SH Cagers Lose to Forestburg, Laneri

Sacred Heart High cagers lost both contests Wednesday night in a double header with the Forestburg B girls and Laneri boys in the local gym.

The opener was a thriller with Forestburg nosing out 37-35. Henrietta Mages bagged 23 points for Sacred Heart scoring honors and Orell looped 19 for the visitors.

Laneri made strong starts at the beginning of each half to account for their comfortable margin of 50-37. To start they scored 5 before Sacred Heart hit the hoop and the half ended 21-14. After the break they added 12 before Sacred Heart got started and coasted to victory. Jerry Hoenig with 16 and Evans with 19 led the scoring.

The Al Walters and daughter, Jeanette Walter. From there Vir-Sandra, and son Virgil, were in Dallas Sunday for a visit with classes after the holiday recess.

Cox Recommends Health Inventory

If you have not had an audit made recently of your physical assets and liabilities, go to your doctor now and have it done, is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to grown-ups in Texas. It is quite as important to check up on your physical resources as it is to look into the state of your financial possessions. By regular care under your physician's directions, you can conserve your physical assets and avoid an accumulation of destructive liabilities.

Everyone starts with a certain amount of physical capital and as a personal business proposition it is worthwhile to preserve. In infancy and childhood our physical resources, as a rule, are safeguards for us. As we grow older, the responsibility for doing so rests upon the individual. The critical period for many comes in middle life with the sudden realization that the physical capital is yielding diminishing returns in the way of physical well being.

The records of health departments and of insurance companies show that from 10 to 15 years have been added to the average length of life. But the same records show that a majority of the deaths are due to the degenerative diseases of middle age.

Nearly all of these diseases have slow beginnings and their onset discovered through physical expenditures and better budgeting of activities under a physician's direction will help shift the balance from the unfavorable to the favorable side of the ledger.

"How did the accident happen?" the officer asked the dazed man who was still sitting behind the wheel.

The driver was silent for a moment. Then he jerked his thumb toward the back seat. "Wife fell asleep," he said.

MANAGEMENT IS IMPORTANT TOO!

Periodic labor troubles in the coal industry could very easily lead the uninformed observer to believe that the miners are grossly underpaid. So a recent breakdown showing just how much the average soft coal miner actually gets is of national interest. First of all, his daily minimum wage rate, with the latest increase approved by the stabilization board, is $17.85. Then the employer must pay 43 cents for vacation allowance, 78 cents for social security, workmen's compensation and unemployment tax, and $2.40 for the welfare fund. This makes a total daily cost of $21.46.

The miner's actual working day is 6½ hours, the remainder being given to travel and lunch time. So the coal industry pays a minimum of $3.30 an hour for each miner's services—which is the highest figure for any worker in any large industry on earth. The mine union makes a practice of claiming all the credit for this situation. But, without minimizing the achievements of the union, it is perfectly evident that only a vigorous, progressive and highly efficient industry could pay record wages and keep in business. Coal has no monopoly—it must compete every day in the year with other sources of heat and energy. It has met the competition and kept its markets. And it has done so by developing, at a tremendous cost, new and better and more economical methods and machines for cutting and hauling and processing the product. This in itself has been of great benefit to the miner, by making his work both safer and far less physically arduous than it used to be. Coal's management need bow to no one on its record.

BESIDES, WE'RE TOO OLD TO ENLIST

A Congressional subcommittee has just returned to Washington from a twelve-state tour of military establishments convinced that life in the Army, Navy and Air Force here at home could be a bit more Spartan. The nine billion dollar building program of the combined Services includes, they say, excessive "plush and frills" as well as buildings they can do without.

Examples of lavish expenditures of taxpayers' money pointed out by the investigators included the new $5,500,000 Operational-Administration-Training Building at Kelly Air Base in Texas; Barracks at the Miramar, (Cal) Navy Air Station, and the El Toro (Cal) Marine Air Station costing $2,560 and $3,534 per man respectively; generally elaborate construction throughout the New Limestone Air Force Base in Maine, such as a hospital with oxygen outlets in every room.

Briefly, the Congressmen were allergic to marble steps, terrazzo floors and circular staircases, especially when there were indications that the money to pay for them was secured through "inaccurate, incomplete or misleading information".

We think the gentlemen are quite right. Let's call a halt to this Operation Country Club before it's too late. First thing we know, our boys (and girls) won't want to come home on leave. The old homestead will be too shabby and living-in it too rugged for them to endure.

JUSTICE CAN BE DUMB, TOO

The Department of Justice, with a fanfare of publicity, filed criminal anti-trust suit in 1948 against E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co. and, on December 2nd of 1952 withdrew the charge—without advising the press, says duPont President Crawford H. Greenwalt. "This seems a trifle inconsiderate to those of us who squirmed under the original publicity," he said, "but I suppose we should be sympathetic with a human reluctance to admit error."

Also interesting is the fact that some smaller defendants involved in the same proceeding pleaded "nolo contendere"—which is legalese for "I can't afford to fight the case, so let me have my licking". So they paid fines.

"I was once in a small hotel in Vermont when one of the guests, a foreigner unfamiliar

Fatal Danger Found In Many Distractions

MEN HAVE DIED of malnutrition who have never heard of Vitamin B. Men are dying from lack of hope who do not even know that they are hopeless.

The frustrations, the hungers, the despair are facts that men can see by observing men, even if they do not know the reason for them.

MAN IS on a journey, but does not know his destination. Lacking this indispensable knowledge, men occupy themselves with other matters—beer, or women, or rare stamps, or science.

One man for instance is a great authority on butterflies.

UPON HIS SUBJECT he will talk endlessly and with an admirable enthusiasm. But interrupt his discourse on butterflies to ask him what he knows about himself and where he is supposed to be going and how: he will answer that those are religious questions, and that he has no time for them, being so deeply engaged with his butterflies. The thing is farcical but terrifying.

One can make no sense of a man who gives so much attention to butterflies that he has none left for his own meaning. The butterflies should be flattered. But the man is hardly sane. And he is the perfect type of our world.

AN UNHAPPY GENERATION necessarily has to distract itself from its own emptiness. Since the beginning of the world, men have sought distraction in sin. Our own world has found a further distraction special to itself in science.

The soul of man is crying for hope or purpose or meaning, and the scientist says: "Here is a telephone," or "Look, television!"—exactly as one tries to distract a baby crying for its mother by offering it candy and making funny faces at it. The leaping stream of invention has served extraordinarily well to keep man occupied, to keep him from remembering that which is troubling him.

NOT KNOWING GOD, man does not know what he is; equally he does not know why he is here, or where he is supposed to be going, or how to get there.

That is why I said: "Man is on a journey, but does not know his destination, has neither a map of the road nor the rules of the road. Lacking this indispensable knowledge, men occupy themselves with other matters—beer, or women, or rare stamps, or science." (-by New York Publisher, Frank Sheed.)

with American ways, brought the proprietress of the inn a beautiful bouquet. The proprietress was delighted beyond words—until she discovered that her gallant guest had picked the flowers in her garden back of the inn.

"Whenever government hands you a bouquet, you can be perfectly sure it was picked out of your garden. But we go right on accepting bouquets in the vain hope that some day we will get flowers that somebody else planted and brought to bloom."

"And that is a precise definition of bureaucracy as we see it today."—St. Louis County Medical Bulletin.

What Good Is a Baby?

The story is told of a research man who had just discovered a new substance. A friend asked, "What good is it?"

"What good is a baby?" countered the researcher.

Babies and new products have to grow up before anyone knows how important they may be. Quite a lot of infants have been brought up at General Electric during the past 75 years. During the bottle stage, nobody could predict their future accurately. But as it turns out today, they were real prodigies. Here are just a few that were first brought to the American public by General Electric men and women:

- the first electric lamp
- the first home refrigerator with sealed mechanism
- the first high-vacuum radio power tube
- the first fluorescent lamp
- the first automatic electric blanket
- the first large steam turbine for electric power
- the first jet plane engine in U.S.
- the first disposer for kitchen food waste
- the first high-voltage x-ray

We don't ordinarily trot out the past like this. But 1953 marks a birthday. For it was in 1878 that Thomas Edison organized the first of the companies which, in 1892, became the General Electric Company. And, like anyone on his birthday, we do look back over our shoulder.

This is just the beginning, really. Research and engineering are bringing out new things faster than ever—new "babies" to lighten labor and brighten everybody's life.

You can put your confidence in—

SOMBRE CEREMONY—Governor Alan Shivers designates January 2-31 for the 1953 March of Dimes in a Statehouse ceremony climaxed by his official signature in the presence of General Robert J. Smith, Chairman of the MOD in Texas. Shivers noted that Texas has made "another first" but that it is ironically in the number of polio cases and in the amount of patient care funds advanced by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

FETTE-ROHMER NUPTIAL SET FOR JANUARY 27

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fette have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Florence, to Alfred Johnny Rohmer. The couple has selected Tuesday, January 27, for the wedding date. They will be married in Sacred Heart church at 8 a.m. The bride-elect has chosen her sister, Mrs. Leonard Hartman as her matron of honor, and the prospective groom has chosen his brother, Emil Rohmer, to attend him as best man.

A pink and blue shower complimented Mrs. Weldon Doughty Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Tillman Bridges with Mrs. Travis Whitt as co-hostess. The honoree had to go on a treasure hunt to find the lovely gifts presented by the guests. The last treasure was a decorated bassinett. After a series of games in which Mrs. Lawton Moon and Mrs. Sam Sparkman won prizes, the hostesses served refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, coffee and cocoa to 12 guests. Socializing Easier Than Desocializing

The City of Richland, Wash., is furnishing the whole United States an example of how much easier it is to get into Socialism than it is to get out of it.

The Federal government took over Richland to provide homes for workers at its big Hanford plant, where plutonium is made for atomic bombs. At that time Richland was a village with a population of 600.

Under government ownership, the hamlet grew into a city of 25,000. Now the government proposes to return it—homes, business buildings, and other properties except schools and hospitals—to private ownership. The proposal is expected to come up in the next session of Congress.

Difficulties Arise

However, a survey by the U. S. Bureau of Census indicated that the government might have as much trouble getting rid of Richland as Prime Minister Churchill ran into when he proposed to sell Britain's socialized steel mills back to private ownership. The difficulty—no buyers—may hamper both plans.

Investors have been shying off from the British steel mills because of fear that, if the Tory government de-nationalizes them, some future Socialist government may re-nationalize them.

The reason Richland residents hesitate to buy is different, but may be just as potent. Questionnaires sent 9,400 residents eligible to buy homes revealed that 61% think the government's asking price—$1,800 to $15,165—is too high. Many would buy homes—but not the houses they live in, and each tenant gets first chance at the dwelling he has been renting. Others prefer to live where they are at the low rents charged by the government.

Sympathy is what one woman offers another in exchange for the details.

L'I' RED SCHOOLHOUSE—Absorbing the culture of the Soviets, an interested Mongolian girl reads a Russian textbook in a Buriat, Mongolian school-room situated on a collective farm. Standing like a shadow in the back of the room is the teacher whose job it is to indoctrinate these children with the principles of Marxism.

Soil Conservation Notes

Farming the conservation way pays big dividends. It pays by protecting the soil from erosion, increasing the amount of water the soil will absorb and the amount it will store. It pays in improved soil tilth and increased organic matter content. And it pays in increased yields and puts more money in the landowners pocket.

For example, here is what happened on Tony Walterscheid's farm: Tony has done an excellent job of installing soil conserving practices on his farm during the past few years. He sodded waterways, terraced most of the land and uses soil improving crops in his rotations. These soil saving and improving practices are paying off a lot better than the proverbial slot machine.

This summer during harvest, Tony had a chance to compare yields of oats and wheat harvested on land that had grown two years of clover with yields of these crops on untreated land. The results speak for themselves.

Oats following clover produced 60 bushels per acre while oats on similar land that had not grown clover yielded 40 bushels per acre. The increase on clover land was 20 bushels of oats. At present prices this increase would mean a $20 boost in income from the acreage that had been in clover.

Wheat following clover yielded 33 bushels per acre as compared with wheat on no-clover land that produced 17 bushels per acre. Here again the increase paid off in dollars and cents, the 16 bushels accounting for about $32.

Farming the conservation way is paying off on this farm. It will also pay off on your farm if you give it a chance. Plan now to plant soil improving legume crops on at least a part of your farm this spring and work toward a complete soil conservation program for your farm. For better farming and better living, farm the conservation way.

If food is oversalted when cooking, drop in a peeled, raw potato. Allow to cook with the food. Potato will absorb all salt. Resalt food to taste.

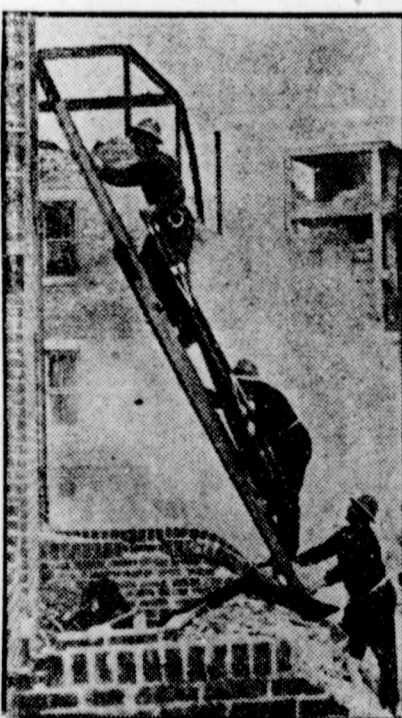

Bake potatoes in half the usual time. Just let them stand in boiling water for fifteen minutes before popping them into a very hot oven.

An easy economical way to clean copper is to dip half a lemon in salt and rub the object. Rinse in hot water and polish with a soft cloth.

If a fruit pie boils over in the oven, pour on salt while oven is still hot. In about an hour, when the salt dries, it will form a hard cake and all can be easily lifted out, leaving a clean oven.

To reheat coffee cakes or rolls, place on cookie sheet uncovered, loosely wrap in aluminum foil or place in large paper bag, and heat in 400 degree gas oven for about 10 minutes.

Leave at least one inch of space between pans, and between pans and the wall of your oven. This insures even heat distribution to give uniform browning.

SMOKE, NO FIRE—Realistic to the point of including smoke and rubble, the "Rescue Street" Civilian Defense training ground at Olney, Md., gives rescue workers a chance to train under actual disaster conditions. Seen above, three team members climb a ladder to "rescue" trapped "victims."

Most Income Tax Is Due January 15

Some Texans who settle back comfortably and wait for March 15th to roll around before doing anything about their Federal income tax may be in for a rude surprise, lawyers say. For, although the instructions and forms recently mailed to each taxpayer do not mention the fact, for practical purposes January 15th, rather than the March deadline, is the last day of grace for many individuals.

This is due to the Federal laws requiring certain persons to file Declarations of Estimated Income Tax—or the pay-as-you-go plan. Under those laws several million people are required each year to estimate their total annual income in advance, making quarterly tax payments based upon such estimates. The final quarterly payment for 1952 is due on or before January 15th, 1953.

A declaration must be filed by every citizen or resident who receives annual wages (subject to Withholding) in excess of $4500, plus $600 for each exemption claimed.

For example, a single person with no dependents who received wages in excess of $5100 is required to file a declaration. If he has one additional exemption, he need not file unless his wages exceed $5700 during 1952. This latter figure would also apply to a married couple without dependents filing a joint return.

In other words, the amount goes up $600 for each exemption the taxpayer is entitled to claim, including any exemptions for age or blindness.

A Declaration of Estimated Income Tax must also be filed by any person with annual income from sources other than wages (subject to withholding) in excess of $100. Of course, individuals whose incomes did not exceed $600 during 1952 need not file, even though no tax has been withheld.

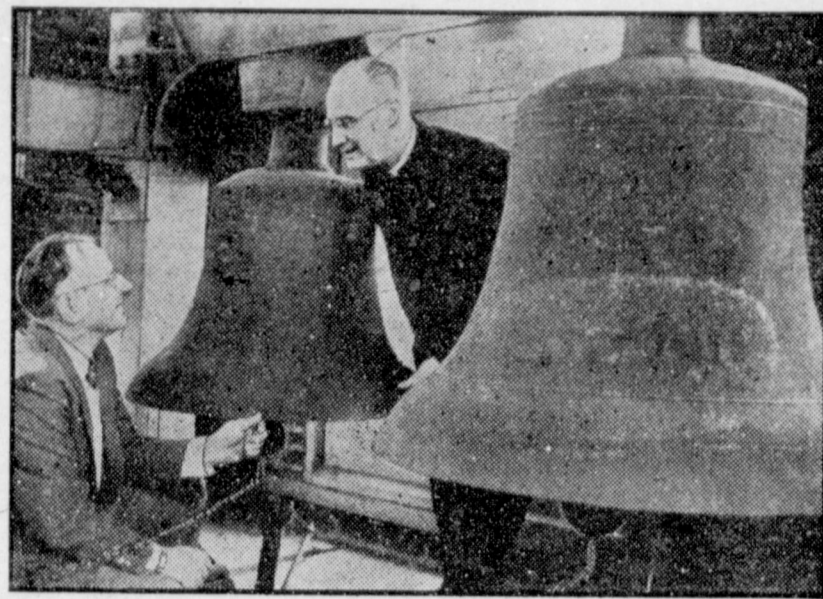

Those falling into the required category who have failed to file declarations at quarterly intervals during 1952 may make amends by filing either a final declaration or an income tax return by January 15th. At the same time they should pay any balance of tax owed the government on their entire 1952 income.

Now, if paying the entire balance of your tax prior to January 15th is going to be a difficult matter, due to a quirk in the tax laws you may be able to avoid penalties by paying at least 80% of your total tax at that time and the remaining balance by March 15th. This would involve filing both a declaration (by January 15) and a tax return (by March 15).

The first quarterly declaration on 1953 income is due on or before March 15th.

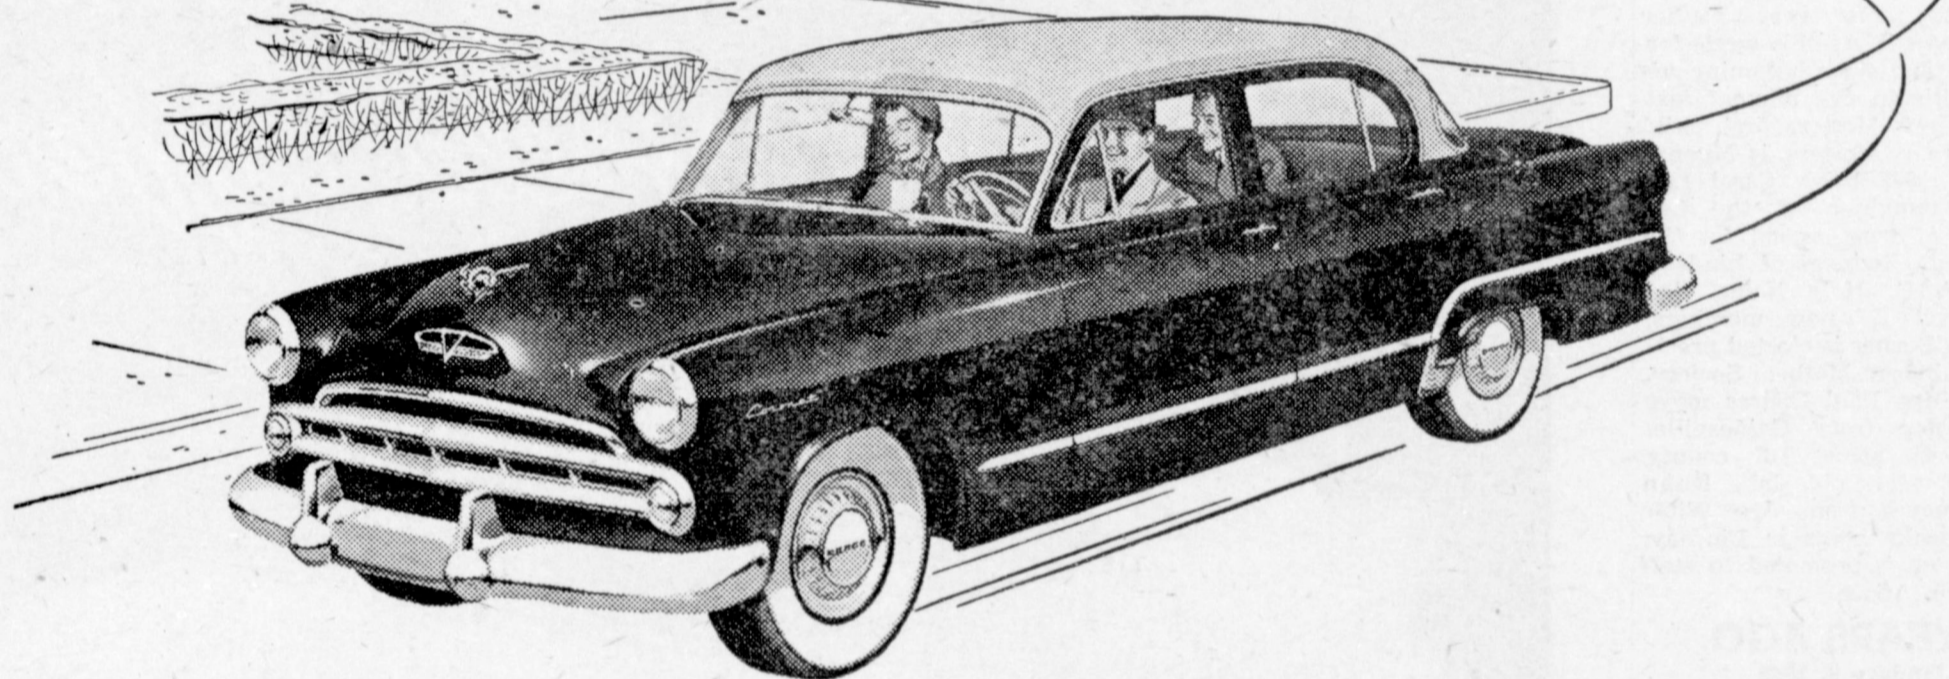

(This column, based on Federal law, is written to inform—not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

RING IN THE NEW—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower will be serenaded by these bells of the Washington Church of Epiphany being inspected above by the carillonneur, Adolf Torovsky, and Rev. Leland Stark. The music will be broadcast across the country as part of the inauguration day program.

Heating an orange a moment in your oven will make the inner skin peel off perfectly. A pinch of soda stirred into sweet milk that is to be heated will keep it from curdling.

ROCKET BREAKS RACKET BARRIER—With landing gear still dangling like the legs of a bird in flight, the experimental rocket plane, XF-91, roars up to crash through the sonic barrier. A 5200-pound thrust turbojet engine whips the ship close to the speed of sound and a 6000-pound rocket engine rams it past the sonic wall. Able to overtake any high-speed bomber, the XF-91 provides the Air Force with a topnotch interceptor plane.

Earl Marlatt, Linotype operator at the Enterprise at this time last year, was back for a visit last Friday and Saturday. Since June Earl has been publisher of the Platte Valley News at Ovid, Colorado.

DICK CAIN Owner and Auctioneer

Mrs. Joe Bezner is back in Lindsay after a visit in Dallas with her children. A family reunion was held in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leo Cutala and family.

We will continue to photograph your Service Man with our compliments... no strings attached... Judy is the little daughter of the Grady Linns...

Kent Bellch Studio
Saint Jo

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bierschenk of Fort Worth, formerly of Lindsay, are the parents of their third son, Ronald James, born on Dec. 29. The six pound two ounce boy is the grandson of the Val Dieters of Lindsay and the Joe Bierschenks of Weatherford. Mrs. Dieter returned to Lindsay Sunday after a visit with her daughter and family.

The Herman Zimmerers had as guests for the holidays their children, Frank of Amarillo, Marie of Bushland and Alvin of Hereford.

Sister Aln Pauline underwent surgery at Gainesville Sanitarium Friday.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Marcus Fuhrman wishes to thank everyone for all the nice gifts she and her family received at the surprise shower given in her honor at the Lindsay hall Sunday afternoon. She also takes this opportunity to thank all her friends and relatives for the cards, gifts, prayers and other kindnesses, since she became ill with polio last July.

Miss Lynette Walterscheid returned Sunday night from Fort Worth where she spent a week's vacation with friends and relatives.

SHOWER GIVEN SUNDAY FOR MARCUS FUHRMANS

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fuhrman were honored with a miscellaneous gift shower Sunday afternoon in the Lindsay hall. It was a community affair with guests present from Lindsay and Muenster. Others who were unable to attend sent gifts.

It was Mrs. Fuhrman's first visit away from the hospital and her home since she was stricken with polio last July. She attended in a wheelchair.

Hostesses for the afternoon served refreshments of coffee and cookies.

LINDSAY 4-H BOY GETS KIWANIS GILT

William Flusche, Jr., Lindsay 4-H club boy, has been selected to receive the Gainesville Kiwanis club's Hampshire gilt for this year, according to the Extension office.

The Kiwanis sponsored program is patterned after the Sears Foundation pig program. After the gilt given to Flusche farrows, a choice gilt will be given to another boy in the county and Flusche will keep the sow and remainder of the litter.

Flusche received his gilt from Paul Lokey of Walnut Bend, who received the first pig under the program. The Lindsay youth was selected because of the excellent all-around record in 4-H club work.

Eberhart and Brown Open Plumbing Shop

A new business started in Muenster Wednesday. It is a plumbing shop opened by Al Eberhart and Earl Brown in the lower floor of the Wolf Hotel, the space used by a cafe several years ago.

Eberhart will divide his time between the business and his oil field work. Brown, a licensed plumber of Wichita Falls and Saint Jo, will take charge of the plumbing work.

The partners have their tools and Brown is available for plumbing service now. They expect to have their stock of fixtures, pipe and fittings within two weeks.

MHS - Forestburg Divide Honors in Cage Race Opener

The usual order was reversed Tuesday night when the basketball teams of Muenster High met here for the first games in the 1953 conference race. Muenster girls went down in defeat but the boys pulled through with a surprise victory.

In the opener the visiting girls took an early lead and maintained their 5 to 10 point margin until the closing minutes then put on a sudden splurge for a final count of 30-15. Except for Forestburg's strong start and finish the game was fairly even.

In the boys game Muenster forged ahead steadily for a lead of 16 points at the end of the third quarter. Forestburg did better in the last period but fell short in the final tally of 47-39.

To Coach Stewart the most satisfying feature of the contest was his discovery of a smoothly operating combination in Richey, Aytes, McElreath, Doughty and Whitt. The boys worked together nicely and looked their best while maneuvering for close-in shots.

MISS MIDGETT RESIGNS

Miss Waldine Midgett, teacher of grades 3 and 4 at the Muenster public school since September 1951, resigned during the Christmas holidays to accept a job as teacher at the Eldorado, Texas, public school.

She is being replaced temporarily by Mrs. Lucile Kidd of Gainesville.

Gerald Bayer - - -

Gerald, 23, was on duty in Japan when he became ill and was hospitalized. He passed away on December 6, less than a week later. He is this community's first young man to die in service since the war with Korea began.

He was born in Muenster on July 18, 1929, the oldest of the four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer. He attended Sacred Heart school and graduated from high school in 1947.

He entered the army on March 26, 1951, and trained at Camp Gordon, Ga., with a military police outfit until July. Following a 12-day leave at home he reported at Seattle, Wash., for an overseas assignment and went to Japan.

In September he was seeing action in Korea with the 8th Cavalry Division and fought in the Chorwon Valley.

On New Year's day, 1952, he was transferred to Hokkaido, Japan, where he was on patrol duty until Sept. 8, when he suffered severe burns in an accident and was hospitalized about two and a half months. He had just resumed patrol duty shortly before his fatal illness.

He is survived by his parents and three brothers, James of San Diego, and Randolph and Regi of Muenster; and his grandparents, John Bayer and Mr. and Mrs. John Walter, also of this city.

Miss Barbara Wilmarth returned to her home in Little Rock, Ark., on Jan. 2, following a week's visit as the guest of Mrs. Herman Fette. On New Year's day Mrs. Fette and her guest visited in Fort Worth with friends, including Pauline Mages and Irma Hesse at OLV and Miss Carrie Mueller. The latter spent 17 years at Lindsay before going to Fort Worth in 1943. She asked to be remembered to all her friends.

The John Fishers and daughter, Jeanette, were in Fort Worth Tuesday and stopped for a visit with Pauline Mages and Irma Hesse at OLV.

are down you can bet that this exploded propaganda bubble will have its effect on red army morale.

In the last analysis it becomes apparent that truth and justice will do more than anything else to turn the tide in our favor in the propaganda war, the cold war, and the hot war as well. Captive countries and threatened countries will renew hope and courage if we will let them know by our word and action that we are behind them in their struggle.

Let Peiping and Moscow scream about our "conquest" when we bomb red bases, and blockade shipments to reds, and support Chinese nationalists. Oppressed people of Asia and Europe will understand, and red propaganda will fall on deaf ears.

There has been talk that we risk a major war with Russia if we get down to principle and do what's right. Well, let's not overlook the possibility that a just and courageous policy on our part worries the reds more than anything else. Most likely Stalin himself wonders whether he has enough loyal men to fight a war while holding down rebellion at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swirczynski returned Sunday from a 10-day visit in Dallas and Fort Worth with their sons, Al, Ed and George. The Al Swirczynskis will leave Dallas about the 15th of this month to spend a year in Galveston where Al will supervise air conditioning installation in a new hospital. After that they plan to build a new home south of Dallas where they recently bought two acres of land.

Joe Trachta and Al Eberhart visited in Wichita Falls Sunday with the John Kerrs.

Al Horn made a business trip to Lubbock Tuesday and returned home Wednesday.
