MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, JUNE 1, 1951

NUMBER 28

Food for serious thought that ought to be pondered on a world-wide scale is the topic of Father Anthony Schroeder's commencement address here Sunday night. Tolerance and intolerance both have a place in human integrity, but neither can be considered a virtue when applied outside its proper scope.

That principle is the essence of harmony on every level of society . . . the world, the nation, the state, the community, and the family. It derives from the Savior's injunction to love thy neighbor, and it makes good sense, because two people, while disagreeing, can and should make allowance for each other's sincerity. On a larger scale such disagreements can exist between religious creeds, political parties, or groups divided on practically any issue under the sun. But they need not provoke a hostile attitude.

One thing is certain. When any two factions of normal everyday citizens divide on an issue there will be sincerity on both sides. It just does not happen that either group has suddenly been transformed into a bunch of scoundrels. On an average, people's convictions are supported by honest opinions, and it isn't fair for either faction to point an accusing finger at the other.

A good example can be found in our present trend of government. The conservative faction favors the traditional theory that individuals should have the opportunity to shift for themselves and enjoy the fruits of their efforts. The socialistic faction favors collective security in which the more able have to help support the less able. Both sides sincerely think their way is better and both are logical in refusing to accept the other view. But that does not justify conservatives in hating socialists, or vice versa.

The same applies to religion. Every denomination has sincere people serving God to the best of their knowledge and conscience, but disagreeing in doctrine from the people of every other denomination. In fact, the more sincere a person is in his own belief the less tolerant he must be toward another's belief. A good Methodist does not accept Baptist doctrine. A good Catholic does not accept Presbyterian doctrine. Reason tells the sincere member of each creed that he must be intolerant toward all other creeds. But reason should also tell each member that the other person is just as sincere as he, and is entitled to just as much respect as he expects for his sincerity.

The race question is another bone of contention. Some people in all honesty believe that colored people should be required to raise their standards by their own efforts. Others just as honest believe that whites should hand them the desired benefits as a gift. Again, honest opinions clash and each side has a right to stick by its convictions, but each side should nevertheless respect the sincerity of the other.

Local issues likewise often run off on the same tangent. A city may be divided on whether to install some improvement. Some residents are all for it believing that it would bring worth while benefits to all. Other residents say it would impose too much of a tax burden. And there we have it again. Both sides determined and sincere in their views. Both with a perfect right to stick by their convictions, but neither with a valid reason to be hostile toward the other.

In families, too, sincere opinions can differ, but that is no reason why brothers cannot show mutual respect for sincerity and refrain from quarreling.

On every level of society the principle applies, and we could have a far happier world if every nation, every community, every family and every ideological faction made a proper distinction in applying tolerance and intolerance. It amounts simply to a version of the golden rule: "Respect the sincerity" (Continued on Page 8)

AT MEMORIAL SERVICE held Sunday, May 27, members of the VFW rifle squad present arms while the Muenster band plays the national anthem. Father Anthony Schroeder conducted the religious memorial and the veterans conducted the military ceremony honoring this community's war dead.

Rev. Hubert J. Neu Ordained May 30 In Lindsay Church

For the first time in its 60-year history the community of Lindsay witnessed the ordination of a native son to the sacred order of the priesthood in the parish church on Wednesday morning.

At 9 a.m. Rev. Hubert J. Neu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Neu, was ordained by His Excellency, Most Rev. Bishop Augustine Danglmayr, Auxiliary Bishop of Dallas. At the same time Saint Peter's church was the scene of two other ordinations. Frater Aloysius Fuhrmann, O.S.B., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fuhrmann of Lindsay, received the order of Subdiaconate and Rev. Reginald Kelly, son of Mrs. R. J. Kelley of Fort Worth, received the order of Diaconate.

Scores of church dignitaries, priests and religious joined relatives and friends from a wide area to witness the services.

First Solemn Mass

Thursday was another outstanding day for Lindsay. At 9 a.m. the newly ordained Father Neu celebrated his First Solemn Mass in St. Peter's church. He was assisted by Rev. Conrad Herda, Lindsay pastor, as archpriest; Rev. Alyer Behrens of Sioux City, Iowa, as deacon; Frater Aloysius Fuhrmann, newly ordained subdeacon of New Subiaco Abbey, as subdeacon; Rev. Fred Mosman of Dallas, master of ceremonies. Rev. Paul Charcut of Pilot Point delivered the sermon.

Minor ministers of the Mass were Joseph Weinzapfel of St. John's Seminary in San Antonio; Brother Louis Fuhrmann and Max Sandmann of Subiaco. All of the minor ministers are candidates for the priesthood except Brother Louis and all are members of St. Peter's parish except Joseph Weinzapfel of Sacred Heart parish, Muenster.

Fourteen Graduate At Parochial High

Speaking on "Tolerance", Rev. Anthony Schroeder delivered the commencement address at graduation exercises for Sacred Heart High School Sunday night. The solemn services began at 7:30 in Sacred Heart Church.

Father Anthony stated that the popular application of tolerance in these times is more comprehensive than it should be, because in many cases it condones evils. Tolerance is a virtue only when it applies to persons, not when it applies to the error, he said. On that basis he cautioned the graduates always to keep sight of fundamental truths and to guard against violation of them, but to be tolerant of others who sincerely disagree with them.

The fourteen graduates in navy blue caps and gowns filed into church to the processional, a March by Edwin D. Wyckoff, played by Sister M. Dolores on the organ. Accompanying the seniors were their pages, tiny girls and boys wearing white formal dresses and white linen suits.

After the commencement address the seniors received their diplomas from Father Anthony in the sanctuary and after returning to their pews they recited an act of consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The high school choir sang the Benediction hymns and a three voice Ave Maria. Father Anthony officiated at Sacramental Benediction which closed the services.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock High Mass during which the seniors received Corporate Holy Communion. Father Cletus Post officiated at the Mass and delivered the baccalaureate address.

SHHS Grads Boost Church Fund $100

A one hundred dollar cash donation to the new church building fund is the memorial gift of this year's graduating class of Sacred Heart High school.

Presentation of the memorial was made to Pastor Rev. Anthony Schroeder by the graduates at their class night program last Thursday.

Community Honors World War Dead in Memorial Sunday

Muenster's thirteen victims of World War II were honored last Sunday in memorial services conducted jointly by Father Anthony Schroeder and the memorial detail of the Muenster VFW Post.

Father Anthony led in special memorial day prayers for the deceased service men, then gave a short address of tribute, reminding his audience that all Americans are eternally indebted to those who gave their lives in defense of the ideals and blessings we cherish, and urging all to live up to the principles of Christianity and Americanism for which they died. Father Anthony also comforted families of the deceased with an assurance that the reward hereafter is great for any person who lays down his life for those he loves.

The military memorial under the direction of Alphonse Felderhoff consisted of a three volley rifle salute and taps. Color bearers, of the U. S. flag and the local VFW banner, stood beside the memorial monument during all of the service.

The Muenster Youth Band also participated, playing the national anthem between religious and military services, and the VFW Auxiliary marched in a group led by the national and club colors.

Services started with a procession from Sacred Heart Church to the crucifixion group in the center of the cemetery. After special prayers there the procession led to the soldier's memorial section where school children placed wreaths on each grave prior to the ceremony.

War dead who were remembered in the service are Robert Weinzapfel, M. J. Endres Jr., August Fleitman, Lawrence Felderhoff, Paul Streng, James Endres, Richard Fette, Harold Pembroke, Frank Moser, Frank Yosten, Cecil Cole, Robert Herr, and Clarence Hoehn.

Bayer, Hofbauer to Attend Scout Camp

Randy Bayer and Larry Hofbauer are Muenster's two Boy Scouts selected to attend the summer encampment at Camp Philmont in New Mexico in August. Randy will be sponsored by the local VFW Post and Larry will be sponsored by Muenster business men.

Ralph Kawalke, Circle Ten Council official of Dallas, and Jack Kelly, district field executive from McKinney, selected the two boys from six eligible local first class scouts over 14 years of age. They made their selections Tuesday night after interviewing the boys and giving them a brief test.

The meeting was held at the home of Scoutmaster and Mrs. Nick Miller.

Mmes. Ray Evans and Ervin Hamrick spent Tuesday in Fort Worth.

News of Sick And Injured

Henrietta Sicking, 12, daughter of Mrs. Henry Sicking, had her tonsils removed at M & S Hospital in Gainesville Saturday.

L. R. Long returned home Saturday from Gainesville Sanitarium where he was a patient 31 days and underwent major surgery.

Mrs. Al Walterscheid broke her right arm last Wednesday evening in a fall at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Schneider. The fracture is just above the wrist.

Mrs. Gordon Fenley of Myra had her tonsils removed at the local clinic Thursday.

Wilfred Klement was treated at the local clinic last Wednesday for a deep cut on his left heel. Four stitches were needed to close the wound.

Patsy Cain returned last Friday from Gainesville sanitarium where she was a patient five days for medical treatment. She is the daughter of the R. P. Cains.

LaVerna Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess, had her tonsils and adenoids removed at the local clinic Wednesday.

Mrs. Doyle Hood underwent a tonsillectomy and adenoidectomy at Gainesville Sanitarium Wednesday.

Al Horn was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Sunday and is recovering nicely from surgery. He is convalescing at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. S. Horn.

Tommy Fenley of route 6, Gainesville, had his tonsils removed at the local clinic Monday.

Ruffnecks Win 8-6 Over Lindsay Nine

A timely hit by David Endres in the last of the seventh produced an 8 to 6 victory for Muenster's Ruffnecks over the Lindsay softball team here Tuesday night. A two run rally in the first of the seventh had evened the score at 6 all after Lindsay had trailed all the earlier part of the game. A hit and an error put 2 Ruffnecks on base, both of them romping in on the Endres hit. Dub Taylor hit the only homer of the game. At Pilot Point last Sunday the Ruffnecks marked up a 7 to 11 win behind the steady pitching of Jack Reiter.

Games on the Ruffneck schedule for next week are Pilot Point, May 31; Nocona, June 5; and the Bezner Chicks, June 7. All will be played here.

According to an agreement between the three local teams, softball fans this summer will have an opportunity to see a game every night, Monday through Friday. Ruffnecks play on Tuesday and Thursday, Veterans play on Monday and Wednesday and the Boy Scouts play on Friday.

Joe Walterscheid, Resident Since '91, Dies Early Saturday

Joe Walterscheid, 72, a resident of Muenster for 60 years, passed away quietly in his sleep at about 5:30 Saturday morning. He had been in ill health for several years.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 9 o'clock in Sacred Heart church with Rev. Anthony Schroeder officiating at the requiem high mass and at the burial in Sacred Heart cemetery. Nick Miller was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Six grandsons were pallbearers: Donald and Ernest Bayer, Alfred and Arthur Bayer, Denis and Julian Walterscheid.

Mr. Walterscheid was born in Westphalia, Germany, on May 16, 1879, the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Walterscheid who had eight sons. He came to the United States with them when he was about seven and moved to Muenster with them in February 1891. Before coming to Muenster the family resided in Illinois for two years and in Carroll, Iowa, for about three years.

Joe Walterscheid helped his father farm until he secured a place of his own where he continued to engage in farming. On Nov. 11, 1902, he married Miss Catherine Hess. They lived east of the city about two years, then bought a farm north of town where Mr. Walterscheid was active until he retired and moved to town about 10 years ago.

As a youth and young man Mr. Walterscheid was a member of the Muenster Concert Band playing the bass drum. He was a long time member of the local Saint Joseph's Society and was active in parish work as (Continued on Page 2)

Sixteen Graduate At Muenster High

Sixteen graduates of Muenster High School in their commencement exercises last Thursday night were advised by Mr. Charles D. Morrison of Wichita Falls that "aggressive living" is the formula to a useful and happy career.

The man who achieves success in this life and a reward in heaven, he said is the man who tries to do things. He pointed out that in selecting his apostles Christ chose men at work, not loafers from the village hang-out. Again from Scripture he chose the parable of a rich man who went to hell and pointed out that the only vice attributed to the man is that he never did a thing. The parable seems to imply, he remarked that a person who directs his effort toward good, and works, will be pleasing to both God and man.

The commencement, held in the school auditorium opened with Invocation by Rev. Glenn Field and closed with Benediction by Rev. Bill Hodge. Lillian Vogel delivered the valedictory address and Glenn Hellman the salutatory. Diplomas were awarded by School Board President E. S. Lawson and honors by Superintendent Weldon Cowan. Musical numbers were by Margie Kathman, Pauline Myrick, Marcelene Wimmer and the High School Chorus.

Rumor: Mao Makes Deal With Stalin

Chinese Red Chairman, Mao Tze-Tung, returned to Peiping from his mysterious Kremlin visit with Stalin's promise of an "international volunteer force" of ten Soviet equipped divisions for Korea. Mao's price for this generous gift is the addition of 600,000 more Red Chinese troops to his Korean forces.

These are the highlights of a report from the Chinese Nationalist capital on Formosa, compiled from underground sources on the Chinese mainland, and not official. The information, however, provides no comfort in the Pentagon nor in the halls of Congress where the Army "brass" is currently between the upper millstone of Administration Policy and the nether one of MacArthur Convictions.

According to the French Academy, the actual number of languages spoken and written in the world is estimated at 2,796.

long as his health permitted. Even during the past several years while his health was failing he still drove his own car, enjoyed playing dominoes with his old friends daily and on May 16 was honor guest at a family reunion party in observance of his 72nd birthday.

The day before his death he was in town as usual and in the evening attended church services. He did not mention feeling ill when he retired Friday night. When his wife prepared to call him Saturday morning at 6 a.m., their customary time to arise for attendance at early mass, she discovered that he had passed away. She recalls that about a half hour earlier he was still alive.

In addition to his wife he is survived by eight of his nine children, two sons: Adolph and Joe H. Walterscheid of Muenster; six daughters, Mmes. Joe Bayer, Herman Danglmayr, J. H. Bayer, Martin Bayer, Johnny Wimmer, all of Muenster and Miss Katie Mae Walterscheid of Gainesville; 28 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and one brother, August Walterscheid of Muenster.

JUVENILE JET GENIUS—At the age of 13 most boys pipe dream about building rockets and other high-speed conveyances, but Ronald Wheeler, 13-year-old high school student of Ilion, N. Y., has done something practical on the subject. He recently proposed the addition of a third combustion chamber to the ordinary dual chamber jet unit which would greatly increase the speed of jet planes. Jet experts were amazed by Ronald's "remarkable thinking" on the subject, and they invited him to G. E.'s jet center in Lockland, O., where someday his proposal may be put to use.

Legislators Stand Firm As Country Goes Panty-Waist

In the fact of well-authenticated reports that this decadent country of ours has lost half its tobacco-chewers in the past 25 years, Senators and Representatives still have their snuff-boxes in the Capitol freshly filled every day.

Fear for the fate of the historic snuff-boxes, and the freshness of their contents, was aroused by the news that one of America's largest chewing tobacco factories, at Middletown, Ohio had closed down last week drying up, perhaps forever, the source of 20 million pounds of "chewing" a year. Assurances from the Capitol, today however, tell us that the snuff-boxes that began their service under Thomas Jefferson, in 1807, have survived the recent modernization of the building.

Towns, Like Homes Require Clean, Safe Housekeeping Habit

AUSTIN. — "Environmental sanitation is the public health term for clean, safe housekeeping whether it applies to a private home and its surroundings or to towns and cities. Among other things, it insures safe drinking water, proper garbage and sewage disposal, the safe service of wholesome food including milk, rat and insect control, and general cleanliness of the premises. However, for environmental sanitation to be effective, it is essential that not only public health officials but the citizens living in their respective homes or operating establishments serving the public cooperate wholeheartedly, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Luke and Hofbauer Win SHHS Awards

Ray Luke was named the outstanding scientist of the Sacred Heart High School science class and received the coveted science medal given by the Balfour Company. Presentation was made by Sister Theresina, instructor, before the close of the term last Friday. Ray received the award by the vote of the class and the sanction of the instructor for being superior in both experiments and reports.

The history medal, also given by Balfour, for the outstanding history student was won by Irma Hofbauer and was presented by Sister Geraldine, history teacher.

K of C Meeting Wednesday
Members of the Knights of Columbus are reminded of a special social program to follow their regular business meeting of Wednesday, June 6. A barbecue lunch will be served. During the business meeting ladies will be entertained in the club room.

Towns, Like Homes Require Clean, Safe Housekeeping Habit

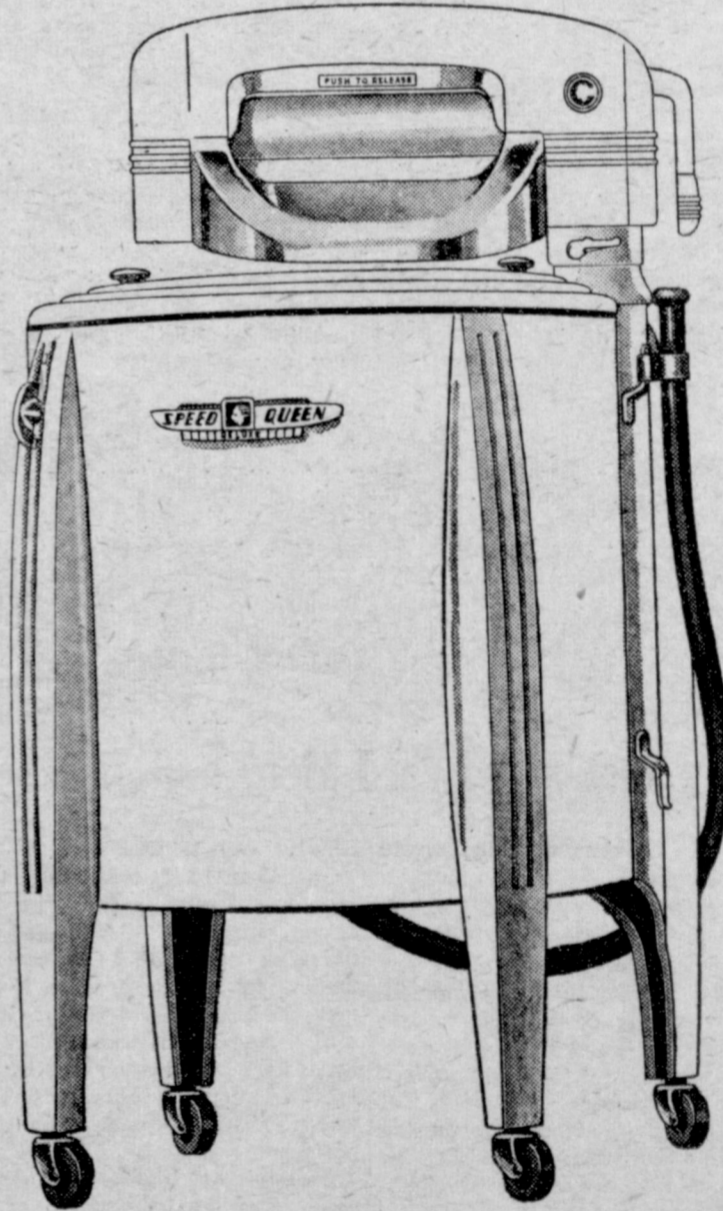

"Consider, for example, the seasonal housefly hazard. It has been determined that 120 eggs are laid by a single female at one time and that a generation is produced every ten days at summer temperature. Thus, the possibility of reproduction during the warm months of a single fly runs into many millions. While the housefly does not bite, it is dangerous because it breeds and feeds upon both filth and food.

"Again, rats are the source of several diseases of man including plague, typhus fever, infectious jaundice, and trichinosis, to mention some of the more important ones. Homes can be made comparatively rat-proof by removing rubbish and garbage accumulations, and by closing avenues of access. Approved poisons and traps should be employed when a real problem presents itself.

"Removal of containers of stagnant water such as tin cans and barrels will do much to eliminate the mosquito for householders. The householder needs to devote more seasonal attention to mosquito eradication than he is today if this is to be properly controlled.

"In general, good and thorough housekeeping, inside and out, is the personal and civic duty of every home dweller. It not only adds to the pleasure of living and removes disease hazards, but increases the appearance of one's surroundings."

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By ED GOSSETT

Washington, D. C., May 26.— Reaching my desk this morning is a booklet of 112 pages, entitled "Soviet Imperialism Plunders Asia." This booklet is published by the Free Trade Committee of the American Federation of Labor, also called Labor League for Human Rights. The first chart in the book is a map showing the location of 175 penal colonies, or slave labor camps operated by the USSR. The book seems to be authentic and well documented. It points out that there are 14 million of these slave laborers. For that matter, the other millions living under Soviet domination are in effect slaves of a godless tyranny. There is no doubt but what most of the millions of Americans belonging to the big labor unions are good citizens, and are violently anti-Communist. The incongruity and inconsistency of this situation is that the able gentlemen who put out the aforesaid book insist that organized labor in this country have the right to raise their wages almost at will. Our efforts to control inflation in this country have been and will continue to be futile so long as big unions, i.e., United States Steel, Automobile Workers, Railroad Workers, etc., continue to up their wages. Approximately 90 per cent of the cost of most of the things we buy is labor cost. To hold down the price on 10 per cent while not holding down the price on 90 per cent is obviously not going to stop the consuming fires of inflation. If inflation continues, American economy must inevitably be destroyed and then the Communism of which our labor bosses are obviously afraid will consume all.

Many of these same labor bosses blame food costs and farm prices for inflation. Mr. Herschel D. Newsom, Master of the National Grange, has just published data showing that in the two years before June, 1950, the average of farm prices declined 26 per cent and that today the average of farm prices is still approximately 15 per cent below the 1947 level. At the same time, says Mr. Newsom, corporation profits and hourly wages of factory workers both are 18 per cent above the levels of 4 years ago. Net farm income has been going steadily down from 18 billion in 1947 to 14 billion in 1949, and 13 billions in 1950. During this same time, national income has gone continuously upward. In the face of these facts, it would be hard to prove that the farmer is the culprit in the inflation picture.

Someone has said there are too many candidates for President in the United States Senate. Strange as it may seem, the Senate has always appeared to be more amenable to political pressure than is the House of Representatives.

This week the Senate Committee restored the 45,000 public housing units which the Gossett amendment in the House had cut from the public housing authorization for 1952. No group in America seems willing to sacrifice any of its pet projects, even pork barrel projects, in the interest of national security and economic stability. I was utterly amazed this week to receive from splendid conservative officials in one of the smaller towns of our District, a wire condemning me for my amendment reducing public housing. This wire concluded with the statement, "We regret your attitude, please retract, cut the budget elsewhere." Where the burget could have been more appropriately and beneficially cut, these gentlemen did not suggest.

This week the House overwhelmingly passed the grain for India bill. Ten Texans voted against the bill, while eight voted for it. I voted against the bill because I have grown apprehensive of our being blackmailed into bankruptcy under the questionable slogan of charity and humanity. We should

Why Justice Toward Men? by James McGurrin

G. K. Chesterton once wrote that before a doctor can cure a sick man, he must first have a clear idea of a healthy man.

It is easy to see that there are a good many things wrong in American life, both private and public. We have our 'sick men.' And we know that if we can restore Christian principles of thinking and acting among the masses of our people, we shall be going a long way towards righting what is wrong.

But have we given enough thought and attention to what is right? Do we really have a 'healthy man' for our ideal? Have we tried to form for ourselves a picture of American life as it would be if our politics, our business, our labor relations, and family life were lived on Christian principles?

The Problem: Man

We may very easily take for normal what is really abnormal, and take for granted as right what is really in conflict with principles of Christianity unless we have at least the outline of such a healthy picture.

At the heart of this outline for a Christian America is the very important idea of man. Just what is he? We will never solve the problems of men as long as we are ignorant of what man is.

So important is this idea of man that it underlies the deep division between the Christian civilization of the Western world and the totalitarian Communism that threatens it today.

Dignity and Rights

The Western world says that man has dignity because he has a soul made to the image and likeness of God. Communism denies this dignity because it denies the existence of the spiritual soul. And be it noted that no small part of the weakness of the West is that its grasp on the Christian idea of man is so imperfect and insecure.

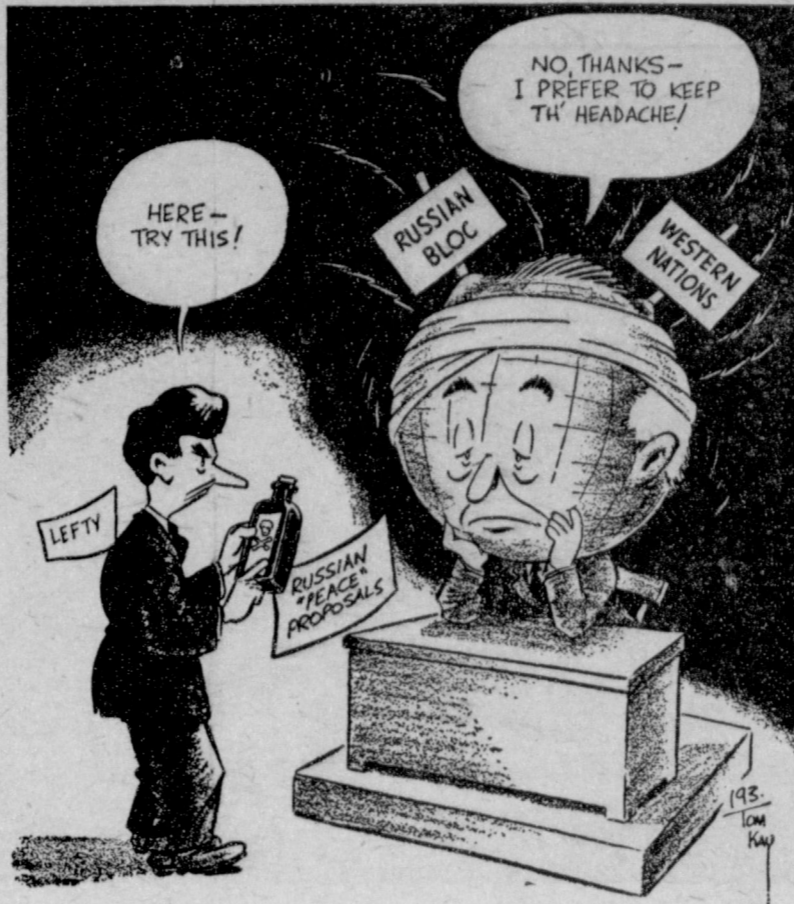

Because our dignity and rights come from God's creation of us as men, and from Christ's redemption of us as men, that dignity and those rights belong to all of us alike. We are all members of the same human race. Hence in so far as we deny to any human being that dignity and those rights, we are violating God's law.

Blood Spilt For All
 These are the things that the Christian should have in mind as he looks at his fellow-man. The Christian knows that God's love and the redeeming passion and death of our divine Saviour are the common heritage of all men, without distinction of race, color, or condition.

There is no one so low or so depraved that God does not desire to save him. There is no human being for whom Christ did not shed His blood.

What we have to do, therefore, if we want to form the blueprint for a Christian America, is look upon our fellow-man with the eyes of God who created him, and with the eyes of Christ who redeemed him.

sell or trade this grain but not loan or give it to the Indian government. This India grain bill will cost the American taxpayer well over $200,000,000. The grain will go to a hostile government and will not be given to its starving but will be sold to those able to pay. This will unquestionably be a donation, although called a loan. India has sterling balances (money) in England several times large enough to pay us for the grain. She has jute, manganese, and other critical materials she could trade us for it. Space doesn't permit a discussion of India's sacred beggars, monkeys and cows, and her war with Pakistan, but for which she would not need this charity. If this gift could conceivably contribute to national defense or national security, then I would have voted for it. It was an early American patriot who gave us the sterling slogans "millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute." While we have repudiated doctrines of appeasement and the idea of buying friends, we nevertheless continue to practice such policies. A little toughness and a little consistency in our operations would be of far more benefit to us than subsid-

Generous Russians!

"Russian Wheat Ships Have Started for India" was the big headline throughout India on the day that Prime Minister Nehru accepted American famine aid on whatever terms Congress may decide upon.

The Russian wheat, which must be bought and paid for, amounts to 50,000 tons, which is less than half the amount India has been receiving monthly from the U. S. through ordinary trade channels. The relief program, now being ironed out at the Capitol, is a $190,000,000 project to supply two million tons.

But the Indian press is hailing the generosity of Uncle Joe in the Kremlin and making nasty cracks at Uncle Sam.

This Dogwood Is No Pup!

A vernal note from the Tree Society of America reports the largest dogwood in the world is in Milwaukie, Oregon (where they spell it with two "i"s). This arboreal mastiff is 65 feet high, fifty feet in diameter with a trunk measuring 88 inches four feet above ground. Experts say it is more than one hundred years old.

In full bloom at this writing, it is attracting visitors from hundreds of miles.

Isn't it funny how women can talk on and on about things that left them speechless?

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Just "Can't Get Over" Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-falutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place — just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick—even a shoat couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-off" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.

Thank You, Mr. Truman

By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

It may be that the discharge of General MacArthur is the one real service which history will credit Mr. Truman as having rendered his country. Perhaps that tragic error was necessary to awaken us to Mr. Truman's inadequacy as trustee of his country's vital interests and to the frightening progress already made by socialism under his vacillating arrogance.

Fate plays queer quirks on people who forget, or have not learned, that, eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. A Russian train robber and murderer became dictator over hundreds of millions of people. In Germany a frustrated paperhanger imposed his diseased will on a continent. In England a fanatic coal miner pursues his relentless program to destroy the last vestige of capitalism. And in America a bankrupt haberdasher struggles persistently for life and death control over the finances and economy of a nation. In all places where these things happen and men less than fit ride into high office on promises of something for nothing, or by capitalizing on hatreds—expediency takes the place of principle in determining policy and control, and the morals of men decay.

CRADLE ROBIN—A blase New Yorker ignored a construction company's deadlines and built her nest right smack in the middle of scaffolding for an apartment house. Before anyone could say Jack Robin-son, Mrs. Robin had laid four eggs. Fuming foremen waited 24 hours, then moved the nest with its two baby robins and two eggs to a safer place. Mama Robin followed along, determined to let nothing interfere with her maternal duties.

History will accord General MacArthur his rightful place for the services he has rendered America and civilization. It will do no less for the little captain who finally fired a general. But you and I should be concerned with something more important than any individual.

At long last the American people can, if they will, make a searching analysis of our foreign needs, obligations, relations and policies. We can learn to what extent one high official in government served communism in Russia and another served socialism in England — and perhaps conclude that it is time instead to serve freedom in America.

Perhaps we can lift out of the limbo of political suffocation the truths we need regarding inflation, the effect of taxes and federal debt on the lives and fortunes of our people, and do something to stop the hideous waste that is eating up our substance in the medley of madness we call "Washington."

We may take advantage of the light that can be shed from under the lid that President Truman has lifted in firing a man too big to be compressed within the pattern of ward politics. If so, we can discover the nearness with which we have approached disaster and the horrible precariousness in which we stand in consequence of our worship of political expediency and our betrayal of principle.

In 1914 we denounced the German Emperor for violating an international agreement to respect the neutrality of Belgium. We called him unprintable names. As a nation we Americans have reviled doublecrossers in international affairs, and proudly refused to sully our honor by acts of international betrayal.

But, things have changed, haven't they? At Yalta we bribed Russia to break her word to Japan and help us strike the final blow. The price of that betrayal of Japan by Russia was our own betrayal of China. We agreed to turn over to Russia provinces that we were honor bound to restore to China. Proud America, through her President and his advisor Alger Hiss, double-crossed China. We deserted principle for expediency, betrayed an ally and good friend in order to build up a potential bitter enemy.

The irony was that Russian aid did not save a single American life in the closing battles of the Pacific war. Russia attacked Japan in time to grab the booty, when the war was over. We sowed a wind of betrayal at Yalta and now we reap a whirlwind of war in Korea. Schoolboys who were kept in ignorance of the Yalta betrayal, pay with their lives for our sorry bargain with Russia.

But, if Mr. Truman by his action has released the lids that have kept many a truth from our consciousness, then we can even forgive him for his pitiful inadequacy and thank him for

Gas-Saving Engine

There's a refreshing note in the announcement of a brand new high-compression engine unveiled this week by General Motors... to the effect that it will go into production just as soon as defense restrictions will allow the retooling needed.

Charles L. McCuen, who has succeeded Charles F. Kettering as G. M. research head, says the new engine, known as the "19XX2" could cut two and a half billion dollars a year off of John Q. Public's gasoline bill. Callender warns that the fertilization program should be completed before extremely hot weather arrives. A heavy application of fertilizer late in the season may cause the fish to suffocate by bringing about a rapid decay of submerged vegetation which uses up the free oxygen supply in the water.

He suggests that farmers contact their county agent for more information on fertilizing fishponds.

Raise Fish, Like
Beef, By the Acre

COLLEGE STATION.—Farmers can grow fish by the acre of water just as they grow beef by the acre on grassland. This is the opinion of R. E. Callender, extension specialist in wildlife conservation of Texas A&M College.

According to Callender, from 300 to 500 pounds of fish to the acre have been produced annually in well-managed fish ponds and he adds, many of the more than 100,000 farm and ranch ponds in Texas, which are maintained primarily for stock water, are suitable for growing fish.

Callender points out that an acre of water has a "carrying capacity", just as an acre of grazing land does. The amount of food produced in the water will depend upon the fertility of the land over which the water flows. Fertile land means a fertile pond of water.

Here are Callender's recommendations for fertilizing fish ponds.

As first choice, he suggests using a mixture of 400 pounds of cottonseed or soybean meal and 200 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate to the surface acre of water for one year. Broadcast half of this amount over the pond early in the spring, and apply the rest in 100-pound applications at four to six week intervals.

Callender's second choice is 500 to 600 pounds of any high grade fertilizer such as 4-12-4 or 5-10-5. Apply half of this early in the spring and follow with 100-pound applications at three or four week intervals until the amount for the year is broadcast in the pond.

Horse and cow manure also may be used as fishpond fertilizer. Apply 500 pounds to the acre at monthly applications, using two to three tons a season.

Weather-damaged alfalfa hay also makes a good fishpond fer-

College, Academy Students Returning

Muenster young people are returning home for summer vacations or short visits before entering summer school after being away during the past school year.

The first to arrive was Bill Luke who graduated with a BS degree in mechanical engineering at Texas Tech on May 21. He arrived in Muenster the following day and will be here for a vacation with his parents, the Ben Lukes, before going to Iran, Texas, to be employed.

The next to arrive were Ernest Bayer and Thomas Moster who attended Subiaco Academy. They came home last Saturday.

Joe Weinzapfel, a student at St. John's Seminary in San Antonio, was here for a visit this week and goes to Dallas this weekend to receive a summer assignment from the Bishop.

Virgil Walter who attended Arlington State College visited his parents, the Al Walters this week and left again to enter summer school.

John Glenn who attended Kilgore College is here for a visit with his parents, the T. E. Glens, who reside on the Texas Company lease since they moved to Muenster last March.

Betty Cole arrived this Thursday for a week's visit with her parents before returning to North Texas State College at Denton for a summer session. John Myrick graduated from Gainesville High School Tuesday.

Betty Lue Buckley arrives this weekend after doing second year college work at Saint Louis University to spend the summer with her parents, the E. P. Buckleys.

Monte Hellman will be home for a visit with his parents next week and will return to Marquette University to attend summer school.

Ruth Fisher, a 2nd year college student at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., will be here early next week for the summer vacation.

Neil Fisher who attended St. Edward's University in Austin will be back in Muenster this weekend. His father, J. W. Fisher and his brother, Jimmy, drove to Austin Friday to bring him home.

Jeanette Meurer, a student at Loretta Heights College, Denver, Colorado, during the past term, will be back at home this weekend. Her parents and family left last Saturday to join her and accompany her home.

Max Swirczynski who attended Mount Carmel Seminary in Dallas the past term will be home for a visit later. His classes do not dismiss until about the middle of June.

State League Holds District Meeting at Pilot Point Sunday

Saint Thomas Parish, Pilot Point, was host Sunday for the Spring District Meeting of the North Texas District of the Catholic State League. The program began at 1:30 in the parish hall.

Rev. Paul Charcut, pastor, extended welcome and the business session and resolutions followed. Mrs. J. W. Fisher presented the treasurer's report and A. C. Flusche of Denison was reelected district president.

Principal speakers included Mrs. Frank Scheffe of Windthorst, Mrs. A. J. Koriath of Sherman, Arthur Endres of Muenster and Floradell Endres, Muenster, Mary Alice Block, Lindsay and Dolores Henzler of Pilot Point. The young ladies appeared as speakers on the youth program.

The meeting closed at 4:30 with Benediction in St. Thomas church. A social evening followed.

Attending from Muenster were Rev. Cletus Post, Mmes. H. J. Fuhrman and John Hess, Messrs. and Mmes. J. W. Fisher and Eddie Schmitt, R. R. Endres, Frank Klement, Arthur Endres, Patsy Gremminger, Albina Mages and Floradell Endres.

Among members of the clergy present was Rt. Rev. Abbot Edward Burgert of Windthorst. The state meeting of the League will be held in Rockne on July 24-25-26.

Most people in pursuit of happiness are in such a rush that they pass it right by. More geysers are found in Yellowstone National Park, in northwest Wyoming, than in any other part of the world.

The stroke of a whale's tail, which can smash even a large boat, is the fiercest blow that can be struck by an animal.

Citation by Publication THE STATE OF TEXAS TO: Allene Willison and husband, Ralph Willison, Defendants, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Cooke County at the Court House thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 18th day of July A. D. 1951, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 28th day of February A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 15947 on the docket of said court and styled Pearl Culp Allen et vir, Plaintiffs, vs. Opal Frances Clark et al, Defendants in which the following persons are Plaintiffs: Pearl Culp Allen and husband, H. H. Allen, and the following persons are Defendants: Opal Frances Clark, William Andrew Clark, Anita Harris, Cecil Harris, Allene Willison, Ralph Willison, Thelma Beyer and Ray F. Beyer.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: This is an action in trespass to try title brought by the plaintiffs, Pearl Culp Allen and husband H. H. Allen, against the defendants to establish that they own in fee simple Lot No. 11 in Block 3 of Sevier and Gribble Addition to the City of Gainesville in Cooke County, Texas, and in which the plaintiffs affirmatively plead the statutes of limitations of three, five and ten years; and in the alternative that they, the plaintiffs, and the defendants Opal Frances Clark, Anita Harris, Allene Willison and Thelma Beyer own jointly and are the sole owners of said property, the plaintiffs owning at 4-5 interest therein having a charge and lien of $2,000.00 against all of said property for permanent and valuable improvements made and placed thereon in good faith, and that said four defendants own a 1-5 interest therein subject to said charge and lien of plaintiffs, and that a fair and equitable division and partition of said property cannot be made, and that it is necessary that a receiver be appointed to sell said real estate, and the proceeds of such sale returned into court and divided among the plaintiffs and said four defendants according to their respective interests, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs. Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court at office in Gainesville, Texas this the 29th day of May A. D. 1951. (SEAL) Attest: Woodrow U. Clegg, Clerk, District Court, Cooke County, Texas (28-29-30-31)

Viola Bezner of St. Paul's School of Nursing in Dallas was at home for a weekend visit.

Rosabell Haverkamp of Muenster is here for a vacation visit with her sister and husband, the Ray Kuppers.

Rev. Mother Perpetua of Holy Angeles Convent in Jonesboro, Ark., came here to be present for the ordination and first mass of Rev. Hubert Neu and to visit members of her family. She was accompanied by Sister Frowina who is visiting her mother Mrs. Joe Hacker in Muenster.

Lindsay News

Mrs. Matt Neu is recovering from surgery performed last Friday at M&S Hospital.

Paul Schmitz has gone to Dallas to be employed during the summer in the grocery store of his uncle, Richard Schmitz.

Weldon Bezner, son of the Jake Bezners, has landed in North Africa. Going over he met his cousin, Jerome Dieter who is also in the Navy Seabees and they are still together.

Herman Neu and son Donnie and the Charles Greens of Los Angeles, Calif., are guests of their parents, the John Neus Sr. They came to Lindsay to attend the ordination and first mass of their cousin, Rev. Hubert Neu. Sister Mary Olive of San Antonio is also at home for the occasion and to visit her parents and family. She was Miss Mathilda Neu before entering religious life.

Among Lindsay people at the Pilot Point meeting of the State League Sunday were Rev. Conrad Herda, the Pete Blocks, Adolph Fuhrmanns, John Kuppers, Walter Nortmans, Pete Rauschubers, Mrs. Henry Leubert, Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerer, Julius Hermes and Mary Alice Block. Miss Block was one of the speakers on the Youth Program. She spoke on Catholic Action.

new priest, was the spiritual bride, and carried the chalice and paten which she presented to Father Neu at the Offertory. Miss Neu's attendants were little Misses Patsy Zimmerer and Shirley Neu, cousins of the celebrant.

Anthony Hermes and Charles Flusche, cousins of Father Neu, carried the basket of grapes and the basket of wheat sheaves, symbolic of the Holy Sacrifice. Other cousins of the celebrant, both boys and girls carried flowers in the procession into church preceding the Mass. The older boys wore cassocks and surplices, the young boys and the girls wore white suits and dresses.

At 3 o'clock Father Neu was celebrant at Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and after Benediction imparted his first priestly blessing to those present.

A community dinner was served at noon Thursday and the afternoon featured a general get-together for the community, relatives, friends and visitors, on the school grounds and in St. Peter's hall.

Wednesday night Father Neu was honor guest at a program presented in the hall by pupils of the Lindsay school.

of others as you wish to have your sincerity respected."

The saddest absurdity in this regard is the too frequent clash of personality when there is not even a good reason for a clash of principle. Members of two religions, for instance, can live side by side, each adhering to his belief for a lifetime. Similarly two separate factions of economic or social viewpoints can often exist side by side so long as each group tends to its own affairs and refrains from argument. But even in case of disagreement, people need not and should not be disagreeable . . . not if each person is willing to respect the other's sincerity.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Cpl. Roy Baumhardt is still on Okinawa assigned as a truck driver. He entered the army in May '49 and has been on the island since he finished basic training at San Antonio. He is looking forward to a leave this summer, or fall, and said to tell all his friends hello.

Cpl. Bobby Wiese arrived Saturday from Keesler AFB, Miss., to spend a leave until June 10 with his parents, the F. A. Wieses at Gainesville, his brother Francis and family here, and his grandmother Mrs. Anna Wiese at Lindsay. He received the corporal rating when he finished his course in tower control making the highest test average in his class. His new assignment will take him to Biggs Field, El Paso.

PFC Wilbert Vogel is entering the last two weeks of his training in tower control at Keesler AFB, Miss., and will be granted a leave at the completion of his course.

PFC Rupert Hoinig of Sheppard AFB, PFC Alvin Fuhrman of Fort Hood, Cpl. Alois Sicking of Fort Sill and PFC Ernest Sicking of Sheppard AFB were here for weekend visits with members of their families.

PFC Julian Walterscheid received an emergency 10-day leave to attend the funeral of his grandfather, Joe Walterscheid. He made the trip from Chanute AFB to Oklahoma City in a plane from the base and arrived here early Sunday morning. He is the son of the Adolph Waltersheids.

Bill Eberhart and his family are still in Japan where he is on duty. His address is Lt. William E. Eberhart, 0-969903; Hq. Co. 1st Bn. 34th Inf. Regt.; APO 50, c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

Pvt. Arthur Bayer left Wednesday to return to Camp Breckenridge, Ky., after being here since Sunday night on emergency leave to attend his grandfather's funeral. He is the son of Mrs. Joe Bayer.

J. L. Cole, stationed at Whibbey Island, Wash., has received a promotion to airman. He is a member of the Navy Air Corps.

PFC Wilfred Luttmmer writes his parents, the Herman Luttmmer, that he is still in William Beaumont Hospital in El Paso tzter struck him on the arm which was injured last April. The muzzle of a 120 MM howitzer struck him on the arm near the elbow.

Pvt. Virgil Streng who left Seattle, Wash., on May 13 for overseas duty was on the troop ship Munemori that was in collision with the tanker St. Clair about 125 miles out of Seattle. The number of men aboard the Munemori was withheld for security reasons but it is of a class designed to carry slightly less than 2,000 troops. There were no casualties. The damaged troop ship limped back to port at Seattle and on the 23 of May Virgil and the other men slated for duty in the Far East boarded another transport for the trip. Virgil wrote his parents, the John Strengs an account of the collision while he waited at Fort Lawton for the next transport.

The C. A. Stelzers of Fort Worth were Sunday guests of the L. A. Bernauers and visited other relatives. On Monday they attended funeral services for her uncle Joe Walterscheid.

Juanita Weinzapfel To Teach in Germany

Present indications are that Miss Juanita Weinzapfel will spend the next school year as a teacher of Army dependents in Germany. Last week she was informed that her application for the job has been tentatively approved, subject to future military and political developments.

Unless present plans change she will leave about August 1. The post or camp to which she will report has not been designated at this time.
