"Victory Drive" Planned to Spark Parish Campaign

The silver anniversary of the Rural Electrification Administration, which falls on Wednesday of this week, is a fitting occasion for us at Muenster to take an appreciative look at the outstanding achievements realized both here and in many other areas through the help of that organization.

According to the records 97 percent of America's farms are electrified today, 43 per cent of them being served by electric utilities and the remainder by cooperatives which were established through the financial help of REA. Obviously REA has rendered a valuable service in two ways. Besides bringing electricity to more than half of the country's farm homes it has forced the privately owned companies to speed up their program of bringing current to the other farms. While there is no way of knowing how much would have been done without the competition of REA, it is reasonable to assume that the development program would have been much slower. For that rural people everywhere can be deeply grateful.

Our own area particularly has reason to give thanks. Prior to establishment of the Cooke County Electric Cooperative prospects of farm electrification here were very remote. We can say for certain that without it the coming of service would have been delayed several years. We can say with almost as much certainty that without it the service would be less extensive than today. Through the help of REA, a magnificent job has been done here.

While giving all due credit to the federal agency, however, we should not overlook the fact that our own local organization is entitled to greater credit. The high percentage of area saturation, the excellent condition of physical assets, the stability of financial structure all commend the vision and efficiency of the local organization. Local administrative and maintenance people, not the big bureau boys of Washington, are entitled to the bouquets for that job.

Seeing the record we can understand why they are less and less inclined to identify their co-op with REA. Like a business man who makes a go of his venture, they feel that success should be credited to them rather than to the banking firm which provided the original backing. After all, that was the only participation of REA in this undertaking. It furnished the money. Local people furnished the other essentials to make it click, and since they are far ahead in their schedule of payments REA has even less reason to claim a share in their success.

Cooke County Electric Co-op's value to our community can be measured in several ways. Efficiency that electricity has brought to the rural area has resulted in more prosperous farmers, better customers for the business firms of Muenster. At the same time it has helped to bring more customers to our town. It is valuable also as a local industry, with a substantial payroll that flows in great part through local business channels, with expenditures for material, supplies and services that also help the local economy. It is hardly necessary to add that financial benefits deriving from the presence of the Electric Co-op have helped much toward the civic betterment of our community.

On the anniversary of REA our thanks are most timely. We own much to it and even more to the firm which originated and prospered because of the opportunity it offered. After almost a week of feeble and apologetic pussyfooting over the Powers incident in Russia, it was satisfying to see our nation's leaders finally come forward with frank admissions and firm statements. It's unfortunate that this was not done the very first day, in time to nullify some of the effect of Khrushchev's propaganda blasts.

Unfortunately big wheels seem to have the same failing we small fry do. When caught, our first inclination is to resort to lies, so officials blundered into explanations that did not hold up. That was bad. But after a while we got around to our only logical answer. It was a spying flight. So what! Dozens of Soviets have been caught in the act of spying over here. The FBI has evidence of many many more actively engaged every day in the act of spying on us. Dozens of other cases relate

A Victory Drive is in the making as an effort to push the lagging Sacred Heart Educational Fund campaign to its $250,000 goal.

Plans for it got under way Monday night in a meeting of campaign workers when tabulations of results to date indicated that the total would likely fall short by more than $50,000.

Father Christopher Paladino explained that up to then more than 70 per cent of the money received had been donated by less than one third of the parish members. Of the 584 cards originally prepared for contacts, 517 had been turned in with total pledges of $187,719.

A study of the cards showed a discouraging percentage of generous donations. Only 191 of them, less than a third of the parish, accounted for $131,260. That group consisted of persons who pledged 60 percent or more of the amount suggested by the organizing committee.

The remaining cards, 326 in all, represented persons who gave less than 60 per cent of the suggested figure. 172 of those made total pledges of $56,459 and 154 cards were returned blank. 67 cards were still outstanding.

Persons of that division will be the special concern of the Victory Drive. Letters now being prepared by Father Christopher will urge all to assume their fair share of parish obligations by making or raising their pledges. Cards to be enclosed with the letters will enable people to pledge their additional funds without another personal contact, however more contacts are planned for those who do not respond satisfactorily.

Muenster Voters Favor Winners in Primary Election

Six hundred twenty six Muenster people went to the polls Saturday and voted mostly with the winners in the state and county Democratic primary. The north box polled 469 votes and the south box 157.

In the county races local voters favored Earl Taylor, Rafe Piper and Tony Koriath, winners for Precinct 3 commissioner, tax assessor-collector and state representative, and Gladys Strader, leader in the race for county superintendent. In the state races they favored all winners and also the two leaders in the undecided contest for judge of the Criminal Appeals Court.

As a result of the primary voters will have only two contests to decide on when they return for the run-off on June 4. Gladys Strader and Tim McPherson, who polled 2607 and 1332 respectively, will compete for the office of county superintendent. On the state ticket W. T. McDonald and Lloyd Davidson, who ran a close race, will be in the final race for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Local election results in contested races were as follows in the north and south boxes respectively.

- GOVERNOR Daniel, 324 & 104 Cox, 133 & 46
- LT. GOVERNOR Ramsey, 322 & 115 Yarborough, 112 & 30
- ATTORNEY GENERAL Wilson, 255 & 90 Carr, 142 & 41 Looney, 17 & 10

SH Among Top Ten In Stamp Contest

Good news for Sister Theresina, just before she left Friday for Jonesboro, and exciting information for her sophomore class of Sacred Heart High, was the final result of this year's cancelled stamp contest and the arrival of the prize for the school which rated among the top ten in the nationwide contest.

Sacred Heart placed seventh in the highly competitive contest with more points for that rating than it took to win second place last year.

The prize is one of the most attractive of the ten and will go into Sister Theresina's science department. Awards in the contest are hand carved and Sacred Heart's is a pair of alligators, beautifully done by master carvers of the old world.

Sister Theresina wants everyone to know how much she and her class appreciate every helpful deed during the contest and reminded everyone to start saving stamps right away for next year's contest.

While winning is gratifying, the students and their sponsor know that to be of secondary importance. This is mission work and the cancelled stamps going to a Mission Stamps Bureau, are sold to collectors to bring food, clothing and medical supplies to needy mission posts around the world.

Sacred Heart ran up a total of 8,816 points for seventh spot. Mother of Perpetual Help School in Milwaukee, Wis., was first with 12,522 points.

Blessed Events

Happy over arrival of a daughter are Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Krahl who welcomed a six pound four ounce girl at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday, May 10, at Wilson-Jones Hospital in Sherman. The new baby is a sister for David and Billy. The Joe Krahl's of Gainesville and the Ed Eberharts are the grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher of Lindsay are great-grandparents again.

Eileen, Carl and Daniel announce arrival of their baby brother, Jack Raymond. The proud parents: Mr. and Mrs. Urban Endres. Jackie weighed in at eight pounds seven ounces Thursday, May 5, at Gainesville Sanitarium, 10:23 a.m. He's a grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Werner Endres and for Mrs. A. P. Miller of Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Dieter, Jeff and Connie, announce Lee Ann, weight seven pounds six ounces upon arrival May 3 at Gainesville Sanitarium. Welcoming another grandchild are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dieter and Douglas Reiter serving as proxy sponsors for the baby's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Reno of Irvington, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haverkamp of Gainesville have announced the birth of a daughter, weight seven pounds three ounces at the Sanitarium May 2, 8:15 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Lyons of Marysville are great-grandparents again. The new arrival is the seven pound 12 ounce daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pace of Gainesville born 4:27 a.m. May 4 at the Sanitarium. She's the first grandchild for Mrs. W. C. Stiles of Gainesville.

College District Gets Approval Of County Voters

The second attempt to organize a county wide junior college district was successful. At a special election held in connection with the Democratic primary, voters approved the issue by a count 2772 to 2185, almost the same margin by which they defeated it last December.

A strong favorable vote in Gainesville's five wards piled up the margin which overcame a strong opposing vote in the rural areas. The tally in those five boxes was 2224 to 793 whereas votes in the rest of the county were 548 to 1392.

Muenster turned in a strong opposing vote, 64-348 in the north box and 14-135 in the south box. The local vote on authorizing a tax to support the college was equally decisive. The count was 58-325 in the north box and 11-119 in the south box.

County wide the vote authorizing the tax was 2407 to 2250, a considerably smaller margin than that authorizing the district.

All nominees for the college board of regents were elected. They are William Pulte, Paul Campbell, and Boyd Ware of Gainesville, Roy Lynch of Precinct 1, Willard Kemplin of Precinct 2, F. W. Fischer of Precinct 3 and Herbert Meurer of Precinct 4.

As a result of the election Gainesville College will transfer from the jurisdiction of the Gainesville school district to that of the newly created county district.

Feast day of Sister Canisia this year brought four decorated cakes, a box of chocolates, an umbrella and sundry other gifts, and a party for her and her sixth graders. The party was a courtesy from Mrs. Lambert Bezner and her seventh graders, who were Sister Canisia's students last year. They provided ice cream to go with the cake and a social hour in the school gymnasium.

Lindsay Goes Wet By Vote of 75-21

By a vote of 75-21 citizens of Lindsay at their election Tuesday approved the legalized sale of alcoholic drinks, thereby creating the second wet locality in dry Cooke County.

The issue was on legalizing alcoholic sales to the full extent permitted by Texas law, that is, package sales of beer wine and liquor and beer sales for on-premise consumption. A zoning ordinance will restrict the sales to certain parts of the town.

Wimmer is 6th in State Broad Jump

A bruised heel was too much handicap for Larry Wimmer in his efforts at the Interscholastic League state meet in Austin last week. His regional record of 22 ft. 6 5/8 in. in the broad jump would have been more than enough to win the state title, but his distance dropped to 20 ft. 8 1/2 in. and left him in a tie for sixth place. The best jump at the state meet was 21 ft. 9 in.

Clay Klement and Jim Schumacher, MHS entries in the state tennis doubles, encountered rough competition in their first match. They were blanked 6-0, 6-0 by the Turkey High team.

Swimming Pool Will Open May 22

After a paint job next week, Muenster's municipal swimming pool will open on Sunday May 22, members of the city council decided at their regular meeting last week. They also named George Petrus to take over the pool's management for another season. To date Petrus has not named his assistant.

Dates have also been set for beginners and intermediate swimming classes. Registrations will be on May 21 and classes will be given the weeks of May 23 and June 6.

Assembly to Hear Choral Concert

The Christian Brothers Choral Group of Amarillo will appear in a vocal concert before a joint assembly of the two Muenster schools in the public school auditorium Friday morning at 10:30.

The glee club, including 44 members, will present a program lasting about an hour, and permission to attend has been granted to high school and elementary students of both local schools. Admission charge will be 10 cents per pupil.

Public School elementary pupils of the first six grades and their teachers were visitors at the Muenster public library Wednesday.

Sister Theresina Leaves for Surgery

Coming as a surprise to everyone here in Muenster was the sudden need of surgery for Sister Theresina, one of Sacred Heart High School's teachers, and her leaving Friday for the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark., to undergo the operation in St. Bernard's Hospital. She had not been out of the classroom on account of illness.

Even with major surgery looming, Sister Theresina kept right on making plans for her summer abroad. She has arrangements made to leave for Switzerland on June 10 by air for three months with her relatives in that country. While packing to go to the hospital she kept planning side trips to include Rome, Lourdes and the Passion Play at Oberammergau. Greeting cards will reach Sister Theresina if addressed to St. Bernard's Hospital, Jonesboro, Ark.

Calendar of Final Week Disclosed At Both Schools

The final big week of activity for Muenster schools gets under way Sunday night when both senior classes appear in the first of their commencement exercises.

Sacred Heart High's 13 boy and 14 girl graduates will appear in a class night program in the parish hall after regular 7 o'clock services in church. Headliners at that event will be Carol Ann Hess as valedictorian and Eunice Knauf as salutatorian.

At the same time Muenster High graduates, 10 boys and 10 girls will have their baccalaureate service, starting 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Next on the commencement list is the grade school graduation of the public school Thursday night at 8 in the auditorium. Eight boys and ten girls are due to receive diplomas. Donna Tuggle will be valedictorian and Linda Fette salutatorian.

The following night at 8 the MHS seniors will have their commencement. Lynette Sickling as valedictorian and Theresa Fisher as salutatorian will head the program.

Commencement and baccalaureate will be combined for both elementary and high school graduates of Sacred Heart in the traditional church service on Sunday May 22, 7 p.m.

A four day outing at Lake Murray is this year's substitute for a senior trip at Sacred Heart High. The class left here early Thursday and will return Sunday. And next Monday is campus day at the parochial school, a holiday for both elementary and high school departments.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be final exam days at Sacred Heart. At the public school exams are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and textbooks will be checked in following each exam.

Thursday will be a holiday for students but not for teachers. Faculty members of both schools will spend the day completing their records and making out report cards.

Friday will be a quickie session at both schools as students receive report cards, empty their lockers and desks, etc. Morning busses will pick up at the usual time and return students home after about two hours.

Parochial Entries In Essay Contest Dominate Deanery

With three first places and three second places, Sacred Heart entries dominated the Sherman deanery's division in this year's Vocation essay contest sponsored by the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese.

Results were reported as follows to Sister Celine. High school boys, Roger Taylor, first; high school girls, Karen Endres, first, Betty Jean Eckart, second; grade school boys, Roy Wimmer, first, John Paul Endres, second; grade school girls, Doris Jean Fisher, second.

Papers of first place winners have been entered in the diocesan contest.

Any Suggestions? For the convenience of persons who have ideas to offer on improving the city and community, the community Progress Club has just set up two suggestion boxes, one in the bank the other in the city hall. All ideas are welcome and will be brought before the club.

John Jennings, 17, Dies Instantly in Car-Truck Crash

Tragedy struck the Jennings family of Wichita Falls, formerly of Muenster, a second blow within eight months Monday when John Jennings, 17, died in an auto-truck collision as he and a youthful companion were on their way home after school. The father, Aubrey Jennings, drowned last September.

Young Jennings was pronounced dead minutes after the impact. His 1954 Chevrolet collided with the right rear tractor wheels of a gravel dump truck at an unmarked intersection in Wichita Falls. Miss Sharon Saitta, critically injured, is in Bethania Hospital.

After the collision, Jennings' car was caught under the trailer wheels and pulled about 90 feet. He was trapped and it took rescue workers 30 minutes to free his body.

Funeral services with requiem mass were held Wednesday morning at 10:30 in Sacred Heart Church at Wichita Falls.

Msgr. Anthony E. Daly officiated at the last rites and burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery under direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home. Rosary was recited at the Funeral Home Chapel Tuesday night at 7:30.

John Jennings was born March 22, 1943, in Mineral Wells while his father was stationed there with the army. The family lived in Muenster after the war until about seven years ago when they moved to Wichita Falls. Aubrey Jennings was drowned in Lake Wichita last September as he attempted to save a boating companion's life.

Surviving are the mother, Mrs. Rita Jennings, two brothers, James and Larry; four sisters, Helen, Ann, Karen and Rose, all at home; the paternal grandfather, Joe R. Jennings of Yakima, Wash., and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. John Felderhoff of Muenster. She left immediately after word of the accident reached here Monday and a large number of relatives attended the funeral services.

THOSE SMART PURITANS

By George Peck
 Contrary to the belief that many people hold, Karl Marx did not invent Communism; he merely publicized "Marxism" in his book "Das Capital." The basic idea of communal settlements is an old one, predating Marx by many years. We have even had many of these communal "experiments" right here in Capitalist U.S.A. One of its earliest manifestations in America was the colony set up by our renowned ancestors who sailed to America on the Mayflower early in the 17th Century.

In 1620, when the Puritans debarked from the Mayflower, they set us a communistic society. Members of the colony obtained their food, drink, clothing and other necessities from a general stock. Each was given work to do according to his or her abilities. That was a perfect example of a God-respecting people attempting to operate in conjunction with an economic system under which all should work equally to produce for the use of all.

Here then was a communistic society, that unlike the Marxian philosophy recognized God Almighty as the giver of all good things.

If ever a communistic experiment could have succeeded, this of the Puritans should have been it. But how did it work out? Let Governor Bradford of that early colony tell about it. We quote from his book, "History of the Plymouth Settlement":

"The young men who were most able and fit for service objected to being forced to spend their time and strength in working for other men's wives and children without recompense.

"As for men's wives who were obliged to do service for other men, such as cooking, washing dishes, etc. they considered it a kind of slavery, and many husbands would not brook it. This feature of it would have been worse still if they had been of an inferior class.

"Let none argue that this is due to human failing, rather than to this communistic plan of life itself. I answer, seeing that all men have this failing in them, that God in his wisdom saw another plan of life fitter for them."

The colonists finally voted that each man should have his own property, each family being assigned a number of acres proportionately according to the number in the family.

Again let us quote from Governor Bradford's book: "This was very successful. It made all hands industrious."

Further on in the book he explained that this communistic experiment had disproved the erroneous theory, "that the taking away of private property and the possession of it in the community, would make a state happy and flourishing, as if they were wiser than God."

There is no question but that the avowed communists in present day America are on the defensive. We Americans have been fully alerted to the threat inherent in Communism to our safety and welfare.

But are we alive to the grave danger inherent in the creeping Socialism that is crawling over us?

Do we know that Socialism is but the twin-brother of Communism?

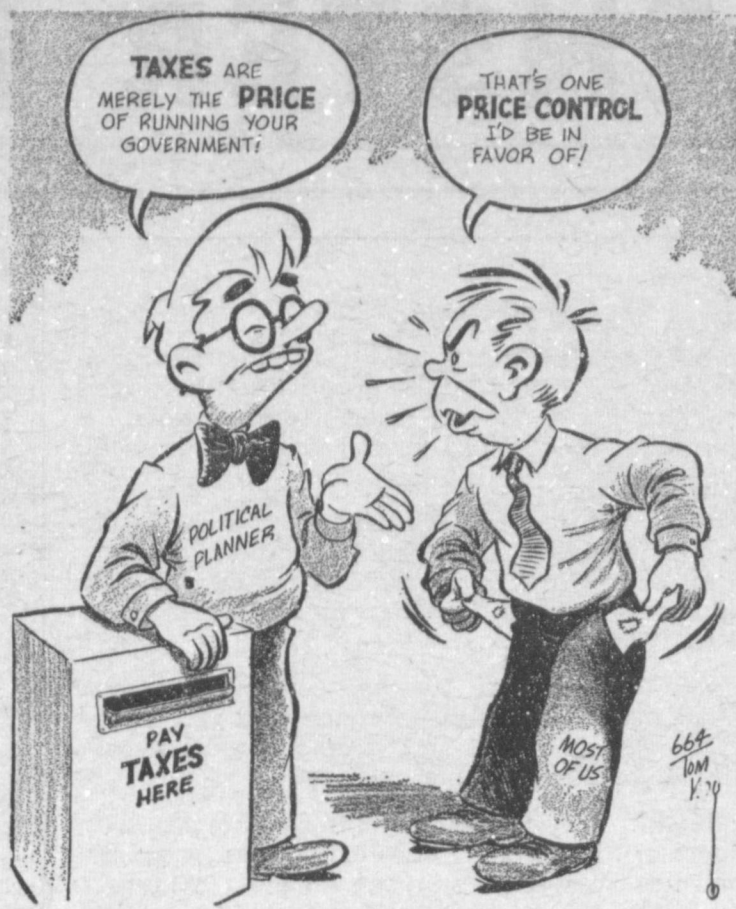

In permitting government to engage in business in competition with or to the exclusion of free enterprise for instance, are we aware that this is a long step toward Communism?

Are we cognizant of the fact that our graduated income-tax stems right out of Karl Marx's "Das Capital"?

We are holding Communism at bay at the front door, but have set up no guard at the rear door where Communism in the guise of the Welfare State is sneaking in. It is high time that we mobilize our citizenry to protect that rear entrance.

The Puritans were smart. Finding Socialism or Communism, call it what you prefer, to be a menace, rather than a blessing, they cast it overboard. Can it be that we are not as smart as they? To date it looks as though we are not.

No less an authority than Maurice H. Stans, Director of the Budget Bureau, reports that the federal government's indebtedness now approaches $750 billion. Here's how that figure is reached: National debt, $290 billion; future obligations for past services, $350 billion; commitments for future spending, $98 billion.

Speaking of Price Controls...

HOW TO TRIM GOVERNMENT FAT

(True story of one of America's big companies)
 It was having profit troubles. A tough young man from Sales was told to find the answer.

In branch after branch he found "experts" making out Reports. "For what use?" "We don't know, we send them to Headquarters." "This month give them to me instead. Those which Headquarters demands may be essential."

Half the Reports were never called for; the people compiling them were put on productive work; important sums were saved.

What if the head of every Government department had to cut his civilian staff in half tomorrow, with the remaining half put on work that really had to be done?

If the department heads were held responsible for management, probably most of the truly important work would still be accomplished.

And think of the millions you'd save.

—Warner-Swasey Ad

MAKING HEROES OUT OF HEELS

One measure of a nation's greatness, or lack of it, is its "pattern of prestige." What kind of persons does it make into its heroes? Who are its idols, who the martyrs its glorifies?

For some time it has been apparent that the heroes Americans worship have little of the stuff of stature. Unconscious wisdom recognizes it by using "cool," "terrific," or "crazy, man" for the idols who swing bats or hips, wield guns or guitars. There is no pretense to rank them with greatness or nobility. We can live with them.

But when Americans start making heroes out of heels, it's time to get worried. The rash of morbid sentimentality, excitement, and hero-worship roused by the execution of Caryl Chessman is sickening evidence of a sick society. The issue of capital punishment, so far from being clarified, was only confounded.

It used to be that men were glorified as martyrs when their virtue exceeded that of their executioners. A cross became a crown because it was founded on character.

Now, it appears, our values are reversed. Now you can be crowned if you "suffer" for a crime. Now, if you are clever, you can be idolized for moral idiocy. Now you can be hailed for having been a hellow!

Weep not for Chessman. Weep for America!

"And upon what income do you propose to support my daughter?"

"Five thousand a year."
 "Oh, I see. Then with her private income of $5,000 a—"
 "I've counted that in."

DON'T BE A DOPE!

Bureau of Public Information, New York City Police Department

A DRUG ADDICT is one of the walking-dead.

Here are just a few of the things he suffers: The teeth rot out. In some cases the partition in the nose is eaten away—breathing is difficult. Sex organs become affected. Boils and abscesses plague the skin. Gnawing pain racks the body. Nerves snap. Vicious twitching developes. Sometimes complete insanity results.

WHAT DRAGS a man into dope's grip?

For some it's just the frustration of ordinary every-day problems. These people struggle against what they feel are overwhelming odds. Seeking some escape they turn to narcotics.

FOR AN ADULT, drug usage is generally a voluntary undertaking. He decides to try a shot entirely on his own free choice.

This is not usually true of teenagers. It is easy to imagine a youngster being dared to try the stuff by his pals. Not wanting to be "chicken" he does so. He then feels he is a "man" in the eyes of his buddies. Perhaps he is proud of what he has done.

GRANTED he does know a little about the disastrous effects of dope. But he boasts that it can't happen to him. He thinks he knows when to stop—and that he can break the habit any time he wants to. But this isn't so.

The first shot wears off. Again he lusters for his new-found paradise.

He takes a second shot, then a third. Before long he is trapped in the vicious cycle of drug addiction.

AS THE BODY gets used to the drug the addict needs more and more dope to satisfy his hunger—stronger and more frequent shots. Soon it's almost impossible to recover.

And so, through a dare or an enticement, a young life is wasted with the first furtive drag on a marijuana cigarette. The habit sometimes mushrooms into a craving that even heroin can't satisfy.

IF SOMEONE dares you to take dope, be smart. Remember—dope is strictly for dopes!

Acolyte Group Has End-Of-Term Fete

Thirty altar boys of Sacred Heart Parish enjoyed their annual all-day outing in Gainesville Friday. The group comprised seventh and eighth grade acolytes.

At Leonard Park the boys played games and visited the zoo, then had a skating party at the roller rink, after that a picnic lunch on the park grounds. Next a baseball game followed by a theatre party, another game period at the park and finally refreshments at a drive-in stand.

A number of the boys' parents took the group to Gainesville for the program which was under the direction of Brother Thomas Mosier, director of parish altar boys.

The outing is an annual end-of-school fete for the boys in recognition of their faithfulness in serving mass during the year. Due to the large number of acolytes — a total of 70 — only the older group had this outing. The younger boys will have their treat as a separate event.

Mother's Day Is Highlighted by Family Reunions

Many mothers here, as elsewhere, found Mother's Day to be a family day, a time for surprises and sentiment, and in some instances a vacation from household chores by eating out.

Mrs. Lee Haverkamp received Mother Day greetings and gifts six times Sunday from her children... five of them coming from out of town with their families. Together with Mr. and Mrs. Haverkamp and Joyce were the David Forgeys and Travis Wickliffes of Dallas, the Richard Schumachers and the Leroy Wiesmanns of Gainesville and the Walter Haverkamps of Electra. Walter and his family also visited Polly's parents, the R. D. Morris; and the Wiesmanns managed to attend a family gathering of his folks in the Billy Williams home at Gainesville. It was the Wickliffes' first trip home with their baby daughter, Rhonda Kay, and she was meeting her mother's relatives for the first time.

Ann Luke came from Dallas to spend Mother's Day with her family, the Henry Lukes, and returned to St. Paul's Nursing School in the evening, leaving with the Wickliffes when they returned home.

Mother's Day was spent with father by Miss Clara Richter of Dallas who was with her dad, W. T. Richter.

Joan Roberg of Fort Worth had a weekend visit with her family.

Mothers were honorees at a noon dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wimmer Jr. where the Matt Neus of Lindsay and the C. J. Wimmers were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer and daughters came from Pilot Point to be with her mother, Mrs. Tony Gremminger.

The Ferd Yostens and children of Fort Worth divided their time between the I. A. Schoechs and the Frank Yostens.

Sister Celire joined her family at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. M. Trubenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yosten and Bobby and Judy left Muenster and went to Celina for a family gathering in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tischler, honoring Mrs. Tischler who enjoyed the day's celebration from her wheel chair. She's recovering from earlier illness that kept her in bed for three weeks.

At the Victor Hartman home Mrs. Hartman received a round of greetings and gifts with all the children and grandchildren coming to deliver them in person and staying for a reunion. Those present included the Keith Tompkins family of Fort Worth, the Teddy Gremmingers and children of Garland, the Walter Wolfs and children of Gainesville, Gene Hartman of Denton, the Alvin Hartmans and children, the Willard Hartmans, and Della and Patsy Hartman. Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins and children also went to Ringgold for a Mother Day visit with his parents and the Teddy Gremmingers joined other family members for a gathering in the home of his parents, the Ted Gremmingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ Linn had a complete family gathering in their home for Mother's Day, most of the visitors present for the weekend and spending their spare time fishing. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Minto and daughter of Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and son of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Linn and son of Gainesville and Jack Linn and Peck Hemphill.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid entertained with a noon dinner for their mothers, Mrs. William Bierschenk of Valley View and Mrs. Henry Henscheid. Other guests were Mr. Henscheid, Dennis Bierschenk and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bierschenk of Valley View, Bobby Bierschenk of Wichita Falls and Alma Haverkamp of Lindsay.

Windthorst Hosts Catholic League District Meeting

Delegates and visitors from parishes of the North Texas District of the Catholic State League joined Windthorst residents Sunday, May 1, in attending the spring meeting of the organization with St. Mary's Parish as host.

In the annual election during the business session, Windthorst parishioners were named to fill district offices for the coming year. They are Ernest Hoff, president, Andrew Roewe, secretary-treasurer, and Robert Wolf, Rural Life chairman by re-election.

Principal address of the afternoon was given by Rev. William Lane of Gainesville who alerted his audience to the evils of communism and the tactics of communists while he urged his listeners to keep informed by reading the Catholic press and to exercise their rights as citizens by going to the polls and voting.

In the presentation of rural life awards to students in the essay contest, Jimmy Flusche of Lindsay received the top award in the senior division and will represent the district in the state convention this summer.

After the opening prayer and a welcome message from their pastor, Rev. Cyril Lange, society presidents of the host-parish extended their welcome.

Leonard Bengfort of Lindsay, retiring president, conducted the meeting. Parish reports were presented including Muenster's given by Mrs. Fred Knabe for the St. Anne's Society and by Fred Knabe for St. Joseph's Society.

Entertainment was a play by members of the Windthorst Catholic Youth Council. The meeting was held in the school auditorium and after adjournment Father Cyril officiated at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Mary's Church. From there the assemblage moved to the Knights of Columbus Hall for supper followed by a dance.

Attending from Muenster were Father Martin Fischer, Al Hess, retiring district secretary, J. W. Hess, Frank Bayer, Ray Vogel, Joe Mages, Messrs. and Mmes. Herbert McDaniel, Dennis Hofbauer and Fred Knabe and Mrs. Victor Hartman.

Lindsay's delegation included Leonard Bengfort, Wilbert Block, and Mmes. Mike Dieter, Bill Eberhart, Bill Flusche, Adolph Fuhrmann and Martin Friske.

Among winners in the Rural Life essay contest three are from Muenster: John Paul Endres and Patsy Zimmerer in the junior division and Alvin Hacker in the senior division. Other Lindsay winners are Tommy Zimmerer and Bernadette Bezner, junior group, and Dorothy Bengfort, senior class.

Birthday Included in Family Reunion On Mother's Day

A birthday was observed in connection with a Mother's Day celebration for the Joe Vogel family. Honored in addition to mothers at a reunion in Gainesville Park was Brenda Beyer, six-year-old of the Robert Beyers of Lindsay.

Brenda celebrated early while the family was together. Her birthday is May 13. A decorated and candle topped cake with other refreshments was a special treat for the children at the gathering after they played games and visited the zoo.

At noon the group spread a picnic dinner. Together for the double celebration were the Joe Vogels and family from here, the Clifford Ottos and children of Gainesville, the Robert Beyers and family of Lindsay, Misses Lillian and Corina Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stauss, all of Fort Worth.

NOTES FROM CITY LIBRARY

"A Multitude of Sins" by Robert Molloy, available at Muenster City Library, is the story of members of the Gerard family—Julia, Josephine and Aureore and their children. It centers around the attempt of Julia and Josephine to bring their ailing cousin Aureore back to the Church. The twisted stories from relatively good intentions caused the family members to turn against each other and almost ruined the business of one of them.

With the death of Aureore the family straightened its erring ways. However one must read the book to arrive at a conclusion as to whether Aureore repented of her multitude of sins.

Other novels by Robert Molloy are "Pride's Way," "Uneasy Spring," "The Best of Intentions," and "Pound Foolish."

Joint Session Ends 4-H Girls' Season

Sacred Heart senior and intermediate 4-H club girls ended the current school term with a joint meeting for May. The program was brought by Yvonne Jenkins, assistant home demonstration agent, who spoke on "Nutritious Breakfasts" and demonstrated the correct way to fry an egg to retain flavor, color and shape. She then distributed pamphlets concerning eggs.

Mrs. Jenkins congratulated winners in the recent district contests and announced the county camp set for July 11-13.

Carol Henscheid and Helen Fleitman were selected to help plan a program for Rural Life Sunday, or Stewardship Sunday, May 22.

Patsy Endres, president, presided for the business session and Reporter Charlotte Wolf counted 42 members present.

The meeting closed with a sing-song led by song leaders Carol Henscheid, Janice Vogel, Mary Knabe and Flora Mae Sims.

Colette Hellman Honoree at Party

Miss Colette Hellman, bride elect of Jimmy Biffle, was the honoree at a tea given in Myra at the home of Mrs. Charlie Randall with Mrs. Ray Hudson, Aubrey Williams and Fred McTaggart as co-hostesses.

Receiving the numerous friends who called were Mrs. Randall, the honoree, her mother Mrs. Arthur Hellman and mother of the future groom, Mrs. Jack Biffle. Mrs. H. C. Stump presided at the guest register.

Colette received a corsage and a gift of crystal from the hostesses.

The home was decorated with seasonal flowers in the bride's chosen colors of blue and yellow. Pictures of the pair were displayed on the mantle.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served from a lace-covered table featuring iris with yellow tapers.

Among guests were the honoree's grandmothers, Mrs. G. H. Hellman and Mrs. J. H. Otto, her sisters Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel and Mrs. John Aytes and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Glenn Hellman.

Miss Hellman will become Mrs. Jimmy Biffle in a wedding ceremony here in Sacred Heart Church Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

23 in Communion Class at Lindsay

At Lindsay Sunday, a class of 23 boys and girls received their First Communion at the 7 a.m. mass in St. Peter's Church. Father Alcuin Kubis officiated and directed a part of his sermon to the communicants while he directed another part to mothers as a tribute on their day. St. Peter's held a capacity crowd.

It was an inspiring and beautiful service in which parents joined their children in the procession into church, mothers with the girls and fathers with the boys, and accompanied them into the sanctuary, receiving Communion with them at the foot of the altar. Here also, before the rose-decked and candle-lighted altar, the little ones repeated their baptismal vows. After mass, Father Alcuin enrolled them in the scapular association.

In many homes, after the morning service, communicants, mothers, grandmothers and godparents shared honors at breakfast, brunch or dinner and joined in family gatherings.

First Communicants are Cathy Arendt, Sammy Bezner, Chuck Bezner, Glenn Beyer, Richard Hundt, Herman Hellinger, Joyce Hellinger, Tommy Eberhart, Jimmy Geray, Jimmy Fuhrmann, David Bengfort, Ramona Schmitz, Patty Metzler, Dolores Laux, Dolores Fleitman, Janie Zimmerer, Lucille Bengfort, Anthony Felderhoff, Wayne Luttmer, Mary Jean Schad, Mike Fuhrmann, David Fuhrmann, Marilyn Stoffels.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schmidkofer was the scene of a family dinner party Sunday honoring their mothers, Mrs. Tony Voth and Mrs. John C. Schmidkofer. Both were accompanied by their husbands and families. Other guests were Margie Walterscheid and Ludwig Kieninger of Muenster.

Jimmy Fuhrmann, member of Lindsay's First Communion class Sunday, was honoree at a dinner party, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Diamond Fuhrmann entertaining in their home. Other guests were Jimmy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Block, also Eugene and Patty Block, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuntz and Mark of Valley View and Ronnie Hess of Muenster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herr of Muenster were special guests at breakfast and dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bengfort Sunday, marking First Communion day of the Herrs' granddaughter and godchild, Lucille Bengfort.

The telephone rang four times with Mother Day greetings for Mrs. Martin Friske . . . the longest-distance conversation being with her son, Naval Airman Jere Friske stationed in Manila, P. I. The other calls came from the Glenn Catheys in Norwalk, Calif., the Ray Luebs of Oklahoma City, and the Barney Sandmanns of Dallas. Mr. Friske also joined in to talk with his children. For Sunday dinner the Friskes were guests of their other daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman in Muenster.

Mary Jean Schad and her grandmothers, Mrs. Sophie Schad, shared honors Sunday at a dinner party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schad as they entertained to observe their daughter's First Communion and Mother's Day. Other special guests were Mary Jean's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Steng of Muenster who attended with their children, Patsy and John Henry.

Surprises Sunday Greet Mrs. Lyons

Surprises greeted Mrs. B. G. Lyons on Mother's Day while she and Mr. Lyons were visitors with their daughter, Mrs. W. C. Stiles at Gainesville, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Eastin came over to take her mother and her grandparents to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pace and daughter, where there was a shower of gifts, including pot plants and cut flowers, from Mrs. Lyons' children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. An added joy was a daughter's telephone visit — Mrs. Vivian Maupin called from San Antonio.

Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Richey were his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Dennis and daughter Judy of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richey and children Judy and Johnny of Sivelis Bend.

MARYSVILLE — Mrs. O. E. Wade of Wilson, Okla., is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Nellie Kelley.

Mrs. Charles Davidson and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Seigmund at Walnut Bend Sunday and also visited with her brother David at Gainesville Sanitarium where he was recovering from cuts resulting from an accident Thursday morning. Fifteen-year-old David was injured when a barrel he was cutting at school, using a torch, exploded. The exploding barrel hit him in the face.

incidents of Soviet submarines spying on our shore and naval activities. Yes, this was spying, an unpleasant activity that is made necessary by Russia's much more extensive spying on us. But we're not ashamed nor apologetic. Our only regret is the failure of a mission and the possible consequence to the flyer who was caught.

Instead of worrying about the propaganda advantage this incident gives the big red windbag at the summit meeting, we ought to consider the possibility of turning it to our advantage. We have a feeling that Ike and companions will go to Paris well loaded with data on the subject. With the arsenal of rebuttals at their disposal they could reduce Mr. K's propaganda blast to the effectiveness of a cap pistol. Perhaps the incident will turn out to be just what was needed to raise Ike's dander for the big pow: wow. We hope he has been sufficiently irked to take the initiative and inform the bully boy that his bluffing has lost its effect. And why not? It's high time any way that the Kremlin mob was told that decent people have a belly full of its double standard of co-existence and its world wide network of treachery. We sincerely hope that Western powers will have the spunk to make and stand by demands in behalf of human dignity and freedom . . . and give communism a long over-due setback.
