Bishop Gorman to Present Diplomas At SH Graduation

Twenty-seven seniors of Sacred Heart High — 14 boys and 13 girls — are candidates for graduation in the school's twenty-first commencement program Sunday night.

Baccalaureate and graduation exercises will be combined in a 7 o'clock service in Sacred Heart Church.

His Excellency the Most Rev. Thomas K. Gorman, bishop of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese, will deliver the combined address and will present diplomas. The service will also include presentation of eighth grade diplomas to 42 elementary school graduates.

Father Bruno Fuhrmann will officiate at the mass and Bishop Gorman will officiate for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

High school seniors are Carol Ann Hess, valedictorian, Eunice Knauf, salutatorian, and Betty Jane Eckart, Christine Fleitman, Helen Hacker, Leona Hacker, Marilyn Hess, Jane Hesse, Ann Stoffels, Carolyn Swirczynski, Lu Ann Reiter, Celine Trubenbach, Irma Vogel, Shirley Walterscheid.

Timely Showers Brighten Outlook For Local Crops

Two dandy showers arriving early Wednesday morning and early in the afternoon were just what the community needed. They measured 1.05 and .41 respectively providing sufficient moisture to give a much needed boost to most of the crops while doing little harm to the others.

The only damage was to oats and alfalfa cuttings that were down and awaiting the baier. Their quality was hurt, however, in the case of alfalfa the harm in most cases was more than offset by the improved prospect for the next cutting.

Because of this rain the general crop outlook is encouraging. The timely and ample moisture should put new vigor into vegetation that previously has been sustained by mild temperatures and good subsoil moisture stimulated by occasional light showers. Crops that had been progressing slowly have a chance now to get up and go. That applies especially to corn, sorghums, pasture and hay crops.

Wheat is the one crop that apparently did not need help, however it was not harmed. Reports are that the crop, at this stage, is one of the best ever of this community. If favorable weather continues it should be a dandy.

The overall condition of oats is less promising. In some areas it has been badly hurt by insects, however, the overall average is still fair. Much of it has already been harvested, with hay balers.

The community's moisture measure as shown on Steve Moster's official gauge, now stands at 2.05 for May and 10.83 for the year.

Baccalaureate Urges MHS Grads To Useful Lives

Muenster High graduates in their baccalaureate service Sunday night in the school auditorium were urged to dedicate their future in service to God, their country and their community.

Rev. H. C. Stump, pastor of the Myra Baptist Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon spicing his advice with frequent bits of humor.

His talk took up the greater part of a short program which opened with a procession by Betty Dodds and invocation by Rev. Virgil Cowgur of the Muenster Baptist Church followed by Glenna Kay Aytes in a vocal solo "The Lord's Prayer."

After the main address Superintendent L. B. Bruns announced the school's schedule for the closing week. Rev. Stump closed the program with benediction, and Betty Dodds played for the recessional.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer were among some 2000 bankers and wives attending the Texas Bankers Assn. meeting in Fort Worth this week.

NEWS OF THE SICK

A heart attack, while he was attending an insurance meeting in Abilene last Friday sent Norbert Koesler to the hospital there. Mrs. Koesler left the next day and is staying with her husband. With him when he suffered the attack was Alphonse Hoening who also was in Abilene for the meeting. Mrs. Koesler keeps in touch with the family here by phone and Tuesday reported that her husband is resting well and responding to treatment but doctors said they will not permit him to be moved home for another ten days, putting his return on or about May 27 or 28. Meanwhile the couple's children are staying with their grandparents, the August Walterscheids and Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr. Norbert's address — and cards will cheer him — is Hendrick Memorial Hospital, Room 371, Abilene, Texas.

Reports from St. Bernard's Hospital, Jonesboro, Ark., on Sister Theresina is good. Rev. Mother informed the Sisters here that Sister Theresina is "doing fine" and will be able to make her trip, as planned, to Switzerland next month. She also mentioned Sister Theresina's joy over the deluge of mail that's been coming in and her expression of thanks to everyone for remembering her, adding that she, in turn, is remembering each one in prayer.

Mrs. Joe Otto underwent major surgery at M&S Hospital Wednesday. She entered the hospital last Thursday evening for treatment and observation prior to the operation.

Kathy Rohmer, six-year-old of the Urban Rohmers, has recovered from a tonsillectomy performed at Gainesville Sanitarium.

C. J. Kaiser is making normal recovery from a gall stone operation performed May 11 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth and will be dismissed this weekend for convalescence at home.

Felix Becker was dismissed from Major Clinic in Nocona Wednesday morning and is convalescing at home from broken ribs and cuts sustained in a truck-pickup accident May 9.

Clifford Sicking, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sicking, will spend this weekend in Texas Childrens Hospital, Dallas, for surgery on his right arm. The operation will repair damaged nerves and tendons resulting from deep cuts in a fall on a milk jar some weeks ago.

Tony Yosten was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Wednesday to finish recovery at home from a major operation performed May 10. He's up and about a little around the house.

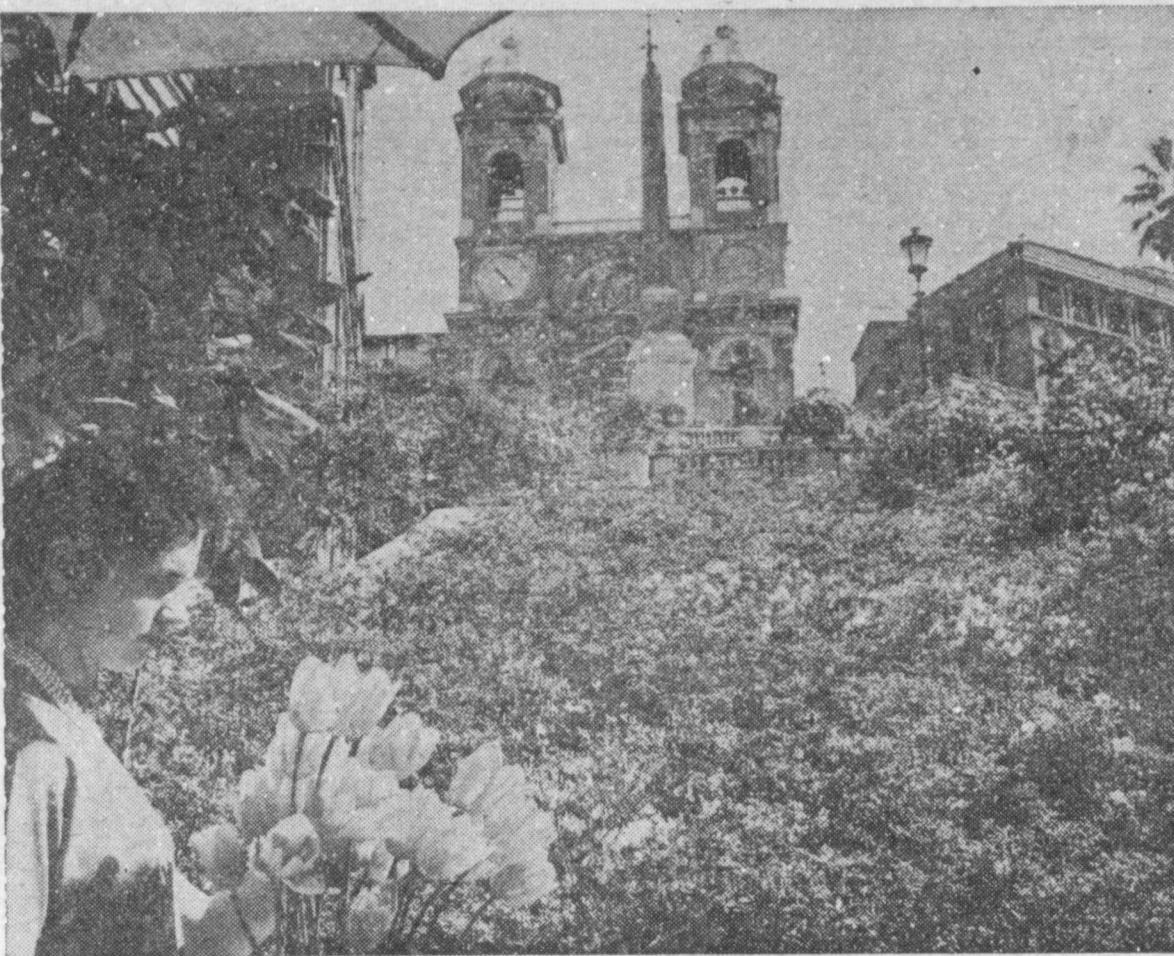

Relatives here have word that Charles Everett of Olney, Ill., has been dismissed from the hospital after being a patient since Easter Sunday when he suffered a coronary thrombosis. However, he'll be a shut-in at his home for an indefinite period of rest. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter.

Former Muensterite John O'Connor is critically ill at his home in Bryan, and Sunday relatives from here visited at his bedside. Making the trip were his sister, Mrs. Will Sicking, a nephew Alfred Sicking, and his brother Andy O'Connor and Mrs. O'Connor. On the way back they stopped in Waco for a visit with Lawrence Sicking at the VA Hospital.

Mrs. A. B. Williams Buys Beauty Shop

New ownership and management of the Muenster Beauty Shop became effective this week. Mrs. Pearl Williams, wife of A. B. "Mud" Williams, took over Monday, succeeding Mrs. Gladys Jenkins of Gainesville.

Mrs. Williams recently finished a beauty shop course to qualify as an operator, and she is assisted by Brenda McGlofin and Mary Price, who have moved here from Durant, Okla. With three on the job Mrs. Williams hopes to arrange convenient appointment hours, with very little waiting, for practically all customers.

FLORAL FLOOD—A cascade of blossoms inundates the celebrated Spanish Steps in Rome. The annual floral display is a major tourist attraction in the city.

Formal Opening Set Saturday for Gift Shop-Bakery

Gertie's Gifts, a new business in Muenster, is in the process of setting up this week and will have its formal opening Saturday in the new building adjoining the city hall.

Mrs. Al Horn, owner and manager, says it will be a combination business, offering gifts for all occasions . . . especially novelty and unusual items . . . and also a limited line of baked goods.

The bakery department will feature specially decorated cakes for weddings, birthdays etc., and will have regular sales of pies, cookies, doughnuts, rolls, homemade bread etc. Possibly some of the items will be offered only once or twice a week.

The business will be open at 5:30 daily to have fresh baked goods ready for an early demand. And it will remain open until 6 o'clock Monday through Saturday. Closing time on Sundays is noon.

Assisting Mrs. Horn in the bakery department of the business are Mrs. Albert Henschel and Mrs. Albert Yosten.

Special attendance prizes will be given on opening day. They are a desk lamp, a decorated cake, a planter with flowers, and a 5 pound package of cookies.

Swimming Class At Muenster Pool Starts Saturday

Muenster's annual Red Cross swimming classes for beginners and intermediates will be organized Saturday of this week and instructions will be given next week and the week of June 6.

Procedure will be similar to that of previous years, according to George Petrus, who will be in charge of the classes. At the registration pupils will take preliminary tests to determine the class and stage to which they will be assigned.

The usual Red Cross regulations will apply. Eligibility is limited to pupils who have completed at least one year of school, and each must have an application signed by a parent and a doctor . . . the first signature indicating the child has permission, the second that he is physically able to take the course.

The application form is printed in the Enterprise this week for the convenience of children who wish to clip and use it.

Adults as well as children are welcome at the swimming class. While a parent's permission obviously is not needed for them, the doctor's statement is required, indicating fitness to take the lessons.

Those reporting for registration at 9 o'clock Saturday are reminded to have on their swim suits for the preliminary tests.

Several youths with Red Cross instructor's certificates have agreed to help with the classes, but more are wanted, Petrus said. Anyone qualified to teach swimming will be welcomed as an addition to the staff.

18 8th Graders At Public School Graduate Tonight

Eighteen pupils of the Muenster Public School elementary department will receive diplomas in graduation exercises to be held Thursday night at 8 in the school auditorium.

Donna Tuggle will have the valedictory, Linda Fette the salutatory, Sandra Cain the class history and Dolores Monday the class prophecy. Also featured are two vocal solos, "Graduation Day" by Nancy Rathburn and "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Sandra Cain.

Charley Hellman, president of the school board will present diplomas as Weldon Holland introduces the graduates. Betty Dodds will be at the piano as pupils march to and from the candle-lit setting of their commencement service.

Those to receive diplomas are Donna Tuggle, Linda Fette, Glenda Bridges, Pamela Russell, Dolores Monday, Barbara Wolf, Sandra Cain, Wanda McElreath, Nancy Hammer, Janet Lutkenhaus, Alvin Sicking, John Walterscheid, Gary Dickerson, Thomas Hammer, Allen Reiter, Larry Gobble, Freddie Hacker and Weldon Vogel.

Muenster Gains 278 in 10 years; New Count: 1,174

Muenster's 1960 population count is 1,174, according to a report sent out last week by Herbert S. Gray, district supervisor of the Bureau of the Census at Wichita Falls.

The figure indicates a gain of 278, a percentage increase of 31 over the city's last official count of 896 in 1950, but falls slightly short of local estimates which ranged from 1200 to 1250. Also it is far short of the 1400 estimate published recently by the League of Texas Municipalities.

Other information released by the district census office shows Cooke County with a total of 22,470, the city of Gainesville with 13,031 and the town of Lindsay with 237.

This indicates an over all gain for the county of 324 over 1950's official count of 22,146. Since that increase is more than offset by the growth of Muenster and Gainesville it reflects a drop of 1739 in the rural areas of the county and the newly incorporated town of Lindsay, which had no official count 10 years ago.

Gainesville's population increased 1,785 over the 1950 figure of 11,246.

A report on Montague County shows a drop in population from 17,070 in 1950 to 14,741, a loss of 2,329. Of the cities in that county Nocona shows the only gain . . . from 3,022 to 4,000. Saint Jo, by coincidence, is unchanged, showing 1,147 in 1950 and also this year. Bowie dropped from 4,544 to 4,473.

Swimming Pool Will Open Sunday

The 1960 swimming season here will open next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, George Petrus, pool manager announced this week.

Preparations for the opening are under way this week as city personnel are giving the pool floor a new coat of light blue paint and checking the pumping and filtering equipment.

Operating schedule at the pool will be the same as last year, Petrus said. It will be open daily from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. except Mondays, the day on which it will be closed. Next week however, will be an exception to the rule. It will be open Monday afternoon.

The privilege of leasing the pool for private parties will be continued, Petrus said. The charge is $5 per hour, and particulars on available hours can be secured from Petrus.

Four Teen-Agers Receive Injuries In Auto Accident

Reports on Muenster's quartet, hurt in a car accident Sunday night, are that Carol Fette, most seriously injured of the four young people, will be in Methodist Hospital, Dallas, about two weeks, according to her mother who returned home Monday night. Carol's broken right arm and shoulder are in traction now and she'll have to undergo surgery. Her room number is 229.

Dickie Pagel who was hospitalized at Gainesville Sanitarium for treatment of cuts and bruises and for X-rays was dismissed Wednesday. Johnny Reiter's sprained ankle is still causing quite a lot of pain and Jeanette Walterscheid is still uncomfortable from cuts and bruises. These two were not hospitalized. The accident happened as the young people were returning from Gainesville. Miss Walterscheid lost control of the car in passing another automobile and ran off the highway into a deep fill near the Lone Star Gas Company plant.

Mims Lewis re-entered Major Clinic in Nocona Sunday for treatment of a throat infection.

Schedule of Coming Events

THURSDAY, May 19, Elementary Graduation, public school, 8 p.m.
FRIDAY, May 20, MHS Graduation, auditorium, 8 p.m.
SATURDAY, May 21, SHH Baccalaureate and Commencement, Sacred Heart Church, 7 p.m.
SUNDAY, May 22, City Library open, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Four years ago this column observed commencement week by congratulating graduates and inviting their attention to the wonderful possibilities that lie ahead, with special emphasis on spiritual maturity and appreciation of God's eternal plan.

With only a slight change, raising the number of graduates from 40 to 47, that comment applies as much today as it did then, and it is being repeated here for consideration of those reaching this year's scholastic goal.

This weekend forty young men and women of this community will proudly step forward to receive their high school diplomas. They will be justifiably conscious of their achievement in reaching the goal which only a few years ago appeared as one of the really important events of their lives.

On this day of their arrival we sincerely hope they will enjoy every bit of the satisfaction they anticipated. For, after all, it does mark the completion of a long and tedious task. They deserve the congratulations which friends shower upon them. They have a right to feel that they earned the gifts which are presented in remembrance of a worth while achievement.

In view of such considerations this column joins in the customary expression of congratulations and good wishes . . . and places the greater emphasis on good wishes. Because the job completed is insignificant by comparison with the one that lies ahead.

The thoughtful student most likely has already noted that this big day is referred to both as graduation and commencement. The one word implies completion of something, the other the beginning of something. And he does not need to be reminded which of the two words should register more strongly on his consciousness. What's past merits a bit of celebration, but what's coming merits a great deal of serious thought.

The obvious fact is that graduation is the commencement of a more serious life. It is the point at which youngsters either take their places among the breadwinners or continue their studies for the special training which is expected to lead to a fuller life a few years later.

Whichever course the graduate has in mind he ought to resolve to go on learning, to acquire all the knowledge and skill his circumstances and ability will permit. On his job or his farm, or in his college classroom, he should be eager for all the knowledge he can absorb, with a view to achieving more, earning more, and above all attaining more understanding and appreciation of the wonders that were placed here for us by an all-wise and all-powerful Creator.

Like the wonders of nature which are spread all around us, the possibilities offered by continued learning are practically limitless. It can lead to an invention or discovery which serves mankind, like the achievements of Edison or Pasteur. It can lead to greater efficiency on a job, greater yield on a farm, greater welfare for one or many. It can lead also to spiritual maturity resulting in contentment here and happiness hereafter.

A very satisfying thought as a person considers these compensations is that the least tangible is the most attainable. Spiritual maturity is within the reach of any person who applies his ability to the resources that the Divine plan has placed at his disposal. Few are destined to do things which command widespread temporal notice, but all are intended, and have sufficient opportunity, to do things which command eternal notice. That is inherent in the relationship between Creator and creature.

The comfort associated with such thoughts is one of the blessings of Christianity. A life can be wonderfully enriched by awareness of the infinite wisdom responsible for wonders which challenge our human wisdom. Conversely, there must be a sad void in the makeup of those who do not believe in a Supreme Cause as author of the secrets which they seek from nature.

A person wonders, for instance, at what goes on in the mind of a Soviet scientist as he deals with atomic and nuclear force. How far can he go without discovering the inconsistency in his professed belief and the created wonders he seeks to understand? Perhaps it isn't too much to hope

SOVIET TREACHERY

Vimetry Manuisky in an address delivered 27 years ago to the Lenin School of political Warfare in Moscow—
 War to the hilt between Communism and Capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. To win we shall need the element of surprise.

The bourgeois will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard-of concessions.

The Capitalistic countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with clenched fists.

engines mile after mile . . . soft rumble of tires can produce a decided hypnotic effect," says the State Health Department Bulletin.

It suggests these ways for a driver to keep awake and alert: (1) Watch for police cars. (2) Chew gum — a full pack at a time. (3) Sing loudly and talk to yourself out loud, or to a passenger. (4) Drive in your stocking feet. (5) Sit on something hard. (6) Keep moving your eyes. (7) Don't overeat before a trip. (8) Make periodic stops.

Finally, says the Bulletin, if you get sleepy, the only real cure is to pull off the road, stop, and go to sleep.

It cautions against artificial stimulants and driving after taking tranquilizers and anti-histamines.

FAIR PAY FOR UNFAIR WORK

Here's an amusing story, but it also has an undercurrent indicating the direction in which this land of "The Brave and the Free" is drifting.

A farmer was in great need for extra hands to harvest one of his crops. In desperation, he propositioned the half-wit Tom Tootles of the town nearest his farm.

"Tom, how'd you like to work for me for a few days?" he asked.

"What will you pay me?" asked Tom.

"I'll pay you what you're worth," promised the farmer.

The half-wit (?) scratched his head, pondered the matter for a minute or so, and then emphatically declared:

"I'll be doggoned if I'll work for that."

America seems to be over supplied with men like Tom Tootles, not half-wits but fellows who are willing, in fact, eager to draw wages or salaries far in excess of the value of services performed.

As a case in point, if one were to single out the worst feature of present day labor unionism, it would undoubtedly be that union leaders in their so-called "collective bargaining" have only one ambition — to obtain for their members the highest possible monetary rewards for the least possible effort.

A sad situation, but unfortunately true, reversing the time-honored slogan: "A fair day's pay for a fair day's work" to "A fair day's pay for an unfair day's work."

HOW SAD AND TRUE

Charles H. Brower, president of one of the large advertising firms spoke recently of a trend that is causing many people to wonder whether we have lost the great driving force that gave us all the benefits we enjoy today.

Brower said, "This is the era of the goof-off; the age of the half-done job. The land from coast-to-coast has been enjoying a stampede away from responsibility. It is populated by waiters who won't serve, carpenters who come around some day . . . maybe executives whose minds are on the golf course, students who take cinch courses, and salesmen who won't sell."

These are pretty strong words, but in too many cases they are true.

Too many people look upon their work as a means to an end . . . a pay check. How much they lose in not learning how to work; how to develop pride in a job well done. Mr. Brower calls it . . . "the thrill of achievement."

Perhaps our schools might develop a course on "how to work." Lambertville (N. J.) Beacon

GOOD QUESTION

INTOXICATION

Americans are suffering from a severe and prolonged case of intoxication. It afflicts everybody in the nation. Ten years ago, all government was collecting $367 for each individual American. This year the tax will amount to an estimated $631 per person.

The average American spends the first two hours of each working day earning money withheld as Federal or State income tax—money he works for but never sees. He works an additional hour or so each day to pay county and city taxes, gas taxes, excise taxes, and all the hidden taxes included in the price of every item he buys.

There is only one way to cure intoxication. That is to call in Doctor Common Sense and let him apply the old-fashioned and effective remedy of governmental economy.

— Life Lines

The Alhambra, celebrated 14th century palace in Granada, Spain, has a circumference of 2 1/4 miles.

Writing in U. S. News & Report, David Lawrence says: "How can there be any progress toward disarmament when there is so little faith in the world of the present Soviet government? Only the peoples of the Soviet Union can assure world peace, and they can do so by ridding themselves of a tyrannical government that doesn't honor its agreements and by substituting a free government that the world can trust. That's the only sure road to a reduction of armaments."

MAKE LIFE WORTH LIVING!

BY Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, President, University of Notre Dame

The "unexamined life" is not worth living.

WHY are you alive? Where are you going?

Graduation time is a good time for us all to stop and look at the way we are living. Are you more than a name? Do you use your freedom to plan your own life, or do you just imitate everyone else? If you don't believe as a free, thinking person, then your future is really not worth living.

SECURITY, comfort and ease are today cherished to the point of madness. They leap out of every magazine and TV commercial. Never before has man been so heavily barraged by these lowest of all values.

WHAT MAN ever became great by seeking only comfort and security? It took greater values to inspire the giants of history.

Love for beauty gave birth to artists like Beethoven and Rembrandt.

RESPECT for the dignity of every man fired heroes to fight for our freedom. Reverence for the higher values in life was the foundation of our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Love for others spurred men to devote their lives to medicine, teaching, social work and politics.

THIS CHOICE of higher values is not easy when our eyes and ears are constantly bombarded with: the car that's more powerful, the cigarette that tastes better, and the coffee that lets you sleep.

But we must not accept comfort and security as our highest goals. If we do, life will become unbearable for us who ought to live on a level higher than the brute.

WHAT are you doing with your life? The special work you do is not terribly important. What is important is your attitude. Do you want ease rather than hard work? A high standard of living rather than service to others? Security instead of adventure, dedication and sacrifice?

If you live completely for your own comfort and security your life isn't worth living. If, however, you give yourself to others you will find your own life becoming rich in meaning and happiness. Oddly enough, in losing your life to others you gain a better, finer and fuller life for yourself!

THE HAPPINESS and meaning in our lives equals the grandness of our goals. So lay out a plan of living for yourself which will do justice to all that you are and that you might be.

Our times are made for adventure. Never, since the discovery of America, have there been so many opportunities for the man who refuses to be seduced by the easy way, the safe choice.

Each one of us is a person—intelligent and free. If our lives are to be truly successful we must use that intelligence and freedom.

PURSUE your ideals!

Colette Hellman And Jimmy Biffle Say Wedding Vows

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday when Miss Colette Hellman and Jimmy Jack Biffle pledged vows in a double ring ceremony at 5:30. Father Martin Fischer presided for the exchange of vows in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends of the couple.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hellman of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Biffle of Myra.

Mr. Hellman gave his daughter in marriage. She was a lovely bride in a gown of white silk organza and Alencon lace. The moulded bodice featured a scooped neckline and a yoke of lace with short shirred sleeves. The very bouffant skirt, fashioned of double folds of the organza was ornamented with appliques of lace and the fullness at the back flowed into a chapel train.

A crown of lace and pearls held her tiered waist-length veil and she carried an arrangement of gardenias atop an heirloom prayerbook, carried by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. G. H. Hellman, at her wedding 54 years ago. The bride added another bit of sentiment by carrying a dainty handkerchief borrowed from her maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Otto.

Mrs. John Aytes of Gainesville was her sister's matron of honor and Glenn Hellman was best man in his sister's wedding. Brothers of the couple, Doug Hellman and Sammy Biffle, were ushers.

Mrs. Aytes was honor matron in a blue lace princess dress with a full skirt. She wore matching lace gauntlets and half hat and carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds.

Anthony Luke was at the organ for the wedding processional and recessional and accompanied Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid, vocalist, in pre-nuptial and post-nuptial selections. Before the service she sang "On This Day" and after the ceremony, while the bride and groom went to the Blessed Virgin's altar to present a bouquet of white gladioli, she sang "Mother At Your Feet."

The wedding reception was held in Muenster High School where some 200 guests were registered by Misses Peggy Biffle and Darla Brown, both of Fort Worth. Other members of the house party included Miss Clara Fisher of Fort Worth who presided at the crystal punch service during a cocktail hour.

Afterwards the guests moved to the school dining room where they helped themselves from a bountiful smorgasbord. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz, great-aunt of the bride, catered the meal and Mrs. Nick Miller was in charge of decorations. She used a hearts and flowers theme stressing the bride's colors.

For a wedding trip to South Texas and other points, Mrs. Mays of Sulphur Springs, Mrs. Biffle wore a yellow arnel outfit with white accessories and a corsage from her wedding bouquet. They will make their home here, temporarily occupying the home on wheels of her grandmother, Mrs. G. H. Hellman, who left Sunday by train to visit her children in Chicago and Milwaukee.

Both are graduates of Muenster High. The groom attended ETSTC, Commerce, and the bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's School of Radiology in Fort Worth. She had been employed in the X-ray department of St. Joseph's Hospital since July 1959.

Out of town relatives and friends present included the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. H. N. Selby of Gainesville, also the Douglas Selbys, the Bill and John Astons and Mrs. Lucille Aston of Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gregory and Joel and Margaret of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Biffle and Billy, Freddy and Stevie of Rosston, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mays of Sulphur Springs, Mrs. Jerry Smith and Mrs. Dickie Cox of Commerce, Messrs. and Mmes. Doyle, Wayne and Cone Selby, Joyce Selby, Mrs. Daisy Hudspeth, and the Jerry Hudspeths, all of Era.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Biffle were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in their home Thursday evening. Guests in addition to the bridal party and Father Martin Fischer were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinzappel, John Aytes and Sammy and David Biffle.

Children Observe Golden Jubilee of Sister Leonarda

At Sacred Heart School of Music's second and final recital of the term Monday night, a large attendance of parents and friends lauded the young musicians and just before the end of the program applauded for the music instructor, Sr. Leonarda, as she was surprised with a gift from the school children.

Jerry Fleitman made the presentation of a spiritual bouquet of 50 masses, one for each year of Sister Leonarda's life in the convent — 23 of which were spent here in Muenster.

July 2 is the date of the golden jubilee of her profession — to be celebrated in August at Holy Angels Convent. There will be four jubilarinas at that time including Sister Bertha of Muenster fame for 30 years. The other two are Sister Victoria and Sister Hilda.

With joyful anticipation Sister Leonarda is looking forward to a reunion with her brother, the Rev. Father Francis Xavier Foehn, pastor of Maria-Lourdes Church in Zurich-Seebach, Switzerland, who intends to be present for the jubilee observance.

Sister Leonarda came to this country as a young girl, going directly to the motherhouse of the Olivetan Benedictines in Arkansas. In addition to the 23 years in Muenster she spent 19 years in Little Rock and eight years in Blytheville, Ark. A talented musician, she has devoted all her time to teaching music. She instructs in a variety of instruments and also gives vocal lessons.

Another gift for Sister Leonarda Monday was a handsome cake, shaped like an open hymn book with musical notes and a verse, and a cluster of purple violets, all done up in icing. It was a gift from Ger-tie's Gift Shop, created by Mrs. Al Horn and presented by Janice Wilde.

Native of Germany Off This Week to Return to Homeland

Returning to her native Germany is Mrs. Helene Hinzmann who visited in Muenster the past nine months with her daughter and son-in-law, the Albert Rohmers.

The trio drove to Dallas Thursday where Mrs. Hinzmann boarded a jet at Love Field for New York for the first lap of her overseas trip. The flight was Mrs. Hinzmann's first time in the air and she looked forward to it as a new experience. She sails Friday aboard the S.S. America.

Her first visit in the United States and especially in Texas is one to be long remembered Mrs. Hinzmann said. She liked everything except the language barrier which prevented her from communicating with others who speak only English.

One thing she enjoys more in Germany, she said, is the more pleasant weather, which is probably what she missed most away from her homeland. It's never hot and sultry.

What she enjoyed, perhaps most, on her visit were the car rides and sight-seeing.

Her biggest decision about leaving America was that she will be separated from her only child. They were reunited here last September after seven years of separation. She has other relatives including the Strauss family of Gainesville, Mrs. John Arendt of Lindsay and the Johanna Jegelky family at Plainview, all of whom she visited or who visited her while she was in Muenster. Back in the old country she has a sister and a brother and their families.

Home Ec Classes Enjoy Final Exam

Final examination for Sister Carmelita's Homemaking girls Wednesday was one they loved and which they passed with flying colors.

The class prepared a whole meal beginning with marketing, selecting their food at a local grocery store, after planning a balanced menu. They set the table and took turns serving as hostesses. And afterwards they cleaned up, all a part of the exam.

All three kitchens in the home ec department were humming with activity as three groups prepared three dinners. One senior and two junior groups were occupied with the final test.

Jamestown, Va., was originally built on a peninsula which has since become an island.

Big New Map of Texas Highways Is Available Now

AUSTIN, TEXAS — Texas' Official Highway Travel Map, 1960-style, is now available to the general public. Free copies of the big, colorful map may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Austin 14, or at the highway district offices and travel bureaus. County tax offices have map cards on hand for requesting copies of the map.

The map reflects 1,933 miles of multilane, divided highway now completed, and includes the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways located in the state. More than 1,500 farm-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,000 miles of the state's 30,000-mile Farm-to-Market Road System are shown on the map. All of the 26,378 miles of State and U.S. highways are shown.

Three new lakes have been added to the 1960 Travel Map, bringing the total shown in the major-lakes-and-reservoirs category to 64. New water attractions recorded are Buffalo Lake in Lubbock County; Champion Creek Lake in Mitchell County; and Lake Takawoni in Hunt, Rains, and Van Zandt Counties. Countless rivers, creeks, and streams are also charted on the Travel Map.

The 816 roadside parks pegged on the map are those having full picnic facilities. Their locations are marked by a green dot. State Parks are indicated by a green triangle.

"All of Texas Welcomes You" banners the pictorial side of the map — reflecting, in eleven full-color pictures, some of the outstanding recreational, scenic, and historical attractions in Texas.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" telescopes information on Texas' terrain, history, and industrial and recreational diversity.

Cards in Mail for Livestock Survey

Postmaster Arthur Endres announced today that Rural Mail Carriers will begin distributing June 1, 1960 Livestock Survey Cards to patrons on their routes about May 19.

This mid-year livestock survey is the first of three which your Post Office and U. S. Agriculture Departments cooperatively make each year. The June 1 survey provides basic information to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin for estimating the 1960 calf crop, what the spring pig crop actually numbered, and a preview of farrowing intentions for the fall season.

Also, poultrymen will get information on number of chickens raised during the spring. Those chickens will be the coming fall and winter's laying flock.

To be sure our community is well represented in this survey, Postmaster Endres urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return to his mail box.

Rural mail carriers working on this project are: Henry J. Pels, Route One and John W. Fletcher, Route Two.

the map total 1,826. City route maps for the state's twelve largest cities are also included — Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

More than half a million Official Highway Travel Maps of the 1959 edition have been distributed — in-state, out-of-state, and to dozens of foreign countries.

The map is used by all state and governmental agencies in the state for determining official highway distances, mileages, zones, and like information.

Monday was doomsday for a pair of rattlesnakes that went trespassing on Bob Knabe's yard. One was discovered and dispatched early in the morning the other a few hours later. Excited dogs called attention to both and Bob shot them with a .22 rifle. Each was almost four and a half feet long.

Ex-Con Nabbed Hour After Local Station Robbery Freedom was cut short Saturday night after an Oklahoma ex-convict after the armed robbery of Henry Pautler's Service Station. Exactly one hour later he was in the custody of Cooke County officers and charges were filed against him Monday in the county courthouse.

He was Earl Lesley Roberts, 39, of Holdenville, Okla., who had been released only four days earlier from the federal prison of Leavenworth, Kansas. He was accompanied by his ex-wife Wanda Dorothy Powers, 31. Both admitted being guilty of the filling station robbery, also that practically all the cash found in their possession had been taken in the hold-up.

Pautler reported that the pair stopped at his station about 8:10 and bought 5 gallons of gas. Instead of paying for the gas Roberts pulled a .22 pistol and demanded all of Pautler's money. After taking about $50 from the cash register he ordered Pautler into a rest room then went to the car and drove away. After hearing the car leave Pautler phoned officers and reported the robbery and described the car.

Officers immediately started from Gainesville and asked for a road block at Saint Jo. When they arrived and got a negative report on the block they decided on a cross-country hunt. Less than an hour later Deputies Jim Wolf and Bill Traugher on the FM Road south of Forestburg, saw the suspected car cross the road a short distance ahead of them. When caught the pair admitted the robbery and produced the loot and the pistol. The car they were driving was reported stolen in Oklahoma City earlier in the day.

The conclusion is plain: Time and land are running out, and we dare not delay for a single unnecessary reason in safeguarding the productive land which we have left.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Hollis Berry, Rosston, finished two stock water ponds on his place this week. Both are near 14 feet deep. With permanent water in both pastures, Hollis will be better able to manage the native grasses on the place.

He also sodded a waterway to Coastal Bermudagrass on his home place just east of Rosston. This waterway, when well established to grass, will serve as a safe outlet for a diversion terrace that will protect the Clear Creek bottomland on the place.

F. C. Galmor completed a 1600 cubic yard stock tank on his place north of Forestburg this week. The pond is 11 feet deep and once full should provide stock water the year round. He is also clearing 15 acres of timber and brush from the place. Although it is too late in the year to plant on the cleared land now, he intends to get it established to permanent grass next spring. Galmor will control sprouts and smaller brush on the pastures by using a shredder.

Now is the time to begin those practices that contribute to good rangeland. Rotate livestock so that the grass will have a rest during the growing season or completely defer grazing on one pasture this year. Control the number of livestock so that half the grass is left on the land. These practices return good dividends. Ask any conservation rancher.

Men are known by their deeds. So it is that the quality of Soil Stewardship is most evident in the doing. The true spirit of responsible people at work on the land is inevitably tested in the fields.

Soil Stewardship has no definable limits. It may be of an indifferent quality or it may be exceedingly well done. It cannot be measured in acres or hours, or in miles or tons or blades of grass. There is no point at which the steward may step back from his work and say: "This is it. This is conservation completed."

The requirements of Soil Stewardship are perpetual. In the climate and uses of each tomorrow, the steward meets new challenges to his ingenuity, his skill, and his devotion. How well he meets them can be measured only in terms of the sustained usefulness of the soil he cares for over the years.

The motivation of a responsible man to conserve the soil arises from his faith in God. The valid, tangible expression of this will take place in the fields in the doing. It is there that responsible people at work on the land commit their skill, their energy, and their determination — with God's help — to achieving a system of sustained land use without soil damage. It is there and there only, that the spirit of Soil Stewardship can attain a successful harmony with nature.

TP&L Presents Science Charts to Muenster Schools

Temperature charts that can be used in physics classrooms and laboratories have been presented to Sacred Heart and Muenster High Schools by district manager of Texas Power & Light Company.

The charts show instructors and students such interesting things as the surface temperature of the planets of the solar system (which vary from minus 415 degrees for Pluto up to plus 344 degrees for Mercury), the temperature of a light bulb filament (4660 degrees for a 100 watt bulb) and the interior temperature of the sun (36 million degrees).

The chart was developed by Howard R. Drew, executive vice-president of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation. A paper entitled "Temperature", prepared by Robert A. Kennedy, fuel technologist for TP&L, was presented with the chart.

TP&L, as a member of the Research Foundation, is sponsoring research directed toward controlling fusion reaction with the expectation this source of energy may be used in time for electric power production. The Foundation, consisting of eleven private utility companies in Texas, is co-sponsoring the research program with General Dynamics Corporation.

PARTNERS IN TEXAS PROGRESS

No. 1 in a series.

A PROGRESSIVE AGRICULTURE

A basic requirement for a balanced economy in Texas is a sound, progressive agriculture.

Therefore, Texas Power & Light Company maintains a staff of trained and experienced farm specialists to work with farm customers, county agents, vocational agricultural departments, soil conservation agencies and local businessmen toward the improvement of farming and the creation of new markets for farm products. Progress in efficient production must be matched with stable and remunerative markets for what the farmer produces. Some of the activities in which TP&L is currently participating include vegetable, soybean, and grass-growing programs, cattle feeding.

In keeping with the importance to our State of thriving rural communities, this Company and ten of the other investor-owned, electric utility companies in Texas, along with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, are sponsoring a 5-year program of rural community improvement. This program gives assistance in organizing for increased farm income, improving health services, and encouraging social and religious participation in the community. Prizes are offered annually to each of the rural communities showing the greatest improvement.

TP&L, a business-managed, investor-owned, tax-paying electric utility, pledges continued support toward a sound economy in agriculture.

NOTES FROM CITY LIBRARY

"John Carroll, Bishop and Patriot" written by Milton Lomack is only one of the many books at City Library especially recommended to young readers for good vacation entertainment.

It is the story of America's first Catholic Bishop, John Carroll. He was called "Jackie" as he grew up on a Maryland plantation and left for Europe to receive the Catholic education which was impossible in his home colony. He sailed with his cousin, Charles Carroll of Carrollton whose bold signature appears on the Declaration of Independence.

They faced a pirate attack on the high seas and shared boarding school fun at St. Omer. From there "Jackie" Carroll entered the seminary.

Young Father Carroll came home to find his country about to begin its War for Independence. This is the bishop's story set against the exciting background of the work of the Continental Congress, the fight for freedom the War of 1812, as the American Church too was making history.

Federal Case
The other day Harry walked into a cigar store and said to the salesgirl, "I'd like to buy a carton of cigarettes."
The salesgirl smiled, said, "There are so many brands. Which one would you like?"
Harry thought for a moment, then mentioned a particular brand, whereupon the following conversation took place:
Salesgirl — "Do you want the soft pack or the crush-proof box?"
Harry — "Soft pack."
Salesgirl — "King-size or regular?"
Harry — "King-size."
Salesgirl — "Filter-tip or plain?"

Harry — "Filter-tip."
Girl — "Menthol or mint?"
Harry — "Menthol."
Girl — "Cash or carry?"
Harry — "Forget it — I've broken the habit."
Old George is a Scot and an ex-miner. Not long ago, when I called on him in Glasgow, the conversation turned to the death of one of his cronies.
"I'm told that Harry left five thousand pounds," I remarked admiringly.
"That he didn't!" George said. I expressed surprise.
"Harry left no money," he went on. "He was taken from it."

"Labor, as an organization, should never be denied the right to quit work if it so desires. What is needed is a new approach to settlement. Labor leaders . . . are too sensitive to their position, feeling that in every contract negotiation they must be in a position to say, 'see what I got for you this time.'"
"There must inevitably come a time when the saturation point has been reached, and industry, to stay in business, must say, 'this is where we must stop.' Otherwise we are being catapulted into an inflation era that will ruin our entire economy."
