Bishop Stresses Need of Religion In Modern School

"You Too," said Ambassador Lodge at Tuesday's UN gripe session in reply to the Soviet complaint about the U-2 plane incident. And he ably backed up that retort by listing case histories of several Soviet agents who had been caught spying over here. His argument left no room for doubt in any reasonable mind that the Reds are more guilty than anyone else of the spying charge which they leveled at the United States.

Lodge did a fine job of exposing their sanctimonious hypocrisy and enhanced his impact by following up with a candid "so what?" attitude. After all, what should any prudent nation do when it finds a potential enemy probing for our secrets while constantly boasting of its ability to annihilate us at any desired time? The answer is obvious. In the interest of security we ought to seek all possible information on our enemy's ability and preparation to carry out his threats. That's common sense. And it reduces the Russian gripe to absurdity.

Judging by all the facts at hand, America should be the easy winner in that UN tussle . . . just as it was an easy winner, by Khrushchev's default, in the summit conference. Mr. K took his only possible escape there and trusted in his rude and vulgar outburst to gain some advantage that was not possible through reason. He knew he would lose in an orderly conference, so he torpedoed the whole thing.

Realizing these facts it is hard to understand how some of our self seeking politicians can, in effect, join the Russian propagandists and criticize the administration for its bungling. As regards the mission itself and the reasons for it there was no bungling. We were carrying on a necessary intelligence mission, like so many others of the previous four years. It was a mechanical failure and not an official boner which caused the trouble. Had the oxygen system functioned properly Powers would have been cruising at twice his altitude and easily out of range of Russian guns.

The attempt to claim that it was a harmless weather observation flight was a boner but that was corrected shortly afterward when officials candidly admitted it was a spying mission. Another mistake, in our opinion, was Eisenhower's assurance that the flights have been discontinued. Doing that could be construed as an admission of guilt, whereas he had every right to say that, in view of Russia's behavior, the flights are not only justified but will be continued whenever we see fit. Still, we can see why the President, in his anxiety to clear the atmosphere for the summit meeting, was willing to make that concession.

If those are the blunders the Washington critics are belly-aching about, they are out of line. If the criticism refers to our supposed blunder in sending planes on spying missions, it is even more out of line. Now especially, when a rare and decisive propaganda victory is within our country's grasp, it is inexcusable to strengthen the enemy's case by criticizing our government's action, and the politicians who seek to make campaign material of it deserve nothing but public contempt.

A fascinating political day-dream in a recent issue of Human Events presents an election hassle that could possibly result in the defeat of both major party candidates and the selection of a Southerner as our next president.

Behind this amazing possibility is the fact that six Southern states, one by one, have freed their Electoral-College delegates from all moral obligation to vote for any predetermined party nominee. As a consequence these states, barring a sweep by either the Republicans or the Liberal Democrats, may have the balance of power when the Electoral College meets to elect the new president.

Those six states are Louisiana, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina, with a total of 57 electoral votes in their control.

Assuming then that neither party can poll a majority of electoral votes in states that are obliged to stand by the party nominee, it is reasonable to assume that the Southern bloc, which has been booted around these many years by

Man's need of a complete education, including religion with the traditional 3 R's, was emphasized by Bishop Thomas Gorman in his commencement address to Muenster's parochial school graduates in Sacred Heart Church Sunday night.

He also said that it is not sufficient to study religion as just another separate subject, but rather that it should be blended in as an ingredient of a well rounded education. It is inherent in proper training just as relationship to God is inherent in men's nature.

More general acceptance of this fact is shown by increasing numbers of parochial schools among other denominations. Other religious leaders are finding, he said, that today's so called religious neutralism is actually drifting to anti religion. There are schools which forbid support of any denominational doctrine but allow the teaching of atheism.

Bishop Gorman also presented diplomas to the 27 high school graduates and 41 grade school graduates and special awards as Father Christopher Paladino made the introductions.

The Special awards were presented as follows. Carol Ann Hess, University of Dallas scholarship; Raymond Wimmer, third place in elementary boys division of diocesan essay contest; Karen Stormer and Jerry Mosman, grade school achievement awards; Clinton Endres and Cyril Yosten, Grand Knight of the Altar awards for serving 1000 masses; Wayne Trachta Knight of the Altar award for serving 800 masses.

The combined commencement of the two parochial school departments opened with a professional of the graduates, clergy, acolytes, and Fourth Degree KC's as an honor guard for the bishop. Next Father Bruno Fuhrmann was celebrant at the regular Sunday evening mass. Then Bishop Gorman gave the commencement sermon, presented diplomas and awards and officiated as the program closed with Sacramental Benediction and the recessional.

Gertie's Gift Shop and Bakery had a big opening day Saturday with some 300 visitors registering.

In the drawing for prizes from registrations the lamp went to Mrs. Jack Neislar of Rosston, the Madonna planter to Mrs. Emmet Fette, the decanter to Jo Ann Fisher, the cake to Mrs. Ray Wilde and the five pounds of homemade cookies to Sister Grace.

Visitors were served coffee and cookies throughout the day.

Assisting Mrs. Al Horn, owner of the business, with hostess duties were Mmes. Martin Trubenbach, Tony Wimmer and Herman Stoffels and Misses Della Wimmer, Gerry Trubenbach and Della Hartman.

The shop's natural attractiveness in its new building 404 N. Main Street was enhanced by some 18 floral tributes from friends of Mr. and Mrs. Horn and from local business houses.

Bruns Makes Last Call for Transfers

With the deadline for school transfers only a few days away, Superintendent L. B. Bruns this week makes an eleventh hour appeal to parents of the children concerned. If their application has not been completed he said, parents should contact him at once so that he can help fill out the application form and submit it before the end of the month.

This applies to all students who expect to attend school in the Muenster district but live outside the district.

Bruns emphasized the importance of a transfer, explaining that it authorizes the transfer of state per capita funds to the district in which the student is taught.

About 100 Report For Pool Opening

About 100 persons, mostly kiddies, braved the early season chill and reported for the opening of the city swimming pool Sunday.

The pool, with George Petrus as manager and Billy Frank Richter as assistant, will be open every day except Monday. Starting time is 2 p.m. and it will remain open until 9, unless slim attendance at times should justify closing earlier.

52 For First Grade

Fifty-two little boys and girls who will be first graders at Sacred Heart School when the fall term opens were signed up for classes in an early registration conducted by Sister Grace. This compares favorably with last year's preschool registration of 55. This year each child went home with a blank to be filled out and brought to school on opening day. Required fill-ins include physical checkup and a record of immunizations.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Ben Luke entered Majors Clinic in Nocona Wednesday morning for treatment and observation.

Mrs. Joe Otto is making normal recovery from a major operation performed at M&S Hospital but her doctor hasn't said when she will be permitted to return home.

Carol Fette may not need surgery on her broken right arm, at least that is the opinion expressed by her doctor at Methodist Hospital in Dallas. After being in traction a week the arm was put in a cast Monday in the hope that the bones will knit normally without an operation. She may be dismissed this weekend. With her Monday when the arm was put in the cast were her mother, Mrs. Kate Reynolds and her aunt Faye Fette.

C. J. Kaiser is back at home, out and around, following his dismissal from St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth where he had a gall stone operation May 11. Mrs. Kaiser and children drove to Fort Worth Sunday to bring him home.

Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday after five days of medical care and is ready to join the family in celebrating the 60th wedding anniversary the children are planning for her and her husband Saturday.

Mims Lewis expects to be dismissed from Major Clinic in Nocona this weekend after two weeks of treatment and observation for complications following surgery the middle of April.

Mrs. Eddie Krahl and infant daughter Janet Marie have been dismissed from Wilson-Jones Hospital in Sherman.

Hike, Cookout and Business Meeting Occupy Boy Scouts

A cookout with tests for merit badges Sunday and a business meeting Monday with plans for the summer arranged were on the schedule of Boy Scout activities this week.

The boys called it a "bike hike" Sunday when they pedaled to and from the Ben Voth Lake site for their cookout. They were taking first and second class cooking tests. Scoutmaster Nick Miller accompanied them — he went by car — and graded their cooking which provided the noon meal. He also gave a talk in connection with Scouting.

At Monday night's meeting a new summer program was set up for the coming three months. The schedule will provide one hike and one meeting each month, probably a joint event, and one out-door night preferably swimming, on the last Monday of each month.

In other business Monday night the boys elected patrol leaders and assistants. Patrol I is headed by Tommy Fuhrmann assisted by Tommy Lee Swirczynski. Charles Sicking is leader of Patrol II by re-election and his assistant is Virgil Swirczynski. Ricky Endres leads Patrol III by re-election, assisted by Willie Wimmer. And Joe Hartman was re-elected leader of Patrol IV with Ricky Stewart named as his assistant.

Scoutmaster Miller appointed Roy Hartman as the new senior patrol leader and Robert Fisher is the new scribe.

Four of Muenster's Benedictine Sisters left Wednesday for the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark., and five are packing to leave Saturday. The Wednesday group consisted of Sisters Gebharda, Frances, Aloysia and Gabriel. Saturday's group will be Sisters Grace, Leonarda, Henrietta, Brenda and Genevieve. Five of the nuns will be here for a part of the summer. They are Sisters Celine, Agnes, Canisia, Anna and Josephine.

A change in ownership and management of the City Beer Bar became effective last week as Wesley Landsfeld sold his interest to Arnold Muller. George Gehrig is the other partner.

Sister Agatha Knauf is spending this week in Muenster with family members before going to the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark. for the summer. She is at Rhineland during the school term.

High Aim, Stout Effort, Urged at MHS Graduation

A high aim and use of their full capability were recommended to graduates of Muenster High School at their commencement service last Friday night as they took a look at the years ahead.

Speaking on "The Opportunity", Dr. J. R. Hamilton of East Texas State College, offered a number of tips which can be helpful in converting opportunity to success, and especially the inner satisfaction of living happy and useful lives.

Other rewarding factors urged by Dr. Hamilton in pursuit of a happy life are high moral standards, good citizenship, a cheerful attitude, serious thinking and physical fitness. All are important, he said, and all fit together to help enrich a person's life.

Two other commencement speakers were Valedictorian Lynette Sicking and Salutatorian Therese Fisher. Their subjects were "The Challenge" and "The Heritage."

Miss Glenna Kay Aytes sang the "Ave Maria", Father Bruno Fuhrmann gave the invocation and benediction, Miss Bettye Dodds played for the professional and recessional.

The twenty graduates received their diplomas from Charley Hellman, president of the school board, as Superintendent L. B. Bruns made the introductions.

Awards were presented as follows by Principal Glenn Hellman. Lynette Sicking, valedictory award and two college scholarships; Theresa Fisher, salutatory award, most athletic, and college scholarship; James Whitt, mechanical drawing; Donald Flusche, shop; Mark Hellman, agriculture and best all-around boy; Jeanette Walterscheid, best all-around girl; Johnny Reiter, history; Judy Lutkenhaus, homemaking; David Yosten, math; Phyllis Cler, English and shorthand; Carol Sicking, concert band; Jeanette Hacker, most studious; Doug Hellman, most athletic; Lloyd Klement, science, bookkeeping and college scholarship; Sandra Wolf, highest freshman; Joan Fisher, highest sophomore, David Yosten, highest junior.

After commencement graduates and guests went to the gymnasium for a short reception. Graduates formed a receiving line and mothers served punch and cookies.

Reception Ritual By CDA Court Adds 22 to Membership

Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America, annexed 22 new members Sunday in a formal reception ceremony conducted by a degree team from Court Mary Immaculate of Dallas. About 80 women were present for the program in the K of C Hall.

The initiation was conducted in the presence of Mrs. Gladys Polansky of Dallas, district deputy, who later presided for the formal installation of local officers elected last month.

Father Bruno Fuhrmann was present and spoke on the court's motto, "Unity and Charity."

Between the reception and installation there was a social period with refreshments of punch and coffee, cake squares, sandwiches and snacks. Decorations and refreshments stressed the court's colors of purple and gold with accents of white and green.

In addition to the afternoon ritual which began at 2 and ended at 5:30, the court and candidates attended the 7:30 a.m. mass in Sacred Heart Church and received Communion in a body.

Initiated Sunday and bringing membership in the organization to 83 were Mmes. W. H. Blake, L. B. Bruns, Kenneth Dobs, Al and Henry Felderhoff, Emmet Fette, Clyde Fisher, Alvin Fuhrmann, Richard Grewing Rufus Henscheid, John Herr, Gerald Hess, Rody Klement, Joe Mosler, Andy O'Connor, Earle Otto, Al Schmitt, Eugene Schmitz, Cecil Sims, Tony Trubenbach Jr., Ray Wilde and Bernard Wolf. Another candidate was in the reception ceremony, Mrs. May Wilson who joined for her court in Dallas.

Six members of the Denison CDA court were here for the program: Mrs. Joe Schnitker, Mrs. Joe Schnitker Jr., Mrs. Leonard Derichsweiler, Mrs. Margaret Standiford, Mrs. Wally Stansbury and Mrs. Glenn Snyder.

The next regular meeting of the local court will be June 10.

Weekend Revival At Baptist Church

Rev. Virgil Cowgur, pastor of Muenster's First Baptist Church, has announced a weekend revival with services at 8 o'clock Friday and Saturday nights and at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday.

Rev. H. L. Bullard of Gainesville will bring the evangelistic messages and everyone is welcome to attend.

VFW Auxiliary Sponsors Sale of Buddy Poppies

The community's annual Buddy Poppy sale sponsored by Muenster VFW Auxiliary is in progress all this week and will be ended during the weekend with solicitations by members and their daughters.

Mrs. Arthur Bayer, Auxiliary president said that containers are in business houses during the week for people to pick up poppies and leave their donations. On Saturday daughters will be seeing people in an active selling campaign, and Sunday members will do the same at Sacred Heart Church following the four masses.

Proceeds of the Buddy Poppy sales go toward two worthy causes. Disabled veterans realize an income from selling to the local Auxiliary unit, and profits made by the local organization are used to help handicapped children of local veterans and their families. If any money is left over at the end of the year it goes into the fund for the annual kiddies' Christmas party.

To avoid conflict with the poppy sale Muenster's semi-annual Sacred Heart cemetery fund collection, usually taken up the last Sunday of May, has been postponed to June 12.

Sloan Addresses 8th Grade Grads At Public School

Three guiding stars were set before elementary graduates of the Muenster Public School Thursday night to give them direction along the way of life.

In keeping with the solemn atmosphere of the candle-light ceremony, Mike Sloan, manager of Cooke County Electric Co-op, gave a commencement talk urging the young grads to set their course by the stars of religion, service and happiness.

Religion, he said, will preserve a proper regard for spiritual and moral values. Service is the fulfillment of man's reason for existence, the real measure of his success and the most worthy motive in his quest for knowledge and skill. Happiness is not to be sought as a goal in itself but rather as a reward to be enjoyed from following the other two stars.

Other speakers on the program were Donna Tuggle in the valedictory, Linda Fette in the salutatory, Sandra Cain in the class history and Dolores Monday in the class prophecy. Nancy Rathburn and Sandra Cain gave vocal solos.

Diplomas were presented by School Board President Charley Hellman as Weldon Halland introduced the graduates. Then Holland presented the class to Superintendent L. B. Bruns as a symbol of their promotion to high school. Bruns urged the group to set sights for the completion of both high school and college.

After the ceremony the grads and their parents had refreshments and a party in the library.

Life Saving Class Offered for Adults

An adult class in life saving will be taught this summer at the Muenster swimming pool if enough interest is shown.

George Petrus, manager of the pool, said it will not be a Red Cross course and no certificates are offered for attending it. This is intended only to teach some fundamentals of water safety and also show how to help a person having trouble in the water. The big reason for it, he said, is to prepare people better for possible emergencies on a lake.

Interested persons are asked to contact Petrus.

Mrs. Steve Mosler will be in Austin this weekend attending the state convention of Catholic Daughters of America. This is the convention marking the fiftieth anniversary of CDA in Texas. Mrs. Mosler is grand regent of the local court.

VFW to Conduct Memorial Service Sunday Morning

Muenster's war dead will be remembered Sunday in traditional memorial services consisting of both religious and military rites. The ceremony is conducted annually by the local VFW and Auxiliary in cooperation with pastors of Sacred Heart Church.

According to a program outlined by the VFW Post, the service will begin immediately after the 10:30 mass in Sacred Heart Church with formation of a procession. Rosary will be recited on the march to the cemetery.

The first stop at the cemetery will be at the crucifixion group for prayers remembering all deceased members of the parish. Then the procession will move to the service men's graves, where ceremonies will consist of lowering the flag to half mast, placing flowers on graves, prayers, an address, a three volley salute by the rifle squad and taps.

Military services will be conducted by a special detail of VFW members in uniform and under direction of Arthur Bayer. There will be a six-man rifle squad, two color bearers and 2 color guards. Father Christopher Paladino will conduct religious service and give the address.

Chill and Measles Blamed for Small Swimming Class

Cool weather and measles cut the enrollment of this year's swimming class at the Muenster pool to about a fourth of that in last year's class.

Seventy pupils are signed up in the smallest class since the course was started five years ago, whereas last year's had a record high of 271.

Because of the limited number the time schedule has been cut in half. There were only two instruction days this week, on Monday and Wednesday, and there will be three for the second week of instruction, which begins on June 6.

The current epidemic of measles is the big reason for the small enrollment. Some children are infected now and some have recovered so recently that swimming is still not advisable. Chilly weather and danger of catching measles has also discouraged some.

The classes, as usual, are being conducted in accordance with Red Cross regulations, and children who complete them will receive Red Cross buttons.

Pool Manager George Petrus and his assistant, Billy Richter, are in charge of the course. Assisting them are Jane Endres, Karen Endres, Joan Fisher, Carolyn Swirczynski, Patsy Endres, Dianne Hellman, Carol Wimmer, Alice Walter, Sharon Schumacher and Paulette Walterscheid.

Regents Organize For Administration Of County College

The newly authorized Cooke County College District began taking shape Tuesday night as the Board of Regents held its first meeting, took its oath of office and set up its organization. County Judge Shelby Fletcher administered the oath to the seven members of the board.

F. W. Fischer of Era was elected to head the group as president, Paul Campbell of Gainesville was named vice-president and Herbert Meurer of Muenster secretary.

Board members also decided on six year terms of office with elections to be held every two years and assigned the starting terms as follows. Paul Campbell and Boyd Ware, 2 years; Willard Kemplin and William Pulte, 4 years; F. W. Fischer, Herbert Meurer and Roy Lynch, 6 years.

John H. Parker, dean of Gainesville College for the past ten years, was appointed to continue as dean under the new organization.

The rest of their business session was taken up with details of transferring administration of the college from the Gainesville School District to the College District.

NO RELIGIOUS ISSUE?

When Kennedy won so decisively in West Virginia, the "Religious Issue" was supposedly put on ice, where many said it should have been from the first. I submit that the real religious issue hasn't even been faced!

Somehow we have confused a candidate's religion with his church. Saying he is Congregational, Catholic, Presbyterian, Quaker, or Whatnot tells us very little any more. A sad fact of our time is that a man's church does NOT mean enough to make a difference. Yet his RELIGION, or lack of it, can make all the difference in the world, as witness Nikita Khrushchev. The most important thing to know about any man is the state of his religion! Not what church he belongs to, but what god he serves!

Does he believe force can do the works of love? How much respect has he for the rights, the dignity, the freedom of individuals? How much integrity, how much loyalty to his country's ideals, how much stability of character? Most of all, what does he believe about the relation between God and Caesar? Has Caesar perhaps become his god?

These are questions we don't even ask! These are questions that are not answered by the name of a man's church. Yet these are the questions upon whose answers the destiny of our nation depends!

The Liar and the Hypocrite
 (Dallas News)

Premier Khrushchev made this unusual statement to Paris reporters with respect to spying the U-2 and subsequent incidents: "As God is my witness, my hands are clean and my soul is pure."

It shows what a liar he is, what a hypocrite he is and how insincere and double dealing he is. Communists don't recognize God — and even the lowest among us know his hands and soul are far from pure and clean. Remember Budapest!

His last-minute slap at President Eisenhower, withdrawing the invitation to our chief executive to Moscow, should be eternally convincing that no Communist wants to get along in this world with a competing nation or ideology.

It is heartening that congressional leaders in Washington reacted to the support of the American President. This is a crisis but only another in a series deliberately instigated since 1946 by the godless barbarians in the Kremlin driving toward total Communist conquest of the world or destruction of that world.

The President, as usual, has met Mr. K's snub and diplomatic dynamite with his usual decorum and firmness. His good faith not only with respect to the Big Four meeting but with every other crisis has been demonstrated.

In view of Russia's broken agreements (50 out of 52) since 1947, he had ample reason not to sit down with any Communist. But this is a cold war. It is a word war, a propaganda war. If there is a chance to avert a shooting war by negotiating — even if the odds are against concrete results — we must do our best.

It is plain that Mr. K has not done his best; on the contrary his whole regime, and that of his predecessors, has worsened prospects of a peaceful climate.

To a Communist, there can be no peace — except on Communist terms.

Even if those terms were acceptable to decent, freedom-loving peoples, there could be no assurance of Russia abiding by them. Their technique is to keep the brew boiling in the pot. The deluded souls in this country, including those misguided intellectuals who complain we don't have "intelligent guidance," should be convinced that fruitful negotiation is impossible with a godless Communist regime which uses the lie and the double cross with brutal recklessness.

POLITICAL PAYOLA

We've all heard about "payola" — a device where, according to the revelations of a Congressional investigating body, disc jockeys obtained large sums of money along with valuable gifts from record companies in return for plugging the product. This, coming on the heels of the TV quiz-show scandals, has left a bad taste in the mouths of millions of Americans.

But there's another form of "payola" that is far more important. Congressman Halleck deserves the credit for calling attention to it. He describes the avalanche of proposed multi-billion dollar spending bills as "political payola." In his words, they "simply hand out the taxpayer's money to buy votes for the next election."

If the "political payola" groups have their way, there won't be a budget surplus. In all probability, there'll be a deficit instead. Then we'll have more inflation — and, ultimately, still more and higher taxes. How does that prospect strike you?

TAXES AND THE "LITTLE FELLOW"

There's one fact about taxation which can't be repeated too often: The great bulk of the tax burden is not borne by the rich, but by people of very modest means.

Economic Intelligence tells what happened in a recent year. Total federal individual income taxes came to just under $30 billion. Of this, more than 85 per cent was accounted for by the lowest tax bracket of 20 per cent. Less than 15 per cent came from the higher brackets which reach a 91 per cent top.

Putting it another way, if the per capita exemption in that year had been $800 instead of $600, government revenue would have been reduced by a whopping $5 billion, or about 17 per cent. It's the "little fellow," in the aggregate, who is important to the Treasury.

The point is, of course, that there aren't enough rich, and not enough big incomes, to make more than a small dent in the tax burden. It must primarily be borne by families of modest means, simply because there are so many of them. And it is these families which have the most to gain from tax reforms.

The Fatal Consequence

The American farmer produces enough, on drastically limited acreage, for himself and 20 others. The Russian farmer, under the proddings of his government overseers, produces only enough for himself and four others. The American farmer deserves great credit for his remarkable production records.

But much credit also belongs to industry — to free, competitive, profit-making companies vying with each other to produce the most efficient machinery, equipment and chemicals. American manufacturers of farm supplies work in close cooperation with farmers to get new ideas, to learn the farmers' real needs, to learn what will sell at a profit. In Russia the bureaucrats make those decisions. Neither farmers nor mechanics have much influence on the kind of farm supplies and equipment pro-

ARE CHILDREN PAGANS?

By Terry F. Brock, Magazine Editor

"NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP, AND PRAY THE LORD MY SOUL TO KEEP..."

If your child can recite this little bedtime prayer before he leaves for his first day of school, he is one of a handful of children who learn even the simplest prayers before they reach the age of six.

Sad but true, thousands and thousands of little children must wait until school age to suddenly discover their dependence on God. They have never heard their parents say a single prayer, not even Grace before meals. They have never been inside a church. They have no idea what the word "God" means — except perhaps as an angry expression.

Brock

CHILDREN growing up as pagans in a world of pagan values, attaining the age of five without spiritual training, are a problem troubling many devout parents who know the value of a home steeped in external symbols of love for our Creator. These parents realize that devotion to God and Christ-like ideals are taught from the cradle days — and principally through their own example.

The child's gradual spiritual growth must be geared directly to the ever-growing scope of his intellectual capacity. We all learn by example and a child learns his prayers through the constant example of his parents. He should learn to love his religion by sensing the devotion to God his own parents show day after day.

YOU CAN'T SIT your three-year-old boy or girl down and preach a sermon to him. Building within the child a firm foundation of respect for his religion is a big day-to-day job. Impressing on your child's mind the nearness of God as the source of all love and hope can be accomplished only by your faithfulness to daily prayers, your obvious respect for your Church and your clear-cut decisions between right and wrong.

Satisfaction of a child's natural longing for love and security by providing him with material things and affection can be strengthened and intensified by putting within him, at an early, impressionable age, a sense of his dependence upon the source of all love, God.

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

First Reunion in Twenty Years Held By Myers Family

For the first time in 20 years a family was all together during the weekend.

It's the family of Major and Mrs. C. C. Myers of Hot Springs, parents of Sister Carmelita and Sister Theophane who left Muenster Friday, ending the school term early, to join in the gathering. The other girl in the family, Sister Evangelista attended from Paragould, Ark.

Reason for the reunion at this time was that both of the Myers boys in the service could be at home. One is leaving shortly for duty in Formosa. The other is in the strategic air command based at Little Rock. The third boy is a student at Arkansas Tech. After their visit at home the three Sisters will go to the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Kleiss took Sister Carmelita and Sister Theophane to Dallas to board a train for the trip Friday afternoon.

Eileen Fuhrmann And David Endres United in Marriage

In an afternoon ceremony in Saint Peter's Church at Lindsay Saturday Miss Eileen Fuhrmann pledged wedding vows with David Endres of Fort Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Endres. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fuhrmann.

Father Alcuin Kubis was officiant at the 4 p.m. nuptial high mass and performed the double ring service. Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, and St. Cecilia's choir provided the music.

Mr. Fuhrmann presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a lovely gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin. The fitted elongated bodice was designed with a stand-up collar and long petal point sleeves. The voluminous skirt of tiers of lace and tulle ruffles had a divided overskirt of lace and swept into an aisle wide chapel train.

A tiara of seed pearls held her waist length veil of illusion and her flowers were white rose buds atop a bride's prayer book, a gift from the groom. For something blue and borrowed she carried a crystal rosary belonging to her mother.

Attendants

Bride's attendants were Misses Dianne, Claudia and Rachel Endres, nieces of the groom. The trio wore identically designed dresses of silk organza over taffeta in rainbow shades of blue, pink and green, respectively. Their head pieces with circular veils matched their costumes and they carried baskets of white carnations.

Brothers of the bride: Michael, Leon and Jerome Fuhrmann were the groom's attendants. James Endres and James Fuhrmann were ushers.

After the service, the newly married pair went to the Blessed Virgin's altar where the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli as the choir sang "Mother at Your Feet."

Reception and Dinner

The wedding reception was held in Muenster Parish Hall with dinner catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz. Misses Bernice Hermes and Rose Mary Hess presided at the bride's book registering some 200 guests. A dance in the VFW Hall concluded festivities.

For a brief wedding trip Mrs. Endres wore a two-piece navy outfit with white and navy accessories. They are making their home at 300 Delmar Court, Apt. 11, Fort Worth 8.

Mr. Endres is a graduate of Sacred Heart High and served in the Navy for three years, most of the time in Hawaii. Since his separation from the service in June 1959 he is an electronics technician at Corvair. His bride was graduated from Lindsay High School.

Out Of Town Guests

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Sister Marie Cecile Endres and Sister Mary Helen Fuhrmann of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis and family of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Bauer and children of Hallettsville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walterscheid and Betty Lou and Larry of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hennigan of Albuquerque, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acker of Midkiff and Mrs. Gene LaGesce and children Jeanne Marie and Danny of Houston.

Eighteen guests called between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

The honoree received a gift and a corsage from the hostess.

Club Meets With Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman

Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman was hostess in her home entertaining members of the Progressive 42 Club for their May social. She served strawberry short cake and coffee after the games.

Mrs. Joe Trubench ran up high score to win the top prize and also secured the galloping award, and Mrs. Gene Gieb took second place honors.

Guests for the evening, joining members, were Mmes. Val Fuhrmann, Adam Wolf Jr., Martin Becker, Tommy Felderhoff and Pat Hennigan.

TP&L Plans for Vast Increase in Use of Electricity

The rate of load growth of private electric companies in the Southwest during the next 20 years is forecast to be greater than any other region in the nation, W. W. Lynch, president of Texas Power and Light Company, reported.

"The record-breaking increases in generating capability planned by the region's electric companies insure these unprecedented electricity requirements will be adequately supplied," he said.

Mr. Lynch stated the Edison Electric Institute has just released figures that show generating capability for the Southwestern companies will be 92.2 million kilowatts in 1980. In 1959, the capability was 16.3 million kilowatts. The 1980 capability will be 18.7 per cent of the U. S. total compared to 12.8 per cent in 1959.

"Economic expansion and population growth, combined with extensive use of electricity for air conditioning and irrigation, make the Southwestern region a national pace-setter in increased power consumption," he said.

The Southwestern region, as defined by EEL, includes the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Kansas and portions of Missouri and Mississippi.

Allen S. King, president of EEL, at a press conference in New York this week, outlined plans for quadrupling the electricity-producing capability of the nation's investor-owned electric utility companies in the next 20 years.

The results of a new Institute study on serving electricity requirements in 1970 and 1980 show that the electric companies "stand ready and able to meet in full the future power needs of this country," Mr. King said.

The study predicts that by 1970 the electric companies will more than double their present producing capability, reaching a total of 263 million kilowatts, and by 1980, their capability is expected to reach more than 492 million kilowatts, or nearly four times today's total and almost twice that predicted for 1970.

"To provide the greatly expanded power supply systems of the future is going to require great sums of money," said Mr. King. "Today, the electric companies have about $43 billion invested in electric plant and equipment. To reach the level forecast for 1980, more than $143 billion will be required to expand the electricity supply systems, a sum more than three times the present investment". Per capita use of electricity, "one of the best indications of a nation's economic strength and the well-being of its people", Mr. King said, is expected to reach 7555 kilowatt-hours in 1970, compared to 4525 kilowatt-hours for every man, woman and child in the country in 1959. In 1980, the forecast is about 11,800 kilowatt-hours.

The study notes that steam plants using coal, oil or gas will continue to be the principal means of meeting the nation's electrical needs for many years to come.

Mr. King pointed out that hydro plants will continue in second place for some years, but by 1980 the electric companies' nuclear power plants are expected to have 39 million kilowatts of electric capability, to hydro's 25 million. Conventional steam capability should reach nearly 417 million kilowatts.

In the nuclear energy field, Mr. King cited the extensive research and development activities of the electric companies, being in cooperation with the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and equipment manufacturers. One hundred and thirty-two companies are vigorously engaged in projects requiring the eventual investment by them of at least $650,000,000.

The new Institute study on "Meeting Tomorrow's Power Needs" gives in its first part national data on the plans of America's electric light and power companies for meeting power requirements in 1970 and 1980. The second part of the study describes present and future developments by electric companies on a regional basis, dividing the country into the eight power supply regions as defined by the Federal Power Commission.

California has within its boundaries all the various climates of North America.

NOTES FROM CITY LIBRARY

Besides a fine selection of books Muenster City Library has a large number of good magazines. Through courtesy of Gainesville Library come subscriptions to National Geographic and Popular Mechanics. And from friends in Muenster the Library receives other good magazines including Reader's Digest.

As always, in this magazine there are articles of interest to all readers, plus condensation of a recent best seller book. The May issue of The Digest features as its condensed story "The Night They Burned the Mountain," by Dr. Thomas A. Dooley.

In this story as in previous ones Dr. Dooley tells of his medical and personal experiences in Laos and his attempts at establishing hospitals in the remote regions of this country and near the border of Red China.

All Library magazines circulate like books and may be checked out for two weeks the same as books. Everyone is always welcome to stop in at the Library, browse around and select any of the books and magazines to take home.

The very young and intermediate readers will find fifty new books on the shelves. These are a loan from Gainesville Library for which the local library staff is deeply grateful, as it is for other books and magazine subscriptions.

Alma Haverkamp Pledges Vows with Bobby Bierschenk

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Bierschenk will be making their home in Wichita Falls at 301 Lamar when they return from their wedding trip. They were married Thursday, May 19, in St. Peter's Church at Lindsay. The bride is the former Miss Alma Haverkamp.

Father Alcuin Kubis celebrated the 4 p.m. nuptial high mass and performed the double ring ceremony. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haverkamp Sr. of Lindsay and Mrs. William Bierschenk and the late Mr. Bierschenk of Valley View.

For her wedding Alma wore a formal gown of pure silk white organza with accents of re-embroidered Alencon lace. Short shirred sleeves and fitted basque bodice with a yoke of lace topped a billowing skirt of organza over taffeta. A panel of organza, gathered at the sides, gave a pouf effect above the sweeping chapel train. Lace and organza fashioned her half hat and her veil fell in tiers to her waist. Her flowers were white roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Michael Neu of Gainesville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Mary Nell Bierschenk, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore nylon sheer dresses of petal pink over taffeta with matching accessories and carried pink daisies.

Michael Neu and Richard Haverkamp, the latter a brother of the bride, were the groom's attendants. After mass the choir sang "Mother at Your Feet" while the bride presented a bouquet of carnations at the Blessed Virgin's altar. Mrs. William Schmitz, organist, was accompanist for the choir which also sang the mass.

Lindsay Hall was the scene of the wedding reception and dinner, catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz for some 350 relatives and friends of the couple. For traveling — destination of honeymoon not revealed — Mrs. Bierschenk wore a white sharkskin outfit with pink accessories. She is a graduate of Lindsay High. Mr. Bierschenk was graduated from Valley View High and works for C. D. Shamburger Lumber Company in Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zimmerer of New York City are on a vacation visit with his father, I. A. Zimmerer and other relatives.

Lawn Party Given At J. J. Hess Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hess was the scene of a lawn party and buffet dinner Sunday at noon with some thirty guests present. It was an all-day affair.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. William Sandmann, Phillip Metzler, William Neu, Henry Zimmerer, John Louis Hess, Wilfred Hess, Julius Metzler and Alfred Hess; Margie Neu, Patsy Zimmerer, Sharon Hess, Debbie Hess, Janice Hess, Maxine Schmitz, Judy Schmitz, Dolores and Wanda Hess and Leon Neu, Larry Zimmerer, Rickey Hess, Jim Metzler and Glenn Metzler.

Lindsay Students Of Music Appear In Annual Recital

Six young musicians from Lindsay, students of Sister Mary Rupert of St. Mary's School in Gainesville, were presented in annual recital Thursday evening in the school auditorium when four music teachers presented their pupils in one program. The musicale followed the PTA's final meeting of the year which featured installation of officers.

Lindsay students were Nellie Ann and Margie Hess, and Karen Loerwald, accordionists, and Clara Hess, Sheila and Hank Arendt, pianists. Each played a solo and the Hess sisters played an accordion duet. Their parents, Messrs. and Mmes. Henry Hess, Johnny Arendt and Alvin Loerwald, attended.

Among others on the program were Patsy and Davey Spaeth, organ, and Dianne Wiese and Earlyne Lehnertz, piano. The recital was themed in the form of a play entitled "Music Through the Year" and 12 little announcers, each represented a month of the year. These included Cheryl Lehnertz, Dorothy Schmidkofer and Dorothy Knabe. Francis Wiesmann took the role of Father Time.

Joining Sister Mary Rupert in presenting their students were Miss Anne Gallagher, Mrs. James McClosky and Mrs. Ivy Baker. There were about 25 on the program, all Gainesville children except the six from Lindsay and the Spaeth children from Valley View.

Confetti - - -

Northern Liberals of its party, would stand pat and exercise its new power to the limit. It would favor the man of its own selection, obviously one of its own Conservatives, for the presidency, and cause a deadlock in the Electoral College.

Then the alternate provision of the Constitution would go into effect. The election of the president would be taken over by the House of Representatives, each state voting as a unit, and election of the vice-president would go into the Senate, each member casting his individual vote.

Again there would be a deadlock, and a compromise would become the only means of solution. In that event the most plausible arrangement is the one we have seen many times in the past few decades. Southern Democrats have more in common with Republicans than with the Liberals and of their own party, and would likely look to them for a deal.

In working out that compromise the Southerners are favored by still another provision in the constitution. The election in the House must consider the three leading candidates for president, which includes the Southern nominee. The election in the Senate considers only the two leading candidates. So the stage is perfectly set for a deal. Southerners and Republicans can swap support electing the Southern president and the Republican vice-president.

In that case who would go the White House? A good guess is that the Southern choice would be a popular and highly respected man like Senator Byrd or Senator Russell, either of them a mighty good man for the job. And the vice-president? Well, most likely the Republican party's nominee for that position. If he happens to be a sound conservative, like Senator Goldwater or Senator Bridges, it would make a fine executive team. All this is only possible, of course. But it's a fascinating possibility to keep in mind as the campaign gets under way.
