Adolph Fuhrmann Farm Selected For A & M Test Crops

If it weren't so tragically ridiculous it would be amusing to hear some of our lame brained Texas Democrats accusing people like Price Daniel and Governor Shivers of party disloyalty. Yes sir, to some of those people the height of party loyalty is to chime Amen to every wild scheme that originates in the administration regardless of how it violates the interests of this state or the fundamental principles of honesty, economy, or plain common sense.

Those people would have us believe that Shivers is a stinker for leading a movement to send a delegation to the national Democratic convention that is opposed to Truman. Their thinking was badly warped all these years when they assumed that every Texan has a duty to vote a straight Democratic ticket, but that was mild compared to the notion that it's disloyal even to favor another Democrat for the White House.

The real absurdity is that the accusers are pointing the finger the wrong way. It's Truman and his cronies who have been disloyal to the party. While fellows like Shivers and Daniel have remained true to the traditional principles of the Democratic party the queer deal crowd has been adulterating it into a party of socialism, waste and corruption.

Unfortunately they succeeded in retaining the name while they changed their political philosophy. The meaning of the word Democrat ain't what it used to be, and so a lot of Texans who insist on voting 'er straight are actually voting against the tradition they so scrupulously try to follow. The thousands who go on voting as their grandpappies and pappies did probably don't realize that the grandpappies would never have voted that way if they had been faced with the same issues.

It's beginning to seem, however, that Texas voters in general are getting their fill of the queer deal. They agree with Shivers that Truman is not the man for this state and an ever growing percentage of them are determined to vote against the party if it does not offer a suitable candidate.

That's as it should be, as it should have been years ago. If voters of Texas and the other Southern states were in the habit of voting on personal conviction rather than party loyalty we Southerners might be something more than political orphans, mistreated by Democrats and ignored by Republicans.

As it is, nobody gives a hoot. Truman and his crowd continue their policy of abusing the South for the sake of marginal votes elsewhere; knowing that Southern votes are in the bag regardless. Republicans don't bother to help us because we don't help them.

Well, this year may see a change. Sentiment against the present administration is the strongest it has ever been. Strong enough in fact that the nomination of Truman or one of his disciples will bring on the biggest protest vote ever recorded below the Mason-Dixon line. There's a strong chance that enough people will quit voting 'er straight, unless the donkey convention picks a more acceptable candidate like Dick Russel, Jimmy Byrnes or Harry Byrd. Those men are statesmen with the kind of qualities we want to see in the White House.

If the South wants to serve its best interest, however, it should pass up even those men in favor of Taft or Eisenhower. Either of them, like the others, is an excellent man for the job, and the South's support for either of them would serve to notify both parties that we can and will retaliate for any future disrespect.

Just now there is a lot of hulahalo over the Taft-Eisenhower race for the nomination. We hear that Bob is a clear thinking, honest, courageous man with the other qualities of a fine executive, but he doesn't have enough public appeal to

A project which may prove to be of great benefit to Cooke county farmers during the ensuing years is now taking shape on the Adolph Fuhrmann farm at Lindsay.

Under the direction of C. O. Spence, assistant agronomist with the Denton Experiment station, a widespread crop demonstration program is being laid out on the Fuhrmann farm.

Recognized as one of the outstanding farmers in the area, Fuhrmann was honored by the County Agriculture club last fall by being named to serve as demonstrator for the county.

The demonstration work is entirely on economic crops, including legumes, pastures and field crops, with particular emphasis on wheat and oats.

Spence said that the purpose of the demonstration farm is to attempt to find better ways of growing crops suited to this particular area. It is a cooperative program worked out between the Texas A&M College Extension service and the Denton experiment station to conduct experiments on a practical basis that can readily be adopted by the average farmer. The five counties—Cooke, Denton, Grayson, Fannin and Collin—comprising district 4 are participating in the demonstrations.

Fuhrmann is running tests on several varieties of wheat and oats and is using several different types of fertilizers in order to determine the response of each grain variety to the different fertilizer combinations.

Mrs. Dick Trachta is back at home since Friday recovering normally from an operation performed at Gainesville Sanitarium.

FEEDING TIME AT OAK RIDGE — A workman places an aluminum-jacketed uranium slug in a fuel channel opening of one of the graphite reactors that make up the atomic pile at Oak Ridge, Tenn. The natural uranium slugs, like the one being inserted above, weigh 2.57 pounds each and are four inches long.

Yoder Recommends Native Grasses To Marysville Group

Emmitt Yoder of the Muenster Soil Conservation Service was a guest speaker at the meeting of the Marysville Progress Club Thursday night. His subject, "Soil and Water Conservation," dealt principally with grasses of this area and he illustrated his talk with slides. Lee Toothaker, also of the Muenster office, was a guest.

Mrs. Buford Whitt, chairman, presided during a short business session and committee chairmen gave their reports.

During the social hour that followed business a new ping pong table was the center of attraction for the young people.

Hostesses for the evening served coffee and cake to about 50 persons.

Seniors, Juniors at MHS Select Plays

Selections for this year's class plays were announced this week by both the Junior and Senior classes of Muenster High school.

Juniors will present "Desperate Ambrose" under the direction of Mrs. Johann Bezner in late February or early March. Seniors, directed by Mrs. Frances Mitchell, will present "Here Comes Charlie" in the latter part of April. The cast of characters for both plays is incomplete at this writing.

CLEAN MUSIC — The music goes 'round and 'round when Helmut Finke turns on his vacuum cleaner, that is the one attached to his accordion. The 40-year-old musician who lives in the American sector of Berlin got tired of all the bellows-pushing, so he rigged up a vacuum cleaner attachment to furnish the air.

Sheep Bought For Stockers Must Be Dipped and Marked

On and after Feb. 4 sheep purchased at auction sales and public stockyards in Texas will have to be dipped and marked before they can be returned to a range. Sheep taken to a slaughterhouse are marked to indicate they have not been dipped.

The new livestock regulation, identified as the Governor's Proclamation No. 35, was announced here last week by Almon Smith of Jacksboro, inspector for the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas. The purpose is to prevent the spread of infection, particularly scabs.

Green markings on different parts of the body will indicate dates on which sheep were dipped. A red mark on the loin will show that the animal is to be slaughtered.

Locally the new regulation results only in a decision to quit handling sheep. Dick Cain, owner of the local auction sale, said that the number of sheep sold here does not justify the expense of building a dipping vat nor the time and trouble to dip and mark the animals.

Twenty Boy Scouts Pass Review Board

Twenty boys of the local scout troop passed a board of review Monday night during the weekly meeting. They had previously been passed by Scoutmaster Nick Miller and by passing Monday became eligible for the trip to Fort Worth next Sunday to see the Stock Show and rodeo.

Eleven more scouts will go before the board before Friday so they, too, may make the trip.

Monday night's board of review consisted of Committee-men Andrew Schoech, Oscar Walter, Andy Hofbauer and Frank Bayer.

During the meeting Ted Henschel advanced from tenderfoot status into second class scouter.

FFA Class Plants Shrubs at School

Additional landscaping completed last week at the Muenster public school consists of seventeen shrubs in bus driveway circle at the west end of the building.

The shrubs, given by Mrs. T. S. Myrick, were taken from the Myrick yard and transplanted by the Future Farmers class under the direction of Ralph Maglaughlin. Afterwards the boys worked the soil and added fertilizer at other shrubs on the ground.

Bandit Slugs And Robs Joe Kathman Escapes with $100

Joe Kathman was slugged and robbed of about $100 in cash by a masked bandit shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday night.

Kathman said the holdup occurred just outside the back door of Gus Stelzer's domino hall after he had closed the place and was taking the cash to Stelzer's home. As he stepped outside the lone bandit confronted him and demanded the cigar box in which Kathman was carrying the money.

When Kathman hesitated the bandit slugged him on the head with his gun. Kathman slumped to the ground still holding the box under his arm and the bandit gave him a vicious kick in the back before reaching down and taking the box. He remembers the man rushing away just before he blacked out. He estimates that it was only a few minutes until he recovered.

Kathman was up and around Wednesday but complained of soreness in his back where he had been kicked. He said the gash caused by the blow on his head did not hurt badly. Apparently he had been struck by a sharp edge of the weapon. It cut a hole in his felt hat before cutting the scalp.

The bandit passed up an opportunity, however. He overlooked his victim's billfold containing about $50.

Cagers Play Here Friday and Tuesday

Games here Friday and Tuesday night will end the local cage teams' double round robin schedule of conference basketball. Forestburg will play Friday and Saint Jo will play Tuesday.

For the boys prospects for a win are dim in both games. Forestburg and Saint Jo, with top heavy wins in the previous games are long odds favorites to keep Muenster in the cellar.

The girls, however, will be fighting for a better place. To date they have beat Callisburg twice and Saint Jo once and lost to Prairie Valley twice and Forestburg once. A win will cinch third place standing and two wins will tie them for second place.

In last Thursday's games at Prairie Valley Muenster lost both games. The boys were swamped 69-27 but the girls played a hot game and lost 22-18. At the end of the third quarter the count was 15-15. Jeanette Fisher led the local scoring with 10 points.

In a game here Friday Muenster Juniors defeated the Woodbine Juniors 27-10. Wallace Dougherty accounted for 16 of the points.

hand, will be expanded next year to drill plots using nitrogen, phosphate and potash, singularly and in all combinations as fertilizer. Phosphate and potash were applied at planting time and nitrogen will be added this spring.

Three years of testing are required before recommendations will be made on types of seed and fertilizer. If definite patterns develop at the end of that time, the demonstrators feel that they can issue fairly reliable recommendations to area farmers.

Fuhrmann is also conducting a test on legume crops, using phosphate under Dixie Wonder peas and Hairy Vetch. The phosphate is being applied at the rate of 200 pounds and 400 pounds per acre under both crops. He plans to begin a test on cotton and corn later this spring.

Spence and County Agent B. T. Haws are enthusiastic about the possibilities of the demonstrations and expect them to be of material benefit to area farmers and landowners.

A field day is being planned for the spring with several hundred county farmers expected to visit the Fuhrmann farm and view preliminary results of the demonstrations.

Mrs. Herbert McDaniel and Mrs. William Bergman were in Ardmore Wednesday for the dedication of the new St. Mary's Catholic Church. Former home folks they saw there are the Adolph Herra, Bob Swirczynskis and Tom Hennigans, all of Wilson, Okla.

THE EAGLE & THE OYSTER

When God made the oyster, He guaranteed him absolute economic and social security. He built the oyster a house, a shell, to protect him from his enemies. When hungry, the oyster simply opens his shell and food rushes in for him.

But when God made the eagle, He said, "The blue sky is the limit. Go build you own house," and the eagle built on the highest mountain crag, where storms threaten him every day. For food he flies through miles of rain, snow and wind.

The eagle, not the oyster, is the emblem of America.

REUNION ON ANNIVERSARY HONORS THE J. H. OTTOS

The 46th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Otto provided the occasion for the annual reunion of members of the family. Children and grandchildren gathered at the Otto home for games, visiting and refreshments.

Observance of the anniversary is a treasured tradition with the family. Each year the children and grandchildren plan a surprise party sometime around the date. The only surprise to the honorees is the actual observance. This year the reunion was held on Wednesday, Jan. 23, the exact date.

All of the family were present except one daughter, Lorraine Otto of Amarillo, and one granddaughter, Florence Fette of Dallas. A grandson, Glenn Hellman of Commerce, was here for the occasion.

The American Way By George Peck Clergy Challenged

It is unfortunate that the "Brass Hats" of the National Council of Churches create the impression that the majority of Protestant ministers are opposed to our American Capitalistic System. Such is not the case. A poll recently made by the American Institute of Public Opinion reveals that the vast majority of clergymen believe in, and are prepared to defend, our American system.

The sad thing is that the general public is not aware of this. The noisy minority in the National Council of Churches is the voice the citizens hear. And that voice rants against business profits, which constitute the keystone of our American Capitalistic System. This minority would have us believe that there is something sinister and ignoble about the profit motive and that it is incompatible with Christianity.

How wrong this noisy minority is! More than any other economic system, our Capitalistic System is in conformity with Christian principles. It is the one system that recognizes the worth and dignity of the individual, which Jesus Christ taught by word and example.

Moreover, capitalism gave the individual his first real opportunity. It released him from bondage and enabled him to live his own life, express his thoughts and to worship according to the dictates of his conscience. This was aptly expressed by Dr. Harold R. Husted, Minister of the First Baptist Church of Plainfield, N. J., when he said:

"The more your government attempts to control the economy, the more it must attempt to control the actions of individuals and take away their freedom. It is not more government in business that we need, but more moral integrity, honesty, unselfishness and the spirit of brotherhood in the lives of the citizens who are the foundation of this democratic land. Christianity and our economy, based upon free enterprise, are inseparable."

From time to time, I receive letters from readers of my column expressing the opinion that clergymen have no business to engage in politics and to take a stand either pro or con regarding our economic system. To deny a "man-of-the-cloth" the right to engage in politics is virtually to take away his American citizenship, surely too great a sacrifice to ask, even of a minister.

As to a minister not expressing his opinion regarding our economic system, that is sheer nonsense. As a spiritual leader, he has an obligation to do so. The churches should be concerned about the survival of our Capitalistic System. Its destruction would bring about some form of totalitarianism, which would recognize no moral law. Churches would be under attack, and ultimately freedom of worship forbidden. We Americans would find ourselves in the untenable position of being forced to worship the State and a handful of powerful bureaucrats at its helm.

A minority of ministers, concerned that there is still some poverty and distress in America — the world's most prosperous nation — have fallen for the humanitarian promises of the Collectivists. They have been fooled by these false and illusionary promises. They do not realize that a collectivist society has never worked because it has a crippling effect upon individual initiative. They do not know that under Socialism the end result is simply a distribution of poverty, while on the other hand, the objective of our American Capitalistic System is to raise everybody's living standards by producing more at less cost.

Therefore, the majority of our clergy whose thinking has not been warped by the Utopian preachments of the Collectivists, not only have every right to bespeak themselves, in fact, it is their Christian obligation to do so. The chips are down. The battle is joined between Christianity and godless totalitarianism. Can a clergyman have any choice between these two ideologies?

THE MEAN AND THE GOOD

For one mean mother-in-law, there are 10,000 wonderful women being real mothers to their in-law sons and daughters. For one talkative barber, there are at least hundreds who have very little conversation. For one stingy Scotchman, there are a —well, dozens who open their purses as easily as anybody else. And for every cold-hearted banker, there is another who says no in a sympathetic tone of voice. — Kingsport (Tenn.) Times.

It's Slim's For An "Honest" Meal

Most people thought Slim Benson would probably go broke when he first started his system of letting customers figure out their own checks over at his big diner on the highway.

Slim trusts them to pay for as much as they eat—you simply tell Sally, his cashier, the amount of your bill. It works, too. Take the other day when Buck Harris told Sally his bill was 35¢.

Now I was right there with Buck and I knew all he had was coffee and pie which comes to a quarter. "How come thirty-five cents?" I asked Buck. "Had an extra cup of java the other day, Joe, and forgot all about it—'til now," he says.

From where I sit, most people are basically honest — and that goes for their opinions, too, even though they may be different than our own. I like a glass of beer with my dinner; you may prefer something else... but we all ought to be allowed to "figure it out" ourselves.

"Dad, what is heredity?"

The Human Heart Always Craves Security

A YOUNG SOLDIER in the last war was fatally wounded on a grimy battlefield in Italy. When his hometown pal — also wounded but not so seriously — turned him over, the dying soldier said: "Jack, tell Mom I said So Long, tell Helen I love her, and now get that little black prayerbook from my pocket and help me to pray."

There was a secure man — a man utterly ready and willing to go back to the God Who made him, because he was a man of prayer, a man without fear, a man whose habit was to serve God every day and talk to Him with confidence and love.

We men are constantly thinking about security. We're constantly seeking security — security from fear and catastrophe, from loss of life and all that is dear to us. We're forever seeking safety.

WOULD TO God that we thought occasionally about our eternal security.

We all believe that God has made us, and has made us to know, love, and serve Him in this life that we might be happy with Him in the next. This next life can be ours, we realize, on only one condition: namely that we love God with all our mind, heart, and strength and prove that love by keeping His commandments.

Sometimes we go to a doctor to get injections that will provide security against smallpox, or security against tetanus, or security against hay fever.

But what injections do we take to provide security against the loss of the next life with God? What injections are we taking to keep ourselves unspotted by the infection of sin?

No protection can compare with the simple weapon of ceaseless prayer. For prayer lifts our mind and heart to God. Prayer is the constant service and language of a soul in love with its God.

OUR PRAYER is God's weakness. "You shall pray to Me," God says, "and I will hear you. You shall seek Me, and shall find Me, when you shall seek Me with all your heart." Is it any wonder that Our Divine Lord counsels us "always to pray and not to faint."

It is remarkable how easy God makes it for us to pray and to pray divinely well! He sets up His kingdom within us. He makes our body His very temple. He gives us His own Holy Spirit, and "the Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; when we do not know what prayer to offer, to pray as we ought, the Spirit himself intercedes for us."

HOWEVER STRONG our spiritual enemies may be, we are never to be afraid. Jesus Christ offers all the help we need. He offers us perfect security. To obtain this security, we have only to pray.

"And I say to you, ask and it shall be given to you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened to you." — by Rev. Frank Gartland.

Yes... The Mother of God WILL Help You!

You may not approve of the age-old Catholic devotion to the Blessed Virgin.

Perhaps you have heard — and believed — that this is "un-Scriptural"... that Catholics are trying to establish Mary as a divine person equal in power to God.

But if you will look at the facts, you will see that these things are not true... and you will realize that Mary can exert a wonderful influence in your personal life.

It certainly is not "un-Scriptural" to recognize that Mary is the Mother of Jesus Christ. If we are to be truly "Scriptural," we must further acknowledge that Christ is the eternal Son of the eternal Father — a Divine Person who assumed a human nature like ours in all things except sin. And while Mary did not give Jesus His divine nature, the Savior was her Son... as truly as anyone is the son of his own mother.

In view of these truths, how can anyone look upon Mary as just another woman, or just another mother? Why should we hesitate to honor one whom God so greatly honored... and upon whom He conferred a surpassing holiness and complete freedom from sin? Why should we believe that one so close to the Son of God in his earthly life is not close and dear to Him in His eternal Kingdom?

It is erroneous, of course, to think that Catholics worship Mary as a divine person. But we do love and venerate her for the unique place she occupies in God's plan for our salvation... for her intimate association with the all-holy Son of God... for her own holiness.

But, you may say — why should we pray to Mary when we can pray directly to God, as the Scriptures command? The answer is that Catholics do pray to God and they seek from Him grace and forgiveness — for these are blessings which only God can grant. But there is no law of God which commands us, when we go to Him in prayer... that we must go alone.

Like St. Paul, we believe in praying for others and having others pray for us. And whose prayers could find greater favor in the sight of God than those of the Mother of His Divine Son?

These are the chief reasons for the world-wide Catholic devotion to the Blessed Virgin. These are the reasons why millions of people, in every land and every language, are heard to pray:

"Hail, Mary, full of grace! the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou amongst women; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus."

Tries to Harness Sun Rays for Heat

AUSTIN, Texas — Economical heating for Southwestern homes and ranch buildings is a goal of new University of Texas experiments.

Burnett Forrest Treat, associate professor of mechanical engineering, has begun initial tests on the possibility of harnessing the sun's rays for heating.

If he is successful, structures can be warmed in certain ways for generations, with the only cost being the initial outlay for equipment. The theory is to gather heat from the sun during the day and use it to warm a structure at night or store it for warming during cold spells.

Solar heating offers particular advantages to ranchers whose property usually is far removed from conventional heat sources. Large barns and stock sheds could be heated economically and safely.

Children may tear up a house but they seldom break up a home.

A Banker Talks Back

A friend of the Sun editors, a banker, recently had a letter from a government official, asking him to buy government bonds himself and advise his clients to do the same. The banker, who has a mind of his own, replied:

DEAR SIR:

I have your letter of December 7th. This is my reply, and though I am sure you will ignore it, yet I challenge you to refute what I say.

How can you, in honesty, urge that anyone at this time buy U. S. bonds when you, as a student of economics and an accountant, know, by all trends and standards, and all past history, that by maturity they will likely not be worth enough to replace the paper on which they are now being printed?

You know, as well as I do, that this government is today utterly bankrupt — economically, politically and morally — and is absolutely devoid of leadership. Our Constitution has been violated by that little supine Pendergast henchman of most miserable stature, and in its stead and by his willy-nilly consent, there is being created a monstrous socialistic regime of most damnable and malicious design.

During the last war I borrowed money at high interest to enable me to buy and carry thrice my allotted quota of bonds, but should I do this today when the President of this nation has by speech and act, and venting of his spleen, proclaimed his intense hatred of the Southland, this state and our people? Should we of the South, who he has said he would like to see "crawling on their bellies" impoverish ourselves in order to give into his totally irresponsible hands money that will be squandered in no way other than to promote our misery? We are a proud people down here, and we don't crawl on our bellies for any man — certainly none of his calibre.

Can you, or do you, have any confidence in the continuing integrity and solvency of any government which has at its head one of Truman's shallow conception and callous indifference to our nation's present tragic state? Today, while America's finest youth fight and die and rot in filthy Korea—dying solely at Truman's behest — dying in a war entered into by him, without Congressional sanction, and in gross violation of the Constitution he gave oath he would uphold, we see him, Commander-in-Chief of all our armed forces, grinning from ear to ear like a silly Cheshire cat, gallivanting up and down the Florida beaches with his shirt tail flapping in the wind! God in Heaven forbid that any such man, political accident, calamity, or otherwise, with so little conception of duty, and so devoid of common decency — with no appreciation of and holding in such contempt and dignity the high office he occupies (and disgraces) may long be permitted to continue his debauchery of the government of public trust.

I'll suffer no one to question my patriotism, but neither will I permit anyone to beguile me, through false appeal to that patriotism, into doing that which I feel would but promote our whole undoing (the putting of additional funds into and strengthening designing hands which, with malice, will be turned against us) for to do so would make me, too, false to that which I love most — my country.

Sincerely yours,
(Name Withheld by Request)

Restoration of our once-sound dollar depends on the banks of this nation. Their securities are tied up in Government bonds; those of insurance companies are, to a large extent, also tied up in Government bonds. The bankers have the know-how: they should stand firm and united in a demand that we be given a sound dollar again. All of us will suffer together when the final crash comes, of course, if we continue on our present path. But an aggressive bankers' group could be doing much to restore to soundness what we have come to term our "rotten dollar."

Like our banker friend, we cannot be guilty of asking people to buy bonds, when we know with a dreadful certainty that the money will be wasted — just as the rest has been wasted. —Summit (Miss.) Sun.

Don't say the thing's impossible, The chances are you'll Rue it, Because some fool who Doesn't know Will come along and Do it.

Doc: "Did the medicine I gave your wife straighten her out?" Hubby: "Yes, I buried her yesterday."

Building And Improvement Notes

Foundation work was finished Tuesday for a home to be occupied about 30 days from now by Bill Drozd, shop foreman at Tractor Sales and Service. The old building on the lot south of the post office and another small building from the former public school ground will be joined on the foundation then repaired and remodeled. Until the job is finished Drozd will continue living in Gainesville. The location is the west end of the Tractor Sales and Service lot.

Alphonse Felderhoff's new home will be ready for occupancy in another week or two. A few more days of painting and floor finishing will complete the interior. A section of white stone for the outside now awaits the workmen.

Vincent Felderhoff's new home has reached the interior finishing stage. A sewer line extension to the place is now being installed by the city.

Norbert Klement has started a remodeling and repairing job on the home he bought a short time ago. It is the former Wieler Estate.

Edgar Klement is building a new Grade A dairy barn.

Hoelker Grocery at Lindsay Burglarized

Burglars Tuesday night entered the Hoelker Brothers Grocery at Lindsay and took an estimated $75 in cash and two cartons of cigarettes.

Apparently expert safe crackers, the thieves opened a floor safe without damaging it in any way and took $65 from it. The rest of their haul was in change taken from the cash register.

The burglars entered the store by forcing the front door with a bar.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: T. M. Taylor, Defendant.

Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable Sixteenth District Court of Cooke County at the Court House thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 25th of February A. D. 1952, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 7th day of December A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 19028 on the docket of said court and styled Florence Blackwell Plaintiff, vs. T. M. Taylor Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:
Plaintiff and defendant were married in Cooke County, Texas, on the 20th day of August, 1951; plaintiff then believing herself to be a single woman. Prior to this alleged marriage, plaintiff was married to Marshal Blackwell, a divorce suit had been filed in the State of Oklahoma between plaintiff and Marshal Blackwell but the decree had not become final when plaintiff and defendant entered into a marriage relationship. When plaintiff learned that the decree of divorce between herself and Marshal Blackwell was not final, she separated from T. M. Taylor and has not lived with him as his wife since. Wherefore plaintiff prays that she have judgment holding null and void the purported marriage between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law or in equity to which she may be entitled, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.
Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Gainesville, Texas this 9th day of January A. D. 1952.

Lindsay News

Randy and Charlene Wimmer of Muenster spent Monday through Wednesday here with their grandparents, the Matt Neus.

Rev. Father Conrad, Lindsay pastor, is responding favorably to treatment in the hospital in Morrilton, Ark., where he is a patient. He expects to be back at his regular pastoral duties here in about two weeks. Since he has been away the pastors from Muenster have been helping in parish work during the week and the Rt. Rev. Abbot Paul Nahlen of Subiaco was here Saturday and Sunday in charge of services.

Eugene Block, member of Lindsay 4-H club, took honors as the second high individual scorer in the grass judging contest at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Saturday. He scored 205 points of a possible 242. Block was a member of the Cooke county judging team composed of five members. The other four boys were Robert Fuhrmann of Lindsay, Willard Zimmerer, Adam and Walter Wolf of Gainesville. The team did not place among top winner but young Block received a medal as an individual winner.

INVENTIONS that serve you

Charles P. Steinmetz

Immigration officers were dubious about admitting the weakened, deformed young man who had just arrived by steamer from Germany. They were finally persuaded to let him pass. That was in June 1889. Five years later, this same young man, Charles Proteus Steinmetz (1865-1923), had progressed from a $12-a-week job to chief engineer for the General Electric Co. He was in the forefront in solving many of the electrical problems of his time. His inventions brought him some 200 U. S. Patents.

PATENTS MAKE JOBS

Mrs. Fred Mosman who had been seriously ill in Gainesville Sanitarium for a week was permitted to return to her home Saturday. Cheering her with a weekend visit was her brother, Rev. Joseph Fuhrman of Corpus Christi, who said Mass in the Mosman home Sunday. Family members and other relatives attended the service. Among out of town relatives present were the Alfons Koeslers and the Tony Fuhrmans of Muenster. When Father Fuhrman left Monday to return to Corpus Christi he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fuhrman who took him in their car. Enroute home the Fuhrmans stopped at Giddings to visit her brother, Robert Kupper and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schmitz and children, Larry and Debra Ann, of Dallas visited his father, Theo Schmitz, Sunday and also enjoyed a visit with his sister, Mrs. Jake Horn and family of Windthorst who were guests in the Schmitz home.

Elrich Zwinggi who is employed at Love Field, Dallas, was here for a week end visit with his father, Leo Zwinggi.

Mrs. Frank Kuhn and daughter, Joan, and Mrs. Henry Kuhn, visited in Muenster Wednesday.

Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman of Muenster visited with Mrs. John Bezner Monday.

Henry Popp, Raymond Metzler and Junior Kuhn were in Fort Worth Wednesday to attend the Stock Show.

Seabee Weldon Bezner's new address is: Weldon W. Bezner CD3; N. C. B. 4 Co. A, c-o Fleet Post Office, New York, N. Y.

Relatives here learned this week of the death of Albert Earl Spaeth, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Spaeth of Austin, Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday in St. Anthony Church with the pastor, Rev. Victor Ralph officiating. Lindsay relatives of the little boy are members of the Spaeth, Kubis and Zimmerer families.

The Joe Bezner Jr. family will move soon from Gainesville to make their home in Lindsay in the former home of William Schmitz on Main street. The Henry Zimmerers who had been living there moved to the Zimmerer farm north of Lindsay and the Vincent Zimmerers who had been on the farm moved to a farm near Myra.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE HONORS MRS. ANNA WIESE

be elected. Ike too is a good man, they say, and he has the vote getting personality besides, but doesn't deserve the nomination because he declines to state what he stands for.

To yours truly it looks like the appraisal is a bit inadequate in either case. Taft proved in his 1950 senatorial race that he can get votes in spite of rough opposition. Eisenhower has made several speeches in recent years indicating his views on vital domestic issues. So it doesn't really make a great deal of difference which is nominated. Either can win, and either can be expected to do a good job.

However, there is one consideration that makes a difference as far as we Southerners are concerned. Whereas Bob is Mr. Republican, Ike might be called Mr. American. People who have been voting the straight ticket would be more likely to change for him than for Taft. He'd have a better chance of carrying the South. And it's important to Southern Welfare to let the nation know that our votes are no longer "in the bag."
