

A Supreme Court judge, after an extensive tour through Asia, makes the shocking statement that the average Asiatic identifies America with industrial might and a high standard of living, but he identifies Russia as the world leader in social justice.

It's a humiliating appraisal, and our first reaction is to be indignant. But then we begin to wonder what has caused this pitiful decline of American prestige before peoples of the world. Is it because Russia has been especially successful in its propaganda campaign? Or did we perhaps contribute toward the sour attitude by some of our own official blunders?

There was a time when America enjoyed the friendship of Asiatics. Orientals admired us for our spirit of freedom and fair play as much as they loved us for lending a helping hand in distress or for bringing them a small sample of the better way of life. America was the exception among the western nations. It sought no empire. It helped rather than exploited. It proved itself in a most convincing manner by declaring the Philippines independent while European countries held on to their colonies.

But then came Yalta, Potsdam and those other shady agreements. Instead of using our influence to establish the independence of Asiatics we supported European exploiters in their old claims and sold our former ally, China, into communist bondage. Our record of betrayal along with cleverly manipulated red propaganda has turned many of our former friends into enemies.

The methods of Moscow have been effective. Red agents are working feverishly to throw off the yokes of Western Europe, preaching at the same time that Russia will help and that the Russian way offers the only peace and security to the common man. After their disappointment in us, is it surprising that Asiatics place their confidence in the reds?

The whole sad situation suggests the enormous job that awaits us in Asia. It adds emphasis to MacArthur's contention that our first responsibility as a world peace maker is in Asia. It indicates that Korea is only a starter, that our real job is to help China restore the independence of China, and to use our influence in securing a better deal for Asiatic colonies from their European overlords. Professed ideals will make little impression so long as we fail to practice what we preach.

Of course it's ridiculous to think that Russia has a higher standard of social justice than we do but since the subject has been brought up we might stop to consider whether social justice in America now is all that it should be. While we're proud of the liberty and standard of living enjoyed by the average person we can still see that he doesn't get all that he is entitled to.

Whenever we consider all the graft and waste now rampant we don't have to think much farther to understand that people are being deprived in the process. Take the average working man. He doesn't complain because he doesn't know what he is missing. Actually he's pleased because he is better off than a few decades ago. But has his personal progress been comparable to his industrial progress? Could he be enjoying an even better standard of living if he were not required to support a lot of graft and waste and socialistic brain storms?

Think of how much more each working man could have if the billions of unnecessary spending were eliminated and his taxes were reduced accordingly.

Just figure up the items as they appear daily. The top heavy federal payroll, the graft on war contracts, the racket in unemployment compensation, pork barrel projects, worthless RFC loans, wholesale waste and what not, and then figure how much could be cut from

Henry Stoffels, 64, Succumbs Friday To Heart Attack

Henry P. Stoffels of Lindsay, formerly of Muenster, died suddenly Friday afternoon at his home after suffering a heart attack. He was 64 years old. Funeral services were held in St. Peter's church at Lindsay on Monday morning at 8 o'clock and the body was brought to Muenster for burial in Sacred Heart cemetery. Rev. Conrad Herda, Lindsay pastor, officiated at the requiem high mass and at the graveside ritual. George J. Carrol and Son Funeral Home directed arrangements.

Mr. Stoffels was born in Westphalia, Iowa, on Oct. 8, 1886. He moved to Muenster with his parents when he was two years old and lived here for more than 50 years. He married Miss Sophia Angerer here on Jan. 19, 1915, and farmed here until about 10 years ago when he moved several miles north of Lindsay.

He is survived by his wife; four sons, Pete, Henry Jr., Charles and Billy, all of Lindsay; five daughters, Mrs. Franklin DeFrance of Fairfield; Mrs. Erwin Fuhrmann and Misses Rose Marie, Emma Grace, and Lucy, all of Lindsay; 10 grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Albert Knabe of Muenster, and two brothers, Nick Stoffels of Muenster and Fred Stoffels of San Antonio.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

The Alfons Koeslers have word from their son, Pvt. Alfons Koesler Jr., stating he has reached his overseas destination and is on duty in Korea.

Hugh Endres has completed a special course of study for the navy in Jacksonville, Fla., and spent the weekend here before going to Memphis, Tenn., where he will enter a 28-week course in electronics, radio and radar.

PFC Allen Hoffman arrived Sunday on his first leave since he entered the army air corps six months ago. He has completed an air police course at Patrick AFB in Florida and will report back there on Sept. 19.

Sgt. and Mrs. Harold Falck of San Antonio visited her parents, the Jake Pagels, during the weekend and left here for Illinois to visit members of his family while he is on leave. She is the former Anselma Pagel.

PFC Mike Luke of Keesler weekend visit with his parents, AFB, Miss., was at home for a the Henry Lukes. It was his first leave since he entered the air corps on Jan. 2. He has six more weeks of study before he completes his course in electronics.

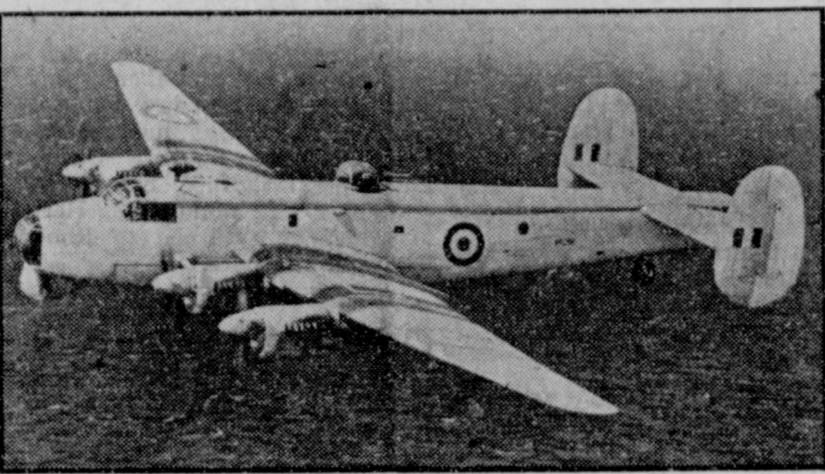

Sgt. and Mrs. John Durbin and three sons arrived Wednesday from Camp Polk, La., for a visit with her parents, the Frank Yostens. Sgt. Durbin will report for overseas duty with the Far East Command and his family will remain here.

PFC Henry Pels expects to be home on leave about the 20th of this month, according to recent letters home. He will finish his course in radio on Sept. 15. It will be his first visit home since he enlisted in the army air corps on January 2.

The kind of luck that service men dream of smiled on Bernard Luke last Friday as he was preparing to leave Corpus Christi Naval base for a holiday visit at home. A flight crew member boarding a plane called out, "Want a ride to Wichita Falls?" Bernie did. He got a pleasant ride in an admiral's plane and several extra hours at home.

Miss Rosalee Fuhrman spent the holiday weekend in Wichita Falls as the guest of Miss Marilyn Gremming.

Mrs. Nolan Judy and daughters of Panhandle are visiting her parents, the Walter Neelys in Myra.

NOSE FOR NEWS—Peculiarly suited for its duties as a long-range reconnaissance and anti-submarine aircraft is the R. A. F. "Shakleton," above, which has been fitted with a huge radar blister on its nose. Named after the Arctic explorer, the four-engine plane, shown patrolling off the coast of Britain, is reported to be the last piston-engined aircraft that will be ordered by the Royal Air Force.

New Endres Building Is Notable City Asset

Another notable improvement in the appearance of Muenster's business section is now complete.

It is the modernistic new home of Endres Motor Co., local Ford agency, on the corner of Main and Highway 82, comparing favorably with the finest automobile dealerships in North Texas.

The building was occupied last week, but Urban Endres, owner, is awaiting more pleasant weather before setting the date for the formal opening.

The outstanding feature of the building's design is the pylon of harmony ledge stone extending at an angle from the south front about 25 feet from the west side. On it is the name Ford in large black type neon letters. Other distinguishing features are the plate glass display room and an extension of about 4 feet on the roof structure, made of redwood, across all the west front and about 40 feet of the south front, and shrubbery beds of ledge stone in front of the plate glass windows. There are two levels of roofing, that above the display floor and a section of the parts room being about 10 feet lower than the roof for the rest of the building.

Office and display floor are finished in Weldtex wall board painted blond.

The shop department is less ornamental but continues the building's modernistic design. Brick extends from the ground to window level and a strip of corrugated asbestos siding reaches from the top of the windows to the roof.

Total floor space in the building is 8,500 square feet. Of that the shop takes up about 4,500 feet and the separate paint and body shop annex occupies another 900 feet. The parts room measures 22 x 46 and an upstairs storage space measures 55 x 16. The combined space of display floor and two offices is about 1,000 square feet.

Along with his building plans Endres figured in several special features for the shop and service department. One is a pit specially built for a Bender wheel aligner. Another is a mud pit for the car washing department. In addition there are four twin post hydraulic lifts for greater convenience and efficiency in lubrication and repair work.

Other new equipment units installed in the shop are a Hunter electronic wheel balancer, a Sun motor analyzer and a Sun distributor tester.

The building, erected on the site of the old Ford agency, was built by local men under the direction of Clarence Wilson.

Well Repair Ends Water Emergency

Another city water emergency ended Tuesday night when the overhauled No. 2 well on North Main was put back on the pump and boosted the city's available supply to about 130 gallons per minute.

Water Superintendent Mosler said Wednesday that, for the present at least, the supply is again adequate for lawn sprinkling.

The emergency was disclosed last Thursday when the No. 2 well's output fell to about 20 gallons per minute and city officials decided to have the well cleaned out by Hess Brothers Drilling Co.

While work was in progress the only available source was the No. 1 well and what water could be spared by the FMA. Those two wells supplied enough for normal use but not enough for lawn sprinkling.

The clean out job, while improving the well, still failed to reach the lower Trinity sand, which is the most abundant local source of water. All that is available from that level is the small quantity that passes through some 60 feet of gravel. Other water, as before, is obtained through casing perforations at higher levels.

The present output of the well is estimated at 65 to 70 gallons per minute. The old reliable No. 1 well continues to produce about 65 gallons a minute.

The William Koerners and children of Pilot Point visited here Sunday in the home of her parents, the Frank Bindels.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartman of Chicago, Ill., are here to spend a two-week vacation with their daughter and husband, the Marvin Morrisons.

Mothers to Collect For Sisters' Washer

Members of St. Anne's Society will solicit contributions Sunday for a new washing machine as a community gift for the local Benedictine Sisters. Society members will be at the church doors next Sunday after each of the four masses to receive contributions. Some families have already contributed and others are making their donations direct to the Sisters or to officers of the sponsoring society.

'Poss' Swirczynski Requires Another Brain Operation

Herman "Poss" Swirczynski, still in a critical condition from a head injury on August 14, underwent another critical operation Wednesday in St. Anthony's Hospital, Oklahoma City.

Returning home Wednesday night after spending the day at Swirczynski's bedside, Rudy Hellman quoted the doctors as saying that the patient withstood the operation very well for a person in his condition and appears to be progressing normally.

It was a delicate operation in which tissue from the patient's leg was grafted to his brain for the purpose of stopping a loss of spinal fluid which had been draining through his nose the past several days. If not stopped, the doctors said, it was likely to cause spinal meningitis or a brain tumor.

Except for the new complication Swirczynski has shown signs of improvement. He has gained strength and his mind has been wandering less frequently.

News of Sick And Injured

Ray Evans is recovering but is still off from work after an illness resulting from a spider bite on his neck Monday.

Mrs. Henry Sicking was dismissed from M&S Hospital Monday morning after being a patient for a week for medical treatment.

Kenny Klement, young son of the Edgar Klements, is back in circulation after being confined to the hospital and his home for the past seven weeks following a leg fracture. He is attending school and will discard his crutches in the near future.

Ed Endres has the cast off his right arm since last Wednesday but is still not on duty at the postoffice.

Rain Measures .36

A short hard rain lasting only a few minutes and measuring .36 Wednesday afternoon settled the dust and improved the temperature but did little to relieve the current drought.

It was the first moisture of the month, following a dry August, which had only 2.53 inches. The year's rainfall to date is 21.89 inches.

Wednesday's rain favored the area south of town. The shower was described as fairly heavy there, but it tapered off to a mere drizzle north of town.

Now It's Beans

F. J. Schenk of Wichita Falls, formerly of Muenster, who was dubbed the tomato growing king a few years back, is now laying claim to the bean growing championship, according to an article in the Wichita Falls Record-News.

In his backyard garden at 1610 Lucile street Schenk has grown a double 12-foot row of yard long beans from which he has harvested 56 pounds of beans. Some of the beans measured 24 inches in length and 17 weighed a pound. They are growing on each side of a tall trellis. Planted on April 9, the beans produced 25 pounds during the first growing period. They are producing again and promise a bigger crop this fall. The beans grow six to nine feet high on the trellis.

Muenster Schools Gain 9; Combined Enrollment is 612

Scholastic enrollment at the two Muenster schools showed another increase this year with a combined total of 612 over the former 603.

Of that total 465 are in the parochial school and 147 in the public school as compared with 457 and 146 on the opening day of 1950.

A further breakdown of figures reveals an enrollment of 77 in high school and 70 in the elementary department of the public school and 57 in Sacred Heart high school and 408 in the parochial elementary grades. This represents a gain of 4 public high school students, a loss of three public elementary students, a loss of 7 parochial high students and a gain of 15 parochial elementary students.

As before, students of both schools are using the facilities of the lunch room which is sponsored jointly by the Sacred Heart parish and the Muenster Public school with executive authority in the church committee and the school board.

New Law Requires Farmers To Do Own Gasoline Book Work

Farmers are now required to do their own bookkeeping on motor fuel tax refunds, according to Motor Fuel Tax Law amendments which became effective in Texas on Sept. 1.

The law provides that the dealer can no longer serve both as agent of the State and agent of his customers. He cannot keep the duplicate exemption he issues to his customers to cover the sale of refund motor fuel; he cannot make out the claim for refund nor notarize the claim. This method of procedure was intended in the original law and the amendment merely clarifies and emphasizes the original intent.

The new law, however, does not prohibit a dealer from helping his customer fill out the refund application. The intent of the act is only to keep the dealer from keeping duplicate exemptions in his file and from notarizing. Duplicate exemptions must be mailed or delivered to the purchaser within seven days of purchase. A farmer may now move his tractor from one farm to another over public roads without accounting for fuel used in the move provided the distance does not exceed ten miles.

The new act requires farmers to list the number of acres they have planted in each kind of row crop when the claim is filed, but it does not require them to keep any record other than the invoice of exemption received with the fuel, unless a part of the refund fuel is used for taxable purposes on the public road.

Hornets Look Good In Scrimmage Play

In competition as well as drill the Muenster Hornets show signs of developing into a strong ball team. That was Coach Hood's opinion after his charges made a good showing in a practice scrimmage with Henrietta High School Tuesday night. In most of the action, he said, the Hornets played on even terms with the huskier Henrietta boys.

The scrimmage was at Henrietta, and local fans will get to see a second session of it Thursday night when the Henrietta boys come here.

Since the start of school the Hornet squad has increased from 23 to 35 boys. Quite a few are pee wees with little chance for this year's team, but Hood considers them as fine material for the future.

THE TREND IS TOWARD
 JUDGE
Frank Ikard
 FOR
Congressman

The Gainesville Daily Register, first daily paper in the district to endorse any candidate, said Friday, August 24, 1951:

"IKARD FOR CONGRESS"

"That District Judge Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls is the best selection for election to the office of Congressman from the 13th District is the belief of the Daily Register.

"Judge Ikard is a man of imposing appearance, a forceful speaker and of a friendly disposition.

"He is opposed to socialized medicine and socialization of any business, profession, labor or industry. He opposes any national scheme for education. He supports state rights and state ownership of the tidelands.

"He is in favor of government economy and elimination of all non-essential spending. And he favors a strongly developed foreign policy designed to secure world peace."

The second daily paper in the district, the Denton Record-Chronicle, to openly endorse any candidate, said on August 30, 1951, on its editorial page:

"ANALYZING THE CANDIDATES:
 IKARD IS BEST MAN TO REPRESENT DISTRICT"

"Judge Ikard has a splendid background for the job which has already been outlined in the Record-Chronicle. He is a dignified, high-type gentleman with a good Democratic Party record of the more conservative type and would be a man the citizens of this district could probably depend on for several years of good constructive service in the Halls of Congress."

Sit Down To Iron

COLLEGE STATION — Sit-down ironing saves effort, fatigue and time. Yet, many homemakers continue to stand while they do one of their most tiring jobs. Home management specialists for the Texas Agricultural Service believe equipment for sit-down ironing is the answer to this problem.

They suggest using an adjustable board that can be lowered or raised to suit different workers, either for stand-up or sit-down ironing. The specialist say a board 58 inches long and 14 inches wide with a tapering end is best. It can be a built-in, fold up, wall board, or portable. There are commercially made sit-down ironing boards.

For a comfortable chair, the specialists suggest an adjustable office chair on castors. To save expense, a kitchen or dining room chair can be remodeled with lower legs on castors, a padded seat and back.

The specialists recommend a lightweight iron weighing 3 to 3½ pounds for seated ironing. There are advantages in using an iron with a low handle, easy to hold, a tapered end to fit into gathers, and a beveled or slanting edge to go around buttons and other fastenings. An iron with a large sole plate has the advantage of covering more area, thus saving time and motions. The iron cord should be elevated for efficient use of the iron.

Even in these days of supersonic speeds, nothing has been invented that can keep up with a politician dodging an issue.

Loretta Hartman Is Bride Of Ed Mason In Labor Day Rite

Miss Loretta Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman, became the bride of Edward Mason of Dallas in Sacred Heart chapel here at 6:30 on Monday morning.

Rev. Anthony Schroeder officiated at the double ring ceremony and at the nuptial mass in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

The bride wore a becoming dress of navy blue taffeta with black velvet trim. Her accessories were in black and her flowers were an orchid corsage.

Miss Dorothy Hartman, the bride's sister, and Virgil Walter, her nephew, were the wedding attendants. Miss Hartman wore a teal blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Hartman attended the ceremony in a navy blue dress with black accessories and wore a yellow mum corsage.

Gene Hartman, cousin of the bride, and David Flusche were servers at the mass. White gladioli and greenery decorated the altar.

After the service, brunch was served in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Endres. Guests included all members of the family, Father Anthony, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Myrick, and Mary Ann O'Connor and Carl Headstrun, both of Dallas.

Arrangements of yellow verbenas adorned the dining room and the table was centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Immediately after the brunch the couple left on a wedding trip.

They will return to Dallas where both Mr. and Mrs. Mason have been nurses at St. Paul's hospital.

The bride graduated from Sacred Heart High school here and received her nursing diploma at St. Paul's. Since graduating two years ago she has been nursing in Dallas.

Pre-Nuptial Party
Complimenting the bride, a gift party was held in the parish hall on Friday afternoon. Mes. Al Walter and Herman Hartman were hostesses.

A progressive 42 series preceded the opening of gifts by the honoree and the serving of refreshment plates followed.

About 40 guests were present.

Dorothy Jones And Weldon Wylie Wed At Sanger Saturday

A double ring ceremony performed in the home of the bride's parents united Miss Dorothy Jones of Sanger and Weldon Wylie of Muenster.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jones of Sanger and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wylie of this city.

Rev. Greer of Trinidad, former pastor of the Sanger Baptist church, officiated at the exchange of the marriage vows at 5 p. m. Saturday, September 1.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with a powder blue blouse and navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Jack Holmes of Wichita Falls was bridesmatron and Jab Clayton of Saint Jo was best man.

After the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip. They will make their home in Sanger when they return. Mr. Wylie is employed at Consolidated in Fort Worth.

Attending the wedding from here were the W. B. Wylies and daughter, Beth, and Miss Margie Kathman.

Mrs. Mary Schmitz of Wichita Falls spent the latter part of last week here with her daughter and family, the C. A. Fishers. On Thursday they went to Turner Falls for a picnic dinner and outing.

GIFT PARTY SUNDAY HONORS MARGIE KATHMAN

Miss Margie Kathman, bride-elect of Stanley Wylie, was honor guest at a gift party Sunday afternoon when Miss Pauline Lutkenhaus and Mrs. W. E. Insel of Gainesville entertained in the George Lutkenhaus home.

When the honoree arrived she was presented with a white carnation corsage by the hostesses.

Games and contests furnished diversion until the honor guest opened and displayed her gifts. The gift table held a pink umbrella with yellow and pink flowers and greenery, carrying out the bride's chosen colors. Twenty-two guests were present.

The hostesses served refreshment plates featuring ice cream moulded into the shape of wedding bells.

Miss Kathman and Mr. Wylie will be married next Thursday, Sept. 13, in Sacred Heart church here at 8:30 a. m.

QUILTING CIRCLE REPORTS PLANS COMING ACTIVITY

Members of St. Anne's Mission Quilting Circle have accomplished much during the past few months, according to Mrs. Jos Fisher, chairman, who gave a report at the St. Anne Society meeting Sunday night.

Mrs. Fisher said that ten pieced tops are on hand, along with some linings and a few cotton bats. Regular quiltings will be held at her home as soon as the weather turns cooler. The ten tops were pieced by Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck.

Three mission quilts were included in the clothes drive for the Holy Father's store room, she said and one finished quilt is for sale. It is now on display at the Variety Store and will be at the Charm Shop next week. Mrs. Fisher added that the quilt sold for the church fund at the July Fourth picnic brought over $50.

Other business at the meeting consisted mostly of routine procedure. Mrs. Frank Herr presided. She announced that Mrs. Lena Streng had recently made seven surplices for altar boys and Miss Mary Becker had made a white satin sacramental veil.

"Thank You" — from All the Jenkins Family

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jenkins and Beth, Walter Jr., and the Jenkins twins, John and Joe.

"We appreciate your help . . ."

For more than two months, we have been engaged in the campaign for Congress. Marjorie has been working at our little headquarters in Wichita Falls. Marge's mother has been taking care of Beth, Walter Jr., and our twin sons John and Joe—and I have been out meeting with you, talking with you, listening to you, telling you where I stand.

The campaign ends Saturday, when the polls close. We know that you will cast your vote for the candidate you think will best serve you and best serve the nation in these critical times.

Before election day, though, we want you to know that we are forever grateful to the thousands of friends who have encouraged us, who have gotten out in 116-degree weather to work for us, and who have done so much to make our campaign successful. We would like to thank each of you, individually, but that will take some time—so we have bought this space in your paper to say, "Thank you—thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

An Argentinian Writes Americans

In many things history does repeat. The evolution of totalitarian government has a pattern that has not varied fundamentally through the centuries of human history. First, individual liberty is handed over bit by bit to a paternalistic government in return for handouts economic planning and control expands, taxation becomes crippling and the living standard dissipates. Police state measures finally must be applied to the citizenry; then the totalitarian dictatorship takes over everything.

We of this generation have seen the beginning of the deterioration of England's once great strength through the evolutionary process of State Socialism, the second step towards totalitarian dictatorship. The historic pattern is being precisely followed. Subsidies and other forms of government handouts have been the lure, as usual, in England. There has just come to my desk a letter written by a lawyer in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He is American-born, a studious and sincere man with no axe to grind.

HANDOUTS, THE LURE
 His letter was not written for publication but I have received permission to quote from it. It shows dramatically that State control of the economy, bought with handouts to the citizenry, leads a nation towards almost certain economic breakdown and opens the way to the harsher measures of control over the citizens—whether the method is through parliamentary Socialism, as in England; the perverting of "democracy," as now threatens in America; or by strong-man dictatorship rule, as in Argentina.

"In general," this observing lawyer in Argentina writes, "things here are very bad; perhaps much worse than is reported in your paper. Personally I do not see any hope of a change until the masses here learn through bitter experience that an economy directed by totalitarian government just does not work. This will still take time, for private initiative and free enterprise had made a rich country of this one."

CLOCK RUNS DOWN

"This wealth, employed in a 'bread and circuses' policy has created in the minds of our masses the illusion that every man-jack can live like a millionaire without hitting a lick of work. ('Bread and Circuses' was the slogan in Rome when the government paternalism included food and entertainment subsidies.—Ed.) We all admit that the coming elections will be won by the party now in power and that once this happens the present process of absorption of the individual by the State will be speeded up and free enterprise further curbed. Even as matters stand now private initiative is so harassed at every turn nobody dares venture on any new undertaking.

"I am obsessed with the impression that the story of this country's economic decline may be likened unto that of a fine clock whose works were in good shape and nicely wound up because of private initiative under free enterprise. It was free enterprises. It was such a good mechanism that despite all the abuse it has received from the self-styled government experts it has functioned after a fashion up until now. But at last it is running down on us and will soon stop.

WARNING TO AMERICANS

"Having enjoyed many happy years under the blessings of freedom, I never thought the people would stand for the creeping revolution that has engulfed us now in totalitarianism. Lulled by prosperity and by the confidence that freedom was an inalienable right we enjoyed because of the sacrifices of former generations, we went to sleep while the forces of evil were wide awake. I have seen how easily it can happen in a country and for that reason I am so fanatically concerned that you in America do not let it happen to you."

Yes, it has always happened thus: "creeping revolution" — the handout State, government economic planning, paralyzing taxes, a falling off of incentive and production, then the wielding of harsh government power! Will we in America have the foresight and the courage to stop the trend—NOW?

SPITTING AGAINST THE WIND

The boys at the Korean cease-fire junta are getting about as far as a Cub Scout rubbing two wet sticks together to smoke the 'skeeters out of camp. When the gabfest started I said it was like spitting against the wind for distance—and I was right as rain in Texas, and not near as seldom.

General Van Fleet says his boys can take the Reds like Grant took Richmond and intimates he's got a "clobber" up his sleeve that'll settle the argument before snow flies. He's as full of confidence as a roller skater with a pint flask in his hip pocket.

The boys in the bull-session at Kaesong may talk till the frost is on the Korean pumpkin, then say "What a nice day to resume hostilities—so invigorating, and soon we have nice snow and ice. Let's come out for the next round and repeat last winter's sad experience for the UN troops."

Maybe it would be a good move to turn Van Fleet and his boys loose now. Remember last winter? — Ed Erard in the Kingsville Record.

The Light That Failed

Every now and then someone asks, "What's become of the 'everlasting' match? Who owns patents on it? Why isn't it being sold?"

Frequently the questioner implies American match manufacturers are keeping this device off the market. The facts are these:

This match was patented by Ringer in Switzerland in 1928. He called it "the repeatedly ignitable match". In the 1930's it was introduced in Holland, where it enjoyed some novelty sale.

It was, in effect, an elongated match-head, the ignitable portions of which were separated by chemical retardants. By very careful nursing a user could light it, blow out the flame, and thus get an average of about 40 lights — along with 40 room-filling whiffs of a vile odor from the retardants.

In Holland, three of these match sticks sold for the equivalent of 5 cents — or roughly 120 lights for a nickel. In this country, ever since the Civil War, people have been able to buy a box of safety matches, containing 40 sticks, for a penny. In other words, 3 pennies here purchase as many lights as 5 pennies spent for the so-called "everlasting" match.

U. S. Patents on this match expired in 1945. Anyone can start manufacture of the repeatedly ignitable match. Chances are no one will, though, for the United States enjoys the lowest per capita expenditure for matches of any country in the world. And only here are matches given away — 190 billion free paper book matches yearly!

THE BIBLE IS A CATHOLIC BOOK

People differ radically in what they think about the Bible.

Some seem to think it was handed down from Heaven written in English and bound in morocco. Many accept it as the inspired Word of God without knowing why they are justified in doing so. And others say that the Bible is full of contradictions and must be taken "with a grain of salt."

A proper understanding of the Scriptures can exert a tremendous influence for good in your personal life. You should, therefore, know where we get the Bible... what it means... why you can believe its every word.

Nowhere in the Bible text will you find a list of the 73 inspired books of which it is composed. This list was given to the world by the Catholic Church almost three full centuries after the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Between the time of the Crucifixion and the time that the Scriptures were gathered into a single Book, millions had received and accepted the teachings of Christ... and had died without ever seeing the complete Bible.

Established by Christ Himself and rapidly spread among the nations of the world, the Catholic Church was carrying on Christ's work for the salvation of men some 60 years before the Apostle John wrote his book of the New Testament.

For more than a thousand years afterward, the Scriptures were preserved and circulated by Catholic monks and scholars who laboriously copied the sacred text by hand. And the Bible authorized by the Catholic Church was the first book produced by Gutenberg upon the invention of printing.

Yes, the Bible is truly a Catholic book. They were members of the Catholic Church who, under God's inspiration, wrote the New Testament in its entirety.

It was the Catholic Church which treasured it and gave it to the world in its original and unaltered form. It is the infallible authority of the Catholic Church that always has been the only sure guarantee of its inspiration.

There are obscure and difficult passages in the Bible, some of which may seem confusing. But with the complete revealed truth of God, delivered to her from the beginning, the Catholic Church has faithfully unfolded the meaning of the written Word of God to past generations of mankind—and does so today.

Those who are familiar with the Bible, as well as those who are reading it for the first time, will find many important questions concerning it clearly answered in a free booklet which we shall send you on request. Ask for Pamphlet No. 3-N.

WALTER JENKINS says: "The Taxpayer Must Hold the Pursestrings"

READ WALTER JENKINS' PLAN FOR ECONOMY

WALTER JENKINS

Everybody talks about economy. But, in politics, most candidates don't get specific.

Walter Jenkins — the candidate who knows the job — has a specific plan for cutting government spending.

Here's his plan:

- I. Give Congress control over the Federal Budget.
 Today the pursestrings on the taxpayers' money are held by the Bureau of the Budget, an Executive Agency. This agency prepares the Federal Budget, decides how much money shall be asked for, determines what is needed, what is not needed.
- The director of the Bureau of the Budget is appointed by the President and works for and with the President.
 The result is we have a budget the President wants, not necessarily a budget the people want.
- Congress is closest to the people. Congress knows what the people want, what they need, what they can afford to pay for in taxes. Congress ought to establish a staff of its own, supervised by a committee of Senators and Congressmen, to examine every item in the Budget—and cut out those that aren't needed and those that can wait.

Under the present set-up, the people who spend the money are the ones who decide how much to spend. We must change that. The people who pay the bill—the taxpayers—ought to hold the pursestrings.

To do that, Congress must control the Budget.

- Put cut-off dates on all emergency aid programs.
 One great fault with present practices is that once the United States begins a spending program on an emergency basis, the "emergency" seems to become permanent. We continue spending, year after year, more and more, on programs meant to be temporary.

We should not quit necessary spending to meet emergencies, at home or abroad. But, when we begin to spend, we should know how much the total cost will be—and how long our payments will run.

Imagine your personal financial position if you were still paying on every installment purchase you ever made. You would be bankrupt by now. But when you go to buy—a new car, a new stove, a new tractor—you get the total price, make a down payment, and pay for a specific number of months. While you are carrying the payments, you tighten up on other spending—to stay within your budget.

That is common sense budgeting. The Federal Government can save billions by establishing and holding firmly to a definite cut-off date on all emergency spending.

- Provide incentives for Federal employees to cut spending.
 At present, it is standard practice in Washington for all Federal agencies to spend every cent of the money appropriated by Congress. It's a rare agency that turns up with a surplus at the end of the fiscal year. The tradition of free spending is deep rooted.
- Substantial savings could be realized if Federal employees were given bonuses—as private employees in industry often are—for any action, recommendation, or decision that resulted in a saving.
 Federal employees are now rewarded solely on the basis of seniority. This bonus for economy would give them real incentive for saving. No one can save more, more quickly, than the people who spend the money.

The road back to a balanced spending program—where the Federal outgo matches the Federal income—is a long, hard one. Spending is a habit, not easily cured.

The meat-axe approach will not succeed. You may cut off some program that is unpopular, but, for every dollar saved that way, another dollar will be spent in increased appropriations for so-called "popular programs."

We have got to save money, not only on what we spend abroad, but on what we spend on ourselves here at home. We must save money on operations, save money on administration, save money by increased efficiency.

This requires thoughtful, painstaking, tireless endeavor on the part of your Congressman—to do the job right, your Congressman needs to know the job.

New Auto Tax Law Effective Sept. 1

It'll cost you $10 if you give away a motor vehicle after September 1, when the new motor vehicle sales tax law goes into effect.

But, if you sell the automobile for $10, your tax bill will only be 11 cents, according to the new law, passed by the last session of the legislature.

There's a hitch in the law for those who make an affidavit saying they sold a car for $10, but actually received more than that amount for the vehicle.

Even though both the seller and buyer must sign an affidavit stating the amount of the sale, the law says that if the affidavit incorrectly states the amount of the consideration received by the seller, the seller will have to pay an "affidavit error fee," running from $25 up to $100. A $25 fee will be collected if the actual amount received was from 5 percent through 10 percent greater than that stated on the original affidavit.

And if the seller gets more than 10 per cent over the sale price listed on the original affidavit, the seller will have to pay the county $100.

The new law takes care of out-of-staters who fail to buy Texas licenses when they take up residence here.

After Sept. 1, new residents of Texas, when applying for a Texas license, will be required to pay a $15 use tax.

A $5 tax will be levied upon each party involved in an even exchange of motor vehicles.

Other regulations will go into effect on Sept. 7:

1- No new unregistered vehicle may be registered or titled in the state unless accompanied by a manufacturer's statement of origin, or a current registration receipt and certicate of title from a title state. 2- No license may be issued or application for title or transfer of title may be accepted unless a certificate of inspection is presented by the owner.

3- The gross load limit on trucks will be 58,420 pounds. It was formerly 48,000 pounds.

M. L. Helm, county tax as-essor-collector, is calling attention of Cooke county residents to the new laws passed by the 52nd Legislature as amendments to the Motor Vehicle Retail Sales Tax law.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. American:

Don't let anybody tell you that, if I'm elected this year, I cannot be re-elected next year. This story, and other rumors, are being circulated by agents of the Fair Dealers because they are scared to death that an anti-Fair-Deal congressman will go to Washington who will really fight their corrupt machine.

This time, I will be able to serve you in the House for one full year. During that time, I will have built up a congressional record that you and your family can be proud of. When I return next year, I will be able to stand on that record with pride, and I know that then, as now, you won't have a single doubt in your mind to re-elect a congressman who has kept his promises and who has fought for your principles, for your freedom, and for your individual rights.

In May, 1950, another special election was held. Ben Guill of Pampa was elected Republican congressman for the 18th District. Ben was able to serve only five months in the House before he had to return home and start campaigning all over again in order to be re-elected. In the meantime, his "Democratic" opponent, Walter Rogers, for five solid months, campaigned against Ben on a strictly anti-administration platform.

Yes, while campaigning, Walter Rogers played the role of strictly anti-administration candidate; he was as strongly opposed to the Fair Deal as Ben was. He, too, was against compromises, corruption, inflation, and higher taxes. For this reason only, the supposedly conservative, anti-administration "Democratic" candidate Walter Rogers, beat Ben Guill in the general election by 2,000 votes.

Then, a typical professional political switch took place. The moment this man Rogers arrived in Washington he reported to Sam Rayburn; he has worked for the Fair Dealers ever since, and has voted with them 90 per cent of the time.

This confidence trick took place in the 18th Congressional District only a year ago. It must not happen here. It must not happen to you.

Don't be fooled by the platforms of my opponets. The very party my opponets have allegiance to, is against the very platforms that are being preached to you. If you vote for any one of my opponets, Harry Truman MUST believe that you are showing, once again, blind approval of his primrose path into the land of socialism.

Is that your desire? What else CAN Harry Truman think? All he wants from you is another Democratic congressman, any kind of a Democrat. All he wants from you is another vote to increase his power. Is that your desire? Do you want to send a congressman to Washington whose boss will be Sam Rayburn?

How can you show the Fair Dealers that you are disgusted with corruption, reckless spending, higher taxes, and the big steal of our tidelands, if you send a congressman to Washington who is a member of the Fair Deal party, and whose every wish will be denied if he doesn't play ball with Bill Boyle and his Pendergast gang?

There is only one way to register your protest, and that is to vote for the only anti-Fair Deal candidate, the only anti-administration candidate. Let us all tell Harry Truman, "This is the end of the line."

I just cannot sit by any longer and watch our country being destroyed economically from within, and being outfoxed from without. This is the eleventh hour. If we do not return to sanity now, we may never have that chance again.

The road back can start right here, Saturday, September 8th. Let us show the whole country that we Texans refuse to continue to vote for the new socialistic wolf, the wolf that gobbled up the old traditional donkey.

Let us show the whole country, by our individuality, that we demand the return of a government that will conduct the affairs of this country, once again, according to our traditional constitution. With God's help, we will succeed.

Yours sincerely,

Joe Jackson

Legislatures of both parties are smiling, some wryly and some broadly, at cards being mailed to them by members of the LUAC—"Let Us Alone Club"—which apparently originated in Mississippi (of all places!) but has spread to other sections.

The members of this club, in no uncertain terms, expressed themselves:

"We don't want no pensions."
"We don't want no minimum wages."

"We don't want no Government houses to live in."

"We don't want no subsidies."

"We don't want no bureaucrats telling us how to make a living."

"We don't want no socialized medicine or no socialized nothing."

"We don't want to have to pay no poll tax, but as long as we do have to, we don't want nobody paying it for us."

"We just want to be left alone to make our own way as best we can and as long as we can."

Soil Conservation Notes

What conservation jobs can be done on the farm during these hot, dry days? This question is being asked, and answered, by many co-operators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District. Al Walter has taken advantage of the fact that heavy clay soils on his farm five miles northwest of Gainesville can be terraced best when extremely dry, as is certainly the case at present. He has just completed 3/4 of a mile of channel type terraces using a road maintainer. All terraces empty on either buffalograss pasture or a waterway sodded to Bermuda grass in 1950. Walter has also constructed two earthen fills to divert water from an erosive gully to a Bermuda waterway which has been established by the side of the gully as a part of the water disposal system on the farm. This waterway is also being used for terrace outlets and pasture.

Wiese-Wood Nuptial In Fort Worth Is Military Ceremony

The Nick Blocks and family, Pete and John Block, Mrs. Ben Hermes and daughter, Mary, Mrs. Wm. Fleitman, Beatrice Block and Leonard Hermes returned to Lindsay Monday after visiting relatives in Perry, Okla., where on Sunday they attended the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malget.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dieter of Dallas spent Labor Day with their parents, the Joe Hundts and the Val Dieters. Other guests in the Dieter home for the weekend and holiday were the Al Bierschens of Ft. Worth.

The marriage of Miss Norma Ann Wiese and PFC Donald E. Wood who is stationed at Oklahoma A&M in Stillwater, Okla., took place at 9:30 a. m. in St. Mary's church at Fort Worth with Rev. Damian Wewers officiating. It was a military ceremony. Don and his attendants are all in the Air Force and wore their uniforms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wiese of Fort Worth and the granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Wiese of Lindsay. The groom is the son of Mrs. Eula Wood of Fort Worth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown with pearl-encrusted lace yoke and cathedral length train. Her veil was attached to a seed pearl crown and she carried carnations and stephanotis.

Her sister, Frances Wiese, was maid of honor and another sister, Rosemary Wiese, was junior bridesmaid. Matron of honor was Don's sister-in-law, Mrs. Douglas Wood. The bridesmaid was Mary Agnes Cosgrove who went to high school with Norma at OLV. Eula Mae Wood, sister of the groom, was flower girl, and Billy Schmitz of Lindsay, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's brother, Cpl. Lawrence Wiese was best man. He and one of the groomsmen, PFC Thomas La Porta, are stationed at Lackland AFB, San Antonio. The other groomsmen were Douglas E. Wood, Don's brother, and Elden Hundt, both of Carswell AFB.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception in St. Anne's Club. Afterward the couple left for a short wedding trip. The bride wore an aqua suit with palomino accessories. They will be at home in Stillwater where the groom will continue his schooling.

Among out of town guests were Mrs. Anna Wiese, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schmitz, the Jake Bezners and the Val Dieters, all of Lindsay; the H. F. Schiederjan family and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wiese of Gainesville.

Richard and Patsy Herr of Muenster spent Thursday through Sunday visiting their sister, Mrs. Leonard Bengfort, while their parents vacationed in Dallas.

The Ralph Bezners have returned to Wichita Falls after a visit here and at Era and attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Bezner's sister, Miss Jimmie House, at Era last Wednesday afternoon.

The best place to find a good helping hand is at the end of your arm.

Confetti ---

the average tax bill. That's one reason of the social injustice now prevailing.

Needless to say the wage earner isn't the only person being gypped. Think of the man who saved and invested to make our progress possible. He invested in stock to build factories, and his dividend is cut first by a corporation tax then again by personal income tax. What does he have left as a reward for his thrift? Is it adequate? There's something wrong with a system that penalizes thrift and sacrifice.

Or take the man who has his savings in bonds, insurance or cash. Notice what inflation has done to him.

Remember these are average people, not the filthy rich. They're the people for whom politicians' hearts are bleeding and they're all victims of social injustice . . . deprived of things that are due them because people in high places are fizzling away their money.

While it is absurd for any Russian to point an accusing finger at us in the matter of social justice it is also true that we are a long long way from the true American standard of that virtue.

Legislators in Washington would do well to ponder a little less on the dealings of citizens with each other, and think a little more on the dealings of the government with its citizens. That's the first and biggest step in social justice.

The Don Bezners Recently Wed, Live In Gainesville

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bezner, recently married couple, are making their home in Gainesville at 324 North Taylor street. Both formerly of Lindsay, are the son and daughter of Fred Bezner and Mrs. Clara Bengfort.

Patricia and Don were married in a double ring ceremony on August 22 in St. Peter's church with Rev. Conrad Herda officiating.

The bride wore a white satin gown with fitted bodice and nylon yoke inset, petal point sleeves and full skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a bridal bonnet with forget-me-nots scattered on the brim. She carried white carnations on top of a white prayer book.

Mrs. Lawrence Sicking of Valley View was the bride's attendant wearing a blue net frock over blue taffeta and a net headdress. Lawrence Sicking was best man.
