and Dutch Cooke, Leslie Smith and Land White.

Mr. Cooke was born August 1, 1860, in Athens, McMinn county, Tenn. The family settled in Collier county shortly after the war between the states, and later moved to the Hood community in Cooke county. He was married there to Miss Lula Mae Clapp on Feb. 16, 1887, and in 1901 moved to Haskell county. In 1912 they moved north of Muenster. Mr. Cooke was active, despite his advanced age, until about two weeks before his death. He enjoyed riding a cattle pony over the stock farm operated by his son, Don, and always drove his own car. In February 1937 the Cookes observed their golden wedding anniversary with a reunion of family and friends, and in February this year a similar celebration marked their 60th wedding anniversary.

Survivors are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. John R. Rice, Wheaton, Ill., four sons, Don and Reeve of Muenster, Joe of Andrews, and Bob of Sweetwater, also eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Cooke was a life-long member of the Baptist church and had served as a deacon of the church for many years. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

BULLET, NOT LARIAT TERMINATES ODYSSEY OF RODEO FERDINAND

Three days of futile effort has convinced personnel at the Muenster Rodeo that there isn't any percentage in trying to catch a Brahma bull. Henceforth they intend to use a rifle instead of a lariat when going after the escaped critters.

The odyssey of the bull started at the rodeo Sunday night, Sept. 7. After his turn in the arena Ferdinand apparently decided rodeo life didn't suit him at all. He returned to the bull pen as usual but instead of stopping he made a mighty lunge and took off for the wide open spaces. The next week he explored extensively around the Myra and Lindsay areas . . . except when he was slightly inconvenienced by pursuing horsemen.

For three days cowboys were after him but he always managed to keep a safe distance. His favorite trick was hopping fences and leaving his pursuers stranded. That was enough for Cain and Felker. They made a deal with a slaughter house and finished the chase with a .30-30 rifle.

PACLIK WILL SPEAK TO VOCATIONAL CLASS ON ANIMAL DISEASES

A convenient opportunity for stockmen of the community to learn about animal diseases is the appearance of Dr. C.J. Paclik at Thursday night's meeting of the vocational agriculture class. Instructor Hugh Barnhart stated this week that anyone is welcome at the meeting.

Dr. Paclik will discuss symptoms and treatments of the most prevalent animal diseases.

Monday night's meeting was devoted to a study of "corn color and mixtures" and "hunger signs of corn". Both were illustrated with colored slides.

Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Richter of Fort Worth and their son, Sgt. Al Richter, Jr., stationed at the army air base in Puerto Rico, were here Sunday and Monday as guests of the W.T. Richter and Henry Pette families. Sgt. Richter is nearing completion of a 60-day furlough.

John Furbach left Monday for a visit in Amarillo. His wife drove him as far as Wichita Falls where he boarded a plane for the remainder of the trip.

Notes On Soil Conservation

Tom Hoover and Joe Starke, in the Joe Starke Conservation Group, five miles northwest of Muenster, recently completed 3000 feet of field terraces.

Werner Becker, cooperater in the Hood Conservation Group, recently sacked his Hubam clover that was combined after a crop of oats and Hubam clover hay. The yield on 15 acres was 5 1/2 tons of hay and 3000 pounds of seed.

Henry Pels, cooperater in the W.H. Endres Conservation group, West of Muenster, recently completed a 1400 foot diversion terrace.

Albert Fleitman, T. Miller, Henry Wiesman, Wright Embry, J.A. Klement, Felix Becker, Henry Pick, Johnnie Bayer, Alfred Bayer and H.J. Fuhrmann are among cooperaters who have applied phosphate and prepared seed bed for early sowing of vetch and rye as soon as moisture is sufficient.

The Board of Supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District approved two new conservation groups for planning in the Muenster Work Unit. The Tony Trubenbach group includes approximately 1200 acres and the Thomas Sicking group includes approximately 900 acres. Coordinated soil and water conservation plans have been completed and agreements have been signed with H.V. Milligan, Thomas Sicking and Gus Sicking the past week.

H.B. Armstrong, Soil Conservation Service Technician, conducted a group application meeting on the "Island Method" of terrace construction with farm equipment, on Thomas Sicking's farm last week. Two tractors were used and a 700 foot terrace was constructed in approximately one and one-half hours. Victor Sicking, Lewis Sicking, Thomas Jetzelberger, Thomas Sicking, and H.V. Milligan were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Munday and children returned Friday from a two-week vacation visit in Tennessee. They were guests of his parents in Crossville, and visited other relatives and friends in Nashville.

Clem Reiter returned home Monday after spending the summer in Hereford where he was employed.

SHORTAGE OF WIRE DELAYS COMPLETION OF FOOTBALL LIGHTS

If electric wire, fuses and a few other items were available now the Muenster Hornets would be playing under their own lights within a few days. At this writing the poles are installed and the lights, reflectors and switches are on hand awaiting the arrival of the other needs.

Little time was lost in getting the project under way after its approval about three weeks ago. Parts of the order arrived promptly.

Line crewmen of the Cooke County Electric Cooperative put up the poles last Friday.

Other field improvements depend upon the weather. Father John Walbe team manager, said last week's light shower crumbled the plowed-up clods enough for leveling but did not help toward growing a turf.

Natural turf, if it grows out, will be sodded next spring for next year's season.

PYORRHEA IS CURABLE IF TREATED IN TIME

Austin. — Contrary to the popular belief that pyorrhea is incurable, this is only true in the most advanced cases. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises those persons who even suspect the presence of pyorrhea to seek an early diagnosis from their dentist so that proper treatment can be instituted while the disease is still curable.

"Early detection and proper treatment of pyorrhea represent the formula for a successful cure. This means that the dentist must have an opportunity to discover the presence of the disease at the earliest possible moment since the symptoms are often so vague that the patient is unaware of its existence," Dr. Cox said. "Regular visits to the family dentist are therefore extremely important."

The treatment of pyorrhea is not an involved procedure. In the average early case one of the main therapeutic features is the proper hygienic care of teeth and gums as outlined by any reputable dentist. Carelessness regarding mouth hygiene is usually the basic cause for the condition.

The family dentist can usually remove the cause of the trouble, Dr. Cox said, and when this has been done, intelligent routine home care of the mouth by the patient will effect a cure in the majority of early cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pagel, Mrs. John Walter and Mrs. I.A. Schoe left Tuesday on a trip that will include a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Fisch in Okmulgee, Okla., and with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohoe and other relatives in Springfield, Mo.

SPACE RESERVATIONS AT STATE FAIR REACH ALL-TIME HIGH MARK

Dallas, Texas. — Texans are showing the greatest interest in history in their State Fair of Texas, if size and scope of the Agricultural Show, Livestock Show and industrial exhibits is any index. With only two weeks to go before the opening of "the world's biggest state fair," Oct. 4-19, entries in these shows have hit an all-time high.

Example of this widespread enthusiasm may be seen in the State Fair's second annual Junior Livestock Show. Entries are five times as great as last year, according to Ray W. Wilson, livestock manager.

"It will be by far the most representative Junior Livestock Show ever held in the Southwest," said Mr. Wilson. "To date entries indicate 1,315 fine animals will be paraded at the State Fair. This does not include any entries in the general Livestock Show."

One of the highlights of the Junior Livestock show will be the big auction sale set for Oct. 7, at which time meat packers, food markets, restaurants and hotels will bid for the fine stock offered by the 4-H Club and FFA boys of Texas.

Work on the 187-acre grounds in the mammoth exhibit buildings of the $25,000,000 institution, which this year observes its 62nd anniversary, is going on at break-neck speed. Officials of the Fair hope for two million visitors, to break last year's all-time high of 1,639,986 attendance.

The Home, Electric Show, Foods Show and Petroleum Show will be the most elaborate ever seen at the State Fair. Many wonders of the postwar world not off the assembly line in time for the 1946 fair will be introduced to an awaiting public this year.

The Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will have a mammoth exhibit at the Fair for the first time. The famed Bikini Goats, survivors of the atom bombings in the Pacific, will be included in a spectacular Health Exhibit.

The largest Art Exhibition ever seen in the Southwest — $1,500,000 worth of great masterpieces on loan from New York's Metropolitan — will be on display in the Fair's Art Museum.

Entertainment events will be the most outstanding in history, headlined by the Broadway hit, "Annie Get Your Gun", starring Mary Martin, and the famed White Horse Revue and Hippodrome Show, thrilling spectacle featuring all-albino horses and skilled riders.

Mrs. Richard Yosten and Mr. and Mrs. James Hott and daughter, Linda, went to Durant, Okla., Tuesday afternoon to attend funeral services for her ladies' great-aunt who died of a heart attack at her home in Hendrix on Monday.

Dick Cain and Babe Felker were hosts Tuesday night at a barbecue party for rodeo and auction employees.

Albert Henschel, Frank Hess and W. H. Endres were in New Braunfels this week attending a fire insurance convention.

TUESDAY RITE UNITES
MARTIN KLEMENT AND MISS EDNA HAVERKAMP

Miss Edna Haverkamp became the bride of Martin Klement in an impressive ceremony performed in Saint Mary's church at Gainesville Tuesday morning at 8:30 with Rev. Peter Molloy, pastor, performing the double ring service and officiating at the nuptial high mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Joe Haverkamp of Gainesville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Klement, Muenster.

Miss Martha Jesko of Hereford, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ for the traditional wedding marches, and Miss Anne Gallagher church organist, assisted the choir in rendering music for the mass. Mrs. Joe Schadsang Milland's "Ave Maria."

The altar before which the vows were exchanged was adorned with white gladioli and huge palm leaves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a marquisette yoke outlined with wide lace, long fitted sleeves extending into petal points over her hands and a gathered skirt flowing into a long train. Her fingertip veil of net was edged with lace and fell from a Mary Stuart headpiece.

She carried a white prayer book, a gift from the groom, topped with clusters of white tube roses and showered with streamers tied in love knots. She also carried a white lace handkerchief. For "something old" she wore a pearl studded lavalier belonging to the late Mrs. Henry Berend of Pilot Point, great-grandmother of the bride. The piece of jewelry was presented to Mrs. Berend 75 years previously on her wedding day.

Miss Rita Popp and Miss Fannie Entekin, classmates of the bride, were maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They wore identically styled gowns of two shades of orchid featuring full skirts accented by three rows of ruffles which formed a bustle effect in the back. They wore Mary Stuart headpieces of white net and carried white lace handkerchiefs, presented by the bride. Their long gloves were of white jersey and they carried heart-shaped bouquets of white asters.

Miss Marion Berend, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid wearing white marquisette made similar to the dresses worn by the other attendants. She also wore a Mary Stuart headpiece, long white gloves, and carried a lace handkerchief. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of orchid asters.

The tiny flower girl was Jeanette Klement of Muenster, niece of the groom. Her costume was similar to that of the junior bridesmaid and she carried a white crocketed basket filled with seasonal flowers.

Lloyd Klement of Muenster, nephew of the groom, was ring-bearer. He wore a white suit.

Alfred Haverkamp of Amarillo, brother of the bride, was best man, and Rhody Klement, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

Ushers were Wilmer Luke, Earl Lehnertz and Herbie Herr.

The mother of the bride wore a palomino crepe dress and the groom's mother wore a black crepe ensemble. Both wore accessories in black and a corsage of white carnations.

After the ceremony breakfast was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Berend, uncle and aunt of the bride. Dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held at 3 o'clock and a buffet supper at 5:30. The bride's table was covered with lace and was centered with a decorated cake flanked by tapers.

The home was adorned with seasonal flowers and Miss Leona Berend, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book. Festivities were concluded with a dance in the Muenster K of C hall.

After the dance the couple left on a wedding trip the bride wearing a green crepe dress with gray accessories and a corsage of white carnations. When they return they will make their home here in the Arnold Rohmer apartment.

Mrs. Klement is a 1945 graduate of St. Mary's school in Gainesville and has been employed by the War Assets administration.

Mr. Klement is a graduate of Sacred Heart high school with the class of 1940 and is an overseas army veteran. He is employed by Endres Motor company here.

The American Way

By George Peck
CHINESE WISDOM

The people of the world are presently choosing between two philosophies of government — the Government-Owns-You kind as exemplified by Russia and the You-Own-The-Government type of which the U.S.A. is the leading exponent.

Throughout history the world has been cursed with leaders, who on the pretext of helping the so-called common man, have seized power. Always the lot of the common man eventually has been made more difficult, not bettered. Dictators, no matter how well intentioned they may have been when they took over, always have succeeded in destroying themselves and the peoples who were foolish enough to turn over the reins of government to them.

Kung Fu-Tse, Chinese Philosopher of the 5th Century B.C., more popularly known as Confucius, said a number of things that are very pertinent to the present day, although spoken over 2,400 years ago.

When asked for a definition of good government, Confucius said: "It consists in providing enough food to eat, in keeping soldiers to guard the State, and in winning the confidence of the people. If one of these three things has to be sacrificed, sacrifice the soldiers. And if of the two remaining things, one has to be sacrificed, let it be sacrificed, let it be the food, for from the beginning men have always had to die. But without the confidence of the people no government can stand at all."

When someone inquired of him as to when is good government, Confucius said: "Government is good when it makes happy those who live under it, and attracts those who live far away."

And to one who wishes to know the essentials of good government, he said, "The wise and good ruler is benevolent without expending treasure; he lays burdens on the people without causing them to grumble; he has desires without being covetous; he is serene without being proud; he is awe-inspiring without being ferocious. And how is he benevolent without expending treasure? In imposing burdens he chooses the right time and the right means, and nobody can grumble."

And even before Confucius, another Chinese philosopher, Lao Tzu, of the 6th Century, B.C., had this to say: "In the highest antiquity, the people did not know they had rulers. In the next age, they loved and praised them. In the next, they feared them. In the next, they despised them. . . . If the government is prying and meddling, there will be constant infraction of the law. . . . The people starve because those in authority over them devour too many taxes. . . . The people are difficult to govern because those placed over them are meddling."

A study of the writings of these wise old Chinese philosophers would certainly do no harm to some of our bureaucrats who now "pry and meddle" and devour to many taxes" on the banks of the Potomac. From Confucius and Lao Tzu they would learn that "without the Confidence of the people no government can stand at all."

As a matter of fact, it would not be amiss for some of our elected representatives at Washington to absorb a bit of Chinese wisdom.

The average girl would rather have beauty than brains, because she knows the average man can see better than he can think.

Could it be that the weaker sex is often the stronger sex because of the weakness of the stronger sex for the weaker sex?

YOU BET YOUR LIFE

When you attempt to pass on a curve or a hill.
 When you shoot out of a driveway without looking both ways for oncoming traffic.
 When you consider your car's outside appearance only, disregarding its mechanical condition or its safety factors.
 When you think you can make as good time in snow and sleet as you can on a clear, dry day.
 When you make a target of yourself by not pulling off the highway if you're stalled.
 When you turn suddenly without giving an adequate hand signal.
 When you refuse to dim your lights just because the other fellow is blinding you with his.

Plans Laid for Statewide Bang's Disease Campaign

College Station. — The organization of a state advisory committee to map plans for controlling Bang's disease in Texas livestock herds in nearing completion.

Appointments on the committee have been made out of all livestock breed organizations in the state, including Jersey, Guernsey, Aberdeen, Angus, Brahma, Hereford and milk goat associations. Cattle raisers associations, the Livestock Sanitary Commission of USDA's Bureau of Animal Industry, state department of health and the Extension Service, Agricultural Experiment Station and the teaching division of Texas A and M College . . . all are represented on the committee that will attempt to curb the high toll that Bang's disease, or Brucellosis, is taking among the state's livestock.

Real Wage Comparison in United States And Russia

With his entire week's pay, the average Russian worker can buy 22½ one-pound loaves of white bread; the American, 394, assuming anybody wants that many.

The Russian's weekly wage will get him 16.9 lbs of sugar; the American's 503.7 lbs.

Getting around to clothes, the average Russian has to work seven weeks to buy one suit, and a shoddy suit at that. He must shell out two to three week's wages for one pair of shoes. While the American can get 6 to 8 pairs for a single week's pay.

But, of course, . . . in Russia they have the blessings of Communism.

Maybe the word about how free enterprise does it is getting around the world after all! Seems it takes at least two weeks to get clothes back from the cleaners in Sweden, with exorbitantly high prices to boot. They are solving the problem by sending their clothes by airplane to be drycleaned in the U.S. Get them back in a week!

BOOK REVIEW FEATURES OPENING SESSION OF GARDEN CLUB SEASON

A book review was featured at the Civic League and Garden Club's opening meeting of the season Friday afternoon in the public school.

Mrs. Loyal Burchfiel, former local school teacher, charmingly reviewed "Mr. Blanding Builds his Dream House" by Eric Hodgins. The story was chosen because the subject matter is timely due to the fact that many new homes have been built in Muenster recently, several by Garden Club members, and Mrs. Burchfiel and her husband bought and remodeled a home in Saint Jo. The reviewer added some amusing experiences of her own and compared them with the experiences and trials of the hero of the book. Miss Olivia Stock, president, conducted the business session. Reports were given by the park, cemetery, highway, and flower show chairmen. The club had been disbanded during the summer months. Announcement was made that the fall board meeting of Texas Garden clubs will be held in Beaumont October 24 and 25.

Flower arrangements for the meeting were displayed by Miss Angela Laake and Mrs. Nick Miller. The displays were marigolds and zinnias, respectively.

Iced drinks were served by Mrs. T.S. Myrick, Mrs. J.M. Weinzapfel and Miss Stock to 17 members and three guests, Mmes. Jess Mitchell, Effie Hembree and C.J. Wimmer.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS PLAN RECEPTION, MISSION WORK
The local court Catholic Daughters of America will have a reception for new members on November 16. It was announced this week. The court is conducting a membership drive and invites all women over 18 years of age to join. This will also make them members of the National Council of Catholic Women when the parish unit is organized, it is pointed out.

The Sewing Circle will meet this Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 in the K of C hall, and in the future will hold meetings every third Friday at that hour, it was stated. All women of the community are invited to aid in this work. They are asked to bring garments ready for use, or garments that can be mended or made into smaller garments. All should be freshly laundered.

The women will also cut bandage strips from old sheets so this item is solicited. The circle looks forward to having in its group some who can supervise and sew for the church and altars.

The finished garments will be sent to home or foreign missions or to European sufferers wherever the calls are most urgent and the clothing most suitable, the ladies said. They also mentioned that if there are personal calls from relatives or friends in Europe the circle will fill, or help fill, a package. They ask only that the person making the request for a relative or friend pay the mailing charges. Clean rags are also solicited.

These will be sorted and sold and the funds derived therefrom will be used for the Circle's express and postage account. Anyone wishing to donate cash for the necessary expenses incurred in this activity may do so. In short, the Circle members stated that help in any form will be greatly appreciated.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Yes, I'm Guilty!

Folks sometimes criticize us small-town editors for the way we often play up "little things" ahead of big... human, local news in place of world events.

I can't deny it. Read the Clarion and you'll learn about the Martins' golden wedding anniversary... about the community sing down by the river... the husking bee at Sober Hoskins', where neighbors helped husk the corn, and later drank sparkling beer together.

"Little things?" Maybe. But from where I sit, they add up to the bigger things we call America: The friendliness of small towns... the helping hand... the respect for one another's rights. And above all the love of fellowship and freedom—whether it's freedom to speak one's mind or choose between a glass of beer or buttermilk.

I figure that if everybody looks after the "little things," maybe the bigger things will take care of themselves.

HE BUILDS HOUSE IN SIX WEEKS — HE'S 79

When John L. Stryker went to his employer and asked for a two months' leave of absence from his job in a manufacturing plant in Bridgeport, Conn., "to build myself a new house," it was granted — with best wishes, and skepticism.

Facing eviction by their landlord who wanted the house himself. Mr. Stryker and his wife had to build because they couldn't find any place else to live. At Mr. Stryker's request, the employer also gave a two months' leave to another worker in the plant to help in the building.

Nobody thought they could put up a new house in two months — but both men, being skilled in carpentry, set to work. While Mrs. Stryker cheered them on and fed them, they erected a six-room, two-story shingled house in exactly six weeks!

Mr. Stryker, by the way, is 79 years old. His helper was a trainee war veteran.

Toys were provided for the enjoyment of the young guests who were also presented with balloons and pin wheels as favors. During the afternoon kodak pictures were taken and refreshments were served.

The invitation list for the party included ten children and the honoree's grandmothers, Mrs. John Fette and Mrs. John Meurer, each of whom remembered the young honoree with a gift.

John Kupper Completes Farm Conservation Plan

John Kupper of the Westview Conservation Group, two and one-half miles southwest of Gainesville, with the aid of technicians of the Gainesville Work Unit, Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District, has recently completed a coordinated conservation plan on his farm. Kupper has already begun construction of 1300 feet of diversion terraces and one and one-fourth miles of regular field terraces. These terraces will all empty on old pasture, which will give adequate outlet protection. Two waterways will be seeded to Buffalo and Bermuda grass to give additional protected outlets and also furnish more grazing for livestock. Kupper plans to start his soil building program by seeding six acres to Madrid Sweet Clover for seed production.

Baton Rouge, La., — They're cooling milk inside the cows at Louisiana State University.

Dr. D.M. Seath, of the LSU experiment station staff said Thursday that a few fortunate animals are receiving shower baths daily. The idea is to see if a cool cow produces more milk than a hot cow, he said.

He said by sprinkling a cow its temperature can be brought down a full degree. The cow, however, must stand in the shade while being sprinkled.

SAYING IT SIMPLY

Washington — Speaking of doubletalk or something, a government Air Safety Board put it this way in a recent announcement: "It is now possible to reduce those elements of causation from the inherent fallibility of the aneroid altimeter" which lead to "collision with terrain" and to insist "upon more adequate clearance of terrain when barometric variations are likely to occur." Or, in brief — if airplanes fly higher they won't hit mountains.

Approximately $47,000,000 will be spent during the six years beginning with 1947 by Texas Power & Light Company for new additions to its power system, according to an announcement this week by John W. Carpenter, president and general manager. Metropolitan electric service is rendered to more than 222,000 customers in 460 communities and the rural areas of 52 counties in North, Central and East Texas by the Texas Power & Light Company.

"These long-range plans are to provide electric power for the growth, development and expansion of industry, homes and farms, which we believe will come in this area during the next five years," Mr. Carpenter said. "This is in keeping with the company's slogan, Providing for the Texas of today . . . planning for the Texas of tomorrow."

"This program includes additions to power plants and the building of new high-voltage transmission lines, distribution lines, rural extensions, new substations and the expansion of many existing substations. Approximately $18,000,000 is being spent for additions and improvements to generating plants and high-voltage transmission lines, and approximately $22,000,000 will be applied to extending distribution facilities. Another $1,000,000 has been set aside for larger transformers in substations.

"A new generating unit of 63,000 kilowatts capacity is now on order for installation as soon as delivery can be made at the company's principal generating plant at Trinidad.

Continuing its widespread rural electrification program, the company will apply a large portion of the $22,000,000 assigned for distribution facilities to extending electric service to additional farm homes. "Rural electrification in Texas was pioneered by Texas Power & Light Company, which has been working with Texas farmers since 1915," Mr. Carpenter pointed out. "We consider that the continued prosperity of the state is based upon a sound, progressive agriculture, and in modern farming, electricity not only makes the farm home a more comfortable and pleasant place to live; it also saves the farmer time and labor that add up to positive economic assets."

Persistent Fellow

The insurance agent finally reached the big business man at the close of a busy day. "You should feel honored, highly honored, young man," he said. "Do you know that today I have refused to see seven insurance men?" "I know, sir," said the agent. "I'm them!"

Two old prospectors were talking. Said one: "I got me one of them cookery books, but I never could do anything with it." "Too much fancy stuff in it, eh?" "No, that ain't it," was the reply. "but every one of them recipes begins the same way — 'Take a clean dish' — and that always stops me."

World's Largest Jersey Herd

SANDIA, TEXAS—The world's largest Jersey herd, owned by the four Knolle Brothers here, and containing approximately 2,500 cattle, has recently been classified for type under the supervision of The American Jersey Cattle Club, Columbus, Ohio. A total of 394 milking cows, and 13 herd bulls were individually inspected by J. W. Ridgway, Dairy Specialist and G. G. Gibson, Extension Dairyman. Three days were needed for this work of comparing each animal with the breed's score card allotting 100 points for a perfect animal. The 407 animals classified averaged 88.96%, well above the average of the breed. During the past year nearly 15,000 registered Jerseys in the United States were inspected for type under this program.

One night the announcer for the Pot o' Gold program telephoned a woman to report that she had won the $1,900 prize. Since she was not at home, a boarder who answered the phone was asked the first thing the landlord would do with the money.

made in this column directly after his veto, that he marks himself as more of a politician than a statesman.

When he concedes that a measure is "logical, fair and legal" better? Incidentally, how much character, ability, vision and sincerity did the governor himself exercise in the veto of this measure?

Under analysis the explanation simmers down to a plain fizzle. Like the average attempt to cover up a slip of the tongue, it makes the situation worse than before.
