Margaret Grewing, Pioneer Resident Dies Here Sunday

At this time of the year there's only one appropriate subject for this column. After a guy has spent hours and hours with the annual income tax headache he naturally gets into a mood to air his gripes.

First and foremost, of course, is the size of the check that must be sent in. According to Uncle Sam's calculations it doesn't seem so bad. Only a little more than one fifth of what is left after living expenses. But the catch is that Sambo isn't figuring living expenses at present prices. His allowable deductions don't come near covering expenses and what he chooses to call taxable income turns out to be a lot more than actual savings. So it actually works out that 22.2 per cent on taxable income represents 50, or 75 or even more per cent of what's left at the end of the year.

The new administration offers a hope that tax cuts are on the way, and yours truly is anxiously waiting for it to make good. Harry says it can't be done but from our point of view it seems he has set up wonderful possibilities for eliminating duplication, graft, extravagance and inefficiency. There's room for considerable cutting and still bring in enough revenue to carry on the war that Harry blundered into and pay off some of the debt he squandered into.

Incidentally, this column would not be for a minute if the present tax rate continued and the revenue were used strictly for essentials and debt retirement. High taxes, even though burdensome, are still tolerable when a person sees them used wisely.

Along with the rate, there are a few other welcome changes the administration could make in the income tax regulations. One is going back to the March 15 deadline for both payment and final report. According to the present arrangement it seems that the whole internal revenue department is completely devoid of consideration or knowledge of modern business methods.

Consider how the average business is run and then think it over. Statements are usually mailed on the first of the month and paid on the tenth. If payments come in promptly that leaves only five days to get records in order and wade through all the tedious work of figuring the year's business activity. Anybody can see that it's an unreasonable demand.

Of course, the "infernal revenue" fellows say that a person needn't do all the rushing. He can submit an estimate of his income and make quarterly payments on that basis and wait until March 15 for the final report and final adjustment. . . but the report had better not show a big discrepancy in his estimates. To avoid trouble there he makes a revised estimate and partial adjustment by January 15. It's a lot of useless bother either way he chooses to do it.

In a way it seems that the easiest method is to make the estimate and quarterly payments. And it's very probable that this method is the result of a deliberate scheme to coerce people into paying quarterly. The government is in a hurry to get the money. But lots of folks don't like the idea of bothering with it all year, so they're stuck with the mad rush to beat the January 15 deadline.

Something else the new administration can do is eliminate the entire system of quarterly payments and withholding taxes. Why can't the federal government get along on one final settlement like it did for years? Like cities, counties and states are still doing? Why must it lead employers with the responsibility of collecting individual taxes and keeping tax records? Why must it keep the extra army of paper fumbler to do the additional work in the tax department?

Here's the present procedure. Suppose a man and wife are working. Every pay day the employer, or employers, has to withhold tax and keep records, then turn in a quarterly report with payment. That costs in time and money. In the internal revenue office workers have to handle the

Mrs. Margaret Grewing, 85, widow of Stephen Grewing and a pioneer resident of this community, died at her home Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She had suffered a heart attack on Friday.

Funeral services with requiem high mass were held Tuesday morning at 9:30 in Sacred Heart church with Rev. Louis Deuster officiating. Burial was in Sacred Heart cemetery under the direction of Scott Brothers Funeral Home of Saint Jo.

Pallbearers were Richard, Steve and Walter Grewing, Henry Jr. and Edward Grewing, and Bernard Haverkamp, grandsons of the deceased.

Rosary was recited Monday night at the Richard Grewing home where the body remained until the funeral.

Mrs. Grewing, the former Margaret Knauf, was born March 1, 1868, at Cologne, Germany. She came to the United States with her parents, the Henry Knaufs, when she was an infant. They lived in Cassville, Wis., for a short time, then moved to Westphalia, Iowa.

The family moved to Muenster on Jan. 5, 1890.

Margaret Knauf and Stephen Grewing were the first couple married in the then new colony of Muenster. This was on April 21, 1891.

They settled on a farm east of the city. Mrs. Grewing moved to town after her husband's death on Jan. 22, 1923.

She had been in ill health for several years but lived alone caring for herself most of the time

3rd Order Triduum Scheduled for March

Rev. Jordan Shell, O.F.M., of Chicago, provincial of the Third Order of Saint Francis, will be in Muenster to conduct the annual triduum for members on March 4, 5, and 6.

Announcement of the Franciscan's forthcoming visit was made Sunday afternoon during the regular monthly meeting of the local members.

J. W. Hess, prefect, presided. Father Louis, a guest at the meeting, presented explanatory remarks and answered questions after Mrs. J. W. Fisher read an article on Third Orders.

About 35 members were present.

News of Sick And Injured

Mrs. Ed Eberhart entered M&S hospital Friday night for medical treatment. She was suffering from virus infection and influenza bordering on pneumonia. She was able to return home Tuesday.

Mark, two year old son of the Marcus Fuhrmanns, is back at home, recovered from illness after receiving treatment at Gainesville Sanitarium.

Johnny Cunningham received medical treatment at Gainesville Sanitarium last week. He is the seven month old son of the Herbert Cunninghams.

Hugo Wilde underwent major surgery last Thursday for a back ailment. He is a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth where he is this week progressing normally toward recovery.

Alphonse Schmitz of Valley View is recovering satisfactorily from a major operation performed at Veterans Hospital in McKinney last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joe Tempel had a telephone call Tuesday from her mother, Mrs. John Tucker, telling her that Mr. Tucker had been hurt in an accident at the Sheffield Steel company where he works. He is in a Houston hospital suffering injuries sustained when a large piece of steel fell on him breaking both legs. One had been placed in a cast and the other was badly crushed, Mrs. Tucker said.

CAPITAL CALLIGRAPHER—If you received an invitation to the Inaugural Ball, chances are it was written by this smiling Washington letter-artist, Fay King. She wrote nearly 10,000 invitations in highly ornamental script. For Harry Truman's inauguration, Miss King turned out 30,000 in 39 days. Using a special type of pen, she keeps spares, seen at left, always available.

DON'T SCATTER SNIFFLE TISSUE

For the sake of community health as well as community appearance, don't scatter kleenex. That is a recommendation originating in a recent garden club meeting.

There's no time like the present to break a bad habit, the ladies say. They urge sniffles patients to either drop their used tissue in waste baskets or keep them until they reach a proper place for disposal. Don't just drop them anywhere. Spreads germs and looks bad.

Tigers Win 1, Lose 2 in League Race

After three games the Sacred Heart High Tigers have a standing of .333 in the North Texas Academic League basketball race.

Tuesday night they coasted to a 37-25 victory over Greenhill in the local gym with Jerry Hoenig and Joe Felderhoff sharing scoring honors at 10 each.

The Tigers game Tuesday was preceded by a practice tilt in which SHHS girls beat former students 42-19.

Playing at Buckner last Friday night the Tigers lost 46-28. In the season opener here the preceding Wednesday they lost 50-37.

Other games on the schedule, as announced this week by Father Cletus Post, are as follows:

Jan. 16, Boys Ranch, here
Jan. 23, Lanier, Fort Worth
Jan. 27, Buckner, here
Jan. 30, Greenhill, Dallas
Feb. 3, Boys Ranch, there
Feb. 6 & 7, Texarkana, there

By previous agreement Sacred Heart and Catholic High of Texarkana play their two games on successive days at the same place, in order to save one team the long trip. The games are there this year, here next year.

MHS Cagers Lose 2 At Prairie Valley

The absence of Aytes, Richey and Whitt, because of flu, was sorely felt Tuesday night, and Muenster High's boys went down in a 70-24 defeat at Prairie Valley. The game gives the boys a 50-50 standing in the current conference race. In their district opener a week earlier they bested Forestburg 47-39.

The girls' game at Prairie Valley was less one-sided, but it was another loss . . . to a count of 30-24 . . . and leaves the girls still seeking their first conference victory of the season. They lost their first game to Forestburg.

Two losses at Saint Jo Friday night do not count on the conference record. Both were practice games and both ended with Muenster trailing by two points.

Next on the conference schedule are games with Saint Jo there Friday night and Callisburg here Wednesday night. Besides the boys will have a non-conference game at Henrietta Monday night.

FFA State Officers Attend Chapter and District Meetings

Donald Stodghill of Rockwall, Area 5 president and state vice-president of the Future Farmers of America and Joe Dan Boyd of Winnsboro, state FFA president, were in Muenster Tuesday for a meeting with the local FFA chapter and also for a district meeting.

Later in the meeting Neely was also elected as district candidate for Area 5 officer.

The meeting was attended by 45 delegates, officer candidates, sweethearts and instructors from 9 North Texas chapters along with the general membership of the local chapter.

The Muenster Chapter meeting was featured by the visit of the two state officers who are currently calling on some 20 local units in Area 5.

Their purpose on the tour is to promote a closer relationship between the state organization and the local chapters and also to increase interest in degree advancement and the FFA in general. They spoke on leadership, cooperation, and fundamentals of the FFA, on state and national levels.

House Plant Care Discussed by Club At Monday Meeting

The Münster Civic League and Garden Club heard an interesting and informative talk on "The Care of House Plants" at the regular meeting Monday night. Mrs. Tony Gremminger was the principal speaker. Members joined in a round table discussion of the subject after her talk.

The club met with Mrs. M. J. Endres as hostess in her home. Fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. Walter Rawley, were present.

During the business session at which Mrs. Steve Moster, president, presided, committee chairmen gave reports, including Mrs. T. S. Myrick who advised she had recently planted tulips at the public school flower bed which the organization beautifies as one of its projects. She also reported that 150 iris bulbs set out earlier are up to a good start.

Members discussed recommendations made by the state executive committee of the executive board, adopted during business of the board at its meeting in Abilene in September and voted to give a five dollar contribution to the Ada Dennison Hooks Memorial Fund for work with the blind.

After the business, Mrs. Endres served refreshments of fancy sandwiches, cookies, fudge and coffee. The refreshment table was centered with a novel plastic tree ornamented with miniature fruits, vegetables and flowers.

Kraft Co. Reduces

million pounds in the plant's '53 cheese production. And if the present trend of declining Grade B milk production continues the plant will make even less cheese.

The factory's record shows that of last year's 13 million pounds of milk purchased 70 per cent came from local producers and 30 per cent from Grade A dairy surpluses. In '51 local milk made up 76 per cent of 44 million pounds and in '50 it made up 82 per cent of 16 million. During the past two years local Grade B milk production has dropped from over 13 million to less than 9 million pounds.

The drop is explained by the large number of changes to Grade A production. Many of the community's leading producers, especially the larger ones made the change because of higher prices.

In his financial report to the meeting Hellman disclosed that the FMA profit for the year amounted to $40,340. That amount has been distributed in the customary skrip payments among producing members. Amounts of the skrip dividends were determined on the basis of 8 cents per pound of butterfat for milk deliveries, 3 cents per dozen eggs and 2 cents a pound on poultry.

Purchases made during the year include 13 million pounds of milk for $489,350, 151,000 dozen eggs for $55,000 and 30,000 pounds of poultry for $7,920.

High producers of the organization were J. J. Wimmer with 6,720 pounds of butterfat, Hesse Brothers with 6,033 pounds of butterfat and J. W. Fleitman with 7,470 dozen eggs.

In the annual election of president and directors all retiring members were re-elected to another term. J. B. Klement continues as president and J. W. Hess, John Knabe and Joe Vogel continue as directors. Directors held over from last year's election are Al Fleitman, Albert Henschel and Henry Wiesman.

An entertainment feature of the meeting was an address by Dr. A. E. Jackson, well known humorist and after dinner speaker, of Denton.

A few days after the movie troupe arrived in the African jungle to make "The African Queen," the producer and two of the actors hired a native to take them for a canoe ride on the Congo. An hour after they started they heard jungle drums beating. All along the route, at frequent intervals, the sounds were repeated.

"What are they saying?" Director John Huston asked the native fearfully.

The native listened to the drums and translated: "Drums say 'Three Americans. Very rich. Raise prices!'"

Eisenhower Urges Nation Support March of Dimes

President-elect Eisenhower meets 1953 March of Dimes Poster Girls Pamela (left) and Patricia O'Neil, of Raleigh, N. C.

NEW YORK CITY—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower called on the American public to support the 1953 March of Dimes being conducted throughout the nation during all of January.

He joined in the annual appeal after meeting the two Raleigh, N.C., sisters who are pictured on the 1953 March of Dimes poster. They are Patricia, 6, and five-year-old Pamela O'Neil, both of whom were stricken with polio but now are recovered completely. "It's hard to believe that these are the same little girls whose pictures are on the March of Dimes poster," he noted. "Now they're completely recovered from polio, thanks to the generosity of the American people."

He urged all Americans "to help the others like them by joining the March of Dimes."

Later, he joined the poster girls in making a short film which is being shown by television stations throughout the nation.

This year's March of Dimes follows the all-time record polio epidemic of 1952 in which more than 55,000 were stricken. At the beginning of 1953, there were 58,000 polio victims of former years still undergoing treatment, with financial help from local March of Dimes chapters.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE CAUSED BY SOCIAL SECURITY

A 71-year old resident of Chicago, Ralph P. LaBelle, recently attempted suicide by slashing his wrists and throat because he was penniless, hungry, had no place to stay and his social security had been shut off.

What crime had this old man committed which caused his social security check to be withheld? Last January and February he earned $118.00 as a messenger. Under Social Security he was permitted to earn only $50.00 a month. So, since he had earned too much, he had to be punished. As he expressed it to the judge after the police had taken him first to the hospital and then to court:

"They called me into the field office at 1045 Lawrence Avenue and said I would be penalized a full month's payment for earning $18.00 too much in January and February. I didn't have any money, couldn't get a job, my landlord told me to get out because I hadn't paid my rent. I was cold, hungry and there didn't seem to be any use trying to stay alive."

The judge figured out a way to put LaBelle into the county hospital until his next social security check is due. When he gets out, he says he'll try to find a job of some kind which won't pay him more than $50.00 a month.

Social security is the keystone of the great social progress which has been made in the past twenty years. It's the very first of the first things. It's the greatest humanitarian achievement by any government in the history of the world. It banishes the want and fear of old age. At least these are some of the claims made for social security when it was being sold to Congress and the American people.

If you buy an income policy from a private, a free enterprise, insurance company you pay in so many dollars for so many years, after which you receive an income of a predetermined number of dollars every month as long as you live.

Two years ago a friend of mine paid the last premium on an "Income-at-age-65" policy. He thought when he took out this policy that he'd retire at 65. When the time came, however, he decided to keep on working. Did that make any difference on his getting his retirement income? It did not. He gets a check from the insurance company every month. The fact that he is also still getting his full salary each month hasn't anything at all to do with it. He has real security because he earned it for himself.

My friend was not forced to buy the income policy. He did it entirely on his own because he wanted to. Do you have any choice on social security? You do not. You take it and pay for it every month whether you want it or not. When it comes time for you to collect, you are not a free agent no matter how many years you have paid in or how much you may have paid each year. You'll do exactly as the government says, whether you want to or not, or you won't collect a dime.

There are many things wrong with the social security set-up which must be corrected but certainly one of the very first things the new Congress should do is to change the law so that when anyone becomes eligible for the benefit he has paid for, he or his survivors will get that benefit irrespective of anything else.

TIME TO LOCK UP

In its annual report for 1952 the House Un-American Activities Committee has recommended war powers for the Federal government in dealing with suspected espionage. Including the admission of evidence secured by wire-tapping, and a new law making it a crime to transport secret government documents without authorization. The Committee also asked the death penalty for espionage in peacetime as well as war-time.

In spite of the protestations of President Truman and Generalissimo Stalin, few Americans consider that we are today at peace. And, in view of the horses already stolen from our stable, and the reasonable assumption that we still have some more in the stalls, we believe the report is very much in order.

WE'RE ALL WITH YOU, SKIPPER!

WHAT CAN PIG HATCHERIES DO FOR YOU?

Hog raisers who have hoped for something that would eliminate the work and worry of staying up nights at farrowing time have an answer to some of their problems in using the pig hatcheries in their community.

Pig hatcheries vary from 40 to 50 sow units to units with a maximum of 530 sows, according to the January issue of Successful Farming magazine.

Most pig-hatchery customers are mid-west farmers who for various reasons have trouble with their pigs at farrowing time. Right now, 45 pig-hatcheries are doing business in 13 states.

Prices for pigs eight or nine weeks old usually run from 12 to 18 dollars. For this price, the pigs are delivered, weaned, vaccinated and castrated.

All pig hatcheries have not yet been perfected. Problems have been many with some of the hatcheries going out of business.

Difficulties were many in the beginning of chick-hatchery industry, however, and the pig hatcheries stand a good chance of fitting in with the farmer's progress.

Government is a lot like your right, you hardly know you have digestive system—if it's working|it.

You Cannot Ignore The Effects Of Sin

By Bishop Fulton J. Sheen
THOSE WHO HAVE no faith and who deny the moral law will know sin by its effects!

Guilt comes out not only in the body, but in the mind in various forms of psychosis and neurosis, all of which are symptoms of the inner guilt. Of the seventeen thousand Americans who committed suicide last year, how many, do you think, suffered mental unbalance because they failed to face responsibility, especially responsibility to God?

The unbeliever is free to deny the reality of sin, but he cannot deny the reality of its effects. I may deny the law of gravitation, but if I throw myself from the Empire State Building, I am not free to escape the effects of my denial. So a man is free to be an atheist, but he is not free to escape the effects of loneliness and hatred which atheism implies.

WHEN A CIVILIZATION sins and denies that it sins, it becomes necessary for God to make it feel the effects of sin. Just as some people do not know they are working too hard until their health begins to break, so some souls can never come to the consciousness of sin unless they feel the consequences of sin.

That is why we ought to be so much worried about our modern world. Divorces, murders, godless education, carnal license, moral corruption, and selfishness; all these sins are committed with utter abandon.

There is only one way our world can be made to realize how much it has departed from the Foundation of Divine Life, and that is by being made to feel the effects of sin in catastrophe and crisis. Will God use Russia now as He once used Assyria as the "rod of His anger"?

CHAOS IS the historical result of a Godless civilization. Disaster and catastrophe flow from violation of the moral law of God, as thunder follows lightning, and as ignorance follows laziness. God made the world in such a way that sin produces certain effects, and these chaotic historical moments are the Divine Judgment on the way we live.

Much of the mental misery of minds today comes from the awful burden of past sins, for which God's pardon has never been asked nor repentance made.

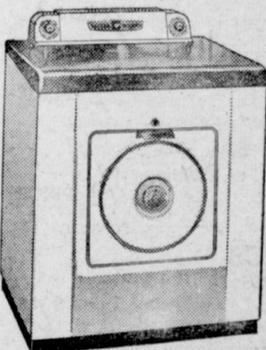

BISHOP SHEEN

BUT WHY NOT ask pardon? You have a better chance of salvation if you are a sinner wanting to be done with sin, than you have if you deny sin or think you are holier than others.

Remember the penitent thief, who from his cross asked Our Divine Lord to forgive him. Immediately the Saviour answered: "This day thou shalt be with Me in Paradise." And the thief died a thief, for he stole Paradise! And this is our hope—Heaven can be stolen again!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Pretty "Foxy" Terrier

Talking about dogs the other night—and Sandy Johnson topped everything off with a tall story about his fox terrier, "Boscum."

According to Sandy, "Comes bird season and that dog won't stir if I take down my rifle. Same if it's deer season and I go for my shotgun—he won't move, but he's scratching at the door if I so much as look at my rifle!"

One day, Sandy decided to fool him. He took down both his shotgun and his rifle—and swish, Boscum was on his way! So Sandy put the guns back and took out his fishing rod. He went outside and there was Boscum—digging like crazy for worms!

From where I sit, a dog that can outguess humans is as rare as a human that can outguess other humans. For instance, I like a glass of beer with lunch but I wouldn't think of pouring you one without first asking. Everybody has preferences—and it's finding out what they are and respecting them that keeps freedom from "going to the dogs."

Which costs 1/2 as much in the long run?

Water heaters look alike. Always find out about the tank inside when you buy. Automatic gas water heaters with corrosion-resistant tanks last two, three... even five times longer. Remember two things when you buy. First, buy an adequate size automatic gas water heater — at least 30 gallons capacity, which gives you reserve for the future such as additions to your family or addition of hot water consuming appliances. Second, all top-quality corrosion-resistant tanks are guaranteed five years. Some, like Ruud Monel, are guaranteed 10 years. They cost a little more, but in the long run, cost only one-half as much as low-priced water heaters.

Only GAS

- heats water fast
- costs so little to run

A 30-gallon Gas water heater gives more hot water than an 80-gallon heater run by any other fuel. Yet, Gas water heaters cost less to buy, install and run.

INCARCERATING INSECTS—Catching newly hatched beetles as they fall from the bark of giant Douglas fir trees will help forestry scientists plot their breeding habits and find new ways to combat them. Seen above, Paul Lauterbach, researcher for the Weyerhaeuser Timber company checks a beetle trap on a fir in the company's Millicoma farm near North Bend, Ore. The Douglas-fir beetles destroyed over 3,000,000 board-feet of timber on the company's farm last year.

CORN AS A NURSE CROP LOOKED GOOD IN 1952

Farms in the cornbelt may take on a new look in the next few years if farmers practice planting corn in wide rows and seeding legumes and intercrops between the rows.

Twenty-five hundred people attended a field day at Research Acres near Bloomington, Illinois last fall to see the results of tests conducted on intercrop planting. Most of them were convinced that using corn as a nurse crop would make them money in the next few years.

Some crop experts think that intercrop planting of corn would give the farmer from 40 to 50 percent more land each year, according to the tests conducted at Bloomington.

Ronnie Rector of Denison has returned to his home after spending a week with his uncle and aunt, the Johnny Wests. He is the young son of the Albert Rectors who formerly lived at Bulcher.

VITAL STATISTICS— AND HOW!

We learn from DeWitt Emery, president of the National Small Business Men's Association, how to visualize 2,571,527 people. This is the number of workers on Uncle Sam's civilian pay-roll as of October 1st. It is also the combined population (men, women and children) of the following 21 mid-western cities: Gary, South Bend, Muncie, Indianapolis and Terre Haute, Indiana; Dubuque and Davenport, Iowa; Grand Rapids, Lansing and Kalamazoo, Michigan; Moline, Rockford, Aurora, Joliet, Peoria, Decatur and Springfield, Illinois; Green Bay, Milwaukee, Madison and Racine, Wisconsin.

That is why, according to Mr. Emery, $1.00 out of every $6.00 paid in wages and salaries in the United States goes to a government employe . . . and where cutting of federal expense should start.

Wonder if our Congressman has seen these figures?

TIME TO GROW UP

The United States of America, considered very generally to be the most powerful nation of our time, and certainly the bulwark of freedom in the world, now has a Congress in session. In spite of the fact that this nation is supposed to be a Republic, and run by the elected representatives of the people, those representatives have not been functioning as a law-making body, or as a brake on our overstuffed, overstaffed, overweening executive department, since July fifth.

Remember how they spent the last night turning out laws link sausage so they could hiper to the national conventions?

From the standpoint of law and precedent there's absolutely nothing wrong with this procedure. And it should be especially noted that by no means all of our senators and congressmen have been on vacation since the Battles of Chicago. Committee work, hearings and investigations have gone on pretty steadily. Since the campaign, organizational work has proceeded feverishly, especially among the incumbent Republicans. But, there has been no Congress for half a year. The tripod of American Government has teetered on two legs, lacking the stabilizing third one that represents us, through six months of war, of crisis, of UN finagling, of mounting Communist pressure and perplexities.

In 1853 this half-time routine worked fine. In 1953 it's just plain reckless. Certainly congressmen should have vacations, just like anyone else who works for a living. But nobody, except Uncle Sam, shuts down the plant when it's loaded with business. Didn't we hear someone say, "It's time for a change"?

It's the nap that keeps your blankets warm, drying them in a clothes dryer lifts the nap, while ironing ruins this valuable warmth-giver, wears it out. Only blanket bindings should be pressed and those with a warm, not hot, iron.

A group of U. S. Army recruits were twitting their mess sergeant about the food. Patiently, as a sergeant can be on rare occasion, the old three-striper reasoned with the recruits: "A good soldier does not quibble over little things, yet today you complain about stale bread. Listen you mugs, George Washington and his men would have been mighty pleased with this bread that terrible winter at Valley Forge."

"Sure," opined a recruit, "but it was fresh then."

Incentive, Know-how Can Solve Famine Problem in Orient

Seventy cents of every dollar appropriated by the last Congress for foreign aid went for military aid. Yet, with millions of farmers in the Orient living in poverty, only five cents of each dollar went for technical aid for agriculture.

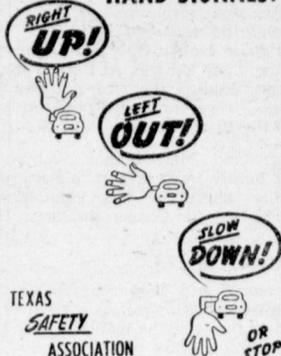

These facts were emphasized by J. S. Russell, longtime Mid-West Farm Editor following a tour of agricultural countries throughout the world.

Russell declared that nearly every country in the Orient could feed itself and some of them could produce more than enough for home consumption if they were given the proper incentive and know-how.

He added that millions of the Oriental farmers need technical aid from the United States. The facts are the same, although the details may differ in Japan, Korea, Formosa, the Philippines,

The big question is: Why do these farmers cling to their primitive farming methods? Why haven't they done something about it?

The answers include: The Oriental farmer needs incentive. The feudal system of land tenure holds down food production. For the man who fears that most of the increase will go to the landlord, the money lender or both, isn't too likely to be anxious to improve his farming methods.

Next, the Oriental farmer needs to know how to boost food production. Most of all, he lacks education. He needs something akin to our agricultural program and county agent system. And he needs some better seeds, tools and fertilizer.

Something will have to be done if the United States is going to ward off the Communist threat in Asia. People's resentment against hunger, poverty and squalor is causing unrest and is opening the door to Communist propaganda.

payments and keep separate accounts on both employees. At the end of the year the man and wife file a joint return with final payment or request for a refund and the tax office has to go back over both persons' records and compare with the final return to see that all is in order. Now wouldn't it be simpler to have them submit the year's tax with the return? The entire record with pay in one package. No extra records. No reference work. No needless administrative expense. No needless work or expense to employers.

The change might help also in another way. Nowadays employees never see their income tax. Many are hardly aware of paying it. Perhaps they would be a little more concerned about how much of their money the bureaucrats are goofing away if they had to shell it out at the end of the year. When the withholding system first started government economists mentioned the painless extraction feature as one of the principal merits. That same feature helps to explain why the American public permitted bureaucrats to keep upping the tax.
