

Get set for more inflation. When Congress responded to the new administration's demand for a $1.25 per hour minimum wage it cleared the way for a general increase of prices. Nothing can stop it. The laws of economics are unyielding. A manufacturer who is stuck with higher production costs has to get higher prices to stay in business. The same applies to retail stores and service establishments. They need a higher gross profit to offset their greater labor costs.

In fact this new law is going to cause higher prices in every step of manufacture and distribution, from raw material to its purchase by the consumer. It's hard to estimate what the percentage of increase will finally be.

All of which is more bad news to the millions of people who will not benefit from the wage raises. For instance, those with fixed incomes from pensions, social security, interest on investments, or the self-employed. Their dollars will not go as far as they used to. Even the beneficiaries of the higher wage will find they are no better off than before. Higher prices will wipe out their gains. The weekly check will buy no more than before.

This law makes a mockery of the traditional American virtue of thrift. It imposes a penalty on every kind of saving, even that encouraged by our government. Uncle Sam keeps urging the public to invest in US Savings Bonds always emphasizing how much the investment will have grown by date of maturity, and at the same time follows an economic policy which will wipe out the investment's gain. We saw it happen to war bonds. A person who invested $75 received $100 at maturity. But the $100 could not buy as much as the $75 originally could.

To our way of thinking this is a form of dishonesty. Political or economic maneuvering which depreciates the value of one's savings is nothing less than an indirect way of stealing from him. In every way that the government has encouraged or permitted inflation it has broken faith with its people. That's poor gratitude indeed toward those patriotic citizens who have responded to their country's appeal for help.

The same shrinkage applies to insurance, bonds, bank accounts and other forms of savings. A person who bought insurance years ago, confident that he was providing for loved ones, realized long ago that they are getting far less real protection than he paid for. Old people who thought their life savings would support them in comfort have to skimp to get by. Some can't make it and have to depend on charity.

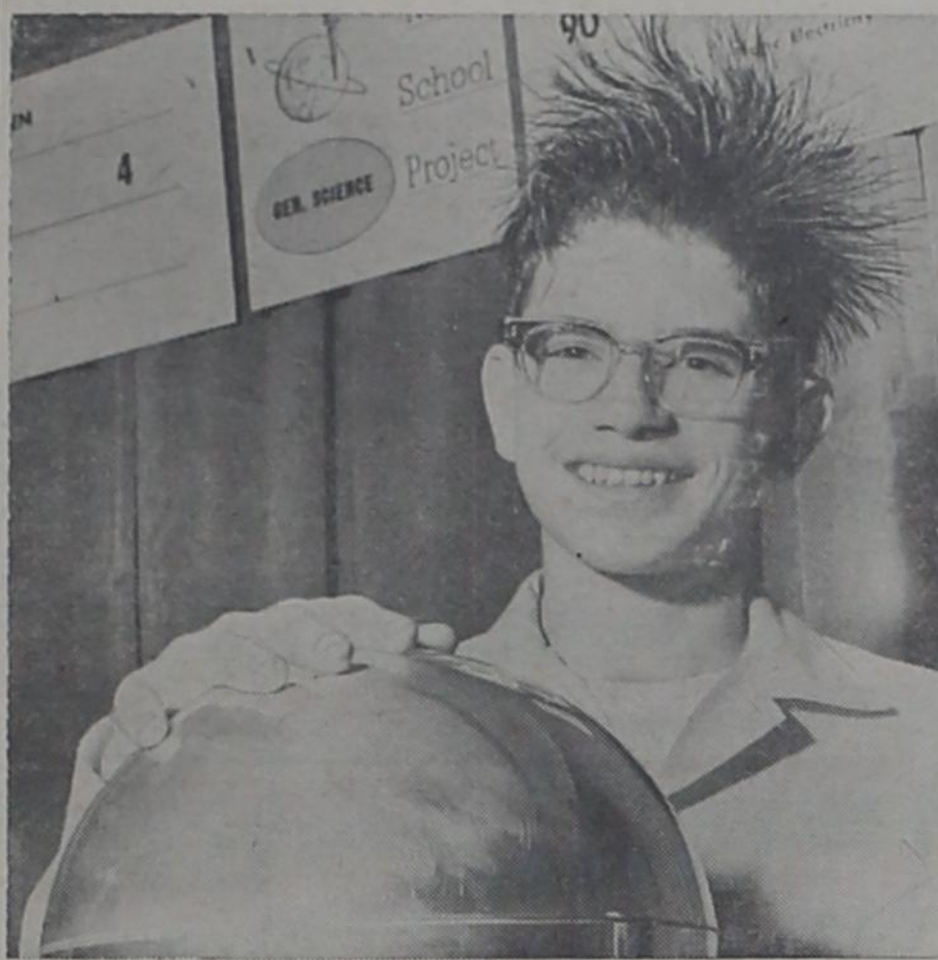

The inflation we have already had has brought those results. The inflation that will follow this minimum wage folly will bring more of the same results.

It's hard to understand how our legislators and our president get the idea that such an arbitrary inflationary act can possibly help the country's economy. On the contrary, it seems directly opposed to the dictates of common sense. As we have been told so many times, prosperity is not measured by the volume of money we have, but rather by the volume of necessities and comforts we are able to buy. Business will not necessarily improve because pay checks are bigger. More likely it will decline. That's because big checks will buy no more than the smaller ones used to while savings and fixed incomes will lose some of their purchasing value.

Reason insists that the correct solution to our economic problems lay in the opposite direction, by seeking a way to lower both prices and wages. Doing that would maintain the real value of a pay check while stimulating more business through the increased value of savings. It's easy to visualize how that would bring on greater demand, resulting in better business and more jobs. On the other hand it's hard to see how the higher wage can bring on more business or more jobs.

Another factor that may have a very unsatisfactory effect.

Patrolmen Warn About Laxity in Carrying License

Lots of people received warnings Wednesday afternoon to be more careful about having their drivers licenses with them when they drive.

Highway Patrolmen Bill Gardner and Al Futsch spent about an hour checking southbound cars on Main Street and decided that Muenster drivers, like most others, are negligent about carrying their licenses. Ladies were the worst offenders. About half of them had no licenses. Of the men, offenders were mostly farmers who do not carry identification papers in their work clothes.

Bishop Gorman to Present Diplomas At SH Graduation

Following his custom of recent years, The Most Rev. Thomas K. Gorman, bishop of the Dallas-Fort Worth Diocese, will present diplomas to this year's graduates of Sacred Heart School and will also deliver the commencement sermon.

The graduation exercise will be held Friday night of next week in Sacred Heart Church. There will be 45 elementary graduates and 22 high school graduates.

Another event on the commencement schedule is the high school's class night program Sunday night in the parish hall. Under direction of Roger Taylor as master of ceremonies, it will present the valedictory by Karen Endres and the salutatory by Jane Endres, along with a tribute to parents, class history, class prophecy and class will. Assignments for the latter presentations were not announced up to Wednesday.

Also on the program are presentation of awards by Father Alcuin Kubis, and songs by the class.

Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday Services End Year at Public School

Plans are almost complete for the three commencement services that will end the 1960-61 scholastic year at Muenster Public School. Baccalaureate service will be held Sunday night, elementary graduation Wednesday night, and high school graduation Thursday night. All begin at 8 o'clock.

In the first program Father John F. Meyers of the University of Dallas will give the baccalaureate sermon and The Rev. Don Hockett of First Baptist Church, Muenster will give the invocation and benediction. Superintendent L. B. Bruns will introduce the speaker and also make announcements concerning the final week's schedule.

Musical numbers on the program are a trumpet solo by James Larson accompanied by Bettye Dodds and a vocal solo by Miss Dodds accompanied by Sharon Schumacher. Miss Dodds will also play for the processional and recessional.

Plans are not complete at this time for the elementary graduation to be held Wednesday night. The commencement speaker will be Vernon Austin, Counsellor of Gainesville High School, and the valedictory and salutatory speakers will be Joyce Rumley and Peggy Branch. Exams this week will determine which of the two gets top rating.

The eleven graduates are Joyce Rumley, Peggy Branch, Linda Whitt, Brenda Cason, Cindy Cain, Georgia Pawless, Tommy Flusche, Danny Wilson, Wayne Doughty, Roy

At communion time each child will be presented at the altar by its parent and will receive the Blessed Eucharist beside the parent.

Also a part of the service is the children's renewal of baptismal vows which were originally made for them by sponsors. They will assemble in the sanctuary for that ceremony but will not be attended by parents.

Parish Groups Plan Program to Honor Fr. Eugene July 14

Members of Sts. Joseph and Anne's Societies had a joint meeting Sunday night with Father Alcuin to initiate plans for a parish program to honor Father Eugene Luke on the occasion of his First Solemn Mass here on July 14. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke.

Ordination rites will be on July 11 in the Benedictine Monastery at Subiaco, Ark. First mass in his home parish will be celebrated at 4 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church. Parish Hall will be the scene of festivities following the services and will include a reception, dinner and evening program.

Afterwards the men and women held their separate business sessions, then joined again for a social hour and dutch lunch.

In both meetings members heard brief reports on the district meeting of the Catholic State League here last Sunday. In the St. Anne's meeting Mrs. Herbert McDaniel announced diocesan retreat dates during the summer. The first for women begins on June 9 and the last begins on Aug. 25.

Each society had some fifty members present for the evening.

Big Booster Pump Assures Adequate Supply of Water

An improvement just completed in the city's water department is a new booster pump of 500 gallons per minute capacity to pump water from the reservoir to the mains and water tower. It replaces the 300 gallon pump formerly used as a standby.

Under this arrangement there are two 500 gallon pumps, one in daily use, the other ready to take over at full capacity in case the first unit breaks down. The arrangement assures an adequate supply of water, even in an emergency, for the summer's expected peak loads.

Another benefit it offers is additional credit on the city's fire insurance rate. Formerly that credit was limited by the smaller capacity of the emergency pump. With both pumps now up to adequate capacity the credit can be allowed.

Muenster Bowlers Receive Trophies

Two Muenster teams and one Muenster individual shared in the honors as the Milky Way Bowling League awarded trophies to its champions during a banquet last week in Gainesville.

The 1fn's, composed of Art and Evie Felderhoff and Don and Dot Endres took the first place team award. Rohmer's, composed of Ed and Virginia Schneider and Ray and Lou Voth won the high team handicap series with 2033. Don Endres had the high game of 258.

In the election of officers Endres was chosen vice president.

Wimmer Is First In Broad Jump at State Track Meet

Larry Wimmer was first in the broad jump and Milton Fette was third in the 220 yard dash in the class B state finals of Interscholastic League track in Austin last Saturday.

In both events the MHS boys failed to match their own records at the regional meet two weeks before. Wimmer's jump was 2 1/2 inches short of his 22'7" record, but still good enough to earn first place at the meet. Fette could have taken first in the 220 if he had matched his regional record of 21.6 seconds. Winning time at the state meet was 21.7. Fette's was 22.3.

In 2.0 other events at the meet Muenster entries failed to survive the preliminaries. Wimmer was eliminated in the 180 yard low hurdles, and Clyde Walterscheid in the discus throw.

Two other Cooke County entries, the Clifton brothers of Valley View, placed in the state meet. David was second in the half mile, Danny was fourth in the mile.

Timely Showers Improve Local Crop Prospects

Rainfall here during the past week was just what the farmers ordered. Though possibly a week or two late for maximum benefit, it will still help wonderfully in developing grain to a good quality. Oats especially needed a boost. Wheat, though not suffering, has a chance to improve.

Other crops were hurting and got a big lift from the rain. That includes spring plantings, alfalfa and pastures. All are greatly improved.

At this time prospects are good for another bountiful grain harvest. Oats generally is the best in several years. Wheat also looks fine.

In some areas the beginning of harvest is already under way. Oats is being cut green for baled hay or silage. Alfalfa cutting is also started. And grain combining is not far off, as indicated by the brownish tint appearing on some fields.

The month's rainfall to date measures 2.10 inches, .42 on May 1, .76 on the 5th and .92 on the 8th. The year's total to date is 11.83 inches.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. Gus Lutkenhaus is back at home after spending eight days at Gainesville Sanitarium. She is still a bed patient.

Reports on T. L. Anderson of Gainesville are encouraging this week. Relatives here have been informed that he is improving after head surgery at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas where he is a patient since May 1. He suffered a brain hemorrhage, not affecting his reasoning but impairing his vision since it was in the optic part of the brain.

Bill Kathman entered the VA Hospital in McKinney Tuesday to have eye surgery after treatment and observation. He is in Ward 106.

Mrs. Gene Schmitz was dismissed from M&S hospital Saturday evening after minor surgery three days earlier.

Mrs. John Willis of Forestburg entered St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas Sunday afternoon for X-rays and observation. She's been having fainting spells and her doctor sent her to a specialist.

Charlotte Bayer, three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bayer of Valley View, has been dismissed from Childrens Hospital in Dallas where she was a patient two weeks for treatment and surgery for a liver ailment. She is recovering normally from the operation.

Tommy Walterscheid is back in circulation but not back at work since he sustained a neck injury, a pinched nerve, that put him in the hospital for about a week and still requires him to wear a neck "harness" to promote healing.

Agriculture Head Stresses Need of Soil Stewardship

College Station — Soil Stewardship Week, observed annually and sponsored by the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts in cooperation with church groups, is observed May 7-14. The observance is aimed primarily at pointing up the importance of good soil stewardship to the economic well-being of the United States today and in the future.

Commenting last week on the observance, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said, "Soil stewardship, as applied to passing our productive land on to future generations in as good or better condition than we received it, cannot be over emphasized when one is aware of the demands from home and abroad that will be placed on our land in the future. As we think of President Kennedy's Food for Peace program, relief for distressed areas in our homeland, and the expected increase in population, we in the Department of Agriculture, as well as the farmer and ranchman, become only too aware of the importance of the land to the future well-being of the Nation.

"It is fitting that a week should be set aside emphasizing man's responsibility as a steward of the land. We who live in a Nation of plenty need to pause and reflect on our fortunate state. We need to renew our awareness of the permanence of the land as compared to the short time we may devote to the husbandry of it."

The Secretary urges citizens everywhere to join with the local soil conservation districts and churches in this special observance.

THE SELF UNEMPLOYED

America has grown great and its people prosperous, and one of the chief reasons is the right of any American boy to go into a little business of his own, and grow if he has the character. These self-employed create new jobs, pay taxes and some of them grow into large employers of others.

But there are self-employed, too. They have for years been demanding more and more pay for less and less work. More fringe benefits, more paid holidays, more coffee breaks, longer paid vacations, bigger pensions. But without increased production to pay for it all.

So of course the costs and therefore prices of what they make have gone up; of course fewer Americans can pay those higher prices; of course more people turn to foreign goods at cheaper prices.

America's self-employed built a great nation; these willfully self-unemployed could wreck it.

HOW THE BABY GREW!!!

Great oaks from little acorns grow, says the ancient adage. And this applies to taxes. A publication of the Florida Power & Light Company presents a brief history of the federal income tax. In its words, "When the income tax baby was born 48 years ago, its bite was only a toothless nibble." A married man with $5,000 a year paid $10. The rate was one per cent with the first $4,000 exempt. From $20,000 to $50,000 an additional one per cent was tacked on. If you had an income of $500,000 a year, the tax was a mere $25,020.

Now that $5,000 a year married man pays $1,020 — and anyone who gets into the $500,000 bracket is tapped for $404,640.

All this has happened in half a century. What will the next 50 years bring — if do everything, welfare-state government continues to grow and grow?

THUMBNAILED TALE OF THE TOSPY

Centralism in this country was born of terribly poor parents during the 30s.

Self-made, Centralism didn't get a chance to go to Harvard. But in high school, observing classmates figured that Centralism — voted "Most Likely to Take Over" — was some day going to deal, dole and dominate.

Centralism was first called the New Deal. Time passed. Then the name was changed to the Fair Deal, and later to Liberalism.

Actually, Centralism isn't new — just a throwback to the all-powerful governments of other ages. Nor fair — for it discriminates among citizens and deprives them of many freedoms. Nor liberal in the historic sense — for the liberals originally were those who combated oppressive and all-pervasive government.

Many members of both political parties have embraced Centralism — provided, of course, that they have command. Centralists advocate more government direction and control of the activities of people and business; more spending and taxes, and the steady expansion of the size, power and cost of the Federal government.

Centralism is at the height of power today. But there's a way to cool the octopus off. It's up to us as citizens and taxpayers to understand that Centralism is a perilous path for America — and to give determined support to state and local efforts to solve state and local problems.

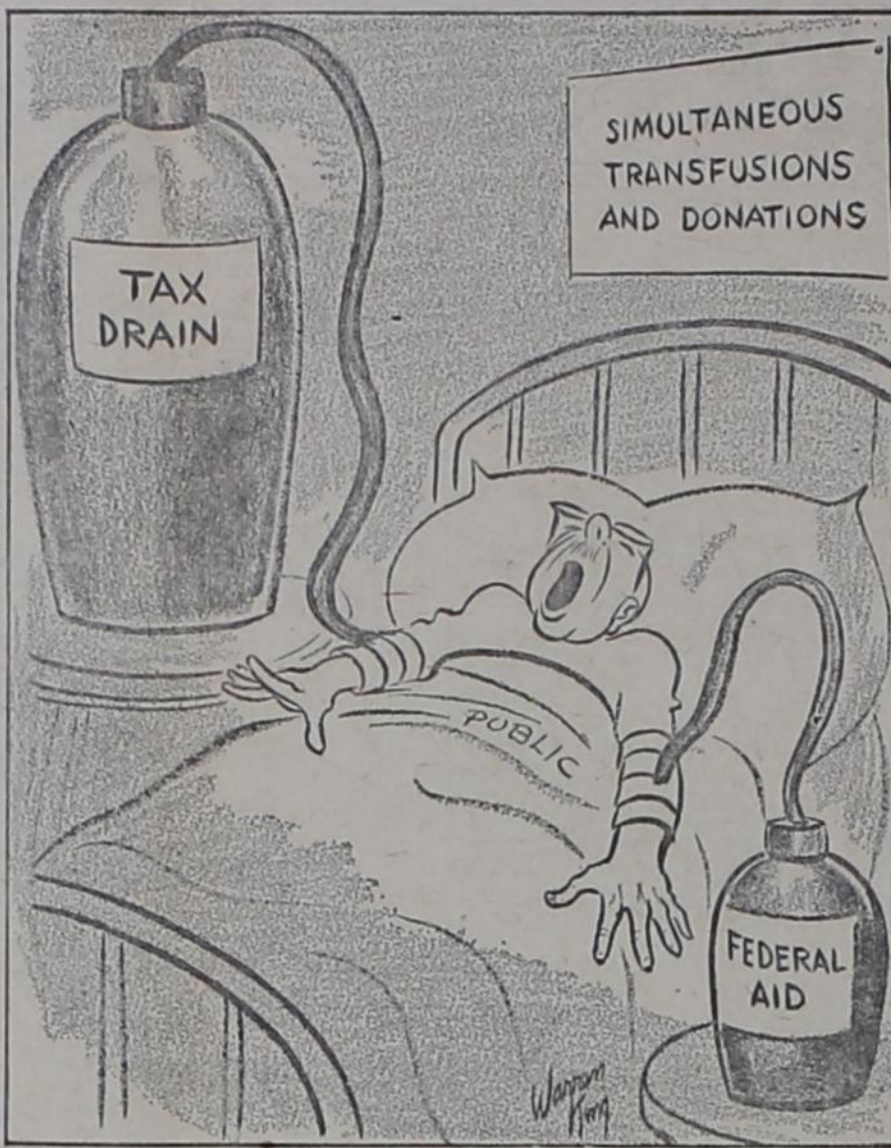

Let's get this done in '61.

THE QUACK WARD

SIMULTANEOUS TRANSFUSIONS AND DONATIONS

IT'S A BLOODY MESS

In a letter to the folks back home, Congressman August E. Johansen (R-Mich.) poses this provocative question:

"Would it make sense for a patient to be receiving a blood transfusion and giving a blood donation at the same time?"

It's the congressman's opinion that such a practice, aside from being extremely dangerous, would be entirely objectionable.

"In a word," says Congressman Johansen, "it would be medical quackery." Then the Michigander makes his point:

"I wonder whether we are not indulging in something just as ridiculous and perilous in the area of government and economics.

"I refer to the continuously increasing simultaneous policy of Federal taxation and Federal aid — especially when reported to as a supposed basis for improving economic health.

Athletics Lauded By Father Heiman At Sports Banquet

Asserting that participation in sports cultivates discipline not acquired elsewhere, the Rev. Harold Heiman of Fort Worth lauded athletic programs which train young people "from head to toe," while classroom training is "from the ears up" and combined, the two do a thorough job of disciplining young men and women.

He was the featured speaker at the annual sports banquet honoring athletes of Sacred Heart High on May 3. His talk, spiced with humor and "packing a punch" was applauded by some 160 guests assembled in the Parish Hall dining room for the event.

Father Alcuin Kubis was toastmaster and Coaches George Petrus and Adam Wolf introduced players and presented letter certificates, the former to the boys and the latter to the girls.

Recognized were the football squad and 16 lettermen; basketball team and six lettermen, baseball players and 12 lettermen; girls basketball and 12 letter winners; captains and team managers; pep squad, cheer leaders and scorekeepers. Other honored guests included Patsy Endres, 1960 Homecoming Queen and her royal court. Parents attended with their sons and daughters.

Acknowledgments and thanks were expressed by Students Betty Dangelmayr, Della Hartman, Teddy Miller, Anthony Knabe and Patsy Endres. The baked ham menu was prepared by Mmes. Joe Lehnertz, Conrad Jostwerner and Gertrude Bayer. Sr. Carmelita was in charge of decorations beautifully displaying the school's colors of red and white and using red roses as the floral complement.

2 Housewarmings For Walterscheids

Two surprises are better than one and two surprises is what Mr. and Mrs. Hank Walterscheid got — surprise housewarming parties — everybody bringing gifts for their new home.

The first group came on Wednesday night, about 35 friends, they also brought eats and drinks for refreshments.

That made Sunday afternoon's party even more surprising. A group of about 50 mostly relatives, descended on the Walterscheids. Hostesses were Mrs. Joe Swingler, Mrs. Albert Schilling and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid who served cake and coffee.

After seeing the home the crowd stayed on to play 42 and visit and looked at the many lovely gifts that Hank and Sis received in the two showers.

Special Services On Rogation Days

In Catholic Churches everywhere Rogation days Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday brought special services.

The three days before Ascension Thursday are days of prayer to implore God's blessing on crops and to obtain peace and protection from bad weather, famine and war. Both the Epistle and Gospel of the Rogation Mass stress the value and the power of prayer.

On these days, if possible, outdoor processions are held, and the Litany of the Saints in sung to ask the saints to intercede with God for blessings sought.

Special Rogation Day services here included the procession in connection with the 8:30 mass at Sacred Heart Church.

Report on Dallas Session Given at Farm Bureau Meet

Farm Bureau directors and committeemen at their May meeting heard reports on a Bureau meeting in Dallas where J. T. Woodman, director of District 4 and Bill Wedemeyer of Texas Farm Bureau had discussed the proposed crop-land adjustment.

J. T. Cole, county FB president, and Joe B. Hundt, chairman of the legislative committee, attended the meeting and brought back to directors and committeemen detailed reports on the subject discussed, pointing out its effect on farmers of Texas, and measures they would have to utilize to cope with the situation; to improve, maintain and protect prices and income of farmers; to achieve a better balance between supplies of agricultural commodities the requirements of consumers; and to stabilize the all-over economy.

Visiting with the group and addressing the meeting was H. C. High of Thackerville, Okla., who spoke about building a co-op gin at Gainesville. No cotton producers were present and the motion was shelved for another meeting.

Adult Homemaking Class Is Planned

A summer homemaking program for adults is being planned by Miss Doris Vavra, teacher of home economics at Muenster High. She said she will let the women decide on the course and set a schedule for meetings.

For this purpose she is calling a meeting to organize and invites all women interested in a summer class to report at the school's homemaking room on Monday, May 22, at 2 p.m. If impossible to attend the organizational meeting, prospective adult students are asked to phone Miss Vavra at 82-R-1 and discuss the project with her.

Resist the Urge To Throw Litter On the Highway

Austin, Texas — The Texas Highway Department has launched a new slogan in its anti-litter campaign: "Be a neatnik, not a litterbug."

This plea comes from Texas Highway maintenance crews all over the state as they haul mountains of cans, bottles, paper, decaying food, and other litter from Texas highway right of way.

"Spring houseclean our Texas highways all year long by fighting that urge to toss litter from your car," they recommend.

Throwing litter on highways and roadsides is prohibited by law. Last year 281 cases against litter-throwing were completed in Texas courts. Of this number, 269 were found guilty and were fined or punished by other means.

Highway maintenance men point out that litter is mainly local coming from resident litterbugs and not from out-of-staters or from phantom travelers from somewhere "up the road." Surveys reveal that the litterbug is a local person, possibly a civic-minded citizen in all other phases of his life, but he fails to see the multiplication factor when he tosses out an empty cigarette package, wad of paper, or soft-drink bottle. He would not toss objects down in his own yard, or in a friend's; but he will thoughtlessly take over the highway as it owns private trashbasket.

Maintenance men point out: No machine can pick up litter. It has to be hand-picked. That makes it an expensive operation. Last year the clean-up and mowing for 57,500 maintained miles of Texas highways totaled more than $7,000,000. This included picking up, hauling and unloading rubbish. Another chore for maintenance men is removal of dead animals, removal of rocks and rock piles. Wrecked cars must be hauled off. Advertising signs in the right of way must be taken down. Maintenance crews are also responsible for mowing the grass, removing brush, and keeping vegetation from the highway markers and guard posts.

Railroad crossing sign near Colorado Springs, Colo., "The average time it takes a train to pass this crossing in 14 seconds whether your car is on it or not."

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN: soil erosion is our Nation's No. 1 enemy. It must be checked.

Survivors are her husband; two sons, Joe Jr. and Elmer Smith, all of Dalhart; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild; also two other sisters, Mrs. Joe Cooke of Midland and Mrs. George Tompson of Lubbock. She was a cousin of the Needhams.

Farm Facts

The annual hog crop exceeds 90 million head. That's half a hog for every man, woman, and child in the U. S.

Hog producers market two crops a year—one in the spring and another in the fall. The spring crop usually accounts for about 60% of the annual production.

Biggest factor in determining the level of hog production is the hog-corn price ratio—relationship between prices of feed and hogs. In recent years, farmers apparently consider a ratio of around 13 a break-even relationship.

In other words, 13 bushels of corn are equal in value to 100 pounds of hog, liveweight. When the ratio falls below this point, there is a tendency for producers to market their corn. When the ratio is above 13, they feel a greater return can be made by feeding corn to hogs.

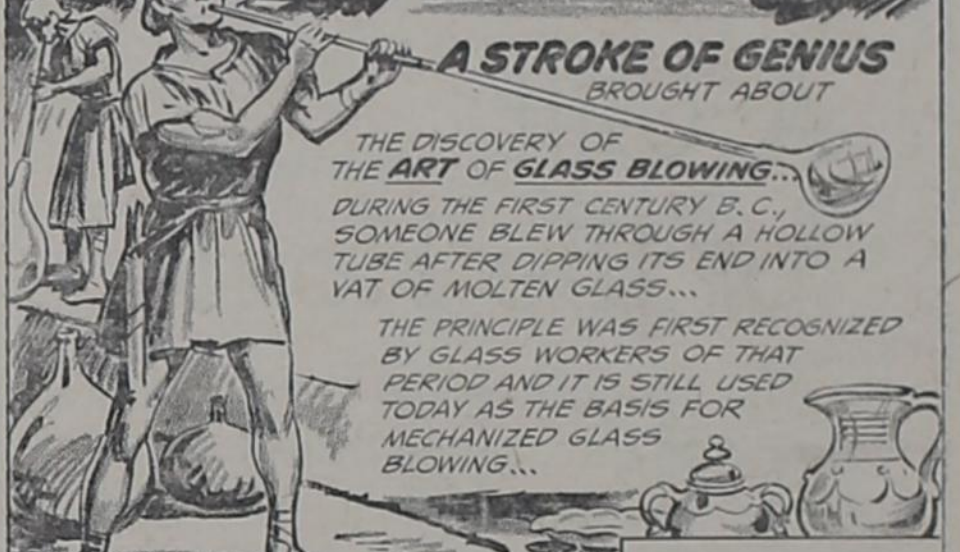

Hogs are being pampered these days—kept cool in summer and warm in winter. It pays off. Farmers save about seven pigs per litter as compared with about six per litter 20 years ago.

The annual "hog crop" exceeds 90,000,000 head.

This means some 12 million more pigs a year. And they're ready for market—days earlier—saving money on feed. This is reflected in adequate supplies of pork at prices consumers can afford to pay.

IN THIS WORLD

A STROKE OF GENIUS BROUGHT ABOUT THE DISCOVERY OF THE ART OF GLASS BLOWING. DURING THE FIRST CENTURY B. C., SOMEONE BLEW THROUGH A HOLLOW TUBE AFTER DIPPING ITS END INTO A VAT OF MOLTEN GLASS. THE PRINCIPLE WAS FIRST RECOGNIZED BY GLASS WORKERS OF THAT PERIOD AND IT IS STILL USED TODAY AS THE BASIS FOR MECHANIZED GLASS BLOWING.

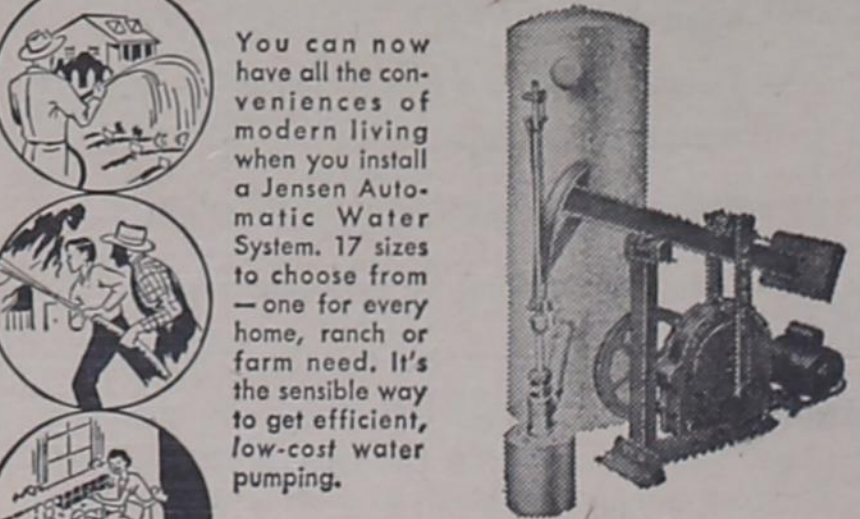

MACHINES FOR BLOWING GLASS BOTTLES WERE DEVELOPED AROUND 1900-1910 WITH MAGICAL RESULTS. GLASSWARE WAS CHANGED FROM A LUXURY ITEM THROUGH MASS PRODUCTION TO ONE FOR POPULAR CONTAINER USE FOR FOOD AND BEVERAGES.

TODAY... A NEW SHAPE IN GLASS BOTTLES HAS BEEN INTRODUCED TO MEET GROWING CONSUMER DEMANDS FOR CONVENIENCE... IT'S THE GLASS INDUSTRY'S HANDY NO-DEPOSIT BEER BOTTLE. THESE LOW COST BOTTLES ARE ONLY 6 INCHES HIGH, YET HOLD A FULL BOTTLE OF BEER, THEY FIT HAND AND REFRIGERATOR SNUGLY!

Auxiliary Plans Coming Events and Replaces President

A full agenda of business confronted members of the Muenster VFW Auxiliary at their meeting Monday night. May is a month of unusual activity including the annual buddy poppy campaign and the yearly memorial services.

In addition the group discussed the Auxiliary cancer insurance plan and insured all members, paying the year's policy premium from treasury funds. The policy covers present members and those who join this year. It insures for cancer and leukemia, providing hospitalization and medical care.

President Resigns

Mrs. Leo Lawson conducted the meeting and at the end announced her resignation as president. That put Mrs. Arthur Bayer, past president and current senior vice president, back in office as president. It also moved Mrs. Charlie Pagel from junior vice president to senior vice president and members held an election for the junior officer, Mrs. Emil Rohmer getting the nomination and being elected.

The month's honor roll requirements are participation in the buddy poppy campaign and memorial services. Mrs. Charlie Pagel, buddy poppy chairman, announced plans for the sale of poppies here, including a church door collection on May 28.

Memorial Services

The Memorial Day services, set for that Sunday, will follow the 10:30 mass. This is sponsored jointly by the VFW Post and Auxiliary.

Also during the business session Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Bayer and Mrs. Pagel gave reports on the District I meeting they attended in Denton Sunday. Mrs. Lawson gave a short talk on Communism, an Auxiliary requirement for the month, and members voted a five dollar contribution to the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge.

Members were again reminded to save Red Scissors coupons and Fab box tops and turn them in at the June 5 meeting. Presently District I is leading in coupons.

Birthday Party

After adjournment there was a social hour with a surprise birthday observance honoring Mrs. Nig DeBorde, Auxiliary secretary. Mrs. Charlie Pagel baked the birthday cake, topped with candles. It was dessert with coffee and a cold plate served by refreshment hostess - Mrs. Wilfred Bindel.

Attendance prize money of five dollars stayed in the pot and was increased to seven for next month's drawing. Helen Hess, whose name was drawn, was not present.

Attending and joining in the happy birthday song for Geneva DeBorde were Mildred Lawson, Mary Ann Walterscheid, Dolores Luke, Mary Mosler, Ida Mae Bindel, Rosa Driever, Frances Bayer, Rose Walterscheid, Frankie Hermes, Harriet Pagel, Peggy Walterscheid, Agnes Rohmer and Wilma Mosley.

Scouts Go Bowling

Nineteen members of the local Boy Scout troop, accompanied by Scoutmaster Nick Miller and Committeemen Herbie Yosten and W. J. Miller, had a bowling treat Sunday afternoon at Gainesville. Another interesting experience for the boys was being interviewed and heard over Radio Station KGAF during their bowling session. For most of them it was their first time bowling and also talking into a microphone.

On Honor Roll at Subiaco Academy

Seven Cooke County boys, students at Subiaco Academy, are listed on the school's honor roll for the past six weeks. Five are from Muenster, one from Lindsay and from Gainesville.

Leading the A honor roll is Robert Fetsch of Muenster, tenth grade, with an average of 96.2. He is one of three on the list.

Among the 46 on the B honor roll are Cyril Yosten, John Paul Endres, Richard Schoech and Clinton Endres of Muenster; Tommy Zimmerman of Lindsay and Jimmy Walter of Gainesville.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Beneficial rains that have been good for all growing things have been perfect for recently planted grass in the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

But when conditions are fine for grass growth they are excellent for weeds. And can sap the very life out of the planted grasses unless controlled.

This is true of old stands of grass as well as the new plantings. Most weeds require more moisture to produce a pound of dry weight than do most grasses. So they rob the grass of moisture and fertility.

Several district cooperators have begun mowing and spraying for weed control.

Now is an opportune time to apply high nitrogen fertilizer to Bermuda and King Ranch Bluestem, point out soil conservation technicians. J. C. Donnell has put down 200 pounds of 16-20-0 per acre on some established Coastal Bermuda. Norris Dill, District cooperator at Rosston, applied fertilizer to this year's planting of Coastal Bermuda. He also put about 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate on some oats and Johnson grass hay.

THE ENCO TRADEMARK will replace 12 different brand names of gasolines sold in 24 western and Mid-western states by Humble Oil & Refining Company. The changeover will be completed in these states on May 12, Humble officials said. This change will end much of the brand-name confusion that resulted when the Humble Company was formed by uniting domestic affiliates of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) in a new Humble Oil & Refining Company.

Humble Gasolines Get Energy Boost And a New Name

Humble Oil & Refining Company today announced an improvement in its premium gasolines marketed in the Southwest Region. This improvement coincides with the company's new Enco trademark.

An exclusive new combination of additives will provide what Humble calls an "energy boost" for the automobiles of users of the new products.

The company stated that this new development is in keeping with Humble's policy of continuous improvement of gasoline quality, and is the latest in a long series of Humble "firsts." Last year, Humble made material improvements in both its "regular" and "premium" qualities.

Humble engineers said that the latest improvement gives automobiles an "energy boost" by reducing carburetor sludge, minimizing harmful combustion chamber deposits caused by gum and other substances, lengthening spark plug life and improving gasoline mileage.

Farm Facts

The U. S. farmer is the most highly mechanized and most efficient farmer in the world. He owns $18.4 billion worth of machinery and motor vehicles.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Balance Sheet for Agriculture, 1960, value of machinery on farms has increased six-fold since 1940. It more than doubled from 1948 to 1960.

In 1959, gross expenditures for all farm machinery were $86 million more than in 1958. Expenditures were up for tractors (45%) and other machinery (10%) as farmers continued the trend toward larger and more efficient units.

The value of machinery and motor vehicles on farms in 1940 was slightly more than $3 billion as compared with $18.4 billion in 1960. Tractors were valued at $503 million as compared with $3.4 billion; automobiles at $958 million as compared with $4 billion; trucks at $262 million as compared with $2.3 billion; and other farm machinery at $1.3 billion as compared with $8.7 billion.

Farmers own $18.4 billion worth of machinery and motor vehicles.

While there has been a large increase in total machinery and vehicles during these years, rising prices also have been partially accountable for the big jump in values.

Janie Kubis and Kenneth Thurman Marry at Lindsay

After their wedding trip to South Texas and Old Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thurman will make their home in Gainesville. She is the former Miss Janie Kubis of Lindsay.

The couple was married Saturday, May 6, in St. Peter Church with the bride's uncle, Rev. Alcuin Kubis of Muenster, performing the ceremony and officiating at the nuptial high mass.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kubis of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Thurman of Gainesville.

Mr. Kubis presented his daughter for marriage. She wore a white Chantilly lace and tulle gown with Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. A peplum effect of lace topped the wide tulle skirt.

Tiny silver leaves from her mother's wedding headpiece were used again in her coronet to hold her waist length veil. They have been used traditionally by her two sisters at their marriages. She carried an orchid on top of her mother's prayerbook and carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kubis.

Miss Maxine Schmitz was her cousin's maid of honor and Miss Betty Jo Thurman and Mrs. Loyd Thurman Jr. were bridesmaids. They wore pink chiffon dresses and small flower hats with net veils.

Groom's attendants were Gilbert Kubis, best man, and Bernard Kubis and Loyd Thurman Jr., groomsmen. A. J. Felderhoff and Adam Wolf Jr. ushered.

Confetti - - -

Confetti is the competitive advantage given by this law to foreign labor. For years American labor has been pricing itself out of the market. Exports have declined and imports have increased because foreign concerns can beat our prices. Thousands of local firms have gone broke and millions of people have lost jobs because of inflationary mistakes of the past. Still our leaders bungle again into the same kind of mistake. Lots of people will get little satisfaction from knowing that the value of their work has gone up but the demand for it as gone down.
