WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Sudden death less than a week ago marked the end of a distinguished career in Muenster, and it also marked the beginning of a cherished memory.

Just a few days ago Ben Seyler was still with us, hustling about his business and the many other activities to which he gave so freely of his time and energy. Then came that heart attack. Ben died as he had lived . . . in a hurry.

As Muenster recovered from the shock of the sad news it began to realize that it had lost not only a fellow citizen and friend, but a civic leader, an ardent worker for community welfare and progress, and a generous helper.

Ben was an integral part of Muenster and contributed far more than his share in its development. When the city first considered a volunteer fire department it was he who rigged up the equipment and served as the first fire chief. He served two terms as mayor, including the period when the sewer was installed, and three terms as a member of the city council. In fact there has hardly been a time during the past 20 years when he was not serving at one or more jobs in local civic circles. At the time of his death Ben was serving on the city council, the county school board and the Boy Scout committee.

Along with such jobs Ben did more than his part as an individual. He cooperated in every civic improvement, gave generously in all charitable drives, provided transportation for Boy Scouts and school children to special events, did countless personal favors for his friends and neighbors. He was outstanding as a useful, progressive citizen and also as a good neighbor. The record of his service stands as an inspiration to everyone who wishes to make this a more beautiful, more prosperous and happier community.

If there is to be an appraisal of the vote winning appeal in this campaign's political speeches it can very possibly develop that Senator Dick Nixon's message of Tuesday night will be judged the winner. As an honest, straightforward refutation of a shameful smear, the talk was a masterpiece. It is doubtful any straight thinking person could have heard the senator and not agree that he has satisfactorily and completely debunked the charge that he was guilty of violating the law or basic standards of honesty.

The speech was all the more a triumph because it not only presents a praiseworthy account of his record but also exposes the hypocrites who pointed an accusing finger at him . . . without sufficient proof for their charges . . . while failing to admit similar behavior in their own party.

After all, it is rather ridiculous, isn't it?, to say that Nixon is a stinker without admitting at the same time that Stevenson is just as smelly. They both used a special fund for political purposes. And judging from information released so far the use of the two funds was equally legitimate.

Chances are that Adlai can also produce a worthy defense in his behalf. But that isn't the point in this case. The ugly fact is that Adlai and some of his cronies have been playing dirty politics . . . and dirty morality to boot. They stood by and let the sneaky accusations and insinuations continue when they should have spoken out in the interest of fair play. Of course it is probable that Adlai was keeping his mouth shut and his fingers crossed hoping his own fund would not be aired. But if he thought both funds were all right, why didn't he say so?

We have a feeling that this whole trumped up smear is going to boomerang and cost Democrats more votes than it does Republicans. The average American's standard of fairness revolts at such shenanigans. He instinctively favors the man who's been framed and despises the framer.

From a purely political angle also, regardless of the fairness in the case, Adlai and company seem to have blundered just as

Serving in the Arctic

Submariner Arthur Hennigan is still in the Arctic on a mission that began in July. He serves as a torpedoman aboard the U.S.S. Redfish. Word to his parents, the Fred Hennigans, this week, assured them he was well and that there is almost no opportunity to post letters.

At Sheppard for Check-up

Mike Luke, airman second class, is at Sheppard AFB hospital for a physical check-up before being assigned to new duties. He had previously been stationed at Kirkland AFB, N. M. He spent the past weekend here.

Stationed in Germany

Pvt. Victor Koelzer has written his parents, the Pete Koelzers, that he is now settled at his overseas destination at Augsburg, Germany. His new address is: Pvt. Victor A. Koelzer, US 54077521; Co.H, 109th Inf. Regt., 28th Div.; A.P.O. 111 c-o P.M.; New York, N. Y.

First Army Leave

Pvt. Hank Walterscheid of Camp Chaffee, Ark., spent a weekend leave here with his wife and family. It was his first visit home since he entered the army in July.

Enroute to New Station

Joe Moster, apprentice airman, accompanied by a buddy, arrived Monday evening from Corpus Christi enroute to Hutchison, Kansas, where they will report for duty at the Naval Air Station Friday morning. While here they were guests of Joe's mother, Mrs. Theresia Moster. Another Muenster boy stationed at Hutchison is Bernard Luke. He was transferred from Corpus Christ about three weeks ago.

Back as a Civilian

Sgt. Robert Bayer is back in Muenster as a civilian. He received his discharge at Fort Sill, Okla., where he spent six weeks after a 30-day leave here following his return from Korea. He was in action with the 25th Infantry Division in Korea for almost a year. Robert's brother, Pfc. Arthur Bayer, is now serving in Korea with the Field Artillery. He was in Japan until about two months ago with the Paratroops. He now serves as a cannoner. The boys are sons of Mrs. Joe Bayer.

Leaves For New Station

Sgt. Roy Baumhardt left Saturday enroute to Amarillo where he has been assigned to Amarillo Air Force Base. He stopped for visits with his brother, Ralph in Wichita Falls, and his sister, Mrs. Beatrice McClendon in Devol, Okla. He spent a 30-day re-enlistment leave here with his mother. He was formerly at McClellan AFB in California.

Qualifies for Football

Julian Walterscheid, airman second class, is jubilant over making the first string of the army air corp's football team on Okinawa. According to recent letters home, the Mound's Rams plan to do quite a bit of playing and traveling. Julian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid, is remembered as a tower of strength in the line of the Sacred Heart High school squad in 1946-47-48. He was captain of his team, coached by Frank Hennigan, and in his senior year received a trophy for being the outstanding line man. Julian wrote that he is the only high school football player on the team; all the rest are college men, some of them from West Point. The coach is a West Point All-American. Intensive tests determined who would make up the teams. The 44 men who qualified were chosen from a group of 160.

Belated Observance

Sgt. Paul Luke had a belated birthday observance Sunday when his parents, the Henry Lukes, entertained with a lawn party in his honor while he was at home from Fort Sill on a weekend leave. Scheduled for the 18th, the party had to be postponed because Paul drew KP duty and couldn't get away. He was 24 years old.

Hornets Weaken in Second Half, Lose 14-6 to Pilot Point

A smoothly operating team of Pilot Point Bearcats sparked by speedy and elusive Molloy Dunn was too much for the Hornets last Friday night.

Trailing 6-0 at the close of the first half, the visitors bested the Hornets on both offense and defense in the second and marked up a final count of 14-6 in their favor.

The Hornets made the better showing in the first period. They matched the Pointers evenly on ground gains besides completing two good passes, one for a TD. But the second half was much different as Pilot Point gained 115 on runs and passes while the Hornets gained only 65. And there were other factors too. The visitors did much better on kicks and kick returns.

Dunn gave a sample of his ability on the opening play of the game, returning the kick

Hornets Will Go To Alvord Friday For Tough Tussle

The Muenster High Hornets get back in their own class Friday night, but they will still be meeting tough competition when they take on the Alvord High Bulldogs at Alvord.

With practically all of last year's players back in uniform Alvord is reported to have its best team in several years. In its opening game it gave the powerful Sanger team a tough tussle. It's listed as a Class B team but appears to be at least the equal of the two Class A teams the Hornets have met to date.

North Texas Unit of Catholic League to Meet Here Sunday

Muenster will be host next Sunday afternoon for the fall meeting of the North Texas District Catholic State League of Texas beginning at 2 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Rev. Paul Charcut of Pilot Point will give the principal address.

Frank Heitzman of Pilot Point, district president, and Father Louis Deuster will also be on the program.

Father Cletus Post, director of youth for the organization, will present an interesting program by the youth of Sacred Heart High school.

Title of the program will be "A Day With the Psalms", commemorating the opening of Bible Week.

Miss Dolores Haverkamp will give the general introduction and a group of choral singers will chant the twenty-second psalm. Miss Gladys Ann Hoffman will give a talk on the psalms; David Endres, Miss Clara Mae Sicking and Larry Hofbauer will introduce a group of songs, there will be a choral speaking relating to the psalms and the program will end with the group singing the Magnificat.

Sacramental benediction in Sacred Heart church will follow and supper will be served in the lunch room.

Weinzapfels Attend National Convention

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel left Thursday from Dallas for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the 78th annual convention of the American Bankers Association beginning Saturday. They made the trip by special train for members of the Texas Bankers Association and their wives.

The Weinzapfels will visit in New York City after the convention and will return home by way of Tulsa, Okla., where they will stop to see their daughter and family, the P. W. Hellmans.

HORNET RESERVES PLAY

The Pee Wees of Muenster High will see their first action next Tuesday night at Saint Jo in a game with the Panther B team. Lineups on both sides include players who do not regularly play on the school's first team.

Tigers Play Eagles In Season Opener Here Friday Night

The Tigers of Sacred Heart High open their 1952 grid season here Friday night at 8 with the odds stacked against them. They are playing the Catholic High Eagles of Texarkana, who trounced the Tigers 34-0 last year. With 12 lettermen back on the squad, the Eagles are expected to be as rugged as they were last year.

The Tigers have lost four of last year's players and have 9 lettermen back. Their probable starters are Jerry Henscheid and Joe Felderhoff, ends; Donald Bayer and Jerry Hoenig, tackles; Charles Moster and William Walterscheid, guards; Fred Hennigan, center; David Endres, James Mollenkopf, Albert and Gilbert Knabe, backs.

The local boys have seen action twice this season, and looked good both times, in practice scrimmage with the Valley View Eagles.

Their season to date includes this week's game, Green Hill of Dallas here on Oct. 2, Laneri at Fort Worth on Oct. 10, Callisburg (place not decided) on Oct. 16, Anna High there on Oct. 24, Buckner at Dallas on Nov. 21, and a game between Whitesboro and Tiger B squads on Nov. 6.

News of Sick And Injured

Mrs. Joe Luke returned home from Gainesville Sanitarium Tuesday after being a patient since Saturday following a fall in her home. She sustained a broken nose and severe bruises in the accident.

Larry Hennigan, 14, son of the Fred Hennigans, broke his right arm Monday afternoon during recess play at school. Both bones above his wrist were broken in the accident. A partial cast was placed on the arm at the local clinic and a full cast will be put on after the swelling goes down, probably Friday. Broken bones are no new experience for Larry. He's had both arms broken before.

Little Chris Walterscheid has been moved from the isolation ward at Parkland hospital and, according to his doctors, is much improved from polio that afflicted him Sept. 5. Earl Walterscheid visited his son Monday. He said the child still has slight paralysis in his left side, but is able to move his arms and legs. His temperature is normal but he lapses into comas at frequent intervals. Since Sunday he is taking light nourishment. Doctors said it will be several weeks before he can return home.

Frank Schilling cut a deep gash in his right leg, just below the knee, Saturday, and received treatment at the local clinic where four clamps were inserted to close the wound. The accident happened while Frank was butchering a calf.

Dale Wilde, polio patient in Dallas since Aug. 24, is sitting up for short periods each day but has not been permitted to try walking yet. He will be fitted for a back brace soon. The seven-year-old youngster is recovering normally, doctors say, from spinal polio. His parents, the Richard Wildes and his brother, Melvin, visited him at Texas Children's Hospital Tuesday evening.

George Hammer returned home Monday from Gainesville Sanitarium where he was a patient since Thursday for stomach x-rays and medical treatment. He'll be confined to his home another week before he resumes his regular work.

Carl Schilling, who is a patient at veterans hospital in McKinney, spent the weekend here at his home. He returned to the hospital Monday for continued treatment.

Mrs. Ray Otto returned last Thursday from Gainesville Sanitarium where she had been a patient five days.

Ben Seyler Dies Suddenly Saturday of Heart Attack

A capacity crowd jammed the Muenster Sacred Heart Church at 9 Monday morning to pay final tribute to Ben Seyler, 51, outstanding civic and business leader and former mayor, who died of a heart attack about 12:30 a.m. Saturday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, Fort Worth.

Ben had gone to Fort Worth shortly after 7 Friday night on a car deal. While there he became ill and rested a while, asking later to be taken to the hospital. The fatal attack came just after he reached the hospital, while he was in a chair awaiting examination.

At the solemn requiem mass Monday Father Louis Deuster was celebrant and Fathers Cletus Post and Thomas Weinzapfel were assistants. Boy Scouts in uniform were mass servers and Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus in full dress were honor guards.

In his funeral address Father Louis stressed particularly the consolation of faith in time of sorrow. Death, he said, is not the end of everything but rather the beginning of an eternal reward that man merits by his good deeds on earth . . . and the

Marysville to Join Local Phone System

An extension of Muenster telephone service to Marysville is under way now and should be complete in the next 30 to 45 days.

Herman Younger, president of the Muenster Telephone Company, said Wednesday that most of the poles have been erected. After cross arms are put in the wires can be strung.

The line will be a complete metallic circuit like that in use over almost all of the local system. All the grounded lines except three in the Muenster area have been replaced during the past few years.

The new line is 13 miles long and is expected to start with about 10 customers.

County Participates In Drought Relief

Cooke County has been included in the Drought Relief Program announced early this month over a wide area of Texas, according to an announcement late last week by Representative Frank Ikard. Under Public Law 875 hay is made available to farmers at reduced prices to encourage them to keep livestock instead of selling when grazing runs short.

Stock eligible to benefit from the program are all foundation cattle, including dairy cattle with steer calves no older than 10 months, and sheep.

Orders for the hay are placed through the County PMA office and must be accompanied by a deposit of $5.00 per ton. An order must be limited to a 30 day supply of hay.

Donald Bayer in State 4-H Contest

Five Cooke County 4-H club boys including Donald Bayer of Sacred Heart school 4-H club have qualified for participation in state contests, W. I. Glass of Denton, district agent with the Extension service announced Tuesday.

Bayer qualified for the state farm and home safety contest. Others who qualified are Michael Neu, route 1, Gainesville, soil and water; Robert Fuhrmann of Lindsay in Poultry; Walter Wolf of Gainesville in tractor maintenance; Margie Sellers of Callisburg for the Santa Fe achievement award.

They will not attend the contests in person but will submit their detailed records in the various events for judging. The district contests were judged in Denton.

In 1951 Cooke county had four state winners, more than any other county in Texas.

parting is not permanent but only until souls are reunited in heaven. Father Louis also spoke of Seyler's long record of service to the community, his generosity and his courage in sticking with his convictions.

Interment in Sacred Heart Cemetery was under the direction of Nick Miller with Father Louis conducting services at the grave. Bearers were brother members of the local Fourth Degree K of C Assembly, all in full dress. They were J. M. Weinzapfel, J. C. Trachta, Charles Hellman, F. E. Schmitz, J. P. Flusche, F. A. Kathman, L. A. Bernauer and J. W. Fisher.

Rosary service at the Seyler home was conducted twice Sunday afternoon and once Sunday night. On the casket was a gold chalice, the customary memorial to a deceased member by the local Fourth Degree Knights. It will be presented to the bishop of the diocese for use in a mission church.

Ben Seyler was born in Muenster on August 20, 1901, and attended the local schools. He was married to Miss Agnes Fette on Dec. 15, 1924. He spent all his life here except about two years when he worked as a mechanic in several oil field towns and two more years when he owned a car agency at Wortham.

Seyler grew up in and remained in the automobile business. As a boy and young man he worked with his father, Frank Seyler, on the first cars that came to this community. When he returned to Muenster in 1926

The letter did not mention when the PHA will begin its survey to determine the number and size of units to be built.

Local Cagers Meet In Pre-Season Game

In a pre-season basketball game Tuesday night the Muenster High girls won a double header from their neighbors of Sacred Heart High.

The first game was a thriller with the MHS reserves winning 20-19. In the second game the MHS regulars won easily 27-14.

Both teams are working steadily, striving to develop smoothly operating combinations by the time the regular cage season opens.

Varmint hunting was good out at Russ Linn's last Sunday. While hunting for an owl that had been raiding his chicken pen Russ found and killed two husky diamond back rattlers. Shortly afterward he got the owl too.

The rattlers, Russ said, were the first he had seen in 23 years in his area. One measured about 4 1/2 feet and had 11 rattles, the other measured slightly less than 4 feet and had six rattles.

Hornets Lose ---

from the 10 to the 42. A deadlock followed that play and the ball changed sides 4 times as neither team was able to advance. Pilot Point made the only first down of the quarter and kicked on the first play of the next series after its offense bogged down again.

The second quarter saw more action. Two dashes by Noggler gained 2 first downs before Muenster had to kick. Pilot Point came back with 2 first downs and lost the ball on downs on the next series.

Four plays later the Bearcats were on the Hornet 15 after blocking Noggler's kick, but a stiff Hornet defense stopped the threat and Muenster took over on downs on the 18.

Then came Muenster's only sustained push of the game. The third attempted pass, Hamric to Richey, picked up 22. Alternate plunges by Noggler and Richey advanced the ball to midfield where Noggler took a lateral from Hamric and raced the rest of the way to the goal line on the last play of the period. A pass for extra point failed and the score stood at 6-0.

The Bearcats came back strong, holding the Hornets on the first series and partially blocking the kick. That gave them the ball on the Hornet 39. Jentzen gained 2 and on the next play Dunn broke through for a TD. The kick was good and the visitors led 7-6.

Muenster returned the next kickoff from the 5 to the 18 and Noggler followed with a gain of 21. But that was all. The next series bogged down and the Pointers returned the kick to their 38. Dunn's 12 made a first down but a fumble and Stelzer's recovery stopped the drive. However a Hornet fumble 3 plays later gave Pilot Point the ball again.

The visitors kicked on the next series and the Hornets attempted to do the same but had it blocked. That was on the Hornet 20. After 2 short gains Dunn was apparently loose but was nailed on the 2 from where Riney scored the final TD. Again the kick was good.

Muenster came back with a drive that crossed midfield but ended with a fumble. After allowing a first down and checking the next series the Hornets took a kick and started again from their 17. Richey added 5 and a pass to Noggler reached the 40. The ball was still there, after 2 unsuccessful passes, at the game ended.

The American Way

By Dr. Alfred P. Haake
THE AWFUL PRICE

The political campaign now getting under way already reveals the awful danger hanging over the American people.

The threat of Russia is real. Four years ago we had exclusive knowledge of the atom bomb. Today Russia has the bomb and may even have a larger stock pile than our own. There are those who believe that she is closer to having the more frightful H bomb than are we.

Yet Russia need not spend any soldiers or equipment in direct war on the United States. Russia is doing very well for herself with the resources of other peoples, thanks to their stupidity. She appears to be succeeding in her program of inducing the United States to spend herself to death or suffocate in a demoralized currency.

There is danger from a Fifth Column, made up largely of American citizens who follow the communist line or who serve the communist cause through their misguided idealisms. There is reason to believe that some of them are in strategic places in government, very close to the top, protected under the wings of the same authority that turned China over to the Communists and made a mess of Europe.

With the transfer of responsibility for individual welfare shifting increasingly from the individuals themselves and local communities, to the federal government, has come the enormous national debt and a budget so huge that the mere contemplation of it stuns the very apprehensions of the people.

Only twelve years ago our federal tax bill was slightly over 5 billion dollars. This is a huge amount, several times what it had been during previous administrations, even in war time. But by 1945 it had risen to almost 45 billions and in 1952 is more than 62 billion dollars. And this, mind you, is not the total spending. This is what you pay in actual taxes, hidden and seen. On top of that comes the inflationary borrowing and debt which babies not yet born must pay in addition to their own costs of living.

To bring this down to where you live, it means a tax burden of $152 per family in 1940 has gone up to almost $1,400 a family in 1952. And that means for EVERY family!

But even that is not the real disaster. Long ago Rome rose to be the greatest empire of all time, and fell and disappeared. The people were ruined by the paternalism of government, free bread and circuses, inclusive social security that finally sapped their vitality of character. Even when the Barbarians broke through the gates of Rome the people still clung to the enervating paternalisms, free bread, circuses and the rest. They had lost the capacity of self-reliance.

The terrible crime of the New Deal and Fair Deal is that both take away from our people the Desire to be self-reliant and demoralize the very virtues on which we built this country.

Politicians singing the song of how well off we are, hide the frightful dangers we face, internally more than externally.

The issues of a campaign are being drawn so as to further obscure the vital truths and keep the pertinent facts from the people.

Meantime, the debilitating processes of stamina destruction go on, and, unless they are stopped soon will carry the people beyond the point of even wanting to come back. Individual freedom and responsibility slowly disintegrate almost before our eyes.

That is the awful price we pay for the dubious benefits-of the welfare state.

The difference between a prejudice and a conviction is that you can explain a conviction without getting angry.

Human minds are like wagons. When they have a light load they are much noisier than when the load is heavy.

TEXAS-BORN IKE

...a man of integrity

He Is the Choice of Texas Democrats for President!

Texas Democrats for Eisenhower!
 That is the rallying cry of Texans who believe in the traditions and time-honored principles of the Democratic Party — but NOT in the policies and practices of Trumanism.

We are the Texas Democrats who have studied the candidates and platforms of the two major parties and are ready to announce: "We like Ike!"

We are the Texas Democrats who feel that best interests of our party, our state and our nation would NOT be served by another four years of Trumanism.

We are the Texas Democrats who stand ready to carry out the mandate of the State Democratic Convention which on September 9, 1952, resolved: "It is the recommendation of the Convention that every Democrat in Texas vote and work for the election of Dwight D. Eisenhower for President and Richard Nixon for Vice President."

If you, as a Democrat, feel as we do — join us!! Be a Texan — not a Trumanite . . . Vote Ike!

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

No Longer Two Sides to This Question!

Ever seen those two-family houses they have in some places — with separate front doors and porches — side by side? My sister owns half of one and lives in it, near Philadelphia.

Nice little frame home. Only Sis painted her half brown and the other family always painted theirs green. Ruined the effect — but for years neither family ever thought of suggesting that they both decide on a common shade.

Now Sis writes that their two-toned home is no longer. "I mentioned we were going to repaint," she says. "And they said let's get a color we all like. So we did. A nice shade of gray for both sides."

From where I sit, so often when there's a difference of opinion it's best to sit right down and work things out (like when our volunteer firemen decided to serve both lemonade and beer at their annual picnic last month). Don't let prejudices "color" your opinion of your neighbor. He'll probably be quite as open-minded as you are.

Soil Conservation Notes

This week the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District received a new shipment of weapons for use in the battle against erosion and soil waste. The weapons are five new combination grain-fertilizer drills for use in the Muenster area. These drills are for the use of farmers cooperating with the district to protect and improve their soils. They are to be used for the seeding of soil improving cover crops such as vetch, clover, alfalfa and peas. The combination drills also put needed fertilizer on the land at the time of seeding.

The district now owns an impressive list of tools for use by farmers in putting soil conservation practices to work on the land. In the Muenster area the district has made available to its cooperators eight combination grain-fertilizer drills, two culti-packer seeders, two fertilizer spreaders, two grass seed drills, a Bermuda grass sprigging machine and a vetch seed separator.

In order to speed up the application of conservation practices and make the equipment more readily available to its cooperators the district has appointed farmers in the area as equipment custodians.

The custodians keep the equipment at their farms and are responsible for its routing and maintenance. To rent district owned equipment cooperators should contact the custodian nearest their farms.

Equipment custodians near Muenster are Meinrad Hesse, Alfred Bayer, Joe Hoenig, Norbert Koesler. Custodians in other communities are Jake Biffle Jr. at Myra; George Berry at Rosston; Ben Perryman at Forestburg; Bill Crump at Saint Jo; and Mr. O'Neal at Caps Corner.

Counter attacks against erosion and improper land use along the waterway front have already begun. Waterways to serve as terrace outlets and to protect land against soil erosion are being marked on farms around Muenster. The areas earmarked for sodding or seeding to grasses are marked off so that proper seed bed preparations can be made before sodding time and so that grain will not be sown in the waterway area.

Waterway areas have been marked off and the land prepared for sodding Bermuda grass on the F. J. Hacker farm south of Muenster, on the Dangelmayr farm operated by Norbert Koesler, on Tony Wimmer's farm near Hays and on the Tony and Martin Trubenbach farms at Hood. The waterway areas in most cases follow natural drains and will serve as both a pasture strip and as a safe terrace outlet area.

Past experience has shown that good seed bed preparation is one of the most important factors in getting a quick cover of grass in that waterway. Now is the time to get that waterway in shape or next year's planting. For help in locating and staking your waterway areas don't hesitate to call on the SCS personnel, technicians of the Muenster office said this week.

Plant vetch and Austrian winter peas from Sept. 15 to Nov. 1.

Hairy vetch is adapted to both clay and sandy soils.

Vetch and Austrian winter peas should not be planted until adequate moisture is present in the soil.

Give your land the vetch treatment to cure some of its ills such as low productivity, low organic matter, low water holding capacity and crusting.

Winter cover crops protect crop land from erosion and rainfall runoff.

Hairy vetch and small grain provide excellent winter grazing.

Gripes are Costly This Week at MHS

This week is No-Gripe Week at Muenster High. The event, initiated by the FHA chapter, applies to both teachers and students.

The payoff comes Friday when offenders will be called before a student council court to account for their behavior... and pay a fine unless they can satisfy the hard boiled court selected from the student council. Fines, of course, will go into the FHA chapter fund. To boost the business they have a gestapo force operating, striving to bring as many gripes as possible before the court.

Thanks... for a fine sale Saturday

We sold over 900 head of cattle, and we're proud to say that practically all of them brought prices better than the current market on comparable grades. Besides, as usual, selling expenses were lower than at the larger, distant markets.

More and more people are convinced that it pays in two ways to sell here. Prices are better. Commission charge, hauling expense and shrinkage loss are lower.

BEN SEYLER . . .

He worked with H. P. Hennigan until he opened his own business as local Chrysler-Plymouth dealer in 1933. At the time of his death his dealership was second-oldest in Texas for the Chrysler line. The building which houses the business, one of the finest garages in North Texas, was built by him in 1948.

Seyler had also been one of the most active leaders of the community. He was the principal driving force behind the organization of Muenster's fire department and was the first fire chief. He served two terms as mayor, at the time when the city sewer was installed and his office required countless hours of extra work. At the time of his death he was serving his third term on the city council and was also a member of the county school board and of the County Boy Scout committee and was chairman of the Muenster Scout Committee.

He held the office of Faithful Pilot in the Muenster Fourth Degree K of C assembly and was a member of the Muenster Lions Club.

Survivors are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Lambert Bezner of Gainesville, Mrs. Darrell Adams of Midland and Sister Mary John of Jonesboro, Ark., one son, Billy Seyler of Muenster, and four grand children; his mother, Mrs. Frank Seyler of Muenster and six sisters, Mmes. H. P. Hennigan of Albuquerque, N. M., T. L. Anderson of Gainesville, John Mosman of Saint Jo, Alex Lutkenhaus of Muenster, Elwyn Hope of Fort Worth and Terrell Johnson of Dallas.

seriously. They have permitted it to become so much an issue that they had the whole country waiting for Nixon's answer. They themselves provided the record audience which heard Nixon reveal his case and invite the Democratic nominees to do likewise. Will they present their case? If so, will it be as good? If so will it carry the same effect that Nixon's speech did?

Blessed Events

Voth-Grewing Grid Classic Ends in Tie

Folks who came to see a mad scramble at the Grewing-Voth band benefit football game last Thursday night got a pleasant surprise. It was a good game between two evenly matched teams and ended in a 6-6 tie.

The Grewings scored first on a 20 yard pass, Yosten to Mollenkopf, in the end zone.

Voths tied up the score a short time later on a short heave Hermes to Hermes followed by a 40 yard sprint to the goal.

Financially the contest was equally good. The gate and concessions combined added $132.65 to the Lions band fund, bringing the club's total to $370.10. The PTA is also working on a band fund and the two funds combined are believed to be over $500. Total amount needed is over $1100.

At this writing there's talk but no definite plans of another game in the near future with the Voth and Grewing crews combined against the Mollenkopf and Haverkamp crews. If the game materializes it should be good. Each side can field practically a complete team of experienced players.
