VOLUME XV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, DECEMBER 1, 1950

Developments in Korea this week, apparently timed to coincide with the arrival of the Chinese communist delegation before the U.N. Assembly, are both terrifying and infuriating.

As these words are written the threat of another full scale world war is most ominous and it is easily possible that the general outbreak of hostilities will start before this appears in print.

Prodded on by the demons of Moscow, Chinese reds are proceeding methodically with Stalin's obvious plan to exhaust this country and other UN guardians of world freedom by one or several major campaigns on scattered parts of the globe, while Russia enjoys the spectacle and awaits the opportune time to take over the wreckage of civilization.

Of course Russia itself does not want to fight. As long as it is able to attain its diabolical ends without expending man power or resources it will continue to do just that.

Accordingly it has now engineered a scheme to have its Chinese puppets apply extreme military pressure at the very time when the Chinese red delegates are seeking concessions from the U.N.

The obvious purpose is to coerce. The red cutthroats will agree to call off hostilities if other nations will allow a further expansion of communist imperialism along with greater representation in the U.N. In plain words they will quit using force if we will meekly allow all they are trying to seize by force. They are following the pattern set by Hitler before World War 2. They'll go on and on, taking what an appeasing world allows them until, like Hitler, they feel capable of challenging the rest of the world.

Well, there's no point in permitting this scheme to go any farther. The more concessions the Russian gang can win the more formidable they will be at some future date. Sooner or later there will be a show-down anyway, so there's no better time than now for this country to get tough.

All the world knows what is going on. Any person with an ounce of common sense realizes that the Stalin gang is manipulating the strings that control the actions of its puppets. Any person understands also that the best way to deal with this puppet show is to stop the manipulators.

We need to apply the same principles that cops employ in breaking up gangs. They're not so much concerned with expendable punks. They want the big shots.

Likewise the U.N.'s way to stop this mess is to spend less effort on Stalin's expendable punks and more effort on Stalin himself.

As one of the Washington observers suggested several months ago, our proper course is to inform Stalin by firm and unmistakable warning that we hold Russia accountable for the aggressions of its puppets and we regard any puppet attack as a declaration of war by Russia.

The man recommends further that we direct the big fury of our attack on Russia, not on its enslaved dupes, also that we go the limit and use our atomic bomb.

Even though Russia pretends to be too big to handle we have a notion that it will have respect for such an ultimatum. If it doesn't, well, would open war with Russia be any worse than this underhanded mess that bleeds us white while our big enemy enjoys every sort of immunity?

Of course there's much to be said on the subject of preparedness. We know the reds are much more heavily armed than we. But how about that bomb? How much does it compensate for the difference in other strength?

Our guess is that Stalin and company will respect a blunt warning that they are inviting the destruction of every major city in Russia. What's more our opinion is that America is justifying itself.

16 Boys Receive Jackets Sunday at Football Banquet

Amid pomp and splendor and fine food the 1950 Hornet football season came to a final close last Sunday night in a banquet honoring the past season's squad and especially the 16 lettermen who received their season award jackets.

The dinner was financed, prepared and served by the Mothers Athletic Club, mostly from funds realized by the club from their concession at the local football games. Decorations carried out the Hornet colors of red and white and guests received football shaped favors made of plastic foam and red pipe cleaners. The outstanding decoration was the miniature football field made by Mrs. J. C. Trachta for last year's banquet and given additional touches for this year's event.

Every squad member who took part in the season's practice sessions was an honored guest at the banquet and every one was attended by two guests, his father and a girl friend. Others attending were Father Anthony Schroeder, Father Cleatus Post, members of the school board, members of the faculty, members of the pep squad and several persons who had been especially helpful to the team.

The program, with Superintendent Weldon Cowan as master of ceremonies, consisted of the Invocation by Father Anthony Schroeder, Welcome by Mrs. Lou Wolf, president of the Mothers Athletic Club, Response by Co-Captain Gilbert Yosten, Vocal Solo by Miss Pauline Myrick accompanied by Miss Juanita Weinzapfel, Introduction of guests by Mr. Cowan, Presentation of awards and introduction of players by Coach Doyle Hood, Entertainment by the Dipsy Doodlers of Denton, and Benediction by Mr. E. S. Lawson.

Introducing the players Coach Hood presented Roger Wolf and Damian Hellman as co-captains of next year's team and they in turn presented the players. Each player when presented introduced his two guests.

Presentation of awards was followed by a presentation of gifts to Coaches Hood and Coe from the squad members, to Miss Kelly from the pep squad members, to Father Anthony and to the pep squad from the Mothers Athletic Club.

Those who have poison in that shipment can get theirs by seeing Maglaughlin.

Others who want to get Warfarin can submit orders at any time to B.T. Haws, county agent; R. W. Taylor, veterans' agriculture instructor or Maglaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Bergspen Thursday night and Friday here with his mother, Mrs. Wm. Bergman, who accompanied them home when they returned Saturday morning. Garden Club Sets Next Week Saturday For City Clean-up

Saturday, December 9, is cleanup day in Muenster.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger, sanitation chairman of the Civic League and Garden Club, the sponsoring group, announced the date Monday after completing arrangements with the FMA for a truck and with Scoutmaster Nick Miller and his troop for pick up service.

The cleanup will be conducted along the same lines as previous cleanups sponsored by the Civic League ladies. The charge made for the pick up service will benefit the boy scout treasury.

Residents are reminded to have their tin cans and other junk sacked or boxed and placed at curbs or in alleys for convenient loading. As previously, the sponsors ask that papers, magazines and other materials that can be burned are not included with the tin cans.

Bernice Reiter is Queen of Parochial School's Jubilee

Miss Bernice Reiter won the title of Thanksgiving Jubilee Queen last Thursday and after a colorful coronation ceremony reigned during the dance, the concluding entertainment feature of the traditional Thanksgiving observance in Muenster.

Miss Reiter won her title by winning a contest in which Sacred Heart High school girls and Sacred Heart Alumni members competed. She was the Alumni's candidate.

The entire program for the day was sponsored by the Alumni association as a benefit for a redecorating and remodeling program at the Sacred Heart parochial school which this year observes the 25th anniversary of its erection. The building was completed in 1925.

A near capacity crowd witnessed the coronation ceremonies. After the royal party entered the hall they marched the full length of the building while

Muenster Divides Cage Honors With Collinsville High

Basketball teams of Muenster High School divided honors with Collinsville as the girls dropped a 16-20 game and the boys marked up a 15-11 victory.

In both games the Muenster teams started slow but improved toward the end of the game. The girls, after trailing 7-13 in the first half hit their stride in the second and outscored the visitors.

The boys entered the second period leading 5-3 and increased their margin by two points before the final signal set the count at 15-11. One fact not shown by the score was Muenster's clear superiority in accuracy under fire. Fourteen of their points came from field goals and only one from a free throw. Collinsville made only 2 field goals but hit the hoop 7 times on free throws.

Helen Haverkamp, with 11 points, and Margie Kathman with 5, accounted for all of their team's scoring. James Knabe, with 7, led the boys scoring and Glenn Hellman was runner-up with 5.

Sacred Heart Exes Triumph 18-0 Over Saint Mary's Exes

Two touchdowns on beautiful passes snared by Mollenkopf and another on a fumble recovered over the goal line gave the Sacred Heart High Alumni an 18-0 decision here Sunday over the Saint Mary's High Alumni in a hard fought renewal of the old contests between the two schools.

Though marking up a neat lead in total yardage the Muenster boys trailed in first downs by 9 to 11. Except for the two touchdown heaves taken by Mollenkopf the teams battled it out on fairly even terms all the way through.

Saint Mary's received the kickoff and followed with Schumacher's 10 yard gain to the 40. Three more plays netted 4 yards and the visitors booted, Muenster following with two first downs on the St. Mary's 49 and 37. On the next series of downs Mollenkopf was jarred loose from the ball after taking a pass from Herr for 10 and the St. Mary's exes recovered on the 25.

Three smeared plays and St. Mary's kicked, Sacred Heart returning to the visitors' 36. Three plays later, after a 6 yard loss, Cotton Endres passed, Mollenkopf taking it on the 10 and scampering over for the first TD.

The rest of the half was a see-saw. St. Mary's failed to advance & kicked. Sacred Heart did likewise. Then St. Mary's completed first downs on Muenster's 47 and 35 before losing the ball on downs on the 26. Sicking scampered to the 39, and after a net gain of 6 on 3 plays Sacred Heart kicked.

St. Mary's came back with two more first downs, on their 41 and Muenster's 44 but Herr's interception on the 30 stopped the advance just before the half ended.

Starting the second half Sicking continued his team's heavy toting as Sacred Heart reached

Willie Sowder Hurt In Auto Accident

Miss Willie Sowder received serious injuries Monday at about 5:30 p.m. when her automobile crashed into a roadside embankment south of town near the C. J. Fette home. She was driving alone.

Mr. Fette brought her to the Muenster Clinic in his car and Dr. Myrick administered first aid and called an ambulance.

At Medical and Surgical hospital in Gainesville it was learned that her right jaw was fractured, that she had a probable concussion, and had cuts on her chin, right knee and right hand. Her forehead and face were badly bruised.

Miss Sowder is a retired school teacher and lives alone on a farm south of Muenster where she raises cattle.

Damage to the car was estimated at about $250.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Gobble returned to their home in Marysville, Mo., Friday after a five day visit with his brother, C. F. Gobble and family.

Father Victor Dies Nov. 22 at Subiaco

Death on Wednesday, November 22, claimed Rev. Victor Beuckman, O.S.B., 32, of Subiaco, Arkansas. Funeral services were held at the Abbey Saturday and burial was in the Abbey cemetery.

Father Victor spent several weeks in Muenster during the summer of 1947 in the interest of securing students for Subiaco College-Academy and became acquainted with a number of local persons at that time.

He was a native of East Saint Louis, Ill., where he was born May 2, 1918. After his high school graduation from Subiaco Academy he began the study of theology and made his religious profession in Sept. 1939. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 18, 1944. After a course at Saint Louis University he was associated with the College-Academy until the time of his death. He was a professor in the high school department and chaplain of the high school student body.

Theatre to Quit Week-Day Shows

After Sunday, December 10, the Relax Theatre will be open only on Saturdays and Sundays, unless the management receives sufficient assurance between now and then that it will be justified in continuing the daily schedule. The decision was announced Monday night by Owner F. E. Schmitz and Manager F. A. Kathman, and would have been effective immediately if films had not been booked through December 10.

Poor attendance is the reason for the week-day shutdown. Schmitz said that the theatre is consistently operating at a loss and the only apparent solution to his problem is to cut out the losing days. On Saturdays and Sundays, he said the crowds, though not good, are large enough to justify operation. But the small revenue realized on those days is absorbed several times by losses during the rest of the week.

He made his decision reluctantly, saying that he is sorry to disappoint his regular week-day patrons, and he is still hopeful that attendance will increase sufficiently to justify keeping the full time schedule.

News of Sick And Injured

Fred Hoedebeck entered Gainesville sanitarium Saturday morning for medical treatment and observation.

Jerry Fuhrman is back at home since Wednesday night after being a patient in Gainesville sanitarium for about a week for treatment of the infection in his hip. Tuesday his father, H. J. Fuhrman, and his sister, Mrs. Gilbert Endres, went with him to Fort Worth to consult a bone specialist. The infection is responding favorably to treatment but will confine him to bed for about a week and will keep him from school for several weeks.

Several first and second grade children were absent from classes at the parochial school this week on account of whooping cough.

Mrs. M. J. Endres who is in Dallas for a series of medical treatments says to tell all her friends hello. Her address is 4009 Elm St., Dallas.

Eddie Joe Reeves resumed classes at the public school Monday after an absence for a tonsil and adenoid operation.

Mrs. John Beard continues receiving medical treatments in Dallas for a skin infection and a heart ailment. Tuesday Mmes. Lawrence Roberg and Herman Fette took her to Baylor hospital, and last week Mmes. J.B. Wilde and Joe Swingler took her to Dallas.

Mrs. Henry Sicking who underwent surgery recently is up and around regaining her strength nicely. She says many thanks to everyone who remembered her with cards, flowers and other kindnesses while she was in the hospital.

Room Mothers Plan White Elephant Sale

Plans are under way for a community Christmas shopping bazaar featuring a white elephant sale and a bake sale on December 9. A benefit affair, the bazaar is sponsored by roommothers of the parochial grade school who, with their assistants, are already busy securing white elephant items which will include gifts suitable for Christmas giving for the entire family.

The bake sale will offer homemade pies, cakes, cookies and candy.

The place is the show room of the Ben Seyler Garage and the opening hour is 9 a.m.

Everything will be reasonably priced and the sponsors invite everybody to attend—to come early, to bring lots of money, and to stay as long as desired.

In the meantime everybody in the community is invited to contribute to the bazaar by donating their white elephants now probably closeted or stored away because they do not fit the home or the family. They may be just exactly what a neighbor or friend wants. Everything from baby clothes to furniture is welcomed.

Donors are asked to leave their white elephants at the parish lunch room when they attend church services on December 8 and to leave their baked goods at the Seyler garage on Saturday morning, the day of the sale.

first downs on its 40 and St. Mary's 45. Then the offense bogged down and Gremminger kicked. St. Mary's registered a first down on its 32 and kicked after a net gain of 1 on three tries. Muenster's offense also hit a wall and Gremminger kicked on fourth down, Richard Hermes receiving on the 5 and fumbling when tackled on the spot by Mollenkopf. As the ball tumbled over the goal Luke pounced on it for a touchdown. Taking the next kickoff St. Mary's failed to gain and kicked on fourth down. Muenster picked up 10 on an end-around play by Pels and kicked on the next series.

After that St. Mary's appeared to be on the march mixing passes and ground plays for four consecutive first downs to the Sacred Heart 29. But the next series of plays was smeared for a net loss of 8 and Sacred Heart took over on the 37.

Sicking plowed to the 50. Herr's pass to Pels reached the St. Mary's 36 and another pass, Herr to Mollenkopf produced the final touchdown.

St. Mary's next attempted drive was cut short on the second series of downs by Herr's interception and return to the St. Mary's 44. A pass to Pels, though not complete, was ruled good for 10 because of interference with the receiver and the ball game ended 3 plays later.

Hard hitting front lines on both teams battled it out on fairly even terms while Ernest Sicking and Melvin Schumacher competed closely for honors as ball carriers. Each accounted for well over half of his team's ground gains. Less spectacular than Mollenkopf as a pass receiver but a standout on his team was lanky Jim Hermes. Accounting the tosses from Bezner, he accounted for almost all of the St. Mary's aerial gains.

The American Way Lesson in Horticulture

By George Peck

On a recent trip to Canada I had the pleasure of meeting an English-born Canadian citizen, who had immigrated to Canada shortly after having served in the British Army during World War I.

Starting from scratch, he has built himself a fine business; is the proprietor of a greenhouse and lives in a beautiful home which he owns. He is thankful that the economic climate of Canada permitted him by virtue of initiative and toil to become his own boss as well as to raise his own blooms.

His accomplishment is similar to that of millions of other Canadians and Americans who under a Capitalist Economy have been able to achieve security for themselves and their families, without any assistance from a paternalistic government.

My excuse, therefore, for writing this piece is not simply to recount one more success story, but to pass on something he said to me during the course of our conversation. It has to do with the reason why he left England to take up residence in Canada, in which latter country he subsequently became a citizen and a successful businessman.

As a young man he had exercised the prudence and wisdom of voluntarily joining and paying dues into a society which protected him against financial distress in the event of illness or accident, and also provided death benefits.

Then the British Government, sowing the seeds which eventually blossomed into the socialistic regime which now paralyzes that nation, launched its compulsory free health program, which required all British citizens to pay into the fund.

No exceptions were made of the many who, like my Canadian friend, already thrifty had made provision for medical care of their own free will. They were forced to "kick in" for something they neither desired nor needed.

This was "the straw that broke the camel's back." Our erstwhile Englishman, now Canadian nurseryman, had become dissatisfied with other things that were taking place in England in the early 20's, but this showing compulsory medicine down his throat was what finally decided him to tear up roots and go to Canada.

The things he foresaw and feared have come to pass. We now witness a formerly proud and self-reliant English people, bit by bit giving up the freedom which once permitted them proudly and truthfully to boast that "every Englishman's home is his castle."

But, thank the Lord, the spirit of enterprise is not completely lead in Britain. A recent survey by the British Institute of Public Opinion indicated that 48 percent of British adults under the age of 30 would like to leave England and settle in another country; this after only five years of socialistic government.

This would seem to indicate that the young men and women of England are "fed up" with the loss of liberty and individual initiative; that already they have discovered that the blossoms of regimentation are ugly weeds and not the beautiful flowers the socialist leaders led them to believe. Compulsory government medicine was the entering wedge for socialism in England. There lies the lesson for us here in the United States of America where our "do-good," "starry-eyed" bureaucrats are trying to force compulsory health insurance upon us. Let's keep our doctors free of government regimentation and control so that they may continue to devise new and better methods for the prevention of disease and the alleviation of physical distress.

And let us remember that liberty and opportunity wither on the vine and die when government steps in to do for the individual the things the individual should do for himself.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

I Have A "Close Squeak"!

Spent last Saturday morning wandering all over the house. Wherever I went—upstairs or down—I kept hearing a "squeak." Couldn't find out where it was coming from until noon-time when the missus came home from her weekly shopping.

"Listen," I says to her, "hear that squeak?" I started walking real quiet-like across the kitchen and there it went again! "Joe Marsh," she laughs, "that is nothing but your suspender clips rubbing back and forth when you walk!" And darned if it wasn't!

From where I sit, I'd been letting a little thing become a serious problem. Like some little difference of opinion or taste will start off a great big argument. I may prefer a temperate glass of beer with my dinner—while the missus likes tea—but we figure that no two people have exactly the same likes and dislikes. So, why get all "het up" about it?

The moral is, check your suspenders—and check your temper when it comes to little things.

Charlotte Corcoran,
Sgt. Roy Zwinggi
United Thursday

Miss Charlotte Corcoran and Sgt. Roy Zwinggi exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony at St. Mary's church in Gainesville on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Peter Molloy officiated at the service and at the nuptial high mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Corcoran of Gainesville and the groom is the son of Leo Zwinggi of Lindsay.

Mr. Corcoran gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white satin with a lace yoke edged with seed pearls. The full skirt formed a bustle effect at the back and extended into a train. The long petal point sleeves were edged with lace and the illusion veil fell from a shirred head piece trimmed with valley lilies. She carried a white prayer book topped with carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Corcoran attended her sister as maid of honor wearing a gown of dusty rose taffeta, made similar to the bride's and she carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums.

Aldridge Zwinggi was his brother's best man. Both the bridegroom and his attendant wore blue air force uniforms.

White gladioli adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged their vows and the St. Mary's high school choir provided the nuptial music.

The bride's mother wore a black suit with a corsage of white mums and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Geray was attired in a black ensemble with a corsage of white pom mums.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene for the day's celebration which included breakfast for the bridal party, a reception at 2 p.m. and a Thanksgiving turkey dinner for 55 guests.

When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride was wearing a gray suit with red accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Sgt. and Mrs. Zwinggi will make their home in Fort Worth where he is stationed at Carswell air base. He attended school at Lindsay and served with the air corps during the last war seeing duty in Germany. Mrs. Zwinggi graduated from St. Mary's school with the class of 1950 last May.

Federal Hoarding

One Federal agency has been hoarding a 93-year supply of electric light bulbs, the General Services Administration reported recently to the House Appropriations Committee. The hoarding was cited as one instance of unwise government spending.

Social Security Will Soon Apply to Domestic Workers

Do you employ a cook, a laundress, or a maid for general housework? If so, you will soon be an employer under the federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system.

The expanded federal insurance program, recently signed into a law by the President, brings household workers under the old-age and survivors insurance system. Beginning in January, they will have the retirement and death benefit protection that millions of Americans in other occupations have enjoyed for 14 years.

Perhaps your husband is now in a job that comes under the federal insurance system. You may have heard him say that so much was withheld from his pay check or envelope for his Old-Age and Survivors Insurance premium, or maybe he has his own business and is sending premiums and reports to the internal revenue collector on his employees. As a housewife, however, you have not come in direct contact with this system of federal insurance.

Well, beginning in January, many housewives—maybe you and many workers in private homes—maybe your cook, will be directly concerned with federal insurance. Her work for you may bring her under the old-age and survivors insurance system. If so, you, as her employer, will be keeping a record of her workdays and wages, and you will deduct her share of the insurance premiums from her pay. To this you will add your own share of the premiums.

Does all this sound complicated? Well, it really isn't. The Treasury Department and the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, working jointly, have just issued a brief, attractive booklet telling the few simple steps for you and your household worker to take. It includes a postal card for getting the instructions about the easy-to-fill-out report form. The title of this leaflet is "Do You Have a Maid?" It is being widely distributed to State and private employment offices, and to various women's organizations. Perhaps you have one now. If not, drop a postcard to the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, Dallas, and ask for a copy of "Do You Have a Maid?"

He, relieved: "Thank goodness, at last we're out of debt."
She relieved: "That's swell! Now I can get credit again."

Old Folks Can Keep Jobs and Still Get Social Security Pay

If you're 65 years old or older and want to keep working, the Federal Security Agency says—more power to you! If you continue to work you may continue to build up your Old-Age and Survivors Insurance account. If you'd like to try partial retirement between 65 and 75, you should visit the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance in Dallas and ask about your federal insurance rights. Under the new law, effective September 1, you may earn as much as $50 a month in employment, or in self-employment, and be entitled to your old-age insurance payment at the same time. After you reach 75, you may accept your federal insurance check no matter how much you're earning.

Must Be Paid So They Can Be Taxed

The Socialist government of Great Britain has ordered farmers to pay their wives for work done on the farm.

However, the farmers had reason to doubt whether the new order was due to concern about women's rights. The directive also told the farmers to make sure that the wives paid income tax on their earnings.

Now is the time for all good farmers to come to the aid of their soil if it needs terraces to help keep it at home. Now is the time to prepare seedbeds for the grass that will form the waterway to carry the terrace runoff water safely from the field, declare technicians of the Muenster work unit.

Since 1940 when the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District was organized, one of the most serious bottlenecks to getting conservation plans into effect has been the establishment of waterways for safe disposal of terrace water. This problem is especially serious in the Muenster area where most farmers depend on small grains and all but the roughest land is in cultivation. Where there is a lot of cultivated land that needs terracing to reduce soil and water losses there arises the need for wide grassed waterways to serve as terrace outlets and carry the water safely from the field.

Many farmers cooperating with the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District by installing a complete soil conservation plan on their farms have learned through the hard school of experience that all grasses, even bermuda grass roots, can be established quicker and will grow faster if they are planted in a well prepared seed bed. Grass, like other crops is effected by soil fertility. Commercial fertilizers that are high in nitrogen and phosphorus have been used to hasten the establishment of a complete grass sod on waterways so that terrace construction could begin without the usual delay of a year or two. Another method used to increase soil fertility and hasten the formation of a grass sod is the growing of a legume, such as vetch or clover, in with the grass. The legumes add nitrogen to the soil and so benefit the growth of the grass.

Paul Fisher, whose waterway took first prize in a contest this summer, overseeds the bermuda grass to vetch each fall. Ike Fulton of Myra also follows this practice and has a good sod of grass on his waterway. Al Walter planted sweet clover with his grass. The grass made good growth and served as an outlet for terrace water the second summer.

Land preparation is a very important factor in getting an adequate stand of grass to come up. The land should be deep-plowed and harrowed or beebbed in the fall for bermuda grass planting the next spring. Early in the spring furrows are opened or the land is rebedded and grass roots dropped in the furrows which are closed immediately and leveled before the grass comes up. Good land preparation insures more favorable moisture conditions in the soil and the well-pulverized soil eliminates air pockets and prevents the grass roots from dying.

Charlie Schmitt, Ben Fleitman and W.W. Otto were some of the cooperators that had well prepared seedbeds to plant to bermuda grass last spring. They all have good stands of grass in spite of the prolonged dry spell that followed the planting operations.

Other cooperators who recognize the importance of land preparation for the successful planting of grass and who have their waterways marked off so that they can prepare the land and give it individual treatment include John and Joe Kleiss, John Haverkamp, Albert Knabe, Leo Schmitt, Arthur Hellman, Johnny Fleitman, Ralph Davidson, Pryor McGee and Ben Perryman.

The arguments among men who till the soil are many and varied, but they all agree that in order to sod a waterway to bermuda grass successfully there are two essential requirements. First, the seedbed must be well prepared in advance and second, the waterway must be fenced so that it can be grazed immediately after sodding to control the competition from taller grasses.

Have you made preparations to plant grass on that waterway next spring? It's later than you think.

fled in spreading destruction if Stalin refuses to quit his systematic destruction of this country.

Involved here is that old controversy over using the atomic bomb. In line with their general world wide conquest reds have made every effort to prejudice civilization against the weapon because they fear it most. Were it not for that fear they probably would have been much rougher in their dealings to date. Red propaganda on the bomb has been spread intensley over Europe and has even been accepted by some in this country. It is too violent, they say. Too inhuman to be used even in war.

Coming from scoundrels who have resorted to every other form of inhumanity, the Russian line is absurd. They utter sanctimonious protest to the killing of innocent non-combatants when they have murdered millions of their own subjects in slave camps. They pretend to prescribe standards of humane warfare when they execute helpless prisoners of war and generally violate all the existing standards of warfare. Their stand is simply ridiculous and nothing more can be said for it.

On a cold, practical basis their position is equally silly. A shotgun is a more vicious weapon than a pen knife, but what reasonable man will refrain from using it when he is being slashed to death by a pen knife. America and the rest of the respectable world is in that position. Russia is now in the process of slashing us to death. It is the aggressor, and we have a perfect right, on the grounds of morality and common sense, to blast our attacker with the most effective weapon we have.
