VOLUME XI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1947

NUMBER 26

An incident that has the makings of a tragedy: Monday morning one of the fellows in town found his dog dead and several hours later he found a piece of raw meat in a far corner of his yard. The dog showed the usual symptoms of poisoning and the presence of the meat, though only circumstantial evidence, seems to be more than sufficient explanation for the puppy's death.

But there's another part to the story. Usually a child, about 18 months old, is permitted to play in that yard. Monday the yard was muddy, so the child was kept inside. But we can easily imagine the possible result if the child were outside as usual and like so many other children who put almost anything in their mouths, had found that particular piece of meat.

This column readily admits that some dogs around town are a plain nuisance. They've been known to prowl, growl, chase cats, kids and chickens, dig up flower beds, kill sheep and engage in various other kinds of misbehavior. That some people get sufficiently provoked to exterminate them is not surprising.

But none of those offenses, nor all of them, can possibly justify throwing a chunk of poisoned meat in another person's yard. The trick is sneaking, contemptible and cruel. In view of possible tragic effects it even borders on crime.

We hope the vindictive and treacherous character who tossed the poisoned meat will read these lines. Though we hardly expect him to change his attitude toward dogs we do hope he will have more regard for the lives of children.

Texas scores again. Of the several states honored (?) by a visit of the eminent Soviet delegate Hank Wallaciski, Texas was the first to extend an appropriate reception. The group of Austin fellows who played the "Volga Boatman" and flew Red flags for him are to be congratulated for their thoughtfulness.

It is reported, however, that this erstwhile American did not appreciate the favor. Instead of showing his pleasure he passed off the incident as the put-up job of some oil man.

How inconsistent these friends of the Kremlin can be! At his Detroit rally two nights before Hank beamed his approving smile as critics ranted and raved over proposed legislation to kick Soviet hirelings off the government payroll. At Austin he seemed to be displeased with the Soviet tune and colors.

For a long, long time this column has preached a policy of hard work as the solution for economic ills. Con is convinced that if every workman would settle down to conscientious work, giving a full day of production for a full day of pay, we could all come out of the kinks in a surprisingly short time.

Our trouble has been — and still is — that we measure our standard of living too much in terms of dollars and too little in terms of commodities. So we're hell-bent on getting all the money we can instead of thinking primarily of the things we want to get with the money. People strike for more pay because they want to buy more things. After weeks of bickering and loss of pay they discover that it will take a long time of advanced pay to catch up with the pay lost in idleness. Equally sad, the commodities they want are scarce or unavailable — because too many have been loafing or striking instead of producing.

The old system of hard work could correct that. Produce the stuff, make the wanted commodities available, and give people a chance to use them. Money problems can be adjusted if the stuff is there, but, money or no money, we can't have things we don't produce.

In two articles last week yours truly was pleased to discover that work is recommended also as a solution for moral problems. One article, based on opinions of a Wall Street economist, is that the surplus of leisure weighs too heavily on too many people and the idle time becomes the devil's workshop. Grown-ups, like children, get into mischief when they don't have enough to do.

The other article deplors that our one time evil of child labor has been replaced by juvenile delinquency and again the reason given is a surplus of spare time. In this connection it is interesting to note that delinquency problems seldom arise in rural areas, and the reason is obvious. Farm children as a rule are kept busy. (Continued on page 10)

Another 2.42 Inches Of Rain; May Total To Date Is 8 Inches

Finally, clear weather again. After adding 2.42 inches of rain to this over-soaked community clouds broke up Tuesday afternoon and disappeared by Wednesday morning offering a hope that the wet season had ended at last.

As regards grain crops, farmers of the community are undecided whether the super abundance of rain was harmful or not. It is generally agreed that wheat has not needed moisture for at least two weeks, but it still has a chance to develop into a good crop if favored with good weather until harvest time. Because of rank growth it is more subject to damage by wind or hard rain.

Hay crops also were affected. Almost all of them have passed the ideal first cutting stage and a few first cuttings were lost when showers followed closely behind mowers. Pastures, as usual, were improved by the moisture.

The last rain brought this month's total moisture to date over 8 inches. Measurements during the past week were as follows: May 16, .71 inches; 17th, .03 inches; 20th, 1.2 inches; 21st, 1.22 inches.

Enthusiastic Seniors Put Their Class Mark On City's Water Tower

The senior class has left its mark on Muenster. Early Wednesday morning persons who happened to glance at the water tower saw something different: "SRS. 47" in letters tall, black and bold appeared on the bright aluminum tank.

The feat required more than a little nerve. Judging from the height of the characters those who did the painting had to stand on the railing that surrounds the tank.

Unlike most other small towns Muenster has been spared this kind of school-boy artwork until now, and popular reaction is twofold. Some are amused and some are peeved but almost everyone agrees that the paint should be removed.

News Of Sick And Injured

Paul Nieball suffered considerable discomfort this week from a carbuncle on his left hand. Jake Horn substituted for him as rural mail carrier on route one.

William J. Hess is absent from his regular duties at the Phillips Service Station since Monday morning. He has the mumps.

Walter Eberhart, in a critical condition last week following a hernia operation, is out of danger this week and reported to be making normal recovery. He expects to spend about two more weeks at Saint Vincent's hospital, Sherman, before returning home.

ENROLLMENT BOOST VINCHEs MUENSTER GI VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

With a present enrollment of 15 members and prospects for adding more in the near future, Muenster's GI Vocational Agriculture school has emerged from the doubtful stage and established itself as a permanent course. Hugh Barnhart, instructor, staged Wednesday that the four new members are Eugene Klement, Tony Hesse, and Billy Joe Miller of Muenster, and Lloyd Barnhart of Marysville.

For the benefit of those wishing to join he urged attendance at the meeting next Monday or Friday night to fill out application for benefits under the GI Bill of Rights. A person applying then can draw benefits for June.

The regular meeting this Friday night will be replaced by an all-day visit at the annual Field Day of the Denton Agricultural Experiment Station and next week the meetings will return to their normal schedule — 8 p.m. Monday and Friday in the public school.

Last Monday's meeting consisted of a discussion on soil conservation. Next Monday's will be a discussion on poultry husbandry and management featuring a lecture by Mr. Spencer of the A & M Extension Service. Next Friday's discussion will be on under diseases of dairy cows.

Frequent appearances of farm and livestock specialists are planned as special features of the course. Barnhart disclosed.

CLOWN BULLFIGHTERS ADD CHILL FEATURE TO MUENSTER RODEO

Continuing its policy to improve constantly the Muenster Rodeo distinguished itself Saturday night with a new feature and more action.

Two clown bullfighters added even more suspense to the already popular steer riding event. Their split-second timing in sidestepping mad bull charges drew as much interest as the steer riding contest itself. Both will be back next Saturday, specially dressed for the act and will extend their clowning through the whole show.

Calf roping ranked next in spectator interest, with all three winners finishing the tie-down in less than 15 seconds.

Winners are as follows:

Bronc-Riding: Bill Henley of Nocona and Bill Biffle of Forestburg, tied for first and second and Bob Brown of Petrolia, third.

Steer Riding: Rip Collier, Sherman; Bill Henley, Nocona; John McChristian, Valley View.

Tie-down roping: Mutt Lacy, Sherman; Bill Bentley, Era; Sonny Suttles, Sherman.

Ribbon roping: Sonny Lavender, Comanche; Less Combs, Nocona; Orville Shellenberger, Marietta.

Joyce Tucker Sustains Facial Cuts And Bruises In Fall From Moving Car

Miss Joyce Tucker escaped serious injury but suffered facial cuts and bruises when she fell out of a moving car Sunday night.

Miss Tucker and her companions, Miss Mary Jo Williams and Joe and Ray Tempel, were driving through Lindsay when Miss Tucker noticed the car door caught only in the first catch. While opening the door to slam it shut securely she lost her balance and fell out of the car.

She was taken to M & S Hospital in Gainesville where four stitches were taken above her left eye and three on her chin, and was permitted to return to her home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker and a student at the Muenster High School.

CDA Collects 335 Pounds Clothing For War Victims

Three hundred and thirty-five pounds of used clothing were contributed locally to the clothing drive sponsored by the local Catholic Daughters of America, it was announced by the sponsor group Tuesday. The campaign ended Sunday.

More Than 3000 Jam Ball Park for Best Horse Show To Date

Last Sunday's horse show was a triumph for Muenster in two respects. Besides being the most colorful, displaying the best horses and drawing the largest crowd to date, it netted a total of 17 out of 40 ribbons for local contestants. More than 3000 persons crowded the ball park to see it.

Other factors contributing to the success of the show were the performance of the Nocona quadrille team, music by the Muenster Band and bright, comfortable weather.

The quadrille act, a new feature of the show, won the enthusiastic applause of the crowd. It consisted of an old-fashioned square dance on horseback by eight couples with square dance music, calls and all.

Another new event was the exhibition of Andy Anderson's harness horse, a descendant of the famous trotter, Dan Patch. And still another was the Western Pair contest replacing the previous best dressed cowboy and cowgirl contests. Rigging, costumes, manners and gaits were all considered in this event.

F.I. Dalberg of the Animal Husbandry department of A & M College was sole judge for all events, and R.L. McNelley presided at the microphone. Cold drinks were sold by members of Boy Scout Air Squadron No. 164.

The total number of entries was 124.

Grand champion of the show was Dr. T.S. Myrick's Palomino, Don Oro, and the reserve champion was Sport, Quarter horse owned by Bill Bentley of Era.

Besides the 17 ribbons won locally, 11 were won by Nocona. (Continued on page 10)

East Muensterites, Be Prepared; City Will Cut Your Water Off Friday

If favorable weather permits, about 65 connections on the city water system will be dry Friday afternoon, May 23. Steve Moster, city water superintendent, disclosed Wednesday that the water will be cut off for several hours to permit installation of a valve, and warns consumers in the east part of town to draw sufficient water in advance to supply them for the afternoon.

People are urged to have their water supply drawn by noon as the work will be started as soon as possible after that time.

The area includes both sides of Pecan Street and all connections east of Pecan, as well as all connections across the highway which are east of the line extended from Pecan Street.

For the benefit of persons not familiar with street names, Moster reminds that Pecan is the street three blocks east of Main.

If rain prevents digging to the water main, the job will be postponed.

Moster also stated that two more valves are to be installed at a later date. When they arrive consumers will be notified again before the work starts.

FRANK HENNIGAN AND ROSE MARIE ENDRES MARRY THURSDAY A.M.

The marriage of Miss Rose Marie Endres and Frank Hennigan was solemnized at 8:30 Thursday morning in Sacred Heart church with the Rev. Father Herman, pastor, performing the double ring ceremony and officiating at the nuptial high mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.R. Endres and Mr. Hennigan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Hennigan.

Anthony Luke, organist, played the processional and remained at the console to assist the church choir in singing the mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white marquisette over satin. It was designed with a high round neck-line, long fitted sleeves pointed over the hands, moulded waist and very full skirt that extended into a long graceful train. Ruffles of the marquisette simulated the off-shoulder Bertha effect, were repeated at the waist forming a modified peplum, and cascaded down the skirt to the end of the train.

The finger-tip bridal veil of silk illusion was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls and the bride carried a white prayer-book topped with an orchid. For "something old and borrowed she wore a gold lavalier belonging to the groom's mother.

Mrs. Robert Kupper, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Mary Nell Hennigan, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both wore identical blue embroidered marquisette frocks, following the trend of the bride's dress, and with short ruffled sleeves. They carried arm bouquets of red gladiolas.

Pat Hennigan, brother of the groom, was best man, and Donald Endres, brother of the bride, was groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble and the groom's mother wore a white costume. Both had shoulder corsages of pink carnations, while the couple's grandmothers, Mrs. Fred Herr Sr., and Mrs. Frank Seyler, had white carnation corsages.

Immediately after the services, members of the bridal party were guests for breakfast in the home of the groom's parents, and beginning at three o'clock an informal reception is being held at the home of the bride's parents. Dinner at 6 will be followed by a dance for the community in the parish hall, with music by Ber-

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

When Ed's Crops Failed

Three years ago Ed Smith's luck went bad. His crops failed, and it wasn't long before Ed's home and furnishings were up for auction.

Half the town turned out, and Ed must have thought his neighbors were a bunch of hungry vultures—buying up all his precious possessions for a song.

When it was over, and the auctioneer had left, Sam Abernathy turns to the crowd and says: "All right, folks, let's take time out for a glass of beer, and then put this stuff back where it belongs!"

Two hours later, Ed was in possession of his home and furnishings; and the folks who'd paid for them were sitting around Ed's fire enjoying a neighborly glass of beer—to show their friendship and their confidence in Ed.

Today, Ed's back on his feet—another constructive member of the community. And from where I sit, we've all been well repaid—a good investment in a good man.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett
 Washington, D. C., May 17 —
 Two notable events occurred in Washington this week which have been most pleasing to many of us. One was the President's signing the Portal to Portal bill, i.e., the bill which outlaws 98% of the portal to portal suits now pending; the other was the action of the Supreme Court in upholding the so-called Southern governors case for freight rate equality. The first bill introduced by me upon coming to Congress was one seeking to remove freight rate discrimination against the South and West. During each session of Congress, I have joined others in introducing such legislation. In many speeches and articles I have condemned this economic handicap imposed on the people of Texas and others outside the official zone of the Northeast. We have been ridiculed by the so-called freight rate experts and by the railroad lobby generally. Two years ago the Interstate Commerce Commission, after long and extensive hearings, handed down a decision holding that the alleged discrimination did exist, and that there was no justification for such unequal freight rates. The faces of the railroad lobbyists and their "experts" became exceedingly red. Among other things, the railroads have always contended that it costs more to move freight in the Southwest than in the Northeast. Non-partisan studies have shown the exact reverse to be true. Now that the federal courts, including the highest court of the land, have upheld our contention and have upheld the Interstate Commerce Commission in this matter, it appears that at long last we are going to secure some equality in transportation charges.

Under the law passed by Congress last year, all persons lobbying in Washington are required to register with the Congress and file quarterly reports. Reports filed in Congress this week show that organized labor maintains the largest lobby, with 75 paid workers on the rolls. Incidentally, the next largest lobby is the so-called DP (displaced persons) lobby. Millions of dollars are now being spent by numerous organizations and individuals on propaganda to break down our immigration walls. This DP lobby wants us to bring into this country hundreds of thousands of refugees from the DP camps of Europe. This is one of the most dangerous and vicious programs ever instigated in this country. It is supported by many humanitarian organizations that do not know what they are doing. We maintain 299 DP camps in our occupied zone of Europe. Of the 800,000 persons we are feeding in these camps, only 200,000 were displaced persons when the war ended. While there are many good people in these camps, there are also vast hordes of bums, and criminals, and political conspirators of all hues. Instead of lowering the immigration barriers this is the time to raise them. The immigrants who will come from these DP camps are not the kind that built America, but are the kind who will destroy it.

One constructive thing on which this Congress is now working, is the creation of a National Scientific Foundation. It is contemplated that such a foundation would not only carry on military research but also medical research. We spent two billion dollars to develop the atomic bomb. The same money and brains that split the atom ought to be able to find cures for cancer and many other pernicious diseases that destroy life, happiness, and efficiency.

New Highway Department Map Says See Texas First

AUSTIN.—A new edition of the official State Highway Map is just off the press to aid Texas travelers in finding their way over the state's rapidly expanding road system.

Color photographs of things to see and do in the Lone Star State are featured on the map to help lure tourists from other States and inspire Texans to "See Texas First".

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer announced free copies of the new map are available to the traveling public upon request. They will be distributed through the Highway Department's main office at Austin, the twenty-five district offices, and at the Department's information bureaus located at ports of entry into Texas.

Progress on the postwar building program is graphically indicated on the new map which carries more than 1,100 miles of new paved road which were not shown on the former edition.

UNLESS WE WORK

Bernard M. Baruch, one of the great Elder Statesmen of America recently gave his countrymen wise advice.

The world, he said, "can get going only if men work," and "if we accept the challenge to preserve civilization, it means greater effort than that exerted during the war." He pointed to the pressing need for maximum production, with no strikes and no layoffs, in the future. And then he said: "Unless we work, we shall see a vast inflation. Unless we work, we shall not be able to maintain our claim to power. That would be the greatest blow we could receive, for it would strip us of our strength to preserve our way of life."

We have sought for an easy way to do things — and we have found that no such way exists. We have wanted every luxury, but we have not wanted to labor to earn it. Our whole philosophy of late has been the suicidal one of asking more and giving less. Capital, labor, agriculture, the consumer — this indictment fits large segments of them all.

No country has ever undergone a great inflation and kept its institutions free. No country has ever turned to government to solve every real or imagined domestic difficulty and escaped from degrading itself into some kind of a totalitarian state. Freedom is not imperishable. It must be earned, and it must be constantly defended.

Mr. Baruch pointed to a choice that cannot long be postponed. We will work and we will assume the clear duties of a free people or we will lose our freedoms in a terrible economic and political upheaval.

Destined for Heaven

"Mummy," said little Peter, "Billie doesn't know how to swim because his mummy won't let him go near the water."

"Well, Billie is a very good little boy."

"Yes," answered Peter thoughtfully, "and he'll go to Heaven the first time he falls in."

A contractor stationed his foreman on the other side of a wall in a newly finished dwelling and then called out, "Can you hear me?" "Yes, I can," rejoined the foreman. "Can you see me?" the contractor next called out. "No," replied the foreman. "That" commented the contractor, "is what I call a good wall!"

Butcher: "The farmer who brought this rooster in said he was the laziest one in the world."

Assistant: "Did he say just how lazy he was?"

Butcher: "Yes, he said the rooster had never crowed in his life. He just waited for another one to crow and then he nodded his head!"

To Have and Get Over Pox Mumps, Measles Is Bum Theory; Best to Avoid Them

AUSTIN. — If every case of suspected communicable disease could be promptly visited either by the family physician or the local health officer, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from disabling illness, according to the State Health Officer.

To quote Dr. Geo. W. Cox, "The old fashioned theory that it is a good thing for children to have a number of the catching diseases and get them over with, has long since been known to be a serious and sometime fatal error. The longer a child can keep from having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be completely protected by vaccination or inoculation against any such diseases where an immunity can be produced"

Prompt diagnosis, isolation, good medical care and nursing give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the mild forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine of communicable diseases protects not only the patient, but helps prevent others from contracting the illness.

"The State Health Department," Dr Cox said, "is doing everything in its power to protect the health of the people of Texas. The cooperation of every individual in protecting his own health, and that of his community, will do more than anything else to help check the spread of communicable diseases."

State Amendment To Be Voted On In August

proposing an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of two new sections to be known as Sections 17 and 18 providing a special fund for the payment of Confederate pensions and providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning; providing for a five-cent reduction in the maximum allowable state tax on property; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto Sections 17 and 18 which shall read as follows:

Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article 3, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate hereinabove levied.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings; or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning; and the governing board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereby authorized; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Atorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"Funds raised from said Five (5c) Cents tax levy for the ten (10) year period beginning January 1, 1948, are hereby allocated to the following institutions of higher learning, and in the following proportions, to wit:

| Institution | Per Cent of Total |

| Prairie View Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas | 5.34416 |

"Not later than June 1st of the beginning year of each succeeding ten (10) year period, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, based on the average long session full-time student enrollment for the preceding five (5) year period of time, shall reallocate, to the above designated institutions of higher learning then in existence, all funds to be derived from said Five (5c) Cent ad valorem tax for said ten (10) year period; and all such designated institutions of higher learning which participate in the allocation or reallocation of such funds shall not thereafter receive any other state funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Five (5c) Cents ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of other state funds. "Section 18. For the purpose of constructing, equipping or acquiring buildings or other permanent improvements, the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or notes not to exceed a total amount of Five Million ($5,000,000.00) Dollars, and the Board of Regents of the University of Texas is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or notes not to exceed a total amount of Ten Million ($10,000,000.00) Dollars. Any bonds or notes issued hereunder shall be payable solely out of the income from the Permanent University Fund. Bonds or notes so issued shall mature serially or otherwise not more than twenty (20) years from their respective dates, and in no event later than twenty-five (25) years after the date of the adoption of this amendment. This amendment shall be self-enacting.

"Said Boards are severally authorized to pledge the whole or any part of the respective interests of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and of the University of Texas in the income from the Permanent University Fund, as such interests are now apportioned by Chapter 42 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas, for the purpose of securing the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. The Permanent University Fund may be invested in such bonds or notes.

"All bonds or notes issued pursuant hereto shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and when so approved shall be incontestable."

"Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at a special election to be held throughout the state on the fourth Saturday in August, A.D. 1947, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"For the amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Sections 17 and 18 providing for the levying of a state ad valorem tax on property in lieu of the present state ad valorem tax of Seven (7c) Cents for Confederate pensions in order to create special funds necessary for the payment of Confederate pensions and for the financing of the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning, in the amounts of Two (2c) Cents and Five (5c) Cents respectively; providing for a Five Cent reduction of the maximum allowable state tax on property, making such tax not to exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred (100.00) Dollars valuation; providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of improvements and buildings at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and The University of Texas."

"Against the amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Sections 17 and 18 providing for the levying of a state ad valorem tax on property in lieu of the present state ad valorem tax of Seven (7c) Cents for Confederate pensions in order to create special funds necessary for the payment of Confederate pensions and for the financing of the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning, in the amounts of Two (2c) Cents and Five (5c) Cents respectively; providing for a Five Cent reduction of the maximum allowable state tax on property, making such tax not to exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred (100.00) Dollars valuation; providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of improvements and buildings at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and The University of Texas."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the constitution and laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the state, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

The American Way

By George Peck
The One-eyed Man Is King

"In the kingdom of the blind, the one-eyed man is king." So goes an old and very true saying. Sometimes when we Americans begin to feel sorry for ourselves over the sad plight of the nation (our terrific national debt, the all too numerous strikes and management-labor squabbles, backbreaking taxes, etc.), we are prone to wonder if perhaps our economic system is wrong and to flirt with the idea that adopting some other system might be the solution to our problems.

Whenever such foolish ideas invade our usually practical minds, let us compare our position with that of other peoples; let us bear in mind that "In the kingdom of the blind, the one-eyed man is king." Let us take inventory of our blessings, take stock of the things we have, and then take a peek at what the other fellow has in those countries which have adopted other systems of government. Such a comparison will demonstrate just how fortunate we are and at once dissipate any thought of giving up our priceless Capitalistic or Free Enterprise System.

For instance let's compare with Russia. We Americans own 63 times as many automobiles per capita as do the Russians; 15 times as many radios; and have 37 times as many telephones. With only 7 per cent of the world's population as against Russia's 8.8 per cent, we have nearly 5 times as many miles of railroads, 3 1/2 times as much telegraph wire mileage, use 9 times as much electricity, consume 10 times as much oil, and we publish 69 times as many daily newspapers.

Even a comparison with Great Britain shows us far in the lead in our possessions. We have 5 1/2 times as many automobiles per capita, nearly twice as many radios and 31 times as many telephones.

WENATCHEE, WASH. — As "Queen of the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival," Miss Jean Marie Olson, 17, perches prettily atop a slightly oversized example of a wonderfully tasty variety, the Rome Beauty. Jean Marie attributes her beautiful complexion to a diet which includes a liberal supply of tangy Washington apples.

As to life insurance, we Americans carry 4 times as much as do the Russians, English, Japanese, Germans, French and Italians combined. Incidentally, Russia has no life insurance whatsoever.

And why do we have so many more things than do other people? Simply because the American standard of living calls for homes containing conveniences and appointments, many luxuries and semi-luxuries beyond the reach of most of the other peoples of the world.

So it would seem that America is singularly fortunate and blessed in comparison with other nations. Our aim should be to further refine and improve our Capitalistic System which has given us these boons, to the end that even more of the American people can have automobiles to drive, radios to listen to, electric gadgets to take the drudgery out of housework, and life insurance to provide real financial security. Yes, as a nation we are having our troubles, but they are trifling when compared to the woes that attend so many other peoples. Let's have our eyes wide open to the advantages we enjoy, remembering always that "IN THE KINGDOM OF THE BLIND, THE ONE-EYED MAN IS KING."

Confetti---

They have less time for the devil. What this country needs is a change of attitude, placing more emphasis on solid achievement and less emphasis on making money and extending loafing hours. More people should be thinking of careers of work instead of the least possible work to finance a career of fun.

During the past few weeks Congress has had a lot of fussing over whether to make a drastic cut in army appropriations. War department men have insisted that to cut them down would compromise the security of the country whereas the economy groups claims that army efficiency need not be impaired by the cut.

Perhaps the answer to this problem can best be approached by considering two figures. During the war the overall annual cost for each fighting man was $6,960. The proposed army budget calls for an average annual cost of $6,790 per man. And remember, the war time cost covers such items as ammunition expenditures, equipment losses, overseas shipments and other expenses that can be held to a minimum in peace time.
