MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

JUNE 21, 1963

NUMBER 31

The eight justices of the Supreme Court who banned The Lord's Prayer and Bible quotations in public schools should have their heads examined. That was the comment of one US Senator, and it meets the approval of practically everyone who has any appreciation of moral and religious values.

It is hard to imagine how any group of learned men can go so far astray from the basic principles of our constitution, which proclaims our dependence on Almighty God and asserts our rights to worship Him according to the dictates of our conscience.

What a twist of logic that decision was! Pretending to defend our freedom of religion, it actually denies that right. All that it really accomplished was to move a step nearer the atheistic goal of abolishing religion.

As common sense prompts us to interpret it, freedom of religion implies one's right to practice religion. If the teacher and students of a classroom choose to start the day by honoring God with a prayer or inspirational passages from the scripture that should be their right under the constitution. Nothing should deny that right, especially not the objection of an atheist who claims to be offended by it. The significant point is that his right to disbelieve is not necessarily violated. He is free not to participate.

The decree seems utterly ridiculous in light of the fact that the big majority of Americans claims to believe in God, and officially we claim that ours is a Christian nation. Admittedly there is a clash between Christian and atheist in this matter of prayer. Also there is no half way measure of solving the problem. Pleasing one faction necessarily displeases the other. But why, since that dilemma is inescapable must they choose to offend a big majority and please a very small minority? This is hardly consistent with the democratic principle that in conflicting interests the wish of the majority takes precedence.

Above all, there's the matter of offense to Almighty God. One wonders what kind of twisted thinking could induce the judges, who themselves claim religious affiliation, to snub their Creator in order to pacify a few atheists. Judged by eternal values that act appears to be very short sighted.

No matter how one figures it, by constitutional law, by democratic considerations or by morality, the judges goofed in a big way on this one. Regardless of how they try to back up their decision by high sounding gobbledegook, the plain fact is that they insulted God and weakened the moral structure of our country. They are prescribing for national decline.

Sadly we have to admit that this follows a trend which has been apparent much too often in recent decades. An early instance of it was noted in organizing the United Nations when our weak-kneed representatives and those of some other Christian nations agreed to ban prayer, thereby insulting God to please Stalin. During the years the UN has not asked for Divine guidance, and look what a mess it has made of the world. From that boner alone we should be wary about banning prayer anywhere.

A similar attitude has been apparent in dealings with communists. Time after time our high court has ruled in favor of the reds and against our own interests in dealing with the traitors and spies.

Meanwhile others in high places, under the guise of academic or political freedom, allow the reds to spread their poison wherever they please.

Appeasement of the communists in international affairs, while betraying our friends and guardians of freedom, is another frightening symptom. The whole history of communist growth has been a shameful account of compromising sacred principle and honor for the highly questionable purpose of getting along with people who have no principle or honor.

The supreme court's recent decision is another such misguided effort. It's a concession to the forces of evil, another failure to appraise an issue according to moral standards, another violation of national

County FB Starts Program on Rural Fire Protection

Cooke County Farm Bureau is participating in a program to assist local volunteer fire departments in fire prevention and protection in rural areas, according to R. F. Hasenpflug of Valley View, president.

The county FB leader said the Farm Bureau will help defray the expenses for sending a limited number of volunteer firemen to a firemen's training school to be held July 21-26 at Texas A. and M. College. The Farm Bureau will pay $45 of the $50 registration fee for members of local volunteer fire departments to attend the school which furnishes up-to-date information on fire protection and fire prevention as well as fire fighting techniques. The $50 registration fee also covers lodging and meals, he explained.

The Farm Bureau will also pay any local organized fire department for answering calls outside of the city limits to fight fires involving the property of Farm Bureau members carrying fire insurance with the Farm Bureau insurance company, he said. The amount of payment will be $75 per call.

The county president said local fire departments are being urged to cooperate in the plan to reduce fire losses in rural areas of the county. Any volunteer fire department that will agree to serve rural areas will be eligible to submit an applicant for the fire training school. But the total number of persons that can attend is limited, and only one applicant for each fire department can be accepted, he said.

New Provisions of Sales Tax Become Effective July 1

On July 1 every article of outer clothing that costs less than $10 will go up two per cent.

That is the date the extended sales tax law goes into effect. All outer clothing now exempt become taxable.

Smart shoppers will take advantage of the last days of June to stock up on clothing for the family. Buying of school togs may take place earlier than ever before.

Legislature made many changes in the sales tax law. Most changes affect reporting procedures of merchants. An important one, however, raises the state sales tax on automobiles from 1½ to 2 per cent.

As of July 1, if you buy a new car costing $3,000, for example, you will pay a state tax of $60.

If you trade in an old car the salesman will deduct the trade-in amount from the total, they figure your tax on the difference. In other words, if your trade-in came to $1,000 toward a $3,000 car, you would pay two per cent — or $40 — on the difference.

PORT ISABEL LIGHTHOUSE — A sentinel over beaches that once sheltered Spanish explorers, Indians, and pirate treasure, this structure marks historic Port Isabel State Park on the tip of Texas.

City Hearing on Tax Equalization Dated for July 1

The annual hearing at which Muenster taxpayers may ask for reconsideration of their tax assessments has been set for Monday July 1. Following a short session of the city council, it will begin about 8:30.

The hearing concerns changes of renditions that were made by the council during five sessions, about 20 hours, of tax equalization. In those meetings the council examined every rendition sheet in a special effort to arrive at fair assessments for all.

About 20 per cent of the renditions were changed. Most of those changes apply to renditions which were turned in lower than previous assessments and were set back to the former figure. Others apply to newly discovered inequities and new renditions.

The Stan and Paul Yostens and their families of Fort Worth were among former residents visiting relatives and friends at the homecoming.

202 Register for Free Red Cross Swimming Class

The customary big crowd of children reported to Muenster's swimming pool this week to sign up for free Red Cross swimming instructions. A tally of the list after registration Monday morning showed a total of 202.

The crowd is divided into four classifications: beginners, advanced beginners, intermediates and swimmers. About ninety percent are beginners. The pupils are grouped into eight one-hour periods, four on Monday-Wednesday-Friday, the other four on Tuesday-Thursday-Saturday, making an average of 25 who are assigned to the eleven instructors, thereby giving each child practically full time attention. Each child will receive five hours of instruction.

The instructors are Glenn Richardson, Karen Endres, Roger Taylor, Sandra Cain, Peggy Hellman, Monica Hess, Virgil Swirczynski, Ricky Endres, Eddie Hellman, Peggy Reiter and Jo Ann Fisher.

Jaycees to Sell House Numbers

The sale of house numbers is a new activity adopted by Muenster Jaycees They took it on at their meeting Tuesday night in response to a recent suggestion by Sacred Heart pastors that members of the parish identify their homes.

A supply of numerals and plates will be ordered immediately and will be sold as soon as they arrive by Jaycees in house to house calls. The intention is to give each customer a complete service job, assembling and mounting the plates as they are sold. Supplies should be here in about two weeks, they estimate.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walterscheid are guests of Westinghouse for a four day holiday visit in Hot Springs, Ark. The all expense plane trip and vacation is the pay-off to Muenster Butane for winning its division of a sales contest. They left Thursday morning, will return Sunday night.

PVT. JAMES MYRICK is at home on a two-week leave since finishing basic army training at Fort Polk, La., Saturday. He's visiting his mother, Mrs. T. S. Myrick, until he reports for advanced training at Fort Sill, Okla., on July 1.

Welding Workshop Gets High Rating From Instructor

An exceptionally fine workshop in welding, rated by the instructor as one of the best he has ever conducted, was completed in the agriculture room of Muenster High School last Thursday.

It is an adult extension course conducted by Joel R. Barton, welding specialist with Texas Education Agency and A&M college. It was sponsored locally by Edgar Dyer, MHS agriculture instructor.

Barton described the local class as tops in attendance and application. Fourteen men completed the course and will receive certificates from Texas Education Agency.

Attendance was the maximum each of the four nights except one. Facilities were provided for 20 and 20 were there three nights, 19 the other night. Interest was equally good. Class time is normally 3 hours but these students were in no hurry to leave. They had to be sent away after about 4 hours. In his report Barton shows that instruction time was 15 hours instead of 12.

He also stated that teaching it was a pleasure and he would like to return here soon for another just like it.

Men due to receive certificates are Jerry Reiter, Tommy Danksreiter, Ed Knauf, Tommy Vogel, Clifford Trubenbach, Jerome Fuhrman, Leon Fuhrman, Jerry Hoenig, George Bayer, Clarence Bayer, Regi Bayer, Alphonse Luke, Edgar Klement and Wylie Lewis.

Local JCs Win Season's First 5-0

Muenster's newly organized Jaycee baseball team started their season in a big way Monday night by shutting out Nocona Independents 5-0.

It was an extra good start for Willie Walterscheid, who discovered that his pitching arm is still in fine condition. He hurled a no-hitter and got 18 strike-outs in the seven inning game. Two Nocona runners reached first base, on a walk and an error.

Meanwhile the Muenster fellows did a fine job of grouping six hits and two walks to bring in their five tallies. And every hit was a wallop — five doubles and one triple. Wendell Richey got 3 of the doubles, Willie Walterscheid 1 and Virgil Henschel 1. Tommy Herr got the triple.

Pee Wees Postpone For Fish Fry and Jaycee Ball Game

Two Jaycee activities of the coming week have broken into the Pee Wee baseball schedule, the games being moved to the end of the season. Friday's is postponed to July 26 and next Wednesday's to July 24. Other games remain as scheduled.

Friday night's Jaycee event is the community fish fry in the city park at 8 p.m. The charge is $1.75 per plate. Proceeds go into the fund to finance Little League baseball and those who want to help the kiddies are urged to attend.

Next Wednesday's event is a ball game between Jaycees of Muenster and Nocona, starting at 8.

This game is the second for the newly organized Jaycee team. The first was Monday with Nocona Independents. Other games planned with dates to be set later are return games with the two Nocona teams and a pair of games with a colored team of Gainesville.

Another ball game on schedule is that between Jaycee wives and Little League mothers. It will be softball, Thursday of next week.

Big Crowd Sees Medders Home At Open House

Not in a long time have home viewers had such a treat as that afforded Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Medders opened their new Colonial home to the public for inspection. About a thousand visitors went through the place. It is located northwest of the city on N. Hy. 373.

A variety of motifs used in the home groups pieces that go well together yet are not repetitious in design.

One enters the front door admiring the white columns and door-side brass lamps and is charmed by the white marble floor of the entrance hall with its suggestion of Oriental decor in a black and gold framed mirror above a matching chest.

To the right, a cardinal red carpeted winding stairway leads to the second story. To the left, double doors open onto the large living room. Antique white furniture in distressed finish, marble topped tables, white marble fireplace with fender in roped brass, a Regency round mirror above the mantle, and cut crystal candlelight electric fixtures are conversation pieces.

The formal dining area adjoins the living room and is at one side of the all electric kitchen. The informal dining room is at the kitchen's other opening.

The large family room with library, brick fireplace and gun cabinet is set in a western theme. Lamps are Old English knife boxes with custom made silk shades. A fringed carpet partially covering ranch style oak flooring and horse print linen draw drapes accent the ranch motif. Other floors utilize light Mexican terrazzo tile and bone white, wall to wall, all wool carpeting.

There are six bedrooms and eight baths.

A covered patio leads to the spacious outdoor living area with courtyard of red tile and swimming pool. This is partially enclosed by a decorative fence.

The completely air conditioned home is of red brick with white trim and has 28 rooms. A paved divided driveway from the highway circles a flower bed at the front.

Still to be added is landscaping.

The Medders family and her parents, the Joe Smiddys, are getting settled in the new location this week.

Their former home will soon become the home of Mrs. Medder's sister and husband, the C. S. Martins who will be moving to Muenster from Etowah, Tenn., the latter part of this month.

On a week's vacation visit in Muenster and Gainesville are Mrs. John Myrick and children Tommy, Carol, Dolphy and Jodie of Houston who arrived Tuesday evening. Tommy celebrated his ninth birthday Thursday with his grandparents Mrs. T. S. Myrick and the Ralph Whartons.

76252 Assigned To Muenster for Zip Code Number

Our Five-digit Zip Code is 76252, Postmaster Arthur Endres announced today.

"Everyone in Muenster, Texas, will use this ZIP Code on all their correspondence to speed mail deliveries and reduce the chance of mis-sent mail."

ZIP Code, the Post Office Department's revolutionary new system of improved mail dispatch and delivery, goes into effect nationally on July 1.

Postmaster Endres stressed the importance of all citizens of Muenster learning this city's ZIP Code and using it in their return address on all correspondence. In answering mail, he said, ZIP Codes taken from return addresses on incoming mail should be used.

"The ZIP Code is literally the last word in mail addressing," he said. "It should follow the city and state in addresses."

He cited this example of the proper use of ZIP Code: Mr. Arthur Endres, Postmaster, U. S. Post Office, Muenster, Texas, 76252

The new ZIP Code plan, Mr. Endres said, for the first time will permit the Post Office Department to short-cut repeated address reading.

"The address on mail must often be read as many as eight or ten times by postal employees, to get it to the proper destination," Mr. Endres said. "Each handling slows the process of mail dispatch and adds to the opportunity for human error."

"With ZIP Code, a clerk needs only to glance at the code to know immediately to what national area, state and post office the letter is destined, and to speed it on its way, cutting up to 24 hours off the time between deposit and delivery."

Mr. Endres said that when ZIP Code is in full swing, the United States will have "the most modern system of mail distribution and delivery in existence."

Crows Finally Win, Giants Lose Again In Little League

The Crows won and the Braves lost. Those were about the most developments in pee wee baseball this week, at least they broke the monotony of a steady losing streak and a steady winning streak. However two other streaks remain unbroken. Ravens are still undefeated and Giants are still winless.

Team standings now are as follows. In the junior loop: Ravens 5-0, Jays 2-3, Hawks 2-3, Crows 1-4. In the senior loop: Braves and Yanks are tied at 3-1, Dodgers have 2-2 and Giants 0-4.

Last Friday Dodgers slipped past the Giants 8-7 and Yanks beat the Braves 16-9. Wednesday night Ravens nudged Hawks 12-10 and Crows clobbered the Jays 18-2.

Games of both loops for the coming week have been postponed to the end of the season to avoid conflict with the Jaycee fish fry Friday and a Muenster-Nocona Jaycee game next Wednesday.

8 Finish Course In Life Saving at Swimming Pool

Eight boys and girls completed the Red Cross senior life saving course at the Muenster swimming pool last week and qualified for certificates which will be sent to them by Red Cross. They qualified also to wear the Red Cross life saver patch on their swim suits.

Those who finished the course are Roger Taylor, Peggy Hellman, Virgil Swirczynski, Eddie Hellman, Peggy Reiter, Milton Fette, Larry Hess and Ronnie Russell.

Schedule of Coming Events

THE U.S.S.R. IN CONTROL

The most important of the eight departments or "cabinet" positions in the United Nations is that of Assistant Secretary-General for Security Council Affairs. This office involves political and military activities and, in effect, its holder is a commander-in-chief of UN military forces.

When the UN was first organized there was an unofficial agreement to the effect that a Soviet national was to have this important post. This occurred at a 1946 meeting in London of the Big Five and was engineered by Andrei Vishinski and agreed to by U. S. delegate Edward Stettinius. In the book "In the Cause of Peace," by the late Trygve Lie, first Secretary-General of the UN, the author discusses this apparently loose sort of deal with no time element mentioned except: "Mr. Stettinius confirmed to me that he had agreed with the Soviet Delegation in the matter. My understanding of the arrangement accordingly, was that it was meant to apply for the five years." (Published by Macmillan Company, 1954, pp 45-46).

Time has proven that this was not the Soviet idea. Here is the roster of Assistant Secretaries-General for Security Council Affairs since the beginning:
 1946-49 — Arkady S. Sobelov, USSR
 1950-53 — Konstantine Zinchenko, USSR

Speaking of proposed disarmament: in "Department of State Publication No. 7277" detailing the U. S. plan for eliminating national military forces, the following step is described: "Establishment of a permanent international peace force within the United Nations."

Who would control such a UN peace force? Apparently, due to long range planning, the USSR is in control and anticipates holding that position. It is naive to the point of stupidity to believe that the Soviet would ever agree to disarm itself unless it were certain it could control the international forces.

In Katanga we have an example of how the UN can force a nation to its knees. Is this to be the ultimate destiny of the United States? Our only hope of survival as a free, independent Republic, functioning under the Constitution, lies in courageous, strong action by Congress. Dare we hope?

OUR "IMAGE" LOSES ITS PANTS

It had seemed, up to now that nothing could be more shameful, degrading and (in the eyes of other nations) more utterly ludicrous than the lacing we have taken and continue to take from "Dr." Castro.

But even the Cuban humbly is faded by the capture of the staff and demolition of the headquarters of the US Military Mission in Caracas, Venezuela by eight (count 'em, eight) Latino-type Communists — after furnishing repeated warnings, even to advising a local newspaper of the time of the attack within an hour!

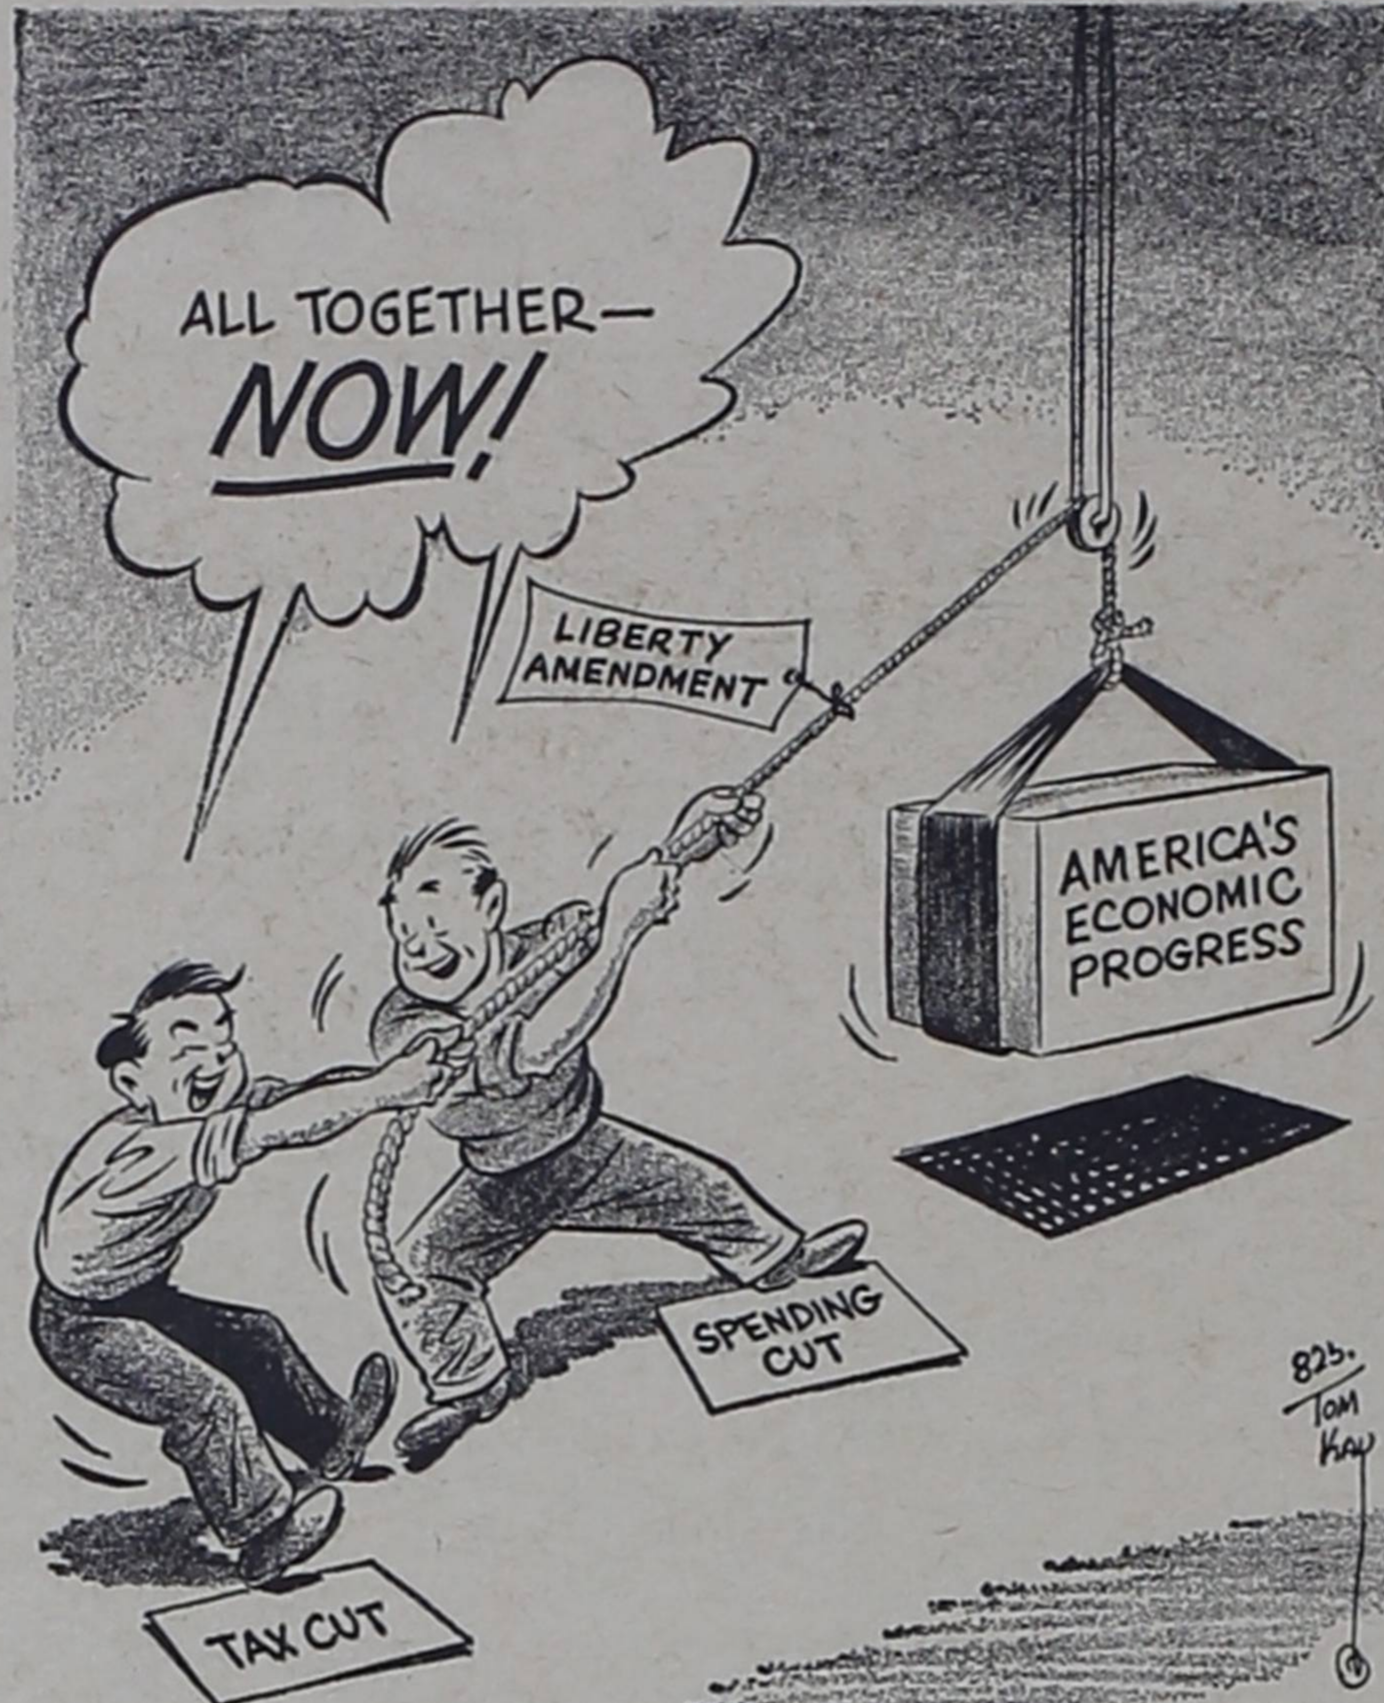

The eight "terrorists," say dispatches, overpowered the four Venezuelan National Guardsmen — who appear for some reason to have been guarding the US Military Mission — tossed them inside the US military. All except Col. J. K. Chenault, deputy chief-of-mission, and his 15-year-old son, were forced to strip. Besides the native guardsmen these included two US Army majors, four US Army sergeants and two Venezuelan civilian employees. What our military are wearing presently is not known, since the desperadoes made off with US uniforms.

The building was doused with gasoline and set afire, destroying not only the headquarters but its records as well. The US officers were not armed, said reports, but the terrorists found a gun in the Military Mission safe. We do not know whether they had permit for it or not.

Perhaps the UN can get our boys' pants back for them.

South America in not south of North America. A good look at the map will reveal the startling fact that almost the entire continent of South America lies east of North America. If you went straight south from New York, you would land in the Pacific Ocean just off the west coast of Chile. The westernmost part of South America is almost straight south of the tip of Florida. South America is southeast not south, of North America.

The elements that make our bodies strong come from the soil; to stay healthy we must keep our soil healthy.

The Sure Way To Prosperity

B'BYE ADLAI

Question by a reporter: "Do you think that individual nations will have to give up more and more of their sovereignty for the sake of a strong international organization?"

Answer by Adlai Stevenson, U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations:

"Well, we've been yielding sovereignty bit by bit. I suppose this process will go on, that more and more states will feel they have to respond to the majority view, to the organized opinion of the world."

"Whether they do this voluntarily or do this under coercion is one of the problems we have to confront." Stevenson's answer ought to be plain enough. Like it or not, it looks like we all are going to be united under a one-world government, Communist style, unless Americans wake up and put Stevenson and others of his ilk into limbo.

— McAllen, Texas, Valley Evening Monitor

THE GOOD SOCIETY

What is The Good Society? Many a profound book has been written in seeking to answer that question, many more will roll from the presses as the years spin by.

But it can be answered, in essence, in very brief and simple terms. It is a society in which each individual has the inalienable right to choose his path in life within a framework of equitable laws designed to prevent him from encroaching upon this same right in others. No law can make men equal — but law can guarantee equality of opportunity.

It is, above all, a society in which individual freedom is limited by, and only by, the right of a people as a whole to maintain, secure and protect itself.

It is a society which fully recognizes the Jeffersonian maxim that government is best which governs least.

Freedom without fear; strength without coercion; pride without arrogance; and an endless sense of the worth of man, not only in the mass but in the one — these are marks of The Good Society.

A nation destituted of its topsoil is a weak nation — Conserve your soil.

BIRTHDAY FOR TVA

About thirty years ago, Washington took note of the fact that the rural people of Tennessee Valley were not as prosperous as those in the rest of the country. The Tennessee Valley Authority was formed. Since its beginning TVA has been a controversy between public and private owner.

At the present time the Tennessee Valley is still described as a "depressed" area and this is despite the spending of hundreds of millions of United States tax dollars.

Power from TVA costs their residents a little less than 1 cent per kilowatt-hour. The national average cost per kilowatt-hour is 2.3 cents.

Now who do you think is paying the difference? That's right, the taxpayers. Not only do you pay the 2.3 cents for your own electricity but you pick up the tab of 1.3 cents for all the folks in the TVA area.

The birthday party should have been for the taxpayers as they have been giving gifts to the TVA for thirty years. South Pasadena, Calif., Review

THE LIBERTY AMENDMENT

Offhand, repeal of the income tax might seem like a fanciful and a dangerous procedure. It would be were it not for the safeguards and the alternate revenue-raising proposals contained in this "Liberty Amendment". In short, what this amendment proposes to do is to take the overly greedy hand of the federal government out of our individual pockets and to restrict its activities to those duties and responsibilities prescribed in our Constitution. If that is a reprehensible goal then all we can say is that we have traveled far down the road to socialism and bureaucratic paternalism that there is no hope of ever turning back. —Fort Lauderdale, Fla., News

Management of news by the government IS a step towards tyranny, no matter what the purpose is. One false maneuver — despite good intentions — can easily lead to another. Once the government uses such subterfuge to disguise its true actions or intent, its future actions and intent are bound to become suspect. There cannot be two courses in such an important field. The public should at all times be told the truth of the government's operations. It is one thing to withhold information that may jeopardize our national safety; it is another to resort to lies which can do nothing more than undermine the foundations of freedom in due time.

In 1962, U.S. cows averaged 7,325 pounds of milk. That's nearly 2,000 pounds more than their grandmothers produced just 10 years ago.

A government big enough to give us what we want is also big enough to take what it wants. Government pays no taxes, it taxes; and the government businesses that are in competition with private enterprise pay no taxes. The government corporations own 40 per cent of the land area and 20 per cent of the industrial capacity of our nation. . . . Only when the government gets out of tax-free, rent-free business can you expect taxes to come down. . . . Government must come down to its Constitutional size before you can expect the national debt to be reduced and taxes lowered.

Prescher Cow Is Recognized for Production Record

A five-year-old Holstein cow owned by Peter Prescher of Rt. 1, Gainesville, has been recognized for outstanding production records.
 The cow produced 17,890 pounds of milk and 671 pounds of butterfat in 305 days.

Texas A&M College supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official breed improvement program of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

In announcing the new record, a spokesman for the national Holstein organization said that it compared to the average cow's annual output of 7,211 pounds of milk containing 270 pounds of butterfat.

Makes Cents!
 Hoping to develop his son's character, a father once gave him a penny and a quarter as he was leaving for Sunday school. "Now, Peter, you put whichever one you want in the collection plate."

When the boy returned, his father asked which coin he had given. Peter answered, "Well, just before they sent around the plate the preacher said, 'The Lord loveth a cheerful giver,' and I knew I could give the penny a lot more cheerfully than I could the quarter, so I gave it."

Homes Abound with Potential Poisons, AMA Official Warns

Children, supposedly "safe at home," are poisoning themselves at the rate of nearly 1,500 a day.

"When you consider that more than a quarter million home-used products on the market contain toxins, it is not difficult to understand why more than 500 children die each year from self-administered poisons," said F. J. L. Blasingame, M.D., executive vice-president of the American Medical Association.

Children are naturally curious, especially the very young ones. They are prone to stick into their mouths anything they can get in their hands. It doesn't even have to taste good or look pretty.

Most accidental poisonings occur in children under five. Two-year-olds are the most poison prone, with one-year-olds close behind. At this stage in life their curiosity is at its height and their sense of fear not yet developed, Dr. Blasingame explained.

Medicine, especially aspirin, heads the list of items children seem to like to sample, accounting for nearly half of all accidental poisonings. In fact, too much of virtually any medicine can produce serious consequences.

Among the supposed non-edibles that frequently find their way into children's stomachs are cleaning and polishing agents, detergents, shoe polish, cosmetics, waxes, insecticides, paint, turpentine, chalk, bleaches, plant foods, plaster, perfume and decorations.

Medicines account for nearly half of all accidental poisoning in United States each year. Discard unused medicine and keep rest out of children's reach.

A primary cause of such accidents, says Dr. Blasingame, is storing poisonous substances in food containers or soft drink bottles. A toddler just naturally assumes that a soft drink bottle contains a treat. He'll drink whatever he finds in it. "The facts are clear," he warned. "Between 65 and 70 per cent of all poisonings take place because an item was accessible to a child."

"If we're going to live in modern homes with modern conveniences and modern medicines, we have to develop some up-to-date standards that will make home safe for our children."

Among suggestions for lessening the poisoning hazards in the home, Dr. Blasingame suggested:

- Keep potential poisons out of reach and tightly sealed.
  - Never transfer toxic materials into household utensils.
  - Don't leave your child alone in a room in which you're working with poisons.
  - Give medicines only in a lighted room.
- If your child might have taken a poisonous substance, call your doctor for instructions at once. Don't wait to see what happens.

FB Talk Meet and Talent Find Slated

"Who Shall Speak for Farmers", is the topic for participants in this year's Farm Bureau Talk Meet and Talent Find.

County Farm Bureaus throughout the state have received complete information on rules and regulations for both the Talk Meet and Talent Find. Millard Shivers, organizational director of the Texas Farm Bureau, is serving as staff coordinator for young people's activities.

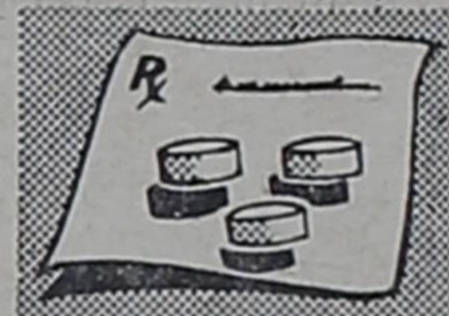

Contestants should be prepared to speak on any of the sub-topics and for the first time will be asked questions by judges on speech content, Shivers said. The TFB will award $250 to the state winner for expenses to the national convention.

The Talent Find is not a contest. It is a program for young people which will climax in a "grand finale" at the state convention where the act most representative of Texas will be selected to attend the American Farm Bureau Federation meeting. The act will be awarded $250 for expenses to attend the national convention.

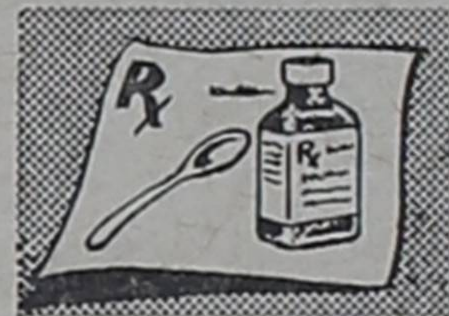

The exact date of Cooke County's contests have not been announced as yet.

Straw Improves Condition of Soil

Blackland area farmers were urged this week not to burn straw left in the fields following the harvest of small grain. Straw should be disked into the soil or turned under, Dr. Aaron Baxter, agronomist for Texas Power & Light Company reported.

"The straw is needed for improving the physical condition of the soil and should not be burned," he said. He added that where large amounts of straw are worked into the soil, the soil microbes will take up large quantities of the available nitrogen and other nutrients making it essential to fertilize the crop following small grain. Dr. Baxter said 20 pounds of extra nitrogen should be applied per acre for each ton of straw or other residue returned to the soil.

Concerning above-ground residue, he stated an average annual return to the soil of 3,600 to 4,000 pounds of this material per acre is required to maintain the level of organic matter in the soil. One bale-to-the-acre cotton returns only 2,000 to 3,000 pounds of residue per acre; 40 bushels-per-acre wheat returns 4,000 pounds; 80 bushel-per-acre corn or grain sorghum returns about 5,000 pounds; and three-year rotation of grain sorghum, small grain, and cotton returns an average of 4,000 pounds, he reported.

Of every $20 Americans spend on groceries, $1.50 to $2.00 goes for packaging, the USDA says.

rights and interests in order to please our enemies.

For the sake of our country let's hope that school leaders and children will disregard the high court's order. In fact, if the younger generation wishes to live out its life in freedom it had better pray daily — especially for those confused men in high places who seem to have lost sight of God's side in their deliberations.
