"The surest antidote for communism is more Americanism". That statement, made by Attorney General Tom C. Clark at Texas Tech graduation ceremonies last Monday night, deserves the serious consideration of every man, woman and child in this country.

Implied in his assertion is the sad fact that communism has become a menace simply because we have failed to observe the standards of Americanism. As individuals we have not lived up to the full measure of dignity recognized in a democratic government. Evils that have developed are our own fault. Democracy hasn't failed us but we have failed democracy.

The danger that confronts us today is not the weakness of Americanism but our own weakness in the misapplication of Americanism. So many of us are aware of our rights without being equally aware of a duty to respect the rights of others. Equality is too often interpreted not as opportunity to rise to another's level but rather to cut others down to our level. "Right to life" is interpreted as "the world owes me a living" and liberty is stretched to include license. Under such conditions it isn't surprising that we sometimes encounter rough going.

What's more, we can imagine, if abuse of democracy should get completely out of hand, that the nation would even welcome the iron hand of dictatorial control.

That precisely is communism's goal. Its fellow travelers and party members and trouble makers of every brand are working persistently on a program to break down the American way of life to a point where people will be willing to accept their system.

Their method is to aggravate, intensify and magnify trouble. They take up every day incidents that most of us ignore and develop them into major issues. They pose as do-gooders when their only motive is to cause harm. All the while they recommend their screw-ball doctrine as the solution for all our trouble, and people fall for their sucker line instead of realizing, as the attorney general reminds us, that the real solution lies in more Americanism.

After all, it doesn't take a great deal of deep thinking to figure out which of the two systems makes sense. The whole thing can be reduced to a simple question: "Who is smarter, God or Stalin?" Did the Almighty pull a boner in creating men with faculties to think and act freely on their decisions, or is Stalin pulling the boner in suppressing the exercise of those faculties? It's as elementary as that. Democracy harmonizes with the nature of man as God created him. Communism violates human nature. Incidentally, that line of reasoning explains partly why communists insist there is no God. Another reason is that they are arrogant dumb-clucks without enough sense to admit the existence of a greater Being.

A few days before Attorney General Clark's speech at Lubbock the press quoted him on another statement that is worth more than passing notice. According to him all the youth movements in the world will not "produce a generation of character without the spiritual discipline of the ten commandments". Coming from him the remark carries tremendous weight. As the nation's top prosecutor the man knows something about the disciplinary effect of man made laws. Penalties for violators who are caught and convicted do not serve as sufficient inducement for proper living. They leave room for an assumption that violations are all right if a person can get away with them.

Not so with the ten commandments, the set of Divine laws implying a moral obligation to do what is right and not what is wrong. Conscience is essential to orderly decent living and the decalogue is the yardstick by which conscience measures the validity of human action.

In case you have not noticed, Henry Ford II promises a big surprise in his next car model. The change will be as revolutionary, he says, as the switch from the Model T to the Model A. Now if he'll just hurry it along he can cut down a lot of suspense.

As far as yours truly is concerned the most desirable major change is a high gear for the car. By which he doesn't recommend a higher speed — most cars already go faster than the average person can drive safely — but a lower motor speed in relation to car speed. It seems so useless to race a motor and use only about (Continued on page 8)

Switchboards Will Improve Phone Co. Capacity and Service

The biggest improvement yet in the Muenster Telephone company is due to begin taking shape next week with the arrival of two new switchboards, Jake Horn, manager, disclosed this week. The new boards when installed will immediately increase available connections from 120 to 200 and provide additional space for 200 more connections. Extra sections for that space will have to be ordered if and when they are needed.

The new board will also increase the number of connection plugs from 12 to 30 permitting two and a half times as many conversations through the board as at the present time. Often the 12 plugs now in use are not adequate.

Another improvement will result from technical advances in construction. The new board will eliminate cross-line talk and will also enable operators to give better service. Lights will indicate connections and go off when connections are broken. On the present boards operators have to listen in to discover if the connection is broken.

Quite a number of the additional connections will be put to use as soon as the new boards are installed, Horn said. Twelve new tie-ins are waiting now and several party line phones are expected to take private lines. At the present time the company has 310 phones on 120 switchboard connections.

Line improvements are also anticipated since the arrival of 35 miles of new wire which has been on order for more than a year. Some of the wire will be used on new connections, some on defective line replacements.

Flower Show Postponed To Sunday, 22nd

The Garden Club's annual community flower show has been postponed from June 8 to June 22. The change was announced by club members Wednesday following the death of Mrs. J.S. Myrick.

Mrs. T.S. Myrick, staging chairman of the show, will be absent this weekend attending the funeral of her husband's mother in Austin.

June 15 was not favored as the alternate date because of possible conflict with family reunions on Father's Day.

How's This As A Record For Second Loop Roping

Spectators at last Saturday night's rodeo saw one performance that would have rated a big hand at Fort Worth, Cheyenne, Madison Square Garden or any of the big time rodeos.

Les Combs of Nocona roped his calf with the second loop and still completed the tie-down in 16.8 seconds. He missed his first throw about midway in the arena and before reaching the far end, at a dead run, he picked up the reserve rope, looped and twirled it and settled it over the calf's head to score second best time for the night.

First, second and third place winners for the night were: Steer riding, E.C. Cummins, Bill English, E.C. Miller. Bronc riding, Walter Kuykendall, Bill Henley, Pete Yancy. Calf roping, Marion Ely, 12.9 seconds; Les Combs, 16.8 seconds; Bill Lacy, 17.1 seconds. Ribbon roping, Roy Branon, 14.9 seconds; Marion Ely, 15 seconds; Allen Noble, 15.1 seconds.

CLOWN BULLFIGHTER OVERSTAYS HIS TIME IN MAD BULL'S PATH

The clown bullfighters at the rodeo crowded their luck a little too far Saturday night. One waited a split second too long before trying to sidestep or perhaps he zigged when he should have zagged. At least the bull caught him, knocked him down and stepped on him while passing over.

First reports after the accident were that he had sustained a broken leg but a report following an x-ray was that he had several bruises and a sprained ankle.

EAST MUENSTERITES, GET SET FOR ANOTHER WATER CUT-OFF FRIDAY

Residents in the east part of town will have another water shut-off Friday (today). Water Superintendent Steve Mosier announced this week. The purpose, as two weeks ago, is to put a valve on the water main.

The area affected this time is everything south of Second and east of Pecan, including the part south of the highway lying east of the Pecan street extension. For those unfamiliar with street names Second is 2 blocks north of the highway and Pecan is 2 blocks east of Main. Connections on both sides of Pecan are affected.

Work will begin as soon as possible after noon. Mosier advised. Housewives are urged to draw their afternoon supply of water by noon.

18 Parochial High Students Graduate At Sunday Ceremony

A large assemblage of relatives and friends gathered at Sacred Heart church Sunday evening at 7:30 to honor 18 graduates at Sacred Heart High school's ninth annual commencement exercises.

Rev. Peter Molloy, pastor of St. Mary's church, Gainesville, delivered the commencement address using as his text the words of Christ as recorded in the gospel of St. Matthew: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations." He stressed that a Christian education is of vital importance in these times of strife and ill will, that education which develops an alert mind, a clean heart and a sturdy body is a gift for which students should be grateful because it equips them to cope with problems and avoid dangers which arise during life. He pointed to the decalogue as a code of living to follow and urged the graduates to be respectfully obedient to their parents and to consider their advice as they start on their own in the near future.

Diplomas were presented by Pastor Rev. Herman Laux who spoke a few words, concluding with, "Go forth and let your light shine".

Climaxing the evening's program was an address by Rev. Thomas Buegler, former pastor, who said: "It is good to be back for a visit and a talk with you. I feel honored to be here." He continued by recalling that four years ago he had presented 8th grade diplomas to the class, mentioned that they had gone a long way along the road of life since that day and that they were yet to meet their severest teacher in the school of life. He cautioned them to remember the lessons taught at Sacred Heart and by their example to bring glory to their Alma Mater.

The services began with procession of the graduates, their pages and flower girls from the school to church.

Rosary, litany and sacramental benediction at which Father Thomas officiated followed and the Te Deum by the congregation preceded the graduates' recessional.

The graduates wore caps and gowns, the tiny flower girls wore formal white frocks and carried miniature colonial bouquets of white daisies and the pages were attired in white suits.

Baccalaureate services were held in the morning at 8 o'clock with Rev. John Walbe officiating at the high mass and delivering the baccalaureate address.

The graduates and their pages or flower girls are: Clyde Fisher, Francis Fisher; Herbert Miller, Theodore Miller; Bernard Swirczynski, Roy Swirczynski; Arthur Bayer, Leonard Bayer; Paul Luke, Clifford Endres; Rufus Henschel, William Flusche; Anthony Felderhoff, Billy Joe Danglemayr; Gerald Bayer, Regie Bayer.

Coralee Fuhrman, Rebecca Mosman; Rose Marie Becker, Monica Fette; Bernice Luttmer, Mary Lou Vogel; Terese Walter, Karen Endres; Marian Gremminger, Carol Lee Sicking; Edna Hartman, Virgilla Schilling; Mary Nell Hennigan, Rita Hennigan; Philomena Felderhoff, Jane Hesse; Rosalee Muller, Jeanette Muller; Anna Grace Wimmer, Joan Herr.

Gets Flight Instructors Rating

Emmet Fette received word this week from the Civil Aeronautics Authority that he has been approved as a qualified flight instructor. His new rating followed a series of tests conducted by a CAA official at Fort Worth last Monday morning.

BINDERS AND COMBINES BEGIN HARVEST GRIND; GRAIN ELEVATORS OPEN

Though no grain is moving now, the grain buying season officially opened this week when both local elevators got set to handle the community's crop. Ed Rohmer is in the Morrison elevator south of the Katy tracks and Dick Cain is in the Kimbell elevator north of the tracks.

Meanwhile binders are circling the fields for long hours every day trying to make up for lost time caused by last week's rain. By Wednesday cutting was in full swing even in low lands which were spotted with bogs during the wet weather. Some binders were running late last week, more went into action Monday and two days later there was hardly an idle machine in the community.

Combines are also busy on several well advanced oats fields, however intensive combining is not expected to get under way until wheat is ready, about the end of next week.

First reports are that grain in general survived the heavy rains more successfully than expected. Low spots suffered from over-soaking but better drained land fared better. There are no reports from broken down grain from hail or driving rain.

Last Saturday night's rain measured only .08 inch and had no effect on Monday's harvesting.

Crew 2 was divided to form two groups making three crews for the squadron with leaders as follows: Kenneth Wiesman reelected leader of No. 1, Bill Hoehn elected leader of No. 2 and Clyde Fisher of No. 3.

Committee chairmen chosen are: Bill Hoehn, social; Michael Luke, out door; Ernest Sicking, technical and Teddy Gremminger, service.

Members decided to have only three meetings during the summer, on the first Sunday of each of the coming three months, so that sessions will not interfere with harvest work.

BALL PLAYERS GET NEW UNIFORMS; WIN 2 GAMES OUT OF 3

The next time the Muenster ball team goes into action it will be sporting new uniforms, Herman Pierce, manager, disclosed Wednesday. The suits, ordered several weeks ago, are provided by local business men and each suit carries the advertisement of the sponsor.

Playing a regulation ball game at Cape Corner last Sunday afternoon the boys encountered their first defeat of the season. It was the second contest of the season between the two veterans Buck Knabe and Shine Davenport but the win cannot be credited to either of them. Knabe's team lost whereas Davenport's won with the help of two relief pitchers. The score was 10 to 9.

Muenster's softball game with Saint Jo the previous Thursday night was a run-away affair ending 25 to 3.

Another win was that scored against the Magnolia team of Nocona, Monday night. Muenster held a comfortable margin most of the time but weakened somewhat toward the end to permit a final count 9 to 8.

The stage was beautifully adorned to depict a flower garden surrounded with a white picket fence entwined with rambling red roses.

Mrs. J.S. Myrick, 81, mother of Dr. T.S. Myrick, passed away at her son's home here Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock following a lengthy illness. She had been in ill health since she broke her left hip in a fall 18 months ago.

Funeral services will be held in Austin this Friday morning at 10 o'clock at All Saints Episcopal church and burial will be in that city beside her husband.

After his death in 1913, Mrs. Myrick taught in the Austin public schools for several years and was then directress of the Scottish Rite Dormitory at Texas University for many years. BOARD OF REVIEW TO PARTICIPATE IN NEXT BOY SCOUT MEETING

Scoutmaster Nick Miller announced this week that he plans to have a board of review for his scouts at the regular meeting next Monday night, and anticipates holding a formal court of honor ceremony the latter part of this month.

At the same time he announced that the merit and demerit system for the boys is again in effect. It varies slightly from the last time in that this time the merits and demerits apply directly to the boys as individuals and not to the patrols to which they belong. Reward at the end of the period is a special treat from the Scoutmaster.

Last Sunday Patrol 4 was treated to an outing at Forest Park in Fort Worth where the boys enjoyed a visit to the zoo, swimming and a picnic lunch.

Man Made Island Support Rigs For Deep Sea Drilling

Man-made floating islands, newest developments of American industry, may solve the problem of salvaging the great lake of petroleum under the Gulf of Mexico.

The petroleum is in salt domes under 80 to 90 feet of water and an unknown depth of silt.

Drilling apparatus will be installed on seadromes floating at anchor over the salt domes, which dot seabottom from Louisiana to Texas. It is believed that by working from these floating islands it will be possible to tap the oil and bring it up through earth and sea.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Go to Sleep

We were sitting around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness...like breathing real slow and deep, imagining that you weigh a ton, or simply throwing away the pillow.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There were some votes for countin' Merinos, Shropshires, Oxfords and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best luck counting crossbreeds.

Finally, Bert Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax... and "ho hum," off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the creases of the day, relax a body, and pave the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, D.C., May 31 — On Monday of this week I was invited to address the convention here in Washington of the National Society of the Daughters of 1812, on the subject of national defense. I was pleased to have this large and responsive audience applaud my plea for stricter immigration laws. Millions of dollars are now being spent to bring pressure on Congress to lower immigration barriers.

The House this week passed the Agriculture Department Appropriation Bill for the fiscal year of 1948. The bill was most controversial. It reduced a budget request for $1,188,571,318 by more than $383,000,000. As finally passed the bill represents a cut of some 32% in the funds requested. The bill now goes to the Senate where a good many changes will doubtless be made and some appropriations restored. The bill completely eliminates funds for the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Purchase Program. I was anxious that this program be carried on for the benefit of veterans. It is a loan program and the government has lost no money on it. A letter from J.A. Wheat of Seymour gives figures on this program for Baylor, Knox, and Throckmorton Counties. The Seymour office opened in 1938. These are 40-year loans. Judge Wheat's figures follow: 31 loans in Baylor, 11 now repaid; 28 in Knox County, 5 repaid; 14 made in Throckmorton County, 2 repaid. Six farms were bought in Baylor County in 1938, the first year of the program. Of these, four have paid their loans in full and the other two are well ahead of schedule.

In this bill, Production and Marketing Administration funds, generally referred to as the AAA, were cut approximately in half.

Conferees between the House and Senate have not agreed upon the important and controversial labor bill and tax bill. Both these reports will be up before House and Senate for agreement next week. The main change in the labor bill as it passed the House is the elimination of a ban against industry-wide bargaining. The main change made in the tax bill as it passed the House is to make it effective on July 1 instead of dating it back to last January 1. I was pleased that the conferees left in the labor bill, with only minor changes, an amendment written by me denying federal employees the right to strike and outlawing such strikes.

John L. Lewis has just issued demand for another wage increase for miners in the amount of 35¢ per hour. In 1939 miners averaged working 26½ hours per week for which they received $19.58. Now miners average working 42½ hours per week for which they receive $62.37, plus health funds, paid vacations, guaranteed annual wage, and survivors benefits. Unless Congress passes the Hartley-Taft Labor Bill, and unless the President signs and enforces it, John L. Lewis will doubtless soon call another nationwide strike and will enforce his demands.

Numerous complaints have been reaching me concerning the widely publicized dumping of potatoes in Alabama. There has been a lot of screaming about this apparent wanton destruction of food. Still the Department of Agriculture has an answer. The law as passed supports the price under potatoes just as it has under corn, cotton, wheat, rice and tobacco. The Department of Agriculture tried in vain to sell or even to give away the potatoes in question. They were off-grade potatoes for which there was no market. They were offered at a price of $5.00 per car f.o.b. for use in making alcohol or starch. They were offered for export at 4¢ per hundred pounds. They were offered free to any person or agency for charity or relief. There simply were no takers.

Further, experts point out that it is cheaper to buy wheat at $3.00 per bushel for relief purposes than to ship potatoes free of charge. This is due to the spoilage and cost of refrigeration in the case of potatoes. Someone has said if the government had not poured kerosene on these potatoes and burned them, nothing would have been said. This destruction was necessary however, because of the terrible stench of rotting potatoes, and damage to the area in question.

While I have condemned the Department of Agriculture on many occasions, for various things, they apparently were not at fault in this instance. There are always, two sides to every question and the Department's side of the present case has not been told.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

High Quality Hay Cuts Feed Costs

Here's one dug from the dim dark past: A fellow running for a train just missed it and a lounge at the station said, "Guess you didn't run fast enough." "Nope," puffed the runner. "I just didn't start soon enough." Which leads up to starting your hay cutting soon enough—at the right bloom stage, mostly.

There's an article on hay quality and what it means in the April-May issue of the Producers' Kraftman, with photographs in color which show the differences between excellent, good, fair and poor quality hay.

By its color you can tell a lot about the feed value of hay. Green, leafy hay which makes up excellent and good quality grades is high in the feed elements your cows need.

Take alfalfa, for example. Excellent quality will show 18% protein, good quality 15 per cent, fair quality 14% and poor 12%. The stuff they call "carotene," which contains vitamin A goes from a rating of 50 parts per million in excellent hay down to 4 parts in poor.

And that difference is mighty important in the health of your animals. There's no use stuffing them with something that actually does not do a job of keeping them in good health and which does not produce milk.

Much of the difference in the quality of the hay that you'll feed next winter is determined by you and maybe the weather. The difference between excellent and poor alfalfa or excellent and poor clover is most often merely a difference in the timing of the cutting, plus handling from the field to the mow.

I've listed them before, but here they come again—the right bloom stages to cut hay:

Alfalfa one-tenth to one-quarter bloom stage; clover, half bloom stage; sweet clover when buds show or earlier; grasses as soon as headed, before they bloom; and soybeans, when early pods are well filled and before lower leaves turn yellow.

If you run into rainy weather at haying time, maybe you will do better to make it into silage. That's another subject which your county agent can give you some sound advice on.

Anyway, I know you'll find the Kraftman article on hay quality of great interest, so if you are not getting a copy, write Uncle Bob at 500 Peshtigo, Chicago 80, Ill., and I'll send one without charge.

Sometimes I can think up a wise crack to introduce a serious subject. But not this next one. I got all tangled up between adders and multipliers and dividers and subtractors, so I'll give it to you straight.

Hot weather, if it hasn't hit your farm yet, isn't far away. Which means extra care in cooling milk, to keep bacteria from multiplying. When those little things start increasing, they cause milk to spoil. So by multiplying they subtract from your income.

You'll want to check whatever cooling system you use to be sure it is doing the job.

There was a lot of rain in spots this spring making for good hay and pasture. But whether your pastures hold up in summer is another question.

Cows can't do their job of producing at a high level without all the good feed they can get. So supplementary hay and grain feeding is something I hope you are planning all summer long.

One of my good extension friends has figured out that a cow needs 100 pounds of grass per day. I don't expect you to go out and weigh your grass every morning, but along about July and August I imagine you can tell by looking that the cows are not getting that much.

If they aren't, it's mighty important to you and the cows that supplementary hay or silage and grain be used.

State Amendment To Be Voted On In August

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4

proposing an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of two new sections to be known as Sections 17 and 18 providing a special fund for the payment of Confederate pensions and providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning; providing for a five-cent reduction in the maximum allowable state tax on property; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto Sections 17 and 18 which shall read as follows:

Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article 3, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate hereinabove levied.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings, or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning; and the governing board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereby authorized; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"Funds raised from said Five (5c) Cents tax levy for the ten (10) year period beginning January 1, 1948, are hereby allocated to the following institutions of higher learning, and in the following proportions, to wit:

"Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at a special election to be held throughout the state on the fourth Saturday in August, A.D. 1947, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"For the amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Sections 17 and 18 providing for the levying of a state ad valorem tax on property in lieu of the present state ad valorem tax of Seven (7c) Cents for Confederate pensions in order to create special funds necessary for the payment of Confederate pensions and for the financing of the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning, in the amounts of Two (2c) Cents and Five (5c) Cents respectively; providing for a Five Cent reduction of the maximum allowable state tax on property, making such tax not to exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred (100.00) Dollars valuation; providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of improvements and buildings at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and The University of Texas."

School Children Will Be State Fair Guests On October 10 and 17

Two days of fun and education have been set aside on the State Fair of Texas calendar for the school children of the state, according to an announcement received here today from W.H. Hitzelberger, Executive Vice President and General Manager of the State Fair. Grammar School Day has been set for October 10, followed by High School Day on October 17. Many schools over the state, especially those within a 100-mile radius of Dallas, declare annual holidays so that their students may attend the State Fair.

In announcing the two special dates early this year, Mr. Hitzelberger said he wanted to allow ample time to plan for the event and mail requests or free student tickets at the earliest possible moment.

"Because there is so little time after school reconvenes in the fall we would like to get estimates now on the number of students and teachers from every school superintendent or principal," Mr. Hitzelberger explained. Estimates should be mailed to Mr. Charles Kaigler, Director of Special Events for the State Fair, Dallas.

Special programs and reduced prices on the State Fair's gigantic half-mile Midway amusement centers are planned for both days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steinberger had as guests Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter of Marietta, Okla., Mr. Carter's mother, Mrs. M.L. Wither- spoon who makes her home with her son, and her sister, Mrs.

Emma Gibson of Long Beach, Calif., who is a guest in the Carter home.

MRS. JOE HORN HOSTESS AT CDA SOCIAL THURSDAY

Mrs. Joe Horn was hostess for the regular monthly social of the Catholic Daughters of America court last Thursday evening when she entertained in the K of C hall.

Four tables were arranged for progressive 42 series with prizes being won by Mrs. Al. Schad, high; Mrs. John Mosman, low; and Mrs. J.M. Weinzapfel, galloping.

The hostess served refreshments to 16 members and one guest, Mrs. Jud Boyles.

Mrs. S.L. Duffey returned to Fort Worth Wednesday after spending a week with relatives. Her daughter, Barbara, accompanied her home after attending school here the past term.

LINDSAY YOUNG MEN ASSUME MAINTENANCE OF PARISH CEMETERY

Members of the Young Men's Society of Lindsay have accepted as their major project for the coming year, the care and beautification of St. Peter's cemetery. The decision was made at the society's regular meeting last Thursday night.

Working in cooperation with Pastor Father Conrad who is arranging to supply the necessary equipment, the young men have hopes of making the cemetery a beauty spot of the community.

LINDSAY YOUNG MEN SPONSOR COMMUNITY PICNIC ON JUNE 15

Members of the Young Men's Society of Lindsay will sponsor a community picnic on June 15, plans for which were formulated at the organization's regular meeting last Thursday night, and committees were appointed to take charge of the various entertainment and refreshment features.

An interesting account of the district convention held recently at Rhineland was given by James Bezner and Val Dieter, Jr. who attended as delegates, and after the close of business refreshments were served.

Lands 10-pound Catfish

Ed Rohmer is Muenster's latest "big fish" man. He came in Monday afternoon with a 10-pound channel cat caught up the creek a short way in the creeks flowing into Red River. He tussled with it an hour before he got it out of the water.

McNELLEY HOME PARTY SCENE SUNDAY NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. R.L. McNelley were hosts for a barbecue party at their home Sunday evening for members of the Horse Show committee. After eating the meal out doors the group enjoyed a series of moving pictures of local horse shows of the past five years. They were taken and shown by Urban Endres.

Confetti--

10 per cent of the gasoline's power, to say nothing of the useless wear and tear on moving parts. Cars have been running in low gear long enough.

Other welcome features would be any improvement in comfort and safety and simplifications to reduce original cost and maintenance.

It seems as though the issue of senior artwork on the water tower has ended in a compromise. Those bold, black letters have been changed to a modest, less conspicuous white. The retouching artist, or artists, as the case may be, must have been unaware that white also shows up on an aluminum background and the only effect of tracing over old letters was to change the color. However, thank goodness, it's a less conspicuous color. The sign isn't noticeable any more except at a few blocks distance.

And that, we hope is the end of one very common high school prank that we prefer not to see introduced in Muenster. We'd so much rather see class enthusiasm expressed in terms of beauty or usefulness than in unsightly signs.

There are lots of things the youngsters could do and identify as class projects — things upon which that class mark would become an object of pride and admiration for many years to come. For instance a set of football goal posts, a tennis court, a row of trees or shrubs for the city, street markers, — or the word "Muenster" properly painted on the water tower.
