

Once again it is Con's pleasure to call attention to a small significant change in the Enterprise, the new volume number appearing just to the right of this column. Today this paper enters its thirteenth year of publication.

It's our birthday, and, we're proud to add, a happy birthday. It's an occasion to look back on twelve interesting and eventful years during which the Enterprise has had the pleasure of recording thousands of details associated with Muenster's steady development. It is an occasion also to look forward in pleasant anticipation. On the premise that past achievement is an indication of what is to follow, the column confidently assumes that this community is destined to enjoy many more gratifying advancements. Future prospects for the Enterprise are bright because future prospects for Muenster are bright.

By an appropriate coincidence this paper's birthday every year falls on Thanksgiving Day. It just happened. Back in 1936 no special day was set to present the first edition. Time was the only governing factor. But when the first anniversary rolled around we were aware that we had much to be thankful for, and we were glad to have it fall on the one day set aside by our nation to give thanks for blessings and favors.

We have felt the same ever since. Thanksgiving is a day of special thanksgiving to us. Today we are grateful for another happy year in a career which we hope will eventually extend into a long record of worth while community service.

Among the memories associated with the first issue of this paper, one of the most vivid is the lead story proclaiming that Muenster's Main Street was being paved.

The work was done on a cold, dreary day, which may help explain why the job did not stand up satisfactorily. Now, exactly twelve years later, it is our pleasure to observe that our second paving job awaits more favorable weather for the application of surface material, that it has about four inches more of gravel base and that it is shaped for better drainage. Indications are that we will have a good strip of pavement this time.

Also in connection with that original story on pavement, it is gratifying for the paper to state exactly twelve years later that quite a few other spots around town are due to be paved soon. Committees working on the projects the past few days report a very encouraging response. The old progressive spirit is asserting itself. Given an opportunity to work together for a notable civic improvement most of our citizens are coming through with flying colors, even though some have to dig deep for the necessary funds.

When it comes to team loyalty that bunch of Bulldog boosters at Alvord are in a class by themselves. They aren't ordinary fans who yell their encouragement from the sidelines. No siree, they're real helpers who put on the old Alma Mammy's colors and lend their physical assistance in the lineup.

That game with the Hornets last Friday night was a splendid example of their spirit. Fellows who have been out of uniform for three or four years came back and put up a mighty struggle in behalf of their favorite school. They must have been out of the game at least that long because some of them apparently were not aware that substitutes no longer need report to officials when entering a game.

Somebody slipped up on that little deal when an old timer returns to the game he really should be informed of rule changes since his day. It's embarrassing to be caught trying to slip over a fast one.

As far as the Hornets are concerned the only regrets are those of the little fellows who did not have a chance to play. The regulars aren't down-hearted. When they discovered the frame-up they adopted the attitude that they had everything to win and nothing to lose. They played like fury for the satisfaction of winning against stacked odds. But they are pleased to settle for the tie. They feel it does more credit to their record than to Alvord's. As the old saying goes, it matters not so much whether you win or lose but how you play the game.

Albert A. Schrempf Passes November 10 At Topeka, Kansas

Word reached Muenster the latter part of last week that Albert A. Schrempf, 72, of Topeka, Kansas, passed away in that city on Nov. 10, following a two months' illness.

He was well known locally for his frequent visits to this city in connection with the Catholic Life Insurance Union during the past 8 years.

He was very active until last September when he first mentioned feeling "under the weather" and was advised by his physician to quit traveling and take it easy.

Survivors are his wife, two daughters and two sons (and several grandchildren).

Early Touchdown Gives Hornets 6-0 Win Over Gunter Hi

A touchdown in the first two minutes of play on Flesher's end sweep from the 11 was the measure of the Hornets' victory over the Gunter Tigers here Thursday night.

The rest of the game was a see-saw struggle in which both teams reached scoring positions but lacked the final punch to get across.

Weather also had its effect on the game. A howling gale from the northwest imposed a serious handicap on both teams and practically ruled out any chance of success in an aerial offense. The visitors nevertheless continued to try their passes and ended the game with only one completion out of 13 attempts. The Hornets likewise completed only one pass but they tried only six throughout the game.

Spectators too had a rough time in the wind. Most of the few dozen who saw the game were huddled in blankets and a few were shivering on the sidelines. Even officials had an extra problem with the storm. Between plays they had to have someone hold the ball in order to keep it from tumbling away.

Apparently aided by the wind at their backs the Hornets breezed on to their first score before the visitors had a chance to get well set. Holding the Tigers after the kickoff they received a punt on their 48 and crossed the goal in 6 plays. Flesher's try for the extra point was bad and the score stood at 6 to 0.

The rest of the half was played mostly in mid-field with the visitors holding a slight advantage and advancing to their only threat of the game just before the period ended.

Intercepting a Hornet pass on the 45, the Tigers followed with their only completed pass of the night to reach the 20. Two runs from there set up a first down on the 9 just as the half ended.

Muenster's second scoring threat came early in the second half after taking a Gunter kick on the 45. Herr's pass to Flesher reached the 28 and a dash by Flesher reached the 11 but Gunter held there and took the ball over on downs.

Completing a first down on the 25 Gunter fumbled and Muenster took over for 4 more unsuccessful tries to score.

The Tigers then added two more first downs before kicking in mid-field and the Hornets started another futile drive from their own 25. They got as far as the Tigers' 33 and lost on downs.

The remaining few minutes of play consisted of four exchanges in mid-field, neither team being able to complete its series of downs against the other.

PUBLIC SCHOOL GIRLS LOSE 1, BOYS LOSE 2

Athletes of the Muenster Public School encountered rough going in all three of their contests during the past week.

At Callisburg Friday afternoon the volleyball girls lost their three game match by scores 10-15, 15-13 and 10-15. That same afternoon the basketball team went down in 12-8 defeat before the Callisburg boys.

In their regular Wednesday afternoon contest the boys gave their Parochial School rivals a close game but weakened in the final minutes and lost by a count of 26-21.

MRS. ERVIN HAMRIC HEADS PARISH DRIVE FOR 'CROP' DONATIONS

Mrs. Ervin Hamric has been named general chairman of the Muenster community for the annual food campaign for the starving people of Europe and elsewhere. Father Herman Laux, pastor of Sacred Heart church, made the announcement Wednesday.

This year's campaign differs from those of previous years in that it will be conducted in a house to house campaign, soliciting donations both in the city and the rural districts.

Mrs. Hamric will organize her working committee and make her announcements so that the drive can get underway as soon as the time appointed for the campaign in Texas is made known.

This year the War Relief Service will be represented by the Catholic Rural Life as a participating agency known as the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) as the collecting and distributing center. All Catholic dioceses in the United States are organizing for the drive. Father Donald A. Hartnett of Longview is in charge of organizing the Dallas diocese.

P-TA DESCRIBED AS CLEARING HOUSE FOR SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Referring to the Parent-Teacher Association as a "clearing house", Sister M. Theresina, principal of Sacred Heart High school brought an inspiring message to members of the school's P-TA at the regular meeting last Thursday night.

She explained by "clearing house" she meant that parents and teachers are urged to bring their problems and difficulties to light at the organization's meetings in an effort to work out satisfactory solutions.

The discourse was charming and informal, and was prompted, she said, in observance of Education Week.

The business session preceded Sister Theresina's address. Committee chairmen gave reports and the social committee announced tentative plans for the school's annual Christmas party and the customary visit of Saint Nicholas.

MANY DIE FROM GAS FUMES EVERY YEAR; BETTER BE CAREFUL

AUSTIN.—With the advent of cold weather each year in this State, several deaths are usually reported, resulting from asphyxiation by gas fumes in improperly ventilated homes or sleeping quarters.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning in this respect, emphasizing that it is never safe to sleep in a tightly closed room with a gas fire burning. Even if there are no gas leaks, the air soon becomes vitiated and unfit to breathe.

"When occupying a room in which gas is burning, be sure always to have at least one window or door open, to admit fresh air", Dr. Cox said. "If the weather is too cold to permit an open window in the room occupied, then play safe by opening a door into an adjoining room, where a window can be opened."

Dr. Cox said he was prompted to issue this warning early in the season because of the fact that thousands of new residents in the State have come from districts where they have been used to burning coal, wood or oil, and they do not know the dangers of gas fumes in improperly ventilated homes.

"Occupying a room heated by an open gas flame and at the same time keeping the room tightly closed, may prove disastrous the very first time it is tried," Dr. Cox said. "It is better not to risk it even one time. Always be sure that your room has plenty of fresh air, but make doubly sure when you have a gas fire burning."

Patrol No. 1 of the Muenster Boy Scout troop spent Sunday on a hike to Marysville and had a lesson by Scoutmaster Nick Miller on cooking without utensils. Seven members of the patrol and Scribe Bert Hamric accompanied the Scoutmaster on the day's outing.

Mrs. John Fisch returned to her home in Okmulgee, Okla., Tuesday after spending a week here at the bedside of her husband's mother, Mrs. J. P. Fisch, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Endres. She also visited her sisters in this city and her daughter of Gainesville.

Mower Plant Under New Name, Owner Resumes Operation

A change in the ownership and name of the Muenster lawn mower factory became effective last Saturday when equipment and inventory of the business was purchased by G. I. Garner of Houston and his father, J. G. Garner of Wichita Falls. It will operate in the future under the name of Western Industries, Inc.

According to an agreement reached between directors of the Muenster Manufacturing Company and the Garners, the business will continue to operate in its present location. The buildings and real estate, not included in the transaction will be leased to the new firm.

L. H. Baumhardt, manager under the previous ownership, will continue to direct the plant's operations.

PARISH WILL MEET SUNDAY TO ELECT CHURCH COMMITTEE

Members of the Muenster Sacred Heart parish will elect a new church committee next Sunday. Father Herman Laux requested the special election after an announcement last Sunday that some present members, after serving for several years, had expressed their desire to resign.

The election procedure, he explained, will be to nominate 15 or more persons for the committee. In the ballot the five receiving the largest number of votes will be the new committee members and the next five will make up a special building committee to assist the church committee in building the new church.

Present church committeemen are John Bayer, Felix Becker, G. H. Hellman, J. B. Klement and J. M. Weinzapfel.

PUBLIC SCHOOL P-TA ELECTS MRS. R. P. CAIN AS 48-49 PRESIDENT

Mrs. R. P. Cain is president of the Muenster Independent School Parent-Teacher Association for the current term. She was elected at last Thursday night's meeting, the organization's first of the present school year.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Howard Beauford, vice president; Mrs. Nomi Whitt, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Jess Mitchell, program chairman.

The next regular meeting of the organization is set for Dec. 2 at which time the Christmas theme will be featured.

The first meeting held in the parish hall Wednesday night, Nov. 17, emphasized poultry management, culling, marketing, chick raising and egg grading. About 100 local people attended.

The second meeting held in Gainesville the following Friday night featured lectures and demonstrations on cutting and curing meats. About 35 local people were included in the crowd of approximately 200.

Both meetings were sponsored by County Agent B. T. Haws in cooperation with local business concerns.

Hornets and Alvord Huskies Battle to Scoreless Deadlock

Muenster's second game with Alvord Hi was a different story altogether from the 37-7 runaway here earlier in the season.

When the Hornets squared off at Alvord Friday night they found a team of matured Bulldogs beside whom the original eleven would have looked like so many pups. And when the final whistle blew they were well pleased with their 0 to 0 tie. In view of the odds stacked against them it represented as much achievement as the previous one-sided victory.

To a great extent the game was a match of training and coordination against power. The Hornets had an advantage in teamwork and deception whereas the Bulldogs surpassed in strength and speed. As the game neared its end, endurance showed up as another factor favoring the Hornets. They made the gains in the second half whereas the Bulldogs dominated the first half.

The first quarter was mostly a series of exchanges with Alvord making two first downs but failing to reach a threatening position.

As the second quarter opened the Bulldogs completed three first downs in rapid succession to advance from the 45 to the 5 but an intercepted pass on the 4 stopped their only serious threat of the game.

Four plays later a Hornet drive upfield ended suddenly with an interception on the 30 after which both teams held until the half. The tally of first downs for the period was five for Alvord, one for Muenster.

In the second half the Hornets led the offensive with 4 first downs against one. The trend of the period was almost a complete reverse of the first, with most of the playing on Alvord's side of the field and the Hornets reaching scoring position once.

During the third quarter and most of the fourth both teams held, Muenster completing two first downs but failing to get near the goal line.

In the final minutes the Hornets gave the fans a few tense moments. Starting with an interception on the 45 they stormed to the 35 then the 20. Four plays from there failed by inches to make first down and Alvord took the ball as the game ended.

Pavement Projects Originate Saturday In Community Meet

The movement to pave residential streets of Muenster took definite shape at a special meeting of the Muenster Community Council in the parish hall last Saturday night.

Before the meeting ended separate committees had been organized on each of several streets to see neighbors and develop their own street projects. All intend to complete their contracts this week.

Mayor J. M. Weinzapfel in explaining the project pointed out that the city would cooperate with property owners according to either of two plans. If owners desire a full width pavement the city will finance the cost of the center third while the owner on each side will pay for his third. The other plan provides for a 24 foot pavement in the center of the street the cost to be shared by property owners. In either event the city will bear the full cost of paving intersections.

The cost of paving under the first plan is $1.40 per foot of front to each property owner. In case he has no concrete curb he can arrange for an additional three feet shaped into a drainage ditch for an additional cost of 30 cents per foot of front. The cost to each owner for his half of a 24 foot pavement is $1.20 per running foot.

W. B. Woodruff of the Cooper and Woodruff contracting firm advised that the prices quoted apply only if the projects are organized in time to permit his workers to start on them immediately after finishing the present north Muenster road job.

The pavement job he said, will consist of grading for proper drainage, a 5 inch gravel base and a two course asphalt and rock surface.

Persons who want the pavement are expected to deposit the money in escrow in the bank to be collected by the contractor after the work is finished.

TELEPHONE SERVICE ALONG NEW FM ROAD NOW BEING RESTORED

Telephone service, interrupted more than a week ago to permit line changes along the new farm to market road right of way, is gradually being restored this week.

Wednesday night line building was complete to the road intersection about 2 miles north of town and service was restored on lines connecting between that point and town.

In setting the line back to make room for a wider right of way the phone company built a complete new line using high tension wire to permit wider spans between poles.

PROMPT DIAGNOSIS IS BEST CHECK ON SPREAD OF DISEASE

AUSTIN.— In a statement on controlling communicable diseases issued by the Texas State Department of Health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer states that if every case of suspected communicable disease were seen promptly by the family physician and definitely diagnosed, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from these disabling diseases.

"The theory that it is a good thing for children to have these catching childhood diseases and get them over with, has long since been proven an error which may actually endanger a child's Plodgers for farm produce, including grain, beans, meat, and cotton, are being accepted during the Thanksgiving season. School children in many areas are contributing a quart of milk each. All contributions will be assembled in 23 state trains between Dec. 18 and Dec. 25. These trains will roll to 10 different ports, where simultaneous dedications will be held on Christmas day. CROP Christmas trains are sponsored by Catholic and Protestant church groups.

life," says Dr. Cox. "The longer he can avoid having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be protected by immunization against all diseases where an immunity can be established."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation and good medical care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the milder forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine protects not only the patient, but helps to prevent the spread of the disease to other persons.

"The State Health Department," Dr. Cox said, "does everything within its power to protect the health of the people of Texas, but the cooperation of every individual in protecting his own health and that of his community will do more than anything else to successfully check the spread of communicable diseases among our people."

THANKSGIVING DAY 1948

DEAR FRIENDS,

According to latest reports, the casualty list of the turkey family has risen quite out of proportion. Today is the day the turkey gets it in the neck, and we get it in the stomach. Although Thanksgiving is thoroughly dreaded by our unfortunate feathered friends it is, on the contrary, well observed and remembered by millions of thankful Americans.

You know the familiar expression, "The grass always looks greener on the other side of the fence". Well, today we can stop for a few moments to view our own green grass . . . lo and behold! it would take more than ten fingers to count the many blessings God has so generously bestowed upon us. Maybe this day should be remembered quietly every month, or even every week. Then our lack of enthusiasm in facing daily problems would not be so limited; living would be more pleasant.

As for me, I am especially thankful for one thing on this Thanksgiving Day. So I say "Thank You" for the privilege of serving you in your watch repair and jewelry needs. Drop in for a visit.

Yours gratefully,

Francis A. Wiese

THE EGG AND YOU

Something's got to be done about it, and right quick. Just imagine, I went to my pet grocery store today and bought a pound of butter for the paltry sum of 71c, just 28c less than I paid a few weeks ago. What's the matter with the Administration and its economic planners? With the price of butter already down to 71c a pound, and threatening to go even lower, things have come to a pretty pass, indeed!

The first thing you know, most of us will be able to buy butter without first having to cash in a government bond. And that would be just too bad; that's something the Administration planners must not allow to happen, and you can depend upon it, they won't. As for us, we will accept no alibis, no excuses — they can get the price of butter up again — look what they've been able to do with with eggs and other foodstuffs.

Let's pause for a moment to see what they've done with eggs. They worked miracles with them. All through the midwest states a spell ago the hens really began to go to work — they stepped up their production. Now, don't blame the poor hens. You see, no one has ever told them about the Government-price-support-program, and the danger of creating surpluses. So, the first thing you know, egg prices drop below 90% of parity. And that's when the Government egg-buyers went to town. They worked so well that they soon got the situation well in hand — eggs are now back up to 95c a dozen.

Of course, it took a lot of our tax money to accomplish this worthy (?) objective. But what does that matter? Aren't eggs once again priced so high that we cannot afford to buy them? What do we care about the measly $28,000,000 the Government paid out so far this year up to the middle of October to purchase 2,866,834 cases (with 30 dozen eggs to the case)?

And don't let it disturb you in the slightest that most of these Government-purchased eggs will be allowed to decompose. The Government boys got 'em away from us didn't they? That's what really counts. The Secretary of Agriculture says, "So far we have gotten rid of 3,175,000 pounds of these dried eggs. We have donated them to school lunch programs and the like. It's possible that we may sell some of these dried eggs later."

Don't let that statement alarm you too much. If they do sell them, the dried eggs will be sold at a big loss, and in markets that can not affect the price you pay for eggs at the corner grocery store.

But, to be serious, isn't it ridiculous? That is too mild a word. It's crazy. Here we are paying more tax money to make certain that we will have to pay more money for our food. Why do we, a supposedly intelligent people, put up with such arrogant nonsense?

Well, we have just elected a new Congress which will go into action next January. The first piece of business of the 81st Congress should be to unscramble this Government omelet; put a stop to this squandering of tax funds in order to keep food prices beyond our ability to pay.

You can make sure that Congress sees its duty and does it. Let your Congressman-elect know that you are "fed up" with this crack-pot, cockeyed Government planning — that you want eggs on your dining table, not rotting in Government store-houses. That's how you can help bring about a restoration of friendly relations between THE EGG AND YOU.

Not only do the kids stay home nights, but the neighbors drop in to see whatever's being telecast. And Buck and the missus always make them welcome, with a mellow glass of beer or ale (with cider and cookies for the youngsters).

RAY VOTH MARRIES LUCILLE ARENDT IN NUPTIAL AT LINDSAY

Miss Lucille Arendt and Ray Voth were married Thursday morning November 18, at 8:30 in rites performed in Saint Peter's church, Lindsay, with Rev. Conrad Herda, pastor, officiating at the ring ceremony and at the nuptial high mass.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was beautiful in a gown of white slipper satin. It was designed with a fitted bodice topped with a sheer marquisette yoke edged with Chantilly lace. Long fitted sleeves formed points over her hands. The full flared skirt extended into a long train. She wore a finger tip length veil of scalloped Chantilly lace attached to a satin halo, and a five-strand pearl necklace, a gift from the groom.

For "something old" she wore a ring that the groom's mother wore at her wedding more than 50 years ago, "something blue" was a rosary, and "something borrowed" was a bridal prayerbook belonging to her sister, Mrs. Albert Herr. The bride carried her flowers on top of the prayerbook.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Miss Florene Arendt, maid of honor, and Misses Lu Ella and Joan Arendt, bridesmaids, and the groom's nieces, Misses Mary Elizabeth and Alma Louise Kubis, junior bridesmaids. The five young ladies wore identical frocks of baby blue satin with fitted bodices, long sleeves and full flared skirts, matching satin crowns, and carried white prayerbooks topped with a gardenia. They completed their costumes by carrying white lace and linen handkerchiefs, gifts from the bride.

The groom's attendants were his brothers, Leo and Ted Voth, and Richard Pulte. Johnny Arendt and Ben Voth were ushers.

Mothers of the couple wore black ensembles with black accessories and corsages of white mums.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of the wedding breakfast which followed immediately after the ceremony and was served by Mmes. Paul Arendt Jr. and Albert Herr. At 5 o'clock an informal reception honored the couple in the Lindsay community hall. Some 300 guests registered in the bride's book and were served a buffet supper. Mrs. Albert Herr registered the guests.

The bride's table stressed the all-white theme and was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mrs. Emmet Fette and Mrs. John Hoberer, sisters of the bride, served the wedding cake. At 9 o'clock a dance began in the Muenster K of C hall. During the dance the newlyweds departed on a wedding trip. Mrs. Voth wearing a black gabardine suit with gray accessories and a corsage of white glads. When they return they will make their home south of Muenster.

Mrs. Voth was born in Lindsay and attended Lindsay school. Mr. Voth is a native of Muenster, attended Sacred Heart school, and graduated from Mour Hill High school in Atchison, Kansas. He served with the Marines during the war and spent three years overseas in the Southwest Pacific. Since returning he has been associated with Voth Brothers Drilling Co.

Among out of town guests at the wedding were Sgt. Ernest Arendt, Fort Sill, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neu, Arcadia, Iowa; Miss Marie Neu, Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bierschenk and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neu, Valley View.

LAWRENCE SICKING,
MARCELLA BEZNER
WED AT ST. MARY'S

Miss Marcella Bezner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bezner of Gainesville, became the bride of Lawrence Sicking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Sicking of Myra, in ceremonies performed on Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 9 a.m. in Saint Mary's church, Gainesville. Rev. Peter Molloy, pastor, officiated at the ring ceremony and nuptial high mass.

STORE PECANS EARLY; THE SOONER IT'S DONE THE BETTER FOR THEM

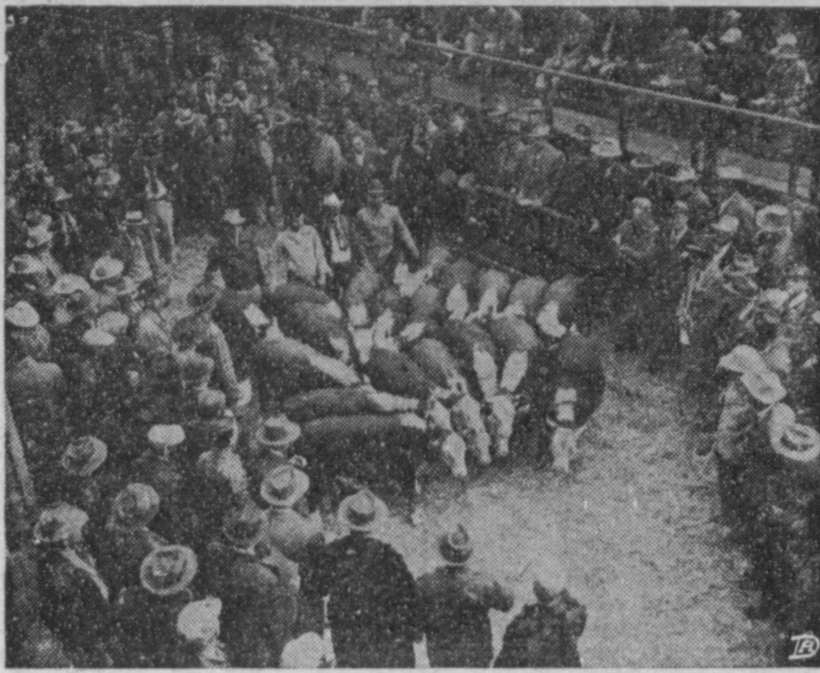

COLLEGE STATION.— Whether they are canned, frozen or in the shell, pecans go nicely with cold evenings by the fireside. And, if you intend to store any of this year's big crop of pecans, don't wait too long to get started. This information comes from Lucille Shultz, extension food preservation specialist of Texas A & M College.

Waiting too long before putting them away might give the pecans a chance to get rancid. So for best results, store them before January.

Freshly shelled pecans may be packaged in cellophane bags, tin cans, freezer jars, or heavily waxed cartons. Seal the container and store at 0 degrees F. in a home freezer or a commercial locker. No heating is necessary when freezing pecans.

If you're canning pecans, they should be shelled, sorted, and cleaned of all the little bits of shell. Put pecans in a slow oven for a pre-heating treatment, but make sure they don't scorch. When done, pack the pecans to within an inch of the top of hot, dry jars, and drop in a piece of crumpled parchment paper to absorb the moisture.

Semi-seal the jars and put them in the pressure cooker. Adjust the lid and clamp. Leave the pet-cock open for seven minutes, or until you see the steam coming out. Close the cooker lid and raise the pressure to five pounds. Release it immediately to bring out the moisture, and, at the same time, create a vacuum in-

They had previously been declared Grand Champions over 128 carloads of all breeds shown. These 20 Herefords which averaged 366.5 pounds per head were purchased by John P. side the jar.

Take the jars out of the pressure cooker and complete the sealing job. Wipe them dry and allow to cool before storing them on the pantry shelf. Now they're ready for eating.

If you'd rather leave the pecans in the shell, better store them below 32 degrees F. — and they will last as long as a year.

Whether frozen, canned or stored in the shell, says Miss Shultz, they'll taste mighty good these cold winter evenings or next spring.

MANY ACHIEVEMENTS QUALIFY RITA BLOCK FOR 1948 4-H HONOR

Rita Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick H. Block of Lindsay County 4-H Gold Star Girl for 1948 has an enviable record. Rita is 16 years old and has been a 4-H club girl for 5 years. Her demonstrations, during these years, include, bedroom improvement, yard improvement, food preparation and preservation, and assistance in all phases of home improvement. She not only assists with the household tasks, but helps with the poultry and dairying and assists her father in operating a 100 acre farm. Carpentering has proved to be

Rita's hidden talent. During the past year the family has completely remodeled their home. Rita assisted by building the closets, putting on base boards, and doing the finishing work in all three bedrooms.

Her daily chores include the care of 500 chickens, 12 head of cattle, 20 to 40 head of swine, and 4 milk cows. On the average she milks the 4 cows every day. This year she raised 50 chickens of her own. So far she has made $4.00 from the sale of fliers and $25.00 from the sale of eggs.

In addition to her outside work she still has time to do all of her own sewing. This year she made 4 dresses, 2 blouses, and 1 skirt. She entered the county dress revue contest and won second place.

Rita is president of the Lindsay 4-H club, organist for the high school choir, a position she has held for 4 years, and is assistant organist for the church choir. She is an honor student in the Lindsay school.
