Extensive Damage Caused by Tornado North of Muenster

Regularly during past years this column has invited special attention to the significance of Holy Week, and many times it has felt that a mention of the subject was more appropriate than ever before. Year after year, it seems, this nominally Christian nation of ours seems to drift a little farther from the spirit of Holy Week, which, after all is the essence of Christianity and traditional Americanism.

Apparently this year is no exception. If we are to judge from the monotonously frequent exposures of graft and corruption, the stories of criminal and shabby personal behavior that make daily headlines, or even the petty bickerings and unkind things that happen among us every day, we can have little doubt that individually as well as collectively we are in sad need of a change in attitude. We need to develop a clearer understanding and more ardent appreciation of the fact that the First Good Friday is more than just another historical incident but an essential element in the Divine plan, of infinite importance to all men of all time.

The worldly wise scoff at these ideas. Smugly confident that they know plenty about running current affairs, they do not bother to look to a higher power for wisdom or inspiration. Some actually know better but conveniently disregard Divinely prescribed rules of life when it serves their selfish interest. According to their short-sighted notions they think they are getting along quite well without Christ and His standards. Either they are unaware or they ignore the fact that the Creator of human nature laid down the rules by which human beings can exist in peace and harmony. When men disregard those rules and live by rules of their own they cause the kind of troubles so many of us are deploring nowadays.

The sad results are apparent on every level of society, in every part of the world. On the international level we see entire nations in bondage, exploited by communists or by greedy power-mad governments that pretend to be Christian. Within the nation we find graft, corruption, exploitation, burdensome regulations, excessive taxation, and monotonously frequent violation of personal freedom or dignity. Among individuals we see cheating, falsehood, theft, murder, sex crimes, dope peddling . . . violations of all the laws in the book.

So far it seems that we little people aren't responsible for any of the woes of mankind. We're pointing the accusing finger at big time scoundrels and sensational sinners. But we don't have to think long to realize that we little people are responsible for a lot of grief in our own midst. And when we coldly analyze the trouble we see that every bit of grief is a result of some violation of Christ's code. For the moment let's forget about others and think only of ourselves.

Let's forget the big grafters and rate ourselves on honesty. Do we give an honest day's pay, or an honest day's work? Do we overcharge for service or merchandise? Do we sell a diseased calf for a good one or try to conceal the faults in our cars when we trade. Do we meet our obligations?

And how do we rate on tolerance or charity? Do we assume the other fellow is wicked when he disagrees with us? Do we spread vicious gossip about others? Do we help those who need help? Do we do our bit toward community welfare or balk when we see no advantage to ourselves?

These are only a few of the faults to look for. There are ever so many ways that we're failing to play fair with God and our fellow man. In our own little way we're as guilty as the worst of the big time scoundrels in bringing grief to the world and disappointment to the

The tornado which roared across the northern part of Montague and Cooke counties late last Thursday afternoon caused extensive damage but no personal injury in the area south of Marysville.

According to reports reaching the Enterprise trees were broken off or uprooted and a considerable number of buildings were destroyed or damaged.

The Don Cooke house about 8 miles north of Muenster was blown off its foundation. At Grady McElreath's, in the same area, the wind tore the roof off a barn and damaged three other buildings.

On the Buckner farm, formerly Trew's, a 60x70 barn was completely demolished. On the same farm an oil field power house operated by A. D. Walterscheid was torn down. Another power house was torn down at the Meador farm. Closer to Muenster, on the John Fette farm, a barn and other buildings were damaged but not seriously.

Telephone lines throughout that area were torn down by the storm and service was not fully restored until Saturday.

Similar damages were reported along a strip extended to Tyler Bluff in the northwest part of the county and from there westward as far as Ringgold.

The wind, traveling generally eastward apparently died out near Marysville. Reports are that trees and fence in a pasture leased by Jack Biffle and M. H. King in that area were badly beaten but little if any damage was done east of there. Hail accompanied the wind in the Caps Corner community and over a large part of Montague county.

Storm effects at Muenster were negligible. Several telephones were knocked out by lightning, but the wind, though blustery, was not strong enough to cause damage.

SHHS Red Sox Close Season with 2 Wins

The Red Sox basketball girls of Sacred Heart High took a double header from Gainesville High Monday night in the local gym. The scores were 63-24 for the regulars and 39-35 for the reserves. These games ended the basketball season.

Starting late this year, the girls nevertheless played 23 games. They won 10 and lost 13.

News of Sick And Injured

Henry Stelzer is still a patient in the MKT hospital in Denison but expects to be home for Easter. Twice before when he thought he would be dismissed his doctors refused to release him because his knee on which he had an operation has not completely healed. His wife visited with him Tuesday.

Martha Sue Meurer broke her right arm at the wrist Saturday when she jumped and fell during play at her home. The injury was placed in a cast at the local clinic.

Cecil Cain, who has been working for Wilde Drilling company in Denver City, came home Saturday and will not return until an injured finger permits him to resume work. He broke the middle finger of his right hand in an accident.

Mrs. John Meurer, who has been confined to bed since a recent fall, is showing improvement and feels well enough to be up in a chair a part of each day.

Walter Yosten was in Dallas Tuesday for an eye examination by specialists. His brother, Andy, and Joe Horn accompanied him.

Robert F. (Bob) Arnold, 49, of Gainesville, died Thursday, April 3, in a Dallas hospital following surgery for a brain tumor. He had been ill a week. Arnold was well known locally having worked in this area since 1947 for the Texas company in the production department.

Funeral services were held in Gainesville Saturday in the First Baptist church with Rev. R. C. Campbell officiating. Burial was in Fairview cemetery.

Arnold was a native of Gran- nis, Ark., and came to Texas in 1921. He moved to Gainesville from Nocona in 1947.

Survivors are his wife and a daughter, Peggy, of Gainesville; another daughter, Mrs. S. C. Francis of Wichita Falls; two sons, Capt. Robert Arnold in the army at Charlottesville, Va., and Conrad who is attending naval officer candidate school in Connecticut; four grandchildren, his mother, and three sisters.

Winners Named In Boy Scout Project

Twenty-seven bird houses made by local boy scouts were on display during Monday night's meeting of the troop and were judged for cash awards and ribbons.

Larry Hofbauer's entry of Dutch design won the first prize of $1.50 and a blue ribbon; Dan Hamric's won second place, $1.00 and a red ribbon, and David Walter's won third, .50, and a white ribbon. While not a prize winner, Joseph Felderhoff's entry was classed as the most original. It is carved from a tree stump.

John Hacker and John Tempel served as judges.

The houses are now on display in the bank where they may be seen by anyone interested.

Biffle Re-elected To County Board

In spite of a strong majority given him by Muenster voters, Earl Robison lost to J. G. Biffle in last Saturday's election of a trustee at large on the county school board.

Incomplete returns Monday, with one small district of the county not reported, showed Biffle leading 832 to 612, an advantage which could not possibly be overcome in the final return.

Muenster turned out 390 strong for the election, giving 369 votes to Robison and 19 to Biffle. Two mutilated ballots were not included in the tally. The Callisburg district also favored Robison but all other districts of the county favored Biffle by strong majorities.

In the vote for members on the local school board Arthur Hellman, Tony Walterscheid and Norbert Klement were elected without a contest. Theirs were the only names on the ballot and there were no write-ins.

Veterans Consider Memorial Service And Park Project

Installation ceremonies and preliminary plans for memorial service and park renovation took up most of the business session of the VFW meeting Tuesday night.

Past Commander Pat Hennigan officiated at the installation of officers elected in last month's regular meeting.

Regarding memorial service the veterans decided to conduct the affair jointly with the VFW Auxiliary and set the date for May 25, the Sunday preceding Memorial Day. In keeping with a custom of past years, the pastors and congregation of Sacred Heart Church will be invited to participate.

The park project will consist of general maintenance to keep the place attractive as a picnic ground through the warm weather.

Saint Jo Defeats Muenster in Track And Literary Meet

Slightly behind schedule but successfully, Muenster completed its Red Cross drive this week. E. S. Lawson, community chairman, reported Wednesday morning that the quota of $555 had been topped by $13.

Discovering after a deposit Tuesday that the fund was still about $15 short of the goal Lawson made a short final drive to complete the figure. A few minutes after reaching the goal he received another dollar from a contributor not contacted before.

Shortly afterward he sent a check for $556 to county Red Cross headquarters at Gainesville.

Wednesday Lawson had another pleasant surprise. One of his workers, who had not made (Continued on Page 10)

4 Teachers Resign, Others Get Board's Okay for Next Year

All but four teachers of the Muenster public school will be retained on the faculty for the 1952-53 school year. They were approved Monday night in the first meeting of the new school board.

No action was taken, however, toward replacing the four teachers who have resigned. Superintendent Weldon Cowan revealed that the trustees are considering applicants for a coach to succeed Doyle Hood, who has accepted the job as head coach at Henrietta High and expect to make a decision soon, but they have no applicants to succeed Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Gladys Ashlock nor Mrs. Johann Beizer.

Miss Della Herr, bride-elect of Denis Walterscheid, was complimented with a gift party Sunday afternoon in the R. R. Endres home with Miss Floradell Endres and Mrs. Ed Schneider as co-hostesses.

Sixteen friends of the bride-to-be, her mother, Mrs. Frank Herr, and the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid, were guests.

The hostesses served refreshments of fruit jello topped with whipped cream, cake and coffee, after the honoree opened and displayed her shower gifts. The gift table was covered with a beautiful cloth, a gift to Miss Endres from Japan.

Loose Spending Cripples Progress

With very little assistance from the Federal government, the United States made tremendous progress during the half century from 1850 to 1900. There were some depressions and hardships but these conditions only temporarily slowed down the dynamic power of private enterprise with its incentives and competitive market system. During the 50 years preceding 1900, the Federal government was hardly noticeable; it scarcely touched the lives of businessmen and employees, housewives, doctors, lawyers, and candlestick makers. The citizenry as a whole was law abiding and possessed of high moral integrity.

The relationship existing between the Federal government and the states and citizens in 1900 might be likened to the relationship that exists today in many nationwide service organizations. For instance, a local civic club — Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary — holds membership in a national organization. There is a national headquarters. But it is far away and participates scarcely at all in the local club's affairs.

LOCAL INDEPENDENCE

The local civic club subscribes to the principles set forth in the national charter of its organization, occasionally getting one of its members elected to a national office, sends two or three members to the organization's national convention, and levies an assessment of $2 or $3 a year on each member to defray the cost of operating the national headquarters. Otherwise, the local club runs its own business, hardly aware of the existence of the national headquarters. That's about the kind of relationship our citizens and states had with their Federal government 50 years ago.

In 1900, members of the civic club "U. S. A." — the American citizens — were paying an average of only $3.88 each in taxes per year to defray the total cost of operating the Federal government. A family of five thus was paying an average of $19.40 a year in all forms of Federal taxes. Today that's hard to believe. On the basis of the present Federal budget, the bite placed on each citizen is averaging $477 a year; and a family of five, $2,375. That's an increase since 1900 of 12,200 per cent in the cost of Federal government to the individual citizen!

SMALL GOVERNMENT

In 1900, after a period of the greatest economic progress a people had ever known, the nation's debt was only $1,263,000,000, amounting to a mere $15 per person for the 76,000,000 population of that day, or $75 for a family of five. Thus, in these 1900 figures on per capita debt ($15) and cost of government ($3.88 a year), we see that the activities of the Federal government were small, an insignificant factor in national progress. A growing nation, a progressing nation was scarcely aware of the existence of a Federal government. That's an important fact to remember.

In contrast today, our Federal government is a great sprawling, dominating bureaucracy — interceding in everybody's business, it seems; getting in everybody's hair; holding a hand in everybody's pocketbook; smothering out local self-government and citizen independence. In 50 years we have gone a long way into government regimentation bit by bit. As a people, we have made economic progress but the sound portion of this progress has been made in spite of and not because of the growth and big spending of the Federal government.

Hope Re-born

FUTURE IN JEOPARDY

Today our future economic progress is seriously jeopardized. With the expenditure of the present 1952 budget of $71,594,000,000, the national debt will be $260,222,000,000, averaging $1,733 per person. When we consider this together with the average yearly tax of $477 per person, we see in true light how the present income and future income of every family is being crippled by big spending government.

It is true, of course, that quite a bit of the spending in recent years has been due to war and the threat of war. It is also true that dishonesty, graft and waste on a huge scale has been uncovered. The fact is apparent that with honesty, good management and common sense in handling of public funds the proposed budget could be cut in half. We, as citizens, must take action to curb the power and wasteful spending of the Federal government — as a measure of self preservation.

Easter Resurrection Is Man's Supreme Hope

THE EASTER Resurrection is man's greatest reason for hope. It is proof that Christ has won for us the final victory over sin and death.

"For the worst thing that sin could do," writes Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, "is not to bomb cities and kill a fellow-man; it is to crucify God. Having done this and lost, it would never do anything as bad again. Having been conquered at its strongest point, evil must now remain eternally defeated."

It seemed that the forces of darkness had forever conquered when they unnailed the lifeless body of Jesus Christ. The light of hope flickered and died in the eyes of the men who silently buried the Divine Master. And when they rolled the stone across the entrance of the tomb, they may have whispered to themselves, "sin and death, you have won even over Jesus Christ."

EVIL RULES, so let men make ready to despair. There is to be no consideration for mercy, or compassion, or love, or justice, or goodness; no place for the noble strength of manly purity or the beauty of womanly virtue, for sin has become the world's master, and when sin is in power men must live like animals if they are to survive.

Death is pagan. It is no more than the enemy of mortal life and pleasure, and in the end it will destroy us all. Death cannot be the gateway to the kingdom of heaven as Christ had taught, for see! even He has been conquered by it.

St. Paul did well to write, "If Christ be not risen again, then your faith is in vain, for you are yet in your sins." BUT CHRIST IS risen! Our faith is not in vain! Sin and death, the two basic causes of all the world's deepest miseries, are humbled, hurled to the ground with His Resurrection. The victory is not sin's, but Christ's, and because it is Christ's it is ours also.

Let the godless fill the world with hate and persecution and blasphemy and lust and the unnatural sins. But when the godless think they rule, watch God overthrow sin almost with the twinkling of an eye or the lifting of a finger, as effortlessly as He came forth when the tomb was closed, sealed and guarded with the arms of soldiers.

LET THE GODLESS try to destroy the Church. They may succeed for a time in driving her back into the caves and tombs. But like her Divine Founder, the Church will rise more glorious than the blazing dawn of the first Easter morning.

Let the godless destroy our bodies with fire and atomic weapons. Our souls they cannot touch. They live eternally. And even the bodies the godless destroy, Christ will one day raise up from the dead.

Yes, Christ's victory over sin and death passes through Him to us.

HE WHO PAYS the supreme price of sharing Christ's sufferings on Good Friday will receive as the supreme reward of Easter Sunday his own glorious victory over sin and death.

This is reason sufficient for men never to lose hope.—by Alvin Illig.

My new ELECTRIC RANGE is the talk of the Neighborhood!

I enjoy cooking... and my friends seem to think my special dishes are pretty delicious. Since I have a new electric range, I've gotten more compliments than ever before! I'm also a happier cook. That's because cooking electrically is a small matter of pushing a button or turning a switch. Thermostatic temperature controls maintain the exact heat required, so you can depend on getting delicious results every time. An automatic oven time-clock takes over the tiresome watching and waiting. You prepare your favorite recipe... place it in the oven... set the time-clock for "heat-on," "heat-off" and go your merry way. No wonder so many of my friends are changing to electric cooking.

REDDY SAYS: There's a size and a style to fit your budget. See the new electric ranges at your appliance dealer's today.

CHRYSLER FirePower

is so much more than HORSEPOWER

- + It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new... the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that...
- + FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed...
- + FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work... the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command...
- + Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

SCOUTS TO HAVE CABIN ON DANGLMAYR RANCH

Local boy scouts will eventually have a cabin of their own. They will work-over an old school bus body, attach a lean-to, and fix it up for scouting purposes. It will be located on the Danglermayr ranch southwest of town.

First part of the work was completed this week when Scoutmaster Nick Miller, assisted by Committeemen Ben Seyler, Oscar Walter and Andy Schoech, moved the bus body to the ranch.

The boys will use their spare time getting it fixed up for use next winter.

Soil Conservation Notes

Winter cover crops of vetch and rye are making the cash register ring on some of the farms and ranches in the Muenster area of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district, according to R. M. Harvill who operates the J. B. Harvill ranch near Hardy. His 30 acres of vetch and rye is saving him at least $10 per day on feed bills and he has his two herds to prove his point.

The Harvills have 62 head of cattle on upland pasture and 60 head (48 cows and 12 calves) on the 30 acres of vetch and rye with access to upland pasture. The cows on the upland pasture receive 4 pounds of cottonseed cake per day. The herd on the vetch receives no additional feed, yet these animals are in better shape than the others.

As Harvill pointed out, "The cows on vetch look like they are ready to go into a winter instead of just coming out of one." The cows have been on vetch and rye since last November with the exception of February when they were shut out to allow the vetch to make more growth. During November and December the herd on vetch was fed a ration of two pounds of cake a day.

A little pencil work in comparing the savings the vetch has given on the feeding costs of these two herds shows a savings of $5 per day during November and December, or $300. And a savings of $10 per day during March or $310. So by having this soil improving cover crop Harvill has saved $610 for those three months, a savings of more than $30 per acre. In addition he still has the vetch to graze or to hold for a seed crop. He has cows that are in excellent condition as a result of the high protein green winter pasture and he has protected and enriched his soil by growing a legume on it.

Around Muenster, district co-operators are still making progress on getting waterways sodded to Bermuda grass. This week Al and Tony Hesse put roots in a waterway on the east side of their farm.

Al Kleiss sodded two waterways on his farm south of Muenster and Joe Mages sodded the sides of a natural drain that bisects his east field. All the waterways will serve as safe outlets for terraces that will protect cultivated fields from erosion. The district-owned sprigging machine was used to plant the Bermuda roots and Soil Conservation Service personnel assisted in the operations. Ray Sicking has just completed 2341 feet of field terrace on his farm five miles east of Muenster. He built the terraces with farm equipment and used the island method of terrace construction.

The terraces empty into a waterway sodded two years ago. Ray has gone a step farther toward completion of his complete soil conservation plan for the farm by construction of terraces and by sowing Madrid sweet clover on part of his cultivated land and by overseeding his pasture to this soil building plant.

B. C. Rosson of Myra has just completed construction of two diversion terraces that will keep damaging hill water off of two fields on the farm he operates two miles southeast of Myra.

Pupils of the parochial school have been conducting a campaign for funds to be added to the Bishops' drive to aid war sufferers.

More than two hundred dollars has been contributed by the students and with another week of the drive remaining the fund will rise still higher, the pupils believe.

High score rooms are: Room VII, $46 (6th grade); Room IX $38 (7th grade); Room VIII, $20 (5th grade).

500 See County's Top Dairy Animals At Dairy Day Show

A crowd of about 500 persons attended the annual Cooke County Dairy Classification day Friday at Gainesville Fair Park and saw one of the outstanding dairy animal shows ever held in the area.

Though the list fell below the original record-breaking entry of 105, the 87 animals shown were of top quality.

Breed championships for dairy cows were awarded to the following from Muenster:

Ernest Bayer, Holstein; C. A. Fisher, Guernsey; Donald Bayer, Brown Swiss.

James Hess won a breed championship for bulls on a Shorthorn.

Ribbon winners in various divisions of the show were classified instead of being judged against each other for places. Prize money was $4.80 for a purple ribbon winner; $3.60 for blue; $2.40 for red; $1.20 for white.

Muenster persons winning ribbons in the show were:

James Hess, red, on a bull in the 6-12 months age group, any breed.

Ernest Bayer, Donald Bayer, William Fisher, blue, on heifers, 6-12 months, any breed.

Bayer Brothers, Sylvan Walterscheid, Ernest Bayer, Paul Fisher, Paul Fleitman, red, and Alfred Bayer, white, in the same group.

Paul Fisher and C. A. Fisher, blue, in the heifer class, 12-18, any breed. Donald Bayer and Danny Bayer, white, in the same class.

C. A. Fisher, red, in the heifer class, 18 months to two years old, and J. W. Fleitman, red, on a cow in the 2-3 year old group, any breed.

Winners in the classification contest included J. W. Fleitman, first, $7, in the men's division; C. A. Fisher, fourth, $2.50; and Alfred Bayer, fifth, $2.

A highlight of the show was a special exhibition of artificially bred heifers. It was the first time that a show of these animals was held in the county.

Five prizes in the show went to Muenster members of the county ABA, as follows:

First, Bayer Brothers; second, Paul Fisher; third, Bayer Brothers in the 6-12 month age group; and first, Paul Fisher; second, C. A. Fisher in the one year and over age group.

Among other winners in the show were former Muenster residents, Toney Nehib of Gainesville, a blue and two red ribbons, and Peter Prescher of Gainesville, a red ribbon, on heifers, 6-12 months, any breed; and Leo Hoedebeck of Gainesville, red, in the heifer class, 12-18, any breed. Mrs. Toney Nehib was third place winner in the women's division of the classification contest and received $3.50. Nehib also won a white ribbon on a bull in the 6-12 group, and Arnold Friske won a red ribbon on a bull in the 1-2 year age group.

Heart Pumps 2,500 Gallons Every Day

AUSTIN, TEXAS—Pumping 2,500 gallons of blood every 24 hours is the astonishing work done by the heart, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The heart is about the size of a man's fist and is rated at 1.240th of a horse power; it never sleeps, loafs or takes a vacation from the beginning of life to the end. The only rest it gets is between beats. Yet with all the heart has to do it does not give suddenly unless it has been injured or ill-treated.

Under pressure of work the average person neglects his heart and unwittingly abuses it. The chief causes of heart trouble, aside from the deterioration of old age, are rheumatic fever, acute infectious diseases, chronic infections, syphilis, too abrupt return to activity after a serious illness, too strenuous exercise and overweight may be a factor.

Many of the signs which you may think mean heart trouble can be caused by some other disorder. Indigestion, lung trouble, or nervousness may cause pain near the heart, shortness of breath, fainting and irregularity of beat. If you have any of these symptoms, do not try to diagnose the condition yourself, but go to your doctor for an examination. He will be able to find out what is wrong and may tell you that your heart is sound. Have a regular periodic examination and follow your doctor's advice.

Regimentation
"But, look, Sarg," argued the buck private. "I'm here just for some headache pills. I don't have to take off my clothes for that." "Strip down and get in line," bawled the sergeant. The private obeyed, but kept on grumbling. Finally, the fussy-faced kid in front of him turned around and asked, "What are you kicking about, I only came here to deliver a telegram!"

Savior who did so much to put us on the right track.

Good Friday is a good day to reflect on such things. It's well for us to realize that Christ deserves better cooperation from us. It's also well for us to understand that His way is the only way to run the world smoothly. It would be a glorious Easter indeed if the whole world observed Good Friday by turning toward Calvary. By the same token our little corner of the world will be better if we seek our inspiration at the Cross.

Krum Hi Ball Team Wallops MHS 14 to 3

Muenster High's standing in district baseball took another drop Monday when the boys lost 13-4 to Krum on the local diamond.

Lack of relief on the mound accounted for most of the local team's trouble. The score was tight until the visitors started pounding Wendell Richey's pitching in the fifth. Alvin Fleitman, the team's only relief pitcher failed to stop the hitting spree.

Miss Dolly Lehnertz and a girl friend from McKinney spent Monday here with the former's parents and family.
