Large Crowd Pays Final Tribute To Mrs. Fred Mosman

If every farmer in the United States turned over his entire net income for the year 1950 to Uncle Sam, how far do you suppose it would go toward meeting the administration's newly proposed budget? Well, it would last a little less than two months.

Figure it out for yourself. According to the government's own statistics the total net farm income for 1950 was about 13 billion dollars. President Truman's proposed new budget, you know, is 85 billion.

Unfortunately, when we average people hear about the million and billion dollar figures so lightly tossed around in Washington, we're not very much impressed. That's because the figures are so incomprehensible to us. But we sort of get an idea when we realize that the administration proposes to spend more than six times as much as all farmers of the country realize for a full year of work.

Alarming isn't it? And, confidentially, doesn't it seem to you that an administration really concerned with the country's welfare could manage to get along on a lot less? President Truman said he had eliminated all the unessentials but a brief glance at the budget reveals the same old socialistic schemes, the same big payrolls, the same old provisions for useless government activity.

Statesmen of sound judgment have estimated that the figure could be cut 10 billion without taking a penny away from the defense effort or existing government obligations and without curtailing the efficiency of government operations. Of course the president won't hear of such proposals. That's one of the big reasons why people nowadays are, willing to hear about proposals for a change.

Whether or not the majority of people are thinking about a change is hard to decide. But one thing is certain. A record number of people are getting ready to vote. Here in Cooke County the per capita record is the best ever. The same applies all over the state, and probably to every other state that has a poll tax. There's no doubt that political convictions are strong, which may possibly mean that the administration this year will get its biggest protest vote on record.

A possible indication of what's to come is a recent straw vote conducted by a Greenville newspaper. After making some allowance for the fact that protesting voters are more likely to take part in the poll, we still find an amazingly one-sided outcome.

Of 529 who voted for their choice of president 181 favored Eisenhower, 101 favored Taft and 101 favored MacArthur. That's in an area where people have been conspicuously consistent in voting straight Democratic tickets in the past. The total number of Democratic votes was 134 and the total number of Republican votes was 395. Another significant point is that even those who stood by the old party had little use for their present chief. Truman got only 16 votes, tying with James Byrnes for fourth place. Harry Byrd led with 34, Kefauver got 25, and Dick Russel got 17.

If Truman has an inkling of this kind of sentiment it isn't surprising that he's so slow about announcing his future political plans. He could be getting the idea that his chance of winning is not so good, in which case he could also be losing interest in the nomination.

Therein may be the explanation for his delay. If he's decided not to run he can't say so because the minute he does his prestige in the party takes a nose dive. That minute he becomes a has-been and the party starts turning its attention to up and coming prospects.

It is gratifying to learn that Former Congressman Gossett is still plugging for the constitutional amendment to abolish the electoral college as our method

Death Sunday claimed Mrs. Fred Mosman, 71, of Lindsay after a short illness. She died at the family home at 9:50 a.m.

Funeral services were held in St. Peter's church at Lindsay Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Mosman's son, the Rev. Fred Mosman of Dallas, officiating at the solemn requiem mass in the presence of the Most Rev. Augustine Danglmayr, Auxiliary Bishop of Dallas, and the Rt. Rev. Abbot Paul Nahlen of Subiaco, Ark. Father Mosman was assisted by Rev. Joseph Fuhrmann, brother of the deceased, from Corpus Christi as deacon, and Rev. David Flusche, a nephew, from Subiaco, Ark, as sub-deacon. Rev. Leo Koessler, also a nephew, from Subiaco, was master of ceremonies.

The Right Rev. Abbot delivered the funeral address and His Excellency Bishop Danglmayr officiated at the grave side services.

Burial was in the Lindsay cemetery under the direction of George J. Carroll and Son Funeral Home. Six nephews of the deceased served as casket bearers and a grandson, Tim Mosman, was cross bearer.

Tax Office Issues 6418 Poll Receipts 1698 Exemptions

A final tally on eligible voters as revealed at the county tax office Monday indicates that Cooke County citizens, like others of the state, are getting set for a big vote in the coming elections.

The total is 6418 poll taxes and 1698 exemptions, figures that will stand as the recorded voting strength unless some of the poll tax receipts have to be cancelled because of bad checks. Not all poll tax checks had been sent through Monday.

Though not the highest number of poll taxes in the county's history, this year's figure is believed to be one of the best on a percentage basis. It falls short of the 1948 total by 54, but at the same time the county population is short by several hundred men serving in the armed forces.

Exemptions this year are 1698 as compared with 206 in 1948. For the first time over-age people who vote in Gainesville have had to get exemption certificates. Formerly only the under-age voters had certificates.

The county's actual voting strength is several hundred higher than the total of poll taxes and certificates. Over-age county residents outside of Gainesville can vote without a certificate.

Boy Scouts Observe 42nd Birthday

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

President Truman will greet 12 outstanding Boy Scouts in the White House during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, marking the 42nd anniversary of Boy Scouts of America. Boy Scout Week will be observed throughout the nation by more than 2,900,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910, more than 19,000,000 boys and men have been members of the organization. "Forward . . . on Liberty's Team" is the birthday theme.

City Will Elect 2 Aldermen April 1

Members of the city council Monday night went through the annual formality of ordering a city election. The offices to be filled are those now held by Aldermen Ben Seyler and John Wieler, and the election date is April 1.

Mayor John Hoffman called attention to the provision in municipal law requiring candidates to file with the mayor at least 30 days before the election date.

Prior to calling the election, the council, according to law, fixed the salaries of officers to be elected. This year aldermen will receive one dollar for each meeting they attend. Previously members of the council were "dollar a year men."

Shelby Fletcher in County Judge Race

Shelby Fletcher, Gainesville lawyer, this week authorized the Enterprise to announce his candidacy for the office of Cooke County Judge. His formal statement to voters will appear in a later issue of the Enterprise.

News of Sick And Injured

A near accident for Aubrey Tuggle Sunday afternoon turned out to be a real accident for his 5-year-old daughter, Donna Jo. On the road between here and Nocona a driver cut in ahead of him from a side road. Tuggle jammed on his brake and Donna Jo flew into the dash board shattering a tooth. A dentist Monday removed two pieces but a remaining splinter will have to wait until she recovers sufficiently from a cold to take an anesthetic.

J. J. Haverkamp is strong enough now to be up and around his home for short periods each day. He is regaining his strength following serious illness and major surgery on Nov. 8.

Mrs. Ben Fleitman is recovering from an illness of strep throat.

Sammy Biffle spent the weekend and through Tuesday of this week in bed at the home of his parents, the Jack Biffles, on account of flu.

Council Considers Plugging Old Well

Confident that its water problem is a thing of the past, the City Council Monday night considered plugging the abandoned No. 2 well to eliminate hard water which seeps into the nearby new well.

Water Superintendent Steve Moster pointed out that hard surface water which was always present in the old well now flows to the new well through the lower soft water sand. Flow to the new well is indicated by the fact that the water level in the abandoned well drops 25 feet while the pump is running.

The plan is to plug the old well closing off the only channel by which the hard water can reach the new well. Council members believe they will salvage enough casing in the process to offset the expense of plugging the well.

Formerly the council favored keeping the old well as a standby for emergencies. But with the new well steadily producing 150 gallons a minute and the old reliable No. 1 producing about 100, they are confident that their water troubles are over.

Samples from the new well have been sent to the State Health Department for analysis but no report has been received to date.

Scouts Will Ring Bells of Freedom One Minute Friday

Friday night at 7:30 the Muenster Boy Scouts will join other scouts all over the country in ringing bells for one full minute commemorating freedom and reminding the American public that we must work and pray to preserve the rights and privileges we enjoy.

The nation wide bell ringing movement is a part of this year's observance of National Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12. The idea originated in Philadelphia where Scouts will ring the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall and other Scouts have been urged to ring other bells at the same time.

Committeemen will join the Scouts at the bell after which all will attend Rosary and Benediction in church. After that all will be guests at a party in Scoutmaster Nick Miller's home.

Lehnertz and Flusche Face Trial in Fatal Shooting of Burglar Attempting Escape

Jimmy Lehnertz and J. P. Flusche both were placed under $2,000 bond Tuesday and notified that they will have to appear before a Montague County grand jury Friday in connection with the death of J. B. Posey, 25 year old ex-convict of Bowie, who died early Saturday from injuries received in his attempted escape after being caught burglarizing Jimmy's Service Station.

The victim died in a Nocona hospital at 6:30 o'clock, about five hours after he had struck

Another development in the case came Wednesday when Cooke County officials, in an effort to keep the trial in this county hastily summoned the grand jury for an investigation.

Sheriff Emory Horn said the grand jury has indicted Lehnertz and Flusche for trial in Cooke County.

In this case, he explained, either county has jurisdiction because the burglary and the victim's death occurred in separate counties and Cooke County is endeavoring to keep the trial here by being first to file a grand jury indictment.

a bridge rail at high speed in his attempt to outrun the pursuing Lehnertz and Flusche. His automobile was demolished.

In addition to injuries from the crash Posey had a .22 caliber bullet wound received in his desperate get-away attempt.

A murder complaint against Lehnertz and Flusche was filed Monday in the Montague county

SHHS Cagers Win 2 Games at Wichita

Both the regulars and the reserves of the Sacred Heart High School girls' basketball team were victorious Monday night over the Bluebells of Mary Immaculate Academy at Wichita Falls.

Regulars of the Red Sox bested the Wichita girls in speed, ball handling and marksmanship for an easy 42-21 triumph. Della Rose Felderhoff led the scoring with 20 points. Albina Mages scored 14 and Irma Hofbauer 8.

In the B team's victory of 26-13 Lorine Fleitman led with 12 points, Carrie Ann Gehrig made 10 and Henrietta Mages made 4.

The girls' next game is at Little Rock Saturday night. They will leave here at 5 Saturday morning and return late Sunday.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Bernard Luke of the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, spent the weekend with his parents, the Ben Lukes.

Bill Eberhart has received a promotion to First Lieutenant in the army. He wrote his parents, the Ed Eberharts, that he is now in Tokyo, and according to present reports will be home some time next month. Bill had been in Korea with the 24th Infantry Division for several months.

Gerald Bayer, Melvin Otto and Eddie Krahl recently got together for a visit in Hokkaido, Japan, where they are stationed on patrol duty after serving in Korea.

Pvt. Gussie Felderhoff, still in Korea, writes his parents, the Hubert Felderhoffs, that he is well and keeps busy with the Ordinance company in which he serves. He mentioned that air mail letters reach him in a short time but that regular mail is exceptionally slow.

court by H. B. Posey, a brother of the deceased.

The burglary which ended in Posey's death occurred about 1 o'clock Saturday morning. At that time Miss Lena Herr, telephone operator, notified Lehnertz that she had heard glass breaking and could see someone in the station. Lehnertz asked her to notify Flusche, Ben Seyler, Kyle Waggoner, Otto Walterscheid and the sheriff's office.

Lehnertz, Flusche and Seyler arrived about the same time. Seyler took a position east of the building to cut off possible escape. Flusche went to the back and Lehnertz to the front. Flusche and Lehnertz both called to the burglar ordering him to come out the front with his hands in the air.

Instead he went out through a rear window and dashed for his car in a hail of bullets from Flusche's .22 rifle. The car was parked at the west side of the station. As the thief came around the building Lehnertz attempted to fire a shotgun but it missed-fired. Then he tried to disable the car by firing a pistol shot through the hood into the motor. Meanwhile Flusche used his empty rifle as a club and knocked out most of the windshield with one blow.

In a moment Posey started his car and roared away. Lehnertz and Flusche jumped into the Lehnertz car and chased after him. Waggoner and Walterscheid missed the action.

Somewhere near the Cooke-Montague county line the fugitive almost succeeded in wrecking his pursuers, who were following close behind. He jammed on his brakes and Lehnertz, to avoid a crash, swerved to the left and pulled up at his side. At that moment Posey cut sharply and rammed the side of Lehnertz's car, knocking it off the road and into the ditch. Both cars, formerly going over

SCHEDULE OF COMING EVENTS

MONDAY, Feb. 11, Civic League and Garden Club meeting in the home of Mrs. Dick Cain, 8 p.m.

Adeline Bindel and Archie Livingston Are United Tuesday

Miss Adeline Bindel became the bride of Archie Tommy Livingston in services at Sacred Heart church at nine o'clock Tuesday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bindel of Muenster and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Belle Livingston of Myra. Rev. Louis Deuster, pastor, officiated at the single ring ceremony and the nuptial mass in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. White stocks and greenery adorned the altar before which the marriage vows were recited.

The bride wore a becoming rose pink two piece suit with rose and black accessories and carried her flowers, white carnations, on top of a white prayer book.

Mrs. Arnold Wimmer was matron of honor for her sister wearing a green suit with brown and white accessories. Miss Bethney Clock of Gainesville was bridesmaid. She wore a navy blue suit with black and white accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Attending the groom were Gilbert Bindel, brother of the bride, and Eugene Cummings, nephew of the groom. Wilfred Bindel was usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bindel wore a grey crepe ensemble and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a black costume and a corsage of white carnations.

After the services, a wedding breakfast was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig, uncle and aunt of the bride, for members of the bridal party and Father Louis.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, and dinner was served to 50 guests. Mrs. William Koerner, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book.

The bride's table was covered with white linen and was centered with a three tiered wedding cake on a mirror reflector flanked by tapers. Mrs. Wilfred Bindel, sister-in-law of the bride, cut and served the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Livingston are making their home on a ranch seven miles southeast of Muenster.

100 miles per hour, were running at 85 to 90 at the time of impact and Lehnertz had a tough struggle keeping the car on its wheels.

Getting back on the pavement the pursuers followed at a more discreet distance and attempted to stop Posey by firing at the tires and gas tank. They continued their high speed chase until Posey lost control of his car and crashed into a bridge railing about four and a half miles east of Nocona.

After the crash Lehnertz and Flusche asked a passing motorist to send an ambulance and police officers. Posey was taken to a Nocona hospital and Deputy Sheriff Cogburn of Gainesville was sent there to guard him.

At the scene of the wreck officers found a bag of nickels. Lehnertz said that a bag of nickels and some pennies were the only things taken from the station.

Funeral services for the victim were held at Bowie Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Montague County and had been sentenced to 10 years in the State penitentiary on March 12, 1947, for a car theft in Gainesville.

Saturday's burglary was the tenth that Jimmy Lehnertz has had since opening his station 13 years ago. To enter the building Posey broke a glass and reached through to open the window. Another broken glass, also in the back of the station, indicates that the burglar had first tried that window but failed because of a jammed latch on the window.

Lehnertz holds an honorary commission as a deputy sheriff of Cooke County.

In appreciation for his efforts to stop the local wave of burglaries, citizens here Monday contributed to a purse to pay for damages on his car when Posey rammed it in the wild chase.

The American Way

By George Peck

Private Enterprise

Much has been written and said in recent years about Private Enterprise. Its friends and proponents have eulogized it in words of warm and enthusiastic praise, ascribing to it the credit for the unprecedented achievements of this nation during the first century and a half of its history.

The foes of Private Enterprise have vilified it in caustic and scathing language, blaming it for all the nation's ills, and demanding that this system be displaced by one or other of the economies which time and time again have been tried and found wanting.

Despite the fact that in two world wars America electrified the world with its production for war, the planned economists persist in venting their spleen against Private Enterprise, the spark plug of our American Capitalistic System, responsible for those miracles of production. It is strange that there are still some among us who are so blind as not to see what is so plainly visible.

The common sense of the American people, which at times has seemed to go temporarily into hiding, but which when the chips were down always has manifested itself, will dictate the retention of Private Enterprise. It is the nation's one great hope in the gigantic struggle to save us and the rest of the free world from godless tyrannical communism.

From time to time rewards have been offered for the best definition of Free or Private Enterprise. There have been numerous contests in which prizes have been offered for the best essays setting forth just what Private Enterprise is, what makes it "tick" and what it has done for America. The scribes and poets of the nation bent their pens to the task and many beautiful compositions expounding the virtues of Private Enterprise have been written and publicized.

But the clearest description to come to this writer's attention is a little poem which appeared on the front page of the September 1944 issue of the Arkansas Banker, the official organ of the Arkansas Bankers Association. Beg pardon, did I say little? Well, it may be little as far as length goes, but it blinks large in beauty, rhythm and inspiration. Who is the author of this glorious poem, I am unable to tell you. Apparently, he or she, with becoming modesty, prefers to be unnamed, for inquiry to the Arkansas Bankers Association failed to elicit a reply as to the identity of the poet who has made this magnificent contribution. I cannot tell you the author's name, but I can pass on the poem, and here it is:

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE
 The power to choose the work we do,
 To grow and have the larger view,
 To know and feel that we are free,
 To stand erect, not bow the knee,
 To be no chattel of the State,
 To be the master of our fate,
 To dare, to risk, to lose, to win,
 To make our own career begin,
 To serve the world in our own way,
 To gain in wisdom, day by day,
 With hope and zest to climb, to rise;
 That is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.
 This columnist would be the last to claim that Private Enterprise is a perfect system, but it's the best yet devised to serve mankind. Over the years we've made improvement in it — in the future further refining adjustments will be made — to make the best even better.

Social Security Jackpot

From a recent issue of Nation's business comes the following story. Almost unbelievable, it serves to point up the determination of the social planners to put everybody aboard the Federal gravy train. Its implications are more serious than the tenor of the article would indicate. It becomes apparent that the American welfare state is well on the way to economic self-destruction. Without further comment, we reprint the yarn—

It is now possible to put your mother-in-law on a paying basis. This is how one lawyer does it. "When the new Social Security law went into effect on Jan. 1, 1951," the lawyer said "my mother-in-law was precisely 63½ years old. I hired her as a baby sitter. I began to pay her $50 every three months, for 24 days' work during the three months. This brings her under coverage as a domestic — and nothing in the law forbids hiring an in-law as a servant. "We will continue the arrangement until July 1, 1952, by which time she will have six quarters of coverage. She will then quit and go on the social security payroll for the rest of her life at $20 a month. Total cost to the two of us: $9 in social security tax, plus the $300 I've paid her in wages. If I bought her a life annuity of $20 at age 65, it would cost me about $3,700." — Juneau Alaska Empire.

An actress congratulated a woman author on her book: "I enjoyed it," she said, "who wrote it for you?"

"Darling," purred back the other, "I'm so glad you liked it. Who read it to you?"

Wife (reading the paper): "It says here that most accidents happen in the kitchen."

Husband: "Yes, and we men have to eat them."

Experienced Hand Wanted

Cappy Miller's back from visiting relatives and tells about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around.

Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman gave them a new twist.

"I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more."

From where I sit, it's only too easy to forget how to do something—even as simple as milking a cow—if we don't keep at it. And that goes for practicing tolerance, too. Like forgetting our neighbor has a right to decide for himself whether or not to enjoy a temperate glass of beer. If we don't keep the other fellow's point of view in mind we're all liable to get "snowed under" by intolerance.

We Have Had Last Chance Warns MacArthur

WHAT GENERAL MacArthur said aboard the battleship Missouri at the official surrender of Japan, and what he repeated in his powerful address before Congress last April is worthy of a great Christian thinker:

"We have had our last chance. If we do not devise some greater and more equitable system, Armageddon will be at our door. The problem basically is Theological and involves a spiritual recrudescence and improvement of human character that will synchronize with our almost matchless advance in science, art, literature, and all material and cultural developments of the past two thousand years. It must be of the spirit if we are to save the flesh!"

This statement would be great if for no other reason than its fierce opposition to the general policy which considers it impolite, or at least, inelegant to discuss the subject of religion in public. People feel free to mention every science and pseudo-science under the sun except Theology, the science which treats of God and the things of God.

SUCH SILENCE serves only to prolong and deepen the ignorance of religious truths which modern society has fostered by excluding religious instruction from education and by divorcing faith from reason.

Most people in America have never received any formal religious education whatever. Of those who have, the majority attended Sunday School only during childhood for what would be in accumulated hours, the equivalent of less than a first-grade education.

Some good souls regard as sufficient what they term a "simple religion". But they stunt their spiritual growth by neglecting to cultivate knowledge of religion. Expansion of this knowledge no more contradicts fundamental truths than engineering contradicts elementary mathematics.

THERE ARE others who would elevate society simply by frequent mention of The Sermon on the Mount, The Beatitudes, The Brotherhood of Man, The Rock of Ages, and so on. But outside their theological context these terms are meaningless, mere ornaments, and trimmings which inspire little confidence, and solve no problems.

Man is the child of God; he has been redeemed by the Blood of Christ, and is heir to the Kingdom of Heaven. Consequently, his whole life and that of the society of which he is a part must be examined and ordered in the light of the truths of Revelation. Modern society obscures the truth of man's higher dignity and purpose. It gives only a partial and misleading solution to the problems of the world, for it views man merely as a political, or social or economic unit.

THIS IS WHY we must go beyond politics, beyond economics, beyond sociology. To Theology, for it is only in their theological setting that man, society, the sciences that should serve mankind, and the woes that beset it, can be properly understood. "The problem basically is Theological . . . It must be of the spirit if we are to save the flesh!" (by John B. Fee.)

What Makes a Woman CHOOSE SUCH A LIFE?

You see her walking down the street . . . and you wonder about her.

She isn't fashionably dressed like other women. She wears no lipstick, no make-up, no high heels or nylons. Instead of a "perky" hat, her head is covered by a hood and veil. Her dress is a billowing, full-length habit that bears little resemblance to feminine fashions.

And as she passes by, you realize that here is a woman different from others not only in dress . . . but in her entire way of life. Here is one who has deliberately turned her back upon the worldly pleasures which other women seek and enjoy. And perhaps you wonder why a woman should give up all this to become a Catholic nun.

Is it because she is afraid to face the world and its responsibilities? Is it because she lacks talents that other women possess and therefore seeks shelter in the convent? Is she devoid of maternal instinct? Or does she choose the life of a nun because she thinks it is easier and more secure than life in a world of fluctuating economic conditions?

No—a nun who will knock at your door asking for alms for the poor surely is not afraid of the world. A Catholic sister competent to teach in a school . . . and often highly gifted in the arts and languages . . . is surely not lacking in talents. Nor can anyone who has seen a Catholic nun mothering the sick in a hospital . . . or even in a leper colony . . . believe that she is lacking in the maternal instinct.

What is it, then, that prompts a woman to turn her back upon the pleasures and luxuries of the world for a life of poverty, chastity and obedience? How is it that hundreds of thousands of women do this . . . many of them coming from well-to-do families which could supply their every need and wish? What is the spark that fires their zeal for God, and for humanity?

The answer is, of course, that the heart of a nun is filled with the desire to serve God. And that desire is the product of her Catholic Faith. If you doubt the compelling power of Catholic belief, remember this fact . . . the Catholic Church is the only institution on earth having large numbers of such consecrated women who devote their lives to the work of Christ in schools, hospitals, orphanages and old peoples' homes, and among the poor and sick in every land.

Perhaps you would not or could not become a nun, or a priest, or a religious of the Catholic Church. Perhaps you would not even want to be a Catholic. But you should inform yourself concerning the teachings and beliefs of the Church which can inspire such magnificent sacrifice and service.

If you would like to know more about the Catholic nuns . . . how they are trained, how they live, why they choose this way of life—write today for Free Pamphlet No. KC-25.

The New York legislator is introducing the bill to pay the sum to those who hold the medal, whether on active duty or not and regardless of rank or grade. "I'm not trying to put a value on the Medal of Honor," the Congressman said. "But I want to show those who hold it that the country appreciates what they have done. You can't buy a hell of a lot with a salute from a general, even if you are wearing the blue ribbon with the white stars on it."

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I been thinking about business — Big Business, especially — and the way slickers have been getting themselves into congress and Govt. swivel chair jobs via pointing a finger and sayin', look folks, it's the demon Big Business and Special Interests getting ready to eat up Little Red Riding Hood and all the rest of you good people. Of all the cooked-up pieces of nonsense and tomfoolery, it is this and such type of jabber and gas. The sucker who risks 6 bits that he knows for sure under which shell is the pea, is acting no more simple than have the voters of this land in recent-like years — not unlike the youngish trout that nibbles a phoney fly.

Take one item at a time — take banks — they are Big Business. You have your extra dinero salted down there at the bank. It is the safest place. You wouldn't let your senator or congressman hold your gold watch and chain or 2 or 3 one hundred dollar bills — and feel super safe as night came on.

And take other items. Take the gas company, or the electric, or the R.R., or your insurance, or the big stores. All of 'em are private business or private enterprise — and they are big, most of them. And the more they grow — get bigger — the better the service you have learned to expect.

We need a valve grind and tune-up on our thinking. We have carbon in our belfry — sluggish on the pick up. We will be okay once we shake out our suckerishness — and again do a little pondering on our own hook and in dead earnest.

Yours with the low-down,

GOSSIP TOWN LIES ON DOWN GRADE

Have you ever heard of Gossip Town, on the shores of Falsehood Bay where old Dame Rumor, with rustling gown is going the livelong day? It isn't far to Gossip Town for people who want to go.

The Idleness Train will take you down in just an hour or so. The Thoughtless Road is a popular route, and most folk start that way. But it is steep down grade and if you don't watch out, you'll land in falsehood bay.

You glide through the valley of vicious town and into the tunnel of hate. Then crossing the add-to-Bridge, you walk right into the city gate. The principal street is called, "They Say," and "I've Heard" is the public well, and the breezes that blow from falsehood bay, are laden with "Don't you Tell."

In the midst of the town is "Tell Tale Park." You're never quite safe while there for its owner is Madame "Suspicious Remark," who lives on the street "Don't Care." Just back of the park is slander's row. 'Twas there that good name dies pierced by an arrow from jealousy's bow, in the hands of Envious pride.

From Gossip town peace long since has fled, but envy and strife and woe, and sorrow and care you'll find instead. — Mary Clayton, — Gainesville High Leopard Tale.

Soil Conservation Notes

Last Sunday's dust storm, caused by somebody's good top soil on the move, should serve as a grim reminder to all of us here in the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District that we should never relax our efforts to keep our top soil at home, says Emmitt Yoder of the Muenster Soil Conservation office. Our top soil that gets away may never obscure the sun as Sunday's duster did, but it has already made Lake Dallas obsolete, Yoder added.

Work going on among farmers in the Muenster area indicates that cooperators are taking steps to tie down their soil. Frank Needham and Albert Andress are putting conservation practices to use on the Andress Estate farm five miles north of Muenster. Two broad water-ways have been marked off in the cultivated fields and are being plowed and prepared for sodding to Bermuda grass this spring. The water-ways will serve as terrace outlet areas and as pasture strips after the grass is established. Martin Bayer, who is leasing the farm, is co-operation with the owners in getting conservation practices applied to the land.

The district-owned grass drills are still busy seeding native grasses on areas that are being taken out of cultivation for water-ways, meadows and pastures. Grass has long been recognized as man's best weapon against the ravages of erosion.

J. H. Coursey has seeded native grass on two water-ways on his farm five miles south of Myra, and Frank Needham

Muenster. When the grass is established Coursey will empty field terraces on the area and also use it as extra pasture.

At Bulcher, E. Newby and Johnny West each have a new tank for livestock water. Tony Trubenbach has seeded the native grass seed mixture on a portion of the cultivated land on the farm operated by B. J. Sicking, and Joe Starke is also sowing native grasses on his farm northwest of Muenster.

Tanks are still in demand and are being built at a steady rate. Cooperators who have dug tanks recently, in the hope that they will be full of water at the end of the drought, are Henry Streng, J. M. Weinzapfel on the farm operated by Joe Wimmer, Ed Sicking on the Anna Trachta farm, Hubert Felderhoff on the Biffle Ranch, Albert Knabe, Frank Bayer on his farm south

Miss Gremminger Is 'Belle of Week' At Sheppard AFB

Miss Marilyn Gremminger, an employee at Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, was featured in last week's "Senator," official base paper, as the "Belle of the Week." She was the first feminine personality introduced in the new feature, "Sheppard Belles," which will feature a different feminine personality each week. Air men at the base make the selections.

The picture accompanying the story shows Marilyn at her desk and explains that she is a clerk-typist in the Special Orders Section, located in Publications Building. Marilyn went to work on the base in Feb. 1951, and transferred from the assignments section of Technical Training Group last November. THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: T. M. Taylor, Defendant, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable Sixteenth District Court of Cooke County at the Court House thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 25th of February A. D. 1952, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 7th day of December A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 16028 on the docket of said court and styled Florence Blackwell Plaintiff, vs. T. M. Taylor Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Plaintiff and defendant were married in Cooke County, Texas, on the 20th day of August, 1951; plaintiff then believing herself to be a single woman. Prior to this alleged marriage plaintiff was married to Marshal Blackwell, a divorce suit had been filed in the State of Oklahoma between plaintiff and Marshal Blackwell but the decree had not become final when plaintiff and defendant entered into a marriage relationship. When plaintiff learned that the decree of divorce between herself and Marshal Blackwell was not final, she separated from T. M. Taylor and has not lived with him as his wife since. Wherefore plaintiff prays that she have judgment holding null and void the purported marriage between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law or in equity to which she may be entitled, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Gainesville, Texas this 9th day of January A. D. 1952.

PLASTIC FUTURE SEEN FOR MAN IN YEAR 2000

PHILADELPHIA — If you want to see men decked out in plastic clothing in colors to delight technicolor enthusiasts just stick around until the year 2000.

That is the forecast of Dr. Roger Adams, retiring president of the American Association for the advancement of Science.

The noted scientist took a look into the future and saw men consigning the collar, tie, tuxedo and most current uncomfortable formal wear to the ash can — or its 21st century equivalent.

He also predicts the man of 2000 "will eat foods of which he never dreamed and live in a plastic house with such easily removable partitions he will be able to turn the whole building into one big party room.

Sure, says Adams, Americans will be able to take their food in pills. But Americans are not likely to become a nation of pill swallows, not as long as they have a choice.

He says windows will be made for "looking out," but snoopers will be displeased because they won't be able to "look in."

Homes will be made of plastics and will "simmer, not blaze up in uncontrollable flames."

Dr. Adams puts life expectancy in 2000 at 75 to 80 years, and spry years at that.

"They will still enjoy good, juicy old-fashioned steaks and some versions of today's sweater girls will probably always be with us."

A squad leader gave a lowly private orders to crawl up to an enemy pill-box with hand grenades and silence a machine gun that was holding up the advance, then enter the dug-out and take care of any enemy personnel left.

Turning a bit pale and swallowing hard, the private answered: "Just one thing, sergeant. If you see several men running from that pill box — don't shoot the first one."

Worry is like a rocking chair. It will give you something to do, but won't get you anywhere.

Driving in the business section of a city, a man tried to edge his car past one driven by a woman, who was trying to park in close quarters. Suddenly the woman's car crashed into his.

Flushed with exasperation, she leaned her head out of the car window. "You could see I was going to do something stupid," she said. "Why didn't you wait to see what it was?"

VETS, FAMILIES NOW ON-THIRD OF NATION

WASHINGTON — The Veterans Administration figures that one-third of the nation's population consists of veterans and their families. It estimates the figure will increase to 40 percent by 1955.

This new statistical compilation is based on data up to last Nov. 30.

It showed there are now 18,893,000 living veterans of all United States wars, not including the Korean campaign. This means two out of every five men are war veterans.

There are now about 3,418,000 veterans of World War I and 15,310,000 of World War II. Other veterans' records stretch back to the Civil War. The books were closed on the War of 1812 in 1946 when the last dependent passed on. The last veteran of the Mexican War passed on in 1929.

The VA figures that one out of every 10 persons in the country is a veteran of World War II. This includes roughly two out of every three men between the ages of 20 and 35.

Pfc. Bill Metzler is now assigned to F. E. Warren AFB in Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he is a teletype operator. He completed basic training at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, last week. Monday his wife left to join him to make their home in Cheyenne. Accompanying Mrs. Metzler on the car trip was her father, Frank Trubench of Muenster. They stopped in Amarillo and Denver to visit relatives enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin and son of Muenster visited here Sunday with his father, Frank Martin.

Miss Laverne Fuhrmann spent the weekend in Muenster with her sister, Mrs. Ray Hess and family.

Confetti ---

of electing a president. The change proposed is to divide a state's electoral votes proportional to the popular votes instead of giving all electoral votes to the majority candidate. If the popular vote is divided 60-40, for instance, and the state has 20 electoral votes, one candidate gets 12 and the other gets 8. In that way minority parties in all states have a chance to be represented and the over all outcome would harmonize more closely with the popular vote.

One of the outstanding merits of the bill is that it would tend to eliminate the abuse our section of the country has received. Neither party would insult the South with such monstrosities as the FEPC if it knew that retaliating votes in the South would more than offset the votes gained up North and East. For us Texans the tidelands is another issue. It is doubtful whether the administration would have followed its unscrupulous policy if Gossett's proposed electoral system had been in effect. When protest votes count politicians don't act the same as when the entire electoral count is in the bag.

Rev. Alcuin Kubis of Corpus Christi was here for Mrs. Mosman's funeral Tuesday and visited with members of his family. He came to Lindsay in company of Father Joseph Fuhrmann.

Rev. Francis Zimmerer of Windthorst was here Tuesday to attend Mrs. Mosman's funeral and visited with his parents, the I. A. Zimmerers and family before returning home.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED AT CLEM HERMES HOME

HOFBAUER-HERMES RITES SET FOR FEBRUARY 13

The young couple have set Wednesday, Feb. 13, as the date of their wedding. It will take place in Sacred Heart church at 8:30 a.m.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School with the class of 1949.

The prospective groom graduated from Lindsay High School and has been in the army 11 months, stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

BEATRICE BLOCK TO WED JOHNNIE KUNTZ FEB. 20

The couple have selected Wednesday, Feb. 20, as the date of the wedding. The nuptial high mass will be solemnized in St. Peter's church at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Mosman—

and friends of Mrs. Mosman and her family gathered to pay their final respects, filling the parish church to capacity. Some 30 members of the clergy and a large delegation of Sisters were among those present for the services.

Mrs. Mosman, the former Miss Catherine Fuhrmann, was born in Iowa on Feb. 20, 1880, and came to Texas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fuhrmann, in 1893. They located in Lindsay in 1894. She married Fred Mosman there on Nov. 24, 1903, and had resided there ever since.

Mrs. Mosman was active in church and community work and was a member of the parish Mothers' Society.
