MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

JULY 7, 1961

NUMBER 33

Lots of people outside the community have been asking lately how our hospital drive is getting along. After months of inactivity they wonder whether it will be carried through to completion.

Of course, there is only one logical answer for that question. When a project is so near to success, common sense demands that we make every effort necessary to reach the goal. Giving up now is unthinkable. It would be little less than a calamity.

As concerns our part of the project we have almost eighty percent of the goal. Subscriptions now total over $196,000 and we have less than $4,000 still to go. That's much too close to allow discouragement.

Practically speaking, we are much closer than that. In addition to the local support we have the approval of a $250,000 Hill Burton grant. That amount is already designated for our hospital. It is ours when we finish our part of the deal. Besides, there's the hospital site and the Kreitz Estate donation, which has been set aside as a special fund to guarantee the hospital's first year of operation.

The combined value of those assets amount to more than $475,000. In other words, that is the amount waiting to be converted into a wonderful community asset if we will raise the additional $54,000 to qualify for it. Considered that way, we have more than ninety per cent of our goal. Can anyone imagine allowing such an opportunity to slip away?

That's a good point to think over as we enter the final stage of our drive. What we still have to do is insignificant compared with what can be accomplished. Favored by such odds we can, we must, and we will go over the top.

This isn't intended to imply that the job will be easy. Raising $54,000 is a big undertaking that requires generous cooperation from lots of people. However, it can be said that the inducement now before us offers ample inspiration for the task before us.

Meanwhile, we should be aware also that the success of our venture is our best protection against a tax supported county hospital. Defeat of the hospital bond issue did not by any means settle that problem. Rather it only postponed the settlement. In effect, voters decided to allow time for working out other solutions. But if other solutions do not develop we can expect the issue to come up again, and very likely get the public's endorsement.

As implied during the county hospital campaign, it is generally understood that two solutions are expected. One is our hospital. The other is extensive improvements to facilities in Gainesville. Success in our venture would be a big step toward meeting over-all area needs. That plus evidence of normal progress toward proposed improvement in Gainesville would put a permanent stop to plans for a county hospital. In fact, it's even possible that our hospital alone could have the desired effect. With that much expansion of over-all facilities and less urgency for the second solution, more of the voting public might be patient about waiting for Gainesville's solution.

The tax angle, however, regardless of how big it seems to us, is not the important consideration. Our greatest concern is to have first class medical care near by and our next concern is adding a very valuable community asset. There can be no doubt that a hospital is the greatest improvement we could add to our community. We like the thought of what it can do for local health, for convenience, for business and for future progress. Persons who help the cause can feel assured that they are investing in the welfare of their community.

A word of praise is in order to the Community Progress Association for its labors in providing good clean recreation for local youngsters. The softball program, which they sponsor, has already demonstrated its worth in the enthusiasm and attendance of the little fellows. Not only that, but the games make good entertainment for the boys' parents and sisters. And the addition of a sno-cone bar adds still more. It's a known fact that growing kids are happier when munching and sipping.

It's always a question who runs down the most people — careless drivers or gossips.

H. B. Newberry, 58 County ASC Head Since 1944, Dies

H. B. Newberry, 58, widely known through his work as manager of the Cooke County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, died at 4:15 p.m. Monday in a Sherman hospital a few days after entering. He had, however, been seriously ill for a number of months.

He was born March 31, 1904, in Honey Grove and came to Gainesville in 1944 to head the ASC committee. He was also associated with Gainesville Community Circus for a number of years as a clown.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Gainesville's First Presbyterian Church and burial followed at Honey Grove under direction of George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home.

Survivors are his wife, his mother and one brother.

Ravens and Angels Lead Kids' Loops

The Ravens are at the top of Muenster's Little League since Monday night's games. Jays and Cardinals are tied for second place standing and the Parakeets are at the bottom. Their wins to date are 2, 1, 1, 0 respectively.

In the opening game the Jays beat the Parakeets 15-10 and in the next the Ravens blizzed the Cardinals 17-7.

The older group of boys, aged 11 through 13 played their first pair of games last Friday night. Angels were the winners in both, edging the Giants 7-5 in the first game and romping over the Dodgers 21-11 in the second.

Friday night's games will present the Giants in both tussles of the double header. They meet the Dodgers first, then the Angels.

The pee wee program next Monday will have Jays and Cardinals in the first game, Ravens and Parakeets in the second.

Fisher Named KC District Deputy

J. W. Fisher is the new district deputy of the Knights of Columbus in District 47, which includes Muenster, Gainesville and Denton. He succeeds Paul Wiese of Gainesville who held the office the past two years.

This is Fisher's second time to serve in the office. He was district deputy of this area in 1949-50-51. At that time the district was named No. 6 and included Muenster, Gainesville, Sherman, Denton and Pilot Point, the latter three of which still make up District 6. The former district was divided after Denton organized its council.

Speedy Firemen Keep Loss Low at Woodcarvers' Shop

Speedy work by Muenster Volunteer Firemen prevented possible heavy damage at the Bavarian Woodcarvers Studio last Thursday night. The fire was discovered in an early stage about 11:30 p.m. and firemen arrived only a few minutes later. They had the visible blaze under control quickly and spent the rest of an hour checking for fire in walls and partitions.

The fire broke out in the paint room, presumably caused by oily rags. Damage to floor and walls of the room is estimated at $300. No material equipment or finished work was affected.

It's always a question who runs down the most people — careless drivers or gossips.

Hundreds Return For Homecoming Here on July 4

Muenster had its day in the spotlight Tuesday. People came by the hundreds from near and far to attend Sacred Heart Parish's first annual homecoming celebration on July Fourth. And the community's most publicized event in recent years paid off with results to please the promoters.

The noon smorgasbord drew 625 diners while scores of others ate and drank at food stands.

The carnival arena was at times so crowded there was scarcely room for another foot. Kids had a field day. Long lines waited for a ride on the city's red fire truck. This attraction was probably the most popular with the youngsters though the fish pond did a booming business.

Scores of old timers got together to recall years gone by and to compare the good old days with current times. And some of them whooped it up at the dance at night, joining their grandchildren in the light fantastic.

A solemn note was injected into the revelry as the crowd moved from the carnival attractions to the school grounds for ground breaking ceremony for the Benedictine Sisters' new home. (See separate story on ground breaking.) Another break came at 8 p.m. when parishioners quit celebrating long enough to attend the weekly novena service in Sacred Heart Church. After that the party was on again until far into the night.

People were present from all over Cooke and Montague Counties to join folks from Muenster and greet visitors from Dallas, Fort Worth, Celburne, Denton, Arlington, Sherman, and dozens of other cities of North Texas. Many other towns of the area were represented by one or more persons.

Among the farthest-off former residents returning for the homecoming were the Bill Nelsons of Oxnard, Calif., Joe Albers of Holyoke, Colo., Earl Lehnertz of Shreveport, La., Mr. and Mrs. John Caughey of Peoria, Ill., and Mrs. C. D. Richards and four children of Stoughton, Mass., who apparently holds the record for coming the longest distance to attend.

Joe David Bayer thinks he's one of the luckiest 12-year-olds there is. People who hear the story think so too.

Joe Bayer Has Lucky Escape in Tractor Accident

Joe David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bayer. He's a dependable youngster and has been helping his father on the farm for years. Monday as he was driving a tractor to the field, he tried to fasten a loose umbrella and lost control. The tractor turned over, pinning him underneath, as his terrified father watched from home about a quarter of a mile distant.

Mr. Bayer was at the scene in moments. The motor was still running and wheels were spinning in the air. He thinks the loveliest sound he ever heard was Joe David's screaming above the engine's noise.

With the pickup and a chain Mr. Bayer freed his son who crawled out with not a broken bone and only a minor injury to his hand. Except for the bruised hand the overturned tractor had only boxed him in.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. Werner Yosten is recovering normally from major surgery performed Friday at Wilson N. Jones Hospital in Sherman. She will probably come home this weekend.

Four-year-old Debbie Beyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beyer of Lindsay, is a pneumonia patient at Gainesville Sanitarium.

M. Sloan's Father Dies at Garland

A heart attack Monday night at 10 caused the death of L. L. Sloan, 76, of Garland, father of Mike Sloan. Funeral services were held in Garland at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Survivors are his wife; seven sons, Donald and Leon of Garland, Douglas, Crawford and Shannon of Fort Worth, Weldon of Georgia, and Mike of Muenster; and a number of grandchildren.

Attending the funeral with the Mike Sloans and two children were directors and co-workers of the Cooke County Electric Co-op: Herbert Herr, Mrs. Earle Otto, and Messrs. and Mmes. Al Wiesman, J. A. Klement and Jack Crownover.

Auxiliary Receives Merit Certificate

Muenster VFW Auxiliary won honors at the weekend state convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliaries in San Antonio, and Mrs. Arthur Bayer, local president, was there to receive the award.

She was called before the gathering and introduced to the assemblage as she received an Honor Roll certificate, an award earned by the local Auxiliary for having fulfilled every requirement on the honor roll during the past year. The certificate of recognition was one of 60 for the states' more than 120 organizations.

Savings Accounts Continue Growth

Completion of another semi-annual interest period reflects continued growth of the savings department of Muenster State Bank, president J. M. Weinzapfel disclosed last Friday.

As of that date, June 30, time accounts were $1,459,038.49. On the past December 31 they were $1,320,692.92. Interest paid on savings for the six months periods amounted to $19,716.86, practically all of it being added to the savings accounts.

Ground Breaking Held Tuesday for New Sisters Home

Ground breaking Tuesday afternoon at 3 marked the beginning of a major building project for Sacred Heart Parish. It is a new home for the Benedictine Sisters, teachers at Sacred Heart School. Construction is due to begin within 10 days, according to the contractor, James F. Allen of Allen and Wilson, Denton.

Father Alcuin Kubis officiated at the ceremony, which consisted of blessing the site and offering a prayer for the physical and spiritual welfare of those who will occupy it. He then spoke briefly, saying this is a dream come true, bringing deserved comforts to those who do so much for the children of the parish.

The modern centrally heated and air conditioned home will replace a building which has been in use for almost fifty years.

Following his talk Father Alcuin turned the first shovel of dirt. Others who moved a bit of the hard, dry ground were assistant pastors Father Martin Fischer and Father Bruno Fuhrman; Sister Imelda Pels as representative of her superior, Mother Philippa, the contractor, and the architect, Fred Buford of Dallas. Several parish members also turned a shovel of dirt.

The building will be located on the area just north of the elementary school building, west of the present sisters' home. Its ground floor will measure 182x33 feet and its second floor 138x33. A chapel at the west end and a garage at the east end will be the lower floor portions that do not have a floor above. Downstairs there will be kitchen, dining room, utility, offices, and reception rooms. Upstairs there will be 20 bedrooms.

320 Report for Immunizations; Booster Dates Set

Immunization shots for typhoid, polio, diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough were given to about 320 school children last Monday in the office of Dr. Kenneth Dobbs.

Most of the children received the full series of five immunizations in three shots. Typhoid and polio shots were given separately, the other three were given as a 3 in 1 combination.

As follow-ups for beginners typhoid shots, two more days are scheduled for boosters, on next Monday and the following Monday. On both of those days annual booster shots will also be available for any of the diseases. Children who failed to get their boosters on the first day are encouraged to come either of the next two days.

Mothers are reminded also that these days are reserved especially for school children and babies cannot be included. Under the circumstances Dr. Dobbs advises against bringing babies along and possibly exposing them to communicable disease in the crowd of school agers.

Mrs. Theo. Kaden Dies in Florida

Mrs. Theodore Kaden, an early day resident here, died Thursday, June 29, in Jacksonville, Fla., where she and her husband had been in retirement since leaving Cooke County about seven years ago. He was a former member of Kaden, the Florist, in Gainesville.

As Lillian Thomas she was married there to Theodore Kaden. They lived in Muenster during the time he was cashier at the local bank headed by Albert Theisen and made their home in the house which later became the Henry Stelzer residence.

The couple kept in contact with friends here through the years and never failed to visit the Bill Stelzers when they came back to Cooke County. Their last visit was two years ago.

Funeral services were held in Jacksonville Saturday with burial in that city.

In addition to her husband, survivors are a son, David Kaden, who is engaged in horticultural work and landscaping in Jacksonville and one daughter, Jane Kaden, also of Jacksonville. Other survivors are three sisters, a brother, a sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Cross and two brothers-in-law, Otto and Carl Kaden, all of Gainesville.

Kickoff Meeting Set Thursday for Hospital Drive

With $54,000 still to go toward reaching its goal of $250,000, the Muenster Hospital Authority will re-open its fund raising campaign Thursday night at a kickoff meeting in the public school auditorium.

Principal purpose of that meeting is to organize a group of volunteer workers to contact prospective donors. It is hoped that enough will respond so that the drive can be completed by assigning just a few calls to each worker.

Another purpose is to bring the community up to date on the project's progress and to answer any questions relative to the drive and the hospital.

Preparing for the meeting, letters were sent out Monday to people of the Muenster area who have already contributed. Since they have helped it is assumed that they are particularly interested and would be the best persons to bring the drive to a successful conclusion. However, other workers will be gratefully welcomed. J. M. Weinzapfel, campaign chairman, said that all are invited, whether or not they received letters. The Hospital Authority wants them to know all about the project and it especially wants the interest and energy to bring the campaign to a successful conclusion.

As explained in the letter to donors, the hospital authority hopes to reach its goal in time to submit its application for a Hill Burton grant at the September meeting of the State Board of Health. To qualify it must have reached its quota of $250,000 in total subscriptions and must have one third of the amount in cash. At this time the campaign total is $196,174 and cash on hand is $46,927. As cash comes in it is invested in Muenster State Bank's saving account. Last week semi-annual interest of $511.25 was added to the fund.

Mr. Weinzapfel called attention to the fact that the cash fund of the campaign is lagging. A reason, he said, is that some were reluctant to meet their pledges because they had doubts about the project while the drive was incomplete and the county hospital was being pushed. With those questions answered he calls on all to get up to date on their pay schedules and complete the $85,000 cash quota that is needed to apply for a grant. He also said that the campaign committee would be very grateful to all who send in their payments without being asked. Calling on people takes extra time, which is scarce among monitors who already have crowded schedules in their own businesses.

Regarding other progress, Weinzapfel said that the architect will be ready to submit his part of the application in September. He also stresses the fact that Benedictine nuns will take over the administration of the hospital, thus insuring better than normal chances for its success.

HEADS I WIN TAILS YOU LOSE

The historic Khrushchev-Kennedy meeting in Vienna is now a week old. Many words have been written about it and many more words will be written, at least until another such meeting is held. Even so, of special interest is the most recent comment of the one writer, David Wise, of the New York Herald-Tribune, who said that although President Kennedy described the talks as being somber, "It was worse than that." He indicated the talks were really brutal and that the United States delegation came away in much more than a "somber" mood. They were downright discouraged almost in a state of semi-shock. The story emphasized Khrushchev's unwillingness to yield or negotiate on anything. At one point during the encounter, as neither side was making any headway, Khrushchev was asked if there was not at least one single question on which the Soviet position was open to negotiate and ratification.

"No," he replied. Was there not even one area, the Soviet Premier was asked, in which the Soviet Union would be willing to negotiate to demonstrate its desire for peace?

"Only if it suits our purpose," was the reply.

The subjects considered likely for negotiation or compromise included the Berlin situation, nuclear testing, disarmament and the Soviet three-power veto formula. According to the Herald-Tribune story, Mr. Khrushchev refused to budge on any of these.

The whole tone of the Soviet Premier's discussions with Kennedy was that it really was not very important to talk about East-West differences, since the tide of Communism would win in the end, anyway.

Certainly the President's report was no ray of sunshine, it held out little hope for peaceful co-existence. It said that specific results were not expected nor were any attained by either side.

The President's message was somber indeed but in comparison, the report of the Tribune's political observer is downright gloomy. And if things are as dire as Mr. Wise painted, we should redouble our efforts to build up our military. It looks like we're going to need it before another year is up—and tempus fugit!

— Enid, Okla., News

If the nation is living within its income, its credit is good. If in some crisis it lives beyond its income for a year or two, it can usually borrow temporarily on reasonable terms. But if, like the spend-thrift, it throws discretion to the winds, is willing to make no sacrifice at all in spending, extends its taxing up to the limit of people's power to pay and continues to pile up deficits, it is on the road to bankruptcy. This was said by none other than Franklin D. Roosevelt in Pittsburg, Pa., on Oct. 19, 1932.

FREEDOM'S BEST HELPER

July 3, 1886 is a date that ranks close to July 4, 1776. Seventy-five years ago, just 110 years after the Declaration of Independence, the first successful typesetting machine, operating in the composing room of Horace Greeley's New York Tribune added a new emancipation to the freedom enunciated in the Declaration — liberation from 400 years of type and the gift of wings to news!

Observing the still nameless machine in action under the nimble fingers of its inventor, Ottmar Mergenthaler, White-law Reid, then publisher of the Tribune, exclaimed in amazement: "It sets a line of type!" Thus, to this day, the machine that set most of the Tribune's priceless editorial page of July 3, 1886, is known as the "Linotype".

Since that day, more than 100,000 other Linotypes have gone to work across the nation and in every part of the world, casting type for newspapers, magazines, books and practically every job-printing need. Mergenthaler type matrices — in 900 languages and dialects, plus a wide variety of styles and sizes — have helped to inform and educate peoples in every country on the globe.

It is only human and natural, perhaps, that we look upon this still amazing machine as the minor miracle that gave America — all of America — a truly free and vigorous press; that paved the way for the wire services that followed and made it possible for the small town editor to inform his public as effectively as the readers of the great metropolitan dailies.

We would never deny that "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world". But we believe the fingers that operate the linotype guide the thoughts of the cradle-rockers — and sooner or later the cradle occupants.

"I'm sorry if our hammering disturbed you. We were hanging a picture."

"Oh, that's perfectly all if it was okay if we hung a right. I just came over to ask picture on the other end of the nail."

Why Work?

WE NEED FREEDOM FOR FITNESS

Almost six months have passed since President Kennedy deplored what he termed the flabbiness of Americans. He called it "a menace to our security as well as our ability to live up to the challenges which lie ahead." And he went on to say that our success in a physical fitness program may well determine the future of freedom in the years to come.

Well, we're not going to argue against having a nation of able-bodied men and women.

But it would be infinitely better if the President showed more concern about the danger we face in becoming flabby in morale and spirit. And this is happening daily under the centralized government, which automatically leads to national moral flabbiness.

It seems the government wants to allow us everything except trust in our capacity to meet our own problems and responsibilities as free and independent Americans.

How about it, Mr. President — while we're flexing our muscles in a national Get-Strong program, how about returning our freedom so we've got something really big going for us?

Any government with the power to give you anything that you want, is strong enough to take everything you have.

"As we take a good look at the whole social security program we can't help but feel that it has the characteristics of an overdecorated Christmas tree that is precariously weaving back and forth. With each new Congress, someone tries to hang some more 'junk' in this tree in the form of so-called additional benefits and amendments." — Lennox, S. D. Independent.

FOR and AGAINST for CHRIST-against COMMUNISM
BY BILLY JAMES HARGIS, LL.D. FOUNDER CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

DOES AMERICA NEED SOCIALIZED MEDICINE?

During the past couple of years there has been an intensive campaign in process in our nation to convince Americans that Big Government should provide medical care for the aged. Of course this so-called program for the aged is merely a foot in the door for bigger things. In its January 10, 1961 report, the Kennedy Task Force said: "The Task Force has confined itself to the most immediate necessities for federal action and does not present its recommendations as a complete program for health and welfare." The December 1, 1960 issue of the socialist publication "New America" pointed out that the "precedent" which the program will establish is the important thing. Once this foot is in the door the socialists were told that "this nation will be provided with a mechanism for socialized medicine capable of indefinite expansion in every direction until it includes the entire population." Never forget that complete socialization of the medical field is the ultimate goal!

Before Americans swallow the clever propaganda sweeping the nation in behalf of socialized medicine (without calling it that) they had better consider what has happened in Great Britain's program. The July 18, 1960 issue of U.S. News and World Report magazine reported that many patients in Britain complain that they have to wait too long to see a doctor and when they finally see him, he does not have time to give them proper attention. The article said that a serious shortage of hospital beds had developed in Britain, and that "twice in the last four years the British Medical Association has gone to the point of threatening a mass walkout from the Health Service in order to get doctors' pay raised." The article pointed out that visitors to a London hospital may find an office file of patients which shows admission lists of people who have been waiting as long as three years. This is socialized medicine in action.

The Tulsa World newspaper had one of its reporters do a little checking and reported in an editorial on February 5, 1961 that the $1.54 deducted each week from the average British worker's paycheck for government health care is more than a reasonable medical insurance policy costs in the United States. The cost of taxpayer-financed medical care in Britain is steadily rising.

When government planners seize power and money from the people to promote the people's welfare, they make the situation worse. They use the failure of their own socialistic methods to argue for more power and more money. The excuse is that they did not have enough money and power in the first place to do the job right. This vicious circle goes on and on. The ultimate end of welfare state politics is total dictatorship. Socialized medicine is an important step on the way.

FILTER TIPS:

Now is the time to check the filter on your air conditioners.
If your filters are dirty, replace with new ones or, if you have a cleanable type, clean thoroughly.
A clean filter improves the movement of the air... gives more cool air... cuts dust and pollen to virtually zero.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:
No other wagon can match Ford's features (or popularity!)

There's a whole wagonload of Ford features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.
First, there's more room. Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field. The tailgate opening is seven inches wider than last year, too.
There's more convenience. You can have an electrically controlled roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon... it's standard in all Country Squires and 9-Passenger Country Sedans. In their field, only Ford wagons have all seats facing forward.
There's more distinction. The Country Squire (shown above) is the one and only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.
There are more savings, too. Ford's Ranch Wagon is America's lowest-priced,* full-size wagon. And like all Fords, every Ford wagon is built to be more service-free: goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications, 4,000 miles between oil changes, brakes ad-just automatically, mufflers are made to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers, and the finish never needs waxing.
STOP putting off that station wagon you've always wanted. SWAP for a '61 Ford wagon now while your Ford Dealer's celebrating record-breaking sales. SAVE with the wagon America loves most... made by FORD... America's station wagon specialists for 32 years!

Carol Ann Hess to Wed Bob Fitch of Fort Worth Nov. 11

Mr. and Mrs. Alois A. Hess this week announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Carol Ann Hess, to Bob Fitch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Fitch, 3905 Ann Arbor Court, Fort Worth.

The couple has selected November 11 for the wedding. The ceremony will be solemnized here in Sacred Heart Church at nuptial mass.

Miss Hess was graduated from Sacred Heart School and completed a business course in Fort Worth. She lives at St. Anne's Club there, 1111 Penn Street, and is employed at McDonald Mortgage Company.

The future groom was graduated from Laneri High School in Fort Worth and attended Texas Christian University in that city until entering the armed forces. He is now serving six months active duty in the army at Fort Meade, Maryland. Presently he is on a 15-day leave to visit his family and was here with his fiancée to visit her parents over the weekend and for the Fourth.

"Now, Junior, be a good boy and say 'ah' so the doctor can get his finger out of your mouth."

John Fishers Are Back after Three Weeks' Vacation

Sight-seeing and visiting filled three weeks of vacation brimfull for Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and daughter Rosemary. For half of the car trip the Fishers' daughter, Mrs. Max Rumelhart and son Matt, were with them. They parted company at Metaline, Wash., where Mrs. Rumelhart and Matt stayed with the little boy's other grandparents, the Albert Rumelharts, for a visit.

Mrs. Rumelhart and Matt will fly back for a few days' visit here and then go to Norfolk, Va., to join Lt. Rumelhart as he returns from sea duty and the family will make their home there for the next three years.

The Fishers' trip goes something like this: in Colorado visiting Mr. Fisher's sister Ida and her husband, the Clem Fladungs, at Longmont, and with them visiting Mother Cabrini's Shrine at Denver and seeing Estes Park. Then to Fort Collins to visit their niece and family, the David Shensks. After that Washington. They stopped with Charlie Schmitt and daughter Juanita at Grandview, with the Leo Schmitts at Mabton, where they also made the acquaintance of a new relative, born June 21, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Raschko (Ethel Schmitt). The new arrival is a brother for Ron and Ruth and has been named Randy.

In Yakami, Wash., they visited at St. Elizabeth's Hospital where the Leo Schmitts' oldest daughter, Elaine, is in nurses training and then on to the Rumelharts. Next was a visit to Grand Coulee Dam and a one-day boat cruise to Victoria, British Columbia.

Starting back, returning to Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and Rosemary drove to Portland, Oregon, for a visit with Mrs. Fisher's 84-year-old aunt, Mrs. Augusta Richter, went to see the Sorrowful Mother Shrine in that city, the Lehnertz brothers in Spokane, a stop in Washtucna, to see Quintin Lehnertz. Then back home through Yellowstone National Park, Kansas and Oklahoma with pop calls with relatives in Hitchcock and Kingfisher.

Miss Bierschenk Kenneth Klement Say Wedding Vows

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klement will make their home in Gainesville. She was Miss Mary Nell Bierschenk of Valley View before her marriage Saturday, July 1.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Will Bierschenk and the late Mr. Bierschenk of Valley View and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Klement of Muenster.

Father Anthony Gajda officiated at the double ring ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial mass in St. John's Church at 10 a.m.

The bride was presented in marriage by her uncle, John Neu of Lindsay. She wore a floor length white gown of Chantilly lace and peau de soie with petal point sleeves, scalloped high neckline, and bouffant skirt billowing out from a moulded waistline. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil and her flowers were white feathered carnations centered with a white orchid. She carried a crystal rosary, a gift from the groom's mother, and wore an antique gold chain and cross, a family heirloom.

Mrs. Marvin Rauschuber was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Ethel Sandmann of Lindsay was bridesmaid. They wore identical bouffants of blue embroidered organdy over taffeta and small blue hats with circular veils. They carried red carnation nosegays. Their pearl jewelry pieces were gifts from the bride.

Robert Klement and Edgar Bierschenk, brothers of the couple, were the groom's attendants. Their young brothers, Dennis Bierschenk and Genn Klement were acolytes and Kenneth Bierschenk another brother, and Johnny Reiter, groom's cousin, were ushers.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Shirley Luttmer of Valley View, organist, and Miss Joan Kupper of Dallas, soloist. After mass the bride placed a bouquet of white gladioli on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bierschenk wore a blue embroidered linen dress with navy accessories and Mrs. Klement wore a bone embroidered linen sheath with green accessories. Both had corsages of white split carnations.

Wedding reception and 6 p.m. buffet were held here in Sacred Heart Parish Hall. Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered and Misses Betty Jean Klement and Joan Kupper registered guests.

Mrs. Klement was graduated from Valley View High School and is employed by Texas Highway Department in Gainesville. Mr. Klement is a graduate of Muenster High School and an employee at Schad and Pulte.

Bruno Fleitmans Enjoy Texas Tour

Seeing Texas, with a side trip into Old Mexico, was on the agenda of a week's vacation trip enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Fleitman and children Sarah, John Dave, Blondie, Janie and Jerry.

They headed west, visited at Del Rio and Eagle Pass and crossed the border for sight-seeing and souvenirs.

In San Antonio, the Alamo and Mission churches were highlights. In Austin it was the state capitol, at San Marcos the Aquarena with its submarine theatre and glass bottom boats, and finally at Burnett, a tour of Longhorn Caverns.

Sarah Ann Fleitman Will Have 6 Week Tour of Europe

Together with 30 others she will sail from New York July 21 on the SS AMERICA. The six-weeks tour will take them to ten countries: Ireland, Wales, England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Monaco and France.

Among highlights of the trip will be a visit to Blarney Castle, a tour of the Shakespeare Country of England, visits to Buckingham Palace and the Houses of Parliament, a boat trip up the Rhine River, a swim in the Mediterranean, and many more historic sites in Paris, Rome, Lourdes and Versailles.

Patent Sought on Atomic Method of Preserving Food

Denny's Bakeries, inc. of San Antonio has a heritage going back to Indian trade nearly half a century ago. But, it also has an active place in molding the atom age future.

Charles H. Denny, vice president and director, has waged a relentless battle since 1949 to bring into general use an invention which would solve one of the oldest problems of the baking industry, with side effects worth billions of dollars in preservation of other foods.

It is a radiation process for sterilizing bulk and package materials, preserving them in their original state for months, and even years, without cooking, refrigeration or use of preservatives.

While Denny's original research sought a means of destroying insect eggs in flour and cereals, he found it applied equally well to meats, vegetables and other materials. Claims for the process are backed by intensive study by Southwest Research Institute of San Antonio and by Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Both institutions found the process effective as claimed commercially feasible and physiologically practical in that treated foods are completely safe for human consumption.

Because Denny presented his invention to U. S. Army Quartermaster corps for its free use in defense of the country, he has been blocked on a technicality from obtaining a patent on his invention.

Bills to remove that technicality are now before both houses of the national legislature, and evidence in support of Denny's claim is being considered by a senate committee.

From the taxpayer's point of view, Denny points out, there is more reason for speed in handling his claim than just the benefits to obtain from use of his process. While his patent application is pending other agencies of the government have spent many millions of dollars on research aimed at developing the same result as his proven method. To date all efforts have been either failures or only partial successes. Meanwhile, the expensive research continues.

A smart pupil replied: "Obviously they wanted quarter-inch drills."

"No, not at all — they wanted quarter-inch holes."

Farm Facts

Each of us annually receives the total output of 7.4 acres.

Although you may own no more land than the fraction of an acre on which your home is located, you are enjoying the output of several acres. In fact, each of us each year receives the production of 7.4 acres.

Food production, directly or indirectly, accounts for a large part of this total. An estimated 875 million acres in the United States are used for grazing.

It is estimated that crops were planted on about 337 million acres in 1960. These ranged in variety from avocados to cranberries and from mint to artichokes.

Much of the acreage, however, was used to produce feed for livestock and poultry. Corn was grown on 84 million acres, hay on about 70 million, and oats, barley, and sorghum grains on another 60 million.

The food grains—wheat, rice, and buckwheat—used about 52 million acres, soybeans about 24 million, and cotton about 16 million. Vegetables, nuts, and fruits are among other products listed in the acreage for crops. Privately owned commercial forest lands in the United States total almost 360 million acres, producing trees for lumber, paper, and a wide variety of uses.

Northern Segregation

A report by Dr. John J. Theobald, New York school superintendent, at the end of the 1960 school year noted that 53,683 children had left the city's elementary schools in the past three years for parochial schools; that from 1950 to 1958, 835,000 alien immigrants, Puerto Ricans and southern Negroes (almost 60 percent Puerto Rican and Negro) had moved into the city; 1,285,000, mostly white, moved out.

There would appear in these statistics at least a hint that the reputedly illegal urge for segregation is not limited entirely to Dixieland.

How to Pack a Bag Shown Club Group

"How to Pack a Bag" was an interesting demonstration presented to members of the Muenster Home Demonstration Club at their monthly meeting. Mrs. Albert Fleitman, talking as she packed, outfitted a woman's suitcase and a man's traveling bag.

Fourteen members attended the meeting for which Mrs. Hank Walterscheid was hostess in her home.

During the business session Mrs. Paul Fisher, council delegate, gave a report on the last council meeting and explained proper filling out of individual work sheets. This is the club's project for the month. The group set July 19 as date for a family picnic in City Park.

For the next meeting July 26, Mrs. Albert Fleitman will be hostess in her home and the demonstration will be a handcraft lesson — pillow making.

After adjournment members enjoyed a tour of the Walterscheid's new home and the hostess served cherry pie and coffee.

Ten-day visitors with Miss Sharon Schumacher were her cousin Miss Jo Carol McGee and her friend Miss Sue Ann De La Vega, both of Dallas. They returned home Monday.

Higher Earnings Now Allowed for S S Beneficiaries

"Due to recent changes in the Social Security Act, approximately a million people nationwide past retirement age can now draw benefits for some months of the year even though they may have high earnings," stated Gus Jones, Manager of the Sherman Social Security District Office.

In years prior to 1961 a person who earned over $2080 and worked all twelve months did not receive a check for any month of the year. Now, beginning this year, it's possible for a person to earn over $2080 and still draw payments for some months of the year.

The amount a person can earn before losing benefit payments for all twelve months depends mainly on the amount of his social security benefit.

Jones suggests that those people past retirement age (65 for men — 62 for women) get in touch with their local social security office for further information about this recent change in the Social Security Act.

"Mr. Lynch also has been elected Chairman of the Foundation's Executive Committee," Dr. Lundell said.

"Mr. Hoblitzelle, who resigned the presidency has been named Chairman of the Foundation's Board of Trustees."

George L. MacGregor, Dallas utility executive, who resigned both chairmanships, will continue his active participation in the Foundation's affairs as a member of the Executive Committee and Board.

Dr. Lundell said that the Foundation's Executive Committee filled the vacancies last week, after Trustees had received the resignations from Mr. Hoblitzelle and Mr. MacGregor.

"Through research at Renner, solutions have been worked out for many agricultural problems in Texas. Now that we are getting the answers, we are going to redouble our efforts," Mr. Lynch said.

"And we are going to place greater emphasis on the application of this research to farms and ranches. We are going to make Renner a household word throughout the rural areas."

Highway Toll in 3 Months Equals 3 Major Disasters

J. O. Musick, General Manager of The Texas Safety Association and Coordinator of the Annual Slow Down and Live Program, makes this comparison:

72 years ago, a dam on the Conemough River gave way and a vast wall of water 20 feet high roared down on helpless towns at a speed of 20 miles an hour. Within 60 minutes Johnstown, Pennsylvania, a city of 30,000 people was almost completely destroyed and 7 nearby hamlets were wiped out. In that single hour 2,209 men, women and children lost their lives.

The Johnstown flood was one of three of the worst disasters the United States has ever experienced. The Galveston tidal wave in 1900 took 6,000 lives. The Titanic, then the largest ship afloat, took 1,517 people down with her when she struck an iceberg in 1912. These three disasters cost a total of 9,726 lives, according to National Safety Council figures.

By the most macabre coincidence, the exact same number of lives — 9,726 — were taken in traffic accidents in the United States in three consecutive summer driving months . . . June, July and August of 1958. Three national disasters — three consecutive months' toll in traffic accidents — the total was identical!

There is one major difference, however. The entire world mourned the loss of life caused by "natural" disasters. Yet no one seems to know or care about the manmade disasters which occur on our streets and highways every summer. If the toll continues as it has in the past few years, more than 3,000 men, women, and children will be beaten, battered and burned to death by motor vehicles each summer month — this June, this July and this August! Property damage will run into the billions. Some one will die every 14 minutes. Someone will be injured, perhaps crippled for life, every 23 seconds. And the world "will little note nor long remember"!

The tragic part of this coincidence is that while we could do nothing to prevent the flood, the sinking or the tidal wave, we can prevent traffic accidents. Better laws, better enforcement, better engineering and better vehicles are all part of the solution. However, it is a better driver behind the wheel, a better pedestrian on the street, who can do the most.

Today, the association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators, an international association of safety officials appointed by the Governor of each State and the Premier of each Canadian Province, launches a campaign to make our citizens aware of our problem and to enlist their support in solving it. The theme of the program, SLOW DOWN AND LIVE will be carried through every known public information media. Law enforcement officers, governmental officials, safety groups and civic clubs are backing the program on an international basis.

this fact had a bearing on the CPA's decision to set up more munching and sipping opportunity. Their newest venture is a malt bar adjoining the Teen Club. It's intended as a special attraction for teenagers but anyone who has the urge will be welcome.

We'd like to think this snack center will supply the missing ingredient for the success of the teen club. Response there has been disappointing so far. If lack of eats was the reason things will soon be different.

However it all turns out, the CPA is entitled to a nice bouquet for its efforts in behalf of the community's younger set.
