A disappointing development in the 13th Congressional District run-off campaign is Jack Hightower's decision to stand by the political party rather than the political creed. He has endorsed Graham Purchase and urged his supporters of the first primary to vote for him in the January 27 election.

During the first primary Hightower identified himself as a conservative Democrat. Graham ran as a liberal Democrat. Joe Meissner, the other candidate in the run-off is a conservative Republican.

Eliminated by the first election, Hightower was in a position of having something in common with each of the two remaining candidates. He shared the party label with one, political conviction with the other. He could logically give his support to either. And he chose in favor of the party label even though his choice implies a repudiation of principles he stood for earlier.

His decision points up the principal fault in current politics. Far too many put party ahead of principle, apparently convinced that loyalty to party is a more tangible asset in their personal political careers than loyalty to conviction. This happens not only to defeated candidates. It happens also to successful ones who forsake their campaign promises for the sake of party harmony.

Regardless of Hightower's endorsement, however, many of his former supporters will not go along with his view. Now as before they think more of his political philosophy than his adopted political brand, and they will be guided accordingly on their next ballot in spite of his recommendation to the contrary.

Another thought concerning the election: It's your old poll tax receipt, not your new one, which qualifies you to a vote. That is, the one dated 1960 and specified as good "for all 1961 elections."

In a statement this week Candidate Purcell reminds voters that the old poll tax receipt does not expire until January 31, the deadline for getting new receipts, and the new one does not go into effect until after that date. So, all who were eligible to vote in the first primary are also eligible in the run-off. But only those people who make a habit of qualifying to vote only in political years will have no say in this January 27 election.

Those who vote in larger cities, where the poll tax receipt must be presented, are accordingly reminded not to throw away the old receipt when they get the new one. Or, if they've already discarded it, let's hope they can find it.

No doubt, it seems strange to many that their voting eligibility in January, 1962, is based on a receipt marked 1960. Well, there's a reason. Poll tax, like ad valorem tax, is paid for the past year, not the coming year. For 1961 it is due this month, although for the convenience of people who want to avoid the rush it has been available since October. When a person pays, his receipt shows that he paid poll tax for the year '61 and is qualified, as also shown on the receipt, to vote in the year '62. Since validity becomes effective after January 31, it follows that the poll tax receipt dated 1960 is the one which applies in the first month of 1962.

This situation probably presents another reason to the people who like to beef about poll taxes. To this column it presents another reason to point out that the poll tax is actually a charge for past services and not a charge for future voting privileges. It is not, as some critics maintain, the price of exercising one's right as a citizen. On the other hand it is evidence that one has merited continuation of his civic right by meeting his civic obligation.

Perhaps the regulation can be appreciated better by considering it from the other side. As citizens of our state we enjoy many services. To provide these services the state has many sources of revenue, one of which is a personal tax. There's nothing unfair about that tax because it is a simple assessment against every person between 21 and 60. In fact, it has a special merit in that it assesses many persons

School District Scholastic Count Starts Next Week

The annual scholastic census for the Muenster school district, shaping up since the beginning of the year, is due to get under way next Monday or Tuesday.

At that time census forms will be sent with school children to all parents of both local schools. Parents are urged to complete those forms and return them the next day. Superintendent L. B. Bruns says that the forms show the family name and the list of scholastic age children now attending. If the list is complete the form requires only a check-up for correctness and the parent's signature. If another child is due to start school in September, that name should be added. To be added a child must be 6 years old on or before Sept. 1, 1962.

As in former years Mr. Bruns is asking community cooperation in the listing of children with whom he does not have a present family contact, that is, first-born children who will reach school age this year. He asks that parents of those children report to him to make sure they are not overlooked. In this district it is especially important to submit a complete list of scholastics because state payments to the district are based on the number of scholastics.

Members of the Nick Yosten family, prevented by the weather from visiting Tony Yosten at the Dallas VA Hospital Monday, visited by telephone with him. He said he is feeling fine, not hurting, and is undergoing treatment. He still is not assigned to a specific room, but is getting his mail addressed to him as "Patient" VA Hospital, Dallas, Texas. He said to tell every one hello.

Mrs. Clarence Wilson continues improving at the Sanitarium and is getting around in a wheel chair but her doctor has not indicated when she will be dismissed. She broke her right hip in a fall Dec. 30.

Mrs. Dick Cain is recovering at home from dental surgery performed in Fort Worth Monday.

Joe Williams returned to classes at Muenster Public School Monday afternoon after illness since early December. He was dismissed from Baylor Hospital Dec. 22 to spend Christmas at home and returned to the hospital Monday morning of this week for a checkup. It was then that he got his doctor's okay to resume school work.

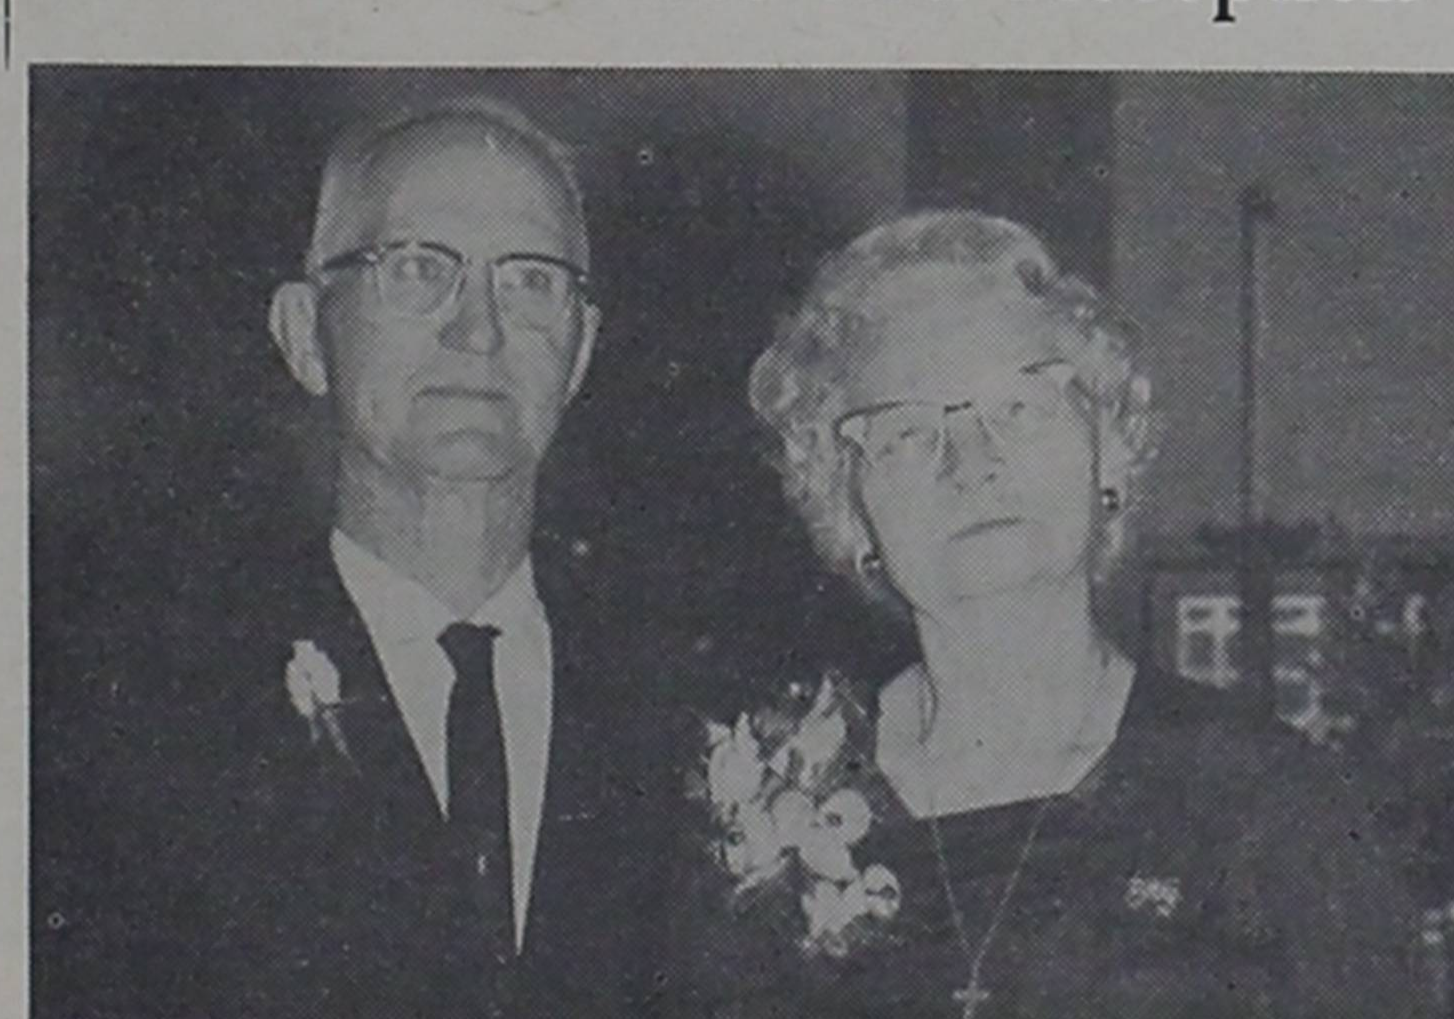

Mrs. Hattie Burks of Myra, mother of Mrs. Nig Wilson, is recovering from illness that sent her to Gainesville Sanitarium on Jan. 1 for treatment through Jan. 3. Since being dismissed she is convalescing at the home of a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Richardson at Gainesville. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family have been cheering her with visits.

Golden Wedding of John Rohmers Observed at Mass and Reception

Much history of the early days of Muenster was brought to mind by the 50th wedding anniversary observance of Mr. and Mrs. John Rohmer who have lived here from the horse and buggy era to the space age.

The actual wedding date will be January 25, but the family celebrated on December 28 while the two Rohmer girls in the convent could be at home, making the golden-weds' five sons, five daughters and 15 grandchildren present along with other relatives and friends.

Everyone thinks of Mrs. Rohmer as a native of Muenster — she thinks so herself — because as Mary Hesse she was only 15 months old when she came here in November 1889, just 40 days after the signing of the contract to colonize the wide open prairie. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Franz Hesse who were on the first excursion train among the original settlers coming here and erected Muenster's first hardware

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. George Jetzelsberger entered M&S Hospital Tuesday afternoon and underwent throat surgery Wednesday. The operation was to repair damage to a blood vessel that was ruptured during severe coughing some time ago.

Roy Swirczynski entered Baylor Hospital in Dallas Tuesday afternoon for nose surgery Wednesday. He'll be a patient until Saturday afternoon, according to his doctor.

Mrs. Andy Monday was dismissed from Nocona Hospital last Friday to continue recovery at home. She had major surgery Dec. 29.

Diana Cottle is in bed nursing a bad case of measles. She is here with her grandparents, the Joe Hoenigs, during the school term as a first grader at Sacred Heart. Her mother, Mrs. Rita Cottle, lives in Dallas.

Mrs. Clarence Wilson continues improving at the Sanitarium and is getting around in a wheel chair but her doctor has not indicated when she will be dismissed. She broke her right hip in a fall Dec. 30.

Dimes March Here Again Sponsored By VFW Auxiliary

Muenster's 1962 March of Dimes campaign will be sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the organization that has for years been at the head of the annual drive for funds in the community.

Tentative plans were mapped at the Auxiliary's meeting Monday night and date for the customary church door collection will be announced after arrangements are made with the pastor.

Auxiliary members believe the community is aware of the great good accomplished by contributions to the New March of Dimes and is confident the campaign will be a success. Mrs. Charlie Pagel is general chairman.

First activity in the campaign here is recruiting local talent for the TV telethon over KXII-TV Channel 12. Anyone interested in participating is invited to contact Mrs. Pagel.

The March of Dimes campaign is seeking funds for research, education and patient care for polio, arthritis and birth defects.

Dates for various money-raising events here will be announced by the Auxiliary as soon as definite times are set.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe just got settled in their new farm home before the big snowfall. They moved during the past week . . . are about a mile and half nearer to town. They're located on Gus Knabe's former property.

Bank Deposits At Close of Year Pass $3.5 Million

With an increase of $286,488.79 during the past calendar year, Muenster State Bank's deposits reached $3,501,180.66 as of the close of business on December 30, 1961.

The figure was revealed last Friday in response to the quarterly call by the state banking commissioner for a statement of condition.

Had the call been for a report as of January 6 it would have found the bank with its all time high deposit. President J. M. Weinzapfel said that the total of deposits that day was $3,776,118.42.

For the past year the Muenster Bank continued to lead other banking institutions of the county in percentage of deposit increase. The gain was just under 9 per cent. Next high was the Valley View bank with just over 8 per cent, then Hesperian Building and Loan with just over 7 per cent.

Total gain for all of the county's banking institutions was 1,479,342.08 for the all time record deposit of $27,970,443.02. That was an overall gain for the county of about 5.5 per cent.

Likewise in loans the Muenster bank was far ahead of the county average. Its increase of $219,622.05 to the present $1,749,591.51 represents a gain of more than 14 per cent. Total loans of all county banks increased by $898,504.57, a gain of slightly more than 6 per cent. Percentage wise Valley View had the biggest gain in loans, almost 40 per cent.

Joe P. Parker, 62 Dies in Sleep

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at three o'clock for Joe P. Parker of Gainesville, former Muenster resident, who died in his sleep some time after retiring Friday night and before 4:30 Saturday morning at his home. He had suffered from a heart condition the past several years.

Joe Parker was 62 and was an oil field gauger in this area for Service Pipe Line Company. He was still active at the time of his death.

Born in Flat Rock, Ill., he was married in June 1937 in Oklahoma City to Miss Lucile Siler and they moved to Muenster in July. Several years later they moved to Gainesville.

Dennis Lee Parker, the couple's only child, on leave from military service, was preparing to return to camp early Saturday morning and his mother was helping him with final preparations. It was about 4:30 when they discovered Mr. Parker had died in his sleep.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church and final rites were conducted there by Dr. Harry Roark. For one hour before service the body lay in state at the church.

Burial was in Rest Haven Memorial Park. M. F. Milner was one of the bearers. Vernie Keel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

In addition to his wife and son survivors include two sisters in Illinois.

Tigerettes Win Tigers Lose in Saint John's Games

St. John's of Ennis had too much power for the Tigers Sunday afternoon and took a 42-28 win even though Sacred Heart boys played one of their season's best. By half time they led 24-12, and in the next half they extended their margin two more points while the Tigers were giving them lots more competition. Top Tiger scorers were Johnny Wolf 9, Virgil Hess 8 and Charles Knabe 7.

In the other game Sacred Heart girls continued their winning streak by a decisive score. They took an early lead and kept gaining to the final tally of 77-34. Joyce Hacker, Carol Wimmer and Joyce Haverkamp hit 27, 26 and 24 respectively.

For the next two weeks only one game is on schedule. Girls will play OLCG of Dallas on Friday.

Bank Will Accept Poll Tax Payment

Persons who want to avoid the inconvenience of a special trip to the court house to pay their poll tax can make payment at Muenster State Bank. J. M. Weinzapfel announced that the bank's help in this regard is available again.

The procedure is simple. The taxpayer fills out an application form showing name, address, age, voting place, and remits $1.75. Payment and information is sent by the bank to the tax collector's office and a receipt is mailed directly to the taxpayer a few days later.

Blessing of New Home for Sisters Set January 21

Sunday, January 21, has been set as the date for the blessing of the Benedictine Sisters' new convent and a program is being planned for the special event.

Bishop Thomas K. Gorman of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese will officiate at the ceremony and others in attendance will include Abbot Michael Lensing of Subiaco, Ark., Abbot Alfred Hoenig of Corpus Christi and Mother Philippa of Jonesboro, Ark.

The ceremony will begin at 3 p.m.

So as not to conflict with this program, the Civic League and Garden Club has re-set its Arbor Day observance and memorial tree planting ceremony for January 28.

Tax Estimate of Farmers is Due On January 15

Farmers and ranchers were reminded today that Monday, January 15, is the last day for filing their estimated federal income tax return for 1961, unless they plan filing their final return on or before February 15.

James D. Shear, Administrative Officer, Internal Revenue Service, Fort Worth, Texas, explained that those farmers and ranchers who file an estimated return on January 15 and pay the tax due thereon have until April 16 to file their final return and pay any balance of tax due. Otherwise, the law requires that they file their final return and pay the full amount of the tax due by February 15.

The IRS representative cautioned that this option is available to farmers and ranchers only. Tax law defines a farmer or rancher as one who earns two-thirds or more of his gross income from farming or ranching. He advised farmers and ranchers that if they filed a federal income tax return last year the necessary forms for this year will be mailed to them. For those who did not file, or for some other reason did not receive their forms in the mail, blank forms are available from any Internal Revenue office or from post offices or banks.

Everyone who has a gross income (not net) of $600 or more during 1961 must file an income tax return with their IRS district director, whether or not any tax is owed. Only exception to this rule is that if you were 65 years of age or over at the end of 1961, you are not required to file a return unless your gross income was $1,200 or more.

Needed assistance is available from Internal Revenue Service, both by telephone and in the office, but taxpayers are asked to complete their own returns as far as possible before contacting IRS.

Copies of the helpful, free booklet "Farmer's Tax Guide" are obtainable from IRS offices and agricultural agents.

Clear Creek Group Elects Directors

Directors of the Clear Creek Watershed Authority, with one exception, are the same as those of the originally organized Clear Creek Association. George Berry of Rosston succeeds Orin Fortenberry of Greenwood.

That was the result of an election held Wednesday in Era, Rosston, Bolivar and Hardy. The directors and their terms are as follows.

For one year: J. C. Donnell, J. M. Weinzapfel, Dr. C. H. Saunders.

For two years: H. D. Field, J. A. Stovall, H. K. Armstrong. For three years: James W. McCall, George Berry, Tom L. Muir.

Mercury Drops to 0 in Worst Cold Wave of Season

The most bitterly cold weather to date this winter moved in early Tuesday with the cold wave that has crippled activity in most of the nation. It brought about three inches of snow with a stiff wind which in places piled the snow in drifts of three feet or more, and also a plunge of the temperature to 3 degrees.

It is a real chiller but not the record breaker. On January 4, 1947, the mercury dropped to 8 below zero and old timers then recalled that the reading was probably lower in the winter of 1898-99.

Snow came in with the cold wave and almost all of it had arrived by dawn Tuesday. The temperature then was down to 16 and it did not raise more than a few points the rest of the day. Night brought another drop, to 3 above zero on Wednesday morning, and again the temperature remained under 20 for the rest of the day.

Thursday morning's reading was zero.

Because of the bitter cold and hazardous driving both local schools were dismissed Tuesday through Thursday. Driving was treacherous in spots. In some stretches of streets snow had been blown away by the wind. In others it remained and was packed into ice by the traffic. Nevertheless no traffic accidents were reported here for the two days.

New Hospital At Archer City Will Open Sunday

Muenster people wishing to have an idea of what their hospital will be like, have a sort of preview awaiting them at Archer City next Sunday.

The occasion is the formal opening of the new Archer County Hospital between the hours of 2 and 4:30. It is located in the southeast part of Archer City.

The hospital was designed by J. R. Killebrew of Wichita Falls, the architect in charge of Muenster's project, and is similar in many respects to the one to be built here. It's a 20 bed hospital recently completed as a Hill Burton project at a cost of about $450,000.

Early Resident Ed Ruwaldt Dies At San Angelo

Ed J. Ruwaldt, 65, of San Angelo, former Muenster resident, died on Saturday, December 30, in St. John's Hospital, San Angelo, following a long illness.

Funeral service with requiem mass was held at Sacred Heart Church, San Angelo, on January 2.

Born December 31, 1895, in Terrell, Ruwaldt came to Muenster when his father, Ben Ruwaldt, moved here about 1907. The family lived on a farm south of town for several years and in 1912 bought the cotton gin near the Katy depot.

In later years, Ed, then living in Gainesville, was active in the community as a real estate agent and trader in livestock and automobiles.

He is one of the men credited with developing the oil industry here. As a lease agent and promoter he was active in the local oil boom of the mid-twenties. In the early thirties he had a prominent part in developing the field north of Muenster. Many of those wells are still producing.

From Gainesville Ruwaldt moved to Illinois and had a part in developing oil production near Mount Vernon. In 1942 he moved to San Angelo.

His wife is the former Dorothy Dudenhoeffer of Gainesville. Survivors are his wife, four daughters, a son and 11 grandchildren.

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO UNCLE SAM?

By Harry T. Everingham
 Thirty years ago, we had an Uncle Sam who took a backseat to no one. We were proud of Uncle Sam — he was fair and courageous and stood high among the nations of the world. But the Uncle Sam of recent years makes us wonder. What's happened to Uncle Sam?
 We don't like to see Uncle Sam pushed around. The Uncle Sam we knew was a fighting man. He never appeared an enemy. No one ever pushed him very hard without getting set down hard — and quickly!

 But today Uncle Sam appears the enemy. He signs treaties, like at Yalta and Potsdam, to give away peoples' freedom. He taxes us to support foreign governments. He drafts our boys to fight losing wars, like Korea, under a foreign flag and an "invisible" command.

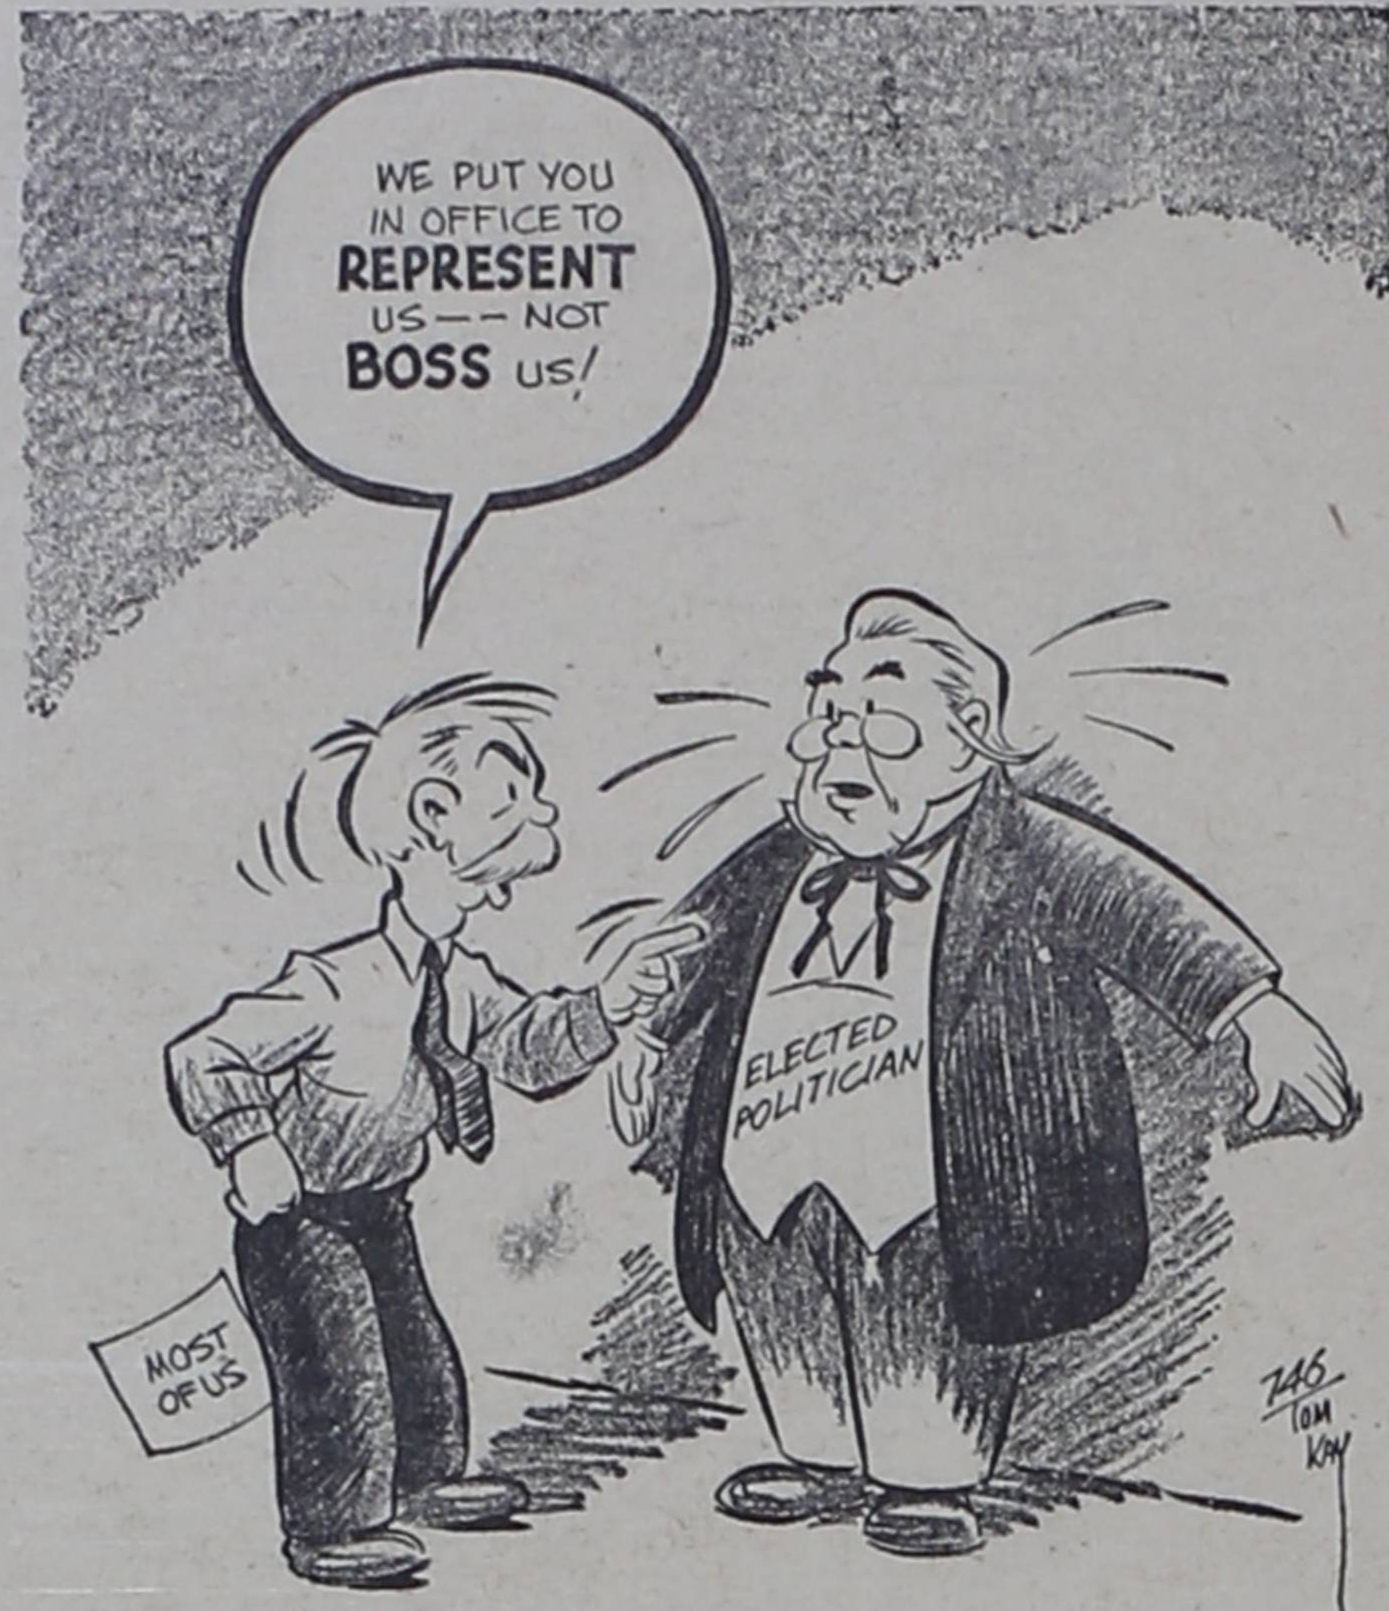

The Uncle Sam of today sickens us. He's lost the respect of people all over the world, including his own. Could this be our Uncle Sam? Would our real Uncle Sam have turned China over to the Reds? And Hungary back to the Communists? And Cuba over to Castro?
 Would our Uncle Sam have sold 135 jet fighter planes to Tito — the Communist dictator who shot down our boys in American planes without apology? Would our real Uncle Sam have sabotaged the Cuban invasion? Would he have helped set up new Communist nations in Africa under the U. N.? Would he send billions of our dollars each year as aid to Communist countries? Would he be muzzling our military to keep them from telling our troops the truth about the enemy?

We were always able to count on Uncle Sam to defend us — but now we begin to wonder which side Uncle Sam is on. Who is Uncle Sam today? Is he you or me? Is he even our Congressman? Or is he someone who influences our State Department?

Uncle Sam has always fought to protect us — until now. If enemy armies attacked us today, most of us would fight. But they won't attack that way — they don't have to.

The enemy is already within — but most Americans don't see it. They understand Communist tactics and don't listen to J. Edgar Hoover, who says, "We cannot hope to successfully meet the Communist menace unless there is a wide knowledge and understanding of its aims and designs."

Most people depend on J. Edgar Hoover to protect us. They don't know that the F.B.I. cannot arrest a single Communist except under orders by the Attorney-General. And he has given few such orders over the past ten years. In fact, the Supreme Court itself, for ten years has stopped us from convicting and jailing Communist conspirators!

Now We Are Being Weakened The more we learn of Communist tactics, the more we worry. We know that 41 years ago Lenin prophesied: "In 50 years' time armies will no longer have much significance. We shall have undermined our enemies to such an extent before war breaks out that it will be impossible to set the war machine in motion in the hour of need."

For 30 years Communists have worked freely in our government toward this end — also in unions, business and industry to gain key posts in communications, power, transportation and defense — even in the Pentagon itself. Soon we will be unable to defend ourselves.

But most Americans haven't heard about it, or refuse to believe it. They don't even listen to authorities like General Douglas MacArthur, who said, "Our threat is from the insidious forces working from within which have already so drastically altered the character of our free institutions." Most Americans don't realize that our first defense must come through the State Department — but it hasn't and it won't — that department has been heavily infiltrated for many years, regardless of administration! Many of those "experts" who let the Reds take China and let Castro take Cuba still dominate our State Department.

FREE FOOD — AND CADILLACS

Americans are traditionally a charitable people. They want to help, and do help, the needy amongst us. To take a current example, the government's project of distributing free food to those in want — which has, as a corollary, the reduction of agricultural surpluses — undoubtedly has powerful public support.

But the best of plans and intentions can be abused. A short time ago, Life magazine reported: "For the 1,401 U. S. counties now receiving free groceries, the $110.2 million cost in 1961's first half is nearly quadruple the $29.2 million in the same period last year. It has also vastly increased the popularity of free groceries. Since January the number of people getting them has risen from 4.1 to 6.2 million. . . . Recipients have included a New York City man who carried his bags away in a taxicab and some folks in Jefferson County, Texas who took them away in an air-conditioned Cadillac."

There must be much tougher administration of plans such as these, in order to separate the genuine needy from the cheap chiseler. The sad fact is that any welfare state program, whether it be wise or foolish, essential or just politically-oriented, brings out the worst in a great many people.

"OUT OF SIGHT, OUT OF MIND"

Until very recently the auto builders have been putting stainless steel into their cars where it showed most — into decorative and protective body strips and moldings, wheel covers, and window surrounds. Public taste decreases bright trim; and protection of body panels and paintwork from casual dents and scratches requires rigidity. Stainless steel meets both requirements and gives permanence, too, since the metal resists corrosion by weather, salt air and road chemicals, and being stainless all the way through, stays that way regardless of scrapes and scratches.

But now, tough, heat-resistant stainless moves on to a still more ruggedly functional automotive task. Stainless steel mufflers are now provided as original equipment on several '62 cars which have dual exhaust systems, and are in sharply rising demand on the replacement market for a wide range of post-'55 cars.

Hidden away underneath the car, the new muffler's beauty lies entirely in its long-lived efficiency that provides the owner with peace of mind that earlier equipment has long denied. Condensates created in short-run driving and the highly-corrosive by-products of combustion have combined to destroy conventional mufflers at an alarming rate — often in a single year's time.

The security of stainless, which cannot chip or peel, may soon make muffler replacement another of motorist's "lost arts". As lost and little-lamented as use of the ancient hand cranks

for CHRIST-against COMMUNISM

BY BILLY JAMES HARGIS, LL.D. FOUNDER CHRISTIAN CRUSADE

"The Un-Americans"

An organization known as "The Religious Freedom Committee, Inc.," sent out a letter dated September 6, 1961 promoting a book entitled, "The Un-Americans." The book is a smear attack against the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It was written by Frank Donner who is an identified communist conspirator. This is one of many examples which expose the big lie by those who contend that there has been no infiltration or influence by Communism in religious circles. If promotion of a smear book by an identified communist does not indicate communist influence, what would it take to indicate such influence?

A rundown of the record of Frank Donner was given in a House Committee on Un-American Activities report regarding communist legal subversion which was published during February 1959. Frank Donner has been identified as a member of a communist cell comprised of lawyers employed by the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D. C. Among those identifying Donner as a member of this cell was Herbert Fuchs, a former communist who had helped organize this NLRB cell in 1937.

On June 28, 1956 Frank Donner appeared as a witness before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He invoked the first and fifth amendments when questioned concerning his Communist Party membership and affiliations.

Donner was confronted with a United States Civil Service Commission questionnaire he had signed on June 2, 1943 while employed by the NLRB. On this official form he had replied "no" to a question as to whether or not he had held membership in a communist organization. Even though he conceded that the signature was his he nevertheless invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked by the Committee if he had been truthful in this statement to the United States government.

The names of some of the familiar left-wingers in the religious field appear on the letterhead of the Religious Freedom Committee which promoted this vicious lying, communist conspiracy smear against the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Among them are Rev. Henry Hitt Crane, Professor Kermit Eby, Rev. Edward L. Peet, Rev. Guy Emery Shippler, Rev. Edler G. Hawkins, and Rev. William Howard Melish. Also included among the names on this letterhead is Prof. Leroy Waterman who was one of the translators of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. There are 37 names in all on the letterhead of this so-called organization which is actively supporting a major objective of the sworn enemies of our nation.

St. Anne's Society Furnishes Room in Sisters' Convent

The parish St. Anne's Society is furnishing one room in the Benedictine Sister's new convent and presented a check in the amount of $230 from treasury funds to the pastor after the organization's January meeting Sunday night.

Another disbursement was fifteen dollars to the general charity fund, a contribution made once a year.

The newly elected president, Mrs. Alphonse Hoenig conducted the meeting and the new secretary, Mrs. Andy Wimmer, noted fifty members present. Mrs. Leo Henseheid, continuing as treasurer, gave the financial report.

Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid accepted chairmanship of the sick committee replacing Mrs. R. R. Endres but no one volunteered to replace Mrs. Joe Swirczynski as mission chairman and that activity remains without a leader.

The society is having a mass said for Mrs. Swirczynski's intentions as a token of appreciation for her many years' work.

Mrs. Herb McDaniel reported on the last meeting of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and Father Martin, spiritual director, presented his usual brief and timely admonitions.

Members are being reminded to submit their dues for the new year. The amount is two dollars and may be mailed or handed to Mrs. Leo Henseheid.

Mrs. Johnny Streng won the attendance prize and after adjournment the members joined St. Joseph's Society for a social hour and refreshments.

Framed Documents Given SH School

Huge copies of the Declaration of Independence now adorn a wall in the hallway of Sacred Heart High School and the foyer of the Grade School.

The handsome framed copies are gifts from Andy Hofbauer who had the wooden frames for the documents made by the local Bavarian Woodcarvers. The pieces measure about four by six feet and are richly printed in color.

VFW and Auxiliary Over Top on Pledge To New Hospital

Muenster VFW Post and its Ladies Auxiliary are over the top on their pledges to Muenster Memorial Hospital. That information was presented to members of the Auxiliary at their meeting Monday night.

Members heard a letter of thanks sent by J. M. Weinzapfel, president of the hospital authority, in which he expressed appreciation for the contribution of $2,000 from proceeds of their benefit picnic and dance on Thanksgiving. Together the two organizations had pledged $1,500.

Mrs. Arthur Bayer, Auxiliary president, conducted the business session and members voted approval of honor roll requirements for January.

Contributions from the treasury went to the National Muscular Dystrophy Foundation and to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation and the organization agreed to sponsor the annual March of Dimes campaign.

The Auxiliary also made tentative plans for the annual Valentine dance. Mrs. Arthur Bayer is general chairman.

Communications presented included letters of thanks from Servicemen Kenny Fette, Hawaii; C. J. Hellman, Germany; Ferd Haverkamp, Spain; and Jerry Endres, Japan, and Dennis Koesler for Christmas gifts.

Announcements of coming events disclosed the Mid-Winter Roundup scheduled for Jan. 26-28 in Austin and the District I meeting in Gainesville Feb. 3 and 4.

Members were reminded that 1962 dues are due and were urged to remit promptly.

Those present joined in signing a greeting card for Tony Yosten at the Dallas VA Hospital and the Auxiliary is having a mass said for his welfare.

Mrs. Paul Sicking won the three dollar cash attendance prize and after adjournment there was a social period and refreshments. Fourteen members were present.

Miss Truebenbach And Walter Bartel Say Wedding Vows

Miss Celine Truebenbach became the bride of Walter Bartel in a 4 p.m. ceremony in Sacred Heart Church Saturday, Jan. 6, with the Rev. Alcuin Kubis, pastor, officiating at the double ring service and nuptial high mass.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Andy Truebenbach of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartel Sr. of Pilot Point.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white Chantilly lace and organza over taffeta with long petal point sleeves and aisle-wide skirt which swept into a chapel train. Sequins ornamented the neck line and over skirt. A crown of sequins held her tiered waist length veil and she carried white feathered carnations atop her prayer book. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Jane Truebenbach was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Cecilia Meiner of Pilot Point and Miss Mary Alice Dickerson were bridesmaids. The trio wore identical dresses of blue satin with wide street-length skirts and matching pillbox hats covered with brief circular veils. They carried white carnations.

Henry Bartel was best man for his brother and Giles Truebenbach, brother of the bride and Frank Kubicek of Sanger, nephew of the groom, were groomsmen.

Anthony Luke, organist, and the men's choir provided music for the mass and Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist before and after the service. While she sang "Mother at Your Feet" after mass the bride placed white gladstoll on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Reception and buffet were held in the Parish Hall, with Mrs. Joe Lehnertz catering and Misses Laurie Truebenbach and Leona Hacker, sister and cousin of the bride, registering guests. Mrs. Al Horn served the wedding cake.

The newlyweds are making their home here in Muenster at 110 E. Division street, where Mrs. William Bergman formerly resided. He is employed at the NTPA milk plant and she is employed at the local dress factory.

The Burburnett oil field was discovered in 1912 and made nearby Wichita Falls the oil hub of North Texas.

Demonstration on Dairy Foods Given For Four-H Girls

January meetings for Sacred Heart 4-H Club girls featured dairy foods demonstrations, in preparation for the annual Dairy Foods Show to be held in Gainesville on Saturday, Feb. 10.

Mrs. Evelyn Yeatts gave the same demonstration to the school's three groups. She made party dips using cottage cheese and dry milk for one and cream cheese and fresh milk for the other, pointing up that they are almost equal in nourishment while the latter is more expensive than the cottage cheese-dry milk dip.

Members sampled both products with crackers and chips.

Paula Herr, reporting for the junior club group, counted 47 present. Shirley Klement, president, presided and after the meeting Jackie Wimmer and Rita Fette, recreational leaders, led songs.

Intermediate club members also heard a discussion on the annual Share the Fun contest scheduled for some time in March. Candy Fette, president, and Linda Fisher and Dianne Shumaker led songs after business. Judy Dangelmayr is reporter.

Senior club members' meeting was conducted by Charlotte Wolf, president. Janice Vogel is reporter. Nine members attended.

Garden Club Hears C. F. Gobble Talk On Dormant Sprays

January meeting of the Muenster Civic League and Garden Club featured a timely and informative discussion on "Dormant Spraying and Why," by C. F. Gobble, an authority on pest control and fertilizers. He was guest speaker for the club and after his talk conducted a question and answer session. Mr. Gobble emphasized that right now is the opportune time to apply dormant sprays to lawns, fruit trees, roses, shrubbery and shade trees. This is the best time to get ahead of insects which start battle in the spring.

Nineteen members and one guest, Mrs. Alvin Hartman, attended the meeting in the home of Mrs. Victor Hartman with Mrs. Tony Gremminger as co-hostess.

Mrs. L. B. Bruns, president, conducted the business session. Members answered roll call by showing and identifying an evergreen specimen. End of the year reports were presented by Mrs. Steve Moser, treasurer, and Mrs. John Mosman, soil conservation chairman. Mrs. Earl Fisher, sanitation committee chairman, led a round table discussion on garbage and trash disposal and there was a general interest in city pickup as a future service to town residents.

Mrs. Bruns reported on the Christmas bazaar and thanked members for their generous help. A donation from receipts was sent to Garden Club Headquarters. Part of the contribution is for its project in helping the blind.

Mrs. Bruns also read a list of gardens that could be visited on the club's annual pilgrimage.

The Arbor Day tree planting in memory of Dr. T. S. Myrick, previously scheduled for Jan. 21 was postponed one week and is re-set for Jan. 28. The change was made so as not to conflict with the community's program Jan. 21 in connection with the blessing of the Sisters' new convent.

Garden Club hostesses for next month's meeting will be Mrs. Ben Luke and Mrs. Dan Luke.

Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Gremminger served salad plates and hot chocolate to those present. The dining room table held an arrangement of pink roses.

Craft Clubs Will Meet January 15

Leaders of Lindsay children's craft clubs, at their regular monthly meeting, planned the boys' and girls' program for their next meeting and set the date for the third Monday of the month, Jan. 15, instead of the usual second Monday so as not to conflict with mid-term exams at school.

Mrs. Ray Laux was hostess for the leaders' meeting and accepted chairmanship of the telephone committee. The recently compiled booklets on the club's by-laws and constitution were passed around to the seven leaders present.

TP&L Reveals Expansion Plans For Coming Year

Texas Power & Light Company will spend $19,500,000 in 1962 for construction of new facilities including the first stage of construction of the new 345,000 volt transmission line to be built by TP&L and three other investor-owned utility companies.

W. W. Lynch, president of TP&L, said a large portion of the 1962 expenditure will be used to complete the TP&L 125,000 kilowatt Valley Steam Electric Station in North Texas. The generating station is due for completion in late 1962.

Mr. Lynch added that new 138,000 volt transmission lines will be built in several areas during the year to provide abundant electric power for the needs of TP&L's customers.

A new 138,000 volt transmission line will be constructed from the Lufkin area to Huntington in East Texas and another 138,000 volt line will be built in the Tyler area to provide additional power for that section. Electric service in the Waco area will also be bolstered with the construction of a 138,000 volt line there. A new substation and transmission line will be constructed in Irving to provide additional power for this fast growing area.

Mr. Lynch indicated that several TP&L offices in the service area will be remodeled during 1962 and improvements to TP&L's distribution system will be made. During 1962, it is anticipated there will be some 10,400 additional customers, which will call for these additions to the distribution system.

The Company spent $21,300,000 in 1961 in its construction of facilities in its 52-county service area. This included work on the new power plant and the construction of new power lines, office buildings and other facilities.

Mr. Lynch said that on a nationwide basis the electric industry increased its generating capability 13 million kilowatts during 1961, reaching a total of 187.9 million kilowatts. He said this was reported in a survey by the Edison Electric Institute, of which he is vice president.

"This year's addition to the U. S. Generating capability represents an increase of 7.5 percent over the 174.9 million kilowatt capability at the end of 1960," Mr. Lynch added, "and by 1964 total capability is expected to reach 221.4 million kilowatts."

Motorists Urged To Avoid Rush on Safety Inspection

The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., today urged motorists to secure their 1962 vehicle inspection stickers as soon as possible prior to the April 15 deadline.

After that date, vehicles not displaying the new inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law and the operators of those vehicles will be subject to arrest, he said.

Garrison said approximately half of the inspection period has expired and only about one-fourth of the vehicles in the state have been inspected. Unless the number of inspections is increased appreciably soon, he added, long waiting lines will be forming at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches.

"There are some 4,800 authorized inspection stations in the state and they are ready and capable of handling the inspection of all vehicles without delay if owners of the un-inspected vehicles do not wait until the last few days before the deadline," Garrison said.

He pointed out that vehicles inspected so far this year have fewer defects than have been noted heretofore. He said vehicle defects contributing to motor vehicle accidents in Texas is the lowest in the history of the state.

Some of the late model automobiles contain more than 100 parts made of Butyl rubber, a synthetic product which won widespread acceptance in the manufacture of inner tubes because of its ability to hold air 16 times better than natural rubber.

"The Edison Electric Institute's survey shows that the investor-owned electric utility industry is continuing to stay well ahead of increasing demands of the people for electric power," Mr. Lynch said.

He pointed out that according to the survey the long-range atomic power development program undertaken jointly by the electric power industry, the Atomic Energy Commission and the manufacturers of heavy power equipment is going ahead steadily. Of the six nuclear projects already in operation with a total capacity of 393,000 kilowatts, investor-owned companies are participating in five, with a total capability of 388,500 kilowatts.

Mr. Lynch said the U. S. stretched its lead in power-producing capability over the Soviet Union from 124.9 million kilowatts at the end of 1960 to 130.1 million kilowatts at the end of 1961.

"In 1961, estimated use of electricity was 4,810 kilowatt-hours for every man, woman and child in the U. S. In the USSR, estimated use was 1,415 kilowatt-hours per capita," he reported.

Also in the nation, electric utility companies in 1961 ranked first among the nation's industries in total taxes payable in support of local, state and Federal governments. In 1961, it is estimated the investor-owned electric companies will have a total tax bill on their electric operations of about $2.45 billion.

John Rohmers - - soloist after the service presenting "Mother at Your Feet" while grandchildren Darlene Rohmer and Stevie Rohmer lighted two candles at the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Mrs. Rohmer's sister, Mrs. August Walterscheid (Anna Hesse), 50-year bridesmaid was attendant again but a brother-in-law, Albert Henscheid replaced Frank Herr of Ardmore, Okla., a nephew who was best man in 1912 but couldn't attend the golden anniversary.

One of Mr. and Mrs. Rohmer's most treasured possessions is an anniversary gift — a complete family history written by their daughter, Sister Romana, and illustrated with pictures through a half century. It is a beautiful work of art, covered with green velvet with gold lettering on the cover.

A nephew Ed Endres told the history at the after-dinner program on the day of celebration.

For her wedding in 1912 Mrs. Rohmer wore a beautiful brown velvet dress with a full length white veil and wreath. For the anniversary she wore a smart navy blue dress with a yellow rose corsage. The gold cross and chain she wore at her First Communion in 1900 and her wedding in 1912 was worn again.

In 1912 the couple were among the first to drive to church in a car for their wedding. There were only two cars in Muenster at that time. William Harweth took them in his "car for hire."

The Rohmers recall mostly happy times during their 50 years of married life. They don't dwell long on hard time they experienced as pioneers and sadness in the family. They lost their first two children, both boys as babies. Mrs. Rohmer has had serious surgery and Mr. Rohmer broke both legs in a farm accident about six years ago. Folks predicted he'd never walk again, but he did and does.

Both enjoy doing their own home and yard work at their city residence on Oak Street. Mr. Rohmer's accident prompted them to leave the farm and retire to town. They sold the homestead northwest of town after 43 years of labor and love on the farm.

As pioneers they have taken part in religious and civic activity of the community through the years and still are members of the parish St. Anne and St. Joseph's Societies. But Mr. Rohmer has quit playing the violin. He was an accomplished "fiddler" in his younger days.

The couple's sons are Emil, Johnny, Tony, Victor and Maurus Rohmer, all of Muenster; the daughters are Sister Fidelis of Hot Springs, Sister Romana of Blytheville, Ark., Mrs. Joe Spaeth of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Morton Wright of Irving and Miss Ida Rohmer of Fort Worth.

Mr. Rohmer has one brother, Leo Rohmer, and four sisters, Mrs. Mike Kleiss, Mrs. Joe Pautler and Miss Odilia Rohmer of Muenster and Sister Margaret of Beeville. Mrs. Rohmer has three brothers Tony, Al and Meinrad Hesse and five sisters, Mrs. August Walterscheid, Mrs. John Felderhoff, Mrs. Nick Yosten, Mrs. Albert Henscheid and Miss Theresa Hesse, all of Muenster.

who pay no ad valorem tax. To them this personal tax is the only direct payment for services they receive, and certainly not an unreasonable price to ask of them.

Unfortunately, this tax is named after its penalty, not after its purpose. Reason requires that a penalty must be provided for violation of a tax law. In this case the penalty for failure to meet last year's obligation is suspension of this year's voting right. And why not? Does one deserve his right of citizenship if he shirks his obligation of citizenship?

To carry the foregoing thought a little farther, we can also contend that persons who shirk their personal tax responsibility by their very attitude show a poor qualification to participate in shaping the state's laws and policies. If they chisel in that matter their thinking is hardly an asset in determining the regulations that responsible people have to live by.

As we think it through we have to admit that our state's poll tax law makes sense. Instead of the efforts to have it banned, there ought to be more effort to have it adopted by other states. Properly understood and generally applied it could help toward more responsibility in government.

In case you have overlooked it so far, don't delay any more on paying your poll tax. Enjoy the satisfaction of having met your personal responsibility and, in the bargain, retain your right to have your say at the ballot box.

The story of

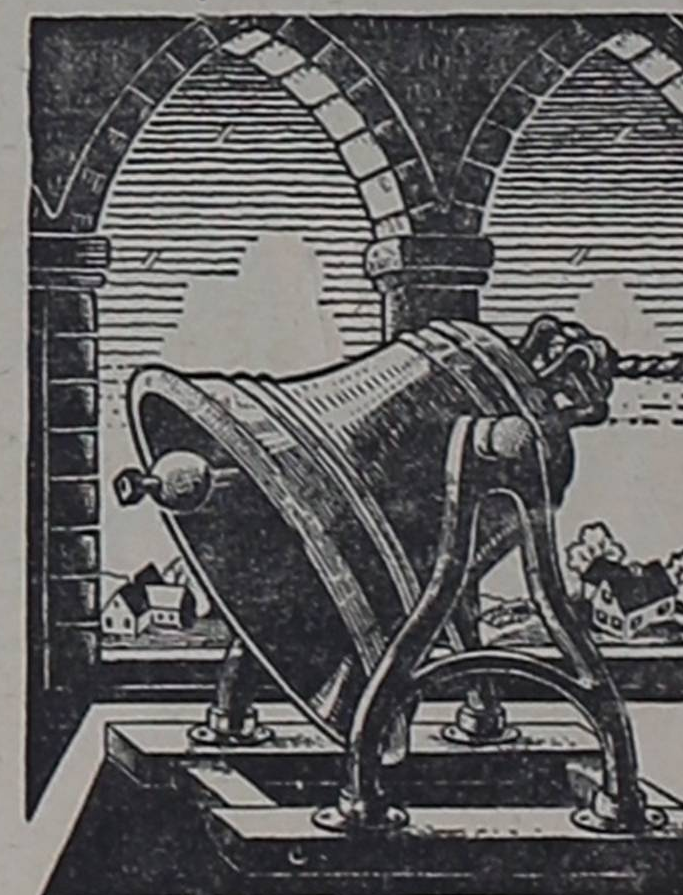

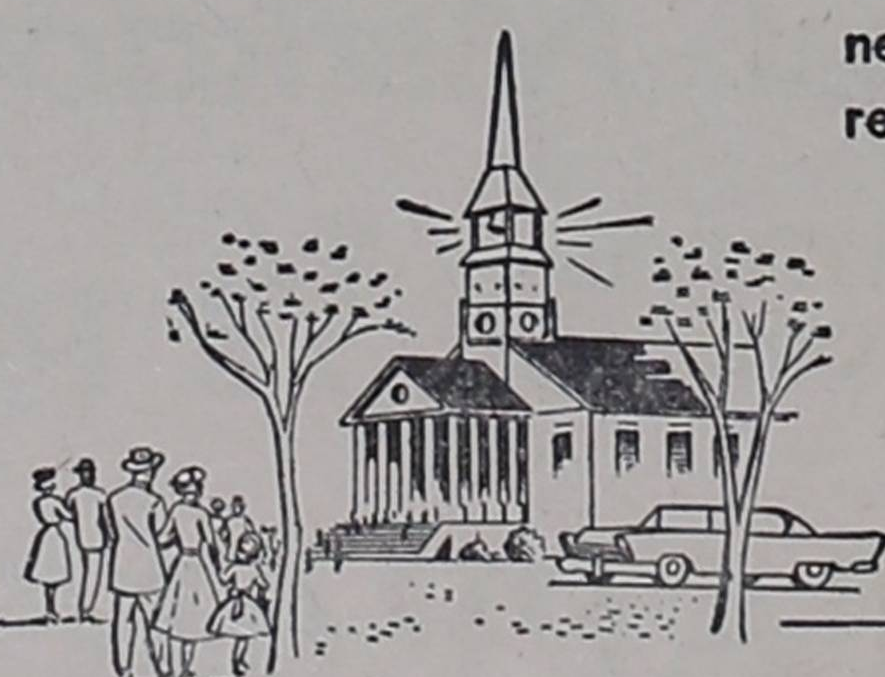

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE and The Church Bell

"I don't need to advertise," an established merchant in Kansas once told William Allen White, renowned publisher of The Emporia Gazette. "Everybody knows me and knows what I sell."

"In that event," replied the thoughtful publisher, "we can dispense with the oldest advertising medium for the oldest institution in the world. See that church down the street," continued Mr. White, pointing to one of Emporia's oldest and most beautiful structures, "That church has been established here for many years. Everyone knows what it is and what it does. In the tower of the church is a bell and every Sunday it rings out to remind folks to come to church.

"Shoppers go where they are invited and stay where they are well treated," concluded the publisher.

"Regardless of how well established a firm may be, newspaper advertising is a repeated invitation and a reminder to come and do business with that store."
