Absentee voting underway

by Elaine Schad

Cooke County voters will have a chance to vote in all races for the Nov. 3 election through Oct. 30, as early voting started this week at the Cooke County Courthouse.

Voters may cast ballots early through Oct. 30 at the County Clerk's Office on the second floor of the Courthouse on Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., said County Clerk Frank Scoggin. Any registered voter may cast an early ballot.

While the presidential election is on everyone's mind, there are several local races of interest that will be on the Nov. 3 ballot, including two contested county races.

In the race for Cooke County Judge, Democrat Ray Russell will face Republican Stephen Cole for an unexpired term. Judge Russell was appointed to the seat last fall.

There will certainly be a new sheriff in Cooke County with the winner of the other contested county race. Democrat Joe Nichols is facing Republican Jim Bleything for sheriff. Nichols bested longtime incumbent Sheriff John Aston in the primary to become his party's nominee.

A host of local candidates are running unopposed for county seats, with incumbents filling most of those slots. Newcomers to Cooke County government will be new District Attorney Janelle M. Haverkamp and new County Commissioner Precinct 1 Murrell F. Harrison. Both are running unopposed after defeating incumbents in the May primary election. James Boone will be the new Constable in Precinct 1. Other races of local interest will include the race for District 30 State Senator, which covers all of Cooke County. In that race, incumbent Democrat Steven A. Carriker is being challenged by Republican Tom Haywood.

Cooke County has been divided into two Texas house districts, with the division line basically proceeding down Grand Avenue in Gainesville. Voters in the west side of Grand Avenue will be voting for the District 61 State Representative where incumbent Democrat Ric Williamson is facing Republican David Kubosh. Those on the east side of Grand Avenue will vote in the District 62 State Representative race where incumbent Democrat Curtis Lee Seidlits Jr. is running unopposed.

All of Cooke County has been placed in a new U.S. Congressional District except Precinct 14 in the Rosston area. Most of the county will select the District 4 U.S. Representative where incumbent Democrat Ralph M. Hall is facing Republican David L. Bridges and Libertarian candidate Steven Rothacker. Precinct 14 voters will vote for the District 13 U.S. Congressional seat where Democrat Bill Sarpalus is facing Republican Beau Boulter.

Other statewide contested races where Cooke County voters will cast ballots include:

-Railroad Commissioner, where Democrat Lena Guerrero will face Republican Barry Williamson and Libertarian Party candidate Richard N. Draheim Jr.

-Justice, Supreme Court, Place 1: Democrat Oscar H. Mauzy is facing Republican Craig Enoch and Libertarian Party candidate Alfred Adask.

-Justice, Supreme Court, Place 2: Democrat Rose Spector is facing Republican Eugene Cook.

-Justice, Supreme Court, Place 3: Democrat Jack Hightower is facing Republican John D. Montgomery.

-Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 1: Democrat Charles F. Baird is facing Republican Joseph A. Devany.

-Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2: Democrat Morris L. Overstreet is facing Republican Sue Lagarde.

-Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 3: Democrat Pete Benavides is facing Republican Lawrence Meyers.

-Justice, 2nd Court of Appeals District, Place 3: Democrat Doyle Willis Jr. is facing Republican Tod Weaver.

MMH Board discusses finances and doctors

Members of the Muenster Hospital Board met on Wednesday, Sept. 23, for their regular monthly meeting. David Bright, vice-president, presided in the absence of Al Felderhoff, president.

Jack Endres, MMH administrator, reported that he anticipated Dr. Tompkins signing a contract within the week. He also told Dr. Tompkins' request to have mobile CT scan and nuclear medicine made available. The board instructed Endres to research the advantages of such an arrangement.

Endres' report on the financial statement showed a loss of $60,000 for the last period. He anticipates an even bigger loss to be shown in the next period.

The board voted unanimously to have Mr. Endres get the best investment possible on the CDs which were soon to mature at the Muenster State Bank.

At around 8 p.m., the Board went into an executive session which lasted until 9:20 p.m. When the meeting was reopened, the members unanimously voted to terminate the hospital's contract with Dr. Andrew Cole. They also agreed to have the administrator work with an OB/GYN to provide financial assistance for his residency leading to licensure.

In other business: David Bright suggested that the administrator give monthly stats on in-patient, out-patient, census, lab, etc.; the blood gas machine arrived and is in operation; Endres reported that he is leasing a DRG enhancement computer program.

Two members, Al Felderhoff and Sharon Felderhoff, were absent. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m.

Turtle Hill Golf Course drives for members with two-day Open House

A much-anticipated event, the opening of Turtle Hill Golf Course, Inc., has been announced by Dick Murphy, owner. The front nine holes will be open in July 1993. To acquaint the public with the course, an open house and membership drive is planned for Saturday, Oct. 31, and Sunday, Nov. 1, from 9 a.m. until dusk at the golf course.

Turtle Hill Golf Course is located eight miles north of Muenster along Hwy. 373. The rolling terrain layout will operate as a private course open to the public. Daily play as well as annual memberships are available.

The fee schedule will be very competitive with other area courses, but considerably less expensive than the Metroplex. An example of these fees is weekday green fee, including golf cart, under $20. Annual single memberships, family memberships, corporate and even lifetime memberships, will also be available at similar low costs.

Built to USGA standards, the course is 6,900 yards long, par 72. Very large and interesting greens, averaging almost 8,000 square feet, will be seeded with a newly-developed bent grass. By utilizing multiple tee boxes and two different pin placements, the front nine will play well as 18 holes until the back nine holes are completed.

Plans for this regulation course were started in 1990 with the initial routing being done by Dick Murphy. In 1991, Mike Sheridan, a golf course architect representing Finger Dye Spann, Inc., completed the professional design. The location's hilly terrain, plentiful water and mature trees have been incorporated into the course design to their best natural advantage to create what should be one of the best course layouts in North Texas.

Mike Otto of Lindsay is the course builder. Otto has expressed his talents and used his experience to create some truly unique holes, said Murphy.

Eventually, the existing Pro Shop and 19th hole will give way to a modern club house which will provide a golf club atmosphere. By utilizing a cost-effective approach, Mr. Murphy has built a golf course that will be playable and affordable to everyone.

During the open house, guided tours will be conducted and special Charter Memberships will be available. "If you are serious about golf, don't miss this one!" commented Murphy. For more information, call Turtle Hill Golf Course, (817) 759-4896.

Program on Oct. 19 to spur awareness of local students in dangers of alcohol abuse

Students in grades seven through twelve from Muenster ISD and Sacred Heart School will have the opportunity to attend a presentation by Jan and Brian Ball of Trenton, Texas on Monday, Oct. 19 at 1 p.m. in the Muenster ISD Auditorium. The program is keyed to increasing the awareness in the dangers of alcohol and "Binge Drinking."

The Balls became involved in the education of youths and their parents to these dangers after they lost their son Brian Christopher in August 1991. Brian Christopher died of alcohol poisoning at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 11. He attended his first drinking party while vacationing in Salisbury, Maryland. This was without the knowledge or permission of his parents and this is where he ingested the fatal number of drinks. He was brought to the Peninsula General Hospital emergency room at 10:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 9. Brian Christopher was in a coma from which he never regained consciousness.

After CNN went National with the story of their son's death the Balls began working with the Public Affairs Unit of the Maryland State Police in an attempt to insure accurate reporting, and increase public awareness in the underage

Good News!

The reign of God is like a buried treasure which a man found in a field. He hid it again, and rejoicing at his find went and sold all he had and bought that field.

MATTHEW 13:44

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I volunteered as a substitute teacher at Wichita Falls' McNiel Junior High School on Friday, Oct. 9. My assignment, which was comfortable for me, was 7th grade science.

My reason for taking this job was that I viewed it as a part of my ongoing commitment to serving this district as best I am able. As a former educator and administrator at the university level, I realize that my experience has been limited to working primarily with adults and that there is a great difference between this work which I did for 14 years and that of teachers at the public school level. And now, I can appreciate and understand the classroom experiences of those involved in public school education. I feel that I will be able to relate better to my wife Pat talking about her experiences of the past 14 years as a kindergarten teacher, elementary principal and administrator and teacher of non-native English speakers.

My experience helped me understand one thing with certainty: it is not possible to overpay a good teacher! Their days are full of stress. Now I understand why my wife frequently comes home on Fridays worn to a frazzle!

The youth in my classes were clearly capable and interested in learning. Although sometimes they were difficult to control, there was not a "bad apple" in the group. They were capable of understanding sophisticated concepts, and were not inferior to children of any generation or, I believe, to children of any country in the world.

I want all citizens, but most especially teachers, to know that as your State Senator, I will continue this hands-on commitment to better understanding the needs and problems of the citizens of the 30th District. This commitment will focus on our most important constituents, our children, and will continue to our senior citizens.

Sincerely,
Tom Haywood

Letter to the Editor:

This will be a last-minute rush letter to get to you by 17:00, however, I have had some questions on my mind that I feel is the most important event of all time. That is "who do we want as our next president?" We now have a choice of four candidates.

I remember all of my life that we had the diehard Democrat or Republican thinkers! But now we have other choices. Personally, I am fed up with Politicians, and what Washington particularly has come to. During the time I was in business, I thought many times how can the "tax and spend people" in Washington think they can just keep spending and borrowing. It has to be paid back by us some day, and the worst part of it is loading up for our children and grandchildren to take over when no borrowing is available. I firmly believe that $1 of tax money loses half before it gets back to us. We hear day after day of the pet project that wastes away a large portion of the dollars. Why do we just ignore it and let it continue?

I am very much looking forward to see what we could have in Ross Perot. I feel a good businessman is what we need at the head. I like his idea of an electronic town hall meeting that would make us aware of everything that is going on in Washington. If we are closely watching our representatives, I believe they will more do what is good for our country.

I have a lot of more thoughts, and would enjoy a good town hall meeting for discussion. And, Mr. Editor, how about a survey of some opinions around town? It sure is very much in discussion presently.

I always enjoyed your letters to the editor column, and wish more people would make use of it. We don't get the time to get together and gab. Please keep my friend, Ed Cler, sending in his column. I enjoy it very much. I wish we had more locals telling some of their stories. I know I enjoyed taping a lot of them for the State Oral History project.

Almost 17:00. Auf wiedersehen.

The Christian family - the domestic church

by Emily Klement

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first in a continuing series of articles on "The Christian Family - the Domestic Church" to be submitted by Emily Klement. Next week's article will be on "Divine and Human Fatherhood" from The Word Among Us.)

A lot of talk has been centered on "family values" recently. The politicians have gotten into the discussion and raised some very interesting front page news topics. Most people know they want family values and unity, but seem to be at a loss on how to achieve that goal. The following are some excerpts from The Word Among Us, a Scripture study booklet based out of Gaithersburg, Maryland.

It is written by the "Mother of God Prayer Community" and other Christian writers. With their permission, here are their insights expressed for all of us who struggle with maintaining a Christian home and "family values."

Have you ever thought of your family as a "domestic church"? This is actually one of the ancient images used by the Church Fathers to describe the Christian family. They saw the family as a domestic or "mini" church because, just as the church itself was a sign and instrument of Christ in the world, so too was the family!

The Christian family is truly a manifestation of the church, as a communion of life in the Spirit, nourished by the word of God, deepened in worship and bearing fruit in new life. The primary goal for Christian parents is to rear children for eternal life. Genuinely Christian parents will long for their children to become firm believers in Christ Jesus - and so come to a personal knowledge of their heavenly Father. The concept of the family as a domestic church can help parents see more clearly how they can help their children to become strong Christian men and women.

Jesus is "the way and the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). Apart from Jesus and his truth, untruth or confusing shades of half-truth distort reality. When parents teach their children about Jesus and explain his gospel to them, they are working to free their children from the deception of sin: "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free" (John 8:31-32). As we help our children understand and personally grasp the true word of God, as we help them to know Jesus, we equip them with principles that will establish them as sons and daughters of God and members of his body.

Lindsay residents ask Council to reinstate city police department

by Elaine Schadt

A majority of Lindsay residents would like to see the city reinstate its city police department, according to a survey completed as part of a city council study of a proposal to reinstate the department presented at the city council's regular October meeting.

Preliminary results from the study conducted by city councilman Danny Zwigg and Dick Alfrey showed that citizens would like the department reinstated by about a 2 to 1 margin, said Lindsay Mayor Robert Walterscheid. The council must gather more information about costs and policies before making a final decision on whether to reinstate the department, Walterscheid said.

The city's one-man police department and the municipal court were abolished in June 1990, with officials citing economic concerns as the reason for its abolishment. The Cooke County Sheriff's Department has been asked to patrol the city in the absence of the police officer. During two meetings earlier this year, citizens requested that the department be reinstated.

In another matter, the city council has granted a temporary specific use permit on a controversial zoning dispute which has been ongoing for several months.

The council granted the permit to Miklos Nagy during its October meeting. The 90-day permit will be granted on a permanent basis if Nagy complies with recommendations for moving some things on his property. The permit will allow Nagy to continue to operate his business.

A dispute arose in February between Lindsay residents Miklos Nagy and Steve Bell over the location of a business. Bell, who owns property adjacent to Nagy, has contended that Nagy is operating a business out of his home without a proper permit. Nagy, who has a part-time machine shop business, said he was assured by a former Lindsay city councilman 17 years ago that his business conformed to city standards. City officials said they have no record of a permit being granted to Nagy to operate a business.

Seven property owners at the council's April meeting heard Nagy's proposal to build a privacy fence on the east side of his shop, rearrange some of the equipment and remove some equipment. All the property owners present agreed they would like to see Nagy continue to operate his business, but would like to see more cleanup that he was proposing. Nagy felt like he was being singled out and said he thought there were other businesses in town that also did not conform to the city's zoning regulations.

A committee consisting of Nagy, council members Andy Arendt, who will chair the committee, and Robert Walterscheid, as well as affected property owners Steve Bell and Paul Sandmann, were appointed to work out an agreement.

In other business during its October meeting, the council:

- Authorized City Attorney Belvin Harris to pursue action against the city's cable television franchise concerning the quality of cable reception for the city's residents.

- Agreed to share the expense of providing water and sewer extensions to the new St. Peter's Parish Center now under construction at a city cost of $1,000. The council also approved a similar agreement with the Lindsay School District, agreeing to pay $1,000 as the city's share in providing water and sewer, extensions to the new athletic field.

- Approved final payment to JAW Construction for repair and renovating the roof on City Hall. The council heard a request that the Texas Municipal League insurance estimated that $12,387.91 in damage occurred due to storm damage of the roof at city hall. With a $2,500 deductible, the city received an insurance payment of $9,887.91. The roof was to be replaced and the flat roof was replaced with a gable roof. After subtracting the insurance payment, the city's actual out-of-pocket cost for the project was $1,400.

- Tabled a proposal to implement a user fee for water taps until the city could conduct a study on a proposal to increase water rates in lieu of the user fee. The city would use the money for future water needs.

- Tabled until the November meeting the first reading on new subdivision and zoning regulations.

drinking problem. Media coverage drew the attention of the U.S. Surgeon General, Dr. Antonia Novello. Dr. Novello invited the Balls to join her in Washington D.C. for a press conference dealing with loop holes in state laws related to underage drinking.

Last October Jan and Brian gave a presentation to students at Trenton High School to inform them of the dangers of Binge Drinking, and answer any questions that they might have about what happened to Brian Christopher. Many of the students knew him personally since Trenton is a small school system and Brian Christopher had been in Trenton schools since kindergarten. Since that time Jan and Brian Ball have been interviewed on ABC and MTV, taped a series of public service announcements on the subject, done presentations at all four 1992 Texas' War on Drugs Youth Leadership Conferences during the summer, and continue to share their presentations with schools, communities and conferences.

Jan and Brian Ball will also speak to the Parents, Students, Teachers Association in the Gainesville High School Auditorium at 7 p.m. Monday evening. All interested parents are invited to attend.

Imelda Rohmer serves 26 years at post office

After more than 26 years of service, October 2 marked the final day of Imelda Rohmer as an employee of the U.S. Post Office in Muenster. Co-workers honored her with a fish fry on the evening of October 7 in the home of Tom and Virgilla Herr. With his wife Joaline assisting, Virgil Henscheid fried a bountiful catch of crappie, with other co-workers and their spouses bringing a delicious assortment of side dishes and desserts.

Imelda began at the post office in June 1966, working only occasionally as a substitute clerk and in distribution. Arthur Endres was postmaster and clerks were Virgil Henscheid and Fred Knabe. Carriers were Curly Pels and Ed Endres, with Frank Schilling and Tom Herr as substitutes. A short time later she began working part time on a regular basis.

When Turkey Hoelker and his wife, Helen, resigned from the post office in Lindsay in the early 1970s, Imelda also worked Saturday mornings and did substitute work there when available until that position was filled by Clara Hermes, with Mildred Biffle as postmaster.

Her years at the post office witnessed a number of changes. For example, in her earlier years, being the substitute or part time employee meant distributing mail on Sunday mornings as well as Christmas and other holiday mornings. She also recalls using the first calculator at the post office. While the calculator is still used, today the computer has made its appearance. Also over the years new services have been offered in an attempt to keep service in tune with an increasingly fast paced and growing world. Imelda remarks, "I feel very fortunate to have worked at the post office all these years. It was great to be able to be part of the best postal system in the world. I feel that I couldn't have had a job that was more convenient for me - to be so close I could ride my bike to and from work. Also, being in a smaller office made my work more interesting, as I was able to do a little bit of everything rather than just being tied to one job. I really enjoyed working at the "window" and I'll certainly miss seeing all those good people I had the privilege of serving."

Concerning her retirement Imelda adds, "With six children living out of town, it will be great for Arnie and me to be free to pick up and visit them whenever we like, or even head out on a trip of our own. Also I'm really looking forward to getting started on all those projects that have been on hold for so long. Staying busy shouldn't be any problem at all."

Valley View ISD begins plans on new library

by Elaine Schad

The Valley View School District will use a $117,900 grant to build a new high school library.

School trustees have authorized district architect Allen Nelson of Denton to proceed with drawings that should be completed by the board's November meeting. Bids could be let for the project as early as January, said Bert Glascock, Valley View School Superintendent.

The district has received the grant from the Texas Education Agency's facilities improvement fund. It will be used along with surplus funds for an estimated $500,000 project that will include the construction of a new library, the possible construction of a satellite media center on the elementary campus and renovation of the existing library to expand the cafeteria.

"Our primary need now is to expand the cafeteria," Glascock said. The present library is located in the district's multi-purpose building and shares a wall with the school cafeteria. The present library is also in need of additional storage space, he said. The school district, with about 500 students located in southern Cooke County, presently begins serving lunch at 10:45 a.m. and continues through 12:30 p.m. due to space limitations.

In an unrelated matter, the Valley View School District has received a waiver from the Texas Education Agency to use five class days as teacher workdays.

The TEA waiver will mean the Valley View ISD have total class days of 175 days instead of 180. The first staff development day will be Oct. 12 covering site-based management.

In other action during the regular September meeting, the board discussed the possibility of electing school board members by place. The district currently places all names on the ballot and the designated number of candidates for the positions open will win if they receive the highest number of votes. No decision was made on the proposal, which is expected to be discussed again at the board's October meeting.

The board also granted five transfer requests, hired Virginia Althin as a secondary teacher and reviewed several policy items, including criteria for career ladder, student travel, fund raising and student lettering guidelines. Those policies will be action items at the October meeting.

How many wedding days can match this one?

How many weddings have you attended when there were three brides? Traditionally, bridesmaids are dressed alike, but how often have you seen brides wearing the same magnificent gowns?

This triple wedding photo is a treasure shared by Alvina (Fette) Voth, of her parents, an uncle and aunt, and two cousins included among attendants, plus the third couple and their attendants.

The identical bridal gowns and veils were made by Mrs. Alois Hoenig for the triple wedding on Nov. 14, 1905, in Sacred Heart Church. The wedding couples are Anda (Fette) Hellman and Gus Hellman; Katie (Trachta) Hellman and William Hellman; Laura (Endres) Fette and Henry Fette. Their attendants were, l to r, Annie Hellman, C.J. Fette, Dina Trachta, Henry Trachta, Hattie Endres and Meinrad Endres. In later years, Dina married I.A. Schoech and Hattie married John Yosten.

Annie Hellman and Gus Hellman and Bill Hellman were sister and brothers. Dina Trachta, Henry Trachta and Katie Trachta were sisters and brother; Anda Fette, C.J. Fette and Henry Fette were sister and brothers; Laura Endres and M.J. Endres were sister and brother; and Hattie Endres was their cousin.

Childhood Screening is Oct. 30

On Oct. 30, from 8:30 to 12:30, an early childhood screening will be held at B.T. Washington School in Gainesville to identify children who may have handicapping conditions or might have low potential for success in school.

A child who needs to be screened is one who does not appear to act, see, hear, speak, understand or learn as others of his age.

Children who are handicapped are eligible to attend school from age 3, from birth if visually or hearing impaired. If you have a child who is suspected of having a handicapping condition and will be three (3) years old during the 1992-93 school year, please call the Special Education Office at 665-0773 for an appointment to bring him/her on Oct. 30 for screening tests. The tests include vision and hearing and motor ability procedures, as well as some learning tasks.

Other screening dates this year are Jan. 29, March 26 and April 23.

Donations are being accepted

Hofbauer's Food and Locker and Fischer's Meat Market are now accepting small monetary donations for the Chuckwagon Breakfast to be held following the Hospital Auxiliary fundraiser, the Oct. 17 western dance to be held in Sacred Heart Community Center. All proceeds from this dance will go towards the purchase of a bath for the Muenster Memorial Hospital.

American Heart Walk scheduled for Oct. 24

Cooke County residents will join thousands of citizens across the country in "walking all over cardiovascular diseases" during the American Heart Walk, slated for Saturday morning, Oct. 24, at Gainesville's Heritage Park.

The American Heart Walk is a nationwide event sponsored by the American Heart Association and Lederle Laboratories. Held in communities across the country during the month of October, the goal of the walk is to raise money to aid in the fight against cardiovascular diseases while raising awareness on the benefits of exercise.

The non-competitive, just-for-fun event is expected to draw participants of all ages. The walkers will raise money for cardiovascular research by asking friends and co-workers to sponsor them in walking the 3-mile course.

Cardiovascular disease is not just the Number One Killer in America, or in Texas, it is also the lead taker of lives in Cooke County. In 1990, 113 Cooke County residents lost their lives to cardiovascular problems.

Each walker raising $100 or more will receive an American Heart Walk T-shirt and will be eligible for prizes.

For information on how you can get involved in the 1992 American Heart Walk, contact Kanita or Mack Maxwell at 665-1575 after 5 p.m., or contact Gainesville Memorial Hospital at 665-1751.

VOTE TO KEEP RAY RUSSELL COUNTY JUDGE

Duty of County Judge: Presiding Official over Cooke County Commissioners' Court
Qualifications: The County Government of Cooke County is a Multi-Million Dollar corporation and does everything from setting tax rates to grading county roads. Many legal questions are presented at each Commissioners' Court meeting. As County Judge and a licensed attorney, I am in a position to offer legal opinions and advice to the Commissioners' Court before any irrevocable decisions are made which could result in costly lawsuits to the taxpayers. At the present time, there is no need to hire an outside attorney to assist in the day to day operation of our county government.

Duty of County Judge: Cooke County Courtroom
Qualifications: The Cooke County Judge spends almost one half of his or her time hearing and resolving probate cases, mental illness cases, criminal cases, civil cases, and juvenile cases. That translates to approximately 1,000 hours per year doing "attorney" duties. At the rate lawyers charge, those hours translate to $100,000.00 - $125,000.00 per year. I am fully licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas to preside over all these matters and I can save the county this unnecessary expense.

Duty of County Judge: Juvenile Court Judge
Qualifications: Texas law requires that if the County Judge is not a duly licensed attorney, than an ALTERNATE JUVENILE COURT must be designated. As a practical necessity, this would force the taxpaying citizens of Cooke County to form and operate a County-Court-at-Law (the judge of which is required by law to be an attorney). An additional judge, secretary, bailiff, and court reporter would have to be hired at additional expense to the taxpayers. Also, office space, office equipment, supplies, and surplus court dockets would be needed. THESE EXPENDITURES WOULD BE WELL IN EXCESS OF $100,000.00 PER YEAR. At the present time, I am the Juvenile Court Judge and can continue to operate as such without these needless expenditures of hard-earned taxpayer dollars.

Duty of County Judge: Moral, Legal, and Ethical Responsibility of Hard Work.
Qualifications: I have done my very best to serve the citizens of Cooke County as a hard working Full-Time County Judge. My office hours are from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. and so long thereafter until the job is done. Any less effort on my part would be a breach of the taxpayers' trust and a burden on my conscience. My schedule makes it difficult for me to meet each of you and I am truly sorry that I could not shake every hand in Cooke County.

I sincerely hope that I can EARN your support and vote in the General Election on November 3rd.

Youth rally takes a stand for Jesus

CHELBY SCHOPPA was recently awarded Tandy Technology Honors. Chelby, right, is shown here with Mrs. Kay Perry, MHS counselor, being presented the award for being Muenster ISD's Tandy Outstanding Student in Mathematics/Science/Computer Science as well as the Tandy Top Two Percent in Academics. Selection was made by teacher recommendation, student grades, and outstanding achievement in Science and Math. Chelby will be a finalist for scholarships to be given by the Tandy Corporation at a later date.

There was a "joyful noise" coming from the Sacred Heart Community Center on Sunday, Oct. 11! Doug Weisbruch of Dallas brought his guitar, his beautiful voice and his love for Jesus, and led a youth rally for approximately 75 young people and several adult leaders.

Attending were junior high and high school young people from Sacred Heart Church of Muenster, St. Bartholomew of Fort Worth, St. Jerome of Bowie, St. John the Baptist of Bridgeport and St. John of Valley View.

Theme of the rally was "Taking A Stand For Jesus." Throughout the afternoon, the audience was captivated by Doug's message of Jesus and how He can work in their lives. Members of JAM (Jesus Alive in Muenster) performed skits and dramas to emphasize that same love and help Jesus has for us. Performing for the crowd were Becky Fleitman, Jennifer Fuhrmann, Donetta Hess, Ashley Hartman, Darren Bindel, Michael Hacker, Michelle Hennigan, Allison Klement, Dianne Pagel, Justin Hartman, Werner Becker, Melissa Fisher, Lori Graham, Vivian Bolanos and Laura Vogel. Assisting at the refreshment table were Ernie Martin, Jeannine Flusche, Kelly Bob Bayer and several members of the Sacred Heart 8th grade class.

Doug performed some of the songs from his tape, "Secret Hiding Place," including "Behold the Lamb," "Follow Me" and several others.

He spoke of the "simple message of God's salvation through Jesus and that as Christians we must look for Him and make Him our priority"...Doug spoke of the "safety of His arms, how we can live by the Spirit of God and how, through God, we find our strength to live and embrace our crosses. Through all the turmoils of this ravaged world, we can find hope, peace and love in that 'secret hiding place.'"

Doug Weisbruch then invited the young people to stand up for Jesus and ask Him to become a larger part of their lives.

The next event on the schedule of youth rallies will be bowling and pizza on Sunday, Oct. 25, 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. All who plan to attend are asked to meet at the Sacred Heart Community Center for a van ride to Gainesville.

by Shellie Jupe
County Extension Agent-H.E.
The Cooke County Annual 4-H event that all 4-H'ers wait for has come and gone. The anticipated event of the 4-H Achievement Banquet was held Monday, Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. at the Gainesville Civic Center. As every year, this banquet is made possible by the sponsorship of Cooke County Electric Cooperative. If it weren't for their generous contributions each year, our 4-H'ers would not be able to be recognized in this special way.

The theme of the banquet was "4-H is a Carnival of Fun," which was chosen to express the assortment of projects that are offered, along with the excitement and enjoyment that is shared among the 4-H'ers as they complete projects and receive awards for their accomplishments.

Attending this event were 81 4-H members and 131 parents and friends of 4-H. Some of these 4-H'ers, who were Senior 4-H members, received special acknowledgment through their leadership, communication and community service 4-H accomplishments. At the banquet six of these Senior 4-H members were honored with three special awards, the Danforth "I Dare You" award, the Farm Bureau Leadership award, and the Gold Star award. The 4-H members receiving the Danforth "I Dare You" award were Melissa Stiles of Callisburg and Rebecca Miller of Woodbine. The next award that was presented was the Farm Bureau Leadership award, which was awarded to Alissa Stiles of Callisburg and Greg Brooks of Woodbine. The last award of the evening was the Gold Star award, the highest county award given. Receiving this prestigious honor were Sara Flusche of Lindsay and Werner Becker of Muenster. These last two 4-H'ers will also be honored at the District Gold Star Banquet in Plano on November 24.

Scholarships were also given to graduating seniors who are 4-H members. Each year the Cooke County Extension Homemakers Council offer scholarships to graduating seniors who are active members of 4-H. This year three members each received $300 scholarships. They were Clifford Lutkenhaus of Lindsay, Werner Becker of Muenster and Sean Herbold of Callisburg.
Now that this year's 4-H Achievement Banquet has come to an end, it's time to begin all over. It's time for 4-H'ers to start those projects so they can share their achievements at next year's banquet.

National Honor Society inducts members Oct. 7

Muenster ISD's chapter of the National Honor Society inducted new members during a ceremony held on Wednesday, Oct. 7. The incoming sophomores, juniors and seniors were presented membership pins by Principal Jerry Metzler.

NHS President Justin Hartman welcomed the candidates and their guests to the candle lighting ceremony which was led by senior NHS members: Darren Bindel, Melissa Fisher, Lori Graham, Michael Hacker, Marlene Hess, Allison Klement, Dianne Pagel, Chelby Schoppa and DaLana Walterscheid.

Newly inducted members include Candise Abney, daughter of Joyce and Don Abney; Kerri Barnhill, daughter of Ruth Barnhill and Randy Barnhill; Brandi Grewing, daughter of Shirley and Hermie Grewing; Shelley Klement, daughter of Gloria and Robert Klement; Amy Otto, daughter of Darlene and Ed Otto; Amy Sturm, daughter of Joni and Mike Sturm; and Joy Tisdale, daughter of Earline and Larry Tisdale.

These students were selected by criteria such as scholarship, leadership and service. Scholarship requires a year's cumulative average of 90 in all academic subjects.

Students desiring membership in the honor society are required to complete an application listing extracurricular activities, membership in outside organizations, volunteer work, and service to the school and community. They must also compose an essay explaining their qualifications as members of the National Honor Society.

The evaluation forms are considered by the teachers in selecting new members. These requirements reflect the high standards of excellence which National Honor Society members are expected to maintain.

A reception was held to honor the new members and their parents following the ceremony in the auditorium.

Holiday fashions shine at GMHA Fashion Show

Holiday fashions, along with the latest in fall wear, will shine during the Holiday Brunch and Fashion Show scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 22, at the Gainesville Civic Center. Sponsored by the Gainesville Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, the style show will feature fall and holiday fashions, accessories and jewelry provided by Gainesville's finest merchants.

For those who have attended in the past, a different seating format will be used, therefore, tickets are limited.

Brunch will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m., with the fashion show beginning promptly at 12 noon, to conclude by 1 p.m. This will allow the working women in our community a chance to see the show during their lunch hour.

Tickets are $7.00 and are available from any Gainesville Memorial Hospital Auxiliary member, or by calling Gayla Blanton, GMH director of community relations-volunteer services, at 665-1751, Extension 401.

Tax Talk by: Duane Knabe, CPA

Duane Knabe will discuss a different topic each week. Any questions should be directed to him at 759-4010.

This week's topic is business return costs. A sole proprietor, farmer or person that has income or losses from rentals or royalties can deduct as trade or business expenses amounts spent in preparing the business-related portion of his tax return. He can also deduct expenses incurred in resolving asserted tax deficiencies ruled to business, the IRS has ruled. The IRS's allowance of a deduction for expenses for resolving tax disputes relating to business is a change from its previous position.

Tax preparation expenses relating to the nonbusiness portion of the return may be claimed as an itemized deduction subject to the two percent of adjusted gross income limitation.

The IRS's ruling assumes a proper allocation of expenses between business-related expenses and personal expenses. The wise taxpayer will have the tax return preparer submit a bill that shows the business-related portion of the bill separately from the personal tax return preparation.

It's Time For A Change!
Elect Stephen Cole

Republican Candidate For County Judge

I want YOU to know the principals by which I live and will guide my decisions as YOUR COUNTY JUDGE.

I Believe in smaller government with continuous input from the people being governed.

I Believe that the family unit is, and always will be, the major building block of our society.

I Believe that we need to put an end to career politicians, and the way to do it is to limit terms.

I Believe that elected officials should set the example in the community with simple integrity, a positive vision for the future, and full involvement in the community and its activities.

I Believe that judges from all levels should be limited to interpreting laws, not creating new laws.

I Believe that you should know how each official stands on every issue, and therefore I will VOTE on every issue.

I Believe in law and order and the rights of every citizen to equal protection under those laws. I do not believe criminals should be set free on simple technicalities. Further that criminals should make full restitution - both to the person wronged and to the courts for cost of prosecution.

I Believe that what is popular is not always right and what is right is not always popular, but I will do what is right for the citizens of this county.

If you agree with me on these points and issues, then I feel confident that I can count on your support and your vote.

Clover Kids study food and nutrition for Nov. 7 Food Show

The Muenster Clover Kids studied Food and Nutrition in preparation for the Cooke County Food Show on Nov. 7, when the group met for their regular monthly meeting in Sacred Heart Elementary Library, at 6 p.m. on Oct. 13.

They opened their meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance, and the 4-H Pledge and Motto. A discussion of Dairy Products and Grains taught the children the importance of such foods in their diet. They completed a work sheet and made their own snack, using cheese as the dairy product and bread and crackers as the grain. Following was clean-up time, and then they closed the meeting with the Dairy and Grain Card Game.

Attending were members Joseph and Andy Davis; Michelle, Nicole and Neil Bayer, and adult leaders, Jerry Sicking and Annette Bayer.

They were reminded of the next meeting date, Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 6 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Elementary Library. Any child age 5 to 8 years is welcome. Questions or information or sign-up may be referred to Annette Bayer, 759-2514.

Muenster defense stings Pirates... Hornets earn 12-7 district win

by Mike Pagel
 There is a traditional cliché in the game of football that says: "defense wins ball games."

Friday night at Muenster's Homecoming game, the Muenster Hornet defense did just that. Big plays on the defensive side of the football led Muenster to a 12-7 upset win over Collinsville in the District 17-A opener for both teams.

The loss was Collinsville's first of the season. Muenster is now 1-5 on the year but, more importantly, is 1-0 in district play.

On each of the teams' first possessions, the opposing defenses stuffed 4th down plays. Muenster running back Kenneth Walterscheid was dropped for a loss on a 4th and 1 at the Hornet 44. Collinsville's run-and-shoot offense failed to move the ball as well. On 4th down and 12, Pirate running back Jamie Montoya overthrew teammate Shannon Walker on a sweep pass attempt to the left side.

With over 6 minutes gone in the first quarter, Collinsville's second offensive possession turned disastrous. Muenster defensive back Kody Truebenbach stepped in front of a pass intended for Pirate receiver Barry Vannoy, intercepted the pass and, without being touched, returned the ball 28 yards for a touchdown.

Because the Pirates ran the same play on their previous possession, Truebenbach said he read it all the way.

"They ran that play the series before and I just recognized it," Truebenbach said. "I couldn't believe he threw it."

The extra point attempt failed, leaving the score 6-0 with 5:18 remaining in the first quarter.

With only seconds left in the first quarter, the Hornets were forced to punt on 4th and long. Collinsville partially blocked the punt and recovered the ball at the Muenster 24.

Again, the Muenster defense held tough. Without advancing the ball forward much, the Pirates attempted a 36-yard field goal. The attempted field goal by Pirate kicker Michael Malanda, a foreign exchange student from Spain, dropped short of the crossbar.

Later in the second quarter, an aggressive Hornet defense forced Collinsville into another costly error. On a third down play, linebacker Kenneth Walterscheid and lineman Brian Knabe blitzed through the "A" gaps and smashed Pirate quarterback Trent Cox just as he released the ball on a quick pass over the middle. Because of the timing of the hit, the pass fluttered straight up. Sophomore linebacker Cory Cain was there to snatch the ball and return it to the Pirate 15.

Then, on the second play from scrimmage, sophomore quarterback Jason Huchton connected with split end Jay Hennigan for a 15-yard touchdown pass. Collinsville again fouled Muenster's PAT attempt. That left the score at 12-0 with 4:48 remaining in the first half.

The Pirates did not get down on themselves, though. Collinsville, forced to work against the clock late in the first half, moved the ball possibility when he recovered the outside kick. Huchton then simply ran out the final 67 seconds of the game by taking the snaps and kneeling on the football.

Muenster Head Coach Grady Roller was extremely pleased with his entire defensive unit. Roller, however, said it was that key offensive possession in the fourth quarter that helped preserve the victory.

"We controlled the ball in the third and fourth quarters real well," Roller said. "We did a real good job on that 2-yard line."

Of Truebenbach's interception for a touchdown, Roller said the play was definitely a momentum builder.

"All we need is something positive to happen and we needed it before they scored," Roller said. "That play gave us the lift we needed."

According to Collinsville Head Coach John Reves, a lot of the Hornets' success on defense was a result of them guessing correctly.

"They'd be loading up on one into Muenster territory. But with six seconds left, Truebenbach picked off his second pass of the game to stop Collinsville's drive and its hope to put points on the scoreboard before going to the halftime locker room.

In the second half, the two teams traded punts for about the first 16 clock minutes.

With about 8 minutes remaining in the game, a great Pirate punt by Shannon Walker pinned Muenster at its own 2-yard line.

Muenster then did exactly what it needed to do - run time off the clock. With the help of a face mask penalty and a personal foul penalty, Muenster moved the ball out to near midfield before giving the ball up with about 2-1/2 minutes left in the game.

Collinsville then began to show the style of offense that, before this game, had been unstoppable. Cox hit Walker on a short pass in the left flats and Walker ran the ball down the sideline before Muenster safety Scott Debnam knocked him down at the 6. On the very next play, Walker was again the target of Cox for the touchdown reception.

Even at this point, the game was still far from over. There was 1:17 remaining and the Pirates had a chance to get the ball back on an outside kick.

Mike Hacker, a senior lineman for Muenster, eliminated that

Tigers rip Warriors in district opener 26-7

The Lakehill Warriors, coming off their 57-0 win over Kiest Park last week, came back down to earth Saturday when Sacred Heart showed no mercy in their 26-7 district opener victory. "I was pleased with the overall performance, more aggressiveness," John Nasche, Tiger coach commented. "We were swarming to the ball, wrapping up when tackling, using our hands and playing a good game."

Lakehill took the opening kick off, driving 38 yards in 8 plays to the 21-yard line. But the threat was stopped when Jason Frost covered a loose ball on the Tigers' 13-yard line.

Sacred Heart's offense went nowhere on their first drive, punting the ball away. It was three runs and punt also for the Warriors.

The Tigers' second drive, from their 30, pushed down field with mixed plays. Larry Switzer gained 4 yards, then Jason Hess gained on an 8-yard sneak. A pass from Hess to Switzer added another 7 with Trent Trubebach making a 1st down on the Warriors' 47. Neil Berres' 12-yard run and a 5-yard penalty took the Tigers to the 30. Jody Fleitman completed a pass to the 12, with Trubebach taking the team to the 2-yard line. A flag on the Tigers backed them up 5 yards. Trubebach nudged to the 4 1/2, with Switzer fighting to the 1/2-yard line. On 3rd and goal, Hess, on a quarterback keeper up the middle, put 6 points on the board. The extra point pass failed with Sacred Heart in the lead with 11:29 remaining in the 2nd quarter.

Lakehill threatened to score on their next drive, moving to the Tigers' 20-yard line. Again a turnover stopped the Warriors, with Kelly Bayer covering the fumble.

An intercepted pass two plays later would have given Lakehill good field position, but a motion penalty gave the Tigers another chance. But tough defense forced a punt several plays later.

The Warriors got in a few good gains from pass plays, but again punted away the ball. The Tigers' next play was intercepted and Lakehill was knocking on Sacred Heart's door on the 18-yard line. After three incomplete passes a run was stopped by Neil Berres on the 13 and the Tigers played out the remaining seconds.

Sacred Heart received the 3rd quarter kick off, starting play at their 31-yard line. Runs by Hess, Trubebach and Switzer moved Sacred Heart to the 7-yard line in 9 runs. A quarterback sack and two incomplete passes lost the ball on downs. From their own 4-yard line, Warrior Josh Harris circled around the right end for a 96-yard touchdown run. The PAT kick was good and Lakehill took a 7-6 lead with 6:26 on the clock.

Sacred Heart's next drive began deep on their 10-yard line, but a 33-yard run by Switzer and a completed pass to Kelly Bayer for 41 yards put the Tigers on the Warriors' 16-yard line. Two attempts knocked the ball back to the 28. A razzle-dazzle play, Hess to Switzer to Hess, passed to Aaron Berres, was good for a 28-yard touchdown. Switzer added another two and with 3:30 remaining in the 3rd quarter the Tigers took a 14-7 lead.

Jeremy Bayer covered a loose ball when the Warriors attempted to punt. From their 48, Hess rushed the ball to the 13, but a clipping call brought it back. Switzer then broke loose to the Warriors' 34, with Trubebach moving to the 20. Behind some good blocking, Trubebach had the honors and scored the Tigers' 3rd touchdown. The extra point failed and with less than a minute until the final period the scoreboard read 20-7.

Lakehill punted the ball away on 4th and 14. A flag set the ball just inside the Warriors' end of the field. Switzer got a good run to the 22, with Trubebach gaining 12 on two runs. From the 10, Hess, on a keeper went in for another 6 points. The PAT kick was blocked and with 8:44 remaining in the game Sacred Heart had a 26-7 lead.

The teams exchanged possession, with Brandon Bayer working for a good run to the 8-yard line which was called back on an off-side flag. The Warriors took over two plays later on downs.

Jason Hess intercepted a pass, but the attempted lateral to Switzer for a touchdown was called back.

Sacred Heart fumbled the next play and Lakehill's offense finished out the remaining seconds.

Coach Nasche bragged on his offensive "Hogs" Werner Becker, Jordan Bayer, Jeremy Bayer, Barry Hess, Paul Hasting and Kelly Bayer for playing their best game of the year as a unit. "We had over 300 yards rushing and the quarterback was given plenty of time to throw," Nasche said. "If the 'Hogs' continue to play, we will continue to win."

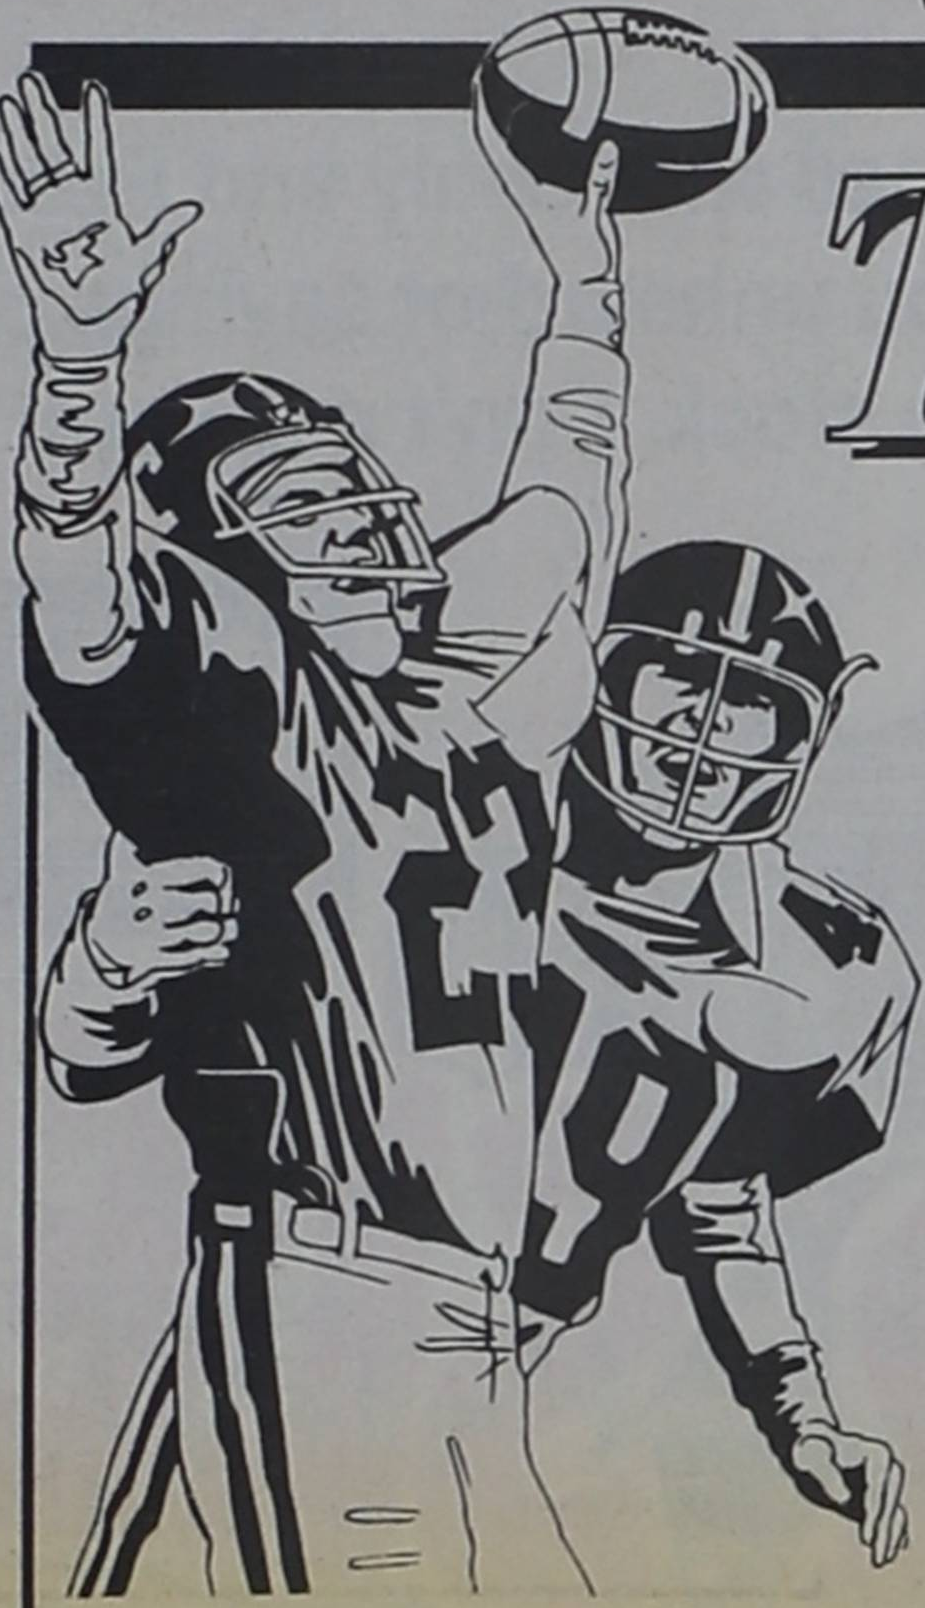

Also on offense were runners Larry Switzer, Trent Trubebach, Neil Berres, Jason Hess and Aaron Berres. "Offensively we knocked more people down. We physically pounded them," said Coach Nasche.

Defensive standouts were Jeremy Bayer with five sacks, Werner Becker and Larry Switzer with 3 sacks each. Also Aaron Berres, Mike Schilling and freshman Brandon Bayer. "The Tigers as a whole played well, but those stood out," said the coach.

Sacred Heart will host Masonic Home Friday night in their second district contest. "They're not nearly as big as Lakehill, probably smaller than us, but scrappy," commented Nasche. "For once we're not the smaller team."

Funding approved for Lake Ray Roberts boat ramps

In one of the last acts of the 102nd Congress, the U.S. Senate approved legislation that authorizes federal funding for a number of Texas flood control, recreation and navigation projects. Among the Texas projects is the $68 million Sargent Beach project in Matagorda County where erosion has and continues to pose a serious threat to the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway Canal in that area.

Other Texas projects receiving authorization include:

*Shoal Creek in Austin, where flood control improvements will be made at the upper end of the creek at a total cost of $6.8 million;

*Ray Roberts Lake, where high-water boat launching ramps will be constructed at the Sanger Park, Jordan Park and the FM 372 access area, at a total cost of $55,000.

Cubs, Lady Cubs capture NTIJHC cross country title

Submitted by Jon LeBrasseur

Sacred Heart's Lady Cubs and Cubs scored 16 and 21 points respectively to capture the North Texas Independent Junior High Conference Cross-Country title. The title is the second consecutive blue ribbon finish for both squads.

Dobe Friday toured the mile Montague course in 6:29 to claim top individual honors. Teammate Anna Fette pushed Friday and clocked a 6:46 for second place honors. Friday and Fette were not alone in the race as Sacred Heart teammates Valerie Bartush and Crystal Klement clocked in at 6:53 and 6:56 respectively for 3rd and 4th. A girl from Montague finished 5th, but Sacred Heart runners Tammy Hennigan, Shauna Endres and Leslie Grewing completed the Sacred Heart "A" team with 6th, 7th and 8th places respectively.

The Lady Cubs also brought 21 other runners to compete for experience, including 7th and 8th graders. Most of the other runners achieved personal best clockings. "I am very proud of the 'A' team and look for bright things from Dobe, Anna and Leslie next season as they join the Tigerettes," said

Coach LeBrasseur. "All the girls worked hard to make the 'A' team and we had some very competitive workouts. The strength of the squad was evident Friday."

The Cubs coming off of Thursday's football game stretched out quickly as they captured the NTIJHC meet with 21 points. John Bartush led the Cubs with a 2nd place finish as a young man from Montague outdistanced him down the stretch. Bartush clocked a personal best 11:51 on the 2-mile race. Eighth grade teammates Paul Swirczynski finished 3rd and Glen Dangelmayr scored a 5th while Brad Schilling finished 7th and Douglas Novak was 9th. Seventh graders Matthew Fuhrmann finished a strong 4th and classmate Jesse Luke placed 10th to round out the Cub "A" team.

Twenty-three other Cubs made the trip and finished high among the other meet runners. "The boys gave a great effort today," said LeBrasseur. "Most of them were a little sore from last night's ball game, but just I would expect, they gave their best. Coach Nasche has some excellent distance runners who will bolster the Tigers next fall."

Junior High Football

Muenster 18, Collinsville 0
"The boys played well the first, but didn't improve the second half," commented Muenster Coach Kyle Baker on the junior high game last week on the Pirate Field. "Collinsville ran away scared."

The first three times the young Hornets touched the ball, they scored. The first drive ended with a wingback reverse play for a 20-yard touchdown. Collinsville fumbled on their first drive. The loose ball was covered by Tony Hartman and caused by Bryan Hudspeth.

Muenster's second series of plays again ended in a touchdown, when John Tuggle scored on a 12-yard power play for a 12-0 lead.

Lucas Hartman forced the young Pirates to cough up the ball, which Greg Flusche recovered for Muenster, setting up the Hornets' third touchdown.

With only a minute and a half off the second quarter clock, Eric Miller ran a bootleg from approximately 28 yards out to get Muenster an 18-0 lead. Collinsville's 3rd drive was again stopped by a turnover with John Tuggle picking off a pass with a 15-yard gain. Muenster then ran out the first half clock.

"The second half was uneventful, no one scored," Baker said. "We played a lot of B teams, that still held Collinsville for short yardage."

Standouts included Shane Sparkman, Steven Reiter, Corey Anderle and Scott Hermes.

Muenster also had two touchdowns and several long runs called back on holding penalties.

The Junior High hosted Valley View Thursday, Oct. 15, with an A and B team game, with action beginning at 5 and 6:30 p.m.

Sacred Heart 6, Notre Dame 8

Sacred Heart Cubs hosted the Notre Dame Knights last Thursday evening in an exciting 6-8 loss.

Jonathan Pastusek took the first play of the game 63 yards to score for Notre Dame. Quarterback Jason Creacy added the extra 2 and the visitors had an early 8-0 lead.

Sacred Heart fought back, when Jesse Luke picked off a Knight pass, setting up the Cubs' scoring drive. Several runs by John Bartush and one by Jeff Yosten were followed by a touchdown pass from Paul Swirczynski to Douglas Novak from the 8-yard line. The extra point failed and, with 4 seconds in the first quarter, the score was 6-8.

The Cubs fumbled away their next drive and booted on the second. Jeff Yosten stopped a Notre Dame threat when he intercepted the ball, ran it back for over 70 yards for a touchdown, but an illegal block brought the ball back and the Cubs played out the remaining first half.

A quick, scoreless third quarter was followed by a long final period with Sacred Heart's last drive ended with an interception with less than a minute to play.

The Cubs have no game scheduled this week, but resume action Friday evening, Oct. 23, at Tyler Street.

Muenster A 12, Pilot Point 6

Chad Roller scored both touchdowns for Muenster in their game at Pilot Point on Thursday, Oct. 1.

"Shane Sparkman did a good job of blocking for Chad," said Coach Kyle Baker, "with the offensive line opening up holes all night."

Tony Hartman made a reach-behind catch to keep the young Hornets' first drive alive, which ended in a 25-yard Roller touchdown. Muenster's second touchdown occurred when Roller broke a long run, 70 yards for the score.

Pilot Point didn't score until a minute and a half remained in the game.

"Our offense had Pilot Point's defense guessing all night, our backs were able to hit the ball and run," said Baker. "Offensive linemen include Jonathan Otto, Greg Flusche, Mike Boydston, Lucas Hartman, Aaron Sicking and Rudy Hellman. "Our defense shut down their running game." Standouts include Bryan Hudspeth, Eric Miller, Lucas Hartman and Rudy Hellman.

John Tuggle intercepted a pass and Tony Hartman and Greg Flusche combined to cause and cover a fumbled ball.

Lindsay "A" 0, Valley View 30

"Believe it or not, it was one of our better games," said Coach Linus Fuhrmann. "They have one player we couldn't handle."

Defensive standouts were Tommy Stevens, Hank Huchton, Aaron Krebs and Larry Evans.

On offense, the line blocked better, allowing Huchton to make some nice runs. Brad Perrin and Steven Tepera each made good pass receptions for Lindsay. Offensive linemen noted were Richard Haayen, Larry Evans and Zack Fuhrmann.

Lindsay "B" 0, Valley View 12

"The boys played good defense and played hard. They are improving," noted Coach Linus Fuhrmann. Isaac Zimmerer had a good defensive game, along with Keith Fuhrmann, Bryan Covington, Jeff Sicking and Jeremy Rinner.

Charlie Costin gained good yardage behind the blocking of Danny Evans and Thomas Plumlee.

MHS Cross Country team runs 3rd at Lake Dallas

On October 3 the Lady Hornets' cross country team traveled to Lake Dallas to compete, with the varsity team finishing third with 127 points. Finishing first was Celina with 91 points and Decatur came in second with 120. Others in Muenster's district were Valley View with 139 and Alvord with 129.

The varsity girls came in as follows: Julia Fleitman, 13th place with a time of 14:08; Misty Klement, 15th with a time of 14:18; Marlene Hess, 28th with a time of 14:54; Lisa Russell, 34th with a time of 15:02; Cindy Culp, 37th with a time of 15:13; Denise Russell, 47th, with a time of 15:41; and Amy Sturm, 64th with a time of 16:37.

The times from other area schools were not as fast as they were in previous years, but the Muenster girls are improving each week and are working as a team. Next Monday, Oct. 19, the district meet will be held in Muenster.

The junior varsity girl at Lake Dallas was Sally Fisher, who ran her best time of the year with a 16:51 and was a medalist in the JV division.

Two junior runners went along to compete in the Junior High division, on a two-mile course. John Knabe came in second place with a time of 13:58 and brought home a medal. The other competitor was Christina Metzler who ran an excellent time of 15:30. Both John and Christina did great for their first meet of the season.

District competition will start at 5 p.m. at Hornet Stadium on Monday, Oct. 12. Come show support for the Muenster runners!

Deer should be in good physical shape going into the hunting season but excessive vegetation could make hunting tough in areas. The archery season continues through Nov. 1. # Eagles crush Lindsay's homecoming dream 7-0

Lindsay's dreams of winning Homecoming were crushed by the Valley View Eagles 0-7 Friday night. "It was a very emotional game," said Lindsay Coach Charlie Meurer. "I was very pleased with the players' performances." For all practical purposes, the Knights played the state's top 10 ranked Class A football team about as close as anyone could expect.

Before a standing-room-only crowd on both sides, the Eagles won the toss but elected to kick off with the wind at their back the first quarter. The Knights, starting on their 18-yard line, moved into Eagle territory on runs by Donnie Cox, Shane Huchton, Dan Zimmerer and a completed pass to George Lutkenhaus. But, at the 41-yard line, Valley View put up a barrier, forcing a punt on 4th and 10.

Valley View's first drive was quickly ended when Doug Hellinger intercepted a Jeremy Tipps' pass. From their 40, the Knights' 2nd drive was highlighted by a 22-yard gain by Huchton and a completed pass to Jeremy Owen took Lindsay to the 21-yard line before running out of downs.

The Knights' defense - Toby Eberhart, Donnie Cox, George Lutkenhaus, Keith Zimmerer and Rocky Barnes - held the Eagles to 8 yards, forcing a punt. Valley View returned the favor, blocking 2 incomplete passes. A 41-yard Huchton punt put the Eagles deep on the 16-yard line. Tommy Elvington led the visitors' drive into the 2nd quarter to Lindsay's 30. But on 4th and 5, Hellinger and Cox stopped him short. It was three plays and punt for the Knights, then for the Eagles but a fumbled punt return gave Valley View possession. The next play, George Lutkenhaus, covered a fumbled ball and Lindsay regained the ball. Again 3 plays and punt.

Huchton's 60-yard punt started the Eagles' drive on their 15-yard line. Runs by Elvington and two pass plays from Tipps to Jesse Newton took Valley View into the end zone. The 85-yard seven-play drive ended with one second on the clock. Morris' PAT kick was good and the Eagles took a 7-0 lead into the locker room.

The Eagles came out strong to start the third quarter. "Coach Davidson changed his offense the second half and I had to call time out so our defense could play it right," commented Meurer. Valley View shoved the ball at the Knights with five 10+ yard gains in a row, moving to the 13-yard line. An offside flag and a quarterback sack stopped them on 4th and 17. An attempted 39-yard field goal fell short and Lindsay took over on their 20.

Cox and Huchton drove 51 yards but the Knights were stopped when the Eagles covered a loose ball. Again, Valley View threatened, knocking on Lindsay's door. First and goal on the 8 turned into 4th and goal on the 12, when Chris Brown caught Elvington for a 9-yard loss to start the final period. Again, Morris attempted a field goal but the ball went right, missing the uprights.

The teams exchanged possessions, with the Knights' 2nd drive stopped when Lance Morris picked off a pass. On the next play, Doug Hellinger covered a loose ball and Lindsay made another attempt. Valley View got the last possession and killed out the remaining minutes.

"It was an evenly-matched game. The big difference came when we softened up, allowing them to score," Meurer said. "Our game plan contained them and held down the score and we were able to move the ball," the coach continued. "We had three major drives that were stopped by penalties."

Lindsay travels to Saint Jo this Friday to take on the Panthers. "I don't know what to expect," commented Meurer. "Their head coach resigned last week and Chris Milton is back." Milton, who missed several games due to an injury, made his comeback at Era last Friday, rushing for 200 yards. "We have to contain Milton. When he takes to the field, he gets 200 yards. He can make it rough. There's not another player that strong in the district." Game time is 7 p.m. at Panther Field.

The importance of landowners

by Arthur W. Nagel,
*President,
Riverside & Landowners Protection Coalition, Inc.*

October 5-11 was proclaimed Landowner's Rights Week in Texas. As a Texas landowner, you have private rights to property. Those rights are precious. But you can lose them, bit by bit, if you are not vigilant daily.

The institution of private rights to property underlies our individual freedom, social harmony and prosperity.

Private property exists to the extent that the state recognizes and enforces rights of persons to exercise dominion over things.

Law makes an important distinction between land and property.

Land, which is the subject of title, consists of the surface of the earth. It also includes what is below that surface and the air space above the surface to the height of any structures or objects.

Property is more than a thing. The "owner of land" has the privilege of using, occupying and disposing of the land, that is, he may carry on these activities if in so doing the owner conforms to applicable and acceptable regulations.

Therefore, what the owner owns is not only the thing but also the rights, privileges, obligations, etc., associated with the land.

Ownership of property has two major divisions: use and transfer.

Our right to own property, or rather to exercise dominion over the thing, and use of the thing for personal gain and satisfaction is grounded in the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and in historic case law.

Certain uses in certain conditions are constrained by government. But where this occurs the people most affected have given government authority to impose restraints. Rules the people believe beneficial to the majority.

Lacking such established constraints, uses of property by the owner reflect his decisions.

At the birth of this nation, private rights to property were among the strongest principles of society. Framers of the Constitution regarded private rights to property as essential for a free, harmonious and prosperous society.

From the beginning, both federal and state courts upheld private rights to property and strictly adhered to the principle that the legislature could not limit property rights except when public necessity clearly warranted it and then only when equitable compensation was paid. For one hundred and fifty years, the courts held to the basic philosophy that private rights well the general rule and restraint the exception.

But beginning in the 1930s, the judiciary largely abandoned its constraining role in property rights and relegated these rights to second priority. Top priority instead was accorded to individual rights - speech, press, association, religion and electoral franchise.

The Supreme Court thus broke not only with its historical tradition, but denied that most people must devote a considerable part of their lives to pursuing economic opportunities, and for them freedom of choice in employment, investment and consumption is at least as important as freedom of discussion and participation in government.

A change possibly is in the making.

In a major victory for private property rights, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on June 29, 1992 that public agencies must compensate property owners if land use regulations deprive owners of all economically beneficial or productive use of their lands.

Communism, central planning and state control of property has been tried, and failed. Why? Because such held no freedom, no independence for individuals. On the other hand, democracy, individual decisions and control and private ownership of property provides for freedom and independence for individuals.

The contrast between the two systems is no longer found in library books; it is found on the front pages of our daily newspapers.

Every American needs to be alert to the intrusion of government into individual lives, activities and decisions.

Property owners need to work at putting meaning into their collective comment: "no further without my consent."

Some components of freedom: the right to live where one wishes, the right to speech and communication, the right to work where one will at what one wishes, are absent without private property rights. If private property rights are absent, people would have to appeal to a political authority for permission to have such things as paper and pen or radios or job assignments or an apartment.

Your freedom, your right to privacy on your own land today requires your daily defense. Once your freedom to act with prudence and to have privacy on your land are taken from you, you are thereafter a powerless being.

Highlighting this very special week by all churches, schools, civic and youth groups, farm and ranch organizations, realtors and property owner's associations did much to emphasize the importance of property ownership and its contribution to the greatness of Texas and the United States.

Growin', goin' Bermuda grass

If you never had to buy another range cube or protein block, would you be numbered among the happy folks?

There is a way.

There is a new hybrid bermuda grass "world feeder" that will graze five 1200-1400 pound cows with calves per acre.

Roots are available for planting now and are so hardy they will survive even if planted late in the summer.

Due to the high (19%) protein and T.D. N. (60%) content, the need to purchase cubes and blocks is eliminated.

This hybrid bermuda establishes roots ten to 12 feet deep and grows over one inch per day in hot weather. Your soil is alkaline? No problem. This grass will grow even in that circumstance.

And it's winter hardy - up to minus 14 degrees.

Want great production and no winter kill for more than 18 years. "World Feeder" hybrid bermuda is the answer.

My Views from the Farm

by Ed Cler

Can you remember Muenster when the streets weren't even graveled, had no curbs, there was no electricity and, if you drove into town on a dark night, you might see a few lighted windows as dim and yellow as the magneto-powered lights on the Model T Ford you were riding in?

When Jigger Joe didn't sell booze, but bought and sold chickens and eggs, pecans and cream? Joe also churned butter. He once told me how much salt he used in the butter - said a one-cent pound of salt brought as much as a pound of butter.

Then there was Mr. Eberhart pushing the mail up the street, in a cart with steel wheels that rattled over the rocks and sidewalks, letting everyone know the mail had arrived.

When Gus Stelzer had the only meat market, and Charlie killed and dressed the beefs in the pastures. Louie Bernauer sold "Coney Islands" for a nickel, and you could get the best and biggest root beer at Henry Walterscheid's for 10 cents, and Henry made you feel that he mixed yours especially for you?

Henry Wolf built a hotel and theater which now houses "The Ranch." Before this, silent movies were occasionally shown in the old parish hall, admission 10 cents.

In '27, oil was discovered about two miles north of town, causing more excitement than Muenster had ever known, and soon there was an influx of people and business that made the little town jump.

Remember the long hitching rails west and south of the parish plant, the big squirrel cage south of the rectory? Some of us used to spend time feeding the squirrels nuts, and watching them run in wheels that were built just for them to exercise in.

When farmers had their own wheat ground into flour at the mill which is now a part of Muenster Milling Co., and Joe Weinzapfel came to Muenster to help start up a bank, which turned into a very successful venture?

If you can remember some, or all, of these things you can qualify for a discount at some businesses, get into all of the national parks free, and buy as many of the special priced limited purchases at Fischer's Market as you like. You can also attend SNAP, and if you attend "55 and Alive" driving classes, you can get a reduction on your auto insurance. Occasionally, someone will hold a door open for you, or I should say us, for we are Senior Citizens.
