Judge E. J. Miller, for many years one of Brownwood's leading attorneys, and Dr. T. B. Bailey complete the Board of Directors of the local bank. The financial integrity of these two prominent and leading citizens is well established and their business ability and judgment is easily attested by the marked success in their chosen professions...

O. C. Walker

O. C. WALKER, founder and chief executive of the Brownwood State Bank, came to this city in 1919 for the purpose of organizing a state bank. This he succeeded in doing, the bank having been opened for business in August, 1921...

BANK TO MAKE MOVE SATURDAY

The Brownwood State Bank, which announces its removal from the old location at the corner of South and West Broadway, to the new home in the I. O. O. F. building at the corner of Fisk Avenue and West Lee Street, will make the change in locations without loss of time to the bank or without any break in the service rendered its customers...

Immediately following the close of business Saturday afternoon, June 23, contractors and moving vans will begin the wrecking of fixtures and the removal of same to the new plant. Although this is ordinarily several days' work, the change will have been completed prior to the opening of the bank for business Monday morning, June 25...

Officials of the bank are hoping, and have a right to expect, that all will be in tip-top shape for the formal opening Monday morning. The removal will entail no small amount of work, but unless there is a slip, all will be in readiness for business Monday at the usual banking hours...

NEW LOCATION BETTER SERVE BANK'S NEEDS

The new home of the Brownwood State Bank, located at the corner of West Lee Street and Fisk Avenue, and which was formerly occupied by Armour and Company, has been made over into a modern bank building, with an attractive Colonial front and beautifully arranged and decorated interior...

The bank will occupy the lower floor of the I. O. O. F. Building, which is 37 by 90 feet. The new bank home faces Fisk Avenue, the main entrance to the bank being from this street. Henry Mount, local architect in charge of the remodeling of the building into a banking institution designed a beautiful and attractive Colonial front...

Upon entering the front entrance, and visitors to the bank Monday, the day set aside for the formal opening of the bank in its new home, will be greeted with a complete and modern arrangement bank. The president's office, and all tellers windows are located to the left of the main entrance, these running almost the entire length of the building...

In the lobby part of the bank will be found a beautiful tile floor, this to cover all space outside the part of the building occupied by officials and employees of the bank. In addition to the attractive floors, tables, chairs and desks, customarily found in bank lobbies, will be noted by all visitors to the bank, these being arranged for the convenience of all customers...

The new home for the bank is complete in every way, as is evidenced by the large and spacious vault that has been constructed. The vault, in which the bank's steel, time lock safe will be kept, is 16 by 18 feet and has walls two feet in thickness. Convenient shelves have been constructed inside the vault and in addition there are other built in features that afford the bank all that could be asked for in its requirements for a vault...

That the new vault will be a safe one, and as for that fire proof, is attested by the thickness of the walls and the style or doors that admits entrance. The door is a triple feature affair, with a large outside, combination door of steel that within itself is a worthy barrier to any burglar, a day or two of fire...

stockholders of the bank still hold their stock, several of them having since increased the amount of stock held in the bank.

Bank Opened
After selling the desired stock to Brownwood business and professional men and after organizing the official family of the bank for its venture into Brownwood banking circles, a suitable location was obtained, fixtures and supplies purchased and in due time the doors of the new institution were swung open to the public August 1, 1921, a very few months after Mr. Walker conceived the idea of establishing a state bank in the largest city in Texas having no such bank.

Since that time the local bank has enjoyed steady progress, until now it is rapidly gaining equal rank with other banks of this section. Those having confidence in Mr. Walker as a banker have been liberally rewarded in substantial returns on their investments. All original stockholders have been paid 25 per cent dividends on money invested and with prospects for future development more rosy than at any time during the life of the bank, stockholders are sure to reap even greater dividends on money invested.

The bank was organized with a capital of $50,000, with the late I. J. Rice, Brownwood attorney, as its first president. Judge Rice served in this capacity until his death about one year ago, and according to Mr. Walker and other officials of the bank, Judge Rice was to a certain extent, responsible for the marked success of the bank in its infancy, or rather through its first year or two of existence. O. C. Walker, founder of the bank, was named cashier with the organizing of the bank and serving in this capacity, as well as being actively in charge of the bank's business. Mr. Walker soon won the utmost confidence of all Brownwood citizens who had joined with him in forming the new banking house.

Upon the death of Judge Rice Dr. A. L. Anderson became president of the bank, serving in this capacity for approximately six months. Early in 1923 O. C. Walker became president and continues to serve in this capacity, being actively engaged in managing the affairs of the bank, as well as holding the chief executive position.

Not only has the bank, under the management of Mr. Walker, won the confidence of the stockholders of the institution, but it has also won the confidence of many Brownwood citizens, as evidenced by the fact that its deposits at the close of business, June 15, totaled almost one quarter million dollars.

Original Stockholders
The original stockholders of the Brownwood State Bank include citizens of Brownwood with varied and widely interests, all investors having money to invest in what they were made to believe a safe institution. No large stockholders were solicited and as a result most of those investing money took only a few shares, ranging from $100 on up. A list of the original stockholders reveals the named citizens of varied occupations and professions, those banding their resources together in forming the new bank. The list is as follows: J. H. French, a former Brownwood abstractor now of Dallas; Mrs. S. J. Perkins (deceased); Rev. R. R. Rives, then pastor of the Austin Avenue Presbyterian Church; Dr. O. N. Mayo, local physician and surgeon; W. R. Lambert, local cafe owner and grocer; G. F. Wear, insurance man; F. B. and D. S. Greenwood, Brownwood printers; Rev. C. E. Moore, then pastor of the First Christian Church of Brownwood; Mrs. Mattie B. Moore, Miss Emma Moors, H. M. Hughes, local abstractor; Dr. A. L. Anderson, local physician; Henry Murphy; Judge I. J. Rice (deceased); Dr. J. W. McCarver, H. C. Grady, J. R. Loney, Lee Meeks, T. E. Witter, Jewel A. Johnson (deceased), Ed A. Franke, J. A. Snoddy, James L. White, G. B. Boulware, B. K. Hawkins, Carl S. Salter, Mrs. A. T. Wear and O. C. Walker.

O. L. PLYLER

O. L. PLYLER, cashier of the Brownwood State Bank, is a native of Brownwood and Brown county. Mr. Plyler assumed a position as assistant cashier of the local bank in December, 1921, holding this office until his promotion to the cashier's position early in 1928. Since becoming connected with the bank, Mr. Plyler has bought a nice block of stock and in addition to being cashier, he is a member of the Board of Directors.

steel bars that is equipped with an expensive lock and an inner door of solid steel, that is added mainly to make the vault absolutely fire proof, insuring the safety of all money and documents kept within the vault.

Burglar Proof Safe

The bank's safe is perhaps one of the most modern in use anywhere. The style of safe used by the local bank has never been entered by burglars except by use of acetylene torches, in other words, the combination has never been knocked or picked. It is made secure against one and all by the use of three separate time locks, each controlled and operated by high priced watches, built in the door of the safe.

The interior of the new bank home is finished in attractive buff color design, this color holding forth throughout the walls and ceiling of the building.

The approximate cost of remodeling and making over the building into a modern bank home is placed at $5,000. That this will be the permanent home of the bank is seen by the act of the directors of the bank in taking a 10 year lease on the new location.

HAWAII WANTS ROYAL GUEST THIS SUMMER

By NEA Service
HONOLULU.—The Territory of Hawaii wants at least one royal personage to be present at the 150th anniversary celebration of its discovery by Captain James Cook. H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, has been extended a special invitation to attend the sesquicentennial here, August 15 to 16.

Governor Wallace R. Farrington expressed the hope that His Highness would accept the invitation inasmuch as the Prince greatly enjoyed his last visit and at that time indicated a desire to return for a more extended stay.

Native pageants and ceremonials, depicting the landing of Captain Cook and his reception by the natives at Waimea, Island of Kauai will be one of the features of the program. At Kealahou Bay, on the Island of Hawaii, a tablet marking the spot where the discoverer was killed will be dedicated. Native feasts, pageants and receptions will be provided in Honolulu.

HAS SEEN LOTS OF INK

GODFREY, Ill.—An inkwell in the possession of L. H. Maxfield here bears the date 1779. It is made of pewter and is square, with such a small opening at the top that a pen can scarcely be inserted.

JUST STARING OUT

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—A "new vocation" the result of prohibition, has been uncovered here. Following a view of a prison, a man was brought before the desk sergeant. "What's your occupation?" the officer asked. "I'm a bootlegger's mechanic," he replied. "I install the traps for them, you know."

SEEK COP ADONIS
UTICA, N. Y.—Lawbreakers of this city haven't half the chance they used to have. Talk among old-time criminals is that crime isn't what it used to be. It's all because the city policemen who are over weight are forced to use the new reducing machine recently installed in the police station and must get down to a perfect "36." Officials contend that with less weight the cops can run faster, and thus catch crooks where previously they had failed.

location but none was available until the lease on the Odd Fellows building was offered.

Now that the bank has secured a new location and is preparing to move to its new home, it is only natural that officers of the bank are anxious for one and all to come and see them in the new home. With this in view, Monday June 25, has been set aside as the formal opening. No elaborate program has been arranged, but all who come will be extended every courtesy possible.

O. C. Walker, founder of the bank and recently elected president of the institution, anticipates an even more rapid expansion and growth in the future. He, as well as other officials of the bank, have long felt that in their old location they were to a great extent isolated from the business men of the city. The bank has been serving the needs of the farmers of the county, more than it has served the business interests of the city. The move to the new location has been planned and is being made for the purpose of being in a more convenient position to serve business men of the city. Many of these have offered bank officials inducements to make the change that it is to be made.

With the new location, increased banking facilities and more room, the future for Brownwood's youngest bank is indeed promising.

DR. O. N. MAYO, shown above, is vice-president of the Brownwood State Bank and a member of the Board of Directors. Dr. Mayo has long been financially interested in the local bank and now holds a large jump of the capital stock. Dr. Mayo needs little introduction to Brownwood business men, as his business and professional career here has stamped him as being a conservative and level headed business man.

MAPLEWOOD, N. J.—Too much music on this town's police force is not good for the safety of the community, according to Police Commissioner Runyon. Out of 28 members of the force, 24 of them are on the Police Department Band and when the band is playing an out-of-town engagement it leaves only four men to guard the town.

G. B. SHAW'S LAST LITERARY TESTAMENT DISAPPOINTS

BY THE NEA BOOK SURVEY
GEORGE BERNARD SHAW has written what he pleases to call his "last will and testament."

Since it occupies some 500 pages of type, and took him six years to prepare, it is evident the celebrated Irish playwright and wit intended to be generous with his economic bequests. We feel there is likely to be some little contest over the exact size and importance of his estate. For our own part we would far rather be left a single preface, such as introduced "Androcles and the Lion," "Joan of Arc" or "Pygmalion." And the penetrant and masterly satire of half a dozen of his plays we look upon as a far worthier monument.

George Bernard Shaw . . . whams the male members of Society.

What Shaw has done is simply to sit down and write, in his inimitable fashion, a very thorough outline of Socialism. This he has done thoroughly. But the question may be raised, is he telling us much that we don't already know? The arguments for Socialism have been pretty generally broadcast. The importance of this "last will and testament" lies, it seems to us, in the Shaw manner and style. Even then, he is a bit garrulous and more direct than satirical.

His first typically Shavian crack may be found in the title, "The Intelligent Woman's Guide to Socialism" (Brentano). Note, please, that the book is addressed to the ladies, "God bless 'em!" In a special preface to American readers, Shaw whams the male members of the society most unkindly.

... The United States could not possibly carry on were there not some sort of practical intelligence back of them. By this book I shall get at the American men through the American women. The average man is ashamed to admit the depths of his ignorance by asking elementary questions and I dare not insult him by supplying the missing information.

Wherefor, says Shaw, he will speak to the wives, fully anticipating that the husbands will over-hear what he is saying.

To a large extent his "last will" turns out to be little more than a primer. We read the oft-printed information that capitalism is doomed to die of its own creed, that Socialism is the universal panacea, that Socialism will keeping up with his times? He has no patience with eugenics and feels that, even under Socialism the State might have to inaugurate compulsory birth control if the populations began to get out of hand.

One thing is certain—it cannot be said that Shaw's is a case of sour grapes. He has built himself into a mighty figure and doubt has accumulated a goodly amount of world's goods. And he has the world so much that he draws up his will, his estate going to be divided to suit tastes of his followers.

Mexico was conquered in the 15th century by Hernando Cortes a Spaniard.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE

DES MOINES, June 15.—(P)—Herbert Hoover, Iowa, has its first presidential candidate to have the nomination of a major political candidate.

And in event of Hoover's election, Iowa will have given the United States its first president to be born west of the Mississippi river.

Names of three other Iowans have been before the electorate in general elections but as the nominees of minor parties they failed to get a single electoral vote.

PLANNER

C. E. BOYETT, alderman, named as ex-officio member of city planning commission, at meeting of City Council Tuesday evening.

BOYETT NAMED AS MEMBER OF PLANNING BODY

COMPREHENSIVE zoning law, controlling the location, size, height and bulk of buildings, and the kind of business to be conducted, was presented to City Council Tuesday, but action was deferred until next week.

It was indicated that the ordinance probably would be passed. Two aldermen expressed their approval of the proposed plan.

Alderman C. E. Boyett was chosen by Council as ex-officio member of the City Planning Commission. The vote was three for Boyett and one for Alderman W. M. Baugh.

The zoning ordinance is similar to that of Wichita Falls, and has been sustained by the supreme court in a test case.

The ordinance defines the residential, business and industrial districts. The industrial districts are sections within 300 feet of a railroad.

Must Ask Permits

Under the proposed ordinance all persons planning to erect buildings for business purposes, and to open or change businesses, would be forced to make application to Council for a permit, showing proposed location of building and kind of business to be conducted.

Council would have the right to refuse permits to businesses to be located in residential districts where in the opinion of the body, such businesses would interfere with the health, comfort and well being of the neighborhood.

The ordinance provides for a public hearing at which citizens might protest the granting of a permit. If the permit should be refused, the applicant would have the right to go before a court of appeals. This court would consist of "three reputable business men," to be appointed

DENY REPORTS OF TELEPHONE COMPANY SALE

Reports of the sale of the West Texas Telephone Company's properties to the Southwest Telephone Company of Little Rock, Arkansas, are vigorously denied by F. W. Greber, president and general manager of the West Texas Company Monday.

Dispatches published in Sunday newspapers under a Texarkana date-line said the local company had sold its properties to the Southwest Telephone Company of Arkansas, for a consideration of $2,150,000.00. Mr. Greber said Monday that while a tentative offer for the West Texas Company's properties had been made by the Arkansas concern, no contract of sale had been made and the proposal itself had not even been laid before the stockholders of the company, who would be required to consider and accept any offer that might be made before a contract of sale could be entered into.

"While our company's properties are not on the market, we have received many inquiries and some offers for the property," Mr. Greber said today. "The Arkansas company has made a tentative offer, which was taken under consideration, but the negotiations have gone no further than that. It is possible that the properties might be sold, at some point in the future, but we do not intend to do so until we have given the stockholders an opportunity to be heard on the matter."

The tentative proposals from the Arkansas concern were made some time ago, Mr. Greber said, and are still under consideration pending presentation to the stockholders of the West Texas company.

SPRING VEGETABLE EXHIBIT SHOWS COUNTY'S RESOURCES

THE Spring Vegetable Show is on in Brownwood today with an exhibit of Brown county products that speaks more eloquently of the county's resources than anything that an enthusiastic real estate agent could say.

The show is being held at Memorial Hall under the direction of Miss Maymie Malone, home demonstrator of Brown county. Eight women's club are exhibiting. Ten clubs had enrolled to take part in this exhibition, but two of them, Dulin and Brooksmith, had their gardens damaged by storms, and were prevented from entering exhibits in the show. There are fifteen clubs in the county, but some of them are newly organized and did not get their work under way in time to take part in the spring show.

Presidents in Charge

There are a total of around 35 different vegetables exhibited, embracing altogether over 80 varieties. The presidents of all clubs having displays in the show are here. Clubs exhibiting are as follows:

May, Mrs. A. L. Petty, president. This club is displaying 12 different vegetables, with a total of 19 varieties. It has some especially nice turnips, onions and beans.

Zephyr, Mrs. Reuben H. Scott, president. Displaying 20 different vegetables, with total of 30 varieties. Also has some pretty flowers from that community, which do not add to the score of that club but make a pretty and attractive decoration for the booth.

Center Point, Mrs. J. A. Brewster, president. Has large display of vegetables and large variety. Of special interest are the Kohi Rabi and the Salsify, vegetable coming into use but not so generally known here.

North, Mrs. Mary Ellen Howton, president. Has display of 22 different vegetables, with total of 32 varieties. A splendid exhibit as relates to all varieties, with especially fine beans.

Clear Creek, Mrs. W. A. Rochester, president. Has display of 27 different vegetables, of many different varieties. Especially nice English peas.

Eighty Varieties

Jones Chapel, Mrs. Winston Taylor, president. Has largest number of vegetables and varieties—32 different vegetables, total of 80 varieties. Dill, sage, garlic and rhubarb, are among some of the special exhibits. Fruits and flowers are also shown in this community.

Although the show is in the morning, Mrs. W. M. Harris, one of the garden demonstrators, is of this

J. D. Hill, C. E. Williams and Kenneth Williams, tried in district court Tuesday on charges of possession of a still and mash, were found not guilty of the charges against them by the jury hearing the testimony of both state and defense and arguments of attorneys for each side. The jury was out until late Tuesday night before a verdict could be reached.

The three boys were arrested last August when found around a still on the old Coggin ranch south of Brownwood, the three being captured after a spirited chase by a group of Brownwood officers. The State offered much evidence in the case, tending to prove that the boys were working around the still and apparently were operating it at the time of the raid by Brownwood peace officers.

The defendants, two of whom appeared as witnesses in their own behalf, stated that they were down in that section fishing and happened to run into the still where they were found and were merely examining it when officers made the raid on the place.

Visit to Mother's Grave Is Cause of Uniting Dallas Man and Sister After Sixty Years

Marcus Heaslip, who figures in the following story appearing in The Dallas Morning News, is father of E. J. Heaslip of Brownwood.

(From Dallas News.)

The sage who said truth is stranger than fiction might well have based the statement on the fact that a grave brought two persons together after sixty years, during which each thought the other dead.

One of them is Marcus Heaslip, for twenty-one years a proofreader for The Dallas News. The other is Mrs. Della Pero, his sister, of Niagara Falls, Ontario. The grave is thousands of miles from Texas and but a few miles from Niagara. It is in a little country churchyard in the Vanadian countryside near St. Catharines, Ontario.

Sixty years ago there was no such grave. That was when Marcus Heaslip was a young man tiring of the small town in which he lived. That was when Mrs. Pero was a young girl. One day Marcus left his home and went to St. Catharines, where he apprenticed himself to become a printer.

Connections Lost

Thereafter, in the manner of newspaper folk, he moved from town to town and from city to city, working in Toronto, Detroit, Boston, Chicago, and then he came to Dallas and definitely settled down.

In the meantime his sister married. Their mother died, and the connecting link between them was broken.

Through the years both made futile attempts to find the other.

Mr. Heaslip and daughter went to Ontario and looked for Mr. Heaslip's sister, but were unsuccessful. Sister and brother wrote all over the United States and Canada, but their inquiries were futile. Mr. Heaslip last year in the city of Niagara Falls, possibly only a few blocks from his sister's home, but he had long since given her up for dead.

Sexton Tells Address

Then he went to his mother's grave near St. Catharines. He spoke to the keepers of the little cemetery of his quest for his sister. Months later an old woman was standing beside the same grave. She talked to one of the attendants and he told her of the man who had stood there before her. He said the man lived in Dallas.

So Friday Mr. Heaslip received a letter from the sister he thought was dead and had not heard from for sixty years.

"Dear Brother Marcus," it read, "I was visiting our mother's grave on May 21st and found out you were living at Dallas, Texas. I had previously written the Mayor of Chicago to find if you were still living. He wrote me there was no such person in Chicago."

Thereafter the letter is filled with personal detail, of how she married, how her husband died and of her children. It ends: "Well, Marcus, if living, write your long-lost sister, Della."

"What am I going to do?" said Mr. Heaslip. "Why, I expect to leave for Niagara Falls in the near future and induce her to return to Texas with me for an extended visit," at least.

MURPHEY IS NAMED VP OF WEST TEXAS CO

FORT WORTH, June 20.—(P)—Andy Bourland, farmer and rancher of Vernon, was elected president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, to succeed R. W. Haynie. Able, at close of the Wednesday morning session of the tenth annual convention here.

Bourland was proposed for the presidency by the nominating committee and was elected unanimously. He had been selected by the committee from four prospective candidates. Judge C. G. Small Wellington, withdrew before the final report of the committee was compiled. Other proposed candidates were Dr. P. C. Coleman, Colorado, and Colonel John Perkins. The list was narrowed to two when the committee made its sixth ballot, voting for Bourland over Doctor Coleman.

Officers Named

Hoover, Canadian; F. P. Ried, Pampa; J. A. Kemp, Wichita Falls; Small, Coleman and Perkins.

Eighty-one directors were selected at the convention.

The new president has been a farmer and a rancher of Vernon for 28 years. Intensive farming in West Texas was made one of the major planks in his platform when he was proposed by his friends for the Chamber of Commerce presidency.

He was stated on several occasions since his nomination that to grow more and better agricultural products per acre is his ambition for West Texas.

"Agriculture will be the principal developer of West Texas," he said, "oil and other products have played a big part in the advancement of the section, but farming is the most important thing."

MEETINGS NOW HELD MONTHLY BY DAIRYMEN

DAIRYMEN of Brownwood, having formed an organization a few weeks ago, are now holding very interesting monthly meetings. They meet on the third Monday night in each month.

Jack Smith is president of the organization and J. R. Shelton is secretary.

Last Monday evening the members of this club enjoyed a very delightful at Southern Hotel, banquet in the private dining room. About 18 were present, with several visitors from other parts of the county.

The purpose of these meetings, it is stated, is to promote harmony among the dairymen, to discuss problems of mutual interest, and to increase their efficiency, for the welfare of the community they serve in dairyp products.

It is also their purpose to encourage the raising of a better grade of cows, and to generally promote the interest of all concerned in the progress and prosperity of the county and town.

Not every member of this organization is a dairyman. It is stated, but all are interested in the development of this industry, which is one of the most important and fastest growing in the state.

Brown county with its natural resources and central location is destined to become a great center in dairying, it is pointed out by members of the organization welcomes every one that is interested in any way to become a member, and a cordial invitation is extended to them to attend the next meeting.

CONSOLIDATION OF 3 SCHOOL DISTRICTS IS BEING PLANNED

An election is to be called soon for the purpose of consolidating the Indian Creek, Upper Indian Creek and Oakland (Mills county) school districts, the petition calling for the election having been circulated and duly signed by the voters of the three districts included the proposed consolidation. These three districts are located in the southern part of the county, the major portion of the Oakland district being in the northern edge of Mills county.

No date for the election has been set but it is indicated that it will be held sometime in July. According to County School Superintendent J. Oscar Swindle, the project is very favorable with the majority of the school patrons of the three districts and it is almost certain to carry.

If the consolidation is effected, a school district containing a total scholastic enrollment of about 115 will be formed, enough to assure the organizing of a first class rural high school of five or six teachers, this school to be located at Indian Creek. If carried the school children from Upper Indian Creek and Oakland will be transported to the central school in school buses, it is stated.

GET LOOT IN HOLDUP HERE

Two shabbily dressed young men, apparently tramps or bums, held Howard Fuller, clerk at the High School Drug Store, 920 Austin Ave. at the point of a pistol shortly after 10 o'clock Tuesday night, and forced Fuller to hand over about $60 in cash, after which the pair vanished.

Fuller was alone in the store at the time of the alleged hi-jacking but another man, who was also a stranger to Fuller, came in to make a purchase while the hi-jackers were there, leaving before the two gunmen left. This customer drove immediately to the police station and notified local officers of the hold-up but the hi-jackers had vanished before the officers reached the drug store. Although a search was continued until late in the night, no trace of the two alleged gunmen was found.

Of this number, 11 or 12 of them are wells drilled by Logan & Carter in the Brownwood territory.

In their Lewis well, Logan & Carter got the pay at 1,074 feet, being higher on elevation than the Brown well, which got the pay at 1,064. Their east offset to the Brown well is drilling at 675 feet.

The Logan & Carter test on the Gilliam tract is drilling at 1,075 feet.

REFUSES TO LECTURE

HEIDELBERG, Germany, June 21.—(P)—Because the question of the war guilt of Germany was raised, Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie endowment for international peace, declined to lecture here last night.

Dr. Scott has been lecturing in German universities and failed to appear in the crowded auditorium. Instead Herr Thomas, chairman of the law faculty, explained that a number of German newspapers had asked Dr. Scott through their columns whether he still adhered to the thesis of Germany's sole responsibility for the war which he had laid down in an opinion rendered at Versailles. The juridical faculty, therefore, asked Dr. Scott whether he would not answer the question. Scott declined on account of his official status at the time the opinion was rendered and preferred not to lecture.

IOWA VILLAGE, HOOVER'S BIRTHPLACE, BASKS IN HIS GLORY

West Branch, Iowa, yesterday only a sleepy Quaker village, today has new meaning in the world. For as the birthplace of Herbert Hoover, old land marks associated with his boyhood are fast developing into shrines that attract townsmen and tourist.

By SUE McNAMARA Associated Press Correspondent. WEST BRANCH, Iowa. (AP)—Serenity and satisfaction prevail in this little Quaker village of 700 where Herbert Hoover was born now that he has been nominated for President of the United States.

They had three children, Theodore, May and Herbert. Thrown Out of Shop "Many a time I have seen our crabbly old foreman throw Herbert Hoover, the father of Herbert Hoover, the young Ray Wickerham, son of the editor of the West Branch Times, out of the office," recalls Mr. Jackson.

Heart of Texas headquarters, in the Fakes building, was formally opened at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon with the crowning of Miss Sarah Denman of Coleman as the Queen of the Heart of Texas. Crowned by Godbold Dr. Edgar Godbold of Brownwood placed the crown on Miss Denman's head, making a brief coronation speech.

BROWNWOOD'S DELEGATION IS GIVEN NOTICE

BY D. K. DOYLE, Staff Correspondent

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 21.—Streams of visitors continued to pour into Fort Worth for the Convention Monday morning, including citizens from Brownwood and other Heart of Texas towns who did not come with earlier delegations. Among those from Brownwood who arrived Monday morning were noted F. S. Abbey, member of the Resolutions of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and Judge C. L. McCartney.

The official opening of the exhibits at the Heart of Texas headquarters announced earlier for nine o'clock Monday morning was changed to two p. m., but even at that there were bands at the building by eight o'clock in the morning from the different Heart of Texas towns. The Ballinger band was on hand early and played a concert that was heard by many visitors at Headquarters. The town is full of bands there is music in the air and everywhere in all the hotel lobbies. As musical organization from the Heart of Texas that is making a hit with convention visitors is the melody boys of Brady.

Gray Mare Pictured The Record-Telegram Monday greeted its readers with a large picture of the Old Gray Mare band as it appears on parade from the railroad station to the Worth Hotel Sunday evening with insets giving prominence to Hilton Burks, secretary of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, who headed the local delegation and to Miss Katy Merle Parks, mounted on the famous Gray Mare Sarah II. The business session of the convention got into action at nine thirty Monday morning with Governor Moody, former Governor Neff and other notables on the platform.

Brownwood officially arrived at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, when the Frisco train pulled into the station here. Some Brownwood representatives had come over in cars on Saturday, and others had come in cars on Sunday. The Old Gray Mare Band and the Treble Clef Club of Howard Payne College arrived in Ft. Worth Saturday evening. But the signal that Brownwood was here was given when the Old Gray Mare Band met the train and led a parade to the Worth Hotel, where two floors had been reserved for Brownwood and Heart of Texas delegates.

Parade Down Town Sarah II, evidently sensing something of the reputation she is called upon to maintain in behalf of the noted Brownwood musical aggregation, with dignity bore her beautiful rider, Miss Katy Merle Parks at the head of the procession, while the band, with its flashing new uniforms consisting of the chaps and boots, flaming red shirts, yellow ties and ten gallon hats, played music that turned the eyes of Fort Worth and visitors upon Brownwood. And arriving at the Worth Hotel, without a moment's loss of dignity or a moment's hesitation, Sarah II bore the smiling sponsor into the hotel lobby, where followed the band and the Brownwood delegation and others who had joined with them, and several numbers were played awakening enthusiastic applause. Director Wright Armstrong was at his best, and aroused the old time musical zeal among the players.

The band played another concert at the Worth at about 6 o'clock, and one shortly after that hour at the Texas.

District Headquarters

On arriving at Fort Worth, the Brownwood delegation found Mrs. W. D. Armstrong and County Agent O. P. Griffin of Brownwood, W. A. Wilson of San Saba and Frank Baker of Lampasas still busy fixing up the Heart of Texas headquarters in the Fakes Company building, in the same block with the Worth. This, so far as learned, will be the only district headquarters, though it has been said that the South Plains district intended to adopt a similar plan for its exhibits.

Exhibit Ready

The Heart of Texas exhibits has appropriate background on which there is a large red heart—fifteen by eighteen feet—and on the heart in large white letters the single word "Texas." On the window at the front of the building is another large red heart—though not of such dimensions as the one before, which the exhibits center—and on a white background radiate the names of the seventeen counties composing the Heart of Texas district: Brown, Eastland, Comanche, Erath, Coleman, Lampasas, Callahan, Mason, Menard, Runnels, McCulloch, Mills, San Saba, Gillespie, Hamilton, Coryell and Llano.

LOMETA YOUTH HURT IN WRECK

Chester Brister, age 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brister, of near Lometa, was seriously injured in an automobile accident Sunday morning about 10 miles southeast of Goldthwaite and his sister, Odesa Brister, age 13 received a broken arm and other injuries, when the car driven by young Brister overturned in making a sharp turn in the road.

Brister was brought to the Central Texas Hospital Sunday night, and although his injuries are not considered fatal, his condition is serious. Brister has a fractured skull and undetermined injuries to his right shoulder.

Brister, in company with his sister and C. L. Featherstone, was driving southeast from Goldthwaite at the time of the accident, and according to relatives, the youth was driving too fast when the car was whipped around the corner, overturning. Featherstone escaped with slight injuries.

BOY RIDES ACROSS COUNTRY TO INVITE COOLIDGE TO WEST

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 18.—Bent on seeing President Coolidge, Boyd Jones, 14, is headed east mounted on his favorite pony. He has been delegated to invite the chief executive to attend the intertribal Indian ceremonial at Gallup, N. M.

Leaving his home town last week, Boyd reached Santa Rosa, N. M., yesterday from where he wrote newspapers he was making good progress and that the pony was "holding out all right."

He fears an obstacle to his progress when he reaches Amarillo, Texas. "It will be in Amarillo next Sunday and if my mother doesn't stop me with a barrel stove I'll be lucky," he said.

"She did not know that I was going to make this trip," he said. The boy's mother was in Amarillo when he started from Gallup and her first news of his departure was through newspapers.

Bridges of Simmons University at the school here. Coach Bridges has for his assistants Coaches Edwin Kubale, T. C. U. Floyd (Jim) Crow, Baylor, Ear' (Mule) Frazier, Baylor, and Charlie (Potts) Anderson, Simmons.

Theory and practice in football were the first things taken up in the school, coming under the direction of Coaches Bridges, Kubale and Crow. Frazier, famous track expert, will arrive during the latter part of the course to give instruction in track.

The course will last through a period of six weeks, during which intensive work will be done, averaging four hours each day. Credit is being given for the work in Simmons University through the School of Education.

WALKER FOR CONSTABLE

F. J. Walker Monday announced his candidacy for constable in Precinct One, Brownwood. He has had considerable experience in enforcing the law, having worked for several months as a member of the police department. He owns his home and has been a residence here about six years. He is 35 years old, and an ex-service man.

In offering his name as a candidate, Mr. Walker states that he promises that if he is elected he will enforce the law without fear or favor. He also states that he has not been induced to enter the race by any group of class of men, but is seeking the office on his own merits and will discharge his duty to the very best of his ability.

Mr. Walker's record, he says, will show for itself at the City Hall as to how he enforced the laws during the time he was employed by the city, and he asks that the citizens in this precinct, who believe in law enforcement, investigate his past record. He assures every one that their vote and influence will be appreciated during the campaign.

CRUDE GAINS 8000 BARRELS

TULSA, Okla., June 19.—(P)—Daily average production of crude oil in the United States increased more than 8,000 barrels during the week ending June 16, with northern Oklahoma and West Texas fields setting the pace, the oil and gas journal will say in its current issue.

Total production for Oklahoma increased from 596,350 barrels during the week ending June 9 to 598,860 barrels last week. The northern fields, exclusive of Tonkawa, Burbank and Osage, had a daily average increase of slightly less than 9,000 barrels. Seminole production dropped about 4500 barrels.

West Texas again went above the 300,000 barrel mark, with the Hendricks field production jumping about 5,000 barrels. The north central Texas and gulf coast fields also had small increases, while most of the other Oklahoma and Texas areas had small losses. The increases in the two states, however, were large enough to hike the total daily production of light crude oil in the mid continent fields about 11,000 barrels, 3,000 barrels in daily heavy crude production.

PROTECTS DESIGNS BY FIN-GER PRINTS

LONDON.—At least one London dress designer is protecting her original models by having her fingerprints stamped on her gown creations. Others are patenting materials in an attempt to stem the growing influx of the so-called "dress pirates."

Models recently exhibited indicate some radical changes in the coming mode. Evening frocks using as much as six yards of material in the skirt remind one of past history, while a dance frock requiring 12 yards of almost invisible fine tulle, where three yards had been considered ample, seems to herald a return to an era of easier modesty.

FOUR PERSONS UNDER SUSPICION IN DEATH OF WEALTHY DRUGGIST

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—(P)—Mrs. Hazel Glab, 29, five months bride of John I. Glab, wealthy retired Chicago druggist, who was shot to death last night at Van Nuys, and two other persons, were booked on suspicion of murder charges today.

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—(P)—Police today sought by questioning four persons to fathom the slaying of John I. Glab, wealthy retired Chicago druggist who was shot to death last night as he was about to enter his automobile in front of his home near Van Nuys, a suburb.

Glab's body with a bullet hole through the right chest, was found beside his car by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wilson, caretakers of the Glab estate. Shortly afterward his bride of five months, her niece, Miss Ethyl Kaser of Oklahoma City, Okla.; a neighbor, F. A. Krupp, and the caretakers were taken to the Van Nuys police station for questioning. Krupp was released later but the others the police continued to grill.

Result of Feud

The belief was advanced by officers that the slaying might have resulted from a feud started in Chicago. That robbery was the motive was discounted as several hundred dollars was found on the body.

Hysterical and unable to talk for several minutes after arrival at police headquarters, Mrs. Glab, who is from Oklahoma, related a tale of trouble between her husband and his former wife.

Glab received his final decree of divorce from his first wife thirty days before remarrying. The caretakers told police that they were in their quarters in the rear of the state when they heard a shot.

Mrs. Glab and her niece said they were in the house playing cards and said they did not hear the shot.

DULA RALLIES TO TAKE LAST FIVE ROUNDS

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 20.—(Sp)—Arthur "Kid" Dula, the Brownwood Panther, fought in Panther Park Tuesday night before about 4,000 fight fans, many of whom were from Brownwood and other West Texas points and after ten rounds of furious milling with Johnny Estes, former Texas University athlete, the Brownwood boy's hands were once more raised in victory.

Dula got away to a slow start, lost the first round by a wide margin, staged a comeback and won the second round, but slowed down to allow his worthy opponent to take the third, fourth and fifth rounds by comfortable margins. Fight fans were beginning to cry for an Estes victory and apparently the Texas athlete was well on his way to giving Dula, the pride of Fort Worth fans, a first class punneling.

But not so. Dula began an uphill fight in the sixth round that all but had his heavier opponent out before the curtain was drawn on the tenth. Dula won the last five rounds by wide margins and in the last two or three rounds had Estes covering up and backing away to stay out of the path of Dula's murderous right and punishing left hooks.

Estes staggered Dula in one of the early rounds with a terrific punch to the chin but Dula shook his head and bored in. Estes was beaten to a pulp in the closing rounds and was bleeding freely from the effects of the continued barrage of hooks, punches and jabs that Dula kept sending to all parts of his opponent's body.

Clyde Chastain, who has recently added enough poundage to be classed as a welterweight, surprise fight fans Tuesday night by handing Sandi Esquivel a sound beating. The flashy Chastain took every round of the 10 round go and had Esquivel in a bad way many times. Esquivel seemed, to be badly off form, his

MEMORIAL PLANNED IN HONOR FORMER BROWNWOOD NURSE

Brownwood friends of the late Miss Henrietta McRae, who died in this city January 26, 1917, are interested in a memorial that is being erected in her honor at Cuero, an announcement of which has been received here.

A memorial room in the Lutheran hospital at Cuero is being furnished and endowed as a memorial to Miss McRae, to be used exclusively by graduate nurses in time of illness. Mrs. Oscar Kunitz, 707 Coggin Avenue, is serving as local treasurer for the memorial fund, and will forward all contributions to the proper authorities.

Miss McRae was born at Lamar, Texas, Nov. 30, 1873. She finished her training as a nurse in the John Sealy School of Nursing and the John Sealy Hospital. In Sept. 1898, she enlisted as a nurse with the United States Army during the Spanish-American war, and served for about two years, during which time typhoid fever and similar scourges ravaged the American army. Returning from this service in 1899, she was recalled by the War Department the following year and until 1902 served in the Philippine Islands, China and other foreign countries, continuing until her health was broken down and she was compelled to retire. After a brief rest, she went to San Francisco and again served with the army until 1904. She then served as superintendent of nurses in various hospitals, including the Brownwood Infirmary, until her death here on January 26, 1917. She is remembered here by hosts of friends as an expert nurse, a kindly Christian woman and an unselfish character who literally devoted her entire life to deeds of mercy and helpfulness.

heralded ring craftiness being sadly missing in his futile fight with Chastain. Chastain weaved in and out in so doing kept up a continual barrage that gave Esquivel little time to fight back. This was the semi-final scrap of the night's program, the Dula-Estes scrap seemed, to be badly off form, his

MOTHER HOMER DUNCUM DIES, SISTER HURT

Mrs. Bob Duncum of Rockdale mother of Homer Duncum of the United Tire Store of Brownwood, died suddenly at her home Sunday night shortly after 9 o'clock. Funeral services for Mrs. Duncum will be held near Rockdale Tuesday, Mr. Duncum states.

Before leaving for Rockdale, Mr. Duncum received word that his sister, Miss Elsie Morrison of San Antonio, was injured Sunday night in a car wreck near Mason. ### Grisham Speaks Next Saturday in Coleman County

R. N. Grisham of Eastland, candidate for Congress from the 17th district, will speak Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Santa Anna and at 4 o'clock in Coleman. The candidate is making a thorough canvass of 19 counties in the district and is carrying his candidacy direct to the people. It is stated, in a single day, he went through the southern part of Coleman county visiting every community in a rich farming section with hundreds of voters—a section that, for the most part, had not been invaded by a single Congressional candidate. He plans a canvass of even the remote places of all the counties as well as the larger towns of the district.

BROWNWOOD BOYS GIVEN TWO YEARS

Shields Craft and Carl Stephens, two Brownwood youths, against whom the Brown County Grand Jury returned two indictments each for burglary, entered pleas of guilty to one charge, each, and were given two years in the state penitentiary by the jury that heard their pleas of guilty. Shields Craft entered a plea of guilty to burglarizing Dublin and Cannon's Store on Center Avenue and Stephens entered a similar plea to burglarizing Weakley-Watson Hardware Store.

The jury that found Craft guilty and assessed his punishment consisted of A. J. Newton, J. J. Miller, Jess McLean, Claude Willett, Rufus Pierce, Ben F. Johnson, J. T. Naron, H. H. Smith, E. E. McKnight, J. A. Kennedy, Idus Holleman and Weldon Lancaster.

The jury that tried Carl Stephens consisted of T. C. Peters, J. H. Buse, W. T. Guthrie, O. T. Houston, Will McCaushey, J. J. Miller, Jess McLean, Claude Willett, Ben F. Johnson, Idus Holleman, E. E. McKnight and J. A. Kennedy.

GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT OF ITS INVESTIGATIONS

AFTER having been in session a little more than two weeks, the Brown County Grand Jury, had adjourned, making its final report late Monday afternoon. During the two weeks of the session for the June term of court a total of 13 grand bills have been returned by the grand jury for felony violations.

The grand jury deplores present conditions, especially pertaining to liquor law violations and recommends that the people of Texas make an effort at the next Texas Legislature to repeal the Search and Seizure Law, this law, in the opinion of the grand jury, making it almost impossible to secure indictments and convictions of liquor law violators.

The grand jury also denounces the news article, "Slumming Party Visits Brownwood Beer Joints," written by Bruce M. Francis, following visit with others to numerous beer joints of the city and published in the Brownwood Bulletin, June 9.

The complete report of the grand jury, as submitted to Judge Woodward, is as follows: "In the district court of Brown county, Texas, June Term, 1928. To the Honorable J. O. Woodward, judge of said court:

"We, your grand jury, impaneled for said term of court beg leave to submit the following as our report:

"We have been in session ten days during which time we have been diligent in trying to bring to the attention of the court, the most serious crime in our county. We have found it a difficult matter in most instances and in some instances impossible to procure sufficient testimony on which to base indictment. This being due to the fact that few people will volunteer to give us information, and even in some instances go so far as to swear falsely to protect violators of the law. Especially do we find this so in our investigation of the liquor violations. However, we are gratified in knowing that this is no new experience for grand juries throughout the entire country.

"We are gratified that our county has had no capital case for investigation, which we feel speaks well for our citizenship as compared with other sections of our state. The greater portion of our time has been taken up in investigating different species of theft, which we find prevalent throughout our county. We are sorry to say that in most cases of theft and burglary the participants are young men and boys. We feel that our county is very much in need of an educational campaign along this line both in our schools and in the home. The young manhood of our county should be impressed with the fact that theft and dishonesty is a crime and the property rights of others will be and must be respected. If we would take more interest in the boys and young men before they get into trouble instead of waiting until they have committed crime to display our interest there would be less crime committed by them. The young men of a good family, fresh from school, qualified to take his place in business and social world having his life ruined because he feels that dishonesty is no disgrace unless one is detected is certainly a sad thought. Some matters of this nature have come under our observation during our session.

"We have spent very little time in the investigation of misdemeanors, as we find such matters have been well taken care of by the county and justice courts. This, we think speaks well for the vigilance of the sheriff's department, as well county and district attorneys and we commend them for their faithful service.

"We have had before our body 57 witnesses who have been brought from every section of the county. We have tried to give a fair and impartial investigation of all violations brought to our attention. We have returned into your court 13 true bills for felony violations and two for misdemeanors.

"The next two paragraphs of the grand jury's report pertain to conditions around the county jail, as well as inside the jail. It is stated that the jail is found in a good state of repair and that it is being kept in as good condition as is possible under prevailing conditions. The grand jury reports that the roof of the jail is in very poor condition and recommends to the Commissioners Court that necessary repairs be made. It was also recommended that the old stacks back of the jail be torn away and a new and modern garage be built to house the county automobiles. The grand jury further recommends that cement or gravel walks be built around the jail and that the jail yard be beautified and maintained as is the court house yard.

"In the closing paragraphs of the grand jury's report is noted numerous comments and recommendations relative to the laws governing enforcement of prohibition. We suggest that at the next meeting of our Legislature our citizens use their influence to make necessary changes in the liquor law, especially in the search and seizure law, as it is almost impossible under the existing law to procure sufficient evidence to justify a conviction.

"Our attention has been called to an article headed, "Slumming Party Visits Brownwood Beer Joints," published in the Brownwood Bulletin, Saturday, June 9. We feel that this article was altogether uncalled-for and calculated to leave the wrong impression on the minds of the people of Brownwood and surrounding country. We are forced to limit our comments on this article, for the reason that the law forbids our revealing the secrets of the grand jury. Yet we feel that it is our duty to let the public know the matters set out in this article have not passed unnoticed by this body. We have had presented to us the testimony of three of the parties composing this "slumming party," including the writer of same, taken in a court of inquiry on Monday following the publication of this article on Saturday. This court of inquiry was held by Hon. E. T. Perkinson, justice of the peace of precinct one, assisted by the county and district attorneys.

"These witnesses were sworn and detailed statement was taken as to all happenings on this "slumming visit." The originals of these statements are on file in the office of E. T. Perkinson and may be examined by anyone wishing to see them. A copy of these statements, as we understand, has been furnished by Brownwood Bulletin. The testimony of the fourth guide on this slumming party was not taken for the reason that he was a PERFECT STRANGER to the others of the party. After a thorough investigation of this matter, we are unable to procure sufficient evidence or testimony on which to return an indictment, or even to justify the officers in asking the issuance of search warrants. By reading these statements of the witnesses under oath you can judge for yourself the character of places visited by these "slummers," and as to whether the writer of this article exaggerated conditions that came under his observation.

"In closing our report we wish to thank your Honor for the splendid charge given us on being impaneled, for the advice given us during our session, for other courtesies extended and assure you that our stay with you has been pleasant. We also thank the bailiffs and other officers of the court for their courtesies and assistances.

"Respectfully submitted,
H. H. GRISHAM, Foreman."

50 CENTS DAY FOR ROAD WORK HELD TO BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL

AUSTIN, June 20.—(AP)—Special county laws allowing prisoners only fifty cents a day for road work were held unconstitutional today by the court of criminal appeals.

H. T. Sizemore, whom the court decided was being held in Smith county in contravention of the general statute giving credit of $3 a day for highway labor, was ordered released. Sizemore, convicted of sending a threatening letter through the mails, was fined $100. Under the state $3 law, he would have worked out the penalty some time ago.

District court's refusal to allow bail to W. J. Fagan, charged with slaying a special ranger in Freestone county during a liquor raid was affirmed and Gratton Davenport, Texas Green county, was denied a review of his unsuccessful attack against Governor Moody's revocation of a conditional pardon Davenport held.

Davenport, convicted of murder and given 99 years, was pardoned by former Governor Miriam A. Ferguson on the condition that he be sent to an insane asylum. Finding Davenport had not so been treated Mr. Moody rescinded the clemency an action the appeals court affirmed.

Contentions of W. J. Meyers former business manager of the Baylor University Hospital at Dallas, convicted of embezzling from it, that the institution was operating without legal charter were disallowed.

Meyers' two year sentence was affirmed. His five year sentence was reversed only on the ground, however, that the State failed to prove its case fully.

The appeal of M. C. Woodson from a twenty year McLennan county robbery sentence assessed for the robbery of the Eddy First National Bank, was dismissed because Woodson had escaped jail.

Flat Rock Section Has Location For Another Oil Test

Tom C. Patten announces a location for drilling on the R. L. Ashcraft land, C. Gilliland survey. This is near the Flat Rock crossing on the Jim Ned Creek, in the same territory at the "Rattlesnake" well which Luther Stewart is now drilling on the N. A. Perry tract.

Drilling is to begin within the next ten days, Patten states. The depth is named as 1,500 feet. He has a 176 acre lease there.

LONE DEPENDENT ON WAY TO WEALTH

By NEA Service MERTZON, Tex.—The only person in all Irion county, dependent on public support, is on the way to wealth. The man who is a pauper no longer has been living on a barren tract of land near here. His name is Fred Saunders.

Recently oil was discovered in the vicinity of Saunders' property and several bids were made of his 16-acre tract. But he refused to sell, demanding always higher prices and dickering for possible royalties. County officials say that Saunders' attitude is unfair, because as long as he refuses to sell the county is forced to provide his sustenance.

Public Opinion

To The Bulletin:
Well as I am back in my little Texas home after more than a month's absence visiting relations and friends from my home through Texas, New Mexico and on into California I will make an effort to tell you of my trip. I would have written to the paper while I was away telling some of my experiences, but several failed to get a copy of the paper, so I shall try as briefly as I can to give the details.

My husband, little son, and neighbor girl, Annie Marie Cole, left Brownwood, May the 2nd, 1928, visited the first night out with my husband's sister, Mrs. Minnie Wheat of Wingo, Rannels county, the next day and night, we visited another sister, Mrs. Fannie Scott, of Sweetwater, Nolan county, from there we motored on over to Colorado, Mitchell county and visited a couple of days and nights with other relatives and friends, then my youngest brother, Lewis Wyatt of that place and my oldest brother, Abe Wyatt, and his son of Abilene, fell in with our party. We headed out for Hatch, New Mexico, stopping over for a while Sunday in El Paso and going over to Juarez, old Mexico sightseeing. We headed at my sisters at Hatch Sunday night and I had not seen her for 31 years so you may know it was a happy meeting.

Next day we took lunch to Elephant Butte dam, a most beautiful place, where perhaps many of you, who read this, have seen, we fried ham, made red gravy, boiled coffee and had everything else good to eat that goes in a picnic basket. We made pictures, lounged around and talked and laughed until all too soon, the time told us we must go in home to milk old Mollie and do other chores. Next day after noon my little crowd bid adieu to the folks there for a few days and went on over to Demming to visit a daughter of my sister (my sister's name I forgot to mention is Mrs. Lizzie Beal, whom many people of this county well know) Next morning bright and early we left Demming headed for Los Angeles, California, for a visit with my brother Dolph Wyatt and family. We were away two weeks and had such a good time. California certainly is a beautiful state. We went to lots of good shows, went swimming in the Pacific ocean and in the plunge visited several of the beach resorts such as Venice, Sanimaria and Long Beach. Our first Sunday out there we picnicked at Brookside Park Pasadena, it was a beautiful park and we enjoyed it so much. The next week we visited a couple of days and nights at Porterville beyond Bakersfield with my husband's niece, Mrs. John Connor and family. My brother and wife were with us there and all did so much enjoy the good time we had there.

At night we were entertained with a musical and several old friends came in to see us among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Billie Clecker and children, Ansel, Reginald and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirksey. We also visited for a little while with Mr. and Mrs. Grundy Sparks. We certainly did travel over some beautiful mountain between Los Angeles and Bakersfield and at Bakersfield we saw a beautiful oil field, the largest, I believe it is said, anywhere in the States. We went on back to Los Angeles and the next Sunday we went picnicking at Long Beach where we were met by some other Brown county people, Mr. John Melton and family and had another pleasant day. We also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Low at Los Angeles, they formerly lived here, they have such a nice home there, they were also over to see us twice at my brothers. We also met Dr. and Mrs. McCarter at Los Angeles, they have a beautiful home there. I had never seen as many beautiful homes as I saw there and the most beautiful flower gardens that the eyes ever gazed upon. Our next Sunday we started home and my brother and wife and two married daughters and families that had all shown us such a royal good time while we were there came down as far as Memmet with us, so also did Dudie Hammonds and family. We ate our lunch at Riverside Park, a beautiful place, then we drove on to Hemmet, where the other folks turned back for their home and we spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Earp, a cousin of my husband. Next morning we started back towards Hatch, arriving at Gage, New Mexico, on Wednesday the 30th. We spent the day and night with another cousin, Cecil Earp and wife. Thursday we went on to my sisters, where we stayed two days and nights and had such a nice visit with her and the time came all too soon to start home. We arrived at home Sunday afternoon June the 3rd and found everything at home alright and realized that we had for once in our lives enjoyed a whole month of recreation.

I will say this much, it is worth anybody's time and expenses to visit through New Mexico, Arizona and California.

BROWNWOOD WINNER OF FIRST PRIZE IN CONVENTION PARADE

Brownwood was one of the first prize winners in the mammoth parade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Fort Worth yesterday afternoon. The prize was that was offered for the best marching unit.

As some of the local boosters interpret it, "Brownwood had become proficient as a marching unit through its marching at the head of the West Texas parade of progress all during the last year, and therefore it was easy to win a marching prize."

Announcement of the awards says: "The best marching unit awards were made to Brownwood, first; Weatherford, second; Slaton, third; Judges were W. N. Blanton, manager of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce; Carl Poole, Sherman; W. S. Hard, Washington, D. C."

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram in its notes on the parade this morning said: "Brownwood puts its best foot forward when 'The Old Gray Mare' Band represents it in delegation parades. The band, always a major attraction at events in which it appears, led the Brownwood delegation yesterday. Riding the old gray mare was Miss Katie Myri Parks, Howard Payne girl student, wearing identical dresses of dainty white organdie with red trimmings, also
