VOLUME XIII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY JUNE 24, 1949

NUMBER 31

Recommended reading for at least a dozen kids of this community... and their parents... is the first article of this month's Reader's Digest. Entitled "Danger... Teen-Age Killers at the Wheel," it presents a gory picture of the tragedies caused by incompetent and show-off juvenile drivers.

Some accidents result from immature judgment. Some result from lack of skill. And a great many more result from the wildest kind of reckless and maniacal driving. Though there is a difference in the degree of culpability the net result is the same. Far too many of our driving youngsters can't be trusted with a car. Whether they're incompetents or show-offs they're still a menace to national safety.

Clowning, speeding, dreaming and disregard of traffic signs, in that order, are listed as the principal causes of teen age accidents. Skipping the tragedies, which, thank goodness, we have so far been spared around here, the article reads almost as though it had been based on observations of local youngsters. We have kids who love their automotive capers, who drive like a streak, who pay no attention to their car or other cars.

Let's not kid ourselves about this thing. Recklessness is rampant in Muenster. And we're headed for some terrible tragedies if our teen agers don't make some early and drastic changes.

Yours truly doesn't claim to be well posted on the reckless and crazy incidents around here but the few he can recall are enough to run shivers up and down a person's spine.

How about that jalopy race on Main just a few weeks ago? Three old crates running abreast taking in the whole street, and every car driven by a kid who probably has no driver's license.

How about that car full of kids clipping off 90 or better on the highway east of town? Without looking ahead they pulled around a car and, when confronting another car, drove completely off the left side of the pavement, followed the ditch a way, and pulled back on the road again... and revved it back up to 90.

How about the guy who tried out the second gear in his dad's new car? They say he did 90.

How about another kid slouching in the seat gabbing and gesticulating, and releasing the wheel to light a cigarette, while holding the foot feed flat on the floor?

How about the lad who tore the guts out of his car by speeding the motor and releasing the clutch to see how fast it would take off?

How about the kids who used the Gainesville Airport runway for a speedway?

How about the kids who head directly for each at a 30 or 40 mile clip and swerve to the side just in time to avoid a crash? Their object is to click fenders. That's "kissing each other good night." Let's hope they get some sense before that kiss becomes a hear-on smack.

Those incidents are only a few of the many. They're the kind that tragedies are made of, the kind that had better be stopped soon, before the old grim reaper hits the jackpot he's really entitled to.

What to do about it? According to the Reader's Digest article there are three methods that seem to help. One is a course on safe driving in school. Another is more rigid law enforcement and still another is better instruction... plus better example... by the parents.

The value of driving courses has already been shown. Check-ups have revealed that trained drivers have about half the number of accidents that untrained drivers do. Safety courses, you know, emphasize danger as well as driving methods. A great deal of the warning soaks in and the effect on an average youngster is a combination of more caution and more skill.

It also makes sense to crack down on reckless or incompetent drivers. Anyone who endangers lives deserves to be fined and to have his license revoked. If he has no regard for the safety or welfare of others, a stiff and sure penalty is about the last recourse to keep him in line.

Parental instruction and example can be really effective if the parent decides to make it so. If every father taught his kid to drive well and refused to let him drive alone until he has a driver's license, and himself gave an example of careful, courteous driving, he might be able to expect more of the kid. Included in a parent's responsibilities, especially

Mrs. A.M. Bezner, 75, Pioneer Resident of Lindsay, Dies June 16

Mrs. A. M. Bezner, 75, a resident of Cooke County for 55 years, passed away Thursday, June 16, at her home in the Wolf Ridge community after an extended illness. She was bedfast since last September.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in Saint Mary's church at Gainesville with Rev. Thomas Moore officiating at the requiem mass and at the grave. Burial was in the Lindsay cemetery under the direction of George Carroll and Son. Rosary services were held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Carroll chapel.

Pallbearers were Pete Mosman, Leo Mosser, Joe Bengfort, H. P. Stoffels, Wm. Fuhrmann and John Popp.

Mrs. Bezner, the former Marie Molly Schmitt, was born in Bavaria, Germany, on Sept. 8, 1873. She came to the United States with her parents when she was five years old. They settled in New York state and later lived in South Texas. The family moved to the Wolf Ridge community 55 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Bezner were married in Lindsay on Feb. 20, 1900, and had resided at Wolf Ridge ever since.

Survivors include the husband, one daughter, Mrs. Henry Wolf Jr. of Muenster; one son, Fred Bezner, Wolf Ridge; nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. One daughter died about 16 years ago.

Out of town relatives from more distant cities at the funeral included Don Bezner, a grandson of McKinney; Al Bezner and Mmes. Leo Cutaia and Robert Young of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. George Rohleder of Fort Worth; Johnnie Schmitt of Sherman.

Notes On Soil Conservation

Frank Trubenbach is building a new farm pond on his farm operated by R. H. Knabe. He also plans to construct additional terraces on the cultivated land as soon as the grain is out of the way. The terraces that were built last year seem to be operating successfully.

Alfred Bayer is building a new farm pond on the Mrs. Joe Bayer farm west of Muenster. Alfred has been sodding terrace outlets for two years and he thinks he is ready to start terrace construction again this summer. He has already built all of the terraces that would outlet onto permanent pasture.

A group of farmers at Hardy attended a soil conservation planning meeting at the Hardy Church last week. Discussion centered on the need for soil conservation farming in that area and how to get started on the job. Interested farmers who indicated a willingness to cooperate with the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District are: Z. D. Wylie, J. C. Donnell, S. M. Steen, Oscar Fisher, H. O. Atterberry, H. D. Embry, W. H. Webb and R. M. Harwell. A soil survey of the area, included in the farms, is being made. This survey will indicate the production capabilities of the soil, the land use for which it is most adapted and the treatment needed.

SPECIAL SERVICES OBSERVE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Sacred Heart parish observed the feast of Corpus Christi Sunday with the traditional services and solemnity.

After the 8 o'clock mass the congregation formed a procession to the two small chapels and attended benediction, then returned to the church for the third benediction.

The chapels had been especially redecorated for the event. A group of volunteers, under the supervision and with the help of the pastors, had repainted the exteriors, interiors and statues. Special decorations consisting of a profusion of gladioli and greenery adorned the altar space.

Banners of the four parish societies were displayed in the procession and a group of small flower girls formed an escort for the Blessed Sacrament, which Rev. Alfred Hoenig of Corpus Christi carried under a canopy. Father Alfred also officiated at the solemn high mass assisted by Fathers Herman and John as deacon and subdeacon and Father Cyril as master of ceremonies.

GAS-BAG GRANARY—The problem of where to store the nation's bumper crop of wheat may be partially solved by Jack Berger of Cleveland, O. Berger, who runs a bag business, bought 3000 surplus barrage balloons from the government two and a half years ago, with no idea of what to do with them. When he read about the wheat-crop storage emergency recently, he thought he had the answer. Above, workmen at a Fairport, O., grain elevator, pour grain into one of the wartime gas-bags. Each balloon will store 2400 bushels of wheat, says Berger.

WHEAT YIELD HERE APPEARS TO BE ABOUT 4 BUSHELS PER ACRE

The 1949 wheat crop at Muenster is worth harvesting this year, but that's about all. Scattered reports from farmers indicate that the average yield of the community will be about 4 bushels per acre. In some cases farmers are running their combines all day to accumulate a single load of grain.

The best report received to date at the Morrison Mill was 10 bushels per acre on a small field and it was offset by another report from the same man that another of his fields is not worth cutting.

Since Monday combines have been operating at top speed and by Wednesday had harvested approximately a fourth of the community crop. A few farms have already finished the job, others have just started. Binder work likewise is preceeding at full speed.

Though tests are generally poor the quality of the grain is fairly good. The kernels are all right but they have too much oats, cheat and Johnson grass mixed with them.

SOIL CONSERVATION UNIT MOVES OFFICE TO KAISER-MEURER BLDG.

Some time next week the office of the local soil conservation work unit will be moved from the Wolf Hotel building to the Kaiser-Meurer building. The change will enable the unit to keep all its equipment under one roof. Heretofore it has had separate places for its office and truck storage. The part to be occupied is the south half of the building which was formerly used as an automobile display floor. The other part, now occupied by Ed's Automotive shop will not be affected.

Special changes to meet the needs of the new tenant will be made as soon as workmen can get at the job. The large display window at the west front will be replaced by a double door through which pick-up trucks can be driven and a partition will separate the east and west side into an office and truck storage space. Another partition will divide the front from the rear office.

Park in Center and Pack Outer Edge of Street, Engineer Says

Until further notice, please park your cars in the center of the street and use the sides of the street for traffic lanes. That is the request made this week by Mayor John Hoffman on the recommendation of state highway engineers.

The purpose of the change in system, Hoffman said is to pack the portion of the street which, until now, has carried very little traffic. By this means the highway department intends to improve the entire surface of the street, not just the center.

The recommended new parking system, Mayor Hoffman explained is a double row of diagonally parked cars at the center. Drivers are asked to leave their cars at about a 45 degree angle with the left front at about the center of the street. That will serve a double purpose of providing ample parking space and also moving the traffic lanes nearer to the curbs.

Since the surface work was completed a month ago all traffic has been in the center and several applications of crushed rock were added as the asphalt worked to the top. The changed parking system will permit similar improvement next to the curbs.

COUNTY TB GROUP REELECTS OFFICERS, PLANS '49 CAMPAIGN

Reelection of present officials and establishment of a goal of $2,500 to be raised next November were the two main activities of the Cooke County Tuberculosis association in a meeting at Gainesville Monday night.

Officers are President J. M. Weinzapfel of Muenster, vice-president Mildred Chapman, secretary Grace Roberts, treasurer William Lewis, reporter Billye Conley, and Tuberculosis Nurse Joyce Bentley.

Mrs. T. P. Frost was appointed to the board of directors.

Miss Bentley's report revealed that she has located nine cases of tuberculosis in Cooke County at this time.

PARISH GROUPS PLAN SUPER CARNIVAL FOR NEW CHURCH BENEFIT

Spurred by the greatest amount of pre-event activity, the most carefully formulated plans and the endeavors of an exceptionally large band of workers, the July Third community bazaar is in the final stages of preparation. It will be a benefit for the new Sacred Heart church building fund.

Visitors will discover a new look on the parish grounds adjoining the parish hall where time and effort will result in new concessions, booths and games. In every way it is destined to be the greatest affair of its kind ever held here.

Big new carnival features are the best ever offered for local entertainment and a number of games on the "midway" will be fascinating to young and old. The big show will begin at one p.m. A chicken dinner, beginning at 5, will supplement it and it will continue during the night hours, closing with a big auction.

All activity will take place out of doors with the exception of the dinner and the barbecue. The dinner will be held in the lunch room and the barbecue stand will occupy the south room of the hall adjoining the lunch room.

With fun, food and frolic for all age groups as their objective, officers of the four parish societies got together Monday night with the pastors to check on arrangements, committees and other various details.

The big show Sunday will be followed on Monday night, July 4, by a dance and more entertainment features in the K of C hall... dancing on the main floor, games and lunches in the basement.

J. S. Horn, 80, Fifty Year Resident, Dies; Funeral Friday, 8:30

J. S. Horn, 80, a resident of Muenster for half a century, passed away at his home here Tuesday night at 11:35 after more than six years of illness. He was bedfast since April 1948.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 8:30 in Sacred Heart church with Pastor Rev. Herman Laux officiating at the requiem high mass and at the burial in the Sacred Heart cemetery. Nick Miller will be in charge of funeral arrangements.

Pallbearers will be six nephews of the deceased, John and Ben Voth, Paul and Tony Walterscheid, Tony and Henry Voth.

Two rosary services are scheduled for Thursday night. Father Herman will lead the general service at 8 o'clock and immediately thereafter the Knights of Columbus will say the rosary.

Mr. Horn was born in Saint Cloud, Wis., on Aug. 19, 1868, and came to Muenster in December 1893 to help his brother, Joe Horn, build his home. He went back to St. Cloud the following March, then returned to Muenster in December 1900 and had resided here since. He married Miss Mary Voth here in May 1903, and engaged in carpentering.

In 1906 he became rural mail carrier on route 2 out of Muenster and served in that capacity for more than 12 years. He then returned to the carpenter trade until he retired from active work.

He was instrumental in organizing the Knights of Columbus council in Muenster in January 1910, was a charter member and was active in the first membership drive. He was the first financial secretary of the council holding office for two terms, was treasurer for three terms, a member of the degree team and a warden for several years. In September 1935 he received the Degree of Honor from the council.

For almost 11 years he served as secretary of the Muenster Telephone company, resigning in June 1938.

In November 1942 he suffered a paralytic stroke that resulted in the loss of his speech and also left him severely handicapped in getting around. His condition forced him to bed in April 1948.

Survivors are his wife, three sons, Joe and Jake Jr. of Muenster, and Al of Harlingen; two daughters, Mrs. Al Schwab of Muenster and Mrs. Al Schirzynski of Dallas; two grandsons and 10 granddaughters; one brother, Casper Horn of St. Cloud, Wis., and one sister, Mrs. Catherine Franzen of Chilton, Wis.

KANSAS MAN NAMED SUPERINTENDENT OF LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

Leo Neyer of Emporia, Kansas, will be superintendent for the next school year at Muenster High School. He was appointed Tuesday night to succeed John J. Hoffman who resigned from the position at the end of the past school year.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Neyer completed his college work receiving his BA degree in 1946 at Kansas State Teachers' College. He had previously attended the school from 1939 to 42 and spent three years in the navy before returning in 1945 for his last year. Since graduation he has been teaching in the high school in De Beque, Colorado, and spending his summers in post graduate work at Kansas State Teachers College. He will complete work for his MA degree this summer.

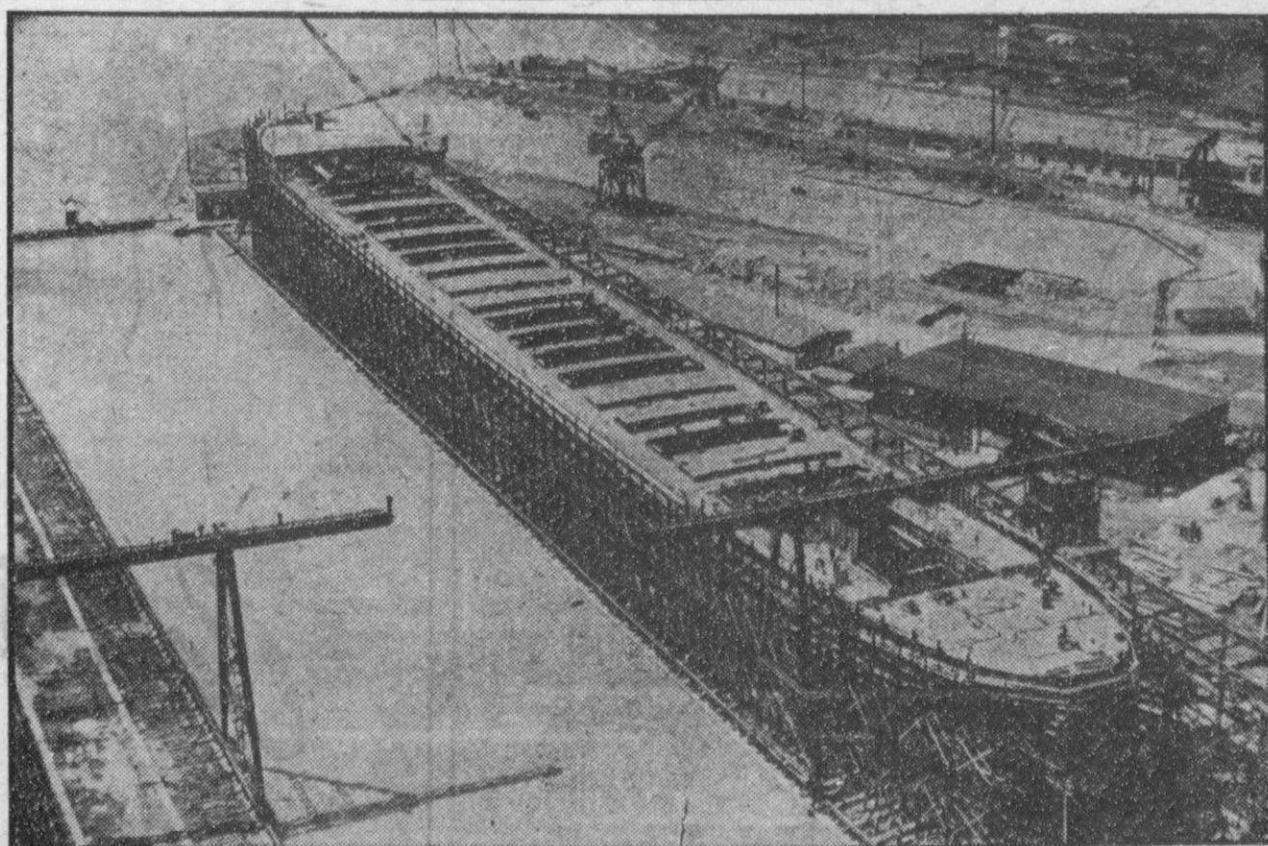

Mr. Neyer was in Muenster Monday to get acquainted with the local situation and submit his application.

In addition to approving Mr. Neyer as the new superintendent, the board met with Father Herman Laux and Sisters Canisia and Theresina of the parochial school. They discussed ways and means of cooperating for the mutual benefit of both schools.

Cpl. Norbert Mages is here for a visit with relatives. He is stationed at Elgin, Fla., with the air corps.

NEW KIND OF INFLATION—The war surplus barrage balloon above is filled, not with gas, but with 2400 bushels of wheat. Jack Berger of Cleveland, O., who has on hand 3000 of the gas-bags he bought from the government, got the bright idea of using them as storage bins for part of the nation's bumper wheat crop when he read about farmers piling the grain on the ground for lack of storage space.

SEEING SNAKES?—Don't worry about it, they're really there. This barrelful of rattlesnakes is awaiting execution at the Pole Creek ranch near Cheyenne, Wyo. When the ranch became dangerously infested with the reptiles, a simple trap consisting of a length of stovepipe and a steel drum was devised to cut down their numbers. One end of the pipe is shoved into a suspected den, the other end leading into the drum. Heat of the pipe attracts the snakes, which crawl through and tumble into the barrel, where they are killed by carbon monoxide gas pumped from an auto exhaust.

Washington Newsletter

By Congressman Ed Gossett
 Washington, D. C., June 17.—Upon unsolicited invitations, I have recently addressed the Washington Chapter of the American Association of University Women and the Rural Women's Conference of the State of Maryland on the subject of displaced persons. In each case, large audiences were apparently unanimous in approving my views. Recently, I have been severely criticized by Time Magazine and an editorial in the Wichita Daily Times for opposing the new Displaced Persons Act. Most of those taking me to task have not read any of my speeches on the subject and know nothing of the facts.

Two-thirds of the avowed communists in America have come from Russia. 100,000 of those now in our DP camps came from behind the iron curtain 18 months and 2 years after the war was over. They came with the connivance and assistance of communist governments. Under the bill which I fought and which was passed in the House, at least 75 percent of these people will come to America.

While a great many sincere people are advocating the opening of our doors to the so-called DP's, they should also consider that every radical, every red, and every subversive organization in America is strongly in favor of doing the same thing.

One Texas Congressman polled 100 American officers while overseas last year on this subject and every single one of them was unalterably opposed to these DP bills which have been sponsored in the Congress by those seeking votes in Chicago and New York. I have yet to talk to an informed person, other than those affiliated with organizations sponsoring DP's, who does not agree with my views on this legislation.

No person can come to this country under any of the proposed DP bills unless he has registered with the International Refugee Organization (IRO) as a DP. It is well-known that IRO is controlled by so-called liberals, most of whom would remove immigration barriers altogether. Furthermore, IRO will not classify as a DP any person with German blood. It is admitted that 14 million persons (expellees) were driven out of Poland, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, and other countries behind the iron curtain, simply because they were of German-Ethnic origin. These 14 million people have been thrown bodily into allied military zones, most of them in Germany. Most of them are in greater distress and greater need than any of the DP's who have lived off American charity for 3 and 4 years. Still, no one pleads the cause of the expellees. They lack money and propaganda. It's a sad commentary on American morality to find how many people's convictions are influenced by money. If one were given the job of picking 300,000 people to bring into this country immediately, over and above immigration quotas, he would not go to the jails and asylums to get the said 300,000 persons. Still, that is substantially what we propose to do. If we need additional farmers and craftsmen, there are millions of them available, but not in the DP camps.

It so happens that the biggest and best paid lobby in the City of Washington for the past several years has been the DP lobby.

One disgraceful thing of recent occurrence has been the picketing of the Federal Court in New

You Can't Bunko The Farmer

The American Way LEAKAGE

By George Peck

During the late war a worried-looking individual walked into the office of the Rent Control Administrator in Memphis and asked if anyone could tell him who was his landlord.

"Your landlord," a clerk told him, "is the man you pay your rent to."

"I don't pay no rent," the man

York in which a number of communists are on trial. Several hundred commies and fellow-travelers have been obstructing the Court area with their so-called picketing. Such an insult to the Judiciary should not be tolerated. We have a bill in the Judiciary Committee at this time, introduced by Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana, to make such picketing unlawful. Such bill should be enacted.

I have a card from the "National Liberal League" of New York city, condemning Mr. Churchill for advocating religious training for the curtailment of juvenile delinquency. This league says religious training increases juvenile delinquency. Such league is doubtless another commie outfit that opposes and condemns all religion and morality. I am sure this league is strongly in favor of the Displaced Persons Act.

said. "You see, 'bout nine years ago I found me an empty house and moved in. I've been there ever since and ain't never paid no rent."

"Well, then," asked the clerk, "What's worrying you?"

"The roof leaks and if somebody don't come and fix it quick, I'm gonna move out."

Quite humorous, isn't it, whether it actually happened or not? It gave me a good laugh when I heard it, but my laughter was short-lived, for upon sober reflection I saw in this, what at first blush seemed to be just a harmless and highly amusing incident, a deadly parallel with what has happened to too many of the American people in recent years.

This ignorant, undoubtedly illiterate squatter, unwittingly reflected a philosophy which of late has been all too prevalent in these United States. Quite willing to squat for nine years on another man's property, relieved of the responsibility of paying rent for that long period of time, he had come to believe it was incumbent upon his unknown, non-collecting landlord to repair that roof. It did not occur to this non-rent-paying tenant that he himself could do something about that leaky roof by repairing it.

This poor fellow had witnessed a paternalistic Federal Government doing for many of the American people numerous things which these people formerly did for themselves and took pride and joy in the doing thereof. All around him he saw educated and more enlightened folks abandoning their independence to become serfs of government. It is small wonder that he should have fallen into the same evil ways and had cast aside what little remained of his self-respect.

Unfortunately, some of the supposed statesmen who we mistakenly have elected to office in Washington, have turned out to be mere politicians — legislators who propose and vote for legislation designed to appeal to the squatters who are too indolent to repair their own leaky roofs. These politicians are not actuated by a sincere desire to help the "under-dog" as they so loudly proclaim, but rather their legislative proposals are designed for the sole and selfish purpose of getting his vote.

These alleged "do-gooders" are to be found in both major political parties. Whether he has his hand on the back of the Donkey or the Elephant, the legislator who proposes "something for nothing" schemes is a charlatan and a faker. In his heart he knows that Uncle Sam can give nothing away to his nieces and nephews that he first does not take away from them.

Fortunately, we do have some real statesmen in the Congress — patriots who know that the leaks in our national economic roof must be plugged up. Right now in the Senate these stalwarts are fighting like beavers to cut the budget. If your United States Senators are among those who are carrying on this good fight, drop them a line — commend them for their statesmanship. That will strengthen their hands; give them renewed courage to carry on. Merited pats on the back do help.

On the other hand, if the United States Senators from your state are not waging this good fight — take them to task for not protecting your interests — demand that they help in the job of plugging up the leaks in our economic roof — insist that they throw away the drills with which they are making additional holes in that economic roof through which more and more of the taxpayer's money will wastefully flow.

W. W. LYNCH IS NEW PRESIDENT OF TEXAS
POWER & LIGHT CO.

John W. Carpenter was named chairman of the board, W. W. Lynch, president and general manager, and Lee E. Cook, vice-president and assistant general manager of Texas Power & Light Company at a meeting of the directors of the company following the annual meeting of stockholders at the Interurban Building, Dallas, Texas, Wednesday.

Mr. Carpenter is now completing his thirtieth year as general manager and his twenty-second year as president and general manager of the company.

Mr. Lynch has been in the service of the company for 26 years, has been vice-president since 1936, executive vice-president since 1947, and a director since 1938. He is a native Texan, born in Marshall. Following his graduation from Texas A&M College in 1922, he spent a year as a student engineer with Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company at East Pittsburgh, Pa., first as sales correspondent and later as service engineer in New York City. In November 1923, he entered the employ of Texas Power & Light Company, where he served successively as assistant to the efficiency engineer, construction supervisor, assistant to the superintendent of transmission and head of the distribution department, which position he held until he was moved to the executive department in 1936 and elected vice-president.

Mr. Cook, a native Texan, born at Jasper, was graduated from Texas A&M College in 1920, after which he entered the employ of the engineering department of Texas Power & Light Company. He has been with the Texas Power & Light Company during the entire time, in various capacities, except for a few years when he was on successive leaves of absence on engineering and executive work in connection with electric utility operations in Texas and elsewhere.

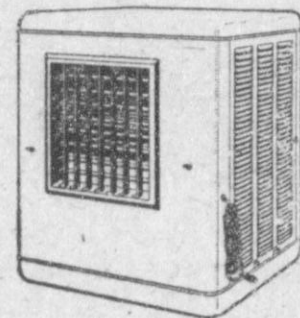

Reporting to the stockholders, Mr. Carpenter told about the progress made during the past year, stating that the company now serves more than 250,000 customers. He reported that, during 1948, the company enlarged its Brownwood power plant by the installation of two 2,250 kilowatt generators, built a new generating station at Clarksville of 1,000 kilowatt capacity, enlarged many of its substations and made a vast number of extensions and improvements to its transmission and distribution facilities. He stated that installation of a new 12,500 kilowatt turbo generator at the Waco power plant has been completed this year and that the new 63,000 kilowatt turbo generator at the Trinidad generating station would be ready for service late in the year.

The stockholders voted to amend the charter of the company so as to increase the authorized common stock from 3,000,000 shares to 6,000,000 shares. The funds derived from the sale of additional stock will be used to finance the company's program of expansion and improvement of its physical property.

No milk will be poured in this little boy's cup if the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF), threatened by a lack of funds, is forced to halt its operations. UNICEF, now feeding supplementary meals to 5,000,000, has scarcely enough money to finish out its planned program for this year. But the hungry children will still be with us then.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT URGES GREATER CARE IN MILK PRODUCTION

AUSTIN.— In view of the fact that June has been proclaimed National Dairy Month, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges that with the more extensive use of milk, both producer and consumer be concerned as to its quality. The use of clean safe milk is a health measure.

Local interest in improved methods of producing wholesome milk has increased greatly in the past two decades and the striking advance in milk control has been responsible for the enormous saving in infant life.

Milk is perishable and especially during hot weather. To insure milk of good quality requires cleanliness, sterile utensils, protection against flies, careful bottling and maintenance at low temperatures. The presence in fresh milk of large numbers of bacteria, due to insanitary methods of production is a health hazard.

Dr. Cox added, "Among the diseases which may be transmitted through milk are tuberculosis, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, septic sore throat, undulant fever, diarrhea and enteritis. Numerous milk-borne outbreaks of disease occur every year in this country from the use of milk that might have been safe with proper care."

"We should firmly insist that the milk we drink be carefully produced, so that we will have the maximum practicable protection along the line from the cow to the consumer."

Giles Says Procedure For Acquiring Land Under Vet Program To Be Kept Simple

By BASCOM GILES
Commissioner of the General Land Office and Chairman of the Veterans' Land Board

(Editor's Note: This is the concluding article of a series of three by Bascom Giles explaining the newly created Veterans' Land Board Program.)

In keeping with the terms of the legislation creating the Texas Veterans' Land Board, its administration and operating policies will be kept as simple as the problems of this huge program will permit.

The fact that approximately 13,000 veterans have already contacted this office for information on the working details of the plan indicates the commendable desire of veterans to own a farm or ranch home under the idea originally conceived by the author five years ago.

Paper work involving application to participate has been cut to the minimum. Each successive step has been shorn of all encumbering delays.

For example, proof of the applicant's eligibility can be established by submitting a certified copy of his honorable discharge plus substantiation that the applicant was a resident of Texas at the time he entered military service and is still a legal resident at the time of application for land program benefits. For those taking advantage of the 90 day priority offered those who have a service-connected disability sustained in combat, certification of such must accompany the application.

Each veteran will be limited to one purchase not exceeding $7,500 cost to the Board. He will be required to pay not less than five per cent down and execute an on-or-before note for 40 years at three per cent interest for the balance.

Should a purchaser desire to acquire a tract of land costing NOT more than $10,000 he will be required to pay the difference between $7,500 and the purchase price plus the five per cent down payment on the $7,500 loan.

He shall have served not less than 90 days on active duty in some branch of the armed service between September 16, 1940 and December 31, 1946, unless discharged sooner for service-connected disabilities. A certified copy of the applicant's honorable discharge will be required to be filed with application. In addition, a veteran who leases his land for oil or gas must apply one-half of all bonus and rentals to the retirement of his debt.

The veterans will NOT be required to live upon the property but he will NOT be permitted to dispose of it for a period of three years.

Payments of principle on note with interest will be made on a semi-annual basis. Each veteran will receive a contract of sale from the state and upon final payment he or she will be granted absolute title.

Failure to make payments when due, permits the Board to revoke the contract of purchase and to forfeit the land which can then be offered for resale to other veterans.

A veteran may reinstate his land which has been forfeited, up to the announced date of resale by payment of a penalty and placing account in good standing.

The Board in its first meeting named Alvis Vandygriff as executive secretary.

Vandygriff, an attorney, who hails from Ennis, Texas, has been serving as Chief Clerk of the General Land Office. He is a veteran of World War II having served as a Major in the Army Air Force. He was selected by the Board to direct the administrative machinery of the new program on the basis of his long experience in the Land Office where the offices and records of the program will be maintained.

For additional information or proper application forms, write the Veterans' Land Board, Bascom Giles, Chairman, General Land Office, Austin, Texas.

92 REGISTER FOR NCCW MEETING AT LINDSAY JUNE 22

Eighty-four ladies and 8 members of the clergy registered at Lindsay Wednesday for the quarterly session of the Sherman Deanery National Council of Catholic Women. Members present represented eight of the ten units in the deanery.

Rev. James Tucek of Sherman, deanery moderator, led the opening prayer and Mrs. A. G. Hutton of Gainesville read minutes of the meeting held in Denton in March. Mrs. Pete Block, president of the Lindsay unit, extended welcome and Mrs. C. W. Ganter of Sherman brought the president's message.

Very Rev. Msgr. W. J. Bender of Dallas, diocesan moderator, was the principal speaker. His topic was "The Call to the Women of Today" in which he explained Catholic Action. Mrs. A. E. Wyss of Denton, as guest speaker, gave an address on "Lay Retreats". Msgr. Bender announced that His Excellency Bishop Lynch is quite ill in St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas, and members agreed to remember him in their prayers and to send him a message wishing him a speedy recovery.

Presidents of the parish units gave their quarterly reports, Mrs. Tony Gremminger, reading Muenster's report. Mrs. Theodore Rauschuber of Lindsay presided at the registration book, and members chose Denison as host city for the next meeting. It will be held on the last Tuesday in September.

A committee, headed by Father Tucek, was appointed to prepare programs for the meetings and Mrs. John Mosman of the Muenster unit was named a member of the committee.

The program closed with Sacramental Benediction in St. Peter's church with Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, officiating.

Members of the Lindsay unit served a delicious fried chicken supper after the church service. The Lindsay school auditorium was headquarters for the meeting and supper.

OVER THE WAVES—Mrs. Zetta Hills, 52, has accepted a challenge from another cycling enthusiast to race across the English Channel on bicycles equipped with floats, from Calais to Dover. Mrs. Hills says she has made several such aqua-cycle trips in the past, once covering the distance in 16½ hours.

Attending the session from Muenster were Rev. John Walbe, Mmes. Tony Gremminger, J. M. Weinzappel, Walter Richter, Frank Bindel, J. W. Hess, Henry Pick, M. J. Endres, John Mosman, Misses Olivia Stock, Betty Lue Buckley and Mary Pick.

Mmes. Louie and C. J. Bernauer and Mary Faith Bernauer spent Tuesday in Fort Worth visiting the Charles Stelzers. The Stelzers are now located in their new home which they bought recently. They lost all of their possessions in the flood last month. Their new home is at 2028 Oakland Blvd.

Dr. T. S. Myrick attended the 136th semi-annual meeting of the North Texas Medical association, district 14, in Gainesville last week. Eighty-five doctors registered for the Tuesday session. The Ladies Auxillary of the medical association served a barbecue dinner at noon. Mrs. Myrick was among members present.

THURSDAY CEREMONY UNITES CLARA MAGES AND HAROLD SCHMITZ

An impressive double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart church Thursday morning, June 23, united Miss Clara Mages, daughter of Joe Mages of Muenster, and Harold Schmitz, son of Theo Schmitz of Lindsay.

Rev. John Walbe read the double ring service at 8 o'clock before the altar banked with gladiolas, daisies and greenery. He also officiated at the nuptial high mass. Anthony Luke, organist, played the wedding marches and assisted the choir in singing the mass. Willard Hartman, William Walterscheid, Randolph, Donald and Ernest Bayer, cousins of the young couple, were acolytes. Immediately following the mass the choir sang a hymn in honor of the Sacred Heart while the bride placed a bouquet of pink gladiolas at the foot of the Sacred Heart statue.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin designed with a slim fitted bodice and full gored skirt which fell into graceful folds at the back and extended into a formal length train. The bodice was accented with a sheer, roundnecked marquisette yoke and a shirred band of satin simulating the off-shoulder effect. The leg-o'-mutton sleeves formed petal points over her hands. The skirt and train were edged with Chantilly lace and the skirt front was caught in three places with satin bows tied in love knots, revealing a multi-ruffled petticoat. Chantilly lace also edged the bride's fingertip length veil of imported French illusion which fell from a sweetheart crown of Chantilly lace.

For something borrowed the bride wore a double strand of pearls belonging to her cousin, Miss Bernice Grewing; earrings were something blue, and she wore a penny in her shoe. She carried a white prayerbook, a gift from the groom, and a large arm bouquet of white carnations centered with a single orchid.

Miss Pauline Mages, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Loerwald of Hereford, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical bouffant dresses of orchid and blue marquisette, respectively, and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations. Their headdresses were sweetheart crowns and their jewelry, gifts from the bride and groom, were rhinestone necklaces and bracelets.

Lee Roy Metzler, cousin of the groom, and Norbert Mages, brother of the bride, attended the groom. Bill Metzler and Robert Bayer were ushers.

Little Patsy and Pat Klement, twin niece and nephew of the groom were flower girl and ring bearer. Patsy wore a pastel green organly dress. Pat carried the rings on a white pillow of pure silk which the groom brought back from Japan.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Mages Sr., of Lindsay, had a white carnation corsage.

After the services the bridal party and immediate members of both families were guests for breakfast in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schmitz. Table appointments were of crystal and silver on white linen and the centerpiece was a square three-tier wedding cake. Daisies and other garden flowers decorated the home.

At 5 o'clock a reception began in the parish hall and about 225 relatives and friends were guests for a buffet supper. Miss Lillian Knabe, close friend of the bride, presided at the bride's book. A dance at Danceland 77 concluded the day's festivities.

During the dance Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz left on a wedding trip, the bride wearing a navy and white floral bemberg sheer costume with navy and white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride was born and educated at Muenster and the groom is a native of Lindsay where he attended school. Both have been active in the Young Men's and Young Ladies Societies of their parishes and the groom served in the army for 26 months with 19 months of active overseas duty with the First Cavalry Division.

ially in this age, is that of permitting a youngster to use the car only when he feels convinced that the youngster will be careful and courteous.

All three of those corrective measures can be applied to Muenster if we will only make up our minds that we're going to have safe and sane driving. Perhaps we can't get the recommended type of double control cars. Perhaps we can't offer a high school credit for the subject. But we can, if we so decide, teach safety in school. The important thing is to make kids more alert, skillful and considerate.

We can also find a way to apply a few laws. All we need is someone with the jurisdiction to crack down and a group of alert citizens who have the spirit to turn in their complaints. That stuff about needing a cop to make arrests is so much hooey. Any reliable witness on the sidewalk can testify if a kid has been driving recklessly. An aroused citizenry can make these wild drivers settle down if it decides to do so.

And if the aroused citizenry happens to include parents of the guilty guys, so much the better. With instruction, example and a little disciplinary pressure to boot, a lot of them can manage to eliminate their own kids from the list of offenders.

Something else that might help is a different attitude on the part of the more sensible kids. Instead of tolerating wild driving as a sort of necessary evil they should make a habit of expressing their real opinions. Some fellows will change their ways when they realize that they rate as morons and public enemies. Just now they think they are showing their superiority. Why not let them know they are actually regarded as inferiors.
