The shallowness of some people's thinking is amazing. In California a school board yielded to the pressure of nitwits . . . or subversives . . . and placed a ban on the singing of Christmas hymns because reference to the Christ Child in public schools violates the principle of separation of church and state.

"Jingle Bells", "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and other songs not based on the real spirit of Christmas are permissible, but there must be no religion in the school's observance of the event which is primarily a religious feast.

How can they be so absurd? Where do they get the silly idea that all religion must be banned to avoid establishment of a state church? In their pitiful ignorance they do not seem to understand that our first amendment is intended to guarantee freedom of religion, not the absence of religion. Our forefathers opposed adoption of any denomination as a state church but earnestly encouraged all people to practice the religion of their choice.

How then, can Christmas hymns violate the constitution? There is nothing denominational about them. All of them are cherished by all Christians.

To carry this point farther we can say that Christmas hymns are a part of American tradition. The country was settled by Christians. Its constitution and customs are based on Christian principle. Its political essence derives from Christianity's insistence on the freedom and dignity of the individual.

There, most probably, is the real target for this attack on Christian custom. The purpose is to hurt the country, not to help it. The diabolical intent to weaken the nation's religious and moral standard is cleverly hidden behind distorted references to the separation of church and state.

The real pity is that men of public responsibility do not have the sense to see through such demands . . . or the integrity to refuse such violation of the traditions cherished by most of their constituents. Suppose a few people, whether through malice or ignorance, object to honoring Christ on Christmas. Does it make sense to offend many more people, and God Himself, to avoid offending them?

This is similar to our nation's absurdity in relation to prayers in the UN. To please the Soviets we agreed not to open meetings with prayer. We preferred to offend God rather than Stalin.

Somebody had better wake up. There's more method than madness in these efforts to get Christ out of Christmas and God out of public life. And it points up the fact that our country is seriously threatened by enemies within, even though some public officials claim not to see them.

All of us fervently hope that there is sufficient reason for last week's widespread elation over publication of President Kennedy's interview in the Soviet newspaper Izvestia. Many expressed satisfaction that the American viewpoint on world problems was finally permitted to go through to the people of Russia. Naturally, it is presumed that the paper's four million circulation reached many more readers, especially since the article was so completely different from anything previously offered in the controlled Soviet press.

Despite appearances, however, it seems like a good idea to suppress enthusiasm. Knowing the Moscow bosses' inclination to use trickery whenever it serves their purpose, and knowing also their disinclination to permit circulation of unfavorable publicity, we can reasonably suspect that the president did not get a fair deal.

First of all, what assurance do we have that the message reached all four million of the paper's regular subscribers? It's possible that only a small number of copies had it, enough to reach the right people who would not be influenced by it but still make a point of spreading the word that it was printed. True, this suspicion is less than complimentary to Khrushchev and his gang, but what reason do we have from their past record to believe that they were on the level? It's more logical Sacred Heart is first to go into action, meeting the Whitesboro teams. Girls will play at 1 p.m. and boys at 2:30.

Muenster High teams will meet Valley View first, the girls at 5 p.m. and the boys at 9 p.m.

Those opening games will decide whether teams go into the champ or consolation bracket.

Next week both schools have home games Tuesday night. Sanger comes to MHS, Saint Jo comes to Sacred Heart.

Parochial Pupils Appear Friday in Christmas Show

"Around the World at Christmas Time," a five act play by children of the parochial school primary department, is ready to go on the stage Friday night at 8 in Muenster High Auditorium.

The school's youngest students are poised for their song and dance routines, their recitations and tableaux telling of Christmas in many lands. The performers will be dressed in costumes native to the countries whose Yule customs they depict and they'll be singing in German, French, Spanish, Irish and English.

Everyone is invited to attend, assured of a completely enchanting 70 minutes, according to those who have seen and heard the actors in rehearsals. Admission will be fifty and twenty-five cents.

Talk Scheduled Here Wednesday On Civil Defense

What to do in case of widespread storm damage, enemy bombing, or other catastrophe? These problems will be discussed next Wednesday night in Muenster High auditorium at a community meeting sponsored by Community Progress Association.

Homer Koon of Gainesville will speak and answer questions on the subject. Everyone interested is urged to attend. Meeting starts at 8 p.m.

Mrs. A. Hoinig Is New President of St. Anne's Society

Election of officers featured the December meeting of the parish St. Anne's Society Sunday night when fifty members were present for the session in the Parish Hall.

Results of the election put Mrs. Alphonse Hoinig in office to head the organization as president. Other new names on the official roster are Mrs. John Herr, vice president and Mrs. Andy Wimmer, secretary. Mrs. Leo Henschel continues as treasurer.

In other business conducted by outgoing president, Mrs. Frank Herr, members favored presentation of the customary Christmas gifts to the pastors and Benedictine Sisters.

Father Martin gave a short address and reminded the group that all Confraternity Discussion Clubs will have a joint meeting next Sunday instead of the various group meetings for study. The program Sunday, after evening services, will depict and explain the Mass.

A coming event in which the society will participate is a reception honoring the Rt. Rev. Alfred Hoinig, newly elected abbot of Corpus Christi Abbey. He will be in Muenster on New Year's Day to celebrate a pontifical mass.

After adjournment there was a social hour and Mrs. Herbie Miller won the door prize.

Clothing Drive Tops 1960 Record By 2000 Pounds

The largest shipment of clothing ever sent by this community to world charities, over 6000 pounds, is on its way to San Francisco. And, through the generous cooperation of two trucking firms, it is getting a free ride all the way. Each of the companies assured Father Alcuin Kubis last week that they would be glad to help.

Central Freight Lines picked up the shipment Tuesday at the Youth Center, where it was packaged by volunteer workers following the drive just before Thanksgiving. Central took it to Dallas and Gillette Trucking Company is taking it to the National Catholic Welfare Council headquarters at San Francisco for shipment to distressed foreign areas.

Exact weight of the shipment is not known. Since the truck line did not charge it did not bother to weigh. However Father Alcuin reported that there were 69 packages with an average weight of near 100 pounds. A similar estimate was made by Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, local chairman for the drive. From 13 years of experience heading "Operation Clothes Closet" here she estimated that packages were near 100 pounds each and the total can be estimated at no less than 6000 pounds.

The community's previous high in the annual drive was last year's shipment of almost 4000 pounds.

Items included are outer and inner clothing for adults and children, shoes, bed clothing and hospital bandages.

Leans Nudge Fats 45-44 in Benefit Basketball Game

It was a big evening for all last Monday night as local Fats and Leans engaged in a basketball struggle as a fund raising event for the Community Progress Association. Spectators got their money's worth in the surprisingly tight game, which the Leans won 45-44, players got sore muscles and CPA got about 45 bucks.

It was a see-saw contest all the way, fats holding a 25-23 lead at intermission and getting nosed out by the single point in the end.

Leading scores were Jerry Hoinig 14, Edgar Dyer 12 and Gene Hartman 10 for the Leans; Wendell Richey 13 and Dickie Cain 11 for the fats.

An added attraction was a game by Pee Wees of Sacred Heart and public schools. In the first half public school took a 10-3 lead, but the parochial boys gained 2 in the next period for the final 20-15 count. D. Hess made 9 and R. Wimmer 4 for Sacred Heart, Cain and McElreath made 6 each for the public school.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Four-year-old Neil Hutchon, son of the A. J. Hutchons, is a patient at Gainesville Sanitarium where he had surgery Wednesday to remove scar tissue from his stomach. He will be hospitalized five or six days and cute and pretty cards will help him pass the time in bed.

Don Flusche underwent surgery Tuesday at the Sanitarium and will be a patient there about a week.

Miss Clara Streng entered Gainesville Sanitarium Sunday night and had a gallstone operation Tuesday.

Vincent Felderhoff was dismissed from the Sanitarium Tuesday after being a patient for treatment, tests and observation since Saturday when he suffered a light heart attack. He'll have to "take it easy" for about a week the doctor said.

Herbert Knabe is recovering normally from surgery performed at Nocona Hospital on Nov. 29. He was to be hospitalized about a week and expects to be back at home by the weekend.

Six-year-old Jimmy Endres took a tumble Friday from the neighbor's wash house roof and struck a water hydrant as he landed, ripping a gash in his hip that needed 13 stitches. He's the Donald Endres little boy. The injury didn't keep him out of first grade classes at Sacred Heart School.

Four-year-old Gina Felderhoff, youngest of the Arthur Felderhoffs, will be having her right arm in a sling and her shoulder taped for a couple of weeks on account of a broken collar bone. It happened in a fall during play.

Miss LaQuita Sandmann of Valley View is recovering from an emergency appendicitis operation performed Saturday midnight at Flow Memorial Hospital in Denton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sandmann.

Mrs. Dennis Hofbauer was a patient for medical care and observation at Gainesville Sanitarium Saturday night to Tuesday morning.

News from Mrs. L. A. Bernauer is good. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams visited her at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth Sunday, found her sitting up and enjoying her greeting cards. She said tell everyone she's doing fine and will soon leave the hospital for convalescence at the home of her niece and nephew, the Charlie Stelzers, in Fort Worth. And then home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seyler of Valley View were involved in a three-car collision Sunday evening about 5:30 at Elm Bridge south of Gainesville and were taken to M&S Hospital but were dismissed after treatment of minor cuts and bruises. The other cars were driven by a Oklawaha woman and an Oklahoma City man. No one was seriously hurt.

Joe Williams of Myra, a sophomore at Muenster High, was seriously ill during the weekend in a Sherman hospital. Sunday his ailment was diagnosed as polio and he was moved to an isolation ward at Parkland Hospital in Dallas. Meanwhile he developed yellow jaundice. Joe's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Williams. His mother is a teacher at Myra school and his father is on the Gainesville police force. A substitute teacher is replacing Mrs. Williams so she can stay at the hospital. In a telephone conversation to Mr. Williams Tuesday evening Mrs. Williams reported Joe much improved and a slight doubt about his illness being polio. Or perhaps a mild case. He had the Salk vaccine. But he will be hospitalized indefinitely and will enjoy hearing from his classmates and other friends. He's in Room 725 at Parkland Hospital.

Members of Gainesville's St. Mary's Altar Society extend a general invitation to everyone to visit their Christmas Bazaar Saturday. Pretty and practical hand made gifts will be for sale at Schad and Pulte's from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

City Considers Law for Control Of Dogs and Cats

To guard against rabies and also to eliminate the nuisance of stray dogs and cats are the objects of a new city ordinance now being considered by the city council.

The proposed law had its first reading and it will have two more readings, with possible amendments, before it is voted upon. Council members are anxious to work out a regulation with the minimum expense and trouble necessary to assure effective control.

Some points already determined as necessary to that end are vaccinations and licenses for all dogs and cats that people wish to keep. To secure a license the owner must show a veterinarian's certificate. Owners will also be expected to keep their animals under control. Strays that become pests are subject to impounding, and fine for negligence. In general, the purpose is to avoid having infected animals around and also to hold owners responsible for troubles caused by their pets.

Tigerettes Win Champ Trophy at Cage Tournament

In a classic struggle with Forestburg last Saturday the Tigerettes claimed the champ trophy of the invitation tournament at the State School for Girls in Gainesville. The score was 33-32 ending a tussle that was tense all the way.

Starting slow Sacred Heart trailed 7-2 at the first quarter and snapped back for a 16-16 tie at the half. Next half the Tigerettes jumped into the lead and managed to stay ahead. Joyce Hacker accounted for 17 of the points, Joyce Haverkamp and Carol Wimmer made 8 each.

Other Sacred Heart activity for the week was games with Saint Jo there and Valley View here.

Friday night the girls swamped Saint Jo 80-29 as Hacker poured in 50. The boys game started as a good contest, with the Tigers leading 18-15 at the half. After that they pulled ahead steadily to the final 46-32. Johnny Wolf made 27 of the points, Virgil Hess and Jim Otto 8 each.

Tuesday night Tigerettes won again and Tigers lost a close one after a swell game. Hacker's 56 was the big factor in the 72-36 win over Valley View girls.

The boys game was a see saw, each team ahead several times until the 37-37 tie with less than 30 seconds to go. The Eagles broke through then for a lay-up shot and the 2 point lead. Sacred Heart did likewise but missed its chance.

Scattered drizzles and short showers last Monday amounted to .24 inch and a trace the next day brought this month's moisture to .28 inch. The total for November was 2.89. The year's measure now stands at 29.51 inches.

Gertrude Kreitz 64, Dies Monday Of Heart Attack

Miss Gertrude Kreitz, a resident of Muenster for 52 years, died suddenly at noon Monday in a nursing home at Wynne Wood, Okla., death resulting from a heart attack. She was 64 and had been afflicted with a heart ailment for several years.

The body was brought to Muenster and rosary was recited at the Miller Chapel at 4 and at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning with Father Alcuin Kubis as celebrant of the requiem mass. He also delivered the funeral sermon and conducted grave side rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Herman Luttmer, Henry Luttmer, Wilfred Sicking, Ben Voth, Herbert Meurer and Joe W. Fisher.

Miss Kreitz was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mary Kreitz. She was born in Bastrop, Texas, Feb. 7, 1897, later moved to Austin with her family and came to Muenster with them in 1904. They lived on a farm southwest of town. After the death of her parents, Miss Kreitz continued living on the home place with her brother John Kreitz until his death in March 1957. Since then she has been in nursing homes.

Survivors are one sister, Mrs. William Seyler of Valley View, two nieces, four nephews and a number of cousins.

Indians, Thieves Both Clean MHS At Sanger Game

Muenster Hornets were twice cleaned at Sanger Tuesday. The Indians cleaned them on the basketball court while burglars cleaned them in the dressing room.

Combined losses as reported by Coach Glenn Richardson are about $35 in cash, a watch and a pocket knife. Sanger school officials and police are investigating but have given no report through Wednesday.

In the game the Hornets were clearly outclassed and went down by a score of 52-34. Sanger moved ahead early and kept gaining for counts of 12-4, 29-18, 44-25 and 52-34 ending the periods. McElreath scored 9, Wilson and Flusche 8 each, and Hellman 7.

The girls game was a dandy, tied 6-6 at the first quarter and 10-10 at the half. Next period Muenster pulled ahead 18-16 and held their narrow lead until the last 8 seconds. A foul then gave Sanger two free throws and both were good putting Sanger ahead 22-21. Cain, Hellman and Tughit 9, 7 and 5 points respectively.

Entertaining Lindsay last Friday the MHS teams did better. Girls won 38-21 and boys 40-27.

First half of the game saw Muenster girls take a comfortable lead 20-7. Next quarter Lindsay gained 2 points and the count was 29-19, then Muenster gained again to 38-21. Hellman and Cain scored 16 and 12 for Muenster, Haverkamp 14 for Lindsay.

About the same happened in the boys game. Lindsay trailed 10-6 at the first period and 14-12 at the half. The third period was Muenster's, making the score 29-16 and the last was even, ending 40-27.

Hellman made 21 and Whitt 6. Morisak, Hermes and Haverkamp each hit 6 for Lindsay.

WHERE IS OUR SENSE OF VALUE?

When parents complain about teachers overloading their children with school work on the night of a football game, it's time they adjusted their sense of values. Recently the school board instructed the faculty to "get tough" on the students so they might be better prepared for higher education when they leave high school or simply better prepared for life itself if they don't seek higher education.

One of the difficulties teachers face everywhere nowadays is the conflict for their students' time and interests by the numerous extra-curricular activities of the schools. These activities are very valuable in broadening the experience and developing the personalities of the students and there are supplemental educational benefits, but that's where they belong... as supplements. Basic education should come first.

Some students simply try to carry too heavy a load. Proper counseling can help advise some of those who over-load themselves.

But to the study load... let's back up those teachers who are trying to teach. They're only trying to better equip the minds of your child and mine.

THE TRUE SACRIFICE

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, recently said:

"President Kennedy merits the support of every American in his courageous stand against the threat of the Soviets in Berlin. His request for manpower, money and machinery is being granted promptly. His call for sacrifice by all citizens will be accepted in good faith — providing the Administration, the Congress and the Washington political bureaucracy are also willing to sacrifice.

"The 'sacrifice' we have a right to expect from the Administration leadership is an indefinite suspension of the torrent of lavish spending proposals that have been flowing from the White House to Capitol Hill.

"We are willing to ask 'What can we do for America?' but the Administration and the Congress must demonstrate their good faith by halting the constant barrage of legislation that encourages all of us more frequently to ask: 'What can America do for us?'"

HOW TO BECOME A SATELLITE

The president of the Transport Workers Union, reports the UPI, has called for the whole-hog socialization of all transportation facilities in this country, from airlines to taxicabs. This union has 150,000 members.

At the same time, he says that takeover of transportation by the federal government should be accompanied by drastically curtailed work weeks and higher wages.

The possibilities in this grandiose proposal stagger the imagination. To say the least, socialization of all our transportation services would inevitably lead to the socialization of everything else of any consequence.

On a lesser level, does the Union's president actually believe that his labor group or any other labor group would benefit if the government were the employer? If so, he should take a look at the Iron Curtain countries. Government is everybody's boss there — and the average worker is in a slave status. He does what he is told, gets what dictators want to give him, and likes it — or else!

Finally, the Kremlin would certainly be pleased if we should go in for nationalization on this scale. In time we'd become another communist state, in practice if not in name. Then maybe we'd be allowed to join up with the Iron Curtain nations, on a satellite basis.

THE GOVERNMENT COOKIE CRUMBLES DIFFERENTLY

Just for kicks, let's say you open a cookie shop. You hire two bakers to bake the cookies. Business isn't so good. You sell only half your cookies. You find you need only one baker. So you must lay off the second baker.

That's business, whether the product is cookies or automobiles. If sales are up, the boss can hire more workers. When sales go down, the payroll must be cut.

Unless you're in the government business. And if you pay taxes, you are. It's a different story when it comes to federal, state and local government payrolls. Figures recently released by the Department of Labor prove it's a secure man who grabs a government job.

Government workers are paid by the taxpayers. When business conditions are good, there are more private workers paying more taxes and there is plenty of dough to pay public workers.

But when business is bad, private workers are laid off and less taxes are paid. Does the government payroll shrink accordingly, as in the cookie business? No sir. It goes up.

A government worker getting $10,000 a year takes the federal taxes paid by a dozen or more auto workers. When those auto workers are laid off, does the government man lose his job? No. He hires an assistant.

During the year ending in July 1961, the total of U. S. people employed dropped from 68,689,000 to 68,499,000. Unemployment increased from 4,017,000 to 5,140,000.

During the same time there was an increase in government jobs — from 8,208,000 to 8,561,000. No other job classification except government had an increase.

While the boss made less money, he hired more workers. The cookie crumbles differently in the business of government.

What was it our top government employee said about making sacrifices?—Exchange

SOMEBODY BETTER KEEP SCORE

There should be no mistake: this cold war in the world is actually World War III. Now any nation fighting a war should, at least, once in a while, keep score on its victories, its losses, its objectives. There should be a national or world scoreboard.

Somebody should keep score, but it seems nobody is. A failure to keep score during a World Series in baseball might conceivably be justified — after all, it's only a game. But this "cold war" is more than a game. It's our struggle for survival.

If you'd "rather be Red than dead," stop reading this now. But if you want to keep the Americanism that is still ours, let's start keeping score right now.

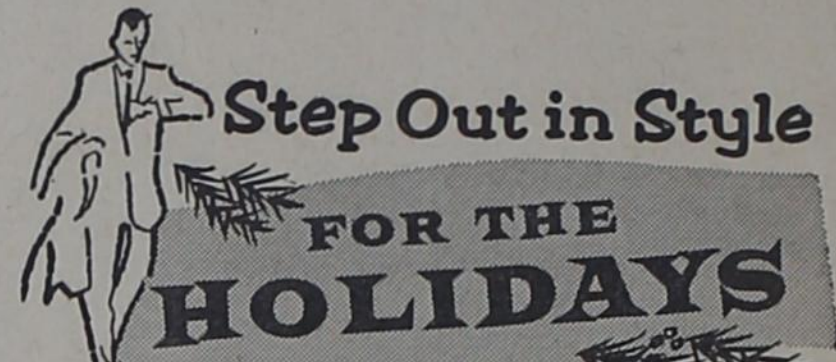

We lost in Laos. We delayed the game between innings, for a month or two, but we lost. The Reds are ahead of us in Cuba by a top-heavy score. The Soviets have the bases loaded in the Congo with already many runs across. They have a man on base in Brazil with no outs. In British Guiana they're way out in front with a communist home-run king at bat, and that bat paid for by us in the form of a loan of 1 1/4 million dollars just before the communist Jagan's election.

West Berlin, Germany? That one still in doubt. But tally the whole score of this World War III in any one of a dozen different ways, and we're losing it badly.

The folks at Washington are still hoping to even the score by sitting down at the bargaining table with the Kremlin. There have been 339 sessions so far for this purpose. By what strange type of logic can anyone think that a nuclear-ban agreement will be signed in the 340th session? And would it mean anything to the communists if it is signed, —Exchange

To be visible from the earth with the naked eye, a sunspot must cover 1/2,000 of the area of the sun, or about 500 million square miles.

From Farm Journal: "The U. S. government has lived within its income just six times in the last 30 years! It faces another deficit in 1962 — of perhaps $6 billion. It owes $290 billion, which is more than $1,600 for every man, woman and child in the country. More than that, its future obligation, already voted by Congress, come to $750 billion. That means every person in the U. S. has been mortgaged nearly $4,100 worth — before any of the new current legislation is passed. . . . All this can mean only that your dollars will buy less and your taxes will go on up."

SH Senior Girls Usher at Congress
Eleven Sacred Heart High senior girls report a "once in a life time experience" a day never to be forgotten, when they spent Friday at the fourth international Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Congress in Dallas serving as C-C-Dettes in the Statler-Hilton Hotel. Their duties consisted of ushering, escorting bishops and priests at the congress and serving as pages. And they attended the colorful closing ceremonies in the Grand Ball Room. An added treat was dinner that evening in the hotel. All 11 were guests of Bishop Danglmayr for the meal. Those in the group were Lucille Dankesreiter, Agnes Eckart, Patsy Endres, Joyce Hacker, Kathy McGannon, Charlene Otto, Charlotte Schilling, Loretta Schmitt, Alice Walter, Frances Walterscheid and Carol Wimmer.

Taxpayer: One who doesn't have to pass a civil service examination to work for the government.

Among the chief worries of today's business executive is the large number of unemployed still on the payroll.

A salesman was stunned to see a dog playing checkers with a country store owner. "Must be a pretty smart dog," the salesman said. "He's not so hot," the storekeeper said, "I beat him two out of three." "I bet he's good enough to sit in on a poker game," the salesman insisted. "He can play, all right," the storeman replied, "but everytime he gets a good hand, he wags his tail."

Girls' 4-H Clubs See Demonstration Of Christmas Decor

Sacred Heart 4-H Girls' Clubs saw a demonstration on making Christmas decorations at their December meetings Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Bernice Thurman, county HD agent, gave the instructions, illustrating with a number of lovely Yuletide things she brought with her. Shown were holiday table centerpieces, a variety of Christmas favors, a white toothpick tree decorated with aqua balls, a colorful balloon tree, a green net tree and several ornamental pieces composed of bright Christmas balls.

Each group had the same program at different meetings. Charlotte Wolf conducted the senior session and Janice Vogel reported nine members present. Candy Fette presided for the intermediate meeting and Judy Dangelmayr, reporter, counted 53 girls in attendance. Paula Herr reported for the junior group with Shirley Klement presiding and 48 members present.

All meetings ended with group singing of Christmas carols. Recreational leaders leading the singing were Joan Kaiser and Jane Henscheid, senior; Rita Fisher and Dianne Shumaker, intermediate; Rita Fette and Jackie Wimmer, junior.

Family in Reunion For St. Nick Party

Dangelmayr families were together for their annual observance of St. Nicholas' feast day, celebrating Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felderhoff.

The jolly saint made his appearance at the gathering bringing a huge sack from which he distributed 56 bags of goodies to those present.

The A. J. Felderhoffs' little Kathy had a birthday Sunday. It was her second and she got special attention with everybody joining in the happy birthday song.

After the excitement died down refreshments of cup cakes, coffee and soft drinks were served.

St. Nick Greet SH Students and Presents Gifts

In keeping with a tradition of over 70 years in Sacred Heart Parish the feast of St. Nicholas was observed in the customary manner again this year. The jolly saint, in person, greeted all the grade school children and distributed 456 sacks of goodies.

His visit this year was a day early on account of conflicting events on Wednesday, Dec. 6. Surprised and delighted youngsters "had a ball" Tuesday afternoon, visiting with St. Nicholas and entertaining him.

In each room the children sang carols including the songs they will sing in their Christmas program Friday night. Without notes or music the primary tots sang in English, German, French, Spanish and Irish. Only a few of the very youngest, seeing the kind old man in the bright red suit for the first time, were shy.

Sister Canisia made advance arrangements for St. Nick's appearance and roommothers helped him distribute his gifts.

This "little Christmas" dates back to the earliest days of the community. It's a custom that came with the first settlers and has been kept alive through the years.

4-H Boys See Film On Packing Plant

Sacred Heart 4-H intermediate club boys saw a film on the Fort Worth Stock Yards and packing plants as the program for their December meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Brooks Smith, assistant county agent, showed the film after routine business and a discussion of the annual County 4-H Christmas party which is an event of next Monday, Dec. 11, in Gainesville. Dale Klement, president, was presiding officer and David Fisher reported 24 members present.

Michelle Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Fuhrmann of Terrell is on the road to recovery now and gaining weight but will still be in an incubator at Baylor Hospital in Dallas for another week or ten days. The four pound girl, born Nov. 14, in a Terrell hospital, became ill with yellow jaundice when she was six days old and was transferred to Baylor Hospital. She dropped from birth weight to three pounds six ounces. By last Friday she had gained to four pounds one ounce. Mrs. Clem Hofbauer, maternal grandmother, was with the baby two days at Baylor Hospital when family members were constantly at her side.

Two elderly ladies were going on their first ride in a jet. When the pilot walked through the plane prior to the takeoff, one woman stopped him.

"Please don't start going faster than sound," she told him. "We want to talk."

* Blonde, blue-eyed Mrs. Emily Terrall, of St. Helens, Oregon, is the new "Mrs. United States Savings Bonds of 1962." As a Treasury volunteer Goodwill Ambassador, she will tour the nation during the coming year in the promotion of Savings Bonds. The 37-year-old housewife won the title from among 51 state contestants for the "Mrs. America" title in competition just closed at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where she appeared as "Mrs. Oregon." The Terrall family is no stranger to Savings Bonds. Husband of the new "Mrs. Savings Bonds" is an industrial engineer, and buys bonds regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan. Mrs. Terrall, an alumna of the University of Washington, has been active in the PTA-sponsored school stamp program. And needless to say, their three sons—aged 7, 9 and 12—are all avid stamp buyers. Mrs. Terrall is the fifth winner of the "Mrs. Savings Bonds" title. She succeeds Mrs. Vivian Ackerman, of Tucson, Arizona.

4-H Girls Start Sewing Workshop

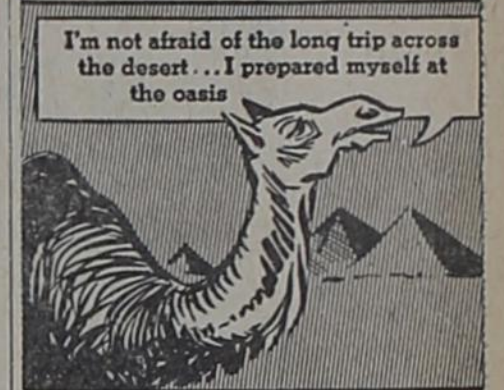

A group of 4-H girls have organized a clothing workshop at Sacred Heart School and are meeting once a week to sew the garments they will model in the annual dress review.

Janice Vogel and Charlotte Wolf help younger girls by explaining the use of a sewing machine and attachments. And they showed how to make a sewing box by covering a cigar box.

Members of the workshop are Linda Rohmer, Imogene Vogel, Paula Herr, Shirley Klement, Debbie Cain and Linda Wilson.

If a 30-foot fence has three regularly spaced posts, how long will a 12-post fence be?
Ans.: Nope — not 120 feet! Obviously a 30-foot fence with three posts would have 15 feet between posts, disregarding space taken by the posts. So a 12-post fence would have eleven 15-foot intervals, and would be 165 feet long.

Tops on Muenster's want list are overnight lodging facilities and a dentist, according to a recent survey conducted by the Community Progress Association.

Those two suggested improvements received 24 and 22 votes respectively in a questionnaire given to the school children for delivery to their parents. In response the CPA received 106 replies listing twenty different suggestions.

All of the recommendations originated with the persons replying. The survey cards they received did not list suggestions to be checked off, but had only a blank space for a person to submit an idea.

The two leading suggestions were strong favorites. Others and the votes received by each were: Renewed vigor on hospital drive, 9; Supervised youth activities, 8; Eye doctor, 7; Park and playground, 6; More job opportunities, 5; Garbage disposal facilities, 5; More sidewalks, 4; Pay for present projects, 4; Rebuild ball park fence, 2; Community fall-out shelters, 2; Books and assistance for city library, 1; Pre-school nursery, 1; Signal light at railroad crossing, 1; Brighter street lights at schools, 1; City mail delivery, 1; Stop signs at major intersections, 1; Paved road to swimming pool, 1; General city beautification, 1;

THE KINGDOM WITHIN BY GENEVIEVE CAULFIELD
Edited by Ed Fitzgerald

This is a story of a gallant and indomitable woman who made her tragic handicap a power for good in the world. Blind since infancy, Genevieve Caulfield has never for a moment questioned her share of responsibility as a member of the human race.

When she was growing up in the last decade of the nineteenth century, only a start had been made toward educating the blind and equipping them for independence. It was Genevieve Caulfield's mother who taught her early that blindness was no bar to a normal life. So when, in her seventeenth year, roused by discriminatory laws against Japanese, she decided that she must go to the Orient and work for a closer understanding with the Asian people, she set upon a road which has no ending.

Equipped with a teacher's training, a round-trip ticket and limitless zest, Miss Caulfield went to Japan in 1923. Her adventure was launched. The years there, before the threat of war made her presence a danger to her friends, were rich and satisfying. As a teacher of English she proved herself more than capable of making her way in the world of the sighted. She came to know the Japanese with love and trust. She adopted as a

KNOW THAT ALUMINUM UTENSILS COOK BETTER BECAUSE THEY CONDUCT HEAT FASTER AND MORE EVENLY... BUT FEW REALIZE THAT IN NAPOLEON'S TIME COOKWARE COULD HAVE BEEN MADE MORE CHEAPLY FROM GOLD OR SILVER. ALUMINUM WAS THEN WORTH $5-15 A POUND.

TOWARDS THE END OF THE 19TH CENTURY, NEW DEVELOPMENTS CUT THE PRICE OF ALUMINUM FROM $1.13 IN 1885 TO 23¢ A POUND BY 1900... EVEN TODAY ALUMINUM COSTS ONLY 26¢ A POUND.

CONSTANT IMPROVEMENTS IN ALUMINUM TECHNOLOGY HAVE MADE TODAY'S POTS AND PANS FAR SUPERIOR TO THOSE OF GRANDMA'S TIME. MODERN ALUMINUM ALLOYS ARE STRONGER THAN STRUCTURAL STEEL WHILE RETAINING THEIR LIGHTNESS AND HEAT TRANSMISSION QUALITIES. AMERICAN DESIGN GENIUS HAS SHAPED THIS ALUMINUM INTO A VAST ARRAY OF DECORATIVE, EFFICIENT APPLIANCES AND UTENSILS TO SERVE EVERY COOKING NEED.

Birthday Roundup Fetes 7-Year-Old Joe Swirczynski

daughter the girl Haruko, gave her training in America, and embarked with her on a new, untested enterprise that was to be the rarest adventure of all.

This was the founding of a school for the blind in Bangkok. With a handful of pioneer pupils to whom she taught Braille and English, the three R's and handicrafts, Miss Caulfield gave a resounding and affirmative answer to the doubting Thomases who said the blind were incapable of learning. She also gave her students a self-dignity they had never known. The school thrived, even during the trying years of war when Miss Caulfield was virtually a prisoner in the Japanese-held country, a victim of conflicting loyalties.

Though the war years brought losses by death and hardships both grueling and amusing, Miss Caulfield was sustained by her faith and by drama of youth within her own household. With war's end she returned to Japan, eventually to embark upon still another adventure — the starting of a school in Vietnam, where she is presently engaged helping to set up a national program for the blind.

And so Genevieve Caulfield's story continues. It is an exultant one, told with simplicity, joy and love.

Joe Walter Swirczynski celebrated being seven with a birthday roundup for eleven classmates and friends Sunday, two days ahead of his birth date which is December 5.

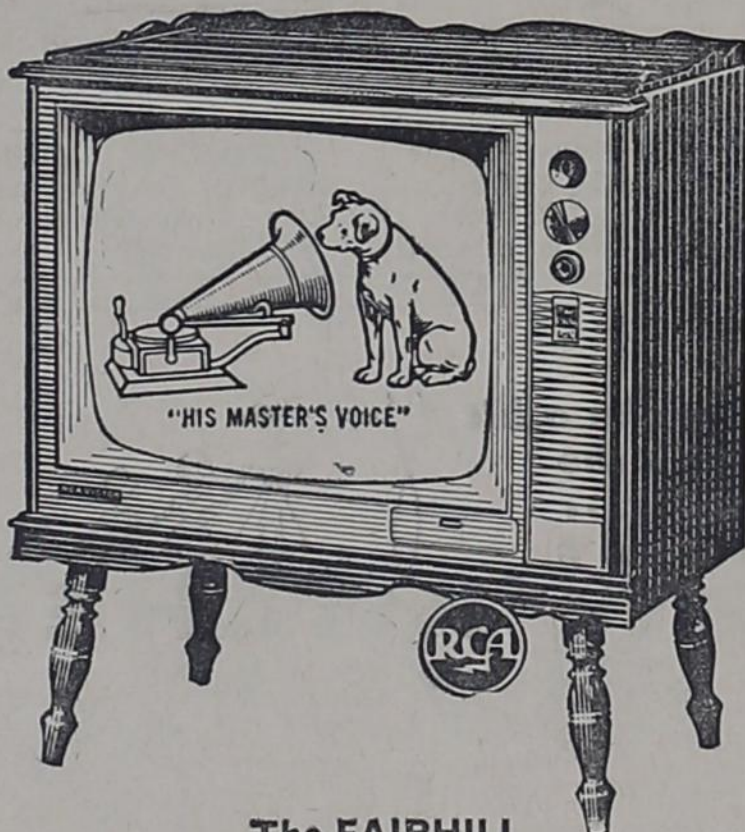

The little buckaroos were corralled at the home of Joey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swirczynski, where they showered Joey with gifts before being taken to his grandparents' ranch for a wiener roast and marshmallow toast. Assisting with the outdoor activity were Mr. and Mrs. Al Walter and Miss Sandra Walter.

The picnic table was centered with a big horse shoe shaped birthday cake decorated with cowboys and Indians, and a miniature chuck wagon. Each little cowboy received a party favor and then played ball and other games and explored the tree house until time to return to the corral.

Celebrating with Joey were Ernest Martin, Allen Miller, Allen Ray Fleitman, Ludwig Kieninger Jr., Giles Walterscheid, Hank Trachta, Ricky Swirczynski, Mark Schmitt, Myron Hess, Lonnie Hellman, Davy Voth and Joey's sisters Mary Jane, Lou Ann and Dona.

The streets in Salt Lake City are 132 feet wide; Brigham Young requested that the intersections be left wide enough for 16 head of oxen, a covered wagon and trailer to make a "U" turn so they wouldn't have to back up.

Mr. BOSTON'S ROCKING CHAIR KENTUCKY WHISKEY A BLEND

People in Europe, England, and Canada have long known that the finest quality liquors are produced at lower proofs. It takes low-proof mildness to let full flavor come through; higher proofs deaden taste buds, and often mask unpleasant flavor. Old Mr. Boston produces Rocking Chair full flavored at 80 proof which requires less mixer and avoids that "watered-down" taste. It's America's largest selling 80 proof blended whiskey!

Old Mr. BOSTON 80 PROOF VACUUM DISTILLED DRY GIN

SH Sophs Solicit Cancelled Stamps In Mission Work

There's a call for cancelled stamps. Sophomores of Sacred Heart High and their class sponsor Sister Theresina are in a stamp contest again this year and can earn ten extra points if they ship stamps to contest headquarters by December 15. The first shipment, sent in before October 1, earned 15 extra points and put Sacred Heart in top position after the first roundup. The students hope to retain this top spot all through the contest which ends next April 15.

While a contest prize and the distinction of winning are gratifying, that is not the object of the stamp hunt. The real object is mission work. Sale of stamps by mission stamp headquarters to stamp markets for resale to collectors bring money for supplies to missionaries in the poorest of far-off mission posts.

All stamps are being sought but some are of special value. The duck stamps — that is hunters' permits — and Vatican City stamps rate especially. Other high point stamps include commemoratives, foreign, pre-cancelled, postage due, special delivery and high denomination stamps.

During the years, stamp collecting has become more or less a community project. Everybody helps by contributing stamps, other school children help the sophomores in sorting and cutting from envelopes and other members of the parish join in the activity by helping on the last cut-out — leaving about a half inch border of paper. Stamps cut too close lost part of their value. Busy at this last job now are Mrs. Alfons Koesler Sr. and Mrs. Frank Klement.

For past contributions, Sister Theresina and the school are grateful. Three times they

Mrs. Arthur Bayer conducted the meeting. Before it

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Properly devised farming systems can do much to improve the productivity of soils in the Upper Elm-Red Conservation District. Such farming system should include rotation of row crops with a "close growing" crop such as wheat, sweet clover or perennial grass sod, and adequate fertilization of the crops in the system.

Research, over a twelve year period, at Texas Research Foundation at Renner, Texas has proved that wheat is more satisfactory than either sweet clover or perennial grass sod in these farming systems.
There are two reasons for this: First, the income from wheat was usually higher than for either the clover or the grass sod, and second, it returned much larger quantities of above ground residue to the soil than either the clover or the sod cut for hay.

It is imperative that all crop residue be returned to the soil with as much left on the surface as possible. They should not be grazed because they are too low in such essential nutrients as protein and phosphorus to have much value as a livestock feed. The residue should never be burned. "Every time a farmer burns an acre of wheat stubble, he burns a $10.00 bill, the value of the plant nutrients destroyed in the flames", said Dr. C. L. Lundell, Director of the Foundation.

The use of phosphate fertilizers in the farming system is essential to maintenance of the productivity of the soil.
The total and available phosphorous content of the soil declined in the systems not receiving phosphate fertilization.

Fertilization of grain sorghum is advisable to increase grain yields and assure production of 3,600 to 4,000 pounds of crop residue required to maintain the soil organic matter and protect the soil from raindrop splash erosion.

Date for the school children's annual Christmas program has been set for Friday, Dec. 15. It will be presented in the Parish Hall following evening church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hoenig of Irving spent the last days of their week's vacation here with her parents, the Joe J. Neus and his parents, the Joe Hoenigs at Muenster and while there got acquainted with their newest nephew, Brian Bindel. The travelers visited Grandma Neus and the J. W. Walter-scheids at Carlsbad, N. M., toured the Caverns, visited in El Paso and Old Mexico and came back through the Big Bend area with a visit at Big Bend National Park. They have interesting pictures to show of the trip, including snapshots of deer along the highway.

Billy Ray Stoffels and his wife and two daughters Carolyn and Sharon have ended a three-month stay in San Antonio and are located in El Paso now. He is a public accountant and the family does quite a bit of traveling. El Paso will be home until February. In a letter to his

LITTLE PATIENTS PRODUCE OWN NATIVITY SCENE

This week the proud and beaming little boys and girls at the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children were busy building and painting a new Nativity scene for all to see and enjoy this Christmas. Club Group Will Take Gifts to Tots At Denton School Leaders of the Lindsay Boys' and Girls' Craft Club met Monday in the home of Mrs. Ray Laux to complete final plans for the Christmas season, and to arrange a program of activity for the children at their meeting next Monday, Dec. 11.

At a recent workshop, club members made all types of blocks for the young children at the Denton School and had them on display at the recent PTC meeting.

Children and their leaders will take the toys to the Denton school this Friday, Dec. 8. All members are invited to go. Those who make the trip will gather at the Parish Hall at 12:30 to board busses.

For the craft clubs' next meeting each child will work with ceramic tile. School lunch room is the place and 3:30 to 5 is the time.

David Haverkamp joined the staff at Muenster Machine Shop this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCollum and baby daughter of Dallas were here for a weekend visit with her parents, the Dick Cains and Mrs. McCollum had a checkup at Nona Hospital. "Doing fine" was the report.

to assume simply that they did what best served their purpose.

Besides, it is known that only Izvestia made a pretense of factual reporting. The press release sent out by Tass, the Soviet news agency, distorted the interview and omitted from it to harmonize with the red propaganda line. Likewise communist radio and TV broadcasts used and abused it in the same way.

Experience should have taught us long ago that we can expect no cooperation from Soviet officials in getting the truth through to Soviet people. We're wasting time every time we expect honesty in any dealings with them. There's no reason to believe that this case was an exception.

Calling attention to his proclamation designating next Sunday as "Safety Sunday" Governor Daniel calls for a statewide effort to "awaken the conscience of every driver" in behalf of safe and legal driving.

The man has an idea there, and he's to be commended for his efforts to get increasing help from ministers and church organizations.

More people need to be convinced that safety is related to religion, that carelessness is a violation of God's law. The commandment states "thou shalt not kill." Reasonably interpreted that applies not only to deliberate murder, but also to taking chances that might cause a death. And the interpretation necessarily implies that a potential killer as well as an actual killer is accountable for breaking the commandment.

It will help a lot if that thought can be brought to increasing numbers of people. Too many seem to think that taking chances is all right if they come out all right. They need to become aware that recklessness in itself is matter of conscience.

Lindsay 4-Hers Show Projects on Achievement Day

Lindsay Parish Hall had the look of a county fair when 4-H boys and girls put on their achievement day program with exhibits of clothing, fancy work, baked products, candy, crafts and hobbies, field crops, vegetables, pecans and eggs.

In addition to viewing exhibits, visitors saw a playlet and heard songs. To end the evening they had refreshments. About 150 parents and friends attended the Wednesday night event.

The entertainment, directed by Rosemary Hermes, senior club president, consisted of a skit entitled "Romance at Curveless Corners" and songs by Lindsay High freshman and sophomore classes.

4-H mothers decorated the hall with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Tony Hermes, adult leader, was assisted by Mmes. Tony Voth, William Flusche, Ray Laux, Henry Zimmerer and Norbert Zimmerer.

Over 200 ribbons tagged winning entries in the exhibits. Rosemary Hermes and Kenneth Laux were sweepstakes winners for the girls and the boys, respectively, gathering up the most ribbons. Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hassell, Mrs. Delbert Harrell, Bill West and Brooks Smith. Martha Gieb and Nellie Ann Hess won the prizes which were given away.
