NEWS OF THE SICK

As the Cooke County hospital issue heads for its April 4 showdown at the ballot box, it's becoming urgent for voters to think carefully of possible consequences of the project they are encouraged to approve.

This column for one admits it has had a mistaken opinion of the tax rate needed to build the hospital and retire the bonds. Frequently over weeks the rate has been quoted at 15 cents on the $100, and the figure has been quite widely accepted. But a closer look now reveals that the rate is not definitely set.

A copy of the legal notice ordering the election, which is the official document specifying conditions relating thereto, can be seen on page 6 of the Gainesville Daily Register on Tuesday March 21. Anyone who believes a definite rate is established is invited to study the notice.

It will be seen that approval in the election will authorize bonds for 1 million dollars to mature in not less than 30 years at an interest rate of not more than 4 1/4 per cent for the purpose of building and equipping the proposed hospital and . . . here comes the pertinent statement . . . "to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal thereof at maturity."

Notice, no official mention is made of the 15 cent rate. True, as now estimated it is considered as sufficient. But what assurance does anyone have that valuations will remain as they are?

Relative to this we should take a look at the county's oil production figures. Oil men admit that it is high, due to extensive water flooding in recent years. The general belief is that oil valuations will drop sharply, and the decrease will be reflected in a corresponding drop of total valuations. When that time comes there will be only two ways to raise the required tax, to increase rate or valuation. Using either method or both, each individual's share of the tax burden will have to go up.

Voters of the county should be informed that they are asked to take on an obligation that is not definitely known.

Another big unknown is the actual or final cost of the project. No one has any assurance that the initial cost will be the full extent of public responsibility in this issue.

With completion of the modern new facilities there can be little doubt which of Gainesville's three hospitals will be favored by the public. Patronage at the Sanitarium and M&S will drop sharply, perhaps not entirely, but certainly to a point which will eventually put them out of business. When that happens the new hospital will be inadequate and will need an expansion program . . . and another bond issue.

Actually, the county then will have less hospital accommodation than it has today. There will be 60 beds in the county hospital and 30 at Muenster. Now there are about 60 at the Sanitarium and 40 at M&S.

Possibility of this development cannot be brushed off lightly. As indicated by Blair Ferguson's intense opposition, he's convinced that M&S does not have a chance after the new hospital opens. Reason tells us that the Sanitarium's outlook would be equally gloomy.

Such prospects, while disastrous to those with present investments, are also discouraging to county taxpayers. After a two million dollar obligation, and individual tax burdens which cannot even be specified, they would find that their facilities have improved only in quality, but not in quantity. They would still have a problem.

And even this partial solution, remember, is attained only by counting in the facilities to be provided in Muenster, without cost to the taxpayers. In other words, promoters of the county project, while not admitting as much, or perhaps not even realizing it, are depending on Muenster for the success of their venture. In Gainesville they would reduce from 100 to 60 beds. Without Muenster's project that would be pitifully inadequate.

Just think over that situation for a few moments and decide for yourself whether there's anything fair about it. (Continued on page 8)

A car-pickup crash about a mile east of Muenster Sunday night at 7:20 sent three people to hospitals with injuries. Ted Henscheid is at Gainesville Sanitarium with facial cuts and a broken collar bone, Roy Swirczynski is in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, where he had plastic surgery on his nose, and Mrs. Mable McLaughlin is at M&S Hospital with a concussion and other injuries. Both cars were traveling east at the time of the crash. With Mrs. McLaughlin in the pickup were two daughters and a girl friend, returning to Thackerville after a visit here with another daughter, Brenda McLaughlin. The three girls received only minor injuries in the crash that demolished both vehicles. Henscheid and Swirczynski will probably be dismissed from hospital care this weekend.

Victor Hartman entered Methodist Hospital in Dallas Monday for skin graft surgery on his leg. His doctor didn't say how long he would be hospitalized . . . probably several days. Family members took him to Dallas and while there his little granddaughter, Monica Hartman, who went along for the ride, had a car door closed on her left hand, mashing two fingers from which she lost the nails.

Mrs. Frank Kaiser this week continued with tests and examinations at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. Her son, C. J. Kaiser, who went with her last Wednesday, came home during the weekend for a few days and will return the latter part of this week. Mrs. Kaiser's surgery will probably be this weekend. Meanwhile she is not a hospital patient. Her address will be available when she is admitted for the operation.

Mrs. R. M. Felty of Hood is making progress in recovering from surgery for a broken left hip and will probably be dismissed from the Sanitarium this week. For further convalescence she may be here at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. King. Mrs. Felty broke her hip in a fall after a mis-step at her home.

Two-and-a-half-year old Janet Pels is back at home, dismissed from Texas Children's Hospital in Dallas. She's up and around the house, recovering rapidly from surgery performed March 10. Her parents, the Henry Pelses Jr., brought her home Friday.

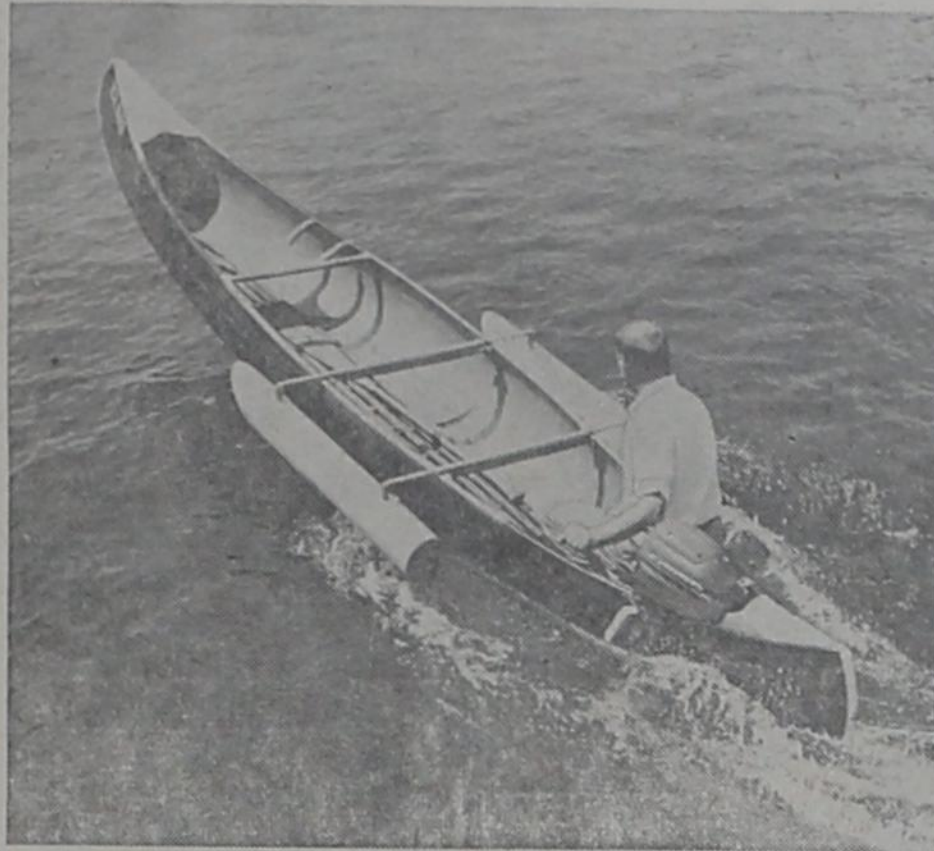

W. H. Endres was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Saturday after six days of tests and observation but will need bed rest at home for several weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Biffle and Mrs. David Black, both of Myra, are making progress after surgery at M&S Hospital. Both had gall bladder operations. They look forward to leaving the hospital this weekend.

Word from Sister Agnes Voth reveals that she is improving, though progress seems slow. She made the trip fine from a Little Rock hospital to St. Bernard's Hospital in Jonesboro, Ark., and says to thank everyone for the generous shower of get-well cards . . . that she is grateful for each one. Sister Agnes is recovering from a bout with spinal meningitis.

Ike Fulton of Myra is back in circulation, recovered from injuries that kept him in the hospital for eight weeks at Wichita Falls where he was struck down by a car on a city street and received broken ribs, fractured pelvis and other injuries.

Eighty-first birthday of Mrs. S.P. Otto of Wichita Falls was no day for celebration Monday but a report on her condition was good. She is at Bethania Hospital where she had a major operation March 14. Her sister, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, has been kept informed on her progress through Mrs. Otto's daughter Margaret, Mrs. Albert Eckelkamp, who is supervisor of nurses at Bethania and has been with her mother since she entered the hospital. Mrs. Weinzapfel will go for a visit as soon as Mrs. Otto is permitted to have company.

MODERN OUTRIGGER—For the sportsman who likes his canoeing but not the chance of a sudden swim, these removable aluminum pontoons have been designed by a firm in Charlottesville, Va.

City Will Have No Electric Current Sunday 6 to 8 a.m.

Muenster will have no electric current between 6 and 8 o'clock Sunday morning. During that time power lines will be dead so that TP&L line crews can change over from 7200 volt service to 12,000 volt service.

Fred Lynn, district manager of TP&L said Wednesday that those hours had been selected as the best daylight time for everyone concerned. The job was not scheduled earlier because of greater danger working in the dark. The last time such a changeover was made was 5:30 to 7:30 a.m. on a Sunday, Lynn said.

Practically all the town will be affected by the power outage.

Dan Haverkamp Is Re-elected Prexy St. Joseph Society

Members of the parish St. Joseph's Society in their annual election March 19 kept all their officers for another term with Dan Haverkamp as president entering his third year as head of the organization.

The other officers, beginning their second terms, are Dan Luke, vice president; Fred Knabe, secretary; and Herbie Miller, treasurer.

In other business, the organization heard a financial report of receipts and expenditures during the past year. The summary showed progress both materially and spiritually.

Expenditures listed included rectory repairs and re-painting, $650; rectory stove, $210; clear debt on speaker system in church, $260; paint for bleachers in Tiger stadium, $45; Muenster Memorial Hospital, $100; mass stipends for deceased members, $22; and about $150 for miscellaneous parish (Continued on page 8)

Sister Josephine Flusche, 84, Dies At OLL Convent

Sister Josephine Flusche, 84, formerly of Muenster and a member of the congregation of the Sisters of Divine Providence in San Antonio, died Wednesday afternoon at 3:10 following illness that afflicted her last December. Relatives here were notified of her death by telephone at about five o'clock.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Lake Convent in San Antonio.

Sister Josephine was one of the four Flusche sisters in the convent. She entered religious life from here, made her profession August 2, 1899, and served as a teacher. Always in excellent health in spite of her advanced age, she reluctantly retired from teaching shortly before celebrating her diamond jubilee, marking 60 years in the convent, in 1959. At that time she had just recovered from a broken hip. The illness from which she failed to recover sent her to bed shortly before Christmas last year.

Her immediate survivors are Sister Constantia and Sister Emerita of the convent in San Antonio. Other survivors are a large number of nieces (Continued on page 8)

Hospital Project Encouraged in '42 By Father Frowin

Through the years recommendation for a local hospital is extended to the community by the man who probably ranks as Muenster's No. 1 citizen of all time. He is Father Frowin Koerdt, pastor of Sacred Heart Church for a quarter of a century and all the while a far sighted and enthusiastic worker for the welfare of Muenster.

Father Frowin expressed that opinion in December 1942, while a patient at St. Bernard's Hospital, Jonesboro, Ark., with the illness from which he never recovered. In a letter to Dorothy Hartman he said:

"The longer I am in this hospital the more I am convinced that a similar institution would be of utmost usefulness to the good people of Muenster and vicinity. If I were still on the go as in bygone years, peppy and energetic, after the new church would be completed I surely would round up all financial sources possible for a Catholic hospital or clinic in the city of Muenster. Untold good could thus be done, not only for bodily ailments and injuries but also for the good of the soul.

"The donors for such a purpose would surely receive ample reward in time and eternity. There are many in Muenster who could lend a helping hand to such a di-

Pastor Announces Church Schedule For Holy Week

Services for Holy Week at Sacred Heart Church have been scheduled as follows, according to an announcement by Father Alcuin Kubis this week.

Holy Thursday mass, celebrating the last supper, will start at 7:30 p.m. Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus in formal attire will be the 12 apostles for the ceremony of washing feet.

Good Friday service will begin at 3 o'clock, and will be completed during the traditional three hour city shutdown from 2 to 5.

Holy Saturday service, formerly starting at 11 p.m., has been moved ahead to 7:30 for greater convenience of the public. It will start with ceremonies of blessing the Easter fire, Easter candle, holy water and baptismal water and end with the Mass of the Resurrection.

Meurer Says He'll Serve if Elected Write-In Mayor

Officially Muenster has no candidate for the office of mayor, but it has a person who has agreed to serve in case he gets the majority of write-in votes.

Herbert Meurer, the present mayor, will continue in office if he is favored by the voters . . . even though his original intention was to get rid of official work and responsibility. He has served two years as mayor and many more years as alderman.

At the time for filing candidacy Meurer declined to get on the ballot. He assumed that some others would be eager for the job. But none showed up and as the deadline passed the place was still blank on the ticket.

Only three names will appear on the city ballot. Rudy Hellman, Al Felderhoff and Ray Otto are unopposed candidates for re-election to the positions they hold now.

No Home-School Meeting Tuesday

Announcement was made this week that there will be no meeting of the Sacred Heart Home School Society next Tuesday night. The meeting has been postponed one week and will be held instead on the following Tuesday, April 4.

Change of date was made because some of the parents will want to accompany their daughters to the annual Cooke County 4-H Dress Revue Tuesday night at 8 at Gainesville College. Then, too, it's Tuesday of Holy Week.

BIRTHS

From Peoria, Ill., comes announcement of the birth of a daughter Monday to Mr. and Mrs. John Caughey. She's the second grandchild for Mrs. John Kathman, here, and the Harry Caugheys in Peoria. The six pound 13 ounce girl is a sister for 15-month-old Michael.

Friends here have received announcement of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker of Saint Louis, Mo. The six-pound boy is their first child. Mrs. Baker is remembered as the former Miss Rowena Fielder of Muenster. Her mother, Mrs. Arch Payne of Denton, is in St. Louis to get acquainted with the new arrival who was born March 10. He has been named Robert Edward Jr.

Proudly announcing a son are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bernauer of Gainesville. The little boy is a brother for Lisa and a grandchild for Mrs. Clinton Mitchell. He's another great-grandchild for Mrs. J. S. Russell of Myra. His birthdate is Tuesday, March 21.

Former Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Ed King (Bessie Prescher) of Iola, Kansas, have announced arrival of a son, David. He makes three boys and three girls in the family. Mrs. Alphonse Prescher of Scotland has returned home after a visit in Iola to get acquainted with her new grandson. The little lad is another great-grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher of Lindsay.

Frank Mages, 89 47 Year Resident Of Lindsay, Dies

Frank Mages, long time resident of Lindsay and retired farmer, died Monday night about 11:15 following an extended period of failing health. Death came just three months short of his ninetieth birthday.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 9:30 in St. Peter Church at Lindsay with Father Damian Wewers, pastor, officiating at the solemn requiem mass assisted by Father Alcuin Kubis and Father Martin Fischer of Muenster. Burial in Lindsay cemetery was directed by George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home.

Rosary services were held at the Carroll Chapel on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 o'clock with a special rosary at 7:30 Wednesday by the Third Order of St. Francis and St. Peter's Society of which Mr. Mages was a member.

Pallbearers were grandsons: Frank Mages III, Edgar Mages, Alvin Fleitman, Leroy Berend, David Mages and (Continued on page 8)

Construction Will Begin Promptly On Sisters' Home

Work on the new home of the Benedictine Sisters will be under way this summer, Father Alcuin Kubis said Wednesday as he went over a preliminary sketch with a representative of Fred Buford and Associates, architectural firm of Dallas.

The preliminary plan was drawn in accordance with recommendations by Mother Philippa of Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Ark., when Father Alcuin saw her about the building two weeks ago. Mother Philippa is expected here this weekend to make a final check of the plans. After that the architect will proceed with the detail drawings to be used in construction.

General features of the building, Father Alcuin said, include brick veneering of a color to match the church and new high school, two stories with living quarters downstairs and sleeping quarters upstairs and attached garage. There will be 21 bedrooms, each with a lavatory and three large bathrooms with multiple facilities. Two baths will be upstairs the other downstairs. Other facilities downstairs include kitchen, dining room chapel, reception room and utility. The building site is north of the elementary school.

St. Benedict Rates A School Holiday At Sacred Heart

If Saint Patrick rates a special observance, so does Saint Benedict. That is the reason Muenster school children, got a holiday Tuesday instead of last Friday, as is the custom in several parochial schools of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese.

Traditionally the good patron of the Irish is snubbed at Muenster while Saint Joseph is specially honored as the patron and protector of Sacred Heart Parish. The day is kept as a holy day and the schools get a holiday. This time, however St. Joseph's came on Sunday. Local kids apparently were losing a holiday, so a little improving was needed to keep them feeling on a par with the Irish.

Saint Benedict offered the handy solution. He's patron of the Benedictine Orders of priests and sisters serving the parish, and his feast was Tuesday.

Good weather, resulting in fewer emergency holidays during the winter, also figured in Tuesday's holiday. The day was allowed because spare time still appeared on the school calendar.

Schedule of Coming Events

SECURITY A RIGHT

The "liberals" say that, along with the rights of free speech, free press, freedom of worship, etc., every citizen has the "right" to public protection from personal catastrophe resulting from disability, sickness, unemployment, and old age. For good measure, they add proper housing. They mean, of course, that if I can't take care of these needs myself, you should be required to help—from each according to ability to each according to need." Sounds fair enough, but suppose that, along with me, a million others decide to climb aboard the same gravy train? You keep working and paying taxes, and if I and my fellow sufferers enjoy a free ride, we are only claiming our "rights", aren't we? But after a while, you get tired of paying for "protection" of our "right", and decide to get on the gravy train, too. Why shouldn't you? Don't you have the same "rights"? Just conveniently get sick, grow old, decide not to work, and move into a "substandard" house!

And so, finally, everybody gets on the gravy train. And who will pay the bill? Why, the "liberals", I suppose. Aren't they the ones who insist we all have the "right" to this cradle-to-grave security? Or do they mean we should be "liberal" only so long as other people still have money to be liberal with?

EDITOR'S DILEMMA

If we print jokes, people say we're silly.
 If we don't we are too serious.
 If we stick too close to the office all day, we should be out getting the news.
 If we go out and get the news, we are neglecting our job at the office.
 If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate genius.
 If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.
 If we make a change in the other guy's write up, we're too critical.
 If we don't, we're asleep.
 If we clip things from other papers, we're too lazy to write them ourselves.
 If we don't, we're too stuck on our own stuff.
 Now, like as not, some guy will say that we swiped this from some other paper.
 We did!

SOCIALISM AND CUPIDITY

According to figures just released by Tax Foundation, Inc., the per capita burden of federal, state and local taxes was $109 in 1940, $369 in 1950 and $715 in 1960. In virtually all state and local governments, no less than the federal government, proposals are advanced for more tax revenue. Unless the people restrain their demands on government, and put their foot down on unnecessary government expenditures that carry favor with pressure groups, Karl Marx's plan "to wrest all capital from the bourgeoisie", may become a reality in the United States. If socialism engulfs our country, it will be due to the cupidity of people who think they can get something for nothing from government.

More than 60 federal agencies now collect information on 4,717 different forms from American businessmen, according to a recent House of Representatives subcommittee report. The study showed that one small company with 300 employees filed 1,523 governmental reports in 1951. Back in 1883 when the company was founded, only six governmental forms were required annually. A large manufacturing company estimated that it files 37,683 reports each year for the federal government, 1,145 for state agencies, and 385 for local governments and private groups.

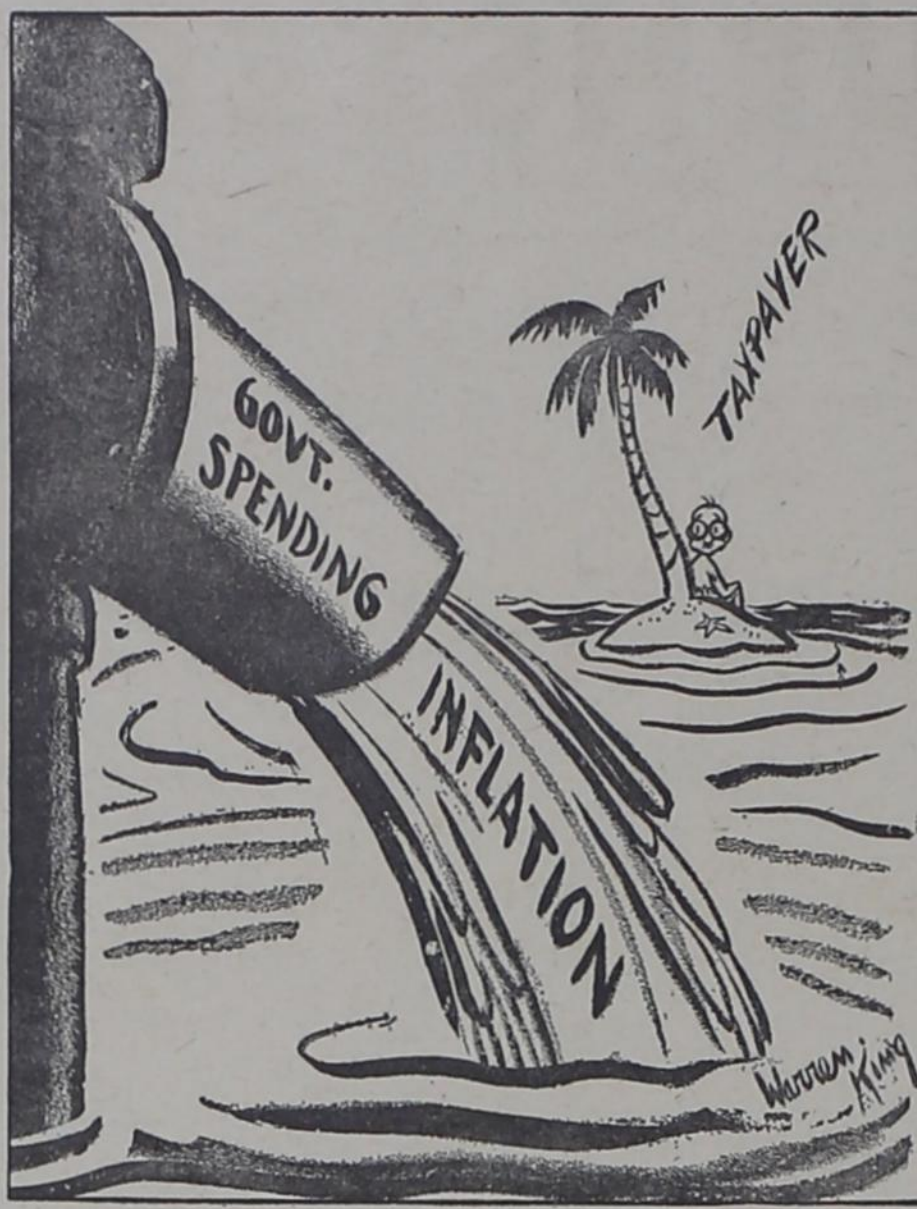

World population is growing at the rate of 47 million a year, which is equivalent to as many people as now live in Italy. The figure exceeds the population of the New England States, plus New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Maryland. At the present rate of increase world population can practically double in a little over 40 years.

What is the criterion for a high standard of living? Fine automobiles? Home swimming pools? Yachts? No. The answer is, "Paper." The higher the nation's standard of living, the more paper it consumes. The average American family uses a ton a year. Per Capita annual use of paper in the United States is 417 pounds as compared with 150 pounds in Denmark, one pound in Red China and virtually none in Central Africa.

A congressman was asked if he ever considered legislation from any angle other than that which would help him to be re-elected. He is said to have replied: "Why certainly I do. I consider proposed bills from every angle, trying to determine their merits and faults. Then I vote for the laws that I believe will prove most popular in my district!"

A fine is a tax you have to pay for doing wrong. A tax is a fine you have to pay for doing okay.

THE PUMP

Where do government benefits come from? An African eager to learn about democracy was having difficulty with the idea of taxation of the people "for the benefit of the people." Suddenly the light dawned. "I see!" he cried. "It means that if I want to give my dog a nice piece of fresh meat, I just take a knife and chop off part of his tail!"

During the past 25 years the United States has had 3,400 meetings with the Communists, including Teheran, Yalta, Potsdam, Panmunjam, and Geneva. The negotiators spoke 106 million words (700 volumes). All this talk led to 52 major agreements, and Soviet Russia has broken 50 of them. American Bar Assn. Committee Report on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day says he's going to fire many of the 60 highly-paid postal executives occupying top jobs created by President Eisenhower in the 15 regional offices. Mr. Day charged that GOP filled these jobs "on a purely political basis". But the Democrats, he said, "are filling them with persons responsive to and a part of this administration". Wheelhorses of another color, so to speak.

Operating under the sanctity of the mails tradition, the U. S. postal department delivered approximately seven million pieces of Communist propaganda to addresses in this country last year. Although we certainly want to maintain this sanctity of the mails, it hardly seems reasonable to maintain it to the extent of making a "sacred cow" out of Communist propaganda. No other free country in the world permits Moscow's propaganda to be delivered at the expense of the taxpayers and many countries refuse to let such subversive material in under any circumstances.

What's so important about leisure that we surrender our nation to get it?

Been in the stores lately? Hats "made in Italy". Cameras "made in Japan". Shoes "made in Hong Kong", tools "made in Germany", and automobiles made in Germany, England, Italy, Sweden, and soon, they say, Russia. And of course that means American dollars shipped out of this country by the billions to pay for all these things — and American jobs gone forever.

Dollars and jobs shipped abroad mean eventual depression at home, with relief for the jobless, more debt, higher taxes. Many experts say this nation could not survive another such downward spiral.

Why this sudden inability of America — once the great manufacturing nation — to compete, to hold its markets and jobs? Because shorter and shorter hours at more and more pay has for years been the goal of millions in this country. Of course, costs and prices go up, of course people buy lower-cost goods from abroad.

Is America beaten? Can we get those jobs back in time to forestall a crushing depression? Only if the emphasis changes from leisure to value — the principle that built America in the first place. Only if people earn their higher pay by producing enough more for it, and so keeping this nation free from dependence and depression.

What, worth-while, can you do with leisure in a depressed nation? Who is so low as to trade leisure for self respect? Warner & Swasey ad

WANT TO BET?

by John Marino

There need be nothing evil or sinful in gambling—provided the one who bets has a fair chance of winning and is not depriving his family of food or the bill collector of payment. Gambling can be as legitimate as fishing or watching a ball game.

WHO HASN'T sparked a slow golf game with a little side bet or made a dull bridge session take on life by betting a few cents on each hundred points scored? Most people want to be counted in when the World Series pool is circulated at the office or factory. They're not afraid to take a chance on a new car if the quarter or dollar they fork over will aid some orphanage or boy's club.

Gambling of this kind isn't likely to deprive any infant of his bottle of milk. But when the stakes overreach sensible limits and when gambling grows into a multibillion dollar enterprise, then it's no longer an innocent sport. It becomes a nation-wide social disease.

FEEDING COINS into a slot machine is hardly the formula for getting rich. A mechanism inside the machines cruelly regulates the number of times the spinning disks halt at three lemons or three oranges. Some machines are fixed to produce as low as a 10 or 15 per cent return. Yet millions of dollars are poured annually into the mechanical monsters.

Bets placed with bookmakers on the outcome of professional boxing, golfing matches, and football and basketball games add up to another three or four billion dollars each year.

Innocent sport? Harmless recreation? Hardly. The hoodlums who gain control of gambling rackets corrupt our government.

THE UNDERWORLD'S top thugs, for example, at a 1957 meeting are reported to have mapped out a take-over in Nevada. Plans called for a carefully selected political stooge to be moved into the governor's chair.

THE ANSWER is, of course, honest government by officials who cannot be bought. But good government is achieved only when an honest and alert citizen demands it. As long as Americans remain indifferent to the gambling menace and actually approve of it by their whole-hearted participation, little improvement can be expected.

Gambling has been in existence for a long time. The game of dice can be traced back to the 13th Century B.C. A pretty safe bet to make is that gambling will be around to the end of time.

But like most things in life, gambling must be used reasonably. When it is not used reasonably, it begins to use us.

Mrs. Joe Kathman Entertains Idle 8

March meeting for the Idle Eight Club was held with Mrs. Joe Kathman as hostess in her home entertaining members and one guest, Mrs. Ben Seyler.

Following an afternoon of progressive 42, the hostess served cheese, date and orange filled ginger bread and coffee. The party rooms were pretty with arrangements of vari-colored hyacinths and white iris gathered by Mrs. Kathman from her yard.

Tops in scoring were Mrs. J. B. Wilde for high tally and Mrs. Joe Kathman second high; Mrs. Jake Pagel was consolation winner.

Mrs. Pagel will be hostess for the April meeting.

Local News BRIEFS

Sunday dinner guests with Mrs. J. S. Horn were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Horn and Shirley, Florene and Jerry of Windthorst. Following an afternoon visit here the Jake Horns went to Lindsay to join other family members in celebrating the birthday of her father, Theo Schmitz, in whose home a reunion and covered dish supper was held.

Weekend visitors with homefolks were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Yosten and children of Fort Worth who were guests of their parents, Mrs. Bob Yosten and T. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hoenig have named their new daughter Donna Marie. She was baptized Sunday by Father Alcuin at 11:30 a.m. Godparents are her uncle Raymond Hoenig of Arlington and her future aunt, Miss Cecilia Neu of Dallas. The engaged pair visited family members Sunday and were dinner guests in the Jerry Hoenig home.

Coming early to say happy birthday to Fred Hoedebeck who was 84 Monday were children and grandchildren from out of town: the Cletus Hoedebecks and family of Dallas who were here Saturday and the Alfred Hoedebecks and the Leo Hoedebecks and daughter Kathy of Gainesville who were visitors Sunday.

The Paul Lukes had surprise visitors at their home in Dallas Thursday. Spending the day were Gracie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wimmer and her three sisters, Mrs. Ray Otto, Mrs. Charlie E. Wimmer and Mrs. Al Reiter of Gainesville. It was the visitors' first time to see the Luke's new home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Flusche of Decatur were here Sunday to attend the Day of Recollection services in Sacred Heart Church and afterwards were visitors in the L. A. Bernauer home.

Six Music Pupils At SH Enroll in Extension Course

Six students of Sacred Heart School of Music have enrolled in the Sherwood Music Extension Course through their music instructor Sister Leonarda. The local school is affiliated with the Sherwood school.

Robert Lowe of Muskogee, Okla., representative and registrar for Sherwood was here several days the past week.

Piano students enrolled in the extension course are Janice Grewing, Elaine Otto, Janice Wilde, Ann Stewart, Gloria Gieb and Glenda Pagel.

Previously enrolled and nearing the end of the course are Virginia Taylor and Sharon Schumacher. And already finished and receiving a scholarship for achievement is Rosemary Hermes of Lindsay. She will use her scholarship in study this summer at Chicago.

Club Meets With Mrs. Roy Endres

Mrs. Roy Endres Jr. was hostess for the March meeting of the Progressive 42 Club entertaining members and one guest, Mrs. Wilfred Reiter.

In the series of games Mrs. Ray Walterscheid led the scoring, Mrs. Gene Gieb was second, and Mrs. Joe Voth captured the galloping prize and consolation award.

A green color scheme in observance of St. Patrick's Day was in evidence in the party rooms and was repeated on refreshment plates served with coffee. Mrs. R. N. Fette will entertain the club in April.

Mrs. Urban Endres Is Club Hostess

Friendly Neighbors 42 Club was entertained for the March meeting by Mrs. Urban Endres who was hostess in her home. Eleven members and one visitor Mrs. Ray Evans, attended.

In the games, Mrs. Dick Trachta led the scoring for top prize, Mrs. J. C. Trachta was next, Mrs. L. B. Bruns was consolation winner and Mrs. Earle Otto secured the galloping award.

The hostess served a refreshment plate and coffee after the progressive 42 series.

Red Cross Benefit Set at Forestburg

Forestburg's annual Red Cross fund program has been set for Monday, March 27, beginning at 8 p.m. in Forestburg school.

This year's benefit will be an old fashioned tacky party and ladies of the community who are in charge of the planning are getting word around that everybody's invited and they look forward to having a big crowd from a wide area.

Those who attend are asked to come dressed for the occasion. Admission has been set at fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for students. Entertainment will feature a variety of games including 42, and home talent music. It will be a fun night for everybody who comes, the sponsors say. Pie, coffee and cold drinks will be sold as refreshments and all proceeds will go into the Red cross fund.

The fellow who boasts about what he's going to do tomorrow usually is quiet about what he did yesterday.

SH Seniors Slate Class Play Apr. 9

Sacred Heart High seniors — all 22 of them — are rehearsing their class play with the date for presentation slated for April 9. Sister Celine is directing practice.

The three-act mystery is entitled "Murder Takes the Veil." It's a royalty play by Margaret Ann Hubbard produced by the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago. There are 14 girls and eight boys in the cast of characters.

Roger Taylor has the male lead. He takes the role of the sheriff. Karen Endres leads the feminine cast as a nun, Mother Theodora, in charge of a girls' college where murder lurks in this hair-raising story.

In addition to practice, the seniors are selling tickets. Advance purchases are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. At the door admission will be 65 and 30 cents. The play will be staged in MHS auditorium.

Fun Night Features Skating for Scouts

Fun night for the local Boy Scout troop came early this month featuring a skating party Monday night instead of the following Monday which falls in Holy Week.

Twenty-one boys piled in cars furnished by Scoutmaster Nick Miller, Tony and Herbie Yosten and Pat Henning for the trip to the Gainesville rink. Soda pop was provided at refreshment time. Robert Miller went along as a guest. He'll be entering the troop shortly.

Tenderfoot Scouts Work to Advance

Tenderfoot Scouts of the local troop, accompanied by Scoutmaster Nick Miller and First Class Scout Joe Hartman had a Sunday outing to work for advancement by taking cooking and tracking tests. Robert Miller accompanied the group. They camped at the Dangelmayr ranch southwest of town where the site is favored with a natural spring.

Dr. Kenneth Dobbs was a special guest for dinner prepared by the boys.

In previous work for merits, several boys took tests preparing for eligibility for the Ad Altare Dei award. Sister Carmelita presided for the tests in religion. The annual diocesan presentation of medals by Bishop Gorman is set for April 16 in Dallas.

SH 3rd Graders Visit Pet Shop

Sacred Heart third graders of Sister Genevieve's room were treated to a field trip, the Wednesday afternoon outing taking them to Gainesville for a visit at the Tropical Fish and Pet Shop. Room-mothers furnished transportation. Taking the youngsters and their teacher were Mmes. Ray Wilde, Eugene Klement, Ray Sicking and Gilbert Endres. Shop Owner Mr. Beavers personally conducted the tour and explained as he showed.

Afterwards the group of 43 made one more stop on the way home. This one for ice cream cones.

The next day the children wrote letters of thanks to Mr. Beavers. Sister Genevieve had planned to select the best few for mailing but they were all "so cute" she posted every one.

CDA Will Sponsor Surprise Packages

Members of the local court Catholic Daughters of America have swung into action in preparation for the annual Easter Monday picnic they are helping the Knights of Columbus sponsor as a benefit for Muenster Memorial Hospital. The ladies are wrapping packages.

A part of their contribution to the bazaar fun will be a surprise package booth. At their stand, visitors will buy, sight unseen, wrapped packages for fifty cents. Members of the court are donating packages and are also soliciting gift items from among their friends.

SH 8th Grade in Dallas for Tests

Eighth grade students of Sacred Heart School joined other eighth graders of the diocese for the annual testing program conducted in Dallas Tuesday. The local children took their tests at St. Monica's School.

They made the trip in a school bus, Father Bruno chauffeur, and Sister Carmelita with her class. Tuesday was a full holiday for Muenster scholastics. Classes at both the parochial and the public school were recessed.

Hornet Trackmen Prep for District Meet Wednesday

Muenster high track men will be in a meet at Gainesville Saturday but will have their minds on the 37-B district meet at Denton next Wednesday. The first event is for practice, the other is for the record.

Competing at Gainesville Saturday are Muenster, Era, Callisburg, Gainesville, Greenville, Bonham and Eastern Hills of Fort Worth. Valley View, another area team, is missing the meet because of prior acceptance of an invitation from ETSC.

The meet will have only one class. B teams will compete with 3-A and 4-A. Preliminaries of the 100, 220, 440 and high hurdle as well as all field events will be held in the afternoon. Finals of all track events will be held at night.

Hornets are entered in the following events. Harris, Wimmer and Mark Hellman in 100 and 220; Klement and Fette in the 880; M. Hellman, Harris, Fette and Wimmer in the 440 relay; M. Hellman and Wimmer in the high jump; Harris and Wimmer in the broad jump, Walterscheid in shot put; Walterscheid and Yosten in discus.

School Libraries Receive Kits of Cancer Information

Reference kits containing latest information on cancer, and especially prepared for library use by the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, were presented this week to 10 Cooke County Libraries, including the Sacred Heart Library, the Muenster Public School Library and the library of the Lindsay High School.

Dr. Kenneth Dobbs, of the medical committee of the Cooke County Chapter, points out that the kits not only provide basic information about cancer, but also current information which will be kept up to date by periodic mailings from the Texas Division of the Society.

Included in the kits are folders of information on cancer research, cancer education and facts and figures about cancer the disease. Each library will also receive a copy of "The Truth About Cancer," by Charles S. Cameron, M. D., a book both authoritative and practical, by one of the foremost leaders in the cancer field.

"The fact that information about cancer, properly acted upon, could save the lives of many thousands of Texans each year has made us anxious to have this information in our libraries where it will be available to all," said William Upchurch, field director of District 14, Texas Division, of the American Cancer Society.

Farm Facts

Planting seed is no little item on the list of production expenses showing up on the U. S. farmer's balance sheet. The amount of seed bought annually in the past few years has averaged about $530,000,000.

Efficient farmers, however, consider the money spent for high-grade planting seed a sound investment. They realize that plant breeders have spent years developing and improving varieties.

Hybrid corn is a good example. Average retail price paid by farmers for hybrid corn has been about $11 a bushel. In 15 years, however, hybrid seed corn jumped U. S. corn yields by 43%.

All of us are reaping the benefits of plant breeding. Good seed, for example, assures vegetable growers of a high quality, uniform product. These vegetables end up in the produce bin at your supermarket.

Commercial vegetable seed growers, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, usually account for 95% of the total commercial production of vegetable seeds. Their output in 1958 amounted to more than 128,000,000 pounds of seed—ranging from 20,524,000 pounds of dwarf green bean seed to 1,000 pounds of Chinese cabbage seed.

Farmers spend more than $530,000,000 annually for seed.

Visits and Phone Keep Family Close

Joe Vogel accompanied his daughter and family, the Robert Beyers of Lindsay on a drive to Fort Worth and Dallas Saturday to visit relatives. In Fort Worth they were with the Carl Beyers and Miss Lillian Vogel and in Dallas they stopped with the Don Mullers.

And when the Vogels and their children can't get together in person they do so by phone. During the week-end the telephone rang three times at the Joe Vogel home.

Mary Lou and Leo Hess talked from Chula Vista, Calif., to say that as soon as Leo got out of the Navy he went to work at Convair. Lennie Vogel, soldiering at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., said he's back at camp after a lot of maneuvering in the field, and Corina Vogel, nursing in Little Rock, Ark., simply visited with the family here. She added that by the middle of next month she'll be back in Texas, getting ready to assume her duties at a new hospital in Fort Worth where she will serve as an anesthetist.

Sister Consolata Makes Profession

Novice Consolata (Cynthia Wimmer), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wimmer, participated in the annual religious ceremonies at Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Ark., Tuesday. She made her profession and is Sister Consolata now.

Attending the services were her parents, her two sisters Shirley and Mary Wimmer, and her aunt Mrs. Herman Dangelmayr.

Era Pounds 21-0 Win Over Tigers

Shortage of pitching talent haunted the Sacred Heart Tigers again Tuesday afternoon as they were pounded down 21-0 by Era High. Neither Johnny Wolf nor Jerome Fuhrman could handle the visitors, but they were all the Tigers had, so Era enjoyed a slug fest, including a homer by Davis and several doubles.

Meanwhile Tiger fielding also had its weak spots and Era got a number of bases that weren't earned. Neal Wilson allowed only four hits to the Tigers.

The loss was the third in as many starts for Sacred Heart. Their opener was a top heavy loss to Lindsay, their next a 2-0 loss at Era. They are scheduled to play Lindsay here Friday at 1:30.

Also on schedule are games with Windthorst April 16 and 30 and with St. John's of Ennis April 1 and 23. Those four are Sunday games. Also likely are games with Saint Jo and Callisburg.

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Seyler of Valley View drove to Muenster Monday and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luke on a drive to Electra to visit Miss Gertrude Kreitz. She lives in a nursing home and is recovered from a recent sick spell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tippie and children spent several days of the past week in Wellington where, Thursday, they attended funeral services for Mr. Tippie's grandfather, J. S. Warlick.

The Very Rev. Raymond Wewers, prior of New Subiaco Abbey, and the Rev. Fintan O'Dham, also of the Abbey were visitors here with the local pastors Tuesday overnight and Wednesday. Father Fintan had a sermon at novena services Tuesday on vocations and Wednesday the two showed their slides to students in the parochial school. The pictures told the story of life in the monastery and preparation for the priesthood.

Jack Fletcher and daughter Sue drove over from Denton Sunday afternoon for a visit with his parents, the J. W. Fletchers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Richard Walterscheid and children, comparatively new residents here since their move from Gainesville, are at home on the Gordon Ramsey place north of Muenster where the Joe Doughty family formerly lived. The Doughtys have moved farther north to the West farm.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hess has been named Gina Marianne. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess, took her to church for baptism, serving as proxy godparents for an uncle and aunt in Denmark. Father Martin officiated.

Mrs. Frank Hayes and children of Eules were weekend visitors with her parents, the M. F. Milners.

Mrs. Lee Toothaker and her brother-in-law, Bob McAfee of Sherman, enjoyed a visit Wednesday and had lunch together while the latter, manager of TP&L at Sherman, was here in connection with electric line work.

A man whose normal weight is 150 pounds would weigh about 50 pounds if all the water in his system were dried up.

The 1971 Car

Chances are you're not giving much thought to your 1971 car right now. But engineers in Detroit are. While they differ in details, they predict generally: The choice of cars in 1971 will be much greater than it is now. There'll be everything from tiny four-cylinder jobs to big "Land Cruisers." At least seven basic types of cars will be available, each designed for a special function.

The 1971 car will still have the reciprocating engine. Trucks and buses may be using the gas turbine.

The car will have no spare tire. It'll probably still have the engine in the front in most cases. The success of present rear-engine cars could change this, though. Another factor that could affect engine position is the successful development of the fuel cell or other power plant.

Some of the small cars will have front-wheel drive. The hump in the floor will be eliminated.

The car will probably have a central hydraulic system. This could control brakes, power steering, windshield wiper, windows, seats, starter.

Bucket seats will be more common. The car might have an all-plastic body. Perhaps there'll only be one door on the left side (the driver's door).

Finally, it might have brakes that release under extreme pressure and help prevent skidding, or a separate hydraulic system for rear and front brakes. A failure in one system would not mean a total failure.

Marysville News
By Mrs. John Richey

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morris and daughter, Mrs. Reagon McElreath, went to Amarillo Saturday to be at the bedside of their son and brother Harold Morris, who was injured in an oil rig accident at Spearman Friday. They returned home that night and on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Morris and daughter Maxine Morris of Gainesville went back to Amarillo to spend several days. Harold was to have surgery Tuesday. In the mishap both jaw bones were broken and he received a slight concussion. The doctor said he'd be hospitalized about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bo Snow drove over Friday from Bridgeport to return Barby, Mike and Pat Davidson to their home after a visit in Bridgeport with them. While here they visited her folks, the Charles and W. S. Davidsons.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Winchester accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnhart to Lewisville Saturday to visit the Eddie Collins family. The Winchesters remained overnight, and Sunday joined the Collins family on a drive to Dallas where they were among guests at a surprise family gathering for Mr. Winchester to celebrate his birthday. Also there were the

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Farmers and ranchers in the Muenster-Saint Jo-Forestburg area of the Upper-Elm-Red Conservation District were busy planting grass until the rain stopped this activity.

Warm, drying March winds set the scene for grass planting and before it rained again many acres were seeded and sodded. Those whose plantings were interrupted by the weekend rain are ready to go again as soon as the soil is dry enough.

Common Bermuda, Coastal Bermuda and King Ranch Bluestem are still the most popular with area farmers for waterways and pastures. A few ranchers have planted large acreages of native grass mixtures containing Bluestem grasses, Swich grass, and Sideoats gramma.

Among farmers who have grasses in are the Felderhoff brothers — Gus, Tommy and Norbert — and Weldon Dennis, B. A. Talley, Fred Hennigan, Charlie Poyner, Forest Galmore and Dangelmayr Brothers.

South America is not south of North America. A good look at the map will reveal the startling fact that almost the entire continent of South America lies east of North America. If you went straight south from New York, you would land in the Pacific Ocean just off the west coast of Chili. The western-most part of South America is almost straight south of the tip of Florida. South America is southeast, not south, of North America.

FISHING FOR TROUBLE—Ice fishermen on Lake Winnebago, Fond du Lac, Wis., received a surprise when they stepped from their shanties. The ice had drifted into the lake. A makeshift bridge was used to get them back.

Local News BRIEFS

From Jonesboro, Ark., come greetings from Miss Margaret Simons and special thanks for many kind remembrances on her birthday. "It makes one feel good after being gone over a year and still not forgotten. I cannot write to each individually but I will remember them all in my prayers," she said, adding that she is feeling very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparkman Vann were among guests at a tea Sunday afternoon honoring their newly wed niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newton, in the Fred Newton home. The bride is the former Patricia Knight. Mr. and Mrs. Vann also visited Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Donnelly.

Miss Ruth Endres came home for a weekend visit with her parents and Sunday had an early birthday dinner with her family, celebrating her March 14 birthday. She's employed in a Fort Worth Bank.

Weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanders were their daughter and her husband, the W. D. Cookes, their son Gordon and little grandson, Randy Holcomb, all of Fort Worth. Sunday afternoon they all drove out to the country for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linn at their farm home.

Jeff and Leslie Hammer have returned from a vacation visit in Vernon with their grandparents, the George Hammers. Their parents, the James Hammers, took them and on March 12 had a double birthday celebration, Leslie, 3, and her grandmother celebrating together. They have the same birth date. The children's grandfather brought them home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche enjoyed a weekend visit in Lubbock, seeing the city in a winter wonderland setting of snow. They were guests of their son and his wife, the Dave Fusches, and were seeing their new home on wheels for the first time. Dave and Wanda have just gotten settled in their new trailer house.

Farm Facts

Value of farm real estate per farm—not including dwellings—rose from $11,275 in 1950 to $25,308 in 1960, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

While the total value of farm real estate increased sharply during the same period, the percentage was not as marked as the increase "per farm." Total market value of farm real estate in 1960 was estimated at $129.1 billion. This compares with $75.3 billion in 1950 and $33.6 billion in 1940.

A factor in the increase in value of real estate per farm is that real estate values have been climbing while the number of farms has been declining.

Farm buildings accounted for about 22% of the total value of farm real estate. About half of this was accounted for by dwellings of farm operators.

Nationally, the average value of farm real estate amounted to about $111 per acre.

The USDA pointed out in its 1960 Balance Sheet for Agriculture that the calculated rate of return on current market values of farm real estate—after other costs had been paid—was below the mortgage rate of interest.

Farm real estate value more than doubled from 1950 to 1960.

Nurses training came in handy Saturday night when Ann Luke and Janice Klement were on their way home from Dallas by bus to spend the weekend with their families, the Henry Lukes and Ray Klements. After a car with two young men from Dallas crashed into the bus the two nurses gave first aid to the pair, bandaging and taping their cuts while they waited for an ambulance from Gainesville. No bus passengers were hurt and the two Dallasites were dismissed from the Sanitarium after examination.

POWER FOR YOUR FUTURE

Texas Power & Light Company is planning today for your electric power needs of 1970.

Typical of TP&L's continuing program of planned growth is its Valley Steam Electric Station which is now under construction near Savoy in Fannin County. This new generating plant is scheduled to be placed in operation in 1962, adding 125,000 kilowatts of electric energy to TP&L's power supply. Still other plants are already planned for the years ahead.

Texas Power & Light and the other investor-owned, tax-paying electric companies in the United States will continue to improve and expand their facilities through the use of private funds . . . not tax money . . . so there will always be an abundant supply of power available to meet the needs of present and future customers.

Making acquaintance of their new niece was the highlight of a Sunday visit for relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pelzel. Seeing baby Michelle Pelzel for the first time were Mrs. Harold Marcus and family of Dallas and the Johnny Pelzels Jr. and family of Fort Worth. Joining the family group were Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Walterscheid of Muenster.

Mrs. Clem Hermes is a shut-in; her right leg in a cast that must stay on six weeks. She broke her ankle — a double fracture — in a mis-step and fall at her home Saturday and was at Gainesville Sanitarium for treatment through Sunday. Greeting cards will cheer her while she's a shut-in. She gets her mail Route 2, Gainesville.

Theo Schmitz and Theresa Loerward visited relatives in Dallas Friday.

Sunday visitors and dinner guests with the Joe Schmidlofers were her mother, Mrs. Conrad Flusche and Evelyn and Jerry Flusche who drove over from Decatur. Mrs. Flusche was also over during the past week with her daughter and family who have moved into their new home and are getting settled.

Mrs. Julius Sandmann is "doing fine" since her recent illness and minor surgery at Gainesville Sanitarium and says many thanks for many kindnesses while she was sick and in the hospital.

Lindsay-Gainesville Knights of Columbus were here Sunday for group attendance at the 7 a.m. mass and corporate Communion followed by breakfast in the school cafeteria.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Prescher of Scotland. The couple stopped on their way home after a visit in Iola, Kansas, where they got acquainted with a grandson, David King, newcomer for the Ed Kings. The baby is another great-grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prescher.

Family Joins in Birthday Supper For Theo Schmitz

A family gathering to celebrate his 71st birthday honored Theo Schmitz Sunday at his home. Children and grandchildren came with birthday gifts and birthday cake, and covered dishes for a supper party.

Joining in the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Horn and children Florene, Shirley and Jerry of Windthorst, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Schmitz and Paula, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schmitz and Mark and Tamara, all of Dallas, accompanied by the honoree's grandchildren Sheila, Debby, Sharon and Larry Schmitz, also of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schmitz and children Ramona, Carla and Doug of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Klement and their family of Muenster.

Weekend visitors here, guests of Mrs. Isabel Fette, were her son and his wife, the Jim Fettes and children Dena and Jimmy Joe of Dallas.

Raymond Hoenig Miss Cecilia Neu Will Wed April 8

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Neu of Lindsay have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Cecilia Neu, to Raymond Hoenig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig of Muenster.

Date for the wedding has been set for Saturday, April 8, with nuptial mass to be celebrated in St. Peter Church at 4 p.m. Attendants will be Miss LaVerne Flusche of Dallas and Harold Bindel of Muenster, cousins of the couple.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Lindsay High and is employed in Dallas. The future groom was graduated from Sacred Heart High and is employed in Arlington.

Sister Josephine

and nephews including several in Cooke County. She was a sister also of the late Joseph Flusche and Mrs. Theodore Wiesman. First of the four nuns to die was Sister Cordula. She passed away last October, a hip fracture proving fatal.

Among those planning to attend the funeral are Mrs. Al Fleitman from here and Mrs. Henry Koelzer of Fort Worth.

Father Frowin

vine purpose, joining in the work of Christ, who said "I have pity on the multitudes." A coincidence that probably would have delighted the beloved former pastor is that the hospital of his dream will be administered by the same order of sisters, perhaps by some of the same persons, who were caring for him at that time. The Benedictine Sisters of Jonesboro, Ark., have agreed to take charge of the Muenster Hospital.

St. Joseph's Society contributions.

About 100 members were present and two new members were welcomed: Adolph Walterscheid and Ervin Richard Walterscheid. Spiritual Director Father Alcuin Kubis thanked members and officers for their help and cooperation during the past year. He also mentioned that a big day looms for Sacred Heart Parish in July when Father Eugene Luke will offer his first solemn mass. The congregation will get together for a suitable celebration honoring the new priest and St. Joseph's Society volunteered to help sponsor the day's program.

The business session followed the society's annual supper party with members of the St. Anne's Society, observing the feastday of their patron, St. Joseph. The supper was the social event after a religious service — attendance at 7 p.m. mass and corporate Communion.

Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catered the buffet which was served to near two hundred members of the two organizations.

FHA Dress Revue

Parents attending the Public School PTA meeting Monday night, March 27, will see a dress revue for the program feature. Girls of the FHA chapter will show clothing they have made during their sewing assignments. Miss Doris Vavra, chapter sponsor, will be in charge of the fashion parade.

DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

A dance sponsored by the Circle K Service Club of Gainesville College is on the calendar for Friday night, March 24, and everyone is invited to attend. Feature attraction will be Murphy and Harrigan of radio station KLIF in Dallas. The dance will be held at the College.

Frank Mages

Henry Grewing Jr. Frank Mages was born in a village in the Kingdom of Bohemia on June 22, 1871, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wencel Mages. Shortly before he was 17 years old he sailed for America arriving on his birthday in 1888. He settled in Westphalia, Iowa, and started farming.

On Feb. 8, 1898, he was married to Miss Annie Rueschenberg, a native of Westphalia. In 1912 they migrated to Oklahoma where they homesteaded until 1914 at Custer, then moved to Lindsay. Mrs. Mages died there Dec. 16, 1956. Until that time they were Lindsay's oldest married couple. Mr. Mages continued living alone until about a year and a half ago when declining health forced him to live with his children. He made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Felix Yosten, here since the latter part of 1959.

In December 1959 he survived serious major surgery and was up and around again until this month. He entered Gainesville Sanitarium March 8 for treatment of bronchial pneumonia made worse by complications.

Surviving are five sons: Joe Mages of Muenster, Frank Mages Jr. of Gainesville, Carl Mages of Waco, Leo Mages of Fort Worth and Eddie Mages of Dallas; five daughters, Mrs. Henry Grewing of Valley View, Mrs. John Fleitman and Mrs. Felix Yosten of Muenster, Mrs. Ewald Berend of Hereford and Mrs. Lavol Kintley of Ingleside Texas; 41 grandchildren and 44 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. C. J. Berend died March 2 at Hereford.

Confetti

The promoters are trying to force an unspecified tax obligation on this community, one which in the long run may even exceed our voluntary obligation, to sell a proposition that cannot succeed without our project.

This column is grateful to Jack Joyce of the Gainesville Register for mentioning that Muenster will have a 30 bed hospital of its own. We hope that the mention will help a number of county people realize that the need of a county hospital is not so urgent after all. We'll be even more grateful if he will go a step farther and explain that the proposed project cannot do the job claimed for it without the help of Muenster's hospital.

In promoting this thing much is said about the desirability of better hospital facilities for the county. No one argues on that point. However there is lots of room for argument on the proposed remedy. Regardless of the service to be rendered to county people, it is still primarily a city asset.

County people will pay for using it just as they pay for other services in town. But Gainesville will get the first benefit from the many values it will add to the town. Its payroll will go principally to Gainesville people. Its needs will be supplied by Gainesville business. Its patients and visitors will shop in Gainesville. Its value in attracting new business or industry will be realized in Gainesville. Since Gainesville is the primary beneficiary it should also pay the price.

That's how we feel about Muenster's hospital and why we are doing it alone. That's why we feel that the hospital situation over there should be the city's, not the county's problem . . . and why we hope the county will express a similar view in its vote of April 4.

"A poll on labor legislation unions should be brought under anti-trust laws; 63 per cent of union members polled these surprising results: 62 per cent of a cross section of Americans questioned believe favored close regulations of unions by the government." — National Review.
