MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS

NUMBER 52

President Kennedy's courageous ultimatum to Khrushchev a few weeks ago seem to have lost its effect. In fact the present state of affairs hints strongly that this will become just another case of coming out the loser in an encounter with the Soviets.

The course of events ever since that first day of brave talk has been humiliating. At that time we were led to believe that the Monroe Doctrine would be applied to the letter. We visualized the complete removal of Soviet influence from our neighboring island. That, as we understood it included not only Russian weapons, but also Russian personnel along with the dictator-stooge Castro, after which free elections were to be held in order to give to Cuban people control of their own country.

Apparently our country intended to make up for its pitiful blunder of more than a year before when it failed to support the liberation effort by Cuban patriots. But now it seems intent on more blunders which will strengthen rather than weaken the communist hold in our hemisphere.

As of now Russians say they have dismantled all of the "offensive" missile bases. They backed up that claim by permitting observers on US ships to see the crates on Russian ships headed back to the Soviet. What kind of assurance is that, coming from scoundrels who are known to lie every time it serves their purpose? Did those crates really contain missiles? If so, how can we know that all were sent out? How many are hidden in caves, as indicated by reports from Cuba?

And how about allowing the reds to decide which are "offensive" and which are "defensive"? The deal, you know, is that they may keep defensive missiles but must ship out the offensive ones. Do you think they were honest in deciding which must go? For that matter, do you believe that the "defensive" weapons still there cannot be used "offensively"?

Questions can be asked by the dozens, and in every case our country is depending for the answer on the honor of people who have no honor. It's hard to imagine a less dependable agreement than that. It's hard to imagine how responsible people in our government could conscientiously become parties to such a deal.

But that isn't all. As regards planes the reds don't even go so far as to pull the wool over our eyes. They just brazenly ignore the deal. They shrug off reference to the bombers by saying they are obsolete. And they refuse to be impressed by the counter claim that even obsolete bombers are offensive weapons capable of massive destruction. Besides, there's the huge fleet of fighter planes, presumably defensive but undoubtedly adaptable to offensive use.

The absurdity of our agreement can be reduced to a few words. We made a poor deal in the first place allowing the reds to confine their promised clean-up to offensive weapons... and allowing them to decide what is "defensive" or "offensive". In that alone we left ourselves wide open for every possible fraud... by men who are known masters of deceit. And then we don't even have assurance that they are unmovable. It's doubtful if any nation ever held the bag as foolishly as we hold this one.

The United Nations' part in this fiasco is no better than our own. It agreed to our request for neutral observers to see that the reds would live up to their part of the deal, then meekly permitted itself to be pushed out of Cuba by the bearded loud-mouth stooge. What's happened to that outfit's alleged peace-making and peace-keeping power? It's been able up to now to throw its weight around on issues that favor the reds, but flunks miserably on the job of getting reds in line.

Well, what's going to happen? Since the high and mighty UN, which uses our funds to prod the world toward communism, obviously admits that this affair is too hot for it to handle, are we going to give up too? That could happen, as things are going nowadays.

We dread to think of the consequence if it does. Oppressed people of Cuba who have been praying for liberation are being doomed indefinitely. Communist agents taught by the experts of Cuba will spread all over the Americas with their sabotage, intrigue and... (Continued on page 8)

Garden Club Has Program Featuring Christmas Ideas

Muenster Civic League and Garden Club members caught the Christmas spirit at their meeting Monday night when the program featured slides on Christmas Ideas. The commentary supplied directions for making indoor and outdoor holiday decorations.

Twenty-one members and three guests attended the meeting in the home of Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel with Mrs. Al Yosten as co-hostess.

Members came to the meeting bringing something from their gardens, to tell about at roll call. The specimens included fall blooming iris and chrysanthemums, roses, apples, red and green peppers and turnips.

In their business session members made plans for their annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale and set the date for Saturday, December 1. It will be held in the Youth Center on Main Street.

The hostesses served refreshments from a beautifully appointed table, the centerpiece carrying out a Thanksgiving theme with autumn leaves, bronze chrysanthemums, fresh fruits, nuts, acorns, persimmons and candles. Mrs. Dan Luke made the arrangement.

The slides were shown by Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel and Mrs. Urban Endres, the latter a guest. Other guests were Mrs. Joe Hoenig and Mrs. Bill Seyler of Valley View. Mrs. Seyler was visiting Mrs. Joe Luke.

Guest Day will be a feature of the December meeting when Mrs. L. B. Bruns and Mrs. Larry Yosten are co-hostesses in the Bruns home.

Eagles Cash in Hornet Slip-ups For Win of 29-6

Muenster made a strong effort to spoil Valley View's perfect record last Friday night but failed to deliver the extra push at critical moments and went down for a count of 29-6.

That put the Eagles in front for the district title. As they were winning Sanger obligingly inflicted a loss on Era. By losing next week to Era, Valley View still shares in a 3-way tie. But it's favored to win for a clear-cut title.

For a lot of last week's game the Hornets were to a good match for the champs. They led in total gains but too often they failed to keep going. They lost four fourth down gambles, three by inches and one by less than a yard besides two fumbles and two interceptions.

They started the game like a storm driving 56 yards to the Eagle 22 where their only penalty of the night stopped their advance. At the end of the series they were one yard short, on the 13.

The Eagles moved back three first downs and kicked and Muenster, from its 40 fouled up three plays. Two lost 13 yards and an attempted kick was prevented by a bad pass. The Eagles took over on the Hornet 23.

Next play Sparkman sailed around right end for the first Eagle score.

Shortly after the second quarter opened Muenster got going on another drive. It gained 50 yards to the Eagle 14 and lost the ball on downs, short by two inches. That practically finished the first half in which the Hornets trailed 6-0 in spite of leading 124 to 67 in yardage and 9-5 in first downs.

And the second half started equally good as Flusche intercepted and the Hornets followed with a first down to the 30. Then came the turning point. Next series fell short by inches stopping the Hornets the third time.

The Eagles went steadily up the field to their second TD. Sparkman made the last 32 of the 80 yard drive and Kyle followed over for bonus points. Muenster followed the next (Continued on page 8)

Junior 4-H Boys Organize Club

Sacred Heart boys have organized a junior 4-H club, enrolling 48 members and electing officers at their November meeting. Assistant County Agent Brooks Smith met with the group.

$981 Reported in UF Drive to Date

Muenster's United Fund drive has reached $981.50 up to Wednesday noon and has good prospects of topping the community goal of $1400.

Local chairman Henry Weinzapfel said Wednesday that collections are in from fewer than half of the workers but that verbal reports indicate good collections by the others.

Workers who have not reported are asked to do so promptly so that the campaign can be closed out soon... or, in case the goal isn't reached, so a final effort can be made immediately.

Hornets Favored Over Panthers in Final Tilt of '62

The Muenster Hornets and their fans are confidently looking forward to ending the 1962 football season with a win. All through the year signs were never more favorable than they are as the local boys line up against Saint Jo's Panthers. The game is at Saint Jo at 8 p.m. Friday.

Saint Jo has had a poor season. It has lost all of its games and most of them by decisive scores. On the other hand Muenster has a 4-4-1 record including some close losses with top rated teams of District 10-B. Advance dope definitely leans in Muenster's favor.

However, the dope does not include another element which often figures in the Muenster Saint Jo games. By tradition the Panthers regard the Hornet game as their big one and can be expected as usual to put on their big effort. And that may turn out to be quite an effort, judging by some of the Panthers' better showings this year.

Regarding his Hornets, Coach Glenn Richardson feels they have it cinched if they will work like they did at Valley View. Unless the breaks are terrible, that should be good enough.

The team's only handicap is Donny Vogel's sore leg. He's likely to be on limited service Friday night.

Saint Jo Sends Tip on Parking At Friday Game

From the Quarterback Club of Saint Jo comes a note advising Muenster fans how they can park more conveniently at the Panther Field Friday night.

It suggests using the new visitors' parking gate "which is located about 50 yards back toward Muenster from the main gate." It is well lighted, easy to spot, and is the only entrance leading to space near the visitors' grandstand.

Political platforms are for one party to stand on and the other to jump on.

Tigers Win 22-16 In B String Game With Pilot Point

For the second time in two weeks the Tigers of Sacred Heart took a nice lead in the first half and successfully sweated out the second half.

Playing a B game with the Pilot Point Bearcats they rolled up a 22-0 lead by intermission, which stood up under Pilot Point's strong comeback for 16 points in the second half.

The game was an extra for each of the participating teams and the players on each side were those who had previously missed one or more games, hence will not exceed their 10 games per season quota.

Passing featured the contest on both sides, and both teams gained far more through the air than on the ground. That applies especially to Sacred Heart. Wolf's arm was in fine shape and his receivers were doing their part as the Tigers rolled up a total of 233 yards on ten completions out of 18 tries. Rushing gains were held to 96. The Pointers made 70 on the ground and 120 in the air.

Sacred Heart went for its first TD the first time it got hold of the ball. The drive was good for 64 yards, and David Hess scored from the 1. Wolf's pass to Ray Wimmer made the count 8-0.

The next counter also came in the first quarter. Wolf heaved a long one connecting with Jimmy Otto who went the rest of 61 yards to the goal. Robert Klement's run added two points.

The Wolf to Otto combination also produced the third Tiger touchdown. It was good for 51 yards. After the half the Bearcats seemed to have a different team. They definitely took charge of the rest of the game but the stubborn Sacred Heart (Continued on page 8)

Janice Vogel Is County's 4-H Gold Star Girl

Muenster's Janice Vogel has been named Gold Star 4-H Club Girl for 1962 in Cooke County.

The announcement came Monday night at the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet in Community Center building at Gainesville. The Gold Star Award is the highest county award available in 4-H work and only one girl and one boy are named each year. Dale Hassell of Gainesville is honor boy.

Miss Vogel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Vogel and has been a 4-H girl for seven years as a member of Sacred Heart Clubs. She is a senior at Sacred Heart High.

Other local 4-H clubbers receiving awards at the banquet were County winners Charlotte Wolf, the Achievement award; Jackie Wimmer, dress revue; Mary Ellen Endres, canning; Linda Rohmer, Imogene Vogel and Mary Ann Yosten, food and nutrition; Dale Klement, swine; Pauline Fleitman, clothing; Janice Vogel, leadership.

State Winners Charlotte Wolf of Muenster and Gayle Pacific were introduced and received their awards. Charlotte received a wrist watch from the Carnation Milk Co. for winning the state dairy foods contest and Gayle received a certificate from Hercules Powder Co. as state entomology winner. She will receive an all-expense paid trip to the Chicago 4-H Club Congress later this month.

Among five adult leaders honored was Mrs. William Flusche of Lindsay.

More than 200 persons were present to see the 60 outstanding club members receive their awards.

Rosemary Hermes and Jimmy Flusche of Lindsay, last year's Gold Star winners, were toastmasters for the program. Judge Ralph Hall of Rockwall, newly elected senator, was the featured speaker.

Third Order Has Profession Rites

Solemn ceremonies of reception of profession were held at the November meeting of the Third Order of Saint Francis of Sacred Heart Parish Sunday afternoon in Sacred Heart Church.

Father Alcuin Kubis officiated at the ritual in which three professions were solemnized. J. M. Weinzapfel, Miss Theresa Luke and Mrs. John Fleitman joined the ranks of professed members. Mrs. John Knabe and Mrs. Leo Sicking were received as novices. Assisting Father Alcuin were Mrs. Edd McGannon, tertiary prefect and Mrs. R. R. Endres, mistress of novices.

Local members are contributing individually toward a tertiary memorial in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D. C. A dollar from each on a national basis will erect a half million dollar memorial.

A skit on teen-age nutrition was presented at the November meeting of Sacred Heart senior 4-H club girls with Jane Henschel and Janice Vogel doing the dramatizing. The program on nutrition and basic food needs was presented by Mrs. Evelyn Yeatts. Janice Vogel presided and 28 members attended. Jane Henschel and Carol Hess led the recreational period.

Larry Yosten and Jack Hogan of the NTPA club and Leo Orell and O. J. McAdams, district field men, were in Lubbock Monday and Tuesday attending a two-day short-course in dairying.

One Day Drive For Muscular Dystrophy Monday

A single and final special effort next Monday will end this year's Muscular Dystrophy campaign in Muenster.

Richard Growing, local chairman disclosed that there will be a business section march during the day and a house to house march in the evening.

Another part of the local campaign is the presence of canisters in local business houses. Receipts from those will be included with those of the special effort next Monday.

This is part of the annual nation wide campaign to fight the dread disease of Muscular Dystrophy. Three fourths of the funds are used in research seeking a cure for the disease, one fourth is retained by the district office to help treat the disease. Local donations go to the Fort Worth office and local victims can get help from there.

Notes on Building and Improvement

Three non-residential jobs and eleven new homes feature building activity in Muenster. The hospital is still at the foundation stage. The telephone building has walls almost finished. And NTPA is starting on a 34x60 building for unloading and washing truck tanks.

A big home is in the making for the Ernest Medders family on the farm recently purchased from Al Hess about a half mile northwest of town. It will be a Southern Colonial brick house with six bedrooms and five baths.

Just started is the new home for the Emil Rohmers in the northwest part of town. It will have three bedrooms, two baths, central heat and air conditioning, brick siding, double carport.

Nearby carpenters have almost finished their job for the Raymond Walterscheids. Their new home will have three bedrooms, two baths, central heat, brick siding, attached garage.

Mike Schilling, in the southeast part of town, has a good start on his new home which features 3 bedrooms, bath and a half, brick siding, central heat, attached garage.

Northeast of town Johnny Arend is just getting started on inside work on his new home. It's also a three bedroom job, central heat, brick veneer, attached garage.

Other country homes are those for A. L. Knox and Ollie Trubenbach. Knox southwest of town, is well started on inside work. He will have three bedrooms, two baths, central heating and air conditioning, brick siding, attached double garage.

The Trubenbachs have reached the painting stage on their new home which features three bedrooms and three baths, brick veneer, central heating and cooling, attached garage.

Due to start in a few days is the new home for Pete Koelzer, who returned to Muenster recently after living several years in Madill, Okla. He's planning a three bedroom brick house, central heat, attached garage.

Three of the recent builders have just moved into their new homes. Pat Hennigan, across from the hospital, has a three bedroom brick house, two and a half baths, central heat attached double garage.

Wilfred Koelzer's is also a three bedroom brick home, two baths, attached garage, central heat.

The Harold Bindels moved Tuesday into their new house. It's brick, three bedrooms, two baths, central heating and cooling, attached garage.

A major remodeling job is that at Andy Hofbauer's. A double carport and patio are added, the old garage is converted to a storeroom, aluminum storm window are installed and the outside is repainted.

The M. H. Kings are getting lots of built-ins, in kitchen, bath and closet and interior paint is to follow.

Felix Becker is on a combined improving and repairing job, including insulation, weatherboard and paint.

The Leg Haverkamps have a general renovating job including new floor cover, wall paper and paint.

Herbert Miller's home has a complete new inside and outside paint job.

And a 12x24 addition is under way at the St. Joseph's club room.

Never have so many people lived so well so far behind before.

Over 500 Attend SH Observance of Education Week

Student skills in all scholastic subjects were on display Monday at Sacred Heart Schools during open house in observance of American Education Week, Nov. 11-17. And more than 500 visitors called to see the exhibits.

Each grade from beginners to high school seniors participated by displaying their work and the faculty participated by explaining facilities including visual aids, testing program, science and biology equipment and text books.

Among outstanding exhibits were those of the art students, the home economic class, the shop department and the 4-H clubs.

Room 11 had the atmosphere of a country fair. 4-H clubbers held their Achievement Day program in connection with the open house. Judges tagged winning entries with ribbons to designate first, second and third place ratings. Baked goods were available as refreshments.

Student guides conducted visitors through the two buildings. High School girls were hostesses and presided at the guest book. All wore their navy and white school uniforms except the guides of Room 5 who were in costumes and drew as much comment as any of the exhibits. They were dressed as Pocahontas, Priscilla, Miles Standish, Minnehaha and Sitting Bull.

Tigers to Close Season Thursday With Jesuit B

Another of those baffling situations faces the Sacred Heart Tigers here Thursday night in their game with the B team of Jesuit Rangers.

In the first place little is known here about the school's B string except that it lost by one touchdown to the Greenhill Hornets. If Greenhill at that time played like its second half against Sacred Heart it could mean that the Rangers are potent and the Tigers have a big job ahead. And that is what Coach Adam Wolf is expecting.

Wolf also sees possibilities of additional troubles from the addition of former Ranger A stringers to the team. The first team has finished its schedule and members of it who have not participated in ten games are qualified for the game here.

Another factor also can be figured in. Usually with a B game preceding an A game the coach is inclined to hold out the stronger players in case they will be needed in the next game. No such caution applies this time. Tigers can expect all that Jesuit B has, and perhaps some Jesuit A players to boot.

Regardless of what shows up, however, Sacred Heart will be up to par physically. All the boys are in good condition. Besides they have ideas of a good ending for a good season. They have a 7-2 record on their regular schedule plus another win in B competition.

Knights to Meet Pickton Thursday In Bi-District

Lindsay's Knights will meet Pickton on its home grounds Thursday night in their bid for bi-district honors in 8-man football. Game time has been set at 8 o'clock.

While waiting for their post season tussle the Lindsay boys went to Nocona last Thursday night and walloped the B squad of the Indians by a convincing 30-6 count. They were playing with a full sized 11-member team for that one.

The Knights made their first score the first time they got hold of the ball. Morisak took an Indian punt and got loose on a beautiful 60 yard sprint to the goal. Donny Sandman followed over for extra points.

Later in the first quarter Sandman made the last 4 in a long drive after which Leon Neu added bonus points making the score 16-0.

The Indians also got into the fast moving first period with a 28 yard scoring pass.

After half time Tommy Zimmerer marked up 2 for the Knights by catching Nocona's ball carrier behind the goal. And later in the same period Neu made the last score from the 11.

TIME TO SOLVE THE NEXT CUBAN CRISIS

Although the President began with virtually unanimous support in the recent Cuban crisis, the public is now raising a multitude of questions: Why did we wait so long to take any action? Are we now willing to let Castro (meaning communism) stay in Cuba in exchange for removing the bases? Do we have any plan in mind to bring an end to the Communist threat to the world? Or even to our own hemisphere?

Or do we intend to "co-exist" indefinitely, reacting only to specific Communist attacks, hoping that someday some miracle will destroy communism without our help?

The list of questions could go on, but these are indicative of the concern in the minds of many people today.

Why aren't we working to destroy the enemy? He has many times acknowledged his desire to bury us. And we are spending over $50 billion each year for the avowed purpose of "fighting communism."

Yet we give our hard-earned money to Red rulers, we sell badly-needed wheat to them at below-market prices; we go to summits with them, and invite them as honored guests to our country; we sell strategic machine tools to them, and underwrite their credit purchases; we make concessions to arrive at treaties we know they won't honor; we pay their dues in the UN, and finance war against their enemies in the Congo, and on and on and on. . . .

Is it any wonder the Soviets assumed they could do anything they wanted in Cuba?

How can we ever hope to defeat communism — or even keep it from destroying us — when we won't even stop helping it?

Isn't it time we took the offensive? Isn't this the time to insure that there won't be another Cuban crisis?

For a starter, just the following policies could make profound changes in the whole complexion of the cold war:

1. We must quit selling, or giving, to the enemy the fruits of our system. Their system is an impossible one, and our help prolongs the day when it will collapse of its own weight, that almost always works against us. We should withdraw from the United Nations until the UN is reorganized as other than a Soviet tool.

2. We should certainly not be the paymaster for an agency against us. We should withdraw from the United Nations until the UN is reorganized as other than a Soviet tool.

3. There must be a full Congressional investigation of the State Department — and those who have proven themselves incapable of making decisions in our national interest should be discharged.

Just these items would put the Soviets on the defensive for the first time — and would force them to devote their resources toward preventing rebellions at home.

We can not go on forever just reacting defensively to every Soviet move. Each encounter leaves us with a net loss.

The President did not lack for support when he put his foot down in the Cuban affair. But now the American people would like, we believe, to see a much-needed overhauling of our whole foreign policy.

It's time to start thinking ahead. Time to see to it that there will not be another "Cuban crisis."

WHY? OH, WHY?

Within a fortnight ago the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee issued a 210-page report on conditions existing in the State Department security program. Much of the report dealt with one man, William Wieland, and it branded him as a person who misrepresented and falsified reports to superiors.

The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee report says that Wieland had access to information on Communist activities and the Communist associates of Fidel Castro. It says too that Wieland had access to the reports of many government agencies that contained details on the Castro group in Cuba. Yet, as late as mid-1959 Wieland was defending the Castro regime, even engaging in a name-calling dispute with a State Department official who attempted to tell Dr. Milton Eisenhower that Castro had Communist connections.

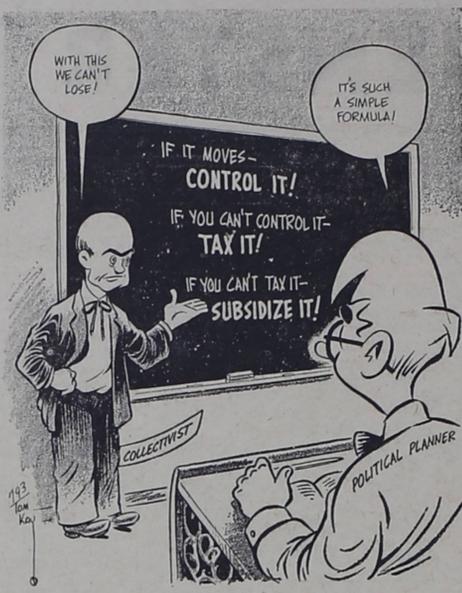

That Wieland knew just how far to go in avoiding the wrath of the extreme-liberal is evidenced by the fact that he is still drawing his $18,000-a-year salary but his job is referred to as "paper shuffling" in the State Department. But for Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy he might have had an assignment in Germany. Kennedy, to his credit, blocked that. While we dislike paying Wieland $18,000 a year to shuffle papers, we prefer him there than in a position of trust.

Would a government ditch digger, who blundered half as much as Wieland did, still be drawing his salary?

CIVIL RIGHTS?

Recently in California, the machinists at the Aerojet-General Corp. missile plant called a strike which Secretary of Labor, Willard Wirtz, termed an "intolerable threat to the nation's defense." Commenting on this work stoppage the Fort Lauderdale, Florida, News said, "As part of this strike the machinists threw up a picket line around the plant and endeavored to keep some 12,000 workers who are not members of their organization from entering the plant and continuing with their work."

Some of the non-union employees who didn't like the idea of being denied their right to work attempted to pass the picket lines with resulting injuries to both sides. In summarizing, the News reasoned: "Isn't the fact that 12,000 people are . . . kept from earning their paycheck by a massed picket line . . . just as serious an infringement upon constitutional rights as the act of Mississippi in trying to keep James Meredith out of its university?"

"Now, if other workers don't want to voluntarily cross picket lines, that is their business and their right. But if non-union workers do want to cross picket lines and are prevented from doing so by violence or threats of violence then it certainly seems to us that local, state and federal enforcement agencies have a clear and definite responsibility to provide them with the same type of protection that has been extended to James Meredith."

What is the answer to questions raised by the News if constitutional rights mean anything? Is the right to earn your food less important than the right to go to school?

OUR SECRET WEAPON IS NO SECRET

In times of world tension an crisis, it is appropriate to remind ourselves that American farms provide a large share of this nation's strength as the leader of the free world.

Food and fibers from America's farmlands add power to Uncle Sam's muscle as well as aiding our allies around the world. This has been true through two World Wars, numerous smaller encounters, and through all the troubled years between.

Oil-powered machinery, chemical farming, scientific research and education have helped today's American farmer push his productivity to unparalleled heights. He can produce enough food and fiber for 26 persons. A hundred years ago, he could have provided for only five persons. This is about what the Russian farmer can produce today, and only two persons more than the Egyptian farmer of 5,000 years ago could support.

On the modern farm, oil power has almost entirely replaced animal power in tilling, cultivating and harvesting. Jobs which once were slow and back-breaking now are performed with machine ease, speed and efficiency. The vast fleet of American farm machinery includes more than five million tractors, 2.8 million farm trucks, more than a million grain combines and 792,000 cornpickers, to mention a few examples.

Machine power makes it easy for farmers to apply such conservation practices as contour plowing, terracing and stubble-mulching. Petrochemical and oil-based fertilizers, weed-killers, insecticides and plant hormones play a major role in boosting productivity.

It is no secret that the cause of liberty is strengthened every day by the American farmer as he makes full use of modern science and technology in finding ways to do his job more effectively. So long as this spirit prevails throughout our nation, the United States can remain both strong and free.

Quebec, Canada is the only walled city in North America.

A neck is something which if you don't stick it out you won't get in trouble up to.

CDA Hears Report On Bazaar; Makes Christmas Plans

Principal discussion at the November meeting of the local court Catholic Daughters of America concerned their very successful three-day bazaar held last week.

Members immediately wrote off $140 of the amount to apply to their hospital pledge for this year, and the rest is earmarked for the organization's various charitable projects.

Routine reports were presented and Father Alcuin Kubis, chaplain, addressed the assemblage.

Looking forward to next month's activity, the membership made plans for the December meeting. It will be held in the home of Mrs. Charles Taylor and instead of a gift exchange among themselves members will bring infants' and children's clothing as a Christmas gift for St. Paul's Children's Clinic in Dallas. And they'll fix Christmas baskets again for local shut-ins.

Announcement was made of the NCCW deanery meeting to be held in Muenster on Nov. 29 and members expressed thanks to all who helped make the bazaar such an outstanding event.

After adjournment there was a social period with coffee and cookies served by Mrs. Clyde Fisher. Twenty-five members were present.

Mmes. Weinzapfel, Gremminger Back From NCCW Meet

Back from the National NCCW Convention in Detroit, Michigan, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Tony Gremminger report a wonderful time filled with meetings, sight-seeing tours, a visit with Detroit cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinzapfel, and a scenic bus tour going and returning with a stop in Windsor, Canada on the way back.

Their sister and sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Rasch of Houston, was on the trip with them. There were 29 women on the chartered bus that started from and returned to Dallas. And there were near 5000 women at the Detroit convention. Next convention city, in 1964, will be Washington, D.C.

When Mrs. Weinzapfel and Mrs. Gremminger arrived back in Dallas Saturday afternoon, Msgr. Thomas Weinzapfel met his mother and aunt and brought them to Muenster. And they "talked up a storm."

Msgr. Weinzapfel had just returned from his world tour which included a visit with his sister Juanita, Mrs. David Bright and her family in Germany. He got acquainted with his new niece born in Germany last August. Msgr. Weinzapfel stayed at home over night but had to return to Dallas for Sunday services.

The travelers didn't get to see Father Joe Weinzapfel on their return to Dallas. He left the day before for South America to spend six weeks in missionary work near Santa Cruz, Bolivia.

LOUIS B. HULCY of Dallas has been elected vice president of Lone Star Gas Company's general division of distribution, effective December 1.

The action was taken by Lone Star's board of directors meeting in Dallas Thursday, November 1. He will succeed M. L. Bird, 37-year veteran, who retires under the company's insurance-pension program.

Mr. Hulcy, 47, has been serving as general superintendent of general division since January 1960. He joined Lone Star in June 1939 following his graduation from Texas A&I College at Kingsville with a BS degree in natural gas engineering.

Henry Hennigans End Vacation Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hennigan were back for another visit in their old hometown before starting their way back to Albuquerque, N. M. They spent the weekend with their son and family, the Pat Hennigans, and helped Pat celebrate his birthday Saturday in the new home the Hennigans had just moved into.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hennigan came back here from Wilson, Okla., where they had been guests of his brother and wife, the Tom Hennigans.

This week they ended a month's vacation with Cooke county relatives and went to Fort Worth for a visit in the home of her sister Rachel and family, the Elwyn Hopes, then on to El Paso to visit their daughter Rose and family, the Andy Johnstons and sons Kevin and Sean, before returning to their home in Albuquerque, N. M.

Rural Carriers to Leave Cards for Livestock Survey

Rural mail carriers from the Muenster Post Office will leave some livestock survey cards along their routes beginning November 16.

"Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Arthur Endres explained.

Rural carriers distribute the cards at random in boxes along their routes.

"This means that not every box will get a card," Mr. Endres said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and National pig crop report and inventories of livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and may others use this information in making business decisions.

Electronic Unit Takes over Texaco Pumping-Gauging

Automation is offering to help the pumpers and pipe line gaugers in this area, and is currently being used by the Texaco Inc. Producing Department on the Solomon-Felderhoff field 10.5 miles northwest of Muenster.

Texaco has installed an Odex LACT unit, an automatic control that runs oil into a pipe line without the aid of a gauger, according to C. B. Fowler, local representative of Texaco Inc.

LACT is an electronic device, a series of valves and switches located 80 feet from the oil tanks. Its use permits reduction of a battery of tanks to only two, and elimination of the gang of valves.

Two float valves in the tank control the dumping of 100 barrels of oil. When oil reaches the level of the upper float it starts the pump, when it reaches the level of the lower float it stops the pump. While pumping is in process a master meter registers the volume in barrels and also registers on a weekly chart meter for the Railroad Commission. It also has a control to stop the pump when the allowable is reached. It even has a quality control arrangement. LACT is set for the required quality. If the quality fails to hold up the electronic brain stops sending it to the pipe line and sends it instead to the heater-treater, from which it returns to the tank.

Texaco's next LACT unit in this area will be installed soon on the Mauer-Walterscheid lease.

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN TEXAS... the entire state waited, with hopes and prayers, for news of Terry's Texas Rangers, beloved for their courage, daring and skill as fighters. With Albert Sidney Johnston in Kentucky, in and out of Tennessee with Nathan Bedford Forrest, into Georgia with Fighting Joe Wheeler... where there was a battle to be won for the South, the Rangers were there!

And then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southwestern hospitality to any occasion. Texans have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

NO COMMENT!

We recently ran across the following item: Last year the U. S. government refused a $5.5 million loan to keep the New Haven Railroad out of bankruptcy (as indeed it should). Yet since 1946 our government has loaned and given to the railroads (most of them government owned) of foreign countries the total of $1.4 billion — more than 250 times the New Haven request.

Jo Ann Fuhrmann Has First Party

Mr. and Mrs. Damond Fuhrmann entertained with a family party in their home Sunday in observance of the first birthday of their daughter, Jo Ann, whose birthdate is Nov. 16.

The little girl had to celebrate her birthday in a cast from her hips down. She has been in the cast two months. A checkup in Dallas the past week by her doctor resulted in a "doing fine" report but the cast has to stay on another month.

Candy, bubble gum and balloons were favors for the children.

An afternoon of visiting was concluded with refreshments served by Mrs. Fuhrmann to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann, Mrs. Pete Block, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Block and family, Pat and Gene Block, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess and children of Muenster, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuntz and son Mark of Valley View. Grandpa Pete Block was missing from the gathering. He was away on a business trip to South Texas.

violence. While that is going on the defenders of freedom in those countries will be handicapped more than ever in their struggle for survival . . . because none of them will risk depending on the nation that failed Cuba so shamefully.

It's significant that American prestige and Latin American spirit both went soaring when our president talked turkey on the Cuban issue. Since principle is slipping, however, prestige and spirit are doing likewise.

It would take 53 years for an airplane, traveling 200 miles per hour, to go from the earth to the sun. Alaska has the largest sea-coast of any State in the U. S., with 6,640 miles. Florida is second, with 1,197.
