

Though unshaken in its confidence in eventual success of the local hospital project, this column frankly admits disappointment in response to the renewed drive. The situation is about the same as before. Many are willing to agree that our proposed hospital will be a wonderful community improvement but too many are content to hold back their support expecting others to do the job.

Some progress can be reported for the first week's efforts. Subscriptions to the fund now are near $200,000 and the cash account has passed $60,000. It indicates that the drive is still moving, but it also indicates that financial backing is far from proportional to the benefits and assets to be derived.

As we think over the possibilities we find it hard to imagine how our community can permit such an opportunity to go begging. We visualize an institution that will be here for the rest of Muenster's days, ministering to the physical needs of ourselves and posterity. Concern for the welfare of all these ought to prompt enthusiasm for the venture.

Besides, there's the additional value in what the hospital can do for community progress and growth. First of all the project in itself constitutes a big asset. Its payroll will be equivalent to that of a new industry, providing employment for our own people and also bringing new employees to town. That will create additional business. Meanwhile the hospital's needs along with additional traffic attracted to town by the hospital and its medical staff will create even more business.

While serving the sick can be regarded as a charitable function, and while our support of the hospital can be counted as charity, it's still a fact this project is a matter of good sound business judgment. Self interest tells us that every donation is also an investment, with strong possibility that every dollar will eventually be returned many times.

Still more possibilities are created in the hospital's value as a community improvement. It's an accepted fact that every improvement adds to an area's potential, and the bigger the improvement, the more it adds. Well, we can hardly imagine any improvement that could add more to this town's attractiveness as a place to live and make a living. Nothing could be a better invitation to more investment, more business and more progress.

Those are reasons why financial support is more than just a donation. It is a wise investment. Those are the reasons why this column so firmly believes that every one conscious of his stake in future prosperity ought to assume a feeling of personal responsibility in helping push the drive over the top. This thing deserves as much support as we can give, not as little as we can get by with.

The thought of such possibilities should be attractive enough to overcome even the haunting fear of being stuck with a county hospital tax. As we know, some people here are still worried about that possibility, and because of it are reluctant to help in our drive. A more reasonable attitude is that we cannot afford to give up our opportunity regardless of whether a tax is passed. Benefits expected from our project are worth far more than a tax would cost. In other words, tax or no tax, we have good reason to want our hospital and to support it.

On the other hand, let's realize also that our best way to work against a tax is to work for our project. Getting a hospital here would relieve the critical strain on Gainesville hospitals and reduce proportionately the effectiveness of a new appeal for a tax supported county hospital. This isn't a positive claim that success of our venture can defeat a hospital tax bond, but obviously our chances are better if we have the hospital.

Meanwhile let's not give up hope for a solution of the hospital problem at Gainesville. Efforts are still under way there and success, though not assured, is definitely possible. There's still a good chance that private funds will do their job.

This fact is mentioned for the limited encouragement we can derive from it. We'll (Continued on page 8)

FATHER EUGENE LUKE, O.S.B., celebrated his first solemn mass in Sacred Heart Church on July 14. Assisting in the service were four other native sons of the parish Fathers Joseph Weinzapfel, Alfred Hoenig, Leo Koesler and Paul Hoedebeck.

Parish Celebration Commemorates Father Eugene Luke's First Mass

A big event in the history of Sacred Heart parish was last Friday's first solemn mass and reception commemorating the admission of a native son, Father Eugene Luke, O.S.B. to the priesthood. He is the eleventh member of the parish to be ordained.

The crowd that filled Sacred Heart Church for the mass numbered about 850 and those served at the dinner were estimated about 550. According to Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco Abbey, the program was the biggest and most solemn in his experience honoring a new priest.

Ceremony began at 4 o'clock when Father Eugene was escorted from the parish rectory to the church in a solemn procession which included his attendants at mass; his parents, brothers and sisters, two nieces carrying his chalice and paten on satin pillows; a cousin carrying a basket of wheat and grapes symbolizing the bread and wine used in the sacrifice of the mass; seven nephews carrying candles, twenty four little girls, each with a lily symbolic of a year in his life; visiting clergymen; altar boys; and the Fourth Degree K of C honor guard.

Just before the procession entered church a niece Mary Nell Denny, recited an invocation, "Thou Art a Priest Forever." As the little children entered church they placed their candles and lilies before the Blessed Mother's altar. Assisting Father Eugene at his first mass were four other native priests. Fathers Alfred Hoenig, Leo Koesler, Joseph Weinzapfel and Paul Hoedebeck were archpriest, deacon, subdeacon and master of ceremonies. Also assisting were members of the Sacred Heart Choir singing the St. Benedict Mass, with a brother,

The sermon, delivered by The Right Rev. Michael Lensing, abbot of Subiaco Abbey, stressed the dignity and sacred calling of a priest as a mediator between God and man. He described a priest as an "Alter Christus — Another Christ," continuing the work begun by the Blessed Savior while He was on earth. The powers exercised by a priest in administration of the Sacraments, he said, are identically the same powers used by Jesus Christ.

The Abbot congratulated parents, family and parish on their help and inspiration in bringing the new priest to his sacred calling, which is an honor and a blessing to all concerned.

After mass Father Eugene gave the special blessing of a new priest to all present and Father Henry Haese, O.S.B., recently ordained at Corpus Christi, gave the same blessing. Floral decorations in the church added beauty and dignity to the occasion. Six large and identical arrangements, prepared by Mrs. Dan Luke, were made up of salmon red gladioli, white pom-pom mums and canna leaves. Two were on the altar, four in the sanctuary. Adding to the floral effect were six tall candles at the sanctuary entrance and three more near the pulpit. More flowers were those worn by family members. Mrs. Ben Luke wore a white orchid corsage. Other ladies wore corsages of wine red roses and the men wore rose boutonnières of the same shade.

Parish Reception
A dinner and program in the parish hall featured the parish reception. The meal was catered by Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and served by members of the VFW Auxiliary.

Decorations there, also by Mrs. Dan Luke, included flowers for all tables. Dominating the head table was the traditional lamb shaped cake. Prepared by Mrs. Henry Spaeth, it was a white lamb reclining on another cake the size and shape of a missal and iced in the symbolic red. More symbolism on the table included wine red roses, grapes, grape leaves and sheaves of wheat.

Father Alcuin Kubis was master of ceremonies for the brief dinner program. He introduced five heads of local societies who presented gifts to the new priest. They were Dan Haverkamp of St. Joseph's (Continued on page 4)

Muenster Schools Start August 22
An even month from Saturday summer vacation will end for Muenster school children. Both schools will open on August 22.

Heads of both schools are partial to the early start. Experience of recent years was that it allowed ample time for days off due to bad weather, also that most students do not object to starting early but like to get out of school early.

Gets BS Degree
Robert Meurer has received his BS degree in Petroleum Engineering. He qualified for it last week at Texas Tech on completion of the first half of summer school.

Petrus Appointed Superintendent at Rhineland School
George Petrus will enter administrative school work with the opening of the next scholastic year. He disclosed this week that he has resigned at Sacred Heart High to become superintendent of the Rhineland school. He will also coach basketball, the school's only athletic program.

Petrus expects to leave here the last week in August. School starts the day after Labor Day in Rhineland.

Petrus has spent four years as coach of the Sacred Heart teams. The new assignment is a sort of homecoming for Petrus. He is a native of Rhineland and moved away after completing his first three years of school.

Cash Fund Jumps Pledges Lag in Hospital Drive

Last week's meeting of the Muenster Hospital campaign revealed slow progress toward the total goal and an encouraging increase in the fund of cash on hand.

As reported by Secretary Dorothy Hartman total subscriptions now are $198,359.01 and total available cash is about $61,500. This means that the cash total is more in line with pledge totals, however, as pointed out by President J. M. Weinzapfel, both accounts will need much more before the job is finished. The campaign needs $250,000 in total subscriptions, and a third of that in cash, before it can qualify for a Hill-Burton grant. Present objective is to reach both goals on or before August 15 so that forms can be prepared to apply for Hill-Burton funds early in September.

To speed the action J. M. Weinzapfel urges every worker to make calls promptly and report at the meetings with all cards. The idea is to re-assign cards whenever advisable so that calls can be completed with less delay. Weinzapfel also invites any who are willing to volunteer their services.

The community's greatest need at this time, he said, is to assume a more general attitude of personal responsibility toward the project. Too many are content to hold back, waiting for others to take on the burden for what will become an important asset to all. Things would be different if everyone sincerely tried to appreciate the hospital's potential value to himself, and supported it in proportion to his expected benefits. Besides, the job would be fairly easy if each one earnestly tried to raise as much as possible instead of doing as little as possible.

Muenster to Have 4 Graduates from Nursing Schools

Muenster will have four young women as graduate nurses this year, three receiving diplomas in commencement exercises at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth Sunday and 1 receiving her diploma at St. Paul's Hospital, Dallas, in September.

The three graduates in Sunday's program are Miss Patsy Bayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer, Miss Suzanne Hesse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meinrad Hesse, and Miss Patsy Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Vogel.

Miss Ann Luke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luke is the graduate from St. Paul's. Between close of classes and commencement exercises she will have a month at home.

Busses Will Haul Members to NTPA Annual Meeting

Local members of the North Texas Producers Association are urged to attend the organization's annual general meeting next Tuesday, July 25 in Arlington.

Following a custom of recent years, the First State Bank of Gainesville again has arranged free transportation for Cooke County members. Chartered busses will leave the Community Center building in Gainesville at 8 o'clock. All who wish to ride the busses are reminded to be there at that time.

Coaching Jobs at Sacred Heart Go To Wolf Brothers

Changes are coming up in the athletic department of Sacred Heart School. Father Alcuin Kubis has announced that the Wolf brothers of Gainesville, Adam and Walter will be coach and assistant respectively of the parochial high teams.

Adam is moving up after two years as assistant coach under George Petrus. Walter has had no previous coaching experience but played two seasons of football while in the service. He taught at Windthorst last year.

Along with coaching duties both will teach. Adam continues as instructor of book-keeping and shop, Walter will teach English.

The brothers are natives of Gainesville. Both attended St. Mary's High School and received college degrees from NTSC of Denton.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Wayne Trubenbach is a patient at Methodist Hospital in Dallas where he had bone graft surgery on his right leg Wednesday. This is still in connection with injuries received in a scooter-car accident 11 months ago. Wayne's parents, the Joe Trubenbachs, were with him for the operation and he'll be hospitalized about five days, the doctor said. Greeting cards will help him pass the long days. Address Wayne at Methodist Hospital, Room 276, Dallas, Texas.

Jerry Klement, assistant county agent at Denton, is at home this week with his family, the Johnny Klements, convalescing from surgery performed at Flow Hospital July 15. His parents were in Denton to bring him home when he was dismissed Monday.

J. W. Hess is a patient at Medical Arts Hospital in Dallas where he had surgery Monday morning. He had been in the hospital about a week for pre-operative care. Family members were with him on the day of the operation and keep him cheered with frequent visits. Cards will reach him addressed to Room 1903 at the hospital.

Jimmy Prescher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Prescher of Valley View, is recovering normally from an appendicitis operation performed Saturday night and will probably be dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium this weekend.

Mrs. J. H. Otto entered M&S Hospital Tuesday evening for a few days of treatment and medical care.

Miss Marcy Klement is back at her nursing job at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth, the contemplated surgery postponed until a later date.

A car-scooter collision on Main Street at the highway intersection about 9 p.m. Saturday sent two local boys to Gainesville Sanitarium. Remaining as a patient is Clinton Endres, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres. Dismissed after X-ray and treatment is Cyril Yosten, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten. Cyril went back Monday to have his right foot put in a cast, the time between needed for swelling to go down. Clinton has a broken right leg and ankle and is in a cast. It looks like a long stay in the Sanitarium for him. The two youths were on a motor scooter going south and turned east as the light changed to green. In the car was Anthony Grewing, crossing the intersection going north. They did not see each other and collided. Anthony Grewing was not injured.

Schedule of Coming Events
FRIDAY, July 21, CDA meeting, Mrs. Joe W. Fisher's home, 8 p.m.
FRIDAY, July 21, CYC Holy Hour, 7:30, followed by meeting and election of officers.
FRIDAY, July 21, Dodgers vs Angels and Giants vs Angels.
MONDAY, July 24, Ravens vs. Cardinals and Parakeets vs Jays.

Roy R. Endres, 66 Dies Suddenly Of Heart Attack

A heart attack, one of several in recent years, Monday claimed Roy R. Endres, who came to Muenster from Iowa before he was a year old. He died in a Gainesville hospital at 7:30 p.m. about two hours after suffering the attack in his home here.

Funeral services with solemn requiem mass were held in Sacred Heart Church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with the pastor, Father Alcuin Kubis, officiating assisted by Father Martin Fischer and Father Eugene Luke, a nephew of the deceased. Father Alcuin also preached the sermon and conducted graveside rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bearers were nephews: Melvin and Ronnie Herr, Paul and Arthur Endres and Dan and Bill Luke.

Rosary services in the Miller Chapel were at 3:30, 4, and 8:45 p.m. Tuesday, the first by the Third Order of St. Francis of which he was a long-time member. He was also a member of the local council Knights of Columbus and the parish St. Joseph's Society.

Roy Endres was born in Doon, Iowa, Jan. 13, 1895, and was brought to Muenster the same year by his parents when they moved here. He had resided here continuously since. On October 7, 1919, he was married to Miss Ann Herr. They had ten children.

For a number of years he was manager of the Farmers Marketing Assn., local cheese plant and Farmer's Store; later he engaged in the milling and feed business retiring because of his health. He was active in both civic and church undertakings as long as his health permitted.

Survivors are his wife; five sons, Roy Jr., Edward and Donald Endres of Muenster, Hugh Endres of Anaheim, Calif., and David Endres of Fort Worth; three daughters: Sister Marie Cecile of Fort Worth, Mrs. Frank Hennigan of Albuquerque and Mrs. Gene LaGesse of Houston; 30 grandchildren; one brother, W. H. Endres of Muenster, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Pulte and Mrs. Alec Pulte, both of Gainesville. Two sons preceded him in death. One died as an infant and James Endres lost his life in the Far East during World War II.

Season is Here For Grass Fires

Dry weather in June and July is responsible for stepped up activity by the Muenster fire department, with most of the action taking place in the rural area. A summary for the period from June 1 to now shows six fire calls answered within the city limits and eight out of town.

In town one was a building fire, the others were grass fire. Early response to the alarm held the damage down to about $300. The grass fires caused very little damage.

Out of town the firemen went to six fires on the Katy right of way and in some cases also followed the fires to adjoining pastures. Building fires were the George Pawless home, 4 miles east on Highway 82, and J. T. Livingston's vacant house at Myra. The Pawless home was completely destroyed. The Livingston house was about half destroyed.

Trying to reduce fire hazards in the city firemen are offering to burn off lots wherever they are asked. The work will be done in connection with Monday's practice session, the firemen keeping their truck handy as a precaution. Persons wanting the service can see Joe Moster or Gene Hoedebeck.

CONSTRUCTION OF A NEW HOME FOR THE BENE-DICTINE SISTERS of Sacred Heart Parish is scheduled to begin next week. It will occupy a ground space of 182x33 feet north of the elementary school. Since this sketch was drawn the plan was changed moving the chapel, shown at the right, to the left side of the building.

FARM SAFETY: A YEAR 'ROUND JOB

We Americans seem to need an official "week" each year to remind us of things we really should practice every week of every year. There's nothing wrong with the idea — the official reminder usually proves helpful — but too often too many people will substitute one week's observance for a year's practice. National Farm Safety Week, to be celebrated July 23-29 this year, is a perfect example of a "week" that should be considered a continual part of rural life. Especially is that true in this area in which agriculture plays such a leading role in our economic life. It is just plain good sense to avoid the suffering and economic losses resulting from farm accidents.

Co-sponsored on the national level by the Safety Council and the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and on the state level by the Texas Farm & Ranch Safety Council, the Texas Farm Bureau and the Extension Service, the 18th annual Farm Safety Week has as its theme, "Safety Is a Family Affair."

Accidents in American farm homes take about 2,700 lives a year, according to the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, and some 3,400 persons are killed each year doing farm work. This is in addition to the 4,700 farm residents who die on the highways in nonwork accidents.

If we think of safe practices as a means of doing things, accident prevention will become a way of life — a way that will preserve the lives of farm families.

Let's make every week Farm Safety Week.

FOR and AGAINST

for CHRIST-against COMMUNISM

BY BILLY JAMES HARGIS, LL.D.
 FOUNDER CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

NO EXCUSE JUSTIFIES SUBMISSION TO COMMUNIST BLACKMAIL

There is no excuse sufficient to justify United States submission to communist blackmail. When we look beneath the surface in this Castro bulldozer deal, the sentimental objectives used to justify it evaporate into thin air. What is involved in submission to this arrogant communist blackmail is temporary help to a few in the immediate future with much danger for many more farther in the future. Sentiment should not blind Americans to the fact that surrender to communist blackmail such as the Castro deal will create far more misery than it relieves.

The 1,214 involved in this blackmail effort are just a handful of some 200,000 Cubans whom Castro bragged about jailing as a result of the so-called invasion attempt. Why select these 1,214? Also how about American citizens held in jail by this cruel communist dictator who was such a hero to brainwashed Americans a couple of years ago? Furthermore, what about the 900 million people who are enslaved by the international communist conspiracy? Are we going to try to buy their freedom through paying immoral blackmail to Communism?

For what purpose did Castro want 500 tractors or bulldozers? Only the most naive of Americans would assume that they would be used only for "peaceful" farming purposes. Anyone who understands Communist war against freedom comes first. Many, if not all, of these bulldozers would be used to build missile bases, airports, and other facilities for use in the final communist assault on the United States, provided a military assault is necessary in the final stages of their determined plot to take over our nation. During recent years communist leaders have stressed to the conspirators that force and violence would not be necessary for the final conquest of America IF our nation would surrender peaceably. We are surrendering bit by bit in such a manner that the average, uninformed American is not vaguely aware of it.

In a Senate speech on May 23, 1961 Senator Lausche of Ohio summed up the shameful Castro tractor deal as follows: "... Castro is demanding ransom. He is blackmailing not only the Government of the United States but also its citizens. He anticipates that we will yield. He views us as a rag without character... The demand is one for tribute and requires that we abjectly surrender..." At the time of preparation of this column the issue remains in doubt as to whether or not patriotic Americans will be able to stop this infamous surrender to Communism.

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

There is one place where Russia has a tremendous selling advantage for communism — it believes unequivocally in its superiority over the capitalistic system.

In seeking to convince other nations as to the superiority of its way of life it presents a solid front. I can point to the United States and show many examples of government-owned commercial activities which, to that extent, are socialism.

Pitifully few of our political leaders support the free-enterprise philosophy as emphatically as Russian leaders promote communism.

Recognizing this situation, Philip A. Flegler, president of the Edison Electric Institute, has called on investor-owned utilities to point out the weakness of government-owned electric power production. He said: "Let us show just how unnecessary and wasteful these Federal power projects are." He also pointed out how they are being "excused from more than three-quarters of the taxes which the other 80 per cent — the customers of the investor-owned companies — pay through their electric bills."

If we are half-hearted in our support of free enterprise, or if we continually dilute our capitalist system with phony tax-exempt socialistic "yardsticks" to undercut individual enterprise, our grandchildren will never know what freedom means.

NEBRASKA RE-AFFIRMS

The good people of Nebraska seem to like their right-to-work law.

In 1947, Nebraska enacted its right-to-work law. This year, 1961, Nebraska's Labor Commissioner, Donald Baste-meyer, made a statement condemning this right-to-work law adopted in 1947.

The Nebraska uni-cameral legislature gave Mr. Baste-meyer a prompt answer. By a vote of 32-9, it adopted a resolution affirming Nebraska's right-to-work law which has been in effect for 13 years. This resolution says in part:

"It is a proven fact that the Nebraska business climate is one of the state's greatest assets and the Nebraska right-to-work law is and has been a plus factor in advancing and enriching the economy of the state."

This parallels the experience of the other 18 states that have taken advantage of the clause in the Taft-Hartley law to enact right-to-work laws. The popularity of this law wherever it has been enacted seems to be a mighty good answer to the union labor chieftains who are moving heaven and earth to amend Taft-Hartley so as to take away the right of a state to enact or continue a right-to-work law.

We believe the average American believes a man should be permitted to work for whom, where and when he pleases without paying tribute to a labor union.

See Cousin First Time in 20 Years

A cousin they hadn't seen in 20 years and his wife and children they had never met spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cler and family. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. James Hoehn and Duncan and Carla of Wylam, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoehn and children of Nocona joined in a Sunday visit and Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoehn and children of Dallas saw his cousin and family at the Jack Hoehn home Monday evening. The Dallas couple's children, Kathy and Don, stayed here in Muenster for a week's visit on the Cler farm.

The Alabamians visited next with the Bill Hoehns at Groom and then headed west for a three-week vacation including Grand Canyon and Salt Lake City.

Shower and Party Are Compliments For Ruth Frasier

Miss Ruth Anne Frasier, bride-elect of Joe Felderhoff, was twice honored Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff. In the afternoon the courtesy was a miscellaneous gift shower and in the evening it was a get-acquainted party for which uncles and aunts of the future groom were guests.

The shower, beginning at 2 p.m., was attended by 30 guests. Hostesses were Mrs. A. J. Felderhoff, Mrs. Alvin Hartman and Mrs. Sylvan Walterscheid. They presented the honoree an unusually clever corsage composed of dish rag, scrub ball, plastic spoon and plastic toothpicks. Games relating to the bridal theme and "advice to the bride" entertained the group and pictures were taken. Misses Charlene Otto and Loretta Schmitt, chosen as wedding attendants, helped the future bride open and display gifts.

The hostesses served sandwich plates, pink lemonade and angel cake with pink fruit topping.

Throughout the party rooms the bridal colors of white and pink were stressed. A miniature bridal party of dolls decorated the mantel and a pink umbrella hung from the archway over the gift table.

At the evening party uncles and aunts met their future niece, visited and had refreshments of cake, ice cream, and coffee.

The couple's wedding will be solemnized here August 5 at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church.

Cathy Hoedebeck Birthday Honoree

Cathy Hoedebeck of Gainesville celebrated being ten years old with a swim party at Leonard Park in the afternoon. Eight guests helped in the celebration.

Cathy's mother, Mrs. Leo Hoedebeck, served birthday cake, ice cream and cold drinks. Assisting were the honoree's sister, Mrs. Paul Klement and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Hoedebeck.

Miss Delores Derichsweiler pledged wedding vows with Richard Zimmerer in Sacred Heart Church Saturday, Father Alcuin Kubis performing the double ring ceremony and officiating at the nuptial high mass at 4 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Derichsweiler of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer of Lindsay.

For her wedding the bride wore a white Ghantilly lace dress over taffeta with scalloped Sabrina neck line and petal point sleeves. The bouffant skirt swept into an aisle-wide chapel train. A princess crown of pearls and sequins secured her finger tip veil of nylon tulle and her flowers were white rose buds arranged atop her prayer book, a gift from the groom. She added a bit of sentiment by carrying a dainty handkerchief given her by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. John Zimmerer. Mr. Derichsweiler presented his daughter for marriage.

Miss Patsy Zimmerer, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Mrs. Irven Derichsweiler of Lewisville, bride's sister-in-law, was bride's matron. They wore identical dresses of pink chiffon over taffeta with matching half hats and carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

A miniature duplicate of the bride's attendants was little Miss Debby Derichsweiler of Lewisville who was flower girl. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli which the bride placed on the Blessed Virgin's altar after the ceremony.

Groom's attendants were his cousin, Kenneth Zimmerer, best man, and Irven Derichsweiler. Clifford Zimmerer was ring bearer for his brother.

Fred Knabe and Bill Crow ushered and cousins were acolytes: Robert Fetsch, Danny and David Hoenic, Leon Endres and Jerry Otto.

Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist, singing before and after mass with Anthony Luke as organ accompanist. He was also at the console to assist the men's choir in singing the mass.

The wedding reception and buffet were held in the Parish Hall where about 150 guests were registered by the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Knabe. Afterwards a dance was held in the VFW Hall.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Derichsweiler wore an orchid dress with white accessories and Mrs. Zimmerer, mother of the groom, was in a pink outfit with matching accessories. Both had corsages of white roses. The groom's grandmother, Mrs. John Zimmerer of Lindsay, who was unable to attend nevertheless saw the bridal party. They went to her home and took her corsage of white roses to her.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip she was wearing a pink sheath with white accessories and the roses from her wedding bouquet. They will make their home in Gainesville at 1207 Culberson St. He is an employee at Joe Walter Lumber Company. Both are graduates of Sacred Heart High School.

Out Of Town Guests

Out of town guests at the wedding included: Mrs. Andy Flusche and children Gene, Anna Marie and Juliana of Dallas, Mrs. Al Flusche and son Charles of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hurley of Wichita Falls, Herman Bindel of Windhorst.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crow and children Becky, Billy Ray and Beverly Ann of Archer City, Miss Florence Jirasek and Messrs. and Mmes. Joe Walter, James Canady, Wally Luttmner, Bill Schad, Andrew Zimmerer and Mrs. Noble Glenn, all of Gainesville.

There's a luncheonette sign near Glastonbury, Conn., reading "Please Don't Insult Our Waiters by Tipping Them" (on each table there's a small slitted box labeled "Insults").

Outdoor Shrine at Al Walterscheid's Is Beauty Spot

A new beauty spot on North Main Street is the outdoor shrine at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Walterscheid. Al built it in his leisure hours. It's an original design with a flavor of old world architecture.

About 20 varieties of rock are used in the structure including native stones, marble, glass, ceramic tile, petrified wood and fossil rocks artistically arranged.

It measures about five and a half feet from top to bottom and is eight feet wide at the base.

The domed niche with its sky blue interior, housing a statue of the Madonna, rises from a church complete with steeple, topped with a cross, attached to the right side of the grotto. For two hours at night a spot light illuminates the scene. It is clock-timed to turn on at 7:45 and go off at 9:45.

Al can identify all the rocks. He and his wife Catherine gathered them on trips and from area rock piles and fields and got some from friends' rock collections.

Ceramic tile used in the construction adds color and also forms a base in front for a border.

Party Planned by Farm Bureau for Queen Contestants

Plans for this year's Farm Queen contest, sponsored by the Cooke County Farm Bureau, have been outlined by the committee in charge.

All young women of the county whose families are FB families and who are between the ages of 16 and 22 are eligible to enter competition for the county's queen.

For this purpose, all prospective candidates are invited to a Coke party next Monday, July 31, at 10:30 a.m. in the community room of the First State Bank. Instructions on modeling will be a feature of the meeting.

Plans are being made for a rehearsal tea, the date to be announced, and the finals will be held August 21 in Gainesville College Auditorium. Out of town judges will serve for the finals.

It was also announced that anyone interested in a "Talent" contest is invited to contact members of the committee or stop in at the Farm Bureau office. Committee members are Mmes. J. E. Pybas, Paul Endres, Frank Neu, Charlie Kammerdiener and George Berry.

Bagwell Clan Has Reunion at Myra

The Bagwell clan had a reunion at Myra Sunday so the family could visit with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Bagwell and daughter Judy, visitors from Folsom, Calif.

Dinner at noon was a picnic meal on the lawn under the trees at the J. S. Bogwell home.

Joining Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bagwell and the Californians were the Leroy Bagwells and son Alvis of Fort Worth, the Otis Bagwells and daughter Patricia Ann of Whitesboro, Mrs. Maggie Taylor and daughter Virginia of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gobbie and son Larry of Muenster.

Twins Baptized

The infant twins of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lutkenhaus were baptized Sunday in Sacred Heart Church with newly ordained Father Eugene Luke officiating at his first christening service. The little boy, John Raymond — to be called Jan — had as sponsors Miss Dianne Shumaker and Jimmy Lutkenhaus. Sponsors for the little girl, Janelle Elaine, were Miss Ruby Shumaker and Paul Dangelmayr. The babies wore the baptismal dress that is a tradition in the Joe Lutkenhaus family for over 50 years. A quick change between baptisms permitted both of the twins to wear the dress their daddy and other family members wore at their christening service.

Group Has Outing At Medicine Park

All-day outing at Medicine Park, Lawton, Okla., made Sunday a day to remember by a group of 15 who had a picnic dinner, went swimming in Medicine Lake and toured Mt. Scott.

Together for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Lutkenhaus, Sheldon Lutkenhaus, Mrs. H. A. Walterscheid, Lambert and Shirley Walterscheid, from here, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Walterscheid, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Krahl and Miss Patsy Krahl of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harris and daughters Jimmie Lynn and Starla Mabelle of Oklahoma City.

Birthday Surprise Greets Mrs. Durham

Mr. and Mrs. Nig DeBorde were among guests at a fish fry at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Durham at Rosston, Sunday, the occasion being a surprise birthday celebration for Mrs. Durham. Mrs. DeBorde took the tiered, decorated cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Durham had just returned from a fishing vacation on the Gulf Coast and had the fish fry to back up the stories they told. They invited the family who in turn decided to make it a birthday surprise. Mrs. Durham's birthday was on July 19.

Others present were Mrs. Kathleen Kelley and Mrs. Joyce Harris of Fort Worth, Mrs. O. G. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Morgan of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Durham Jr. and two children of Rosston.

Texas Tarantula Is Collector's Item For Mich. Visitor

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kathman Saturday found Texas tarantulas as interesting as anything they saw on a several state trip and took one of the spiders back to Michigan to display.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kathman's niece, Mrs. Viola Showers of San Antonio accompanying her daughter, Jane Gayle and family — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Summers and year-old son Billy of Lincoln Park, Mich., and his mother of Benton, Ill. They were on their way home after an extended vacation and Summers, who is in the service, was the spider collector. It was the Kathmans' first time to see their grandnephew Billy.

MHS Will Deliver Annuals Saturday

Students of Muenster High who are due to receive annuals covering the past school year are reminded that their books are here.

Superintendent Bruns said Wednesday that they will be available at the school Saturday night from 7 to 8. He also asks the students to bring along receipts for deposits or payments so distribution can be made in less time.

Lateness of delivery is explained by the fact that Muenster High, like many other schools, elected to include year-end activity in its books. If delivered during the school year the annuals would not have been complete.

Ravens Continue Perfect Record in Pee Wee League

The Ravens practically have it made in the Pee Wee league. After nosing out the Jays 12-11 they have four straight wins and will be hard to overtake for the rest of the season, especially since the second place Cardinals dropped down to a 500 standing.

Luck was with the Ravens on that close one. In the sixth the Jays had bases loaded with winning runs but saw their chances fizzle as a little fellow stole second while it was occupied by a teammate. It was an automatic out that hurt terribly.

The other game of the evening saw the Parakeets break into the win column by blasting the Cardinals 18-10.

In the Junior loop Dodgers continued their jinx. By two heartbreaking one point losses they were held in the winless column. They lost 7-6 to the Giants, 6 to 5 to the Angels.

PEE WEE STANDINGS

Ravens	4	0	1000
Cardinals	2	2	500
Jays	1	3	250
Parakeets	1	3	250

JUNIOR STANDINGS

Angels	3	1	750
Giants	3	1	750
Dodgers	0	4	000

Back From Europe With Memories of Marvelous Times

Back from a two-month tour of Europe, Mrs. Rudy Hellman reports a marvelous time. This was her second trip to Germany since her son Capt. Monte Hellman is in the army at Idar-Oberstein, Germany, and this visit provided much more opportunity for sight-seeing because Monte was on leave and took his mother and his brother Dolphy Joe to about a dozen countries.

Dolphy remained for visiting until July 28 when he will fly home. Mrs. Hellman flew in Monday. The two went over on the Queen Elizabeth and found the ocean voyage delightful.

Some six thousand miles of Europe was covered on the travel itinerary for Mrs. Hellman, Dolphy and Capt. Hellman. The latter's young daughters, Barby and Suzy, accompanied them on some of the tours.

Upon arriving overseas in England, in May, Mrs. Hellman and Dolphy spent three days in London, then joined Capt. Hellman in Copenhagen for a tour of the Scandinavian countries.

Other tours were to Austria, Bavaria, Italy, Greece, and Yugoslavia and visiting Paris, Venice, Florence, Pisa, Vienna, Mt. Vesuvius, Brenner Pass and scores of other interesting places. They made the Apian Way from Naples to Brindisi and from there had a 36-hour boat cruise to Athens, Greece, visiting the Acropolis and Temple of Zeus among many attractions.

Dolphy left the rest of the family for a tour of Rome and other places his mother had seen on her previous trip.

Mrs. Hellman noted the styles . . . the knee-length skirts and hair-dos especially in the fashion centers and brought back loads of pictures.

Capt. Hellman and his family will leave Frankfurt by plane August 3 and will be in New York until he is separated from the service at Hamilton Field there. When he comes home he'll be a civilian again.

Woodcarvings Go Into 2 Churches

St. Joseph's Church at Nona has been dressed up with handsome new hand-carved Stations of the Cross just installed by Muenster's Bavarian Woodcarvers. Next, the church will be favored with a large crucifix and reworking of two wooden statues.

St. Mary's Church at Henrietta has just added a large crucifix made by the local artists. Father Joseph Koczewski is pastor of the two parishes.

Colorado, N. M., Are Vacation Sites

Mr. and Mrs. John Myrick have returned to Houston after visits here and in Gainesville and a trip to Colorado and New Mexico. They took Tommy and Carol with them but left the babies, Dolphy and Jodie, with their grandparents, the Ralph Whartons at Gainesville.

Seeing all the things of tourist interest and visiting Jim Myrick and an aunt and family, the Jim Millers at Artesia made the trip interesting.

They visited here again during the weekend, then returned to Houston.

Father Eugene

Society, Mrs. Frank Herr of St. Anne's Society, Mrs. Edd McGannon of the Third Order of St. Francis, Mrs. Steve Mosier of the Catholic Daughters and John Mosman of the Knights of Columbus.

Others called on were Mrs. Charles Denny as a representative of the family, Father Alfred Hoenig, Abbot Michael Lensing and Father Eugene. Father Eugene's message was grateful appreciation to everyone whose prayers and inspiration had helped him to reach that day.

His Past and Future

Father Eugene, formerly Ray Luke, was born on October 6, 1936, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke. He attended Sacred Heart School until 1952, when he entered the seminary of Subiaco Abbey as a high school junior. He took his permanent vows as a member of the Benedictine order on September 8, 1959, and was ordained to the priesthood on July 11, 1961.

He will spend the next year at Subiaco studying his final year of theology and also teaching a class of high school. After that he will be ready for one of the abbey's many pastoral or teaching assignments.

For his chalice Father Eugene chose a design that reflects the modernistic trend in art. Its general shape is that of two rather flat cones with the points joined. One cone is the cup, the other the base. Material is silver with inside plating of gold and outside cover of blood red translucent enamel with a stylized gold figure of Christ the King. It was designed and custom made by Burch-Korrold Studio of Zurich, Switzerland.

Family gatherings also are marking Father Eugene's two week visit here before his return to Subiaco. Last Thursday night members of the immediate family and several priests were together for a dinner in the Ben Luke home and another family affair is planned this Thursday at Dan Luke's. A general reunion of both sides of the family, the Lukes and Herrs, was held Sunday in the city park.

Visiting Clergy

Members of the clergy here for the first mass and reception were Abbot Michael Lensing and Fathers Leo Koesler, Paul Hoedebeck, Vincent Orth, Christopher Paladino, Fintan Oldham, David Flusche, Brendan McGuire and Lawrence Miller, all of Subiaco.

Abbey. With Abbot Michael was his mother, Mrs. Anna Lensing of Fort Smith, Ark.

Also here were Fathers Alfred Hoenig, Sylvester Schad, Gabriel Franks and Henry Haese and Fraters Killian O'Bryan, Fabian Yaklin and Pius Britto all of Corpus Christi Priory; Fathers Joseph Fuhrmann, Clement Schmidt, Dennis Sorries and Camillus Conroy of Laneri High, Fort Worth; Father Joseph Weinzapfel of Dallas, Father Anthony Gajda of Valley View, Father Joseph Thomas of Denton, Father Damian Wevers of Lindsay, Father Aloys Fuhrmann of Little Rock, Ark., and Fathers Alcuin Kubis, Martin Fischer and Bruno Fuhrmann of Muenster.

Visiting Relatives

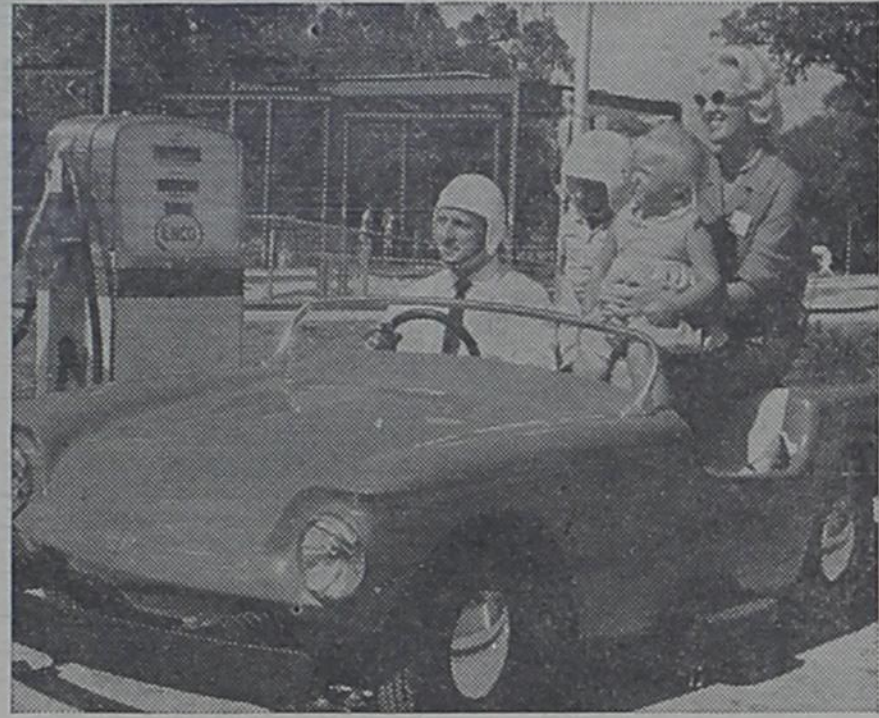

Out of town relatives here were the Charles Denny family of San Antonio, Harold Lukes of Arlington, Gene Lukes of Denton; Alfred Kuhns of Midland; Bernard Luke of Houston; Sister Marie Cecile Endres and C. J. Ruckers, Edwin Lukes and David Endres of Fort Worth; Ronnie Herrs, Martin Frisken and Mrs. John Corcoran and Linda of Gainesville; Carl Herrs of Pilot Point; Mrs. Bertha Schmitzer of Denison; Leonard Bengforts of Lindsay; Mrs. Q. D. Pettigrew of Kaufman; Miss Ann Luke of Dallas; Robert Kuppers of Marlin; Jack Gormans of Rockford, Ill.; Elbert Vances of Hereford; Mrs. Gene LaGessee and children of Houston; and John Goodman of Galveston.

John Caugheys See Kin and Friends on Vacation Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. John Caughey and children Michael and Beth saw dozens of relatives and friends on their vacation visit here with her mother, Mrs. John Kathman, and went to Lindsay and Dallas to see additional kinfolk and friends.

A get-together with dinner was held while they were here in her mother's home. Guests were Frank, Bill and Lee Haverkamp and their families, the Ray Walterscheids and children and the Travis Wickliffes and family of Dallas.

The Caugheys told about their new home which is nearing completion. It is a three-bedroom, two-bath brick building and includes a large family room. When they left they were pulling a trailer behind their car. The trailer was filled with their home furnishings which had been stored here. They live in Peoria, Ill.

FOYT FAMILY GOES "HAPPY MOTORING!"—Indianapolis Speedway champion A. J. Foyt of Houston, his wife Lucy, five-year-old son Tony, and two-year-old daughter Terry go "Happy Motoring!" at a new, scaled-down freeway sponsored by Humble Oil & Refining Company at the Six Flags Over Texas recreational center at Arlington. They were joined by over 300 newspaper editors and publishers attending a meeting of the Texas Press Association. Set for opening in early August, Six Flags Over Texas will have 40 major attractions telescoping the adventure and development of the Lone Star State.

Local News BRIEFS

Ronnie Kathman is on a vacation trip with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller of Gainesville. They are sight-seeing at Grand Canyon and other scenic spots in Arizona.

Former Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Vernon and their six children arrived Wednesday night to visit friends. They are houseguests of the Julian Walterscheids.

Surprise visitors with Angela Laake and Rosa Driever Tuesday evening were a nephew and cousin they hadn't seen in over 30 years and his wife whom they had never met. They are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Laake of San Antonio. With them were Mr. Laake's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knapp of Seymour with whom the San Antonians were visiting and they drove over to Muenster for a pop call enroute back there after spending the day in Union, Oklahoma, with other relatives of the Laake family.

Four-day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Herr and family were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Vance, Tyler and Mary. They had spent most of their annual vacation in St. Louis, Mo., and points in Alabama with relatives. They were here Friday to Monday. Also at the Herr home was their daughter, Mrs. Q. D. Pettigrew and three children of Kaufman. They left Saturday after a two-week visit while Mr. Pettigrew was at Fort Hood with his National Guard Unit. Richard Herr accompanied them home for a visit and went from Kaufman to Dallas to visit another sister, Mrs. Earl Sheppard and family.

Marysville News
 By Mrs. John Richey

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Winchester are in Dallas this week and Tuesday attended the wedding of their son David Winchester to Miss Thelma Cosley of Dallas. On the same day the Marysville couple marked their 26th wedding anniversary. They went to Dallas with their daughter, Mrs. Don Self and son who had been visiting at the family home for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davidson and grandchildren, Becky, Barby and Mike, drove to Wilson, Okla., for a Friday and overnight visit with Mrs. Davidson's brothers and sisters-in-law, the Monroe and Ambrose Bakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moon were Sunday supper guests with their daughter and family, the Max Harrells at Gainesville.

Miss Paula Shaw of Gainesville spent the weekend with her father, Albert Shaw, and her grandmother, Mrs. J. N. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richey were in Bethany, Okla., Tuesday at the funeral of Reginald Clements, a brother-in-law of Mr. Richey. Other area relatives include Fred Richey of Sivel's Bend, H. H. and Jess Richey, Mrs. Tom Binford and Mrs. Henry Hobbs, all of Gainesville.

The regular monthly social for Marysville community will be held Friday evening in the community center. Refreshment chairman says bring cookies and drinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doughty spent two days of the past week in Burneyville, Okla., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hodges. Wayne Doughty, youngest son of the Joe Doughtys, has gone to Kress, Texas, to work with his cousin, Benny Hodges.

Mrs. John Richey visited at the Sanitarium Monday with Mrs. Edith Stapp and Douglas Robison.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robison have been dividing their time between two patients: their son Douglas Robison, who is in Gainesville Sanitarium since he sustained a back injury in a fall from a horse July 10, and Mr. Robison's father, D. O. Robison who is a pneumonia patient at his home in Gainesville since about a week. The couple also have their grandchildren, Mark and Jan, with them while their mother attends the bedside of their daddy.

Mrs. Alys Graye was in Dallas three days of the past week for a checkup by her doctor.

The Rev. M. D. Bishop was guest preacher at Baptist Church morning service. His wife and their son Billy accompanied him and they were dinner guests in the Rafe McElreath home. The Rev. Henry Mozingo, pastor, conducted Sunday evening services.

Two-day outing at Mt. Scott picnic grounds in Oklahoma provided a great time for Mr. and Mrs. John Richey who joined friends from Ringgold for the weekend camp-out. Taking pictures atop Mt. Scott, swimming in Medicine Lake and touring the wildlife reservation, seeing deer, elk, buffalo and long-horn cattle were all interesting. With the Richeys were Mr. and Mrs. Coy D. Fite and daughter Kathy, Miss Ann Maxey, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blevins and sons Charles and Ed all of Ringgold and Van Blevins of Wichita Falls.

Little Mary came down stairs holding her wet kitten and announced she had given it a bath.

"What towel did you use to dry the kitty?" asked mother severely.

"I didn't use any towel, mama," said Mary. "I just wrung him."

A man and his young son stood in the gallery at the Capitol as the house was called to order.

"Dad," the lad asked, "why did the minister pray for all those men?"

"He didn't, Son," the man replied. "He looked them over and prayed for the country."

Trip to See Son In Service is 10 Day Vacation Tour

Vacation trip this year for Mr. and Mrs. Martin Trubench was to see their son in the service, Donnie Trubench at Fort Knox, Ky. Going with them were their son Mike and Miss Betty Ann Dangelmayr. The four visited in ten states during the ten-day trip.

They drove straight to Fort Knox, going, and Donnie joined them for three days on a pass. Sight-seeing and entertainment in Louisville and stock car races in Indiana were highlights of the three days.

At Fort Knox the Muensterites also saw Melvin Fleitman and Paul Sandmann of Lindsay and visited with Lt. and Mrs. John Broome (Juanita Wieler).

On the trip home scenic beauty was provided by the Smokey Mountains, Cumberland Falls and Cumberland Gap. The group also visited an Indian Reservation in Cherokee, N. C., and attended an outdoor Indian drama, saw Lookout Mountains and Rock City in Chattanooga and took pictures all along the way.

Donnie Trubench, Paul Sandmann and Melvin Fleitman are nearing the end of their six-month army training. They are due to be finished on August 5 and will be heading for home as soon as possible, they said.

Cooke County FB Sends Delegates To State Meeting

Two Cooke County Farm Bureau families will attend the 13th annual Texas Farm Bureau Leadership Training Institute July 25-28 in Mineral Wells, according to J. T. Cole, president of the county organization.

Present for the three-day meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kammerdiener of Downard Fairplains and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neu of Valley View.

The annual training school for county Farm Bureau leaders features classes and workshops on Farm Bureau leadership responsibilities, as well as instruction on the history, philosophy and procedures of the organization. Some classes will deal with current agricultural problems and issues.

The Institute will begin with a vesper service on the evening of July 25 and will end with a banquet at noon Friday July 28. Dr. George S. Benson of Searcy, Ark., president of Harding College will speak at the vesper service. Ray B. Bowden, secretary of the Texas Grain and Feed Association of Fort Worth, will be the banquet speaker.

Dr. Benson and J. J. Eley of New York City, president of Public Affairs Counsellors, will conduct general assembly sessions discussing "Americanism" and "Participation in Precinct Politics". R. G. Cherry economist at Texas A. and M. College, will teach a course on "Economic Realities". Regan

Brown, rural sociologist with the Extension Service will instruct on "Motivating for Action". Expanded Farm Bureau Services" will be the course taught by H. H. Alp, of the American Farm Bureau of Chicago, Ill., George McArthur assistant county agricultural agent of Victoria County, will be in charge of a recreation period Thursday evening.

Health Department Notes Increase in Hepatitis Cases

More Texans have been sickened by infectious hepatitis this year than in any similar period since the State Department of Health began keeping records on it back in 1952.

Between January 1 and April 1, the exhausting liver ailment had stricken 1,028 persons. Some of them are undoubtedly still feeling its ill effects, since the disease is capable of keeping its victims bedridden for weeks.

For the first 13 weeks of 1960, only 493 cases of the ailment had been reported in Texas. The highest incidence previous to this year was 626 cases reported in 1954.

The reason for the present upsurge in cases is not known. Public health physicians say the disease seems to attack relatively large numbers of people — mostly youngsters and young adults — every eight or 10 years. Why it should follow such a cycle is a mystery.

But it is known that infectious hepatitis is caused by an elusive virus for which man is the reservoir. And it is known that it is spread by personal contact with sick persons or with carriers, and sometimes in contaminated food or water.

Although most cases occur among children and young adults, people of all ages are susceptible. Fortunately, the disease is rarely fatal. Doctors report that the death rate seldom exceeds 2 percent, even in epidemics.

Victims of the disease usually begin feeling sick two or three weeks after exposure. They usually lose their appetite, feel fatigued and weary. They might be nauseated, but may or may not vomit. They will feel achy and sore, and may have a sensation of heaviness in the stomach.

One of the most prominent symptoms is a yellow discoloration — known as jaundice — of skin and whites of the eyes. But some persons never show such discoloration, and children sometimes contract the disease without showing any of the typical symptoms.

Having one bout with infectious hepatitis is usually pretty good insurance against having a second one, but second attacks have been known to occur.

A physician should be called at once in any suspected case of infectious hepatitis. Bed rest and adequate diet are necessary for an uncomplicated recovery.

The most efficient tools for preventing the disease are good personal hygiene, and a high level of community sanitation. Contacts of known cases should see their family physician as promptly after exposure as possible to determine if injections of immune serum globulin are advisable for passive protection.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

The terrace season got under way this week in the Muenster-Saint Jo area of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District.

Terracing is one practice man can use in the defense of soil and water losses. Terraces break long slopes into shorter slopes. They make the water walk off a field instead of running off, thus preventing soil and water loss. They take all excess run-off water to a safe grass outlet area.

Bruno Fleitman has just built 6500 feet of broad-base channel type terraces on his farm north of Muenster. These terraces complete the system on this farm. They outlet onto bermudagrass waterways and pasture.

Bindel Brothers have completed a diversion terrace and 3 field terraces on the Frank Bindel farm north west of Muenster. These terraces will carry excess water to a bermudagrass waterway that was sodded to provide a safe terrace outlet area.

If you are losing topsoil and water from your cultivated fields, the time to build protective terraces is now, advise local SCS technicians.

DHIA Honors for Month Claimed by W. H. Frasher Herd

Month's summary for the Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement Association for May, just released, shows W. H. Frasher's cows in top spot as both milk and butterfat production champions with an average of 47 for butterfat and 1286 pounds of milk.

Richard Frasher's herd was runner-up with 43 and 1206 pounds while Paul Fisher's cows tied for third in butterfat with H. H. Moody's for 41 and Felderhoff and Sicking's cows were third in milk production with 1012 pounds.

Highest test pounds for individual cows were by Richard Frasher's Dandy with 5.4 and Paul Fisher's Sally with 5.0. Individual high producers were in W. H. Frasher's herd with 99 for butterfat and 2550 pounds of milk.

Sixteen member herds with 501 cows in milk were tested during the month. Average pounds of milk per cow stood at 999 and average butterfat per cow was 34. One hundred and twenty-two cows in the association produced 50 or more pounds of butterfat.

Among other high herds for the month were those of C. A. Fisher, Ed Sicking, Jerry Hoening, Paul Fetsch and Pete Prescher.

Local News BRIEFS

Miss Ann Luke, at home here Friday and Saturday, "came of age" while she was visiting her parents, the Henry Lukes. They celebrated her 21st birthday with a decorated two-tier cake made by her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Reiter have ended a two-week vacation with family members in Muenster, Gainesville and Lindsay and have returned to their jobs in Dallas.

Back from a week of visiting are Mrs. Bob Yosten and granddaughter, Janet Yosten, who were in Cleburne with Mrs. Yosten's daughter, Mrs. Curtis Holland and in Fort Worth with her sons Paul and Stan Yosten and their families. Mrs. Yosten and Mrs. Holland also visited the Tony Doers at Cleburne. They're relatives of the Reiters and Walters and the four had an old-time gab fest.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy O'Connor had as their guest this week their grandson, Roger Fry of Dallas, who was on vacation.

Saturday afternoon visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fletcher were her niece, Mrs. Dink Curbo and daughters Linda and Kathy of Fort Worth. From here the visitors went to Nocona to spend the rest of the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Charles Milburn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Herr and daughter of Fort Worth were Sunday visitors with their families and took Carla Rose Schilling and Doris Lynn Schilling home with them for a week's vacation visit.

Enjoying a week's visit on the farm are Bobby Hoening, son of the Rupert Hoenigs of Carrollton and Kenneth Cottle, son of Mrs. Rita Cottle of Dallas. The little boys are visiting with their uncle and family, the Jerry Hoenigs. Mrs. Cottle and daughters Deanna and Jeannine came for a Sunday visit bringing the boys.

An outing with a picnic at Rock Creek, Lake Texoma, was a family gathering for the Al Walterscheids and their children and grandchildren Sunday. Joining their parents were the Carl Walterscheids, the Willie Walterscheids and sons, the Ed Schneiders and family and the Donald Endres and children. Only one missing was Mary — Mrs. Walter Acker — and her family and the group thought about them.

The Martin Bayers enjoyed a visit of their daughter, Sister Damian, Friday. Sister Mary Vincent came with her from Fort Worth. Other nuns from Our Lady of Victory Convent here to see their families were Sisters Roberta and Christine Hesse and Sister Mary Helen Fuhrmann. They came for the first mass of Father Eugene and visited their families before returning to Fort Worth that evening.

Home for a weekend visit with her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and son of Dallas who were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Linn.

Miss Janice Klement of Dallas had two days off from nursing duty at St. Paul's Hospital and spent Monday and Tuesday at home with her parents and family, the Ray Klements.

Entertaining two grandchildren and the youngsters' parents this week are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linn who have as guests their son Jeff Linn, his wife Vera and children Joey and Carol of El Monte, Calif. They arrived Wednesday for a visit after spending the first part of their vacation in Iowa and Illinois. The Linns' other son, Bob, called for a telephone visit Saturday and everybody talked especially Sharon who loves to visit with her grandparents over the phone when she can't be with them in person. The Bob Linns live at La Puente, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanders had as Sunday guests their son and daughter-in-law, the Walter D. Cooks of Fort Worth who brought their grandson, Randy Holcombe of Fort Worth with them to visit his great-grandparents. They all drove to the country to see the Joe Linns and to note improvements made at the Sanders' future home on the Linn lease.

NOW'S THE TIME to save more truck dollars on the more-for-your-dollar trucks!

Your truck dollars are worth a whole lot more at your Chevrolet dealer's right now! First off, you get a head start on saving because summer's the saving season. Then, with a harder working, easier riding Chevy truck, you're set to save every mile you haul. And, finally, at trade-in time, you can expect an extra dividend because of Chevy's traditionally higher resale value. What could be better?

Summer's the season to get extra mileage from your dollars on the trucks built to give you extra miles of hauling. With Independent Front Suspension, Chevrolet trucks keep going thousands of miles longer because far less destructive jar and shake are transmitted through the truck. Chevy I.F.S. trucks work harder, too, in areas where other trucks have to be pampered. And, with Chevy's wide choice of thrifty 6 and hardy V8 power, you can tailor your truck exactly to your job. So how can you miss—especially now during the summer saving season?

New officers are Lee Wolf, grand night; Richard Schumacher, deputy grand knight; Father Damian Wewers, chaplain; Lawrence Streng, chancellor; Willard Zimmerer, recorder; Lambert Bezner, financial secretary; Leo Schmitz, treasurer; Johnny Arendt, lecturer; William Pulte, advocate; Leroy Wiesman, warden; Richard Klement, inside guard; Wilfred Bengfort, outside guard; James Bezner, Tony Reiter and Norbert Zimmerer, trustees.

The grand knight appointed chairmen as follows: Charles Mitchell, council activity; Nick Block, Catholic activity; Doug Hobbs, fraternal; Paul Wiese, public relations.

Colorado Sights Highlight Trip

Sight-seeing in Colorado highlighted the vacation trip of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voth and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer of Lindsay. They missed almost nothing of interest in Colorado Springs and Denver, especially enjoyed going atop Pike's Peak on the cog railroad, touring an underground gold mine, seeing Seven Falls at night and visiting Mother Cabrini's Shrine.

In both Denver and Colorado Springs they had short visits with two of Ray's former classmates in Kansas.

The six-day tour also included general sight-seeing in New Mexico and Kansas, especially in Dodge City, Kansas. While Mr. and Mrs. Voth were away a niece Lorine Voth and Delores Hess of Lindsay were here with their children and Carol Zimmerer stayed here. Susan Zimmerer was with her uncle and family the Bruno Zimmerers and Rudy Zimmerer had a vacation with the Johnny Arendts.

NCCW to Meet in Sherman August 10

From Sherman comes announcement this week that NCCW members of St. Mary's Parish will host the quarterly meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women there Thursday, Aug. 10. A general invitation to women of the area is extended.

The day's program starts at 11 a.m. and those attending are being reminded to bring sack lunches for the noon meal. Benediction will be at 1:30 and the afternoon session begins at 2 p.m.

Featured on the program will be Sisters of Missionary Helpers of the Sacred Heart discussing the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and Sister Blanche of St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas talking on Nurse Recruiting.

Rosemary Bezner And F. J. Schindler To Wed August 12

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bezner of Lindsay have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Rosemary Bezner, to Francis James Schindler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schindler of Pilot Point.

The ceremony will be solemnized Saturday, Aug. 12, in St. Peter Church at Lindsay. Wedding attendants will be Judy Schmitz, Bernadette Bezner and Linda Schindler of Dallas, Ronald Tischler of Pilot Point and Michael and Buster Bezner.

Miss Bezner is a graduate of Lindsay High and the future groom is a graduate of Pilot Point High. He is presently serving in the army at Fort Meade, Maryland.

News of the Men in Service

Near End Of Training

Cadet Dan Hamric is nearing the end of six weeks' training at the Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Hood. Training is scheduled to conclude July 28. Training for Cadet Hamric includes practical experience and instruction in tactical, technical and administrative subjects with special emphasis placed on the duties of a second lieutenant. Twenty-year-old Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hamric and is a student at Texas Western College in El Paso.

On Overseas Leave

Soldiers Lennie Vogel and C. J. Hellman are here on overseas leave with their families, the Joe Vogels and Clarence Hellmans, arriving Sunday for a month's visit. Their next assignment is Germany. They came from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., where both earned advancement recently from Private First Class to Specialist 4th class rating.

Home On Leave

Seabee Floyd Lehnertz, his wife Pat and their three-year-old son Chris of Norfolk, Va., arrived Thursday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehnertz and family and were guests of Jim Lehnertz and family at Lake Texoma for the weekend. On their leave they'll be visiting all the relationship introducing Chris to his daddy's folks. This is his first trip to Muenster.

Visit Before Transfer

Lt. and Mrs. Bill Tilger (Anna Grace Fette) and children Matt, Katie and Maggie, are dividing a two-week stay with their families, Mrs. Kate Reynolds here and the R. J. Tilgers at Trenton. They came from Imperial Beach, Calif., but they won't be going back. After their visits here Lt. Tilger will go to Chicago for two weeks of special classes and then the family will move to Norman, Okla., where he will be assigned as a teacher at the Naval Training Center.

Will Join Husband

Mrs. Max Rumelhart and son Matt are counting down the days until they join Lt. Rumelhart in Norfolk, Va., to make their home. He will be in soon from an overseas tour and will be based in Norfolk. Mrs. Rumelhart and the little boy have ended a visit with Max's parents, the Albert Rumelharts in Metaline, Wash., and are here visiting her parents and family, the John Fishers, until they get word of Lt. Rumelhart's arrival.

Catholic League State Convention To Open Saturday

WEIMAR, Opening here, Saturday morning, July 22, will be the 63rd Annual Convention of the Catholic State League, with Hon. William (Bill) Ratliff, Mayor of Weimar, extending the welcome of the Community to approximately five hundred delegates.

Saturday evening, during a "Youth Rally", Awards will be presented to winners in the Annual Rural Life Contest, in which each year several hundred boys and girls participate. The purpose of this Contest is to help preserve the interest of the participants in their rural way of living and the preservation of the "Family Farm".

Sunday morning, July 23, Bishop Stephen A. Leven, Auxiliary to the Archbishop of San Antonio, will be the celebrant of a Solemn Pontifical High Mass. Bishop Leven will also preach.

At 8:00 p.m. Sunday, the Houston Chapter of the Cardinal Mindtinty Foundation will present a program. Due to a large expected attendance it will be held in Weimar's Veterans' base ball park.

Holding Meeting of Local Secretaries of the Catholic Life Insurance Union, an affiliate of the Catholic State League, will precede the opening of the Convention. The Insurance Union is observing the 60th Anniversary of its organization.

Presiding at all general meetings will be State President Nick Block, of Lindsay, Texas. Presiding at the Ladies' Meeting will be their President, Mrs. Henrietta D. Galle, San Antonio, with John P.
