VOLUME XIX

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS,

APRIL 29, 1955

NUMBER 23

Saturday of next week Cooke County voters will have another opportunity to provide urgently needed funds for roads. As many of us recall, this proposal came up in two special elections last year. The first was so shortly after the Democratic run-off that it was obscured by the political races. Very few were sufficiently interested to vote, and of those the opponents were in a slight majority.

Thinking the issue might stand a better chance if more thoroughly publicized, a group of citizens petitioned for another election. Meanwhile another group decided that the proposed 30 cent rate was higher than necessary. They publicized facts and figures claiming that a 10 or 15 cent increase would be adequate, and the proposal took a second beating at the polls.

Now comes the proposal for a 10 cent tax as suggested by the opposition in the former election. And indications are that the former opponents are backing up their former statement by coming out in favor of this proposal.

In passing we might take notice that the developments on this issue present a mighty fine example of democracy in action. A strong array of sound judgment endorsed the idea in general but balked at the price. This time they are saying the idea is still good and taxpayers are not being over charged for it.

When a person considers how much can be accomplished and how the county's welfare can be improved by this small tax he can readily understand that he is only being given an opportunity to make a wise investment. Actually we get about a 10 to 1 return, perhaps even greater, on our tax dollar.

The first return on that investment is already in sight. Money has been appropriated to make modern 4-lane super highways of the present inadequate roads north and east of Gainesville... provided Cooke County will provide the necessary right of way. Also proposed is conversion of the road west of Gainesville into a 4-lane highway. These are federal roads, on which the U.S. government will spend millions, if we will spend the few hundreds of thousands for the land on which to build.

The same applies to the county's Farm to Market road program. The state has provided a lot of rural pavement and it will provide a lot more if we will furnish the needed right of way. Well, this 10 cent tax will enable the county to qualify for the better roads which the state and national governments are willing to put here.

It has been pointed out that we needn't burden ourselves with any additional tax because the federal government has an alternate plan of widening the two roads if right of way is not provided. That's a mere extension of shoulders and surfacing as in Grayson county, a slight improvement of course, but very much inferior to the proposed job. Considering the two, we can have little doubt that the better road is well worth the few extra dollars of tax money it will cost us.

There's another angle to this also. As we all know, the state of Texas is vitally concerned with its roads. The highway department wants the super roads and it will be understandably disappointed if Cooke County does not cooperate on this project. Then, what about our F-M road program of the future? Can we reasonably expect our share of rural pavement if we let down the state on this project? We should know what answer to expect: Counties have no right to ask for favors when they make no efforts to help themselves.

From those angles alone the 10 cent tax proposal appears most worthy of support. Actually the benefits to be received justify the original 30 cent proposal, if the cost were that high. As many former opponents will admit, the other rate was not more than the benefit was worth, just more than needed.

Another fact worthy of notice is that a large number of county taxpayers will not have to pay toward these benefits, and practically everyone will enjoy some reduction. This tax is subject to the homestead exemption, which specifies that the first $3000 of

Grain Looks Good, Overcomes Most Of Freeze Damage

Favored with almost ten showers scattered over the month for a total of more than 3.5 inches, grain of this community offers good possibilities for another good crop.

That is the general opinion gathered by local soil conservation personnel in their daily contacts with farmers of the area. Probably the harvest will not be as good as either of the previous two years, but it stands a fair chance of beating the community average for the past ten years.

Of course, everything still depends on the weather, they admit. With good breaks farmers can still get their third consecutive bumper crop, and bad breaks can completely wipe out the present favorable outlook.

It is conceded that all grain made a wonderful recovery since the hard freezes of late March. Even the farther advanced grain, which was believed to have taken the worst punishment, appears to be progressing nicely.

Moisture for April, through Wednesday adds to a total of 3.58 inches. Figured with 1.65, 1.40 and 1.53 the first three months, this brings the '55 measure so far to 8.16, which is better than either of the past two years. Up to this time '54 had 5.81 inches and '53 had 7.78.

Muenster, Lindsay 4-H Clubbers Win At Arlington Meet

Muenster and Lindsay 4-H clubs with three firsts, one second, a third and a fourth place in contests Saturday made a good showing in the annual District IV meet at Arlington in which Cooke and Tarrant county youngsters tied in the number of first places with four each.

William Flusche, Sacred Heart club, and David Schneiderjan of Downard-Fairplains, won first place as the dairy demonstration team, and Sonny and Norma Jean Walterscheid, a brother and sister team, took second place honors in a share-the-fun contest.

Frank Sandmann and Joe Bezner of Lindsay were tops in the range conservation team contest, and Melvin Kuhn, also of Lindsay, walked off with first place honors after his soil and water conservation demonstration.

Mary Jane Block of Lindsay finished third in public speaking. She was Cooke county's only entry in that contest. Two more Lindsay 4-H clubbers, Cecil and Cyril Hermes placed fourth as a vegetable demonstration team.

The fourth first place was won by two Era 4-H members, Don Davis and Don Fenley, who made up the field crop judging team.

First place winners in the district contests are eligible to compete in the state contests during the annual 4-H club Roundup at Texas A&M College in June.

The Cooke count group was accompanied to Arlington by Extension Agents Gerald York, Gene Sears, Bernice Puckett and Maurine Kavanaugh.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Marcy Cler, 7, had a check up for rheumatic fever Wednesday and the report is that she is doing fine but will have to spend another month in bed. Marcy is keeping right up with her first grade studies through special tutoring given by Sister Grace and will be promoted to the second grade with her classmates.

Mrs. Louis Sicking entered Gainesville Sanitarium as a medical patient Tuesday.

Superintendent Howard Homsley is getting lots of practice this week as an after dinner speaker. Tuesday night he talked at an all-athletic banquet at Brewer High School near Fort Worth. Wednesday he headlined the junior-senior banquet at Forestburg and Thursday night he will talk to his former students of Loraine High at the junior-senior banquet.

Kiddies to Present Nursery Operetta

Mother Goose rhymes will come to life on the stage Friday night May 6, when first, second and third graders of the parochial school present an operetta, "Mother Goose's Magic Whistle."

Done in song, dance and recitation, the 50 minute show will have a cast of 120, most of them on the stage for the first time. Costumes of the characters will be as realistic as busily sewing mothers can turn them out.

Patsy Fette as Mother Goose blows her magic whistle which brings out all the dear and funny make-believe boys and girls of the famous nursery rhymes.

Sisters Alberta, Dennis and Grace are directing the play. The show will begin at 7:30 in Muenster High school auditorium and everyone is invited to attend. Admissions will be 25 and 50 cents.

North Texas Unit Of Catholic League Meets at Lindsay

Delegates to the district convention of the Catholic State League at Lindsay Sunday crowded a full day's program into an afternoon session of talks, elections, committee reports and new business.

The meeting opened at 1:30 with rosary and Benediction in Saint Peter's Church.

Rev. Albert G. Henkes of High Hill, state spiritual adviser, Youth Section, gave the principal address. He talked on "Rural Life," emphasizing the importance of farming and soil conserving, the dignity of the farmer and the excellency of farm life in its connection with the family, the nation and Christianity.

Other speakers and their subjects were Rev. Paul Charcut of Dallas on "Catholic Youth Organization," Ludwig Norendorf, president of the State CYC, on "Keeping Catholic Ideals," Harold Neu of Lindsay on "Personality," Miss Peggy Hermes of Lindsay on "Leadership," and Lawrence Roewe of Pilot Point on "Modern Schooling."

J. W. Hess of Muenster, state chairman of the Rural Life Committee, gave his report and a short address, Arthur Endres of Muenster spoke on the Catholic Life Insurance Union, Mrs. Frank Scheffe of Windthorst addressed the Women's Union, and Mrs. A. J. Prescher of Scotland extended a general invitation to those present to attend the next district meeting to be held in her parish in October.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Back in the States

PFC Murlin Joe Evans telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evans, early Sunday morning from the west coast to let them know he was back in the states after duty with the Marines in Korea. He will not receive a leave at this time, he added, and probably won't be home for a visit until September.

Returns From Korea

Marine PFC John David Meurer called his parents, the Herbert Meurers, Tuesday night at 7 o'clock to tell them he is back in California and will be stationed at Camp Pendleton. He said he'd been in port since Friday but didn't get off the ship until Monday. John David was on duty in Korea for eight months. He said the trip home took 28 days of ocean travel and that he didn't get sea sick once.

Gets First Promotion

It's Private First Class Henry Weinzapfel now. He received the new rating at Camp Rucker, Ala., where he serves with the army.

Enroute Home

PFC Neil Fisher has let his parents, the J. W. Fishers, know that he is enroute home from Germany having boarded ship on April 24. He'll go to Camp Chaffee, Ark., for his discharge from the army before he comes home. Neil has been overseas a year and visited several European countries while he was on leave. He was based at Wiesbaden.

120 Children Get Salk Polio Shots

One hundred and twenty first and second graders of the two Muenster schools received free anti-polio shots of Salk vaccine at the Muenster Clinic last Thursday. The mass immunization was given by Dr. T. S. Myrick and Dorothy Hartman in cooperation with the nation-wide polio immunization sponsored by the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation.

To date, however, none but those eligible for the free shots have received their vaccine here. The additional supply ordered for persons who will have to pay for the shots has not been received.

Some thirty children who were eligible for the free shots, did not receive them, according to a report from the doctor's office. Those vaccines are being held for the next shot on a day still to be determined. Ninety more vaccines, to provide for the full 120 boosters, have been ordered and the next immunization date will be set when they arrive.

Local Softballers Hold League Lead; Beat Lindsay 3-1

Muenster's B-29 Bombers, after the second round of games in the Cooke County softball league, enjoy the distinction of being one of the two undefeated teams of the loop. Sharing the top spot with them are the TP&L boys of Gainesville.

However, as most of them will admit, they are lucky to remain in the lead after Tuesday night's 3-1 thriller with Lindsay. Except for a few spectacular plays the outcome might have been reversed. Two Lindsay fellows were robbed of home runs as Leonard Owens and Paul Brewer made next-to-impossible catches.

Those catches along with other fancy fielding also enabled Coffman to better Frank Haverkamp's pitching record. He struck out 3 and gave up 3 hits and no walks. Haverkamp allowed 4 hits, 4 walks and whiffed 4.

Melvin Herr was the strong hitter, and the hero, of the Muenster team. In three times at bat he connected three times and brought in all the tallies. His first was a 2-bagger, next 2-run homer, then a single scoring Herbie Herr.

Lindsay's three hits were scattered, with only one paying off on the score book. Alcuin Zimmerer singled in the fifth, stole 1 base, advanced one on a sacrifice and romped in on a long fly.

The game was the fourth the two teams have played this season. In three practice tussles before the loop schedule started Muenster claimed two and Lindsay one.

Next on schedule for the Bombers are Sinclair Friday and Era Tuesday.

Nogger Wins Two Firsts, One Second, At Regional Meet

Joe Nogger continued his winning ways in track last Saturday by winning top individual honor with two first places and a second at the Region 3-B Interscholastic League track meet in Denton.

His 13 points were enough to give Muenster fourth place in the meet, however Jimmy Harris added another point by winning fourth place in the mile run. Winners of the meet were Chilton, 22½, Mansfield, 21, Midway (Waco) 19.

Nogger was first in the 100 and 220 dashes and second in the broad jump. In the 220 he improved his former regional record with 22 seconds as compared with 23.2 last year. In the 100, however, he slowed down from 10 to 10.3. A slight handicap hurt his time in that race. After jumping the gun on the first start he went to the opposite extreme on the second rather than risk disqualifying himself, and was the last to leave the mark.

Nogger's achievement qualifies him to enter three events in the state finals in Austin May 5-7. First and second place winners are eligible for the state meet.

One other district athlete is qualified for the state meet. He is Tommy Turner of Valley View, who crowded Nogger in the 100 yard sprint.

MHS Seniors Set For Colorado Trip

Something new in senior trips for local students is the train trip to be taken May 11-15 by the seniors of Muenster High.

Superintendent Homsley disclosed Wednesday that arrangements are complete for a package deal including the train ride to and from Denver, lodging, meals, and conducted tours to spots of interest in the Denver area. One price covers all expenses. The student will not need a penny except for what he chooses to spend on candy, cigarettes, souvenirs and the like.

Officials of the Katy railroad helped work out the accommodations and sight-seeing program.

Milk Receipts at NTPA Slip After ½ Million lb. Peak

The schedule as well as the ownership seems to have changed at the local milk processing plant since it was taken over by the North Texas Producers Association. Peak milk production, which used to come in late April and early May, is gone and almost forgotten. Receipts nowadays average only about 300,000 pounds a day.

The big day so far, according to plant records, was Sunday March 13, when the plant received 544, 635 pounds. It took the plant five days to clear out all its milk after that. Lots of milk was left for Monday, which was another near capacity day. So some Monday milk was held to Tuesday... and so on until vats were finally empty on Thursday.

Two factors account for the earlier peak production period, Manager Rudy Hellman says. One is that Grade A dairymen manage their herds for more winter production in order to get higher prices. The other is that favorable weather early in March

Tigers Lead Loop, Nose Laneri 3-2

A strong start along with a few neat plays when the going got tough enabled the Sacred Heart Tigers to hold out for a 3-2 decision over Laneri here Tuesday afternoon.

The win extends the team's perfect record to 3 straight and offers a fair possibility for the district title. Laneri now has a 2-2 record and Boys Ranch is at the bottom with 0-3.

A 4-hit barrage, including 2 doubles in the first inning brought in the 3 tallies which turned out to be enough. However the Tigers had to pull through a few tight spots to make their lead stand up. One Laneri run was cut off at the plate in the 5th and another was stopped at the same place in the seventh. The two Mick tallies were scored in the first and sixth.

Sylvan Walterscheid did the Tiger hurling and allowed 7 hits while fanning 14. The visiting pitcher allowed only two scattered singles after the first inning slugfest.

The district title may possibly be decided next Sunday when the Tigers play their next two games with Boys Ranch there. A double win can give them the title, whereas one or two losses leaves the outcome in doubt. After that the only scheduled game is the third with Laneri next week Friday.

Financial Crisis!

A few tens and twenties clipped together and adding to an even hundred bucks caused a minor panic at Endres Motor Company Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Marguerite King, bookkeeper, had folded them into her bank book, at least she thought she had, and went to the bank. But when she got there the bills were gone.

She went back to check her desk, then got a couple of other employees to help her hunt along the way. Wind was fairly strong and there was no way of guessing how far or what way the money had blown.

About the time they were ready to give up Herman Kathman noticed the searching party and came over to inquire. He guessed right. They were looking for the money he picked up on the street minutes before.

First 3 Mondays Of May Designated Immunization Days

This community's regular immunization days, as distinguished from the anti-polio shots given in cooperation with the nation wide program, are scheduled for the first three Mondays of May, Dr. T. S. Myrick disclosed this week.

These shots are given in connection with the program conducted by Dr. Myrick for the past 20 years to immunize against smallpox, typhoid, diphtheria and whooping cough.

The program is spread over the three weeks to allow time for the full series of typhoid shots, also to allow time for Schick tests to determine if diphtheria shots are needed. Persons wanting the three typhoid shots should report the first day. Those wanting Schick tests should report the first or second day so they can get the diphtheria shot, if needed during the program. Those wanting a typhoid booster or smallpox vaccination can report on any of the three Mondays.

Sodality to Make Elaborate Event of May Queen Service

A procession and May Queen crowning to surpass any similar service previously held here is planned for Monday, May 2, when Sodality members hold their annual coronation ceremonies at Sacred Heart church at 7:30 p.m.

More than 500 students will participate in the procession from school to church where a crown of roses will be placed on the statue of the Blessed Virgin designating her as Queen of May. Georgia Ann Hartman, sodality prefect, will do the crowning and will read the act of consecration to Mary. May devotions and Benediction will follow.

Nineteen acolytes in black and white, 42 choir boys in red and white, an honor guard of 82 little girls in white carrying red roses, high school girls in pastel formals, senior girls in blue formals accompanied by pages in white formals, Boy Scouts in full dress and other students will make up the procession. Flags and banners will also be in the lineup.

After their entry in church high school girls with white gladiolas will form an arch for the court to pass through on its way to the Virgin's shrine.

Georgia Ann Hartman will be accompanied by Debra Schilling.

Era Licks MHS in Comedy of Errors

Era High, hailed as the hot contenders for the district title, cashed in on 6 hits and 10 errors last Friday to smear Muenster High 10-2.

The win puts Era definitely out in front for the loop title with a record of 3-0. Muenster now has a 1-1 count.

Sloppy playing by the Muenster boys practically handed the game to their opponents. Meanwhile Era played flawlessly and permitted only the two scores Muenster could earn out of its five hits. Muenster probably had a slight edge in pitching. Richey gave up 6 hits as compared with 5, but was considerably less generous with his walks.

The next test for Muenster will be Friday with Saint Jo's Panthers on the local field.

Banquet Speaker Urges Seniors to Strive for the Top

"Despise no man and despise no thing; for there is no man who has not had his hour and no thing which has not had its place." With those words R. L. Hodges summed up his address to juniors and seniors of Muenster High school Monday night.

Hodges, superintendent of schools at Lake Worth, was the featured speaker at the school's annual banquet honoring members of the junior and senior classes. His address was themed "Ceiling and Visibility Unlimited."

He urged his listeners to be the best—no matter what profession or vocation they choose, and urged them above all, to like what they choose. He told the young people to learn to live and work in friendship and cooperation with each other, to take part in church activity and in community life and emphasized, "Don't let George do it, help George do it."

Jimmy Biffle, junior class president, was toastmaster, Coach John Hosea gave the invocation, Jimmy Harris extended welcome and Corina Vogel responded. Superintendent H. H. Homsley introduced the guest speaker and L. B. Bruns gave the benediction.

This year's affair, a dinner-dance, stressed Moonlight and Roses as its decorative theme. The room was fashioned into a rose garden surrounded by a white picket fence and was centered with a pool of water. Roses were everywhere. They formed an arch over the entry into the dining hall and even climbed over a realistic brick wall at one end of the room. A moon and stars, suspended from the ceiling, gleamed in the candlelight.

Table decorations were arrangements of spring blossoms and drift wood. Places were marked with miniature arches of roses over name plates in styrofoam.

After the meal there was dancing in the gymnasium where the chosen theme again predominated and where spotlights played on a shining moon and twinkling stars.

Mrs. John Steele is back at home after a visit in Canon City, Colo., with her mother who was ill. Mrs. R. P. Emerine recovered sufficiently to make the trip to Muenster with her daughter and will make her home here. The Steeles' son Bill, who also lived in Colorado accompanied them on the trip. Bill is planning to make his home in Arlington and as soon as he is settled his wife will join him there.

Theresa Fisher was among young people in Dallas Sunday at an awards program during which Bishop Thomas K. Gorman presented prizes to winners in the diocesan poster contest. She received a fifty dollar savings bond as a first place winner. Accompanying her to Dallas were her parents, the J. W. Fishers and daughter Joan, Carol Lee Sickling and Sisters Gregory, Barbara, Pauline and Scholastica.

FIRST COMMUNION SUNDAY
Forty-eight little children will receive their First Communion Sunday, May 1. The class of 27 boys and 21 girls received instructions from Sister Alberta and Sister Dennis and went through a final review before Father Patrick.

Athletic Banquet Honors Sacred Heart Teams and Coaches

Sacred Heart High school's athletic banquet this year honored the Tigers, the Tigerettes and their coaches. The event was held in the parish lunch room on April 20 with parents, patrons and friends attending.

Father Patrick Hannon, Cub coach, was toastmaster and addresses were given by Father Louis Deuster, Tigerette coach, Father Christopher Paladino and Julian Walterscheid, Tiger coaches, and Sylvan Walterscheid and Frances Knabe, captains of their teams.

Ten girls received sweaters for lettering in basketball. Twenty boys who lettered in football were introduced. They had received their awards earlier in the year. First year lettermen received jackets, senior lettermen received monogrammed blankets, and second year lettermen who are not seniors received sweaters. Each coach received a blanket.

Another presentation was that of a trophy to Theresa Mae Felderhoff for outstanding basketball play and as the best all-around girl athlete.

Joe Stelding, Tigerette referee, and Mrs. Stelding of Gainesville were special guests.

High school girls were in charge of decorations in the hall and on the tables. School colors of red and white and red roses were used in the decor.

Letter girls are Theresa Mae Felderhoff, Frances Knabe, Delphene Derischweiler, Caroline Hesse, Edna Mae Hoening, Loretta Mages, LaVerna Hess, Nelda Bayer, Georgia Ann Owen and Carol Ann Miller.

Being lost to the Tiger team by graduation are Danny Owens, Larry Hennigan, Paul Hesse, Allen Dale Eberhart, Sylvan Walterscheid, Denis Hofbauer and Carl Walterscheid. Those with one more season ahead are Ervin Henscheid, Melvin Schoech, Rodney Walter, Tommy Herr and Charles Felderhoff.

Sophomore lettermen are Frank Fleitman, Jere Friske, Leo Hess, Kenneth Otto, Claude Walter, Bernard Haverkamp and Herbert Walterscheid. Howard Mollenkopf was the only freshman to letter.

Millers Honored on Fifth Anniversary

Celebrating the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, relatives and friends gathered at the Albert Henscheid home Thursday night for a surprise party for the Millers. Guests brought food for an outdoor supper and enjoyed roasting wieners for the meal.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klement and her sister, Mrs. George Casey and daughter Mary Abbie visiting here from Saint Paul, Minn., and Frank, Carl and Mike Schillings, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess, the Alfred Bayers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres, the George Mollenkops Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess, the Albert Henscheids and family, Henry Pels Jr., and Arnold Schilling. Father Louis was a special guest.

Newlyweds Honored At Informal Party

PFC and Mrs. Eddie Fette, recently married couple, were honored Thursday night at an informal party held at the parish picnic grounds. About a hundred relatives and friends attended. A buffet supper was served, flash pictures were taken and there was dancing to recordings.

The get-together helped the bride get acquainted with her husband's family of uncles, aunts and cousins.

The newlyweds were spending a part of their honeymoon here while he is on leave from Fort Bragg, N.C.

Athletic Banquet Honors Sacred Heart Teams and Coaches

Sacred Heart High school's athletic banquet this year honored the Tigers, the Tigerettes and their coaches. The event was held in the parish lunch room on April 20 with parents, patrons and friends attending.

Father Patrick Hannon, Cub coach, was toastmaster and addresses were given by Father Louis Deuster, Tigerette coach, Father Christopher Paladino and Julian Walterscheid, Tiger coaches, and Sylvan Walterscheid and Frances Knabe, captains of their teams.

Ten girls received sweaters for lettering in basketball. Twenty boys who lettered in football were introduced. They had received their awards earlier in the year. First year lettermen received jackets, senior lettermen received monogrammed blankets, and second year lettermen who are not seniors received sweaters. Each coach received a blanket.

Another presentation was that of a trophy to Theresa Mae Felderhoff for outstanding basketball play and as the best all-around girl athlete.

Joe Steding, Tigerette referee, and Mrs. Steding of Gainesville were special guests.

High school girls were in charge of decorations in the hall and on the tables. School colors of red and white and red roses were used in the decor.

Letter girls are Theresa Mae Felderhoff, Frances Knabe, Delphine Derischweiler, Caroline Hesse, Edna Mae Hoenig, Loreta Mages, LaVerna Hess, Nelda Bayer, Georgia Ann Owen and Carol Ann Miller.

Being lost to the Tiger team by graduation are Danny Owens, Larry Hennigan, Paul Hesse, Allen Dale Eberhart, Sylvan Walterscheid, Denis Hofbauer and Carl Walterscheid. Those with one more season ahead are Ervin Henscheid, Melvin Schoech, Rodney Walter, Tommy Herr and Charles Felderhoff.

Sophomore lettermen are Frank Fleitman, Jere Friske, Leo Hess, Kenneth Otto, Claude Walter, Bernard Haverkamp and Herbert Walterscheid. Howard Mollenkopf was the only freshman to letter.

Celebrating the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, relatives and friends gathered at the Albert Henscheid home Thursday night for a surprise party for the Millers. Guests brought food for an outdoor supper and enjoyed roasting wieners for the meal.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klement and her sister, Mrs. George Casey and daughter Mary Abbie visiting here from Saint Paul, Minn., and Frank, Carl and Mike Schillings, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hess, the Alfred Bayers, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres, the George Mollenkopfs Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hess, the Albert Henscheids and family, Henry Pels Jr., and Arnold Schilling. Father Louis was a special guest.

PFC and Mrs. Eddie Fette, recently married couple, were honored Thursday night at an informal party held at the parish picnic grounds. About a hundred relatives and friends attended. A buffet supper was served, flash pictures were taken and there was dancing to recordings.

The get-together helped the bride get acquainted with her husband's family of uncles, aunts and cousins.

The newlyweds were spending a part of their honeymoon here while he is on leave from Fort Bragg, N.C.

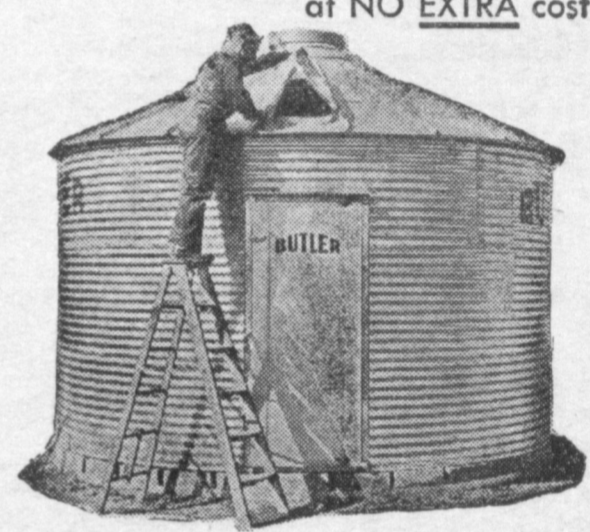

Sunday Homecoming Day at Marysville

No Bargain

Business is too good, we are told, for the automobile makers to resist the unionists' demand for the guaranteed annual wage—to the point of an actual strike. And besides, Walter Reuther himself has said that he and his UAW persuaders go to the bargaining table with General Motors and Ford in a spirit of magnanimity, to press upon these respective managements only what is, in the long run, good for THEM. It now seems that assurance to the worker of 52 pay-days a year is only one of the minor blessings to flow from GAW. It offers a broader benediction to all mankind by leading the world to an era of abundance in which every worker will have the means to satisfy his wants; which will, in turn, keep the factory wheels spinning—not only in the automobile industry, but all others as well—and the whole economy in high gear.

This vision presupposes, of course, that the unions will succeed in establishing GAW as a condition of employment wherever men and women are at work. And similarly, under the lash of GAW, management would suddenly become smarter than it has ever succeeded in being in its own interest. In fact, management would be infallible, or else . . . or else the dream would collapse and everybody would wake up.

The whole concept has a familiar sound and it seems to us that Sir Thomas Moore, the author of Utopia, thought of it quite a few years before Walter Reuther. Whether or not the motor industry leaders yield to union pressure, to their understandable dread of a strike and to the argument that GAW doesn't need to cost them very much after all, only time can tell. But a victory for UAW leaders will be a hollow one for their followers, and for all workers everywhere—both in and out of unions. Higher prices will not stimulate auto sales—even among the recipients of GAW. And certainly, whatever tribute the unions levy as the price of peace, what ever the car builders must pay for labor that is not performed, must ultimately be written on the showroom price-tag.

GAW has been widely interpreted as the workers' crusade for security—rather than the union leaders' drive for a louder voice in management. But when, as and if GAW works, it can only be in a rigidly controlled economy. Once more security will have been purchased with freedom.

Thousands of men in this land of the free are experiencing complete and unassailable security at this moment—behind stone walls and steel bars, and under the watchful eyes of armed guards. But the "pursuit of happiness" is notably absent.

Who's a Sucker

Under the caustic title, "The Sucker in the Super Market," a farm publication says some unkind things about consumers and particularly "the gal who spends the family's food bucks . . . Chances are, when the poor little sucker is pushing the rubber tired cart down the aisles of a self-service 'marketing center,' she's buying glitter and color instead of soup and soap."

The editorial concludes: "Someone ought to remind our little pet of the cracker barrel days when food was delivered to grandma's kitchen door in paper sacks. When the kids got a free sack of candy the first of every month when ma sent them to the store with twenty bucks to pay the monthly grocery bill. Them were . . . days—the days when farmers . . . a lot more than 43 cents from the consumer's dollar."

They were also the days when "the little pets" spent all of their waking hours manufacturing soap and clothes, and preparing food to keep the family alive, just as the farmer worked from dawn to dark to eke an existence out of the soil. The farmer's percentage of the consumer dollar may have changed. So have the living standards of all the people, including farmers, a change that was brought about in part by millions of "little pets" wielding their might as consumers in a free market. Thanks to the "frivolities" of mass distribution, it takes the average worker much less time to earn enough money to buy almost anything sold at retail than it did 25 years ago. True, we spend a little more for our food now than we used to—25 per cent of our disposable family income went for food in 1954 as compared with 23 per cent in 1935-39, but we get more food and better food. Who wants to turn the family kitchen back into a sweat shop or turn the clock back on our farms to the good old days of man-killing manual labor?

We Live 2 Lives

There are 963 weekly newspapers in Canada, with a total circulation of almost 2,500,000. The January issue of a monthly letter issued by the Royal Bank of Canada was devoted entirely to them and their significance. It said: Singly or taken together these weekly newspapers have a great influence on the thought and action of our people.

"Everybody, in a sense, lives two lives, one in a small and the other in a great circle. He belongs by birth or choice to various intimate groups, like his family, his neighborhood, and his cluster of friends. He is also a member of the whole society of Canada, and he is living within an interdependent system of nations. The weekly newspaper belongs to his intimacy."

The same thing is true of the thousands of United States weekly papers and small-city dailies. They are the running record of the community, and of the individuals, families, enterprises and institutions which created, forged and maintained it.—Ex.

Statistics say there are 16,000,000 left-handed people in our land.

Red Finds a "Sweet Solution"

Red Jackson found a slick way to get his cows to eat what's good for them. Seems they were passing up the tall green grass—full of minerals and vitamins—and eating the short grass, which is naturally sweeter.

Red solved the problem by spraying a solution of corn syrup over the grass that was going to be eaten. The cows sure went at it. Red says it's lucky for him—and the cows—that every one of them has a "sweet tooth."

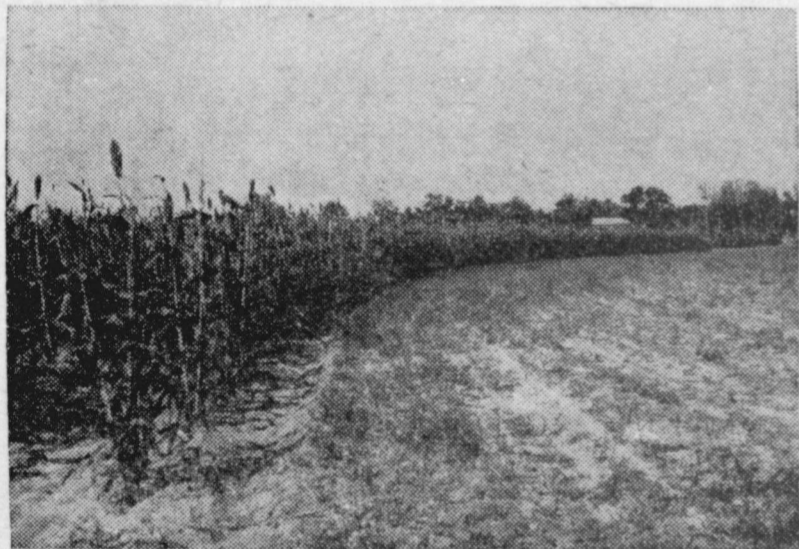

Next week, according to Red, he's going to have his cows clean up all the weedy grass along his fences—after he sprays them with more corn syrup, of course.

From where I sit, some folks, like Red, are always trying out new tricks—and others stick with the old tried and true methods. Just a question of preference, I guess. Like the way you may enjoy coffee with meals, while I prefer a cold glass of beer. So let's not allow any bad feelings to "crop up" by thinking ours is the only choice.

CONTOURING SAVES WATER

Long sweeping curves make pretty pictures, but this farmer wasn't posing his crop for a photograph. He runs his rows so the rains that fall will walk off—not run off. Then, when the weather man forecasts no rain in sight, just a few showers, he won't be so dejected because he knows he will save every drop that falls.

Nature is a relentless foe, but a cheerful helper. Violate the laws of nature and she will tear great gashes in the earth, she will wash away our cities with great furor, then turn about and parch the remains with drouth. Cooperate and nature can build our soils, keep our streams flowing evenly with clear water, and provide a storage of moisture for the dry periods.

CLOUD CITY—Dense fog which rolled in on the wake of a two-day rain hides everyday Chicago, Ill., turns it into a fairytale city of castles in the clouds. Ruined battlements, at left, are in actuality upper works of newest addition to the usually Windy City's skyline; the nearly completed Prudential building.

Bogus Insurance Claims Racket Is Costly to Public

Dreams of easy money tempt men and women to startling acts in staging make-believe accidents to substantiate bogus insurance claims, F. Darby Hammond, executive secretary of the Southwestern Insurance Information Service of Dallas, points out.

"Some people carry little mice in their pockets and slip them into soft drink bottles when unwary vendors turn their backs. Others swallow laundry soap and writhe in pain, simulating serious internal injuries. Still others submit to savage mutilation—smashing their feet with sledge hammers, injecting hydrochloric acid into their arms to compel amputation, even cutting out their eyes with bits of broken glass," according to Hammond.

"Presently, we are engaged in exposing a new kind of highwayman. He doesn't wear a mask, and the chances are slim that he would know the handle from the barrel of a revolver, but just the same he's busy robbing the public every day to the tune of a half-billion dollars a year. Not only is this highwayman's shady activities not a crime, but in many cases he actually has the law on his side. Who is this highwayman? He is the opportunist who, aided by unethical lawyers and doctors, bilks the public out of millions in traffic accident law suit payoffs," Hammond says.

"Court dockets are overflowing and cluttered with these cases all over the Nation, and Texas communities have not escaped these bizarre fraudulent claims. How does the personal injury racketeer go about the business of bilking the public? It is as simple as ABC. Take the guy that bumps his head or trips himself getting off the bus. He finds himself a shyster lawyer and a quack doctor to exaggerate his complaints and winds up collecting all the way from $10,000 to $100,000 from the transit company," Hammond points out.

"Actual cases? You bet, lots of them. Take the fake accident swindler who was caught in the webs of the law when, in support of one claim, he testified that he was confined to bed for a month. Reports revealed that during the month he was supposed to be in bed, he had filed another claim under an alias for another fake accident, staged in a bus. Confronted with evidence to the contrary, he confessed his fraud.

Then there were two accident fakers claiming permanent paralysis. They were suspected of fraud because records showed an excessive number of prior claims. The first was exposed when an investigator, armed with a motion picture camera, photographed him mowing a lawn; the second when another investigator learned that the paralyzed claimant was able to drive to his girl friend's house every night. "He is the father of my unborn child," the girl friend said—and "the paralyzed lover" admitted he was a faker. He served time in the penitentiary for this little episode, Hammond said.

The methods of the fake accident hoaxter are as varied as human ingenuity. While reports show that the most common type of phony accident is the injured back, because it is the easiest to fake, it also shows that some interesting dregs will go to almost any length.

One man virtually destroyed half of himself for $8,000. He chopped off one finger at a time until he was missing six, then a toe at a time until he was missing eight, then part of an ear, the remainder of one hand and slices of his thighs and legs.

"Obviously, the perpetration of fraud against insurance companies is a fraud against the public which the companies serve. Who pays for these frauds? That's easy—the public pays the bill in higher insurance premium costs," Hammond continued.

Mrs. J. M. Shields, Mrs. C. V. Crabtree and Mrs. R. J. Samples attended the district 4 Texas Home Demonstration association meeting in Sherman on April 20. Held in Austin College, the meeting featured a luncheon at noon. Mrs. Shields was selected at council to help with registering delegates and visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Samples visited his sister, Mrs. Charlie Parson at Gainesville Monday. Mrs. Parson suffered a heart attack some weeks ago and has recovered sufficiently to be dismissed from the hospital. She is now permitted to be up for short periods each day.

BREAKFAST IS IMPORTANT BULCHER HD CLUB TOLD

"Nourishing breakfasts are essential to good health," Miss Bernice Puckett, county home demonstration agent, emphasized at the regular meeting of the Bulcher Home Demonstration club on April 21.

She pointed out that school children who leave home without a good breakfast in the morning are less alert than those who begin the day well fortified with nourishment and added that this rule applies also to adults. She suggested breakfast menus and gave a demonstration on making a creamy cheese omelet.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. H. Sharp and members answered roll call by telling what they had for breakfast.

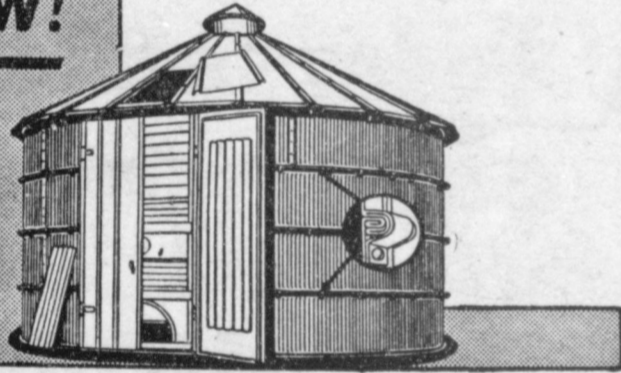

As a means of raising council funds Mrs. J. M. Shields sold skirt and trousers hangers.

After the omelet was finished it was served with hot rolls, butter, jelly and coffee to 11 members. Mrs. Paul Tracey was welcomed as a new member.

The clergyman appeared in the dairy office. "Regarding the milk you deliver to me—" he began.

The manager fidgeted and said uneasily, "Yes, sir?"

"Well," concluded the clergyman, "I just wanted to say I use the milk for drinking, not christening."

Milk Receipts - - -

rocketed production. Weather also accounts for the sharp drop later in the month.

As a result the plant is mostly in the processing business now. Milk is plentiful everywhere, so it has little demand for raw milk. As the surplus declines a larger percentage of local receipts will go out to meet shortages elsewhere, and when the season gets more slack Northern milk will be hauled in to supply the plant's Grade A demand.

The plant's principal product nowadays is powdered milk, however a considerable quantity of condensed milk is made to fill orders as they come in. The big reason for powdering is that the product can be stored in less space and without refrigeration. During less than five months since the plant has had its spray dryer it has made more than 1.5 million pounds of powdered milk.

Another factor encouraging production of powdered milk now is the good cream market. So the cream, representing the big percentage of milk value, is separated and shipped while the rest is made into condense or powder.

In English pubs a firm rule of etiquette is that after sundown a patron must greet the barman with "good evening." On departure "good evening" is repeated. Failure to follow the code is considered inexcusable.

This fellow didn't say a word. Having paid for and gulped his pint, he walked fly-like up one wall, crossed the ceiling upside-down, descended fly-like down the opposite wall and departed.

To the customers the barman said, "Curious fellow. He didn't say good evening."

The English think that's funny, and so did I. At least I used to.

The cattle market goes up and down, and our prices vary with it, but we manage to sell a little higher than the prevailing market. Every sale, we can be proud of OUR market, as compared with THE market.

Besides, there's the customary advantage of lower commission charge, less shrinkage and less hauling expense.

value in a homestead is not taxable. On a county wide basis this exempts about $6 million of valuation out of a total of about $38 million.

Incidentally, this means that the tax would raise about $32,000 a year, a fund which will be adequate for supporting the $300,000 or so in bonds to finance right of way purchase. Figuring in other funds that will become available after present obligations are met, along with increases from the county's usual increase in valuation, it would seem that the 10 cent tax will provide nicely both for proposed projects and for anticipated future projects.
