Mitchell F. Moon, 80, a long-time resident of Marysville, died at his home Sunday at 7:40 p.m. after a lengthy illness. He was a retired farmer.

Mr. Moon was born in Glasgow, Ky., on Nov. 27, 1874, and came to Cooke County with his parents when he was about 10 years old, settling with them in Marysville. His wife, the former Miss Mollie McElrath, died in 1910.

Ella Mae Booher of California, Gene Pearson of Thackerville, Okla., and Mary Lou Page of Santa Fe, N. M.; two half-brothers, J. L. Tigers Nip Micks And Ranchers in SAL Loop Openers

Backed by the hefty hitting of Tommy Herr, Father Christopher's Sacred Heart Tigers romped to a good start in their 1955 baseball season. At Laneri last Friday they won their opener 12-6 and again on the home field Sunday they set back the Boys Ranch for a 16-10 count.

Herr blasted the Laneri pitcher with a home run, a triple and a single in five times at bat, driving in 3 tallies each on the homer and the 3-bagger.

Sunday he had a better, though slightly less sensational record. He banged out 3 doubles and a single in 5 attempts.

The Tigers held a comfortable lead all the way over the Cow town boys. They started with a 5-run first inning barrage and added 4 in the second and 3 in the fifth. Meanwhile Laneri trailed along with 2 in the first, 1 each in the third and fifth and 2 in the seventh.

They made a similar strong start against the Ranchers, but their comfortable lead did not last. As Sacred Heart came to bat at the bottom of the fifth the score was tied at 7 all. Another 6-run slugfest broke the tension however, and 3 more in the sixth proved too much for the visitors to overcome.

Sacred Heart, Laneri and Boys Ranch are the only teams competing in district play this year, and the loop schedule consists of 3 games with each opponent.

The Tigers will meet Laneri here next Tuesday at 2:30, and Boys Ranch there the following Friday.

Muenster Listed With Winners in League's Openers

Muenster's B-29 Bombers dumped the Bezner Chicks 6-2 Wednesday night to become one of the six leaders of the Cooke County Softball League. Six games have been played in double headers Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday leaving Woodbine the only member of the 13 team loop that has not had a test.

First round winners are B-29, Lindsay, Era, TP&L, National Supply and Sinclair.

In Wednesday night's game the Chicks pushed over 2 runs in the first and went scoreless the rest of the way. Muenster got 3 in the second, 2 in the third and 1 in the fourth. Two were homers, by Norb Mages and Herbie Herr.

Coffman turned in a good pitching record for Muenster in spite of a finger injury in practice Monday. He fanned 9 and allowed 5 hits and a walk. Richard Mosman for the Chicks walked 3 and struck out 5 while allowing 11 hits. Hoedebeck was his chief trouble maker with 3 safeties.

Nerves Frazzled by Ill Wind on Texoma

A couple of wives spent anxious hours Wednesday morning while Harold Schmitz and Nick Dieter made the most of a bad situation by fishing. During the night strong wind had blown their boat across Lake Texoma to the Oklahoma shore, and they were mighty glad to get out and spend the rest of the night on terra firma.

Next morning the were a long way from their car and had no chance of reporting to work on time, so decided to fish some more before crossing the lake and checking in their boat. Meanwhile wives were worried and started inquiring . . . and were not a bit relieved by a report that their car was located but not the men. Tension finally ended about 11 o'clock when the fellows casually returned the boat.

Fourth Degree KCs Honor Weinzapfel At Formal Dinner

Muenster Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus Sunday night honored J. M. Weinzapfel, Master of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese, District 3 in Texas, and first faithful navigator of the Bishop Dangelmayr assembly, an office he held for ten years.

Sharing honors of the occasion with Mr. Weinzapfel was His Excellency the Most Rev. Bishop Augustine Dangelmayr after whom the assembly is named.

The celebration was a banquet attended by local knights and their ladies and special guests from Dallas, Fort Worth, Denton and Denison, bringing the total number of those present to 50.

Members and guests were greeted by J. W. Fisher, present faithful navigator of the assembly, who served as toastmaster. He gave a brief history of the organization along with a resume of achievements during the time Mr. Weinzapfel was its leader. As a token of appreciation the assembly presented him a gift of luggage. Bishop Dangelmayr also received a gift of appreciation.

As principal after dinner speaker, Bishop Dangelmayr, after paying tribute to Mr. Weinzapfel delivered an address designed to instill a greater sense of responsibility in the Knights of Columbus.

"Often we are inclined to lose sight of who we are and why we're here," he said. "We must be ever conscious of things eternal, of our spiritual interests, remembering that it is by our example, our conduct, and responsibility to others, that we can take our places in the kingdom of God on earth, and eventually

Building And Improvement Notes

Two more new homes in the city are off to a good start, two more are nearing completion and another is just finished.

Roofing is almost finished on the new Jimmy Lehnertz home on North Main. It's going to be a 3-bedroom house with central heating and an attached double garage.

Another house, likewise started two weeks ago, has also reached the roofing stage. Al Yosten is building a 6-room home with central heating and an attached garage.

Houses nearing completion are Alphonse Luke's on North Main and R. M. Zipper's No. 7 north of the public school. The Zipper place is waiting now for painters to finish their work at Luke's.

All finished and waiting for occupancy is Donald Walterscheid's home in the southeast part of town. Yard work is the only activity there lately.

Out of town, in the Marysville area, it's to be a new home for Rafe McElreath. He's adding 4 rooms to the 2 already there but the old part will not be recognizable when the job is finished. Work there started Monday.

Hornets Start '55 Baseball With 6-4 Win Over Indians

Muenster High's Hornets made a good start on their 1955 baseball season last Friday afternoon by taking a 6-4 decision over the Sanger Indians.

The boys practically iced the game away in the first inning by cashing in on three hits and two errors for 4 tallies. Swirczynski added another run in the second and Hallmark clouted a homer in the fifth. Sanger kept threatening all the way but was held to 2 in the second and 1 each in the fifth and sixth.

The Hornet district schedule this year consists of only 5 games, one with each of the other teams in the 6-member loop.

Their next game will be with Era, which has two wins to date, Friday afternoon on the Era field. A week later Saint Jo comes here and on May 6 Valley View will play here.

The game with Callisburg, scheduled on April 8 was postponed because of rain. It will be played on a date to be set by the two schools.

Nothing Soft About This Softball Game

Softball, some people used to call it kitten ball, is supposed to be a more or less gentle version of baseball, but that practice game between Muenster and Lindsay Monday night must have been an exception. Otherwise three fellows, who turned out to be casualties, were just jinxed.

Of the trio, Johnny Schmitz sustained the worst injury, and landed in the hospital. He dislocated a hip sliding into second base and endured a rough stretch of agony before the docs at Gainesville Sanitarium got his bones back in place.

Glenn Coffman, Muenster twirler, had a finger nail torn loose when the ball hit the tip of his finger.

Billy Zimmerer went out of the game with spike gashes above his left knee. He was scrambling for the ball as Gene Hoedebeck came sliding into third.

PTA Members Hear Lewis Rigler and Re-elect Officers

Cooke County has comparatively little trouble with juvenile delinquency, but its record can be improved, and probably would be improved by employment of a full time juvenile officer.

That was the thought offered by Texas Ranger Lewis Rigler to Muenster PTA members at their regular meeting Tuesday night.

Rigler also stated that the first responsibility in dealing with the juvenile delinquency problem is in the home. Too often parents fail to practice what they preach. They tell children what to do and what not to do but their own example does not harmonize with their advice.

Another very frequent cause of delinquency, as revealed by records, is physical handicaps. Children who become aware of such handicaps have a tendency to become resentful toward society in general. The same records show that children's behavior improved when their physical condition improved.

The business session of the meeting consisted only of the annual election of officers, in which all present officers were retained for another year. They are Mrs. Ervin Hamric, president; Mrs. John Mosman, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Albert Fleitman, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Fisher, secretary; and L. B. Bruns, parliamentarian.

The next meeting, on May 17, will offer an especially interesting feature entitled "The Magic Barrel", sponsored by the American Petroleum Institute. It's a talk on the importance of oil as a basic manufacturing source accompanied by a demonstration in which dozens and dozens of petroleum products are drawn from a barrel.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Mrs. Henry Wolf Sr. was dismissed from Gaston Hospital in Dallas Saturday and is back at her home here. She is still confined to bed.

Leonard Reynolds is a patient at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth since an oil field accident at Bridgeport last Thursday afternoon. He received a broken jaw. According to his wife, he'll be dismissed from the hospital this weekend.

J. S. Bagwell of Myra underwent major surgery at Wilson-Jones Hospital in Sherman Wednesday and will remain a patient about 10 days. He is in Room 6-C. His wife is attending his bedside and Mrs. C. F. Gobble and Mrs. Cecil Cain visited him Wednesday.

Mrs. Carl Gimple of Valley View underwent surgery at M&S Hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman received medical care at Gainesville Sanitarium during the weekend.

Mrs. Anthony Klement underwent an appendicitis operation at Gainesville Sanitarium Sunday morning.

Swimming Pool Materials Arrive; Construction Starts

Work on Muenster's municipal swimming pool, held up by weather and materials for several weeks, can go on now provided weather remains dry and more material arrives.

Jerome Pagel, building superintendent said Wednesday that reinforced iron, cut and bent to specification, has arrived. So has pipe for drainage, circulation, filtering, etc. Work on the circulation and filtering system is due to begin at once.

Installation of an 8 inch drainage pipe, completed Tuesday, solves one of the construction problems that existed up to now. Recent rain formed a pool in the pit and held up work until water could be removed. Hereafter the surplus water, in case of more rain will drain to the creek. Mud may cause a short delay but standing water will cause no more trouble.

The next construction problem is the current shortage of cement. Apparently enough is available for installation of plumbing, but the city has no assurance that it will receive its next shipment by the time men are ready to run the floor and walls.

Meanwhile workmen are busy with pick and shovel shaping the pit bottom to the specified contour of the swimming pool floor. The first excavation work was done with a bulldozer.

H. Homsley Elected Lions Club Prexy

Howard H. Homsley, superintendent of Muenster High School is the new president of the Muenster Lions Club, succeeding Dr. T. S. Myrick. He was elected Tuesday at the group's regular meeting.

Other officers elected were T. S. Myrick, first vice president; J. J. Wieler, second vice president; Ray Otto, third vice president; Earl Fisher, secretary, Marty Klement, lion tamer; J. P. Flusche, tail twister, and Urban Endres, J. A. Fisher, Jim Lehnertz and Dick Cain, directors.

A report read at the meeting revealed that the Lions are indebted to Cooke County Electric Cooperative and to Tony Walterscheid for substantial help on the church tower lighting project. The Co-op furnished equipment at cost and Walterscheid and his sons donated their work. The total cash outlay for the job, reflectors, bulbs, time switch and wiring is $119.

Dick Hesse Shows Grand Champ Lamb

Dick Hesse, exhibiting for the first time in a 4-H show, Tuesday won a grand championship with his Suffolk lamb, and upheld a tradition set by his older brothers, Paul and Thomas, who have been repeat winners on Suffolk entries for several years. Dick is the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Meinrad Hesse and is a fifth grader at Sacred Heart school.

Grand champions and reserve champions were named in all three divisions of the annual 4-H club and FFA Livestock show at Gainesville Tuesday morning.

Lindsay 4-H clubbers won top honors in the swine division. Melvin Kuhn showed the grand champion pig and Mark Hermes exhibited the reserve champ. Both were Berkshires.

The Era FFA chapter counted

Theresa Fisher and Kenny Fette Win in Poster Contests

Sacred Heart school has a diocesan first place winner in the Vocation Poster Contest. Capturing the top award in the girls' elementary division is Theresa Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher. The prize is a $50 savings bond.

Diocesan winners were selected from deanery winners and Sacred Heart had two first place entries in that contest. In addition to Theresa's poster, the one submitted by Kenny Fette was best in the elementary boys' division.

Prizes in the deanery for top entries were $10 in savings stamps.

Bishop Gorman will present awards to diocesan winners in ceremonies in Sacred Heart Cathedral, Dallas, next Sunday. There were four first place winners in each of the six deaneries of the Dallas-Fort Worth diocese except in the Wichita Falls deanery which did not enter in the high school boys' division.

Theresa, a seventh grader, used tempera paint for her poster which shows a sea centered by a light-house. The light-house represents religious vocations. Its rays depict good example, and the ocean waves represent temptations of the world. It is titled, "Wanted, A Keeper."

Kenny, a sixth grade student and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fette, did his poster in black and white, using India ink. It displays a hand carrying a torch.

Garden Club Sees Colored Slides at Monday's Meeting

Civic League and Garden Club members, meeting Monday night in the home of Mrs. Ben Luke, enjoyed a social session highlighted by the showing of colored slides by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schmidt of Sanger. Husbands of members were special guests.

The Schmidts, who have toured 13 foreign countries and several states of the U.S., are avid film fans along with being world travelers, and showed two hours of "entertaining" and educational slides, explaining and commenting on scenes.

They showed pictures taken in England, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Italy, and some taken in California and Colorado.

Especially appealing to members were scenes of flowers, gardens, homes and women's interests and activity in the countries the Schmidts visited, while the men present took special interest in the films depicting farming methods (it was harvest time when the Schmidts were there last year), and industrial centers. Both groups enjoyed the historic shots particularly those taken in Rome.

As a finale to the program Bernard Luke, son of the hostess, showed slides he took during his four years in the Navy including some taken in Haiti.

Mrs. Anthony Luke shared hostess duties for the evening and Mrs. Conrad Jostwerner assisted the two hostesses in serving refreshments of apple pie a la mode, snacks and coffee to those present. Mrs. E. C. Meade and Mrs. Davis of Gainesville were among guests for the evening.

The next meeting, slated for May 9, will be held in the home of Mrs. Joe Luke with Mrs. Edd McGannon as co-hostess. Principals of Flower Arrangement will be the theme of the program and every member is invited to bring a guest.

The cake was surrounded by gold leaves and berries. "Standing guard" over the cake was a doll nun dressed in a habit to duplicate the one worn by the honor guest. Donna Hofbauer presided at the guest book.

Sister Rita, the former Miss Katie Walter, came to Muenster, with her parents in 1898 and entered the convent from here. She is a nurse, superintendent of Saint Joseph's Hospital at Brainard.

The American Way

ALLERGIC TO BALONEY
 By George Peck

The day of the Commie soap-box orator is a thing of the past, thank goodness! The Reds now are using quieter and more insidious techniques.

However, those of us who were doomed to live in the larger cities of the nation a decade or so ago, will not forget those defamers of our American Capitalistic System. Most of those slimy-looking individuals who infested our metropolitan street corners were rather amusing as they grew almost apoplectic in their denunciations of Capitalism and the alleged obnoxious monsters who controlled it. It bordered on the hilarious when they burst into tears as they raved and ranted about the sad plight of the poor, down-trodden workers of America.

A few people, a very few, were fooled by these wild bursts of soap-box oratory. But Americans for the most part, took them with a grain of salt. It's rather a difficult job to convince a well-paid, well-fed, well-dressed, well-housed American worker that he's an object of pity. It just doesn't add up to any individual who can do a bit of thinking on his own hook.

This reminiscing about the departed Commie soap-box orator reminds me of an old gag that illustrates just how immune the average American is to phony propaganda.

It seems that an American citizen, who was listening to a Communist orator expounding upon the beauties of the Soviet System of government and society, was seized with a violent and prolonged fit of sneezing.

The Communist paused in his oration, glared down upon the sneezer from the lofty heights of his soap-box and asked:

"What's the matter with you? Are you catching cold?"

"No," replied the American between sneezes, "I'm just allergic to baloney."

And so, as it finally dawned on the emissaries of the Kremlin, that an awful lot of Americans are "allergic to baloney," they decided to abandon the soap-boxes and transfer their nefarious works to other fields of action. They came to realize at long last that too many American workers know that laboring under our American System of Free Enterprise, they are kings in comparison with workers under all other systems; and that their malicious, lying propaganda was falling on deaf ears.

The average American worker does not believe that under our system there have not been and are not now many cases of injus-justice to the workers. He knows that America is still far short of Utopia, of being a land of "milk and honey." But at the same time, he also is aware that we have come closer to achieving that happy goal than has any other nation in all history, and that further, if government can be persuaded or forced to cease its meddling with and hampering of industry, we will come still closer to realizing that idealistic dream.

And so, these inhuman rats masquerading as humans, have burrowed into our labor unions, our schools, our churches, into various departments of our government, in fact, they have infiltrated into every nook and cranny of our society. Underground, sneaky techniques have replaced the open, bold soap-box techniques. Sad to relate, these new methods, operating in these new arenas of action, have met with considerable success. Why? Because they operate under cover to bamboozle an unsuspecting public.

Still more unfortunately, whenever the government agencies that we set up to ferret out these vermin and hold them up to public gaze, begin to function, they are halted in their tracks. The Commies, working behind the scenes, have a habit of convincing the American people that the investigators are the cul-

The Gospels Puzzle Many

By Frank Sheed, Author and Publisher

JESUS CHRIST'S METHOD of revealing that He was God puzzles many readers of the Gospels. They feel He made an unnecessary mystery out of it: if He was God, it would have been easier for Him to say so plainly at the very outset of His mission.

Those who believe that Christ was God are sometimes puzzled at this mystery; those who don't believe say that this difficulty proves their point. But we may surmise that Jesus did not immediately tell His friends or His enemies that He was God because they were Jews. The Jews were people who trembled at the very name of God.

OUR AGE HAS LOST this sense of God's mystery and glory. Thus we forget that Jesus had to lead men slowly to the shattering truth that He was GOD.

Today men think of God as an interesting person to meet. They picture themselves happily engaging in an interchange of views with Him upon the running of the universe. They see themselves making their suggestions with God explaining His difficulties. It seems natural to them that God should simply introduce Himself to men with no ceremony and grandeur.

BUT THIS IS NAIVE to the point of absurdity. No Jew of Our Lord's day, however sinful he may have been, could have had so childish an idea of God. If Jesus Christ had begun His public life with the announcement that He was God, and if they believed Him, they would have fallen flat on their faces and never got up.

To men with an awareness of the majesty of God, the truth that Christ was God had to be broken very gradually. Otherwise it would have broken them. If we read the Gospels with this in mind we can see how marvelously Our Lord brought this truth home to the Apostles.

HE DID NOT TELL them; He brought them to a point where they told Him. They saw Him doing things and heard Him saying things—things that only God has a right to do (like forgiving sins and supplementing the law God had given on Sinai). They heard Him say things that only God could truthfully say ("I and the Father are one"; "Before Abraham was, I am"). And they reflected on what they had seen and heard.

Certain actions of His were incapable of any lesser explanation. A wild idea began to form in their minds. Though at times they would feel unsure, slowly the conviction that Jesus Christ was the only begotten Son of God, God Himself, began to dawn upon them. At last came St. Peter's confession, which was so richly rewarded: "Thou art Christ, Son of the Living God."

"Why I had to embrace the CATHOLIC Faith"

"I wanted to be a part of Christ's Mystical Body... to adore Him in the Mass... to find Him in the Holy Eucharist... to receive His sanctifying grace... to be assured of the forgiveness of my sins.

"... I wanted the Holy Spirit to fill every bit of me from the top of my head to the tips of my toes... to slip my hand into my Father's and say 'Lead me, Lord'.

"... I wanted to learn about angels and saints and the Blessed Mother, and how to prepare for heaven; I wanted to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

"I wanted to love God above all else, with my whole heart and soul and mind, and my neighbor as myself... and nowhere can I find the pattern so clearly shown and taught as in the Catholic Church."

These are not the words of a lifelong Catholic. They come from the heart of one who was told in childhood that Catholics are "ignorant and superstitious"... whose circle of friends included no Catholics... who was never exposed to the "coercion" of a Catholic priest or the influence of Catholic literature.

They are the heartfelt words of a genuinely religious and deeply sincere woman who has wandered down many byways in search of Christ's truth... and now finds peace and joy and certainty in the last place she looked—in the Catholic Faith. A convert!

To all who seek this same certainty, the Catholic Church says just one thing: "Investigate! Investigate! Investigate!" Find out for yourself... as thousands are doing every day... exactly what the Catholic Church teaches—why it claims to be Christ's Church—how it clearly charts the course that Christ intended men to walk.

As a first step, we invite you to read a pamphlet containing the full story of the woman convert related only in part here... and many other equally heart-warming experiences of people who have returned to the Faith of their forefathers in recent months.

This remarkable pamphlet... describing the feelings, experiences and discoveries of those who investigate the Catholic Faith... and embrace it... will be sent in a plain wrapper upon request—without cost or obligation. And nobody will call on you. Write today... Ask for Pamphlet No. KC-40.

Brighten Lawn by Use of Fertilizer

COLLEGE STATION — Home lawns receive an added "punch" if treated in the spring with a complete fertilizer.

Use a fertilizer of a 2-1-1 or 1-1-1 ratio at rates to supply two pounds of actual nitrogen for each 1,000 square feet of lawn area, advises E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. That's the amount of nitrogen in 20 pounds of 10-20-10 or 40 pounds of 5-10-5.

Another pound of nitrogen applied at 30 to 40 day intervals will keep lawns green throughout the summer, says Trew. Supply water as needed.

Water only when the yard shows a definite need. Soak the soil to a depth of at least six inches when the grass takes on a sheen or wilt.

Light frequent sprinklings produce shallow roots and encourage weeds. Shallow roots also are unable to utilize available moisture and plant food.

Improper mowing is responsible for the deterioration of many lawns, says the specialist, who advises against clipping more than one-half inch of growth at any single mowing. Keep the grass at a height of one and one-half to two inches, depending upon the turf thickness. Close mowing will thin the turf, lowering its resistance to drought.

Finally, Trew says a sharp, well-adjusted mower that clips off, not crushes off, the tips will give lawns a final "well-groomed" look.

A passenger on a commuter train asked the conductor, "Is smoking permitted, mister?"

"No," the skipper told him.

"Well, where did all these cigarette butts and all this smoke come from?"

The man in uniform replied: "From people who didn't ask questions."

Soil Conservation Notes

The seeding of King Ranch Bluestem grass for pasture and waterways continued in the Muenster area as cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District took another step in getting a coordinated soil, water and plant conservation plan applied to their land.

Alfons Koesler planted five acres of KR along a natural drain in his east field. The grassed strip will serve as an outlet for terraces that will help protect the field against soil and water losses. The waterway will also serve as a hay meadow or for increased grazing.

Opal Christian Berry has planted KR on two waterways on her ranch near Rosston. The grass will protect natural drains and act as safe outlets for diversion terraces that will protect bottomland fields from outside hill water.

Sodding operations began Tuesday this week on three of the completed flood prevention reservoirs near Saint Jo. Bermuda grass roots are being planted on the dams and spillways of the Lutkenhaus, Fields and Grant reservoir dams. On account of the steep slopes on the structures teams are being used to plow the soil, and the roots are being hand dropped in the furrows. After the bermuda is planted the dams and spillways will be overseeded to King Ranch Bluestem.

Holiday in New Orleans

Misses Olive Haverkamp and Rose Holec of Dallas spent a recent three-day holiday in New Orleans. Olive told her parents, the Alois Haverkamps, they had a wonderful time visiting the churches, the French Quarters and on a two and a half hour boat trip on the Mississippi River. They made the trip by plane and on their return were in a storm that delayed them about two hours. They had to fasten their safety belts and for a while it was "exciting" to say the least, Olive said.

Evaporation losses from the vent of a gasoline storage tank in the hot sun may be as high as 10 per cent a month. Agricultural engineers advise keeping storage tanks under trees or shelters to reduce this loss. Underground storage is most satisfactory, since ground temperature is fairly constant and there is neither excessive evaporation nor condensation in the storage tank.

it's Karo for me, the best-tasting waffle syrup of 'em all"

Yes, indeed... biscuits go like hot cakes when you pour on plenty of delicious Karo waffle syrup. There's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfyin' flavor. So rich it stands right up on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keep Karo on your table morning, noon and night... it tops anything!

Fly Control Tops
Most Urgent List
Of Health Services

AUSTIN—Many Texas children and adults die each year from flyborne diseases. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, and intestinal diseases frequently resulting in death follow closely in the trail of the common housefly.

"The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and community in the State," said Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. "The most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding, and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her lifetime of several months, one housefly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs. Thus, it can easily be seen that in a season which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants from one fly number countless of thousands."

To eliminate flies, Dr. Holle said the breeding places must be destroyed. As flies breed in filth, manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

"See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not endanger your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies."

Metal Fishing Pole
Silences TV Set

LOS ANGELES.—A Wilshire District resident has found a way to silence his neighbor's TV set, whenever he wishes.

The idea came to him during a recent hot spell when he was unable to sleep because of the blare of commercials from the set next door.

He stuck a metal fish pole out his third story window and leaned it against the antenna on the neighbor's roof. It did a beautiful job of shorting reception. He resorts to the fish pole now as often as necessary, removing it in the morning. The neighbor and a TV repairman, he reports, are slowly going nuts.

Decadent... But!

According to an AP dispatch, Pravda, the newspaper which speaks for the Kremlin, recently gave the Soviet machine building industry a sharp scolding "and said it could learn a lot from Detroit and Pittsburgh." A short time before that Party Secretary Khrushchev told Soviet farmers that they could learn much about corn and hog culture from Iowa.

It is official Communist doctrine that capitalist America is a decadent nation in which farmers and workers are ruthlessly exploited. But, when it comes to actual problems, it seems that the communists have to look to us decadent capitalists for solutions.

Experts say there are about six sextillion (6,000,000,000,000,000,000,000) atoms in a typical drop of water.

Dragging a Chain Cures Car Sickness

MELBOURNE, Australia. — A chain dangling on the ground works as an antidote to car sickness, the National Safety Council reports.

Persons subject to car sickness remained normal when the chain was in contact with the ground and immediately became ill when the chain was removed, even without their knowledge.

Cases were reported where a sick passenger recovered as soon as the chain was put down.

R. S. Forbes, Safety Council secretary, said one theory is that static electricity generated by cars causes the sickness, and the cause is removed when the electricity is grounded by the chain.

Home Accidents Happen Mostly to Persons Over 65

COLLEGE STATION—"Over 65" is considered a dangerous driving speed. But, asks the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, has "over 65" ever been considered as a dangerous age from the standpoint of farm and home accidents?

Figures released by the National Safety Council to the Texas Committee show that 29,000 deaths in 1953 resulted from home accidents, and 15,700 of these were to men and women over 65. Here is why, says the committee, that special attention should be given the older group in any safety program involving the home. Figures show that some 12 1/4 million persons or about 8 percent of our total population are in the over-65 age group and the number is increasing.

A closer look at the 1953 Safety Council report shows that falls accounted for 12,600 of the home accident deaths of older people in 1953. Eliminate the hazards, says the Texas Committee, which can cause home accidents and remember that older folks do not always see, hear nor coordinate as well as younger people. They offer these suggestions. Put grab-bars in bathtubs; avoid the use of small throwrugs; do not wax floors highly; be sure all stairs and halls are well-lighted and contain no boxes, toys and other items over which to stumble; put secure handrails beside all stairs; keep sidewalks and steps around the house in good repair and clear of obstructions and use night lights in bedrooms, halls and bathrooms.

Fire prevention is especially important since 1,400 persons over 65 died from burns or injuries from fires in 1953. Just don't forget the older folks, cautions the Safety Committee.

ARE THEY PAYING OFF?

The average cow is losing money for its owner according to dairy specialists. It takes about two gallons of milk a day from each cow for the dairyman to break even, they say, and the average cow gives only a gallon and a half. But members of dairy herd improvement associations average almost three gallons a day from their cows and make an average of $100 profit a year from each cow.

Why can they do this? The answer is in keeping records. Association members keep records that show them which cows are making money and which are losing. Unprofitable cows are soon culled from the herd.

Henrietta Fuhrmann, W. E. Dankesreiter to Marry May Seventh

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Fuhrmann have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Henrietta, to William Eugene Dankesreiter of Pilot Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dankesreiter of that city.

The couple has set Saturday, May 7, as the date for the wedding. The nuptial service will be solemnized in St. Peter's church at Lindsay at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Attending as maid of honor will be Miss Patsy Devers of Dallas, niece of Miss Fuhrmann, and Miss Aileen Schmitz, bridesmaid. Mr. Dankesreiter will have his brother, Walter, as best man, and the bride's brother, Bert Fuhrmann, as groomsmen.

Fred Kuhn Breaks Hip

Fred Kuhn, 88, Lindsay's oldest resident, is in M&S Hospital since he broke his left hip in a fall at his home last Friday evening. He underwent surgery to insert a pin in the fractured bone and was reported as reacting normally after such an operation. X-rays this weekend will determine when he can return home.

Clarence Metzler And Lois McGowan Of Dallas Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Metzler are honeymooning since their recent marriage and will make their home in Pottsboro when they return. She is the former Lois McGowan of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goddard of that city. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Metzler of Lindsay.

The nuptial mass and double ring ceremony took place in Immaculate Conception church at Grand Prairie on April 11 with the pastor, Rev. Father F. G. Meisch officiating. Mrs. Robert Young of Dallas presented vocal selections during the mass. Gerald and Leroy Metzler were ushers.

The bride wore an ice blue waltz length dress of satin designed on princess lines with a wide skirt over crinolines, and a matching bolero jacket with petal point sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a satin half hat that matched her dress, and she carried her flowers, a white orchid surrounded by carnations, on top of a white prayer book which was a gift from the groom. She was given in marriage by her father.

Attending the couple were the groom's brother and sister-in-law, S.Sgt. and Mrs. Bill Metzler. Mrs. Metzler wore a baby blue taffeta waltz length dress with a blue feather half hat and carried a bouquet of blue tinted carnations centered with a yellow carnation. Little Miss Linda McGowan of Dallas was flower girl, wearing white nylon organdy over taffeta with a matching half hat.

After the services a breakfast was held in a Dallas cafeteria for 36 family members. At 5:30 p.m. a reception began in the Lindsay Hall and a buffet supper was served to about 250 guests. A dance at night preceded Mr. and Mrs. Metzler's departure on a car trip with Florida as their destination.

Metzler is a veteran of world war II. He served with the Navy Seabees and saw action at Tulagi, the Solomons and Guadalcanal. Later he was on duty in New Zealand. After the war he was in business in Dallas and is now manager of Preston Fishing Camp at Lake Texoma.

in the kingdom of heaven."

Father Thomas Weinzapfel of Dallas, son of the honor guest, in a brief address let his audience know he was proud of his dad, proud of Sacred Heart parish, and of his home town Muenster, proud of its present leaders and of leaders who have gone before.

Other short talks were given by Father Louis Deuster, faithful friar of the assembly; Joe Walker, Dallas, and Guy Thompson, Fort Worth, faithful navigators of their assemblies; and Judge Frank O'Brien of Dallas. They followed the theme of the evening in extending congratulations to Mr. Weinzapfel and calling attention to his K of C activity.

Grand Knights Charley Hellman of Muenster and John Chandler of Dallas were introduced and all visitors were recognized.

Mr. Weinzapfel, when called upon to speak, was humble in his thanks and appreciation of the program and the gift.

Toastmaster Fisher ended the program by pointing out that usually a successful man is backed up, inspired, and urged on by someone who remains in the background without ever a thought of recognition. The audience applauded enthusiastically when he presented Mrs. Weinzapfel.

The four course banquet was prepared by Lehnertz catering service and was served in the lunch room of Muenster High school. Bishop Dangelmayr gave the invocation and Father Louis presented the closing prayer. Decorations in the hall and on the tables stressed the assembly's colors of red, white and blue. Tinted carnations were the floral complement. Miss Rita Cain presented muted piano selections during the meal.

Weinzapfel joined the Knights of Columbus in 1914 and has been a Fourth Degree member since 1925, serving in some local, district or state office ever since. He headed the local Fourth Degree assembly as faithful navigator from the time of its organization in Sept. 1944, until the last election when J. W. Fisher was elected his successor. In September, 1954, he received his appointment as master of the district from Supreme Master William J. Mulligan of Hartford, Conn.

Weinzapfel's district, which is the same as the diocese, has assemblies in Muenster, Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Longview.

Guests from out of town at the program included 15 from Dallas, five from Fort Worth, four from Denton and three from Denison.

Pat and Mike were dining together. When the fish arrived, Pat took the larger piece.

"Poine manners ye have," said Mike. "If I'd reached out first, I'd have taken the smaller piece." "What's ailen ye," said Pat, "You got it."

Confetti ---

In that regard, reports from the Afro-Asian conference the last few days have been next to inspiring. Little countries, led by the Philippines and Pakistan are telling the big Chinese Red bully in rather plain words that they want no part of the "new colonialism". It must be quite a let down to the commies, who had visions persuading the Asiatics that they must unite against the whites, to discover that those countries are looking to us rather than to them for security and happiness.

We Americans have reason to be proud of the esteem we enjoy at Bandung. We have reason also to rejoice that we have at last taken a stand to merit those people's confidence. Above all we have reason to hope that the tributes of these Asiatics will inspire our leaders to continue their good work, never conceding another inch to the red menace.

Along that line, a fair opportunity may be waiting in that proposed Big 4 conference. Not so many months ago this column would have dreaded such a powwow as another probable triumph for the Soviet schemes. But things can be different, now that Uncle Sam has re-discovered his backbone.

We could welcome the meeting as an occasion to talk turkey. To tell the Kremlin, for instance, that we'll have no more of the highway robbery which it chooses to call tolls in Germany. As a matter of fact we might insist that the highway and railroad to Berlin be declared an international free-way without Russians even showing their ugly faces. We might let them understand also that we are prepared to apply equal economic and political pressure, or more, in retaliation for every shenanigan they pull in the future. It's about time that we started advancing a few of our own theories on co-existence.

Shakespeare used some 24,000 different words in his plays—and undoubtedly knew more than that. The total recognition vocabulary for the adult high school graduate has been placed as high as 25,000 words. The literate college graduate who reads a few books a year knows 35,000 or more.
