

If ever there was a doubt about the folly of this country's foreign policies, it certainly does not exist any more. When the fact was established last week end that Chinese communists are openly helping the Korean reds the entire nation was suddenly jolted into a grim realization that our day of reckoning may be much nearer than any of us thought.

Under existing circumstances it is hard to imagine how we can avoid being drawn into a full scale war with China. Reports are 10 million Chinese are ready to get into the fight and a sizable number of that force is poised now on the Manchurian border ready to launch its big attack at any time.

Meanwhile, red planes are streaking over the border in hit and run attacks and rushing back to the sanctuary of their own technically neutral area. That leaves us with the dilemma of enduring an intolerable condition or following the international bandits into their own country. The obvious purpose of course is to provoke us into invading Manchuria so the Soviet mob can scream to the world that we are the aggressors.

As this thing is developing now it seems that nothing short of an act of God can prevent a full scale war. Reds appear to be ready for the showdown and we have no choice but to meet their challenge. Diabolical schemes hatched in the Kremlin years ago are proceeding according to plan. America and other countries of the Western group are gradually being drawn into a gigantic trap.

Experts on world affairs analyzed the plot months ago. While proceeding with their own enormous war preparations Stalin and his scoundrels induce puppets of the orient to engage our country in a full scale war. When we have our hands full is the time for Russia to strike in Europe.

The outlook is grim indeed, and it certainly is not improved by our realization that a major factor in the success of Russia's plot so far was the folly, or treachery, of high officials in our own government. Starting back in the last war, there has been a continuous stream of incidents in which our country has been double crossed, either in Moscow or in Washington.

In Berlin we permitted Stalin to isolate us, a mistake which we paid for dearly in the airlift. In the orient we permitted Russia to join us in the last 8 days of the Japanese war, for which favor Russia took over all Japanese arms in Manchuria and gave them to Chinese reds to fight our allies the Chinese nationalists. As the red menace spread over Asia we denied all but token help to Chinese nationalists, and that little was delayed until too late to be of any value. The same thing happened in Korea. We left South Koreans helpless before the invasion of Russian equipped North Koreans. In forming the United Nations we permitted Russia to establish the veto power, a weapon used ever since to defeat the purpose of the organization.

Those incidents are only a few of the many. In big things and little things, in practically every dealing we have had with the Kremlin outfit, we have been the losers. A few perhaps can be explained as innocent mistakes such as any honest man will make when he fails to reckon that he's dealing with a scoundrel. But after those, when we knew the score, additional mistakes could be explained only as ignorance or treachery.

Some of the big shots now want us to forget all that. Don't fuss about the past, they say, but unite in a solid front against the dangers that lie ahead. All of which sounds like good theory until we stop to think that the leaders of this wonderful new unity include many of the persons who messed up before. To our simple way of thinking it is fine to organize for the future but in doing so we'd better look in the past at least far enough to make sure

Initiation Sunday Admits 53 New K of C Members

The largest class of candidates in the history of the Sixth K of C District was formally admitted into the Knights of Columbus at an initiation held here last Sunday.

Of the 53 candidates the largest council representation was that from Sherman which consisted of 31 men from the city of Sherman and Perrin Air Force Base. Of the remaining number 7 were from Muenster, 9 from Denison, 3 from Gainesville and 3 from Windthorst.

Muenster men who joined the order are Leo Lawson, Starling Lawson, Harold Knabe, Leonard Bindel, Edmund Fleitman, Paul Luke and Emmett Walterscheid.

The initiation, conducted under the direction of State Deputy M. J. Babin Jr. of Port Arthur, was the featured event of an all day program starting at 7:30 o'clock and extending into the night.

As members and candidates arrived at the K of C hall they registered and assembled for a procession to the 8 o'clock mass. Boy Scouts and the Muenster Band joined in the procession.

Exemplification of the first and second degrees occupied the remainder of the morning. At noon members and candidates were joined by their ladies at a dinner in the parish lunch room. Speakers for that occasion were Chaplain Father Anthony Schroeder, State Deputy M. J. Babin Jr. District Deputy Joe Fisher and Grand Knight Herbert Meurer.

Knights and candidates returned to the K of C hall at 2 for exemplification of the third degree. At about 6 they were again joined by the ladies for snacks and a party in the K of C hall.

While the K of C ceremonies were under way visiting ladies were guests of the Muenster court of Catholic Daughters of America in the home of Mrs. Joe Fisher Sr.

Hornets Cash in On Boyd Fumbles For 25-0 Victory

Snapping back from two consecutive losses the Hornets hit their stride again Friday night and trampled the luckless Boyd Yellowjackets 25 to 0.

It was an odd game in which the visitors marked up the greater number of first downs but did not succeed in sustaining a drive nor in advancing farther than the Hornet 19 yard line. During the entire first half they did not get beyond the 50 yard stripe.

Playing before a pitifully small crowd of shivering fans, both teams had trouble holding the ball. Both fumbled frequently but the Hornets were more fortunate in recoveries. Both teams likewise seemed to be slowed down by the chill and got caught for numerous losses. In all the Hornets were smeared for 26 yards and the Yellowjackets for 43.

The game started as a thriller when Hall, the 170 pound back who did Boyd's heavy work all evening, made a beautiful broken field run to the 30 after apparently being trapped behind his goal line on an attempted pass. The next series of downs failed, however, and the Yellowjackets booted, killing the ball on Muenster's 47.

From that point, on the Hornets' first try with the ball, Yosten broke through the line, shook off a couple attempted tackles, and dashed to the line for the first score. Damian Hellman's kick from placement was good for the seventh point.

Putting the ball in play from the 20 after Glen Hellman's second kickoff to the end zone, the Yellowjackets reached the 32 in 3 plays but kicked when held on the second series. It was a bad kick allowed to die on

Mrs. Mary Schmitz, 81, of Gainesville, Dies November 2

Funeral services were held Thursday morning, Nov. 2, in St. Mary's church in Gainesville for Mrs. Mary Schmitz, 81, a Gainesville resident for 40 years, who died Tuesday afternoon at the home of a daughter in Fort Worth where she had lived for the past nine months. Mrs. Schmitz was the aunt of Mrs. Frank Yosten of this city.

Rev. Peter Molloy officiated at the requiem mass and at services at the grave in Fairview cemetery.

A native of Austria, Mrs. Schmitz came to the United States when she was nine and settled with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wanke, in the community of West, near Waco. She married John Schmitz there and they moved to Gainesville in 1910. He died in 1944.

Survivors are eight sons, Robert and Leo of Gainesville; William A. of Fort Worth; John, Frank and Tom Schmitz of Dallas, and Adolph and Carl Schmitz of Borger; five daughters, Mrs. J. A. Shellberg, Mrs. O.H. Lamsens and Mrs. A. W. Mackey of Fort Worth; Mrs. W. P. Conner of Burker, and Mrs. Mary Hassell of Greenville; two sisters, Mrs. Julius Filer and Mrs. Rosa Wolf of Tours, and one brother, Will Wanke of San Antonio, and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Among Muenster relatives and friends at the funeral were Mrs. Frank Yosten, Messrs. and Mmes. Steve Mosler, Andy Hofbauer, Clem Hofbauer and family and Joe Fisher Sr.

LaQueta Cain Will Reign as Queen at Homecoming Tilt

Miss LaQueta Cain, freshman class representative, is winner of a contest for the honor to reign as queen at Muenster High School's 1950 Homecoming ceremony.

At the final count of votes at 3 o'clock Tuesday she was the leader. Other contestants in the order of their standing were Jeanette Fisher, Pauline Myrick and Eva Muller, all of whom will attend Her Royal Highness as duchesses at the coronation and the Homecoming dance. Other attendants in the queen's court are representatives of each of the eight elementary grades. They are Duchesses Ce-

VFW Auxiliary to Observe Armistice With Memorial Rite

Members of the local VFW Auxiliary will observe Armistice Day next Saturday with an appropriate memorial service at the graves of war veterans in the parish cemetery. The time is 10 a.m.

Mrs. Francis Wiese, Auxiliary president, is in charge of the program. It will consist of placing a large wreath on the veterans' monument, a short address by Mrs. Steve Mosler, Auxiliary chaplain, and prayers.

It's "Hobo Day" But Not Loafing Day for Muenster FHA Girls

Next Monday, November 13, is "Hobo Day" for members of the public school Future Homemakers of America chapter. It's their first project in observance of FHA Week.

In a way it will be a holiday, but really it promises to be anything but a vacation. The girls will report to school as usual, but in their work clothes. Then they'll be dismissed to go job hunting. The money they earn will go into a fund to be used for chapter and school projects.

In announcing "Hobo Day", Miss Ruby Kelly, homemaking instructor and FHA counselor, suggested that people of the community plan constructive jobs which will enable the girls to earn money while adding to the welfare and appearance of the community.

Protest Vote is Evident in Weak Election Tuesday

While the nation had one of the hottest non-presidential elections in its history, Muenster joined most other cities of the state in polling one of its coolest elections ever.

Polling less than one third of their Democratic primary strength the two Muenster boxes produced a weak total of 188, 37 in the South box and 151 in the north box.

Most of the election was a mere ratification of nominees of the Democratic party, however, one significant fact was plainly evident. Muenster registered a protest vote against the party. No less than 25 persons favored the Republican column.

Reunion Honors W. T. Richters on 50th Anniversary

Observing 50 years of married life, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richter were honored guests at an all day celebration in their home on Nov. 6. Their children arranged the observance which included a sumptuous dinner at noon, informal diversion, picture taking and a buffet supper at six. Twenty-four relatives and friends attended.

For the dinner the honor couple table held a decorated five-tier cake flanked with arrangements of gold mums. Throughout the home arrangements of gold and orchid mums held vantage spots. Guests presented the honorees with a shower of gifts in keeping with the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Richter have spent all of their married life in Muenster with the exception of one year, 1912, which they spent in Canada. They were married here on Nov. 6, 1900.

They are the parents of 12 children, six of whom survive and, with their families, attended the celebration. They are Mmes. Chris Jensen and Amber Estes of Wichita Falls, Mmes. H. A. Walterscheid and Hugo Lutkenhaus of Muenster, and Misses Kathleen and Clara Richter of Dallas. There are 9

Parochial Students And Exes Compete For Jubilee Queen

A contest to select a jubilee queen and her court to be a feature of the Thanksgiving celebration on Nov. 23, got under way at the Sacred Heart High school last Friday with the announcement of class favorites to compete for the queen's title.

The royal party will be special guests at the Thanksgiving dance immediately following the coronation ceremony.

In the meantime 15 candidates, three from each high school class and three from the Alumni association, will be working to secure votes at a penny each. Preliminaries will end on Nov. 13 at 1 p.m. and the five high contestants, one from each grade and one from the Alumni, will enter the run-off. The contest will close on Nov. 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Class favorites competing for the queen's title are: Seniors—Anselma Knabe, Marianne Luke, Bernice Henschel, Juniors—Ira Hofbauer, Patsy Gremminger, Leoba Henschel, Sophomores—Betty Jo Owen, Rose Marie Walterscheid, Clara Mae Sicking, Freshmen—Marilyn Miller, Edna Hesse, Alma Henschel.

Alumni candidates, elected at a meeting Wednesday are Rosalee Fuhrman, Kathryn Hartman and Bernice Reiter.

The Thanksgiving celebration this year is being sponsored by the Alumni association and will benefit the parochial grade school to commemorate the silver jubilee of its construction. The building was completed in 1925. Proceeds from the entire program will go into a fund to be used to repair and repaint the building.

PLEASE! Leave Streets and Phones Clear When Fire Alarm Sounds

When you hear the fire signal don't call the telephone company to ask where the fire is and don't go rushing to the fire.

Increasing traffic on streets and telephone lines has prompted both the phone company and the fire department to ask for more cooperation from local residents.

Operators at the telephone office state that their switchboard lights up like a Christmas tree immediately after the fire alarm blows. People by the dozens call in to ask where the fire is, cluttering the phone service at the very time when operators are most likely to be needed for emergency calls.

The same applies to automobile traffic. Dozens of people jump into their cars and rush to the fire causing a traffic problem that invariably hinders the efficiency of the firemen. Frequently cars get ahead of the fire truck and delay its arrival at the fire. Just as frequently they park between the fire and the first hydrant, delaying men who stretch the water hose. Besides they delay some of the firemen who go to the fire in their own cars.

Accordingly the fire department and telephone company join in an urgent request to curb curiosity and give both a chance to give full attention to the emergency. Phone lines should be left open for the benefit of firemen who may have to inquire where to go or for reporting possible injuries. Likewise curious traffic should leave the streets clear for firemen.

Garden Club Sets Dec. 1 as Deadline For Calendar Copy

Meeting in regular session Thursday night members of the Civic League and Garden Club made definite plans for their birthday calendar. Miss Olivia Stock accepted chairmanship of the project which members discussed at length. All members were asked to contact their relatives, neighbors and friends for birth dates at a dime each. One half the proceeds will go into the cemetery fund, the other half into the club's treasury to help in the up keep and beautification of Veteran's Memorial Park. All names and money must be turned over to Miss Stock by Dec. 1 so that the

News of Sick And Injured

Jerry Fuhrman, 15, son of the H. J. Fuhrmanns, entered Gainesville sanitarium on Thursday, Nov. 2, for medical treatment for an infection in his hip. He is responding favorably to treatment but is still a hospital patient.

Kenneth Otto, 12, who broke his left leg in a fall during play on Oct. 13, is back at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Otto. He had been a patient at Gainesville sanitarium since the accident until Monday when the leg was placed in a cast.

Monday Eleanora Hoenig returned to Gainesville where she is employed after being at home with her parents, the Joe Hoenigs, for a week while she was ill.

Mrs. Theo Vogel who underwent a major operation at Gainesville sanitarium on Oct. 9, was permitted to return home Friday and is convalescing nicely.

.02 Inch of Rain Falls in October

Topsy turvy weather which prevailed here all summer has made a good start into fall.

October, normally the beginning of fall and winter rain, has been all but bone dry, with a total moisture measure of only .02 inch.

The drought followed the wettest summer on record here.

A slight improvement, but still not enough to count, is the .09 inch registered here last Friday as a starter for November.

Elizabeth Fleitman Dies Wednesday of Five Year Illness

Death Wednesday claimed Elizabeth Fleitman, 39, after an illness that began about five years ago. She passed away at 2 p.m. in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fleitman.

Funeral services are set for Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Anthony Schroeder will officiate and Nick Miller will be in charge of arrangements.

Miss Fleitman was born in Muenster on March 20, 1911, and spent her entire lifetime here. She attended Sacred Heart school, was a member of the parish Young Ladies Sodality and of the local court Catholic Daughters of America.

Though afflicted with an incurable ailment, and often confined to bed, she had previously regained her strength sufficiently after sick spells to attend church services, visit in town and do light housework. She was at church Sunday and was up and around until Wednesday morning.

Survivors are her parents, one sister, Miss Anna Fleitman, and five brothers, Andrew, J. W., Ben and Anton of Muenster and Herman of Gainesville.

Hornets Back in Full Strength for Tilt with Coyotes

Fans at the Muenster High homecoming game Friday night are due to see plenty of football as the Hornets, back in early season physical condition, take on the big and powerful Coyotes of Anna High.

The contest rates as a clash between two strong Class B teams, both of which have enjoyed a fairly successful season to date. Anna especially has been doing well, defeating all opponents to date except the double tough Farmersville team. Among its victims is Van Alstyne, regarded as one of the top contenders for the conference title in its district.

Recalling the 19-6 defeat handed them by the Hornets last year, the Coyotes are expected to come to Muenster with a determination that will enhance their ample strength. In the opinion of Coach Hood, the Coyotes will be hard to beat.

Nevertheless he is confident that the Hornets will be equal to the task. The team as a whole is in better condition than it has been for any of its past three games. After-effects of flu cases have all worn off. Damian Hellman's back injury seems to be healed and Yosten's knee has improved steadily. The only handicap still hanging on is Red Walterscheid's shoulder injury which has improved nicely during the past two weeks. Red will be in the starting line up.

Playing under full steam with the homecoming spirit as an added inspiration the Hornets are expected to be at their season's best as they tangle with the Coyotes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walterscheid and his mother, Mrs. John Wilde, left Monday to return to their homes in Harlingen after spending a week visiting relatives in Muenster, Lindsay and Pilot Point.

Schedule of Coming Events

THURSDAY, Nov. 9, CD of A business meeting, home of Mrs. Herman Fette, 8 p.m.

MONDAY, Nov. 13, Holy Name Society meeting, church basement, 8 p.m.

TUESDAY, Nov. 14, Annual meeting Cooke County Artificial Breeders Association, the parish lunch room, 8 p.m.

FRIDAY, Nov. 10, Muenster Hornets vs. Anna Coyotes and Homecoming ceremonies, here, 7:30.

SUNDAY, Nov. 12, Lindsay picnic, Lindsay Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Dowd and son, Denny, visited relatives in Nocona Tuesday.

calendar can go to the printers. President Mrs. Nick Miller was hostess in her home for the meeting during which members planned coming activity, displayed floral arrangements and discussed garden topics.

During the business session members elected Mrs. Frank Yosten as vice president to fill the vacancy created at the death of Mrs. J. D. Cook.

After committee reports, Mmes. Joe Luke and J. M.

Weinzappel and Miss Stock reported on the Evening Garden Club's flower show they attended in Gainesville.

In order to prepare interesting and entertaining programs for next year, each member will submit a suggestion regarding a choice of study at the December meeting. Mrs. Miller suggested that members bring their surplus bulbs and seeds to the December meeting so that a Christmas box can be packed and shipped to the Goree Prison Garden Club.

At the December meeting members will also exchange Christmas gifts. Mrs. John Wierler will be hostess in her home.

The program featured articles on "Flowering Shrubs" and "Compost Piles", and an informal round table discussion on the subjects.

On display were members' horticultural project, "Country Gentlemen" chrysanthemums, and winter arrangements. Prizes of bulbs went to Mrs. Miller for chrysanthemums and to Miss Stock for a winter arrangement.

To close the meeting the hostess served delicious pumpkin pie, hot coffee, salted nuts and party mints. Plate favors were packages of flower seed.

section of the grandstand for the football game.

Other activity on the homecoming program, as revealed by chairman Miss Ruby Kelly, begins about 6:30 when the pep squad and royal party will meet the Anna High visitors at the highway and escort them to school. The pep squad will march and the queen's party will follow in convertibles. A bonfire east of school will precede the coronation.

After the game the FHA girls will serve lunch to the teams and pep squad of both schools. At the same time the homecoming dance, featuring the E. X. Brooks Orchestra, will start in the gymnasium.

Joe Lutkenhaus returned home Saturday night from Amarillo where he had spent several months with his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Detten and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Boyles spent Friday night. She rallied Monday and Sunday in Denton at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Boyles, who was critically ill following a stroke reported on her condition by telephone to her son here.

Mr. Richter has enjoyed good health for most of his 72 years and is still active in carpentering. For many years before moving to town he farmed east of the city. Born in Germany, Mr. Richter came to the United States with his parents, the Henry Richters, when he was two years old. They settled in Nebraska and came to Muenster when Will was 12. He holds the distinction of having lived in Muenster longer than any of the early pioneers.

Mrs. Richter, the former Mary Hofer, was also born in Germany and was 5 years old when she came to America with her parents. They lived in North Dakota until she was 19 and she has lived here since. She is 75 years old. During the past five years she has had frequent sick spells and has spent most of her time in her home.

Joining the honorees for their golden wedding observance were Messrs. and Mmes. Amber Estes and Chris Jensen and son, Troy, of Wichita Falls; Clara and Kathleen Richter of Dallas; Messrs. and Mmes. Gambling On Disaster

A friend of mine is building a new home. He frankly admits he is not financially able to pay for it on basis of his present income. He's gambling on inflation. If, because of inflation, the dollar continues to lose purchasing power, the $15,000 house my friend is building may cost him only half as much, or even only a tenth as much, as it is valued on the basis of today's dollars. In other words, if inflation continues he figures his income, in unit dollars, will be doubled within about five years without his real earning capacity or actual day-to-day purchasing power having been improved. With his additional supply of the cheaper dollar, he then could easily pay the fixed installments on his home.

If my friend wins his gamble the people who hold the mortgage on his home will find his notes being paid off with 50c dollars for the 100c dollar they paid to his building contractors. Thus they would lose in proportion to his gain. But it is infinitely more serious than that. If my friend wins his gamble on a substantial degree of inflation continuing for another five years, the national economy may go on to disaster. Values would be virtually wiped out and a likely result would be economic collapse and probably panic and in the end, he likely would lose his unpaid-for home in a severe depression.

Basis of Strength

The strength of America, as a nation among nations, is based on the stability of our economy. Our production for national defense, as well as our peacetime progress, is founded on that stability. Production depends on the ability of our industries and farms to pay our workers a wage that can be transformed into the necessities of life. If fiscal conditions should become excessively strained, the pillars of our productivity would begin to crumble.

Every sober-minded economist in the country is worried. The worry also extends to all those in our government who believe in the American freedom system and want it to survive. Its chances of survival are good if political expediency is tossed out the window and sound reasoning and a spirit of patriotic service is immediately brought into the consideration of our growing acute monetary problems. The chances aren't good if this isn't done.

A Warning

A few evenings ago in St. Louis, I sat at a dinner and heard a blunt warning voiced by Dr. Walter E. Spahr, head of New York University and one of the nation's foremost authorities on public finance. "The dollar," he said, "is going to be worth about 10c in purchasing power unless the nation wakes up from its monetary dream. Large income figures, large totals of insurance, of profits, of wage payments, all in terms of a depreciated dollar, serve to feed our illusions."

"Our mounting and fabulous figures on life insurance totaled $214 billion in 1949. But we say nothing about the fact that this total has less value than the $101 billion in 1932 or the $111 billion of 1939. We are in the temporary stage of widespread enjoyment of the intoxication of rising prices. The illusions are similar to those of the opium smoker."

Something To Do

When you consider the fact that since 1940 the dollar has lost nearly 50 per cent of its purchasing power (the loss is bigger in the house building field), Dr. Spahr's warning carries added authority. We must call a halt to inflation now. But how?

(1) Balance the federal budget (2) Reduce non-military expenditures to a point where the addition of the necessary big preparedness program will still permit the taxpayers to pay-as-we-go without paralyzing commerce; (3) Establish a stable backing for the U.S. currency; (4) Restore confidence in the stability of government securities so the debt can be widely distributed in the form of savings bonds, thus reducing the supply of inflationary money; (5) Resolve, all of us, to temporarily sacrifice a substantial degree of our present living standard to meet the national preparedness cost.

If the people of America get actively behind such a program my home-building friend will lose his gamble on continued inflation; but his, and everybody else's chance of owning a home and continuing to live in a free, prosperous America will be immeasurably enhanced.

Is your home lighting GOOD or BAD?

Let us check it for you...

SO OFTEN, the value of better light is overlooked. It is the most essential electric service in the home. Directly or indirectly, it affects health, happiness, education, comfort, convenience . . . in fact, every phase of your well being.

A TP&L Home Lighting Specialist will be calling at your home soon. The purpose of the visit is to help you make better use of the lighting equipment you now have. Ask her to come in and check your lighting . . . this service is absolutely free! She will suggest the proper size and type bulbs for every seeing task. So many times, old lamps cause eyestrain with resulting headaches because they do not provide proper quality of light . . . the Home Lighting Specialist will demonstrate how old lamps can be modernized and made more efficient, by simply changing the old lamp harp and switching the bulb to the new R-40 white lamp.

If you would like to have a TP&L Home Lighting Specialist check your lighting right away . . . call your Texas Power & Light Company office.

To Make The Best Better
By George Peck

On November 26 eleven hundred farm boys and girls will "blow" into the "Windy City" to attend the 29th National 4-H Club Congress. For five days they will be treated to the best Chicago has to offer in educational tours, food, entertainment, etc.

These "farmers-in-the-making" from every part of the country are the state and national champions who for their outstanding achievements have won a trip to the 4-H Congress. They will represent the nearly two million members enrolled in the nation's 84,000 4-H Clubs. Some 150 college scholarships will be presented to club members chosen for national honors; a total of $15,112 in U.S. Savings Bonds and 227 watches will be given to state winners, and beautiful gold and silver medals representing twenty projects will be awarded to 4-H members for winning county honors.

All this has been made possible by the National Committee On Boys And Girls Clubs Work Inc., which today is supported by nearly 50 industries, businessmen and women who are backing up their faith in the 4-H Clubs with incentives valued at $400,000 annually. This large sum is distributed for awards and leader training funds in 4-H programs which range all the way from canning to tractor maintenance.

"The money," declares Guy L. Noble, director of the National 4-H Committee, "is considered a sound investment in the nation's future by encouraging these boys and girls who have pledged their head, heart, hands, and health To Make The Best Better."

"4-H youth learn by doing," Mr. Noble stated, "and guiding their efforts are 250,000 volunteer club leaders who work under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural colleges to carry out 4-H program objectives." According to Noble, the teen-agers do a man-sized job of becoming independent farmers, while others have already accumulated substantial bank accounts.

Among the companies which will make the 4-H Congress something for the youngsters to talk about for months to come are: Kellogg, Sears Roebuck, Firestone Tire and Rubber, International Harvester, Wilson and Co., Kerr Glass, Simplicity Pattern, Santa Fe Railroad, Chicago and Northwestern Railway, Montgomery-Ward, Spool Cotton, America Forest Products Industries, Lederle Laboratories, Allis-Chalmers, Westinghouse Electric, Kelvinator, the Standard Oil Companies, Carnation, Dearborn Motors, Curtiss Candy, U.S. Rubber, Armour, and General Motors.

Thus, government-besmeared "big business" joins hands with "lesser business" to royally entertain the princes and princesses of America's farms. Thrilled to the core these lads and lassies will return to the communities from whence they came, bubbling with enthusiasm and added pride in doing the farm work well or better.

The Congress will not be all fun, entertainment, breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, and banquets. During the four-day session it will get down to much serious business. Among other things it will be addressed by outstanding leaders of education, government, and industry. The burden of these speeches will incorporate the 1950 theme of the 4-H Clubs, "Better Living for a Better World."

We need have no fears regarding the future of agriculture in America, thanks to the 4-H Clubs, the Extension Service of State Agriculture colleges, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and business and industry operating through the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Inc.

Here's hoping these delegates who represent the world's largest youth group will enjoy to the full their four-day visit and will return to their homes fired with added zeal to win further laurels the while they do their bit To Make The Best Better.

*Are Our Texas Highways
Being Destroyed by 1%
of Highway Users?*

This question is presented squarely for the first time by the Texas Tax Journal in its booklet, "The Case of the One Per Centers."

Every Texan who wants good highways, adequate for 99 of every 100 users, should write for a free copy of this revealing booklet.

Approximately 99% of all Texas motor vehicles are registered for a gross weight of 20,000 pounds or less.

All Texas taxpayers, including your Texas Railroads, have reason to be concerned about the high cost of constructing and repairing our highways and the prospect of building more costly roads made necessary by the operation of highway "box cars."

No one has any desire to bar vehicles of reasonable size from our highways, so long as each pays its fair share of construction and repair costs.

Other Texas taxpayers should not be required to shoulder the burden of a roadway system for highway "box cars", representing only 1% of highway users.

Every Texan interested in good highways without increasing the growing tax burden should fill out the coupon below and get a copy of this valuable booklet.

CHEVROLET TRUCKS

with Chevrolet's Hypoid Rear Axle

Single-Unit Housing

Here's maximum strength . . . longer trouble-free service! Chevrolet rear axle housings are formed into tubular steel beams; no bolts or rivets to work loose.

Full-Size Inspection plates

Easy-to-remove, one-piece inspection plate saves time and labor . . . provides full view of rear axle gears when removed.

Splined Axle-to-Hub connection

Splines—not bolts—deliver the driving power evenly—without strain—on all heavy-duty models. Loose axle shaft bolts and costly grease leaks are eliminated.

Straddle-Mounted Pinion

Gears last longer . . . pinion gear is supported at each end by ball bearings to keep it in mesh. Adjustable thrust pad prevents distortion of ring gear when starting heavy-duty trucks with heavy loads.

4-Pinion Differential

Load and shock of heavy loads are distributed over four pinions instead of two in all Chevrolet medium- and heavy-duty trucks—for longer axle life and greater strength.

Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it" on the roughest, the toughest jobs. The single-unit design housing and splined axle-to-hub connection of Chevrolet's hypoid heavy-duty rear axle mean strength and stamina found in no other truck rear axle in Chevrolet's class. Combine that with other outstanding Chevrolet features . . . powerful Valve-in-Head engines, Synchro-Mesh transmissions, channel-type frames with alligator-jaw cross members! Here is the truck that can handle tough jobs. . . America's most popular truck. Come in and see these great Chevrolet trucks today.

Grass Seldom Fails As Money Crop, If It Is Sold as Milk

Each year dairy cattle are finding greater favor on the farm of Thomas J. Sicking, located 11 miles southwest of Muenster.

Sicking, who is milking 30 cows and selling to the Borden Company, has discovered that dairying not only offers steadier returns than conventional row cropping systems, but that soil erosion is much easier controlled. Many soil building legumes can be used either as temporary or permanent pasture.

"Grass is one crop that seldom fails," Sicking states. "And the best way to sell that grass is through milk. One of the greatest obstacles to dairying, the purchase and handling of a purebred bull, has now been removed. By using the bulls of the Cooke County artificial breeding association, I have access to some of the finest blood lines in the South. The breeding fees on my entire herd will amount to less than the cost of keeping a male on my farm."

Mr. Sicking has been using the services of the Cooke County artificial breeding association since November 1, 1949, according to Jack Barnhart, technician for the group. He now has 30 cows artificially bred and 5 artificially sired heifers on the ground.

Local Boys Attend FFA District Award Banquet at Denton

Senior members of the Muenster Chapter of Future Farmers of America participated in a dinner and program in Hubbard Hall, Denton, Tuesday night honoring Lone Star farmers of the Denton district. The principal event of the evening was the presentation of awards to the outstanding young farmers who had qualified for the honor.

The principal speaker was State Senator Wayne Wagon-seller of Nocona, who attended the dinner as a guest of the Muenster boys. He spoke on the importance of sound farming practices as the backbone of our country's economy and also stressed the need of capable, aggressive leadership in the agricultural field.

Wagon-seller was introduced by Emmett Walterscheid. Another Muenster boy on the program was Glenn Hellman who spoke on leadership activities and projects undertaken since the local FFA chapter was organized.

Other members and guests attending from Muenster were W. L. Wylie, Donald Muller, Ralph Maglaughlin, Ed Helton, J. M. Weinzapfel and Lawrence Bruns. Muller is treasurer of the Denton District for the 1950-51 school year.

FHA Girls Ship 67 Pounds of Clothing To Overseas Needy

The Muenster Chapter of Future Homemakers of America gathered 67 pounds of clothing recently during a drive to add to the World Christmas Festival. In addition they collected $6.70 to ship the package to New York from where it will go overseas to bring Christmas cheer to the poor of war torn countries.

Helen Haverkamp was chairman of the committee and Edna Swirczynski, Lillian Vogel and Joan Klement helped to sort the clothes into age groups and pack it for shipment.

Frank Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindemann of Windthorst were among guests at the K of C program Sunday and enjoyed visiting with their brother, Rev. Anthony Schroeder. Others in the Windthorst group here for the day were Messrs. and Mmes. Henry Osterman, Ed Luig, Ernest Hoff, and Luke Zihlman, George Humpert and Alfred Berend.

FHA Girls Choose Glenn Hellman as Chapter Sweetheart

Future Homemakers of the public school named Glenn Hellman this year's FHA Sweetheart at their meeting on Nov. 2.

Other business of the chapter consisted of discussion of topics to be presented on their radio program each Thursday. This week LaQueta Cain and Alvina Derichsweiler presented tested recipes.

The girls presented Mrs. T.S. Myrick with a chapter pin and made her an honorary member in appreciation for her help and cooperation.

Haws Sponsors Rat Control Meeting at Voth Farm Nov. 16

Farmers of the Muenster area are invited to attend a rat control demonstration at the Ray Voth farm next Thursday, Nov. 16, beginning at 1 o'clock.

County Agent B. T. Haws, sponsor of the demonstration, announced this week that it will be conducted by a representative of the factory which makes Warferrin, a new product claimed to be poisonous to rats but harmless to livestock and poultry.

In view of the exceptionally large number of rats this year Haws has arranged the demonstration as a service to farmers. Four more demonstrations will be held in other parts of the County.

receiving the weak kick and Boyd recovered on the 10 for a net gain of 6. Three more futile attempts to gain and Boyd kicked out of bounds on the 32. The Hornets lost a yard as the third quarter ended but on the first play of the last period Damian Hellman took Yosten's toss on a screened pass play and romped to the goal behind perfect interference.

Starting on the final kickoff Boyd put on its best drive of the evening. Hall was the powerhouse in completing four first downs that went from Boyd's 23 to Muenster's 19 before the Hornet defense braced and set the visitors back 12 yards in the next four plays. Damian Hellman picked up 11 on the old statue of liberty play but the next series fell short and Boyd took over on downs in midfield as time ran out.

that our organization will not be controlled by incompetents and traitors.

While the foreign situation looks bleak, we have ample reason to cheer over a vastly improved domestic outlook as a result of this week's election returns.

If ever the American voters gave Washington a mandate to quit messing with socialism and coddling the pinks, Tuesday's ballot was it. There was a world of significance in the landslide of votes which buried the most conspicuous members of the congressional pinkish element, such as Vito Mark Antonio, Glenn Taylor, Millard Tydings and Helen Gohagon Douglas. And we of the Solid South can take pride in the fact that the Domestic Primary eliminated such characters as Frank Graham and Claude Pepper.

Less harshly handled in most cases but booted out just the same were a considerable number of the socialistic welfare state boys. Which again indicates a healthy state of public thinking.

And for good measure, there is still another encouraging sign. While many a Fair Deal apple voters did not follow the silly old precept of allegiance cart was being dumped over to party line. Many a state elected candidates from both parties. Voters followed the reasonable system and favored the better man regardless of party allegiance. That's as it should be. It's worth something to let Washington know we think more of personal qualifications than party membership.

the Boyd 41. A short play and Yosten's 25 reached the 10 where Boyd defense stiffened and the Hornets failed by 2-yards to make the distance.

Then both sides held for several exchanges. Boyd booted out of bounds on the 29. Muenster lost yardage and lost the ball on downs on the 38 then promptly regained it on Yosten's interception. Three more smeared plays and the Hornets kicked regaining the ball again on a Boyd fumble on the 16.

From there two plays produced the second score. A pass Wylie to Aytes was good for 12 and Wylie's quarterback sneak covered the rest of the distance.

Another fumble set up the Hornets for the third touchdown in the closing minutes of the half. On the kickoff play Boyd lost the mskin on its 33. A steady advance in 7 plays made the distance. Damian Hellman carried the ball across.

Apparently shaking off the flinx that haunted them all through the first half, Boyd came back after the recess and played the Hornets on more even terms.

Completing two series of downs the Yellowjackets advanced to the 41 and fumbled the ball away. Yosten reeled off 15 twice to the 11 but the Hornet drive also ended in a fumble recovered by Boyd on the 4. Then came a pair of tough breaks one offsetting the other as Boyd's attempted kick out of danger was partially blocked, but the Hornets fumbled after
